(The following proceedings were had by telephone conference call.)

THE COURT: Would everybody please identify yourselves?

MR. BECKER: Good afternoon, Judge. Paul Becker.

MR. PETERS: And Pat Peters for George Frank
Sheppard, Judge. Good afternoon.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MS. HUNT: Susan Hunt on behalf of Earl Sheppard.

MS. FRANCO: Elena Franco is also here, Judge.

MR. BUNCH: Will Bunch on behalf of Darlene
Edwards. Good afternoon, Judge.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MR. OSGOOD: Judge, John Osgood on behalf of
Richard Brown.

MR. O'CONNOR: John O'Connor on behalf of Bryan
Sheppard. Good afternoon, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay. What I want to tell you all is that I want to have an oral argument on the objections to Judge Hays' report and recommendation on the statute of limitations issue. And I, the reason I got you on the phone wasn't to tell you that, but it was to talk about when we can do it and then to give you a list of cases that I want you

1 to, you all to be prepared to discuss when we have the
2 argument.

3 The options that I see for scheduling the argument
4 are first thing Monday morning with the panel just having to 5 wait a little longer than normal before we call them up to 6 the courtroom; sometime Monday afternoon or evening,
7 depending on when we finish with the work for the day on 8 selecting the jury on Monday; or postponing the jury panel
9 coming in until Wednesday and have the oral argument on 10 Monday afternoon. And I want to raise -- those are the 11 options that occur to me. Or could postpone the panel to 12 come Tuesday, and then do the argument on Monday afternoon.

13 But those are the options that occur to me, and I
14 wanted to run them by you all and see if any of you have any 15 comments.

16 MR. BECKER: Judge, Paul Becker. I would prefer to 17 do the argument either Monday morning or Monday afternoon.
18 Based upon the continuance granted last week, I have 19 witnesses scheduled for later that week. And so to rearrange
20 the jury selection, and I think it might cause great problems
21 for Sue Kneuen to reschedule the jury for another time.

22 THE COURT: I talked to Sue about it, and I know
23 what the problems are, and it's doable.

24 MR. BECKER: I think we can either delay the start
25 of a general voir dire or the general voir dire won't be so

1 lengthy that we wouldn't have more time available on the
2 13th, Monday.

3 THE COURT: Anybody else have any ideas?

4 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters. My
5 preference would be taking it up on Monday and having the 6 panel come in on Wednesday. We've got -- I think all of the 7 defense attorneys would agree, we're somewhat frantically
8 involved in tracking down witnesses and things of that sort
9 that I think has an impact on the way that we're going to be 10 picking the jury anyway, if nothing else, from a strategy
11 standpoint.

12 And being real candid with you, I'm certainly going
13 to be filing something and doing the oral argument. It's a
14 point I'm interested in, but I think it would be, being 15 candid, I think I could also use the additional two days to 16 have a better idea as to the types of jurors that I'm going
17 to be wanting as I continue to talk to more of the witnesses
18 and get more of the discovery that's being disclosed.

19 So, being candid, the more time the better, and I'd
20 rather have the jury come in on Wednesday.

21 MR. BUNCH: Will Bunch, Judge. Whatever suits you
22 and everybody else. It doesn't make any difference to me.

23 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt, and I would 24 join in with Pat Peters' request.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: This is John O'Connor. I'm kind of

1 with Will Bunch. One thing I wanted to bring to the Court's
2 attention. I didn't know if the Court had recent filings,
3 but filings have been made this week by Susan Hunt requesting
4 a reconsideration on the continuance request. The only
5 reason I bring that up -- and maybe you don't even want to 6 deal with that now. The only reason I bring that up is if 7 that's something that's going to be really considered by the 8 Court, having to recall the jurors and making all of those
9 calls to change it to Wednesday and maybe the Court
10 considering this motion and granting it, for example, then
11 she would have to call them all back again.

12 I didn't know if you wanted to deal with one
13 problem at a time, but this is something that's been filed
14 that maybe you don't know has been filed, and I'm just 15 bringing that to your attention.

16 THE COURT: No, I didn't know it had been filed.

17 MS. HUNT: It was filed on Monday, Judge.

18 THE COURT: I wasn't aware of that. I was aware of 19 the first request to continue, and it was my decision to put 20 off the beginning of the trial until Tuesday, the 21st.

21 LAW CLERK AIZENBERG: Judge, it's Gabi. I just got 22 the motion now, about a minute before we spoke.

23 THE COURT: Okay. If you all want me to -- if you
24 all want me to consider things that you file, I'd urge you to 25 deliver a copy to my office so that we'll know they've been

1 filed.

2 MS. FRANCO: Judge, this is Elena Franco. I spoke
3 with Judge Hays and hand-delivered a copy to chambers on
4 Monday and was told that that was, that it would come, it
5 would go to her attention. Now, I understand she's gone,
6 too. But we will certainly take anything further to your 7 chambers also.

8 THE COURT: Right. I think it would be helpful to 9 get it to me, too, because I think then, at least in this
10 period from now on, I need to be aware of whites going on, as 11 much as she does. I'm not saying leave her out, I'm just 12 saying let us both know.

13 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters. Joining in 14 on that point, I think that if the Court were to hear some 15 arguments on the motion to reconsider, it would be 16 persuasive. And in addition to that, all the defense
17 attorneys are then advised within the last, my call came at 18 2:30 our time, that we have an additional 184 pages of 19 discovery. And the witness list that Judge Hays has, it was 20 my interpretation that Judge Hays had directed that a witness
21 list with addresses be provided at the close of business last
22 Friday, that that is now available, as well.

23 My belief is that when I get the witness list and 24 when I get the additional pages of discovery that that 25 probably is going to be something that I'll be wanting to

1 bring to the Court's attention in support of the motion to
 2 reconsider the motion to continue. And so, going along with
 3 what Mr. O'Connor said, our belief is that if we have an 4 opportunity to advise the Court as to what's going on and our 5 situation, that there's a likelihood that you'd see fit to 6 grant a continuance of more than the two days that we're 7 talking about by delaying the start of the trial until that 8 next Tuesday.

9 MR. BECKER: If I may, Judge the most recent
 10 discovery, the defense attorneys had requested that we update
 11 criminal records on certain individuals. We are doing that.
 12 It is being provided, and we'll continue to do that as I get 13 updated criminal records on people that I was requested to 14 do. I'm going to continue to provide it to them. I hope
 15 that's not the basis for further continuance requests.

16 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt. And in the 17 motion, it outlines one of -- the most recent basis for the 18 continuance request is the Government's continued failure to 19 abide by the Court orders. They were ordered in court on 20 Friday to produce the addresses. They didn't do it. I
 21 understand they're now doing it today. We've been deprived
 22 of all that time.

23 MR. BECKER: Well, as I understand it from my 24 witnesses, there's been people out visiting my witnesses on 25 behalf of defense attorneys, which is certainly what they're

1 entitled to do, but they seem to be able to go ahead -- the
 2 original police reports weren't redacted so that any
 3 addresses that are on the police or ATF reports are there. I
 4 mean, again, we've discussed this matter, providing the 5 witness list with the addresses. I told you it was going to 6 take some time to put together. It's put together and it's 7 available.

8 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters. And as you
 9 know, I'm new to this, but what Susan Hunt has just said, I'm
 10 unclear about that. The court ordered something to be done.
 11 Judge Hays ordered something to be done, and the response
 12 from the government is, well, you could get it another way.

13 MR. BECKER: Again, we could get the transcript,
 14 but I believe it was clearly understood, and I said on the 15 record when the judge addressed this issue, when the 16 magistrate addressed this issue, is that it literally was not 17 physically able to get done on Friday afternoon, and we will
 18 be getting it done as soon this week as possible.

19 MR. BUNCH: Judge, it seems to me, and I apologize
 20 ahead of time if this is inappropriate, but these matters are 21 going to have to be heard by you on Monday, I think. I don't
 22 think, you don't even have the motion. I can't see you
 23 ruling it here. And this is an argument that needs to be 24 made in front of you.

25 I don't want a continuance, I'll be ready for

1 trial. That's neither here nor there. I'm just saying that
2 I think the Court ought to have the benefit of Miss Hunt's
3 motion and, frankly, that that matter ought to be heard.

4 THE COURT: Well, I intend to hear the matter, but 5 if it was presented to Judge Hays, it seems to me that she
6 ought to take it up first. But I don't have any -- I mean, I
7 don't want to be intruding in something that is being handled
8 by another judge. But my basic belief is that if a party's
9 ordered to do something, they'd better do it at the time
10 they're ordered to do it. And if they've got an excuse,
11 they'd better present that to the judge and get a continuance
12 or an extension of the time rather than just not do it. I
13 don't care what the excuse is.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, one of the practical
15 problems that this has raised is that we do have the witness
16 addresses in the files, and I've been out talking to people,
17 and some of the addresses are good and some of them aren't.

18 And I'm not complaining so much about that as I
19 would complain about the fact that when we went to see Judge
20 Hays on Friday of last week, it was my understanding that the 21 government was at least going to tell the judge who they 22 probably were going to call.

23 MR. BUNCH: That's my concern.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: So that we would know who was going
25 to be called and that the judge and you would know how long

1 the trial was going to last. And it was clear from Mr.
 2 Becker's -- in court he had some kind of a legal pad that it
 3 appeared that he had pretty much had his case mapped out, as
 4 I know he would in preparing it.
 5 So we have a list of witnesses that's five pages
 6 long, of which I don't know if he's going to call them. I
 7 doubt it. That's the problem. Not only do we not have the 8 addresses, but I don't know which ones of these to go talk to 9 or not to go talk to. If I really knew who was going to be 10 lotted and the list was really pared down to who was really 11 going to be there, obviously, we could effectively do our 12 work. That's just a practical part of this.

13 MR. PETERS: For the Court's benefit, the witness
 14 list that we're talking about, and I could be off one, two,
 15 or three names, we're talking about 168 people that are on 16 this witness list.

17 THE COURT: Well, Paul, why not give them the 18 people you're going to call?

19 MR. BECKER: Because I believe, Judge, that as of 20 today, I've told them for quite some time it's going to be 21 approximately 115, 117 witnesses. And I think based upon the 22 Jencks material, a statement of every one of those witnesses
 23 -- I mean, they can figure out which witnesses that pertain
 24 to their clients. I mean, there are 24 witnesses who say
 25 Richard Brown told me he did this. And there are

1 approximately seven or eight who say Skip Sheppard told me
2 that he did this.

3 And so if you look through the discovery that
4 they've been provided -- I mean, and the other defendants are 5 somewhere in between in terms of the number of witnesses they
6 admitted this to. If you look through that -- I mean, I'm
7 not the defense here. I've never been a defense attorney,
8 but it seems to me that that's where I would look as to the 9 witnesses that form the key part of the Government's case.

10 THE COURT: Paul, did I ask you for all of that? I
11 just asked you why you don't give them the names of the 12 people you're going to call.

13 MR. BECKER: The answer is I think they can figure
14 it out themselves.

15 THE COURT: Well, they may be able to. And I'll 16 accept that that they could figure it out or figure out part
17 of it. Why don't you give it to them?

18 I mean, and I even have another suggestion, which 19 may be even more to the point, why not give them the first
20 week's witnesses? And then -- so if it's too much of a
21 burden to give them the second week's witnesses right now,
22 you can give them the second week's witnesses by Friday,
23 say.

24 I've had cases that -- I mean, it's not unusual for 25 your office to furnish an order of proof at about this time

1 before trial where you lay out the people that are going to
2 be called, some summary of what they're going to say or what
3 you believe they're going to say, and the order in which 4 you are going to call them, all of which is very helpful to,
5 not only to me in figuring out how to plan the trial
6 schedule, but also it's helpful to the defendants.

7 MR. BECKER: Well, Judge, I agree. It's sort of 8 something in a normal case that we would do, I would do or 9 anybody else would do. This isn't a normal case.

10 THE COURT: And what's abnormal about it?

11 MR. BECKER: Six people are dead because of what 12 these defendants are charged with, six firemen.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, I understand that's what the case
14 is about, but what's that have to do with whether you do
15 this? I mean, that's the issue that the jury is going to 16 have to decide is who, if any, of these folks are 17 responsible. But why not give it to them? I mean, we've got 18 to try to the case. I mean, the fact that six people are 19 dead is a terrible tragedy, but, still, the case has got to 20 be tried.

21 MR. BECKER: I agree, Judge, but I don't see why I
22 should have to give them a road map of my case prior to the 23 trial. I see no reason to make their life easier.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, in just addressing that from 25 my standpoint, today I delivered my witness list and exhibit

1 list, and who those witnesses are and what they're going to
2 say are known and available.

3 I think the Court's practical approach to this,
4 since the government has taken this as a closed file case -
5 which they have every right to do, I'm not arguing with Mr.
6 Becker's way that he's done his case -- but the practical
7 reality of it is that we didn't get the stuff until 20 days
8 ago. And now trying to -- it took seven days to just 9 assimilate it, for me, my son, an investigator, and my 10 paralegal, just to put it all where I could work with it.
11 Now that I can work with it, you know, I'm doing the work,
12 but it's taking time.

13 And if we -- practically, if we had this
14 information, I wouldn't be requesting a continuance. And I
15 agree with Mr. Becker in some sense, yeah, I can see some of 16 the people he's definitely going to call, and I think he
17 makes a valid point on that. But it just would be simpler
18 for everyone and with constrained time, because we're being 19 paid by the Court to do all of these things, it just makes 20 sense for the orderly presentation of this case. Because 21 we're going to be forced, at least I think on behalf of my 22 client, to ask for more time during the trial to talk to 23 these people who I haven't had the opportunity to talk with.

24 So the practical reality of this thing is what 28 we're now having to deal with. So I think it makes great

1 sense to me that if we had the first week's witnesses or the
2 first two weeks and we could get them a week in advance, with
3 five good lawyers in this case who basically have the same
4 theory of defense, which is attacking the credibility of the 5 government's case, and we all basically have alibi defenses,
6 I think we can shoot through this and not have a problem. I
7 think everyone would agree with that. But I think we are 8 going to have a problem without it.

9 THE COURT: Well, the other side of the coin is, my 10 assessment of the matter has been, as you just said, that 11 there are five defendants with five lawyers, or more, lawyers
12 involved, and it seems to me that the work can be divided up
13 and can be analyzed and there can be a cooperative effort to 14 a certain extent by the defendants, which reduces the load on 15 any one defendant.

16 But all of that is, I mean, that's not news to any
17 of you. What I'm a little uneasy about, I could, I think I
18 could decide this matter pretty quickly, but I'm reluctant to 19 intrude on Judge Hays' -- this matter is in front of Judge
20 Hays, I think it ought to be decided by her first.

21 LAW CLERK BLISS: Judge, this is Suzanne Bliss, I'm 22 Judge Hays' law clerk. I received the motion for a
23 continuance this morning through the clerk's office. If a
24 hand delivery was made, I didn't see it. I've talked to 25 Judge Hays this morning, told her it was filed, but she

1 hasn't yet received a copy of it to look at. I basically
2 just went through the points that I saw. So she at least
3 knows one has been filed, but she has not yet seen the 4 document.

5 THE COURT: Well, I'm really puzzled, frankly, if 6 time is of the essence why something filed Monday doesn't get 7 called to anybody's attention until Wednesday. I know the 8 clerk's office's problem, or at least I've had to wrestle
9 with it before, why it takes them two days to get it to us,
10 or a day, depending on what time on Monday it was filed, is 11 another issue.

12 But I just urge you all -- if things were really as 13 tight as you say they are, it seems to me it's just 14 absolutely imperative that you make certain that you get 15 copies of these things to the judge that you want to consider
16 it and not just deposit them in the clerk's office and hope
17 that they'll finally find their way there. This is not a
18 matter of -- at least this point where it seems to me a delay
19 of this kind sort of argues against the imperativeness of the 20 relief requested. If you can't get them to the judge, it
21 doesn't sound very important.

22 But I'm going to leave it to Judge Hays. It's 23 pending in front of her. It's appropriately pending in front
24 of her, but I'm -- I mean, when I get, when and if I get 25 involved in it, I hope the remarks I made so far today give

1 you some idea of what may happen because I'm interested in
2 this case proceeding as smoothly and as fairly as possible,
3 to all sides.

4 And I'm not suggesting that, therefore, the
5 government has to do something that would irretrievably harm
6 their case if the law doesn't require that they do it. On 7 the other hand, my patience for persistent and consistent
8 legitimate requests for delay during the trial is going to 9 wear pretty thin too.

10 So we've got to, folks, we've got a case to try
11 here. We could quit -- it seems to me you can quit doing the 12 posturing and get on with the matter of trying this case.
13 And that applies to all of you, Paul included.

14 MR. BUNCH: Are you going to give us those 15 citations, Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Yeah, I am. Let's decide the -- I
17 mean, in view of this matter of the request for a
18 continuance, which I have no idea what the outcome of it's 19 going to be. But in view of it, it needs to be resolved
20 forthwith and immediately. I mean, this is 24 hours too late
21 for it. It should have been done yesterday. And we need to 22 get that motion to Judge Hays, get the government's 23 opposition, if there is any, get it delivered to Judge Hays
24 forthwith, and give Judge Hays a chance to decide it. And 25 then if you need me, you can get ahold of me.

1 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt. In addition
2 to this continuance, I filed a motion on behalf of Darlene
3 Edwards, Earl Sheppard, and Bryan Sheppard for severance way
4 back in July or August. I filed supplemental suggestions
5 yesterday. That's never been ruled on, which I don't have 6 the 10 days if it's adverse to me to appeal it to you at this
7 point.

8 THE COURT: Well, there's -- I have no -- Susan, I
9 don't know about that. I mean, you need to take that up, if
10 Judge Hays' clerk is there, I guess she is, she can take a 11 look at that. I assume that's where it is. Unless we've got
12 it?

13 LAW CLERK BLISS: I've got it, we're working on it,
14 and Judge Hays will sign it on Monday.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. HUNT: Does she have the supplemental that was 17 filed yesterday also?

18 LAW CLERK BLISS: I got a copy of that, Susan. She 19 hasn't yet seen that document either, but I did receive that.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Therefore, what I think we'll do
21 with this, I think the thing that makes the most sense under
22 the circumstances based on what I now know -- and I stress
23 that because, I mean, you all are talking about things that
24 I'm hearing for the first time. And based on what I now
25 know, we'll go ahead with the jury selection on Monday, we'll

1 take this matter up, this motion that I want to have argument
2 on on Monday afternoon when we finish with whatever we're
3 going to do on Monday, and in that time ['11 consider -

4 But by that time, this continuance matter should be
5 resolved. I mean, I -- and, therefore, what I just said is 6 contingent upon the request for a continuance being denied.
7 If it's granted, then, obviously, what I just said is going
8 to be, we're going to have to reassess and we'll have 9 undoubtedly more time to do it. So. Okay?

10 MR. BUNCH: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Now, the cases that I want you all to 12 look at -- and let me make a comment, first of all, on some 13 of the briefing. It's a waste of my time to read, and I
14 think it's a waste of everybody's time to have as much -- I
15 tend to, I don't want to be overly harsh with it, but as much
16 PR type stuff as was in defendants' joint motion filed back
17 in August. The second paragraph begins, "Defendants first 18 wish to make it abundantly clear that they're absolutely and 19 categorically innocent of the charge in this case." Then it
20 goes on to some other stuff.

21 We don't need that. I mean, I don't need to have 22 to wade through all of that. And the other parties don't 23 need to have to wade through all of that either. I mean,
24 they pled not guilty. That's -- they're presumed innocent,
25 but we don't need to put that in a brief that deals with

1 statute of limitations and unreasonable delay. So let's -

2 MR. OSGOOD: Judge, I wrote that, and the reason
3 that was there, quite candidly, was I didn't want the 4 newspaper coming along and saying we're trying to hide behind
5 a technicality.

6 THE COURT: I knew that. I figured that out.

7 MR. OSGOOD: My client was concerned, very
8 honestly, that if that were granted that he wouldn't be able 9 to establish his innocence. So that was the basis for that.
10 That wasn't done without some thought.

11 THE COURT: I knew it had some thought behind it.
12 But on the other hand, when you're wading through a bunch of 13 stuff and to spend a couple of pages talking about that -- I
14 mean, I knew why you did it, John. I mean, I figured that 15 out. I just -- if you have to do it, do it in one
16 paragraph.

17 MR. OSGOOD: I've done it now, so -

18 THE COURT: Okay. Here are the cases. The first
19 one is a decision of the Supreme Court of Florida. I'm only 20 going to give you the citation and the first name rather than 21 go through the whole -- the first name in the caption is 22 Renaldo Reino, R-E-I-N-O, 352 So.2d 883.

23 The next are companion cases out of the Eighth
24 Circuit. Coon, C-O-O-N, is the first-named party. It's Coon
25 I and II. Coon I is at 360 F.2d 550. Coon II is 411 F.2d

1 422.

2 Next one is U.S.A. -- well, Weddell, W-E-D-D-E-L-L,
3 Weddell is the named party other than the United States. And
4 that's at 567 F.2d 767.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Was that 67, Judge? 67 was the 6 volume?

7 THE COURT: The volume was 567. The next one is 8 Watson. That's the second-named party. It's U.S.A. vs.
9 Watson, 496 F.2d 1125, a decision of the Fourth Circuit Court
10 of Appeals.

11 The next is U.S. vs. Kennedy, decision of the Ninth
12 Circuit Court of Appeals, 618 F.2d 557. And the last one is 13 one you're familiar with, United States vs. Manning,
14 M-A-N-N-I-N-G, 56 F.3d 1188.

15 MR. PETERS: Excuse me, Judge, 56 F.3d and then?

16 THE COURT: 1188. Okay.

17 MR. BUNCH: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: And I mean, those cases may well lead
19 you -- oh, and here is another one. United States vs.
20 McNally, M-C N-A-L-L-Y, 485 F.2d 398.

21 Now, these cases are going to expand, I think, the 22 consideration of this point, and expand in the sense that it
23 appears to be additional authority to what's presently been 24 considered in what I've seen. So some of them are familiar
25 to you, I'm sure.

1 But I'd like to have you be prepared to talk about
2 them and their impact on, if any, on the statute of 3 limitations question. I also want you to take a look at and 4 be prepared to talk about the issue that, and at least the 5 statement, the admission that Paul Becker took that the 6 government believes that the death penalty revision act of 7 1994 or whatever the proper name of it is, is really
8 retroactive and that it, but for a Department of Justice
9 policy, the death penalty could have been requested in this
10 case, using the procedures set forth in the new federal death
11 penalty act. So that's a second issue that I'd like to have 12 you take a look at. Okay?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, John O'Connor. Mr.
14 Becker gave -- I got his witness list. It's just been handed
15 to me, and I was going through it, and basically there's 16 about 160 witnesses, of which about 60 of them still say
17 address unknown, and 18 of them incarcerated with no address
18 of where they are. That's somewhat understandable.

19 But, again, that's 80, 78 people with no
20 information on them. The government says that they, they 21 don't have known addresses on them.

22 Just for example, this Kathy Marburger, they state
23 they don't know where she's at. And I found her yesterday
24 myself, and she called Mr. Becker, at least I was told that 25 she called him after I talked with her.

1 I don't know if these names are not being given for
2 their protection or whatever, maybe there's a legitimate
3 reason. I'm listed in the police computer as to where my 4 address is, and I don't have any criminal record but my
5 address is in there. I can't believe of these 68 people or 6 sixty some that says address unknown that that can be a fact.

7 THE COURT: Paul?

8 MR. BECKER: Judge, I've been in the courthouse all
9 day, and we'll go through each individual that doesn't have a
10 listed address. I believe for the most part we have 11 addresses listed for the people we either had an address for 12 before or that we've talked to in the last two weeks
13 preparing for trial.

14 Miss Marburger called in yesterday and talked to my 15 paralegal. I don't know if she left an address. I'm sure,
16 you know, John knows where to find her. He was outside her
17 door yesterday. I'm sure her address was in the reports.
18 But, again, this is something that we'll address
19 immediately. I think if -- there's always going to be one
20 instance that they can point out and say, my goodness, they
21 don't have the address. But if we all would just either open
22 up the reports that have been provided to all parties or open
23 up the phone book, I think perhaps we can make more
24 progress.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, if I could just speak to

1 that, one of the things I do is go out and try to talk to
2 people. And I have -- and Mr. Becker is right in the sense
3 and wrong in a sense. Is that some of the addresses are good
4 and some of them are not good, and they're -- some of these
5 people were interviewed back in 1989. And I know police
6 computer prints out when people get tickets, updates their 7 address and all of that kind of stuff to give current
8 addresses. But there's 60, I counted 60 people that say
9 address unknown. That cannot be. Almost all of these people
10 have criminal records to start with, so I know they're in the 11 computer. And the ones that are incarcerated, that makes 12 sense not saying where they're at maybe for their 13 protection.

14 But there cannot be 60 that are unknown. Now we've 15 got about the same witness list we had last week with a few
16 more addresses on it. And to go out and check these, he's 17 right, I can open the file. But I can tell you I was out
18 yesterday, I went to ten addresses that were no good, and we
19 didn't find the people. How I found Marburger was I found
20 her daughter, and she told me where she was living, and then
21 we went down there.

22 So I can tell you that I have looked at some of 23 these addresses. Some of them are good, but some of them are 24 not. So I'm spending four hours yesterday going to addresses
25 with a court reporter that are no good. So where I could

1 have been if I had a real address -- I'm sure if you ran some
 2 of these through a police computer right now, they would give
 3 a pretty current address. I don't know if they're allowed to 4 do that for purposes of witness lists, I'm not sure of that.
 5 But this says enclosed is government's list containing all
 6 known addresses. And I just cannot believe there's been a
 7 good faith basis for these last-known addresses. With the 8 use of the police computer, there would be an address versus 9 address unknown.

10 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt. In addition
 11 to that, the government filed a motion for protective order
 12 to not disclose two witnesses, which Judge Hays denied Friday
 13 in court, ordered him to produce those witnesses. He said he 14 was going to appeal it to you. We have not, No. 1, seen any 15 appeal filed, nor do we have those names.

16 MR. BECKER: That was filed on Monday and sent to 17 Miss Hunt's office, and a copy was delivered to chambers.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I got a copy of that motion.

19 MR. BUNCH: I have it too.

20 MS. HUNT: I have not received it.

21 THE COURT: You all, in the modern age, you all are 22 really having communication problems, aren't you? I mean,
 23 this is 1997, folks, and you all are having all of these 24 problems communicating with each other.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, this is John O'Connor.

1 I think what's gone on here, everyone is advocating their
2 position to the best of their ability. I'm doing it, Mr.
3 Becker is doing it, I respect him for it.

4 I just think we've reached the point -- and like he
5 said a minute ago, I don't think I have to give them to them
6 because that's their job. I don't mind him taking that 7 position. Maybe I would take that position, too, if I was 8 the prosecutor and had six people who were dead. I see where 9 he's coming from.

10 But the practical reality is we've got to try this
11 case, and we've got to try to go out and try to interview
12 these people on behalf of our clients so that we're not 13 ineffective, so he's not trying this case again because I'm 14 going to have to say, no, I didn't get to talk to these 15 people because he told us address unknown. If he was on the 16 stand later in one of these hearings, I imagine they could 17 make him look pretty foolish by saying, well, wait a minute,
18 did you run the police computer to get these addresses so you
19 could get it to these people?

20 I mean, we're all trying to advocate our positions
21 to the best of our ability. He's doing it, we're doing it.
22 But we need a referee, which is you or Judge Hays, to say,
23 all right, here is the way the rules are going to be and here
24 is what you do.

25 Because I think the practical reality is that

1 you're going to visit us next week either after Judge Hays
2 either rules against us and we're going to be back saying we
3 want the continuance and giving pretty good reasons why. Mr.
4 Becker is probably going to have good reasons why we
5 shouldn't have one. But we're still going to have to deal
6 with this case. And I think we need a referee to say this is
7 the way it's going to be and let us run with it, whatever it

9 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters. Echoing
10 what John said, the defense is put in a position of we don't 11 get something that we think we're entitled to, we file the 12 motion, we have a hearing and the judge says, here is what
13 you're supposed to do, government. You're supposed to do
14 Brady on this date, you're supposed to give all discovery of 15 Jencks Act on this date. You're supposed to give your 16 witness list on this date.
17 And the judge is, we have made the judge aware that 18 these things aren't happening. And so we're in an awkward
19 situation of we have advised Judge Hays that we didn't get a
20 witness list, we didn't get some of the Brady material, and 21 we're in a position now of, as you have heard in this
22 conversation, it's not denied that a witness list was ordered
23 by the omnibus hearing, Judge, for 10 days prior to trial,
24 and the witness list should contain witnesses and addresses.
25 And Friday, 10 days before the hearing, that wasn't

1 done. And attorneys are now getting those witness lists that
2 were ordered at the omnibus hearing, and we have sixty some
3 names without addresses.

4 I guess my question is procedurally, what do I
5 file? What do I file to say, Judge, what you ordered wasn't
6 done and you've ordered them to do it again, and it wasn't
7 done when, at least in the view of the defense attorneys, the 8 Court has been apprised of that. At Friday's hearing, Judge
9 Hays knew that the government had not provided addresses.
10 What do I file?

11 THE COURT: Well, I don't know, but you see, my 12 problem is -- I mean, the thing is, Judge Hays is, I mean,
13 she's the one that ordered this stuff to be done. And if 14 it's not being done, she's the one at the first level that 15 ought to hear the matter, determine what an appropriate
16 resolution is. If a sanction is appropriate, she ought to 17 impose a sanction.

18 But whatever is -- I mean, this is consistent with 19 what I have heard for weeks about this case is that for some 20 reason nobody seems to be able to do what they're supposed to 21 do at the time they're told to do it. And, you know, once
22 she's decided it, if somebody wants to bring it up with me,
23 you don't need to file anything in writing, call Gabi and 24 tell him you need to talk to me, we'll set up a telephone
25 conference, and I'll do it. But in fairness, she should have

1 the first opportunity to decide it. But you all need to get
2 it in front of her.

3 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters again.
4 Because we were so close to trial and there's this -- on 5 three of the issues, we were, as defense and for the 6 government, technically we're supposed to wait for the 7 magistrates recommendation and all of that, and we're
8 running close to time.

9 And at the close of the hearing, it was my
10 understanding, and I could be wrong, and the other attorneys
11 will correct me if I'm wrong, but the way that I thought it
12 had been left on witnesses or objections to her overruling
13 the continuance, and I forget what the third one is, I
14 apologize. But she said, "Judge Bartlett and I are going to 15 be out of town, and thatch something that you will be taking 16 up with Judge Bartlett on Monday."

17 And so that was -- I didn't feel like I should file
18 an objection to the yet-to-be-written recommendation denying 19 the continuance because I was under the impression that it
20 would be something that would be taken up on the 13th. So I
21 apologize if I misunderstood that.

22 THE COURT: Well, again, Pat, I don't know whether
23 you misunderstood it or understood it correctly, I don't
24 know. But all I'm saying is I want the continuance matter
25 resolved immediately because I don't want to bring these

1 folks in, I don't want to disrupt this panels life, 105
2 people, bring them in here, if this case is going to be
3 continued for a substantial length of time. I mean, it's
4 just not fair to them. And I want to do it, I want to get it
5 resolved immediately.

6 Now, if Judge Hays is not available, I'll take the 7 matter, I'll decide it. But in fairness, she ought to have 8 the first crack at it because she's the one that's been 9 handling these things up to now.

10 So that's where I am. Is Judge Hays available to 11 consider this new continuance request?

12 LAW CLERK BLISS: I spoke to her today, Judge. She 13 was -- like I said, she hasn't seen it. I'm going to fax it
14 to her tonight. She did tell me she would be at her hotel
15 all day tomorrow, so I would think she could set something up
16 tomorrow.

17 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt. Is there any 18 way we could get any kind of hearing on this motion prior to 19 the decision?

20 THE COURT: A hearing? You mean -

21 MS. HUNT: A telephone conference with Judge Hays.

22 THE COURT: Rather than a telephone conference with 23 Judge Hays, or does the hearing include a conference with 24 Judge Hays?

25 MS. HUNT: Either a hearing or a telephone

1 conference.

2 THE COURT: I don't know. If you request it, I
3 don't know what Judge Hays will do. I mean, I would assume
4 if you request it right now, maybe something can be arranged
5 for tomorrow morning. And then as soon thereafter as 6 possible, she could let you all know what her position is on
7 it. And then if you are in disagreement with it, you can set
8 up something with me, and I'll be glad to consider it.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, when do you have to let the 10 jury person know what we're going to do with the jury next
11 week? When does she have to have her information?

12 THE COURT: An hour from now. Well, actually it
13 may be too late right now. But I mean -- the procedure I
14 talked with her about this morning, which, in order to be
15 able to present various options to you all involved her
16 sending out letters today, or maybe tomorrow would be in 17 time. I'm not too clear about that. And then following up
18 with telephone calls for all hundred and probably four people
19 that are left. One was excused, and I don't know the 20 identity of the person, by Judge Whipple because she's 21 serving on a jury in Jackson County right now.

22 LAW CLERK AIZENBERG: I believe her name is 23 Kathleen Johnson. I'll get the number.

24 THE COURT: We're down to 104, I guess, now. But 25 anyway, the procedure in order to be sure and interrupt these

1 people is going to be a letter followed by a telephone call
2 if that is determined to be the option. So preparing 104
3 letters, making 104 calls, obviously, things need to be
4 decided pretty quickly.

5 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, jumping in again, this is 6 Pat Peters. I think from the discussion that we've had, at 7 least in the minds of those of us on this end of the phone,
8 there are substantial issues that have yet to be resolved,
9 and it seems to me that having the jurors come in on 10 Wednesday at least gives us that added margin of not
11 disrupting them on Monday when issues that on the one hand
12 what you're asking us to brief could be case dispositive and,
13 on the other hand, issues to be taken up with Judge Hays, at 14 the earliest, tomorrow would be decisive on whether or not 15 there would be a continuance.

16 So, again, I make my suggestion that if letters
17 have to go out, rather than run the risk of having them all
18 show up Monday and these issues not having been resolved,
19 that we do it on Wednesday, Judge, for the sake of the jurors
20 not being disrupted.

21 THE COURT: Well, what is the -- I mean, one thing
22 that would be important to me if I were deciding it is what
23 is the, how much time do you think is going to be necessary
24 for individual voir dire?

25 MR. PETERS: This is Pat Peters. Mr. Becker and I

1 talked, and I think among the defense attorneys, we think
2 that the individual voir dire is going to go very fast.
3 We've narrowed it down to publicity. I think there will be
4 very few people other than that. Mr. Becker was given a
5 combined list, and I think it's everybody's opinion that both
6 general and individual will be done in two days and, kind of 7 allowing slop room, into two and a half days. Is that fairly
8 accurate, Paul?

9 MR. BECKER: I believe that's right. There's -
10 Miss Franco added some names on Tuesday after the list was 11 submitted to Judge Hays on Monday. And I think with those 12 additions, we have about 40 individual voir dire. And Judge
13 Hays was going to schedule 15 minutes per person and some 20
14 minutes. But overall, it looks like it's doable in one day,
15 the individual voir dire. The general voir dire, I frankly
16 think we can get done on Monday morning.

17 LAW CLERK BLISS: Judge, this is Susan Bliss again
18 from Judge Hays' chambers. And I've been down to speak with 19 Sue Kneuen right before this meeting. We're now down to so
20 jurors that require individual voir dire. We were going to 21 schedule approximately 20 minutes per juror to give time to 22 make objections and whatever. So that would run roughly two 23 and a half days for the individual.

24 THE COURT: If we bring the jury in -- the problem
25 now, if we bring the jury in on Wednesday, then we're not

1 going to finish the jury selection until we go over the
2 three-day weekend into the next week.

3 LAW CLERK BLISS: If the general were done in the 4 morning, and I'm not sure how much time, we could start the 8 individual Wednesday afternoon, and then it should be done by 6 Friday afternoon.

7 MR. PETERS: Judge, this is Pat Peters again. And 8 I've done, as you have, I've done quite a few of the 9 individual voir dires. Publicity, unlike death
10 qualification, and Mr. Becker and I have talked, I think it's 11 going to go, it's going to go very fast. We've listed people
12 who have read about it, and it's going to be -- on a lot of 13 these people, I honestly think it's going to be a follow-up
14 of can you be fair and impartial.

15 And Mr. Becker and I have talked about that. If 16 the judge is scheduling longer periods, we'll work with that 17 schedule. But this is a case everybody has read about. We 18 expected lots of people to say that, but I think we're going
19 to find that there are very few people who are going to say
20 the "I don't know" or "I'm not sure, question that requires
21 any type of follow-up. And I think that's why the defense
22 attorneys and Mr. Becker believe that the individual
23 questioning is not going to be like a death qualification,
24 but basically what you would ask in a general voir dire, but 28 don't for fear of the three, four, five people who are going

1 to say, yeah, I know who did it.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: This is John O'Connor, Judge. I'm
3 going to give you two case scenarios. Let's say, for 4 example, the case was going to be continued three weeks, for 5 example. Would you still want to get the jury picked and 6 then have the jury selected and sent home, knowing that 7 they're going to come back in three weeks? Or would you change your whole plan as it related to that aspect of jury
9 selection? Would you have them come in in three weeks?

10 And the only reason I say that is if the motion is 11 going to be granted, we may be, you know, not going to have 12 the jury in. Or are you going to have them in anyway, and 13 then if we get them picked, you'd send them home for three 14 weeks?

15 THE COURT: I haven't thought about it. I mean, I
16 haven't thought about it because I'm dedicated right now to 17 starting the trial on the 21st of January. So I really
18 hadn't thought about what I would do if I -- I mean, I
19 thought we'd crossed the continuance bridge when we dealt
20 with it last week or whenever it was, and Judge Hays and I
21 decided what the schedule would be.

22 But I expected everybody to do what they were 23 ordered to do, and that's, you know, if I find they didn't,
24 they -- I mean, then this is a good example of the disruption
25 that not doing what people are told to do causes. And we're

1 talking about 104 people, folks, whose lives we're
2 disrupting. And not that I'm saying this isn't for a good
3 cause, but it's not for, it's not something that we should be
4 cavalier about and think that we can just intrude on their
5 lives just for the fun of it.

6 And that is why I wanted to, that's why I dealt
7 with, I thought I dealt with the continuance matter last
8 week. As far as I'm concerned, it's dealt with. I mean,
9 it's finished.

10 MS. HUNT: Judge, this is Susan Hunt. I know you
11 have not had an opportunity to read this motion to reconsider
12 the continuance motion, but it does deal with three bases for 13 continuance, and those three things are three court orders
14 the government has totally ignored.

15 THE COURT: Well, if the government has ignored
16 court orders and is causing this problem, then there's,
17 something has got to happen. And I don't know what it's 18 going to be, but something is going to have to happen because 19 this is -- I mean, too much thought, too much effort, too
20 much time has gone into planning this case. And if it's 21 being, if it's being handled in a manner inconsistent with 22 the way it should be handled and the way I am pretty clear
23 it's been communicated to you all it would be handled, then 24 something is going to have to happen. And I have not the 25 foggiest idea of whether anything should happen and,

1 furthermore, I don't have the foggiest idea of what will
2 happen if I determine somebody has not done what they were
3 supposed to.

4 But if there's one thing that I can communicate to 5 you all, and you'd better get doing, is if you're ordered to 6 do something, you'd better do it. And if you can't do it,
7 you go to the judge who ordered you to do it and say, Judge,
8 I can't do it, will you give me more time to do it? But the 9 unacceptable alternative is just not to do it. And that 10 applies to all of you.

11 But that seems to have been the history of this
12 case, I mean, from what I hear. So you all -- right now, I
13 mean, I wish I were free to deal with some of these things
14 because I think we could make some substantial headway, but I
15 want Judge Hays to deal with them. And if Judge Hays can't 16 deal with them tomorrow morning, then I want to hear from you
17 all tomorrow afternoon, and I'll take care of them. Okay?

18 MR. BUNCH: Yes.

19 MS. FRANCO: Judge, before we leave, I commented to 20 you that I had dropped off a copy of that at chambers when we 21 first started the conversation, and I apologize. I looked 22 through my documents that are file-stamped, and what happened
23 is Monday we were anticipating receiving the addresses with 24 the witness list. I spoke with Mr. Becker in the morning,
25 and he said we should not be expecting it on Monday.

1 We went ahead and drafted that motion on Monday,
2 and by the time I got down to the courthouse, I had to leave
3 it with the marshals. I was confused because yesterday I
4 delivered copies to chambers on the other motions that we filed.

6 So in fairness to Judge Hays, she had not received
7 that, and I gave you some misinformation. We should have 8 faxed it and told them it was coming, but, frankly, we've 9 been shaking our tails so long and so feverishly that it
10 escaped us, frankly.

11 So my apologies for that because I see that that's 12 definitely caused more of an inconvenience now.

13 MR. PETERS: Judge, Pat Peters. Procedurally, with 14 the Court's permission, I know we always file stuff with the 15 court. We filed some things with the clerks office, and my 16 investigator should have hand-delivered, for example, our 17 witness list to your clerk. If he didn't, I'm going to shoot
18 him. I didn't say shoot him.

19 My understanding is at the close of Friday's 20 hearing is that any motion to reconsider the overruling, the 21 denying of the continuance would be taken by you. If we He 22 going to hear this, I would like to put together very 23 succinctly, and if you want me to, I'll limit it to a page,
24 of my reason for reconsideration.

25 Would it be acceptable to fax that to the Court so

1 that both Judge Hays and your clerk could have it, just so
2 that we don't run into this problem? If my investigator
3 hand-delivers it, fine. But it could be done tonight and I
4 could fax it at night, and whatever time, it gets there. But 5 I'm feeling awkward because I thought this was something that
6 I wouldn't be having to do until Monday. But there would be 7 specific things that I'd very briefly like to point out to 8 the Court as to why the motion should be reconsidered.

9 I guess my question is, is faxing something going
10 to be acceptable, provided we also make an effort, you know,
11 to hand-deliver it?

12 THE COURT: Pat, wait a minute. If you fax it, you
13 don't need to hand-deliver it. I mean, I don't -- this isn't 14 an effort on my part to see how unreasonable I can be. If 15 you fax it and then let my office know that you're faxing it
16 so we know to expect it so if there's some problem and we 17 don't get it, we know we haven't gotten something, that's all
18 you have to do.

19 MR. PETERS: I'll take that up with the clerk when 20 we're done because I'll have something tonight for him.

21 THE COURT: But any request to reconsider a ruling
22 on a continuance, it seems to me, has to go to Judge Hays. I
23 mean, I'm -- as far as I know, she's the one that entered the 24 order last week on the continuance, after she and I talked
25 about it. But she entered the order on that, so it's her

1 order you're asking her to reconsider.

2 Now, do you want me to, if for some reason you want
3 me to take a look at what she did last week, then that's
4 another matter. But if you're asking for reconsideration,
5 that's got to go to the judge who made the decision, Judge
6 Hays.

7 But my concern about this and this whole matter of 8 this continuance is it's not helping anybody, it seems to me,
9 to be, to have this issue of a continuance hanging over this
10 case. I mean, the case is either going next week or it's not 11 going next week. And as far as I'm concerned, it's going 12 next week with jury selection, the case starts on January the 13 21st, and that's the way it is. Now, what efforts to get 14 reconsideration, what efforts there are to bring up new 15 reasons for a continuance that have occurred since the 16 original motion was granted or denied is all -- I mean,
17 that's all that would bear, I guess, on reconsideration if 18 there's been further activity.

19 But, Paul, there's no faster way that I can think
20 of to end up with a case being continued than for you to not 21 do what you are ordered to do.

22 MR. BECKER: Judge, I believe I've absolutely done
23 what I've been ordered to do. The Brady information that was 24 produced after the due date of the Brady production was 25 materials I discovered. Brady is an ongoing obligation, and

1 if I find more tomorrow, I'm going to turn it over. I don't
2 think there's more out there, but this isn't a simple case
3 where there's one file. There are 900 files that I plowed
4 through prior to November 26th. But if I find something
5 tomorrow, I'm going to turn it over at the risk of, you know,
6 getting a continuance. You know, I have an ongoing
7 obligation to do that.

8 The materials they're continuing to get are 9 materials they've requested. Mr. Bunch in a timely motion
10 requested that I rerun one of the, all of the criminal 11 background records of the government's witnesses. We are 12 doing that. And in some cases, they contain more information
13 than has already been provided. But we're going ahead and 14 doing that.

15 THE COURT: But, Paul, what about these addresses?
16 I keep coming back to this business on the witnesses and the 17 addresses. Now, I mean, if you were ordered to do it 10 days
18 before trial, are you telling me that you have given the 19 defendants every address that you've got and that all the 65
20 people that are unknown, you don't have any idea how to get
21 ahold of them?

22 MR. BECKER: I'm going to personally go through 23 that after we get off the phone, Judge. I'm comfortable that 24 the majority of them we don't have addresses for them, which 25 may say a lot about their status as witnesses.

1 THE COURT: That's what I was thinking. If you
2 don't know how to get ahold of these people, I mean, if you 3 don't know how to get ahold of them, how can they be viable 4 witnesses? And it seems to me that right then and there
5 ought to be a way for you to at the very least, even if you 6 don't buy the suggestion I tentatively made earlier for you 7 to give the defendants two lists or a list divided in half, 8 the first group of people are probable witnesses, likely to 9 be witnesses, not guaranteed, but likely to be witnesses.

10 And here are the addresses for them, or here is how we get 11 ahold of them. If all you've got is a telephone number, this 12 is how we get ahold of them. We may not know their address,
13 but we do know a telephone number and this is how we contact
14 them.

15 Now, the next group are people that are right now,
16 not restricting you from changing your mind or developing it
17 later, but right now are perceived to be unlikely to be 18 actually called at trial, but are people who you're putting 19 on your witness list in conformance with the requirements so 20 that the defendants know, have notice that they could be 21 witnesses but you don't think, it's unlikely they're going to 22 be. And these folks would include, I assume, the people who 23 you don't either have an address or a telephone number for, 24 so if you don't know how to get ahold of them -- except the 25 people that are in prison. And that's another situation.

1 Now, why can't you do that for them? That doesn't
2 do much of anything.

3 MR. BECKER: I will do that. I'll work on it
4 tonight. It will be typed and available tomorrow morning.

5 THE COURT: I mean, that seems to me to be a
6 legitimate step to solving some of these problems and helping
7 the defendants now. And what I'd like to have you do, if one
8 of the defendants has a name or names that they're interested
9 in talking to but they don't know whether they're on the 10 likely-to-be-called list or the unlikely-to-be-called list,
11 if they call you and ask you, why don't you just tell them?

12 MR. BECKER: That's fine, Judge, I'll do that.

13 THE COURT: Say, hey, that name is probably going
14 to be on the unlikely list. But, you know, it seems to me
15 that way you help these folks out, and by helping them out,
16 it seems to me, you're not hurting yourself, you're really 17 helping yourself. Because you're, the case, if it goes to 18 trial, these folks are, the defendants are going to probably 19 be asking for time to talk to these people, and all it does 20 is disrupt the presentation of your case if I give them the 21 opportunity to do it, and so your case goes in herky-jerky
22 rather than smoothly, which isn't something that you want to 23 have happen. So the way to guard against that is to try to 24 help these folks a little bit at this point with giving them
28 information.

1 Is that, am I making sense, or are you going to
2 tell me that I'm intruding on prosecutorial prerogatives or
3 something?

4 MR. BECKER: You are doing that, Judge. But I will
8 agree fully to do that. I will make a list of the probable
6 witnesses with their addresses, and I will make a list of the 7 unlikely witnesses with the addresses and provide that. I
8 would believe that would be ready tomorrow morning for the 9 defense attorneys.

10 THE COURT: Okay. No later than noon tomorrow.

11 MR. BECKER: Fine.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. OSGOOD: Judge, I have one other question.

14 THE COURT: Yeah.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Are you aware that, or have you picked 16 up on the fact that I had requested in addition as part of 17 the statute of limitations argument, pre-indictment delay
18 phase, I had suggested that the burden shifted to the 19 government, citing a couple of speedy trial cases, quite 20 frankly, and was suggesting the Court should require the 21 government during the course of the trial as an alternative
22 to a hearing to both on the record and/or where necessary off
23 the record, I mean, out of the presence of the jury make an 24 affirmative showing of the absence of prejudice and that the 25 Court should make some kind of a preponderance ruling at the

1 close of this case, much like a Bell ruling? Are you aware
2 that we've taken that position?

3 THE COURT: Well, I remember reading that, yeah.

4 MR. OSGOOD: Well, I take it you're not interested
5 in hearing anything about that now.

6 THE COURT: No.

7 MR. OSGOOD: Okay.

8 THE COURT: I mean, John, I shouldn't say that.

9 MR. OSGOOD: I understand you've only got limited
10 time. I think that issue, obviously, the law is against me
11 on that. And it's a point that I wanted to make. It's a new 12 rule. And as long as it's preserved and you're aware of it,
13 that is fine.

14 THE COURT: I'm aware of it, and in the ranking of 15 things that I'm interested in, I'm most interested in at this 16 point the statute of limitations matter. And my thinking on 17 that had been that we're going to have limited time for the 18 argument, and that's why I got the cases to you all rather 19 than for me to spring these cases on you during the argument
20 and for you to say, either that you'd read them and didn't 21 have them there with you, or that you hadn't had a chance to 22 read them yet, I thought I'd give them to you to try to speed
23 it up.

24 But I didn't mention that other matter because I
25 believed it was not, at least in my mind, in the same

1 category as the statute of limitations matter.

2 MR. OSGOOD: And I agree. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

4 MR. BUNCH: Not from me.

5 MR. PETERS: Not from me.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't have anything else.

7 MS. HUNT: No, Your Honor.

8 (Phone conference concluded.)

11 Monday, January 13' 1997

13 (General voir dire examination was conducted; after 14 which the following proceedings were had in the courtroom in 15 the presence of the defendants, but out of the presence of 16 the jury panel:)

17 THE COURT: Okay. Now let's take up this motion.

18 MR. PETERS: Judge, excuse me. This is a quick
19 one. The Court's several times talked about counsel dividing
20 up workload. This is one where the counsel divided up
21 workload specifically for this purpose. The other counsel
22 and I have discussed, I'm prepared to argue the motion,
23 answer any questions. We've got witnesses to interview and 24 if -- we discussed it amongst ourselves -- some of the 25 attorneys may stay, but the other attorneys joining in the

1 motion will waive objections and whatever we need, but we've
2 got other things that we'd like to do. And for that reason,
3 everybody provided research to me, I wrote the motion,
4 everybody says, argue it. I think maybe one or two of the 8 other attorneys will stay, but they asked me to just say is 6 there a problem with the attorneys not involved with the 7 argument leaving.

8 THE COURT: Is the fear factor so great that they
9 have to put you forward to do that, or could they do it, do
10 you think? I mean -

11 MR. PETERS: You're shaking your head, Judge. I
12 thought you were going to yell at me.

13 THE COURT: There's no, you're not chained in 14 here. If any of you want to go, you know, you don't want to 15 stay around for this argument, just tell me and you're 16 excused.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I request to be excused.

18 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. O'Connor. Miss Franco, yes.

19 MS. HUNT: I'm requesting to be excused.

20 THE COURT: Miss Hunt, yes. Now, your clients are 21 okay with this, are they? I want to be sure the clients are 22 okay. They have their lawyers walk out and leave them. You
23 know, it's sort of an empty feeling to have your lawyer walk
24 out the door and leave you sitting in the courtroom. But if 25 they're okay with it, I'm all right. I mean, I just -- I

1 mean, this is your opportunity to tell me about this
2 particular motion. Anybody else who would like to go work on
3 investigation rather than sit here?

4 Okay. Now, the history of this matter, as you
5 know, is that the motion was filed, Judge Hays gave her
6 report and recommendation, there was an appeal from the 7 report and recommendation.

8 After Mr. Aizenberg and I have done some research,
9 it was my belief that we needed to bring to all of your 10 attention certain cases that we have found for the purpose of 11 giving you an opportunity to share your comments on those 12 cases as it relates to this motion. That's what this is is 13 an opportunity for you to tell me what your position is with 14 regard to this motion, in light of the cases I gave you or in 15 light of any other cases you found as a result of those 16 cases.

17 Proponents of a motion should probably go first, or 18 the proponents of the objection. So Mr. Peters, are you,
19 you're the, you say you're the elected representative?

20 MR. PETERS: That I am, Judge. And for purposes of 21 this, I'm assuming what we're really doing is almost like if 22 we were in front of the Court of Appeals where if you, if I'm 23 saying something that you have a question about or you
24 disagree with, I would appreciate it if you would interrupt
28 me as opposed to in a regular courtroom setting, post-trial

1 an attorney would say the judge wouldn't let him finish. I'm
2 specifically, if there's any objection, I'm waiving that for
3 all of this. We're viewing this as more like oral arguments
4 in front of the Court.

5 Beginning with, we appreciate the opportunity to 6 address the issue. There was a certain amount of irony in 7 the order of cases that were provided by the Court to counsel
8 because the order of the cases almost spelled out the 9 argument.

10 We began with the Florida case, which I don't know
11 how somebody found because we had not found it. We had 12 researched the issue -

13 THE COURT: See him sitting over there? Mr.
14 Izenberg.

15 MR. PETERS: I'm paying a compliment without 16 directing it that direction.

17 As you know, we're all appointed attorneys. We do
18 have Eighth Circuit -- Susan Hunt has Eighth Circuit
19 Westlaw. None of the rest of us have access to Westlaw, so
20 our searches are limited to the old manual style without 21 getting into the $150 a minute, or whatever Westlaw is.

22 But the Florida case, which is not cited by any 23 other court in any other jurisdiction in any other opinion,
24 according to Shepard's is, again, hardening back to law
25 school, is on all fours.

1 It's the most -- when I walked into the law school
2 and I pulled the case and I began reading the headnotes, I
3 started kind of shaking, and as you get into the body of it
4 -- and I won't recount. If the Court wants me to recount
5 the cases, I'll be glad to do it.

6 But the core issue facing the Florida Supreme
7 Court, a state that is more pro-death penalty than, perhaps,
8 any state in the country with a very pro-death penalty
9 Supreme Court, a Supreme Court that has been chastised by the 10 federal courts for not providing defendants with sufficient
11 due process rights, that's the Supreme Court we're talking
12 about, in the 1970's they're confronted with the exact same
13 issue as in this case.

14 What happens when you have a statute of limitations
15 that uses, not a general term of art like capital cases, but 16 a specific term of art, capital offense, that the statute
17 defines itself. What do you do in a case like that where by 18 operation of a U.S. Supreme Court case, which is binding
19 precedent on all cases, all jurisdictions, what do you do
20 when Furman comes out and eliminates the possibility of the 21 death penalty?

22 Florida, like the federal government, tied their 23 statute of limitations, not to serious crimes like some 24 states have, not to murder offenses like other states have,
25 not to A class felonies like some states have. They tied the

1 statute of limitations to those offenses punishable by
2 death. The Florida statutory scheme mirrors the federal
3 statutory scheme.

4 What made the Florida case kind of interesting is
5 in Florida they didn't wait 22 years like the United States
6 Congress did to reenact the death penalty. Florida, I think
7 it was two months and two days, they had a new statute on the
8 books, and I'm going from my being on the other side as a
9 prosecutor, a death penalty prosecutor. My recollection is 10 that statute they put on the books that first time was one
11 that was approved ultimately in the Gregg v. Georgia group of 12 cases. Florida has a guided discretion scheme that has been 13 approved.

14 So the issue confronting the Florida Supreme Court
15 was the exact issue confronted by this Court. You have a
16 period of time where Furman, by operation of law, means that 17 you can't put anybody to death, period. And you have a crime
18 committed during that time period, and they're brought to 19 trial at a time after the statute of limitations would apply
20 for a capital offense punishable by death. So the Florida
21 Supreme Court did the analysis that they began where you're 22 always supposed to begin, which is statutory construction.

23 Statutory construction was a no-brainer for them.
24 words mean what words mean, and we're sorry about it. They 25 even, as appellate courts often want to do, said, but even if

1 we're wrong on that, we'll look at legislative history. They
2 look at the legislative history. They conclude that words
3 mean what words mean, statute failed, two-year statute of 4 limitations apply. They even then went behind and looked at 8 the purpose of the legislation.

6 The same thing applies in the case before the 7 Court, and even more so because if we wanted to take the time
8 and expend the effort, this Court knows that in 19 -- I would 9 suggest this Court is aware that in 1972, three, four, five,
10 mid-eighties, all the way to the passage of the 1994 crime
11 bill, any case affecting capital punishment was a hot topic
12 in the United States Congress. Furman was all-consuming in 13 the United States Congress. This case in Florida would have 14 been known by the members of Congress. Congress knew that 15 their statute of limitations was five years. They've known
16 that since 1972. They knew it in 1985. They knew it in 1994
17 when they amended the statute of limitations.

18 So similar to the case in Florida on all fours, we
19 have the core issue being Congress -- and, again, I
20 apologize, but you wanted it brief. The hornbook on 21 statutory construction for our purposes, the most important
22 part, this is the statute, Judge, that you're supposed to 23 construe in the light most favorable to the defendant.

24 THE COURT: Aren't statute of limitations creatures
25 of legislative bodies, and isn't this obviously, Congress

1 intended for there to be an unlimited statute of limitations
2 when death results under this statute. So even though, even
3 though Furman may have said that you could not impose the 4 death penalty, still it's a capital crime, isn't it, in the 8 sense that it is serious enough by legislative fiat to 6 justify an unlimited statute of limitations.

7 MR. PETERS: And I think we're -- it would almost
8 seem a rhetorical question. Congress means what Congress
9 says. Congress was explicit in this statute and, again,
10 we're in an argument. It seems, it seems improper to say,
11 well, what Congress meant was those crimes that are so
12 serious that in some time and place, we might want to execute
13 the person. If that's what they intended, other states have 14 been able to enact statutes of limitations tied to that 15 concept. If they had wanted that, they could have said that,
16 they could have enacted a statute for any crime for which 17 Congress has authorized a punishment of death. Then I think .
18 your argument would be well-taken.

19 But Congress has shown their ability to distinguish
20 between capital offenses and capital crimes, for example. A 21 capital crime, which is the subject of Section 3008, the 22 attorney appointment section, I think would be open to the 23 argument that you're suggesting, which is what they did in 24 Watson. We aren't sure what Congress meant. They might have 25 meant what you're suggesting by your question, serious

1 ~ crimes, serious crimes is what we're talking about.

2 I But -- and as you know, Judge, that helps me on the
3 two-attorney appointment and me getting $125 an hour. But to
4 get to even the Watson analysis on 3005, you have to break
5 that fundamental rule of statutory construction, and there's 6 no getting around the statute enacted by this Congress and
7 unchanged by this Congress until 1994, and that's something
8 we can talk about, is there is no statute of limitations for 9 a capital offense. And a capital offense is defined within 10 the statute as an offense punishable by death. They didn't 11 say an offense that may be punishable by death, which some 12 states do in their statute of limitations. They didn't say
13 for a murder, they didn't say all of these other words.

14 And I guess that's what struck me as so unusual
15 about the Ninth Circuit Court's opinion is they began their 16 I analysis with what do we think Congress meant. And, you
17 I know, law school was a few years back, and I refreshed my 18 recollection with looking at cases, but we skipped a couple
19 of steps here. And that's when on the written part that I've 20 done, the little hornbook thing, it's like I kind of skipped
21 all of the cases having to do with that.

22 I But you begin with is the language clear. And as 23 you know, Judge, the fundamental rule is if the word is 24 defined in the statute, you're stuck with it.

28 ~ THE COURT: But under your analysis, what do you do

1 if the jury decides no death penalty?

2 I MR. PETERS: Again, a capital offense is one -- and
3 I I'll, again, quote directly from it. An indictment for any
4 offense punishable by death. They can be indicted, they can
5 I be tried, and the jury comes back with life, that doesn't
6 affect the statute of limitations at all.

7 It is a crime at the time it was charged -- in 8 I fact, and I think I put it in here. I would suggest to the 9 I Court that prior to Furman, if somebody was arrested today,
10 1970 for a crime -- I mean, excuse me. If somebody was 11 arrested today for a crime that occurred prior to Furman in 12 I 1970, it would be an unlimited statute of limitations because 13 at the time that the crime was committed, their crime was an
14 I offense punishable by death.

15 Now they couldn't be punished by death. They 16 I couldn't face the death penalty. And that's, if that's 17 something the Court's concerned about, there are a lot of 18 analogies in the state laws where the states have statutes of 19 limitations. There isn't, there is a clear distinction, and 20 I agree with the courts that talk about, hey, you don't get 21 all the rights and remedies if it's clearly not a death
22 I penalty case.

23 I think, on a different issue, I think when you
24 I take away the death penalty part in a statute that doesn't
25 ~ describe capital offenses like statute of limitations, then I

1 would agree with the Court's rulings on you lose the number
2 of peremptory challenges, for example, that you don't get a
3 second attorney, for example.

4 And this is something -- I guess I've never known
5 if it's okay to ask the Court a question, but I think there's
6 an anomaly going on because if capital crimes and capital
7 offenses are synonymous, which is what the Ninth Circuit
8 suggests, we don't know what they meant, then if it's, that
9 it's any serious crime, then those privileges and rights
10 would attach to any serious crime, such as this case.

11 I think one of my favorite parts is where the 12 Florida Supreme Court just says, wait a minute, let's all 13 take a deep breath and look at this conceptually. What the 14 government is suggesting and what has gone on in this case is 15 you lose, the defendant loses all of the procedural
16 benefits. You don't get two attorneys, you don't get bond,
17 You don't get all of those things when they go along with the 18 Ninth Circuit's analogy, but you also lose the substantive 19 right, and that makes no sense whatsoever. You're taking the 20 language that would apply to a word that has been strictly 21 defined.

22 And I guess, backing up. As I've done, as I've 23 one the research on this, I cannot figure a way to get past
24 the explicit statutory language of the federal statute of 25 limitations.

1 THE COURT: Well, two courts of appeals have.
2 Ninth Circuit and the Fourth Circuit.

3 MR. PETERS: Neither circuit -- the Fourth Circuit
4 did not get past the statute of limitations. Which case are
5 you referring to? The Fourth Circuit, Watson case, they were
6 addressing 3005. And this is an important distinction. 3005
7 refers to capital crime. And capital crime, Judge, is never
8 defined in the U.S. Code.

9 So arguably, if you wanted to, and I could go
10 either way on this, and it doesn't affect the question of the 11 statute of limitations, but arguably, capital crime is 12 subject to legislative intent. Dictionary definition of 13 capital is serious or something having to do with death. So
14 the Watson decision, the Fourth Circuit decision is 15 consistent insofar as they're defining something capital
16 crime that is not defined in the U.S. Code.

17 But what the Ninth Circuit did is the Ninth Circuit
18 said, well, let's look at the Fourth Circuit opinion. They 19 did the analysis of the nature of the crime versus the 20 severity of the punishment, which is the most bizarre thing I
21 think I've ever seen. They did this evaluation, gleaning on,
22 or glomming onto the Fourth Circuit. And the first one -
23 and I'm going by memory. And Judge, I'm horrible at 24 remembering case names.

25 But the first Fourth Circuit case that I recall, I

1 think it's Kennedy, and it's the same issue of attorney's
 2 fees, and the Ninth Circuit disagreed, and that's the first
 3 problem. Two circuit courts shouldn't be able to disagree on 4 the nature of the statute of limitations. This is something
 5 that is supposed to be fundamental that defendants of any,
 6 that any defendant should be put on notice, how long and what
 7 for. It's such an incredibly basic principle. And if you
 8 look at the Ninth Circuit -

9 THE COURT: They were on notice. Anybody is on 10 notice. You read the statute. You don't -- the notice
 11 argument is -- I mean, it's on the face of the statute. Like 12 every other law, it's right there. It couldn't be clearer.

13 MR. PETERS: I agree, Judge, it's on the face of 14 the statute that you do not face unlimited prosecution for 15 any crime in the federal system that occurred after Furman
 16 because -

17 THE COURT: Where does it say that?

18 MR. PETERS: It says, an indictment for any offense
 19 punishable by death. And since Furman until, with four 20 exceptions, until 1994, there were no offenses within the 21 federal system punishable by death.

22 THE COURT: But Congress said there were. Now, the 23 Supreme Court said you couldn't implement the death penalty,
 24 but Congress said that the death penalty applies.
 25 Congress -- and that, that establishes the statute of

1 limitations, doesn't it? Not what the Supreme Court does
2 later in saying that procedurally, procedurally you can't
3 impose the death penalty. That's an entirely different
4 matter. That Congress said, this is what we say the penalty
5 is, and we say that penalty produces an indeterminate,
6 unlimited statute of limitations, which is perfectly
7 consistent with the history of American law that where an 8 offense is, where death results from certain prohibited
9 behavior, legislators treat that as the most serious kind of 10 offense and frequently extend the statute of limitations as a 11 result.

12 MR. PETERS: And I agree.

13 THE COURT: So Congress did this. Now, what the 14 Supreme Court did, they came along later and said, wait a
15 minute, procedurally the death penalty can't be imposed.
16 That doesn't alter the fact that Congress said it applied,
17 right?

18 MR. PETERS: Well, all of your statements are true,
19 all of your statements are true, but it begs the question.
20 If Congress uses language that is explicit -- if Congress
21 says within 1,000 feet of a school and a Supreme Court
22 opinion comes down and says the school is determined to be
23 the building and not the chain-link fence, a court couldn't 24 say on somebody being prosecuted 1,010 feet away from the 25 building, well, what Congress meant was this. If the law of

1 the United States Supreme Court has a substantive effect, you
2 can't say, well, you know, we know what Congress really
3 meant. Come on, guys. And that is what the Ninth Circuit
4 did. And that's what this argument suggests.

5 THE COURT: There's absolutely no question what
6 Congress intended. You don't need to be -- you don't need to
7 go beyond the face of the statute to know what Congress
8 intended, right? I mean, this is not where you have to go to 9 legislative history and you don't have to muck around in all
10 of that. All you have to do is look at the face of the 11 statute and you know, anybody knows what Congress intended.
12 Congress said somebody who kills somebody as a result of the 13 particular behavior prohibited has an unlimited statute of 14 limitations.

15 MR. PETERS: And in a little bit we can get into a
16 discussion of whether or not that's, in fact, what Congress
17 wanted, but I'm turning it back to you, Judge.

18 THE COURT: You think there's a question that
19 that's what Congress wanted?

20 MR. PETERS: Yes, I do. We can address that in a
21 little bit.

22 THE COURT: Let's address it right now. What do
23 you think there is about that? You think Congress had some 24 esoteric kind of idea about if death results and the Supreme 25 Court hasn't said it's all right, hasn't said it's

1 prohibited; or do you think Congress said, well, if death
2 results and the jury doesn't decide it, then naturally there
3 isn't an unlimited statute of limitations, but if the jury
4 does decide death should be imposed, there would be an
5 unlimited statute of limitations?

6 In all due respect to Congress as an institution, I
7 don't think that's the way you could read, you could fairly
8 read that statute.

9 MR. PETERS: I'm confused because I've heard the 10 Court several times say that if somebody is charged with an 11 offense punishable by death and the jury doesn't impose the 12 death penalty that then there's a five-year statute of 13 limitations. The statute of limitations only applies to the 14 filing of the indictment. The punishment that's actually
15 imposed doesn't matter except for whether or not the offense
16 charged is one for which the person can really be killed.

17 THE COURT: under your argument, it does matter.

18 MR. PETERS: No, not at all.

19 THE COURT: That, in fact, the punishment is 20 imposed.

21 MR. PETERS: No, not at all. I thought I gave an 22 example to the Court that under my argument, somebody who 23 commits a murder in 1970 could be prosecuted today for that
24 murder on an unlimited statute of limitations.

25 THE COURT: I realize that's your argument. I'm

1 just saying, isn't that illogical?

2 MR. PETERS: Not at all, because at the time they
3 committed the crime, an indictment for any offense -- to have 4 an indictment today, it must be an offense punishable by 5 death today. 1970, they committed a murder, and that was an
6 offense punishable by death in 1970. The notice requirement,
7 all the case law and statute of limitations says that's the 8 purpose of the statute of limitations. You let them know,
9 you give them a length of time, and the way that Congress has 10 chosen to do that is by using the language punishable by 11 death.

12 Now, what you're, the first question I have back to 13 the Court is why are you talking about the intent of 14 Congress? Because to get to ask that question, you first 15 have to find that this language is ambiguous, that -

16 THE COURT: No, you don't. I disagree with you
17 entirely about that. Congress's intent -- I mean, the 18 obligation is to read the statute and to apply what Congress
19 said. That's the, that's what the obligation is.

20 Where you get into the problem of intent is if you
21 can't figure out what Congress said looking at the words in 22 the statute, then you need to go behind it to try, or 23 arguably, to attempt to find out what Congress really meant
24 by ambiguous words.

25 MR. PETERS: Am I seriously hearing that you don't

1 have to look to the language of the statute, that a court is
2 free to say I wonder what their intent was and ignore the 3 clear, unambiguous words?

4 THE COURT: No, I don't think so. I think you
5 just -- I'm not communicating or you're not listening.

6 MR. PETERS: That's why I asked.

7 THE COURT: That's exactly what I just said. That
8 you get the intent of Congress from the words Congress uses.

9 MR. PETERS: I guess the part that I'm having
10 trouble with is where can you get any definition of capital
11 offense, other than an offense punishable by death, without 12 saying, well, we don't have any offenses punishable by death
13 now, so I wonder what Congress meant.

14 THE COURT: Well, look at 844(i). "And if death
15 results to any person, including any public safety officer
16 performing duties as a direct or proximate result of conduct 17 prohibited by this subsection, shall also be subject to 18 imprisonment for any term of years, or to the death penalty
19 or to life imprisonment."

20 MR. PETERS: Correct. And all of the cases -- I
21 don't suggest that that statute was rendered inapplicable by 22 Furman. I've never suggested that. What Furman did is it
23 strikes down those parts that Furman strikes down. Furman
24 struck down the death penalty part of that statute.

25 THE COURT: It did not. It struck down the

1 procedure for -- it never said anything about this statute.

2 I It never said -

3 MR. PETERS: It didn't have to.

4 THE COURT: It never said it was unlawful or

5 unconstitutional for Congress to use the death penalty or to

6 say the death penalty was applicable to offenses where loss

7 ~ of life occurred. It said the federal, the procedure for

8 imposing the death penalty was unconstitutional.

9 MR. PETERS: And the substantive execution of a

10 sentence pursuant to a procedurally illegal trial is gone

11 too. You can't -- it doesn't apply to say, well, all Furman

12 really did is eliminate procedural bars to the death

13 penalty. It eliminates the possibility of a death penalty

14 for all of those cases that don't have those procedures. So

15 to have one without the other, you can argue semantics, but

16 the fact is that after Furman, the death penalty provisions

17 of that statute were unenforceable.

18 THE COURT: No, but that's -- but I understand your

19 argument. I mean -

20 MR. PETERS: Your argument is that's still a

21 capital crime.

22 THE COURT: My argument is a new one, which just

23 occurred to me while you were talking. Not new. I mean,

24 it's new for me, it may not be new for you, but it's new for

25 me. That under 844(i), Congress provides for the death

1 penalty. That's all that is necessary to trigger an unlimited
2 statute of limitations, isn't it?

3 MR. PETERS: No, not at all. First of all,
4 Congress provided for the death penalty in that statute, but 5 read the language again as to what the punishment is.

6 THE COURT: Also be subject to imprisonment for any
7 term of years or the death penalty or to life imprisonment.

8 MR. PETERS: And death penalty is defined where 9 else, what did Congress mean by that?

10 What I'm getting at, Judge, is the death penalty by 11 Furman was struck down. But where do you make the logical
12 leap that in striking down the death penalty that the words
13 capital offense -- and I'm switching back to the statute of 14 limitations. Do you agree, Judge, that when Congress shows
15 an ability to use different words in different statutes that 16 it's for a purpose, that they aren't doing it just because 17 they're willy-nilly?

18 Well, maybe we don't want to answer that but -

19 THE COURT: I don't know the answer to that.

20 MR. PETERS: But they chose capital crimes in one
21 statute and very explicitly chose capital offenses in another
22 statute. That's the first point.

23 But more important is when they chose the term
24 capital offenses, they defined it. And so is 844(i) a 25 capital crime? Well, yeah, I think you can argue that it's a capital crime because a capital crime is a serious crime

2 because capital crime isn't defined in the statute. Is it a
3 capital offense? No, it is not a capital offense because a
4 capital offense must be one in which you can actually be put 5 to death.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Peters.

7 MR. PETERS: And we're just kind of having fun in 8 some ways.

9 I need your help on something. I don't understand
10 where we get past that there is no room for statutory 11 construction when the language of a statute is clear and 12 unambiguous. How do we get to the point of you even saying,
13 well, I think what Congress intended was, on a phrase that is 14 defined in the statute and is unambiguous. So I think it's 15 interesting we can talk about Congressional intent, and I
16 have some thoughts on that, and all kinds of stuff, but I
17 couldn't find any case that allowed you to interpret words
18 that were defined in the statute. If the statute says -

19 THE COURT: What statute are you talking about?

20 MR. PETERS: The statute of limitations, Judge. If 21 the statute of limitations had said an indictment for any 22 capital crime may be found at any time without limitation, we 23 wouldn't have our argument because capital crime is not 24 defined in the U.S. Code. But what the statute says is an
25 indictment for any offense punishable by death. And it

1 defines that in the heading 3281 as a capital offense. What
2 is a capital offense? It is an offense punishable by death.

3 What does 3282 say? Offenses not capital. "No
4 I person shall be prosecuted, tried, or punished for any
5 offense not capital

6 So the problem that I see with what the Court is
7 I facing and what the Ninth Circuit did is how do you, how do
8 I you even talk about statutory intent or legislative intent or 9 statutory construction when the language is defined within 10 I the statute? And I haven't been able to find any case that 11 says that you, that courts are even authorized to do that.

12 I If the statute says cities over 50,000, a judge
13 can't come in and say, well, that was done back in the days
14 I when a city over 50,000 was a big one, and we know that what 15 I they really meant was one of the big cities.

16 A serious crime, we know what they really meant was 17 ~ a serious crime. And come in on my prior example and say,
18 so, it says 10,000 people, but really they meant 50,000
19 I people. You can't do that.

20 And I guess continuing the analogy, if the Supreme
21 I Court had a case that said cities of 10,000 shall have no
22 statutory consideration, statutes that address cities of 23 I 10,000 were used because of bias against minorities, a judge
24 couldn't come back and say, well, but on this statute they 25 ~ really didn't mean that language, so we're going to let the

1 statute stand.

2 There's no escaping the clear meaning of this. "An
3 indictment for any offense punishable by death may be found
4 at any time without limitation." And that offenses not 5 capital -- an offense, "any offense not capital, unless the 6 indictment is found or the Information is instituted within
7 five years."

8 THE COURT: So the response to my argument is,
9 Judge, 844(i) doesn't have anything to do with this, who
10 cares? The statute of limitations is defined by Section
11 3281, and 3281 says, regardless of what Congress said in 12 844(i), Congress has defined the type of offense that has an
13 unlimited statute of limitations, and that is any offense
14 punishable by death. And that at the time this offense was 15 committed, it was not punishable by death because Furman said
16 there was no constitutionally valid death penalty.

17 MR. PETERS: That's correct.

18 THE COURT: Is that right?

19 MR. PETERS: That's completely correct. And 20 continuing on, the concept that the government has argued 21 that, and the Court has suggested that what Congress was 22 really doing is trying to gather together a group of crimes
23 and show that those were the ones that would have unlimited
24 statutes of limitations. Even if that was their intent,
25 you're stuck with the language, is the first thing. But the

1 second thing is there are a whole bunch of states that have
2 that exact concept in their statutes of limitations where
3 they don't limit it, as 844(i) does. But for the language in 4 844(i), it's not a death penalty statute, even though
5 arguably what we're going to say is anybody who commits
6 murder first degree, for example, you want to have an
7 unlimited statute of limitations.

8 Defendants can't be held accountable because
9 Congress chose to define things in a way that didn't carry
10 out their intent following the Furman decision. And courts
11 can't say, Congress, you wrote it this way, we know what you
12 meant, the words are now wrong, and because you intended it,
13 we're going to give you an unlimited statute of limitations.
14 That goes against the rules of statutory construction from A
15 to Z. it goes against the rules of limiting statute of 16 limitations and construing statutes in a light most favorable
17 to the accused.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Peters, I hate to interrupt you, 19 but I've got one more question for you, and then I'd like to 20 hear from Mr. Becker.

21 What has the Eighth Circuit said about this issue?

22 MR. PETERS: Eighth Circuit has addressed the issue
23 in a pattern that is real consistent with -- if T was a
24 betting person, I would bet we're going to have some fun on 25 this if this case ever gets to a point where it's appealed.

1 The Eighth Circuit in Coon I and II are confronted
2 with kind of a fun issue because the guy raises one side of
3 the coin and wins, and then comes back the second time and
4 tries to win again.

5 The applicable part of Coon -- and I'm horrible
6 with case names and I apologize. But -

7 THE COURT: Let me ask you and see if I can shorten
8 this up. The Eighth Circuit's position, is it consistent 9 with the argument you're making, or inconsistent with the 10 argument you're making?

11 MR. PETERS: It's consistent with the argument I'm 12 making, and they specifically addressed this issue by saying
13 something, the Eighth Circuit left open this very issue. And 14 the quotation is because the prosecution in the case of Coon
15 II, which was begun in 1969, was commenced and consummated
16 prior to the Jackson decision. We were not faced with 17 defendant's suggestion that Furman would not time bar
18 prosecution today for a murder committed prior to Furman.
19 So the facts of our case didn't apply in that one,
20 but in 1969, the Eighth Circuit said, like you did on the 21 phone, wait a minute, guys, something here doesn't seem right
22 that you can actually have a case initiated after Furman and 23 claim an unlimited statute of limitations. That wasn't, that
24 wasn't -- the statute of limitations and this Furman argument
25 did not apply in this case because -- actually it's because

1 Jackson is a, Jackson's a precursor to what we're talking
2 about with Furman where it invalidates a number of statutes
3 like Furman invalidates a number, or portions of statutes.

4 But the Eighth Circuit in Coon II says we aren't
5 confronted with the situation in U.S.A. vs. SheDDard, and we
6 aren't, it's one of those times where they're saying we're
7 alerting you people that this is an issue, that after Jackson
8 you bring us a case like this and you're going to have some
9 problems. And if you insert, instead of Jackson you insert
10 Furman, that's what the Florida Supreme Court is saying.
11 We're telling you people that after a legislative decision
12 renders a case no longer within the definition of those 13 crimes covered by a statute of limitations, you run the risk
14 of us telling you the prosecution's time barred.

15 So Coon I was just background information, Coon II
16 supports, as much as it can. They're analyzing Jackson,
17 which is, again, I'm horrible at case names. I think Jackson
18 is an opinion invalidating the kidnapping portion of a death
19 penalty statute. But the concept's there where they're 20 saying, well, wait a minute, if you cannot, in fact, be 21 sentenced to death for this crime anymore, then we're holding 22 up the possibility that it might be a five-year statute of 23 limitations, but we don't have to address that issue in this
24 case, guys, because the crime and the charging took place
25 prior to the invalidation of the death penalty on that

1 statute.

2 So the Eighth Circuit opinion -- and the court is
3 changed considerably since then. This issue, statutory 4 construction has been brought to the forefront again by the 5 united States Supreme Court. We know what the intent of the 6 legislature was when they passed a law regarding handguns in
7 schools, but the Supreme Court struck it down. Everybody
8 knew what the intent was, but the language wasn't right. And 9 what the Supreme Court began with is saying, well, let's see,
10 you're saying it's based on interstate commerce clause,
11 that's just being assumed. We knew if you had wanted to,
12 Congress, if you had worded it differently, you could have 13 done it properly, but you didn't word it properly.

14 The statute of limitations -- and we'll let Mr.
15 Becker go for a while, and if I can, I'm going to go get a
16 little drink of water before my mouth dies. Is that 17 acceptable?

18 THE COURT: Why don't you have somebody else -- I'd 19 hate to have you miss what Mr. Becker has to say.

20 Any of the other defense attorneys want to say
21 anything about this?

22 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, I lost it before the 23 magistrate. They won't let me talk.

24 MR. BUNCH: I simply support that argument, and we 25 filed a ten-page memorandum which we believe indicates the

1 Eighth Circuit's headed in that direction.

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Bunch. I'll
3 tell you, I haven't had a chance to read those yet, but I'm
4 obviously going to before I rule on it. I'll have a chance
5 to read through it. Mr. Becker.

6 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge. And, again, Mr.
7 Bunch, if you have an extra copy of that.

8 MR. BUNCH: It was mailed to you. You should have 9 it today. I'm sorry, Paul. I did it Saturday.

10 MR. BECKER: I'll check back in my office. Thank
11 you.

12 Good evening, Judge. There's three points I'd like
13 to make, two of which you've discussed at some length and one
14 of which I think was at the tail end of the Court's inquiry
15 in its telephone conference.

16 What difference does it make that now we have the 17 1994 death penalty act which does, in fact, set forth
18 procedures that would be constitutionally firm applying to 19 the death penalty in this matter, and theoretically this
20 could be a death penalty but for the Department of Justice
21 policy position that we would not seek the death penalty for 22 those events occurring prior to the enactment of that statute
23 in, I believe, September of 1994.

24 First, though, going back to Mr. Peters' points,
25 and they've been covered at some length. I, too, urge a

1 literal reading of the statute. I, too, think that the plain
2 language of the statute sets forth that capital offenses, the 3 limitations is stated quite clearly that an indictment for 4 any offense punishable by death may be found at any time
5 without limitation.

6 As the Court read, 844(i) now and in 1988 was an
7 offense where Congress set forth in clear language that if
8 death results, including death to a public safety officer,
9 that crime would be punishable by death. It doesn't -- I
10 think Mr. Peters and defense counsel want to insert the 11 language of, in the statute of limitations that can be 12 constitutionally punishable by death. I believe that the 13 plain language of the statute of limitations refers to a
14 class of cases that are so serious that law enforcement
15 should be given the opportunity to investigate and prosecute
16 without any time bar.

17 That is the whole notion, as the Court said
18 earlier, behind statutes of limitations, both the normal
19 five-year statute of limitation, and then setting aside those 20 other crimes so serious that they should be without 21 limitation. Thus, I believe that the plain language of the 22 two statutes mirroring each other clearly brings 844(i)
23 within the scope of the no limitations statute.

24 The one example used by Mr. Peters that a 1970
25 murder would now allow a permissible prosecution because it

1 occurred prior to Furman I think misses his point because an
2 offense committed in 1980 had the same unconstitutional
3 penalty provisions that the 1988 offense did. Thus, the 1970
4 offense would be subject to the same line of attack by the
5 defendants that it had a constitutionally infirmed death
6 penalty. Death could not have been, constitutionally be the 7 punishment for that 1970 homicide. The fact that Furman
8 didn't come down until later doesn't somehow make those
9 statutes at that time whole. They're still defective
10 statutes as we've come to know constitutional law.

11 As Mr. Peters said quite often, the language of 12 Congress here is quite clear and, in this statute and in 13 other statutes, uses the language punishable by death in a
14 straightforward, unambiguous fashion that brings them within 15 the no limit of, the no time period of limitations.

16 THE COURT: Well, how do you get around what Coon I
17 says about the definition of offense punishable by death?

18 MR. BECKER: It was my understanding that Coon I
19 rejected that argument by the defendants, that his argument
20 was since it was, the death penalty was not imposed, it was 21 not a capital case.

22 THE COURT: Well, they say the clear and ordinary
23 meaning of the words unquestionably encompasses any offense
24 for which the death penalty may be imposed, Page 554.

25 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry. I don't see the Court Is

1 reference.

2 THE COURT: Look under Headnotes [3,4], left-hand
3 column, the end of the second full paragraph on Page 554.

4 MR. BECKER: [3,4], I have. In assessing -- I
5 believe this to be a different issue, Judge. When Mr. Coon
6 objected to his waiving indictment and pleading to an
7 Information, I don't think the Court here was considering the 8 issue we have now.

9 THE COURT: I agree with that. That's right. But
10 still they said this. And, you know, it's -- I asked Mr.
11 Peters about the Eighth Circuit's position. I mean,
12 certainly I'm obligated to follow what the United States
13 Supreme Court says, but also I'm obligated to follow what the 14 Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals has said. And I'm not 15 obligated to follow the Florida Supreme Court, and I'm not 16 obligated to follow the Ninth Circuit or the Fourth Circuit
17 or the Seventh Circuit, unless they're persuasive. But I
18 mean, I'm clearly obligated to follow the Eighth Circuit
19 Court of Appeals, and that's why you'll notice a number of 20 the cases that I gave you were from the Eighth Circuit Court
21 of Appeals.

22 MR. BECKER: I would respectfully suggest that the 23 Eighth Circuit hasn't considered this issue. As the 24 paragraph that Mr. Peters read in Coon II referred to, they 25 were leaving this type of situation to another day.

1 In McNally, we had the issue of peremptory
2 challenges, and in Weddell, we had the issue of a second
3 attorney. The Eighth Circuit just has not considered a
4 situation such as this where the offense occurred at a time
5 when the death penalty was, provisions of federal statute
6 were not up to constitutional muster. So I think it's an
7 open question in the Eighth Circuit, and I hope we have an 8 opportunity to argue it.

9 THE COURT: Well, undoubtedly you will. What do
10 you make of what the, what the Eighth Circuit Court of 11 Appeals said in Weddell at Page 770? Do you have that?

12 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Do you see -- do you have a two-column
14 deal?

15 MR. BECKER: Yes, but it's a different -

16 THE COURT: Look at the right-hand column, not 17 where you have it highlighted, but the right-hand column on 18 Page 770 where they talk about united States vs. McNally. Do 19 you see that?

20 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

21 THE COURT: And what do you make of that?

22 MR. BECKER: Well, when it says, the quote is,
23 "This Court held that in a case where Furman v. Georgia had 24 precluded the imposition of the death penalty, the case lost
25 its capital nature as charged in the indictment.'"

1 I'm not entirely -- and then it goes on to deny the
2 peremptory challenges. I'm not sure what the phrase capital
3 nature means there. I think the Court is analyzing the issue
4 that it's presented with, and that is in this case, in
5 Weddell, with the number of challenges, peremptory
6 challenges, a defendant would be given, in a case where it
7 had lost its capital character because the death penalty
8 couldn't be constitutionally imposed.

9 THE COURT: That's interesting wording isn't it,
10 what they say there, actually? I hadn't noticed that until 11 just now. That's interesting, the way they phrase that,
12 isn't it? They say, lost its capital nature as charged in 13 the indictment. So there there seems to be some concept that 14 you lose something after it's charged.

15 MR. BECKER: Or it may refer back to the face of 16 the indictment or reading the face of the indictment along 17 with the punishment provisions in the statute that it, the 18 punishment, the maximum punishment for the crime would be 19 death.

20 Again, I would suggest that the Court was deciding 21 the case that was before it. The one court that we do have 22 deciding this issue is the Manning decision that I know the 23 Court's well-aware of, and I understand that the Ninth
24 Circuit is not controlling on this court. However, that case
25 and the other cases from the Ninth Circuit show a degree of

1 analysis of this issue that I believe is sound.

2 THE COURT: It's not consistent with the Eighth
3 Circuit's approach to this matter, is it?

4 MR. BECKER: I don't think the Eighth Circuit has 5 discussed it in terms of gravity of the offense versus the 6 seriousness of the punishment, if that's the Court's
7 question. I wouldn't find it inconsistent. They reached the 8 same results on challenges and two attorneys. They get to 9 the same place. I believe the Ninth Circuit cases do it with 10 a greater degree of analysis of the rationale for those 11 particular provisions of being in separate statutes, separate 12 and apart from the substantive criminal statute.

13 THE COURT: Well, Manning cites Kennedy and Watson
14 in support of its conclusion, right?

15 MR. BECKER: Right.

16 THE COURT: But Watson is not consistent with the 17 authority in the Eighth Circuit, right?

18 MR. BECKER: That's true, although Kennedy doesn't
19 agree with Watson, although it agrees with its rationale. So
20 the Ninth Circuit didn't entirely embrace the Fourth Circuit
21 approach that all provisions still apply. The Ninth Circuit
22 has actually come down the other way but looked at the 23 analysis set forth there of gravity of the offense, the 24 effect on society as opposed to the severity of the 25 punishment.

1 THE COURT: Well, Kennedv cites Watson, Manning
2 cites Watson, but Watson isn't consistent with the authority
3 in the Eighth Circuit.

4 MR. BECKER: Again, the result in Watson isn't
5 consistent with the results in Kennedy, but -

6 THE COURT: Well, they thought it was. I mean, the 7 Ninth Circuit thought it was, thought it was consistent
8 enough to cite it.

9 MR. BECKER: The analysis. They looked at the 10 analysis. They don't come out the same way on the same
11 issue.

12 THE COURT: They didn't have the same issue, did
13 they? Kennedv was a bail case, and Watson was a two-attorney
14 case.

15 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry. There are further Ninth
16 Circuit cases cited in Manning that decide the two-attorney
17 issue contrary to the Fourth Circuit. And that would be 18 Dufur, D-U-F-U-R, 648 F.2d 512, Ninth Circuit, talking about 19 permitting anyone indicted for a capital crime to have two 20 attorneys was based on the severity of the punishment rather 21 than the nature of the offense, and therefore, the 22 elimination of the death penalty eliminated Dufur's right to 23 a second court-appointed attorney.

24 So the Ninth Circuit may adopt Watson in the Fourth
25 Circuit in its analysis, which is the first case to look and

1 set forth this analysis of why is this particular provision
2 here, but it doesn't come out the same way, and thus I don't
3 believe the Ninth Circuit cases are at odds with the Eighth
4 Circuit cases.

5 THE COURT: Let me see if I understand the one
6 argument, or one argument you made.

7 You say that -- or am I correct in summarizing, and 8 stop me if I fall off the trail here. You say, aha, under 9 Section 3281, you'll adopt Mr. Peters' approach to that and 10 say, yes, we look at the words used and look to see if a
11 crime is punishable by death; and we go to 844(i) and we find
12 out, aha, Congress said it's punishable by death, so we don't 13 need to look any further. Is that your argument?

14 MR. BECKER: That's one argument, Judge.

15 THE COURT: I understand. But is that one
16 argument?

17 MR. BECKER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: So, therefore, for that argument it's 19 irrelevant whether it's constitutionally punishable by 20 death. Congress has said it's punishable by death. Death is 21 one of the options in the penalty structure under 844(i)
22 where death results, right?

23 MR. BECKER: Right. And as the Court said earlier
24 and it's stated in Coon II, the limitations provisions are 25 purely creatures of the legislature, and they're not

1 constitutionally based. And, therefore, when the legislature
2 sets forth this scheme, I believe we need to take it
3 literally as it's written.

4 THE COURT: Okay. What's your second argument?

5 MR. BECKER: Well, it was merely a reply to Mr.
6 Peters' 1970 example, but I'm willing to forgo that and get
7 to the Court's final point of can we now, the federal
8 government, if it chose to seek the death penalty in this
9 matter, if it fit all the other criteria for aggravating
10 factors and so forth, but given the sections now in the code
11 for the death penalty, could the United States seek the death
12 penalty in this case, even though at the time the crime was 13 committed, the penalty provisions were unconstitutional. I
14 believe that the Supreme Court has -

15 THE COURT: The penalty provisions weren't
16 unconstitutional, it was the procedure for imposing. If you
17 said the penalty provisions were unconstitutional, then
18 you've just made the defendants' argument for them. You've 19 destroyed your first argument.

20 MR. BECKER: The procedures for implementing the 21 penalty were unconstitutional.

22 THE COURT: Right. Right.

23 MR. BECKER: The Supreme Court in Dobbert,
24 D-O-B-B-E-R-T, vs. Florida, 432 U.S. 282, 97 S.Ct. 2290, 25 found that when the new, when states began implementing new

1 procedures in their codes to enforce the penalties of death,
2 that that was not an ex post facto revision of the law that
3 could be challenged by the defendants.

4 MR. PETERS: What was that cite?

5 MR. BECKER: 432 U.S. 282, 97 S.Ct. 2290.

6 THE COURT: So you say by that that this would be,
7 that the 1994 death penalty act procedures could be, I mean,
8 legally could be retroactive and apply to a crime committed
9 in 1989.

10 MR. BECKER: Yes. Dobbert specifically speaks to 11 the retroactivity of those procedural statutes and finds that 12 when it was to the benefit of the defendant that ameliorated
13 a problem with the prior statutes that it did not violate the 14 ex post facto clause and the defendant could not be heard to 15 complain.

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I lost the thread of that.
17 What was beneficial? You mean it was declared
18 unconstitutional and was beneficial to the defendant?

19 MR. BECKER: The new law as enacted was seen as 20 more beneficial to the defendant because it had 21 constitutional safeguards in it to protect against the cruel
22 and unusual implementation of the death penalty or the 23 violation of due process, whatever the particular death
24 penalty infirmity was.

25 And so when the states began to implement new death

1 penalty procedure schemes, they were challenged and said,
 2 wait, when I committed the crime, it was not, there was no
 3 constitutional procedure for implementing the death penalty.
 4 And the Court said, well, now there is and that is to your
 5 benefit and, therefore, the courts can go, the states can go
 6 forward and prosecute individuals and seek the death penalty
 7 using the new statutes, even though at the time of the event
 8 of the crime, there was no constitutional procedure to 9 implement the death penalty.

10 THE COURT: So you conclude that based on that 11 that, what, as applicable to this case?

12 MR. BECKER: As applicable to this case, the 13 Congress has passed a 1994 death penalty act which implements
 14 procedures whereby this Court could constitutionally, we 15 could seek the death penalty and that that changes to the 16 benefit, these new laws are to the benefit of the defendant
 17 and, therefore, now this is a capital offense, even though
 18 we've chosen not to seek the death penalty here because of a
 19 Department of Justice policy. It is a crime that now
 20 constitutionally is punishable by death.

21 THE COURT: You mean there's a constitutional
 22 procedure for carrying out Congresses direction in 844(i)
 23 that death is an option?

24 MR. BECKER: Correct.

25 THE COURT: And you say -- but how does that relate

1 to the argument the defendants are making? I don't
2 understand -- you see, their argument is that in 1988 there
3 wasno constitutional death penalty.

4 MR. BECKER: And Dobbert says those events can be
5 prosecuted as capital, as death penalty cases, using the new 6 statutes.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, but at the time the indictment
8 came down, there was no constitutional -

9 MR. BECKER: Yes, they were just indicted in 1996.

10 If I had indicted them, I would still be here arguing, but if 11 thecase had been indicted prior to September of 1994, then
12 thisargument would not be available.

13 THE COURT: So you're saying in 1996 when they were 14 indicted,there was a constitutional death penalty.

15 MR. BECKER: Yes.

16 THE COURT: So the only question, then, is the 17 potentialquestion of ex post facto, or increasing the 18 penalty over what it was at the time the alleged crime was 19 committed, right?

20 MR. BECKER: Right.

21 THE COURT: And you say Dobbert says that -

22 MR. BECKER: If I may, from the majority opinion at 23 Page 2300, therefore, argues petitioner -- well, let me start
24 at the beginning of the paragraph, Headnote [7].

25 "Petitioner's second ex post facto claim is based

1 on the contention that at the time he murdered his children,
2 there was no death penalty in effect in Florida. This is so,
3 he contends, because the earlier statute enacted by the 4 legislature was, after the time he acted, found by the 5 Supreme Court of Florida to be invalid under our decision in
6 Furman. Therefore, argues petitioner, there was no valid
7 death penalty in effect in Florida as of the date of his
8 actions. But the sophistic argument mocks the substance of 9 the Ex Post Facto Clause. Whether or not the old statute
10 would in the future withstand constitutional attack, it
11 clearly indicated Florida's view of the severity of murder
12 and of the degree of punishment which the legislature wished
13 to be imposed upon murderers. The statute was intended to 14 provide maximum deterrence, and its existence on the statute
15 books provided fair warning as to the degree of culpability
16 which the State ascribed to the act of murder."

17 And then it goes on at some length about -- I
18 believe -

19 THE COURT: That's interesting, isn't it?

20 MR. BECKER: I see that in some ways related to the 21 earlier argument, is that this isn't a notice issue at all,
22 that being more the legal concept than anything, but the 23 statute has always provided for a possible punishment of 24 death.

25 Now, the circumstances in this case are the kind

1 that are of the severity that society has a valid interest in
2 allowing law enforcement to continue to investigate and
3 prosecute, as opposed to the other interests of defendants
4 and persons who have to defend a case long after it's 5 committed.

6 I would ask the Court to affirm the decision in the 7 report and recommendation of the magistrate.

8 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Osgood, are you
9 stepping up to rescue this matter?

10 MR. OSGOOD: I am. Because the Dobbert aspect of 11 it was what I keyed on most heavily in the brief I wrote,
12 Your Honor.

13 And there's a critical factor in Dobbert that Mr.
14 Becker is ignoring. The critical factor in Dobbert was it
15 was two months, two months, two months. In other words, the 16 statute was declared unconstitutional in Furman. Two months
17 later, the defendant murdered his wife. Two months later,
18 they went right back in and cleaned up the statute.

19 Following the language that Mr. Becker read to you,
20 they key on the fact of notice, and notice is a critical
21 element in Dobbert. Then years later we have Miller, which 22 nobody has mentioned, which is the Supreme Court case dealing 23 with the concept of ex post facto and punishment, as to 24 whether it's procedural or substantive.

25 And in Miller they say that in construing the

1 sentencing guidelines that you cannot change the guidelines
2 and substantially increase the punishment and then come along
3 and say that you can impose the more stringent punishment
4 because there has been no notice. And it keys on notice
5 also.

6 So what you have -- and then you go back and pick
7 up Jackson, the Supreme Court case, which is one of the ones
8 which said, all right, we're going to treat these statutes as 9 severable. And so what happened was in the kidnapping case,
10 Jackson says, all right, we're going to let the statute
11 survive to the extent that it provides for a life sentence as 12 opposed to death. So what you had was you had a 25 or 13 30-year period in which Congress didn't have to worry about
14 any of these statutes because under the Supreme Court
15 authority, they were all going to be treated as severable
16 anyway, so why go back and clean up 10 or 15 statutes in the 17 U.S. Code and eliminate this death penalty language? There
18 wasn't any reason because the statute was going to be 19 construed as being good anyway.

20 So what happened was, and here is my, the basis of 21 my argument. For 20 years anybody who committed a kidnapping
22 or committed air piracy or did any of those things was on 23 notice by the inaction of Congress that there was no federal 24 death penalty that would actually be imposed. So when they 25 enacted 844(i) and brought in this death penalty provision,

1 clearly it's not procedural, it's substantive. It increases
2 dramatically the maximum punishment under 844(i).

3 Therefore, to attempt to argue that he can now
4 indict these people and give them the death penalty just
5 simply flies in the face of Dobbert and Miller, in my view.
6 I think actually Dobbert is in our favor.

7 THE COURT: But the statute says death penalty.
8 It's always said the death penalty. I mean, 844(i) has 9 always said the death penalty.

10 MR. OSGOOD: It has. And until its reenactment and 11 its cleaning up and the enactment of the new Furman type of 12 procedure in 1996, it would have been meaningless. It would
13 have been, under Jackson have been treated as a severable
14 provision under the statute, and the maximum punishment would 15 be life. And that's clear from Jackson and all the cases
16 leading up to that point. You would simply carve out the 17 death part of 844(i) and not give it any meaning. Wouldn't 18 declare the statute unconstitutional, it would merely say
19 that's a severable provision under Jackson.

20 So it's really a notice question, in any mind, it
21 always has been all along. And Congress -- and the proof of 22 the pudding is they fixed the step after the accident, so to 23 speak, to use the old analogy. By enacting these statutes in 24 '96, Congress has clearly said, yes, we acknowledge that our 25 death penalty provisions were no good up until this point

1 when we -- first they did it with the drug kingpin statute.
2 And then along behind the drug kingpin statute is the new
3 provision, I forget the number, which now provides a Furman
4 kind of procedure.

5 And I might add, I have some personal insight into 6 this, and I don't know how much authority this would have,
7 other than the fact that I did it.

8 Back in 1981, we had a very serious stabbing at the 9 prison in El Reno, Oklahoma. I made the argument to the 10 district judge down there that, look, why don't we merely
11 bifurcate these proceedings and do it the way Furman says
12 that it should be done and that the Court has the inherent 13 authority as the trial judge to do that; and, therefore, our 14 procedure will be correct under Furman. And the statute
15 itself provides for death and, therefore, all you've got to 16 do, Judge, is follow Furman and instruct the jury on Furman,
17 and we ought to be able to seek the death penalty in this 18 case. It was a particularly vicious crime, a multiple 19 murder, and the guy had prior convictions for murder.

20 We ran this up the flagpole with the Department of 21 Justice, and the Department of Justice said, nice idea, but,
22 sorry, we're not going to let you do that, we don't think
23 that that's constitutional. And so the Justice Department
24 itself has recognized, up until when they participated in the 25 drafting of this new legislation, that there was no such

1 thing as a federal death penalty. And that is the whole crux
2 of this argument. There was simply no such thing as a
3 federal death penalty until the drug kingpin statute came
4 along, and on the heels of that last year, the new provision
5 which enacts the provisions and requirements of Furman.

6 That's the guts of the argument, at least the last
7 half. I was glad Mr. Becker finally got around to citing
8 Dobbert because I predicted in my original brief that that is 9 the case that they would rely on heavily. And I'm glad to 10 see that he is, because I think it's favorable to us based on 11 the notice concept of that decision and the more recent 12 decision of Miller which talks about notice.

13 THE COURT: Anybody else got anything they want to 14 say?

15 MR. PETERS: Just real briefly. That was Point 3
16 by Mr. Becker. Going back -- and I think the Court picked
17 up, the second point was that my analysis of a 1970 case
18 being unlimited statute of limitations was wrong.

19 I think there's a core dispute, apparently, as to 20 whether the statute of limitations is substantive or 21 procedural. Mr. Becker's arguing it's procedural that 22 today's statute goes back to 1970. My argument in that, my 23 argument is that it's substantive and you've got to apply the 24 substantive law as it applied at the time to the crime when 25 it was charged. So that's the reason I suggest that in a

1 1970 crime you would be able to have a unlimited statute of
2 limitations because the substantive law at the time said it
3 was, the notice requirement and all of that.

4 The final thing, I had saved this in hopes that
5 somebody would bite on it. In 1994 they took out that last
6 sentence, "except for offenses barred by provisions of law
7 existing on August 4th, 1939."

8 What I was hoping somebody would do is say, well,
9 they took that out because Mr. Becker's argument is correct
10 and there is now and always has been an unlimited statute of 11 limitations for all capital crimes, like their position is.
12 And so I was hoping he would nibble on it and say, see, this 13 shows it because now it's unlimited.

14 The reality, and we don't have to go much farther
15 than a couple of weeks ago where a purported Nazi guard was 16 in a gun battle because he didn't want to go back. You can 17 have people who committed a murder in 1938, 1935 who could be 18 prosecuted today. So this section would only be pulled out
19 if, as Mr. Becker suggests, there's always -- and the Court
20 has suggested Congressional intent was to identify crimes
21 that would always have an unlimited statute of limitations.
22 And I was hoping somebody would bite on that and say, well,
23 see, they took this out because there's always been, capital
24 crimes have always been prosecutable with an unlimited time
25 period, never been a time bar.

1 And if it was taken out, however, because from the
2 time of Furman until now, until 1994, there was only a
3 five-year statute of limitations, as we're arguing, then it
4 would be interesting to know why they took that out. They
5 would have taken it out, if my argument is correct, because
6 it was an obsolete provision. Because for 22 years you had a
7 five-year statute of limitations. It's obsolete.

8 And if you go in and you look at the legislative 9 history on this in 1994 -- and I don't know how to do it in 10 the law books. I did it at the U.S. House of Representatives
11 going through their record over the internet, and I've got 12 the cite if we need to give it to you.

13 This wasn't taken out because it was inapplicable.
14 It wasn't taken out because it was irrelevant. It was taken
15 out because Congress in 1994 said, realized they were saying,
16 okay, we're having a death penalty back. We've had a 22-year
17 period where there's a five-year statute of limitations.
18 This provision that we've had in there that would refer to 19 murders that happened in 1939 is obsolete, and that's why
20 they pulled it out.

21 And instead of being pulled out because it's 22 redundant or not necessary or anything, the legislative 23 intent, if we were to actually go that deep, was because it
24 was obsolete. I'm done.

25 THE COURT: Anything else? Anybody else have

1 anything they want to say? Okay. Thank you. What time are
2 we starting tomorrow?

3 LAW CLERK: I think we're starting with the jury at 4 9:00.

5 THE COURT: Is that consistent with all of your
6 understanding is we start at 9:00 with the individual?

7 MR. BECKER: Do we have a list? Do we know who is
8 coming in in the morning and the afternoon?

9 THE COURT: We should have the letters as to who is 10 coming in. You all need to have those.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, you were concerned about 12 the questionnaires. I assume the courtroom is going to be 13 locked. Can I leave those here this evening?

14 THE COURT: You're making an assumption. You don't 15 realize it, but you're making an assumption of something that 16 I'm not sure how -- I'm not sure we're going to be here
17 tomorrow. I want to get back upstairs, and we're going to do
18 that if we can, if I can get Judge Clark to agree to move
19 down here. I don't know.

20 I've heard two stories. One is he's planning to 21 come down here tomorrow, and the other story is he thinks
22 he's going to be upstairs all week. So I don't know where we 23 are.

24 But anyway, the answer to your question is the 25 courtroom is going to be locked, yes.

1 MR. OSGOOD: We'll retrieve them in the morning,
2 then, if we need to.

3 (Proceedings were recessed for the day at 7:15
4 p.m.)

5 — — —

7 Wednesday, January 15, 1997

9 (Peremptory strikes were made by the parties, a
10 jury was selected, and thereafter the following proceedings
11 were had in the courtroom in the presence of the defendants,
12 but out of the presence of the jury:)

13 THE COURT: All right. The next issue I want to -
14 well, there's one other item. I was visited earlier today by 15 a member of the electronic media asking that I give him and 16 his employer the names of the members of the jury and the 17 alternates before tomorrow morning. I told him I would not
18 do that. I did tell him, however, and he seemed overjoyed
19 with this, that I would tell him how many men and how many 20 women have been selected on the jury. Does anybody object if 21 I tell them that?

22 MR. BECKER: No, Your Honor.

23 MR. PETERS: None of the defendants object.

24 THE COURT: All right. Now, if you all would check
25 me on this, I'm a product of the old math, and I believe that

1 we have six men and six women on the jury and two men and two
2 women as alternates. Does anyone disagree with that? Miss
3 Franco, I'm particularly interested on your view on that 4 since on a couple of occasions I have misread a name and
5 gotten, based on the name alone made an assumption about the 6 sex that was not accurate. So if you could take a look at
7 it.

8 MS. FRANCO: Your Honor, that's my count, too, six
9 and six.

10 THE COURT: That gives me a much higher degree of 11 confidence than what I had before in that regard. Okay.

12 Anything else with regard to the jury, the jury
13 selection process, or the procedure for tomorrow, or at least
14 the first thing we will do tomorrow?

15 All right. Now, the next matter I want to bring up
16 is discussion of when we are going to take up some other
17 matters, or any matter, really, that needs to be taken up
18 before opening statements. Obviously, one of those matters 19 are the opening instructions. The -- Gabi, do you have those 20 for me, the opening instructions?

21 All right. I'll pass out to you all tomorrow
22 morning after we have sent the jury and the alternates home
23 for the weekend a proposed set of opening instructions. If 24 any of you have any comments that you haven't already
25 furnished us on what you think the opening instructions

1 should be, we need them no later than noon -- well, noon is a
2 little unreasonable since that's only 20 minutes from now.
3 No later than 3 o'clock this afternoon.

4 And I said we'll pass out my proposed set of 5 opening instructions tomorrow morning. What I would like to 6 do is have you all take a look at them tomorrow morning, and 7 if you have any problem with them, tell me what that problem
8 is tomorrow morning. In other words, so we can have that all
9 set by Tuesday morning and we don't have to delay things
10 talking about those on Tuesday morning. Is that agreeable
11 with everybody on that subject?

12 MR. BECKER: That's fine with the government,
13 Judge.

14 THE COURT: All right. The next item -

15 MS. FRANCO: Your Honor, I'm sorry. You asked me
16 one question, and I managed to do my own math on it too. We 17 have seven males and five females.

18 THE COURT: Oh, you do? Why don't you tell me who
19 you -

20 MR. BECKER: Judge, I'm informed that we have seven
21 males and five females.

22 THE COURT: okay. Great. Seven and five, and the 23 alternates are two and two, right? Okay. Thank you. A11
24 right.

25 The next item that I know of that we need to talk

1 about before Tuesday is Defendant Darlene Edwards' motion in
2 Limine I'm prepared to talk about that now. I'll be
3 prepared to talk about it, presumably I'll be prepared, if
4 I'm prepared now to talk about it, I should be prepared
5 tomorrow to talk about it after we send the jury home.
6 Therefore, I will listen to anybody who has a preference as
7 to when we talk about it.

8 MR. BECKER: I would prefer tomorrow morning. I
9 did not bring those materials to court. I didn't know we 10 were going to be addressing it. They're on the fifth floor.
11 I mean, I could get them.

12 MR. BUNCH: I concur with Mr. Becker. In addition
13 to that, we would probably like to talk about that amongst 14 ourselves before tomorrow morning.

15 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. So we'll put that 16 on the agenda for tomorrow morning. Now, is there anything
17 else that anybody would like to put on the agenda for either
18 today or tomorrow morning?

19 MR. OSGOOD: With respect to the motions in limine,
20 Your Honor, I think we made this record in front of 21 Magistrate Hays. I don't know if it was told to you.

22 Mr. Becker agreed that before he would ask any 23 questions that alluded to evidence of other crimes that he 24 would alert the bench, and on the basis of that, we didn't
25 try to go through the records and file 150 motions, or 150

1 incidentsof evidence of other crimes; is that right, Mr.
2 Becker?

3 MR. BECKER: I thought we were specifically looking
4 at what would be 404(b), such as the Darlene Edwards -
5 there's an incident where she burns a car for insurance
6 purposes. Certainly I would alert all parties ahead of time
7 on that.

8 MR. OSGOOD: I had in mind, Witness Smith is on the 9 stand, and he says, yeah, I know Frank Sheppard, I met him
10 down at the Missouri State Penitentiary. Or I know Richard 11 Brown, I met him over at the Jackson County Jail when he was 12 doing time on drunk driving.

13 MR. BECKER: I was not intending to alert anyone of 14 that because that is clearly contained in all the reports of 15 interviewsand/or the grand jury material.

16 MR. OSGOOD: There are probably 200 or 300
17 incidents of that that we would have to flood the court
18 with.

19 MR. BECKER: You have the order of witnesses for 20 the first week. You will have on the day preceding the order
21 of witnesses for the next day so that any of those matters,
22 you should have some idea of when they're coming and in what 23 orderthey're coming, and I believe we could address them as 24 you wish or as the Court determines.

25 MR. OSGOOD: What's the Court's preference, Your 100

1 Honor?

2 THE COURT: My preference is that when the jury is 3 here, the jury is in the courtroom and we're not up here at 4 the bench and we're not back in the conference room. I'll
5 leave it up to you all. I'll be available before the trial
6 day, I'll be available after the trial day, but I will be 7 very impatient if there are matters that are taken up on the 8 jury's time that could have been taken up before or after the 9 trial day.

10 Now, obviously, there are -- in any trial, there
11 are unexpected things that come up that take time, and the 12 jury just has to live with them. But, you know, I'm not
13 going to be very patient with anybody who wants to take time
14 out of the jury's day for things that we should have dealt
15 with earlier. And that's all I can tell you because I don't 16 know what the -- I mean, I don't have any, I don't have much
17 feel for the issue or the, how much of an issue it is or 18 whether one ruling on it can take care of a lot of the 19 situation. It sounds to me like one ruling on the issue, as 20 I understand Mr. Osgood presenting it, ought to take care of,
21 ought to take care of most of these problems.

22 MR. OSGOOD: Well, and my fear is if he preps his 23 witnesses and we get the list ahead of time and he's already 24 prepped the witness, then we've got the problem, too, of the 25 witness, even though Mr. Becker doesn't elicit the answer

1 with a specific question, we have a problem with the witness
2 blurting out the answer.

3 So I'm more concerned about Mr. Becker warning the 4 witness not to blurt that kind of information out until he
5 asks a specific direct question about it. I think Your Honor
6 knows well and good that that's a problem with a witness
7 that's particularly testifying with a prior conviction or 8 something who is trying to curry favor with the government.

9 THE COURT: Well, it's a problem, Mr. Osgood, with 10 everybody's witnesses on both sides all the time. A witness
11 by definition is somebody who does the unexpected. So it's 12 something that I'm not going to buy into, and you can quit
13 trying to sell me some kind of idea that we've got people in 14 this courtroom who aren't going to carry out their 15 responsibilities and make a good faith effort to follow my 16 orders, and I'm not -

17 MR. OSGOOD: I'm not suggesting Mr. Becker would do
18 that.

19 THE COURT: You can just sort of table all that 20 kind of sinister kind of presentation because it's not, it
21 doesn't get points with me.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I didn't say that, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: You were suggesting that Mr. Becker is 24 the type of person who is going to try to do sneaky little
25 things to get around my orders, and he's not going to do

1 that, and neither are you, and neither is anybody else,
2 unless they want to have trouble with me.

3 MR. OSGOOD: And I did not suggest that, Your
4 Honor. I suggested the witnesses, the character of these
5 witnesses suggest they will do it, even if Mr. Becker -- I'm 6 concerned even when Mr. Becker tells them not to do it that
7 they will do it. It's the character of the witness I'm 8 concerned about.

9 THE COURT: That's the point I'm making, that
10 witnesses by definition will do the unexpected. They'll do
11 exactly, many of them -- and it's understandable, by the 12 way. I'm not being critical because if any of you all have 13 ever been a witness in a courtroom proceeding, you know that 14 you can be cool as a cucumber and be very understanding and 15 appear very rational outside the courtroom when you're 16 talking to the lawyer, but you get in the courtroom and 17 you've got all of these people looking at you, you've got 18 this room, which by itself is imposing. And people will 19 either freeze, or they get nervous when they're, when -- it's 20 a function of their role, not a function of what they're 21 doing.

22 So I mean, but it's not that I -- I mean, I
23 understand what you're saying. All I'm saying is that I
24 don't think anything can be done effectively to guarantee
25 that a witness will not blurt out something, particularly -

1 and this is why, this is what is so difficult about this type
2 of issue, and it's not just in this area, it goes across the
3 board -- particularly if the witness believes it's the truth
4 and the witness has just taken an oath to tell the truth, the 5 whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

6 Now, you put a witness up there and somebody asks a
7 question that you or I might say, hey, doesn't call for that 8 answer. You know, that isn't what's called for by the 9 answer. Mainly because we're not the witness. I mean, ~~~ -e
10 sort of cool and detached from it. But the witness blurts
11 out something. Now, that can happen either because it's 12 planned, or it can happen accidentally.

13 My experience is with the people that practice in 14 this court as lawyers, my belief is that it usually is 15 accidental. Now, occasionally because of the pattern of the 16 behavior or other factors, I've made a determination there
17 may be some question about whether it's entirely accidental,
18 in which case the lawyer involved and the other lawyers in 19 the case and I have a little talk. And I try to make it very 20 clear to them.

21 So I'm taking this occasion to make it very clear
22 to all of you that you are officers of the court, your 23 obligation is to follow the rules of this court, to follow
24 the orders that I hand down. And I expect you to do that.
25 Now, that takes care of that issue, I hope, from now until

1 the end.

2 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Your Honor, but i don't
3 know that it does because I just heard Mr. Becker just tell
4 me that he's not counting on excluding that kind of
5 testimony.

6 THE COURT: No, I'm saying that takes care of the 7 issue of sneaky lawyer syndrome.

8 MR. OSGOOD: I'm not suggesting that he's engaging
9 in sneaky tactics. I've known Mr. Becker a long time. I
10 respect his ability, and I respect him as a lawyer, Your 11 Honor, and he's done nothing in this case that I would
12 consider an ethical violation at this point.

13 But the fact remains he's an aggressive lawyer, and 14 he represents the United States Government, and he wants to 15 put his best case on that he can. And I think, quite 16 candidly, that his best case would be such evidence, for 17 example, as, do you know Mr. Brown? Yes, I do. When did you
18 first meet him? I met him when we were doing time together
19 over in Jackson County on a DWI charge.

20 That's clearly prejudicial and, you know, unless 21 the witness is told how to handle that question, the witness
22 is going to give that answer. And you know full well he 23 will, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: But, Mr. Osgood, it may well be that 25 the witness's testimony and whether it is believable or not

1 may in part depend upon how the witness happens to know what
2 the witness is testifying about.

3 MR. OSGOOD: I agree.

4 THE COURT: And that is frequently a function of 5 where the event took place, who was present, how much of an
6 opportunity the witness had to be exposed to whatever the 7 event is that being testified about. So frequently, the 8 location of an event is crucial to the finder of fact being
9 able to assess its credibility.

10 MR. OSGOOD: I don't disagree with that. If they 11 were cellmates for 60 days and it was an admission my client
12 made after they were 58 days friends in the cell talking
13 about criminal behavior, certainly I would expect the Court,
14 I would object to it, but I would expect the Court would let 15 it in. But by the same token, if he met him eight years ago
16 in Jackson County while they were both over there doing three 17 days for speeding and now he's talking about an event six
18 years later when he met him at a party, clearly it's 19 irrelevant and it's prejudicial.

20 I don't want to belabor the point. I think the 21 court is aware of it. If you want me to file 150-page
22 pleading citing line by line in these statements, I will do
23 it, Your Honor. I thought the easier way to handle it would 24 be a commitment from the government that they would be
25 sensitive to that issue and that the Court would be sensitive

1 to it and that would be it, it would be a more expeditious
2 way to handle it.

3 THE COURT: I'm all in favor of expeditious.

4 MR. OSGOOD: There's another issue, if I might.

5 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Hold it. Bet's don't 6 go jumping from issue to issue and leave all of these things
7 hanging. Mr. Peters, would you like to say something on that
8 issue?

9 MR. PETERS: All I'm saying is as far as I knew,
10 the issue was hanging so if there's -- there are probably 60
11 witnesses where in their statement, it's going to be 12 something like, yeah, I know so-and-so because we used to do
13 dope together, and then on the night of the explosion, he 14 told me such-and-such.

15 And the issue that I see that's still hanging is,
16 again, I recognize I'm in a different court, but if the 17 statement "we used to do dope together" came out in trial
18 inadvertently, from my background, it would be a mistrial.
19 And so what the judge has said, it seems to be hanging. I
20 think we all agree, if the involvement, being in jail
21 together is where the statement took place, we don't have a
22 dispute as to that. But what I feel like is left hanging is 23 -- what we're asking is that the government instruct their 24 witnesses who have this familiarity with the defendants'
25 criminal background or jail background, and that they're

1 charged with instructing their witnesses that it's not to be
2 mentioned on the witness stand.

3 On the things that touch on something admissible,
4 what I was required to do as a prosecutor is approach the 5 bench before it would be elicited from the witness. What I'm
6 hearing is that it's unresolved. And if the Court -- as Mr.
7 Osgood said, our understanding was this issue was kind of 8 resolved in front of Judge Hays. I'm now hearing -- I don't
9 know if it is resolved. If it's not resolved, then on behalf
10 of my client who spent time in the joint, I'm going to need
11 to go through and carefully file motions in limine so that 12 those witnesses can be put on notice. And if that's what the 13 Court would like, that's fine.

14 That's all I had because I felt like it was left
15 hanging.

16 THE COURT: Well, you all are dealing with 17 something that you're not going to suck me into. Okay?

18 MR. PETERS: I'm sorry. I didn't hear the last of
19 that.

20 THE COURT: You're not going to suck me into doing
21 this. I'm not going to spend any substantial part of my life
22 requiring a lawyer to run through their testimony with me and 23 get it sanitized before they put it on. And I'm not going to 24 require them to do that at your request. So you can forget
25 that.

108

1 I will, however, say this. I expect Mr. Becker,
2 after this discussion and whatever previous discussions you
3 all had on this, which I'm not aware of, to exercise the kind
4 of judgment that he ought to exercise and to avoid the, do
5 everything he can to avoid the inadvertent, irrelevant
6 reference by a witness to uncharged criminal behavior or to 7 the location of an event if that has nothing to do with the 8 testimony that's being presented.

9 On the other side of it, I'm going to demand of 10 defense counsel, if you are aware from all the information
11 you've got that there is a high degree of risk with regard to 12 a witness that they are going to do this, I expect you to 13 bring it to my attention. But I'm not going to get, you're 14 not going to get me into getting into some deal where I
15 require both you and the government to sort of present your 16 witnesses to me so I can stamp them approved or unapproved as 17 to what they're going to say because that's not going to work
18 either. Because when the testimony comes along, there's no
19 guarantee they're going to say it the way they would have 20 said it, even if we did that. So it would be a waste of our
21 time.

22 But the defense counsel are not going to avoid the 23 responsibility of bringing this matter to my attention in a
24 specific way with regard to specific witnesses, and Mr.
25 Becker's not going to avoid his responsibility after this

1 discussion to exercise good judgment in preparing his
2 I witnesses. And despite Mr. Osgood's suggestion to the 3 I contrary, Mr. Becker is not, I'm confident, going to prepare
4 This witnesses in such a manner that they can sort of try to 5 zing the defendants every time they have a chance with 6 irrelevant, immaterial, and possibly unfairly prejudicial
7 information.

8 Now, if that doesn't take care of it for today,
9 then you all better get to work on your 150-page motion
10 because otherwise you're not going to get any relief. Okay.
11 Next.

12 MR. PETERS: Judge, just on that -- and I don't 13 know the procedure, and I apologize. You stated very 14 succinctly about a minute or two ago and then summarized it.
15 Is it possible for me to -- I wrote down as fast as I can.
16 Is it possible for me to get the Court's guidance on that 17 through the court reporter just sometime before Tuesday so
18 that -

19 THE COURT: Do you want me to repeat what I just 20 said? I couldn't do that, I couldn't remember it.

21 MR. PETERS: That's why I asked about using the 22 court reporter.

23 THE COURT: I couldn't do it. I mean, I can give 24 you the outline, if you want me to. Miss Wirt, I'm sure,
25 will be glad to read back what I said. Or if you've got a

1 question about what I said, ask me and I'll try to repeat it.

2 MR. PETERS: I didn't have any question at all. I
3 just wanted to blow it up and put it over my computer to 4 guide me.

5 THE COURT: So you can use it later? Well, you
6 certainly should have that, and I'm sure Miss Wirt will -- in 7 fact, maybe she could mark it right now so she can -- she's
8 done it. She's marked it so she can read it back to you.

9 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

10 THE COURT: If after you've had it read back to 11 you, if you have some question about what I said, as you can
12 tell, that was extemporaneous. I don't have a script here
13 that I was reading from. If you wonder if I really meant
14 what I said, come and ask me, and I'll -- I mean, I could 15 have used a word that was wrong.

16 My hope, my whole idea is you will all know what
17 your jobs are and I expect you to do it, and I'll try to do
18 my job. But, you know, we can't in a case of this type or 19 any type guarantee people absolutely any particular result
20 when we're dealing with human beings under very stressful
21 situations. And as Mr. Peters points out, and he's exactly
22 right, I mean, just because it's unexpected, unplanned, if it
23 happens, it may well be the basis for a mistrial. I mean, I
24 don't know.

25 I mean, I'm not saying that just because it's

1 unexpected and unplanned that, therefore, it's okay. I'm
2 saying that -- I think we all have to recognize that kind of
3 thing happens and it will be up to you all and to me to 4 decide what to do if something that's improper happens and 5 for me to assess whether it has had any irreparable, adverse
6 effect on anybody's right to a fair trial. If I conclude
7 that and I have a request for a mistrial, you'll get a
8 mistrial.

9 MR. BECKER: I have four points, four issues.

10 THE COURT: Wait just a minute. Just a second
11 here. Remember where we were a minute ago? Mr. Osgood had 12 another issue that he wanted to raise, and I stopped him
13 while we took this matter up. So let's let Mr. Osgood raise
14 his other issue here since I interrupted him.

15 MR. OSGOOD: I think I'll save that one for another
16 day, Your Honor, the next issue.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, as long as it isn't -
18 as long as you're not saving it for first thing Tuesday
19 morning. I mean, if you want to save it until tomorrow or 20 some other time, that's fine.

21 MR. OSGOOD: I will address it, then. This is Mr.
22 Martindale who has confessed to the crime, failed a
23 polygraph.

24 THE COURT: Just a second. Are you going to give 25 me some -- because I don't know who Mr. Martindale is.

1 MR. OSGOOD: I understand. Let me give you some
2 background. Mr. Martindale was an individual that they
3 focused on very heavily and failed a polygraph, I believe.
4 They took him in, and he provided a full confession. There
5 were, we've got photographs which suggest that he told them
6 information that had not been public, and conceivably the 7 only way he knew it was that he was at the scene and must
8 have seen these things. So we feel it's a credible
9 confession. Mr. Becker turned it over to us as Brady
10 material.

11 Now, we asked Mr. Becker, do you have any evidence
12 that would suggest that Mr. Martindale, in fact, was a
13 categorical, unmitigated liar or insane or that he was in 14 Western Missouri Mental Health or something at the time he 15 made this confession? Mr. Becker did not respond to that.

16 Now, if he has that kind of evidence, we contend
17 that that is, in fact, not Brady material, what it is is 18 Jencks material, like any other Jencks material. By 19 characterizing it as Brady material, he is suggesting to us
20 that it is, in fact, a credible, at least on the surface,
21 exculpatory classic statement under Brady. As you'll recall,
22 Brady was, in fact, a confessing defendant. They've gone
23 beyond Brady now with impeachment, but we're dealing now with 24 an individual that actually confessed.

25 We feel that it is unfair to characterize it as

6 One, it's going to save a lot of time. If we go
7 off down a path with this court to suggest that Mr.
8 Martindale, in fact, is the one that is responsible for this
9 crime and we spend a good deal of time developing that point,
10 and then Mr. Becker brings in a surprise witness from the 11 Missouri Western Mental Health and says, no, at the time the 12 explosion occurred, he was an inmate with us, locked up 13 because he's schizophrenic, then we've just wasted a lot of 14 the Court's time.

[illegible]

18 THE COURT: Is that part of your theory, that Mr.
19 Martindale is the guy who did it and not your client?

20 MR. OSGOOD: Well, my client, obviously, has an 21 alibi, and we don't know who did it, other than we've got
22 a -

23 THE COURT: I understand.

24 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, I think Mr. Martindale must have 25 been there based on his confession, absolutely.

1 THE COURT: By himself, or -- I don't know what
2 your theory is. I'm trying to get some idea of what your 3 theory is.

4 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Martindale confessed to it and
5 made statements that would suggest that only he would have
6 known that by being personally there. Now, Mr. O'Connor has
7 seen the photographs and can address that better than I.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, I had planned to put on 9 as my case -- I guess everyone can put Martindale on, but 10 he's a person that I've endorsed, and I have witnesses that 11 are related to him.

12 Again, it's going to depend on the ruling of the 13 court on whether this evidence even comes in. Martindale is 14 under subpoena currently. Martindale gave a videotape, this 15 is on the TV confession, a video confession to this crime,
16 and the evidence leading up to him giving the confession and 17 statements made to him by interrogating officers and 18 statements he made, which we would contend are against penal 19 interest. And we believe he had certain facts and 20 information that he could never have had unless he had 21 actually been there.

22 The person that he puts himself with -- Martindale
23 is about six foot three or six foot four with long hair. The 24 guy he put himself with, Billy Hardin, is about six foot
25 four, 250 pounds with blond hair. The Riggers, the two

1 security guards who are going to testify in the case, will
2 Isay that they saw two men run across the highway, one with
3 long dark hair, and one with long blond hair. They went up
4 Ito investigate, did not find anybody, they left and went and
5 I had coffee. And when they were having the coffee is when
6 I this fire and explosion started.

7 So we believe that there is -- and again, we'll
8 have to put this proof before the Court at that time. But we
9 believe that there is strong evidence of Martindale's
10 involvement, and if -- we believe that if they have evidence
11 to disprove that, one, we put that evidence forward trying to 12 get some credibility with this jury. Me believing, based on 13 what I've seen, with good reason, with photographs to back up
14 with what he says, seven of them, to be exact. And if you
15 want me to go through each photograph and what's in them and 16 ~ what he says, we can, but that somehow gives up our defense
17 in the case and lets Mr. Becker know where we're coming
18 from.

19 But I believe that if they have evidence -- if they 20 went and talked to Billy Hardin, we have nothing. Obviously,
21 ~ if they didn't put what Billy Hardin -- they took a video
22 confession from him. They told him he was the person
23 responsible for killing the firefighters, they told him he 24 was going to spend the rest of his life in prison, that will
25 ~ be the evidence.

1 And so if they have found Billy Hardin or talked to
2 Billy Hardin and disproved the alibi or, strike that,
3 disproved the confession, then we believe we're entitled to
4 that information. Because we're walking down a blind street.

5 THE COURT: Well, but you mean so that you'll know
6 whether your defense is a good defense or not a good
7 defense?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Well, Judge, we don't know. If you
9 look at this from a total good faith basis, if you had the 10 confession, you had the photographs, you had the information
11 given at the time of the event, it could lead a reasonable
12 person, not an advocate, but a reasonable person to believe 13 that Martindale did this. Now, if there was evidence to 14 disprove that, I don't know that I would then put that 15 evidence on. And all I'm trying to find out -- I don't know
16 the truth either.

17 THE COURT: But what case says that you're entitled 18 to know ahead of time whether your evidence is good evidence
19 or poor evidence?

20 MR. BECKER: Surprisingly, Judge, that's exactly
21 what the magistrate said at the similar request. If you have 22 some case law on that point, she said she'd like to see it.

23 THE COURT: I'm glad to see that I've foreseen what
24 somebody else said, but I'm still interested in what the case
25 law is that says that you're entitled to have the government

1 tell you whether your defense is a good defense or a poor
2 defense.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, if it's given to us as Brady
4 material.

5 THE COURT: Why is it Brady material?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: No, no, the confession.

7 THE COURT: So the confession is Brady material.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: They're saying, here is some 9 exculpatory information that proves that your clients may not 10 have done that.

11 THE COURT: It doesn't necessarily say that. I
12 don't think the government is saying it proves that your 13 clients didn't do it; otherwise, they would dismiss the 14 case. If they said that, the case is over. So what they're 15 doing is saying it could, might, I mean, they're complying
16 with what the concept of Brady was.

17 Now, what requires them to give you information to 18 tell you that if you rely on the information they've given 19 you that you've just stuck your foot in a hole? Where is 20 that case? Just give me the case.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't have the case.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Then what's the theory, even?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: The theory is, Judge, if he gives it
24 to me as exculpatory, that's a fraud if there's other
25 evidence that disproves that.

1 THE COURT: It is not a fraud. It's exactly what
 2 you're saying. It might be exculpatory if the jury believed
 3 it. But why does the government have to give you a guarantee
 4 that the jury is going to believe it? And why do they have
 5 to tell you things that aren't exculpatory? I mean, the fact
 6 that this guy may have been in Western Missouri Mental Health
 7 at the time isn't exculpatory, is it? It sounds to me like
 8 it's just the opposite.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: We are not concerned about
 10 Martindale. We're concerned about Billy Hardin. We've 11 talked to Martindale. Martindale, there's no problem on 12 Martindale.

13 THE COURT: So you know he wasn't in Western 14 Missouri Mental -

15 MR. O'CONNOR: We know he was out and about and he 16 could have committed this crime.

17 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I was just told a
 18 minute ago that you were concerned about the fact, not you,
 19 but Mr. Osgood was concerned about the fact that he was in 20 Western Missouri Mental Health at the time.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I think he was using that as an
 22 analogy, if that were the case.

23 THE COURT: But he knew it wasn't.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't know that he knew it wasn't.

25 MR. OSGOOD: I've never talked to the man.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: I've taken his statement, and I
2 haven't got it back from the reporter yet to get it to the
3 other counsel, but they know I've tacked to him.

4 THE COURT: So you're concerned about Hardin?

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm concerned about Hardin, exactly.

6 THE COURT: So you're concerned about -- and what
7 are you concerned about with Hardin?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: That they go find Hardin and can
9 prove that Hardin was somewhere at the time.

10 THE COURT: Is Hardin on their witness list?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: No, neither is Martindale.

12 THE COURT: You're suggesting that they've found
13 Hardin and they haven't put him on the witness list because 14 they don't want to call him?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm suggesting that -- not recently,
16 but back at the time -- I'm assuming when a guy confesses and 17 they're telling him he's the guy, I'm assuming they went to 18 find Hardin. I don't know.

19 THE COURT: And they found Hardin -- and let's just 20 hypothesize here. They found Hardin, and Hardin said, yeah,
21 I was with Martindale at the time, and everything Martindale
22 says is correct, that's where we were. Now, that's Brady,
23 isn't it?

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Exactly. So I'm assuming they don't 25 have that.

1 THE COURT: So, now, the next option is they have
2 found Hardin, which I guess is sort of a nothing, right?
3 They never found him. They might have looked for him but 4 never found him. You've looked for him and have not been 5 able to find him.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell the Court this. I have
7 pretty good sources that they found him, but I couldn't tell
8 you 100 percent.

9 THE COURT: So they found him, and so now I guess
10 the next thing is he doesn't remember, or he says Martindale
11 is full of boloney, I was never with Martindale.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: And if that's the case -

13 THE COURT: Now, why do they have to tell you
14 that?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I agree with you, they don't.

16 THE COURT: So what are we talking about here?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: If there is some proof of 18 Martindale, in other words, Martindale was in jail at the 19 time, Martindale was in the -- if there's some conclusive
20 proof that could prove, absent his statement, where he was 21 that would disprove Martindale, that's what I think we're 22 entitled to.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And what rule, case, principle
24 gives you the basis for your claim? Because, see, once you
25 give me the rule and the case, then I can turn to Mr. Becker

1 and make the same request of him as to what he's, what he
2 has, and then we'll make some progress here.

3 MR. OSGOOD: Under the omnibus report we
4 characterized discovery as consistent with Rule 16 and go
5 beyond. Rule 16 is very explicit about what you get in terms
6 of tangible documents, statements of the defendants,
7 statements made to a person known to be a law enforcement
8 officer. That's Category A.

9 Category B is Brady material which is disclosed
10 ahead of time, which is either a confession of someone else
11 or impeaching information. We cut impeaching information out
12 under Agurs and those cases that followed. We're really
13 keying on Brady. Brady -

14 THE COURT: You're making your request -- are you
15 interested in Hardin or not?

16 MR. OSGOOD: Let me just summarize here, if I
17 might, briefly.

18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. OSGOOD: So Brady, we know what Brady is. The 20 third major category is Jencks material, 18 U.S.C. 3500,
21 which is a statement of a witness that the government
22 proposes to call at trial.

23 Now, in analyzing Mr. Martindale's confession, we 24 got that very early on in the case specifically characterized 25 as Brady material, not as Jencks material. Under the omnibus

1 report, Mr. Becker was ordered to identify Brady material and
2 turn it over to us. He has turned that over to us as Brady
3 material. If, in fact, he knows it is not Brady material and
4 it is only, at best, Jencks material if he calls the witness,
5 then what we have is a situation which will cause us to waste
6 this Court's time, cause us to go down a path that probably
7 is unproductive. And, under the Court's supervisory power
8 and in enforcing the omnibus report, this Court has the 9 authority and probably should well require Mr. Becker in good
10 faith to state which category it is. That's all we're
11 requesting is that he tell us in straightforward, candid
12 terms, is it Brady material or is it Jencks material.

13 THE COURT: You told me he's always said it was 14 Brady material.

15 MR. OSGOOD: I'm suggesting that if he knows full
16 well that this witness could not possibly under any situation
17 have been there because he was locked up in jail, then he 18 knows it's not Brady material.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood, you know, that's an 20 astonishing concept. You know, I mean, I can just hear what 21 would happen in this case if Mr. Becker ahead of time had 22 made that judgment. You know, if he had said, well, you
23 know, this guy Martindale, he said this, but I don't believe
24 him. And I've got, I've got pretty solid basis for not
25 believing him, so I don't think it's Brady material, I'm not

1 going to turn it over. I would have to ask you to come down
2 from the ceiling up there, you would be so upset, and you
3 would have justification for it. You would be absolutely
4 justified in being upset because -

5 MR. OSGOOD: I agree.

6 THE COURT: -- the determination of Brady material
7 should not be on the government, whether they believe it or
8 not, it's up to you all. You're entitled to it, and so you
9 got it.

10 MR. OSGOOD: And this is not a game, Your Honor.
11 And there's a Supreme Court case that's quoted over and over 12 again about his obligation to seek truth and justice, not to 13 come in here and convict somebody for the sake of convicting
14 them.

15 I'm not suggesting he is. But the point is that
16 obligation would suggest that, yes, you don't hold it back
17 and make the judgment unilaterally. What you do is you give 18 us everything dealing with Mr. Martindale that you have 19 conducted an investigation on, which would be his confession
20 and any collateral statements, whether he's going to call him
21 as a witness or not. That would either eliminate this as an
22 issue or bring it to the forefront. That's all we're
23 asking. We think he's got a good faith obligation to do
24 that.

25 THE COURT: That's a concept that turns the

1 American criminal justice system on its ear. That's not the
2 obligation of the government to tell the defense whether
3 their defense is good or bad or to tell them what's going to 4 happen to them if they rely on a particular defense, unless 5 there is a case or a statute or a rule that requires it. And
6 as soon as you give it to me, then I'm going to turn the 7 spotlight on Mr. Becker and ask him what his response is to 8 that case, rule, or statute.

9 Yes, Mr. O'Connor?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: We're going to research this issue.
11 We wanted to bring it to your attention because this is 12 something -- obviously, I want to get it addressed finally 13 and absolutely before the trial starts because I may be 14 making an opening statement about it.

15 The other thing I want to say about it, just for 16 the Court to take into consideration, because of the fact
17 that we were denied the continuance, because we were trying 18 to do everything else, to try to go back and try to find this 19 guy who the best address he gave in his confession at the 20 time was in the St. Louis area, a report in 1991 with just 21 his name, Charles Jennings, I haven't even addressed that 22 issue with everything else we're trying to address. And 23 that's just another further complication that comes into play
24 here just as a natural event.

25 THE COURT: Well, Mr. O'Connor, let's -- we'll take

1 it up, your authority that you come up with tomorrow after we
2 send the jury home.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Becker, do you want to say
5 anything about that issue, or do you want to wait until they
6 get their authority together?

7 MR. BECKER: I have nothing to offer on that issue.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Osgood, do you have any 9 other issues that you want to raise?

10 MR. OSGOOD: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Any of the other defense
12 attorneys have anything you want to raise?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: We reserve the right to caucus when 14 we're done and let you know by 3:00 if we have any issue we 15 want to take up.

16 THE COURT: You don't need to do that. I mean, you
17 do need to do it, but you can let me know tomorrow. unless 18 -- and what I'd like you to do is let Mr. Becker know if 19 there's something you're going to be bringing up tomorrow
20 just so when you bring it up tomorrow he doesn't say, oh,
21 well, I need time to get ready for it, and then we've got to 22 figure out when we're going to meet between Thursday morning
23 and -- we can always do it on Friday, we can do it Saturday,
24 Sunday, or Monday, but I think you all probably have other
25 things that you're going to be wanting to do. And so I just

1 thought since you're all going to be here tomorrow that this
2 would be a time to take care of it at the minimum
3 inconvenience to all of you.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: We'll call him, Judge.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Peters, do you have anything
6 else you want to raise?

7 MR. PETERS: I don't believe so. I think Mr.
8 Becker may address -

9 THE COURT: And Miss Franco, do you have anything?

10 MS. FRANCO: Not at this time.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch?

12 MR. BUNCH: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Becker?

14 MR. BECKER: Reciprocal discovery, Judge. The 15 thing that brought it to mind is Mr. O'Connor mentioning the 16 Martindale statement. Mr. Martindale is listed as a witness
17 on Defendant Bryan Sheppard's witness list. Mr. O'Connor
18 informed me the middle of last week, I believe, I don't have 19 a date, but that he had taken a stenographic statement from 20 Martindale. He said that it would be in his office in the 21 normal course of events on Monday of this week.

22 I've waited, I think, a number of days to raise
23 this issue because I thought that he would get that 24 transcript and, because it's a statement of a witness that he 25 has on his witness list, he would be providing it to the

1 government.

2 Along those lines, I'm requesting any other
3 stenographic statement he may have of any witness whose name
4 appears on his witness list, or in that broad category he
5 denoted on his witness list all government witnesses. He 6 listed on his witness list, incorporated by reference the 7 government is witness list. Thus, he is obligated under 8 Jencks to provide copies of any statements he may have of 9 those witnesses. And I would ask that those be turned over 10 forthwith.

11 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, as it relates to Mr.
13 Martindale, I advised Mr. Becker, I had to, that I had the 14 statement from Mr. Martindale. I can tell the Court I do not 15 have that statement back from the court reporter. I would 16 have a further response to this, but I would not want to make
17 it -- I would like to, I would rather make it ex Carte i
18 camera to explain -- if I can explain the circumstances, I
19 think the Court would understand it. But I think if I did it
20 in front of Mr. Becker it would severely take away any trial
21 strategy I had in this case and my investigative efforts in 22 this case.

23 The reason we listed any and all witnesses is I
24 basically called Mr. Becker, and I said, now, do you want me
25 to give you a ten-page list with all the witnesses renamed on

1 it, or is it okay just to say any and all witnesses so we
2 don't have another five-page document to hand around? That's 3 why I put any and all witnesses. That's why I told him I was 4 putting any and all witnesses.

5 Obviously, I'm not going to call -- he's got 13 or 6 14 which I call jail house witnesses that I'm not going to 7 call, don't intend to call.

8 And so he now knows evidently that I've been out
9 talking with these people and I have statements of them, and
10 he's not entitled to get those from me under some ruse that I
11 filed this any and all witness thing to get into my case and 12 my statements that are his witnesses.

13 He knows I have no intent, nor have I had any 14 intent, to call any of these people. I'll be happy if none
15 of them show up. But I was trying to save the Court's time
16 and his time from having to go through a list of 100 people
17 who he knew and I knew I wasn't going to call just for 18 brevity, and now to turn around on me to suggest -

19 MR. BECKER: I don't think I'm turning anything
20 around.

21 THE COURT: Now, wait a minute, darn it. I told
22 you all to file a list of your witnesses, and I take that at 23 face value. If you list all the governments witnesses, then 24 you are endorsing as one of your witnesses all the 25 government's witnesses.

1 You know, there's no, you all don't seem to
2 understand that when we ask you to do something, we mean it.
3 And I take those witness lists -- and you do too, by the way,
4 because, naturally, if you wanted to call somebody, you would
5 say you listed them because you made reference to the 6 government's entire list. So I mean, as far as I'm 7 concerned, that's your witness list.

8 MR. BECKER: I didn't mean to in any way entrap Mr.
9 O'Connor. He said he was going to list all of the names on 10 my list or, conversely, just put all names on the government
11 list. So I didn't mean to, you know, deceive him in any 12 fashion. I said, I don't care if you list all the names or 13 if you put all names, it's the functional equivalent.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell this Court, my word,
15 whether it means anything or not, when I talked with him, my 16 full intention of that list was just to make sure if someone
17 didn't get called that I wanted called that they were
18 available. I have no intention, and I don't think the Court
19 would believe that I would call witnesses who are going to 20 say that my client was involved in this explosion, that I
21 would really have those witnesses come and testify in this
22 case.

23 THE COURT: Well, Mr. O'Connor, the only thing
24 that's puzzling -- here, let me tell you what has me
25 puzzled. One of you, and I don't remember which one of you,

1 made the following statement to me, was it yesterday? I
2 don't know. The day before, I don't remember. And it was
3 this. Well, now, Judge, you know, the -

4 I know how it came up. It was when we were talking
5 about what witnesses I should read, you know, the names of 6 what witnesses I should read. And the government had split,
7 at my direction, split their witness list into two groups.
8 And the other group, I've forgotten how it was referred to,
9 but the unlikely to call group, and there was a discussion
10 about whether I needed to read the unlikely to call group.
11 And one of the defense attorneys said, well, yes, you've got
12 to, Judge, because if they don't call them, we may. Now -

13 MR. OSGOOD: That was me. And I said that, and I
14 mean that.

15 THE COURT: So I mean, I don't -- that's what has 16 me confused a little bit. The function of witness lists is,
17 at least I thought in part, was to protect a party so that if 18 they wanted to call a witness, it was on their list. And 19 frequently you do that by incorporating the other side's list
20 so that if the other side doesn't call somebody that you
21 hoped they would call so you could get something important to 22 your case, you would be able to call them, because otherwise
23 you would have to struggle a little bit to get permission to 24 call them.

25 Now, so that's where I got -- Mr. O'Connor, that's

1 where I got off the path. And if you say, well, the fact
2 that you referred to all the government's witnesses doesn't
3 mean that they're really on your witness list, then, I mean,
4 I don't know what to make of that.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: If I would have thought of what you
6 just said, I would have never done it that way. I would have
7 went through and picked and chose who I really thought I
8 would have called. That's what I would have done. There's 9 no question about it. There's no question I wouldn't have 10 listed any of these 13 people that they've talked about.
11 There's no question.

12 THE COURT: But you see, that's -- I mean, the 13 function of the witness list -- and, you know, we struggle
14 with it because, on both the civil and the criminal side.
15 But one of our interests, at least one of my interests in the 16 witness list is to try to get some idea of what kind of case
17 I have. You know, I mean, how many people are involved. And 18 as you know, we, based on our telephone conversation, I mean,
19 in an effort to make the witness list more meaningful for you
20 all, I ordered the government to divide it -

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I apologize, Judge.

22 MR. PETERS: I apologize, Judge.

23 THE COURT: I see you all talking and I'm trying to 24 talk, and I don't know whether you're hearing what I'm
25 saying. And maybe that's one of the reasons that this case

1 has so much trouble is that you all -- I mean, you're 2 certainly entitled to talk to each other, but it causes me
3 grave concern that I'm just beating my gums and, you know -

4 MR. O'CONNOR: I was listening, Judge.

5 THE COURT: I've tried to develop that skill, too,
6 of talking to somebody and listening, and I've found it's
7 difficult, but maybe you've been more successful.

8 You know, if you want to talk to somebody, why
9 don't we do this. If you want to talk to somebody and I'm 10 talking, could you just raise your hand and say, "Judge, 11 could you stop a minute while I talk to Mr. Peters?" And 12 then I'll try to pick up again. And if I can't pick up,
13 maybe we've taken a step in the right direction and you've
14 shut me up, you know, and I'm not talking anymore.

15 Now, where were we? We were back on the witness
16 list, weren't we? Yes, that's where we were.

17 So where are we with this matter at this point?
18 Mr. Becker, you say you're entitled to any stenographic
19 statements they've taken of anybody on their witness list or 20 anybody they intend to call as a witness?

21 MR. BECKER: Anybody on their witness list, Judge.
22 That's who they've endorsed.

23 THE COURT: What authority do you have for that?

24 MR. BECKER: Section 3500, I believe.

25 THE COURT: Doesn't that say -- I thought it said

1 that they intend to call as a witness.

2 MR. BECKER: I think that's what the witness list
3 for each party states, that these are the persons that the 4 particular -- the government's witness list says these are 5 the persons that the government intends to call during its 6 case in chief.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Let's see here what 3500 says
8 and then -

9 MR. BECKER: And Mr. Sheppard, Bryan Sheppard~s
10 states that, "Comes now Bryan Sheppard, by and through 11 appointed counsel, and hereby files his list of witnesses who 12 may be called at trial."

13 THE COURT: Would you get Mr. O'Connor's witness
14 list? I just want to see what he says.

15 MR. BECKER: Judge, I just read it.

16 THE COURT: Well, it says, "Comes now Defendant
17 Bryan E. Sheppard, by and through appointed counsel, and 18 hereby files his list of witnesses who may be called at 19 trial.

20 "1. Any or all witnesses previously endorsed by 21 the government." And then there follows after that some 24
22 names.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I'm raising my hand, I want
24 to talk to Mr. Osgood a minute.

25 THE COURT: Sure. That's fine. Shut me up. I

I won't say anything.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. Thank you, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Well, Mr. O'Connor, do you agree
4 that you have the obligation to furnish any electronic 5 statement you have from a witness that you may call at 6 trial?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And, therefore, any witness who is 9 listed on your witness list?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. I didn't think you were going to 12 agree with that part of it. Now, how do we get from, how do 13 we get from the yes answer to the no answer? What happens in 14 between?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Maybe this is a bad example, but 16 let's say I had a statement from Bryan's mother. She's the 17 alibi witness listed on there. I had a stenographic
18 statement, which I don't, but let's say that I did. And then
19 I decided right before I made my opening statement that I was 20 not going to call -- or right now I've decided I'm not going
21 to call her. I'm not going to use her as a witness. Why do
22 I have to give that statement to Mr. Becker if I wasn't going
23 to use her, even though she's on my list, I had intended to 24 call her, and I'm not going to use her.

25 THE COURT: I don't know. I mean, what's the

1 authority? I mean -

2 MR. O'CONNOR: What I'm saying is I think the
3 obligation that I have to this Court and to Mr. Becker is if
4 I know I have a witness on that list that I'm going to call
5 in this trial, I darn well better give them their statement.

6 THE COURT: Is that the standard you apply to the
7 government?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: I mean, does the government get the 10 same standard?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: I believe so.

12 MR. BECKER: The problem with that hypothetical, if 13 I may,- is that there's some delay between, in waiting for the 14 production, when the persons are listed, because the 15 defendant's list wasn't due until shortly before trial,
16 certainly the Jencks material should have been made available
17 at that time.

18 What called this to mind is that Mr. O'Connor has a
19 stenographic statement from Martindale, which he has not 20 provided. Now, I understand he doesn't have a copy of it
21 yet, but there's a -- I'm willing to pay for the rush, if 22 that's a problem. But he doesn't get some grace period of 23 time after endorsing witnesses to decide whether or not to 24 turn over this material. When he lists his names, he's got 25 to do reciprocal discovery. And this would include, the

1 Court mentioned something, any electronic, any electronic or
2 tape recordings that he may have that T would consider to be
3 statements of witnesses. Just because they haven't been
4 reduced to a transcript form, if he has a tape recording,
5 that should be provided to the government.

6 Mr. Osgood just informed me he has a tape recording
7 of an Allen Bethard, and Mr. Bethard is on his witness list
8 and on a number of witness lists, and I haven't gotten that.

9 MR. OSGOOD: It was given to the government when 10 Mr. Bethard was prosecuted. That was the central issue of 11 the case.

12 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry. I thought you went out and 13 you did a statement.

14 MR. OSGOOD: I did, and I turned it over to the 15 defense attorney, and the tape was used in the Bethard
16 prosecution.

17 MR. BECKER: In any event, I would ask for 18 reciprocal discovery in this case.

19 MR. OSGOOD: I'll get it for you. I thought you
20 had it.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, as I said earlier, I would 22 like to request an ex parte with the Court in camera. I can,
23 I think I can lay out more for the Court to understand where
24 all of this is. I think it will give more perspective that I
25 do not want to give in this courtroom in front of Mr.

1 Becker. I think once I do it, the Court will understand it.
2 There's issues as it relates to Martindale to that same
3 point.

4 Mr. Becker, on face value, it's logical to think
5 that I should have this report of Martindale by now. Very 6 logical. If the Court heard the reason why, it would be very
7 logical why I don't have it. I have not -

8 THE COURT: Why don't you come up and tell me the 9 reason why.

10 MR. BECKER: We've had similar trials, Mr. O'Connor
11 and I, and there tends to be a number of ex parte
12 communications with the Court.

13 THE COURT: Well, there's no ex parte communication
14 with me that's not going to be on the record. And I'll make
15 a judgment after -- and there's no guarantee that something
16 that's ex parte, that's said to be ex parte is going to 17 remain ex parte. If I determine it's an inappropriate
18 communication ex parte, it's going to be revealed to 19 everybody.

20 MR. BECKER: If he -

21 THE COURT: Just a minute. I'm sorry. We have a
22 conference going on here.

23 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, while thetas going on.

24 THE COURT: No. We don't want to interrupt them.
25 They won't have a chance to hear what you say.

1 Why don't you all talk about this over lunch, how
2 is that? I've got a meeting with all the other judges in the 3 building that is going on right now that I need to go to. Is 4 there anything else we need, or could we delay it until 5 tomorrow? How about tomorrow? We're all going to be 6 together tomorrow. How about doing it tomorrow?

7 MR. PETERS: That would be acceptable, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: You all can come, and between now and 9 then Mr. O'Connor can have his ex carte on-the-record
10 conference, with the understanding that if I determine it's 11 an inappropriate ex Carte, then it's going to be revealed to 12 everybody.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I want to defend myself a minute,
14 what Mr. Becker is saying that there's somehow something with 15 me that I talk ex carte with the judge. All I'm going to say
16 is in the last trial, and I don't remember what the reason
17 was, but evidently Judge Sachs felt it was okay because he 18 put it on the record and he kept it from the government. And 19 if the judge made that determination, I don't make a
20 determination on what's ex Carte or what's not. And I'm 21 going to defend my client to the hilt. And I don't want them
22 to be suggesting to you that I somehow want to ex parte you.
23 I think if I tell you these things, they're legitimate and 24 honest and honorable, period.

25 MR. BECKER: I would suggest a motion for a

1 protective order. I mean, that -

2 THE COURT: Well, now, we've got to get Mr.
3 O'Connor sort of -- Mr. O'Connor, let me tell you. I mean, I
4 heard what Mr. Becker said. It doesn't -- I mean, he said
5 it, I heard it, it doesn't influence me at all. I mean, I'm 6 going to make my judgments in this case. And I've got 7 tremendous respect for Judge Sachs. I've got respect for the 8 other judges here, but I'm going to make my own decisions
9 here. And I just gave you the groundwork. I'll be glad to 10 talk to any of you ex parte if you want to come to me, and as 11 long as there's a public announcement that you're doing it ex
12 parte, as long as we understand that if I believe it is an 13 inappropriate ex parte communication, I will reveal it to 14 everybody. In other words, there's no guarantee of 15 confidentiality, just because some lawyer believes it's ex
16 parte.

17 On the other hand, I don't want to set the other
18 rule either because that's unreasonable. I will talk to any 19 lawyer without everybody else present, although that 20 certainly is my general principle. But I realize that things
21 happen in cases where lawyers have things that they need to 22 communicate that really is not appropriate for anybody else
23 to know.

24 And I'll, but I'll make the judgment. And as long
25 as you understand those are the ground rules, then that's the

1 Way we'll proceed. Now, Mr. Becker?

2 MR. BECKER: The other matters I can take up with
3 counsel directly, and if there's a problem we'll talk about
4 it tomorrow.

5 THE COURT: Do just exactly what I asked Mr.
6 O'Connor or the defense to do. If you have some other
7 matters that you want to bring up tomorrow, will you give 8 them to, will you tell these folks about them right now or as 9 soon as you know about them so they can be prepared too.

10 MR. BECKER: Absolutely.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else have anything you
12 want to talk about now?

13 MR. PETERS: Nothing from the defense, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Then we'll be in recess until 9
15 o'clock tomorrow.

16 (A recess was taken from 12:42 p.m. to 1:50 p.m.
17 when the following ex parte proceedings were had in chambers
18 with Mr. O'Connor and the Court present.)

19 THE COURT: Yes?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, the issue arose in court
21 as to this Martindale court-reported statement that I took.
22 So I called the court reporter who has worked with me on this
23 case, Theresa Taylor, to get the chronological order so I was 24 correct in what I had.

25 On January, the 7th, Theresa met me, and it's my

1 practice to just go ahead and get people contacted. I don't
2 call and make appointments. We went to Miss Marburger's
3 house twice. She wasn't home on the 7th of January, 1997.
4 She was a blind lady who was a potential witness in this case
5 who got moved to the not-to-be-called list.

6 But she's a critical witness to us because she's
7 blind since birth, she likes Bryan Sheppard, and part of her
8 statements were that Bryan called from the Clay County Jail,
9 was crying on the phone, and she was part of a three-way
10 conversation in which she said Bryan said, "I was there, but 11 I did not intend for anyone to be killed."

12 So she was a critical witness for us. Took her
13 statement in the a.m., was there about two hours. Went back
14 to my office. Theresa went back to whatever she was doing.
15 She has other appointments, obviously, besides working for
16 me.

17 Miss Marburger called back and wanted to see me
18 again that night. Went back out there that night, was out
19 there from 7 to 9 o'clock. That was the 7th.

20 On the 8th we thought we located Martindale -- on 21 the 7th we also thought we located Martindale, so we took 22 Theresa with us after we took Marburger -- this is 9:00 in 23 the evening. We went over with Theresa with us and surveyed
24 this Pizza Hut to see if Martindale came in and out. For 25 about an hour he didn't show. We finally went in and ordered

1 a pizza and asked if Fred was still working there, and they
2 said yes, he's off tonight, he'll be in tomorrow night.

3 So the 8th, the next night, he doesn't come to work
4 until about 7:00. We went over to the Pizza Hut. I got Fred
5 on the phone while my investigator ran in and served him with 6 a subpoena, and he agreed to come outside and talk to us. We
7 went across the street to a McDonald's, talked to him about
8 two and a half hours, and got a court-reported statement.
9 That's on January the 8th.

10 I gave no instructions to Theresa how to handle
11 this case other than normal. I said, we're on a federal 12 case, I was appointed to the case, so I didn't want
13 expedited. And knowing that Martindale wasn't going to 14 testify until 35 days out, there was no need to get it fast,
15 and we had other things to do. Theresa will answer any 16 questions that you may have unanswered. Not that you do not 17 believe me, but if there's any question unanswered.

18 On the 11th -- and this is the part I did not want
19 to mention in court, but obviously Mr. Becker has got wind
20 that I've been to see his witnesses in jail.

21 On the 11th, which I believe was a Saturday,
22 Theresa met us at 7:00 in the morning, we worked until 11:00
23 that night. She was with me for 16 hours. We went to four 24 different jails, took four different court-reported
25 statements, and some of the jails we had to come back to

1 later because we couldn't do it during that day, and we
2 couldn't get into some jails, so she was along for the ride
3 for the day but unable to type statements.

4 On the 12th we met, oh, at 5:30 a.m., which is
5 Sunday, we parked her car, and she rode with us down to
6 Osceola. We were there about six hours. Took court-reported
7 statements from the other two government witnesses, drove
8 back, and that day, I think we spent about ten hours.

9 So that takes us to, that takes through Sunday. So
10 then Monday when, of course, Theresa, the first time ever she 11 has a chance to type anything from any of these things. I
12 then called her and told her, didn't call her and tell her
13 anything. I called her and told her that last night we were 14 going to Cameron-after I got out of court at 7:00 to get the 15 two witnesses in the Cameron facility, which is about an hour
16 and fifteen minutes out, but she couldn't because of other
17 previous appointments.

18 So yesterday when I got the government As witness
19 list I instructed my office to call her because we had 20 statements of Bank, which was about a four-hour statement
21 under oath, which is one of the first week's witnesses;
22 Shepard, who is about a two-hour witness under oath, that she
23 was present. And now I've got the witness list, and I know I
24 need those now. So I asked her to make those, I asked her if 25 she had started on Martindale or the others. She had not. I

1 said please make those a priority, those two.

2 And then last night Bowen sent a reporter with me
3 and, of course, I'll have those two. And one of those two is
4 on the government witness list next week, Elliott. I asked
5 Theresa when she thought she could get Martindale, and she
6 said probably not Sunday or Monday, and she's got 7 appointments between what she's doing for me for other
8 people, so that's why I haven't gotten Martindale. I haven't
9 seen Martindale's.

10 And I told him right after I had it that, I told
11 him that I would give it to him as soon as I got it, which I
12 thought I would get it on Monday. I had no idea that we were 13 going to start hitting these places this quick. And if I
14 said it in court, then obviously Mr. Becker knows I'm up to 15 something. I don't want him to know everything I'm up to.
16 But I'm assuming he's talked to Lank because Lank's the guy
17 that had never met Mr. Becker when I talked to him, and I'm 18 assuming they brought him down here to be debriefed and he's 19 told him that he's talked to me.

20 As it relates to my, the witness list thing, I
21 didn't know if you wanted me to go into this. I'm going to 22 file -- I'm waiting for it to come out here -- an amended
23 witness list taking out any and all government witnesses and 24 just the witnesses that I have on that list to call in the
25 case.

1 I would just bring to the Court's attention that on
2 Wednesday when we had to give our list to the Court under the
3 deadline, Mr. Becker had still not complied with the witness
4 names and addresses until the next day, which was Thursday.
5 So we're getting the witness list, his witness list, the real
6 witness list with the real addresses four days before the 7 start of trial, and now he's complaining about Martindale
8 that's 35 days out.

9 So I believe that to cover myself between the time
10 that we had to file ours and he had to file his real one, you
11 know, I put any and all. And I called him -- and he'll 12 verify this. I just said any and all, quite frankly, just to 13 make sure I didn't miss someone on the list. And, you know,
14 if I was wrong, I was wrong, but the spirit of it is that it
15 would be obvious if he saw these people's statements that I
16 would not be calling them as witnesses. But I'm going to 17 file an amended list, and I hope that that addresses that
18 issue.

19 But my real concern was I did not want to give up
20 my investigative efforts because there's four other people in 21 person. I've got appointments tomorrow in Lansing. I'm 22 going down to Springfield, Tipton, Jeff City for the other
23 three. And if I let him know that I'm out to these prisons
24 after work here, he's going to figure it out and he'll shut
25 us down, and we want get to these people. I don't mean shut

1 us down purposely, just give these people warning.

2 That's my purpose in defending my trial strategy
3 and getting out and getting this stuff without the government
4 knowing what I'm doing.

5 THE COURT: So where are we?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't know.

7 THE COURT: Well, I mean, I guess he's asked for 8 copies of -

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Martindale.

10 THE COURT: Well, of all the, of any statement that 11 you have of anybody who is on your witness list. And if you
12 set aside for a minute the issue of who is on your witness
13 list and who is not on your witness list, which all relates
14 to the issue of whether you have listed as witnesses -- you
15 may call all the witnesses for the government. What are you
16 going to do about his request to furnish any electronic 17 statement or stenographic statement of anyone on your witness
18 list?

19 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm hoping that my filing my amended
20 witness list without the any and all government witnesses and 21 just the witnesses that I intend to call, which should be up
22 here shortly, will remedy that problem.

23 THE COURT: Well, you need to get that to him.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to give it to him as soon
25 as I get it.

1 THE COURT: What you've told me -- I mean, I guess
2 the only part of what you've told me that seems to me to be
3 at all necessary to keep from him is that you are 4 interviewing as many of his witnesses as you can that are in
5 jail and that you've taken statements from them. But I
6 can't -- I mean, I'm not sure that information is necessary
7 to resolve this issue, I guess. I mean, if the issue is, if
8 the facts are, and even though you may file the amended list,
9 that you listed these folks as your witnesses, then -- I
10 mean, we don't -- I mean, what I'm getting at is I guess we 11 don't need to run through and have you say who you got, who 12 you don't have. Your obligation would be to produce any 13 statement you have from anybody that you have listed as a
14 witness that you might call.
15 And so I'm not -- I mean, my point is, I guess, the 16 information you've given me is of interest, but I'm not sure 17 that it has much impact on anything until we get over the 18 hurdle that stopped us out there today, which was do you have 19 any -- I mean, what do you have an obligation to turn over,
20 and that is a function of at least two separate issues.
21 First of all, what is the law on the defendant's
22 obligation, either established by statute, rule, or decision,
23 or by order of the court in the omnibus procedure. And then
24 once we get a handle on what the law is, then we get, we need
25 to deal with the issue of who, if anybody, I mean, who is,

1 who fits within the definition of people that the defendants
2 would have an obligation to look at to see if they have any
3 electronic or stenographically created document.

4 That, then, gets into the problem of the witness
5 list. I mean, who is a defense witness, essentially, that is
6 subject to that rule. So we have those two issues, it seems 7 to me, we need to deal with before we get to what you just
8 said as being of much significance. Do you agree?

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: And the only thing I can say, I
12 don't have any case law to back it up, but as you, I think,
13 said earlier in court, you know the spirit of the rule is,
14 one, for there not to be any surprise; two, to give the other
15 side full opportunity to address that witness and any 16 statement that witness has given.

17 And it's pretty obvious, or it would be obvious if 18 you saw what these people have said about our clients, that 19 these are witnesses that we, certainly and absolutely I would 20 never call to the witness stand. So when I gave him my list,
21 I had no intent -- which it says witnesses you intend to 22 call. I never ever intended to call these witnesses, nor 23 would I.

24 So if I even thought that I might, even if there
25 was a possibility that I might, then I think the Court~s

1 right, that I would have to give it, if that possibility
 2 existed. I can tell you as it relates to these witnesses,
 3 there is no possibility that exists that would have me call
 4 any of these witnesses. And I'm hoping the amendment will
 5 address the whole problem, but if it doesn't, I'm just
 6 talking from the standpoint of the intent when the witness
 7 list was filed.

8 THE COURT: We can take that up. I mean, that 9 doesn't have any -- I mean, that argument, you can make that 10 argument fully, it seems to me, without running the risk of 11 revealing anything about your, or inappropriately revealing
 12 anything about your trial strategy. I mean, you can make 13 your argument about the list. Okay. Anything else?

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I think that's the only thing you
 15 wanted to address, I think.

16 THE COURT: That's the only thing that you wanted
 17 to address ex Carte. Some of the things you've touched upon
 18 are -

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me look at my notes real quick.

20 THE COURT: -- are inappropriate for talking about 21 ex carte. They're more, they ought to be covered with 22 everybody present.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Right. I think that's it.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 (Ex parte conference concluded.)

Thursday, January 16' 1997

3

5 (The jury was seated, and thereafter the following
6 proceedings were had in the courtroom in the presence of the 7 defendants, but out of the presence of the jury:)

8 THE COURT: Anybody have an objection to anything I
9 said to the jury? All right. Apparently not. Somebody

10 probably wants to tell me, Judge, you really didn't know, did
11 you, what the situation was with Mr. Rioad? I will admit,
12 obviously, I didn't because Mr. Riead was there.

13 ALL right. Gabi, would you pass out the 14 instructions? Now, do you want to take a little recess while 15 you look at these and then we can talk about them?

16 MR. OSGOOD: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood, I see a nod of your head?

18 MR. BECKER: Judge, I think the defendants have 19 been up here since 9 o'clock.

20 THE COURT: Okay. We'll -- I'll tell you what.

21 Why don't you take a look at the instructions. When you're
22 ready to talk about them, just let me know. I mean, we'll -
23 hopefully it won't -- as I said, I don't think it will take 24 you very long, except maybe with regard to one. All right.

25 We'll be in recess.

1 (A recess was taken from 10:36 a.m. to 11:01 a.m.)
2 THE COURT: Okay. Any comment about the
3 instructions?
4 MR. BECKER: Yes, I do. I'm not sure we have -
5 okay. We have everyone.
6 THE COURT: Is everybody here? There seems to be
7 fewer people than there were. Oh, Miss Franco is not here.
8 I guess that's it. There was somebody at the end of that
9 table. Okay.
10 MR. BECKER: The elements as set forth in 11 Instruction 5, I'm having someone bring me a copy, and I'll
12 provide a copy for the Court of Ryab I and not the panel
13 decision. And which obviously was vacated by the en bane
14 decision but did speak at some length about the elements of 15 the offense and whether or not the death was an element.
16 But we can speak for a minute about the 17 instruction. And Element 4 of the actual instruction, it 18 says, "death resulted to somebody as a direct result of the 19 conduct referred to in paragraphs" -- well, it says FIRST,
20 SECOND and THIRD, but 1, 2, or 3.
21 The statute and the indictment charges that as a
22 direct and proximate -- and obviously the jury instruction
23 will be or -- direct or proximate result of the defendant's
24 conduct, death resulted to six particular people who were 25 performing their duties as firefighters.

1 The en bane decision of United States vs. Ryan, 41
2 E.3d 361, Eighth Circuit, 1994, at Page 367, does have a
3 rather useful discussion of the jury instruction regarding 4 proximate cause. And should the Court be inclined to 5 instruct on that element, obviously, the government would be 6 requesting an instruction on proximate cause as set forth in 7 Ryan.

8 MR. OSGOOD: Can we have a minute, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 MR. BECKER: Agent True wants me to inform 11 everybody, that was his case, too, so he's very familiar with 12 this point of law.

13 (Counsel conferred off the record.)

14 THE COURT: Anybody else have anything to say? I
15 mean, I trust you all understand the purpose of this. I
16 mean, this isn't all the instructions these folks are going
17 to get. I mean, the instruction tells them that. And I
18 mean, I'll be glad to hear you all after the evidence is 19 completed about whether the word proximate even needs to be 20 in there. I mean, maybe you could educate me on the 21 difference between direct and proximate, but I see no reason
22 to give this jury right now the term proximate when my guess
23 is after we do a cot of huffing and puffing about the 24 definition of proximate, it's going to turn out to be 25 direct.

1 I mean, we've got direct in there. Now, there is
2 that foreseeability aspect that we could get into, but these
3 folks are told in this instruction, this isn't all they're
4 going to get in the way of law. I would just like to give
5 them some idea. It just helps them understand what they're 6 going to be listening to and why they're listening to it.

7 But, Mr. Becker, I just don't -- I mean, is there
8 some reason why we need to get into the proximate cause and 9 the definition of proximate cause?

10 MR. BECKER: I don't think we need to get into a
11 long definition of proximate cause. That's not what I was 12 suggesting, and I apologize. I understand that the Court is 13 merely giving this one instruction and will later fully 14 instruct on the law.

15 However, both the statute, the indictment, and the 16 case law sets forth alternate means of addressing this point
17 of death resulting. And I don't think it's a stretch or a
18 matter of confusion for the jury at this point to hear that 19 death resulted to somebody as a direct or proximate cause of,
20 proximate result of the defendants' conduct.

21 THE COURT: What's the difference between direct
22 and proximate?

23 MR. BECKER: It may be argued in this case that the 24 firefighters did not die as a result of a fire set by these 25 defendants; in fact, they died from an explosion which was

1 caused by the fire set by these defendants.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. BECKER: Thus, I think at some point it may be
4 relevant, the issue of proximate cause.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Well, my view is that if we ~ re
6 going to put proximate in, we're going to have to define
7 proximate because proximate is not a word that I have much
8 confidence in that laypeople are going to understand.
9 Direct, I think, is understandable. And assuming there's a
10 difference, and my guess is when this all is said and done,
11 we may well define direct in a way that would include
12 proximate, will include foreseeability, and so on and so
13 forth. But I'm just guessing because I'm not even there
14 yet.

15 MR. BECKER: Again, I would call the Court Is 16 attention to the Ryan decision on this foreseeability issue.
17 It was conclusively ruled in that matter.

18 THE COURT: But did they conclusively rule on it
19 at, the instruction at this point in the trial?

20 MR. BECKER: Well, if the Eighth Circuit says
21 foreseeability is not an issue, I would sense it would apply 22 to the first part of the trial and the last part of the 23 trial.

24 THE COURT: Well, then, nobody is going to be 25 arguing foreseeability because the law says it's not an

1 aspect. So there's not going to be any argument anyway. I
2 mean, the opening statements, folks -- and I trust each of 3 you understands this because if you don't, you'd better get
4 your thinking sort of changed.

5 An opening statement is not an opening argument.
6 The opening statement is the opportunity to tell the jury
7 what you expect the evidence to be, not what your argument is 8 about that evidence. And so don't -- and I'm not -- I mean,
9 I realize other courts do things differently, but here in 10 this courtroom an opening statement is an opening statement.
11 It is what you expect the evidence to be, not what your 12 argument is going to be, not what you think the significance
13 of that evidence is. It's what you expect the evidence to 14 be.

15 So I don't know who is going to be arguing anything
16 about this point up until the end of the case, at which point
17 we will have had an instruction conference, I will have read
18 the final instructions to the jury, the jury will have the 19 final instructions in their hand, and then there will be the 20 closing argument.

21 MR. BECKER: I wasn't concerned, Judge, about 22 opening statements or arguments. You asked us to comment on 23 these instructions. I believe them to be -- I submitted
24 elements at the direction of the Court on the first day of 25 jury selection. Based upon my research and that of my

1 office, Mr. Clark has been working with me on this and the
2 other jury instruction issues that will arise as we go on, I
3 don't believe this to be a correct statement of the 4 elements. That was my only objection, and I didn't mean to 5 infer otherwise.

6 THE COURT: But it would be correct in your mind if
7 "or proximate" was added without a definition of proximate.

8 MR. BECKER: I do want to go back and read Ryan I,
9 which I think I now have, and that's at 9 F.3d 660, Eighth
10 Circuit, 1994. Again, this opinion has been vacated by the 11 en banc decision but is instructive on the issue, on the jury
12 instruction issues for 844(i) where death results to a
13 firefighter.

14 And it's my recollection based upon research prior 15 to this morning that -- and that's why I submitted those 16 elements. I don't believe that there is a fourth element. I
17 mean, that's really the essence of my objection. Now, if the 18 Court is going to instruct on that fourth element, I would 19 ask that proximate cause be inserted. But I'm frankly, I'm 20 not -

21 THE COURT: You don't want the fourth element?

22 MR. BECKER: I want to go back and read this
23 opinion again, Judge.

24 THE COURT: You didn't include it in the 25 instruction you submitted.

1 MR. BECKER: That's right.

2 THE COURT: So I assumed you didn't want it. I
3 read the statute, I read the indictment. I thought there was
4 a reasonable argument it ought to be in there. But if you
5 don't want it -- I mean, it's your theory. It's not my
6 theory. It's your theory. If you don't want it -

7 MR. BECKER: I submitted those instructions to the 8 Court, the elements to the Court, and I believe those to be
9 correct.

10 THE COURT: Anybody else have a comment?

11 MR. BUNCH: No. We neither agree or disagree with 12 Mr. Becker's analysis. We accept the Instruction No. 5 as 13 drafted by the Court.

14 MR. OSGOOD: I would like to make a comment.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. OSGOOD: I'd like to consult with colleagues
17 first before I put my foot in my mouth.

18 (Counsel conferred off the record.)

19 THE COURT: Mr. Becker, what's the cite of Ryan I?

20 MR. BECKER: 9 F.3d 660.

21 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Osgood?

22 MR. OSGOOD: Well, I think the consensus is we 23 accept the instruction the way the Court has drafted it. If 24 the Court is inclined to change it in any way whatsoever, we 25 want a second bite of the apple in terms of the argument as

1 to whether or not the change would require additional defense
2 input.

3 THE COURT: Well, do you -

4 MR. OSGOOD: Or instruction.

5 THE COURT: Do you believe that Ryan I, or Ryan II,
6 for that matter, says that the fourth element as I've
7 expressed it in this proposed instruction is not an element
8 of this offense?

9 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Becker has pled it, he intends on 10 putting on a substantial amount of evidence to support it,
11 and his theory of the case seems to include it at this
12 point. I don't know how you couldn't instruct the jury on it
13 under the circumstances.

14 THE COURT: That isn't really my question. My 15 question really is does Ryan I or Ryan II say in your -- I
16 mean, in your reading of those cases, do they say that it is 17 not an element of the offense?

18 MR. OSGOOD: I want to read the decision again. I
19 think probably the argument would be it's a punishment
20 enhancement question for the Court. But I want to preserve
21 expressing an opinion on that.

22 THE COURT: Frankly, I haven't read the cases
23 either, but my guess is that must be the argument. I mean,
24 it's like the quantity in a drug case.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Yes.

1 THE COURT: That must be what the situation is.

2 Any other comments?

3 MR. OSGOOD: That, of course, would raise
4 substantial questions about how far the Court should go in 5 letting him go into great detail of autopsy evidence and 6 everything else if he doesn't have to prove that there were
7 dead bodies to the jury.

8 THE COURT: Yeah, it does -- I mean, it may well
9 raise a question as to whether that's a decision that I make.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir. And we would fully expect
11 to object vigorously to that kind of evidence if that's taken
12 out.

13 THE COURT: That's -- I would expect you to do
14 that. All right. Any other comments?

15 Okay. How about the other instructions? Any of 16 the other instructions anybody have any comment about?

17 MR. PETERS: Excuse me just a minute, Judge.

18 (Counsel conferred off the record.)

19 MR. BUNCH: Nothing, Your Honor, resulted from that 20 that we need to address the Court about.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So am I correct that other than 22 this issue which we have just been talking about relating to 23 Instruction 5, otherwise the instructions are satisfactory?

24 MR. BUNCH: That is the case.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Becker; is that right?

1 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Now, as implicit in the
3 instructions -- and I'll just tell you so it won't come as a
4 surprise to you -- on Tuesday morning, we'll pass out to the 5 jury a brown spiral notebook for their use if they choose to 6 take notes. I mean, if a juror chooses to take notes, the 7 brown spiral notebook can be used for the purpose of taking
8 notes. In addition, we will pass out a small yellow ruled
9 pad that they can use for the purpose of asking questions, if 10 anybody chooses to ask any questions. We'll also give them a 11 pencil.

12 Okay. Now, let's turn to the next item on the 13 agenda, which is the motion in limine.

14 Yes, Mr. Bunch?

15 MR. BUNCH: As I stated earlier, Your Honor, I have 16 no reason to take time to argue this motion, based upon the 17 response by the government and the discussion that occurred
18 here yesterday.

19 By way of partial explanation, this case is replete
20 with problems of this sort, which I think in my judgment
21 could not be adequately addressed, even if one had an 22 unbelievable amount of time to do that.

23 Secondly, regardless of the statement made on 24 behalf of this defendant or others, in a case that has five
25 defendants in it, all of which may have some common defenses,

1 some of which may not have common defenses, will result in
2 the, getting before the jury matters which you just can't
3 prevent happening.

4 I'm not trying to ignore what my responsibilities
5 are. I'm simply saying that we filed it because there was a
6 certain day by which it should be filed, and it does ask for 7 some rather esoteric relief which this Court wouldn't grant
8 in any event. And I don't think that based upon the nature
9 of the testimony and evidence that will, mostly testimony in 10 this case and the number of people that are going to 11 cross-examine that it would be possible to keep some of the 12 inflammatory issues out in the long run.

13 So I don't think it's worthwhile for me to take 14 your time and the time of other counsel, including that of 15 the government, to argue something that I've presented and 16 don't feel strongly enough about to argue about it.

17 THE COURT: Well, I was going to ask you, are there
18 any of the matters that -- you raise a number of different
19 matters in here. Are there any of those matters that you
20 would like to have a ruling on at this point, or are you
21 satisfied that you have alerted me to them?

22 MR. BUNCH: The second statement is accurate. I've 23 alerted the Court to them.

24 THE COURT: ALL right. Any reason to talk any more
25 about that?

1 MR. BECKER: The one issue that I do wish the Court
2 I would address either now or sometime prior to testimony is
3 the issue of polygraph examinations. It's the government's
4 position that cross-examination on that basis or examination
5 of any witness on whether or not they took a polygraph and 6 the results of that polygraph would be, or any defendant,
7 would be inappropriate and inadmissible.

8 MR. PETERS: Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Yes?

10 MR. PETERS: We'll provide the Court with a written
11 memorandum of law prior to anything like that remotely coming
12 up. It won't be mentioned in anyone's opening statement, and 13 we'll alert the Court and counsel long before any witness
14 where it would come up.

15 THE COURT: ALL right. That's fine. And just let 16 me say generally, I would like to see anything -- if the 17 problem, if the matter comes up, I would like to see whatever
18 authority you all have in addition to what is cited in the 19 memorandum that there is some policy of the United States
20 Attorney's Office on that.

21 okay. And on that, I don't mean to be vague, but 22 on the matter of administering polygraph examinations as a
23 prerequisite to accepting or offering or entering into some 24 kind of an agreement with someone to testify for some
25 benefit.

1 Okay. Let's -- Mr. Bunch, do you want to bring the 2 matter up about the investigator at this point?

3 MR. BUNCH: Yes, I do. If I -- may I proceed?

4 THE COURT: Certainly.

5 MR. BUNCH: Yesterday, Mr. Becker advised me -- and
6 I have Mr. John Dawson who has been doing some work for me.
7 Advised me that if Mr. Dawson didn't stop what he was doing
8 with respect to the witness John Atterbury that he would be
9 charged and prosecuted for intimidating a federal witness. I
10 accepted that at face value, which I should, and will 11 continue to. I said, all right, I'll take care of it.

12 I immediately called Mr. Maloney, who is a 13 paralegal who has worked for me for a number of years, and 14 advised him to get ahold of John Dawson and tell him to stop
15 whatever it was he was doing, that he was on the cusp of 16 being charged with a federal crime and so on, as I had been 17 advised.

18 Mr. Dawson is present in the courtroom. Stand up,
19 John. And he immediately took umbrage to all of that, saying
20 -- I further told Mr. Maloney to have him do an immediate 21 report and have it available to me as soon as I got out of 22 court and could get there.

23 Mr. Dawson, I don't think the word outrage is any 24 too strong about the whole thing. He's prepared to take the 25 stand. I don't want to take up time on matters that ought to

1 be handled by counsel, but I have a responsibility, and he
2 has done nothing, but would like to describe to the Court
3 what he's done, that in any way has intimidated anybody.

4 Indeed, he's never spoken to anybody there,
5 according to him. He was a long-time Kansas City, Missouri,
6 police officer, homicide detective. He has been an expert
7 witness for me in this court, I mean, the federal western
8 district court, as well as in a murder case in Ozark,
9 Missouri. He's always conducted himself absolutely
10 appropriately under any instructions I've given him.

11 So I have, he does not want to be intimidated from,
12 and feels intimidated with respect to performing the job
13 duties as outlined by me.

14 I'm here not blaming Mr. Becker or anybody, but in 15 support of somebody who I'm asking to undertake certain 16 duties and who I want to continue to do so and who wants to 17 have an opportunity at least to say, look, I didn't do it, I
18 didn't commit a federal crime.

19 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Bunch, what would you like me
20 o do?

21 MR. BUNCH: I believe the record should permit me
22 to call Mr. Dawson briefly to simply demonstrate that fact.

23 I don't know whether -- maybe I can ask Mr. Becker. Is there
24 a plan to charge Mr. Dawson with an offense?

25 MR. BECKER: No. No. I advised him privately

1 yesterday about this matter, and with the understanding that
2 you'd find out the facts and get it under control if it was
3 happening. If it's not happening, then we have a difference
4 of opinion. I mean, but -

5 MR. BUNCH: I don't want to consume time with this,
6 but, Mr. Becker, what you said to me was, and there were
7 other defense counsel present -

8 MR. BECKER: I don't dispute that. If he persisted
9 in harassing a witness after the witness had, what I was 10 informed, informed him on at least two separate occasions
11 that he did not wish to be interviewed and then thereafter
12 went and banged on his door again, then there was going to be 13 a serious problem with a federal law. But if those aren't 14 the facts, then we have a difference of information about 15 what, in fact, occurred.

16 THE COURT: Folks, do you think that maybe we could
17 all agree on how to deal with situations of this type? I
18 believe that I have an obligation to oversee the procedures
19 leading up to this trial to assure that everybody has a fair
20 opportunity to prepare the case.

21 I do not believe, Mr. Becker, I do not believe that 22 there should be any threats of prosecution against anybody by 23 anybody associated with the government that pertains to the 24 process of getting this case prepared for trial. If you have 25 a problem or if any attorney has a problem with issues of

1 this type, I would expect, I underline expect, expect that
2 the attorneys involved talk to each other and that each
3 attorney expresses him or herself about the matter of concern
4 to the other attorney and there be a full exchange of 5 information between the attorneys so that when the 6 conversation is completed, the attorneys understand the other
7 attorney's position, understand the other attorney's view of 8 what the facts were. And if there is still a problem, I
9 expect you to bring it to my attention. I will take care of
10 it.

11 But to-run around threatening people or even 12 suggesting that they're going to be prosecuted with a federal 13 crime interferes with the efficient preparation of this case
14 for trial, and I want it to stop. Is that clear?

15 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. PETERS: I just wanted to confer, and you had 18 asked us not to talk without first advising the Court.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 (Counsel conferred off the record.)

21 MR. BUNCH: Mr. Peters would like to make a
22 statement, brief statement on behalf of other members, other
23 counsel, I think, based upon the core facts involved in this
24 issue.

25 MR. PETERS: Judge, just so I can have my record

1 clear, I was present in court yesterday when this exchange
2 took place. The exchange, by my recollection, was referring
3 to an investigator that was at that time unknown as to who he
4 was working for. He was identified as Mr. Dawson.

5 I recall specific language as to being told that if 6 the investigators did not back off that they would be 7 prosecuted federally. And at the time -- Mr. Bunch has 8 addressed it, ~ don't want argument.

9 At the time, I believed that the discussion was 10 being directed towards all the attorneys and all of the 11 investigators. And for purposes of my record, I just want
12 to, I have an obligation to make that a part -- it's not
13 something I raised with the Court.

14 THE COURT: I mean, you know, when you've got 15 somebody down, do you have to kick them? I've just said what
16 I've said. I don't need to have everybody jump on board now
17 and see if they can get their two cents in to make it look 18 worse.

19 That's -- I've said what I've said. If you all
20 have a problem -- if any of you have a problem with something
21 some other attorney is doing, I want you to talk with them
22 and then bring it to my attention. I assure you I'm going to
23 do everything I can to protect everybody's right to fairly
24 prepare this case for trial, and if I have to, tell the 25 government to not threaten, as I just did. And whether they

168

1 have or haven't, I'm just telling them not to do it.

2 On the other hand, I'll tell you all, if some
3 witness says they don't want to talk to somebody, you'd 4 better not keep pounding on their door or trying to talk with
5 them, you'd better leave them alone. So I mean, I just am -
6 I'm not -- if you've got a problem with that, you can come
7 talk to me. I mean, there may be circumstances -- I don't
8 know. There may be some circumstance.

9 MR. OSGOOD: The problem with that, Your Honor, is 10 that we're being told that through a third party that they
11 don't want to talk to us. And we've interviewed witnesses
12 who deny that they ever made that statement and, in fact,
13 have talked to us. So it's very difficult for us to not 14 persist in knocking on their door and hear it from the 15 horse's mouth because there's a credibility problem with the 16 fact that we're being told that they don't want to talk to 17 us.

18 And so I've -- yes, we've told our investigators,
19 and I'm speaking at least for mine, to be persistent.
20 They're not going to knock their door down. They're not 21 going to call them at 3 o'clock in the morning. They're not
22 going to harass them the way a bill collector does, but I
23 think we've got a right to make a fair attempt. Even if Mr.,
24 some of Mr. Becker's agents tell us they don't want to talk
25 to us, based on prior practice, I think we have, we would

1 like to hear that from the witness's mouth. And that's the
2 problem.

3 MR. BECKER: I have no problem with that. As long
4 as a witness tells them they don't want to talk to them and
5 then they stop. That was the situation yesterday. And 6 that's all I was addressing myself to is when a witness
7 informs them they don't want to talk to them, then I'd like
8 the witness to be left alone.

9 THE COURT: Let me see if I can repeat what I
10 said. If a witness says that he or she does not want to talk
11 to anybody, leave them alone. Persistence or no persistence,
12 instructions or no instructions. Mr. O'Connor?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, it's hard to define sometimes
14 when someone -- and I can say this sincerely, I can tell you
15 probably 50 percent of the people that I've ever gone to talk
16 to, and in state and federal practice, initially said at 17 first "I don't want to talk to you," and then after I've 18 said, now, can I just explain why I'm here and what I'm doing
19 and who I represent, and I have a court reporter with me and 20 we're going to do all of this, and then they do start talking
21 to me. It's happened a hundred times.

22 If I understand the Court, no, I know what no
23 means. I went to see a witness last week that said, no, she 24 didn't want to talk to me. I knew what no meant. But there
25 are some witnesses who say no at the beginning, and you're

1 not harassing, and so all I'm saying is it's hard to define.
 2 But I think when you see it, you know it. But to just say
 3 when someone says, leave me alone, that means leave them
 4 alone, I would take that as leave me alone. When someone
 5 says, I don't want to talk to you, sometimes that means they
 6 don't know whether they should talk to you.

7 So I don't want to belabor this, but all I'm saying
 8 is sometimes when people say they don't want to talk to you,
 9 sometimes they do want to talk to you, if that makes sense.

10 THE COURT: I've got confidence in all of you to 11 carry out your responsibilities properly, and I've got 12 confidence that if you're using investigators that you have 13 instructed them properly. Why can't we leave it at that at 14 this point? If you've got a problem, you know, if somebody
 15 thinks that some witness has said they didn't want to talk
 16 and then there's something going on, bring it to my 17 attention. we'll talk about it. If necessary, we'll have a
 18 hearing on it. You know, I'll, we'll bring everybody in here
 19 and I'll make a finding after hearing evidence.

20 But what I'm trying to get across to you all is,
 21 the basic message is you have, you have an avenue to resolve
 22 your problems rather than calling each other names, rather 23 than making dramatic accusations against each other, which 24 interfere with this case, which interfere with the efficient
 25 and proper resolution of this case. You have an alternative,

1 and the alternative is come to me, tell me what the problem
2 is, bringing the, I mean, letting the other side know you're
3 going to come see me.

4 Now, is that, does anybody have any question about
5 that? I mean, is that part, is that part -- is there any
6 mystery about that? And it goes for everybody. If Mr.
7 Becker thinks somebody is doing wrong, he talks to you all
8 and tells you what his concern is, you tell him what you
9 think the situation is. If you can't work it out between 10 yourselves, I'll try, I'll work it out for you one way or the 11 other.

12 Okay. Anything else on that issue? Mr. Bunch, is 13 that satisfactory, or would you like Mr. Dawson to have a
14 chance to tell what he wasn't doing or what he was doing?

15 MR. BUNCH: That's satisfactory.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let's take up this 17 ex carte matter because it has a, may have a connection with 18 this matter we just talked about. Mr. Becker, what's your 19 position on that?

20 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, I would like to know the 21 basis of the ex carte communication with the Court. I
22 assumed it was relating to what I described as an oral motion
23 for protective order of discovery matters relating to 24 Frederick Martindale. I'm aware of no circumstances that 25 would justify such protective order, and I'm asking that

1 whatever communications were made to the Court, if they were
2 sealed, that they be unsealed.

3 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Becker, Mr. O'Connor and I
4 had a conversation. And, frankly, let me tell you about the
5 part that isn't on the record because there was part of it
6 that wasn't on the record. Part of it dealt with
7 frustrations that he has, has had with this case, and I asked
8 him when the case was over if he would be kind enough,
9 because I would appreciate it, to talk with me more about his
10 frustrations, because this is obviously not the last case
11 that's going to be prosecuted by the government in this
12 district, and I'm interested in attempting to improve
13 procedures to assure, as I've said before, both sides the 14 fairest opportunity to present their positions in accordance 15 with applicable rules, statutes, and controlling decisions.

16 I think he agreed to do that. My recollection is 17 he did. But it was obvious he -- and I entirely understand.
18 I mean, he had other things to do than talk to me about that
19 issue yesterday. So that matter, that is not on the record.
20 But that's, that's essentially what that dealt with. It
21 didn't, it had sort of, his concern was, concerns were 22 procedurally, you know, having to do with this case and some 23 frustrations that he thought flowed from the procedures.

24 And they don't have anything to do with, at least i
25 don't think they have anything to do with the case as it now

1 exists progressing from now forward. It has to do with -
2 and we all have seen those frustrations bubble up at various
3 times during the pretrial processing of this case.

4 And he didn't -- and let me hasten to add. He
5 didn't try to bend my ear about this. I -- you know, when
6 I'm talking to somebody and I sense that there's something
7 that isn't being said, I make an effort to find out what's 8 not being said. And so I was sort of the movant in this
9 thing. He was not coming to me complaining. I really
10 pressed him probably more than he wanted to be pressed. So
11 that ~ s all that part of it.

12 Mr. O'Connor, is that relatively fair?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Now, the other matter, the 15 matter that was on the record, or is on the record, you know,
16 my position is if an attorney comes to me and says they need
17 to talk to me ex parte and when I have the respect for the 18 attorneys that I have for all of the attorneys in this case,
19 I am inclined to talk with them because I know, I know that 20 none of you would ask to talk to me ex parte if you didn't 21 have something which you felt, which you believed was 22 something that needed to be talked to me about and it was not
23 for an improper purpose; in other words, it was not to lobby
24 me to do something, it was not to bring up a contested issue
25 and try to sneak in and secrete a point that they wanted to

1 emphasize or make.

2 Mr. O'Connor did not disappoint me. He did not try
3 anything that I thought was improper. Now, that doesn't mean
4 that I necessarily agreed with him after he and I had talked
5 that what he had to say was, had to be talked to me ex
6 carte. I mean, 95 percent of it, actually, 95 percent of it,
7 I think, could have been talked about one way or another out
8 here. I mean, I don't think it was any kind of secret at 9 all. Five percent of it was, and the 5 percent was why he 10 was talking to me. I mean, the 5 percent was the engine that 11 was driving the train, not the 95 percent. And the 5 percent
12 dealt with a matter of trial strategy that related to the 13 issue that you had raised, and I mean, I entirely understand
14 why he didn't want to talk about it out here.

15 Now, on the other hand, I don't owe any one party
16 in this case the obligation of attempting to provide a fair
17 trial. I owe every party that obligation, and you're 18 included. I mean, the governments included. So I will tell
19 you that if I use or believe that I am influenced in any
20 ruling I make by anything he told me ex carte, I will reveal
21 that to you because I don't think it's fair for me to make 22 decisions that affect other people in this, other parties in 23 this case by relying on things that the other party didn't,
24 the party against whom I'm ruling doesn't have a chance to 25 respond to. I don't think that's fair.

1 But I'm not going to tell you right now the details
2 of the 5 percent, even though I suspect if I did, it wouldn't
3 come as a surprise to you. You would sort of look at me
4 like, what's the big deal, Judge. You know, you think I'm
5 stupid or something? So I don't -- I mean, it's not -- this 6 is not something that I believe is going to influence me at 7 all.

8 MR. BECKER: With all due respect, I would like to 9 harken back to yesterday to the ground rules that the Court
10 set forth is that when an attorney makes an ex Carte
11 communication, that attorney should be prepared that if you
12 don't agree with them, then the matter would not be ex
13 parte.

14 And then secondly, to the substance of what I
15 consider to be a motion for protective order, certainly I
16 think counsel is well-aware that trial strategy is not a
17 basis for a motion for a protective order. So, therefore,
18 that information flowing to the Court, albeit perhaps 19 inconsequential, is not a subject matter that would be 20 protected in this type of motion.

21 THE COURT: Well, he wasn't making a motion for a
22 protective order, as far as I know.

23 MR. BECKER: Well, to not turn over the statement
24 of a witness would seem to be in the nature of a protective
25 order. I thought that was -

1 THE COURT: Well, but he -- that's why I say he
2 wasn't -- had he done that, had he said to me, Judge, this is
3 how I want you to rule on this, or you should rule this way
4 on what Mr. Becker is asking, I would consider that improper. I mean, that wasn't, but that isn't what he did.

6 MR. BECKER: I wouldn't consider that improper
7 because he's allowed under a protective order to make an ex
8 carte showing to the Court. And then if the motion is 9 denied, then the matter becomes public. That's provided for 10 in the rules.

11 THE COURT: I would have been disappointed if he 12 had tried that. He didn't do that. I mean, he didn't -- he 13 just didn't do that. I mean, that's what I'm saying. If in 14 the issue that you've raised, if you, if I use what he told
15 me in this 5 percent in any way, I'll tell you about it,
16 because I -- as I said, I really don't think that 95 percent
17 of what he told me was necessary to be done ex parse, but I
18 don't think he would have told me the 95 percent if it
19 weren't because of the 5, I mean, because it just doesn't
20 have much to do with anything.

21 Mr. O'Connor, is that fair, or have I
22 misrepresented what we talked about?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: I think that's fair, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go on to the last item on 25 our agenda, the matter that Mr. Becker raised yesterday of,

1 he characterizes it as reciprocal discovery. Now, the event,
2 the only event I know of that has occurred that has any
3 influence on this matter since yesterday that I assume you
4 all know about it -- if you don't, you need to. It didn't
5 occur ex parte, it occurred on the record. Mr. O'Connor
6 filed an amended witness list.

7 MR. BECKER: I've received copies.

8 THE COURT: I just wanted to be sure. Everybody
9 else got it, I assume. Got a copy of the amended witness
10 list? All right. So where are we?

11 MR. BECKER: There's two points I'd like to make,
12 Judge. First, I do not believe Mr. O'Connor should,
13 Defendant Bryan Sheppard should be able to avoid his 14 discovery obligations merely by filing an amended witness
15 list. The witness list of Defendant Frank Sheppard still 16 contains the listing of all government witnesses. Thus,
17 those witnesses will still be available to Mr. O'Connor
18 should the need arise. Whereas, I suspect that Mr.
19 O'Connor's statements will not be made available to 20 co-counsel to bring them within the purview of proper
21 discovery.

22 The second point is more general, and that is -
23 well, I'll -- that's enough for now, Judge. I still believe 24 that filing an amended witness list does not relieve the 25 defendant of his obligations. I've reviewed the omnibus

1 report. At least my version is silent on the issue of what
2 the defendants intend to do in this case in terms of
3 producing their statements pursuant to Rule 26.2.

4 THE COURT: So you're -- I need to revisit the 5 subject we talked about yesterday with you, Mr. Becker. The 6 authority for your request is what?

7 MR. BECKER: It's Rule 26.2, Judge. And I also
8 believe, now, Rule 26.2, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure,
9 mirrors the Jencks Act, Section 3500, in that it does not 10 require another party, that is, mostly a defendant, to 11 produce the statement of the particular witness until after 12 that witness has testified.

13 However, it was my understanding, and now when I've 14 gone back and reviewed the omnibus report, it was my 15 understanding that there was reciprocal discovery obligations
16 on the defendants to produce witness statements prior to 17 trial. That's not in writing. It's not, at least in my copy
18 of the omnibus report was not filled out in terms of the 19 defendants making a commitment on their -- now, in subsequent 20 orders of the Court, I imagine they merely address the 21 government's obligation because in terms of discovery, that's 22 the normal process is that we produce Jencks material and 23 defense attorneys don't have any. Now, it just turns out in 24 this case there is some. And the question is if it has to be 25 produced and, if so, when.

1 THE COURT: You say the Jencks act, you believe,
2 and Rule 26.2 covers the statements, or the requirement that
3 they produce the statements?

4 MR. BECKER: It does.

5 THE COURT: Right?

6 MR. BECKER: Yes.

7 THE COURT: So your inquiry is, assuming I would
8 agree with you on that -- which I'm not agreeing or 9 disagreeing with you on it, I'm just talking hypothetically.
10 If I were to agree with you about that, then you say the 11 issue is when should the statements be produced; is that
12 right?

13 MR. BECKER: Right. If, in fact, the pretrial
14 orders of the magistrate don't cover it. And at least in my 15 version, we do not, it's not indicated that they'll produce
16 the -- actually, yes, on Page 10, No. 10, it says Defendants
17 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 will provide their names and addresses five
18 days prior to trial, together with all statements as defined
19 in 18 U.S.C., Section 3500, made by each witness and the 20 record of felony convictions within the knowledge of counsel
21 of each witness.

22 THE COURT: So doesn't that answer your question?

23 I mean, the omnibus requires it to be done five days before
24 trial. And let's see, we are on Thursday. They should have 25 produced it yesterday. Did they produce it?

1 MR. BECKER: No. They amended their witness list
2 yesterday so they wouldn't have to. And Mr. Peters went on 3 quite eloquently about the start of trial according to the 4 defendants was the first day of jury selection. So it should
5 have been five days prior to that. The government produced
6 its Jencks materials 30 days prior to the start of the -- I
7 should say the bulk of its Jencks material 30 days prior to 8 the beginning of jury selection. So I'm asking that this
9 material covered by the witnesses on defendant's witness list
10 be produced.

11 THE COURT: Any further comment? No comment?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, I'll make a short comment.
13 Basically we're 35 days out for the defense before I would 14 have the opportunity to present any evidence. So I think the 15 amendment -- I think the spirit, I think the way the rule
16 should be, I did not intend to call those witnesses, and I
17 think I've learned a good lesson by just saying any and all
18 government witnesses. That was not my intention, clearly.
19 The government knows I would not call any of these people,
20 but that's not the issue. I did it.

21 I filed an amendment yesterday. I've given the 22 government every statement I have in my possession or any 23 record I have in my possession regarding my amended filing,
24 except for Martindale, which I've told Mr. Becker again this
25 morning as soon as I had it in my hands, I sent him a letter

1 yesterday that I would hand-deliver it to him, to his house,
2 wherever he was, the minute I had it in my hand.

3 THE COURT: Well, did the defendants file in 4 writing five days prior to trial the names and addresses of 5 witnesses they intend to call at trial?

6 MR. OSGOOD: I was about two days late, Your Honor,
7 simply because I did not, or maybe a day late. I faxed it to
8 Mr. Becker, I think, the day it was due, but I didn't get it
9 filed with the Court until the following day or the next
10 day.

11 My dilemma is I'm still not sure that's my witness
12 list because I'm still going through all of this discovery,
13 and I'm not all the way through it yet. I fully expect I
14 might file an amended list. I did give Mr. Becker two 15 cassette tapes of recorded conversations of witnesses that I
16 have had an investigator interview. He's got those this
17 morning. I've got one more tape that I told him as soon as I
18 review it, I'll give it to him tomorrow or, at the latest,
19 Monday.

20 That's my position on behalf of Mr. Brown. I'll 21 get it to him, I'll get it to him a lot sooner than he got it
22 to me in terms of the volume and the bulk and the ability to
23 review it. I'm doing my best. I'm making a good faith
24 effort. I'm not going to hide anything from him
25 deliberately.

1 MR. BUNCH: On behalf of Darlene Edwards, we did
2 file a witness list, I think, on time and then filed a second
3 one once we knew about the names and addresses of witnesses.

4 Mr. Becker has inquired about the witness Don
5 Wyrick, Donald Wyrick, which would be an expert witness on 6 behalf of the defendant if and when that witness has been
7 approved. And I'm sure Mr. Becker -- and I make that
8 assurance on the record, if Judge Hays approves the retention
9 of Mr. Wyrick, then I will forward to him upon receipt by me
10 those things necessary to be provided to the other side in 11 the event an expert witness is called.

12 The other witnesses on my list are all witnesses
13 that Mr. Becker designated as government witnesses that 14 probably would not be called. I have no statement from any 15 of those, other than what the government has.

16 MS. HUNT: On behalf of Skip Sheppard, we filed our 17 witness list on January 7th, which was the due date. Most of 18 the witnesses were address unknown. That's because the 19 government did not provide the addresses to those people
20 until Wednesday or Thursday. I can file an amended witness
21 list, but the government knows the addresses. I have no
22 statements to provide the government, although I believe the 23 government has statements of some of my witnesses that need
24 to be provided to me at this point.

25 MR. PETERS: Judge, Defendant Frank Sheppard filed

1 his witness list with addresses timely. The one witness that
2 we didn't have a current address on was a retired police
3 captain, Kennedy. I believe that was provided in open
4 court. I don't have any statements to provide, and because
5 the initial hearing was before Judge Hays, I had discussed
6 with Mr. Becker and there was some discussion in court as to 7 whether we needed to worry about duplicating subpoenas for
8 witnesses.

9 And on mine, I have that same caption, any and all
10 government witnesses. The reason I put it on there was to 11 cover the issue that I thought was raised and covered in 12 front of Judge Hays, that that would prevent -- and I
13 discussed, called Mr. Becker to candidly find out if I was 14 out in left field, that that would cover me about not having
15 to worry about, for example, the Riggses being subpoenaed.

16 I'm in compliance with the rule. I don't have any 17 statements to give, and before there would be any issue that 18 I would be concerned about, I would take it up with the
19 Court.

20 THE COURT: Anything else? Folks, I'm left with 21 the situation which, as best I can tell, the only secure
22 anchor is provided by the wording of the omnibus order.
23 Based on the statements of counsel and based on my reading of 24 the omnibus order, and based on the filings that were made, T
25 conclude that the witness lists filed by the defendants were

1 the, were intended to be the witness lists required by
2 Paragraph 10 of the omnibus order.

3 The requirement of the omnibus order was that five
4 days prior to trial, those lists be filed, at least five days
5 prior to trial that those lists be filed, together with all
6 statements made by each witness and the record of prior 7 felony convictions within the knowledge of counsel, if any,
8 of each witness. Those statements were to accompany the 9 witness list.

10 Therefore, each defendant will be required to 11 comply with the terms of the omnibus order and furnish to the 12 government no later than noon tomorrow any statement they 13 have within definition of 18 U.S.C., section 3500, for any 14 witness listed on their witness list that was filed in 15 compliance with Paragraph 10 of the omnibus order.

16 And if a party chose to satisfy the requirement of 17 the omnibus order by incorporating all the witnesses on the 18 government's list, then that party's obligation is to furnish 19 a copy of any statement taken they have complying with 20 section, definitions in Section 3500 for any witness on the 21 government's list.

22 The intent of, I believe, the intent of Paragraph 23 10, as we talked about yesterday, was to attempt to begin the 24 process of narrowing down what kind, what number of witnesses
25 ~ we were going to be dealing with in this case, who they were

1 going to be, and to provide an orderly method of complying
2 with the various discovery requirements under the rules in
3 the statute. So for all those reasons, the defendants will 4 be ordered to do what the magistrate judge ordered in the 5 omnibus order.

6 Now, let's talk about amended witness lists. And
7 let's talk about the situation of, that I'm sure is a
8 possibility, that someone will find a witness or identify a
9 witness at some other time.

10 Miss Franco, you all need to leave? I mean, is 11 noon still the time -- what's your situation?

12 MS. FRANCO: No, Your Honor, that's fine. We don't 13 need to leave any longer. We'll go another time.

14 THE COURT: I'll speed this up so you won't need

15 MS. FRANCO: It's not necessary any longer. Thank 16 you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: My recommendation -- and I'm not making
18 any ruling on the effect of this recommendation. But my 19 recommendation is that if anybody has a change in their 20 witness list, they file either an amended witness list or 21 they notify all other counsel as soon as possible that they 22 would like to add a name to a witness list, or if for some 23 reason you want to say you are taking one off. If you want to 24 add a name, you notify everybody as soon as possible and then
25

1 file whatever you believe is appropriate as quickly as
2 possible. The -- that gives you maximum protection.

3 Now, I'm not -- I mean, I'll have to hear if
4 there's any objection, you know, for the lateness of it.
5 I'll hear the argument, but my recommendation is you do it as 6 quickly as possible. Notify everybody as quickly as 7 possible, which would put you in the best position, I think,
8 to be able to use that late discovered witness.

9 And obviously, one of the things that I imagine is 10 going to come up is there may be some inquiry to establish
11 that, in fact, it was somebody that you didn't have any way
12 of discovering earlier, it just happened. Or that there were 13 circumstances you couldn't get around to determining whether 14 that person was somebody you wanted on your witness list
15 I until some later date. So you added them as quickly as you
16 new, and it was reasonable to do so.
17 Okay. Anything else on that issue? Okay.

18 I Anything else we need to talk about?

19 MS. HUNT: Has there been a final ruling on the 20 government's motion for a protective order?

21 THE COURT: No, there's not been a final ruling on 22 the government's motion for protective order. There will be
23 tomorrow. Now, as best you all know -- I mean, is this a
24 fair statement, as best you all know? If we were starting
25 the case tomorrow morning, could we start the case tomorrow

1 morning? I mean, without there being, you know, a bunch of
2 tissues raised? And I'm just saying as best you know right
3 Inow. I'm not, you know, I'm not trying to force you to 4 I predict .

5 MR. BECKER: I think the only matter outstanding is
6 something that counsel -- I provided them this morning with a
7 draft of a stipulation on records and photographs. I think
8 we're very close on that. Counsel wanted to discuss it, but 9 that would not be a pending matter. It would just be a
10 matter of more witnesses. But other than that, the 11 government's ready to open and present evidence.

12 MR. Osgood: Your Honor, I may wish to revisit the 13 pleading, pre-indictment delay issue, and I assume you'll 14 deny that. It's going to have, I could summarize very 15 quickly for you what my theory in that is. As I've gone
16 through this discovery, I've seen a pattern of 1986 police
17 reports where people were interviewed and said things.

18 It would be my argument that some six, eight years
19 later that there is also a consistent pattern of the ATF and 20 the Department of Labor going back to those same witnesses, 21 re-interviewing them, and the testimony then becomes, in our
22 view, embellished.

23 And the argument boils down to the fact that they
24 don't have much different now than they had in the months
25 after the fire. And that, add to that the fact that one of

1 the essential witnesses to my defense, the defendant's
2 I grandfather, has in the interim had strokes that will make it
3 impossible for him to come in and testify because he has aged
4 I by an additional eight years and has health problems.

5 So I would want to revisit again the pre-indictment
6 I delay issue. I suggested that the Court, to avoid a hearing
7 -- and remember, I argued that with the length of the delay
8 I in this case it should be presumptive. To avoid a hearing, I
9 would again suggest the Court merely consider this matter as 10 we go through it. I don't think it will be necessary, quite 11 frankly, to have even off-the-record inquiry about it at any 12 I great length, but consider the pattern that has occurred in 13 this case and make a ruling at the end of the case as to 14 I whether or not there has, in fact, been presumptive prejudice
15 I as a result of the delay in this case and that the 16 I government, for whatever reason, waited six or eight years to 17 bring the case.

18 That obviously dovetails to some extent with our
19 statute of limitations argument, and I think it's important
20 for purposes of appeal, should we lose, those are the two 21 issues that I'm really concerned about in this case are the 22 pre-indictment delay and the statute of limitations
23 question. And I didn't feel at the time, and it's confirmed
24 in my mind now, at the time of motion practice, there wasn't 25 any way that I could file a pre-indictment delay motion and

1 factually carry forward with that motion without the
2 discovery. Now that I've got the discovery, it very well
3 might be possible for me to have an out-of-court hearing
4 under the traditional standards of going forward since I've 5 I got the discovery.

6 I don't suggest we stop and have a four or five-day
7 I pre-indictment delay hearing now. I would suggest that the 8 I Court merely consider that as an alive motion during the 9 course of the trial and make a ruling much like you would in 10 I a Bell conspiracy finding at the close of the Government's 11 I case, that by a preponderance of the evidence they either
12 have or have not engaged in pre-indictment delay. Preserve
13 that issue for me on appeal. And if the Court agrees with 14 that, then at this point I don't even need to file a 15 pleading.

16 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Osgood, I will agree that - 17 I'm not sure I agree with everything you said, but let me
18 tell you what I do, what I do agree with. I'll do one of two
19 things. We'll start one hour and fifteen minutes from now
20 with a hearing and give you an opportunity to present
21 anything you want to present on pre-indictment delay, we'll
22 run it this afternoon, we'll go tomorrow, we'll go Saturday,
23 if necessary, and we'll go Monday, if necessary, which gives
24 us, what, three and a half days, which ought to be enough.

25 Or, or I will do as you just requested. I mean, I

190

1 will stay alert to the matter. I will ask you as part of
2 that, of my being alert to the matter, however, that you take
3 whatever opportunity you believe is presented to you during 4 the case to call my attention to something, hopefully without
5 having to, you know, make an objection or, you know, disrupt
6 it. But just say, you know, at the first convenient
7 opportunity, say, "Judge, do you remember this piece of 8 evidence or this? This I'd like you to take into account in 9 connection with my motion for pre-indictment delay. n

10 That will, I think, in the long run, produce a
11 higher quality decision on my part than spending two or three 12 days on a hearing. But I'll be glad to do the hearing.

13 MR. OSGOOD: I prefer the latter. That's what I
14 suggested to the magistrate. I think it's going to logically
15 come out that way anyway, Your Honor, because in the 16 impeachment process, we'll be going over the police
17 statements in '86 and dovetailing that into the statements
18 taken by the agents and the grand jury. And that will work
19 just fine, and other counsel agrees. That will preserve the 20 motion for appeal.

21 THE COURT: I need to have you, though -

22 MR. OSGOOD: I'll do that. I'll stay alert to
23 that.

24 THE COURT: -- remind me from time to time, and at 25 the end of the case make a request for the ruling. I mean, I

1 may well forget it.

2 MR. OSGOOD: I'll do that.

3 THE COURT: I have no way of knowing what will be
4 going on at the end of the case.

5 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Now, anything else that if the 7 case was going to start tomorrow morning that somebody would
8 think they had to bring up in the way of an issue to talk
9 about before we could get started?

10 All right. Now, obviously, we're going to go from 11 roughly noon on Thursday to 9 o'clock on Tuesday, and none of 12 us knows what's going to happen in that intervening period of 13 time. I want to know about problems that arise in that 14 intervening time before 9 o'clock Tuesday. If you wait until 15 9 o'clock Tuesday to raise a problem that could have been 16 raised over the weekend, I am not going to be very patient
17 with it. I mean, I'm not going to be inclined, unless the 18 nature of the problem is one that is so compelling that has 19 to be taken up, to take it up and delay the beginning of the 20 trial.

21 Therefore, I will give each attorney my home
22 telephone number. And you can get it by coming up here
23 afterwards, and I'll give it to you. I invite you, in fact,
24 I do more than invite, I implore you to call me at any hour
25 of the day or night between now and Tuesday at 9 a.m. if you

1 have a problem that you would feel compelled to bring up on
2 Tuesday morning, to let me know about that so that we can
3 attempt to schedule the resolution of that matter prior to 4 Tuesday morning.

5 Now, it may be 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. I mean,
6 that may turn out to be the most convenient, or 7:30 or 8:00,
7 depending on the nature of the problem, but at least we won't
8 wait until 9 o'clock to hear it. Okay?

9 I also would like to have you give Mr. Aizenberg,
10 each of you, a telephone number or some way to reach you over 11 this weekend. Maybe it's multiple numbers, that's fine, but 12 so that if something comes up, I can get ahold of you all. I
13 want you to give that information to the other attorneys,
14 too, so everybody knows how to reach everybody, within 15 I reason, over this weekend.

16 I Okay. Any questions about that? All right.
17 I Anything else? All right.

18 (Court and Law Clerk conferred off the record.)

19 THE COURT: Mr. Aizenberg points out something
20 which is very well-taken. We need to do something about the 21 elements of the offense instruction. And I mean, I need to 22 read the cases, and I think Mr. Osgood said he wanted to read
23 the cases again. When do you all want to take that matter
24 up?

25 MR. OSGOOD: How about 8:30 on the morning of

1 Tuesday?

2 THE COURT: You took the words out of my mouth, Mr.
3 Osgood.

4 MR. OSGOOD: I'm learning, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Very good. How about that? How about 6 Tuesday morning? Now -- let's do it at 8 o'clock, and the 7 reason I say that is if out of the discussion comes something
8 which needs to be changed, we're going to have to change it,
9 copy it, and have it ready by 9 o'clock, which is going to be
10 some premium on time.

11 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Is that all right with 12 everybody?

13 MR. BECKER: That's fine, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Hearing no, and seeing nobody in a
15 state of upset about that, I assume that that's all right.
16 So we're at recess now. Yes, Mr. Becker.

17 MR. BECKER: Mr. Peters, I briefly asked him,
18 inquired regarding opening statements. The government
19 obviously will open. I expect to be approximately an hour.
20 My question is will we fill the morning with opening
21 statements, or should I have a witness ready to go?

22 THE COURT: Mr. Becker, thank you very much for 23 raising that issue. I want to talk about the length of 24 opening statements a little bit. And Mr. Becker's already 25 dealt with that in the statement he just made. An hour or

1 less, Mr. Becker?

2 MR. BECKER: Certainly less. No more than an hour.

3 THE COURT: All right. An hour or less or no more

4 than an hour. Now, does anybody else want to tell me what

5 positionyou're going to be taking on opening statements,

6 because I think Mr. Becker has a legitimate concern about

7 whenhe's got to have his first witness here ready to go. Do

8 you all know yet whether you're going to be making an opening

9 statement or reserving it, or what's your position?

10 MR. PETERS: We've talked about it briefly. We do

11 notknow if we're going to be making an opening statement.

12 As far as I know, nobody knows if -- in candor to the Court,

13 I'm not going to know if I'm making an opening statement

14 until I hear Mr. Becker 's.

15 And we've talked. I think we can anticipate one

16 defendant,at least one defendant making an opening

17 statement. But -

18 MR. OSGOOD: If I do, mine would be 15 or 20

19 minutes, tops, Your Honor. So that's not something thatch

20 criticalin terms of time factor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Osgood.

22 MR. BUNCH: I can tell the Court that Darlene

23 Edwards will reserve opening statement.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I'm fifty-fifty on making

1 it.If I did, it would be 20 minutes. If I make a decision
2 over the weekend, I'll call Mr. Becker so he'll know to tell
3 his witnesses.

4 MR. OSGOOD: As will I.

5 THE COURT: How about Miss Franco or Miss Hunt?

6 MS. FRANCO: Same, Your Honor. We'll notify Mr.
7 Becker if we make a decision.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Peters' point, though, it's a
9 legitimate point. If you just don't know and you, you're
10 going to make the decision after you hear Mr. Becker's
11 opening statement, that's fine. What I would request,
12 though, is that what you do is if you would estimate -- I
13 mean, it's sort of hard to do. I guess if you don't know if 14 you're going to make one or not, you don't know how long it's 15 going to take, but try to hypothesize if you were to make 16 one, about how long it would be and tell Mr. Becker that.
17 Mr. Becker, in view of the, of this situation, it
18 doesn't sound to me like if the defendants make, if they all
19 make opening statements, it doesn't sound like it's going to 20 be terribly long. So why don't you -- on the other hand, I'm 21 not -- I don't know who your first witness is, but -

22 MR. BECKER: I'll be ready to go, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Is that enough information?

24 MR. BECKER: That's fine.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And if you all decide over the

1 weekend, would you let Mr. Becker know and everybody else?
2 If you don't, fine, we'll just deal with it Tuesday morning.
3 Okay. Anything else that we need to -- oh, if anybody has 4 any comment about this instruction, the elements, if you
5 could just get it to us sometime tomorrow, that would be 6 great and, naturally, if you send something to us, you send
7 it to everybody else.

8 Okay. Remember, we need to have where we can reach
9 you and where everybody else can reach you over the weekend.
10 And I'll give you my home number so you'll know how to get
11 ahold of me.

12 We'll be in recess until 8 o'clock Tuesday
13 morning.

14 (Hearing adjourned for the day.)

15

16 Friday, January 17, 1997

17 (The following proceedings were had in chambers in 18 the presence of Mr. Becker, Mr. Miller, and Mr. O'Connor, but 19 with no defendants present, commencing at 10:43 a.m.):

20 MR. BECKER: The reason I wanted to meet with the 21 Court is apparently there's some disagreement between Mr.
22 O'Connor and I about the Court's ruling yesterday on 23 reciprocal discovery.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: And I guess it's not, it is and it
2 isn't a disagreement. When I left here, I was under the
3 belief that the Court ruled that I did not have to give them
4 to him. That's what I thought, and I went home, and that's 5 what I thought.

6 And then I talked to Pat Peters, and he said, I
7 think that's right, but I'm not sure. So we talked it out,
8 and I said if I was supposed to get them, Paul would have
9 said when am I going to get them because he's been asking me
10 on other stuff, so that's what I thought in court when I
11 left. So Paul asked me this morning and wanted to know about 12 the statements. I said I thought the ruling was I didn't
13 have to give them up.

14 So that's where I was. So it wasn't a
15 disagreement. It was like, it was just that that's what I
16 thought. I would request that the Court reconsider its 17 decision. And the first request I would ask in that regard
18 is to, for the Court to look at the statements in camera.
19 Now, I don't have any statements right now. I have 20 nothing -- if you told me right now to hand it to Mr. Becker,
21 I have none. And I will tell you the history of why I have 22 none, a shorter of history of why I have none.

23 Last night I was supposed to go by Theresa Taylor's
24 place to get the statements, and I couldn't get by there
25 because I was doing other things on this case. Between 10:00

1 and 2:00 in the morning, I was calling every jail to find out
2 where their last two informants were because they moved them,
3 and I think just through the normal course took them down at 4 the prisons. I was going to go down there like at 1:00 in 5 the morning, stay overnight and talk to these people, and 6 come back this morning.

7 I found out they got moved to St. Clair County, so
8 I got up and drove to St. Clair County and had a court
9 reporter meet me there, not Theresa. I've got the other two 10 statements of the other two people in jail this morning down
11 in St. Clair County. I'm driving back from there when I got 12 the page from Paul to say, "Where are the statements?"

13 So I didn't -- so then we've dealt with that, and I
14 didn't realize that the Court had ordered me to give them
15 up. So I haven't been by Theresa's to pick them up. I
16 understand there are two statements that are ready and that 17 the others are being typed as she can get to them. And 18 that's my honest understanding, and I do not have them, nor 19 have I picked them up or anything like that. So I don't have 20 them to give at this minute.

21 But I -- so the one request I'm asking is the Court
22 to reconsider the motion that it entered, look at these 23 statements in camera because I think that this ruling -- and,
24 again, I apologize that I didn't understand it yesterday. I
25 don't have any excuse, other than the real excuse is that I

199

1 was leaving as soon as court got out to go over to Lansing to
2 see other prisoners yesterday, and if I didn't get there by 1
3 o'clock, I wouldn't be able to talk to him. I got over there
4 and talked to him. When I heard the Court say since Mr.
5 O'Connor filed the amended, I thought that meant that I was
6 okay. So that was my mind-set, honest truth.

7 So I believe that this ruling is devastating to my
8 client in many respects. One is obviously I've been pretty
9 ineffective if I file a witness list of any and all, which 10 everyone traditionally has done, to my knowledge, in this
11 district and other practice that I've done, just to cover
12 yourself. I talked to Mr. Becker about it when I did it. It
13 was at a time when Mr. Becker still hadn't even given us his 14 witness list. Let me leave that out. Let me leave that 15 out. It doesn't really matter.

16 At the time that I filed it, I called Mr. Becker
17 and I told him, I asked him if I could do it so I didn't have 18 to waste paper and time because my real witnesses were the 19 real witnesses I was going to call. It's clear I would never 20 ever call any of these witnesses. That was never my intent,
21 never my thought process, never my being, thinking,
22 anything.

23 Then when that happened and I realized that I'd 24 made a mistake, that I shouldn't have done it that way,
25 although it was, I believe, an honest mistake, I then filed

1 the amended, which I then thought clearly meant that I was
2 not going to call any witness for the government, and that
3 ruling when I filed my amended then at that point in time has 4 now precluded me now and forever from ever calling anybody on
5 the government's witness list. And I think that's a proper
6 sanction. For that little mistake, the sanction I think is 7 you don't get to call them, Mr. O'Connor, so if something
8 comes up later and you need one of them, tough, and I would 9 live with that.

10 But these statements are impeachment. That's all
11 they are. They are impeachment. And to now give these to 12 the government so now they could then pick and choose who 13 they now would put before this jury because they won't put 14 half of these people, I don't believe, before this jury if 15 they read these statements, would take away my effective
16 representation of my client, my ability to cross-examine the 17 credibility of the witnesses, to overall show the way this 18 case has proceeded and the way it's been conducted and the 19 fashion with which it's being conducted, has been conducted,
20 which is a theory of the defense in this case.

21 And furthermore, one of my real overall goals, and
22 I've said this to Paul, but my whole overall thought was I
23 had taken all of these statements, I had gathered all the 24 impeachment, I've done all of the work as it relates to these 25 witnesses in the government's case, and I was going to

1 approach Mr. Becker before the end of today. I told him this
2 before we came up here.

3 I was waiting to pick up a couple more items and to
4 talk to him to resolve this case in favor of my client and
5 giving him some of this stuff to, as a give-and-take to get
6 my client out of this case, if it was possible. So now by 7 giving them, there's no way that that could ever happen or I
8 could ever effectively use those in a way of plea
9 bargaining. That's the truth, I told him that this morning,
10 and that's been my thought all along in picking up these 11 witnesses, that I could somehow go to him with everything I
12 had and say, look, you can maybe salvage this thing and do
13 some, and at the same time I can represent my client
14 effectively.

15 So in the context of the -- am I talking too loud?

16 THE COURT: I just don't know who came in out
17 there. I just didn't -

18 MR. O'CONNOR: So I think the Court has to look at 19 the overall way this case has gone on. The closed file, the 20 way that the rules, and I'm not -- maybe we haven't followed
21 the rules too -- it's not pointing a finger or anything, but 22 a lot of the ways things have progressed in this case have 23 not been the normal case.

24 And this was an honest mistake, honest mistake. I
25 had no intention to call all these witnesses. And to now, to

1 use that honest mistake to make me give them witnesses who I
2 would never call, do not want to call, and had I listed the
3 Witnesses, had not said any and all, they would not have even
4 been in those numbers. I was thinking of the Riggses or
5 people that he may not call but would definitely want before
6 this jury, but we would never call any of these people. If 7 The doesn't call any of these people, I would be happy, but 8 giving these over gives him the defense, the 9 cross-examination the theory of the case. It's everything,
10 it is the whole thing, for one mistake that was honest.

11 And I don't -- I'm just asking the Court to 12 reconsider its ruling. I'm sorry that I didn't understand it
13 yesterday. I would have clearly, I don't think I would have 14 sat still like I did. I think -- I missed it, and I -- and 15 I've said this before in front of Mr. Becker and in front of 16 Judge Sachs, I'm not a book lawyer, I'm not a legal lawyer.
17 I can't make these articulate arguments like some of these 18 people make. I can't do what Peters does. I can't file the 19 brief he did. I'm not that kind of lawyer.

20 I think it's important to know what my intent is,
21 what's inside me. I think that has to be important
22 somewhere, fairness, justice has to fit into these rules.
23 Not just, there's a rule so, therefore, you violate it. The 24 real honest intent has to be looked at.

25 And if you looked at the honest intent from the

1 government, does Mr. Becker really want these statements
 2 because he thinks I'm going to call them, or does he want
 3 these statements so he can do damage control with this case?
 4 That's the honest version of this thing. If you look at it
 5 from his end, does he really honestly think I'm going to call
 6 these people? If the Court read these statements in camera
 7 and considered a re-ruling, if the Court would honestly
 8 believe that I was going to call these people, then I would
 9 say, give them to him.

10 That's -- well, I have a couple of other things,
 11 depending on what you say, Judge. But that's my record.

12 MR. BECKER: I don't believe any circumstances have 13 changed from yesterday. And one of the points I tried to 14 make yesterday is that there is no sanction because the 15 Defendant Frank Sheppard through counsel Pat Peters has 16 listed all the government witnesses, any and all. There's 17 simply no doubt in my mind that given the working
 18 relationships that I've observed in this case that if Mr.
 19 O'Connor wants anybody called as a witness, Peters will call
 20 them as a witness. And so, thus, there's no sanction at 21 all.

22 I think it goes back to the mind-set. It's the 23 mind-set of the defense that they have no discovery
 24 obligations. And so they're not even -- we spent a multitude
 25 of time, hours and hours, in this matter and, frankly, every

1 matter complaining about the government not living up to its
2 discovery obligations. But the defense side of the camp for
3 the most part never has any statements. So there's no
4 thought given to any discovery obligations because they don't 5 comply with Rule 16, they don't comply with Rule 26.2. And 6 that's what called it to mind to me.

7 And I wasn't laying in wait for Mr. O'Connor when 8 he -- when I was informed by detectives that Martindale had 9 been interviewed by John O'Connor, well, I know John. John
10 had a stenographer there. That's Jencks material. So that's 11 what precipitated this, and I asked John for that statement.
12 And we had a reasonable discussion about it. But it then
13 became clear to me, you know, that he, if he's interviewed
14 other government witnesses, there are stenographic statements
15 and I'm entitled to them.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: That's true, there are. And as it
17 relates to Martindale, I don't mind saying that now with us
18 in here, the reason Martindale is not ready is because we 19 were out 14 hours last Saturday, 12 hours last Sunday. She 20 took a statement, she just didn't get it done. And she'll 21 tell you, and I would invite you to call her, that I did not
22 ask her to hold back or not do it.

23 But then when this thing came about, when you
24 endorsed these witnesses, I said, give me these first three 25 people first because they're going to testify for the

1 government next week, and then get me Martindale. And since
2 we've had the further discussion, I said as soon as you get
3 those three done, get Martindale done because I want to get
4 it to Mr. Becker before I ever make an opening statement, so
5 that's the way it's all gone.

6 You can talk about the other lawyers, and I don't
7 blame you, but what I have done in this case, I've complied
8 with the witness list, I've given Mr. Becker -- every single 9 document that I have, I've given to him. I've told him what
10 I had right when I had it. He called me about Martindale,
11 and I told him I had it but didn't have it in my hands. I
12 told him I would get it to him, and I have not not made that 13 promise.

14 There's nothing I have done -- you are to an extent
15 somehow in bed with other defense lawyers, but I'm telling
16 this court, do you think they know that I'm going to be over
17 here this afternoon talking about selling the rest of them
18 out for my client? I'm representing one person here. I
19 don't care about the rest of the four of them as it relates
20 to my client. I have no secret agenda. I had no secret
21 meeting with them, you're going to sneak in and call someone
22 and this will cover me. I've never had a discussion like
23 that. I wouldn't practice law like that, I don't deal that 24 way. If other people operate that way, they operate that 25 way, but I don't operate that way, and I don't intend to

206

1 start to operate that way.

2 All I'm saying is I have no intent of any of them
3 calling someone for me. And yesterday -- Mr. Becker can
4 vouch for this -- when I left and went over, I thought I'd
5 won. In front of Pat Peters, in front of him I said, well,
6 Paul, Pat's not going to get them either because if these
7 other guys have put any and all witnesses and they have an 8 obligation to give them when they have them to Paul, they're 9 not going to get them.

10 And I'm telling you, that's the honest truth. They 11 will not have those. I will not give them to them, period.
12 And I don't have them yet, but I would not violate that rule,
13 period, for any of them.

14 MR. BECKER: There's no reason for you to violate
15 the rule.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: What you're saying is if Pat put any 17 and all, I can hand him the statement, and I'm not going to.

18 MR. BECKER: You can cross.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: You're right, I can cross-examine,
20 sure, exactly, I'm not fighting that issue. But what I'm 21 saying is I've complied with every rule I've had to comply
22 with, witness lists, exhibit lists, statements, until 23 yesterday when this happened, and I didn't realize what 24 happened. Would you agree with that?

25 MR. BECKER: John, no, because frankly, I don't

1 think you would have thought about turning over Martindale's
2 statement. I mean, you know, defense attorneys aren't used
3 to having Jencks material. You're the only one that takes 4 stenographic statements.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand, but remember when I
6 talked to you on the phone and you asked me about it, I said,
7 "I'm going to give it to you, but I'm going to see if 8 there's any legal reason why I don't have to."

9 MR. BECKER: The point is I initiated that. I
10 don't know what you would have done down the road, but -

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Do you want to know what the honest
12 answer is? I don't know that either. What I'm saying to you
13 is once I had it, I would have made a decision whether it
14 was, and I would have told you about it, because I'm not
15 stupid. I know you would have found out. I know -- when I
16 came in the other day and I got the look, I knew you knew I
17 had been out talking to these people. This is the give and 18 take that happens in a case.

19 But all I'm saying is that I have complied with the 20 rule, all the rules at this point. That's my point.

21 MR. BECKER: It's relative. You know, when you
22 file an exhibit list and I say what is this stuff, you say,
23 oh, I'll give it to you. I mean, Rule 16 kicks in at 24 indictment. So that if I were to file my witness list or 25 exhibit list and have a million, whatever it is, ten items

1 that you folks had never seen, we'd never hear the end of it,
2 I'd never hear the end of it. Rule 16 kicks in early and not
3 after you, five days before trial when you file your exhibit
4 list. That's mere background. I mean, that's not the issue.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: What I'm saying is I've never had 6 Martindale to give to you. I've never had it. I don't have
7 it. And I wrote you a letter day before yesterday, I said,
8 Paul, as soon as I have it, I will deliver it to you wherever 9 you're at, did I not, Paul? Paul, again, did I not?

0 MR. BECKER: Absolutely. I received that letter.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't have Martindale, if I had 12 it, you'd have it.

13 MR. BECKER: My only point on Martindale is that 14 that was a process that I initiated. That was not something
15 you were on top of.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: But that addresses a super point
17 here. This is a closed file case in which I've been given
18 2500 pages in 14 days. I've got six witnesses testifying
19 next week that I haven't talked to because I've been running
20 around talking to other people. This is the thing that this 21 thing creates.

22 MR. BECKER: Next week you can cross-examine
23 everybody, but next week you have the list. It's fire
24 personnel and Frank Sheppard. Now -

25 MR. O'CONNOR: You said Frank, Glen.

1 MR. BECKER: No, it's Frank Sheppard. It's the
2 Frank Sheppard witnesses. These folks aren't pointing
3 fingers at Bryan next week. It's Frank Sheppard week.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Glen Shepard said Bryan Sheppard
5 admitted to him that he did -- I think Elliott says that 6 George talks about doing it with his brother Bryan and 7 that s -

8 MR. BECKER: But that's not admissible and -

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Again, those are things that -

10 MR. BECKER: The things that Frank says are only
11 admissible against Frank, and those people have been all 12 instructed to, as we've discussed many times, that they're 13 not going to talk about other defendants, they're going to 14 talk about the speaker. But be that as it may, we are -

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I made my record of that to this 16 I point.

17 THE COURT: Anything else?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Other than my request, Judge, is 19 that you look at these in camera. And right now I'm only
20 going to have two that I think, assuming she's home, we can 21 I go pick up. But that's all I know.

22 THE COURT: Well, let me -- let's start with 23 I yesterday, I guess, just because I'm somewhat -- I guess I'm 24 I disappointed in myself that I didn't express myself clearly
25 enough yesterday.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I'm sure you did.

2 THE COURT: That Is why I took all the time to talk
3 about it was that I was doing something -- I mean, I was
4 resolving an issue or a dispute in a manner that I felt
5 needed, you know, some explanation as to why I was doing it.

6 But it was certainly my intent yesterday -- maybe
7 it was inartfully expressed, but it was certainly my intent
8 to say that the, under the omnibus order, the witness list
9 which each defendant's attorney told me they had filed in a
10 I timely fashion as required by the omnibus order had to be
11 I accompanied by, at the time by any Jencks, any statements
12 covered by Jencks, by Section 3500, or as described in 13 Section 3500.

14 Now, I mean, that was certainly my intent
15 yesterday. That's what I thought I said. And then I talked 16 about the amended -- I mean, I talked about amended lists and
17 pointed out that an amended list has many purposes, but I
18 believe that it didn't, it didn't relieve a party from an 19 obligation that had been established by the omnibus order to 20 have been done, you know, when it was, when the order said it
21 should have been done. Now, that was what I said
22 yesterday -- I mean, that's what I thought I said yesterday.

23 Now, I will take at face value your statement that 24 it was a mistake, I mean, you now view it as a mistake to 25 have filed the witness list the way you did. Assuming your

1 co-counsel -- though, as I think I also stated out there, it
2 clearly wasn't a mistake. And I pointed either yesterday or 3 at some other time that we were talking about this, pointed
4 to what happened as we prepared for the general voir dire,
5 and we were talking about what witnesses to read.

6 And Mr. Becker, in essence, said, look, my
7 witnesses are going to come from the first group of witnesses
8 on my list on that bifurcated list, and somebody, and one of 9 the defense lawyers, or more of them, said, well, Judge,
10 you've still got to read all the witnesses on his list, even 11 the ones in the second group, the unlikely to call group,
12 because we may call them.

13 So that communicated to me, or that was one thing
14 that communicated to me the belief that, as is typical of 15 many cases, the government's witness list is frequently
16 all-inclusive in the sense that they list everybody who is,
17 or essentially everybody whose name has come up during an 18 investigation to protect themselves because they don't know
19 -- I mean, at the time the witness list is filed, they may 20 be unsure what issues are going to come up at trial that may 21 require calling somebody that they didn't, you know, plan to 22 call before.

23 Well, if they hadn't listed them on the list, as 24 you know, then the defense attorneys say, wait a minute,
25 Judge. You know, they can't call that person because it

1 isn't on their list. So they list everybody. And that is
2 usually, in my understanding, why so many defense attorneys
3 incorporate the government's list is it essentially is 95
4 percent of the people who know anything about the particular
5 dispute.

6 Now, there's frequently some other people that the 7 defense, you know, has found, character witnesses, that kind
8 of thing, that wouldn't be on the government's list that the 9 defendant has to add. But usually the people who know
10 anything about the offense find their names on the 11 government's list.

12 So it was, it was with that kind of background that
13 I approached the decision yesterday. And, I mean, you tell
14 me it was a mistake on your part to do it. I mean, I'll say
15 right now, I don't -- I mean, it may or may not have been a
16 mistake, but it certainly doesn't, in my view, fall anywhere
17 close to being below the standard of a competent attorney
18 representing somebody in a criminal case. If it's a mistake,
19 it's one that is not one that falls into, in my view,
20 anywhere close to being the kind of thing that would be
21 ineffective assistance of counsel.

22 And even, even if I go ahead and take the rest of 23 your argument and consider it, which is, well, Judge, I put 24 people on there who I never would have called. And I might 25 have statements from some of those people and, therefore, it

1 would be, you know, ineffective or it would be, it could be
2 argued to be ineffective, but I put the name on the list and,
3 therefore, had to turn over the statement before I could use
4 it in cross-examination.

5 Now, I mean, I'll be glad to consider the argument
6 you've raised and, I'll tell you, frankly, delay a final
7 ruling on that until you've had a chance to sit down with Mr.
8 Becker and talk about what you said you wanted to talk
9 about. And that is a, and that decision on my part, in other
10 words, to delay your ruling on your request for 11 reconsideration, is a function only of my belief that that 12 aspect of this situation, I mean, that particular aspect
13 which you said you plan to do, you plan to sit down with 14 these statements with Mr. Becker and try to work out
15 something, is an unusual aspect of this situation and one
16 that I think needs to be weighed, along with the literal
17 application of the omnibus order.

18 So I'll -- I mean, I'll consider all of that, but 19 I'm going to -- I mean, you're going to need to arrange your 20 meeting with Mr. Becker pretty soon because I've got to rule
21 on this. I mean, I've got to make my decision about your 22 request that I reconsider in some relatively timely fashion.
23 I can't wait until, you know, Tuesday to do it because then
24 it's, then it's a moot, I mean, the passage of time has 25 mooted out the purpose for the omnibus order's provision.

1 So when do you want to meet with -- I guess the
2 question is when do you want to meet with Mr. Becker and -- I
3 mean, that will tell me when I want to do my, when I'll
4 announce the results of my reconsideration.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I think we can do it right now or in 6 the next few minutes, but my request for you while that is 7 going on is to try to get ahold of these statements. They 8 are ready, it's my understanding, to be picked up. I was 9 supposed to pick them up at 9 a.m. this morning. And the two
10 that we're talking about picking up that I think are ready
11 are the, would be classic examples. I mean, they would 12 clearly tell the Court, I think, whether or not -- would 13 clearly help the Court in its ruling process.

14 THE COURT: I'll be glad to do that. I mean,
15 people ask me to look at stuff in camera. I'll look at it i
16 camera. I just don't know what I'm going to see by doing it,
17 but I'll be glad to look at them. And then with that 18 knowledge, I'll -- I mean, at least I will have looked at 19 them, as you request. And I'll do that. If you'll get those 20 to me, I'll do that immediately so that you and Mr. Becker
21 can have your meeting, and you can attempt to, I mean,
22 produce whatever result favorable to your client you'd like
23 to try to achieve before I announce the results of my 24 reconsideration.

25 And I don't mean to suggest by that that I've

1 decided yet what the results of the reconsideration are going
2 to be. I mean, I haven't. That's why I'm reconsidering. I
3 mean, that's why I'm considering it. I'm not playing a
4 game. I just -- I'm trying to take into account what you
5 said, and I'll look at the statements for whatever value that
6 may have in my reconsideration. And we'll probably end up
7 talking again about it because, I mean, something may occur
8 to me after I've looked at this that I could ask that 9 wouldn't spill the beans. I mean, I'm not going to spill the 10 beans and ask him a question, but it might be something that 11 I would want to inquire about.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Three things come to mind, then.
13 I'll go talk to Mr. Becker, one. I'll get on the phone now
14 and see if they're ready and send someone by and get them
15 down here.

16 Secondly, I've obviously tried to be candid. At 17 the same time, I've told Mr. Becker who my court reporter is,
18 and at least until you make a ruling, and I've asked her to 19 be specifically employed by me for this case so she's, the 20 way I look at it, an employee of mine so he can't call her
21 and start getting statements from her.

22 MR. BECKER: That's work product until the Court
23 rules.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. Third, another consideration,
25 because we need to talk this out. I know we want to go to

1 trial Tuesday, but another consideration that I have to have,
2 if the Court rules, is the possibility of a writ and other
3 remedies that may be available to me.

4 And, again, that's not -- that's not any kind of a
5 threat, but I wouldn't know how to do it to start with, but
6 it's just something, it's there. I've been in contact with 7 Jim Wyrsh, and he's agreed to help me if we get to these 8 Points, so I'll defer to him at that point. So I'm just 9 trying to -- I know time is of the essence. I want to get
10 those statements down there, I want to talk to Mr. Becker,
11 and I want to keep the heat under this.

12 THE COURT: That's even more of a reason -- I mean,
13 I don't take it as a threat, first of all. That's a right
14 you've got. It may be a right you've got, and, therefore,
15 I'll cooperate with you every way I can to make that possible
16 action on your part as timely and easy as possible because it
17 will help all of us. I mean, if the Eighth Circuit would 18 step in and issue some kind of a stop order on this case, I
19 mean, we've got a lot of people to notify. We've got a lot
20 of stuff to do if this case is not going to go on Tuesday
21 because they want to take a look at this, which I guess would 22 be, I assume would be their right to do that.

23 So it's in all of our interests, I think, to set
24 this up as early as possible so as to give you the most 25 time. And obviously, it will be easier for you to do it this

1 afternoon than it will be for you to do it over the weekend.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to do it right now because
3 this is the last day that courthouses and things are open to 4 get public records. We've still got stuff we're doing.

5 THE COURT: If you're going to go to the Eighth
6 Circuit, I mean, if you're going to seek a writ, I'm just
7 saying that your life, I think it will just be easier.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Go ahead, Judge, I'm sorry. He was 9 showing me a note on something.

10 MR. BECKER: There's another point that Mr.
11 O'Connor raised earlier that I wanted to make sure that -

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I didn't know if you wanted me to 13 discuss it.

14 MR. BECKER: Yes, absolutely.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I will, then. I just thought -- we 16 had a conversation. I want to back up one step here so I get 17 something else out on the record.

18 When I was telling Theresa at first to do these, of 19 course, I was telling her because I talked to Judge Hays
20 about getting copies made at 10 cents a page for all the 21 lawyers, how it was going to get paid. So I was having her
22 make an original and one, and then three scripts because I
23 was going to give them to everybody because at that time
24 until you made the rulings, I assumed I could do that.

25 of course, I never picked them up because if you

1 looked at them, I thought everybody was going to get one,
2 which they were. No one has gotten anything, so I didn't
3 want somebody to go back and say, look, it was his intent at 4 the time. I thought everybody would get them and you
5 wouldn't be asking for them. I never saw that coming.

6 Bradv issues I believe that I have uncovered -- I
7 don't want to say a number. Not that I want to say -- I
8 don't want to say a number and be wrong. More than one, less
9 than five Bradv violations, clear-cut, the way I see it, that
10 I've uncovered as a result of some of these things in talking
11 to some of these people, assuming they're telling me the 12 truth. And these are the government informants, and I don't 13 know if they're telling me the truth, but they seemed like 14 they were. And we've run records down there, and they're 15 right on a couple of them, and we're running some more. So
16 if these hold out to be true, they're there.

17 A couple of them, a couple of them -- see, this is 18 the problem is a couple of them, as I told Mr. Becker this 19 morning, and I don't mind saying this, I don't believe he 20 probably knows about these things. I really don't believe he 21 could because I don't think he would not give these up. I
22 don't believe that he wouldn't do that. And I think when he 23 finds out about it, he'll probably be as surprised as I was 24 to find out, and someone didn't tell him something is the way
25 I'm, that's the way I'm viewing it. I mean, honestly, thaws

1 the way I'm viewing two of these.

2 So it's, but it's kind of like I don't know some
3 things that are tied to this motion that's before the Court,
4 that the two witnesses we're not getting -- and maybe some of
5 this stuff is tied to that, and I'm -- and there's no
6 violation at all. Maybe the Court already knows.

7 MR. BECKER: There's nothing relating to these two
8 witnesses that are the subject matter of the protective order
9 that I could conceive.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Do they relate to any witness that 11 will testify next week?

12 MR. BECKER: No.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. Then there would clearly be 14 at least three Brady violations as to witnesses next week, in 15 my opinion, and one Jencks. And maybe the one Jencks could 16 be just an oversight. I don't know. That's not the one I'm 17 talking about as being one that you would know. But that's 18 why the other day we were saying, Judge -- and we weren't
19 trying to sandbag you. In a sense, we were, yet we weren't.
20 We were trying to say, tell us what Brady is because everyone
21 has got a different interpretation of Brady. They just do -
22 when you're advocates, Mr. Becker has an interpretation as an 23 advocate of what he thinks it is or isn't. And we as 24 advocates do. And then I think there's a clear-cut area that 25 is Brady.

1 MR. BECKER: My only concern is when Mr. O'Connor
2 raised this point on the phone this morning is that it not
3 erupt on Tuesday.

4 THE COURT: It better not erupt on Tuesday because
5 if you know it today, we'll do it this afternoon.

6 MR. BECKER: Because I don't know what he's talking
7 about. And I just, it seems to me that there's been, this
8 information has been -- at least the defense have been aware 9 of something for a while because they've hinted at it off and 10 on. And it may have had to do with asking to swear the jury
11 on Thursday because I couldn't conceive of why we would want
12 to swear the jury on Thursday, other than have jeopardy
13 attach, and then have argument about something that I'm not 14 aware of.

15 THE COURT: If they wait until Tuesday -- I can't 16 have been clearer.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell you, Judge, it would not
18 be raised. I intended it as a trial tactic, as a trial
19 tactic to raise it in front of the jury, not as a tactic for 20 coming to the Court for a Brady violation, because Mr. Becker
21 pointed out to me, quite candidly, so you don't get pretrials
22 on Brady issues. In fact, if I have it, arguably it's not 23 Brady, I guess. But -

24 THE COURT: I don't know how you're going to 25 present it to the jury. How is a jury going to make a

1 determination of whether something is a violation of Brady
2 and I don't want you all talking about that? I mean, if
3 that's what you all plan to do is try to say to this jury,
4 hey, folks, there's been some Brady violations here, and you
5 haven't even given me a chance to rule on whether it is,
6 that's not going to happen.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: The jury, one, would not know what a
8 Brady violation was. Let me see if I could think of a
9 hypothetical that would fit.

10 MR. BECKER: Are you talking about inducements that 11 you've not disclosed?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Some are inducements, some are 13 threats.

14 THE COURT: You certainly can -- I mean, if what 15 you're saying is, if you plan to bring this information out
16 in front of the jury in order to, you know, to detract from 17 credibility, you know, to try to show government pressure on 18 the -- I mean, if that's what you're saying, obviously,
19 that's, you can do that. But what I'm concerned about is 20 that you not stand up there and say, hey, you know, the 21 government has this violation under Brady, folks, and then we 22 get into a big to-do about what the violation is.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me say this, because T can't 24 predict what four other people are going to do. I'm assuming 25 when they hear some of this that they haven't heard from me

1 that I've kept to myself so I can maybe negotiate with Mr.
2 Becker, when they hear it in open court, they may take a
3 different view to this.

4 THE COURT: Well, but if they do -- yeah, but if
5 they start talking about Brady, I'm going to stop them. I
6 mean, because the jury is not going to know what Brady is.
7 And until I have an opportunity to make a determination about
8 it, it seems to me at the very least it's not an issue to 9 present to the jury about whether somebody is -- I'm not sure
10 it ever is. I mean, I frankly don't know. I think it may be
11 a matter of law and it's not a jury issue. Now, that doesn't 12 mean the facts -- what I'm clearly not saying, however, are 13 that the facts aren't, may well be relevant to other issues.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: For impeachment.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all I'm talking about. I'm 17 not talking about showing up, getting the jury sworn, and 18 saying, hey, wait a minute, Judge, they didn't do that. I'm 19 coming from the standpoint of if certain events happened,
20 threats, then this happened, and then this to show a pattern
21 for purposes of impeachment, for purposes of showing how the 22 government's conducted its case and so on and so forth.

23 THE COURT: Enough of this. I'm not saying enough
24 of this in the sense that I'm terminating this, unless what I
25 say next is, you all agree is appropriate to terminate this

1 particular conference.

2 My suggestion is why don't you all, as soon as
3 you're in a position to do so, John, why don't you get
4 together with Paul and, you know, make your pitch on behalf
5 of your client, whatever, you know, however you want to do
6 it. And in the meantime, if you get those statements to me
7 so I can look at them in camera.

8 I mean, so -- and then what I think we ought to do,
9 I think you all ought to come back this afternoon just as 10 soon as you've had your, you know, as soon as you've 11 accomplished whatever you can along the lines that you said
12 you wanted to do, John. And at that point, we'll see where 13 we are. And at that point, I should be in a position to 14 announce the decision on your request for reconsideration.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. Can I use your phone a minute
16 to call?

17 THE COURT: Sure. Or you can use one out there.
18 Is that satisfactory with you all?

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor, is that all right with
21 you?

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

23 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: We'll come back up when we get done
25 talking.

1 THE COURT: I'm going to be gone. I'm going to be
2 gone from about ten minutes of 12:00 to probably in the 3 neighborhood of 1:30.

4 MR. BECKER: I'm meeting with the victims' families
5 at 1 o'clock.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: So what are you thinking? You and I
7 can meet and talk, and then I guess I'll leave because I want
8 to go get something to eat. And then what time should we 9 regroup?

10 THE COURT: I'll be here this afternoon, so I'll
11 make myself available whenever you all are ready. So you
12 just -- you can come up unannounced, or you can call Mary and 13 tell -

14 MR. BECKER: Let's shoot for 2 o'clock.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: 2 o'clock.

16 (A recess was taken from 11:26 a.m. to 2:11 p.m.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. What can I do for you all this
18 afternoon?

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we talked, and it wasn't 20 fruitful, but we both made good faith efforts. And in 21 fairness to both sides, you know, you can't give too much
22 because then you give up your side. And Mr. Becker can't go
23 too much because then he gives up his side, so you can't
24 evaluate unless you have it. And then if you have it and you
25 evaluate it against the other person, it's not helpful to

1 you. So we tried and we had a good and nice conversation
2 about it and just couldn't get anywhere.

3 THE COURT: But I'm not interested, as you know,
4 I'm not involved, should not be involved and have no desire
5 to be involved. That isn't why -- I mean, what we're doing,
6 as far as I'm concerned, is I'm trying to give you a fair
7 opportunity to use the information you say that you
8 accumulated to benefit your client without my ruling, or at 9 least without my ruling on your request that I reconsider,
10 possibly changing the dynamics of that. And beyond that, I
11 have absolutely no interest. That's clear, isn't it?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: And I understand that, and that's
13 right.

14 THE COURT: And so my, that's why I asked if you'd 15 had a fair opportunity to explore it because that is the 16 only, my only interest in the subject. And you have had. Is
17 that right?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: The only other point I want to put 19 on the record before the Court ruled was if there was no
20 omnibus, there would be no reverse Jencks requirement under 21 18 U.S.C. 3500, Rule 26, and -

22 THE COURT: Are you suggesting that the omnibus,
23 that part of the omnibus order is, I mean, there's something
24 deficient about it or from a legal point of view
25 inappropriate about it?

1 MR. O'CONNOR: That was the suggested record that I
2 make, and I'm making it, and I don't have any comment to it.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me see. Let me look at all my
5 notes to make sure I've got all my argument out on the 6 table. I think I do. And it's my understanding the 7 information was delivered to the Court that was delivered to 8 my office, three statements.

9 THE COURT: I've got this information is what I
10 have.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: I told Mr. Becker that I believe
12 it's, because I didn't even see it because someone brought it
13 to you. I haven't seen it yet. I was told by my 14 investigator what it was. I assume it's the same stuff.

15 THE COURT: You check and be sure.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. And, again, I've not read
17 these, looked at them or anything. I haven't seen them.

18 THE COURT: I'm going to tell you something next as 19 soon as you -- treaty the material you wanted me to look at?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Again, Judge, there's six more of 21 those, I just don't have them yet. Or seven.

22 THE COURT: But this is what you have available for 23 me to look at.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes. And in looking at that, the 25 other stuff is same, similar stuff.

1 THE COURT: Let me tell you that since you all left
2 here at what, roughly 11:30, Chief Judge Wolle from the
3 Southern District of Iowa was waiting for me. I met with 4 him, then I had a lunch appointment that I had set up and, in
5 fact, the person was sitting out there waiting for me shortly
6 after you all left, so I had to go do that.

7 I came back, Randy from the marshal's office was
8 here to talk about some problems that we need to talk to you
9 all about about the courtroom. And so about ten minutes
10 before you arrived was the first chance I've had to even, to 11 spend any time with this matter since you left.

12 What I would propose, rather than -- I mean, for me
13 to read, what, this is an inch thick, at least?

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I was told the middle one was over
15 170 pages.

16 THE COURT: For me to read those would take 17 probably most of the rest of the afternoon. So what I would 18 prefer to do is to recess here briefly and go in, and you
19 tell me what there is about these that you think bears on 20 this issue so I don't have to -- I mean, not that I don't 21 have to read them, but my concern is if I read them, I'm not 22 going to know what bearing they have on this issue.

23 I mean, I can, I'll know what the person said. You
24 see what I mean? But I'm not sure I'm going to know what 25 significance you think they have for this issue. And I think

1 we could, I could get that information from you very quickly
2 and factor that in without -- or I could read parts of it.
3 You know, if you say now, you know, I don't know exactly the 4 pages, Judge, since I haven't had a chance to read these 5 either, but roughly somewhere in this is the following, or 6 something close to the following, and I want you, I'd like to 7 have you read that. And then I would go read that.

8 But for me to read all of these, I'm fearful as a
9 practical matter it's not going to happen this afternoon.
10 Now, I'm not saying I'm not willing to do it. I'll do it,
11 but if I do it and then don't rule until tomorrow on this and 12 if, if my ruling is adverse to the position you're advocating 13 and you want to go to the Eighth Circuit, you're then faced
14 with having to go to the Eighth Circuit over the weekend,
15 which, as I've said, is probably going to be more complicated
16 than doing it this afternoon.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Just from in my conversation with 18 Mr. Wyrsh, who has more experience in the Eighth Circuit, is 19 that he thought, assuming the ruling was adverse and wanted
20 to take it up, we couldn't get it before, I think he said it
21 was a two-judge panel until Tuesday morning he said was when 22 this could be heard. I don't know any more about that than 23 what he just told me.

24 THE COURT: Far be it from me to practice or to 25 attempt to practice extraordinary writ law in the Eighth

1 Circuit, but I'll just tell you off the top of my head, and
2 Jim Wyrsh knows 10,000 percent more about this than I do,
3 certainly.

4 But if I were to enter, if I were to reaffirm the
5 previous order, I would order that this be done long before
6 Tuesday morning. So it's going to be academic on Tuesday
7 morning. I mean, that's -- I mean, the function of 8 extraordinary writ, it seems to me, is that it is relief that
9 a superior court can give if it's concerned about something
10 that's happening, when the issue isn't moot.

11 But this one is going to be moot. If I rule
12 against you, it is going to be moot shortly after I issue it
13 because I'm going to require that this be done -- I mean, I
14 previously required it to be done by noon today. So that's 15 my only, that's why my thinking was that if you had the order
16 this afternoon, you could decide whether you wanted to try to 17 get the Eighth Circuit to consider it in the context of it
18 being something that they needed to consider on an emergency
19 basis immediately, because otherwise you are going to be put 20 in the box of either disobeying my order or complying with 21 it. And if you comply with it, then most of the reason, or a
22 lot of the reasons under which you will be arguing to them,
23 you shouldn't have to comply with, it will be moot.

24 Now, maybe my analysis is wrong, but that's my 25 thinking about it.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Again, I don't want to come across
2 as a whiner, but my thinking isn't real good right now. And
3 it's -- I kind of know what's in those. I mean, obviously, I
4 talked to these people and I remember, and I'm not blowing
5 smoke. This is important, this is the most important issue
6 to me in the case right now, or to my client, and I don't
7 mind going out in court and doing this. But by doing it, I
8 may forget the golden argument that I would have made if I
9 had time to read through it and convince you. Maybe it
10 would.

11 What I would like to do is call Jim, maybe I could
12 talk to him about what's in here, and between the two of us I
13 would feel better about articulating my position from a legal 14 soundness standpoint.

15 THE COURT: Okay. How much time do you want?

16 MR. BECKER: Go ahead, whatever schedule you want.

17 THE COURT: I'll do everything I can to cooperate
18 with your schedule. And naturally, I mean, I want to give 19 Mr. Becker and Mr. Miller a chance to have input. If what 20 you want conflicts with something they're doing, we're going
21 to have to find a different time.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Jim said he's available. I'm
23 assuming I could call him now and he could come right over.
24 He said, "I will be here if you need me. I'll come over."

25 THE COURT: Why don't you call him, see if he'll

1 come over, you can meet with him, talk the situation over
 2 with him. I'll let Mr. Becker and Mr. Miller go wherever -
 3 I mean, they can do whatever they need to do, and when you're 4 ready, we'll call them. And if they're in the middle of 5 something, they may well say, look, could we have half an
 6 hour or so, and that's fine. They'll get their half hour.

7 I'm not going to create a command performance for 8 them out of this thing. But it does seem -- without taking 9 into account their position too.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Exactly. From the ground rules
 11 standpoint, because I don't want to -- and I guess I can talk
 12 it over with Mr. Wyrsh as it relates to this. You're 13 wanting me to basically tell you all the reasons which may 14 relate to my trial strategy, all of those kinds of things to 15 indicate -- I'm not saying you're -- I'm just trying to find
 16 out what you -

17 THE COURT: John, if I knew what I wanted you to 18 tell me, I probably could ask you. I just want you to have 19 an opportunity to tell me what you would like me to get 20 out -- you asked me to read these ex carte. Now, as I've 21 said, I could sit down and read them from the first page to 22 the end of each of them, and I would then know what these 23 witnesses said. But the significance for this, for the 24 position you're taking on this issue, the issue we're
 25 wrestling with, might well escape me.

1 And I can't very well ask you that, though, in
2 front of Mr. Becker because then you spill the, I mean, the
3 beans are spilled. So what I was thinking was, rather than
4 for me to take the time, which would be essentially the rest
5 of the afternoon, to read these, maybe the more efficient
6 thing and even the higher quality, producing the more
7 likelihood of a -- would you like a pen?

8 The higher quality result, a quicker result could 9 be achieved by your saying, Judge, if you read these, if you
10 were to read these, this is what I think you would find. And 11 I say the significance of what you would find is thus-and-so
12 for the argument I'm making for reconsideration. And then I
13 could have it, bang, and then I could do with it whatever I
14 bought was appropriate. That's all I'm suggesting. If you
15 won't want to tell me anything about it, that's perfectly
16 fine, too.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: And I'm not trying to create
18 problems, I'm just asking. This is three of ten. Okay? I
19 think there are several more. And I guess what I'm trying to 20 say is maybe it's kind of like circumstantial evidence. You
21 say look at one or two things and they don't mean anything,
22 then you see all ten, then you may have a different thought
23 process.

24 THE COURT: You can tell me that. You've talked to 25 these people. What you don't have is the written

1 transcript. But you've talked to them, and I'm sure if the
2 argument is as significant and the situation is as
3 significant as you say, the details aren't what's important,
4 what's important is how this all fits into your argument.
5 And the fact that there are ten rather than three, you can
6 tell me what the significance of that is, too.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: What I'll need to do is call my
8 office because I'll need the ten files which I've separated
9 out. The other logistical problem is that in every one of 10 these, the only statement I had was the statement that I had 11 in discovery. In other words, it was marked as an exhibit,
12 and then I gave it to the reporter. So I no longer have it
13 until I get the deposition back. So I'm going to get those 14 recreated maybe through other counsel.

15 For example, when I interviewed Joe Smith, I had an 16 interview of Joe Smith by the ATF. I showed Joe Smith the 17 ATF. We had it marked. We talked about it at some point. I
18 would give it to the reporter at the end and say, put this
19 with the record. Now I don't have Joe Smith's statement
20 anymore. I'm going to get it back when those come back, but 21 right now I don't have it physically in my hand.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't you, if you'd like to
23 talk to Jim Wyrsh, why don't you call him, ask him to come
24 over, and I'll make a place available where you can meet with 25 him, if you want it to be here, and then Mr. Becker and Mr.

1 Miller will tell us where we can reach them.

2 When you're finished talking to Mr. Wyrsh, then we
3 can call Mr. Becker and Mr. Miller and, if it's convenient
4 for them to come then, or if they need a little break, then
5 we can work it out. Okay?

6 MR. BECKER: One thing I wanted to say as long as
7 we're on the record, I keep forgetting. Yesterday a
8 prisoner, and this is probably one you haven't gotten yet, a
9 fellow by the name of Brian Franklin.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: That's the only one I don't have.

11 MR. BECKER: He was literally bouncing off the 12 walls downstairs and threatened to punch the marshals. More
13 importantly, threatened to punch the judge. And the marshal
14 said it was going to be very difficult to even move him to an 15 interview space, so he's not going to be called as a
16 witness.

17 I don't know if that's Brady material. He never 18 retracted. He never retracted what he said previously, but 19 he just didn't feel like talking to anybody.

20 MR. MILLER: He was adding some colorful metaphors
21 to it, too.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I feel like I've accomplished my 23 mission. They were done, and he was the last, and I've been 24 looking for him all day. I thought for some reason, not to 25 your, anything you guys were doing, but I called everywhere.

1 I called every jail in this region.

2 MR. BECKER: They brought him down.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: I thought, what's going on with this
4 guy? I called Carol.

5 MR. BECKER: She doesn't work for you.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: No, but she usually calls back.

7 THE COURT: What's he got against me?

8 MR. BECKER: He's doing a lot of time in the state
9 system and didn't want to be a witness. It had nothing to do
10 with you, Judge. He just didn't like the world.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: If it means anything to you, then,
12 I'm done with those people.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: Thanks, Judge.

15 THE COURT: Why don't we do that and -- I'll wait
16 to hear from you, Mr. O'Connor.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you, sir.

18 THE COURT: Do you want to take these with you for 19 talking to Jim Wyrsh?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

21 (A recess was taken from 2:28 p.m. to 3:56 p.m.
22 when the following proceedings were had in chambers in the 23 presence of Mr. Becker, Mr. Miller, Mr. O'Connor, and Mr.
24 James Wyrsh, but out of the presence of the defendants:)

25 THE COURT: Jim, do you want to enter your

1 appearance?

2 MR. WYRSCH: My name is James Wyrsh, W-Y-R-S-C-H,
3 and I'm an attorney in Kansas City, Missouri, at 1101 Walnut,
4 Kansas City, Missouri, and I'm here representing John
5 O'Connor, who is an attorney for Bryan Sheppard; is that
6 correct, John?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

8 MR. WYRSCH: John has asked me to assist him with 9 respect to a discovery motion. So, Your Honor, that's why
10 I'm here today.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Where are we?

12 MR. WYRSCH: Should we go forward?

13 THE COURT: Sure. As far as I'm concerned, unless 14 there's some objection.

15 MR. WYRSCH: Your Honor, on behalf of Mr. O'Connor,
16 I thought I'd make just a brief presentation as to why
17 certain of the statements that he has taken on a motion, as I
18 understand it, to reconsider should not be produced, at least
19 at this point. I'm not familiar with all the names, and I
20 could ask John to supply them, but I believe a witness
21 Martindale is, John is agreeable to produce that, and his
22 name, John has pointed out, is Witness No. 13 on his January
23 15, 1997, witness list, which is Frederick Martindale on 24 Timbercreek Court, Lee's Summit, Missouri. And I take it, do
25 you have the statement ready to proceed today?

1 MR. O'CONNOR: No.

2 MR. WYRSCH: It's being typed, as well?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

4 MR. WYRSCH: As far as I know, I would represent to 5 the Court and counsel that the witness statements are, appear
6 to be within the definition of statement as contained in, at 7 least Rule 26.2 and other relevant rules because they appear
8 to be a verbatim -- I mean, there was a court reporter there,
9 I think they've taken their oath, and they're recitals. So
10 they're not his notes, as I understand it. There may be some 11 things that were said that were not on the record that he 12 does not have a statement on that I would not consider to be 13 roducible. I don't think there is much of any of that.

14 Then that would leave about, is it ten witness
15 statements, John, that remain?

16 MR. O'CONNOR: I think I came up with nine. And 17 there are some that aren't under oath, but they're 18 statements, they're verbatim, but not under oath.

19 MR. WYRSCH: Taken by a court reporter?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

21 MR. WYRSCH: But they're not under oath, but there
22 are some that are still verbatim statements. So I don't
23 think there's an issue there.

24 So the question is under the circumstances of the 25 case whether they should be produced. I know the Court has

1 been very considerate of listening to further argument on the
2 matter. And I'm not sure I have all the facts, but I will do
3 the best I can on behalf of John.

4 First of all, obviously, we're working under Rule
5 26.2 primarily in terms of production, which is reverse
6 Jencks Act. To some extent the other rules are applicable
7 also

8 On July 1, 1996 -- and if I misstate this, please,
9 someone correct me -- there was an omnibus report, which at 10 least in part, John, on behalf of Bryan Sheppard, agreed to,
11 Bryan Sheppard being Defendant No. 4.

12 Now, part of this, I need, frankly, some help from 13 Paul because I'm not sure I'm going to state it correctly.
14 But in the matter concerning the production of witness
15 statements by the government on Page 8 on No. 4, the 16 government said it did agree to be supplied in writing at 17 least 10 days prior to trial the name and address of each
18 witness whom the attorney for the government intends to call
19 in its presentation of case in chief, together with -- and 20 then it's scratched out as to statements. I'm not sure that 21 I have looked at every other -

22 MR. BECKER: I know -

23 MR. WYRSCH: And I'm not sure I found anyplace else
24 where the government agreed to provide those 10 days before
25 trial. And I don't know, maybe this needs to be made a part

1 of the record at some point, and I'll offer them maybe all at 2 the same time. In the defendant is section -

3 MR. BECKER: It's part of the Court record.

4 MR. WYRSCH: Okay. Fine. We'll just have the 5 Court notice.

6 On No. 11, the defendant in response did agreed to 7 provide to counsel for the government at least five days
8 prior to trial the names and addresses of witnesses intended
9 to be called at trial, together with all statements as 10 defined in 18 U.S.C. 3500, which essentially is Rule 26.2.

11 In sequence, and I guess all of this is a matter of 12 record, the government filed its witness list on January 3, 13 1997. By the way, I think, as I have been informed, the 14 trial is now scheduled to be commenced on, or the trial
15 testimony on the 21st of January, 1997. In that list, as I
16 understand it, there is some 160 or so witnesses, although 17 they're not named by number, and without addresses. And I
18 believe the order required addresses.

19 On January 8, Bryan Sheppard filed his witness list
20 and did provide, I believe, addresses where they were 21 available, which I think is almost in every case. And on No.
22 1, said any and all witnesses previously endorsed by the 23 government. I am told by Mr. O'Connor that on the 8th, he 24 had not yet received the government's -

25 John tells me right before the conference on the

1 8th, he received a witness list from the government with the
2 addresses, and as well as the names. I have a document that
3 says January 9, 1997, but I'm informed by John that that
4 actually occurred on the 8th.

5 Then on, as I understand it, on the 15th, Bryan
6 Sheppard filed an amended witness list, which is essentially
7 the same witness list, but in each case, he said witnesses
8 who may be called; although, I think in fairness it should be
9 read to comply with the omnibus which was the witnesses
10 intended to be called. And that in that particular document
11 on January 15th, he no longer said he was going to call any 12 and all witnesses previously endorsed by the government.

13 I believe at this point, and I'm not a very good
14 counter, but this last list would be some, something within 15 at least the literal provisions of the rule within five days
16 prior to trial.

17 Although I think it's already been a matter of 18 record, I am informed that the government did not provide all 19 of the witness statements that they had within 10 days of the 20 trial. They provided, however, 3400 pages of Jencks Act
21 material on December 24, but then over a period of time there
22 have been other matters, either by defense motion, I'm not 23 sure I have -- I do not have all the detail. Some of the 24 material has not been, was not timely provided. And as I
25 understand it, that's still an issue.

1 It would be our, it's obviously -- and the Court
2 had some informal discussion with counsel, obviously 26.2
3 does not require the production of the documents or the
4 statements until after the witness testifies. It is true,
5 however, that the parties did agree that that, those time
6 provisions would be moved up prior to trial to the mutual
7 benefit of the parties and that that was the reciprocal
8 agreement.

9 We would urge the Court that by reason of the 10 January 15, 1997, amended witness list that they, the 11 statements that Mr. O'Connor took from the government's 12 witnesses, with the exception of Mr. Martindale, not be 13 produced at this time. We say so because we believe that he 14 has literally complied with the January 15 -- I'm sorry, with 15 the July 1, 1996, omnibus report because they're five days
16 before trial.

17 No. 2, he listed any and all witnesses by the 18 government in his first witness list as a matter of 19 precaution, not, I think, as I understand his statements to 20 the Court, for purposes of, in fact, calling them as 21 witnesses. And, in fact, at this point on the ones for which 22 he has taken the verbatim statements, he does not intend to 23 call those witnesses in his case in chief.

24 The next point would be, and I think if the Court
25 -- he has for each of the witnesses why, from the verbatim

1 statements he's taken what he intends to bring out from the
2 witnesses. As John -- I have not myself read the statements,
3 but as indicated by John O'Connor, the things that he intends
4 to bring out are impeaching type material, for every 5 witness. And I cannot state to the Court that the 6 defendants' counsel at the omnibus asked if impeaching
7 aterial was required to be produced, so I can't represent
8 hat to the Court. But I know that in matters that I have
9 een, have participated in in the Western District when I
10 ave asked about an omnibus, I've been told that impeaching
11 aterial did not need to be produced as a statement. Now, in 12 airness, if, in fact, you intended to call the witness, your 13 itness yourself and you had impeaching material, then the 14 tatement would have to be produced.

15 We would urge, strongly urge the Court not to order
16 hese matters to be produced. As I say, John is prepared to 17 o in camera to do detail on each of the statements in a
18 ummary fashion what it is he intends to bring out that is 19 impeaching material of the government's witnesses. Although 20 I think Mr. Becker knows that we have had, we hold he and his 21 ffice in high regard, there is concern here that the 22 overnment has not been timely with, in its compliance with 23 the omnibus. They obviously have made very substantial
24 fforts here, and I know it's a difficult case with many 25 itnesses.

1 But at the same time, I think to some extent, there
2 has been a delay in production. And I think one of the 3 reasons why John O'Connor did list any and all witnesses for 4 the government was out of an abundance of caution. I'm not
5 saying that was the only reason because, in fact, over time,
6 the practice has been by defense counsel in this district to
7 list any and all witnesses called by the government as a
8 matter of precaution. But now that he has eliminated that 9 from his witness list, it would appear that, or at least we 10 would urge the Court that he not have to produce these 11 statements.

12 I would also indicate to the Court that much of 13 what is contained -- and I'm relying on John on this, but 14 I've had two detailed conversations with him today and I
15 think that he's, that this is, in fact, the case based on his 16 statements to me is that he, if he's producing these 17 statements, a good bit of his strategy as defense counsel in 18 terms of cross-examination of these witnesses will be 19 revealed. To some extent, that would be revealed on the 20 cross-examination of, say, the first witness. But on some of 21 these individuals, they're different -- or they're not 22 necessarily, the cross-examination will not necessarily 23 involve common facts. Some of them, they do. And so we feel 24 that that would get into his work product.

25 Now, I recognize under United States vs. Nobles

1 that once you put on a witness that you have waived your work
2 product. And that's what Rule 26.2 is designed to do is to 3 encapsulate in the rule the holding in Nobles, but at the 4 same time I don't think that's the circumstance we find
5 ourselves in.

6 I would also note that the sanction under Rule 26.2
7 appears to be that the witness's testimony would be
8 stricken. I'm not sure myself as I read it today exactly
9 what that means, but it would appear to me that the purpose
10 of that is to enforce the rule with respect to the party
11 calling the witness and not as to a witness that you are, for 12 the government, getting down to the facts of this case, that 13 you intend to impeach with the statement.

14 I really do appreciate the Court ts indulgence. I
15 know how busy the Court is. Mr. O'Connor is prepared to -

16 MR. O'CONNOR: Can I talk to you a second?

17 MR. WYRSCH: Yeah.

18 (Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Wyrsh conferred off the 19 record.)

20 MR. WYRSCH: John makes the point that, his
21 statement is that he may intend to call the witnesses. I
22 think for purposes of this motion, the pleading was made to 23 comply with the omnibus, which called it intended. However,
24 we would like to just ask the Court to consider the fact that 25 he said he may call these people, not necessarily that he was

1 absolutely going to call these people when he used that
2 language. But for the Court's purposes, when he filed the
3 pleading stating that -- I mean, I think he intended to 4 comply. He did intend to comply with the omnibus, which 5 said, file your list of intended witnesses.

6 That's our argument, Your Honor. I appreciate the 7 Court's indulgence on this. He is prepared at some point to 8 go in camera with you in detail.

9 THE COURT: That's my question. Does Mr. O'Connor
10 still want to tell me in camera what it is about these 11 statements that he believes impacts on this particular
12 argument?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir, I'm ready.

14 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Becker, do you want to say
15 anything at this point, or do you want to wait until after 16 I've -

17 MR. BECKER: My only point, I think perhaps Mr.
18 Wyrsh has not had the benefit of being familiar with the 19 timing of the discovery and the volume of discovery in this
20 matter. On the one hand, he thinks that five days before
21 trial is the 16th, yesterday, when defense counsel have urged
22 upon all courts that it was 10 days prior to the 13th, I
23 think, is when we started the jury selection in this matter.
24 It's hard to remember now.

25 But in any event, I have made every effort to

1 produce a large volume of materials, and it seems that when I
2 find a stray piece of paper, I do it at my peril because I
3 hear about it again and again. I believe that these 4 materials should be produced pursuant to the rules.

5 I'll leave a number with your secretary.

6 THE COURT: What do you say about the argument that 7 it's only impeaching material that was, that is developed in 8 these stenographically recorded statements?

9 MR. BECKER: These are so far within the parameters
10 of what's defined as a statement in 26.2 and in Section 3500,
11 it's difficult to, I think, as was urged on the court the 12 other day, find some ambiguity there that would allow them to 13 define these transcripts as anything other than a statement.

14 These are witness statements. Now, they have -
15 witness statements have various purposes, but -- and the 16 purpose may have been for impeachment, but these are witness
17 statements within the rule. And when Mr. O'Connor -- and the 18 issue doesn't arise because defense attorneys don't get
19 statements within the rules. And, therefore, never -- you
20 now, Mr. Wyrsh said in the past he's had these excluded at 21 the omnibus level, or at least discussed it at the omnibus
22 level. I've never run across it in ten years in the district
23 because defense attorneys don't generate statements because 24 they don't want to make discovery. They want to be able to 25 have their impeachment and not produce it. I understand

1 that.

2 But Mr. O'Connor's unique because he very
3 effectively uses these statements. Now, and there's a
4 benefit to having a statement, as he well knows, other than 5 just your investigator's word against the witness. But these 6 transcripts are statements as defined by the rule. They're 7 of witnesses that he's listed on his witness list, and they 8 should be produced. The timing of the production has been 9 moved up pursuant to the omnibus report.

10 The one point that -- you know, the government did
11 reserve its rights on July 1 under the omnibus to wait on 12 production of witness statements until the time of trial.
13 But through the course of this trial, the preliminary matters
14 leading up to trial, eventually, I agreed to produce these 15 statements 30 days in advance of trial. And now because of 16 the delay of the start of testimony, and I don't have any 17 problem with that, it's even more than 30 days from the time .
18 we start taking testimony from when this material was first
19 produced.

20 THE COURT: You produced your 3500 statements on -

21 MR. BECKER: December 24th.

22 THE COURT: December 24th.

23 MR. BECKER: Before the witness lists were even 24 required to be -

25 THE COURT: Which was more than 10 days before

248

1 January 13th, obviously. I can even count that.

2 MR. BECKER: I believe that was 20 days prior to
3 the start of trial, and start of trial being the voir dire
4 that began earlier this week. And then with the delay, eight
5 more days until testimony begins on Tuesday, it will be 6 approximately 28 days prior to the start of testimony that
7 the government produced the Jencks materials.

8 THE COURT: Anything else at this point before I
9 sit down with Mr. O'Connor?

10 MR. WYRSCH: Let me ask for my own clarification,
11 aul. Did you produce that, what you produced on the 24th,
12 as that pursuant to omnibus or just your -

13 MR. BECKER: In the course of a discussion on a
14 continuance in this matter, it was agreed among the parties
15 that they would agree to a continuance off the November
16 docket because the Court had an ongoing capital case.

17 MR. WYRSCH: I didn't want to misrepresent
18 something to the Court. I didn't see it in the omnibus. But 19 anyway, you agreed to do it and have produced -- I know you
20 produced 3400 pages or so of Jencks type material on the 24th
21 of December.

22 MR. BECKER: Right.

23 MR. WYRSCH: But there have been some things that
24 have surfaced after that; is that correct?

25 MR. BECKER: It's fair to say that there have been

1 other things. I think in light of the 3400 pages I would say
2 it wasn't substantial, or duplicative.

3 MR. WYRSCH: We don't need to get into that. I
4 just wanted to make sure that I was -- I will say this, Your
5 Honor, that on behalf of Mr. O'Connor, we would specifically
6 represent to the Court and to the government that the 7 witnesses that he would like to withhold are not going to be
8 called by him. And if they would be, I think we're subject
9 to the sanction under the omnibus and the 26.2. He would 10 intend to use those statements on cross-examination of the 11 witnesses.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: And would intend to, when I got up
13 to address the witness, to give them to Mr. Becker at that 14 time, not after the witness, so to keep the orderly
15 presentation of the trial going, so he would have them while
16 I was up and during cross-examination, would be my thought
17 process, so we wouldn't have to have a long wait while I give 18 it to him and he's got to look at it. And then he would also 19 have it for the purpose of watching to make sure if I asked a
20 question for impeachment from it, he would be able to object
21 to it. That would be my intent, as well.

22 MR. BECKER: If you were impeaching from the 23 document, you would have to show me the document.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm assuming all of these witnesses
25 from my cross-examination are going to be at least an hour,

1 maybe two, and a couple of them maybe three or four.

2 THE COURT: Well, we know as a practical matter
3 what will happen. I mean, looking at those, the length of 4 those, as soon as -- if you wait to give them to Mr. Becker
5 then, he's going to ask for a recess so he can read them.
6 And he would be entitled to it. I mean, I'm not going to
7 force somebody to try to keep track of your cross-examination
8 based on a statement they haven't had a reasonable
9 opportunity to read.

10 So right there we're talking about, just from a
11 practical point of view, we're talking about a delay while he 12 is given an opportunity to read them. So that's -- but, I
13 mean, that's my assessment of what would happen if you did it
14 that way.

15 Now, maybe Mr. Becker reads quickly or maybe he
16 would just hand them to Mr. Miller and say, Mr. Miller, you
17 read these while I try to keep track of this thing. But I
18 mean, most attorneys, I think, would want the opportunity,
19 I'm sure you would, if you were in the same position, you
20 would want the opportunity to read it before you have to sit 21 there and try to protect your witness from the 22 cross-examination. All right. Anything else?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: All right. Would you tell Mary where 25 you'll be?

1 MR. BECKER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And we'll call you.

3 MR. BECKER: All right.

4 (The government as attorneys, Mr. Becker and Mr.
5 Miller, left chambers.)

6 MR. WYRSCH: Rather than have the Court read these,
7 we will just summarize for each one what we fairly believe to 8 be in there.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I wish I had a better grasp of these
10 dates. I'm just going to go and try to do this the best I
11 can. But basically I'm going to start out with the way I
12 have them listed.

13 Glen Shepard. Glen Shepard is a government witness
14 in this case who gave the ATF two different interviews. One
15 on April the -- well, three different interviews. One on 16 April the lath, one on -- strike that. Let's start over.
17 One on January 10, 1996, one on April 19, 1996, and one on 18 October 30, 1996.

19 Mr. Sheppard was first interviewed by ATF in the 20 Cass County Jail. He did not call them. They showed up
21 there because his name had been flagged as someone who may 22 know something about this case. Mr. Sheppard has eleven
23 prior felony convictions, state; one prior federal 24 conviction. He is, and in his statement he told me about 25 numerous uses of drugs and narcotics and being involved in

1 drugs and narcotics.

2 In his first interview with the agents in which
3 they asked him knowledge and/or information, and I would just
4 short-term it to what he majorly said is that at some point
5 Frank Sheppard, back when he was on the street -- and this, I
6 don't think this has a date, but I don't think it matters.
7 You know, back '94, '95, somewhere in that area, told him
8 that he had been involved in the fire and explosion that had
9 killed the six Kansas City firefighters.

10 On Page 2 of that same interview, he was asked,
11 Shepard, this is Glen Shepard, no relation to our clients,
12 knows Bryan Sheppard. Bryan Sheppard has never made any 13 admissions to Sheppard.

14 Now, I'm about to tell you some, what I believe are 15 Bradv violations and/or Jencks Act violations that he has 16 told me about that I think I have verified. Mr. Shepard
17 tells me the next time he sees the ATF, they're bringing him
18 down to a grand jury, which we have never been made aware
19 of. When he got to the grand jury, he refused to testify,
20 which we've never been told. After he refused to testify
21 that Dave True drove him back to the Cass County Jail and on 22 his way back to the Cass County jail reminded him of a gun
23 charge that he had pending in Blue Springs Municipal Court
24 that could turn into a federal violation of a felon in 25 possession of a firearm. There is a case in Blue Springs.

1 It is still pending. A warrant has been issued on that
2 case. I have verified that.

3 Then two months later Glen Shepard calls the ATF
4 back and tells them, please come and see me, I have a lawyer,
5 and I have new information for you. Now, this is now on 6 April the lath, 1996. They go back and re-interview him, and 7 now he remembers that Bryan Sheppard confessed to him to this
8 crime.

9 Somewhere he's taken back before a federal grand
10 jury, of which we do not have a transcript, and testifies, we 11 don't know when. An indictment is returned on, in June 12 sometime against these men. In October of '96, which we have
13 not been told but I have a transcript from a court in Cass
14 County, Dave True went to a sentencing for Glen Shepard and 15 testified at the sentencing and told a state court judge that 16 Glen Shepard had given substantial assistance, was providing 17 information, was cooperating in all levels, had done
18 everything they'd asked him to do, and that he had given
19 information that both of these defendants, my client and 20 Frank Sheppard, had made admissions.

21 He failed to tell the judge about the first
22 interview with Shepard in which he said my client had no
23 admission. He failed to tell the judge that he refused to 24 testify before a grand jury. He failed to tell the judge
25 that he threatened him with a gun charge to get his

1 cooperation. And then he told the judge, amazingly, and I've
2 got the transcript, I don't have it here. In the transcript
3 he tells the judge, we are attempting, October 31st, 1996, we
4 are attempting to corroborate this witness's evidence.

5 They took him for, before a grand jury without 6 corroborating what he said. They got an indictment against
7 our clients without corroborating, and now in October of '96
8 he's trying to corroborate. And he says if we, if we are 9 able to corroborate what he says -- and the transcript, you
10 just have to read it, it's unbelievable. The judge,
11 Dandurand, says, well, Mr. True, I have a very important
12 decision to make here. I have, basically, a bad guy hear,
13 eleven felony convictions. Did he give you some assistance,
14 little assistance, no assistance, substantial assistance? He
15 gives him like seven categories, and True says, Judge, I
16 would say substantial.

17 Mr. Shepard then received a 13-year sentence for 18 sale of meth, a 12-year sentence for sale of meth to run
19 consecutively, a 7-year sentence, I believe, for one of the 20 other felonies, a 5-year sentence to run concurrently,
21 suspended execution of sentence and five years probation.
22 And then he was given two misdemeanor convictions, a year and 23 a year in the Cass County Jail to run consecutively. But if,
24 in the Judge's final order, if he testifies and gives 25 substantial assistance in this case, he will even cut that

1 sentence and let him out.

2 None of that information was given to us. We went
3 out, ran it down, found it, I've got it, and we have never
4 received any of that information to this date that I'm aware
5 of that was given to me. That's Glen Shepard.

6 In Glen Shepard's interview, he -- I don't have
7 Glen Shepard's here. And, again, I don't have his statement
8 here under oath. But -

9 MR. WYRSCH: It's being typed; is that correct?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: It's being typed. But he basically 11 told me this scenario, which is not in any report, that they
12 took him back, that they threatened him with a gun charge,
13 that him being threatened with a gun charge, he knew that 14 that meant 15 to life. He knew because of his record that he
15 basically had to cooperate and that those kind of things -
16 there's more in his statement, I'm trying to remember, but 17 that's kind of the gist of his statement. We don't have the 18 grand jury, we don't have the refusal before the grand jury, 19 and we don't have this

20 And Dave True testified for the defendant, for the 21 defendant's lawyer. He wasn't there for the prosecution.
22 The defendant's lawyer put him on the witness stand. And if 23 you read the transcript, it was clear that Judge Dandurand's 24 decision was based on what Dave True was telling him, of 25 which we've not been told.

1 MR. WYRSCH: That's how you intend to use that
2 transcript?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Strictly impeachment. Glen Shepard
4 told me about all of his criminal history, all of his drug

5 addiction and the use of drugs, other crimes, bad acts, told
6 me of memory problems that he had as a result of use of drugs
7 over a long period of time, his motivation for testifying in 8 the deal, the threats that were made and the promises made as 9 a result of testimony, the refusal before the grand jury.

10 And this is where I want to start talking about 11 this pattern that is throughout. You can see that these are 12 all interviews of him. None of these are attested, none of 13 these are sworn. None of these are question and answer.
14 They are interviews. And I can't go into explicit because I
15 don't remember Glen Shepard, but there are materials within 16 these exhibits that he said, I've never told these people.
17 And at one point, he told me that he had never even seen
18 these documents, I believe, before I showed them to him.
19 That's Glen Shepard.

20 Ronald Lank. Ronald Lank is a key government
21 witness in this case. He has an admission directly from 22 Frank Sheppard as to his involvement on a statement that he
23 said Frank Sheppard made to him after they knew each other
24 for a short period of time in CCA before he was transferred
25 to Lewisburg Prison.

1 Now, Mr. Lank I talked to for four hours. He took
2 three bathroom breaks, and he was willing to talk. And he
3 talked about his criminal history. In there, there is 4 impeachment that is a lawyers dream. He would tell me; he 5 would just start talking without a question about scams and 6 how he would pull them on people, innocent people. He would
7 go to banks and get checks, he would hold his hands like
8 that, thick checks, and that he would have them made out in 9 other people's names. And then he would leave the bank, and 10 he would go and cash those checks, and then he would buy
11 cars. And then he would sell the cars for cash, and then the 12 people were holding the checks and they were also holding the 13 cars, and he was holding the money.

14 And so at one point in the interview he said, you
15 know, I was watching TV one day, and they came on with this 16 American Express commercial where they said if you lose your 17 traveler's checks anywhere in the United States, call this
18 number. So he went down to the bank, bought some traveler's
19 checks, went to the bank. Right before he walked in the 20 bank, of course, he cashed those traveler's checks and walked
21 in and said, they stole my wallet, stole my traveler's
22 checks, and they gave him new traveler's checks. So he 23 thought that was pretty slick.

24 He's a bank robber. He told me about the banks he
25 robbed. In fact, the case that he has on appeal here for a

1 bank robbery for which he pled not guilty, he confessed to me
2 that he committed. He has a bank robbery conviction out of
3 Texas. He claims to have received letters at the Boone
4 County Jail from John Gotti, who he's never met but who
5 writes him, and from Joe Bonano's (phonetic) brother-in-law
6 or someone like that, who is head of the Bonano crime family
7 in New York.

8 He told me of his drug use, which has been
9 everything and anything, including within the last six months
10 shooting heroin at the prison in Lewisburg. He told me that 11 he received a letter from Mr. Becker in the mail in which he 12 thought the second paragraph of that letter indicated to him
13 that he may be getting a deal. And he has been asking for a
14 deal all along and wants something for his testimony. He has 15 got 26 years out of the federal district, Judge Wright, and 16 he signed an authorization for me to get any and all records,
17 any and all PSI's from him in any state I wished.

18 So we were running records on him in Milwaukee,
19 Texas, Florida, and I hope to file a motion to get his PSI
20 here. He's agreed to let me have all of that information,
21 which I don't have at this time.

22 Again, another pattern. One time he is interviewed
23 in prison, not by the agents here, by agents up in 24 Pennsylvania. He has written Mr. Becker, and he's provided
25 me with those records which he's asking for in these letters

1 -- let me make sure this is the right witness.

2 Basically, I believe he would say he was asking for
3 consideration and even received a letter from his lawyer in 4 which Mr. Becker, which has been provided to us, wrote his
5 lawyer saying that he would consider a Rule, I think it's 35
6 time-cut motion. He had never met Mr. Becker or talked to 7 Mr. Becker. In fact, no one had ever showed him his 8 interview until I did. And he went through his interview
9 and, again -- do I have that?

10 Basically, as we went through the interview, I
11 created impeachment, I believe, from the interview that he 12 gave and statements that he made and things he said were or 13 were not in this interview. And that the first time after he 14 gave this interview on September 30th, 1996, the next thing
15 he hears other than the correspondence of his letters, that 16 he's coming up here to testify.

17 He again told me -- if I said this, Judge, stop me
18 -- about his criminal history, his drug addictions, other
19 crimes, bad acts, motivation for testifying. He was not
20 before the grand jury. That is Ronald Lank. I would say 85
21 percent of this -- I talked to him for, I think, three hours
22 before we ever got to this interview just about his life and 23 things he'd done and scams he'd done and what he had done in 24 his criminal history. In fact, at one point when I was 25 talking to him about drugs, I went to talk to him about

1 something else, and he said, "We're not done with that, are
2 we? I've got more to tell you." And then he told me more
3 about drugs. So it all goes to impeachment.

4 THE COURT: How much of that do you think you'll be
5 able to get into under the federal rules of evidence?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: On the impeachment?

7 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell you, Judge, I haven't,
9 quite frankly, thought it through because I just got them to 10 get them back to sit down and figure out what my 11 cross-examination is. I haven't even read them.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: So that 's Mr. Lank.

14 Mr. Elliott. Mr. Elliott -- I don't have his stuff
15 here, but I remember him very distinctly. Mr. Elliott called 16 the ATF and told them that he had been at the, I think the 17 honor center with Mr. Frank Sheppard, and Mr. Frank Sheppard
18 confessed to him, and what he told the ATF was George
19 Sheppard told me that he and his brother Bryan were 20 responsible for the killing of the four firemen. They 21 interviewed him, an interview which I showed him.

22 THE COURT: Did he say four firemen?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir. When the interview -- I
24 showed it to him. Of course, that's the first time he'd ever
25 seen that, Mr. Elliott. He testified before the grand jury.

1 We have his transcript.

2 I asked him to read his interview, and I said, is
3 there anything that's not in there? Because in almost all of 4 these interviews, they ask these guys why are you coming
5 forward. It is distinctly missing, that question, in Mr.
6 Elliott's interview. And Mr. Elliott said to me, well, I
7 told him why I was coming forward, I wanted the $50,000
8 reward.

9 So I explored that. He said, well, in 1994, I was 10 in Cameron prison. I've been in prison, I think, again, give 11 or take, 10 of the last 11 years of my life. They had an ATF
12 1-800 number for a $50,000 reward, I passed it numerous 13 times. In 1995, I was then put in with George Sheppard. And 14 then I called and I told them I wanted to talk, and I told 15 them I wanted the reward money. I've been telling them I've 16 been wanting the reward money, which we were never told.

17 And he said, I came down and I talked to him the 18 day after he'd been interviewed by Dan Miller. And he said,
19 I was down there yesterday, and I asked them for the $50,000
20 reward, if I was going to get it, and they wouldn't answer my
21 question.

22 But he told me that he told the ATF that, he told
23 me his whole motivation for testifying was the reward money
24 and a time cut. And I said, when you walk off the witness
25 stand, are you going to lay claim to that award? And he said

1 yes.

2 And then I went through with him. He's got a
3 horrible criminal history, drug addiction, I can't remember
4 mental or psychiatric, other crimes, bad acts, promises of 5 reward. We do have grand jury. And it's, again, an
6 interview of which no one had ever showed him until I showed 7 him his interview. And I believe he's also one that went
8 through his interview and said that he didn't say certain 9 things in the interview, but I'm not able to articulate those
10 at this time.

11 William Hand. Basically, William Hand says one
12 thing in his interview. And, again, he had a one-page
13 interview that no one had ever showed him. Let me see if I
14 can find this. I think I can remember this. In which the 15 ATF came out and just got one of these one or two-page
16 interviews with him. And, again, I'm hoping for this record,
17 I want it to be clear that I'm not trying to dodge at all.
18 But I've been up for the last 14, 15 hours without sleep, and 19 I'm trying to, and I'm giving some of this off the top of my 20 head. And I would not mislead the Court in any way. I'm 21 trying to do the best I can, but if I miss, if I misspeak
22 about something, it will be something, hopefully, trivial.
23 Any of the main points I've made -- I don't have it here, but
24 I think that he, I believe -- well, I shouldn't say what I
25 believe because I don't have them here, I don't know.

1 But I know in his interview he told me that he did
2 tell the ATF that Frank Sheppard told him that he, that Frank
3 was at home at the time, which is in the interview, and saw
4 Richard srownts truck drive down the street, and that's all
5 he ever knew about the case. And there's a few impeachment
6 things in his statement because I think he describes Richard
7 Brown's car as maroon and, in fact, at the time his car was 8 black, or black and maroon, vice versa.

9 And, again, some impeachment of him because he's,
10 you know -- I mean, all of these people, I mean, to a person
11 who had numerous -- I mean, it's like in the first five, I
12 didn't meet anybody who didn't have at least ten prior felony
13 convictions. I mean, of the ones I've just now discussed.

14 THE COURT: You weren't given their record?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, I was. No, no, I was given
16 their rap sheets, yes. And that's another point to address
17 in the sense of these rap sheets. I know they're the rap
18 sheets because they're the ones provided, but sometimes
19 they're really short on these criminal histories. I mean,
20 these guys know their convictions, and you can run through 21 them from A to Z. and they don't always match up with those 22 printouts they give you. Sometimes there's more, and 23 sometimes there's less, and I found that to be the case.
24 That's no reflection on the government because that's what's 25 on the printout.

1 But I think for future reference, I think in my
2 opinion the witnesses prior record needs to be really run to 3 an extent that the defendant is really given all of the 4 information because I think they're lacking because either
5 the records gets closed out or the computer doesn't keep them
6 generated. But these printouts sometimes don't match up with 7 a full felony record of these people.

8 THE COURT: But we, as you know, you find
9 defendants all the time who disagree with what the rap sheet
10 says.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Sure.

12 THE COURT: They claim they weren't convicted,
13 although there's a certified copy of it. I mean, they have 14 a, frequently there's some kind of dispute about it. But 15 what I'm trying to -- my only interest is, is there some 16 belief that the government didn't give you the rap sheet?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: No.

18 THE COURT: At least, whatever the computer
19 showed.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: They gave me, absolutely no
21 complaint about that.

22 Again, Mr. Hand, huge criminal history, bad drug
23 addiction, huge, long-term, over -- you know, I think he 24 talked about how it had affected his memory. I don't
25 remember his motivation for testifying or if there was one

1 because I just don't have it here. But he just is basically
2 for that one point. Now, the -- so that's Mr. Hand.

3 Mr. Whitelaw. This is the one, Judge, that I did
4 last Saturday. They were the first ones I did on this.

5 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor, could I interrupt you a
6 second? Is the pattern -- you've now gone through this. Is 7 the, with the other folks, is it essentially the same king of 8 thing?

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Whitelaw was interviewed, one-page
10 interview. No one ever talked to him again. He's off in 11 prison. They're bringing him back up here for the trial.
12 Never appeared before the grand jury. And told me, I
13 believe, his statement wasn't correct. In fact, he says
14 there's an admission in there against one of the defendants
15 which he says he never said, I believe. He was, I think,
16 wanting some consideration, but -

17 It's all the same pattern of this one, sometimes
18 two, interviews, of which they're never shown the statement
19 ever again. I think I showed, I can tell you that Lank had 20 never seen his statement, Elliott had just seen it the day
21 before, I think, when he was debriefed, but had never seen it
22 before that. And I had even some reservation that he even 23 saw it then, but I'll have to look. Hand, I don't believe
24 did; Whitelaw didn't; Dawson didn't.

25 Now, Dawson. In 1993, and I almost have this, but

1 I can tell you what I do have. In 1993, Dave True contacted
2 Dawson and wanted to get cooperation from him against the
3 Sheppards and Richard Brown. He was in the, I believe, the 4 Henry County Jail, get my counties right, on a DWI. And he
5 tells me that Dave True got him out on an ROR bond to start
6 cooperating in this case, which we've never been told.

7 I called Henry County, and the clerk told me that
8 she has a sticky note in the file, Dave True called, a sticky
9 note to call Dave True, a sticky note Dave True called back,
10 a sticky note that she called Dave True, and then there's 11 nothing. So I've asked them to go look at the court file
12 because what he said was that True asked, or tried to help
13 him get an ROR bond on this DWI. I hope I'm saying this
14 right.

15 But eventually Dawson gets in some robbery problems
16 in Clay County, and he tells me True helped him get a $60,000
17 ROR bond on several armed robberies. And that True had 18 threatened him with other charges.

19 Now, here is a guy, Dave Dawson, who has no, I
20 don't believe he had any prior criminal history before he 21 started this, and now I think he has like 20 years in 22 prison. And Glen Shepard who had 12 convictions and who 23 cooperated got probation. And he basically told me in the 24 statement he was afraid, I believe, now, again, to tell me
25 the truth because he's afraid that it's going to hurt him

1 with the government. Because he, there's another charge
2 pending that he's been reminded of by the ATF.

3 And so when I talked to him, he had never been 4 talked to, and he'd never received or looked at these 5 interviews. And I don't believe he's met Mr. Becker, or had 6 when I talked to him.

7 Nettles. He talked to me briefly. He wasn't real
8 excited about talking to me. He told me a little of his 9 criminal history. He told me they told him they probably
10 weren't going to use him. He's, you know -- and again back
11 to Dawson, you know, prior criminal history, motivation for 12 testifying, fear of the government.

13 And that brings us to Stanley Sanders who I talked
14 to this morning at 5:00 in the morning down at the St. Clair
15 County Jail. And he tells me that he got ahold of the ATF
16 the first time, which we were not told this, or I have no
17 knowledge of it. Called the ATF -- no, process server came 18 to serve him in the county jail after he had been revoked on 19 his probation and had to go serve, I believe, a three-year
20 term. He told the process server, or something like that,
21 contact ATF, I may have some information in the firefighters,
22 case.

23 ATF comes over to see him. They do, I think, a
24 one-page interview, and that was just done this morning. But 25 wait a minute. I think I had my office bring those over

1 because they were still in my briefcase. As I thought I gave
2 the court reporter, that Stanley Sanders, I believe, is a
3 two-page -- let me get my people right.

4 Stanley Sanders. Stanley Sanders says that he
5 called ATF a week before the explosion, before the taping of 6 unsolved Mysteries, and he talked to an agent by the name of 7 Dave True. At the time he did not give Dave True his real
8 name because he was on the run. Do you need to do something,
9 Judge?

10 THE COURT: Yes. Mary is about to leave, and I
11 need to talk to her.

12 (A brief recess was taken.)

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I need to make a correction. I got 14 Gile and Sanders mixed up. So let's strike everything I said
15 about Gile and Sanders and let me start over. These are the 16 guys this morning, and I'm trying to recollect. Gile, first.

17 THE COURT: Could I make a suggestion?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: You've given me some detail about some 20 of these people. Could you -- would there be some way -
21 we've got people waiting and I want to -- could you just sort
22 of say, if it's correct, I'm not suggesting what to say if it
23 isn't correct. Now, I've also talked with A, B, C, D, and E, 24 and essentially the situation is the same with regard to 25 these people. In each instance I found, or they told me

1 about stuff that fits generally into these categories.

2 Now, if you believe that in some way hurts your
3 presentation, I'll be glad to listen to the rest of it. But
4 I think I've got an idea of what you're talking about. Just
5 a minute.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Gile's in the Jackson County Jail,
7 gets served with process for a domestic situation with his
8 wife. He's just been violated, got a three-year sentence,
9 tells the process server that he has information, they come
10 and talk to him. He gives them a detailed interview. He 11 does testify before the grand jury.

12 He's advised me that Dave True has told him that
13 after he testified that he will place a letter in his parole
14 jacket. And he told me his parole date, and he would be 15 there when the parole board met next year because of his 16 cooperation, that which we were not told.

17 Stanley Sanders. And, you know, Gile has a
18 criminal history. He told me in his interview, he would not 19 talk to me about his interview, but he said all I want to 20 tell you is that some of the things in there are not correct,
21 but I'm not going to tell you about them because he's 22 basically concerned that he won't get his deal or his letter
23 if he says anything contrary to his statement. To his 24 interview, there was no statement. He did testify before the 25 grand jury.

1 Stanley Sanders claims to have talked to Dave True
2 twice. The first occasion, he called anonymously but gave
3 him information and gave him a name of his sister, that he
4 had overheard a man at a bar talking about killing his sister
5 because of the firefighters explosion.

6 We have no such report. What is significant is 7 when Dave True interviews him, which would appear from our 8 records to be the first time, but from his recollection would 9 have been the second time when he called, he gave his name
10 because now he was in custody and not on the run. True
11 recognized his name, he recognized True's voice. Sanders', I
12 think, sister is somehow connected to the witness list, and 13 there was a concern about her testimony. So if there's two 14 interviews of him, we don't have the first. Or if maybe we 15 don't have the second and we have the first.

16 Patrick Stewart. Patrick Stewart I went over to 17 see yesterday in Lansing. He did not want to give me an 18 interview, did not want to give me an interview on the 19 record. He agreed to talk to me. Did not want the court
20 reporter to type. When he came in the room, he basically, it
21 turned out that he knew my family, my mom, my nephews, and so
22 on, and so, grew up with them. And basically told me, he 23 said, I can only say this because I don't know that I will 24 say this later, but basically a woman told him -- and it's 25 another one of these two-page interview scenarios, no grand

1 jury testimony. Basically a woman who he was running with
2 who was doing drugs had told the ATF that he may have
3 information about the involvement of Sheppard and/or Brown,
4 or both. I don't recall. He gave them an interview. So -
5 strike that.

6 She arranged for the agents to meet him when he
7 went out for his modification in Johnson County because he 8 had two five to twenties in Kansas. She told him that the 9 ATF agents had told her -- and they were helping her with 10 some of her cases, which we have not been told. And I think
11 she's a potential witness, but I don't remember her name, and 12 I haven't got to her as far as my investigation.

13 He said he showed up out in Johnson County court.
14 He thought he was going to court for his modification. He
15 was, but when he got there, Dave True was there, another
16 agent was there. They took him to another room, they got his 17 interview in which he admitted, told them that these guys
18 were involved, and they told him that they were going to go
19 in front of the judge and ask that his time be reduced.

20 He said they did not do that. They left after they 21 told him that the interview was an off-the-record interview,
22 and then the next time he heard about it was last week they
23 called his dad and basically told his dad that they heard
24 that he had a marijuana charge in Lansing in which he could 25 be facing maybe 30 to 40 months, although guys have been

1 pleading in Lansing to eight months, generally, and that he
2 should consider that in determining whether or not he wanted
3 to cooperate and go along with this statement.

4 He told me that he is scared that they're going to
5 come over there. He asked me to call his dad. I didn't do
6 that because I didn't, I just haven't had a chance to because
7 of other things going on. But he said, if he's to be
8 believed, that his dad was also told by the agents that there
9 could be some reward money in it for him, as well. That 10 supposedly happened within the last week, of which we have no
11 knowledge and/or information.

12 Bridget Dornhoffer. I have information that in at 13 least two counties mental exams have been filed, lawyers have 14 filed mental exams on her competence to proceed and/or to 15 stand trial. And as recently as last either March, April, or 16 May of '96, she was charged in federal court in Kansas City,
17 Kansas, in which the government, we have the motion, but I
18 don't have it here, filed a motion to have her examined for 19 competency. We have not been provided any information about 20 any incompetencies or any mental problems that she's had.

21 MR. WYRSCH: Did she say that in the transcript
22 that you have?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Again, that's a good question,
24 because Dornhoffer was like the last one on my list to talk
25 to. And so with -- let me retract that until I can look at

1 that. I'm glad you said that, Jim, because I can't say for
2 sure. Let me look at that one, but I talked to Mr. Peters in
3 the interim here, and I would like to call him again before I
4 finalize my record to address that, but that's a good point.
5 But nothing was given to us, telling us any history.

6 Now, it may be in the transcript of the grand jury
7 or something. I can't tell the Court that for sure. So if 8 my numbers are right, of the one, two, three, four, five,
9 six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve government
10 witnesses to be called, one, two, three, four have appeared
11 before the grand jury, and one grand jury statement we don't 12 have.

13 In all of those, Gile and Sanders, bad prior 14 criminal record, drugs, violence, bad acts, all matters of 15 impeachment. The only information that I'm aware of that the 16 government has given us regarding inducements or promises are 17 these letters that we got on Lank where Mr. Becker wrote to 18 Mr. Lank in prison and then wrote a letter to Mr. Lank's
19 lawyer down in Jefferson City.

20 Now, if you look at the other discovery in the 21 case, you have these same interviews. And other lawyers are 22 being told by laypeople that the same things are happening,
23 that they're being threatened and told that they have to 24 testify or things will happen to them. And I haven't even 25 got to those people, I can honestly tell the Court, because I

1 haven ~ t had time.

2 But there is a pattern of this, you know, not
3 talking to these people for a long period of time and then
4 bringing them in, and some of them having never met the 5 prosecutor. And so I think for impeachment purposes -- for 6 example, Mr. Lank, and this may mean nothing, but I think it
7 would to a jury. Lank writes these letters. He's asking for
8 promises, he's asking for inducements. He gives a one-page
9 interview which no one has ever gone over with him. Mr.
10 Becker's never met him. He's on the first week's witness
11 list. He's never even been debriefed, and he's put forward 12 as a witness without even evaluating his credibility or what 13 he's about.

14 So when Mr. Becker gets Mr. Lank's testimony here
15 from me, then he may choose not to put him on, which will 16 then affect our presentation of how this case has proceeded.
17 He'll pick and choose the ones that had the least problems,
18 and then he'll make an orderly presentation and he'll get out
19 of the way all the problems with the case by putting it
20 forward first so we can't impeach him. He'll try damage
21 control with these witnesses, and then he may not call some 22 of them. Which to some extent we don't want him to, but to 23 another extent, we would like to show the pattern with all of 24 these people, this consistent pattern of the way this case
25 has been handled through the snitch witnesses, as I call

1 them, which I hope is not an inappropriate word, and the lay
2 witnesses.

3 And there's other information that I cannot tell
4 the Court now that I have that verifies anything, but I'm
5 trying to verify other things that I think are there, but I
6 don't have the verification, so I wouldn't speak them unless 7 I could tell them. I think that's my record.

8 MR. WYRSCH: Your Honor, I would point out under 9 the omnibus, under Section III, the government was required
10 to -- well, I'm sorry, was not required, but says the 11 government will disclose all evidence favorable to the 12 defense at least 10 days prior to trial.

13 THE COURT: I couldn't hear you.

14 MR. WYRSCH: Yes, Your Honor. under No. III(E) it
15 says, "The government states that all evidence now in its 16 possession or hereafter coming into its possession which is 17 favorable to the defense will be disclosed to the defense at 18 least 10 days prior to trial."

19 To what extent the government knows about a lot of 20 this impeaching material and hasn't disclosed it, I don't 21 know. I know that -- which is the one in the eastern
22 district, John, that you found?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Lank.

24 MR. WYRSCH: The U.S. Government actually filed
25 something on a witness over there?

1 MR. O'CONNOR: I wish I had it here. Kansas City,
2 Kansas. There's a filing by the government asking that the
3 witness be checked. Dornhoffer, and she was sent to Kentucky
4 for evaluation on competency to proceed. She also had the
5 same thing happen previous years in Clay and Platte County,
6 and there are mental exams to show that she has some mental 7 disorders.

8 THE COURT: ALL the stuff about the, that might 9 bear on whether the government has done or has not done what
10 it should, all that arguably relates to the pending motion
11 for sanctions, needs to be brought to my attention during the 12 trial, as Judge Hays, I think, ordered in regard to the 13 motion for sanctions. I mean, I'll do whatever is 14 appropriate and what I'm asked to do at the time if there is,
15 if I believe it's appropriate, to enforce and make certain
16 that the government has complied with its responsibilities.
17 And if it hasn't, an appropriate sanction will have to be 18 considered.

19 But I'm puzzled about what it has to do with this 20 issue. I mean, I understand it has to do with issues in the 21 case, maybe, but what does the fact that the government may 22 not have -- and I stress may because I don't know -- but may 23 not have done something it should have to do with the 24 particular issue we have here?

25 MR. WYRSCH: Well, I don't think it has to do with

1 it directly, Your Honor, but I think what John has indicated
2 to the Court that he's developed this impeaching material,
3 independent of any statements that the government has 4 provided him by the Jencks and that he feels that that is
5 material that he would like to use on cross-examination
6 without revealing that to the government.

7 I recognize the issue of Bradv is somewhat
8 different than the issue that's presented here. There is a
9 little tangential effect of it, and that is that the 10 government was required to live up to the omnibus and, at 11 least in John's view based on his investigation on the Bradv
12 part, they have not, although I don't mean that -- they're 13 not here to answer that, so in fairness to them, I probably 14 shouldn't really even mention it.

15 THE COURT: This issue, I think we need to talk in 16 their presence. I don't think it's an ex carate thing, unless 17 it relates to -- I mean, unless it has something to do with 18 these statements. The reason I'm doing this ex parte with 19 regard to the statements is that I felt it was, the cat's out
20 of the bag if we do it in front of the government, then all
21 we're doing is, you know, we're wasting our time talking
22 about it. So that's why I did that part ex parte.

23 But this other business about the fact of whether 24 the government has or has not complied with what it should,
25 it seems to me to be a matter that can either be talked about

1 in front of them, or if it isn't yet in a position to be
2 talked about in front of them, then it has to be saved for a
3 later date. Because I can't very well consider taking some
4 kind of sanction action against the government for not doing
5 what they're supposed to without giving them a chance to 6 respond.

7 MR. WYRSCH: That's correct, and I really shouldn't
8 have mentioned that, so I agree with the Court.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Another thing I'd like to say is 10 that one of the reasons that I have not brought the grand
11 jury issue regarding Shepard to the Court, because I kept
12 believing, because I threw a bone to Mr. Becker this morning
13 when I was talking to him. I kept thinking somehow Glen 14 Shepard's grand jury was tied to that protective order and 15 you'd been asked to deal with that. So I said to him this 16 morning, I kept holding out that I can't believe he wouldn't
17 be giving me this after Shepard told me that he testified.
18 of course, maybe he was lying, but then Dave True's testimony
19 out there said that he did.

20 Here is my problem, Judge, as it relates to this
21 issue is that just think of the cross-examination of Shepard
22 and True as to what happened out there and how that whole
23 chain of events happened. Now, if Paul Becker gets this 24 information from me, which I've got to believe he can't have 25 this transcript from Cass County. There's no way he would do

1 that to this Court. And I believe that sincerely. I don't
2 know that Paul knows about that.

3 I would love to cross-examine Dave True, maybe even
4 I'd pass on even asking Glen Shepard about it with the
5 opportunity of asking True why he did not provide all of that
6 information to a judge who was making a decision on the case
7 in order to help this guy.

8 But if he gets this, he's able to do damage control
9 to the extent that we are not able to show what was really
10 going on behind the scenes here, and this pattern has been
11 all through this thing.

12 THE COURT: Yeah, but, you know, that's one of the 13 roles. I mean, in a general sense, that's one of the roles
14 of Jencks. I mean, that's one of the consequences. I mean,
15 it allows the defendants to do damage control. It allows, in 16 reverse aspect, it allows the government to do damage
17 control. But there are policy reasons or, in this case,
18 arguably, the parties agreed to this.

19 So I mean, I don't, the use to which material is 20 put isn't the engine that drives the Jencks train. I mean,
21 it either is a statement under Jencks or it's not a statement
22 under Jencks. And what use it's going to be put to by the 23 party or what uses it could possibly be put to by the party
24 it doesn't seem to me to be the issue.

25 ~ But anyway, I now understand what your position is,

1 and I think we need to get Mr. Becker up here and we can wrap
2 this up. Unless there's something more you want to say to
3 me.

4 MR. WYRSCH: No, I think we've had our full
5 opportunity to make our record, Your Honor, and I appreciate
6 it.

7 THE COURT: Now we need to find Mr. Becker.

8 (A brief recess was taken, after which the 9 following proceedings were had in chambers in the presence of 10 Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Wyrsh, Mr. Becker, Mr. Miller, and Judge
11 Sarah Hays:)

12 THE COURT: Before we finish, you all remind me, I
13 have two orders to give you. I have two orders to give you
14 that I'm going to ask one or both of you to be sure the other 15 attorneys get copies of because, being the hour that it is -
16 and Judge Hays and I are going to have to learn how to use
17 the fax machine here without any instruction, and so we'll -
18 I want you two to remind me, if you would, before you leave.

19 Okay. Now, does anybody have anything else that 20 they want to say about this matter?

21 MR. BECKER: I don't believe anything has changed
22 since yesterday. The Court issued a clear and direct order
23 yesterday that these materials should be provided by noon
24 today, and I ask that the Court, again, order that these 25 materials be turned over.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: My last gasp is that the witnesses I
2 intended to call were the witnesses that I filed an amended
3 five days before trial which deletes the any and all, and
4 that's who I intend to call, and that's who I intended to 5 call and did not intend to call any of these witnesses,
6 specifically, by last name, Shepard, Lank, Elliott, Hand,
7 Whitelaw, Dawson, Sanders, Gile, Dornhoffer, Quiroz.

8 I have had, did not intend, do not intend to call,
9 will not call any of those witnesses. And as, I believe, my
10 punishment I would accept further is that I would not call
11 anyone else other than what is on my amended list for making
12 the mistake of putting any and all on the witness list, of 13 which I had no intent or intend to call. That's all.

14 (An off-the-record discussion was had.)

15 THE COURT: Mr. Becker?

16 MR. BECKER: Nothing further, Judge, thank you.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm done.

18 THE COURT: All right. Now, let's cover some 19 issues that have been raised here, and I may have talked
20 about them yesterday, but I'm going to attempt to be 21 responsive to what has been argued here.

22 First of all, the record of this case persuades me
23 that the five days prior to trial in Paragraph E(10) of the 24 omnibus order meant five days prior to January 13, 1996, and 25 that the parties interpreted it to mean that because on

1 January 8, by January 8th, the defendants had filed their
2 witness lists, which suggests that they believed that that
3 was five days before January, that that was when they had to
4 file them, which was, in fact, five days before January
5 13th.

6 And also I am told, and I had forgotten this, but
7 Judge Hays tells me that Mr. Becker made an argument at one
8 point that the date the trial was beginning was the January
9 21st date, and Judge Hays rejected that and said, no, the 10 trial begins on January 13th, when jury selection begins. So
11 for the purposes of this discussion, the defendants had the 12 obligation to comply with the omnibus order, Paragraph E(10),
13 at least five days prior to January 13, 1996.

14 Now, the witness list filed five days prior to 15 January 13 by Mr. O'Connor stated as, or incorporated by 16 reference all witnesses on the government's list of 17 witnesses. I am now told that this was done because it was 18 perceived as a precaution, which is a precaution that is 19 commonly used by attorneys in this district. The wisdom
20 behind that precaution is apparent from the record some of 21 the defense attorneys have made in this case that if the 22 government doesn't call some of the people on their list that 23 the defendants may well call them in their case. So it is
24 a -

25 (An off-the-record discussion was had, and a brief

1 recess was taken.)

2 THE COURT: We're going to need to get all the
3 lawyers together. I think there's a good chance we're going
4 to have to continue this case.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Is this something that just
6 happened?

7 THE COURT: Right. Just this minute. So I need to 8 talk to the lawyers. I've got those numbers.

9 JUDGE HAYS: We've got them downstairs, too. I
10 would be glad to start trying to call people. I'll go
11 downstairs.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Do you want to get them here now?

13 THE COURT: We can talk on the phone, I assume, if 14 we can set it up.

15 JUDGE HAYS: Elena and Susan were going out of 16 town. I don't know if they're back yet or not. Do you know
17 when they'll be back?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: I thought they were coming back
19 today because we talked at one time about conferencing late
20 today, and then we changed it to the weekend. I thought they 21 said they could get back.

22 JUDGE HAYS: I'll go downstairs and pull their 23 numbers and just alert everybody that we want to have a phone
24 conference.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Can you share it with us?

1 THE COURT: Yeah, I'll share it with you. I mean,
2 I'd just as soon -- I mean, I'll tell you all. I've been
3 having a lot of trouble with my back, and they took some
4 x-rays and did some tests yesterday, and they want to put me
5 in the hospital. So -- and they're recommending that they do
6 it immediately.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Then why are you standing here?

8 THE COURT: Because I'd rather stand here than sit
9 here, actually. And I just don't think that probably I have 10 much choice but to do what they tell me what they want to 11 do. I could find, try to find another judge to start it on 12 Tuesday, but that would be, I think that would be a big 13 deal. So I think that it's -- I mean, I hope, my hope is 14 that it would not be an extensive continuance. And if it
15 looks like it's going to be, then we'll get another judge
16 involved to go ahead in front of another judge.

17 But I think as a practical matter, it's not going
18 to be possible for me to do it. So I think I want to share
19 that with the others. I mean, there's one or two of the 20 defendants that wanted to go to trial, so I need to hear what 21 they have to say.

22 (An off-the-record discussion was had.)

23 MR. O'CONNOR: In terms of tonight, I'll make every 24 effort to get ahold of them, if for some reason you want to 25 make a record tomorrow?

1 JUDGE HAYS: I'd be happy to get on the phone with
2 them tomorrow and make a record, or whatever Judge Bartlett
3 wants me to do. Both places, I left both the phone number
4 here and I left my home number so that hopefully somebody
5 would be able to get with them.

6 THE COURT: What I'm thinking about is maybe we
7 ought to just re-draw the case and see what the new judge -
8 I mean, the new judge might be willing to, might be able to 9 start on Tuesday, which would then do away with a need for a
10 continuance.

11 On the other hand, my, I mean, my situation could 12 be one that, you know, within a week we could be back.
13 That's the reason I wanted to talk to everybody and see what
14 we, you know, what seems to be the best circumstance, or best
15 result, under the assumption that I'm not going to be able to 16 preside over a trial that starts on Tuesday. But -- well,
17 who do you have? Do you have Peters and -

18 MR. O'CONNOR: And Osgood.

19 JUDGE HAYS: We don't have Mr. Bunch or Susan
20 Hunt.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I'll try Bunch again while we're 22 waiting to hook something up.

23 (An off-the-record discussion was had.)

24 THE COURT: Well, I guess the question is whether
25 we wait until we can get -- I mean, I'd like to go -- I mean,

1 I'd like Mr. Bunch to be available because he's the one
2 that's taking the position that, you know, his client wanted
3 to go to trial immediately. And I certainly want to give him
4 a chance to express himself. Maybe what we ought to do -

5 Sarah, do you think that you could try to find a
6 time as soon as possible when he was available and these
7 other folks were available?

8 JUDGE HAYS: I can do it later tonight or first 9 thing in the morning. I mean, whatever would work for 10 people.

11 MR. BECKER: I'm available anytime.

12 THE COURT: I'm available anytime, too. So why
13 don't we -- why don't we do that.

14 (An off-the-record discussion was had.)

15 MR. BECKER: I have witnesses flying in. I have
16 victims' families scheduled to be here Tuesday morning. I
17 have 117 witnesses lined up to testify. So with all due
18 respect, we need to, I need to be able to take some action
19 one way or the other, and I know the Court is probably aware 20 of that, but I would prefer there not be a continuance. And 21 more importantly, I think I would oppose any severance of 22 those, some going forward and some not going forward.

23 If Mr. Bunch was insisting that he needed a trial
24 Tuesday morning, that probably would be the worst case
25 scenario for the government, to have to try this thing more

1 than once. So I know the Court is faced with a difficult
2 decision here. And I'm just prepared to meet on it.

3 THE COURT: Before I make a determination of what
4 should happen, I want to talk to all of the lawyers and let 5 them have a chance to tell me. So let's -- I mean, that is 6 where we are on it.

7 MR. BECKER: Are we going to have a ruling on the 8 issue that we originally started on? I know Mr. O'Connor put 9 away all of these things there, perhaps thinking I would
10 forget about it. Or is that held in abeyance at this point?

11 THE COURT: I think we'd probably better continue
12 that and rule it, not knowing what the, you know, what the 13 situation is. The case may well go to trial Tuesday
14 morning. It may be continued for a short period of time.
15 But in any event, I think we need to get this matter
16 resolved.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, is one of your thoughts that
18 if you went in and came out and you were okay, I mean, okay
19 to go ahead in a week, would we just keep this jury and -

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay.

22 THE COURT: Right. I mean, that's one thought.
23 The other thought is that -- I mean, another possibility is 24 to do the, is to have another judge assigned to the case and 25 proceed on Tuesday morning. The -- my concern about that is

1 that -- I mean, about that approach, at least with regard to
2 Tuesday morning, is that I think the reassignment of the case
3 ought to be by random draw and, therefore, who drew the case,
4 whether for any reason that judge would recuse, in other
5 words, wouldn't be able to do it, and then we would have to 6 re-draw it.

7 And I think in fairness, any judge who is, you
8 know, going to preside over this case needs some time to sort
9 of get up to speed. I mean, just to walk in there cold
10 doesn't seem appropriate. The judge would have to make a
11 determination as to whether there was anything that I was,
12 had told you all was going to happen, the judge would then
13 try to do something different. So I'm just fearful that it's 14 not something that is, that can just be dumped in somebody's
15 lap and you all get the kind of high quality judicial 16 presentation that the case deserves.

17 So that's, those are some more things. Therefore,
18 if my situation is one that was of short-term duration, in 19 the long run, I think it would probably be the more efficient
20 thing to do. But on the other hand, it does involve, is 21 going to involve some rescheduling.

22 So those are some of the things that are, that I'm 23 thinking about right now. So I think that the -- I mean, the 24 first step I think is the talk with the lawyers. Now, the 25 next step is for me to decide what's going to happen and tell

1 you all what is going to happen, and then we proceed to do
2 it. So the sooner we can talk, the sooner we can get
3 everybody on the line, the better. So if somebody wants to 4 take over the job of -

5 JUDGE HAYS: You've got a phone call.

6 (A brief recess was taken.)

7 THE COURT: Okay. Now, here is the new
8 development. They have scheduled, they've gotten me
9 scheduled for 9 a.m. Monday morning without having to go into 10 the hospital. So we have a new option, and that is that we 11 continue. We go Tuesday as planned with the possibility that 12 I would have to recess early on Tuesday to meet with the 13 doctor to get the results from the Monday test, so that's a 14 third option, I mean, that's another option. But I want to 15 lay the situation out so, I mean, as best I can so that 16 everybody knows what it is.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm sure there will be a hundred
18 things that come up in your thoughts between now and then,
19 but if the jury was sworn Tuesday and then for some reason
20 after you met with your doctor you had to have other
21 treatment, or hopefully none of that stuff would happen, then
22 bringing a judge in with the jury sworn may create another
23 issue.

24 I'm just wondering if it would be better to 25 continue it until Wednesday, at least, so you know where you

1 stand because, just for the purpose of yourself, forget this
2 trial. But also then we'd know and the jury knows who the 3 judge is.

4 THE COURT: Those are options. I want to talk to 5 everybody about them, give everybody a chance to see what's,
6 what we're going to do. But I think that, we need to talk to 7 people, if we can, tonight so we can make this decision.
8 Okay?

9 MR. BECKER: I, perhaps, misunderstood this time.
10 Did you say you were going to defer ruling on these Jencks
11 statements, or are we going to address that?

12 THE COURT: We're going to address it.

13 MR. BECKER: Okay.

14 JUDGE HAYS: Before you start addressing that,
15 could I just find out -- I mean, should I just continue to 16 try to set this up and then get in touch with everyone?

17 THE COURT: Yeah. Just whenever, whenever you can
18 reach everyone. Yeah, whatever time you can reach
19 everybody. But you get on home, go on home. Your situation
20 is desperate.

21 JUDGE HAYS: Will you be here, then, or at some
22 point should I try to reach you, then, at your residence?

23 THE COURT: I'll be here until we finish this, and 24 then I'm heading for home.

25 JUDGE HAYS: Then maybe I'd better have your

1 number.

2 (An off-the-record discussion was had.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. Now, I think I had commented on 4 the circumstances under which the witness list was filed with 5 the precautionary statement, according to the defendant, to 6 list all of the government's witnesses as witnesses that were 7 on the defendant's witness list; followed that list, the 8 filing of that list by filing by an amended list which 9 deleted and reduced dramatically the number of witnesses that 10 the defendant was going to call or might call.

11 Now, both lists, both the original list and the 12 amended list were, I conclude, intended to comply with the 13 requirement of the omnibus order and, therefore, the 14 difference in wording between the omnibus order, intend to 15 call, and the witness list, may call, is not determinative.
16 I conclude that it was, the lists were intended to comply
17 with the omnibus order. Therefore, any witness listed on the 18 witness list for which the listing party had a statement as 19 defined in Section 3500 was required to be produced.

20 Now, the next thing I want to talk about is the 21 fact that the omnibus order is not an effort to, was not 22 intended to be an effort to place upon the defendants all of 23 the requirements of Section 3500 or the Jencks Act. The 24 omnibus order used the reference to 3500 as a way to define
25 the statements, define what was meant by statements. Because

1 the obligation under the omnibus order was fixed as of at 2 least five days prior to trial, the lists that were filed by
3 the defendants in compliance with that order at least five
4 days prior to trial also fixed the responsibility to furnish
5 statements as defined in Section 3500.

6 Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Wyrsh argue that, well, it
7 was not intended, there was no intent to call some of the 8 people on the government's list and, therefore, compliance
9 with the omnibus order was not necessary in that regard.

10 Because the whole purpose of the omnibus order is 11 to fix at an early stage in a case the responsibilities of 12 the parties that are either agreed to by the parties or 13 ordered by the magistrate, I conclude that the intent as to 14 whether at a given time the person really plans to call the 15 witness or not is irrelevant because the only point in time
16 that is of importance under the omnibus order is the date
17 that the defendant is required to file the witness list.

18 It would certainly be expected that an attorney's 19 view of who they really plan to call or who they will call as 20 witnesses could change one or many times after the witness
21 list is filed, depending on the circumstances having to do
22 with the assessment of discovery and having to do with the 23 progress of the trial, et cetera.

24 Therefore, the omnibus order fixed as the date and 25 circumstances for furnishing the statements the date that the

1 witness list was filed. Therefore, I do not believe that
2 filing an amended witness list affects, after the date set in
3 the omnibus order affects a determination of the parties'
4 responsibility under the omnibus order.

5 Now, the defendant argues that the statements at 6 issue here falling within the definition of statements in 7 Section 3500 are impeaching material. And I accept at this
8 point that characterization of them, that they are, have 9 material that is going to be used, if at all, for 10 impeachment. Without some restriction on the wording of the 11 omnibus order which was agreed to by the parties deleting
12 from the requirement purely impeaching material, I do not see
13 and do not believe it's appropriate to read into the omnibus
14 order and its reciprocal obligations some exclusion or 15 exception for purely, for statements that contain purely 16 impeaching material.

17 I'm confident, I believe, that if this situation
18 were reversed and the government had listed a witness on its 19 witness list that it did not intend to call in its case but 20 for which the witness had, or for which the government had 21 impeaching material in the form of a statement under section,
22 that would fall within the definition of statement under 23 Section 3500 that the defendants would insist that it be
24 furnished and would not accept without protest a statement
25 that it was just impeaching material and we probably weren't

1 going to call that witness anyway, unless the defendant
2 called them, but we listed the person only to protect
3 ourselves in case our assessment of the situation changed and
4 we decided we wanted to call the person because our 5 impeaching material is so good that we could bolster our 6 theory of this case by impeaching this person. Therefore,
7 the, under the wording of the omnibus order, I do not see any
8 exception for material or statements that are primarily or 9 exclusively impeaching in nature.

10 The next argument is that it reveals, to reveal the 11 information would reveal strategy, and I guess any statement
12 taken verbatim and covered by Section 3500 to an extent
13 reveals strategy because there is always the information that 14 can be gleaned from which questions the lawyer chose to ask
15 and the manner in which the lawyer asked them, which can 16 reveal strategy.

17 Another factor that I'm taking into consideration
18 is the problem of changing the ground rules or attempting to 19 change the ground rules after one party has attempted to 20 comply with the omnibus order. In this case, and I realize
21 there's a dispute about it, or at least there seems to be 22 some dispute about it, whether the United States fully 23 complied is challenged by the defendants. But at least the 24 United States attempted to comply in accordance with what T
25 understand to have been an agreed upon addition to the

1 omnibus order that sometime after the omnibus order was
2 entered, the government agreed to, after some debate,
3 apparently, to furnish material covered by Section 3500
4 twenty days before trial. And it seems at this point, it's 5 too late to go back and start engrafting exceptions on what
6 the omnibus order stated and when it was setting forth in a
7 general context the reciprocal obligations of the parties.
8 So that is a, that is another aspect of the situation that I
9 think is important to take into account.

10 I have taken into account in reaching this decision
11 the information that Mr. O'Connor furnished to me, with his 12 attorney, Mr. Wyrsh, present on the content of the 13 statements that were taken, Mr. O'Connor's assessment and 14 summary of the significance of those statements to issues in 15 this case. I don't -- I think all of that was relevant to 16 and was certainly considered by me in determining, in 17 discussing the point about impeaching material. My belief is 18 that based on what Mr. O'Connor said, his belief is that the 19 material is primarily of importance for impeachment. It may 20 have some relevance to other issues, but primarily important
21 for impeachment.

22 For all of those reasons, I believe that the 23 defendant has the obligation to furnish any statement that
24 comes within the definition in Section 3500 for any witness
25 that was listed on the witness list filed five days before

296

1 January 13th in compliance with the omnibus order.

2 Now, I'll be glad to consider what -- I mean, the
3 deadline that I established yesterday was noon today;
4 obviously, a deadline that has gone by. I'll be glad to 5 establish a new deadline if, if there's some, and will take 6 into account if there's some thought about trying to get the 7 Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals to review this order.

8 MR. WYRSCH: Could we request -- I'm not sure we'll 9 do that, but if we could request a deadline, let's say, of 10 Wednesday morning, and we'll try to do it over the weekend.
11 And if we can't find some Eighth Circuit judges, we'll try to 12 have it there first thing Tuesday? We'll try to do it, if we 13 do it, I'm not sure we will, or get back with the Court at 14 the status conference. It could be that we could get ahold
15 of somebody over the weekend.

16 MR. BECKER: Wednesday morning is unacceptable
17 because of the -- I mean, assuming that the trial train
18 leaves the station, the research that Mr. Clark has provided
19 me is that this is a matter within the sound discretion of 20 the district court. So the merits on appeal, at least for an 21 extraordinary writ, seem to me to be less than promising.
22 And I think that a relevant consideration, what has in effect
23 been asked is a request for a stay at this point because the 24 order was entered yesterday to comply by noon today. Now
25 we've had further proceedings on the matter and now we're,

1 there's been an order, and now there's a request for a stay.
2 I believe that they should certainly be given time to
3 evaluate whether or not this appeal has some merit or if they
4 want to pursue it.

5 But Wednesday, I mean, tomorrow or Sunday, but
6 these materials, I think beyond that point it becomes a moot
7 point for the government. Certainly I believe counsel should 8 have an opportunity to review the appellate merits, but 9 beyond that, I think they should comply with the Court's
10 order.

11 MR. WYRSCH: We're not saying to make a decision.
12 We would think the decision ought to be made like tomorrow
13 sometime and run the writ over the weekend, if we can. But 14 if we can't, we'd like to have it there Tuesday morning. I
15 wouldn't request additional time to decide whether we want to 16 do it or not. That could be made fairly quickly. If we run
17 the writ over the weekend, we will. I'm not sure we will do
18 that, okay? If we decide tomorrow we won't do it, then I
19 think that's another issue, but John has indicated some 20 indication that he wants to do this, and he needs to consult,
21 frankly, with other counsel.

22 But I say that that's not a barrier to whatever
23 we're going to do. Okay. He wants to talk with some of the 24 other counsel in the case. But we would certainly try to run
25 it over the weekend. I'm just not sure we can effectively do

1 it, quite frankly. I am aware that in the past where the
2 government has been ordered to produce Jencks Act material
3 and the Court's ruling is a slightly different situation but 4 similar, they've run writs and have been successful in
5 getting writs against judges.

6 So I don't want to quarrel with Bruce or your
7 analysis of the law, but I'm aware of similar circumstances
8 where writs have been granted.

9 THE COURT: I want to give you a fair opportunity
10 to take a look at the issue and to attempt to get some kind
11 of, if you decide to, some kind of relief from the Eighth
12 Circuit.

13 On the other hand, I mean, there was a purpose in 14 the reciprocal obligations, and certainly five days before
15 the trial was in there for some purpose. And so I'm not, I
16 mean, it doesn't seem to me it is fair in light of everything
17 I've said to delay it to a time that is any longer than 18 necessary after the time that it should have been, you know,
19 it should have been done.

20 So I'm not -- I mean, I think the Eighth Circuit
21 has emergency procedures which they can, which can be 22 implemented. And I'm sure if the judges on the particular
23 panel that deal with these things believes that it's a matter
24 that ought to be looked at, they'll issue an order that will,
25 you know, that will stop me. That will relieve temporarily

1 you all from complying with my order while they can take a
2 look at it.

3 So I don't -- why don't we -- what about noon
4 Sunday? I mean, that gives all day tomorrow to make some
5 determination and then to see if you can get the Court of 6 Appeals to do something. Any other suggestion? I'll be glad
7 to consider other suggestions, but I think Tuesday -- I mean,
8 on Tuesday, the opening statements begin, the trial, the 9 evidence begins. I mean, to -- if the three statements that
10 I'm looking at there are any indication, we have nine. I
11 mean, we're talking, you know, full six or eight inches of 12 material. And -

13 MR. WYRSCH: But there's, I should mention, apart
14 from that, there's the issue of getting them typed up even 15 by, I mean, there's that effort to be done. I mean, that's 16 being done as we speak, as I understand it. But there is 17 that issue. Well, we'd like to have as much time as 18 possible. If the Court doesn't like Tuesday morning, it
19 seems to me we ought to have, I don't know, I don't even know
20 if anybody is around on Monday, but it seems to me the 21 government wouldn't be prejudiced if we had noon on Monday.
22 It sounds like I'm negotiating with the Court, which I'm not.

23 THE COURT: I'm inviting you to. That's not a
24 problem. I'm inviting you to -

25 MR. WYRSCH: As much time as we can get over to

1 Tuesday as possible. It's possible that we'll decide not to,
2 Ibut it's also a possibility we will. But to the extent we
3 can get it to Monday or Monday afternoon, I would appreciate
4 it, but that would give us at least Saturday and Sunday and
5 part of Monday to try to do something with the case.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: As it relates to these, if there's 7 something that you want me to do with them, I don't have to
8 go pick the other ones up, so they don't gain any advantage
9 of them in the sense of having them or reviewing them. I'm 10 just saying as a practical matter, I would be willing to do
11 that, as well.

12 MR. BECKER: My only negotiation point is I'd like,
13 you know, if you're going to seek a writ, great, then you
14 should have a little bit of time. But if you're not, if you
15 make a decision you're not seeking a writ and then I still 16 have to wait until noon Tuesday or noon Monday, I've just 17 gotten dragged out another two and a half days when you say,
18 well, in view of the merits of it -

19 MR. WYRSCH: That's a fair comment. I'm just 20 trying to figure out how to implement it. If we decide to,
21 we'll tell you tomorrow morning we're going to. If we decide
22 not to, then there's the physical problem that some of them
23 are already prepared and getting them prepared and over to
24 you.

25 MR. BECKER: I understand the typing problems.

1 John tells me that ts the way it is. I understand it.

2 MR. WYRSCH: Why don't we let you know by noon
3 tomorrow whether we're going to do it or not, and then we'll
4 run a writ. And if we can have, if we decide to run the 5 writ, I think we ought to have until, you know, sometime
6 Monday afternoon. If we decide not to run the writ, I think
7 we can start immediately turning over those that we have
8 sometime tomorrow, maybe by the close of business tomorrow?
9 And the rest of them as we get them from the court reporter.
10 You realize some of them are not yet done by the court
11 reporter.

12 MR. BECKER: You have a xerox machine.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: When you have the court reporter do
14 -- what I've always done traditionally is let the court
15 reporter, let them make their money. I'll ask Theresa about 16 it. I don't know how all of that works.

17 MR. WYRSCH: Let me ask you this because I think 18 it's getting late. You told me a while ago that some of 19 these are not yet typed; is that correct?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: You have what I have.

21 MR. WYRSCH: Pau1, my response to you is some of 22 them are not typed, so even if we said we could turn them
23 over to you tomorrow afternoon, we're not going to have all
24 of them done.

25 MR. BECKER: I understand. And John has made that

1 clear from the earliest moment. I understand that.

2 MR. WYRSCH: The other part that we would like to
3 know, and we just need some kind of an indication from the 4 Court. Under Rule 26.2, Jencks Act, if we don't turn them
5 over -- and this is not meant to quarrel with the Court's
6 ruling, we just need some guidance here, obviously he's got a
7 client that's facing a lot of time -- is the sanction we
8 can't call a witness?

9 My reading of the Court's ruling today in terms of 10 the omnibus is that it imposes different obligations. Or 11 when I say that, I hope I'm not mischaracterizing it, but the 12 Court felt that the reciprocal discovery provisions were 13 excepted to the extent of the definitions of statement were 14 slightly different. So we would need some guidance in that 15 regard.

16 It's not that we won't, but we need to know in 17 terms of advice to the client and that if the sanction is we 18 can't call a witness, then that's an issue. If the sanction
19 is you turn them over regardless, we need to know that too.

20 THE COURT: Well, the sanction, the sanction that 21 you can't call the witness is what the Jencks Act provides.
22 But it is, as I said before, my interpretation of the omnibus
23 order is that it was, it used the reference to 3500, not for 24 the purpose of incorporating the Jencks Act, but for the 25 purpose of defining the statement. And so I think the

1 question of sanction, what would be the result of a failure
2 to abide by my order, would be a matter that would have to be
3 decided after that happened. But it would certainly -- I
4 mean, whatever the sanction is, it seems to me that it is not
5 necessarily restricted by what the Jencks Act says because we
6 have a different -

7 MR. WYRSCH: Bet me ask, and if I'm asking a
8 hypothetical question that the Court feels uncomfortable
9 answering, I will understand. But is a possible sanction
10 that we could not use the witness statement to impeach, at 11 least in your -

12 THE COURT: That would be a possible sanction,
13 yes. That's one option which seems to be, at least arguably
14 could be sort of directed to the, I mean, the appropriately
15 sharp and precise response to it. But I'm not sure. I mean,
16 I don't know if that is where it would end.

17 MR. WYRSCH: We're just trying to assess our 18 position and talk to the client about it.

19 THE COURT: Quite frankly, Jim, I don't have any
20 idea what I would do.

21 MR. WYRSCH: That's an unfair question.

22 THE COURT: I mean, you know, I don't -- my first 23 reaction would be I would be disappointed, just as 24 disappointed that the order was disobeyed after, you know,
25 the effort we all have gone into to try to fully investigate

304

1 it and give everybody an opportunity to state their
2 positions. But beyond that, I don't have any idea at this
3 point.

4 I do think, though, that in the, that implicit in
5 the omnibus order is a, I think a requirement of good faith
6 on behalf of the lawyers who are implementing it, and I would
7 -- you know, I think if a statement has been taken which if 8 transcribed would comply with, I mean, would be within the 9 definition of Section 3500, I think that the transcript ought
10 to be prepared with all due dispatch because there is this 11 requirement, if my interpretation is correct, to furnish that 12 to the other side.

13 So it would be, it seems to me, inconsistent with 14 that obligation to in any way not make every reasonable
15 effort to get prompt transcription of a, of the stenographic
16 notes or the electronic recording or whatever it is of a
17 statement that would otherwise, that would be covered by 18 Section 3500. But that's about all, Jim, I can tell you.

19 MR. WYRSCH: That's fair.

20 THE COURT: You know, I'm just trying to figure
21 out. But anyway, what I would -- let's do this. And let me
22 just, I'll run this by as a possibility and you all can tell
23 me if you don't like it, what's wrong with it, and then I'll 24 decide whether to make it permanent.

25 But my tentative conclusion is that based, after

1 listening to this discussion, that no later than noon
2 tomorrow, Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Wyrsh, you advise Mr. Becker
3 whether you are going to seek extraordinary relief from the 4 Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals or not. If the decision is
5 not to do so, then I would expect that no later than noon
6 tomorrow the statements that have been transcribed would be 7 turned over and that the, as the others are transcribed, they
8 would be turned over immediately.

9 If the decision is made to seek an extraordinary
10 writ and Mr. Becker is advised of that no later than noon
11 tomorrow, then the defendant is ordered to produce those 12 statements falling within the definition of statement under 13 Section 3500 no later than noon on Monday.

14 Now, the reason for that time schedule is I'm 15 trying to accommodate the various interests involved, and 16 that gives a period of time on Monday which, if that's the 17 only time the court can look at this, they can look at it and 18 make a determination. And also, it seems to me, it should 19 help you in getting their, you know, the court to look at it
20 because noon on Monday is the date compliance is ordered. So
21 they realize that they have a true emergency matter.

22 Now, anybody want to comment about that before I
23 decide whether to make that -

24 MR. WYRSCH: That's pretty close to what we 25 requested, Your Honor.

1 MR. BECKER: It's acceptable to the government,
2 Judge.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Then that is the compliance -
4 by that schedule is the compliance I expect from the 5 defendant with my order and the omnibus order.

6 MR. WYRSCH: Your Honor, just for purposes of 7 completing a record, John feels that because of various 8 things, including the fact that he listed that thing, that he
9 felt like he's not done what he should have for his client
10 and, you know, would want to bring that to the attention of 11 the Court. And I'm not sure, I guess the most drastic thing
12 is to withdraw, but I suppose that's a request under the 13 sixth amendment.

14 So we're making our record, and I know the Court's
15 been most tolerant of us today, but John felt that he wanted
16 to make that request. Is that correct, John?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what is the request?

19 MR. WYRSCH: Well, he feels that he's been -- when 20 I say that, he's concerned about the fact that he listed all
21 other witnesses, and that may constitute ineffective
22 assistance. And he feels that under the sixth amendment
23 maybe he should request the Court to withdraw, and so he's 24 asked me to make that request.

25 THE COURT: Well, is he requesting that I allow him

1 to withdraw, or is he considering it?

2 MR. WYRSCH: Is that correct, John?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to grant the
5 request. I mean, I think I've already said this once
6 already, but I'll say it again. I think that -- I mean, I
7 can't control how Mr. O'Connor views the matter, but I don't
8 view it as a, as a mistake. At the time it was done, I think
9 it was a perfectly reasonable thing to do.

10 Now, it's had consequences which may have been
11 unexpected, of which may not have been foreseen at the time,
12 but I don't think that is, at least based on everything I
13 know, unless there's something I don't know. I don't think 14 that means that Mr. O'Connor has been ineffective or that his 15 performance has been below the standard of other lawyers in 16 similar situations practicing in this court.

17 I mean, I am, as I've already said, I am very 18 impressed by Mr. O'Connor's dedication to the best interests
19 of his client, by the effort he's expended on behalf of his 20 client, by the articulate arguments he has made, and I do not
21 believe that this matter, even though I'm entirely
22 sympathetic with his feelings about it, I mean, I can 23 understand why somebody with his high standards of 24 performance and his dedication to the best interests of his 25 client in hindsight, now, would say that's, that was a

308

1 mistake.

2 But looking at things that lawyers do -- and I'd
3 like to say we lawyers because I consider myself a lawyer.
4 If we looked at our performance with hindsight and allowed
5 ourselves to dwell excessively on what we should have done
6 after we know the result of what we did, most of us would
7 find it very difficult to function because we all constantly,
8 at least I did and I'm sure you all do, too, are constantly
9 assessing after the event whether you could have done
10 anything differently. But it's a little bit of an unfair
11 kind of approach because you know now the result of what
12 appeared to be a reasonable course of action at the time you
13 took it, and it's not very hard at this point with the 14 benefit of that 20/20 vision in hindsight to say, gosh, you
15 know, I should have done something else.

16 But if you look at the time the decision was made
17 and look at it from the considerations then and there known
18 to a lawyer who was making it, it is, it was a perfectly
19 reasonable decision, entirely consistent with practice of 20 lawyers in this court. And so I don't believe that anything
21 has been done here that warrants granting a request to 22 withdraw or, for that matter, would suggest to me that I
23 should agree in any way, shape, or form that something Mr
24 O'Connor has done is legitimately termed ineffective.

25 I mean, the John O'Connor I know performs at the

1

1 highest level of professional excellence, and this doesn't
2 alter my view. He is performing in the very highest way that
3 a lawyer can perform.

4 So again, as my final statement, i fully understand
5 why he would believe differently, and that's a natural result
6 of somebody with his very commendable attitude.

7 MR. WYRSCH: The final, thing, Your Honor, I assume
8 that if, if these are turned over -- when I say if these, I'm 9 sure we will comply with these Court's orders. If we don't
10 seek a writ, I'm sure we'll turn them over.

11 But I assume if the defendants show some additional 12 matters that would, that's caused him prejudice by this
13 circumstance and how the government uses these statements
14 that that, he would feel free to bring them to your attention
15 sometime during the trial if that's acceptable?

16 THE COURT: Certainly. This is -- I mean, it's an 17 open invitation to anybody on anything, that they're free to 18 -- with the only caveat that, I would hope we could find a 19 time to do it that would not interfere or would interfere as 20 little as possible with the orderly presentation of matters
21 in the courtroom. That's not a prohibition against bringing 22 it up. It's just the timing of it. Okay.

23 MR. WYRSCH: I want to know -- the Court has 24 labored under a number of matters today, and I just want to 25 tell you how much we appreciate it. It's now at least 7:30,

1 and I want you to know how much we appreciate the Court's
2 consideration of these matters today. You've been
3 extraordinary in your consideration of these matters. And on 4 behalf of Mr. O'Connor and myself, I want to address that to
5 you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. But I think it deserved the 7 attention that I tried to give it. Mr. O'Connor felt
8 strongly about it and Mr. Wyrsh felt strongly about it, Mr.
9 Becker feels strongly about it, and that, it seems to me, is 10 something that, therefore, I need to pay attention to and not
11 just sort of ignore.

12 Okay. Thank you.

13 (Hearing adjourned at 7:45 p.m.)

3 (The following proceeding were had in chambers in 4 the presence of Judge Bartlett, Judge Stevens' and all
5 counsel' but out of the presence of the defendants'
6 commencing at 8:10 a.m.:)

7 JUDGE BARTLETT: All right. My situation is such 8 that I cannot continue with this case. Last night there was 9 a conference with the Court en banc, and a random draw was 10 conducted to see who would take the case over, and Judge
11 Stevens, name was drawn. So Judge Stevens will take over as 12 judge in this case commencing right now.

13 Now, I want to thank you, I've enjoyed working with 14 you. I'm sorry we couldn't complete this together.

15 Okay, Judge, it's your deal.

16 THE COURT: Okay' Brook.

17 MR. OSGOOD: Judge' we wish you the best.

18 JUDGE BARTLETT: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: If you feel disposed to do so' I
20 wouldn't be adverse to you just hanging around with us a
21 little while this morning as we talk about these issues we're 22 going to talk about, simply because I may need some filling
23 in.

24 JUDGE BARTLETT: Why don't you sit up there at the 25 head of the table so everybody will know -

1 THE COURT: That's not really necessary' so I can
2 see everybody. Staffwise' we're going to start out using
3 some of Judge Bartlett's staff who have been in the case, and
4 Kathy from my quarters will be with me on it, and Libby will 5 be up here, eventually be here to do the reporting simply
6 because we're not going to discombobulate Judge Bartlett's
7 chambers completely, but being in chambers we will be.

8 I've only examined very quickly the critically
9 pending issues, of which I see there are two right now, one
10 being this grand jury testimony issue, and the other being 11 the Jencks issue that I understand is, even as we speak, is 12 in St. Louis; is that right?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: We have a runner taking it down
14 there.

15 THE COURT: Being filed, but he isn't making a
16 presentation to the panel or anything?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: No, sir.

18 MS. HUNT: We were going to notify that it was on 19 its way. We couldn't get anybody over the weekend.

20 THE COURT: So we can't expect a hurry-up ruling
21 from the panel down there, you don't think? It's happened,
22 but I don't think it's going to be in this case.

23 All right. We'll proceed until we hear something
24 to the contrary. I'm going to just -- I'm sorry that I don't
25 have more time to puzzle over it, but I don't really think it

1 would make any difference.

2 I'm going to sustain the defendant's motion to
3 compel production of grand jury testimony. It seems to me
4 it's Brady and that just ought to be produced. And I haven't
5 heard from' I haven't seen or heard any really good
6 explanation of why it isn't Brady. Effective relationship
7 doesn't sell me on -- the fact that some lawyer on one side
8 of the case or the other has concluded that it isn't credible
9 doesn't persuade me, so I'm going to, I'm going to allow
10 that. And also give Judge Bartlett's Instruction No. 5.
11 And, frankly, with the backup thought that it is not an 12 irretrievable error. We will ultimately be instructing the 13 jury, and they will ultimately have the elements that we 14 think the evidence has justified. I want that -- before we 15 start, I want that grand jury -- well, the Brady isn't grand
16 jury.

17 MR. BECKER: It was a grand jury transcript of this 18 fellow Larry Baker that was requested by the defense' and 19 I've provided a copy to the Court for in camera review. I
20 will absolutely give it to them if that's the Court's order
21 by, in fifteen minutes. It's five pages or eight pages or 22 something.

23 THE COURT: Before you do that in fifteen minutes,
24 let us look at it, because I haven't looked at it, to make 25 sure that it comports with what we think ought to be

1 included.

2 MR. BECKER: It's a little late to argue, but I
3 think the Court did review my point that when a witness is 4 fully available' as Mr. Baker is, it seems to be a prime
5 example -- accompanying the defendants' family to the grand
6 jury on multiple occasions, at this point living with the
7 defendants' mother -- that is the classic example of a
8 witness who is fully available to the defense and, thus,
9 anything he would have to say that may be in the possession 10
of the government would not be Brady material.

11 THE COURT: Well, I don't think we need to take
12 time right now. To me, that's credibility and weight
13 argument and not Brady argument. I think that under the law 14 they're entitled at least to look at it. So -- but we will, 15 again, before we rule definitively on that, we would like to 16 have
it. You provide it to Kathy here as soon as you can.

17 MS. HUNT: Judge, the motion also, we believe that
18 that was Brady material, but there's other grand jury
19 witnesses, we have no idea who they are or what their 20 testimony is, that has not been produced. We believe that's 21 probably Brady, too, and we would ask the Court to look at 22 that in camera at some point.

23 THE COURT: How have they been designated if they 24 haven't designated them as witnesses?

25 MR. OSGOOD: Example, Your Honor. There's a

1 witness on your list for this week by the name of Jerry
2 Rooks. Jerry Rooks gives a statement which inculpates two or
3 three of the defendants. He names a fellow named Kerr and
4 two other individuals that supposedly overheard this, and a
5 fellow named Young that was beaten up as a result of talking
6 to the police, as a result of Rooks talking to the police.

7 We have no statements whatsoever of any of these 8 people who allegedly overheard these defendants make 9 admissions to this fellow, Rooks. And in going through the 10 file, I could find none of those. There's nothing from 11 Young, there's nothing from Kerr. I've got to believe that 12 somebody interviewed these people because this is a critical
13 piece of evidence. And what I'm wondering is did they not
14 corroborate what this Rooks says. Rooks is the only witness
15 now' and there's a total absence of any reports on these 16 other people that are at all mentioned prominently in these 17 reports as having overheard what Mr. Rooks is going to 18 testify to.

19 MR. PETERS: If I can jump in, and we're all five
20 different people, but this may be something that if we get it
21 now or we get it five hours from now isn't going to make or 22 break us. And it may be fairer to the judge if he's had a
23 chance to listen to opening statements, start to hear the 24 names of people, and have a better idea as to the importance
25 of these people.

1 MR. OSGOOD: Good point.

2 MR. PETERS: We have an ongoing Brady issue that
3 we've advised you of. But in deference to Judge Stevens -

4 THE COURT: I appreciate that. I'm not unaware
5 that it's there. Can we handle it that way, as far as you're
6 concerned?

7 MR. BECKER: Absolutely. I mean, I've reviewed all
8 of these materials. I know exactly what Mr. Osgood is 9 talking about, and it's not Brady material.

10 THE COURT: If he knew Rooks' name, how is it that 11 you said that you don't know who these witnesses are? You
12 just said you don't know who these witnesses are, then he 13 named the name of one of the grand jury witnesses.

14 MS. HUNT: There was 90 witnesses plus one agent
15 testified in front of the grand jury. I think we've gotten 16 75. We don't know who they are. He's just suspecting there
17 might be somebody else. It's just suspicions because we have 18 no idea who the other people are besides the Larry Baker' the 19 issue that we raised in the motion. And if' frankly' if 20 they're witnesses the government is not using' like Larry
21 Baker' then it makes us suspicious that it's Brady material
22 for us.

23 MR. BECKER: Larry Baker was an alibi witness that
24 volunteered to come forward and testify. As the Court knows'
25 we're not obligated to present exculpatory material to the

1 grand jury, but we did so. using Larry Baker as an example
 2 is not a fair example. He's someone who is the
 3 brother-in-law of the defendants, now lives with the 4 defendants' mother, and volunteered to come forward with sort
 5 of an alibi. The issue is whether or not he actually
 6 testified to an alibi in the grand jury.

7 But that's not a typical witness in this
 8 investigation before the grand jury because he was presented
 9 at the behest of the defendants. I don't believe that
 10 ultimately his testimony is Brady because when he says I
 11 don't remember, it seems to me that's not Brady, and I cited
 12 a couple of cases in my response yesterday to that effect.

13 THE COURT: Because you don't think it's 14 exculpatory?

15 MR. BECKER: Correct. And also' my earlier
 16 argument that here is a classic example of, in many cases
 17 have talked about where a witness is fully available to the 18 defense and has been forever' that is not Brady material.

19 THE COURT: What is your response to that?

20 MS. HUNT: It's a prior statement of a witness
 21 that's on my witness list that I think is Brady material. He 22 told us he was subpoenaed. I don't know because I haven't
 23 seen the transcript. He says he voluntarily came forward.
 24 Mr. Becker tells us he was subpoenaed and forced to testify.

25 MR. BECKER: He was subpoenaed because we were made

1 aware that he had information about the whereabouts of Skip
2 Sheppard on the evening of November 28' 1988. And I knew
3 what that information was. It wasn't something that said, "I
4 knew he was on the top of the hill." It was information that
5 would, say, lead us to believe he was home in bed. But, you
6 know, it was presented and on the record under oath.

7 MS. HUNT: Thatch an alibi statement, from what
8 you're characterizing. I haven't read the transcript. I
9 don't know.

10 MR. BECKER: But you need to look at the cases that 11 talk about witnesses who are fully available to the defense.
12 That information is not Brady within the scope of Brady.

13 THE COURT: All right. We need the material and we 14 need to look at what you've cited to us, neither of which 15 we've been able to do up to this point. But if we can get
16 going' I think it would be -- not right now' but I mean
17 within 30 or 40 minutes' I think it would serve our better
18 purpose to just get started and play this out.

19 I would appreciate' and I realize' as Pat had said'
20 that you have diverse interests, and I don't know to what
21 extent their diversity involves conflicting -- I assume there
22 may be some conflicting interests' I don't know yet. But I
23 would appreciate it if counsel would undertake not to repeat
24 each other one after the other five times on any given
25 objection or any given point being made by the defense.

1 I am disposed, I have had administrative counsel
2 work very effectively, and I realize there's some diversities
3 that might not make it possible to have a full-blown
4 administrative counsel' but I'm going to ask John O'Connor to 5 serve as the quasi administrative counsel here and try to 6 keep this record as abbreviated as possible and try to make
7 it as unconfusing as possible for this jury and for me.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: You haven't been around these guys'
9 then, Judge.

10 THE COURT: Well, I have, and I also know what to 11 do with them if they don't cooperate with me. so I think
12 we'll be able to get along fine. But I just think you all 13 ought to know whenever something comes up that I'm going to 14 be looking at him first. And if he can't handle it for 15 everybody, you all can make your record on that, and we'll go
16 from there.

17 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, there's one other issue
18 that's very important to the collective defense that we 19 talked about and you need to be aware of. We originally 20 filed two motions that were somewhat strung together' a
21 motion for pre-indictment delay, and a motion for -

22 THE COURT: Say that again, a motion for?

23 MR. OSGOOD: Pre-indictment delay, dismissal on the 24 basis of pre-indictment delay, and motion to dismiss on, the 25 motion on the statute of limitations.

1 I haven't seen the order denying for statute of
2 limitations. In front of the magistrate we took the position
3 that eight years created a presumptive prejudice and we
4 shouldn't have to put on any evidence. And alternatively' if
5 we did put on evidence, we're candidly going to put on a
6 fishing expedition. And we wanted to put on Agent True and 7 take off and see where it led us because we didn't have any 8 discovery. It was a closed file. She denied both the 9 motions and, candidly, I was citing speedy trial cases that I
10 was grafting onto the pre-indictment delay theory for the 11 presumptive prejudice.

12 The magistrate denied that motion on the basis of 13 existing Eighth Circuit law and Lovasco, the Supreme Court
14 case, and said we have a two-part burden under that, as you
15 recall. It's prejudice, in fact, and purposeful delay on the 16 part of the government. My point was we can't show that 17 because we didn't have any discovery.

18 After that, on December 24th we got about 3,000
19 pages of discovery. In reviewing that discovery, and I'm 20 still reviewing it, we saw a pattern in our mind that there
21 were police interviews in ,88 and '89. Following those 22 police interviews in '88 and '89' Bryan Sheppard was charged
23 but nobody else was charged.

24 The case laid dormant until almost ,94' ,95, ,96
25 when Agent True went back and got those police reports and,

1 in effect, we contend used those police reports to bootstrap
2 his testimony through ATF interviews, DOL interviews, and
3 then less than a month later, or two, in some instances a
4 little longer, grand jury testimony.

5 So my point to Judge Bartlett was that we had
6 never, obviously, abandoned this and we wanted to revisit
7 it. And Judge Bartlett said at that time, well, we can have 8 a hearing on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, if 9 necessary.

10 Alternatively, we suggested, and Judge Bartlett
11 agreed tentatively, that what we would do is treat it much
12 like a Bell kind of issue on conspiracy, that we would alert
13 the Court as these witnesses testified, very briefly. And 14 the pattern is going to be repetitive and consistent, and 15 we'll be cross-examining with these original police reports
16 and cross-examining with the statements from the agents and 17 the grand jury and laying a foundation for the dates that 18 those events occurred, so it would be very obvious, the 19 pattern. And that at the close of the government's case we 20 were going to ask the Court to then rule as to whether or not
21 we had established our burden under current law, Lovasco,
22 that there had been pre-indictment delay and that it was 23 prejudicial to the defendant.

24 THE COURT: Do you know the names of the 25 witnesses?

1 MR. OSGOOD: It's virtually every witness that's
2 going to testify in the case that pattern existed' Your
3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Let's just assume that that running
5 objection had been made' and we'll deal with it at the
6 appropriate time.

7 MR. OSGOOD: The only thing that might occur is 8 there might be some nuance on it' and we suspect Agent True
9 is going to testify as nearly the last witness in the case.
10 It might be necessary at that time out of the presence of the 11 jury to do a little additional inquiry with him to get at the 12 finality of the issue' but it should go very quickly if we
13 handle it that way. And then at the close of their case' you
14 would make a preponderance of the evidence ruling under the 15 existing law.

16 We're not abandoning our argument that there's
17 presumptive prejudice from eight years, and I want to graft
18 those Supreme Court cases on and say we don't have to show
19 that there was bad motive by the government. If we're 20 prejudiced over the course of this thing substantially, then
21 you ought to dismiss it.

22 THE COURT: Is this an issue that is presented on a
23 unified basis? That is, applies to everybody?

24 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir. I think so.

25 MR. PETERS: What we might be able to agree to is,

1 to aid the Court, we'll keep a running total and we'll -
2 what we'll do is we'll do essentially a proposed findings of
3 fact' conclusions of law to aid the Court at the end, and
4 we'll keep that running. How complete it is depends on how
5 much time we have to type and proofread. But we'll take the 6 responsibility for keeping those findings of fact that we
7 think you'd find in relation to this issue.

8 MR. OSGOOD: Okay. And that's essentially it.

9 THE COURT: All right. Let's do it that way, as 10 you suggested, then, and approach it, deal with it at the 11 appropriate time.

12 MR. PETERS: Two other very brief issues. Four of 13 the five defendants will renew their motion for continuance,
14 no argument. The Court is aware of extensive discussions
15 about our request for a continuance. What has been added is 16 also a part of the record. We've now had the issue of the 17 writ that has consumed three counsel, three days. We don't
18 need an argument. We accept that it will be overruled -
19 denied' I keep forgetting.

20 THE COURT: I intend to rule consistently with the 21 way Judge Bartlett ruled it.

22 MR. PETERS: My understanding' and Judge Bartlett
23 can correct me, we had the issue of the two sealed witnesses
24 or grand jury stuff. Judge Hays had ordered that they be 25 produced. My understanding of the status was that it was

1 under advisement.

2 MR. BECKER: If I may, there was a written order
3 that Mr. O'Connor was going to bring over to you.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: I gave those papers out when
5 everyone was there. You may have looked at the statute of 6 limitations and not the other order.

7 MR. BECKER: There's a written order.

8 THE COURT: Okay? All right.

9 MR. BECKER: Judge' two things. One' here is a
10 copy of that grand jury testimony.

11 Secondly' I don't believe you've met Dan Miller'
12 this is Judge Joseph Stevens. Dan is a Special Assistant
13 united States Attorney. He gets paid by the Jackson County
14 Prosecutor's Office' that's what he really does for a living.

15 THE COURT: You work for my friend Claire, huh?

16 MR. BECKER: That's right. And he will be here and 17 helping present the evidence in the case.

18 MR. MILLER: I met you a year or so ago in Judge
19 Wells' chambers once.

20 THE COURT: That's right. I remember that.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: When the witness comes on' the 22 order, we're going to go by order of indictment unless we say
23 otherwise, and it will be the first person and then back to 24 the order of the indictment when you call on us, so there's 25 not a big jumble as to who is going to -

1 THE COURT: Peters, Hunt, Bunch, O'Connor, Osgood,
2 unless otherwise ordered? This is for cross-examination
3 purposes?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

5 MR. BECKER: As a part of the pretrial orders' the 6 government was ordered to provide a list of the witnesses for 7 the first week in the order they will be appearing. That is
8 a result of my providing that list sometime' I guess last
9 week. I don't recall.

10 THE COURT: These names are, then' in that order,
11 right?

12 MR. BECKER: Yes. The only change would be to 13 delete some -- there may be a deletion, and I've talked to 14 Mr. O'Connor about that.

15 The government is also under a standing order to 16 provide a list of the next day's witnesses. So' for example,
17 this Friday we'll be providing the list of witnesses for 18 Monday, and then I believe the order is at 9 o'clock in the 19 morning, we're to provide the list for 9 o'clock the next
20 morning. And we'll be doing that as we go along.

21 THE COURT: All right. You might read the order.

22 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge. My recollection of 23 the order is that on Friday we would get the witnesses two 24 days in advance. On Monday, Wednesday's witnesses; Tuesday'
25 Thursday's witnesses.

1 THE COURT: You might read the order too. That's a
2 third possibility, but that wasn't what the order said.
3 Neither one of you have hit what the order said. Okay. What 4 time did you have the jury coming in?

5 JUDGE BARTLETT: 9:00.

6 THE COURT: Good. We'll try to be ready to go at 7 that time. No guarantees. But if not' it will be shortly
8 after that. And we appreciate your cooperation in this. I
9 now that you had -- this is not a fun exercise in many 10 respects' but -

11 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor' what do you propose to 12 tell the jury about the change in judges, and the gallery?
13 I'm sure my client, being a suspicious type, is going to 14 wonder whether or not something is happening to him at the 15 last minute, which I think probably some of the relatives
16 will. So I think we need to at least explain briefly that 17 Judge Bartlett is ill or something.

18 THE COURT: That's a detail I haven't discussed
19 with Judge Bartlett, but I'm going to leave it entirely up to 20 him. And whatever he wants said and however he wants it said
21 is the way it's going to be done.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I think we need to tell them a little 23 something to allay the fears of the defendants because 24 they're comfortable with you, quite candidly, right now my 25 client is, and so we need to tell them a little something.

1 JUDGE BARTLETT: I'm prepared to tell them whatever
2 you all think should be told to make certain that they
3 realize that this is not a matter of my choice or of Judge
4 Stevens, choice. He was enjoying his holidays until this
5 call took place. I'll be glad to make -- I mean' I want to 6 make enough of a statement so that it's clear to everybody
7 that this was done in a' after consideration and done in 8 accordance with procedures that we use traditionally in this
9 court for reassigning the case' if necessary' to another
10 judge. I certainly don't want there to be any reasonable
11 basis for any kind of belief that something sinister is going
12 on.

13 MR. OSGOOD: Which there obviously isn't. But you
14 know how defendants sometimes think.

15 JUDGE BARTLETT: I'm very appreciative of that. I
16 certainly -- they've got enough to worry about. I don't want
17 them worrying about this needlessly. But let me talk to 18 Judge Stevens here' and we'll decide how we're going to 19 handle it. I think the jury also deserves an explanation
20 because they haven't seen a great deal of me, but at least
21 they assume I'm -- I mean, I've told them I was going to be
22 the judge, and now I need to introduce Judge Stevens to them
23 so that they feel comfortable with him.

24 MR. PETERS: Along the jury lines, would you expect
25 that the jury will still be able to take notes?

1 THE COURT: I'm going to do the same thing that
 2 Judge Bartlett has -- I've never done it. I mean, I've done
 3 questions and gotten virtually none. But I've never done
 4 note taking. And I have a concern about that' which is the 5 reason I've never done it' but I'm willing to try it and see
 6 how it works. Because I think, I think that the taking of 7 notes gives what that juror remembers was said and puts on it
 8 a certain weight and credibility that it might really not
 9 deserve, particularly if he writes, he or she writes it down
 10 wrong.

11 But we'll go with it. But I do, we will insist
 12 that they leave the -- and this will be something that Kathy
 13 will have to police, but we're going to insist, of course'
 14 that they leave their notes with us each night and not take 15 them home' and not show them to anybody else during the 16 course of the trial.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge' Elena Franco is here' and her
 18 and Susan hunt are trying this together.

19 MS. FRANCO: Good morning' Judge.

20 THE COURT: Good morning. Anybody got anything
 21 else?

22 MR. O'CONNOR: The only thing we were going to 23 discuss among ourselves is Mr. Peters is the only one that's 24 going to make an opening statement, and we may not want you
 25 to discuss if we intend to make one. We may tell you on the

1 record beforehand that we don't intend to make one so you
2 wouldn't need to call on each one of us to make one as if we
3 were going to. I want to talk to the other lawyers to make
4 sure that's all right. So when Mr. Peters is finished, you
5 can tell Mr. Becker if he's ready to go to call his first
6 witness.

7 THE COURT: All of you, maybe Will, I'm not sure
8 we've ever done a start-to-finish combat, but you've been
9 with me enough to know that I really appreciate very brief
10 speeches in the courtroom. Stand up and say the critical
11 basis for the objection. I've been around long enough to 12 know whether it's hearsay or opinion or whatever it is. We

13 don't need to have speeches along those lines.

14 Don't repeat each other, we've been over that. I
15 guess now I'm repeating myself. And I think we'll be all
16 right. So let's try to start as close to 9 o'clock as we can
17 get started. You guys have got some talking to do.

18 The jury is in your jury room, Judge; is that
19 right?

20 JUDGE BARTLETT: Yes. They will be.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: You're saying 'Judge' if we're 22 making an objection to a legal point, if it needs to go
23 beyond that, we need to approach the bench?

24 THE COURT: Yes. The thrust of what I said, too,
25 John' is I want to minimize bench conferences as much as

1 possible because there's nothing more boring than 15 minutes
2 of the lawyers standing around and arguing with the judge and
3 the jury hearing half of what's said. Not enough to know,
4 but enough to know that they want to know the other half.

5 MR. PETERS: Judge, on that point, and I was going
6 to talk to Mr. Becker and Judge Bartlett, I was asked by 7 everybody and was planning in my opening to alert the jury to 8 that component, that we're five individual defendants, but 9 that from time to time to save time, they may see us cluster
10 together to talk, just so that they don't think that we are 11 five, we aren't a solid entity. And I was going to, I was 12 going to say something briefly about that in my opening
13 statement.

14 THE COURT: Make sure it's briefly. They're going
15 to be instructed to that effect in no uncertain terms, both 16 before and after.

17 MR. PETERS: I'll get with Paul and let you know
18 the exact wording of what I was going to do.

19 JUDGE BARTLETT: I've got one more thing. I
20 received a telephone call on Thursday or Friday' and I've 21 forgotten now which day it was, from Judge Whipple. And he 22 was concerned about what he termed as the trashing of his 23 jury room. He believed that it was somebody connected with 24 this case.

25 I told him that I would speak with you all and urge

1 you that if you do use his jury room, you're responsible for
2 keeping it in relatively neat condition.

3 MR. OSGOOD: When was that, Your Honor?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: He came in this morning, Your Honor,
5 and laid down the law just a few minutes ago.

6 THE COURT: He explained that to you?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Yeah. And then slammed the door and 8 left. We got the picture.

9 JUDGE BARTLETT: I guess he didn't have any
10 confidence that I would get the message to you.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: He did.

12 JUDGE BARTLETT: So you have now gotten it.

13 MR. PETERS: We've contacted Merry Maids.

14 THE COURT: Are all of your clients in custody?

15 MR. OSGOOD: Mine is not, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yours is not.

17 MR. PETERS: Richard Brown.

18 (Court and counsel conferred off the record.)

19 JUDGE BARTLETT: Judge, if I could. This is some 20 information on the jury. First of all, with regard to Dana 21 Holst, Alternate No. 1. As you all recall, she works at 22 Research Medical Center in the radiology area, in billing.
23 Last, was it last week?

24 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Friday.

25 JUDGE BARTLETT: Friday she was at work, and one of

1 her fellow employees came up and said they recognized her
2 from the sketch that was done of the jury, and another
3 employee came up and said the same thing, essentially.

4 She told Miss Duer, Miss Holst told Miss Duer that
5 she declined to admit that it was her. She just said she
6 couldn't talk about it' and that ended that subject.

7 Anybody want to say anything to Judge Stevens' any 8 ore about that?

9 All right. The next matter relates to Marsha Boyd'
10 who is Juror No. 4. She told Miss Duer what' her husband
11 mentioned the name?

12 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Her husband.

13 JUDGE BARTLETT: Her husband mentioned that he knew
14 of Ray Stribbling, one of the witnesses that was called
15 during the general voir dire, and that her husband was a
16 friend of a friend of Ray Stribbling's' if it was the same
17 person, and that she recalls the name, and the connection was 18 about 13 years ago that they knew of each other. And she's 19 -- Miss Boyd said she did not know at this time whether or 20 not she would even recognize Ray Stribbling or if he would 21 recognize her' or if it was even the same person.

22 MR. BECKER: For what it's worth, he is on the,
23 what we would call the reserve list.

24 Judge Stevens should be aware, the government filed
25 a long witness list. It's a long story about that, but be

1 that as it may, following that, the list was divided into two
2 lists: Those that we believe actually are going to testify
3 at trial, and those that are on the reserve list or unlikely
4 list or potential list. And Mr. Stribbling is certainly far
5 down the potential list. It's, it's doubtful he'll be called 6 as a witness. But this is a matter that she mentioned during 7 voir dire. This isn't anything new.

8 THE COURT: She did mention it?

9 MR. BUNCH: I believe she did.

10 MR. BECKER: She said she heard of the name, and it
11 was someone that her husband may have known. So that was 12 explored at the time.

13 THE COURT: Did you get the impression, Tina, that 14 she thought this hadn't come up before?

15 COURTROOM DEPUTY: I think -- no' I did not get
16 that impression' but I think she was so overly concerned
17 about it and wanted to be so cautious of it that she wanted
18 to make sure Judge Bartlett had been told about it.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. PETERS: Defendants have no objection or feel
21 no need to question her or make inquiry.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. We'll see you in -

23 MR. PETERS: Before we go. Judge' you had said
24 that we did not correctly state the order. We can go pull
25 ours' or you can -

1 JUDGE BARTLETT: Here it is right here. It's
2 entitled Order Affirming and Modifying Magistrate's Orders
3 land Granting in Part and Denying in Part Defendants' Motions
4 for Continuance filed January 17th. Is this our only copy of 5 it' or can we make more copies of it?

6 MR. BECKER: I'm sure we have copies' Judge. I
7 have copies.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: We do' Judge.

9 JUDGE BARTLETT: But what you all were talking
10 about' the time schedule for revealing the' their witness
11 list' which was all, Judge Stevens, which was all part of the 12 rulings on denying the request for continuance. I instituted
13 various procedures, including requiring the government to 14 give the defendants their first week's witnesses, and then 15 after the first week required that the government reveal the 16 names of its witnesses for the next day at some point.
17 Now, I originally told the parties that it would be 18 After the first week that the government would reveal the 19 Inames of their witnesses at 9 o'clock' no later than 9
20 ~o'clock the day before so that there would be a full 24
21 hours.

22 In this order' I changed that to read as follows:
23 After the first week of trial, the United States shall 24 provide defense counsel with a list of the witnesses it
25 ~ expects to call the next trial day no later than an hour

1 after the completion of the previous day's, previous trial
2 day's testimony.

3 The reason I changed that was because I became 4 concerned practically how it was going to work because the
5 pace with which the trial proceeds, how much progress is made
6 in one trial day obviously affects the next trial day. So it
7 seemed to me that the most accurate information could be
8 furnished to defense counsel after the chose of each trial
9 day as to what they were going to do, who they were going to 10 call the next trial day. So that's why that particular
11 alteration was made in what I had previously stated.

12 THE COURT: Everybody got that in mind?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir.

14 MR. PETERS: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 (A recess was taken. Thereafter, the following
17 proceedings were had in chambers in the presence of Court and 18 counsel, but out of the presence of the defendants:)

19 THE COURT: All right. We want to go on the record
20 here. Our question of the first alternate, alternate No. 1, 21 Ms. Holst.

22 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Walker was excused, and Dana
23 Holst is No. 1.

24 THE COURT: All right. So Holst is 1, Baird is 2,
25 Riead is 3, and the fourth alternate should be Charles F.

1 Morrison.

2 It is my proposal that we ask Mr. Morrison into the
3 courtroom, I think it will have to be done there because I
4 believe all of the defendants should be present when this
5 inquiry takes place, and simply tell him that he has been
6 selected as the fourth alternate in the case, and is there
7 any reason why he cannot, any serious reason why he cannot 8 serve.

9 And we'll evaluate his reason, if he has one. I
10 will then give' I will then -- well, I will give him the 11 opportunity to say why he can't serve' and I think that's 12 what we'll do' unless somebody has a problem with this.

13 MR. OSGOOD: The issue that we raised as to when he 14 was contacted, there was an article in Monday's paper, rather 15 big front page -- Monday, yeah, yesterday, a full-page
16 spread. And we were concerned when we discussed this problem
17 that he be instructed not to read the paper, that he was 18 going to continue to be a juror.

19 COURTROOM DEPUTY: I believe that Sue contacted him
20 at some point on Thursday and did suggest to him not to read
21 anything or listen to anything about the case.

22 MR. OSGOOD: That's fine, then.

23 MR. PETERS: And without having a chance to talk to 24 counsel, given we're talking about taking this guy into now a
25 packed courtroom' how about, could we agree that the Court

1 ask him here and we would agree to that, waive our clients
2 hearing it?

3 I'm just thinking this juror is going to be walking
4 out in an environment that's going to be kind of 5 frightening. And we have no reason to think that he's -

6 THE COURT: I don't like that either' but I don't
7 like an examination -- I don't like doing anything important
8 in the case outside the presence of the defendants. That's 9 the reason I -- and this room isn't big enough for everybody
10 to be in here, I don't think. Does anybody think we could 11 squeeze them in here?

12 MS. FRANCO: We had them in here for individual
13 voir dire.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: For as short as it would be' they 15 could sit and we could stand.

16 MR. OSGOOD: Sure.

17 THE COURT: I would rather do that than have that 18 fellow stand in there in front of all of those firemen and 19 family members and whatever. All right. Let's do it that 20 way' then. Get your clients in here.

21 You all' we've got another issue' and I'm not sure
22 whether it was discussed with you last week or not. But we 23 have the question of smokers on the jury and nonsmokers on 24 the jury and concerns with secondhand smoke and that sort of 25 thing. And we're going to have Judge Fenner's jury room

1 available to the smokers and tell them they can take an
2 occasional break with the admonition that' of course, that
3 they do not discuss the case while they're on the breaks and 4 then return and deliberate only when all 12 are there.

5 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor' it crossed my mind after 6 we left the first session. You said you were going to 7 instruct them not to discuss their notes with anyone. That
8 might be a little ambiguous. They might take that to mean
9 outside the jury room. It's consistent until it's over.

10 THE COURT: That's right. until they've had the 11 full instructions of the Court and they've been instructed
12 that they can talk about the case among themselves.

13 MR. OSGOOD: So their notes should be secured as if 14 they're locked in their memory among themselves.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 (The following proceedings were had in chambers in 17 the presence of the defendants:)

18 THE COURT: Do you want to maybe give the -- we've 19 changed our format here and have these folks in here. Do you
20 want to indicate to them what's going to happen' or do you
21 want to still do it out in the courtroom?

22 JUDGE BARTLETT: No, no, this would be fine.

23 Folks, due to a health problem which requires I
24 receive some treatment of an unknown nature and to an unknown
25 extent at this point, which in my judgment would undoubtedly

1 interfere with my ability to preside over this case, I
2 advised as many of the judges on the court as I could find
3 for a telephone conference, which was all but two, three, all
4 but three, of what the situation was.

5 With the unanimous consent of all the judges, a
6 random drawing was conducted in which all the judges' names
7 were put into the pot, and the Clerk of the Court drew out
8 one name' and Judge Stevens, who is the person who was just 9 speaking, his name was drawn. So he is going to be the judge
10 presiding over the case.

11 I wanted you all to know that and to know that
12 absent a very unusual situation, there would not have been a
13 change of judge and that the procedure for doing it, for 14 selecting the judge was the procedure that we use
15 traditionally in this court when a case has been reassigned
16 to another judge. In other words, the cases are assigned at 17 random when the indictment is returned, and if there has to 18 be a change of judge, they are reassigned by random draw, and 19 that's what happened here. Okay. Thank you.

20 If you or your attorneys have any questions, I
21 would be glad to answer.

22 THE COURT: I was going to give them the 23 opportunity -- do you have any record you want to make on 24 that statement by Judge Bartlett?

25 DEFENDANT DARLENE EDWARDS: I wish you well, Judge.

1 MR. PETERS: Judge Bartlett, just so you know,
2 that's what my client just leaned over to tell me.

3 THE COURT: What's that?

4 MR. PETERS: Darlene wished him well' we've been
5 with him quite a bit. My clients were instructed not to 6 speak.

7 JUDGE BARTLETT: Thank you all. And I wish you' I
8 wish you good luck.

9 MR. PETERS: Judge' real briefly because we're
10 going to be out there in a minute. Why don't the five
11 defendants say your name to the judge so he can put a name
12 with a face.

13 DEFENDANT GEORGE FRANK SHEPPARD: Judge Stevens'
14 I'm George Frank Sheppard.

15 DEFENDANT RICHARD BROWN: I'm Richard Brown, Mr.
16 Stevens.

17 DEFENDANT EARL SHEPPARD: I'm Earl Dean Skip
18 Sheppard, Judge.

19 DEFENDANT BRYAN SHEPPARD: Bryan Sheppard.

20 DEFENDANT DARLENE EDWARDS: I'm Darlene, of 21 course. You probably figured that one out.

22 THE COURT: That one wasn't too hard.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I have another matter about 24 the opening statements. Since Mr. Peters is making one, I am
25 going to reserve on behalf of Bryan Sheppard my opening

1 statement, so I would request the Court not call on me after
2 Mr. Peters finishes, that we would just go back to Mr. Becker
3 to call his first witness.

4 MR. OSGOOD: Same on behalf of Defendant Brown,
5 Your Honor.

6 MS. HUNT: Again, on behalf of Skip Sheppard, Your
7 Honor.

8 MR. BUNCH: Same on behalf of Darlene Edwards.

9 THE COURT: So the only opening statement we'll 10 have will be by Mr. Peters? That is, at the beginning of the 11 case will be by Mr. Peters on behalf of George Frank
12 Sheppard, and I'll not, I'll simply not say anything about 13 the fact that there's a reservation or a waiver by the other
14 people, and you do what's appropriate at the beginning' then'
15 of the defendant's case as far as your remaining right to 16 make opening statement.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes' sir. And then as to -- I think 18 Mr. Becker may have an exhibit that he's going to refer to on 19 the opening statement which is kind of where we can't see 20 it. And since Mr. Peters is the only one that's going to 21 make an opening, do you mind if he moves over there to look
22 at that while he's talking?

23 THE COURT: Absolutely not. That's fine.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all we have.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Becker, anything?

1 MR. BECKER: No, Judge, we're ready.

2 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to work.

3 (The following proceedings were had in the 4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury' but in the 5 presence of Alternate Juror Charles Morrison.)

6 THE COURT: Hi, Mr. Morrison, I'm Judge Joe
7 Stevens.

8 ALTERNATE JUROR CHARLES MORRISON: Glad to know
9 you, sir.

10 THE COURT: I'm going to be trying this case. You
11 have been selected as the fourth alternate in this case.

12 ALTERNATE juror CHARLES MORRISON: Okay.

13 THE COURT: I'm sure you probably understand this,
14 but I'll tell you' the only responsibility you have is to 15 listen, be here and listen and be prepared to sit as a juror
16 if that becomes necessary. Is that agreeable with you?

17 ALTERNATE juror CHARLES MORRISON: That's fine.

18 THE COURT: Then do you know where the jury room
19 is' do you know where the jurors are?

20 ALTERNATE juror CHARLES MORRISON: Not from here, I
21 don't.

22 THE COURT: Will you show him to where the jurors
23 are? And we'll be calling you all to get started here very 24 promptly. Thank you' Mr. Morrison.

25 ALTERNATE Juror CHARLES MORRISON: Okay. Thank

1 you.

2 MR. PETERS: Do we want to ask any follow-up as to
3 whether or not by chance he's heard anything since he last
4 talked to the Court?

5 THE COURT: We can do that' if you want to. Did
6 you read or see or listen to' hear anything about this case
7 over the weekend?

8 ALTERNATE Juror CHARLES MORRISON: The only thing I
9 heard was they was going to trial today. That was on the 10 news last night' and that was it.

11 THE COURT: And you knew that already.

12 ALTERNATE Juror CHARLES MORRISON: Yeah' I already 13 knew that.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Morrison. If 15 you'll join the jury, we'll call you in a few minutes.

16 (Alternate Juror Charles Morrison left the 17 courtroom.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

19 MR. O'CONNOR: No, sir.

20 THE COURT: Fine. I think we'll get going on 21 this. It's ten to 10:00. We certainly ought to get openings
22 done by noon.

23 And I will tell these people, I didn't while we 24 were in there, but I'll tell these people the schedule

I

25 intend to keep' which is basically the one that Judge

1 Bartlett has already indicated to you: 9:00 to 12:00 with a
2 15-minute break in the morning' and 1:00 or 1:30' depending
3 on what has to be done over the noon hour, until 4:30 or
4 5:00, again, depending on what has to be done in the evening,
5 with a 15-minute break during the afternoon. We will work
6 four-day weeks after this week. This week will be a
7 three-and-a-half-day week. We'll work Friday morning until 8 noon or 1 o'clock, and then break for the rest of the day.
9 And then after this week, we'll work Monday through Thursday
10 and take Friday off. Anybody got any problems with that?

11 DEFENDANT EARL SHEPPARD: No' I think I can make
12 it.

13 THE COURT: We'll look forward to it. Okay. Thank 14 you all.

15 All right. Anything before we bring the jury in,
16 ladies and gentlemen? All right. Bring in the jury, if you
17 would, please.

18 (The following proceedings were had in the
19 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

20 THE COURT: The explanation I'm about to make has 21 already been made to the members of the jury and to the 22 parties and their counsel.

23 To the rest of you' I say that by reason of health
24 concerns, which must be dealt with immediately, Judge
25 Bartlett has concluded that he would not be able to give an

1 appropriate amount of time and energy to the management of
2 this case and, therefore, has recused himself from it.

3 In a meeting of the court last night' the usual
4 system of drawing' of a random draw for a substitute or 5 successor judge was followed, and my name' and my name is
6 Judge Joe Stevens, my name was drawn, and I will be the judge
7 presiding in this case.

8 of course' we all wish Judge Bartlett well' and we 9 will proceed' being the beneficiaries of his good work up to 10 this point.

11 Now' Miss Duer' would you please swear the jury?

12 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Will the jury please stand and 13 raise your right hand' and I will administer the following
14 oath.

15 (The jury was sworn by Tina Duer' Courtroom 16 Deputy.)

17 THE COURT: I will explain to you that during the 18 case' my staff will be present from time to time and working 19 on the case' and it may very well be that parts or all of 20 Judge Bartlett's staff will also be present during the case.
21 You've seen those functions of Judge Bartlett.

22 Miss Geller is here on the other side of the 23 courtroom. She is my law clerk who will be principally
24 responsible for this case' and eventually Miss Sheehan will 25 be here serving as the courtroom deputy.

1 Now, is the government ready to proceed?

2 MR. BECKER: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Are the defendants ready to proceed?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right, then, Mr. Becker, you may
6 open.

7 MR. BECKER: Judge, I'm ready to open. I thought
8 you were going to give some preliminary instructions to the
9 jury.

10 THE COURT: Well, I guess I should do that prior to 11 opening.

12 All right. I'm going to give you now some initial 13 instructions about this case and about your duties as 14 jurors. At the end of trial' I'll give you further
15 instructions. I may also give you instructions during the 16 trial. Unless I specifically tell you otherwise' all
17 instructions' both those -- Miss Geller is going to pass out
18 the instructions to you as I proceed. And I'm on Page 1 of 19 No. 1.

20 Unless I specifically tell you otherwise, all
21 instructions, both those I give you now and those I give you
22 later, are binding on you and must be followed.

23 (The preliminary instructions were read by the 24 Court.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Becker, you may open

1 for the government.

2 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

3 Your Honor, ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. BECKER: Good morning. My name is Paul Becker,
6 this is Dan Miller. We're Assistant United States Attorneys,
7 and it is our privilege to represent the United States of 8 America in this case, The United States of America vs. George
9 Frank Sheppard, Earl Skip Sheppard, Darlene Edwards' Bryan
10 Sheppard' and Richard Brown.

11 We will be presenting the evidence to you over the 12 next two and a half weeks on behalf of the government.
13 Assisting in that and sitting here throughout the trial will 14 be Dave True. He was introduced at' I believe in voir dire,
15 and he is a 28-year veteran of law enforcement and is a
16 special agent with the Bureau of Alcohol' Tobacco' and 17 Firearms. Also assisting is a paralegal in my office, Sharon
18 Hutsler, who will ensure that Dan and I have witnesses to put 19 on the witness stand to keep this process going.

20 The defendants in this case are all related in some 21 regard. The defendants are, second chair over there, that's 22 Frank Sheppard, and then seated behind Agent True is Skip
23 Sheppard' and then at the first table, Darlene Edwards, and 24 over there is Bryan Sheppard, and then finally Richard 25 Brown. Thank you.

1 Frank Sheppard, as he is called -- his name is
2 George Frank Sheppard, but throughout the trial he'll be
3 referred to as Frank Sheppard -- and Skip Sheppard are 4 brothers. Bryan Sheppard is their nephew. He is the son of 5 Jack Sheppard and Virginia Sheppard. Darlene Edwards at the 6 time of this crime in 1988 was the girlfriend of Frank
7 Sheppard. And finally' Richard Brown was the best friend of 8 Bryan Sheppard throughout this time period.

9 The purpose of an opening statement by the 10 government, as briefly referred to by Judge Stevens' is to 11 give me an opportunity to outline the government's case for 12 you, to give you a road map to the government's case so that 13 when you hear testimony from the witness stand, when you see 14 exhibits placed in evidence, you have some idea where that 15 fits in the overall picture of the case. So that's what I
16 will be doing for the next half an hour, I hope, is briefly
17 reviewing the charge against these defendants, reviewing what 18 the evidence will show as to what happened in this case, and 19 then finally outlining for you how the government will prove 20 beyond a reasonable doubt, how they will prove what happened,
21 how we will prove this charge.

22 The charge in the case is a single, one charge
23 against all five defendants, and the Court has gone ahead and 24 given you the elements of that, and I think that will be most 25 helpful to you, and so I won't repeat any of that. You now

1 have what the factors are, what things you have to think
2 about to, what adds up to this charge.

3 And there's two different parts of this charge.
4 Let me read it for you, the one charge in the indictment.

5 On or about November 29, 1988, in the Western
6 District-of Missouri, the defendants' George Frank Sheppard,
7 Earl D. Skip Sheppard, Darlene Edwards, Bryan Sheppard,
8 Richard Brown, and others known and unknown to the grand
9 jury' maliciously damaged and destroyed by means of fire and 10 explosive materials vehicles and other personal property' to 11 wit: tractor trailers containing ammonium nitrate, used in 12 an activity affecting interstate commerce, and, as a direct
13 and proximate result of the defendants' conduct, death
14 resulted to James Kilventon, Robert McKarnin, Michael Oldham,
15 Gerald Halloran, Thomas Fry, and Luther Hurd, who were Kansas
16 City' Missouri' Fire Department firefighters performing their 17 duties. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
18 Section 844 and Section 2.

19 And I won't talk any more about Section 2 because 20 the judge gave you that. That is aiding and abetting. And 21 the judge' again' gave you two separate instructions' the 22 instruction about the arson, and then the instruction about 23 what aiding and abetting, assisting one another and the 24 consequences of that in federal law.

25 What happened? What happened that led to us being

1 here in federal court? In the early morning hours of 2 November 29, 1988, somewhere in the vicinity of 3 a.m., these
3 five defendants drove several vehicles to a construction site
4 located on the south side of Kansas City, Missouri. This
5 construction site, as listed here on Government's Exhibit 1,
6 was a federal' a highway project, 71 Highway being extended
7 from the south to the north in Kansas City, Missouri.

8 This particular -- at this particular time in 9 November of 1988, the work was being done in the area where 10 87th Street joined 71 Highway and Blue River Road came 11 across, and the Blue River' just south of the Blue River in 12 Kansas City' Missouri, is where the work was being done in
13 November of 1988.

14 As you can see, the defendants here, and there will 15 be testimony, all lived most of their entire lives in the 16 very close neighborhood nearby. That neighborhood as 17 depicted in this little box down here is the Marlborough
18 section of Kansas City' Missouri' roughly between 75th Street
19 up here and just a little bit south of 85th Street down here'
20 from Troost on the west to over towards 71 Highway on the 21 east. All of the defendants lived in that neighborhood.

22 So in the early morning hours, around 3 o'clock in 23 the morning, these defendants came from their homes in the 24 Marlborough section of Kansas City up to this construction
25 site. Their purpose and their motive at that time was simple

1 and basic. To steal. They were going to steal from the
2 construction site tools, batteries, walkie-talkies, dynamite;
3 frankly, anything that was not nailed down up on that 4 construction site. Their purpose and motive in stealing was 5 to get money to buy drugs. It's no more complex than that.

6 The defendants set fire to a tractor trailer up on 7 that construction site to cover up their crime, and later
8 they will say to serve as a diversion for the security guards
9 who were on the site. The defendants also set that fire, the 10 evidence will be, purely out of meanness, out of being
11 ornery, that they were unsuccessful in their thieving
12 attempts. The defendants also set a separate fire across the 13 highway in the guard's pickup truck that had been left
14 unguarded at that site.

15 The guards, who you will hear testimony from today,
16 were located -- and I'm now referring to Government's Exhibit
17 5 -- were located and on patrol, were supposed to be on 18 patrol here on the east side of the highway, as well as on 19 the west side of the highway guarding construction equipment
20 that was there overnight.

21 Sometime after 3 o'clock at approximately 3:20,
22 3:30, one of the guards saw activity in the area of office
23 trailers that were located between the two sides of 71
24 Highway. The guards pulled out from their, the place where 25 they were sitting on the west side of the highway and

1 proceeded north on 71 Highway, looking for the two people
2 that one of them had seen.

3 When they found no one, they went on up to the
4 QuikTrip that's located just on the other side of the Blue
5 River and got a snack. It was the middle of the night on 6 November 29' and it was cold' and they just got something to 7 eat.

8 While there' they were informed by the manager that
9 someone had spotted a fire down on the construction site.
10 And they raced back' and they saw the guard's pickup truck on 11 fire. Here is where we begin to have exact times because 12 prior to that no one was looking at their watch in order to 13 determine when the ordinary events of that night were.

14 At 3:40, the security guard, Robert Riggs, using a
15 mobile phone, whatever they had back in 1988, called the fire
16 department to report the truck fire. He also reported
17 another fire that was visible on the other side of the 18 construction site; that is, up in this area where it's marked
19 craters.

20 The dispatcher for the fire department called out
21 Pumper 41. Pumper 41 left Bannister Road firehouse with 22 Captain Kilventon, Firefighters Michael Oldham and Robert
23 McKarnin, and arrived on the scene shortly thereafter and 24 started to put out the pickup truck fire.

25 At that time, across the highway flames could be

1 seen coming from the ridge. You'll hear that that ridge
2 because it was raised was not visible from where the guards 3 had previously been sitting for about an hour, leaving that 4 other area here up on the hill unguarded.

5 Another call was sent out, Pumper 30 left the 6 firehouse at 75th and Prospect with Captain Halloran and 7 Firefighters Luther Hurd and Thomas Fry.

8 At approximately 4:02, both of those pumpers were 9 now up on the hill, up on the east side of the construction
10 site, and you'll hear that they were attempting to put out a 11 fire in one of two construction trailers that were on the 12 site, the back side of a tractor trailer, the trailer part, 13 and that those -- and then that the firemen were attempting 14 to put out a raging fire in one of those trailers.

15 The security guards followed them up the hill and 16 stayed some distance back because the terrain was so rough
17 that their car couldn't advance into the area where the 18 pumpers had gone.

19 At that time, the battalion chief arrived, and he's 20 the man that's responsible for that sector of town, and he 21 arrived on the scene. And as he arrived on the scene and was 22 informed by the guards that those trailers may contain
23 explosives, he tried to pull the men back, but at 4:08 a.m. 24
on November 29, 1988, that trailer exploded. Approximately 25
25,000 pounds of ammonium nitrate/fuel oil, ANFO, exploded.

1 This you will hear was approximately, approximately five
2 times bigger than the explosion in Oklahoma City.

3 That explosion disintegrated Pumper 41. A fire, a
4 huge firetruck was disintegrated. Captain Halloran, Captain
5 Kilventon, Firefighters Luther Hurd, Thomas Fry, Michael
6 Oldham, and Robert McKarnin were killed instantly.

7 All of the firefighters remaining on the scene were
8 pulled back' pulled down south to Bannister Road because now
9 a second trailer was visible and clearly also engulfed in 10 flames.

11 Forty minutes later at 4:48 a.m., the second
12 trailer exploded, this one containing approximately 30,000
13 pounds of ANFO, ammonium nitrate/fuel oil' but no further
14 loss of life or injury was sustained because the fire
15 department and the police department and everyone had pulled 16 back.

17 That's what happened. That's what this tragedy'
18 what happened on the early morning hours of November 29,
19 1988.

20 Now, how will the government prove this to you
21 beyond a reasonable doubt?

22 First of all, as you can see in Government's 23 Exhibit 5 here' this aerial photograph of the scene, the 24 government -- and as I sort of alluded to in voir dire, there
25 are no eye witnesses. No one was out for a stroll that night

1 in this area of woods and construction. No one lived in that
2 area. There were no businesses other than all the way up
3 here at the QuikTrip. So there will not be testimony from 4 any witness that they saw anyone light a match.

5 There is no physical evidence in this case. There
6 were two tremendous explosions, and we have some debris that
7 was a result of those explosions, but no physical evidence
8 that ties these defendants to the crime. There's no
9 fingerprints' there's no blood droplets and DNA. There are 10 no bloody gloves.

11 So what, what are you going to see for the next two 12 and a half weeks? What is the evidence? The primary 13 evidence in this case against these defendants, how the 14 government will prove the case is admissions and confessions
15 by these defendants. This isn't hearsay, this is words, if 16 you will, words right out of the horses, mouths.

17 Each of these defendants over the last eight years
18 has been unable to keep their mouth shut. Each of these 19 defendants told multiple persons on multiple occasions that 20 they did it, that they went up to this site in order to 21 steal, and that when they were frustrated and wanted to cover
22 up their tracks, they set this fire.

23 The first part of the trial, today and I guess
24 tomorrow, will be focusing on the what-happened so that we're
25 all comfortable with the construction, the construction site,

1 the time of these events as testified to by the dispatcher,
2 and also, then, the fire department personnel who, the
3 security guards and the fire department personnel who saw
4 this terrible explosion.

5 You will also hear testimony this week from an
6 expert witness, Cliff Lund from the Bureau of Alcohol'
7 Tobacco' and Firearms, who is an explosives expert and will
8 attempt to explain to me and to all of you why it is a
9 trailer full of ammonium nitrate/fuel oil, why that would
10 explode.

11 Then we will get to the testimony of whodunit. You
12 will hear a dozen witnesses testify that Frank Sheppard told
13 them he did it. These are friends of Frank Sheppard's,
14 friends of his family, criminal associates of Frank
15 Sheppard. They're not all the same, we've got friends, we've 16 got family friends, and we've got criminal associates. They 17 range from people who are ordinary citizens to people who
18 were cellmates of Frank Sheppard.

19 What Frank Sheppard said to all of these 20 individuals is that he did it with other people, they went 21 there to steal, they set the fire, he has no remorse, and 22 that the firemen were stupid for going up there.

23 You will hear testimony from six witnesses who 24 heard Skip Sheppard say he did it. These are six separate
25 witnesses from the twelve who heard Frank Sheppard admit it.

1 Now, you will see, and as obvious from their family
2 relationships, on many of these occasions, when Frank
3 Sheppard is saying, "I did it," Skip Sheppard is also present
4 and is part of that admission. So it's not twelve here' six
5 here. There are twelve here' and six here' but some of them
6 also mention both people.

7 The separate witnesses' again' Skip Sheppard' are 8 the same as the type of people that will testify against 9 Frank Sheppard. Family friends' friends of Skip' people who 10 he's done crimes with' people he shared a jail cell with.

11 There will be eight witnesses who will testify that 12 Darlene Edwards admitted participating in this crime. They 13 are friends of hers from the Marlborough neighborhood, people
14 she sold drugs to in the Marlborough neighborhood, people she 15 shared a jail cell with over the last several years.

16 Importantly with Darlene Edwards and different from 17 the others is that she gave a tape-recorded statement to 18 Agent Harry Lett of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco' and 19 Firearms on February 19, 1995.

20 Now, you will hear that statement, you will hear it
21 played, actually sometime next week, and you will be able to 22 hear that for yourselves.

23 Just briefly, the substance of it is that she gave 24 a ride to other people to get gas at the QuikTrip and that 25 they were going to go up to the site to steal, and using the

1 gas to set fires as a diversion.

2 You will hear ten witnesses testify that Bryan
3 Sheppard told them he did it. Again, there's a similar
4 situation here. These witnesses' many of them, heard Bryan
5 Sheppard admit this when Richard Brown is also present. When
6 Bryan Sheppard is out on the street during this last decade,
7 frankly, he's typically in the company of Richard Brown.

8 The witnesses will testify that Bryan Sheppard said
9 he went up there to steal and to set fires as a diversion for 10 his stealing. These witnesses range from former girlfriends,
11 cellmates' and persons who knew him at Center High School.

12 Finally' you will hear fifteen witnesses' fifteen
13 separate witnesses who heard Richard Brown say he did it,
14 that he set the fire to the trailer with others, while going
15 up on the construction site to steal. He also admitted to an 16 individual that they had set the guard's pickup truck on 17 fire' as well. He said they were going up there to steal and 18 to steal dynamite that they were going to be able to sell to 19 someone else. Again' in many of the admissions that Richard 20 Brown makes' he states we did it, and the we is Bryan and 21 Richard standing right there.

22 Finally' you're going to hear testimony from 23 witnesses' I call them the witnesses to events. They saw
24 something that's significant in this case. Again' it's not 25 somebody lighting a match' but they saw things that are part

1 of this case.

2 You will hear witnesses testify that they heard
3 these five defendants' individually and together' ask them to 4 go steal from construction sites. You will hear witnesses
5 who will testify that they saw the defendants out on the 6 streets of Marlborough well after midnight in the early
7 morning hours of November 29' 1988, the one, in fact, near 8 that 7-Eleven store on Government's Exhibit 1, when the 9 defendants claim they were somewhere else and not out on the 10 streets of Marlborough.

11 You will hear a witness testify that he observed
12 Skip Sheppard being dropped off at his brother-in-law's house
13 here, Larry Baker, by a black pickup truck after the first
14 explosion.

15 We will present testimony of witnesses who saw
16 Bryan Sheppard and Richard Brown together in the early
17 morning hours after this explosion; people who saw, a person
18 who saw the two of them together at Richard Brown's brother's
19 apartment; people who saw them, a woman who saw them together
20 as they visited her at her house, all while the defendants
21 have claimed to be elsewhere.

22 Finally, we will hear testimony from Special Agent
23 True about this investigation, about not so much the crime
24 because you will know all about it by then, but how it is 25 that all of the evidence in this case was examined, gathered,

1 sifted, followed up, over the last eight years. Obviously,
2 this is an unusual case. It's unusual because of the
3 magnitude of the tragedy and unusual because it's taken them
4 so long to come to you.

5 You will hear testimony that the federal
6 government' the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms and
7 the Department of Labor, started out in this investigation
8 and that they investigated whether or not organized labor was 9 responsible for this crime. And they spent years doing
10 that.

11 On the other hand, you're going to hear that the 12 Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department focused on persons
13 from the Marlborough area and that Bryan Sheppard was 14 originally charged in 1989 but that charge -

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to object. Can we 16 approach the bench' please?

17 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
18 proceedings were had:)

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge' I would object. Mr. Becker
20 has told this jury that my client was charged in 1989. I
21 think that is highly prejudicial. There's no place in this 22 court for that testimony or that evidence' that I know of.
23 It's so prejudicial I think that the defendant -- on behalf
24 of Bryan Sheppard' I have to move for a mistrial at this
25 time.

1 THE COURT: What's your purpose?

2 MR. BECKER: I was about to say that the charges
3 were soon dismissed for lack of evidence. Mr. O'Connor had
4 earlier indicated that he was going to bring this up in voir
5 dire' and certainly there will be witnesses that refer to it
6 in the context of their conversations with Bryan Sheppard
7 after he is released in that case. It's going to be part of 8 the evidence.

9 THE COURT: Well' you be sure and give the 10 disclaimer' and the motion for a mistrial is denied. The 11 objection is overruled.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you' sir.

13 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

14 MR. BECKER: The charges against Bryan Sheppard
15 were soon dismissed for lack of evidence.

16 The investigation continued until by late 1994
17 Agent True' the fire department' the bomb and arson squad are 18 still investigating' but there are no further leads to 19 investigate. They've run out. They've run everything down.

20 At that time, you'll hear that an effort was made
21 to get one more shot at this and that the TV show Unsolved
22 Mysteries presented this case as Kansas City's unsolved
23 mystery, and that after that, which was February of 1995,
24 that generated new information that Agent True and Gene
25 Schram from the Department of Labor and Officer Jerry Ludwig

1 from the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department followed up
2 on and gathered evidence.

3 And when they talked to individuals, they would
4 seek to corroborate their testimony. So if an inmate said,
5 "I was in jail with one of the defendants," they'd get the 6 records, and you'll see the records that these folks were in
7 jail together at the same time. They have done everything
8 possible to gather that evidence together to present to you.

9 So here we are in federal court in the Western
10 District of Missouri. Over the next two and a half weeks'
11 Dan Miller and I will be presenting the evidence to you' and 12 based on the evidence' you will decide whether or not these 13 five defendants are guilty of this terrible crime.

14 Thank you.

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Peters' do you wish to 16 open?

17 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Peters.

19 MR. PETERS: Counsel. Good morning, ladies and 20 gentlemen. We've talked before' I'm Pat Peters representing 21 Frank Sheppard, and we've all heard that in any great
22 controversy' there are two sides to the story. And in this
23 great controversy' it's my honor to present to you the other
24 side of the story.

25 Now' you've heard Judge Stevens instruct you on the

1 law' that the way it's going to work throughout this trial,
2 because the burden is on the government, they're going to go
3 first. They'll call the witnesses. But you also know there
4 are five attorneys, six attorneys representing five clients
5 who will cross-examine those witnesses. You also know that 6 at the conclusion of the government's case' there will be
7 more evidence.

8 The evidence in this case will show you that for 9 each and every defendant' circumstances explain they were not 10 at the scene of the crime, they were not involved with this 11 terrible, terrible tragedy. And that for each of these 12 defendants, those explanations include eye witness
13 testimony. So I trust that as we go through this case,
14 you'll keep your mind open and wait for cross-examination and 15 wait until you've heard at last all of the story.

16 A brief housekeeping thing I want to let you know
17 about. We have five defendants. Each defendant is entitled
18 to be tried and viewed by you separately. But you've noticed
19 we' the attorneys are going to gather together. You now know
20 that all five of the defendants have known each other' some 21 of them are related. So from time to time, you're going to 22 see the attorneys cluster together, and I just want to let 23 you know, it's to try to save time.

24 Instead of -- you just saw an example. All five
25 attorneys could have made an objection. And objections are,

1 you know, an attorney doing his job. But in agreement with
2 Court and counsel, we're going to try to cluster together so
3 that we don't draw this out any longer than it needs to. And 4 we appreciate your understanding that.

5 What I'm going to do in this opening statement is 6 outline for you the evidence that I believe you're going to
7 hear in this case. And as you'll get familiar with me' I
8 usually tell you where I'm going before I go' and I'm going
9 to do it now. I'm going to talk about the Marlborough
10 neighborhood, and then I'm going to talk about this 11 construction site, and then we're going to talk about the 12 explosion, and then we're going to talk about the 13 investigation.

14 As Mr. Becker has shown you with the exhibits -
15 and I'll also tell you that if an is exhibit offered by the 16 government or offered by the defendant, it doesn't matter who 17 offers it. Because the government goes first, almost all the 18 exhibits will be government exhibits.

19 Now, he showed you the diagram of the Marlborough
20 neighborhood, but we know many of you aren't from Kansas
21 City. Marlborough' if you think of Kansas City, I-70 cuts
22 across the middle, and there's a big circle that goes around
23 I-70 called 435. And for the last 20 years, everybody has 24 thought we need a highway to go up the middle so that you
25 don't have to take this loop around the city if you want to

1 go downtown. Those who live here know what we're talking
2 about.

3 This project began in the Marlborough
4 neighborhood. The project that you're going to hear about is
5 the Bruce R. Watkins Memorial Drive' a $200 million project.
6 And it started at the south end of the city by 435 and Old
7 U.S. 71' and that was where they were going to be doing a lot
8 of blasting. And you'll probably hear testimony' as you
9 drive down the highway and the highway is raised up' where 10 does the rock come from? Well' the rock is going to be 11 coming from this site, and that's why they're going to be 12 doing blasting, and that site is the middle of the 13 Marlborough neighborhood.

14 You'll see in the diagrams that the Marlborough
15 neighborhood is a working class neighborhood, surrounded by 16 Old U.S. Highway 71. Light industry growing up around U.S.
17 71 that largely moves away when we have the interstate 18 system. And as you can imagine, the wealth of the 19 neighborhood begins to go down.

20 This is a neighborhood that we would be more
21 familiar with in days gone by where everybody knows
22 everybody. Policemen, firemen, lawyers, if you lived in 23 Marlborough and you meet somebody in Chicago who knows
24 somebody in Marlborough, you'll hear that it's the kind of 25 neighborhood, yeah, I know Bob. You're going to hear that

1 it's a neighborhood where news travels fast and rumor travels
2 faster. That's the Marlborough neighborhood, and that's
3 where these five defendants all lived. Frank and Darlene, my
4 client and Darlene Edwards lived together in that
5 neighborhood' the Marlborough neighborhood.

6 The construction site. I've told you Bruce R.
7 Watkins Drive' huge project and a huge construction site.
8 And what you're going to learn -- I am shaking' and I will
9 point that out to you.

10 What you're going to learn is that this
11 construction site is being managed by Brown Construction
12 Company. They're the general contractor. And Brown
13 Construction Company, you remember how the diagram Mr. Becker
14 showed you, 71 Highway pretty much goes north and south. So
15 for all purposes of what we're talking about' and I'll turn 16 around so we're doing it this way' it's going north and 17 south' so you've got a west side and an east side of 71
18 Highway.

19 Well, on the west side towards Kansas is where
20 Brown Construction Company was keeping their expensive
21 equipment, the things we see all the time, huge bulldozers
22 and earth movers and graders, the expensive hydraulic
23 equipment.

24 On the east side of the street, Brown Construction
25 had contracted with White Plains Explosives (sic). And I'm

1 horrible at names as we go along, and I apologize in
2 advance. But it's the company doing the blasting.

3 So on the east side of the street is where you're 4 going to hear about the two trailers that are going to 5 explode and kill these six firefighters. That's where the 6 blasting equipment, the drills, are kept.

7 And in addition to these two trailers which
8 contained ammonium nitrate/fuel oil mix, which I'll talk
9 about' there are two bunkers' so that you don't get confused'
10 that are steel that contain the dynamite which is considered
11 a high order explosive, and blasting caps.

12 And you'll hear testimony that the way you make
13 something blow up is you take a blasting cap, you put it in a
14 stick of dynamite, and then this ammonium nitrate/fuel oil is 15 inexpensive. By itself, it's something you can step on,
16 shoot on' light a fire to' but when it's confronted with a
17 stick of dynamite' it creates a chain reaction and results in 18 a very large explosion. In fact' they can take it and 19 determine whether they want to just break the rock and have 20 it crumble down' or if they want to move it away from a wall,
21 or if they want to blow it all over the place.

22 You're going to hear a lot about ANFO. ANFO, which 23 stands for ammonium nitrate/fuel oil. It is used throughout 24 the United States. Components of it are, ammonium nitrate is 25 a fertilizer. It's a fertilizer used in farms all around the

1 world. Millions of tons of ammonium nitrate are used
2 throughout the country. ANFO is used in virtually all
3 blasting operations, and the experts will tell you that the
4 fuel oil added to it gives it, which makes it a better
5 product' a more powerful product for blasting.

6 You're going to find that nobody knew about
7 ammonium nitrate and fuel oil having this explosive
8 capability until a ship carrying ammonium nitrate ran into 9 another ship with fuel oil and exploded. That's the first
10 anybody knew about this combination. You're going to hear
11 that these two trailers housed nothing but ammonium nitrate
12 and fuel oil' 25'000 pounds' we're guessing because it was 13 blown up, in one, 30,000 pounds in the other.

14 And Mr. Becker told you that this is different than 15 Oklahoma City. And it's very different than Oklahoma City,
16 because Oklahoma City was a detonation. Somebody is saying,
17 I want this to blow up. And the evidence from all parties on 18 all sides is that -- the government's theory of the case was 19 this was a burning and an accident. There's a huge
20 distinction. So when you think of Oklahoma City and ANFO,
21 ammonium nitrate/fuel oil, in recent history, don't confuse
22 it with November 29th, 1988.

23 Brown Brothers Construction Company is involved in 24 the largest road construction project in the entire area, and 25 • hey start using nonunion concrete pourers. People pulling

1 up in the concrete trucks are nonunion. The time period
2 we're talking about is summer, moving into the fall of 1988,
3 and as is their right, union members were outraged by this,
4 and union members began to picket the Brown Brothers
5 Construction Company because nonunion trucks were bringing
6 concrete in the largest road-building project in the state.

7 And you're going to hear testimony that this wasn't
8 a friendly situation. You're going to hear testimony that 9 there were many acts of vandalism that started to happen to 10 Brown Brothers Construction Company. So much so that in 11 October -- actually' it's September' they hire a security
12 guard because their equipment keeps being vandalized. Things
13 like sugar poured in the tank which ruins a diesel engine'
14 things of that sort.

15 And they hire a security guard. And at the same
16 time' a name you're going to hear frequently is Robert
17 Riggs. Robert Riggs was hired by Brown Brothers Construction
18 Company to investigate an employee that Brown Brothers had 19 thought had damaged a $15,000 piece of equipment.

20 Robert and Deborah Riggs. Robert Riggs owns
21 Ameriguard Security, and Deborah Riggs worked for them. What 22 goes on is very shortly after he's hired to investigate the 23 employee, the owner of the company catches the guard working
24 asleep, he fires him, and he hires Ameriguard.

25 We're now talking October, just about a month

1 before this happens. In that time period, what you're going
2 to hear testimony about at this construction site are a
3 number of incidents of what five years later will be described as being union unrest, union involvement.

5 What you have at the site are fires that are
6 started. There's a bounty hunter who is also a woodcutter
7 part-time, has permission, as it turns out, to cut wood, but
8 he's starting fires up there. You're going to hear Deborah
9 Riggs is concerned because you have these trailers filled
10 with explosives.

11 You're going to hear about incidents in this month
12 where somebody came in with bolt cutters' as someone would do
13 wanting to steal, and popped one of the locks open. This,
14 again, is on the east side of the street, not where the major
15 equipment is.

16 At the time that Robert Riggs was hired' they were 17 only hired to guard the west side of the street. But he 18 keeps noticing these things going on on the east side and is 19 hired by the explosives company to guard that side too. So
20 you're going to hear testimony that one guard is going to 21 work the west side' and one guard is going to work the east
22 side because Robert Riggs has discovered vandalism and 23 dangers going on with the explosives on the east side.

24 Now, you're going to hear that Deborah Riggs was 25 concerned about these events, these acts of vandalism.

1 You're going to hear about another one where one of the
2 trailers was actually opened' the door was opened, and on the
3 ground is the lock, not cut, but opened. And after that, a
4 man by the name of McReynolds, who is the blaster' the person
5 in charge of actually detonating this' changed all the locks
6 and kept all the keys himself.

7 We're now moving into November of 1988' with this
8 ongoing labor unrest' so intense is it that the parties, the 9 union, the company, have gone to courts and said, the company
10 has said, we want this picketing stopped. And we move to 11 November 28th, 1988, the day that a judge said, this
12 picketing must stop now, post this in your union halls.

13 That's the background of this construction site.
14 Heavy construction equipment on the west side, explosive
15 material on the east side. Several incidents of vandalism on 16 both sides. Several incidents of people breaking into the 17 trailers on the east side.

18 Marlborough neighborhood, the construction site,
19 the date, night' leading into the morning of this explosion.
20 As you can tell from this time line, we know sometimes to the 21 minute and, as you'll see in the testimony' to the second
22 when calls happen.

23 But what had gone on earlier that night is that at 24 about 9:30 an Ameriguard security guard named Donna Costanza
25 called and said' "My car has died on me, I can't drive

1 through the construction site and make my rounds," and asked
2 Deborah Riggs to come in early for her.

3 Deborah Riggs comes in early. And when she does,
4 she's told -- and you'll excuse me just a moment. She's told
5 to be on the lookout because the other guard, who is working
6 with Donna Costanza, had seen two men running from the 7 construction site. Deborah Riggs knew that at 9:30; Robert
8 Riggs knew that when he came on at 11 p.m., only four and a
9 half hours before these events unfold.

10 You're going to hear that the way they patrol is 11 one person drives their car on the east side and one drives
12 on the west side. And that about 3:30, the Riggses meet up,
13 and where they're meeting is on the west side of 71 Highway.

14 And with the Court's permission, this exhibit has 15 already been used, but just to point it out.

16 And I'll also tell you, I always get upside down on 17 this. But they're going to have met on the east side of the 18 road in this area. And you can see all of these construction
19 vehicles, earth movers and everything, and we've got 20 incredibly nice equipment that magnifies stuff. But they 21 meet over here.

22 Deborah Riggs, Debbie Riggs is driving a red Toyota
23 pickup. Her brother, Robert Riggs, is driving a Toyota
24 cream-colored station wagon. They pull together, and Deborah 25 Riggs leaves her pickup truck. And in her pickup truck, she

1 leaves her purse and a handgun and gets into this car with
2 her brother.

3 And you'll hear testimony that the brother may have
4 been dozing off, which isn't, nothing being critical. He may 5 have been dozing off, but at one moment, around 3:30, she
6 sees two guys in the median area of 71 Highway. And in this 7 median area here between the two highways are where they had
8 put the office trailers. That's of concern to the guards
9 guarding the equipment.

10 She says it loud enough that her brother responds,
11 and they pull straight across the road, straight across 71
12 Highway in search of these two people. Second sighting of 13 two people.

14 She will tell you that these two people were big,
15 over six foot tall. And as they pulled across, they started
16 shining their spotlight looking for them, and they lost
17 them. The two guys were headed towards these ANFO trailers,
18 and they lost them. They shined their spotlight, and you'll 19 hear the testimony that if there was a fire in the trailer at 20 that time, it would have been visible, and you'll hear 21 testimony that if her truck was on fire, it would have been 22 visible.

23 They then decide that since they can't find these 24 two guys, it's 3:30 in the morning, there's no traffic out,
25 let's go to QuikTrip and talk to Dave Miller, if my memory is

1 right, the night manager of QuikTrip, and see if anything is
2 going on. They hadn't eaten for a while. They'll also grab
3 a quick bite to eat.

4 They pull into QuikTrip, both get out and go in the
5 store. They aren't there for long enough for them to pick up
6 the food that they're going to eat. They're in a big enough
7 rush that you'll hear Deborah say, "I ate everything I bought
8 between the door and the car." Getting in the car. Dave
9 Miller, the manager, hasn't seen anything suspicious. Hasn't 10 seen anything suspicious.

11 They get in their car, and as they're backing out,
12 a woman pulls in and excitedly runs in. Dave, the manager,
13 comes out and says, "There's equipment on fire down by the
14 construction site."

15 They get in their car, they immediately go back
16 south on 71 Highway. You see here is the QuikTrip where they 17 were. They immediately come south, and when they get here,
18 they see Deborah Riggs, truck on fire.

19 From this point, we have the exact times. At 3:40
20 Robert Riggs uses his cell phone and dials 311, the number
21 for cell phones like 911, and he reports a fire. He's 22 speaking on the phone, but on the transcript that we'll play
23 for you, in the background you hear his sister say, "The 24 explosives are on fire."

25 That dispatch is confirmed and radioed out to what

1 we will all agree are these brave firemen going out on their
2 last call. As the tones go out to the station for these
3 firemen, in all likelihood working 24-hour shifts, as those
4 tones go out to alert them, the testimony will be Frank
5 Sheppard, like many other people in Marlborough and Kansas
6 City, was at home, he was asleep, and you're going to know he
7 was probably passed out asleep.

8 You'll learn that he drank some two cases of beer,
9 that he was so drunk he had to be driven home. That he was 10 so drunk that when he got home -- Marlborough is the older 11 kind of neighborhood where you don't have curbs and sewers on 12 the side, but you've got a little drainage ditch. That he 13 was so drunk, as he was let out that he fell in the ditch and 14 couldn't get up, was helped into the house onto the couch.
15 And as these tones went out to the firefighters, he was
16 asleep.

17 The tones go out, the firefighters leave, the first
18 firetruck pulls up, they began fighting the fire in Deborah 19 Riggs, vehicle. That is an arson fire. There is physical 20 evidence we can show you that someone opened the door to her
21 truck, took a rag soaked in gasoline, introduced that into 22 the cab, closed the door, and left. undisputed evidence that 23 we will show that was an arson fire.

24 As they are fighting the first fire, the second
25 pumper arrives. And one of the things you'll listen to

1 carefully is the time frame, the time frame from when Deborah
2 Riggs tells you she sees two people going across the road,
3 two big people, combined with testimony from another person
4 who is going to describe seeing two big people, one with dark
5 hair and one with blond hair, one with blond hair in the 6 area.

7 The pumper arrives, and the testimony is going to 8 begin to conflict. As Mr. Becker told you, you're going to 9 have instances where you have to rely upon your common sense
10 and your evaluation of the credibility of the witnesses.

11 The firefighters go up because there is a trailer
12 on fire. You're going to hear that they believe that if 13 there were explosives, it's already exploded. These men,
14 skilled, five of the six trained in hazardous materials,
15 would have been made to feel secure because the well-marked
16 dynamite bunkers are metal, bright yellow, and away from the 17 trailers. You're going to hear one of the firemen say, "It
18 looks like this thing is already blown," and trying to save
19 some property, trying to do their job, these firefighters
20 began to fight the fire.

21 And you're going to hear a living survivor named
22 Chief Germann who is going to come and talk to you about what 23 he saw, with six of his friends doing their job. And you're 24 going to find from the evidence that Chief Germann can't tell
25 you that Deborah Riggs or anybody else told him, "get the men

1 way from there," and that he has wrestled with that daily
2 since this explosion. He has no memory of that. And we know
3 it wouldn't have mattered because it was too late.

4 This first trailer blew up, and you'll see the
5 pictures, a firetruck is vaporized, the pieces
6 indistinguishable. These men thankfully died instantly, but 7 Chief Germann and his driver are there and watching, and 8 beside them are Deborah Riggs and Robert Riggs. And you're 9 going to hear they were a quarter of a mile away, and the 10 force of this blast blew out the windows in their vehicles,
11 knocked them back as far as 30 feet. The concussion was 12 incredible.

13 At that point, the explosion has occurred. All
14 evidence is gone. We know about the second trailer
15 exploding. All evidence is gone, is blown up. What the 16 experts will tell you is there is no physical evidence to 17 explain what went on. We believe lightning didn't cause it
18 because the weather had a slight overcast, not enough to 19 cause lightning. We believe it wasn't lightning. We believe
20 that it wasn't electrical because as far as we can determine,
21 there were no electrical currents nearby. We don't believe,
22 and can tell you conclusively that in front of this trailer,
23 and you'll refer to the diagram because it's actually the 24 rear of the trailer where you've got double doors on a
25 semitrailer that open up, the construction company parked

1 their work truck in that area. And you're going to hear
2 testimony that that work truck is pointed face-in, and 10 to
3 15 feet away from the trailer.

4 In an arson investigation, you rule out all
5 accidental causes. They'll tell you absolutely, positively
6 that this truck was not the cause of the fire. When they
7 continue to eliminate as best they can accidental and natural
8 causes, they conclude it's an arson fire, that this was 9 something intentionally set. But what the experts are going
10 to tell you is we don't know how or where or why. We can't 11 tell you that this is not an intentional act by somebody with 12 sophisticated skills creating a detonator to go into the 13 trailer.

14 MR. BECKER: Objection. May we approach?

15 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
16 proceedings were had:)

17 MR. BECKER: There's no evidence at all, there's no
18 -- unless there's something that's not been disclosed to the 19 government, there's absolutely no evidence that there's been 20 a sophisticated device secreted into the trailer in order to 21 make it explode. There's absolutely no evidence of that.

22 THE COURT: What are you driving at?

23 MR. PETERS: That their expert is going to say, who 24 I talked to, is going to say I can't tell you whether it was 25 a detonation, a fire, something inside the trailer.

1 THE COURT: You're arguing your case. Just tell
2 them what the evidence and the facts are going to be, or
3 we're going to be in trouble here.

4 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

5 MR. PETERS: You're going to hear expert testimony
6 of what you can conclude when you have a site that is totally 7 destroyed. You're going to hear testimony that if we take 8 this possibility that a trailer could catch fire and that
9 that would result in an explosion, the theory of the case
10 that you've just heard from the government.

11 The testimony from the leading expert for the 12 Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms will be that if you
13 reconstructed that, if you took a trailer out into a field,
14 set fire to the bottom, fully loaded with ammonium
15 nitrate/fuel oil and you did that twelve times, that there's 16 no way to predict what would happen. You may have all twelve
17 explode, you may have none explode. And that is an expert
18 who arrived on the scene at daybreak the next day. That's 19 the explosion.

20 Now the investigation. The investigation in this
21 case began literally at the moment, but for all practical
22 purposes they had to wait until daybreak for fear that there
23 may be other dangers to other people. And at daybreak,
24 you'll hear that the blaster, the guy named McReynolds,
25 actually goes up in a helicopter and helps determine that the

1 dynamite is secured, risks his life, and comes down and says,
2 "Everything is secured, you can go to the crime scene."

3 And the police swarm on the crime scene. And that
4 very day, Dave True and the expert I'm talking about from the
5 ATF, a man by the name of Lund, are also there. Also there
6 are agents from the Department of Labor, Labor Racketeering
7 Section. And their involvement in this case was clear
8 because of this pattern of labor unrest that had gone on.

9 And so you have a local police agency with 10 thousands of man hours, experience in arsons and homicides,
11 Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department, and you have 12 federal agencies, the ATF and the DOL, Department of Labor.

13 And beginning at that moment, you're going to hear
14 that there are two alternate theories of what went on in this 15 case, two alternate investigations that go on. During the 16 course of this testimony, what you're going to find is the 17 Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department conducted a thorough
18 investigation, chasing down each and every lead. If they had 19 somebody who would talk to them, they would take a detailed 20 statement, write a detailed report. If they talked to 21 somebody fifteen minutes, you've got a three-page report from 22 the officer. If they had somebody that they thought had 23 important information, like the Riggses, that they took a
24 videotaped statement to preserve to this day that information
25 for a jury to decide what went on.

1 That the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department
2 followed every lead that they could, and that you heard a
3 comment and an objection, and I won't' I'm not going to go
4 into it, but the charges came forward in 1989. That somebody 5 was charged, not based upon any of the evidence, any of the 6 statements, but based upon jail house informants.

7 Mr. Becker told you that in recent years great care
8 has been exercised to make sure that when somebody in jail
9 and says somebody else confessed to me that you check to make
10 sure that they were in jail together. That's something that 11 you'll listen to closely in this case.

12 While the Kansas City' Missouri, Police Department
13 is investigating this case and following all the leads, a
14 private investigator develops a theory of the case, and that 15 theory of the case names for the first time the Sheppard
16 family. That theory of the case naming the Sheppard family
17 in the neighborhood of Marlborough had interesting
18 consequences because you're going to see, if you keep careful
19 track of the dates, statements are made in an interesting
20 pattern. You're going to find from the evidence that if, for 21 example, news reports or agents say the people -

22 MR. BECKER: Objection, Your Honor, argument.

23 THE COURT: Yeah, you are arguing. Let's go on 24 with what you anticipate the facts will be right now, Mr.
25 Peters.

1 MR. PETERS: The facts will be that the statements
2 that you've heard Mr. Becker refer to contained errors as to
3 the little bit of physical evidence that we know.

4 The facts will be that the pickup truck was not set
5 on fire, but all kinds of statements are made from all kinds
6 of people, these five defendants and many, many others, that
7 the people that did this set fire to the pickup truck.

8 The next theory of the case was that radios were 9 stolen, as Mr. Becker told you. And you will hear evidence
10 that after that theory is advanced, more witnesses come in 11 and say, I was told that the people that did this took 12 radios. And we have the pictures to show you that radios
13 weren't taken.

14 The next theory was that batteries were taken. We 15 will present you the testimony that no batteries were taken;
16 transits, no transits were taken; acetylene torches, no
17 acetylene torches were taken. And as you listen to these 18 witnesses, those facts will become very important. We have 19 this investigation by the Kansas City, Missouri, Police
20 Department that resulted in charges, that resulted in charges
21 being dismissed, and we have another investigation into 22 organized labor that is ongoing.

23 1988, November 29th, 1988, is the explosion. But
24 you will hear, as Mr. Becker told you about unsolved
25 Mysteries, you will hear on unsolved Mysteries Special Agent

1 Dave True say, "We knew that there was labor unrest,
2 primarily dealing with union versus nonunion companies.
3 We've learned that there were a number of violent acts
4 directed at nonunion companies. They were putting acid in 5 the company equipment, they were putting dirt into the diesel
6 lines, and there were a number of incidents where fire was 7 used to destroy equipment."

8 He said, "If we take away the tragedy of that night
9 of the six firefighters dying, we can look at some of these
10 previous incidents being very similar to what happened that 11 night. You had equipment damaged, and in this instance you
12 had a security guard's truck set on fire also."

13 You're going to hear testimony about the security
14 guard's truck on fire, that if you take away the huge
15 explosion and the death of six firefighters, that a truck
16 being set on fire and another fire 400 yards away would point
17 towards this truck as being the reason for the fires.

18 You're going to learn in this case that the Riggses
19 were identified as suspects, as they are done by experts
20 everywhere. When you have an explosion, the security
21 guards -

22 MR. BECKER: This is argument, Judge.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Peters, you're going to 24 have to stop that.

25 MR. PETERS: That's fine, Judge.

1 THE COURT: Disregard all of this last that Mr.
2 Peters talked about. He's not supposed to be arguing his
3 case to you at this time. Now, tell them what you anticipate
4 the evidence will be, and if you're through, sit down.

5 MR. PETERS: I'm just about done, Judge. The final
6 point for you to consider, in addition to this parallel
7 investigation, is to keep in mind that we're talking about
8 eight years ago.

9 The defendants did not look like they do now.
10 Bryan Sheppard was 17 years old. Richard Brown was 18 years
11 old. The other three defendants, Skip' Frank' and Darlene,
12 were adults. They were 34 years old, Darlene; Skip, 28 years
13 old; and Frank, 38 years old. And as you listen to this 14 evidence, you will see a distinction drawn within this 15 community between the young kids and the older people.
16 What we ask is that you carefully listen to the 17 evidence and just simply keep an open mind until the 18 conclusion of the case. Thank you very much for your 19 attention.

20 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to 21 take a short break. It won't be very long. Return to the 22 jury room, if you would' but don't talk about the case or 23 anything you've heard about it during this morning's session,
24 and we'll call you in five or ten minutes to get underway.
25 We'll be in recess.

1 (The following proceedings were had in the
2 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

3 THE COURT: We'll be in recess for five or ten
4 minutes.

5 (A recess was taken from 11:35 a.m. to 11:55 a.m.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Let's get the jury.

7 (The following proceedings were had in the
8 courtroom in the presence of the jury and all defendants
9 except Defendant Richard Brown:)

10 MR. MILLER: Your Honor' the united States calls
11 Mr. Phillip Wall.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Wall, would you please come stand
13 by the witness chair and be sworn.

14 Go ahead and swear the witness.

15 (Witness Phillip Wall was sworn by Tina Duer, 16 Courtroom Deputy.)

17 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood, is there someone trying to 18 find your client?

19 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, Your Honor, I sent two people
20 down to get him. It's my understanding he went down to smoke
21 a cigarette and get something to drink. I don't know if they 22 missed him in the elevator or what.

23 THE COURT: We'll proceed. If you want the record
24 read to him, we'll have the -

25 MR. OSGOOD: I have no objection to proceeding' and

1 I'll waive his presence.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 MR. BECKER: Judge, may I approach?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
6 proceedings were had:)

7 MR. BECKER: I have grave concerns of proceeding
8 without a defendant present.

9 THE COURT: When he voluntarily absents himself -
10 when he's not in custody and he by his own doing voluntarily
11 absents himself, I don't think that presents a problem.

12 MR. OSGOOD: I don't either, and we'll make a
13 record on that. And I assure you he'll make an appropriate
14 record on that, Your Honor. And I apologize to the Court.

15 MR. BECKER: You can't waive on behalf of your
16 client.

17 MR. OSGOOD: I think I can, and I assure you he 18 will.

19 THE COURT: We'll make everything available to him
20 that has been said and done while he was gone.

21 MR. OSGOOD: He will not object, and it won't
22 happen again.

23 THE COURT: Where the hell is he?

24 MR. OSGOOD: Like I say, he's a smoker and he went
25 downstairs.

1 MR. BECKER: I hope I get to appeal on this case.

2 Do you want to break for lunch, Judge? This witness will be
3 45 minutes.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, we might as well.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I sent my investigator out to look
6 for him, too, Judge.

7 MS. DUER: He's here.

8 MR. OSGOOD: I would appreciate it if you would 9 have a talk with him right now, if you've got a second right
10 now, up at the bench.

11 THE COURT: We'll break for lunch, and then I'll
12 talk to him.

13 MR. OSGOOD: We can proceed.

14 THE COURT: It's going to be 45 minutes.

15 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

16 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen' it's come to be
17 right at 12 o'clock, so rather than start this testimony now
18 and obviously have to break sometime during the testimony for 19 lunch, we'll break for lunch now, ask you to be back in the 20 jury room at 1:15. And don't talk about the case during the 21 lunch hour, with anyone or to anyone.

22 Have a good lunch, and we'll see you at 1:15.

23 You're excused. Leave your notebooks and everything on your 24 seat.

25 (The following proceedings were had in the

1 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

2 THE COURT: Mr. Brown' don't do that to us again.
3 I don't want anyone causing this court to sit here for five
4 or ten minutes waiting for somebody to finish smoking a
5 cigarette.

6 All right. We're in recess.

7 (A recess was taken from 12:01 p.m. to 1:24 p.m.
8 when the following proceedings were had in chambers with 9 Court and counsel present but out of the presence of the 10 defendants:)

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I've been advised by my 12 office that the Eighth Circuit has denied the writ' although 13 I don't have the writ in hand. I don't know if there's 14 something that came out in writing yet.

15 THE COURT: They're going to fax it to my office.
16 I hadn't received it, so until I had it in hand, I didn't
17 want to try to guess what's in it. So they're denying it, so
18 we'll just go forward.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: It's my position -- these are my 20 statements on behalf of my client, Bryan Sheppard -- that 21 under the rule that the sanction would be that if I did not,
22 if I continued not to give the statements up that the 23 sanction would be under the rule that I could not call that 24 witness to testify. So obviously, I would be willing to 25 accept that sanction for the obvious reason that I never

1 intended, nor am I going to call the witness anyway. So that
2 is my, that would be my position.

3 MR. BECKER: This issue of what sanction would be
4 imposed if the Eighth Circuit denied the writ and Mr.
5 O'Connor on behalf of his client refused to produce the 6 statements -- which was the subject of some extensive
7 argument by Mr. Wyrsh appearing on behalf of Mr. O'Connor
8 Friday evening and myself and considered by Judge Bartlett.
9 The Court stated that the reference in the omnibus report to 10 Section 3500 was merely to define which statements were 11 subject to production and that it would not limit the Court's
12 power on sanctions.

13 And I believe the Court's -- in response to further 14 inquiry, Mr. Wyrsh inquired of the Court whether or not the 15 sanctions would go as far as barring the use of those 16 statements in any cross-examination. The Court said that he 17 would not be bound by that. It seems something that could be 18 considered, but he believed there would be additional 19 sanctions available.

20 I do not believe that that's the proper remedy
21 here. Mr. O'Connor after this request for reciprocal
22 discovery was made filed an amended witness list deleting
23 these people' so they're not available to him as witnesses
24 anyway because he's already voluntarily deleted them. The 25 whole intent -

1 THE COURT: But if you used them, if you use them
2 as witnesses, then he would not be able to use that statement
3 or document in cross-examination of them as your witnesses.

4 MR. BECKER: But the whole intent of the discovery
5 process and the lengthy arguments we had on Wednesday,
6 Thursday, and Friday of last week were that the defendants
7 were going to be required to live up to their discovery
8 obligations and that those discovery obligations were fixed
9 at the time they said they would produce the discovery
10 material, that is, five days prior to trial.

11 THE COURT: I understand that was Judge Bartlett's
12 ruling, and I'm prepared to agree with that. Where do you
13 suggest we go from there?

14 MR. BECKER: Mr. O'Connor, I want him to say on the 15 record that he's refusing to follow the order of the Court
16 and at that point, as I believe we've been through where in 17 terms of contempt and sanctions, we go one step at a time.
18 So if the Court -- the Court has ordered previously on two
19 occasions that Mr. O'Connor's to turn over these statements
20 at a date certain. The first one was saved by a motion for 21 reconsideration. This next one was extended until today at 22 noon to give counsel a chance to go to the Eighth Circuit.
23 That was extended twice so he could go to the Eighth
24 Circuit.

25 We are now at the point where there is a court

1 order ordering him to turn those materials over. I have
2 asked for those materials, and Mr. O'Connor has not provided
3 those materials. So I'd like him to state on the record that
4 he's refusing to obey the Court's order to provide these
5 materials' and then I'll address sanctions.

6 THE COURT: Well, Kathy, would you get on the phone
7 out there and see if the clerk's office has received the fax
8 of the Eighth Circuit order? until I have -- I mean' I know
9 what it says. But until I have that order in hand, I'm not 10 going to do anything.

11 Now, let me just ask you, Mr. O'Connor, what is 12 your view of what ought to happen now?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, it's my position that the 14 sanction that's available is that we can't call the witness.
15 That's what we think.

16 THE COURT: How about the sanction that you call
17 any witnesses?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: I assume that's a sanction that the 19 Court could do. I am not here to obstruct or get in an
20 argument with Mr. Becker or the Court' but I think in terms
21 of preservation of this record, my concern is that until we 22 get to the next step, I don't have it preserved. And so in 23 other words, my feeling, this is, my thought process is that 24 I have been ordered to now turn them over, and I say on the 25 record that I'm still refusing. And the Court says the

1 sanctions are thus-and-so. Then I say, now, knowing that's
2 what the sanctions are, I will give them up so that my record
3 is preserved that basically I took every remedy I could to 4 hold on to them in my belief that they should not be given up
5 under all of my arguments that we previously stated, and then
6 I intend to comply.

7 I don't intend to take this into tomorrow or go to
8 jail or anything like that. But I'm just saying for purposes
9 of preservation of my record' we need to have that happen
10 because we feel that the writ as it went up really wasn't 11 ripe for a decision is our feeling. It's somewhat the 12 feeling of all of us in talking about this.

13 THE COURT: Who took it? You? Didn't your client
14 take it up?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

16 MR. BECKER: There was an order, and it was taken
17 up by way of a writ.

18 THE COURT: Application for a writ of mandamus?

19 MR. BECKER: Correct. And there was a date certain
20 that made that a ripe issue for the appellate court. There
21 was in terms of appellate -

22 THE COURT: I don't understand that they ruled it
23 as being not an issue or not ripe. I understand they ruled
24 on the merits. Have you seen a copy of it?

25 MR. BECKER: No, I have not. Mr. Marien from my

1 office received a call from the Eighth Circuit saying that
2 the writ was denied, and that's all we found out.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: I think we can get going. The 4 statements aren't here anyway. As part of my promise, I have
5 not looked at them or shared them with counsel. Mr. Becker
6 couldn't do anything with them until the next break anyway.
7 I suggest we take it up at the next break. I do not see it
8 as something that's going to hold up this trial.

9 (Court and Law Clerk conferred off the record.)

10 (The following proceedings were had in the
11 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

12 THE COURT: Let's get the jury. Come on up and 13 shave a seat on the witness stand, if you will. You were 14 sworn, weren't you?

15 THE WITNESS: Right.

16 ~ (The following proceedings were had in the
17 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

18 THE COURT: You'll recall that the witness was 19 sworn just before we took the break for lunch. And Mr. Wall,
20 I'll remind you that you're still under oath.

21 THE WITNESS: I understand.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Proceed, counsel.

23 MR. MILLER: Thank you, Judge.

24 — — —

2 having been previously sworn, testified as follows:

3 1 - _ _

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 By Mr. Miller:

6 ~Q. Would you tell the Court your name, please?

7 A. Phillip M. Wall.

8 IQ. And how old are you, sir?

9 A. Forty-four.

10 IQ. And where do you work?

11 IA I am chief fire dispatcher for the Kansas City,
12 Missouri, Fire Department.

13 IQ. And how long have you been the chief dispatcher?

14 A. I've been chief dispatcher since September of 1988.

15 IQ And would you tell the jury what your duties are as the 16 I chief dispatcher?

17 A. Okay. As chief dispatcher, I'm responsible for the full
18 operation of the Kansas City, Missouri, Fire Department
19 Communications Center. I make all the decisions on responses
20 and basic, the strategic operations of the fire department on 21 any given day that I work.

22 THE COURT: Where is that center now?

23 THE WITNESS: It's now at 1111 Locust.

24 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) I want to go to the early morning
25 hours of November the 29th, 1988. And were you on duty those

1 early morning hours?

2 A. Yes, that is correct.

3 Q. And I want to go to 3:40 a.m. on that same date. And
4 did you receive a call?

5 A. That is correct.

6 Q. Would you tell the jury what that call was pertaining

8 A. It was a report of a small pickup truck on fire in the 9 vicinity of 87th and Blue River Road.

10 Q. And was the caller a firefighter?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And who did you give the call to?

13 A. One of the dispatchers on my shift took the call and 14 then relayed the information to myself, at which time I
15 dispatched the call.

16 Q. And to which pumper?

17 A. Pumper 41.

18 Q. And why did you choose Pumper 41?

19 A. Based on the address, that was their first in district,
20 so they were sent.

21 Q. Are these dispatches coming in, and from you going out,
22 are they recorded?

23 A. Yes, that is correct.

24 Q. And were the dispatches and responses recorded back on 25 November the 29th, 1988?

1 A. Yes, that is correct.

2 Q. I want to show you what's been marked as Government's
3 Exhibit No. 16. And can you identify that?

4 A. That is a tape of the events that occurred on November
5 29th in the early morning hours.

6 Q. Is that an edited version?

7 A. Yes' it is.

8 Q. Have you listened to that?

9 A. Yes, I have.

10 Q. Does that fairly and accurately represent what went on 11 in the early morning hours of November 29th, 1988?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And does it contain the pertinent information beginning
14 from 3:40 in the morning on, regarding the fire and explosion
15 out at the construction site?

16 A. That is correct.

17 MR. MILLER: At this time, Your Honor, I offer U.S.
18 Exhibit No. 16 into evidence, the tape.

19 MR. PETERS: We have no objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. 16 is admitted without
21 objection.

22 (Government's Exhibit 16 was admitted into
23 evidence.)

24 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And now I want to show you what's been 25 marked as Government's Exhibit No. 17. And can you identify

1 that?

2 A. Yes. It is a transcript of the transmissions and
3 proceedings that went on dealing with the explosion and the 4 events that went on at 87th and Blue River Road.

5 Q. Have you read that transcript?

6 A. Yes, I have.

7 Q. Have you compared that transcript -- what I mean by 8 that, did you read that while you were listening to Exhibit
9 No. 16, the tape?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Does this transcript fairly and accurately represent 12 what is on Exhibit 16, the tape?

13 A. Yes' it does.

14 THE COURT: What is the number of the transcript?

15 MR. MILLER: No. 17, Your Honor. Your Honor' at 16 this time' we'd like to play Exhibit No. 16; and Exhibit No.
17 17 we'd like to pass to the jury to aid them in listening to 18 the tape and following it.

19 THE COURT: All right. I take it there's no
20 objection to 17; is that right?

21 MR. PETERS: That's correct' Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, the government is 23 about to play now the tape which has been identified and 24 admitted as Exhibit 16. You'll have in your hand a
25 transcript of what has been admitted and identified as a

1 transcript of what's on that tape.

2 The evidence is the tape, and what you hear is the
3 evidence. If for some reason there may be a variance between 4 what you hear and what it says on 17, the transcript, what
5 you hear governs. I have no thought that there is any
6 discrepancy that would be major or important' but I want you
7 to understand that what you hear said on the tape is the 8 evidence that is before you.

9 Okay. You can proceed.

10 MR. MILLER: I have a copy for you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MR. MILLER: And Judge' right before we play the 13 tape' there's a few things I wanted to clear up with Mr.
14 Wall.

15 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

16 MR. PETERS: With the Court's permission' can we 17 have one of the defense counsel move when an exhibit is being 18 used so we can see the exhibit?

19 THE COURT: Oh, sure. I thought we had already had 20 that understanding.

21 MR. PETERS: Thank you.

22 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Mr. Wall, on the transcript and what 23 the jury will hear on the tape are the two words still 24 alarm. What does that mean?

25 A. Well, still alarm in our terminology is a minimal
fire

1 response that is sent to a, what is considered a fairly
2 minimal incident. It could be anything from a car fire, EMS
3 type call' trash fire, this type thing, as opposed to a
4 structural type fire.

5 IQ And also on the tape is the ten code 10-97. And what
6 does that mean?

7 A. That was the code at the time that was used to denote a
8 fire unit arriving on the scene of an incident.

9 Q. When it says 41 or Pumper 41 and you hear the voice,
10 whose voice is that?

11 A. That was Captain Kilventon's voice.

12 Q. And when you hear Pumper 30, whose voice is that?

13 A. That was Captain Halloran.

14 Q. And when someone identifies themselves as 107, who is
15 that?

16 A. That was the district fire chief whose district the 17 incident occurred in, which was Marion Germann at the time.

18 Q. When the phrase tone is used on the tape, what does that 19 mean?

20 A. That is a tone signal we use in getting everyone's
21 attention, either to a fire response or for pertinent type
22 information. It's a beep type tone.

23 Q. Also, if the phrase quint is used, what's a quint?

24 A. A quint is a particular type fire apparatus that,
25 generally speaking, is a hook and ladder or an aerial type

1 platform truck, but it also has the ability to carry water
2 and also the pump to pump water.

3 Q. And also the phrase is used 107 emergency. What does
4 that mean?

5 A. 107 indicating that he has an emergency situation at 6 hand; in other words, a real priority type situation, that in
7 order to clear the air that he has an emergency.

8 THE COURT: You all should know, there's been an 9 inquiry from one of the jurors. You will have the 10 opportunity to examine the exhibits at a later time and 11 during your deliberations. And if at any time during the 12 course of the trial there's a particular exhibit that you
13 want to see, you let me know that and we'll see to it that 14 that's made available for you to see. We don't have a set of 15 exhibits for all 16 of you, but they will be available if 16 they're needed.

17 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, at this time, may I play
18 the tape?

19 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Yes, you may.

20 (Government's Exhibit No. 16 was played.)

21 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) A few more questions, Mr. Wall. What 22 are those beeps that we kept hearing on the tape?

23 A. That is the beep tone that I was describing earlier.
24 It's to get everyone's attention.

25 Q. And when you called out to mutual aid, what is mutual

1 aid?

2 A. It's a, in this case, it's the radio channel that all
3 area fire departments have and listen to and monitor. And in 4 the event that we need to communicate with another fire
5 department for some reason, we do, it's via radio system
6 rather than telephone or land line.

7 Q. Who is 101 who is referred to on the tape?

8 A. 101 is the on-duty fire chief who is in charge, on any 9 particular shift he's in charge of the fire fighting force.

10 Q. Do you remember his name?

11 A. That was Chief Booth that day.

12 Q. And where did you dispatch Pumper 41 to, the truck or 13 the trailer?

14 A. Pumper 41 was originally sent to the report of a small
15 pickup truck fire.

16 Q. And what time did Pumper 41 arrive at the scene of the 17 pickup truck on fire?

18 A. It was approximately, the best I can recollect, three or 19 four minutes after they were dispatched.

20 Q. If you need to, you can refer to Exhibit No. 17 to 21 refresh your memory.

22 A. Okay. They arrived approximately 3:46, according to
23 this.

24 Q. And when was it transmitted to you that there had been 25 an explosion?

1 A. At 0408 hours.

2 ~ Q. And when was the second explosion reported to you?

3 IA. At 0448 hours.

4 ~ Q. And that s a.m.?

5 I A. Right.

6 IQ After the explosion, how many times did you try to reach

7 Pumper 30 and Pumper 41?

8 ~ A. I tried twice, two times.

9 IQ. Now, have you heard the entire tape from that night?

10 IA. Yes, I have.

11 Q. And this is just a pared down version of it,
correct?

12 ~A. That is correct.

13 IQ And once again, does this accurately reflect everything
14 that's in the entire tape that you heard?

15 IA. From 3:40 a.m. up until the time of the second explosion
16 at 4:48, correct.

17 MR. MILLER: No further, Your Honor.

19

CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 By Mr. Peters:

21 Q. Dispatcher Wall, my name is Pat Peters, and I'm 22 representing Frank Sheppard. I just want to ask you a few
23 questions.

24 On the transcript, the printed transcript that the 25 ~ jury has had an opportunity to read and the Court's been

1 provided, there are listed times to the left that are
2 showing, correct me if I'm wrong, hours, minutes, and seconds
3 as the call comes in; is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And you've had an opportunity to review, so that where 6 we see these times, those are the times taken off of the 7 master tape and exact times as recorded by the dispatch tape;
8 is that correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And to save time, the entire tape, you're dispatching
11 for the entire city. So if we had the whole tape here, all
12 that's being left out are calls unrelated to this occurrence;
13 is that a fair statement?

14 A. Yes. One thing I might add, at the time this incident
15 was going on, we had a two-alarm fire that was occurring at 16 Twelfth and Woodland that had broke out at approximately 3:30
17 that morning, approximately ten minutes prior to when we 18 received the call of the vehicle on fire at 87th and 71. So
19 some of the traffic you hear in that tape that is not related
20 to the actual explosion incident is related to the two-alarm
21 fire that we had going at the time.

22 Q. And then for the jury's benefit, because we hear about
23 F1, F2, F3, just for the jury's benefit, would you explain
24 the way the dispatch was working where sometimes if somebody
25 went behind a hill, for example, a tower might not hit them

1 and you have to relay messages, because there's some of that 2 in the transcript. Just in your own words, describe to the 3 jury that.

4 A. Okay. At the time, the radio system we were using, VHF
5 system, F2 was a designated main traffic channel. It was 6 154.13 megahertz. That was the channel where all of our
7 dispatch transmissions went out of. F3 was the mutual aid
8 channel, again, the link to all the area fire departments,
9 operated on 154.28 megahertz. Another frequency we were 10 using at the time was labeled F4, it might have been 11 mentioned in here, it was 154.445. It was a side channel or 12 a fire use, sometimes used as a fire ground frequency at the
13 time.

14 Q. And you mentioned to the jury that these were VHF
15 frequencies. So if somebody is behind a hill, would they 16 sometimes cut out?

17 A. Well, I think some of the cutout was due to a lot of 18 everyone trying to talk on one another, and just interference
19 of everybody trying to talk at once.

20 Q. When we would hear people saying, dispatch, can you get 21 so-and-so, or so-and-so, I'm patching through something from 22 dispatch, why would that be going on?

23 A. That's just normal procedure. Especially when you get a
24 major incident like this. That's just the type of activity
25 that occurs that goes with it.

1 Q. So for the jury's benefit, the times, the judge has
2 instructed them that this transcript, they're to be guided by 3 the tape and what they hear, but these times are exact and
4 accurate; is that correct?

5 A. Yes, it is exact times.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Peters, excuse me. Would you all
7 come up for a minute?

8 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
9 proceedings were had:)

10 THE COURT: I might as well put a stop to this 11 right now. I think that prelude "for the jury's benefit" is 12 currying favor with the jury, and I don't like it.

13 MR. PETERS: I won't do it ever again. Judge,
14 while everybody is up here. I know that the routine practice
15 would be that 17 isn't admitted, the tape controls. But what
16 I'd like, the numerical times are contemporaneous records
17 made at or near the time, qualified under the business
18 records. And because this is an abbreviated tape and because 19 the times are so important, I would like to see if we can -
20 if that's acceptable, if we put the transcript in and waive a
21 hearsay objection, we believe that the times will be 22 beneficial to the jury. If that's not acceptable, we would 23 ask that 17 be admitted for the purpose of the times because
24 we have an abbreviated tape and, as Your Honor has heard
25 listening to it, you might have some long pauses.

1 MR. BECKER: No objection.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Fine. Done.

3 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

4 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

5 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, counsel.

6 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Finally, Dispatcher Wall, again, the 7 times that we see to the left are times that are accurate
8 down to the second that correspond to the tape that the jury
9 has now heard?

10 A. Yes. The recorder that we used was set to a device that 11 could pick up world standard time that's broadcast out of 12 Boulder, Colorado, which is a very accurate, it's up to the 13 second as far as times go.

14 MR. PETERS: At this time, Judge, we would move for 15 admission of Plaintiff's 17.

16 MR. MILLER: No objection.

17 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions, thank
18 you.

19 THE COURT: All right. It's admitted without
20 objection.

21 (Government's Exhibit 17 was admitted into
22 evidence.)

23 THE COURT: What's next? Any redirect?

24 MR. MILLER: Just one question, Your Honor. This 25 slipped my mind.

2

3 BY Mr. Miller:

4 IQ What does hazmat mean that is referred to on the tape?

5 A. That is in reference to a hazmat unit or hazmat type
6 personnel that deal with hazardous materials in such cases,
7 chemicals, explosives, et cetera.

8 Q. And who is, who was the hazmat officer that night that's 9 referred to on the tape?

10 A. That was Car 106, Chief Grote.

11 Q. Logan Grote?

12 A. Right.

13 MR. MILLER: No further, Judge.

14 MR. PETERS: Nothing further, Judge.

15 THE COURT: Anything further from the defense?

16 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may step down.

18 Call your next witness, Mr. Becker.

19 MR. BECKER: united States calls Deborah Riggs.

20 Your Honor, the parties have entered into a stipulation that
21 was filed earlier today regarding photographs and business
22 records in this case. And if I may, I'd just briefly read
23 from that stipulation and then offer some exhibits.

24 THE COURT: That's been filed, and I've examined
25 it, and it seems to be in order, so you may do that. Barring

1 any objection.

2 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, the united States and the 3 defendants and their attorneys agree and stipulate that any
4 party to this case may offer into evidence any photographs
5 listed on the exhibit lists on file without having to call
6 witnesses to testify that the photograph is a fair and 7 accurate representation of the matter portrayed.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Becker, when you talk, would you
9 get on the microphone, please? There are a lot of folks that 10 want to hear what's said.

11 MR. BECKER: usually people tell me that they can 12 hear, but certainly I will, Judge.

13 And all counsel do reserve the right to object on 14 anything other than grounds of authenticity.

15 Based upon that stipulation, I'd offer into 16 evidence, subject to other objections, photographs that are 17 in Government's Exhibits 10 through 275.

18 THE COURT: Who is responding to -

19 MR. PETERS: One moment, Your Honor

20 (Counsel conferred off the record.)

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach a minute, Mr.
22 Becker?

23 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
24 proceedings were had:)

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we believe that some of these

1 exhibits contain photographs that are very graphic in nature,
2 and there's no element in this crime that needs to show that,
3 the death of these firefighters. We'd like to have the Court
4 look at the photographs before it rules. These are very 5 graphic photographs that we would have an objection to.

6 THE COURT: Well, let me ask a question before you
7 respond. Have you seen the government's trial memorandum
8 filed today on that issue?

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir.

10 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, those photographs are 11 Government's Exhibit 230 through 275. I understand that the 12 defendants have objection to certain of those photos. I
13 don't know if they object to all of them, but none of those 14 photos will be offered this afternoon or will be, none of 15 those photographs will be used this afternoon, and -

16 THE COURT: Why don't we admit 10 through 229 and 17 then deal with the others at a later time.

18 MR. BECKER: That's fine. Thank you.

19 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

20 THE COURT: By agreement, Exhibits 10 through 229
21 are admitted. Ruling on the remainder of the offered
22 photographs is deferred to a later time. So you may proceed
23 on that basis, counsel.

24 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

25 (Government's Exhibits 10 through 229 were admitted

1 into
evidence.)

3 DEBORAH RIGGS,
4 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,
5 testified as follows:

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION

8 By Mr. Becker:

9 Q. Good afternoon.

10 A. Good afternoon.

11 Q. Please state your name and spell your last name.

12 A. Deborah Ann Riggs, R-I-G-G-S.

13 Q. Ms. Riggs, how old are you?

14 A. Forty-one.

15 Q. Do you have any children?

16 A. One.

17 Q. A boy or a girl?

18 A. A girl.

19 Q. How old is she?

20 A. Eight years old.

21 Q. Are you employed?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. How are you employed?

24 A. I'm employed at Ford Motor Company.

25 Q. Where?

1 A. In Claycomo, the Kansas City Assembly Plant.

2 Q. What do you do there?

3 A. I work in the paint department. I do every job. It's 4 called utility.

5 Q. How long have you been employed at the Ford Motor
6 Company Claycomo plant?

7 A. Twenty years in March.

8 Q. Now, during the last ten years, have you ever had any 9 other job?

10 A. Yes. I've worked for my brother Robert Riggs for 11 Ameriguard as a part-time employee for security.

12 Q. okay. How old is your brother? Is he older than you or 13 younger than you?

14 A. I believe he's like 13 months older than me.

15 THE COURT: Your brother's name is Robert Riggs?

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir' Robert Riggs.

17 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) And the name of his company is 18 Ameriguard; is that right?

19 A. As far as I know.

20 Q. When did you start working part-time or whatever it was 21 for Ameriguard?

22 A. I was on no work available at Ford Motor Company while I
23 was pregnant.

24 Q. And that was in 1988; is that right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What part of 1988?

2 A. I believe it would be the last part.

3 Q. So the fall' September, October, is that fair to say, or 4 later in the year?

5 A. I really couldn't tell you the date. I didn't work for 6 him for very long, though.

7 Q. Well, in November of 1988, were you working part-time
8 for your brother as a security guard?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. What was your status at Ford at that time?

11 A. No work available.

12 Q. What does that mean?

13 A. They had no job for me to do in the paint department.

14 Q. Why?

15 A. Because I was pregnant.

16 Q. How far along were you by November of 1988?

17 A. Five months.

18 Q. Do you have any other brothers and sisters?

19 A. Yes. I have one brother, Doral Ray Riggs (phonetic).

20 Q. What does he do for a living?

21 A. He's a detective for the sheriff's department in L.A.

22 He does children homicide deaths, children deaths.

23 . Have you ever been charged or convicted of any crime?

24 . No.

25 . Going back to 1975/,76 when you would have been about 20

1 or 21 years old, where were you working then?

2 A. Ford Motor Company.

3 Q. Did you have an incident with an automobile where you
4 reported it stolen?

5 A. Yes' I did.

6 Q. Could you tell us about that' please?

7 A. I was going -- well, first of all' I had wrecked the 8 vehicle and had gotten it repaired' and it just wasn't
9 working. I mean' everything was going wrong with it. And I
10 was going to go out of town, and my roommate told me that she
11 could arrange to have it stolen for me for like a price. I
12 don't remember how much it was now. And I did do that. I
13 agreed to do that.

14 Q. Was the car stolen, then?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And did you put in an insurance claim?

17 A. I'm sure that I did, but I don't remember doing that.

18 Q. That's the only reason to have it stolen, right, is to 19 get the insurance money?

20 A. Right. So I'm sure that I did.

21 Q. At that time, were you drinking quite a bit?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you have any alcohol treatment after that time?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. What years are we talking about? When was that?

1 A. I went through five different treatments, and that was
2 probably within a three to four-year span before I quit.

3 Q. Say 1975 through '79' is that -

4 A. Yes, that sounds about right.

5 Q. Now, in November of 1988 -

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- you said you were working part-time as a security
8 guard for your brother's company 'Ameriguard' right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. What type of security were you doing? Where did that 11 take place?

12 A. I worked a site down by where they have the circuses at.

13 Q. Kemper Arena?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Down by the river there was a site that I worked at a
17 few times, and then there was a site by where the dog races
18 are over in Kansas that I worked a few times' and then -

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Are you distinguishing the 20 site down by the river' distinguishing it from the Kemper
21 Arena site?

22 THE WITNESS: Yes' it's a different site.

23 THE COURT: So there was Kemper, and then the site
24 down by the river.

25 A. And then there was the one at 87th and 71 Highway.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Not to belabor the issue, but there's
2 three places we're talking about' one down in the west
3 bottoms near Kemper?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And one down in Kansas City, Kansas?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. And then the one that this trial is all about, the 8 construction on 71 Highway?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. How many, how much training, or did you have any 11 training to be a security guard?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. Could you tell us about that, please?

14 A. I was trained by my brother and my sister-in-law' and I
15 was able to do all the training' including some classes at 16 Penn Valley' except for I wasn't allowed to test' gun test.

17 Q. Why?

18 A. Because of my pregnancy. The police department wouldn't 19 allow me to test' being pregnant.

20 Q. What was the -- not any great detail' but did you learn
21 about' what' filling out forms or what situations you should 22 deal with and not deal with, what was the training?

23 A. It was more shooting' we would go to shooting ranges'
24 filling out the paperwork' like you said. It's hard to 25 remember now all the things that we trained about' but it was

1 pretty extensive.

2 Q. Do you recall' then, when you first started to work out
3 at the construction site out at 71 Highway at Blue River? Do
4 you remember that, going out there, seeing the site?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. I want to show you -

7 MR. BECKER: And I guess I can put it up here by 8 this TV monitor' if I may' Judge.

9 THE COURT: Surely. If you could' counsel, move it
10 back just a little bit farther and tilt it a bit and maybe
11 we'll be able to see it.

12 MR. BECKER: How is that, Judge? I'll be using the 13 photographs fairly soon, and I think the Court should be -

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Miss Riggs, briefly, before you
16 testified here today, you and I have had an opportunity to go
17 over this testimony, and we've looked at all of these
18 photographs and all of this business, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Could you show the members of the jury, please' on 21 Exhibit 5 where the construction activity was occurring that 22 your brother's company was supposed to guard when you were on 23 the scene?

24 A. This area right here.

25 Q. And that would be -- I have to -

1 . On the west side of 71 Highway.

2 Q. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Counsel, I don't show 5 as having been
4 admitted yet. I don't know that it's critical, but if she's 5 going to testify from it, it better be admitted.

6 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you recall looking at this
7 photograph -

8 MR. BECKER: Actually, based on the stipulation,
9 Judge, I would offer Government's Exhibit 5.

10 THE COURT: That's fine. I'm sure there will be no
11 objection, but I also wanted to make sure it's on the 12 record. So it's admitted?

13 MR. BECKER: I would offer Government's Exhibit -

14 THE COURT: We went from 10 to 229.

15 MR. BECKER: Those are the small photographs, and 16 the aerial photographs that I would offer at this time are
17 Government's Exhibits 3, 4' and 5.

18 THE COURT: Any objections to 3, 4, or 5? All
19 right. They're all admitted' then.

20 (Government's Exhibits 3, 4, and 5 were admitted
21 into evidence.)

22 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

23 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) On Government's Exhibit 5, then, 24 you've showed us, what was it in the area on the west side of
25 the highway that you all were supposed to guard?

1 A. Heavy equipment.

2 Q. So earth-movers, bulldozers, that kind of thing?

3 A. Yes' large, heavy equipment.

4 Q. And were they typically kept overnight in a certain

5 area?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Where?

8 A. They were parked along, we call this a haul road.

9 Q. Haul, meaning H-A-u-L, right?

10 A. Right, for the heavy equipment to drive on. And they 11 parked in a line just like this picture, in a line on both 12 sides of that road, dirt road.

13 Q. When you, then, were -- and how about the other side of 14 the site, that would be the east side of the construction
15 site, what was going on over there?

16 A. Well, we had an officer over here. There was a few
17 pieces of heavy equipment up in here, and there was two 18 trailers and two bunkers at the back of the property.

19 MR. BECKER: All right. If you would just have a 20 seat, please.

21 THE COURT: You say there were two trailers and 22 two -

23 THE WITNESS: Bunkers.

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) I want to show you what is in evidence
25 as Government's Exhibit 26' and I think if you can see out to

1 this monitor here' is this the construction site, then, that
2 we've been talking about? And over here where I have my pen,
3 is that the heavy equipment that was lined up in the 4 evening?

5 A. Yes, it was.

6 Q. Now, when you started to work on that site, how many 7 guards did your brother's company have on duty, typically?

8 A. When I started working on the site, he would have two.

9 Q. Before you worked there, did you know that it was a
10 one-person operation?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. When it was a one-person operation, what were you, what 13 was the company guarding?

14 A. All I know is what my brother told me. ~

15 Q. All right. Well, then, we'll ask him when he takes the 16 stand.

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. When you came on the scene and it was a two-person
19 operation, what were your responsibilities?

20 A. To keep people off of the property.

21 Q. And what was the definition of the property? How big an 22 area were we talking about or how small?

23 A. I really couldn't tell you the perimeter of it. It was 24 a very large area.

25 Q. Looking at Government's Exhibit 26, then.

1 A. It's all of that area.

2 Q. It's all of this construction up here?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Which would be the east side of the highway' as well as 5 the equipment parked along the west side of the highway; is
6 that right?

7 A. Yes. And we also watched the office trailers.

8 Q. And they're up here in between the two' two sides of 71
9 Highway?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor' we're going to object to 12 the leading nature. I mean' it's gone on for a long time
13 now.

14 THE COURT: Well, it's physical facts, Mr.
15 O'Connor. I don't think there's any -- so far there haven't
16 been any judgment calls preempted. Overruled. Go ahead.

17 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) When you or -- now, you said there
18 would be two persons on the site. Typically, where would you
19 and the other guard be located to guard that site?

20 A. One would be on the east side of the property, on the 21 east side of 71, and one would be on the west side.

22 Q. Was there anyplace in particular that you would be on,
23 either east or west? Was there any -

24 A. No.

25 Q. When you were on the east side of the property, could

1 you show us, please, with the Court's permission, on
2 Government's Exhibit 26 where you would be located?

3 A. On either side?

4 Q. Please. That would be helpful.

5 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, it might be helpful if she
6 could come down to Mr. Becker's photograph and use a pointer
7 on the monitor so we can see what she's pointing to. Is that 8 permissible?

9 THE COURT: Is that machine an Elmo?

10 MR. BECKER: I don't know what an Elmo is, Judge.

11 THE COURT: If it isn't on there, I guess it
12 wouldn't be. If she can get down to that one, and then she 13 can use a pointer. Can you see that?

14 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) If you could please show us on this
15 photograph if there was any particular position on the east
16 side of the highway near the heavy equipment that you would 17 be posted.

18 A. When I worked the area, I would park my vehicle right
19 down in between the heavy equipment. I would just park it
20 right in between it, right in the middle of the street, right
21 in the middle of the dirt road.

22 Q. Why in that position?

23 A. So I could see the other side, the other officer and see
24 what was going on because I would, I would -- I didn't drive
25 that. I would get out of my vehicle and walk up and down the

1 equipment like every 45 minutes to an hour.

2 Q. So tell us about that. What did you do to patrol when
3 you were on the east side of the highway?

4 A. I would just get out of my vehicle every 45 minutes to 5 an hour and walk up and down the heavy equipment to make sure
6 that there wasn't a windshield broken or someone wasn't
7 trying to sabotage the equipment.

8 Q. Was there any lighting on that side of the highway?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What was that?

11 A. The generators.

12 Q. Construction generators?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. How were the lights? Were there more than one or 15 what -

16 A. It was well-lit. There were more than one. I don't 17 know how many, maybe two to three.

18 Q. And that would be on over -

19 . On the west side.

20 Q. Okay. If you were stationed on the east side of the 21 highway up, I guess as we've been calling on the hill, where 22 would you be located?

23 . I personally would be on the berm right there.

24 . All right. And I'm going to show you some other
25 pictures here.

1 A. Or at times I would even park on the haul road.

2 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as Government's

3 Exhibit No. 29. Does that show the ridge where you would

4 pull your vehicle when you did patrol on that side' or

5 security on that side?

6 A. Yes' this ridge right here.

7 Q. Could you describe for us why you were on that ridge?

8 A. I felt like I could see more from the berm and I just' I

9 felt better being above everything. I was right next to the 10 trailers. I could see the other officer' you know' in view.

11 Q. So in the direction towards the highway' did you have a

12 clear view that way?

13 A. Yes. I felt like that was the best place on the 14 property to have a view of everything.

15 Q. What was behind you away from the highway?

16 A. The trailers and the bunkers.

17 Q. At the point you described as the berm where you would 18 have your' where you would be sitting up there?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was that higher than anything on the other sides?

21 A. Oh, yes. It was the highest point.

22 Q. What kind of truck or car did you have when you were

23 doing patrol there?

24 . A Toyota pickup.

25 Q. And were you able to get around this construction site

1 in that pickup?

2 A. Yes, better than most officers could.

3 Q. Okay. If you could, I think, have a seat, please.

4 Thank you.

5 So I'd like to talk a little bit about the days and
6 weeks leading up to the night of the explosion. How often
7 would you work, typically? Every night or was there a
8 certain schedule?

9 A. I worked quite a bit. I can't really say every night
10 because I don't remember if I worked every night, but I
11 worked a lot of hours.

12 Q. What were the hours that you were on duty? When were 13 the guards there?

14 A. During night, the night hours.

15 Q. What did that mean -

16 A. After dark.

17 Q. In November, would that mean 5 o'clock or 6 o'clock?

18 A. I can't tell you if it was 5:00 or 6:00. It was around
19 that time.

20 Q. Until?

21 A. As soon as the workers would get ready to leave, then we 22 would go on the site.

23 Q. How long -- when was quitting time, then?

24 A. I can't tell you now. I'm just thinking that it's like
25 between 5:00 and 6:00.

1 THE COURT: Her quitting time or the quitting time
2 on the job?

3 MR. BECKER: Well, both, but -- when did -

4 A. Morning.

5 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) And is that when all the guards would 6 typically, the workers would come and the guards would -

7 A. When the workers came, we went.

8 Q. Did you usually work the whole shift, or was it broken
9 up into two shifts?

10 A. Sometimes I worked a double shift, and sometimes I would
11 be relieved.

12 Q. What was the normal shift? You talked about a double
13 shift. What's the normal shift?

14 A. I believe it was like six hours or eight hours. It
15 wouldn't be all night long.

16 Q. So, typically, you would have some guards there from 17 6:00 to midnight, and then somebody else would come on 18 midnight to 6:00?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. During the time you were there guarding up to November
21 29, 1988, did you personally have any incidents on the site
22 with trespassers or other people coming onto the property?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Could you tell us, what's the first one that you
25 remember?

1 A. I remember four-wheelers would come up there.

2 Q. What does that mean?

3 A. People on four-wheelers. It's a little vehicle that
4 they drive on construction sites and, you know, off road.

5 THE COURT: Not an over-the-road vehicle, right?

6 THE WITNESS: No.

7 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) And they're small type, scooter type
8 affairs, usually?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What did you do when they would show up on the site?

11 A. Try to either run them off or call the police and have 12 them ran off.

13 Q. So it was your understanding that they were not allowed,
14 that was part of the job, to get them off the site?

15 A. Correct. It was -- I was told not to let anyone on the 16 property unless they had permission.

17 Q. Are there any other specific incidents you recall prior
18 to November 29, 1988?

19 THE COURT: Before you leave that, as to those 20 four-wheelers that you've testified about, did you understand
21 them to be there just on a lark, just for recreational
22 purposes?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, but I felt they still didn't
24 belong there.

25 THE COURT: Were they mainly kids, young people?

1 THE WITNESS: I wouldn't call them children, they
2 were young boys.

3 THE COURT: Teenagers?

4 THE WITNESS: Young men, yes.

5 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel. Excuse the 6 interruption.

7 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you remember any other incidents up
8 on the construction site while you were personally on guard?

9 A. I had a few incidents with some woodcutters.

10 THE COURT: Some what?

11 THE WITNESS: Woodcutters.

12 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Tell us what you remember about that,
13 please.

14 A. They would come up at night and cut wood and have a fire
15 in a 55-gallon barrel, an open fire. And it was sitting next 16 to one of the trailers, and I just had some incidents with 17 them, trying to get them to leave the property.

18 Q. Was this a, just an individual or groups, or what was 19 going on?

20 A. It was only one group. It was like maybe eight people.
21 And one of them was, his name was Massey, I believe, was the 22 one that I always spoke with. He kind of seemed to be the,
23 like the owner of the log splitter and -

24 Q. He was the leader of the woodcutters, huh?

25 A. Yes. He was the leader of the woodcutters.

1 Q. Okay. What happened when you -- how would you see
2 them? I mean, were they just, would they sneak on the 3 property or -

4 A. They would just drive up on the property and get all,
5 with all their equipment and start cutting wood and build a
6 fire.

7 Q. What time of night was this?

8 A. After dark.

9 Q. Well, obviously, you don't get there until after dark,
10 but was it midnight or 3:00 or 6:00 or -

11 A. They came at different times. They -- I don't remember
12 them ever coming after midnight, just showing up after 13 midnight, but they would come at different times. They 14 didn't have a schedule.

15 Q. What did you do then, what did you say to these 16 woodcutters when you would go see them on the property?

17 A. I would ask them to leave the property and not to start
18 any fires on it.

19 Q. I'd like you to look at Government's Exhibit 29 here up
20 on the screen. Can you see the wood that's on the site?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Is that -- this picture is from November 29, 1988. Is 23 that pile of wood here typical of what was on the site while 24 you were guarding it?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit 70. Could you describe
2 the size, the various sizes of wood that was there on the
3 property?

4 A. It went from a twig to a full tree uprooted.

5 Q. And this was -- I'll show you Government's Exhibit 71.
6 Is that typical of the wood that was up, piled up on the site
7 during the time you were guarding it in November of 1988?

8 . Yes.

9 Q. How high were those piles?

10 . I couldn't tell you how high they were. They were
11 larger than a -- they were as high as a semi truck or -- I
12 mean, you couldn't see over the wood piles. If you were 13 standing next to them, you couldn't see over it.

14 Q. And they were located on the east side of the 15 construction site near where the trailers had been parked; is 16 that a fair statement?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you have an incident up on the construction site
19 that you were involved in with a pickup truck?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. Do you remember when in the month of November of 1988
22 that occurred?

23 A. It was, I believe, within like a week, sometime within 24 like a week. It was real close to the explosion.

25 Q. So what you're saying is maybe a week before the

1 explosion, sometime in that -

2 A. Yes. Or maybe just a few days, but within a week.

3 Q. Tell us what happened.

4 A. I was on the east side of the property guarding that
5 side, and I saw a vehicle come up 87th through the entrance
6 that you could come up on the property because there was two 7 entrances. And I was on one, and he came up the entrance on 8 the other side, and I could just see the outline. He came up
9 with no lights on on his truck. And he went -

10 Q. If I may interrupt for a minute. Looking here at 11 Government's Exhibit 26 at the bottom of this photograph, is 12 that 87th Street, then?

13 A. That's what I think.

14 Q. Okay. Well, that's right. Could you point out to the 15 jury, please, on that photograph, if you can, where the two 16 entrances onto that part of the site were located?

17 A. This is the haul road, and here is the other entrance.

18 Q. Thank you. One just before you get back, where were you
19 on patrol when you first noticed the, someone trying to come
20 on the property?

21 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Mr. Becker. If she wants
22 to stand there, maybe Mr. Becker with his pointer could 23 simultaneously point on the picture and that would solve the 24 problem, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: That would be good if you can do that,

1 Mr. Becker. I think we need to be able to see what she's 2 pointing to, and I can't see anything that she's pointing to 3 over there.

4 MR. BECKER: All right.

5 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) So if you could point out the two
6 entrances to the property again.

7 A. Right here' right here' and it comes up' and right here.

8 Q. Thank you. And one more. Where were you stationed or 9 located when you saw this vehicle coming onto the property?

10 A. Right here on the haul road.

11 Q. Slightly beyond where that battalion chief's car is
12 there?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. If you would have a seat, please.

15 Please tell us, then, was this late at night on 16 that particular day?

17 A. I believe it was before midnight. I don't remember the
18 time.

19 Q. What did you see?

20 A. I saw the outline of the truck come up the hill off of 21 87th and come up on the property, and the property changed
22 daily. I mean -

23 Q. What does that mean?

24 A. Well, they were doing dynamite, and where the heavy
25 equipment would drive would make it impassable at times. And

1 sometimes, like some nights I could cross across the
2 property. That night I couldn't.

3 Q. Meaning that you could go from the haul road over here
4 to the exit on the far side of the property?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. That would be down and across where the trailers had 7 been located?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. On that particular night when you saw activity at 10 the other entrance, were you able to drive across?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Why not?

13 A. I had to go back down because the heavy equipment had 14 been driving back and forth and caused too many ditches. It
15 was just impassable.

16 Q. So what did you do?

17 A. I radioed the other officer. I came back down the haul
18 road, came up 71 Highway, went to 87th Street, and went back
19 up, and by the time I got up there, he was at the trailer.

20 Q. Well, you get up -- where were you on the site when you
21 next saw the person or vehicle, up onto the area of the
22 trailers?

23 A. Yes, right there.

24 Q. All right. What could you see when you got to that
25 point?

1 A. He was at the trailers.

2 Q. So you could see a man?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. Was a person -

5 A. In a pickup truck.

6 Q. Was he out of the truck or in the truck?

7 A. He was just getting back in the truck. And he got back
8 in the truck. I had my lights off. He couldn't see me. He 9 got back into his truck, he backed it up, and he went 10 straight back to the magazine bunker.

11 Q. Now, those are located at the rear of the property; is
12 that -

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. I'm sort of off the chart.

15 A. Yes. And he went to the one. He didn't go to both of 16 them. He went to the one. He got out of his truck.

17 Q. That's if you -- you see my pencil there, or you see 18 that -- what was in those bunkers at the back of the
19 property?

20 A. Dynamite is what I was told.

21 Q. All right. What did you do then?

22 A. I just went real slow with my lights off and followed
23 him, and followed him back to the bunker. He got out of his 24 vehicle, walked over to it, and then went back to his
25 vehicle, and then I shined a spotlight out my, out my window

1 at him, on him, and he jumped back in his truck, turned the
2 truck around, and came back at me head-on.

3 Q. What did you do?

4 A. I got out of his way. He was driving real fast, way too
5 fast to be on that construction site. And I pulled my 6 vehicle over and allowed him to go by me. I radioed the 7 other officer and asked her to cut him off down on 87th
8 Street. And she pulled her vehicle in sideways as I was 9 turning around and chasing him down that hill, but he went 10 right past her.

11 Q. Which way did that pickup truck go, then?

12 A. He went back out on 71 Highway, and he saw that I was 13 chasing him, and he slammed on his brakes, and I ran into the 14 back of him. And when I ran into the back of him, my radio
15 and my gun went on the floorboard. And because of my 16 stomach, I couldn't bend over and pick it up.

17 So I just sat there and he just looked at me. And 18 then he, he was starting to go up the highway wrong or 19 something, the wrong side of the highway. Like instead of 20 going southbound, he had made the turn wrong and he was going
21 to go up the wrong side.

22 And he, I believe then that's when he went back to 23 the correct side. He just kind of curved around and went 24 back. I think that's why maybe he slammed on his brakes.

25 And I pursued him up to 95th Street. He got off on

1 the first exit after 90 -- I mean, he got off on 95th Street,
2 went west, went to the first exit, got off on that and then
3 went back across a bridge and went into a residential area.

4 Q. Were you following, obviously?

5 A. I was following him.

6 Q. What happened when you got back in the residential area?

7 A. He came to a dead end road, and he turned his truck
8 around and came back at me again.

9 Q. What did you do?

10 A. I got out of his way. All I was really, the only reason
11 I was following him was not really to stop him because I
12 didn't feel comfortable in doing that. I only wanted his 13 license number.

14 Q. Did you get that?

15 A. No. I never did see a plate on his vehicle.

16 Q. Now, I'd like to talk about November 28, 1988. Were you
17 scheduled to work that day, which would be the 28th into the 18 29th?

19 A. Yes, I believe so.

20 Q. Did you receive a call to go down to the site earlier
21 than you expected?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Could you tell us about that, please?

24 A. Donna Costanza called me and told me that her vehicle,
25 she was on the site guarding it.

1 Q. okay. Do you know who was there at the beginning of the
2 shift on November 28, 1988?

3 A. I believe it was Kevin LeManske and Donna Costanza.

4 Q. Do you recall what time you were scheduled to relieve
5 one of them?

6 A. No. Just approximately between, I believe it was 10:00,
7 but -- around 10:00.

8 Q. You got a call, then, earlier than 10:00?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. From Donna Costanza. What was that about?

11 A. She wanted me to get down there right now, that this
12 other officer had messed her car up. I guess he had opened 13 up the hood and tried to help her start it or something, and 14 she said that he had messed her car up, and she was just 15 screaming and yelling at him. I could hear that in the 16 background.

17 Q. What did you do?

18 A. I started down there and started calling my brother the 19 whole way down there.

20 Q. So you had a mobile phone in your pickup truck, as well?

21 A. I had my brother's mobile phone.

22 Q. What did you tell your brother? What was that about?

23 A. I told him exactly what had happened, that she had 24 phoned me and that she was very upset and that she was saying
25 that he had destroyed her car and, you know, broken it and

1 that he needed to go down there because she was scheduled to
2 work a double shift.

3 Q. So you were going to replace LeManske, and Ms. Costanza
4 was going to be there the rest of the night?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. When you drive down there, what do you see when you
7 arrive at the construction site on 71 Highway and Blue River?

8 A. I remember seeing Donna at her car. I don't remember
9 seeing Kevin. I remember I talked to him. I don't remember
10 where he was at or anything like that. I remember Donna ith
11 her car, and I pulled up real close to her car, which was

12 Q. Where was that?

13 A. Right by the heavy equipment on the east side, on the 14 west side of the 71 Highway.

15 Q. So where the Brown Brothers equipment was typically 16 parked?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. If you were -

19 A. But she was more pulled out. She wasn't sitting in 20 between the equipment, she was pulled out on the road, I
21 mean, on the side of the road.

22 Q. Right near 71 Highway?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Southbound at that point, right?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. What kind of car, if you remember, what did she have?

2 A. I know that it was a Volkswagen, and I believe it was a
3 Rabbit.

4 Q. What happened then when you arrived on the scene? Was 5 your brother there?

6 A. My brother pulled up almost the same time I did, and so
7 he more or less took care of it, and I went across the 8 street.

9 Q. What does that mean?

10 A. I went to the other side of the property to go ahead
11 and -- I told Kevin that he could go ahead and go home. I
12 just don't remember which side he was on when I told him.

13 Q. So you contacted this other guard, LeManske?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And he went home?

16 A. Yes, I told him he could go home a little earlier
17 because I was already there.

18 Q. Did you set up then in your guard post or whatever you
19 want to call it on the east side of the highway?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Could you tell us again, if you remember, where you were 22 on, it would have been late on November 28, 1988, on this
23 part of the construction project?

24 A. No. I can only say that I would have been either on the 25 haul road or the berm. I don't remember which one I was on.

1 I didn't stay there that long.

2 IQ So, again, this road that comes up from 71 Highway, or
3 out on this ridge or berm up above the site, right?

4 IA. Right. I don't remember which one.

5 Q. Did you have any means of communicating with the other
6 guards?

7 I A. Yes.

8 Q. What was that?

9 A. By radio, walkie-talkie.

10 Q. Did you have it with you that night?

11 A. Yes, I believe so.

12 Q. So

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. So you said you weren't on that side of the property for 15 long. What happened?

16 A. Well, I saw that a tow truck came and took Donna's car
17 off, and as far as I knew, she went with the vehicle with the 18 tow driver. I don't remember now where she rode, but I knew
19 that she had left. And my brother came over, and he asked me
20 to work the lighted side of the highway.

21 Q. So sure. Robert your brother comes over. Does he 22 take up his position then on the east and you go over to the 23 west?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Could you then -- so for the rest of that night, where

1 was your position or station?

2 A For the rest of that night, my position would have been
3 on the west side.

4 Q. And at the risk of belaboring it, it's down here where
5 Brown Brothers has the heavy equipment, and we can see
6 actually a little bit of a red blot there, that would be your
7 pickup truck?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Where did Robert go?

10 A. He went up the haul road.

11 Q. Do you have any recollection about what time this was 12 when Costanza finally left and you and Robert Riggs took up
13 your positions?

14 A. No. I just remember that it was early because I let 15 Kevin go home early.

16 Q. Did you or Robert conduct any patrols that night?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Could you tell us what that was?

19 A. It was just the normal patrol, except for Robert, being
20 my brother, was more protective of me because I was pregnant,
21 and so he would come down and pick me up and let me ride with 22 him like to the office trailers and back up to check with him
23 So I wouldn't be by myself.

24 Q. So what was your typical patrol when let's say you and 25 LeManske or you and Costanza were on the site?

1 A. The same patrol.

2 Q. But solo?

3 A. Right. Or, you know, there were times that we rode
4 together too. But, you know, with Robert being my brother
5 and me being pregnant, I did ride with him on his patrol that
6 night.

7 Q. Do you have any recollection, any memory of how many
8 patrols you made that night before, say, 3 a.m., 2 a.m.?

9 A. We made at least three that I know of.

10 Q. What was your patrol, then, what did you go check that
11 night?

12 A. All the property.

13 Q. What did that mean?

14 A. The whole property. We went up the haul road, checked
15 the heavy equipment at the top, went back down, went to the 16 office trailers, went over to where the heavy equipment was 17 and walked that, but we walked it together. We went back up
18 on the other side. And I don't know how many patrols he made
19 by himself. That was just what I did with him.

20 Q. When you went back on the other side, did you check the 21 explosive bunkers?

22 A. Yes, we always checked the locks.

23 Q. Were they intact?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. How about the two semitrailers, semi truck trailers that

1 were on the site, did you check them?

2 A. Yes, we always checked the locks.

3 Q. Do you remember, were they intact?

4 A. Yes, except for one lock we couldn't see because they
5 had parked a pickup truck backed up against the back doors.

6 Q. Who is they?

7 A. The people on the construction site that worked it.

8 Q. Did you recognize that as a Mountain Plains Blasting
9 Company pickup truck?

10 A. I can't tell you that I recognized it as a Mountain
11 Plains pickup truck, but I recognized the vehicle from being 12 on the property before, that it wasn't out of -- it was a
13 vehicle that I had seen before up there. It had just been 14 parked at a different location.

15 Q. And this particular night it was backed up against the 16 rear doors of one of the trailers?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did there come a time, then, that you resumed, say,
19 approximately 2 a.m., you resumed your duty position over
20 near the heavy equipment?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did you have a conversation with your brother about
23 dinner or eating?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Please tell us about that.

1 A. I radioed my brother and asked him if he wanted to come
2 down and eat a sandwich, I had a meatloaf sandwich that I had
3 made. And I asked him if he was hungry and did he want this
4 sandwich and asked him to come down and get it.

5 Q. Well, did he do that?

6 A. Yes, he came down and parked his vehicle, and he said
7 that he had the schedules. We called them the schedules for 8 the officers to work. And he asked me if I wanted to go over 9 the schedules with him to see what hours -- he sort of gave 10 me my pick of hours.

11 Q. So he had those with him in his vehicle?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. What was he driving that night, if you remember?

14 A. A station wagon, a foreign station wagon. I don't 15 recall the make.

16 Q. So he drives down and he parks next to you near the 17 heavy equipment; is that right?

18 A. Almost next to me, more in front of me and to the side.

19 Q. Closer to 71 Highway?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What did you do? Did he get in your car?

22 A. I got into his vehicle.

23 Q. I assume you got in the front seat, passenger seat?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you have your sandwich with you?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What did you do with the sandwich?

3 A. I gave the sandwich to him, and he ate it. And we had
4 the interior light on. And I looked at the schedules, and
5 then I turned the light off.

6 Q. Did you and Robert do any foot patrol during that time
7 back along the heavy equipment?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Tell us about that.

10 A. We got out of the vehicle and walked up and down the 11 heavy equipment and did a patrol. I believe we could have 12 done two.

13 Q. Did you leave anything in your pickup truck?

14 A. Everything except for my dog.

15 Q. You had a dog?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What kind of dog?

18 A. A five-inch poodle.

19 Q. Was that normal that you would take your dog with you on 20 guard duty?

21 A. Yes. I usually took a boxer with me too.

22 THE COURT: Did you say a five-inch poodle?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes.

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) So typically other nights you would 25 have had two dogs with you?

1 A. Yes. But I was in a rush, and I just didn't bring the 2 other dog.

3 Q. What did you leave in your pickup truck when you got
4 into Robert's car?

5 A. My car keys. I didn't carry a purse because I was 6 afraid if someone would walk by the vehicle sometime and we
7 were out patrolling or something they would notice a purse.
8 So I would just take a plastic grocery bag, you know, sack,
9 and I would put my billfold down in that so that no one could 10 see that it was just a billfold sitting there. And then I
11 had a gun down on the floorboard also.

12 Q. Whose gun was that?

13 A. My brother's.

14 Q. And that's something you used for security while you
15 were on the job; is that right?

16 A. That's what I used.

17 Q. Approximately -- and just your best recollection. How
18 long was Robert over on the area next to you here on 71
19 Highway with the heavy equipment?

20 A. I can only say approximately because I wasn't watching
21 my watch or anything. I would guess anywhere between 20 and 22 40 minutes, or an hour even. I just don't know. I don't
23 know.

24 Q. We've discussed this in the past?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. With the work on the schedules and the patrols and the
2 sandwiches and -

3 A. I'd like to say like 30 minutes, 45 minutes is just my 4 guess because of what we did.

5 Q. Sure. Could you describe for the jury, please, what you
6 could -- if you're parked here near the heavy equipment, what
7 could you see up in the area of the trailers?

8 A. You can't see the trailers. You can only see the 9 entrances.

10 Q. Why?

11 A. Because of the berm.

12 Q. So this, what you've described as your patrol position
13 earlier, this berm is, blocks the view of the trailers?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And actually can you see any of the construction site on 16 the east side, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. From the guard position down on the highway?

19 A. No, you couldn't.

20 THE COURT: Counsel, we're going to have to take 21 our afternoon break right quick. Do you want to mark where 22 you are now and do it now?

23 MR. BECKER: That's fine, Judge.

24 THE COURT: We will take our afternoon recess.

25 Fifteen minutes, ladies and gentlemen.

1 For your information, if you haven't discovered
2 this already, the shop on the first floor is opened until
3 3:30. And don't talk about the case, and you may withdraw
4 from the courtroom.

5 (The following proceedings were had in the
6 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

7 THE COURT: Gentlemen, come up a minute?

8 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
9 proceedings were had:)

10 THE COURT: We have these two questions from the 11 two different jurors. Take a look at them and tell me what 12 you think.

13 MR. BECKER: The first question is from Rainey.
14 "Can Deborah give a description of the truck size, color,
15 make, and model?"

16 MR. O'CONNOR: That's coming on cross-examination,
17 Judge, unless you want to do it now. Or I'm assuming -

18 MR. BECKER: We can go back and cover it. The 19 other one is any charges against Deborah Riggs for having her
20 truck stolen.

21 MR. PETERS: That will come out on cross too.

22 MR. BECKER: Well, it happened in 1975. Maybe
23 counsel can make a statute of limitations argument for her.

24 MR. PETERS: I think it's, perhaps, already been 25 made for her.

1 THE COURT: Well, I think you might consider
2 remoteness, too. I take it there were no charges?

3 MR. PETERS: We found out about this about an hour
4 ago.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: She just told Paul when she came
6 down to testify.

7 MR. PETERS: If, by chance if it would be
8 considered remote, what we have is there's going to be expert
9 testimony that if you take away the firefighters and the 10 explosion, you have what they would consider an arson of her
11 truck done by her for insurance proceeds.

12 MR. BECKER: I haven't been given any notice of any 13 expert that would testify to that.

14 MR. PETERS: You've provided us the discovery from 15 the experts that say that, the State Fire Marshal's Office.

16 MR. BECKER: He's not on anybody's witness list.

17 THE COURT: We're not talking about that truck.
18 We're not talking about a truck that was involved. This
19 question relates to a long -- wasn't this a long time ago?

20 MR. BECKER: That's in 1975.

21 THE COURT: This is a 1975 incident.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: The question is were there any 23 charges against her. Do we know the answer to that?

24 MR. BECKER: The answer is no, I guess, because
25 she -

1 THE COURT: I don't think I'm going to allow that
2 anyway. I mean' you're talking 21 -- yeah, 21 years ago, for 3 instance, that nobody has any record of there being any 4 charges involved.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: The trouble that I see that it
6 raises, Judge, is, of course, this is not Mr. Becker's fault
7 that this lady just told him this today, but he's now tried
8 to take it up on direct to try to take the blow away. I
9 think this should be somewhat fertile ground for
10 cross-examination.

11 In other words, if he was wanting to limit us
12 before we started, but now he's kind of opened it up to try
13 to take the blow away from us trying to get into it -- but I
14 don't think we can ask her if she had any charges. I agree
15 with that.

16 THE COURT: That was the question we were dealing 17 with.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: There was no charges. I agree,
19 unless she says there was.

20 THE COURT: You find out the answer to that.

21 MR. BECKER: I know the answer. She said she never 22 got caught. This is the first anyone ever knew of it.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. OSGOOD: Which goes to her credibility because 25 she's been asked in numerous depositions and statements have

1 you told us everything now that would have any bearing on
2 this.

3 THE COURT: I don't think that would have any
4 bearing on this, John, for heaven's sake.

5 MR. PETERS: The only part I'm concerned about is 6 we're talking about her being questioned eight years ago, and
7 she is listed as a suspect by Kansas City, Missouri, Police
8 Department.

9 THE COURT: That doesn't mean a thing to me. That
10 doesn't mean anything to me that the Kansas City, Missouri,
11 Police Department might have her on a long list of suspects
12 that they've got to eliminate like for a differential
13 diagnosis. No, sir. We'll not get into that.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: As administrative counsel, what I
15 would say, Judge, let's wait until after we've created some 16 cross-examination of her. If we think it's fertile, we'll 17 come back and ask about it.

18 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, on this issue of the writ, do
20 you want to do it now or at the end of the day?

21 THE COURT: Did you see the order?

22 MR. O'CONNOR: No.

23 THE COURT: Well, it doesn't say anything. Just 24 denied, period.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: From a logistical standpoint, I have

1 some of the statements here. More of them should be here
2 before 5:00. I say we take this up at the end of the day.

3 THE COURT: That's fine.

4 MR. BECKER: There's nothing to take up. There's 5 been two and possibly three orders of this Court saying turn
6 them over by a date certain, and every time we get to the 7 date certain, we have to take it up again.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, the point was what I had made
9 to you earlier, was I wanted to explore whether or not the 10 sanction the Court, what the Court would sanction me, then
11 obviously I fully intend to give them up. No one can use
12 l them over this period of time is all I'm saying. Do you
13 l agree with that?

14 THE COURT: You don't plan on using them between 15 now and the end of this day' do you?

16 l MR. BECKER: No' Judge. I've been down this road
17 three times now, and we get to a point where Judge Bartlett
18 had ordered it turned over -

19 THE COURT: You'll get them by the end of this 20 day. Okay.

21 (A recess was taken from 3:31 p.m. to 3:56 p.m.
22 when the following proceedings were had in the courtroom in 23 the presence of the jury:)

24 THE COURT: I've got to say in my 15 years'
25 experience on the bench, you all have done the quickest job

1 in getting yourselves lined up to get back in here than I've
2 seen. It's wonderful. Thank you. Have a seat.

3 All right. Proceed, counsel.

4 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

5

6 RESUMES DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Becker:

8 Q. Miss Riggs, I need to back up for a second. We were 9 discussing earlier in your testimony the pickup truck that 10 you chased around the site and then down into a neighborhood
11 off of 95th Street. Were you able to see what kind of truck
12 that was?

13 A. No, I didn't know the make and the model. It was an 14 older truck that used to have the taillights -- you know,
15 they weren't attached to the back, they were like on a pole.

16 Q. Stuck out of the bumper?

17 A. Like in the fifties. They weren't attached to the 18 vehicle.

19 Q. What color, if you could tell?

20 A. I believe it was red.

21 Q. Anything else, was it a full-sized truck or a
22 small-sized truck?

23 A. It was a full-sized truck.

24 Q. By the way, could you give the jury a description of 25 your truck that you had at the time?

1 A. I had a Toyota. I believe it was a '77. It was a late
2 Toyota long-bed with a, it was red with a roll bar. It was
3 higher up than normal. Real sporty looking.

4 Q. Is that work that you had done to that pickup truck?

5 A. Excuse me?

6 Q. Is that work that you had done to your pickup truck, to 7 put on the roll -

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I think where we left off, then' is you're on duty on 10 the early morning hours now of November 29, 1988. And you
11 and your brother are both at a position on the west side of 12 the highway near the Brown Brothers equipment; is that right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And you'd both been there for some period of time. You
15 were working on schedules and all of that?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Do you recall something happening that caught your
18 attention?

19 A. I had been watching the' there was like a fuel tanker
20 over on the east side where the entrance is off of 87th
21 Street like that you pull behind a semi truck that's loaded
22 with gasoline.

23 Q. And if you would look here' I think it's Government's
24 Exhibit 29' I'm pointing out the bottom of the property
25 here. Is that the tanker that you were describing?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 Q. All right. And that, again, is at the 87th Street side
3 of the property?

4 A. I can't say that it is. I call it 87th Street.

5 Q. All right. And you were here where the construction
6 vehicles are parked on the west side of the highway?

7 A. True.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. And I'd been watching over that way, and I just happened
10 to turn and look down towards the trailers, the opposite side
11 of the site. And what caught my eye was two people out in 12 the middle of the highway is when I first looked over there,
13 and they were standing in the middle, or they weren't 14 standing' they were walking. But when I saw them' they were 15 right exactly in the middle of the road.

16 Q. I think we're going to have to have you use the pointer
17 again so everyone can see. Could you come over to the 18 overhead here and point out to the jury' first of all' where 19 you and your brother were located?

20 A. We had both our vehicles right here.

21 Q. Then where are the office trailers that you're talking
22 about?

23 A. Right here.

24 Q. And that's located in the median between the north and 25 the southbound lanes of 71 Highway?

2 Q. You started to tell us what you saw. What did you see'
3 and point out as you're speaking' please.

4 A. I saw two people right here' and they were walking going
5 west' but instead of going down the road' they were cutting
6 in behind the trailers. Which the road is only like maybe
7 20' 25 feet or something from where they were walking' so I
8 didn't really understand why they would be walking in behind
9 the trailers. But, you know, you saw people walk down the 10 highway at 3 o'clock in the morning sometimes.

11 Q. That wasn't completely out of the ordinary?

12 A. No. But I watched them go in behind. There was a stack
13 of hay right here. I watched them go in behind the hay. I
14 watched them -- you know, there was like a little opening,
15 and then they went in behind the trailer. There was' I
16 believe' two trailers there. And they went in behind there'
17 and I can remember just sitting there and thinking' well'
18 that one of them had to stop and tie their shoe. Well' they 19 put their cigarette out. Well' maybe they had to go to the 20 restroom. I was trying to think of why they were taking so
21 long.

22 Q. Taking so long what, with doing what?

23 A. That they hadn't come back out the other side yet. They 24 had walked in behind it' but they weren't coming back out the 25 other side. And I waited and I waited' and I was thinking in

1 my mind' well, tying their shoe and -- and I just waited, and
2 then I ran out of things for them to do. And so I told my
3 brother -

4 Q. What was your brother doing at that point?

5 A. He was leaned back -- his seat' he always drove with his
6 seat even with the B-post.

7 Q. What's the B-post?

8 A. The post that goes in between the front door and the 9 back door' there's a post there. There's one in the front'
10 one in the middle' and one in the back.

11 Q. And that's called -

12 A. A B-post.

13 Q. -- in the auto industry' a B-post?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And he had his -

16 A. That's how he drove it. His seat always stays reclined
17 even with the B-post. I don't know why he drives like that'
18 he just always drives like that.

19 I was looking through his window when I saw it.
20 Partially out the windshield.

21 Q. So if your car is facing 71 Highway?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. You would be looking out towards your left up north; is
24 that right?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Was the light on in your car, then?

2 A. No, I had turned it off.

3 Q. What was your brother doing?

4 A. He was resting.

5 Q. Fair to say when you looked over, his eyes were closed?

6 A. I didn't look at his eyes.

7 Q. Did it appear to you as if -

8 A. He wasn't making any noise. I mean, we weren't talking
9 or -- you know, he had been quiet.

10 Q. Okay. What did you do?

11 A. I smacked him on the shoulder and said I'd seen two 12 prowlers or two people or something, that I had seen two 13 something. I don't remember my exact words now.

14 Q. What did you do next? Actually, if it would help you to 15 show us what you did.

16 A. Okay. We were backed in, like I said. He immediately
17 stuck this spotlight out his sunroof. He had his sunroof
18 partially opened. He stuck it out in front of us. There's a
19 dirt road that goes across here, the haul road. He stuck it
20 out and showed his light so he could see where he was going
21 across and then turned it right back off again when he first
22 started the vehicle. And we went across that road.

23 We came across here, turned here with no lights on,
24 drove up here, pulled in beside these trailers. And he took 25 his spotlight, and he did it underneath the trailers to see

1 if we saw anyone, and in behind it, and then he backed back
2 out, pulled up this way and did his spotlight, and by then, I
3 believe he had his lights on but I'm not sure. I know' I
4 remember that he had them off most of the time. And he did a
5 spotlight up this street to see if there was a car parked
6 along the road and then -

7 Q. Did you see anything?

8 A. No' there was no vehicles. And then we came back to 9 here. And he did a spotlight up here. We didn't see any 10 vehicles. He made this turn to where the wooded area is,
11 where the creek is, and he did a spotlight all down in this
12 area. And we just kind of crawled, you know, went real slow
13 across the bridge as he did that.

14 Q. Now, was there any other traffic on 71 Highway when you
15 were running around with your spotlight?

16 A. No. I only saw two vehicles drive by from the time I
17 saw the men and the time we took off. There was a car and 18 then a semi truck. I didn't see any other vehicles after
19 that.

20 Q. If you could just have a seat, please. And I'd like you
21 to look at Government's Exhibit 72 and 73. Are these the 22 trailers that, the office trailers that you were talking
23 about, that you went to check out that vicinity?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And I think this Government's Exhibit 73 is a little

1 different view. Can you see over in this area here, there
2 appears to be some hay?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Were you able -- you started to talk about when the men
5 left your view. Where did they go when they left your view,
6 if you could show on Government's Exhibit 73, or tell us,
7 describe to us where you saw them go.

8 A. They went in behind the hay, and then there was that
9 little opening before the next trailer, and I saw them walk
10 through that. But I didn't see them go beyond, come back out
11 the other side.

12 l Q. After you and your brother then, you and Robert Riggs
13 pulled out and were going on to see if anyone was in the area
14 of the trailers, in this first section you came across the 15 road here?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And then headed up to the trailers, correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. In this first section between the haul road and where 20 the trailers were positioned, did you or did your brother use
21 the spotlight at all to check the area on either side of the 22 road there?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Would you -- were you looking out the window at all or 25 out of the vehicle at anything along this side of the road

1 before you reached the trailers?

2 A. No, we didn't even have our lights on.

3 Q. Was the general lighting conditions -- what were the 4 general lighting conditions, then, on that if you didn't have
5 your lights on, or spotlight?

6 A. On that particular night, there was a full moon.

7 Q. Were there any street lights or artificial lights,
8 construction lights along the highway there?

9 A. No. Now, I don't know about street lights. I don't 10 remember there being a street light, but I can't say that for 11 sure. I don't remember there being lighting.

12 Q. Did you find anyone in the area of the trailers?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Then you said you crept along towards the bridge.

15 What is on either side of the highway between the trailers
16 and the bridge?

17 A. A creek with a wooded area.

18 Q. Is there anything, any buildings or structures or 19 anything?

20 A. No. No.

21 Q. So what do you do, then, when you finally reach the 22 bridge crossing the Blue River?

23 A. Our main concern was that they weren't breaking into the 24 trailer. We checked the trailer thoroughly, underneath,
25 behind, all around the trailer. They weren't there. Now, we

1 did check those side streets to see if we saw a car breakdown
2 and didn't.

3 Robert had, you know, we were over the bridge
4 because we were checking the wooded area and the creek. And
5 so he started to turn back down' there was a street right
6 past the wooded area that could come back to the construction
7 site' and he had just started to make the turn, and I asked
8 him if he would go to QuikTrip or 7-Eleven, whichever one it
9 is.

10 Q. All right. If you would look, please, at Government's 11 Exhibit 5 here. Can you see that? If you could come down
12 here, please.

13 Could you just use your finger to show how you went 14 up 71 Highway and where you may have turned?

15 A. Yes. We came up 71 Highway, and he started to make this 16 turn. And I asked him to go to, it's marked QuikTrip. But I
17 don't, looking back, I don't remember if it was a QuikTrip or 18 a 7-Eleven. And I asked him to go there, and then I would 19 run in and ask the manager if he had seen two men on foot.

20 And so we pulled in, we came around the front -
21 the QuikTrip faced going to the south, the doors and 22 everything, and this was the back of QuikTrip, this was the 23 front.

24 We pulled into QuikTrip. We kind of went over to 25 the side right past the front door, and he backed in and I

1 ran into QuikTrip and asked, I believe his name was Dave -

2 Q. All right. If you would have a seat, please. So you

3 talked to the manager. What did you ask him?

4 A. I asked him if he had seen two men on foot.

5 Q. Had he seen anyone?

6 A. No, he said no.

7 Q. What did you do then?

8 A. For me, it was over. You know, they hadn't broken into 9 the trailers. Obviously, they had went down in the wooded
10 area and just walked off somewhere, or I had just missed
11 seeing them come out the other side. But it was over, the 12 excitement was over.

13 I hadn't eaten because I had given him my sandwich,
14 so I hadn't eaten all night or had anything to drink all
15 night. And so I went and got a package of rolls and some 16 milk, and I walked back to the door, and I yelled out to 17 Robert, could I have some money. And I can't remember if he 18 brought it up to the door or brought it up to the counter,
19 but I walked to the back of the store and stuck the rolls in 20 the microwave for like ten seconds and then went back up.

21 I remember going to the counter. I don't remember
22 if the money was already there or if I grabbed it from him at 23 the door. But when I went back out, he was already sitting 24 in the vehicle. I remember that.

25 Q. And that was in Robert's station wagon?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. I'm sorry. What did you buy, you had rolls and what
3 else?

4 A. Milk.

5 Q. What did you do when you got back out to the car?

6 A. I got back in the passenger seat. I opened up the 7 rolls, and we saw a woman dressed in all black and with short
8 hair, and she was like either in an IROC or a Z-28, you
9 know, Camaro.

10 Q. A type of Camaro?

11 A. Yes. And she went, kind of pulled in real fast and 12 parked her car kind of catty, kind of catty-cornered, not 13 straight. And she went running in the QuikTrip, and I just 14 started opening up the rolls, and then I believe his name is 15 Dave came running out and he yelled through the sunroof -

16 Q. That's the guy from the QuikTrip?

17 A. Yes. He's like the manager or the assistant manager. I
18 know he worked there constantly. Every time I was on duty,
19 he was there.

20 And he yelled down through the sunroof that the 21 equipment was on fire, and so we took off.

22 Q. Okay. Took off in what direction? Where did you go?

23 A. We went southbound 71 Highway. By the time we hit the 24 bridge, we could see the fire. And Robert started dialing, I
25 believe it was 311.

1 Q. He had a mobile phone in his car, as well?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, we've gone over this before and we've looked at the 4 transcript and the dispatcher's tape, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. okay. And that, based on the dispatcher's tape, was 7 about 3:40 in the morning; is that right? Do you remember
8 that?

9 A. I would have to look at it again.

10 Q. okay. What did you see, then, as you went south on 71
11 Highway across the bridge?

12 A. We could see a fire. We just weren't sure what was on
13 fire.

14 Q. What side of the road?

15 A. On the side where the equipment was, the west side.

16 Q. Was Robert, was the car traveling fast?

17 A. Yes, we were traveling fast.

18 Q. As you got down to where the heavy equipment was 19 located, what did you see?

20 A. My truck was on fire, and the lights were going, it was 21 going on and off and the horn was honking. And Robert was on 22 talking to 311 by then. And I remember saying something to 23 him about I must have left my headlights on.

24 Q. Well, did you have an alarm system or anything like that 25 on the truck that -

1 A. No. I had no alarm system.

2 Q. Let me show you Government's Exhibit 143. As you pulled
3 up, then, along the highway going south, is that roughly
4 where you, your pickup truck was located?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And how much of a fire did you see when -

7 A. More fire than I'd ever seen. I mean, I'd seen some 8 vehicles catch fire on the side of the road, but this was 9 like tall shooting flames. I mean, that's why we couldn't
10 tell what it was from the bridge because it was such a big
11 fire.

12 Q. As you got closer, could you tell what part of the truck
13 was on fire, the engine or the back -

14 A. The cab.

15 Q. Did you see any other, any fire on the other side of the 16 road around about that time?

17 A. Well, when he pulled up, I remember I asked him to back
18 his car up because I was afraid that the truck would blow
19 up. So I asked him to back his car up, and he backed it up
20 even with a telephone pole or something, some type of a pole
21 that was on the side of the road like a speed limit or some 22 type of pole. And he backed it up.

23 And he was on the phone talking to 311 telling them
24 about the fire. And I looked over at him, and I could see
25 the flames shooting up off the trailer.

1 Q. Could you see -- now, we talked about this earlier. I
2 show you Government's Exhibit 139. Does that fairly depict
3 the view that you had when you were sitting near the heavy
4 equipment looking back towards where the trailers are
5 located?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So were you able -- so you're pulling up near this
8 truck, pickup truck that's on fire, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And then you back away. What do you see on this far,
11 far ridge up here?

12 A. The flames.

13 Q. Well, you -

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what did you say?

15 THE WITNESS: The flames.

16 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) You testified you saw the trailers on 17 fire. Could you see the trailers at that point?

18 A. No. I knew where the trailers were at. So I just 19 turned to Robert, I saw the flames, and I said, "The 20 explosives are on fire."

21 Q. Now, you were aware, and you've testified, that the 22 explosives, the dynamite and all of that, was located, were 23 located in the bunker, two bunkers at the rear of the 24 property; is that right?

25 A. The dynamite was.

1 Q. What did you, when you said explosives, what did you
2 know to be or think to be in those trailers?

3 A. That's what they used to set the dynamite off. It's the
4 explosives.

5 Q. okay. Is that, and that's what you thought was in those
6 trailers?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What happened next, what did you do?

9 A. I just said the explosives were on fire, and then he
10 told them -- I don't know what he said. But he told them
11 too, the dispatch.

12 Q. Did a firetruck -- what did you -- how long did you -
13 well, I won't ask. What did you do until the firetruck
14 arrived?

15 A. It was only -- it wasn't very long. We just sat there
16 and waited for the firetruck.

17 Q. You didn't attempt to put out the fire or do anything
18 like that?

19 A. No.

20 Q. What happened when that firetruck arrived?

21 A. The first pumper pulled up, they pulled in beside my
22 truck, got out, and put my truck out. And then Robert and I
23 went over there to them, and I kept on asking -- the main one
24 that I talked to was a blond-haired fireman that had a
25 moustache. And to me he kind of seemed like the boss or

1 something, and so I spoke to him most of the time. And I
2 told him that I could have left my lights on because when we
3 came back, the lights were on and the horn was honking. And
4 he said, no, that that was common in a fire. And he said the 5 electrical starts to go off. And so I asked him why was he 6 putting my truck out instead of putting the explosives out.

7 Q. How long did it take them to put out the pickup truck
8 fire?

9 A. I don't know. There was a lot of excitement, and I
10 don't know the time.

11 Q. Did a second pumper, firetruck arrive?

12 A. Yes, the second truck came. And instead of pulling in 13 the haul road, because it seemed like they came from the 14 south, and they passed the haul road because I remember
15 thinking they missed the road. And they went down by the 16 office trailers and, you know, cut across there at that Blue
17 River Road, or I call it the Blue River Road.

18 Q. Did you talk to those firemen at all in that second
19 pumper?

20 A. Just briefly. I mean, I ended up meeting all of them,
21 but I didn't really have any discussions with any of them
22 except for a tall fireman that was real tall and a fireman
23 that had a moustache.

24 Q. Did they, did that second firetruck that arrived, did it
25 then go over, across, and up the hill?

1 A. First it parked in the middle of 71 Highway. That's
2 where it first parked. And they got out, and they came over
3 and we all talked. And then they went up on the hill. And 4 then the truck, the pumper that put out my truck asked us to 5 take them up there, to follow them up there.

6 Q. Okay. So then the second firetruck also went up the
7 hill?

8 A. Yes. And we followed them up.

9 Q. I'm going to show you Government's Exhibit 125. Now, is 10 that where the fire, the two firetrucks went is up this hill
11 and towards where the battalion chief's car is now located?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you followed that second pumper up the hill?

14 A. As far as we could go.

15 Q. In what car or -- what were you in?

16 A. We were in the station wagon.

17 Q. When you got to the top of the hill there -- and this 18 is, I'm showing you now Government's Exhibit 126. Did the 19 road, one of the roads go off to the right there towards the 20 trailer?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Where did you park, or where did you park and what did
23 you do?

24 A. We couldn't pull in where the pumpers went.

25 Q. Why?

1 A. Because of the trail, the heavy equipment had been
2 driving down through there. It had been muddy. It caused
3 ditches, and his car couldn't go through there.

4 Q. So you -

5 A. We stopped.

6 Q. Where did you stop?

7 A. Right in front of that car.

8 Q. Okay. So on Government's 126, this is the battalion
9 chief's car, this yellow car, right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. And your brother's station wagon was somewhere in front
12 of that?

13 A. But it was pointed going up the hill.

14 Q. So you weren't pointed towards the trailers?

15 A. No.

16 Q. You were pointed still facing up the hill?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The passenger side would have been towards the trailers?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. What do you see?

21 A. When we first pulled up, the other -- you know, they all
22 got out of the truck. The first truck was already there, and 23 they had like a pole, some type of pole. And they had it
24 hooked into that -- I mean, you know, I don't know that they
25 even make a pole. That's just what I saw. It looked like a

1 pole, and they had it with this pickup truck pulling the
2 pickup truck away from the trailer.

3 Q. Let's take it one step at a time. You look out this
4 direction towards the trailers, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. How many trailers were on fire?

7 A. One.

8 Q. Which trailer, the one closest to the road or the one
9 away from the road?

10 A. The one on the east side of the road.

11 Q. Closer to the brush, the wood?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What part or parts of that trailer did you see on fire?

14 Was it the front, the back, the wheels? What was it?

15 A. The pickup truck was on fire.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. The trailer, I can't really explain. It wasn't a fire.

18 It was a, it was like when you see a fire and there's coals
19 burning real bright orange. The trailer was real bright
20 orange' and it was like transparent. And it was' it wasn't
21 flat anymore' it was sticking up in the air.

22 Q. So one side had lowered to the ground' one end?

23 A. One side was up off the ground.

24 Q. Okay. So one side was off the ground' perhaps?

25 A. It was standing up.

- 1 Q. And it had like charcoal' a glow to it or what?
- 2 A. It was just a bright orange like a' like charcoals. It
- 3 was bright orange, the brightest orange I'd ever seen.
- 4 Q. And then the other trailer' what was -
- 5 A. It was fine. There was no flame on the other trailer or
- 6 anything.
- 7 Q. When you pulled up behind the second' the firetruck you
- 8 followed -
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. -- where was the firetruck that had first gone up the
- 11 hill?
- 12 A. It was in front of the trailers.
- 13 Q. So the front of meaning -
- 14 A. In between them. It had gone in between the trailers
- 15 and had parked in front of the trailers on the south side of
- 16 the trailers.
- 17 Q. So that' on the property' on the overall aerial view' if
- 18 we could look at Government's 5 here' the trailer' the
- 19 firetruck had gone beyond the two trailers and was up towards
- 20 the 87th Street side; is that fair to say? Right here' this
- 21 would be 87th Street?
- 22 A. Right. On that picture, it looks like the trailers were
- 23 clear over by 87th, but they were closest to us, not 87th.
- 24 Q. Right. Okay.
- 25 A. I don't know if it's the aerial view or what the thing

1 is, but I mean, they were close to us. But the pumper had
2 pulled in front of both trailers, the first one, and the 3 second one had pulled in between them.

4 Q. All right. So the second one, the one that you followed
5 up the hill?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Pulled between the two trailers?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. What were the men doing, the firemen, from the firetruck
10 that went up the hill first? When you first go up the hill,
11 what do you see those men doing?

12 A. They were pulling the pickup truck away from the
13 trailer.

14 Q. What did you see the men -- you followed another
15 firetruck up the hill?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And that truck then pulled on through?

18 A. And they got out, and one of them like joined, helping 19 the other firemen pull the truck away. And then another
20 fireman started walking back towards where we had told him
21 the dynamite was, and he started back there. And then the 22 fireman with the moustache, he went over to the pumper and 23 got the hose and came back over to the trailer with the hose
24 in his hand.

25 Q. Now, we're looking here at the photograph, the battalion

1 chief's car, right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. At what point does, then, this yellow car pull up on the 4 scene?

5 A. Almost right after we got there, real close to the time
6 we got there.

7 Q. What did you do -- then that car, where was it in
8 relation to your car?

9 A. They pulled right up against our back bumper with the 10 driver's side against our, the back of our car.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. Like you're going to block someone off.

13 Q. What did you do? I mean -

14 A. I didn't see them pull up. The driver got out and came 15 up to my window and tapped on my window. And Robert was 16 talking on the phone to the, you know, the man that is over
17 the construction site, either Collins or Brown, and he had 18 called one of them while we were across the street waiting on 19 the firetruck.

20 I had forgotten to tell you that. He did call one
21 of them from over there when we were waiting and spoke with 22 him, and he was on the phone talking to the other one. And 23 the dog was, you know, barking and barking because the guy
24 had tapped on the window. So I got out of the car and stood
25 outside of Robert's car.

1 He asked me what was in the trailer. And I told
2 him ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel, and fertilizer. And he
3 said, would you mind stepping back to the back of the car and
4 telling the chief. So I walked to the back of the car. He 5 kind of leaned in the car.

6 Q. Leaned in what car?

7 A. In his car.

8 Q. In what side of the car?

9 A. In the driver's side.

10 Q. And he had been the driver of that vehicle?

11 A. Yes, he was the driver of the vehicle, and the passenger
12 was still in there who he called the chief.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. And he leaned in the vehicle, and I was standing at the 15 door kind of in behind the door and was just watching the guy
16 that I had been talking to all along with the moustache and 17 blond hair.

18 Q. Back towards the site, back towards the fire?

19 A. Where the trailer is. And I was watching him because I
20 was waiting for him to start shooting water on it, and I was 21 watching him. And the guy leaned inside the car and said,
22 "She needs to tell you what's in the trailer." So I started
23 to tell him, and I told him, and then I remember he picked 24 up, I don't know what you would call it that they talk into.

25 Q. A microphone?

1 A. Well, I wouldn't have called it that, but I guess it
2 would be a type of microphone, and he picked it up, and I
3 remember him making the cue. And he said something like -- I
4 don't remember his exact words, but he said get out of there
5 or -- you know, like three words, get out of there, or get
6 them out of there or something, and it exploded.

7 Q. Were you watching, what were you looking at when you
8 felt or heard the explosion?

9 A. The fireman that I had been speaking to, with the 10 moustache.

11 Q. Could you see the trailer itself, were you watching -
12 was that in your site when -

13 A. That's what I was watching.

14 Q. What did it look like, the explosion?

15 A. It was real bright. It was like spotlights. Real
16 bright spotlights. And then it got kind of dark and like a
17 real high wind like a tornado and a real roar. And it just,
18 you could see steel flying through the air and boulders. But 19 when the boulders would hit the car, instead of just hitting 20 the car and bouncing off, it would like go through it.

21 Q. What happened to you?

22 A. I remember going up, up in the air and then going back.
23 It blew me up first, and then it blew me back.

24 Q. Where was the battalion chief's driver?

25 A. It blew him up and back. He landed in back of the car

1 too. He just didn't land as far as I did.

2 Q. Were you knocked unconscious at all?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Were you -

5 A. I wasn't knocked unconscious' I was' I just thought I
6 was dead because I had seen what I saw with the firemen' so I
7 figured I had done the same thing to myself. I just thought
8 I was dead.

9 Q. What did you hear or see next?

10 A. All the boulders coming and the steel. And I remember a 11 hand that was laying beside me' and I didn't know if it was 12 my hand or not because I didn't have any feeling in my body.

13 Q. Let me show you next 131. Can you see on this picture
14 at all, can you tell us where you say you were blown up and 15 back, where you went, where you were thrown?

16 A. I remember going up over the car, way up over the car
17 and back by that dirt that's back there.

18 Q. At the rear of this photograph, this pile of dirt and 19 stone?

20 A. I landed right in front of that. And I landed on all
21 fours, but you couldn't see my hands or my knees because they 22 went down into the dirt when I landed.

23 Q. What did you hear next?

24 A. The roar. It was just the roar. And I remember I
25 covered up my head. But I still thought I wasn't alive. I

1 thought' you know, like people talk about out-of-body
2 experiences and they look over, that's what I thought I was
3 doing. Because I remember being up in the air.

4 Q. Did you hear your brother at some point?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Tell us about -

7 A. Yes. As soon as I heard my brother' I could hear my 8 brother saying' "Debbie' are you all right' is the baby all
9 right?" And I could hear him saying that somewhere' but you
10 couldn't see. It got real black all of a sudden' and you
11 just couldn't see. And I remember hearing him' just barely 12 hearing him.

13 Q. Did he come back to you?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Tell us -

16 A. He got out of his vehicle and came back to me and helped
17 me up. And I could hear moaning' someone moaning. And I
18 told my brother that' I said I was okay because by then' you
19 know' I knew that I was alive. And I asked him to help who 20 was moaning.

21 Q. Who was moaning?

22 A. The driver of the car.

23 Q. Where was he?

24 A. He was in back of the car maybe 10 or 20 feet in front
25 of me, between me and the car.

1 Q. What did you do, or what did you see Robert doing?

2 A. Robert lifted him up and laid him against the back of
3 the trunk, the deck lid. And then he just slid back down the 4 deck lid, and I remember Robert helping him up again. And by
5 then I had gotten to my feet' but we could still hear someone
6 moaning that wasn't him, and so Robert went to the passenger
7 side.

8 And as soon as I got to my feet, I started down the 9 hill, and Robert was saying, you know, we need to get help.
10 But I knew what I had seen, and I knew that they didn't need
11 any help.

12 Q. When you got to your feet, did you look back towards the 13 trailers again?

14 A. As I was leaving.

15 Q. Was there any other -- first of all, did you see the 16 trailer that had been on fire?

17 A. No. No.

18 Q. What was going on, if anything, with the other trailer?

19 A. The other trailer had caught fire, and there was flames
20 coming up out of the roof. That's why I started back down
21 the hill.

22 Q. So I'm showing you Government's Exhibit 32 here. Here
23 is the battalion chief's truck, do you see that -- or car,
24 I'm sorry. And you start walking down the hill, meaning down
25 towards 71 Highway; is that correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. What happened?

3 A. Robert went to the passenger door when I looked back up
4 the hill because I remember seeing the guy that he called the 5 chief. And he was kind of up underneath the dashboard or 6 something. He was way up in there. It had blown him up in
7 there or something. And then I just continued to walk down
8 the hill. And Robert rolled his car down the hill and picked
9 me up at the bottom of the hill.

10 Q. What did you do, where did you go?

11 A. When we got down to the bottom of the hill and he picked
12 me up' there was a bunch of people over by my truck and out
13 on 71 Highway' and a police car was down there parked sort of 14 in front of my car.

15 Q. Again' in this area where the red pickup had been on
16 fire?

17 A. Right. Right. And so we went ahead and crossed that 18 haul road in between the highways and pulled over by the 19 police car and walked up to the police car. And he said,
20 "You've obviously been in the explosion. Can you wait in 21 behind the heavy equipment until we can take a statement?"

22 So we pulled the car back in behind the heavy
23 equipment, on the west side of the heavy equipment in behind
24 it. And I remember he called my parents, and we both talked
25 to them and said that we were okay. Because I remember he

1 made me talk to them too. And he called his wife and asked
2 her to come pick me up.

3 Q. Did a policeman then eventually come to interview you
4 back there?

5 A. No.

6 Q. What happened?

7 A. I guess they forgot about us and I just -

8 Q. What did you do -- tell us what you did or you saw your 9 brother doing?

10 A. We made the two phone calls, and I remember Robert
11 cleaning glass out of the seat for me. I remember him doing
12 that. And then I remember 'I told him I had to go to the 13 restroom, and I went up by the heavy equipment' and I kind of 14 peeked around the heavy equipment and everyone was gone.

15 Q. What do you mean? You look out towards 71 Highway here?

16 A. Yes. And everybody is gone.

17 Q. Well, who had been there?

18 A. Just people, and the police were there, everyone. I
19 mean 'it was full, there was a crowd there.

20 Q. And then when you looked out, nothing?

21 A. Nothing.

22 Q. What did you do?

23 A. There was no vehicles, no police vehicles' no nothing.

24 Q. What did you do?

25 A. I went back' and I told my brother that they had left us

1 there. And you could see the other, you know, the flames on
2 the other trailer going.

3 Q. All right. So looking back up the hill from where you
4 were' could you see the trailer itself at all?

5 A. It was like -- no, you couldn't see the trailer' but it
6 was an instant replay of what we had seen before. It was 7 just flames shooting high in the air. You could see the 8 flames but not the trailer. But then I looked up the highway
9 towards 95th Street, and I could see a roadblock. It was all
10 blocked off up there, a bunch of police cars with their 11 lights going. And you could see people, you know, I mean, it
12 was like a roadblock.

13 Q. As you looked up the highway, I want to show you
14 Government's Exhibit 13, or across the highway above the 15 ridge, sort of, does that appear the way it was between the 16 two explosions?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So no trailer but that -

19 A. Flames, high flames.

20 Q. So you saw something going on up towards Bannister
21 Road. What did you do?

22 A. It looked like a roadblock to me. And my sister-in-law
23 was supposed to pick me up, and so I asked Robert to take me
24 up to the roadblock because she couldn't get through. And I
25 told him that we had been left there and it was -- we knew

1 what would happen if we stayed there. I mean, the other
2 trailer was going to go. So we left.

3 Q. All right. Now, I'm showing you Government's Exhibit 53
4 there. And is this what you saw, the congregation of 5 emergency vehicles up towards Bannister Road and 71 Highway?

6 A. Right. Right.

7 Q. And you would have been, well, down the road across from 8 the site still?

9 A. Right. Where my truck was.

10 Q. What did you do?

11 A. Like I said, I remember him brushing the glass off the 12 passenger side for me. He had been doing that and so -

13 Q. I'm sorry. Obviously, was a window broken out or -

14 A. There was no glass. Everything -- I mean' all glass
15 shattered' anything that was glass. And I just -- I remember
16 the vehicle' like there was holes in it like from the rocks.
17 I couldn't even believe that it was drivable' that we were 18 driving it.

19 But we got back in the vehicle' we started down
20 towards 95th' and we came up to a' like a speed limit sign.
21 And I remember Robert saying to me we forgot the gun in the 22 truck because it was his gun' I was just borrowing it. And 23 he said' "We forgot my gun in your truck." Which had no
24 meaning to me whatsoever because I don't know anything about
25 guns and how much they're worth or -- I'm not, I don't know

1 anything about that.

2 Q. What happened? What did you do?

3 A. He said he wanted to go back and get his gun.

4 Q. What did you say?

5 A. I said no' to let me out. And I asked him to let me out
6 at the speed limit sign so he would know where to pick me
7 back up at' and I told him I would stand there.

8 Q. And would this be on the southbound side of the highway?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And then you would have been getting -

11 A. Where I could still see the truck.

12 Q. So you were fairly close to where the pickup truck was 13 still parked?

14 A. Right. But we had already started towards Bannister
15 when he said it.

16 Q. And where did you wait while Robert went back for his 17 gun?

18 A. I waited right at the speed limit sign.

19 Q. Was it down off the road or up on the road?

20 A. It was off the road. He pulled over and let me out' and 21 then I don't remember seeing his car go back. I remember the 22 second explosion because I could see him dive underneath my 23 truck like the truck would crush him or something' I don't
24 know.

25 Q. What happened to you?

1 A. It knocked me back down again.

2 Q. Where?

3 A. Down into a ditch.

4 Q. Were you looking back towards the flames when this
5 happened or down towards -

6 A. No' I was looking at Robert. I saw him dive under the 7 truck' like the back of the truck or something.

8 Q. Did you have any injuries' additional injuries' I should 9 say' from this second explosion?

10 A. I didn't have any injuries' that I was aware of.

11 Q. What happened next?

12 A. He came back up the highway, and I got to my feet, but I
13 remember I was stumbling like I was wandering, stumbling.

14 And I remember he pulled over. I got back in the vehicle.

15 We went up to 95th Street. He got off on 95th Street and 16 made a left' and then there was an on-ramp and an off-ramp'
17 and he kind of pulled to the right' his car' and I saw my 18 sister-in-law.

19 Q. I'm sorry. Did you go over to her car then?

20 A. I don't remember. I remember putting stuff in the trunk
21 of her car' but I don't remember the actual getting in and 22 leaving. After that' everything is pretty vague.

23 Q. Did she take you somewhere?

24 A. She took me to my parents,' I know that. I don't 25 remember the drive there or anything' but I remember I was at

1 my parents, because I remember standing in the kitchen when
2 some detectives came.

3 Q. Right. Sometime that morning did the detectives come
4 and ask you to come downtown and give a statement?

5 A. I don't remember what they asked me. I know that I went
6 downtown with them, but I don't remember being asked or -

7 Q. Do you remember giving a videotaped statement that
8 morning?

9 A. I don't remember it. I've seen it.

10 Q. Right. And -

11 A. But I don't remember it.

12 Q. In preparing for your testimony here today' you've taken
13 a look at that videotape, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. There are a number of things in the videotape I want to 16 ask you about. In the videotape, you talk about on the 28th,
17 not being scheduled for work that night. Is that correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Why did you tell the police that?

20 A. Because I was pregnant, I had a good job at Ford Motor
21 Company, and I was scared that I would get fired.

22 Q. Why?

23 A. I didn't know. I just knew I was working another job.

24 I didn't know if it was legal. I just didn't know. But I
25 knew I had a lot of time invested, I was pregnant, and I

1 didn't want to lose my job at Ford Motor Company for working
2 part-time.

3 Q. You also told the detectives that morning that when you
4 saw the two men near the trailers, Robert was on the far side
5 of the highway guarding that area; is that right?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Was that true?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Why did you tell the detectives that?

10 A. Because that's where he was, and that's where as far as 11 I was concerned he should have been. But I was his sister.
12 Like I said before, he was overly protective of me because I
13 was pregnant' and that's where I felt he should have been' so
14 I just didn't tell it all' that he came across right before
15 the explosion.

16 Q. And then also about the gun in the car, did you tell the 17 police that Robert went back to get that gun?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Why not?

20 A. I didn't see why I should. It had nothing to do with 21 the case that we went back and got the gun.

22 Q. Before going down to police headquarters and answering
23 questions, did you and Robert talk about you saying that he 24 was on the other side?

25 A. No. No, not that I, not that I remember. I don't

1 remember talking to Robert about anything, just the gun.

2 Q. He just put you in the car with your sister-in-law
3 land -

4 A Well, I don't remember. I remember going to 95th, and I
5 know that she drove me there, but to say that I remember
6 being in the car and looking over at her, no, I don't
7 remember. It was like things went blank for like almost two
8 weeks.

9 Q. Now, what you've told us and testified to here this 10 afternoon, is that accurate and as you remember it from the 11 events of November of 1988?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at this
14 time, Judge.

15 THE COURT: Will you all come up a minute, please.

16 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
17 ~ proceedings were had:)

18 THE COURT: I assume that your cross will be more
19 than ten minutes?

20 MR. BUNCH: Yes, Judge, I would ask that this be 21 deferred until tomorrow morning.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Peters said something at one of our 23 bench conferences earlier that alerted me to the possibility
24 that I should talk to you about this. unless there is
25 ~ something more than I know so far that would justify it, I

1 certainly want there to be no mention of the fact that this
2 woman was in any trouble with that incident before.

3 MR. PETERS: I understood, Judge.

4 MR. BUNCH: I heard you, Judge. I was standing
5 over there, and I won't do it.

6 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

7 THE COURT: I think we've had a full day's work,
8 ladies and gentlemen, and we're going to recess now. I'll 9 ask you to be back in the jury room at 9 o'clock in the 10 morning. If I survive the night with this cold, I'll be with 11 you. We'll work pretty much the same schedule tomorrow.

12 Don't talk about the case. Now, we're into an 13 overnight and we're at the end of the first day of trial, I
14 think you can easily surmise that there was some attention
15 being paid to this trial by the various media, and I'll ask
16 you, I'll urge you, I'll instruct you not to pay any 17 attention to anything that is on the television or the radio
18 or maybe in the paper.

19 By the time this is over, you will know more about 20 this case than any newspaper reporter or TV reporter or 21 camera person or radio reporter, and right now it would be 22 unfair to everybody for you to pay any attention to what they 23 might be putting in their particular segment of the media.

24 So have a good evening, drive carefully, and we'll
25 see you in the morning at 9 o'clock. You're excused.

1 (The following proceedings were had in the
2 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

3 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in recess.

4 (A recess was taken from 4:56 p.m. to 5:09 p.m.
5 when the following proceedings were had in chambers out of
6 the presence of the defendants:)

7 THE COURT: All right. It's now 5:08, five hours
8 and eight minutes after the last deadline given by Judge
9 Bartlett for production of these statements. What's your 10 position on this, Mr. O'Connor?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Is the Court ordering me to give
12 these to Mr. Becker?

13 THE COURT: It is, in a manner consistent with the 14 opinion of the Eighth Circuit, which we received today.

15 MR. PETERS: Sanction?

16 MR. O'CONNOR: Based on the order of the Court, I'm 17 going to give Mr. Becker these. What I have here is 18 Rosemarie Quiroz, Carl Nettles, Michael Whitelaw, Glen 19 Shepard, Ronald Lank, Charles Elliott, William Hand, Frank
20 Gile, Stanley Sanders. I also have Dave Dawson, but it's not 21 been reported yet, or hasn't been typed, and I'm supposed to 22 have that in the morning. And then I have Kathy Marburger
23 who won't be ready until Thursday or Friday, but she's on the 24 reserve government list, and she wouldn't be called, I don't
25 think, in the next two weeks anyway.

1 MR. BECKER: Fair statement.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all the interviews that I
3 have. And just for the record' I just want to incorporate
4 now all the previous arguments I've made in giving up these.
5 But based on the Court ordering me to' I will follow the 6 Court's order.

7 THE COURT: All right. It's done.

8 MR. PETERS: Judge, I think some of us need to make
9 a record. Right now Mr. Becker is getting the joint work
10 product of the defense team prior to the rest of the defense
11 team receiving the work product. We were directed by the 12 judge to share responsibilities. We've done that. Mr.
13 O'Connor has interviewed witnesses, and because of the claim
14 that for the first time in the history of the United States a
15 defense attorney is being ordered to produce statements prior
16 to the witness testifying for the first time -

17 THE COURT: You're thinking the Eighth Circuit
18 opinion is that much of a ground breaker?

19 MR. PETERS: I think the Eighth Circuit has 20 conclusively said that where the government says, Judge, I
21 respect you but I refuse to abide by your omnibus hearing,
22 that the Court can order them to do it. If they refuse, the 23 Court cannot impose sanctions.

24 I think the best worded opinion for the Court is 25 the Algie opinion where the Sixth Circuit praises the judge

1 for trying to move his cases, for trying to get the attorneys
2 to do mutual discovery. It goes to great length praising
3 him. In that case the U.S. Attorney refused to give over
4 statements a day before they testified.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I guess I'm a little lost
6 as to what you're talking about here. We've been talking
7 about O'Connor's, of the defense counsel's, I'm sure,
8 statements from government witnesses, right?

9 MR. PETERS: We're talking about witnesses to be 10 called at trial, right, correct.

11 THE COURT: What is it that Becker hasn't
12 produced?

13 MR. PETERS: I think there's a whole record before
14 Judge Bartlett -- and that's not part of the argument that 15 I'm making now. I think that's an argument that somebody is 16 going to make. If we aren't going by 3500 or Rule 26.2 and 17 that we're going on this agreement of the parties that's not
18 incorporated -

19 THE COURT: In the omnibus hearing, it's in the 20 record of the omnibus hearing?

21 MR. PETERS: Judge Bartlett in his discussions said
22 he was not making his ruling on the omnibus, it was that the 23 parties bilaterally agree to do this.

24 MR. BECKER: Excuse me. Mr. Peters wasn't present
25 for the vast majority of this discussion. Mr. O'Connor was

1 here, Mr. Wyrsh was here, and I was here until, I think, a
2 quarter to 8:00 on Friday night, and we've heard all of these
3 arguments.

4 These are slightly different, but going back to Mr.
5 Peters, original point, if he's worried that I'm getting it
6 first, I'll copy it and in the next 45 minutes you'll have
7 copies. No one will read it, I'll just -

8 THE COURT: You mean this, is that what you were
9 talking about?

10 MR. PETERS: Yes, those statements, Judge.

11 MR. BECKER: I'll copy them and I'll give them to
12 you.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I've had copies made for all the 14 lawyers and got permission to have them made, the second ones
15 at 10 cents a page. So I've got everything ready out here to 16 disseminate out here to all the lawyers as we walk out of 17 here, Judge. That's not the issue.

18 MR. PETERS: My point is -

19 MR. BECKER: That's the only issue that hasn't been 20 argued ad nauseas so far.

21 MR. PETERS: It may have been argued ad nauseas,
22 but it wasn't argued with my client being represented by me
23 where his work product is being handed over. And it hasn't 24 been argued, Judge, in front of you, and your name will be on 25 the order that -- again, I don't think I'm misstating it, and

1 if I am, somebody can correct me. This has never been done
2 in any reported case where a judge has ordered the defense to
3 turn over statements at all.

4 THE COURT: Now, wait a minute. Statements taken
5 from government witnesses after the names of the government
6 witnesses have been adopted by the party?

7 MR. PETERS: Correct.

8 THE COURT: On their witness list and after the 9 names have been disclosed?

10 MR. PETERS: Correct. In fact, Judge, no judge has 11 been able to order the government to provide the statements
12 on their witness list prior to the witness taking the stand
13 pursuant to 3500.

14 THE COURT: unless there is a different agreement
15 during the omnibus hearing or pretrial proceedings which we 16 have had consistently in this district for a long, long time,
17 since long before you came over from the Jackson County
18 Courthouse, Mr. Peters.

19 MR. BECKER: There are reported cases where the 20 government is required to turn over those materials when it
21 had agreed to do so, just as there has been sanctions against 22 both sides when they failed to live up to their pretrial
23 agreements.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Again, Judge, you weren't privy, and 25 neither was Mr. Becker, to the in camera where the judge let

1 me espouse the reasons why I thought all of this went to
2 credibility of the witnesses and cross-examination, all of
3 those matters. But that there are, after talking with these
4 people, I've been told certain things that would clearly
5 indicate if they were true, and some of them have been turned 6 out to be true, to be Brady violations, and there would be at 7 least one direct violation of the government not giving us
8 grand jury testimony and giving us information regarding one
9 witness and what happened at grand jury.

10 So all I was trying to emphasize to the Court is 11 that because of this agreement, that is what we're being held
12 to, and I don't have a problem with that, but the agreement
13 is the agreement. If we give, we're supposed to get, too,
14 and we believe that we'll be able to show this at some point,
15 but I don't know when that will be. We may just try to do it
16 with the jury versus bringing it out to Mr. Becker. But,
17 obviously, it's his obligation to give us, if he has things,
18 and I think there would be clearly one violation that I could 19 say for sure based on not only the statement of one of the 20 witnesses, but of David True himself.

21 MR. BECKER: We've heard this now for a number of 22 days' and I've asked over and over again' and I think Judge
23 Bartlett had requested if there's some issue that you want to 24 raise as a Brady violation' we should hear it. Or if you're 25 going to say okay, I want to spring it on the witness now, I

1 guess you can do that.

2 But every time we have a dispute, they say, oh, we
3 know something that you haven't given us, and this goes back
4 months. And when I go back, whatever you call my attention
5 to, I've attempted to run down and provide to you.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm not disputing that, Paul. What
7 I'm saying is that it seems -- I'm not casting aspersions,
8 but we should not have to be asking you for stuff that's
9 Brady, it's my position.

10 THE COURT: Well, yes and no. But if he in good
11 faith believes that he has complied with his obligation under 12 Brady and you have some good faith belief that he has not,
13 then I think in order to even think about getting sanctions,
14 it's up to you or you, if you know what it is, to point it
15 out to him and to me what he hasn't done.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: Absolutely. That's what I did with 17 Judge Bartlett. That's what I did in camera. I pointed all
18 of those things out.

19 THE COURT: He apparently wasn't too impressed.

20 MR. PETERS: In fairness, beginning with Judge
21 Hays, we've had probably seven hearings. And what has been 22 one is the sanctions have been deferred, if there are any 23 sanctions to be deferred. That's what we've been told, and 24 that's what the orders of the court have been. And we have 25 gone over it time and time again.

500

1 The two things I need to make on my record is it
2 does me no good to hear what Mr. Becker and Mr. O'Connor did
3 in their hearing that I wasn't privy to is the first point.
4 And the second point is what the Court is doing is an
5 equitable decision to say, look, guys, you agreed with the 6 Court that you do this, now abide by your darn agreement.

7 And this is, as you pointed out, this is new to me
8 because I come from a jurisdiction where you give them
9 everything and everybody gets everything. But that 10 fundamental rule of an agreement, you just heard for the 30th
11 time that the parties don't even agree about what the terms
12 of the agreement are. Mr. Becker's view of Brady is 13 different than what the defendants, view is.

14 THE COURT: No, perhaps his view of what is or is 15 not Brady material would be different than one of the defense
16 counsel, and I don't find that to be at all bizarre.

17 MR. OSGOOD: If I might jump in, and I haven't been 18 in this Brady fray from the beginning as much as the other
19 lawyers. But I asked Mr. Becker today, and he confirmed the 20 first witness that's going to hurt me is Mr. Rooks. Mr.
21 Rooks will testify something to the effect that my client
22 beat up another fellow and made some admissions at a park to 23 the effect he was involved in this thing. This Mr. Rooks was 24 12 years old at the time. Maybe 13.

25 THE COURT: He's now 21?

1 MR. OSGOOD: Something like that, 20, 21. And Mr.
2 Rooks lists four or five people in his statement who heard
3 all of these admissions supposedly by my client and a couple
4 of the other defendants.

5 There are absolutely no reports whatsoever of the 6 502 witnesses that I got pertaining to interviews of these
7 other five or six people. obviously, it's inconceivable to 8 me that if Mr. Rooks told the police this that they wouldn't 9 have immediately gone to the other five or six people.

10 I asked Mr. Becker today, because I've got 3,000
11 pages and this is the first time I caught this with Rooks, if 12 he had, in fact, interviewed these other people or had them
13 at grand jury. He didn't delineate which, but he confirmed
14 that somebody at the PD talked to one of these five
15 witnesses. I've got to presume that they have this 16 information, and it's not been provided to me.

17 THE COURT: You're taking a big leap there, John,
18 from the fact that they talked to them to the fact that it
19 was favorable to your client or you'd know about it.

20 MR. BECKER: That's a perfect example of this.

21 MR. OSGOOD: I haven't seen it, Paul. If I'm 22 mischaracterizing it, correct me.

23 MR. BECKER: Just the initial part about Rooks and 24 then this fight at the park. You were given the police
25 reports underlying your client's assaulting this fellow, a

1 fellow named Young who was Rooks, godfather, at Marlborough
2 Park. You've been given that report, but we're not going to
3 get into that, and I don't think the Court would let us get
4 into this assault at the park because really it had to do
5 with Young grabbing the bottom of some woman rather than 6 having anything to do with this fire.

7 MR. OSGOOD: That's right.

8 MR. BECKER: So, you know.

9 THE COURT: I think I would be likely to sustain an 10 objection to that.

11 MR. BECKER: So we weren't going to go into that.

12 MR. OSGOOD: The bottom line issue -- pardon the 13 1 pun.

14 MR. BECKER: As you and I discussed, if there were 15 Brady material in those other statements, you would have 16 gotten it by now. I've reviewed 900 ATF files, 14 volumes of 17 Department of Labor, all the PD reports. You've gotten 18 hundreds of pages of Brady material.

19 MR. OSGOOD: This is why we've come around the 20 block here to the judge's point of the definition of Brady.
21 My definition of Brady suggests to me that if a witness is 22 confronted and you ask him, "Now, were you at the park when 23 Mr. Rooks was told by Mr. Brown that Mr. Brown was up on the 24 hill that night?" And he says he was at the park. "Did you
25 hear such a statement?" No, I never heard any such

1 statement, or I don't remember' or I don't think so. That
2 impeaches substantially Mr. Rooks. And if there are four or 3 five witnesses of that vein, I'm entitled to hear about
4 them.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me give you a specific example.
6 I have a specific example.

7 MR. OSGOOD: Am I wrong on that, Judge, is that not
8 Brady?

9 THE COURT: I don't know. I'm not in a position to 10 say whether you're right or wrong.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: This is a specific example. We have 12 Glen Shepard's three interviews. He told me he testified
13 before. The first, he told me he was brought down and 14 refused to testify before the grand jury. I don't have that,
15 I don't know anything about that. Then he said he testified
16 before the grand jury, and I don't have the grand jury
17 testimony.

18 MR. BECKER: You don't have the grand jury from 19 Glen?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: None of us do.

21 MR. BECKER: I produced 3,300 pieces of paper. I
22 will go back through that list, and we can delay his 23 testimony so you have time to review his grand jury
24 testimony.

25 Glen Shepard was there on one occasion and said he

1 Wanted to talk to an attorney, and I said go back to where
2 you came from, and we'll have you back after you talk to your
3 attorney. I seem to recall him testifying.

4 MR. MILLER: He did testify.

5 THE COURT: So you're entitled to that.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: That's the point they're making is 7 that that's the very thing that we would be entitled to under 8 this agreement.

9 MR. BECKER: Absolutely. You should get that. I
10 don't understand why you don't have it. But there's 11 receipts, and if it's not on the receipts, then you don't 12 have it.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I checked with everyone else, and no
14 one else had it.

15 MS. HUNT: Has there been a final ruling on my 16 motion concerning Larry Baker's grand jury testimony? He was 17 going to provide it under seal to the Court this morning.

18 THE COURT: Larry Baker?

19 MR. BECKER: Your law clerk had the testimony and 20 the response. She was reviewing that.

21 THE COURT: I don't know. I'll have to run it by 22 her and find out.

23 MR. OSGOOD: There's another issue if we're ready

24 THE COURT: Who is your client?

1 MS. HUNT: Skip Sheppard.

2 THE COURT:Is that Earl D.?

3 MR. BECKER: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. I have that here, and Kathy has
5 a copy of it. I don't know where we are.

6 MR. OSGOOD: Can we cover one other matter right
7 quick?

8 THE COURT: Quick.

9 MR. OSGOOD:I gave Mr. Becker tapes that my
10 investigator made of witnesses. He has those. And there's a
11 logistical problem with one of those. We're working that out
12 among ourselves, we won't bother you with that.

13 I have reports that were provided to me by my 14 private investigator that I have not at this point endorsed

15 as a witness that I might add to the witness list if these
16 witnesses start substantially changing their testimony, and I
17 contend they're attorney work product. They were not shown
18 to the witnesses. They're synopsis kind of material that he 19 prepared in report form for me, much like an IRS special
20 agent report would be, much like what the ATF, probably that 21 was prepared in this case and presented to you with the 22 chronology of the charges in a little blue binder with a nice
23 seal on it, the chronology of the charges, the -

24 MR. BECKER: So what's the point?

25 MR. OSGOOD: -- anticipated testimony. I'm saying

1 my reports are the same as his ATF report which he's not
2 given to us. And I haven't given it to him, but I don't want
3 to spring this on you later on down the road if it's not a
4 statement, is what I'm getting at, under the law.

5 MR. BECKER: Again, I trust counsel, you know what
6 typically in this jurisdiction what we consider to be a
7 statement. FBI 302's are considered statements, even though
8 they're not signed statements of a witness. And we can
9 produce abundant case law saying we wouldn't have to produce
10 them, but we do, and that's what you've gotten in this case.
11 And I expect that you'll produce anything of similar 12 substance.

13 MR. PETERS: Judge, one other problem for -

14 MR. OSGOOD: Are you going to give me the ATF
15 report? It's a similar kind of report.

16 MR. BECKER: Again, I would assert a work product
17 exception there. You have 3,000 -- and on the one hand, you
18 keep saying you have 3,300 pages that you can't go through.
19 Well, you know as well as I do that ATF report is the 20 or 20 30-page report that boils down sentences from the 3,300. You
21 got the 3,300.

22 MR. OSGOOD: But I'd like to see the report.

23 THE COURT: I think we've quibbled about this 24 enough.

25 MR. PETERS: A real minor point, but now Mr. Osgood

1 has provided a copy of the tape to the government, and none
2 of the other defense counsel have copies of the tape.

3 MR. OSGOOD: That's my fault. I'm making copies.

4 (Court and counsel conferred off the record and the 5 trial adjourned for the evening at 5:45 p.m.)

1 WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1997

2 THE COURT: Good morning, everybody. Miss
3 Riggs is on the stand. And I will remind you, ma'am,
4 you are still under oath. And I believe Mr. Bunch now
5 has the opportunity to cross examine on behalf of the 6 defense.

7 MR. BUNCH: If it please the Court.

8 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9 DEBORAH RIGGS,
10 having previously been sworn, resumed the stand and 11 testified:

12 CROSS EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. BUNCH:

14 Q Miss Riggs, among other responsibilities that you had 15 as a guard, was one of them writing and supplying an 16 incident report?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Would you describe for the benefit of the court and 19 jury an incident report, what it is.

20 A: What I can remember of it, it has been a long time
21 since I have written one now.

22 Q I understand.

23 A: I remember we put the time. When we would write it we
24 would write in it, like myself would put Officer Riggs.
25 It was more of a third party documentation.

510

1 Q Do you refer to yourself in the third person?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q Okay.

4 A: And mainly just the time, what we saw, what we did, if
5 we called the police or not. Normally on an incident
6 report the police was called in.

7 Q Prior to the explosion that occurred, had you filed
8 incident reports?

9 A: Yes, sir.

10 Q And recognizing that it is a substantial length of time
11 in the past, do you have any idea how many?

12 A: No. More than a few.

13 Q More than a few.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q You only filed an incident report if there was some 16 occasion to do that; that is, that there was a prowler
17 or if there was somebody on the premises who you
18 thought ought not be there.

19 A: Correct.

20 Q Some incident that occurred that ought to be brought to 21 the attention of the employer.

22 A: Correct.

23 Q Now, can you describe, if you can recall, the nature of 24 most of these incident reports, why were they filed,
25 what were the incidents you were reporting upon?

1 A: People being on the property.

2 Q And that happened frequently.

3 A: No, not really frequently. About the last week to two
4 weeks it happened more frequent than it had before.

5 Q And were these people who were on the property and 6 resulted in your filing an incident report at various
7 places upon the property or the same place?

8 A: The incident reports I filed, if I remember correctly,
9 always were on the east side of the highway. I
10 don't remember ever filing one on the west side.

11 Q And the east side of the highway, so we can recollect,
12 had what on it?

13 A: The explosives.

14 Q Now, did you ever observe an occasion, or more than one
15 occasion, anybody you concluded was casing the place?

16 A: Only once.

17 MR. BECKER: Objection. Speculation.

18 THE COURT: Yes. I don't know how she could
19 conclude that. I will sustain that objection.

20 Q Have you stated under oath you observed a person casing
21 the place?

22 MR. BECKER: Objection.

23 THE COURT: That is the same thing. Whether 24 she stated it before or not, it doesn't make any 25 difference, Mr. Bunch. It is speculation and guesswork

1 what they were doing and it would be her opinion and
2 that is not important here. I will sustain the
3 objection.

4 Q Did you make observations where you saw individuals who
5 were about the place looking at various things and so
6 forth that resulted in an incident report?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q And can you describe to us incidents of that sort?

9 A: The incident that I explained yesterday about the 10 pickup truck, that he went to the trailers and the 11 dynamite, was the only incident that was on the scene.

12 Q You didn't observe any action actually taken by this 13 individual, is that correct?

14 A: No.

15 Q Except he went to these two locations for some purpose.

16 A: That's correct.

17 Q And was it your observation that when he detected you
18 were observing him, he left?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Now, have you given a description of that person?

21 A: I believe I did then. I don't have a description of 22 him now. Like I wouldn't know him if I saw him now.

23 Q And you don't have a recollection of the description
24 that you gave at that time at this time.

25 A: No face.

1 Q Now after the explosion occurred did you write an
2 incident report?

3 A: Yes, but not immediately after.

4 Q You couldn't hear, had difficulty seeing -

5 A: Yes.

6 Q -- after that occurred.

7 A: To tell you the truth, I really don't remember exactly
8 how I felt. It was like it was blank.

9 Q In any event, the report that you wrote you had to 10 revise as you got better and reflected upon it from 11 time to time, did you not?

12 A: True.

13 Q And you don't recall today how many times that
14 particular report was rewritten, as I understand it.

15 A: It was rewritten several times because of misspelling
16 or I would cross out a word and my brother was real 17 meticulous, you didn't cross out a word in your
18 incident report or you didn't misspell anything.

19 Q The reports were submitted to him, to your brother.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And for his approval, among other things, and with 22 respect to how they were written, words he thought were 23 inappropriate, that sort of thing, I take it.

24 A: No, he wouldn't tell me what to write. He would only 25 correct my spellings or if I crossed something out, he

1 asked me to rewrite it.

2 Q No, I was not suggesting he told you to change the
3 content but he wanted it in a certain form.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Is that correct?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Now can you tell us when you knew what the contents of 8 the trailers contained, what that content was.

9 A: Right after I first started working there.

10 Q Do you know who told you that?

11 A: I never have been able to remember if it was Kevin
12 Lamanske, or this other officer, a male officer. I
13 never have been able to remember which one it was that 14 told me. He worked with a fire department part-time or 15 something and it was an officer that was working for my 16 brother.

17 Q There were how many employees of Ameriguard -- that is 18 the company you worked for that was your brother's
19 company, is it not?

20 A: Yes. I am really not sure. I know they're larger now
21 but this is when he first started the business. This 22 was like his first property that he patrolled. It is 23 when he first started hiring so I really couldn't tell
24 you. I could guess and that's all.

25 Q Well, Melvin Stanton worked there, did he not?

1 A: No.

2 Q Kevin Lamanske.

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Donna Costanza.

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Were you and Miss Costanza roommates?

7 A: Yes, she lived at my house.

8 Q She rented from you or was a roommate or how would you
9 describe that relationship?

10 A: She was just staying at my house. She was in between 11 jobs.

12 Q Now, on the night that the explosion occurred, as I
13 understand it, that is the night she had difficulty
14 with her vehicle.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And she called you.

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Claiming that or stating that Mr. Lamanske had caused
19 whatever the trouble was with the vehicle.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q In a purported effort to correct something, he actually
22 screwed it up.

23 A: That's what she said.

24 Q And so that vehicle was towed from the premises.

25 A: Yes, it was.

1 Q Now, have you seen Miss Costanza for some time?

2 A: No, I haven't.

3 Q How long after the explosion, when was the last time
4 you saw her after the explosion?

5 A: I can't remember if I saw her before birth. I know she
6 took me to the hospital to have my daughter but I don't
7 remember. I never went back home after the explosion.
8 I went to my parents' house.

9 Q So you did see her at least the time you went and your 10 daughter was born.

11 A: Yes, I did see her. I know she did take me to the 12 hospital. I believe she came out to my mother's a few
13 times while I was out there and she came to my baby
14 shower the night I had my daughter.

15 Q Have you described her as having a severe
16 problem?

17 MR. BECKER: Objection. Relevance.

18 THE COURT: So far that person's credibility
19 isn't an issue here. Unless you are afraid of it
20 affecting her driving while she took her to the 21 hospital, I don't see how it will make much difference.
22 I will sustain the objection.

23 Q On the night that you were called to replace her on the 24 premises because of the car difficulty that you had,
25 did you see her that evening?

1 A: Yes.

2 Q And where was she when you saw her?

3 A: At her vehicle.

4 Q And where was it?

5 A: On the west side of the highway parked on the shoulder.

6 Q Was anybody with her? For example, was Mr. Lamanske
7 there at that time?

8 A: I don't remember if he was with her. I remember her
9 being with her vehicle. I think he was on the other
10 side but I am not sure.

11 Q Prior to the time of your arriving were they the only
12 two guards that were there?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Before you and your brother came on the premises.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Now, did, for example, on incident reports and 17 otherwise for purposes of employment, you used your 18 former married name Fiser, did you not?

19 A: Yes, I did.

20 Q That was referred to as a code name or you referred to 21 it as a code name.

22 A: I am not sure what a code name is.

23 Q Did other employees use names other than their actual
24 last names as well?

25 A: No, I did because I didn't want them to know I was a

1 Riggs, the other officers.

2 Q You didn't want somebody to know that you were actually
3 working for your brother.

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q With respect to your vehicle that was burned on that
6 occasion, when you left the vehicle, the truck that
7 evening and entered the automobile with your brother,
8 you left the gun in there, a .38 caliber pistol, and 9 you left your checkbook, credit cards, your purse and 10 so forth in there, is that correct?

11 A: I didn't carry a purse. I would put my checkbook with 12 my credit cards in a grocery sack, a plastic sack.

13 Q You left those in the truck when you left.

14 A: With my keys.

15 Q With your keys. So the truck was unattended with the 16 gun in it and the credit cards, your checkbook and the 17 keys.

18 A: Well, I was right in front of the vehicle. It wasn't
19 unattended.

20 Q Well, were the credit cards, the checkbook in your 21 vehicle when it caught on fire?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q And the first time you saw it it was on fire you were 24 at the Quik Trip.

25 A: Excuse me.

1 Q You weren't immediately in front of it when it caught
2 on fire, were you?

3 A: No, I wasn't.

4 Q You were over at the Quik Trip.

5 A: Yes.

6 Q The question I have for you is whether or not anybody
7 stole the pistol, the checkbook, the credit cards and 8 the keys or anything from the cab of the truck.

9 A: No, sir, they were at the police station.

10 Q They were recovered after that.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Now, you testified on Direct Examination, as I
13 remember, that the .38 caliber pistol belonged to your 14 brother.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And that you had it in the truck. For what purpose?

17 A: For myself.

18 Q For protection for yourself.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q You were concerned about a fellow by the name of Larry
21 Mellon (phonetics), were you not?

22 A: At that time, no.

23 Q You were not.

24 A: Not at that particular time. He had already been fired
25 from Ford.

1 Q Let me ask you this question. Was he following you at
2 that time?

3 THE COURT: When?

4 MR. BUNCH: At the date of the explosion,
5 on or about.

6 THE COURT: At that sight?

7 MR. BUNCH: Yes.

8 Q Had you told the police you had the pistol because of 9 Mr. Mellon, your concern about him following you, that 10 he was crazy.

11 A: I was stalked by a man for three years and, yes, I was 12 scared of him.

13 Q That is what I was asking you. You said he was crazy.

14 A: Yes. Ford told me he was crazy. He was put into the 15 hospital and had a chemical imbalance.

16 Q You said in your judgment he was crazy enough to do
17 anything.

18 A: Yes.

19 Q You felt in order to protect yourself from this fellow
20 you needed a gun.

21 A: I felt ever since I was stalked by him, I have always 22 had a fear after that.

23 THE COURT: Did the other officers working
24 for your brother carry guns?

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

1 Q Did you have a permit to carry a gun?

2 A: No, I did not.

3 Q Now, did you have any knowledge, Miss Riggs, about the
4 location of any blasting caps?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Could you tell us where those may have been located.

7 A: In the trailers was what I call blasting caps.

8 Q In the trailers that exploded.

9 A: To tell you the truth, I don't really know what 10 blasting caps are. I consider blasting caps what they 11 set the dynamite with and that is what I considered in 12 the trailer.

13 Q You, yourself, never saw blasting caps.

14 A: No.

15 Q Nor did anybody tell you where they were, describe them
16 and say that is a blasting cap and that is where it's 17 located.

18 A: No, sir.

19 Q As I understand it, one of your duties as you were 20 doing the rounds is to always check the locks on the 21 explosive magazine, you did that with regularity.

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q At any time did you ever find any of those locks
24 removed, undone, disappearing?

25 A: No, sir.

1 Q Did you ever find locks on any others -- were there
2 padlocks, for example, on the trailers?

3 A: Not that I can recall. Just locked doors.

4 Q So there was no necessity nor did you check for locks
5 since there weren't any on there.

6 A: I checked the office trailer doors and I always checked
7 the windows.

8 Q You didn't go in there.

9 A: No, I have never been in there. I just checked to make
10 sure there was no glass broke or the doors were secure.

11 Q Now, on the night this explosion occurred was it an 12 unusually quiet night?

13 A: The night of the explosion it was unusually quiet for
14 me.

15 Q Meaning what, lack of activity around the premises or 16 traffic on the road or what?

17 A: Both.

18 Q Was it just very quiet?

19 A: It just seemed to be a very quiet night.

20 Q Aside from seeing the two people that you have told us
21 about, did you see anybody else?

22 A: No, sir.

23 Q And you had not seen anyone then other than your 24 brother from the time you arrived until you saw those
25 two people.

1 A: I don't remember seeing anyone.

2 Q You have described where they were. You don't know who
3 they were.

4 A: No.

5 Q You did not get a look at their faces.

6 A: No.

7 Q Indeed, I think you have described them as wearing some
8 sort of hoods or something over their heads.

9 A: Yes. Their heads were like (indicating), not like a
10 person's head. It was like they had a hood up.

11 Q They were tall, big people.

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Large people.

14 A: Large frame.

15 Q What is the size of your brother? What was his size
16 then?

17 A: He was probably six foot tall.

18 Q And you do you know what he might have weighed back
19 then?

20 A: No.

21 Q Were the figures that you saw, in your judgment, larger 22 than he?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Both of them.

25 A: Yes.

1 Q And what was their appearance or demeanor, were they
2 running; were they walking? Did they appear to be
3 heading in a particular direction?

4 A: They were walking fast and they seemed to just be
5 walking in a straight line. I don't know how to 6 explain it. They didn't take the road. They were 7 cutting in behind the trailers.

8 Q They weren't meandering around.

9 A: No.

10 Q They looked to be going in a particular direction and 11 maintained that direction.

12 A: True.

13 Q Were they carrying anything?

14 A: I didn't see them carrying anything. It was just them
15 walking.

16 Q And would you say that your ability to observe them was 17 a good one? Could you see them pretty well?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q What was that, at night?

20 A: There was a full moon and there was light. I don't
21 know why I could see them as well as I could. I know I
22 went back to the site later when it wasn't a full moon.
23 So the full moon is all I can say that made the 24 difference.

25 Q Because somebody questioned about whether you really

1 could see them that well and you went back to confirm 2 that you could.

3 A: Sure.

4 Q Is that correct?

5 A: That's correct.

6 Q They were heading toward the office trailers for 7 purposes, of course, unknown to you.

8 A: If they cut across it, I don't have a problem with 9 that. Just if they stayed on the property.

10 Q Had there been other prowlers or other persons around
11 those office trailers before?

12 A: I had never seen any before. I have seen them walk
13 down the street in front of it but I have never seen
14 them cut in behind it.

15 Q Always before it would have been around the area of the 16 explosives.

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Now, you have described on Direct Examination being 19 advised by this person named Dave at the Quik Trip or 20 7-11, wherever it was, about the fire.

21 A: I believe that was his name.

22 Q And you, of course, immediately proceeded in that 23 direction toward the fire.

24 A: I'm sorry. You lost me.

25 Q You and your brother immediately left and went toward

1 the fire.

2 A: After Dave told us?

3 Q Yes. A: Yes, sir.

4 Q Did you see anybody?

5 A: No.

6 Q Any vehicle. A: No.

7 Q Anything whatever at that time.

8 A No.

9 Q Were you in a position to have observed people if they
10 had been leaving that area by foot, by road, however it
11 may have been, as you proceeded toward the fire?

12 A: I believe that it would have been possible and I would
13 have had the opportunity to have seen someone but I
14 wasn't looking for someone. I was looking at the fire.
15 I wasn't looking for people at that time.

16 Q And is it your testimony that the two individuals you
17 saw going toward the office trailers could not have 18 been -- had time to have reached the area where your 19 truck had been set on fire.

20 MR. BECKER: Objection.

21 MR. BUNCH: I will rephrase it. I will reask
22 it, Judge. It was not a good question.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 Q How long had it been before you knew about the fire
25 that you had seen the two people around the office

1 trailers?

2 A: I would have to do an approximately. Maybe 10 minutes.

3 Q And how far is it from the office trailers to where
4 your truck was on fire?

5 A: Like a city block or less.

6 Q So there was sufficient time for the two people to have
7 set your car on fire, your truck on fire.

8 A: Are you asking me to speculate?

9 THE COURT: Yes, I think he is.

10 Q In ten minutes could you walk from the office trailers
11 to the truck?

12 A: I couldn't have.

13 Q I think you misunderstood my question. How far was it
14 from the office trailers to where your truck was 15 parked?

16 A: Approximately a city block, maybe less, to my truck.
17 It was further to the trailer.

18 Q I understand that. So you saw the people at the office
19 trailers.

20 A: Behind.

21 Q Behind the office trailers, your truck was parked a
22 city block from there.

23 A: Close.

24 Q And this ten minutes time elapsed when you left and you
25 saw the truck on fire.

528

1 A: Yes.

2 Q So the last thing you actually saw -- or let me ask you
3 this. Was the last thing you actually saw was these 4 two people sort of disappear and not re-emerge on the 5 road and that is why you went to Quik Trip.

6 A: Correct.

7 Q You get to the Quik Trip and you are advised your truck
8 is on fire, you get back and it is.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Now, the distance between the office trailers
11 themselves and the trailers that contained the 12 explosives was how far?

13 A: Probably like the radius of a block and a half to two
14 blocks of rough terrain.

15 Q Rough terrain but a fairly close distance.

16 A: In my opinion? I don't believe it is very close.

17 THE COURT: You say 'fairly close' as 18 compared to what.

19 MR. BUNCH: I was going to ask her.

20 Q Would you say no more than two blocks?

21 A: It would have been more than two blocks.

22 Q No more than three blocks.

23 A: I don't believe it was more than three.

24 Q Thank you. And as you approached the truck that is on 25 fire, then you see the other fire at the trailers,

1 explosive trailers.

2 A: After we parked and we backed up.

3 Q Taking into account the nature of the terrain from
4 where you parked and backed up, could you see that it
5 was the trailers on fire very clearly?

6 A: No, I just knew it was the trailer on fire because I
7 knew where the trailer was located at.

8 Q Because of the location.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q And as a result of that when your brother dialed 411,
11 that is why you said explosives are on fire.

12 A: Yes, sir.

13 Q Because you knew from that particular location it must 14 be a trailer.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Again, it is your testimony, as I understand it, you
17 saw nobody, no vehicle, nothing.

18 A: No, sir.

19 Q But the fire.

20 A: No, sir.

21 Q Actually because of the nature of the terrain there is 22 hardly anywhere on the property you could see them,
23 correct?

24 THE COURT: See what?

25 MR. BUNCH: The explosive trailers.

1 Q Because of the nature of the burn and so forth, where
2 they were located.

3 A: From where I was at?

4 Q Yes.

5 A: No, I could not see them.

6 Q Then of course the fire fighters arrived.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q And is it your testimony that you had three or four or 9 more conversations with various, what is it, how many
10 conversations did you have with various fire fighters,
11 one or more, in which you told them it was ammonium
12 nitrate, diesel fuel and fertilizer or do you know?

13 A: I had at least three conversations with the firemen
14 that were on the scene before the car came.

15 Q Let's take the first one and I would ask you to 16 describe what happened and what you had to say and what 17 resulted from what you had to say. When is the first 18 time you talked to some firemen and explained what was 19 in those trailers?

20 A: After my truck was put out.

21 Q The first thing the truck was put out.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q And were they aware of the other fire prior to the time
24 your truck was put out? Were the firemen aware of the 25 other fire, the trailer fire, prior to that time?

1 A: I believe so but I can't answer for them.

2 Q Correct.

3 A: As soon as I got out I asked them why were they putting
4 out my truck instead of the explosives.

5 Q And what was the response to that?

6 A: I don't remember now. I just remember we sat and 7 talked. He wanted to know where everything was located
8 up on the hill, what was up there. Mainly where 9 everything was located.

10 Q And what did you say?

11 A: I remember telling him about the two trailers, what was 12 in them, the two bunkers at the back, what was in them
13 and there was some heavy equipment up on top of the 14 hill.

15 Q Now was there then a second conversation with yet
16 another fire fighter?

17 A: He called over more than -- at first he called over one
18 fire fighter and then he called over several after the 19 second pumper arrived and I spoke with all of them.

20 Q What did you say?

21 A: I told them where everything was located up on the
22 hill, what was up there, I had known to be up here. I
23 had never seen anything. I only knew what I was told
24 by another officer and that's what I told them, that I
25 had never seen anything; it's just what I had been

1 told.

2 Q And can you tell us what you told them was in the
3 trailers.

4 A: Ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel and fertilizer.

5 Q Was there any other time you had conversations during 6 which the contents of the trailers were discussed?

7 A: Up on the hill?

8 Q Yes.

9 A: Yes, I told the driver of the car and he leaned in and
10 I was standing beside the car and I told the chief -

11 THE COURT: Now, I want to make sure I have 12 those in priority. You said you had three
13 conversations before you told the chief, is that right?

14 THE WITNESS: I am not sure if I had three.
15 I had at least three.

16 THE COURT: One of these was after your truck
17 was put out.

18 THE WITNESS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: One of them you spoke with 20 several fire fighters and told them what you had been
21 told was in the trailer.

22 THE WITNESS: I remember calling over one and 23 I talked to him. And he called over when the second
24 pumper arrived, he called over. It was like a group of
25 them.

1 THE COURT: Then you told the driver of the
2 chief's car before you told the chief and then you were
3 telling the chief.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes. I told the driver beside
5 our car and I told the chief at his car.

6 Q Shortly after the last conversation, or immediately
7 before that, the explosion occurred.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q That was the conversation with the chief.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Now from time to time during your Direct Examination
12 you described a road as the haul road, that is h-a-u-1,
13 road, meaning a road over which these were hauled.

14 A: Yes, sir. It was referred to as a haul road. What did
15 they use it for?

16 A: That was what the heavy equipment drove on to cross the
17 highway.

18 Q Did you express an opinion as to what had happened with 19 respect to these explosions, who did it?

20 MR. BECKER: Objection.

21 THE COURT: Yes, that is pretty vague, Mr.
22 Bunch. When, where, to whom and I trust you are not 23 moving toward what her opinion was.

24 MR. BUNCH: No, I am not.

25 THE COURT: A fortiori. I would say that is

1 not permissible.

2 MR. BUNCH: I don't want to get in trouble
3 with the court. I was not going to ask what her
4 opinion was.

5 Q On February 10th, 1995 to Detective Don Emerson, don't 6 tell me what your opinion was, did you express an
7 opinion as to who was involved in this explosion?

8 MR. BECKER: Objection. Relevance.

9 THE COURT: You better come up.

10 (Conference out of the hearing of the jury.)

11 MR. BUNCH: It is page 2 of 2-10-95.

12 MR. BECKER: She has got it right but you
13 have to insert the name of the defendant.

14 THE COURT: I really don't see -

15 MR. BUNCH: You are not going to let me do
16 it. I can tell it in your eyes.

17 THE COURT: You're right.

18 (Proceedings in the presence of the jury.)

19 THE COURT: I assume the question is 20 withdrawn.

21 MR. BUNCH: Yes. No further questions.

22 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: We have some further Cross.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Peters.

25 CROSS EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. PETERS:

2 Q Ma'am, you created, you talked about an incident report
3 you generated and you talked about several revisions,
4 is that correct?

5 A: That's correct.

6 Q At some point did you complete that report and submit
7 it to your brother in an extended detail form?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Your brother told you to change it and delete out the 10 details, is that correct?

11 A: No, he told me to rewrite it and not to mark out any 12 words and to make sure all my spelling was correct.

13 Q So the report that you submitted ultimately was the 14 same lengthy report you initially submitted to your 15 brother Robert.

16 A: I don't remember the length.

17 Q Regarding the fire fighters, at the time they pulled 18 up, if there has been evidence that the first truck
19 that you saw we are calling pumper 41, do you remember
20 how many men were on that truck?

21 A: No, I just looked at them as a group. I didn't count
22 them.

23 Q There is evidence that there were three people on the 24 truck, would that be different than what you
25 remembered?

1 A: I know what the evidence is but I can't count them,
2 look back and count them.

3 Q When that first truck pulled up, your testimony today
4 is you explicitly told them that there was ammonium
5 nitrate, fuel oil and fertilizer in the trailer.

6 A: Diesel fuel; yes, I did.

7 Q And that was when the first truck was there before the 8 second truck, which would be pumper 30, arrived, is
9 that correct?

10 A: That's correct.

11 Q And of the people that were there at that first truck,
12 can you tell us today how many of those people that you
13 talked to and you are telling us you mentioned
14 specifically ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel and 15 fertilizer?

16 A: Who I mentioned that to, I remember mentioning to was 17 two people from the first truck and it was a man with a
18 mustache that had blonde hair and a real large tall
19 thin fireman.

20 Q And then your testimony is that the second truck pulled 21 up and they again asked you to describe what was in 22 these trailers.

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q And the second group of men, your testimony is they 25 clustered around and you related the information again.

1 A: Yes, sir.

2 Q And, in fact, not only did you tell them this but were
3- you corrected in your pronunciation?

4 A: No. No. He had to correct me.

5 Q And who was it that corrected you?

6 A: The man with the mustache.

7 Q What was it you are telling us today he corrected you
8 on?

9 A: Ammonium.

10 Q It was just you were mispronouncing it.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q What was Donna Costanza's experience as a security
13 guard that you knew?

14 MR. BECKER: Objection. Relevance.

15 THE COURT: Sustained.

16 Q Was one of your co-workers Donna Costanza?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Was one of your roommates Donna Costanza?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Was Donna Costanza the reason you went to work early
21 that night?

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q And when was it that you and Donna Costanza lived
24 together?

25 A: Back in 1974, '75. Just off and on whenever she needed

1 a place to stay I always let her stay at my house.

2 Q And you had stayed in contact with Donna Costanza from
3 '74, '75, up through the time of this explosion.

4 A: No, I hadn't stayed in contact with her. Just every
5 once in a while she would be around.

6 Q Was Donna Costanza hired because you knew her or was it
7 independent of you?

8 A: She was hired because she knew me.

9 Q So let me ask you then, what were the qualifications
10 that you were aware of that made her suitable to be 11 hired as a security guard in your brother's company?

12 MR. BECKER: Objection.

13 THE COURT: I will sustain an objection to 14 that. Trying to second-guess her brother's
15 professional judgment in hiring her. I am not going to 16 let you ask her that.

17 Q Was she hired because she knew you? If she didn't know
18 you would she have been hired?

19 MR. BECKER: Objection.

20 A: I have no idea.

21 THE COURT: Just a minute. Sustained.

22 Q At the time your brother's company was hired were you
23 informed that there had been acts of vandalism
24 attributable to some labor disputes going on at the 25 site?

1 A: No.

2 Q You were unaware of that as a security guard up through
3 the time of November 29th.

4 A: I was aware there had been vandalism by an ex-employee
5 but not by the union.

6 Q Let me ask you, on the night we are talking about -- I
7 am going to try not to skip around -- on November 28th
8 when you went to work early because Donna Costanza's
9 car had stopped working, on that night when you showed 10 up were you advised by another officer -

11 MR. BECKER: Objection.

12 THE COURT: Come up.

13 (Conference out of the hearing of the jury.)

14 MR. BECKER: I believe Mr. Peters is about to 15 ask the witness were you told by another officer that 16 two men had been on the scene, seen on the sight
17 earlier that evening. I believe that calls for hearsay
18 and I would object on that basis.

19 MR. PETERS: Judge, it wouldn't be offered to 20 prove the truth of the matter. This is a security
21 guard having information passed on from one to the 22 other. You would expect her to be told from one to 23 another, from one shift to another.

24 THE COURT: What are you trying to prove?

25 MR. PETERS: She had been advised there were

1 two people in the area and that is part of the reason
2 why she was so alert when she saw two people later on 3 in the night. If she says she didn't know that, we
4 will have that -- if she says she wasn't told that, we
5 will have later testimony.

6 THE COURT: I am not sure she was there to 7 look for people. I am not sure that some specific 8 incident having been reported to her pertains to what
9 she has testified to except as to these specific people
10 she saw.

11 MR. PETERS: We are limited to two unknown
12 males on Lamanske's shift and two unknown males on 13 her shift. In other words, it is a continuing 14 transition that is being broken if we can't make the 15 link Lamanske told her.

16 THE COURT: Do you have some link between the 17 people that had been seen here and the people she saw?

18 MR. PETERS: Throughout this case you are
19 going to hear testimony about two people being seen.
20 Lamanske is going to talk about it. A passing motorist
21 describes them, the two people in greater detail. And 22 this is all what she has testified as an unusually 23 quiet night.

24 MR. BECKER: Who is the passing motorist?

25 MR. PETERS: We have a report regarding a

1 passing motorist.

2 THE COURT: Don't play games.

3 MR. PETERS: I don't know the person's name
4 off the top of my head. We have a report of a passing
5 motorist.

6 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

7 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

8 Q Ma' am , you have testified you saw two people down by 9 the office trailers. Was there anything unusual or 10 what drew your attention to two people?

11 A: The two people.

12 Q At that time you were not on the east side of the 13 street, is that correct?

14 A: I was on the west side.

15 Q And the way you have testified, one officer is hired to 16 patrol the west side and one officer is hired to patrol
17 the east side, is that correct?

18 A: As far as I knew.

19 Q Who was it that was on the east side at this time?

20 A: No-one at that time.

21 Q Was any officer from Ameriguard up on this berm you
22 have described by the trailers that gives you a
23 complete view of the trailers, the dynamite bunkers and 24 the construction equipment, was anyone up there?

25 A: No.

1 Q And when you saw these two individuals, you and your
2 brother pull across the 71 highway median, correct?

3 A: Correct.

4 Q And you then proceed north on 71 highway correct?

5 A: Yes, correct.

6 Q You go up what we would call one block to a street that 7 we don't want to pin you down on but the street that is 8 seen on the diagram.

9 A: No, first we went to the trailers.

10 Q How long did you spend at the trailers?

11 A: I have no clue. Approximately a minute, two minutes.

12 Q Only enough time to shine the light underneath the 13 trailers to see if you saw somebody there, correct?

14 A: We were trying to get up behind the trailers as far as 15 we could go and it took a little bit of time. You
16 can't just pull in behind it.

17 Q Did either you or your brother get out of the vehicle?

18 A: No, sir.

19 Q Then you leave the area of the trailers and continue
20 north on 71 highway, correct?

21 A: No.

22 Q Tell us what you did then.

23 A: We then went west on, I believe the name of it is Blue
24 River Road.

25 Q Did you cross over 71 highway completely?

1 A: I believe so.

2 Q Could you have not crossed over 71 highway?

3 A: I believe we did cross over 71 highway.

4 Q How far did you cross over 71 highway?

5 A: I believe there is a bridge that we turned around like
6 in the middle of the street, right past the corner. We
7 didn't go up Blue River going to the east.

8 Q And the bridge you are talking about is a short
9 distance from 71 highway.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q And at that point you turned around and went back to 71
12 highway and turned northbound.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q You then proceeded to the Quik Trip store.

15 A: No, we went real slow over the bridge and then started
16 to take a left-hand turn right before that and I asked
17 him not to.

18 Q But you hadn't seen anybody at the bridge, had you?

19 A: No.

20 Q Then you went to the Quik Trip store.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q So your testimony is that on an unusually quiet night -
23 —

24 A: Yes.

25 Q The only two security guards guarding a construction

1 site had now left the site to go to Quik Trip.

2 A: Yes, we did.

3 Q Regarding the report, how many drafts of this report,
4 your incident report, how many drafts do you think you
5 had?

6 A: Probably about, I know I was getting pretty upset over
7 it. Probably around three.

8 Q And again it is your testimony that that report wasn't
9 edited beyond grammar and spelling.

10 MR. BECKER: Objection. Repetition.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Peters, we have been into 12 this. I have already indicated before we started this 13 trial we aren't going to repeat each cross examination
14 each time. If you have got something different to 15 cross examine her about, please do so. I sustain the
16 objection.

17 Q Ma'am, were you ever told by your brother to change
18 your report and leave out information?

19 A: No, sir.

20 Q Skipping back once again to your discussions with the 21 fire fighters you are telling us about, to the best of 22 your recollection, in the first truck that comes up,
23 you testified that you talked to two of the men about
24 the contents of the trailer.

25 MR. BECKER: Objection. Repetition.

1 THE COURT: It has been covered. Sustained.

2 Q Did you tell four or five of the six fire fighters the
3 contents of the trailer?

4 A: After they all arrived?

5 Q After they arrived and before you talked to Chief
6 Berman.

7 THE COURT: Excuse me but would you include
8 the chief's driver in the four or five?

9 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

10 Q Before Chief Berman's car arrived, that is when you had 11 the discussions with the two pumper trucks and their 12 crews.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Of those six individuals how many of them did you tell
15 the contents of the trailer?

16 A: As far as I was concerned, I didn't count how many 17 there was. I had told the whole group.

18 Q The whole group.

19 A: I hadn't counted them.

20 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

21 THE COURT: All right. Miss Hunt.

22 MS. HUNT: No questions, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes. Judge, this is

25 Defendants' Exhibit No. 1.

1 THE COURT: Are we specifying the defendant
2 or just general defendants?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Exhibit 1.

4 THE COURT: All right, Defendants' 1.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: And I think it is the same as
6 Mr. Becker's -

7 MR. BECKER: It is the same as Government's
8 Exhibit 3.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: That would be a photograph,
10 Judge, taken on 10-28, approximately a month before
11 the explosion, an aerial view.

12 THE COURT: Why do we have to have two?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Because I want mine marked and 14 he doesn't want his marked on.

15 THE COURT: Fair enough. I assume this is an 16 offer.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I think it is an offer, sir.

18 MR. BECKER: No objection, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Any objection from any of the
20 defendants?

21 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Hearing none, it is admitted as
23 Defendants' 1.

24 (DEFENDANTS' EXHIBIT NO. 1 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

25 CROSS EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

2 Q Miss Riggs, I want to show you this Exhibit 1. Take
3 your time and look at it and familiarize yourself.
4 Have you seen this before with Mr. Becker, a photograph
5 taken about a month before the explosion?

6 A: I saw a lot of pictures.

7 Q I don't mind helping you if it is okay. It looks like
8 the trailers are there that blew up in the explosion.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q It looks like your car would be parked over here
11 somewhere.

12 THE COURT: You are not doing anybody any 13 good.

14 MR . O'CONNOR: I am trying to familiarize
15 her so I can take her down and have her write on it.

16 A: I am not sure that's where the trailers were the night
17 of the explosion.

18 Q They're up in that area somewhere (indicating)?

19 A: Yes, that's where they used to be.

20 Q Can you see the Quik Trip down here?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q I am going to ask you, with the Court's permission, to 23 step down here and write on this exhibit so we can put 24 everything where it is.

25 THE COURT: All right.

548

1 Q These are the trailers that exploded. I wish you would
2 write on the trailers "explosion" right in here if you
3 would.

4 A: (Witness complies.) It is not where they were.

5 Q Put them where they were.

6 A: (Witness complies.)

7 Q Write the word ,~trailers~.

8 A: (Witness complies.)

9 Q These would be the trailers that exploded up in this 10 area somewhere, is that correct?

11 A: That's correct.

12 Q Where was your truck parked, if you can find it. Just 13 put Rigg's truck or where you think your truck is.
14 Take your time. Can you put approximately where your 15 truck was.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Just put "Rigg's truck", if you would.

18 A: (Witness complies.)

19 Q Just put Quik Trip where the Quik Trip is. Just mark
20 it "Q.T."

21 A: (Witness complies.)

22 Q Where you first saw the men walking or whatever they 23 were doing, where did you first see them?

24 A: Right here (indicating).

25 Q Make a drawing when you last saw them, when you went to

1 see what they were up to.

2 A (Witness complies.)

3 Q Thank you. Miss Riggs, your purpose in being there

4 that night was security we have been told, is that

5 correct?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And the purpose of security guards being at a scene

8 like this is to show thieves, or anybody that wants to

9 come along, you are there out kind of by the highway so

10 people can see you are there.

11 A: That's correct.

12 Q You had a gun there for protection for yourself.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q You had a big spotlight you would put on people if they

15 came into the area that was dark.

16 A: Correct.

17 Q And, in fact, you drove around the site where the

18 trailers later exploded, you went up in this area a

19 couple times that night, as I understand it.

20 A: That's correct.

21 Q And used your spotlight to look around.

22 A: That's correct.

23 Q Then later when you left this area to go down to check

24 on these two men you had observed, you used your

25 spotlight again.

1 A: That's correct. My brother used his spotlight. I
2 didn't.

3 Q Now, I think you told us you had been doing this
4 security guard business for a while, is that correct?

5 A: I hadn't been doing it very long.

6 Q Did you feel you were an experienced security guard?

7 THE WITNESS: Can I ask him what he means
8 by "experienced"?

9 Q Did you know what you were looking for out there if 10 somebody came along?

11 A: Me, personally?

12 Q Yes.

13 A: I am not the best security guard material.

14 Q What I am saying is your job there was to observe and 15 see if you observed anything, either go check it out or 16 you could also call the police to get their assistance.

17 A: That's what I did.

18 Q Did you call the police to get assistance on these two 19 men that you saw?

20 A: No, my brother was with me.

21 Q And tell me how that happened. You were in separate
22 cars and then you joined him in his car or how did that 23 happen?

24 A: We were in separate vehicles. He was on the other
25 side. I asked him to come down and he could have my

1 sandwich.

2 Q Then that is when you guys starting talking a little
3 bit and you observed this action going on down here.

4 A: No, I turned off the light and then that is what
5 happened.

6 Q And the purpose back of this spotlight is to light up
7 areas so you can see if there is criminal activity; the 8 purpose of your spotlight is to light things up so if 9 criminal activity is going on people will run off.

10 A: That's correct.

11 Q Would you agree with me that thieves are kind of like 12 roaches, they come out at night; when it's light they 13 go back in?

14 A: I would agree with that.

15 Q So when you left in your truck to go down and check out
16 these men here, this whole site was dark and
17 unattended.

18 A: I didn't leave in my truck. I left with my brother in 19 his car.

20 Q I misspoke. You left in your brother's car.

21 A: Yes, that's correct.

22 Q You left this whole area unattended.

23 A: That's true.

24 Q It was dark.

25 A: True.

1 Q No security guards were up here to guard it.

2 A: True.

3 Q You left and went down here and looked around, didn't
4 get out of your car.

5 A: True.

6 Q You went to Quik Trip to get something.

7 A: True.

8 Q And before you could leave Quik Trip someone was coming
9 in saying that your truck was on fire.

10 A: T can't tell you that.

11 Q Did someone come in and tell you there was a fire down
12 71 highway?

13 A: No, Dave came out of Quik Trip and told us there was a
14 fire.

15 Q Someone told you between the time you left here and the 16 time you got here there was a fire on 71 highway.

17 A: That's correct.

18 THE COURT: I don't think I understand that.
19 You said someone told them from the time they left here

21 MR. O'CONNOR: That was a bad question,
22 Judge.

23 THE COURT: It was after they got up north,
24 wasn't it, they were told.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

1 Q Basically when you got here at the Quik Trip someone
2 told you here, someone told you there was a fire going
3 on down here on 71 highway.

4 A: Yes, Dave ran out and told us. I believe his name was 5 Dave.

6 Q As soon as you left there and went to check, someone
7 moved in and lit up the area, the thieves came in to 8 light up the area so as to bring you back, is that what
9 happened?

10 A: I am not sure what you are saying. Thieves lit up the 11 area to draw us back?

12 Q What I am saying is this is all dark here to thieves to 13 work.

14 A: Right.

15 Q You are gone. A: Yes.

16 Q And now the thieves, because that is the government's 17 theory, they are lighting this up to bring you back to 18 what they are doing.

19 MR. BECKER: Objection.

20 THE COURT: No, no, that is too much opinion,
21 speculation, conjecture. She is not going to be
22 required to espouse the government's theory.

23 Q Now you left in your car. You got your dog out of the 24 truck, right?

25 A: My dog goes where I go.

1 Q My question, you got your dog out of your truck.
2 A: That's correct.
3 Q You left your purse in your truck.
4 A: Correct.
5 Q And you left a gun in your truck.
6 A: Correct.
7 Q And it was open inside your truck.
8 A: Correct.
9 Q And when you came back the truck was on fire from the 10 inside out, someone had gotten in the truck and burned
11 it from the inside-out.
12 A: I didn't know that at the time and I still don't know
13 that.
14 Q And your purse and your gun -- was there money in that 15 purse?
16 A: I really don't remember.
17 Q Wasn't there about six dollars?
18 A: I don't remember.
19 Q Anyway, the purse and the gun, it all burned in the
20 fire.
21 A: I found out later it didn't.
22 Q But it was there when the fire went out; in other
23 words, no-one stole it.
24 A: No, but I wasn't thinking about my purse being in the
25 truck.

1 Q But it was in there.

2 A: Yes, it was.

3 Q And correct me if I am wrong but I thought you said a
4 minute ago you didn't have a purse in the truck.

5 A: Well, I kept a checkbook with money and credit cards
6 and then I kept as a purse a plastic sack from the 7 grocery store.

8 Q But clearly your keys were there; someone could have
9 driven it if they wanted to.

10 A: Yes, but I wasn't planning on leaving.

11 Q Whoever got in the truck decided to burn it from the 12 inside-out.

13 A: I have no idea.

14 Q Did you make any kind of insurance claim as to your
15 truck?

16 A: I sure did.

17 Q Did you receive money for that?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Now, you have told us here under oath that you told
20 these firemen -- wait a minute, before I go to that.

21 THE COURT: Before you go to that, check
22 where you are and we will come back to it. I think it
23 is time for us to take our morning break.

24 Don't talk about the case while we are 25 in recess and you may withdraw from the courtroom

1 and please be back in the jury room in 15 minutes.

2 You are excused.

3 RECESS

4 THE COURT: Miss Riggs, I will remind you you
5 are still under oath and you may proceed.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 Q The next morning, the same morning, I guess of the 8 explosion is when you went down to the police
9 department.

10 A: Yes, sir.

11 Q About what time did you get down there, approximately?

12 A: I have no idea.

13 Q Before noon or after noon?

14 A: Before noon.

15 Q And is that the day the police told you if you just 16 told them your brother was asleep you could go home?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Now the next morning after this tragedy had occurred
19 out there you were down at the police department and 20 you were being untruthful to them about certain events
21 that happened there that night, weren't you?

22 A: That is correct.

23 Q And you were willing to tell the police untruths that 24 next morning after these fire fighters had died to 25 serve your own purpose, didn't you?

1 A: That's true.

2 Q Now, the police had talked to you numerous times
3 between 1988, November 29, 1988, the day of the 4 explosion, and to this day, is that correct?

5 A: That's correct.

6 Q And I want you to tell me and this jury whether or not
7 any time between November the 29th, 1988 and October
8 the 4th, 1989 you ever told any police officer, any ATF
9 agent, any government official, that there was ammonium
10 nitrate, diesel fuel in those trailers.

11 THE COURT: Did she tell the police that
12 after the explosion?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me start over, Judge.

14 Q You are telling this Judge you told those firemen that 15 night that there was ammonium nitrate and diesel fuel
16 before they went up there to fight that fire.

17 A: And fertilizer.

18 Q You told them that.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q But those are two things you definitely told them. You
21 told us you told them fertilizer.

22 A: Those are three things I definitely told them.

23 Q Then when the police interviewed you between the day,
24 the 29th, and until October the 4th, did you ever tell
25 any police officers that is what you had told them.

1 A: I have no idea. I don't remember after the explosion.

2 Q Did they do a videotape where they had you in a room,
3 did they video it and take down everything you told
4 them?

5 A: I don't remember the videotape but I have seen it so
6 they did do one.

7 Q I am going to hand you what has been marked as
8 Defendants' 2. This is purported to me to be a
9 videotape statement of you, transcribed the next
10 morning by detectives with the Kansas City Missouri
11 Police Department.

12 A: Okay.

13 Q Have you had a chance to review that before today?

14 A: No, I haven't. I saw the video.

15 Q And from seeing the video can you tell us whether 16 anywhere in that video you told the police about 17 telling the firemen that there was ammonium nitrate and 18 diesel fuel oil?

19 A: I don't remember seeing it in the video.

20 Q Because it is not in the video, is it?

21 MR. BECKER: Objection.

22 (Conference at the bench out of the jury's hearing.)

23 THE COURT: Except for general credibility
24 and general recollection, I don't see what this has to 25 do with what we are doing here.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell you, Judge, the
2 firemen that are going to testify, the battalion chief
3 is going to say he never remembered her telling it was
4 ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel in there. The fire
5 fighters' families filed a lawsuit against her and her
6 brother on October 4th, 1996 and the charge in that 7 lawsuit was failure to warn the fire fighters of 8 ammonium nitrate and fuel oil.

9 Then in her deposition in October, after 10 never telling anyone, she tells them for the first 11 time there is ammonium nitrate and fuel oil which 12 goes to her credibility.

13 THE COURT: What difference does it make
14 here?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: What I was trying to do -- I
16 didn't want her to stand up and read 13 pages. That 17 is why I was trying to cut to the chase.

18 THE COURT: Even if she does and even if you
19 establish she didn't tell anybody until such and such a
20 time, I guess my point to you, how has she hurt you?
21 She has testified to a terrific explosion. She has 22 testified to some conversations which you have now
23 challenged but actually what are you after?

24 MR. O'CONNOR: My theory is, Judge that she 25 could have set this fire, not knowing the result, what

1 was going to happen. When the firemen came, she
2 panicked. She was trying to stay away, even though
3 she knew and later she claims she knew what was up
4 there.

5 MR. BECKER: You are saying she set both
6 fires?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: I am not saying that. I am
8 saying that is a possibility.

9 THE COURT: I am not going to deal in those 10 possibilities.

11 MR. OSGOOD: I think we are losing sight of 12 the fact ammonium nitrate and fertilizer are the same
13 thing. The point is she picked up the term ammonium
14 nitrate post-incident, well down the line and is now
15 using that term when in reality this was not a term
16 she was familiar with so it goes to her credibility
17 when she first learned that term.

18 THE COURT: What is she going to say about
19 telling them to get the hell out of there?

20 MR. BECKER: The word she says on the 21 transcript, she tells them they're explosives there.

22 THE COURT: Come on. Is that on that
23 transcript?

24 MR. BECKER: It is right here.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: The point I am making, that is

1 what I am going to ask her. She says blasting caps of
2 fertilizer. She doesn't mentioned diesel fuel or 3 ammonium nitrate.

4 THE COURT: Does she use the term explosives?

5 MR. BECKER: The next morning she says we
6 pulled back up and got them and told them, you know,
7 told them again these was explosives in it and we hear
8 on the 911 tape a female voice in the background saying
9 explosives.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: I will move on.

11 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

12 (Proceedings in the presence of the jury.)

13 Q Now, Miss Riggs, were you a party to a lawsuit filed in 14 October of '89 by the fire fighters' families, you and 15 your brother and Ameriguard?

16 A: That's correct.

17 Q And did you testify in that lawsuit?

18 A: Yes, I did.

19 Q And did you tell them you had warned the fire fighters
20 there was ammonium nitrate and diesel fuel at this
21 scene at the time?

22 A: Yes, I did.

23 Q And the whole purpose of that lawsuit was they were
24 claiming that you and Ameriguard, along with others,
25 had failed to warn the fire fighters of that very

562

1 thing, wasn't that the lawsuit?

2 A: I have no idea. I was just asked to go. I don't know
3 all the particulars about the case.

4 Q But wasn't the theory of the lawsuit filed against you,
5 -- the lawsuit was filed against you, you remember it,
6 I am assuming.

7 A: No, I don't.

8 Q Was the theory behind the fire fighters families'
9 claims you had failed to warn the fire fighters of 10 ammonium nitrate and diesel fuel being at that scene?

11 MR. BECKER: Objection.

12 THE COURT: Asked and answered. Objection
13 sustained.

14 A: If there was, I wasn't aware.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: May we approach.

16 THE COURT: Go ahead but you have asked this
17 question and she said she didn't know.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: If I can ask the next
19 question. That is what I want to ask you.

20 (Conference at the bench out of the hearing of the 21 jury.)

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't want to ask an
23 improper question. They settled the lawsuit. I can 24 ask her that.

25 THE COURT: No, you know better than that.

1 Lawsuits aren't settled with any admission of any
2 liability or anything else except the lawsuit existed.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: I defended too many of them to 5 allow that, Mr. O'Connor.

6 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

7 Q Did you have a lawyer in that lawsuit?

8 A: Yes, I did.

9 Q Now, was it common if you saw prowlers or people you
10 were concerned about, you would sometimes summon the 11 Kansas City, Missouri Police Department to come.

12 A: Almost always.

13 Q And on this night you did not.

14 A: I didn't have time.

15 Q And you had a phone there at your disposal, a cellular
16 phone.

17 A: I am not sure. Robert made the phone call to the 411
18 but I didn't have a phone at my disposal.

19 Q But one of you did.

20 A: He did.

21 Q And no-one called the police department.

22 A: No, he didn't but I am not sure he would call anyway.
23 I wouldn't go chase after anyone by myself.

24 Q Again maybe I misunderstood this on Direct. I thought
25 you said you identified someone and put your car so

1 they couldn't get out and chased them.

2 A: I had another officer.

3 Q Your brother, this night your brother was with you.

4 A: Yes, my brother was with me that night of the
5 explosion.

6 MR . O'CONNOR: I believe that is all the 7 questions I have. Thank you very much.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood, anything?

9 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, Your Honor.

10 CROSS EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. OSGOOD:

12 Q Miss Riggs, I am John Osgood and I represent Mr. Brown.

13 A: Hi John.

14 Q We have never met, is that correct?

15 A: That's correct.

16 Q I want to go back and talk a little bit about the 17 incident involving the truck that you observed up
18 there, that you observed going up the outer road and 19 went up and chased it for a while.

20 A: Okay.

21 Q You remember that incident.

22 A: Yes, I do.

23 Q How many days prior to the blast was that?

24 A: I don't remember the days. It was soon before.

25 Q Now, there was a truck backed up to the two trailers

1 that exploded, is that correct?

2 A: The night of the explosion.

3 Q And that was a red pickup, wasn't it?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Okay. Do you remember what model it was?

6 A: It was something that had been on the construction site
7 for a while. It was an older pickup, like in the 8 seventies, eighties.

9 Q This one that was backed up to the trailer that burned.

10 A: Like in the seventies.

11 Q Do you remember whether it was a Ford or not?

12 A: No.

13 Q But it was red.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Now you did an incident report on the truck you chased,
16 didn't you?

17 A: Yes, I did.

18 Q And you work at Ford Motor Company don't you?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And have worked there for twenty some years.

21 A: To this day in March.

22 Q You would have worked at Ford for ten years as of the 23 date of this explosion.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q On this night you chased this pickup you had your

1 spotlight, is that correct, ma ' am?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q You were able to get close enough to this truck to 4 shine your spotlight.

5 A: I ran into the back of it.

6 Q I want to get to that in a minute but first you saw the 7 individual getting out by the dynamite bunker, is that
8 correct?

9 A: No.

10 Q Where did the person get out?

11 A: At the trailer.

12 Q And walked around up to the trailer?

13 A: He walked up to the site of the trailer.

14 Q Now this was in 1988, right, four days before the
15 explosion.

16 A: Possibly. I don't remember what day it was.

17 Q It was several days prior to the explosion.

18 A: It was a few days before. It was within a week.

19 Q How old were you at that time, ma ' am? Presuming it's 20 six years ago, eight years ago, take eight off of your 21 age now; just a ballpark figure.

22 A: In my thirties.

23 Q Can you tell us more precisely. I am not trying to 24 embarrass you. This is an important question.

25 A: In my mid-thirties.

1 Q How old are you now?

2 A: Forty one.

3 Q You testified the person you saw was 35 years old.

4 A: I believe him to have been about that age. He was 5 about my age.

6 Q An adult grown male.

7 A: Yes, not a teenager.

8 Q Not a teenager.

9 A: Correct.

10 Q And did you complete an incident report on that event?

11 A: Yes, I called the police.

12 Q How did you describe the truck in that incident report?

13 A: I don't remember now how I described it in the incident
14 report.

15 Q Let me show you this and ask you if that helps you
16 refresh your memory. Do you recognize that?

17 MR. BECKER: Would you tell me what you are 18 looking at.

19 MR. OSGOOD: The incident report.

20 MR. BECKER: Can I take a look at that,
21 please.

22 A: What is it you want me to look at?

23 THE COURT: Don't read from it, Miss Riggs.

24 After she has read it, take it away from her and do it
25 right, Mr. Osgood.

1 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir.

2 Q Have you had a chance to review it or do you need
3 another minute?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q You feel comfortable with it.

6 A Yes.

7 Q How did you describe the pickup?

8 MR. BECKER: May I look at that.

9 THE COURT: Before you answer let him examine
10 and see if he has a problem.

11 MR. BECKER: I need to approach the bench,
12 please.

13 (Proceedings at the bench out of the hearing
14 of the jury.)

15 MR. BECKER: If only Mr. Osgood has these,
16 that's fine. I frankly don't have these incident
17 reports.

18 MR. OSGOOD: This was attached to the 19 deposition you gave me of Miss Riggs as the exhibits
20 to it.

21 MR. BECKER: I will look. Thank you.

22 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

23 Q Now, having had a chance to review that report, how did
24 you describe that pickup, ma'am?

25 A: As a late model pickup truck.

1 Q Would you describe the color?

2 A: Red.

3 Q And that would be the same description then basically
4 as the truck parked up against the trailers or would it
5 have been a newer truck?

6 A: No, it was an older truck.

7 Q Which was older?

8 A: The one I chased off the property was much older. It
9 didn't have taillights, wasn't attached to the vehicle.
10 It was like on poles like in the fifties.

11 Q Why did you describe it as a late model pickup then in 12 your report?

13 A: I thought that is a late model.

14 THE COURT: I think you and she are inverting
15 the significance of "late".

16 Q How long have you worked at Ford?

17 A: Almost twenty years.

18 Q A late model pickup.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q What name did you use on this report?

21 A: Mr. Fiser.

22 Q Were you married to Mr. Fiser at this time?

23 A: No, I was not.

24 Q Had you divorced?

25 A: Yes.

1 Q Why did you use the name Fiser on the report?

2 A: I used the name Fiser first while working for
3 Ameriguard so the other employees wouldn't know I was 4 Robert's sister and think he was being partial toward

6 Q On this pickup you said you chased and it slammed on 7 its brakes.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q And you rammed it.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q How fast were you going at the time?

12 A: I couldn't tell you. I wasn't going seventy. I was 13 probably going about 20, 25 miles per hour.

14 Q What kind of a vehicle were you driving?

15 A: A pickup truck.

16 Q A Toyota. A: A Toyota.

17 Q What year?

18 A: I don't remember the year, the late seventies.

19 Q Does it have an impact bumper, do you know?

20 A: No, it was lifted up. It was up higher than normal.

21 Q And what did the rear end of the pickup that stopped,
22 you slammed into, look like, ma' am ?

23 A: It had taillights like on a pole instead of being
24 attached to the vehicle. That's how I knew it was a
25 later model.

1 Q And an older model, you mean -- well, did it have a
2 steel bumper?

3 A: I don't know now.

4 Q Did you damage your automobile?

5 A: I believe so.

6 Q Did you turn it into the insurance company?

7 A: No, I don't believe so.

8 Q So on the night of the fire, four nights later you were
9 driving a damaged pickup that had been damaged as a
10 result of this car stopping and you ramming into it.

11 A: Well, it didn't tear it up or knock any lights out of 12 it. I think it just made a dent on the bumper or 13 something. It didn't really damage it. It wasn't
14 extensive damage.

15 Q Now, do you remember being interviewed by Detectives
16 Doug Clark and Zinn(phonetics)?

17 A: No.

18 Q Do you remember being interviewed by the detectives
19 immediately following this incident?

20 A: I was interviewed by a lot of detectives.

21 Q Did you tell one of the detectives your brother was 22 asleep in the car sitting next to you while you had the 23 light on reading these reports?

24 A: I believe that was said in interrogation after I had 25 been there for about seven hours and had been up all night and was in shock. They told me I could go home if I said my brother was asleep.

Q They were suggesting answers for you.

A: No, I didn't say they suggested an answer. They just told me I could go home, Robert had already said he was asleep and if I wanted to say that, I could go home, too.

Q Did you later in a deposition you gave in one of these civil cases indicate that the police officer had put that down in his report but it wasn't true; in other words, called the police officer a liar?

MR. BECKER: Objection. Speculation and argument.

THE COURT: That is argument. You don't need to do that.

Q Did you at some point in a deposition tell the person asking you questions that what a police officer put down in a report was not correct?

A: Did I tell another detective that?

Q No, another lawyer who was asking you in one of these depositions you gave in 1989, on August 22nd, did you tell the lawyer interrogating you when he asked you about Robert being asleep next to you, that this was in the police report but it wasn't true?

A: I really don't remember if that happened. If you could

1 show me the deposition but I don't want to say it is
2 true.

3 Q Rather than digging it out I will just move on to save
4 some time. Did you ever tell these lawyers you had
5 lied about what Robert was doing while all this was
6 going on that night?

7 A: I told them the morning of the interrogation -

8 MR. BECKER: Objection. Foundation.

9 THE COURT: Are you putting the word lied in 10 quotes?

11 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

12 MR. BECKER: What page, please?

13 MR. OSGOOD: 22 August, '89.

14 Q Do you remember giving this deposition on 22 August, 15 1989?

16 A No.

17 Q Let me show you a copy. It was involving a civil case,
18 John Deere versus the Missouri Highway Commission.

19 MR. BECKER: What page?

20 MR. OSGOOD: I am going to make reference to 21 page 117.

22 Q You were asked a series of questions about where Robert
23 was, what you had told the police in relationship to 24 where he was, do you remember?

25 A No.

1 Q They were focusing on who was on the east side and who
2 was on the west side.

3 A: Right.

4 Q In that deposition did you tell the lawyer that you had
5 lied about Robert being on the opposite side, "that
6 Robert was on the same side I was and I had lied,
7 Robert was there."

8 A: Yes, I said that all along at the morning of the 9 interrogation. I told them that wasn't truthful and I
10 said that ever since that.

11 Q Do you remember a police report or being confronted
12 with a police report in this deposition -- and I am on 13 page 126 now -- which indicated you had to shake Robert
14 to wake him up and you denied you had ever told 15 Detective Zinn that?

16 MR. BECKER: Objection. No foundation for
17 that.

18 THE COURT: As I understand impeachment, it
19 goes to attacking something that has been said here.
20 Does that relate to something she has testified here or 21 something she said before?

22 Q You had conversations with the detective, right, ma'am?

23 A: Several times.

24 Q He prepared reports. He prepared written reports.

25 A: The detective -

1 THE COURT: Do you know whether he prepared
2 written reports or not?

3 THE WITNESS: I don't know if they made
4 reports every time they talked to me.

5 Q You were shown reports during this deposition, weren't
6 you, they had police reports, the lawyers?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q And one of the questions was concerning whether or not
9 you had to shake your brother. Let me just ask you,
10 did you have to shake your brother on that night to 11 wake him up?

12 A: No, I did not. I slapped him on the shoulder like that 13 (indicating).

14 Q Were you asked in this deposition whether or not you
15 had told Detective Zinn you had to shake your brother
16 to wake him up?

17 MR. BECKER: No prior inconsistency.

18 THE COURT: I was going to say it doesn't 19 sound like you have an inconsistency. Show me and 20 bring it up.

21 (Conference at the bench out of the hearing of 22 the jury.)

23 THE COURT: It says, "You had to shake your
24 brother to wake him up." "That is not true.'" "You
25 never told Detective Zinn that.'" "Never did."

1 MR. OSGOOD: I want to establish she didn't
2 tell Detective Zinn that, the report is wrong. That is
3 all I am trying to get at.

4 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

5 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

6 Q Did you get your purse back after a period of time?

7 A: Yes, sir, I did. It wasn't really a purse. It had my
8 checkbook and credit cards in it. It also had an I.D.,
9 my driver's license, everything.

10 Q It was vinyl construction.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q How big was it?

13 A: This big (indicating).

14 Q You are holding your hand.

15 A: Six by three inches; eight by three inches.

16 THE COURT: Was it kind of like a Zip-lock
17 bag?

18 THE WITNESS: No, it was like a plastic
19 grocery bag that you get from the grocery store when 20 you get groceries.

21 THE COURT: All right. I don't think of a
22 grocery bag as being that small.

23 THE WITNESS: No, that was my purse; my 24 checkbook.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 Q I am just going to ask you who a couple other people
2 are and then I am going to sit down. Who was Officer
3 Mason?

4 A My brother.

5 Q So that was a false name he was using on these reports?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Who was Officer McDonald?

8 A My sister-in-law.

9 Q Jennie Riggs.

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Was she using a false name?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Now, you went to Security Officer School, didn't you,
14 ma ' am?

15 A: I took some classes at Penn Valley.

16 Q Tell us about those, please.

17 THE COURT: What was that?

18 MR. OSGOOD: I asked if she took some 19 security officer classes. I want to know what they 20 were.

21 THE COURT: You didn't ask her that. You
22 said "tell us about those" and we can spend the rest of 23 the day reviewing the classes at Penn Valley. What 24 were the courses?

25 THE WITNESS: I don't remember what they were

1 now.

2 Q Were you taught how to write reports?

3 A: Not that I remember but I could have been but I don't
4 remember that.

5 Q Where did you pick up the technique of referring to
6 yourself as "Reporting Officer Fiser approached a red
7 vehicle"?

8 A: Like in a third person manner, from my brother.

9 Q You used terms like "vehicle".

10 A: Yes.

11 Q And "scene".

12 A: Yes.

13 Q And "exiting the vehicle".

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Those kind of police terms.

16 A: My oldest brother is a police officer and the brother
17 that I was working for, he used to be a police officer
18 so I was familiar with those terms.

19 Q Last question. There were at least two distinct drafts
20 of your incident report about the explosion that were 21 prepared, weren't they?

22 A: There was at least two drafts.

23 Q You wrote a draft of your incident report and showed it
24 to your brother Robert.

25 A: Yes.

1 Q You then wrote a completely separate report.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q From scratch.

4 A: Yes, I turned the other one in. That is why I had to 5 do it from scratch and he said he wouldn't accept it
6 with all the marking on it.

7 Q You said the gun, you went back to get the gun because
8 it had collector value at one point.

9 A: No, sir, I didn't.

10 Q You never said that.

11 A: No, sir.

12 Q It was of special value.

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q Why did you go back to get the gun?

15 A: I didn't, sir.

16 Q Why did your brother go back to get the gun and leave
17 you standing in the middle of the highway?

18 A: I can't answer that. He wanted to go back and get the 19 gun; I didn't. So I asked him to let me out.

20 Q When you reported the fire to the police you did not 21 tell them about the gun being in the truck the first
22 time.

23 A: When I reported the fire to the police?

24 Q Yes, ma'am. When you discussed the fire of your truck,
25 the arson of your truck, you did not tell them there

1 was a gun in the truck, did you?

2 A: I don't remember. It is possible that I didn't.

3 Q Now, that was a crime scene, wasn't it? You knew your
4 truck had been burned in an arson.

5 A: I was also in shock.

6 Q But you had been to these courses. You had been 7 trained as a security officer, correct?

8 A: Correct.

9 Q You knew that immediately when the fire department
10 arrived they told you it was suspected arson, it had 11 burned from the inside.

12 A: That wasn't what was going through my mind, it was a
13 crime scene and it was an arson. I was just excited.
14 I had never seen a truck burn like that before. I was 15 scared. Had I left my headlights on. I didn't know
16 what to expect.

17 Q Let's bracket the incident for a moment, ma'am. You
18 had seen two individuals up the street and I won't 19 belabor that.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q You investigated that.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Came back and your truck was on fire.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Then a tremendous explosion occurred up on the hill.

2 Q Then you leave, you and your brother leave.

3 A: No.

4 Q Well, you backed down off the hill -- I am shorting it
5 a little bit -- you stay until the fire department
6 arrives and you talked to them. Then eventually you
7 come down off the hill. Your brother comes down and 8 picked you up and the two of you go down toward 95th
9 Street.

10 A: We went back across the street and was asked to stay
11 there.

12 Q By the police.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Because they were concerned and were going to conduct
15 an investigation.

16 A: No, they said they wanted to take a statement.

17 Q But by this point you knew the police were involved.

18 A: At that point I didn't know much of anything except I
19 was alive.

20 Q The two of you take off and go down. This is before
21 the second explosion, isn't it?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q You get halfway down 71 highway and your brother wants
24 to go back and get the gun out of the truck, doesn't
25 he?

1 A: It wasn't halfway down.

2 Q By a 55 mile speed limit sign.

3 A: It was by a speed limit sign.

4 Q So he stops and you get out.

5 A: He said he was going to go back and get the gun and I
6 asked him to let me out at the speed limit sign.

7 Q So my question to you is did you tell him at any time
8 we ought to leave the gun in there, that's a crime
9 scene, based on your training?

10 A: No, I didn't. Crime scene didn't enter my mind.

11 Q In your training were you told when there is a crime
12 scene you leave the scene intact and do not disturb it.

13 A: I don't remember being told that.

14 Q As a security officer you never were told if there is a
15 crime scene you secure it.

16 A: That you secure it but I had never imagined I would
17 ever be at a crime scene.

18 Q All right. When you were interviewed that evening the 19 first time with the detectives, did you leave the 20 impression with the detective you weren't even a 21 security officer; you had just gone down there to give 22 your brother a sandwich.

23 THE COURT: Did she leave the impression?

24 MR. OSGOOD: Yes. Deliberately.

25 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I am really

583

1 puzzled by that. Did she leave the impression.

2 MR. OSGOOD: Let me rephrase it then, Your
3 Honor.

4 Q Did they question you and make statements to you that
5 led you to believe they thought you were just there
6 delivering a sandwich?

7 A: No, sir, I told them in the interrogation I was only
8 there to deliver a sandwich and then I told them after 9 that that wasn't true.

10 Q So that was another statement that was a lie.

11 A: I am not going to call it a lie. I didn't lie on 12 purpose.

13 Q You made a number of statements to the police that 14 later you had to go back and say were not accurate.

15 A: I didn't tell all. I didn't tell everything. Then
16 after that it came to me. There were six men dead here
17 and I told them everything and I cooperated with them.

18 Q You told them everything and they went into your 19 background in great detail, didn't they?

20 A: They sure did.

21 Q Anything that would have to do whatsoever with this,
22 didn't they?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q To determine whether or not you were telling the truth
25 and being honest.

1 A: Yes, they sure did.

2 Q They asked you everything in the world.

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Your life history. A: Yes.

5 Q You didn't tell them about your 1970 -

6 MR. BECKER: Objection.

7 THE COURT: Just a minute, Mr. Osgood. You
8 know better than that. The objection is sustained. I
9 told you before not to go into that and I seriously
10 personally object to your going into it.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Can we approach on that?

12 (Conference at the Bench out of the hearing of the 13 jury.)

14 THE COURT: You know you can't do that. I
15 have told you expressly you cannot do that.

16 MR. OSGOOD: I thought Mr. Becker opened it
17 up and I just laid a foundation.

18 THE COURT: He did not. Now that is just
19 dead wrong and you know what that record is and I am
20 not going to tolerate it. Now, let's go on.

21 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

22 MR. OSGOOD: That's all.

23 THE COURT: Any Redirect, Mr. Becker?

24 MR. BECKER: No Redirect, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You may step down. Thank you.

1 MR. BECKER: The United States called Robert
2 Riggs.

3 ROBERT RIGGS,

4 having been sworn, testified:

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. BECKER:

7 Q Good morning.

8 A: Good morning.

9 Q If you would please hold the microphone a little bit
10 closer there.

11 A: Mr.Becker, you may need to excuse my voice. I coach
12 wrestling and it's a little bit raspy this morning.

13 Q Please state your name and spell your last name.

14 A: Robert Riggs, R-i-g-g-s.

15 Q How old are you?

16 A: Forty three.

17 Q Are you married? A: Yes.

18 Q Do you have any children?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q What do you do for a living?

21 A: I am a private detective.

22 Q What is the name of your company?

23 A: Ameriguard.

24 Q Where is that located?

25 A: 9233 Ward Parkway.

1 Q Kansas City, Missouri. A Yes.

2 Q Now who owns the company?

3 A: I am the president. It is a corporation; yes, sir.

4 Q How long have you had that company?

5 A: Since 1980 or late '79.

6 Q Briefly could you tell us what type of business that

7 Ameriguard does right now.

8 A: We provide protective services and investigative

9 services.

10 Q What do you mean by "protective services"?

11 A: We have a security division, security officers.

12 Q What do they do?

13 A: They provide a deterrent effect on property to deter

14 illegal or undesirable activity.

15 Q What type of property is your business typically

16 employed to protect or deter?

17 A: Normally a private business, a private property.

18 Q The investigative services, what does that involve,

19 again briefly, please?

20 A: We provide investigative services for government

21 agencies, the state and for the county and also private

22 companies.

23 Q How many employees do you have now?

24 A: Approximately thirty.

25 Q Can you tell us how they are divided between

1 investigative and protective.

2 A: That would be the security division.

3 Q How many in security and how many in investigative?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: I object to the relevance of
5 this. This is now. This happened in 1988.

6 THE COURT: That is probably right. Let's
7 get, as the saying goes, let's cut to the chase.

8 MR. BECKER: Sure.

9 Q In November of 1988 how many employees were in your
10 company?

11 A: I don't remember. I would have to guess.

12 Q What is your best estimate?

13 A: Fifteen.

14 Q How were they divided between, I am going to call it
15 guard duty and investigative duty.

16 A: Probably fifteen security personnel and three 17 investigators.

18 Q Now I would like to call your attention to late October
19 of 1988. During your business, up to that time, had 20 you or your company done security or guard work at 21 construction sites?

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q In late October, 1988 were you contacted regarding any 24 work for your business regarding the highway
25 construction project located at 71 highway and Blue

588

1 River Road?

2 A: Yes, I was contacted by Kenny Brown from Brown
3 Construction.

4 Q Was he the owner of that company?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q What was the nature of the contact?

7 A: He suspected that an ex-employee, recently terminated
8 employee, might be doing some sabotage or destruction
9 on his job site to some of his equipment. He really
10 didn't have any evidence. He simply had some equipment
11 that had broken down and he was concerned possibly this
12 ex-employee, disgruntled employee, might be sabotaging
13 some of this equipment so he asked me to look into it
14 for him.

15 Q What were you hired to do then initially?

16 A: Initially we were hired to have a surveillance on this
17 particular individual who he suspected, this ex
18 employee.

19 Q Did you do that?

20 A: Yes, sir.

21 Q How long did that last?

22 A: About three or four days.

23 Q Anything suspicious turn up there?

24 A: No, sir. And we felt like what we may do instead is 25 set up a sting operation. He had some security

589

1 personnel down at the Brown Brothers Construction site,
2 the 71 highway construction site. However, he was
3 displeased with their service and asked if I could
4 provide that service. I suggested to him we set up a
5 sting operation and turn off the lights and hopefully
6 apprehend this individual rather than just scaring him
7 away or having him sneak in and cause destruction of 8 the property and get away with it.

9 Q Did you do that?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q I want to show you Government's Exhibit 5 which is an
12 aerial photograph of the scene. Before today you and I
13 have had an opportunity to go over your testimony and 14 look at all these dozens of pictures, is that correct?

15 A: A couple of times.

16 Q If you would please, with the court's permission, come
17 down here and show the members of the jury initially 18 what was your plan? What did you do on the 19 construction site depicted on Government's 5?

20 A: The equipment that had been damaged was over here on 21 the west side of 71 highway. It was parked along this 22 haul road, similar to what it is here. Although 23 actually it was parked in that location when we first
24 began. Now there is nothing parked here.

25 Q You are pointing north, a little bit north of the haul

1 road.

2 A Yes, where the construction equipment appears to be
3 parked there now, it used to be parked right here
4 (indicating).

5 Q And that again, right here is a little bit north of the 6 haul road.

7 A: Just a tad north; yes, sir.

8 Q What did you do at that location then in I guess late
9 October, the first part of November, 1988.

10 A: Well, there were a couple of us that worked this detail
11 but we were not in uniform. We would dress in a
12 comfortable manner, camouflage overalls or something,
13 because it was getting cool at night. We would hide
14 somewhere in this area and turn off the lights here
15 where the equipment was parked and we would watch for 16 someone to enter the property, hoping to apprehend them
17 in the act of destruction, destroying the property.

18 Q Where would you hide?

19 A: Somewhere in this area over here where we had a clear
20 view of the equipment that was parked just west of 71
21 highway and just north of that little haul way there.

22 Q What were you able to hide in, is it an open area?
23 What is it?

24 A: No, there is an all-wooded area in here.

25 Q You said you turned off the lights, what lights were

1 present on that side of the highway in the area of the
2 equipment?

3 A: Well, I am not sure what the name of the lights are but
4 they're construction-type lights you oftentimes see.
5 They're on a post and they stick 15, 20 feet in the air
6 and they have very bright flood lights.

7 Q If you remember, how many were on that side of the 8 highway or over near that equipment, more than one?

9 A: It's hard to remember because I think there was one and 10 then there was two. I believe there was only one.
11 There may have been two. I don't remember.

12 Q Did you catch anybody in your trap?

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q Did the nature of your employment with Brown then 15 change?

16 A: Yes, sir.

17 Q Tell us about that, please.

18 A: Well, the investigative service and the sting operation
19 cost Mr. Brown more than what a normal security officer
20 on the property deterring would cost. After a few days
21 Mr. Brown decided he would like to lower that expense
22 since nothing was happening and he hired Ameriguard to 23 have security personnel on the property to act as a
24 deterrent.

25 Q How many people did he want on that property for a

1 deterrent function?

2 A: It would be one security officer.

3 Q Where was that officer supposed to be located or what
4 was that officer supposed to do?

5 A: Provide a visible authoritative presence to deter
6 someone from entering the property and possibly causing
7 destruction to his equipment.

8 Q You were in charge then of the security guards that
9 would have been doing the actual duty on this site.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Looking at Government's Exhibit 5, how much of the site
12 did Mr. Brown, what was the extent of his company's 13 work in that area, the boundaries, if you will.

14 A: It ran from 85th Street -- actually, the Little Blue
15 River was the divide line. Then another construction
16 company picked up from there and it ran from there all
17 the way to 95th Street, probably a mile stretch.

18 Q So on the north side it would be the Little Blue River.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And then all the way down to 95th Street.

21 A: Yes, Bannister Road.

22 Q How wide was the area that you considered that Mr.
23 Brown was asking you to protect?

24 A: Gosh, it's hard to tell in measurements. It would have 25 been a thousand yards, fifteen hundred yards, a good lengthy distance. Probably a half distance from Blue River to Bannister Road.

Q Looking at Government's Exhibit 5, if you will, or here on Government's Exhibit 29, were you responsible for a stretch just along the highway or was there other activity across the road that you also were supposed to be looking out for?

A: Well, it is all the Brown Brothers Construction site. We would have been concerned regarding any activity that took place but the main concern was the equipment that Mr. Brown had parked on the haul road because that was equipment where somebody had poured some sugar in the gas tank or sand in the oil or something along that line.

Q I am showing you Government's Exhibit 29. This is the area across the road. Did you also provide security with that one man or one person for this area?

A: Yes.

Q How did you instruct, either for yourself or your guards that work for you, for the one person to guard that whole area?

A: Well, we weren't there to guard anything. We were there to act as a deterrence. His presence was supposed to deter that activity. We weren't there to guard anything.

1 Q How was he going to deter, he or she going to deter
2 persons on both sides of the road?

3 A: By observation. We were there at nighttime hours
4 normally from I believe it was 6:00 P.M. to 6:00 A.M.
5 and we normally ran that in two shifts, six to twelve
6 and twelve to six. It would be nighttime. Normally
7 the first employees would arrive there about 5:30 A.M.
8 just as it would start to begin to get light and then
9 other people would start to come in. So you would look
10 for lights. Otherwise, it's pitch black out there
11 except for that construction light that was set up over 12 there in that small area on the east side -- west side,
13 I'm sorry.

14 Q The area on the east side where ultimately the 15 explosion occurred, what if any lights were up there?

16 A: There were no lights up there. The only light you
17 would have is moonlight if you were fortunate enough to 18 have that.

19 Q Did there come a time that your company's presence
20 there increased to two people, two guards?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q When did that happen?

23 A: Well, we began to have some activity on the property
24 and specifically on the east side of the highway from 25 where the officer normally found it beneficial to be

1 stationary over by the equipment where it was parked.
2 We started to have some activity over on the east side
3 of the highway. And specifically we had a trailer
4 broken into, a lock cut off of a trailer. Prior to 5 that we had an incident with some people horsing around
6 and later they were believed to have been armed and 7 activity started to increase and some of which was 8 occurring on that side of the highway.

9 Q Let's take them one at a time, if you would. Just 10 address the ones you were out there on.

11 A: Yes, sir.

12 Q Were you there at any time when the locks were cut off
13 the trailer?

14 A: Yes, sir, that would have been the second incident.

15 THE COURT: That is confusing. You mean when 16 they were discovered to have been cut off.

17 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

18 Q Let's talk about the first incident then. What was the 19 first incident you personally observed at the site?

20 A: Well, I was over on the west side of the highway, over
21 toward the haul road, and I saw some lights up on top
22 of the east side of the highway. You couldn't see up
23 above because it was up probably thirty, forty yards up
24 above. You had to drive a road to get to it. So you
25 couldn't see anything but you could see some lights.

1 And I saw some light activity. I figured it was maybe
2 spooners or lovers. My mother used that word,
3 . 'spooners". I think it is an older word for lovers.

4 THE COURT: Be careful.

5 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. That was parked up
6 there because it was a dark area and remote.

7 Q What did you do?

8 A: I noticed the lights appeared to be turned off and 9 turning back on again or possibly they were driving in 10 such a direction the light would aim that way and aim
11 this way which concerned me. They didn't appear to be 12 parked and just staying there like I thought they might 13 have been doing. So I drove over to that area. And 14 when I did they came down off of the hill and toward 15 85th Street which there is an exit right there.

16 Q And I will show you Government's Exhibit 21. Can you
17 see that from where you are sitting?

18 A: Yes, I can see it.

19 Q Is that an entry-exit onto 85th show on Government's 20 Exhibit 21 here?

21 A: Yes, it is.

22 Q And is it fair to say it is down along here where you
23 could come onto the property?

24 A: Yes, there are only two ways to enter or exit that 25 property in a vehicle and that would be where your

1 finger was right there, that haul road right there.

2 And then there was a smaller little haul road that ran
3 around up to the plateau up above, right there
4 (indicating). Sometimes you couldn't use that road;
5 sometimes you could.

6 THE COURT: Because of weather, moisture.

7 THE WITNESS: Weather. Adverse weather would
8 cause us not to be able to climb up that large haul
9 road. We would have to sit on 71 highway when it
10 rained or ice or something, you couldn't get up that 11 haul road in a car, either road. But the one over on 12 85th Street, it was narrow and went up a steep hill and 13 it didn't take too much, just depending on what the 14 condition of the road was itself. There could be 15 rocks, large clods of dirt. Sometimes you couldn't use
16 it. Most normally it was available but that is the 17 road that this truck came down at a very, appeared to 18 be driving at a fast speed.

19 Q Let's take it one step at a time. Where were you
20 parked when you observed this headlight activity?

21 A: Over on the east side, over on the west side of 71
22 highway in the same area I was pointing out on this
23 large diagram here.

24 Q And that would be as you followed the haul road across,
25 all the way past the bottom of this photograph.

1 A: Just below that, what appears to be a white car there,
2 on across. And then there is the southbound 71 and it
3 would have been right there off southbound 71.

4 Q What kind of car were you driving or truck or what did
5 you have?

6 A: I was driving a Maxima station wagon.

7 Q What did you do then when you saw these headlights?

8 A: I drove over there. And when I saw the car, it seemed 9 to be trying to race me. Then I picked up my speed and 10 got over there as quickly as I could and blocked off
11 that exit so I could question their activity.

12 Q So you went south on 71 and then took a left on 87th
13 Street there to the corner of the property, is that 14 right, where I have my pen?

15 A: Yes, sir.

16 Q And that is where there is the little driveway going up
17 onto the site was located.

18 A: Small drive, yes.

19 Q What happened then?

20 A: Well, I parked my car in there (indicating), corner and 21 got out of my vehicle just as the truck was coming down
22 and I put up my hand to stop and they stopped. I was 23 in uniform. And they stopped and I walked up to the 24 car and they appeared to be wrestling around or 25 nervous, something seemed to be -

1 Q A couple questions. What uniform were you in?

2 A: I was in an Ameriguard uniform.

3 Q What did that consist of?

4 A: Blue slacks, gold stripes on the pantleg, blue shirt,
5 blue jacket. It's pretty much a copy of the Dallas
6 P.D., Police Department.

7 Q Any kind of emblem or anything like that that would
8 identify you as a security officer?

9 A: Certainly.

10 Q What?

11 A: There would have been a badge and patches.

12 Q At that point were you able to see the truck as it came 13 down toward you?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q What kind of truck was it?

16 A: It was a black or a very dark-colored Blazer or Bronco,
17 one of the large styles, and it was all jacked up. It 18 had a cow-catcher type bumper on the front of it also 19 and a dim headlight.

20 Q What is a cow-catcher front?

21 A: Like they used on the farms in case you hit deer or 22 cows, keep you from damaging your engine or radiator,
23 big steel bars.

24 Q Could you see how many persons were in that truck?

25 A Yes.

1 Q How many?

2 A: Three.

3 Q Where were they located?

4 A: There was a driver in the front seat, which was a white
5 male, and there was a white female in the, sort of in 6 the, what you would think the console area. She looked
7 to be sitting up on something because she was taller
8 than the other two. And then there was a male in the 9 passenger seat. I don't know what color he was.

10 Q Then you are out of your truck. What happened next?
11 You are out of your station wagon and the truck is 12 coming toward you.

13 A: I asked them what their business was.

14 Q Had they stopped then?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q What happened?

17 A: The driver was uncooperative and acted in a suspicious
18 manner and didn't want to answer my questions and 19 continually tried to coach me into coming up to the 20 truck. And he bent down and he was down along the side
21 panel or he was sort of bent over like this
22 (indicating) and I heard the female in the middle say,
23 "No", she was saying, "No." I figured he was going for 24 a gun.

25 Q But you could observe him leaning down toward -

1 A: Yes, he said, "Why don't you come up here and take a
2 look."

3 Q What did you do?

4 A: I went back to my car and took cover.

5 Q What happened then?

6 A: He drove around my car and over a ditch and out onto
7 87th Street and speed eastbound on 87th.

8 Q And here on Government's Exhibit 21, 87th Street, is 9 that the direction as it curves out here through the 10 woods, that is eastbound on 87th.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q What did you do?

13 A: Well, they didn't have a license plate on the front and 14 I wanted to get a license plate number. So I jumped in 15 my car and took off after him. And I just got a short 16 ways up the road and I guess he figured I was going to 17 catch him or something -- I didn't know what he was 18 figuring, but he turned around, he did a 180 and turned 19 around and came back toward me down the middle of the 20 road.

21 Q What did you do?

22 A: I pulled onto the shoulder and laid in the seat. I
23 thought he might be shooting as he goes by.

24 Q Did you get a license plate?

25 A: No, sir.

1 Q What happened then?

2 A: I called the police.

3 Q Did you report this incident to the police?

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q What is the next incident that you observed on the 6 site? I believe we started to talk about that with the 7 padlocks.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q What do you remember about that? Just your 10 involvement, please.

11 A: We had two persons that were chased off the property.
12 And Norm Collins was called and informed. He was the 13 owner of Mountain Plains. Actually Ken Brown was 14 called and told. And he said those aren't my trailers;
15 you need to call Norm Collins.

16 Q Who is Norm Collins?

17 A: He is the president or owner of Mountain Plains
18 Construction who was a subcontractor of Kenny Brown 's.

19 Q What happened next?

20 A: Norm Collins came out and I informed him what had 21 happened. And since that time Officer Lamanske and I
22 went up to check the trailer area, the area which they
23 had run from, and we found a set of lock cutters and a
24 lock cut off of one of the trailers. And we informed
25 Mr. Collins of that. And I had some questions because

1 I could smell gasoline, a heavy scent of gasoline and I
2 asked Mr. Collins if it was gasoline and he said, no,
3 that it was diesel fuel and fertilizer mixture.

4 Q Were you able to see if any of the doors to the trailer
5 were open?

6 A: I don't remember if they were or not. I think it was
7 either ajar a little bit or it could have been open. I
8 really don't remember.

9 Q Do you remember seeing -

10 MR. O'CONNOR: I object to this line of 11 questioning. I don't know what day we are talking
12 about.

13 MR. BECKER: Certainly.

14 Q Do you remember when this incident occurred when you
15 went in and found the locks and the lock cutter, how 16 soon or when was it before the explosion?

17 A: I remember the explosion date and it would have been 18 approximately two weeks prior to that.

19 THE COURT: I would say the objection is now
20 moot and will be overruled.

21 Q That night, about two weeks before the explosion, were
22 you able to see into the trailer? Do you remember
23 seeing into the trailer?

24 A: Yes. The chain was cut and the lock was on the ground.
25 I believe the chain was on the ground also and the lock

1 cutters were there in that vicinity, somewhere closeby.
2 Either we opened the trailer doors or they were already
3 open, whichever, but I remember looking in there
4 because when Norm Collins was there explaining to me
5 what was in the trailer, the trailer doors were open at 6 that time.

7 Q What did you see?

8 A: I saw large rolls, sort of similar to a sand bags that
9 you put in your pickup truck or the trunk of your car
10 for traction on snow, sort of like large sand bags.
11 They were sort of like rolls of coins and they were 12 stacked like you would rolls of coins.

13 Q How high was the stack?

14 A: It seemed like it went to the top or close to the top.
15 The trailer appeared to be full and that is why Norm
16 Collins didn't believe there was anything stolen out of 17 the trailer. He said he was going to inventory the 18 next morning but he didn't think anything was stolen.

19 Q I am going to show you what is marked for
20 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit 299.
21 Does this look similar to the rolls that you saw in 22 that construction trailer about two weeks before the 23 explosion in November of 1988?

24 A Similar.

25 MR. BECKER: I would offer this in evidence

1 as Government's Exhibit 288.

2 MR. PETERS: No objection.

3 THE COURT: All right, it is admitted without
4 objection.

5 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT NO. 288 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

6 THE COURT: Having accomplished that, why
7 don't you mark where you are and we will take our noon
8 break.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, again don't talk
10 about the case while you are at lunch. Talk about 11 something else. We will resume at 1:30. Please
12 be back in the jury room before 1:30. All right,
13 you may withdraw.

14 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Okay, we are in recess.

16 LUNCH RECESS

17 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Riggs, I will
18 remind you you are still under oath and, counsel, you
19 may proceed.

20 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

21 Q Mr. Riggs, could you tell us, please, generally in your 22 guard services at the 71 highway construction site in 23 November of 1988 where your two guards were generally
24 positioned and I am showing you on the video screen
25 Government's Exhibit 26, could you point out on there -

606

1 - I guess it is easier if you come to the overhead with
2 the Court's permission.

3 THE COURT: Yes. Certainly.

4 Q And point out two things: One, where the patrols were
5 normally located.

6 A: Sure. The officer that was on the west side of the 7 highway, it was most normally, he or she when 8 stationary, would be parked in this area right here.

9 Q Where the equipment is parked.

10 A: Yes, sir, right there, just west of 71 highway.
11 They're at that little haul road where it crosses
12 southbound 71. That is where the officer working the 13 west side would normally sit. The officer working the 14 east side, there was really no-one position we would 15 ever set up in. Again, it would depend on what kind of 16 land movement they were doing that day because they 17 were using explosives and the terrain would change.
18 The condition of the roads would change.

19 Also, there was no one place where you
20 could see all the property. So it wasn't uncommon
21 for us to change positions from time to time.
22 Normally, our routine was when we first arrived on 23 duty was to patrol the perimeter of the property
24 which would be Blue River Road and also 87th
25 Street up both sides all the way to the end of the

1 property. And then normally you would enter the
2 property and try to check certain things like
3 there were two trailers with locks on them and two
4 bunkers with locks on them. We would check those
5 to make sure those were locked.

6 Q At the back of the property could you point out to the 7 Judge and the members of the jury, please, where the 8 bunkers are, do you see them on that photo?

9 A: Yes, I do. This picture does not show the end of the 10 property going eastbound. It continues on past that,
11 but the two bunkers, there is a yellow dot right there
12 which is a bunker and there is also a yellow dot right
13 there which is a bunker. They contain primer caps and 14 dynamite is what I was informed.

15 Q During the course of November of 1988 were you aware of 16 problems or questions about the wood cutters on the 17 property?

18 A: Yes, I was aware of problems with wood cutters on the
19 property.

20 Q Were you ever called out when the wood cutters were
21 there?

22 A: Yes, I was. I was called on a couple of occasions.

23 Q Could you tell us briefly about those, please.

24 A: I could summarize rather than going through each
25 incident separately but there were some wood cutters on

1 the property. There were large piles of wood on the
2 west side of the property, several long piles, or
3 piles, and sometimes it was just a long pile of wood, a
4 pile on top of one another, maybe 15 feet tall,
5 something like that.

6 Q I am looking at Government's Exhibit 26, up on the east
7 side of the property here, is that the wood that is
8 stacked up or piled up on that part of the property?

9 A: Yes, it is hard to tell from here but that orange
10 discoloration in the photo, those are piles of wood.

11 Q I will show you what is Government's Exhibit 71. Does
12 that photograph depict the wood piles as you saw them
13 at about the time of the explosion on November 29,
14 1988?

15 A: Yes. And it also gives an idea what that property
16 looks like up there, how limited your vision is at any 17 time. The rest of the property didn't necessarily have 18 wood on it but there would be piles of rock.

19 Q Showing you Government's Exhibit 70, again what are the 20 various sizes or shapes of the wood that was up there?

21 A: I don't remember. Just by looking at that it looks 22 like sort of trunks and roots and things like that.

23 Q Whole trees.

24 A: A lot of wood, parts of trees is what it was.

25 Q What happened with the wood cutters?

1 A: They were simply up there cutting wood but they didn't
2 have permission, was the problem. And after-hours
3 persons weren't allowed to be on the property other
4 than those that were authorized. The security officers
5 approached the wood cutters. There was one main guy
6 and then his wife and I think four or five or maybe six
7 other people that would cut wood with him. They were 8 simply gathering wood.

9 Q When were you called out?

10 A: One of the security officers, I don't remember who it
11 was, called a supervisor or somehow I got notified of 12 it, and I went down there -- no, what I did was I just 13 called the next day and asked Norm Collins and I also 14 called Kenny Brown to see if he was aware of any wood
15 cutters because the wood cutters claimed to have 16 permission to be on the property.

17 Q What time of day was it that you were contacted the 18 wood cutters were on the property?

19 A: I don't remember but it would have been early in the 20 evening.

21 Q I would like now to call your attention to November 28,
22 1988. Were you called to the construction site that
23 evening?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Were you scheduled to work that evening?

1 A: No.

2 Q Who called you to the site?

3 A: My sister Debbie. She didn't call me to the site. She
4 paged me and when I returned the page she said there
5 was a problem down at the job site.

6 Q Did she request that you go down there?

7 A: She may have. I don't remember. I think she was 8 mostly informing me and it would have been my decision
9 whether or not it was necessary for me to go down
10 there. She may have requested. I don't remember.

11 Q Did you go down there?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Do you remember what time of day that was?

14 A: It was close to midnight.

15 Q What happened when you got down there? Who was there?

16 A: Officer Lamanske was there and Officer Riggs, Debbie
17 Riggs was there.

18 Q That is your sister, right?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q What was going on when you arrived at the scene at 71
21 highway?

22 A: One of the officers, Officer Costanza, she just 23 purchased a new vehicle. It wasn't very old at all.
24 And there was some kind of electrical problem with it.
25 And Officer Lamanske had attempted, who was the other

1 officer on duty, we had two officers down there on that
2 job site -

3 Q Who was scheduled to work? You said you had two
4 shifts, the six to midnight shift that night?

5 A: Officer Costanza and Officer Lamanske.

6 Q What happened, the car trouble when you get down there,
7 what do you do?

8 A: Well, there was an argument that was going on. Officer
9 Lamanske tried to repair this vehicle and in the 10 process of it I guess he only made it worse and they 11 were bickering and it had become heated. That was the 12 reason I went down there was to take care of that 13 because Officer Costanza was supposed to stay on duty
14 that night from twelve to six. But when I got down
15 there her car was broken down and I got them
16 straightened out. Officer Lamanske, I sent him
17 somewhere. And Debbie Riggs stayed at one location and 18 Officer Costanza and I went to Quik Trip and used the 19 phone book to get a telephone number for a tow truck.

20 Q Let's stop for a minute. You sent Lamanske over to the 21 other side of the property, the east side of the 22 property to guard.

23 A: I believe so. I forget which I sent. I left the job
24 site with Officer Costanza. The other two officers
25 would have taken care on the job site and I don't

1 remember if I directed one to go one place and one
2 another, but I remember they did.

3 Q You mentioned Officer Fiser, who is that?

4 A: Debbie Riggs.

5 Q Why is she called Fiser?

6 A: It's a name we use for report-writing and with the 7 other officers, since she is my sister, she felt more
8 comfortable. And I think I felt more comfortable with 9 her using a name other than Riggs so they wouldn't feel
10 she was special, she should be treated like anybody
11 else.

12 Q You go to Quik Trip. Did you call a tow truck?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Where did you go after that?

15 A: Back to her vehicle and waited for the tow truck to 16 arrive.

17 Q Did a tow truck arrive?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Where did Costanza go then?

20 A: She got in the tow truck with the truck driver and I
21 told her to go on home and I would take care of, see
22 her shift was covered. I told her to go on. With her
23 car all broken down, she wasn't going to stay.

24 Q She wasn't any use without a car.

25 A: Yes, she wasn't any use. She could have done foot

1 patrol but her car was broken down, she was upset. I
2 felt it was best to get her off the job.

3 Q Where was Debbie Riggs when Costanza leaves?

4 A: She would have been on one side of the property or the 5 other. I don't remember which side she was on.

6 Q Did you take up the patrol for what was scheduled to be
7 the rest of the night?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q What side of the road were you on?

10 A: I went over to the east side of the property.

11 Q If you want to refer to it, if it is easier, you can 12 talk about the trailer side or the hill side.

13 A: Okay.

14 Q And the Brown Brothers equipment side, either way.
15 What were you driving that night?

16 A: It was a fairly new vehicle. I believe it was just a
17 year or so old. It was a Maxima station wagon.

18 Q Where did you set up or position yourself over on the 19 trailer side of the highway?

20 A: Well, maybe it would be best to answer it that I didn't 21 set myself anywhere stationary. When we first come to 22 the job normally we will drive the perimeter of those
23 roads, which is 87th Street all the way up to that
24 abandoned house which isn't on that picture. It goes
25 on east beyond the picture. And then also go down

1 southbound -- northbound 71 to Blue River Road and east
2 on Blue River Road to the end of the property looking
3 for parked vehicles where people may park their car and 4 things because they're only two ways to get into that
5 side of the property unless you go on foot. So you
6 look for parked cars.

7 Q I take it then you did some patrols that night.

8 A: Yes, sir.

9 Q Did you do them alone or with your sister?

10 A: Both.

11 Q Did there come a time, sometime after two in the 12 morning -- I'm sorry, were you working on anything else
13 in your car that evening?

14 A: Mr. Brown, Kenny Brown, the owner of the construction
15 company, he had called me that day earlier at the 16 office and told me he wanted to change the hours up
17 there. Our hours were six P.M. to six A.M. and he 18 wanted to take two and a half hours off the front end,
19 instead of starting at six and start at 8:30 instead of 20 six, and we would get off at five A.M. So our hours
21 would be 8:30 P.M. to 5:00 A.M. The schedules were 22 already done for that schedule period. And so I told
23 him I would cause it to be effective immediately. So I
24 was changing, working on the schedules and that was 25 part of my reason for staying down there. I could have

1 called someone else in if I wanted to but I was already
2 down there. It was after midnight. I had those
3 schedule changes to make and so I just figured I could
4 kill two birds with one stone.

5 Q You had the schedules with you in your car.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q While you were on the trailer side of the highway then
8 were you working on those schedules?

9 A: Yes, after I made patrols and checked for, there were a
10 few pieces of equipment down there that had some locks
11 on them. We would drive by and spotlight or walk to 12 those areas you needed to walk to check the locks to 13 make sure they were secure. And we would do those kind
14 of routine things. And then there was really not 15 anything to do other than set stationary, especially on 16 a cold November night.

17 Q Did there come a time that -- could you communicate
18 with the other guard, in this instance your sister,
19 that night?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q How?

22 A: We had two-way radios.

23 Q Did you have later, say 2:00, 2:30 in the morning, did
24 your sister say she had a sandwich for you or something
25 along those lines?

1 A: I don't remember exactly how it came about but I was
2 working on my schedules and I was getting sleepy,
3 getting tired and my head would nod and I would get out
4 and do some push-ups and get back in the car, walk
5 around the car. And I was starting to get tired. I
6 think I radioed that to my sister, I think. And she
7 said she had a sandwich over there. I really wasn't
8 prepared to stay down there and I hadn't brought 9 anything to eat or anything. And she said she had some 10 kind of a sandwich and that I could have it if I wanted
11 it, she would get something later from Quik Trip or 12 something. I said okay. I thought it was a good idea
13 to get to moving around. So I drove over there. And 14 while I was over there I thought it would be a good
15 idea for her to look over the schedule changes I had 16 made that would affect her before I caused them to go
17 into effect. I guess I was just showing her some 18 preference and allowing her to look through the 19 schedules to see if those things worked out okay with 20 her.

21 Q Even though she was Officer Fiser.

22 A: Even though she was Officer Fiser/Riggs.

23 Q Where was Debbie Riggs' truck when you drove over to 24 the equipment side of the highway?

25 A: Just where you pointed your pen, right there

1 (indicating).

2 Q Here.

3 A: Yes, sir.

4 Q Close to 71 highway.

5 A: Yes, just off the road. We would set there because if
6 you got any further down the haul road you couldn't see
7 anything that was going on on the east side of the 8 property and the west side officer did more to watch
9 the east side of the property than what the east side
10 property officer did because you couldn't see diddly
11 squat on that property, you couldn't see very far at 12 all because of the rocks, hill and the dirt and the 13 piles.

14 Q So you get over there. Does she get in your car or do
15 you get in her truck?

16 A: At the time of the radio calls she got into my car. I
17 had been over there earlier and I had gotten into her
18 truck and we made a patrol in her truck earlier in the 19 evening, earlier that night.

20 Q I am talking about the sandwich time.

21 A: The sandwich, I went over there, parked close to her
22 truck. She got out of her truck and got into my 23 vehicle.

24 Q What happened?

25 A: I told her to take a look at the schedule changes and I

1 ate a sandwich. Then I got out and made a foot patrol
2 and used the restroom and then got back into the car.
3 And I was working on some schedules and Debbie said,
4 "Robert".

5 Q Before we get to that point, she had the schedules.
6 Did she make any changes to the schedules?

7 A: I don't remember.

8 Q Did there come a time that that dome light would have
9 been on in the car?

10 A: I don't remember whether it was on or off. I think it
11 was a matter of record. It should have been on.

12 Q Was there some point after your walking around and 13 everything, that you may have rested your eyes for a
14 second or two?

15 A: Not that I remembered. I said no, but Debbie said I
16 was nodding off. It's difficult. I mean I said I was 17 not. I said I was not asleep. Debbie said and has 18 told the police I was nodding off, my head was nodding
19 off.

20 Q Is it fair to say -

21 A: I was sleepy, no doubt about it and I had already eaten
22 my sandwich and gotten out. I was sitting in the 23 passenger seat.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: I object. Not responsive to
25 the question.

1 THE COURT: It is more of an explanation what
2 he said before. Why don't you ask a question.

3 MR. BECKER: Sure.

4 Q Were you behind the wheel of your car then?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Where was Debbie Riggs?

7 A: She was in the passenger seat.

8 Q Did something happen, that she called your attention to 9 something?

10 A: Yes, she said, "Robert." I said, "What?" And she said
11 there were two guys walking down the road and they went 12 down and she was describing to me where it was, they 13 went down this hill and they didn't come back into 14 view. And I asked her where, and she described it to 15 me.

16 Q Did you see anything?

17 A: No.

18 Q Where did she describe she saw this activity, these men
19 near?

20 A: There is two office trailers down by Blue River Road,
21 in between the middle of southbound and northbound 71
22 highway.

23 Q Do you see Government's Exhibit 26 on the video screen
24 there?

25 A: Yes.

1 Q And again you were parked here in your vehicle, in your
2 station wagon with Debbie Riggs, right?

3 A: That's correct.

4 Q And am I now pointing to the trailers that are located
5 in the median between the two sides of 71 highway?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Were you familiar with the terrain and the lay of the 8 land there based upon your patrols and your experience
9 in that particular location?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Please describe the terrain as you walked from one side
12 of 71 highway, I guess southbound towards the 13 northbound lanes.

14 A: On Blue River Road?

15 Q Right.

16 A: The area between the northbound and southbound lanes of 17 71 Highway at Blue River Road, it curves down like that 18 and comes back up. So the highway sets up above and 19 the median curves down a little bit as does the 20 roadway.

21 Q What did you do after your sister called this to your
22 attention?

23 A: Well, I had her describe it to me again, what it was 24 she saw. Then I drove across the median to the 25 northbound side of 71 highway and drove northbound on

1 71 highway over to the office trailers.

2 Q When you say .'across~, that would be on what you
3 described as the haul road here, correct?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Then northbound on 71 highway.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Did you have your lights on?

8 A: No.

9 Q Why not?

10 A: Well, if somebody was doing something wrong I was 11 hoping to catch them in the act and I didn't want to 12 alarm them until I got over there.

13 Q What were the traffic conditions at that time?

14 A: There were no vehicles around. Driving without lights
15 on, I wouldn't have done that if there was any traffic.
16 It was three o'clock in the morning or after. I guess
17 it would have been like 3:20 or something like that.

18 Q At what point did you turn on your lights?

19 A: Just before I get to Blue River Road, right there, I
20 hit the headlights and also hit the spotlight.

21 Q Towards what direction?

22 A: Toward the trailers.

23 Q Here in the median.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q When you came across the haul road and went north on 71

1 highway, were you looking for anyone in this area -
2 which would be east of 71 highway -- did you look in 3 that area at all?

4 A: I don't believe so.

5 Q So you didn't have your lights on or your spotlights
6 on.

7 A: That's correct, I did not.

8 Q Do you recall any streetlights or any other artificial
9 light along this area?

10 A: No. Are you asking why I did that?

11 Q I am just asking if you did it.

12 A: No, there is no lights out there and I wasn't concerned
13 about what was over there.

14 MR . PETERS: Objection. That is non
15 responsive. He asks a question and Mr. Becker
16 rephrases the question and "no" and gets an 17 explanation.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 Q What did you do in the area of the trailers?

20 A: Well, from her description, my concern was down by the 21 office trailers down there because that is where she 22 had seen the two guys walking across that median right
23 there and then leaves her vision but not coming back
24 into her vision as they should have if they would have 25 come back on northbound 71 highway. That meant they

1

1 were down there around those office trailers. As I
2 drove down, I hit the spotlight, hit the headlights.

3 As soon as I got close to the office trailer I pulled
4 into that drive in the office trailer area.

5 Q There is a little parking lot area in front of the
6 trailers.

7 A: Yes, you can see it. Sort of that brown discoloration.

8 Q Did you see anyone in that area?

9 A: No.

10 Q Where did you look in that area?

11 A: Well, I was moving pretty fast because I figured two 12 guys on feet you are going to catch them pretty quick.
13 But they weren't there. There was nobody there. I
14 drove around behind the office trailer and I shined my 15 spotlight. There was some equipment and some other
16 stuff, orange barrels, and some other things and I
17 looked back there, not getting out, to search and again
18 I am looking for two persons.

19 Q Did you flash or spotlight the woods at all back here
20 behind the trailers?

21 A: Eventually, yes. I was really concentrating in the 22 office area. That is where she had seen them last and 23 they didn't appear. That would have been my concern if 24 they were down around those office trailers. They have 25 office equipment there and things and I thought that

1 might be a reason for them, some motive for them to
2 break in or steal. As soon as I pulled out of that
3 office trailer area, when I saw they weren't there or were hiding -- well, I wasn't able to observe them -- I
5 backed out, back onto 71 highway and shined my light
6 and my spotlight down toward Blue River Road to the 7 east.

8 Q This direction here?

9 A I am sorry, to the east.

10 Q Meaning?

11 A I am sorry.

12 Q I was pointing west, this way toward the landfill.

13 A They were walking -- I guess I can't do it from up
14 here.

15 Q Step down here and demonstrate, if you would.

16 A Yes.

17 Q Why don't you use the pointer. It would be easier for 18 everybody to see.

19 A This is originally where we started from.

20 Q That is not on the map.

21 A This is originally where we started from and I drove
22 across this haul way to northbound 71 and up northbound
23 71. This is where I would have shined my light and 24 spotlight, searching this area in here because where 25 she had described she had seen these two guys walking

1 down Blue River Road, they had left her sight. She
2 continued to watch and they didn't come back into her
3 sight. That is when she was alarmed and that is when 4 she said, "Robert" and pointed out the area where she
5 had seen these two guys. So I spotlighted the area all
6 around the trailers, drove around and pulled back and 7 shined my headlight eastbound on Blue River Road, right
8 in this wooded area. Then I went northbound because I
9 knew they didn't come this way and I knew they didn't 10 come that way because we would have spotted them as 11 they were walking out and they wouldn't have time. So
12 I figured they wouldn't have come toward us, they would
13 have went away in one of these two directions. So I
14 went northbound on 71 highway and I spotlighted this 15 wooded area, thinking if they weren't around the 16 trailer area maybe they ran to the woods and were
17 hiding in the woods. So I drove northbound on 71
18 highway. And You can see the bridge right here and 19 that is the end of the property, right there, the end
20 of Brown Brothers Construction sight on 71 highway
21 northbound. So I spotlighted all the wooded area,
22 still not seeing any persons.

23 Q As you were driving north on 71 from the area of the 24 trailers to the bridge, how fast were you going?

25 A: It would have been slow. Once I started the 626

1 spotlighting I would have been moving slow. I don't
2 know how fast I would have been going, five or ten
3 miles an hour.

4 Q Once you got to the bridge then and crossed the Blue
5 River, what did you do?

6 A: That's our turn-around, right there because that is the 7 end of the property, is Little Blue River and 85th
8 right there where Quik Trip is, and that is our turn
9 around. And we turn around and head southbound on 71
10 highway. It's divided. You have to go to 85th Street.
11 Then you do your turn-around, which we are calling a
12 median, cross to southbound 71 to head back.

13 Q That is what you did that night.

14 A: No, I turned to do our turn-around and you can't tell
15 on that picture but it's a great wide intersection but 16 I started to make the turn left on 85th to make our 17 turn-around to head in the property after we
18 spotlighted the woods along the edge of northbound 71
19 and I believe it was my sister that said "Maybe they 20 came from Quik Trip" and then she said, "Or maybe they 21 went to Quik Trip." Sort or reversed it. I forget
22 which one it was first. So I had already made my turn.
23 It is a great big wide intersection. And I turned back
24 out to northbound 71 and got back on northbound 71 and 25 went to the driveway of Quik Trip because you can't

1 enter Quik Trip from 85th, it has a side exit.

2 Q Did you pull into the Quik Trip parking lot?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q I am going to show you Government's Exhibit 328 and I
5 guess pursuant to our earlier stipulation about 6 authenticity I would offer Government's 328 in
7 evidence.

8 MR . O'CONNOR: No objection.

9 THE COURT: All right, 328 is admitted
10 without objection.

11 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 328 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

12 Q This is a more recent photo of the Quik Trip, can you
13 tell us then what you did. Does that look like the 14 Quik Trip you pulled up to that night, only with the 15 new highway, this is the new road.

16 A: It doesn't look like it.

17 Q What happened when you got to the Quik Trip?

18 A: I pulled into the driveway, pulled up in front of Quik
19 Trip. And I believe I told, I said see if they saw two 20 guys on foot. And so she went into Quik Trip. And she 21 came back out and she said, no. She asked somebody who 22 was in there if they saw two guys on foot. She asked
23 me if I had any money and I said yes.

24 Q What did you do?

25 A: She was going to get something to eat, some breakfast

1 rolls and I think some milk or something like that. So
2 I took the money, I started up there to take the money
3 up there and I remember I had a coffee jug in the back
4 seat. So I got out my coffee jug and I took it in. I
5 put coffee in it. Then I left the money, enough for my 6 coffee and for whatever it was she was buying, on the 7 counter. Then I went back out to the car. She paid
8 for her food and then she came out.

9 Q We talked about your spotlight a little bit. How were 10 you using that spotlight? Do you have it out the 11 window or what do you do with that?

12 A: These aren't patrol vehicles. Just a personal vehicle.
13 And I have a sun roof on the Maxima and I would have 14 the sun roof rolled back and I was shining the 15 spotlight out of the top of the sun roof.

16 Q Was the sun roof still open when you were sitting in 17 the parking lot at the Quik Trip?

18 A: I don't remember. It should have been.

19 Q What happened when you were sitting there?

20 A: Oh, yes, it was open.

21 Q Tell us what happened.

22 A: My sister came out of the store and just as she was
23 coming out, this black Camaro, I-Roc Camaro, pulled up
24 and parked in front of the Quik Trip and a lady got out
25 and walked into the store. And my sister got into the

1 car and I made some comment about the lady's car, the
2 lady or something, made some comment. And just as we
3 were fixing to pull away, or we were in the process of 4 pulling away, someone yelled, they said, "Hey" or 5 something. And I stopped and I looked around and it
6 was the Quik Trip employee. And he said there is
7 equipment on fire down at the job site. I said,
8 "What?" And he said there is equipment on fire down at 9 the job site. I said, oh, heck, or something, and took 10 off.

11 Q You headed south back on 71 highway, is that right?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q How fast were you going, do you recall?

14 A: Very quick.

15 Q What do you see as you cross the bridge over the river?

16 A: When we get to the bridge, almost across the bridge or 17 halfway, we were on the bridge, I saw a piece of 18 equipment on fire.

19 Q What, literally, could you see?

20 A: I could see a fire. It looked like a piece of 21 equipment was on fire. As I got closer I saw it was my 22 sister's truck.

23 Q What did you do then?

24 A: I think as soon as I identified what the fire was, we 25 got up there somewhere close, I started reaching around

1 in the back seat looking for my phone. It was one of 2 those old-fashioned cellular phones, not like they make
3 them these days.

4 Q Used to be in those big battery pack things.

5 A: Yes, one of those big battery type cell phones. That
6 was back before these little cell phones came out.

7 Q Did you call anyone?

8 A: Yes, I remember reaching back, getting the phone -
9 before I ever come to a stop I was looking, reaching
10 back looking for the phone. When I pulled up I guess
11 I got a little too close for my sister's comfort and 12 she said you better back away from it; it might blow
13 up, or something. And I remember backing up a little 14 bit. And all the time I was calling the fire
15 department.

16 Q I would like to show you Government's Exhibit 135.
17 Does that look like the scene as you arrived with the
18 pickup truck on fire?

19 A: Yes, that's what the truck would have looked like and 20 we would have been parked eventually just about where 21 that photo was taken. It is hard to tell where the 22 photo was taken, about that area. When I first drove I
23 drove probably too close and my sister was afraid it
24 might blow up or something. So I backed up about 15 or 25 20 yards.

1 Q Here on this photograph, is that one of the light
2 stands that was there?

3 A: Yes, sir.

4 Q Did you call the fire department? Who did you call?

5 A: We just called the emergency number and they put you to
6 emergency dispatch. And I reported a truck fire. And
7 as I was reporting the truck fire, I am not sure
8 whether I saw it first or whether Debbie saw it first
9 or whether we saw it at the same time, but you could 10 see an orange blaze up on top of the hill over on the 11 east side of the highway.

12 As I was talking to the fire department
13 giving them directions how to get to this truck
14 fire, I said there is another fire on the other
15 side of the highway. And I said the explosive 16 trailers are on fire -- the explosive trailer is 17 on fire, I think is what I said.

18 Q So you pulled back. A short time later the fire truck
19 arrives, right?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q What happened when the fire truck arrives?

22 A: We just sat there until the fire truck arrived. And 23 when they did they got out and put out the truck fire.

24 Q Could you describe the truck fire? I mean was it the 25 front of the truck, the back of the truck, what was

1 going on?

2 A: The cab and the hood. The exterior was on fire, also.

3 It was burning. It was a pretty large fire. The bed
4 wasn't on fire; it was the cab, the inside of the truck
5 and also all the hood area.

6 Q So the fire truck pulls up. Did they talk to you or 7 did they just go right to the truck?

8 A: They just went right to the truck.

9 Q How long did it take them to put that out?

10 A: A minute.

11 Q Just water.

12 A: They used powder, I think.

13 Q What happened then?

14 A: I don't remember what they used. It seemed like it was 15 powder but maybe it was water. It was out really
16 quick. As soon as they started spraying, it was out.

17 Q Did you then talk to the firemen?

18 A: Yeah, the guy that seemed to be in charge, the one that
19 was up there doing most of the work, I walked up to him
20 and told him who I was and told him it was obviously 21 arson, they should notify someone of that.

22 Q The pickup truck, you mean.

23 A: Yes. Well, there was another fire going on across the 24 street.

25 Q Sure. And that other fire, as you looked up there

1 could you see the trailer itself or just -

2 A: Just the top of it.

3 Q You could see flames then.

4 A: Yes.

 Q Did the second pumper truck arrive?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q And how long before that second pumper truck arrived
8 did it head up the hill?

9 A: Ten minutes; 15, 10 minutes. We stood around and 10 talked for quite a while.

11 Q Did you tell them about the explosive bunkers at one
12 point and then the trailers?

13 A: Yes, I described all that property up there, where the 14 bunkers were, what was in them, what they were made out
15 of, the two trailers that were sitting up there that 16 had "Explo" written on them, what was inside those 17 trailers, how it looked, how it was rolled up. I
18 described it all to them.

19 Q In other words, these two.

20 A: Not to all of them but the main one that was listening
21 and there were a couple other firemen that came over
22 also. And then my sister was talking to some of them,
23 also. Probably giving them similar information.

24 Q The second truck that arrived on the scene, it heads up
25 the hill, correct?

1 A: I think they both went up at the same time.

2 Q What did you do?

3 A: I followed them.

4 Q When you get there, how far up did you drive up the 5 haul road to the site?

6 A: As far as I could go.

7 Q How far was that? Looking at Government's Exhibit 26 -
8 - why don't we put No. 5 up there for you. Could you
9 show the members of the jury on Government's Exhibit 5
10 where you went and where you parked your station wagon.

11 A: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: Counsel, are you adverse to 13 having marks made on these exhibits?

14 MR. BECKER: Yes, actually, I am, Judge.
15 We have lots of photographs if you want to mark those
16 up.

17 THE COURT: I am just thinking we are going
18 to be here a while and people aren't going to remember
19 too well what that man points out as a spot on a
20 photograph that isn't marked. You might have removable
21 overlays. I just think you might think about dealing 22 with that.

23 A: I drove up this haul road right here. Here is where 24 the truck fire was and the fire truck drove up the haul
25 road. And my sister and I in my car followed them up.

1 This is as far as you can go on this haul road -- that
2 is as far as you can go. The fire trucks, because they 3 are set up high and with large wheels and stuff, they 4 could drive on along this terrain right here which
5 takes you to the trailers, to the two explosive
6 trailers.

7 Q Show you Government's Exhibit 126. You see the 8 battalion chief's car in this photograph.

9 A Yes.

10 Q Could you tell us where it is parked in relation to the 11 battalion chief's car.

12 A: Is that a large boulder sitting up above that?

13 THE COURT: You will have to identify what
14 you see. I am not going to let Mr. Becker testify.

15 A: It would have been somewhere where, whatever that round
16 -- my car would have been parked right in that area,
17 right in there.

18 Q Were you facing toward the trailers or away from the 19 trailers, which direction?

20 A: Up the hill.

21 Q So the passenger side would have faced the trailers?

22 A: That's correct.

23 Q When you get to that location what do you see occurring
24 back toward the trailers?

25 A: The firemen have pulled their fire trucks over there.

1 One fire truck was sort of parked in between the
2 trailers and the other one was on beyond it a ways.

3 Q What were you doing?

4 A: I had called Mountain Plains, Norm Collins from down
5 below, after I called the fire department and I was
6 waiting on the fire department -- while I was waiting
7 on the fire truck to get there I called Norm Collins
8 and informed him what was going on. He is the 9 president of Mountain Plains. When I got on top of the 10 hill, just as I got up there I remembered I hadn't
11 called Kenny Brown, the main man. So I called Kenny
12 Brown while I sat up there. And I was dialing him when 13 a police car pulled up in behind us.

14 Q At the time you thought it was a police car, is it this 15 yellow car?

16 A: Later I found out it was a battalion chief but it had 17 lights on it and I thought it was a police car. I
18 thought it was police officers.

19 Q Where did that car stop in relation to your station
20 wagon?

21 A: In behind my car.

22 Q What happened then?

23 A: I was talking on the phone to Kenny Brown and I was 24 describing to him what had happened and what was going
25 on at the present and that Norm Collins was on his way

1 down. What I thought was a police officer came up to 2 the passenger side of the car and was talking to my
3 sister. And then she got out of the car and went back
4 to what I thought was a police car parked in behind my
5 car.

6 Q Were you still on the phone this whole time?

7 A: I was on the phone with Kenny Brown and I was looking 8 at the trailer, describing to him what it looked like
9 because of its oddity.

10 Q Tell us what you saw, the trailer, itself.

11 A: It was a peculiar fire. A lot of times when something
12 catches on fire -

13 Q Tell us what you saw in this trailer.

14 A: This trailer was, it was like in a fireplace or in a
15 camp fire, an orange ember, the way they glow and they 16 look powerful and one end of the ember is just as 17 powerful as the other end of the ember. That is the 18 way that trailer looked. It glowed. And one end was 19 just as powerful as the other end. There was glowing 20 rather than burning.

21 Q So at that point you didn't see any flames from the
22 trailer.

23 A: That was its appearance. It was actually burning but
24 it had the appearance of energy, of heat and energy
25 like an ember rather than burning trash, a burning

1 fire. It had flames. They weren't noticeable. Either
2 they were invisible or they weren't noticeable. Then
3 every once in a while there would be little popping
4 things that would pop out of the trailer, like in a
5 camp fire. Like you would have things pop every once
6 in a while and it sort of shoots embers or flames. It
7 was sort of similar to that.

8 Q What happened then?

9 A: It blew up. I was talking to Mr. Brown on the phone
10 and I was looking at the trailer and it just blew up.

11 Q What happened to you?

12 A: I was sitting in the car and I guess it stunned me. I
13 was in a head-on collision a few years ago and it was 14 sort of similar to that. When I came to -- or I am not 15 even sure if I was unconscious, I don't know. If I
16 was, it wouldn't have been for very long because I
17 could see the falling rocks and stuff that were coming
18 down. so it would have been momentary. I think it was 19 more like a shock impact, sort of like the head-on 20 collision and I was disorientated. I was confused and 21 it seemed like it took a second for me to realize where
22 I was. and then I started to get out of the car and I
23 stumbled, stumbled to my knees. And I remember all
24 these rocks, these big boulders and rocks coming down.
25 One large boulder -- that is why I thought it was a

1 boulder in the photograph -- hit the rear of my car and
2 damaged it extensively.

3 Q Let me interrupt and show you Government's Exhibit 177.
4 Is that the car you were driving that night?

5 A: Yeah. You can see right on that rear panel right there
6 where something has hit it right there and all the 7 glass is broke out of it, all the way around the car,
8 if I remember right.

9 Q I will show you Government's Exhibit 78, is that a
10 photograph of the front of your car later that morning,
11 I guess.

12 A: It looks like it.

13 Q Were you able to get out of the car?

14 A: Yes. I got out and it was dark and smokey, not smokey
15 but dusty. There was a lot of dust. And ordinary
16 distances you could have seen you weren't able to see
17 as well because of the dust. It just seemed extra 18 dark.

19 Q Did you see your sister at all?

20 A: No.

21 Q Was that battalion chief's car still out behind?

22 A: Yes, it was still in behind the car.

23 Q What did you do next?

24 A: I just went looking for my sister.

25 Q Did you call her name?

640

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Did she respond?

3 A: As I was hollering "Debbie", I just remember hollering,
4 "Debbie" and I stumbled across some person and it ended
5 up being that battalion chief's driver, he was on the 6 ground. And I helped him up and walked him over toward 7 his car. Then I saw my sister moving from over on the 8 other side of the road.

9 Q That was back behind the battalion chief's car
10 somewhere here, is that right?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Did you walk over to Debbie Riggs?

13 A: Yes. The driver, we were almost at his car and I let 14 him go. And it seemed like he fell or something. And I
15 went over to where my sister was and she was just 16 getting up off the ground. She was okay.

17 Q What did you do then?

18 A: We talked for a couple of minutes. And then I went 19 back over where the chief's car was.

20 Q Did you look inside the yellow battalion chief's car at 21 all?

22 A: The battalion chief came out from inside of his car.
23 The driver, when I went back over to that area, he was 24 yelling, "Chief", he just kept yelling, "Chief". And 25 then the chief came out, opened the door and got out of

1 the car. He seemed to be all right. Then I just said
2 are you all going to be able to get off the hill. I
3 said we are leaving the hill because Debbie had already
4 went down off the hill. and I said we are leaving the 5 hill. And I said are you all going to be able to get
6 down off the hill. And they said yes. Then I got in 7 my car and drove it down the hill.

8 Q As you were standing here, in the brief conversation
9 with the battalion chief or the driver did you look
10 back toward the area of the trailers?

11 A: I don't remember.

12 Q Were you able to start your car and go on down the
13 hill?

14 A: Yes. There was something wrong with it. It messed up
15 the engine or something because it was like it was 16 running on just a few cylinders or something. It was 17 just sort of putting and putting but it drove. I went 18 down to the bottom of the hill and picked up Debbie.

19 Q What happened when you got down to the bottom of the 20 hill?

21 A: We went over to the other side of the haul road. There
22 was a police officer parked over there. We went over
23 to the other side of the haul road and I parked there.
24 And there was a policeman there and I told him who we 25 were. And he said just to stay in that area. I think

1 he said get down or there is another trailer up there
2 or something. And so we just stayed right there. He
3 said somebody will be taking your statement.

4 Q So where did you end up then?

5 A: Right there where Debbie's truck was, where that
6 equipment was parked. Actually, we just went down over
7 the embankment right there and sat down. We just tried 8 to figure things out.

9 Q So behind that equipment that is parked over there
10 there is sort of a drop-off.

11 A: Yes, wherever they build a road to drive on they have 12 to build a road up. Therefore, you have an embankment.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Riggs, before you leave that
14 would you take the pointer and indicate on that picture
15 to what point or spot it was you and your sister went 16 then in your car.

17 THE WITNESS: Certainly.

18 THE COURT: Use his pen and that picture down
19 there.

20 MR. BECKER: If I may, this picture is a
21 little bit better for that, Government's Exhibit 27.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 THE WITNESS: It looks like a rock right
24 there. So I drove the car back down this direction,
25 over across the haul road and parked my vehicle right

1 close to where my sister's truck was burned and here
2 where the equipment is, here's the embankment. It
3 would have been right in this area where the embankment
4 was, we would have sat right there on that embankment,
5 just on the other side of that first piece of 6 equipment there. It probably would have been that
7 piece of equipment because this picture looks like it
8 was just soon after the explosion.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 Q Do you have any recollection how long you and your 11 sister were sitting there the early morning hours of 12 November 29, 1988?

13 A: Just by sort of going back in my mind, I remember some 14 of the times things happened and we would have been 15 sitting there for approximately -- because after the 16 explosion it took about another 25 or 30 minutes for 17 the next explosion. We would have been sitting there
18 maybe 10 or 15 minutes, 15 minutes.

19 Q What happened then?

20 A: Well, things seemed to be quiet. There was a lot of 21 activity around there. You can imagine all the police
22 cars and the sirens and all that kind of stuff there.
23 It seemed like a lot of activity. And I don't know
24 whether we were just sort of blocking it out or, you
25 know, thinking about all that had taken place or what.

1 It just seemed like everything was quiet. And my
2 sister made a comment, she said, "I don't think anybody
3 is here.~. I said, "Well, of course, they're here."
4 And so I walked up the embankment and there was nobody
5 there. They had evacuated the area.

6 Q What did you do then?

7 A: I think my sister said something directly about leaving
8 the property right now, something along that line. And 9 we got in my car and we left.

10 Q Southbound on 71 highway.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Did you see any activity down at the next turn-off
13 which is Bannister Road?

14 A: Yes, I sort of evaluated that before we ever left. I
15 looked to see where is everybody. They didn't just 16 disappear. And part of them were up at 95th Street and 17 part of them was, I don't remember what I saw down
18 toward 87th but there was a group of red lights and 19 flashing lights and whatnot way up Bannister Road, up
20 to Bannister Road, 95th Street.

21 Q And I will show you Government's Exhibit 53. Does that 22 show 71 highway there with the group of emergency
23 vehicles parked at the entrance ramp at 95th Street, is 24 that what you saw?

25 A: Yes, it was at night so all I saw were lights.

645

1 Q What did you do then as you headed south towards
2 Bannister Road?

3 A: Well, I got about halfway there and I remembered that
4 my -- I had a pistol in my sister's truck that was
5 somewhat of a collector's edition. I forget how many
6 were made, 2,800 or 2,500 or something, a limited
7 number of these pistols were made. And I remembered it
8 was in her truck. And I asked her about it and she
9 said yes, it was in there. I said I am going to go
10 back. And she said I am not going. I said get out and 11 get in the ditch. She got out of the car. And I
12 turned around and went back to her truck.

13 Q When you went back were you going the wrong way on that 14 road?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q You go back to the truck. What happens when you get
17 back to Debbie Riggs' truck?

18 A: I get the pistol and it seemed like maybe there was 19 something else in there, maybe a purse of hers or 20 something. It seems like I got something else. All I
21 remember getting is the weapon, is the gun though.
22 There may have been something else but I found the gun.

23 Q Where was it, do you remember?

24 A: Well, the car was all messy and stuff and it had broken
25 glass and all that kind of thing. I think it was

1 laying on the floor, just right on the passenger side,
2 just right there on the floor but it was really nasty
3 in there and I had to sort of search around for it.
4 And then I found it. I think her purse was there, too.
5 I think I may have gotten her purse out at the same
6 time.

7 Q What did you do then?

8 A: I got in my car and I drove back up to -

9 Q Was there a second explosion?

10 A: Oh, there was. When I was walking back -- after I got 11 the gun I was walking back around the back of the 12 pickup truck and the other trailer exploded.

13 Q What happened to you?

14 A: It knocked me up against the side of the truck and I
15 went to my knees and then I remembered the rocks.

16 Q What did you do?

17 A: I crawled up underneath the truck and just sort of laid
18 there until all the rocks finished landing. I remember
19 the first time it was sort of raining rocks and 20 boulders. So I was sitting there by that truck I just 21 remembered those rocks. So I crawled up underneath the 22 bed of her truck and waited until the rocks stopped.
23 And then I got back out and got in my car and drove to 24 where Debbie was and picked her up and then drove up to 25 where the police were.

1 Q Had you called, while you were waiting, when the police
2 told you to wait back by the heavy equipment to be
3 interviewed, had you called anyone at that time to make
4 any telephone calls?

5 A I think I made two phone calls. I called my mother who lived in south Kansas City and told her that Debbie and 7 I were all right but that she needed to take Debbie to 8 the doctor and get her checked because my sister was 9 about five months pregnant and I was worried.

10 Q Did you call your wife as well?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q As you drove down 71 highway and Bannister had you made
13 arrangements for anyone to meet you?

14 A: I had called my mother to tell her we were all right
15 and she needed to take Debbie to get her checked. And 16 so when we got up there to where the police barricades
17 were my mother was either already there or she got 18 there soon. And Debbie got in the car with my mother
19 and they left. And then I went to where the police
20 were right there. They were right there next to us.
21 They weren't paying any attention to us and I told them
22 who I was and told them everything they needed to know,
23 everything they asked.

24 Q Did you then go down to the police department and
25 probably for the next many hours that day of November

1 29, 1988 were you interviewed by the police department?

2 A Yes. You know, they just asked some preliminary kind

3 of questions and then asked me to come down to the

4 station house and make a statement, a formal statement.

5 So I went down and did that. All this took place, this

6 was like, you know, five o'clock in the morning or

7 something. And then I remember I didn't get back until

8 about five o'clock that evening.

9 Q Back to your home.

10 A: Yes, it was all day which was really what concerned me

11 about my sister because I knew once -

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Objection.

13 THE COURT: That is probably not responsive.

14 Ask him a question.

15 Q Was your sister also down at the station house?

16 A: She was and they released her. And the reason I had my

17 mother pick her up to take her to the hospital, I

18 figured with the seriousness of what had happened, with

19 the death of the firemen and everything, that we would

20 be down there all day long and she wouldn't see

21 daylight and I was worried -- I was worried about her.

22 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at

23 this time, Judge.

24 THE COURT: All right, you might go ahead,

25 Mr. Bunch. It is a little early to take our break.

BY MR. BUNCH:

Q Mr. Riggs, I understand from your reaction a moment ago, you were worried about your sister.

A: That's correct.

Q What I don't really understand, Mr. Riggs, is how it was that this collector's item gun caused you to remove her from the truck and go back and get it if you were that worried about her. I am puzzled by that.

A: She was in no harm. Why are you puzzled by that?

Q Well, if you were so worried about her wouldn't you think, I would have thought -

THE COURT: Let's don't argue about this.
Just ask questions.

MR. BUNCH: Yes.

Q I am wondering why you didn't take her immediately to the hospital.

A: Well, we couldn't have left the scene like that. The police needed to know what happened down there. We were the only witnesses. We were the only persons on that property except for the persons that set the fires.

Q How valuable was this gun?

A: It was a collector's item. I was afraid it might not be there the next day or someone may steal it. I

1 didn't know what would happen to it. I knew it was in
2 there and I had no problem with going back to get it.
3 My sister was concerned so I told her to get out of the 4 truck. She was safe getting out of the truck. That
5 was the more cautious thing for her to do, to get out
6 rather than go back down to the scene.

7 Q Do you still have this gun?

8 A: I do.

9 Q Now, out of the fifteen people who were employed by you
10 on the date of the explosion, how many of them worked 11 the site that is the subject matter of this lawsuit and 12 who were they?

13 A: Approximately six. Kevin Lamanske, Jennie McDonald,
14 Debbie Fiser, myself, somebody Richardson and probably 15 three or four, two or three other people and I don't 16 remember their names now.

17 Q Maybe a total of about nine, would that be -

18 A: I think there was only six. We rotated in and out but 19 over a period of time there may have been people come
20 and go. I think Wayne Richardson, he had worked for me
21 and he had quit prior to that incident. And then there
22 was also some other person.

23 Q Well, is the person you named as Jennie McDonald, is 24 that your wife?

25 A: Yes.

1 Q She worked there under that name.

2 A Yes.

3 Q Why was that?

4 A She just went by Officer McDonald, the same as I went
5 by Officer Mason. Just so that people wouldn't
6 recognize our names as the owners of the company.

7 Q So the reports and so on then were under names other
8 than the real names, your actual names.

9 A: We considered them real names. We went by those names.

10 Q Well, they were an alias, weren't they, really?

11 A: That's correct.

12 Q In other words, you didn't vote, have your driver's
13 license or any other document under the name Mason, I
14 take it.

15 A: That's correct. Mason is a family name for me.

16 Q Now did you say in your direct testimony that there was 17 lettering on these trailers, Mr. Riggs?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And what was that, please?

20 A: It was e-x-p-l-o, explo.

21 Q Was it in large letters?

22 A: No. Large compared to the trailers, no.

23 Q Let me ask you how large it was. Could you give us an 24 idea of the dimensions of the lettering?

25 A: About four or five to six inches.

1 Q Where was that lettering placed on the trailers?

2 A: I don't remember.

3 Q You don't know if it was on the side, rather.

4 A: It was on the side but I don't remember if it was on

5 the rear or on the side. It was on one of the sides.

6 I remember it appeared to be one of those kinds of

7 spray paint kind of lettering things where you put

8 letters up there and spray paint and it leaves the word

9 you want.

10 Q Well, I guess my question to you is was it easily

11 distinguishable or would one have to be around the 12 trailers more than once perhaps to notice it?

13 A: I am not sure how to answer that. If you happened to 14 be there where the letters were written it would have

15 been easily seen, yes.

16 Q Had that been called to your attention? Was the 17 lettering always there, as far as you know, when you

18 were working there?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And during the course of the events that you have

21 described in detail, may I ask you whether you saw

22 anybody other than the two people which your sister

23 saw, about what you have testified prior to the time of 24 the explosion, discounting of course the fire

25 department.

1 A: I'm sorry. Will you repeat the question?

2 Q Did you see anybody on the premises who were not
3 supposed to be there other than the two people that
4 your sister saw prior to the time you went to Quik
5 Trip?

6 A: You are not saying I saw those people because I didn't
7 see those two.

8 Q But your sister said she saw.

9 A: There were no previous incidents that evening, no.

10 Q You never saw any vehicles that were unauthorized to be
11 there.

12 A: No, it was an uneventful night.

13 Q And up until the time of spotting the fire of her
14 truck, the only thing that either of you had seen is 15 the two people Miss Riggs testified and you have said
16 she told you she saw down on 71 highway.

17 A: I want to answer your question accurately. Of course,
18 we saw a lot of things but there were no incidents that
19 evening.

20 Q I appreciate that. I mean people who were not 21 authorized, prowlers and the like.

22 A: That's correct.

23 Q Didn't see anything.

24 A: That's correct.

25 Q And I take it thereafter, after the explosion, there

654

1 were many people, of course.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q But there were no incident reports about unauthorized
4 people either.

5 A: No, there were not.

6 Q Now, prior to the night of the explosion, Mr. Riggs, do
7 you have any recollection of how many prowlers or 8 attempted thefts you might have been aware of on the 9 east side of the property that you were hired to guard
10 or to surveil or to be present so other people would 11 know you were there?

12 A: Oh, you know, when something happened it was somewhat
13 exciting because it was a slow job site. There wasn't 14 very much activity going on around there. So when 15 something did happen it was pretty exciting. I would 16 say the month preceding from the time we started until 17 the date of the explosion. Then of course we continued
18 to work there for almost a year afterwards or nine
19 months or something like that after the explosion, we 20 continued to provide security on that property.
21 Probably seven to ten incidents. Some of those were 22 unexplained. You didn't know what the person's motive
23 or what his intent was. He drove away. You don't know
24 what their reason was. Maybe it was a worthwhile
25 incident; maybe it wasn't.

1 Q Could have been a mistake, curiosity or whatever.

2 A: It could have been, not to say those persons weren't
3 unauthorized because they would have been but you had
4 some curiosity, you had some people that liked to go up
5 there and do four-wheeling, but they were still
6 unauthorized as were the fire cutters.

7 Q Were there any actual thefts, documented thefts off the 8 property on the east side, or west side for that 9 matter?

10 A: Not that I am aware of. There were attempts but Norm
11 Collins told me he was going to inventory that stuff in 12 that trailer. He described it as diesel fuel and 13 fertilizer and said it was worthless; that it wasn't
14 worth stealing. It was worthless. Had no value. Used
15 in the explosive process and nobody would want to steal
16 it. There is nothing you could do with it. That is 17 the way he described it to me. And other than that he
18 said he was going to take an inventory the next morning
19 and let me know because I told the police department
20 that we didn't know if anything was stolen but if there
21 was I would call them the next day. Norm Collins never 22 called me and our agreement was if he didn't call me it
23 meant that nothing was stolen. So, to answer your 24 question, I am not aware of any theft that took place
25 on the property.

1 Q Now, is it your testimony that both you and your sister
2 were able to advise the firemen who came that evening
3 prior to the explosion those trailers contained
4 ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel and fertilizer?

5 A: I never used the word ammonium nitrate. I didn't learn
6 that word until after the explosion.

7 Q Then can you tell us what words you may have used, sir.

8 A: I described to them exactly what was up there, where
9 the two trailers were located, where the two bunkers
10 were located, what was in the bunkers, what was in the 11 trailers. I described those items. there were lots of 12 other things up there. There were lots of pieces of 13 equipment and cranes and all that kind of stuff but 14 with a fire going on up there, the thing I thought they 15 would be interested in were the two bunkers, their 16 locations in relationship to the trailer that was on 17 fire and the trailer that was sitting right next to it,
18 within maybe twenty yards, that contained the same
19 thing as well as the trailer that was on fire.

20 Q Let me ask it this way. It was clear the contents of 21 those trailers was explosive material, whatever words
22 you may have used, is that a fair statement?

23 THE COURT: Clear to whom, Mr. Bunch?

24 MR. BUNCH: To the individuals to whom he
25 related the contents.

1 A: It was really a little bit confusing because Norm
2 Collins had told me they were worthless and they
3 weren't explosives; that they were used in the 4 explosive process. And he said it was fertilizer and 5 fuel oil powder in a mixture compound in these bags.
6 He wasn't concerned about it. It smelled like gasoline
7 to me. That was a concern. I was concerned about it.
8 But he said it was diesel fuel and fertilizer mixture
9 in a compound and that it wasn't of value. In fact, we
10 made a little joke about it. Since it was fertilizer
11 we used the word shit. He said "It isn't worth shit".
12 Like a little pun out of the fertilizer part. Because 13 it was of little value is what he was describing.

14 THE COURT: This is before the explosion.

15 THE WITNESS: This is before the explosion;
16 yes, sir. And that's my understanding what was in the
17 trailers.

18 Written on the side of the trailer was 19 the word e-x-p-l-o, that's explo. Well, that's 20 real close to explosives.

21 All those things caused me concern. The 22 smell of gasoline, the word explo. We called them
23 explosives trailers. Whether that fit what was 24 really in there, I had no -- I mean I had no
25 understanding of that type of compound. I didn't

1 have a fireman's background. I really didn't know
2 anything about it other than what Norm Collins,
3 the owner of the contents of that trailer, told me
4 was in it.

5 Q I wasn't trying to be confusing. I was simply trying
6 to learn what it is you were able to tell the fire
7 fighters about what was in there.

8 A: I didn't use the word ammonium nitrate. I think you
9 did in describing it and I wanted to point out I did
10 not learn that word or at least I didn't use the word.
11 I think someone has said they mentioned that word
12 around me before but it is not a word I would hang 13 onto.

14 Q It was your recollection you learned it after the 15 explosion, became familiar with that, what that means.

16 A: I will remember it the rest of my life.

17 Q Did I understand or misunderstand the hours on the 18 night of November 28th were still six to six and was it
19 then the following night you were supposed to go seven
20 thirty to five? I am confused. Would you enlighten

22 A: I am, too but Ken Brown called me that day and was just 23 trying to cut back on expenses and stuff. He was 24 trying to save a few dollars. It made sense to me.

25 And he wanted to reduce our hours two and a half in the

1 front and an hour in the back. And I said I would
2 cause it to be effective that day. Now, I don't
3 remember whether I got ahold of Officer Lamanske and 4 Officer Costanza that day or not. But whoever worked
5 the last shift was going to be getting off at five
6 o'clock wherever it was we worked. That's what I would
7 have billed them for. And the next day, I remember I
8 told him I would have it in effect immediately. I was 9 able to do it. Whether or not I got on the phone and 10 made that phone call to the other two, I really don't 11 remember whether they started at six or whether they 12 started at 8:30.

13 Q It turned out to make no difference with all the 14 terrible events that happened anyway. But I was 15 confused when it was supposed to have gone into effect.

16 A: It was effective that day.

17 Q The .30 caliber pistol about which you have testified,
18 was this provided to your sister temporarily on 19 occasion or did she regularly have it for certain
20 purposes?

21 A: Temporarily. And it was a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson
22 and I loaned it to her because she was having some 23 personal problems with someone who was harassing her
24 and someone who was harassing her from her job and she 25 had complained about. I had visited with him and I

660

1 felt him to be potentially dangerous. So I gave her
2 that weapon as a form of protection.

3 Q That fellow, was that Mr. Larry Mellon (phonetics)?

4 A: Yes. I wouldn't have remembered that name.

5 MR. BUNCH: Thank you, sir.

6 CROSS EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. PETERS:

8 Q Mr. Riggs, you have testified quite a while about the 9 work you have done. Can you tell us your training and 10 background that leads up to the events that we are 11 going to be talking about.

12 A: Sure. My education is in law enforcement. I received
13 an Associate's Degree from a local college here,
14 Longview Community College, in Police Science. And 15 then I started a career in law enforcement in Dallas,
16 Texas. I was with the Dallas County Sheriff's 17 Department as a deputy down there.

18 Q What year, about, would we be talking about in Dallas?

19 A: 1975, '76.

20 Q How long were you in Dallas?

21 A: Until December of '79, for about four years.

22 Q Then what did you do after that?

23 A: I opened up Ameriguard, a private business, private 24 practice.

25 Q In addition to the community college training, have you

1 had various training at different times in Dallas and
 2 ~ elsewhere in what we might call continuing education
 3 training on law enforcement.

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q Have you had courses in investigation?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Statement taking.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Crime scene development.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Crime scene preservation.

12 A: Well, this is more along the line of public law
 13 enforcement which really doesn't apply to private. The 14 continuing education courses and seminars I would
 15 attend ow I would want it to be related to work I 16 actually do. I am not involved in crime scenes and 17 things like that.

18 Q Were you involved in any crime scenes in Dallas, was it
 19 the Sheriff's Department?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q You underwent training in Dallas?

22 A: Just what they teach in the academy.

23 Q Did they teach about crime scenes?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Did they teach you to preserve the crime scene?

662

1 A: Yes.

2 Q After you came back and started Ameriguard, have you
3 had any other training or expertise in other areas of 4 law enforcement?

5 A: No. I mean seminars and things like that.

6 Q Anything of particulate note on seminars?

7 A: No.

8 Q When you started Ameriguard -- I am going to skip a
9 little bit -- let's go to the time you first started
10 doing any work for Brown Brothers Construction Company.
11 In the time we are talking about, how far before this 12 explosion was it that you had your first contact with 13 Brown Brothers?

14 A: Will you repeat the question?

15 Q When did you first become employed to do surveillance
16 for Brown Brothers?

17 A: When was I first contacted?

18 Q Okay.

19 A: Mr. Brown would have contacted me, I believe it was,
20 our first day to provide security service on that job,
21 if I can do it this way. Can I talk like this?

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 A: The first day we provided security service on that
24 property was October the 31st.

25 THE COURT: 1988.

1 THE WITNESS: 1988. And going back from
2 there it probably would have been, I would have gotten
3 the phone call from him probably around the week of 4 the 15th, something like that, is the first time I
5 would have had contact with Ken Brown. He called my 6 office and described his problem to me and we talked
7 about it and then got together.

8 Q The reason you were hired is because the guards they 9 had on site had been caught falling asleep, is that
10 correct?

11 A: Negative. No, sir. The reason he called was because 12 he suspected an employee -- did you ask the reason the 13 security division was hired, the reason I was hired?

14 Q You are giving us a date of October 31st.

15 A: That was the first date we put security on that
16 property.

17 Q Why was it that your company was hired to put security
18 on the property when they already had a security
19 company there?

20 A: Well, it was probably dual reasons. One, Kenny Brown
21 wasn't happy with the company he had in there now.
22 Secondly, it was in his best interest to use us to
23 perform that duty since we would be in communication
24 with the investigator that was sitting on the suspected
25 employee and we would have communications back with one

664

1 another where if he was headed down that direction we
2 could inform security personnel and let them know.

3 That was during the sting operation part of it.

4 Q Are you telling us you were never told the reason you
5 were taking over security at the job site beginning
6 October 31st is because the other guard was caught
7 asleep on the job?

8 A: No, I am not saying that. In fact, that was the 9 reason, Kenny Brown was dissatisfied with the security
10 company and I think that's what I said. Mr. Brown was 11 dissatisfied with the security company that was working 12 there then. And it was also to his best interest to 13 employ us for the reasons I gave. The reason he was 14 dissatisfied with the security company because he had 15 been down there a couple of times and the security
16 officer was sitting in his car asleep.

17 Q I am going to go through with as little repetition as I
18 can possibly avoid, some of the incidents prior to 19 these explosions you have talked about. On October
20 31st when you were hired, your company Ameriguard was 21 hired to protect the west side of 71 highway where the 22 heavy construction equipment was located, correct?

23 A: Incorrect. I think where I would object is agreeing to 24 the word "protect".

25 Q Would you describe for the jury in the way you

1 understand it, what you were hired to do by Brown
2 Construction Company, what was your job responsibility?
3 A: To deter illegal or undesirable activities.
4 Q And on your Direct Examination I believe you used the 5 words "to provide an authoritative presence", does that
6 sound right?
7 A: Yes.
8 Q On October 31st your job function was to provide an
9 authoritative presence on the west side of 71 highway
10 which is where the Brown Construction heavy equipment
11 was located.
12 A: That's correct.
13 Q And during the time you were hired to provide that
14 authoritative presence because you were on site, you 15 did see some things going on across the street on the 16 east side.
17 A: That's correct.
18 Q And because of your training in law enforcement,
19 because you are out there doing your job, you went
20 across the street onto the east side to investigate
21 suspicious activity you saw.
22 A: That's correct.
23 Q And one of those you have described as an incident
24 where the lock had been cut off of one of these -- and 25 I am not going to argue, whatever we want to call the

1 contents of the trailers as opposed to the dynamite
2 bunkers -- locks had been cut off one of these
3 trailers.

4 A Correct.

5 Q The way you saw from your vantage point on the west
6 side of the street, you could see lights on the east
7 side of the street, is that correct?

8 A: Yes, that's correct.

9 Q And you went up there -- and again without being
10 repetitive, you find bolt cutters and a cut lock to one
11 of these trailers, correct?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q And it is after you find that that you have a
14 discussion with Mr. Collins about we keep seeing 15 activity over here, and you aren't soliciting business,
16 he says you keep finding stuff, how about we hire your 17 company to take care of the east side of the street as 18 well.

19 A: It may have been something like that.

20 Q In reading other things, nobody knows whether you
21 suggested it or he suggested it, but an arrangement was 22 made you started providing an authoritative presence on 23 both the east and the west side of the highway.

24 A: Actually, what we felt like that it was a two-man job.
25 To allow someone to be pulled off of one side to

1 investigate something may expose the other side. And
2 because there were incidents occurring on the other
3 side, we felt -- and also the size of the property, it
4 was probably at least a two-man job.

5 Q And as far as the contracting goes, on the west side of
6 the street where the equipment was, that was Brown
7 Construction contracting with you, correct?

8 A: It was all Brown Brothers.

9 Q So Brown Brothers agreed to have you be hired to 10 protect the mining company's equipment that was up at 11 the top.

12 THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Peters. I
13 don't want to get into this habit if we can avoid it,
14 you are not the only lawyer in my experience that has 15 done it but you have a habit of making statements and 16 stopping. Let's ask a question and then he can respond
17 to your question. What you just said was a statement,
18 not a question. Ask him a question.

19 Q Did Brown Brothers hire you to protect both the west
20 side and the east side; the east side being the 21 property containing the mining company equipment.

22 A: Yes, the Brown Brothers equipment, I think it was 23 mining, is a word I am not very familiar with. It is 24 sort of vague. I think just construction equipment;
25 tractors, dirt haulers, scrapers, all that heavy

1 equipment, construction heavy equipment is what it was.
2 It was over on the east side; yes, and that was Brown
3 Brothers.

4 THE COURT: Counsel, let me explain to the
5 jury so they won't think I am just nit-picking up here.
6 One of my responsibilities in this proceeding is to 7 protect the record that is made for the sake of both
8 sides of the dispute, to protect the record and make
9 sure when it is written on paper it makes some sense.
10 And a lawyer and a witness sitting and talking back and 11 forth without it being questions and answers sometimes 12 doesn't make any sense on the record. And that is the 13 reason I insist and will do this again I am sure before
14 this thing is through, I insist the lawyers ask
15 questions and the witnesses answer the question.

16 Go ahead, Mr. Peters.

17 Q Sir, I would like to show you a diagram again. This is 18 an enlargement of one of the eight-by-tens I think you
19 have seen. I am going to first show it to you to kind
20 of let you get familiar with it. Do you again
21 recognize the area in this photograph?

22 A Yes.

23 MR. PETERS: With the Court's permission, can
24 we have the witness stand down just for a moment.

25 THE COURT: What is the exhibit number?

1 MR. PETERS: Defendants' 1 which has been
2 admitted into evidence, Your Honor.

3 Q And in my questioning I have been asking you about the
4 area on the east side and the area on the west side.
5 Would you go ahead, using Exhibit NO. 1 so there isn't
6 a question, and show generally the geographic area that 7 you are protecting on the east side of the highway, the 8 trailers and the median and the geographic area on the 9 west side.

10 A: I wish I could but this photograph, the only areas that 11 are on this photograph which terminates the Brown
12 Brothers job site is this river. This photograph
13 doesn't go nearly far enough this direction. It
14 doesn't go nearly far enough this direction by a long
15 ways and it would end. Here's the Blue River right
16 here. Our property line ends right here on this. And 17 it ends right here on this road, this direction and 18 this direction (indicating), you can't see the ends of 19 the property. You are not too far, too awfully far off
20 over here because you have big high cliffs up here.
21 And the picture, if it continued, would be in this area
22 but Bannister Road is way down there.

23 Q Your authoritative presence was to continue all the way
24 down to Bannister Road, 95th Street.

25 A: Yes, because they had construction, there was

1 construction equipment parked all over but he would see
2 that most of the construction was parked.

3 Q This would be the west side, the trailers are located
4 there.

5 MR. BECKER: Is that a question?

6 THE COURT: I don't know. I tell you, I
7 can't imagine how useless this record just made is 8 going to be with the "here's and "there's and the 9 motions and nobody will have any idea what he is 10 talking about when he said what is shown and what isn't 11 shown on the picture. Let's ask him a question and be 12 specific please.

13 A: This photograph for some reason, there is no haul-way,
14 Mr. Peters, there is no haul road.

15 Q That is, for purposes of the record, Defendants'
16 Exhibit 1 which is a photograph taken approximately one
17 month before the explosion. It is taken at a time
18 prior to the explosion because we have two intact
19 trailers here.

20 A: I see.

21 Q Directing your attention to the middle bottom on 22 Defendants' Exhibit 1 where it is written the word
23 Riggs' truck.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Is this the general area referred to on the bottom of

1 Defendants' Exhibit 1 where Brown Brothers kept their
2 heavy construction equipment?

3 A: Yes. Yes, sir.

4 Q And if I direct your attention to the lower right
5 quadrant of Defendants' Exhibit 1 where you see shadows
6 that appear to be trailers and marked as "trailers" and 7 "trucks", is that generally the area that we are 8 talking about when we talk about the other side of the 9 highway, the east side of the highway with the trailers
10 and the explosive magazines?

11 A: Not at all. The east side of the highway runs all the 12 way from Blue River Road all the way up to the cliffs
13 and all the way down to 87th Street.

14 Q Are these trailers on the east or west side of 71
15 highway?

16 A: They're on the east side. I thought you were talking
17 about this particular area. There is construction
18 equipment. Again, these trailers meant nothing to us.
19 We were already told they were of no value, they 20 contained nothing of value. They're really no concern.
21 We weren't guarding any trailers by any means. He has 22 cranes and equipment parked on this job site that are 23 of great value.

24 Q You can take your seat. Is it correct that those 25 trailers were of no meaning to you, is that what you

1 said?

2 A: Of little.

3 Q Of little meaning to you.

4 A: Yes. No more than what any other trailer or piece of 5 equipment or office trailer or any other piece of 6 equipment would mean. I thought you were implying that 7 was an area of coverage right there that we were 8 guarding where those trailers were.

9 Q Was it an area where there had been prior incidents of 10 break-ins and vandalism?

11 A: There had been one break-in; yes, sir.

12 Q Had there been fires started near those trailers that 13 caused alarm to employees of yours?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Were those trailers checked by your guards on their 16 hourly rounds each and every night they worked?

17 A: Whatever their routes were. They weren't necessarily 18 on an hourly basis. Oftentimes they were, but normally 19 when we would start the shift, we would check all the 20 locks, whether on a generator trailer, whatever the 21 locks were on, the officer trailers, we would check all
22 locks on the property to make a statement as to them
23 being checked and then being secured. And then at the 24 end of the shift we would do the same thing.

25 Q Was it uncommon for whoever was working on the east

1 side of the road to check them every time they made one
2 of these runs?

3 A: You would simply spotlight the trailers. You wouldn't
4 necessarily check the locks.

5 Q You never directed your employees to check the locks on
6 the trailers.

7 A: When they came onto the shift and when they left the 8 shift. Then when they made their regular rounds you
9 would spotlight anything that was up there, whatever
10 piece of equipment it was. Again, you are in total
11 darkness and the only thing you are going to see is 12 what you are pointing your spotlight at and you would 13 point your spotlight at whatever equipment was up
14 there, regardless of what it was.

15 Q I am going to move forward now to that part of 71
16 highway where you and your sister were seated in the 17 car. Isn't it correct that was an area you would 18 frequently be at because it provided an authoritative 19 presence and a view of much of the equipment on the 20 west side of the street?

21 A: It was. When we couldn't get up onto the east side of 22 the highway due to weather, if it was raining you
23 couldn't get up on those hills, you couldn't drive a
24 car up the haul road, we would simply park down there
25 on the east side of the highway in a similar location

as to where my sister's truck burned and has been shown parked in all the photographs I have seen.

Q And again since the photograph, Defendants' Exhibit No. 1 doesn't cover the entire area, this entire area that we are talking about, you were in charge of providing an authoritative presence, did you feel two security guards were adequate to guard the area that these companies wanted guarded?

A: Well, it is difficult to define. You know, there are all kinds of things to decide how many security personnel you put on a job. "Adequate", it has to be cost effective. Otherwise you don't do business. What would have been adequate obviously after-the-fact is for that property to have been surrounded by police officers. That's what I wish would have been there after-the-fact. At the time it was cost effective. And, in fact, Mr. Brown had called me that day to reduce the hours to save money. So obviously he was a little concerned what he was spending. Was it enough - - obviously not.

Q My question to you was when you entered into the contract did you feel two security guards were adequate to guard the area these companies wanted guarded?

A: I made the decision to do it so I must have come to some terms; if I am forced to used the word "adequate",

1 yes, because we came to terms.

2 Q You never had any doubt two people could provide
3 adequate deterrence to vandalism by presenting an
4 authoritative presence, you thought two was enough.

5 A: I came to a decision two would get the job done because
6 it was cost effective. How many did it need? Well,
7 after the explosion we had as many as six officers down
8 there at a time. Was that enough? It got the job
9 done. It obviously wasn't enough on November the 28th,
10 29th.

11 Q Mr. Riggs, my question was at the time that you entered 12 into the contract you have stated in response to my 13 first question, do you feel two security guards were 14 adequate to guard the area these companies wanted
15 guarded, your answer to that question is yes or no?

16 A: A truthful answer is no, it would not have been
17 adequate. Cost effective, if you need to make a deal
18 with somebody, they're not going to give you everything
19 you want. You have to compromise. I compromised two 20 was better than one. In fact, it was twice as good.
21 But it also cost twice as much. There was an agreement
22 there be two officers on the property which was twice
23 as good. I wasn't complaining. Was it enough? No, it
24 wasn't. Looking at the property you would have to have 25 an army of people to hold that ground.

1 Q Whether two people could provide adequate deterrence to
2 vandalism by presenting an authoritative presence, you
3 did not think two was enough.

4 THE COURT: Just a minute. You just made a
5 statement.

6 Q Did you think two was enough? I understand now -
7 slow. Did you think two was enough?

8 A: We came to an agreement.

9 THE COURT: That has been asked and answered.
10 I remember him saying two was better than one but not
11 as good as a battalion.

12 Q Sir, do you remember giving sworn testimony in relation
13 to some of the civil litigation on March the 13th,
14 1990?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Do you remember being questioned by Mr. John Turner, an 17 attorney?

18 A Yes.

19 Q This is Volume I, page 155, lines 13 through 22. Do
20 you remember being asked this question, "On the night
21 of November 28th, going into the early morning hours of 22 November 29th and before the explosion occurred, at 23 that period did you feel two security guards were 24 adequate to guard the area that these companies wanted
25 guarded?" Do you recall giving the answer "Yes."

1 A: No, but I wouldn't be surprised.

2 Q Showing you -- and we are starting on line 13 and
3 continuing down.

4 A: I see that. Thank you.

5 Q Having seen that, does that refresh your recollection
6 that was, in fact, your response under oath?

7 A: That was my response, yes.

8 Q The following question was, "You never had any doubts
9 that two people could provide adequate deterrence to
10 vandalism by presenting an authoritative presence, you
11 thought two was enough?" Your answer was, "Never any 12 doubts?" "Question: Right. Never any doubts." And 13 you go on. The answer is, "That's a big question. I
.14 feel like two officers were adequate to deter those 15 kinds of activities. There is no way two officers
16 could stay. It's just the same, we don't have enough
17 police but that's what we have got so that's what we 18 use, the same situation there.~. Do you recall giving 19 that answer?

20 MR. BECKER: Objection.

21 THE COURT: What is the impeachment? The 22 purpose of what you were doing here I thought was to 23 present him with something inconsistent, some prior 24 inconsistent statement. I don't see what impeachment
25 there is in what you just read. It is exactly what he

1 said on the stand here.

2 MR. PETERS: I withdraw it and apologize.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, could we take our
4 afternoon break?

5 THE COURT: We will take our afternoon break.
6 We will call it the "O'Connor break." Don't talk about
7 the case. Be back in 15 minutes and you may withdraw.

8 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: We will be in recess.

10 RECESS

11 THE COURT: I will remind you, Mr. Riggs, you
12 are still under oath. And you may proceed, Mr.
Peters.

13 Q On November 28th, now into the early morning hours of 14 November 29th, you are in the car with your sister
15 Debbie on the west side of the highway. The time frame
16 we are talking about just so we are both tracking, you
17 know what I am talking about -

18 A: Yes.

19 Q From the west side of the highway could you see the
20 trailers?

21 A: No, sir.

22 Q You were tired that night, weren't you, sir?

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q In fact, your sister had told you to get out and move
25 around because you looked tired.

1 A: I don't remember that. She may have. I remember
 2 getting out and making a foot patrol. It was because I
 3 was tired and dozing off but I don't remember if she
 4 suggested it or not. She may have.

5 Q As you were sitting there in the car did you tell
 6 Debbie you were sleepy and tired and concerned about
 7 falling asleep?

8 A: I don't believe so. I mean I wouldn't have said it
 9 like that.

10 Q How would you have said it, sir?

11 A: I don't remember saying anything about it. I remember
 12 telling her over the radio that I was tired and sleepy.

13 Q Do you recall sitting in the car telling her that you
 14 were sleepy and tired?

15 A: I don't remember that.

16 Q Your eyes may have been closed for a second and then
 17 Debbie alerted you that she has seen two people, is
 18 that correct?

19 A: There were a couple of occasions where I was sort of 20 nodding off where your head sort of pops and you nod
 21 off. I don't know if that would have been at the time
 22 Debbie saw the two persons or not. She said, "Robert".

23 Q I am moving to that time she said, "Robert" and alerts
 24 you she has seen two suspicious people.

25 A: That's correct.

1

1 Q I am trying to move along and stop me if I misstate
2 anything. You pulled out onto 71 highway and began
3 going north in your vehicle, is that correct?

4 A: Yes, I crossed the median to northbound 71 and then
5 headed north on northbound 71.

6 Q Your lights were out and you had the spotlight on, is
7 that correct?

8 A: Incorrect.

9 Q What were you doing then?

10 A: The headlights were off and the spotlights were both
11 off. I drove over there in darkness so as to surprise
12 the two persons.

13 Q And you drove over in darkness north on 71 highway to 14 the area that we have demonstrated is where the office
15 trailers are located in the median strip, is that
16 correct?

17 A: That's correct.

18 Q And you pulled your car in. Did you at any time
19 illuminate your spotlight?

20 A: Eliminate or illuminate?

21 Q Illuminate.

22 A: I turned the spotlight on at the same time I turned on 23 the headlights which was probably 20 to 25 yards short
24 of at this time Blue River Road where the office
25 trailers are located. I drove down there quickly with

1 all the lights off. When I got to the area where I
2 thought the two persons would be, I turned on the
3 headlights, I hit the spotlight and I started searching
4 for two persons.

5 Q After driving quickly down and illuminating your 6 lights, you then pulled into the area where the 7 trailers were on Blue River Road.

8 A: Correct.

9 Q Did you get out of your car?

10 A: I don't believe so.

11 Q You illuminated the area with your spotlight looking 12 under the trailers to see if you could find these two 13 individuals, is that correct?

14 A: Yes. And I know I didn't get out of my vehicle. The 15 answer is no, I didn't get out of my vehicle.

16 Q Then you backed your car up and onto 71 highway and 17 continued to proceed north, is that correct?

18 A: Almost. I backed out. I backed out onto the median
19 which is actually Blue River Road in between northbound
20 and southbound and then pointed my headlights and my 21 spotlight up Blue River Road east in case they took off
22 that direction because they were headed that direction.
23 And when I didn't see anything there, the only way I
24 figured they could have traveled was northbound from 25 the trailers into the wooded area. So that's when I

1 got on northbound 71 and went northbound on 71. I
2 would have been driving slowly since I was spotlighting
3 both sides of the road.

4 Q And so you never on Blue River Road crossed over what
5 would be the southbound lane of 71 and went west on 6 Blue River Road.

7 A: I wasn't interested in that area.

8 Q You didn't go west past that bridge or near the bridge
9 to the west on Blue River Road.

10 THE COURT: Wait a minute. You are doing it
11 again, Mr. Peters. You just said, "You didn't go west 12 past that bridge on Blue River Road."

13 Q Did you?

14 A: I am not sure where the bridge is. I think there is a
15 little small bridge on Blue River Road just west of 16 southbound 71, is that the little bridge. To answer
17 your question, I did not go anywhere over in that 18 direction except on our travel back because they were 19 coming from that area, they were walking from that area
20 headed in completely the opposite direction. So I
21 wouldn't have searched over there.

22 Q Then driving slowly, going a step at a time, you would 23 drive quickly -- you had driven quickly from where you
24 had first been and alerted to the area of the office
25 trailers, correct?

1

1 A: Correct.

2 Q And then from that point continuing north you drove
3 more slowly because you were shining your spotlight
4 around.

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q You then pulled into the Quik Trip, correct?

7 A: Eventually. You sort of jumped over some things there
8 but, yes, we went to the Quik Trip.

9 Q While you were in the Quik Trip did the thought go
10 through your mind that the job site that you were hired
11 to protect was now left unguarded?

12 A: I don't believe so. The persons weren't down there.
13 We didn't go to Quik Trip for the purpose of buying
14 breakfast or buying drinks. We weren't down there for 15 that reason. We went there to ask, to see if the two 16 persons were on foot. I probably did, because I was 17 anxious enough, I went back out to my car and was 18 waiting. So, to answer the question, yes, the thought
19 probably went through my mind.

20 Q And although you may not remember whether it's Dave or 21 Doug, the person I am going to be referring to as Dave
22 is the Quik Trip manager, is that acceptable? When I
23 say Dave you know I am referring to the Quik Trip
24 manager.

25 A: All right.

1 Q From the time your sister told you that she saw someone
2 that looked like a prowler until the time that Dave
3 came out of the Quik Trip and equipment is on fire, we
4 are talking about a time span of no more than four or
5 five minutes, isn't that correct?

6 A: I figured four to five minutes to get back to the job
7 site. So if you subtract that, maybe 45 seconds, a
8 minute, then it would be more like three or four
9 minutes.

10 Q A best estimate of three or four minutes to get to Quik
11 Trip, a few seconds or a minute or two at most inside
12 Quik Trip and then another 30 seconds to drive back to 13 where you ultimately found the truck on fire, is that
14 correct?

15 A: Yes, I think it was estimated at five minutes for the 16 total trip. So you would have to deduct from that and 17 in the figure I gave you before I was thinking from the 18 time we were told that there was equipment on fire down
19 at the job site.

20 Q So if we now take it from the time your sister first 21 tells you about the prowlers, the trip to Quik Trip and 22 the trip back to the car, is it your testimony that the 23 time period for that is about four or five minutes?

24 A: That's correct.

25 Q When you returned to the site of your sister's pickup,

1 the fire fighters responded, is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 ~ Q And do you recall telling the fire fighters that they
4 had better call the arson department, that there has 5 been an arson there?

6 A Something along that line.

7 Q And at that point, based on your training, you would 8 have considered that a crime scene, an arson scene, is
9 that correct?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q I am going to move ahead one step to when you are up on 12 the haul road, the fire fighters are up on the haul
13 road and they are engaging the fire, that is the time
14 period. When you were there were you able to see any 15 flames or fire coming from anything other than the 16 trailer?

17 A: Yes, they appeared to be fighting some kind of a
18 smaller fire just to the south of the trailer that was 19 on fire.

20 Q And because of the position of the trailer you weren't
21 able to see what the smaller fire was, is that correct?

22 A: I am not sure why I am not able to tell what that 23 smaller fire is. I just don't know what it was. They 24 appeared to be fighting some kind of smaller fire just 25 south of the trailer but not too much distance. I am

1 not sure why I don't know what that object was. I
2 could only guess.

3 Q You knew from your tour that night that there was a
4 ~ pickup truck parked behind the trailer in the direction
5 we are talking fairly close to the trailer, is that
6 correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q The fire you are describing that you saw being engaged
9 by the fire fighters was 20 to 30 yards behind the 10 trailer, isn't that correct?

11 A: Yes, just south of the trailer. And the trailer seemed 12 to be raised up, it seemed to be up in the air. It
13 seemed to be at an angle like that instead of being 14 flat. It was like that (indicating).

15 Q And can you use the dimensions of the courtroom to give
16 us an idea how far a distance you are talking about 17 when you say 20 to 30 yards?

18 A: From here to the end of that wall is about 20 yards.

19 Q One final question.

20 THE COURT: Is that a promise?

21 MR. PETERS: Yes, Judge, I have learned.

22 Q At the time you were employed in Dallas, you were 23 employed as a jailer, isn't that correct?

24 A: Yes, that was our assignment. I also performed other
25 functions. I was assigned to detention.

MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

CROSS EXAMINATION

BY MR. O'CONNOR:

Q Mr. Riggs, since November 29, 1988 you have testified in some lawsuit, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And would you agree with me just as a starting point, your memory would have been better back in 1988 and 1999 than it is today?

MR. BECKER: Objection. Argumentative.

THE COURT: Yes, it is. For one thing, you said 1999.

MR. O'CONNOR: Did I say that? That is bad.

THE COURT: I am going to sustain the objection.

Q In 1988 were things fresh in your mind as to what happened out there?

A: Yes, but there are also things that I would have liked to have remembered or noticed that I did not. And again I just do that through memory. Specifically, I can't think of any right here but I remember things I would have liked to help such as what were the positions of the firemen at that time, the fire details. For whatever reason, I just couldn't remember. Either I didn't notice or I was distracted

1 or for whatever reason. My memory then would have been
2 better than what it is now regarding that day for 3 certain.

4 Q You wanted to help the police in their investigation,
5 didn't you?

6 A: Yes. If I can mention, my memory may have been better.

7 Q The question, you wanted to help the police and you
8 said yes.

9 A: I wanted to help the police, yes.

10 Q And you wanted to tell them everything you knew that 11 happened out there that night when they talked to you
12 the next day.

13 MR. BECKER: Objection. Form of the
14 question.

15 THE COURT: Yes. That is the Peters form of 16 the question now, Mr. O'Connor. It is a statement.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I guess I didn't learn when I
18 was sitting over there, Judge. I will try it again.

19 Q Did you tell the police the truth?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And give them information about what happened out there
22 that night?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Did you tell them you were asleep?

25 A No.

689

1 Q Did Debbie tell them you were asleep in your presence?

2 A: No.

3 Q Were you mad at Debbie for talking to the police?

4 A: No. Was I mad at Debbie for talking to the police, no.

5 Q This security company of yours back in 1988, who was
6 the president?

7 A: I was.

8 Q And who were the officers?

9 A: Jennie Riggs.

10 Q Who is that?

11 A: My wife. She is the vice president.

12 Q Are there any shareholders?

13 A: Just myself.

14 Q And would you agree with me back in 1988, the day of 15 that explosion, you only had approximately eight
16 employees working for you, would you agree with that?

17 A: It could be. That would surprise me but if you know
18 that to be accurate, I wouldn't argue with you.

19 Q Do you remember testifying under oath in a deposition
20 that was given in the civil case in which you were 21 asked that very question, "Question: How many 22 employees did you have on or about November 28, 1988?"

23 MR. BECKER: Could I have a date?

24 A: That sounds like the answer I would give to the persons
25 working down at that job site.

690

1 Q Would your answer have been, "I would only be guessing
2 but I would guess around six or seven.~'

3 A Yes.

4 Q And the six or seven would be you, Debbie, your wife,
5 Stanton, Costanza. Who would be the other two or 6 three?

7 A: There was a Richardson that had worked down there also
8 but he had resigned recently. I think he only worked
9 down there for a couple of weeks or maybe a week or so.

10 Q This is basically a mom and pop security guard company
11 at this time.

12 A: Yes, it was.

13 Q And the reason you were using these aliases and these
14 different names was to make Brown Brothers and Mountain
15 Plains believe you had more people you could provide 16 for so they would hire you and your company.

17 A: We were already hired. I didn't have to convince them
18 of it.

19 Q Did you use an alias out there?

20 A: Yes, I went by Officer Mason as I still do.

21 Q How many times would you say you have used an alias?

22 A: Well, I only use Officer Mason in security type work
23 but investigative work I use a number of aliases.

24 Q So you have used a number.

25 A: A number.

1 Q And this is a sight you have told us that you were
2 there for what purpose again? I want to use your words
3 so I don't say them wrong. The reason you were at this
4 site was to have some presence or something you said
5 earlier. What did you say?

6 A You are wanting to provide a presence which will deter
7 illegal or undesirable activities.

8 Q Which means you would wear a uniform.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Wearing a badge.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Wearing a name tag.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q What was your name tag?

15 A: I don't have a name tag.

16 Q But the purpose of the uniform is for people to see a
17 person in uniform like a police officer so it would 18 deter people.

19 A: We have a jacket we wear and that covers up any name
20 tag you would have on. It has a badge on it also plus
21 patches but in the wintertime you are not going to see
22 a shirt anyhow.

23 Q The reason you were using these aliases was to try to 24 convince other people that you weren't this mom and pop
25 store; that you had a bunch of people and you had all

1

1 these different names working for you, isn't that a
2 true statement?

3 A That is probably true.

4 Q Now, did you ever file for money from Mountain Plains
5 ~ or from Brown Brothers using those names? In other
6 ~ words, did you send them billings with Fiser and Mason
7 and those other names, send them a bill saying these 8 are people who have worked on your site, to pay us?

9 A: No.

10 Q What did they ask you about when they saw these names
11 on these reports?

12 A: They never asked.

13 Q Did you tell Mountain Plains you were using false names
14 out there?

15 A: I don't remember.

16 Q The very company that was hiring you you were not being
17 honest with them, were you?

18 A: I certainly was.

19 MR. BECKER: Objection.

20 THE COURT: It certainly is. I sustain that.

21 Q Did you tell them you were using an alias?

22 MR. BECKER: Objection. Repetitious.

23 THE COURT: It has been asked and answered.

24 THE WITNESS: I would like to be able to
25 answer his honesty question.

1 THE COURT: Just answer the questions that I
2 let him ask. That will take enough of our time, Mr.
3 Riggs.

4 Q While we are on the honesty question, Mr. Riggs, did
5 your sister Debbie Riggs, was she licensed by the Board
6 of Police Commissioners?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q At the time of the explosion.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q She was? A Yes.

11 Q Did she know that?

12 A: Yes, she had already been through the class. She just 13 hadn't been through the firearms training. We were 14 going to wait until after the delivery of the baby.

15 Q Now how many of these construction sites had you worked
16 security on, your company?

17 MR. BECKER: At what point in time?

18 Q Any time in your security career up until March the 19 31st of 1989, how many construction sites had your 20 company been hired to protect?

21 A: I can only think of one but I believe there were two.

22 Q Now, again, so you understand my question, from the 23 time your company started until March the 30th of 1990

25 THE COURT: 1990?

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: You said '89 before.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: That is why I am clarifying.

4 I am taking him back so the question is fair.

5 A: I don't know we have worked any construction site since

6 Brown Brothers. In fact, we have not worked any

7 construction sites since Brown Brothers other than

8 Brown Brothers.

9 Q Let me ask the question again so I make sure I have

10 asked it fairly. Did you ever guard any construction

11 site before this Brown Brothers job that you took on?

12 A: I misunderstood your first question. Yes.

13 Q You had.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q What was that?

16 A: Well, it was a couple of different jobs. One was

17 called Villsmeyer Construction and then some

18 construction company that was selling off a bunch of 19 equipment down by Kemper arena, Kemper auditorium that

20 had a lot of construction equipment parked down on an

21 empty lot down by the old cattle rails. I believe two

22 or three construction sites.

23 Q Were you finished?

24 A: I believe so. I believe two or three.

25 Q Now, when the person came in to the Quik Trip and then

1 someone conveyed to you what they had seen, what did
2 they say again to you? What were you told there?

3 A: He just said, hey, and I stopped and he said there is
4 equipment on fire down at the job site. And I said
5 what. And he said there is equipment on fire down at 6 the job site. And then I said, oh. And then I used a
7 curse word and I drove away.

8 Q So you had no idea the truck was on fire, your truck or 9 Debbie's truck, I'm sorry.

10 A: I didn't know what was on fire. The Quik Trip employee
11 said there was equipment on fire down at the job site.
12 I believe those were his words.

13 Q And again a minute ago you said when you gave your 14 videotape, this is where the police department put you
15 on television basically and they took your statement.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Do you remember that?

18 A: Vaguely.

19 Q Let me show you this and I will let you read it to 20 yourself. Then I am going to ask you a question about 21 this paragraph here (indicating).

22 THE COURT: Just ask him.

23 Q Do you recognize that?

24 A: A certain answer to a certain question.

25 MR. BECKER: Page, please.

MR. O'CONNOR: Page 21. I am going to read the whole thing so it is all in context, Judge. Why don't I get up here and do it with you so I don't misstate anything.

MR. BECKER: I wouldn't mind -- it is quite lengthy -- if counsel just referred to whatever he thinks is consistent there.

Q Okay. You are talking to the officers here. The question is, "Okay, what were your actions then?" You said, "As we were pulling off, the employee at Quik Trip came out and said that our truck was, that a truck was on fire on 71 highway; that he thought it was at the construction site, on the construction site." Is that what you told them the next morning?

A: Yes. And he may have said that, too. He may have said a truck is on fire down at the job site, but I remember him saying equipment is on fire down at the job site. But I am sure the Quik Trip employee could clarify that for you.

Q These are your words, not the Quik Trip employee, that is what you are telling the detective.

THE COURT: You are not testifying, Mr. O'Connor. Just ask him questions.

MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, he is answering without me putting a question to him.

1 THE COURT: Well, put a question to him.

2 Q Would you agree with me the words just read were your
3 words you gave to the police department the next day
4 when they were investigating this case?

5 A: Yes. And could you read it to me again, please?

6 Q Sure can.

7 A: Is the discrepancy I used the word "equipment" and you
8 are using the word "truck"?

9 MR. PETERS: I object to the answer as not
10 being responsive. There is no question pending.

11 THE WITNESS: I would like to be able to 12 answer his question clearly.

13 MR. PETERS: Objection.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Peters, that isn't necessary.
15 Go ahead, Mr. O'Connor.

16 Q All I am asking you, the whole question, is that what
17 you said? That is all I am asking.

18 THE COURT: What is that again?

19 Q I will be happy to read it again. I will read the 20 whole sentence. Maybe it will give it better context.
21 The police were asking what your actions were. "Well,
22 she went up the stairs and just as we were pulling off,
23 the employee at Quik Trip came out" -

24 A: You are not referring to my sister.

25 Q Let me finish and then you can say whatever you want.

1 A: Okay.

2 Q "Well, she went up the stairs and just as we were, just
3 as we were pulling off, the employee at Quik Trip came
4 out and said that our truck was, that a truck was on 5 fire down on 71 highway that he thought was on the 6 construction site." That is all I am asking you.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q That is the only question before you.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Who did you mean by "she", when you said, "she went up
11 the stairs."

12 A: I was referring to the lady that pulled up in the I-Roc
13 and got out of her car and went into the Quik Trip
14 store.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand she had told a
16 man inside there was a fire on the site?

17 THE WITNESS: Only by deduction. There is no
18 other way he could have found out because there was no
19 one else in the store at the time.

20 Q Did you ever tell the police, you tell me if this 21 happened, did the police come to you and try to give 22 you an account, without saying what they were, were the 23 police coming to you and saying your sister was giving 24 certain accounts of what happened that night.

25 A: Yes.

1 Q Were you saying to them words to the effect she's 2 lying.

3 A: I didn't agree. They were telling me that she said we
4 left the job, that I had left the job site, that I had
5 left her sitting in the car by herself and that I had
6 left the job site, went somewhere, to the movie theater
7 or whatever. They were just fishing. They also said
8 that she said I was asleep in the car, I fell asleep in 9 the car and I said I did not. Well, as it turns out,
10 she didn't say that at all. They were simply saying
11 those things. They told her I said I was asleep in the 12 car. They told her I said I had left the job site,
13 trying to get her, they were just simply fishing.

14 Q So the police were the people that were telling the 15 untruths.

16 A: Yes, those are untruths which you know is used as a
17 technique. They are allowed to do that as long as they 18 don't misstate judicial issues.

19 Q Now, this exhibit you have had a chance to look at,
20 have you not, which is Defendants' 1. I just want to 21 make one point with this, if I could. Would you agree
22 with me that once a fire started, that emergency
23 vehicles started coming down toward this scene, red
24 lights, sirens, noise, all that kind of stuff?

25 A: Yes, there was a period of time.

700

1 Q But at some point -

2 A: After the fire was started?

3 Q Yes.

4 ~ A Yes, after the fires were started.

5 Q And there is only like four routes to get into there
6 for the police, is there not, 87th Street, Blue River,
7 71st east, north and south?

8 A: Of course, there are variations of all of those where 9 you could multiply and maybe have a total of eight to 10 ten different ways depending on which direction.

11 Q This fire was going to bring people from all directions
12 coming to this site, right, would you agree with that?

13 A: Yes, the fire department was on its way. I had no
14 idea. I didn't have any idea where it was coming from.
15 I was just waiting on them to arrive.

16 Q Did you see anybody up there on a bicycle that night?

17 A: Not that night, no.

18 Q Now, had concerns been expressed to by Brown Brothers
19 of sabotage of their equipment?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And had vandalism been done to their equipment at this
22 site before the explosion?

23 A: Well, we weren't for sure if it was or not. I just 24 sort of suspected.

25 Q But weren't specific things happening to their

1 equipment?

2 A: Well, the mechanics had a different version of what
3 might have happened.

4 Q Had oil been drained from equipment, were you told that
5 by them?

6 A: They said it could have been something else. It could
7 have been, for whatever reason, the equipment drained,
8 the oil was drained out or it leaked or something.

9 Yes, there was suspicion -- there was suspicion.

10 Q And you worked for Brown Brothers and then you started
11 working for Mountain Plains at some point.

12 A: It was all Brown Brothers.

13 Q Was most of the vandalism that was being reported being 14 committed against property of Brown Brothers, would you
15 agree with that?

16 A: While we were there there wasn't any vandalism or 17 damage in a year's time other than the explosion and 18 the attempted break-in to that trailer. There were no
19 other break-ins or vandalism of any kind for a year.

20 Q And so if Mr. Brown brought you in to talk about those 21 kinds of things, he didn't say he was concerned about
22 sabotage, is that what you are telling us?

23 A: He was concerned, yes.

24 Q Why was he concerned if no sabotage ever happened?

25 A: Well, I think he suspected the employee of doing these

1 things more than he suspected the equipment had been
2 ~ done to and he was just putting the two together, if
3 that makes sense. This fellow was pretty disgruntled
4 ~ and Mr. Brown wouldn't be surprised if this guy
5 wouldn't do something to him or to his equipment. Now,
6 when he started to have problems he got suspicious it
7 could be two plus two equals four.

8 Q Now Donna Costanza, did she work for you?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Do you know where she is today?

11 A: No.

12 Q And so I am clear, again when you left, down here when 13 your sister saw the two men and you drove down to this 14 area and you shined the spotlight, where two men had 15 been seen -

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Right?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q You knew two men were down here somewhere.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q You guys left and went to Quik Trip and she got some
22 donuts or something, as I understand it.

23 A: Could I answer it other than "yes, sir"?

24 Q Did she get donuts?

25 A: While she was at Quik Trip she purchased some breakfast

1 rolls, I believe.

2 Q Now, did you ever see a bunch of copper laying around
3 up on this site, big loads, like copper on this
4 construction site? Were you ever asked to guard any 5 copper?

6 A No.

7 Q Did the police officers that investigated this and 8 talked with you tell you they had gone back out to this 9 site to recreate what you and your sister, what your 10 sister claimed to have seen?

11 MR. BECKER: Objection. The question says
12 here's what the police tell you.

13 THE COURT: He just asked the fact, whether 14 they did tell him. There may be something beyond that 15 we don't want to explore, but he is not asking what 16 they told him.

17 Ask what they said they discovered. You
18 can answer that. Did they tell you that or not?

19 A: Will you repeat the question, please?

20 Q Did they tell you they had gone back out to this site
21 at night and looked down to see if they could see
22 whether two men or you could see two men from this
23 position coming into this area?

24 A: Yes, they performed a dummy run down there.

25 THE COURT: They told you they did.

704

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 Q Isn't it true that neither one of you saw any men down
3 here, that you left the site to go to Quik Trip to get
4 donuts and you were explaining that to your boss later
5 why you were not at the scene when the explosion
6 occurred.

7 MR. BECKER: Objection.

8 THE COURT: It is argumentative. I will
9 sustain that.

10 Q Back at that time was Donna Costanza an employee of 11 yours, at the time of the explosion?

12 THE WITNESS: Judge, do I have a choice as 13 to whether or not I ask a question, even if it is 14 argument? Him saying it implies something and it is 15 not true. I could easily make a statement that would 16 show that's nonsense.

17 THE COURT: Just answer whether Donna
18 Costanza was an employee of yours at the time of this
19 explosion.

20 A: Yes, she was.

21 Q She was one of the people that was replaced that night
22 before the explosion happened the next morning.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Now a minute ago I asked you and you told me and please
25 correct me if I mistook this, I believe I asked you if

1 you had ever worked on any construction sites or done
2 security or ever guarded a site before this one before
3 1990, March 13 of 1990 and you told me you had, is that
4 right?

5 A: That's correct.

6 Q You remember in a deposition you gave under oath on
7 March the 13th where you were asked this question,
8 "Have you ever guarded a construction site before this 9 one?" "Answer: Good point." Then you say,
10 "Construction site?" The question says, "Yes." And 11 your answer, "No." Did you tell that under oath in the 12 case in which the fire fighters' families were suing
13 you in this case?

14 A: Can I take a look at it?

15 Q Sure.

16 A: Well, construction site. I said "construction site"?
17 "Yes." and I said, "No." And I think what I may have 18 been thinking is that Villsmeyer(phonetics) was not a
19 construction site. They were simply selling
20 construction equipment. I think that is what I might 21 have been referring to. I would not have lied, there
22 wouldn't be any reason for me to do that and I wouldn't 23 have lied to that question. Either it is incorrect or 24 my reasoning was Villsmeyer was not a construction
25 company.

1 Q A lawsuit was filed against Ameriguard by the families
2 of the fire fighters, is that true?

3 A That's correct.

4 MR. BECKER: Objection. Relevance.
5 (Conference at the Bench out of the hearing of the
6 jury.)

7 THE COURT: Let's not go into that.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: That is my only question. It
9 goes to his bias.

10 THE COURT: It's already been testified to.
11 Objection sustained.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I never said there was a
13 lawsuit filed against you.

14 THE COURT: There isn't any question there
15 was a lawsuit against him and his sister and his
16 company.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: You don't think there is.

18 THE COURT: No.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: I won't ask it. I hate ending
20 on that note, Judge.

21 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I have no further questions.

23 Thank you, sir.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. OSGOOD:

1 Q Mr. Riggs, I want to ask you some questions about
2 Government's Exhibit 26 which is on the screen now.

3 You recognize that scene of course, is that correct?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q All right, sir. You previously testified, did you not,
6 that you sister's truck and your car were parked in 7 this vicinity right here where I have the pencil, is
8 that correct?

9 A: yes.

10 Q -- on the evening in question. And you could see
11 across the highway generally and see the entrance down
12 here and the entrance up here from that vantage point,
13 is that correct?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Would you describe for the jury please the terrain
16 between where your truck was parked and the trailers up
17 here, was it flat, for ex ample?

18 A: Not at all. It was very rocky and hilly and the 19 terrain changed. There was what we call a little 20 plateau up there close to where the trailers were.

21 Q All right, sir. And were there ditches you could step
22 in or fall in?

23 A: I am not sure if ditches describe it very well but it
24 was very hilly and there were cliffs and fall-offs and
25 things like that.

1 Q Had they pulled trees?

2 A They had pulled trees.

3 Q Had they pulled trees, for example, with a caterpillar?

4 A: They must have but if you are asking about a hole left
5 in the ground from the root system, I don't remember
6 seeing anything like that.

7 Q Was it difficult to drive a vehicle, for example,
8 straight across as the crow flies up into the area?

9 A: Impossible.

10 Q Impossible. And that is why you would take these roads
11 down here or this road up here, is that correct?

12 A: Yes, there were only two entrances onto the property.
13 And the reason we would drive those roads as a matter
14 of patrol is because if they were to enter the property
15 by some means other than the two entrances, then they 16 would have to park, unless they walked all the way from 17 where it was they were coming from, they would have to 18 park somewhere to enter the property on foot, to drive
19 those roads looking for parked vehicles.

20 Q And were there obstacles then in this area here if one
21 were walking they would encounter such as rocks, logs,
22 hills?

23 A: Just a large hill, a cliff. There was a cliff, a small
24 cliff. I think it was only like a ten-foot cliff. And 25 then there was a steep embankment with rocks and dirt

1 that was very steep.

2 Q You knew the area well.

3 A: At the time of the explosion, yes.

4 Q So you did not walk a foot patrol, for example, and
5 have any of your officers walk a foot patrol from down
6 here at the truck up through the area up to the
7 trailers?

8 A: Other than in conditions when we couldn't get a car up
9 there sometimes, the officers -- I know I have before -
10 - just put on the good old rubber boots and hiked right
11 on up.

12 Q From where? From down here where my pen is?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Where you said the trucks -

15 A: The easiest road to get up would be the haul road.

16 Q When you were working would you take the haul road
17 because you had a cliff there you said and the other
18 obstacles.

19 A: Not to say I couldn't do it. I could do it but it
20 wouldn't be prudent. You wouldn't choose to do that.

21 Q Potentially dangerous.

22 A: There are some areas where it would be very dangerous.
23 And that particular area, yes, I would guess a person
24 could walk up it without being injured but why would 25 you want to do it if you had another choice.

1 ~ Q That was one of your reasons and rationale for
 2 basically being concerned about the two vantage points,
 3 the two roads where the obvious entry into the area
 4 would be by vehicle.

5 A Yes, since it was at night we could rely pretty much on 6 light as a form of suspicion. Someone would have to 6 have light. You couldn't walk around out there without
 8 light. It would be dangerous.

9 Q If anybody had a flashlight or lantern from where you
 10 were at, you could see that.

11 A: Oh, probably.

12 Q Now from what you have just said I presume there were 13 no lighted poles like you had down in this area down
 14 here.

15 A: It was pitch dark.

16 Q Pitch dark. A: Pitch dark.

17 Q Now, you stated earlier in the evening you got there
 18 about ten, is that correct, sir?

19 A: I think it was around midnight.

20 Q You came in late after Costanza -

21 A: Yes, they had been working and one of them was going
 22 off shift.

23 Q Did either of them write an incident report about 24 anything unusual occurring?

25 A: No.

1 Q When you got there everything was quiet.

2 A: No, the reason I was down there was because it wasn't
3 quiet.

4 Q I mean quiet in terms of the job site. Obviously these
5 two people were in a tiff of some kind, is that a fair
6 statement?

7 A: They're all similar to me. When I have to go down like
8 that, it was an incident, I didn't like it. One of 9 them I sent home and the other one was getting off the 10 shift and replaced by Debbie Riggs.

11 Q This was an employee incident as opposed to an external
12 incident.

13 A: That's correct.

14 Q You go down about midnight and you play referee between 15 the two of them a little bit, calm them down.

16 A: It didn't take long to figure out what was going on.
17 One had used harsh enough words I felt that wasn't
18 correct regardless of what had taken place.

19 Q Then you call your sister because you are going to let 20 them both go home.

21 A: No, my sister was already down there, I believe.

22 Q What time did she get there?

23 A: She got down there sometime shortly before I did.

24 Q Where did this incident with the Volkswagen take place?
25 Was it down here in this area by where your truck

1 ultimately was burned or was it up on the hill?

2 A: There is no reason to doubt this was a Volkswagen since
3 that is the term you are using but I don't remember the 4 type of vehicle. Was it a Volkswagen?

5 Q I think so. I don't know either. Somebody can tell
6 us. The car that was having the problems.

7 A: Mechanical problems.

8 THE COURT: It wasn't his truck. You said
9 "your truck". It wasn't his truck.

10 Q Your sister's truck.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Was that where this car that was having mechanical 13 problems was generally parked down here in this 14 equipment area?

15 A: I don't know where it all started from. That is where 16 it ended up. And I am not sure who was where because 17 they were both down there when I got down there. They 18 were both over there by her vehicle.

19 Q So after you quieted this down and they went on their 20 way, there was just you and your sister there.

21 A: That's correct.

22 Q She had her truck.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q You had your Mazda, that is what it was.

25 A Maxima.

1 Q That is a Honda, is that right?

2 A: No.

3 Q I don't know my cars. Are they Toyotas?

4 A: It's a Nissan Maxima.

5 Q A little wagon, is that correct, from the picture I saw

6 here.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q You have got your little wagon -- by the way, it was

9 not a four-wheel vehicle.

10 A: It was not.

11 Q What about her truck, was it a four-wheel drive

12 vehicle?

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q A little mini truck.

15 A: Yes, it could get around better than what my car could.

16 Q Things had quieted down. It's about midnight. When 17 did you make the first round?

18 A: Soon after they left, I remember getting in the truck

19 with my sister and I think I drove and she was riding

20 in the passenger seat and we made a tour of the entire

21 property.

22 Q Now your property line ran all the way up to the 23 bridge, is that correct, sir?

24 A: Up to slue River, yes.

25 Q And that is the river running along there where my

1 pencil is running, is that correct?

2 A: Yes, sir, that looks correct.

3 Q Now, is it a fair statement that until you get down to 4 87th Street, all of this area in here is cleared with 5 the exception of this clump of trees right here?

6 A: Down around the roadway there are no trees.

7 Q So if you on the southbound lane of 71 you can see cars
8 on the northbound lane. I have got my pencil in the 9 wrong spot. You are on the northbound lane you could 10 see cars on the southbound lane and vice versa, is that
11 correct?

12 A: In the median there were no obstructions other than 13 some piles of construction equipment but that wouldn't 14 obstruct your vision of a car.

15 Q Going back to your first round, sir, you get into the 16 little Toyota pickup, you and your sister, is that
17 correct?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Where is the dog?

20 A: I don't remember.

21 Q You take off. What direction do you go? You pull out
22 obviously of the parking lot here. You go north,
23 south, across, what do you do?

24 A: Mr. Osgood, I really don't remember what our tour was.
25 Most normally we would tour the perimeter of the property first looking for parked vehicles, then go to the tall property and check those areas that have locks on them just to make sure whatever it was they wanted locked was locked.

Q The perimeter, would that be 87th Street? Would you consider that the perimeter?

A: It would be for the east side of the property, only for the east side.

Q That is what I am asking about. That would be the perimeter on the east side of the property.

A: Yes.

Q The perimeter on the north end would be Little Blue.

A: Yes, Little Blue Road.

Q If you were to go off the picture there, is there a connecting road back here on this to the east?

A: You know, Santa Fe runs back there but down that road is a Little Blue River public golf course that sits back down Blue River Road.

Q When you toured the perimeter you would have to make an election to go down this road, turn around and go up and go down this road (indicating).

A: That's correct.

Q And then sometimes you would come up, I take it based on your testimony, this entrance road here on the south of the photograph which kind of curves around and comes

1 up in here where we see what looks like a yellow piece
2 of heavy equipment my pencil is on.

3 A: Yes, sir, that was a safe area right there.

4 Q Would you get out and walk around, look around?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Turn around and go back down this again.

7 A: Yes, because you couldn't drive back to the bunkers
8 which set back in there. You had to walk back in
9 there.

10 Q They were in this area here.

11 A: In that area there, yes.

12 Q So that would be a driving tour of the area accompanied 13 by walking security.

14 A: Yes, most often you could drive, especially in a truck,
15 you could drive back to those trailers from that route
16 that you just described with your pen. You couldn't 17 from the other haul road but you could from that road
18 you just pointed out with your pen.

19 Q Then, of course, entrance into the area for a driving
20 security check would be down the haul road which I am
21 running my pen now and up into maybe this area or on 22 down this way and stop and look around, is that
23 correct?

24 A: Well, you couldn't get very far. You would end up
25 having to stop and walk. Then it goes way up on the

1 hill where they had construction equipment parked on
2 the hill.

3 Q Would that be part of your normal tour?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q I realize it was eight years ago, but you said
6 sometimes you think back and think of things you wanted
7 to think of back then and now you can think of, am I
8 paraphrasing that right? In other words, you have had 9 a lot of time to reflect on this.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Are you satisfied in your mind today in 1997 that on 12 your first tour you probably did a thorough security
13 check on that side with Debbie?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Which would have been touching all the bases up in
16 there.

17 A: That's correct.

18 Q And was it not your procedure, sir, to write an 19 incident report and confront any vehicles that you saw 20 in that area at any time after dark?

21 A: No.

22 Q Let me rephrase it then. If there was -

23 A: In what area?

24 Q In the secured area, Brown Brothers area, if you saw a
25 truck -

1 A If someone was up there after hours, yes, we would
2 confront them.

3 Q That was your job.

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Not necessarily arrest them but certainly to say what
6 are you doing.

A: Absolutely, sir.

8 Q They shouldn't have any business unless they were up
9 there cutting wood.

10 A: If they did they would explain it.

11 Q Did you not see any such vehicles on the first tour
12 because there are no incident reports?

13 A: November 28, 29, that's correct.

14 Q So the area was secure as of the first tour.

15 A: That's correct.

16 Q Now, what about if there had been a bunch of teenagers
17 drinking beer and partying and whatnot, have you ever
18 written an incident report about that and run them off
19 the area?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q That did not occur as of the first tour.

22 A: We had that happen at other times but not that night.

23 Q Yes, sir, you did, didn't you?

24 A: There were other times when teenagers would go up there
25 and party and drink beer. We weren't real sure what

1 they were doing. I had different reports.

2 Q There were no fences around the area.

3 A: No, there were no fences.

4 Q And it's somewhat, at least for kids, an attractive
5 nuisance; kids are intrigued by heavy equipment and
6 machinery.

7 A: Not normally late at night.

8 Q I understand that, but teenagers are intrigued where
9 they can go party and have some fun.

10 A: In confronting some persons that were on the property
11 they always had an explanation why they were there. I
12 don't believe I ever approved. My instruction was 13 nobody was to be on the property after hours.

14 Q But it was secure that night at least on the first 15 tour.

16 A: There was no apparent damage or vandalism or theft and 17 the locks that were supposed to be locked on or the 18 locks they used were all locked.

19 Q That tour obviously occurred between the hours of 20 midnight and 3:40 A.M. when the fire department alarm
21 was sent in.

22 A: There were a couple of tours.

23 Q The first tour was after midnight but before 3:40 A.M.

24 A: That's correct.

25 Q What would you put it to, closer to midnight or closer

1 to 3:40 A.M.?

2 A: Soon after I started my duty there at midnight I would
3 have made a patrol in my sister's truck with her in the 4 truck. I believe that's the way it was, rather than by 5 myself, because I think I made two.

6 Q She was pregnant.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q And that was your explanation for perhaps deviating a
9 little bit from procedure that night because you were 10 concerned about your sister and she was five months
11 pregnant.

12 A: I don't remember.

13 THE COURT: You are making a statement again.

14 Q Is that correct?

15 A: I watch out for my sister in any condition.

16 Q You did not assume a second position on your own on the 17 west side that evening, isn't that a fair statement?

18 A: Will you repeat that, please?

19 Q Did you take up a separate lone position yourself on 20 the west side that evening?

21 THE COURT: At any time?

22 Q At any time.

23 A: No, sir.

24 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you, Judge.

25 A: On the west side?

1 Q Yes, sir. A: No, sir.

2 Q And then after the first patrol was completed where did
3 you and your sister go in her pickup?

4 A: Back to the position where the truck would have been
5 parked and later set on fire, right there.

6 Q From that vantage point you could see the entrance and
7 the exit, is that correct? I'm sorry, the two
8 entrances.

9 A: Well, the entrances, the one in the middle there, the 10 haul road, that entrance and then the other entrance is 11 just, your pen is just up a little bit up 87th, right
12 there. That is an entrance. You can see both of 13 those.

14 Q You could see this entrance.

15 A: That is not an entrance.

16 Q All right. You could see the Little Blue Road.

17 A: I would think so. Yes, you should be able to see it.

18 Q From your vantage point if a vehicle hypothetically
19 were to come down the road with its lights on and take 20 a left, you would be on them.

21 A: We would be on them right quick.

22 Q That is the kind of thing you were looking for.

23 A: We were looking for.

24 Q As you were every night.

25 A: Yes.

Q You caught several vehicles on prior occasions.

2 A: Yes, we had.

3 Q You saw no vehicles do any such maneuvers prior to the 4 first patrol, did you?

5 A: Prior to the first patrol, no. I made our first patrol
6 soon after I arrived at the job site.

7 Q You got back and there was some dispute whether you
8 might have closed your eyes, Donna parked the truck
9 here.

10 A: It was my sister's pickup truck and when we returned
11 from that first tour of duty I believe it was soon
12 after I came onto the shift and Donna Costanza left.

13 Q I mean Debbie. I confused you.

14 A: When I parked her truck I got out of it and got into my 15 car and she did some things. The truck wouldn't have 16 been left where I parked it.

17 Q What was the procedure -- I realize it was eight years
18 ago -- what was the standard procedure for parking
19 those vehicles vis-a-vis your visibility of the area?

20 A: There was no policy because the terrain changed on a
21 daily basis. You had to use your own discretion what 22 vantage point would be most advantageous for 23 observation purposes.

24 Q My point, you wouldn't pull in looking west trying to 25 see what is going on in the rear-view mirror.

1 THE COURT: Would you?

2 Q Would you?

3 A: Now it just so happens I happened to be in that very
4 position when I saw my very first vehicle on the hill,
5 I saw out of my rear-view mirror.

6 Q Based on all your experience -

7 A: We normally face the cars around to where we can see
8 the greatest area. And the east side officer
9 oftentimes helped out the west side officer because
10 when you were on the east side in the dark up over you
11 couldn't see anybody driving around down below; whereas 12 the other officer could and they could radio and say,
13 hey, you have got somebody coming up the haul road.

14 Q That wasn't the situation that night because you were 15 both down there.

16 A: At what time?

17 Q You and Debbie were together. There was never another
18 officer up there.

19 A: Yes, I took the position over on the east side.

20 A: You did.

21 A: A stationary position and made foot patrols.

22 Q On the east side.

23 A: On the east side, yes.

24 Q With the heavy equipment on the west side.

25 A: I maintained a stationary position for some time over

1 on the east side; yes, sir.

2 Q I'm sorry. I thought you did not. How did you get
3 over?

4 A: I drove up the haul road as far as I could get and
5 parked my car right there. That is where I did the 6 majority of my paperwork.

7 Q Mr. Becker has a good idea. Let's refer to it as where
8 the explosive trailers were and where the heavy
9 equipment was and then we won't get confused on east
10 and west.

11 A: If you don't mind, call them explosive trailers.

12 Q Whatever you want to call them, you were in the area
13 where the trailer that burned was located at some point
14 in the evening.

15 A: Yes, soon after I came onto the site I believe I got in 16 my sister's truck.

17 Q We covered that. Let's move on.

18 A: We did a patrol of the entire area which included the 19 trailers and the bunkers and the equipment up on top of 20 the hill and all that sort of stuff. Later, after our 21 patrol, I drove up onto the east side of the property.

22 Q That is what I want to talk about.

23 A: And parked on the haul road.

24 Q You go across up the haul road up into this area
25 somewhere.

1 A: I didn't go that far.

2 Q Maybe this far (indicating).

3 A: Somewhere in there, yes.

4 Q You parked your vehicle and do what, a foot patrol, is
5 that correct?

6 A: Well, I know I got out of my car on a couple occasions
7 because I was getting sleepy. I remember some pushups
8 but I was working on paperwork.

9 Q You were in the station wagon.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q It is about that time you get a call about the 12 sandwich.

13 A: Well, if you want to know what time it was it would 14 probably have been about 2:00, 2:30, 2:45, somewhere in 15 that range.

16 Q And so then you get back. Now has there been any 17 incident between the first patrol and the time that you
18 have the conversation with Debbie about the sandwich?

19 A: Nothing.

20 Q No vehicles, no bicycles, no trucks, no people on foot.

21 A: Not on the property. Of course, you have got a public
22 highway down there.

23 Q You are watching for that.

24 A: Yes. And it is not uncommon that people, as odd as it
25 may seem, people down in that area are out walking in

1 the midst of the night.

2 Q But you didn't see any of that during that period, is
3 that correct?

4 A: No, we didn't see anything like that.

5 Q You would have done an incident report.

6 A: Not for someone walking on the road. The strange thing
7 about what my sister saw, they were there and then they 8 weren't there.

9 Q I want to come back to that. So you go down to have a
10 sandwich and you park and who gets in what vehicle?

11 A: My sister got into my vehicle.

12 Q So the two of you see the construction site across over
13 where the trailers were.

14 A: Yes, if you were to ask me, the best vantage point to 15 see the east side of our own construction site, that 16 would be the spot right there.

17 Q This was about, you said 2:00, is that correct, or 18 2:30.

19 A: Let's see. It would have been about 2:45, somewhere in 20 that range.

21 Q Mr. Riggs, then the call goes into the fire department
22 at 3:40. So it was about 40 minutes to an hour you set
23 there in your car, you and your sister, on 24 surveillance.

25 A: Yes and that has changed over some time. I always

1 thought it was a shorter period of time. My sister
2 thought it was a longer period of time. That's what I
3 was saying earlier about the difference between memory
4 and accuracy. What you remember is the truth but what
5 is accurate could be something different. I believe
6 what it was was 30 to 40 minutes I was over there. It
7 could have been an hour.

8 Q From that point, from that vantage point, were you
9 positioned so you could again look for the things you
10 felt were important; that is, anybody entering the area
11 down here to the south or at the haul road.

12 A: Well, you never know what is important until after-the 13 fact. So what you do, you try to give yourself the 14 best percentage and that was the best percentage. You
15 could see the two entrances to that property that 16 someone would have to take if they had a vehicle.

17 Q Excellent. So you were watching.

18 A: That's correct.

19 Q And if you blinked off or closed your eyes for a
20 minute, is it a safe assumption that Debbie, who was 21 also on duty, was watching even if you did close your 22 eyes?

23 A: I was nodding off or at least that's what my sister
24 says and she was watching. Now keep in mind we were 25 also doing paperwork but any time they're lights you

1 are going to see that in a dark area.

2 Q Thank you. It's between 2:30 and 3:30 in the morning.

3 One of the things I presume you were looking for would
4 be just normal traffic coming down or going, coming out
5 going north on the highway, just to see what they were
6 to do or just watch them go by.

7 A: No, I wouldn't do that. I wouldn't give them any 8 attention. People travel up and down the highway all
9 the time.

10 Q But I mean you would see vehicles going up and down the
11 highway.

12 A: It is not something I would even think about. I might 13 see it but I wouldn't give it any attention.

14 Q unless they turned off their lights and turned in.

15 A: There you go.

16 Q That hour, if we are saying it is 40 minutes or an
17 hour, I don't care really, but that bracket of time
18 between the time you got back into there and had the 19 sandwich, from the time you got to Quik Trip, apart
20 from the two people Mr. O'Connor and the other lawyers
21 asked you about, did you see anything else that would 22 have caused you to conduct an investigation, write a
23 report or consider an incident?

24 A: We didn't see anything.

25 Q The area except for these two people, was secure in

1 your mind.

2 A: That's correct.

3 Q So after you see the two people -- by the way, do you
4 remember, was there a full moon?

5 A: Yes, there was.

6 Q You pull out and across the haul road which links the 7 two strips of highway, is that correct -

8 THE COURT: Excuse me, Mr. Osgood, but let's
9 be true to the record. You said "after you see the two 10 people'. and maybe you didn't mean that.

11 MR. OSGOOD: I didn't.

12 THE COURT: I don't know the witness
13 testified he saw the two people.

14 Q After your sister saw the two people, she elbows you,
15 is your recollection or something.

16 A: She said, "Robert".

17 Q I don't want to go over all that again. You pull 18 across with your lights off across the haul road, is
19 that right?

20 A: Well, first I asked her, "What?" And she said there
21 were two people walking down Blue River Road. They 22 went down into a sink area and did not come back up.
23 And once I understood what it was she was talking
24 about, then I was ready to take action.

25 Q Now, when you pulled across the haul road, did you see

1 any vehicles parked on the haul road?

2 A: No, there were no vehicles on the road at all, there
3 was no vehicles. The question was "parked", no, I
4 didn't see any vehicles parked.

5 Q Would you be looking for those out of concern?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Did you see any along this trip of 71 on the west side
8 part?

9 A: I think where you are pointing is off the camera here.

10 Q Along this road. You didn't see any vehicles parked.

11 A: I don't believe I ever looked over there.

12 Q She elbows you right here.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Alerts you there is a problem up here.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q I presume you looked north.

17 A: I really wasn't looking for cars. I was looking for 18 two persons and I would have later looked in that area
19 where they came from, but I was looking at the 20 immediate area. My concern was they had to go that 21 way. They couldn't have come this way. They had to go
22 that way. That's the reason I went northbound on 71
23 highway with the spotlight along the wooded area.

24 Q Across the haul road.

25 A Yes.

1 Q North on 71.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q You are going, I believe you said, 15, 20 miles an 4 hour.

5 A: I drove quickly down there.

6 Q Get up here quickly.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q Then you shine your spotlight in these trees. Is that
9 a thick or thin tree stand, do you recall?

10 A: It's thick but that was a little later on. First I was 11 concerned about the trailer areas. That is where she 12 had last seen them. I checked that area and then I
13 checked across the road, up Blue River Road to the 14 east. And then I checked looking northbound and then
15 checked both east and west of northbound 71 driving
16 slowly up northbound 71.

17 Q So you looked to the east and the west along Little 18 Blue.

19 A: No, I didn't look to the west. I looked at the 20 trailers and behind the trailers, pulled back out,
21 looked eastbound on Blue River Road. I only looked for 22 spotlights, headlights, that kind of thing.

23 Q See any parked vehicles.

24 A: Yes and then I drove northbound on 71 checking both
25 sides of east and west of northbound 71 for the wooded

1 area.

2 Q Then you get up to the Quik Trip.

3 A: Yes, where the turn-around is and where the Quik Trip
4 sets.

5 Q I won't go over that again. You come south and back to 6 the area where your vehicle is on fire.

7 A: Yes. And the first words out of my sister's mouth when 8 she got to Quik Trip, "Have you seen two people on 9 foot?"

10 Q Now, the trailers up over this heavy terrain are down
11 in a depression themselves, are they not, where you
12 cannot visibly see them from down here on 71.

13 A: Well, depression from -- you know, there are so many
14 different grades of terrain there. It's a depression
15 from the area next to it but then that is a depression
16 to the area next to it. There is a little plateau that 17 sits up there just to the left of that orange color
18 there, a little plateau that is probably the highest
19 point we used to set up on when we were able to get up
20 there but there is flat areas. There is area there 21 that were flat including where the trailers were
22 parked.

23 Q What was the status of the fire on the truck when you
24 pulled up right at the area, was the truck engulfed in 25 flames or just starting to burn or had it almost

1 finished?

2 A: It looked like the type of fire that had some help. It
3 didn't look like an electrical fire. It didn't look
4 like a normal fire, engine overheating or some kind of 5 mechanical problem. It looked like something that had 6 help because the metal was burning. It's outside, the 7 cab was burning and all the front, all the front end.
8 The fenders were on fire.

9 Q You could see the fire on the trailers up on the hill
10 at that point.

11 A: While I was talking to the fire department on the phone
12 telling them how to get to this location where my 13 sister's truck was set on fire, I saw the fire up on 14 the hill. After listening to the dispatch, at that 15 point it sounded like my sister said it and it may have 16 been as a result of her saying it or we saw it at the 17 same time and she spoke.

18 Q Did you have any sense, impression at this point which 19 fire started first, sir?

20 MR. BECKER: Calls for speculation.

21 THE COURT: Yes, by definition it asks for 22 guesswork. Sustained.

23 Q Did you see anything, any sequence of events which you
24 are able today to see which fire started first?

25 A: You know, I wouldn't have a guess.

1 Q Then at 3:40 the call goes into the fire department, is
2 that correct? Do you remember that time? Have you
3 seen this tape of the call?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And did you go over that before you testified here
6 today?

7 A: No, sir.

8 Q But you have seen it on prior occasions.

9 A: It has been some years ago. I think where I saw it it
10 was printed in the newspaper.

11 Q Would you agree with me, Mr. Riggs, it indicates, based 12 on Government's Exhibit 17, the call goes in at 3:40?

13 A: Okay.

14 Q And that pumper arrives on the scene at 3:46.

15 A: All right.

16 Q And so that is six minutes.

17 A: Well, I think it said 51 seconds or six or seven
18 minutes.

19 Q Now what are you doing during this six or seven minute
20 period?

21 A: If you add how long it takes for me to make the phone
22 call in and of itself because those old battery-pack
23 phones took forever to get a connection. Back then we 24 used to use 411 to dial 911; dial 411 and then it sent 25 it through and it took some time. So what may look

1 like on paper to be six or seven minutes could actually
2 be seven or eight or nine or ten minutes.

3 Q At what point did you conclude it was arson in your
4 mind?

5 A: I probably suspected it as soon as I pulled up to the
6 truck to start with but I asked my sister, I said,
7 "Debbie, did you" -- and I didn't know what I was
8 asking her, I didn't know what to ask her -- "did you
9 leave something running?" And then it was just 10 apparent the way or I suspected by the way the fire was 11 burning on the truck that it looked like it had some 12 help of some kind.

13 Q Did you then make an effort to determine whether or not
14 since there was a fire going on on the hill there was a
15 fire here, as to whether or not there were any 16 suspicious vehicles or persons in the area?

17 A: No, what I was doing was trying to get to the phone,
18 get the phone call made, get the fire department out
19 there. And once that phone call was made I believe I
20 called Norm Collins soon after that and informed him
21 while I was sitting there waiting on the fire truck.
22 The fire truck got there. I think it took them about 23 ten minutes to get there which was probably close to 24 accurate.

25 Q You did not see any vehicles leave this scene after you

1 got back.

2 A: No. I didn't see anything that was relevant, that
3 appeared to be relevant.

4 Q And I think I asked you earlier, there is no entrance
5 road coming into this area from the east.

6 A: No, I suspected the people came in on foot from the 7 side or rear of the property.

8 Q Where would that be, sir; north, south, east or west?

9 A: Several areas you can come into the property on foot.
10 Many areas.

11 Q You are saying they came in from the east.

12 A: Well, it has been a long ago. I used to try to keep up
13 with the investigation, what little tidbit I could get 14 here and there and some may have been accurate or not.
15 It's probably just as well I don't testify to it but 16 the point is you can get onto that property on foot a
17 number of different ways.

18 Q From the east.

19 A: Yes, because you can drive to the cliffs in a vehicle
20 because we had some four-wheeling going on up there but 21 we didn't have any way of getting to them because those 22 cliffs are probably 200, 300 foot cliffs. Those are 23 really tall cliffs. And up on top you could drive to 24 the back there and then walk down around the cliffs and 25 it was a gradual decline and then enter the property.

1 Q So is it a fair statement you and your team had three
2 sides of this thing pretty well under control up until
3 the truck burned up?

4 A: Oh, I don't know if "control" is the word. I am
5 sitting in the car, you know, working on a schedule.
6 My sister is sitting in the car working on a schedule.
7 I don't know that "control" would be the word.

8 Q You didn't see anybody walk on foot across the area and 9 up over the area we have described that is almost 10 impassable.

11 A: No.

12 Q I asked you that much earlier.

13 A: No. If someone was on foot it would be difficult to 14 see them if they were someplace other than a lighted
15 area such as the office trailers.

16 THE COURT: Are you about through, Mr.
17 Osgood?

18 MR. OSGOOD: Almost. About 10 or 15 minutes.

19 THE WITNESS: I am supposed to go out of town
20 tomorrow morning. It's very important.

21 THE COURT: Take five minutes.

22 Q So you saw no-one on foot going into the area.

23 A: That's correct.

24 Q Now, is there a way to cross Little Blue, do you know
25 if you go down Little Blue Road here?

1 A: I am not very familiar with that. I have been down
2 there a few times but I am not familiar with that area.
3 We did drive down there a time or two when we had an 4 incident, something going on. I forgot. One of the 5 officers saw something, watching them from a distance
6 and then the guy took off running. And I think we 7 drove down that road.

8 Q That concludes what I want to ask about the scene. At 9 this point I want to ask you some other kinds of clean
10 up questions. You said, I believe, your people were 11 contract employees.

12 A: Yes.

13 Q How did you pay them, Mr. Riggs, by check or cash?

14 A: Well, there wasn't a benefit program for them as we 15 have now but they were paid with a check.

16 Q Drawn on what, Ameriguard?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q And when you would pay them by check did you pay them
19 in their working name or in their real names?

20 A: Well, the only persons that used names other than what
21 you are considering to be a legal name to draw off of a
22 check would be my wife, my sister and myself.

23 Q What name did you write on the check?

24 A: Everybody else would have used their names. That's 25 only because our names are Riggs and it is pretty

1 confusing when you have a lot of Riggs and also for the 2 reason that the other attorney mentioned, it gives the 3 appearance of a mom and pop type operation.

4 Q I don't want to belabor this. Did you pay them in
5 Riggs name or other names?

6 A: No, whoever worked the job site and oftentimes I
7 wouldn't be paid at all.

8 Q The gun that you left in the truck was a .38 caliber,
9 is that correct?

10 A: That's correct.

11 Q What model was it?

12 A: You know, I was trying to remember and I can't remember
13 the model number. It's a stainless steel, two inch and 14 adjustable sight. It's a limited item. I bought it
15 from a police officer, a sergeant with the Grandview
16 Police Department.

17 Q When was that?

18 A: I don't remember. I have the receipt and stuff I
19 bought it. His business is called Sergeant of Arms.
20 I don't remember.

21 Q He is a firearms dealer.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q A federal firearms dealer.

24 A: Working for the Grandview Police Department and he has 25 this business on the side.

740

1 Q Do you recollect what you paid for it?

2 A: No, I don't but it is a nice weapon.

3 Q Was it like -- they're commemorative weapons for 4 everything in the world.

5 A: No, it wasn't a collector's item like I went out and 6 paid $10,000. It was a limited item, one of those 7 items you like to have and hang onto and later they're 8 of value, that's what it was.

9 Q The reason I asked you, you said you went back and got 10 it, I believe, because it had at least some intrinsic
11 value to you.

12 A: More than probably a normal weapon but, gosh, if it
13 would have been a normal weapon sitting there I may 14 have done the same thing. I don't know. Two to 15 three hundred dollars to me. That's quite a bit of 16 money.

17 Q And maybe your answer will be different now but at the 18 time did you consider the fact that if this was an 19 arson scene you were, in fact, removing a gun from 20 a crime scene?

21 A: I never gave it any thought. I am not a public law
22 enforcement officer. It wasn't my job necessarily to 23 preserve that crime scene. Not to say I would want to 24 do anything to ruin it but it didn't have anything to 25 do with the crime scene. It was my weapon and I was

1 afraid it wouldn't be there in a day or two when I
2 went to look for it.

3 Q Did you take anything out of the truck, Mr. Riggs?

4 A: I don't recall. If I did it may have been a purse or 5 billfold or something like that, something personal of 6 my sister's that was there, also.

7 Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge whether or 8 not the gas gage on your truck was bad, not working,
9 dysfunctional?

10 A: I would have had knowledge of, I guess, when I drove 11 the vehicle, maybe I would have noticed but I didn't 12 notice it not working.

13 Q Did your sister ever carry a gas can in that truck
14 because of that?

15 A: I don't know.

16 Q Did you ever see a gas can in the truck?

17 A: No.

18 Q Do you know Richard Brown?

19 A: No.

20 Q Ever meet him in your life?

21 A: No.

22 Q Never ran him off the scene?

23 A: Who is he? Point him out to me.

24 Q Did you ever stop anybody and they showed 25 identification and said they were Richard Brown?

1 A: I don't remember. I wouldn't remember that.

2 Q If he was up there doing something he wasn't supposed to, you would have written an incident report, wouldn't
4 you?

5 A: Yes, sir but oftentimes you didn't get names. I mean
6 you are up there by yourself, sir, and you want to get
7 them off the property. You don't want a confrontation
8 up there. But if you will point him out to me I will 9 tell you.

10 Q He is my client. Stand up, Mr. Brown.

11 (Mr. Brown stands up.)

12 Do you know Mr. Brown? He is eight years older now, 13 sir.

14 A: No, I don't believe I know him.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you. That is all I have,
16 Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

18 MR. BECKER: Nothing, Judge.

19 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
20 we are going to recess for the evening. Remember my 21 admonition about not discussing the case and we will 22 see you in the morning at 9:00. You are excused.

4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

5

6 comes in, I have some brief matters I'd like to alert the

7 Court to.

8

9 agreed that the witness rule would be invoked. That is, no

10 witnesses listed by either side would be present in the 11 courtroom. With some exceptions of, I believe, the 12 defendants, mother, and because Defendant Richard Brown and

13 Defendant Bryan Sheppard's counsel has informed me what some

14 of those witnesses are going to testify to, I agreed that

15 they could be present in the courtroom.

16 Defendant Frank Sheppard's mother, Naomi Sheppard,

17 has been present in the courtroom, and I'm informed now that

18 she will not be a witness for the defense, so I have no

19 objection to her remaining in the courtroom. She was listed

20 on the list; is that correct, counsel?

21 MS. HUNT: It may not be correct. I don't know who 22 told you that.

23 MR. BECKER: Okay.

24 MR. PETERS: Judge, I had told him that. And I

25 think to be safe, when we get to witnesses that may have

1 testimony regarding anything that she would be called as a
2 witness, we'll pull her out of the courtroom. But I'm not
3 disputing that -- what the problem is is we have the mother'
4 the mother is the mother of two defendants. I do not plan to 5 call her as a witness and told Mr. Becker and -

6 MR. BECKER: I didn't realize she's on Earl
7 Sheppard's list. She's on Earl Sheppard's list?

8 MS. HUNT: She may be called as rebuttal, depending 9 on how some people testify, and that decision has not been 10 made yet.

11 MR. BECKER: If she's going to be a witness, she
12 shouldn't be here. That's my only point.

13 THE COURT: Of course, it's awful difficult to 14 anticipate who rebuttal witnesses are going to be. And even 15 though the rule has been invoked, there's often an exception
16 made in the instance of rebuttal witnesses. If you all can 17 work that out, that's fine. Otherwise, I'll rule on it.

18 MR. BECKER: We can discuss it during -

19 MS. HUNT: It wouldn't be rebuttal to what's going 20 on this morning.

21 MR. BECKER: Correct. We can discuss that further 22 later on. If we have a problem, we can come back to the
23 Court.

24 MR. OSGOOD: To amplify on what Mr. Becker said, I
25 agreed that -- my client's mother and his grandmother are

1 going to be witnesses, but I would have his mother out of the 2 courtroom when his grandmother testifies, and they've been
3 instructed not to discuss their testimony with each other.
4 So that would be the one reason, obviously, to keep his
5 mother out because she'll be testifying about matters that 6 they both have knowledge of, and I -- obviously, they 7 shouldn't hear each other, in fairness.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. BECKER: Secondly, this morning I've alerted 10 some of the counsel that crime scene photographs of the 11 victims will be offered. They have earlier noted their 12 objection to these photographs, and perhaps that's something
13 we could take up during the morning break prior to those 14 witnesses taking the stand that we would seek to introduce
15 those photographs. I don't believe -- there's no objection
16 to foundation. It's a 403 objection from defense counsel.

17 Finally, in pretrial interviews of witnesses, John
18 and Peggy Barchers, they've informed me that they have a 1995
19 conviction. That is an SIS conviction under state law and,
20 therefore, not a conviction. But it does not appear on prior
21 criminal sheets given to the defendants, and I'm running
22 updated sheets that hopefully will contain that information.
23 Those witnesses will probably appear tomorrow.

24 THE COURT: You're going to have to enlighten me on 25 what an SIS is. Suspended imposition of sentence?

1 MR. BECKER: Right.

2 THE COURT: And if the probation is satisfactorily
3 served, there is no conviction; is that the way it goes?

4 MR. BECKER: You're exactly correct.

5 THE COURT: So there's nothing to talk about during
6 the SIS.

7 MR . BECKER: Well, that's the government's
8 position, but I want to be able to give out the information
9 that I have when I have it.I did order a request for some 10 people to run more record updates for me, but we haven't
11 received them yet.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I think that they're still 13 allowed under the rule and the law to be impeached, not as to 14 conviction, you cannot ask them if they've been convicted,
15 but you can ask if they've entered a plea of guilty to a
16 felony and they received probation as a result of that guilty
17 plea. They can be asked that, but not if they have a felony
18 conviction. If you entered a plea to a felony in a certain 19 jurisdiction at a certain time and a certain date, that can 20 be asked.

21 THE COURT: Even if -- maybe it isn't the case -
22 would that be the case, even if the suspension had been
23 served and there was no, and the record had been expunged?

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir.And one of the reasons
25 for that, you can enhance someone in state court as a prior

1 and persistent offender based upon a previous plea of guilty
2 in which they received a suspended imp, so the law works
3 against those people. Even though they don't have a
4 conviction, a prior plea of guilty can be used to enhance
5 punishment in state court.

6 THE COURT: I think that's not quite what we're
7 talking about.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand that, but what I'm
9 saying is that the prior plea of guilty is proper
10 impeachment, and we can get some cases on it if you're 11 concerned about it.

12 THE COURT: Before anyone says anything about this 13 before the jury, I want to see that.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: All right, sir.

15 THE COURT: All right. Ready? Let's get the jury.

16 MR. OSGOOD: I'll file these downstairs, Judge.
17 This is an amended list with a few people added. The same
18 thing, Your Honor, these were people that are on the 19 government's list and, obviously, if they call all of these 20 people -- like, for example, I took off the Riggses because 21 they testified, so I'll update as people come on.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. O'Connor: Judge, one other thing. On Mr.,
24 Chief Germann who is testifying, I will go first, and then
25 the order of the indictment.

1 THE COURT: I think I have -

2 MR. O'Connor: I think we had someone else there.

3 THE COURT: They just had order of the indictment.

4 MR. O'Connor: I will go first and then order of 5 the indictment.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 (The following proceedings were had in the
8 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

9 THE COURT: All right. You may proceed, counsel.

10 MR. MILLER: Thank you, Your Honor. The government
11 calls chief Marion Germann.

12 THE COURT: Come up and stand by the witness chair,
13 please, Chief, and be sworn.

14 - - -

15 MARION GERMANN,

16 having affirmed under the penalties of perjury, testified as 17 follows:

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION

20 By Mr. Miller:

21 Q. Would you tell us your name, please?

22 A. Marion Germann.

23 Q. And how old are you, sir?

24 A. Pardon me?

25 Q. How old are you, sir?

1 A. Fifty-four.

2 Q. And how are you currently employed?

3 A. I'm an assistant chief with the City of Independence,
4 Missouri, Fire Department.

5 Q. And when were you with the Kansas City, Missouri, Fire
6 Department?

7 A. From 1963 through 1995.

8 Q. And did you retire in ,95?

9 A. Yes, in May of 1995.

10 Q. And what was your rank when you retired from the Kansas
11 City, Missouri, Fire Department?

12 A. Battalion chief.

13 Q. And I want to go back to November of 1988. And what was 14 your rank then?

15 A. Battalion chief.

16 Q. I want to go to the early morning hours of November the 17 29th of 1988. Where were you stationed?

18 A. Stationed at Fire Station No. 36 at approximately 95th
19 and Holmes.

20 Q. And on those early morning hours, were you dispatched to 21 a fire?

22 A. Yes, that's correct.

23 Q. Now, do you respond to all calls?

24 A. No, normally battalion chief would only be responding to 25 calls that someone else called him for, or what we would term

1 a regular alarm building fire or something like that that was
2 larger than, say, a car fire or something like that.

3 Q. What was your number back then?

4 A. I was designated as Battalion 107, B shift.

5 Q. Now, you stated that you didn't respond to all calls
6 unless you were called. Who called you to a fire on the 7 early morning hours of the 29th of November of ,88?

8 A. Captain Jim Kilventon on -

9 Q. What pumper number was he?

10 A. On Pumper 41.

11 Q. Now, how did you arrive at the fire site?

12 A. I was driven there in a city fire department car by a
13 driver, Dean Gentry.

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what was the driver's name,
15 Chief?

16 THE WITNESS: Dean Gentry, G-E-N-T-R-Y.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And I want to show you, first of all
19 referring to Government's Exhibit No. 5.

20 MR. MILLER: May he step down, Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Certainly.

22 Q. If you can step down over here. You need to keep your 23 voice up, though, Chief. And familiarize yourself with the 24 exhibit.

25 Would you tell the jury how you and Dean Gentry

1 arrived' what route you took?

2 A. We would have came in on Bannister Road and 95th Street
3 across and up north on 71 Highway. And Dean' my driver,
4 thought wewould need to get in on 87th Street, so he turned
5 down 87th Street.

6 AndI said, Dean, I think we need to get that, off
7 of that haul road that's up there. I didn't call it a haul
8 road, but I knew there was a road up there.

9 THE COURT: Chief, counsel, let's see if you can
10 detach, take that mike off the stand. Won't it come off?
11 Will that work? I was thinking you could take it out of the 12 stand and just let him hold it in his hand.

13 MR. MILLER:If I break it, if I'm not billed for 14 it. If there's a way, I don't know how to do it.

15 THE COURT:We're going to try to make arrangements
16 for a different mike, but we won't be able to get it until 17 the break.But, yeah, Chief, if you would, do your best at 18 least to make sure you're heard by the jury. There are a lot
19 of folks herethat are interested, and they want to hear what 20 you have to say.

21 THE WITNESS: Certainly, sir.

22 A. We came up across Bannister Road going east and then 23 came northon 71 Highway, turned east on 87th Street. At 24 that time I corrected my driver. We turned around and went 25 back to northbound71 and went back north to this haul road

1 and came in and parked approximately where my finger is
2 located right here.

3 Q. Okay. And we'll have a picture in a minute and I'll ask
4 you to show on that diagram where that picture correlates
5 to. If you would be seated again.

6 As you were going down 87th, what did you see?

7 A. We could see a trailer with what looked like, I've
8 always described it as a giant sparkler. It had just real
9 bright sparks coming off of it and going a considerable
10 distance up in the air.

11 Q. When you arrived at, on the site there as you went down
12 the haul road where you pointed to, and we'll have an exhibit
13 to show more specifically here in a little bit, what pumper
14 trucks were already there?

15 A. Pumper 30 and Pumper 41 would have already been on the 16 scene.

17 Q. And can you tell the jury what a pumper truck is 18 equipped to do?

19 A. A pumper is a piece of fire apparatus that would be 20 equipped with fire hose, a pump to pump water, and a tank to 21 hold the water, as well as various other assortments of fire
22 fighting equipment. They normally would be used to actually
23 put the water on the fire and put the fire out.

24 THE COURT: Was there a tank of water on the pumper
25 truck?

1 THE WITNESS: Yes, that's correct.

2 THE COURT: And is that refilled from city water or
3 hydrant water during the fighting of the fire?

4 THE WITNESS: Well, if it's seen that we needed a
5 hydrant where you had a large amount of fire and a hydrant
6 was right close by, you normally would just connect to the 7 hydrant and pump directly from the hydrant and not use the 8 tank. But if you were in an area where you had a smaller
9 fire or you had a fire where you needed water on it before
10 you could get to the hydrant, you could go ahead and use that 11 tank. It would be used normally on car fires or some small 12 fire, or any fire that you didn't have a hydrant running
13 close by until you could get someone to lay a hydrant to you
14 if you needed that.

15 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) How many firemen are there on a pumper
16 truck?

17 A. That varies, but that particular morning there was 18 three. There's normally three assigned as a minimum in 19 Kansas City at that time, three persons on a pumper as a
20 minimum manning for that piece of apparatus, and that morning
21 both of those apparatus had three on each one.

22 Q. Do each of those three have a specific job to do?

23 A. There's a captain who is in charge of the company, or an 24 acting captain if a captain happens to be off; there's always 25 a driver and, again, there can be an acting driver if the

1 driver happens to be off; and always one firefighter.

2 Q. Do you know which, the names of the three firefighters

3 on Pumper 41?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 THE COURT: Chief, would you like for us to take a
6 minute?

7 THE WITNESS: No, I'll be all right.

8 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Could you tell us their names, sir?

9 A. The captain was Jim Kilventon, the driver was Bob
10 McKarnin, and the firefighter was Mike Oldham.

11 Q. Could you tell us who was on Pumper 30?

12 A. Captain Gerald Halloran; firefighter who was acting
13 driver, Tom Fry; and firefighter Gene Hurd.

14 Q. When you arrived at the location where you stopped at as 15 you pointed to on the exhibit, could you see the fire?

16 A. Yes, I could. It really didn't appear to be much as far

17 as flames that I could see. The trailer was just a glow,
18 just a bright glow. But there was some flame, a small amount
19 visible from what I considered to be the center of the 20 trailer along the east side about halfway down to where it
21 may have had a, it looked like, from the knowledge I had of 22 trailers like that, it might have had a door in the center on 23 one side, and it appeared to have flames coming out of it.
24 But that was the only visible flame, and really not much
25 flame there.

1 Q. You said a trailer. How many trailers could you see on
2 fire, or glowing?

3 A. Just that one.

4 Q. From where you were, could you see where the 5 firefighters were?

6 A. No. I had a berm that kept me from being able to see
7 either of the firetrucks. I was able to see the silhouette
8 of one firefighter with what appeared to be a hose lying in 9 his hand just before the explosion.

10 Q. Could you see any of the pumper trucks?

11 A. No, I could see neither one of the trucks.

12 Q. Did you see the actual explosion?

13 A. No, I did not.

14 Q. What happened to you after the explosion?

15 A. Well, I waited for what seemed like an eternity for 16 debris to quit falling on top of the car. I then radioed for 17 ambulances and more fire equipment.

18 I got out of my car and found my driver, who was on 19 the ground somewhere to the rear of the car with, I believe,
20 both security guards there by him asking him if he was all
21 right. We assisted him to his feet. Some of this gets out
22 of order because I don't know what happened first and -

23 Q. That's fine.

24 A. And some of it's -

25 Q. I'll ask you another question. What condition were you

1 in?

2 A. Well, physically, I didn't feel like I was injured
3 physically from the blast' but I could -- I'm sure that I was
4 in a state of shock. I can listen to the tapes and hear my 5 voice. That certainly doesn't sound like I normally did when
6 I was talking on the radio.

7 Q. What did you see in front of your car?

8 A. I saw someone's hand and part of their arm.

9 Q. How long were you at that location that you pointed out
10 there on the haul road before the explosion?

11 A. I have a hard time for sure knowing' but I radioed on 12 the scene according to the tape' and then within a minute and 13 55 seconds' I believe' somewhat less than two minutes' I
14 radioed for the assistance' that the explosion had happened.
15 If I radioed on the scene when we first pulled up onto 87th
16 Street, by the time we turned around, we couldn't have been 17 up there less than a minute. If I radioed on the scene as we 18 pulled up on that haul road, it would have had to have been 19 something like a minute and a half, possibly, or less.

20 . I'm still talking about after the first explosion. Did
21 you go to the trunk of your car?

22 . To the best of my memory, I went to the trunk of my car
23 and got some of my fire gear out that I didn't have on yet at 24 that time.

25 . Was a command post set up?

1 A. Yes. We left that area and set up a command post at, on
2 the entrance ramp to northbound 71 Highway at 95th Street.

3 Q. Do you recall how you got to the command post?

4 A. No, I don't.

5 Q. While you were at the command post, what happened?

6 A. Well, there was a second explosion some, approximately,
7 I think 40 minutes following the first one.

8 Q. I want to show you some photographs. This is the only
9 one that has not been in evidence yet. Showing you
10 Government's Exhibit No. 378, is this a fair and accurate
11 representation of what it looked like after the first
12 explosion when you looked down there?

13 A. I remember seeing this like this, and my recollection,
14 it would have been after the first explosion, between the two 15 explosions.

16 MR. o'connor: No objection.

17 MR. MILLER: Offer Government's Exhibit 378.

18 THE COURT: Hand it up to the clerk, counsel,
19 please. All right. There being no objection, 378 is 20 admitted.

21 (Government's Exhibit 378 was admitted into
22 evidence.)

23 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) I want to go to 378 first, Chief. And 24 can you see it from where you're at?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And could you describe this to the jury?

2 A. Well, I don't really know what was burning up there, but
3 there was -- after the original explosion, I heard several 4 just little explosions like large fireworks, possibly, and
5 then one that wasn't really that small. This is before the 6 second large explosion. There were several little
7 explosions, what I would term little ones, and then one that
8 wasn't that small. And then something was burning on that 9 hill and I don't know what it was that was burning.

10 Q. And now I want to show you Government's Exhibit No.

11 125. And can you tell the jury what this shows?

12 A. In about the center of the left is the road that comes
13 off of 71 Highway, northbound 71 that goes somewhat easterly
14 up to the top of, almost like a plateau. And that's the road
15 that my driver and I took to go up there. My car is sitting
16 in the upper right hand, just below the horizon. Yes.

17 Q. See where my pen cap is?

18 A. That, I believe, is, from what I can see of it, where my 19 car was parked.

20 Q. That's where your car was parked when the first
21 explosion happened?

22 A. It was parked there and left there and continued there
23 throughout that night, that morning.

24 Q. I want to show you now Government's Exhibit No. 126.
25 you tell the jury what that depicts?

1 A. That would be my car, again, taken from somewhat of a
2 northwesterly direction shooting southeast, if I'm thinking
3 right. And that's where the car was sitting and the road is 4 just, if the car was angled a little more to the right and 5 continued on would be the road that would have gone down to
6 where the trailers were.

7 There's a berm. I don't know whether you can make
8 it out very good. There's a berm that raises -- yeah, right
9 in that area, there's dirt that's raised up. And that, from 10 what I can gather in seeing pictures that we've had since 11 then and aerial photos, is the berm that kept me from seeing 12 either the second trailer or the firetrucks. They were back 13 behind that.

14 Q. I want to show you now Government's Exhibit No. 127.

15 And can you tell the jury what this depicts?

16 A. That I believe would depict a picture taken apparently 17 down towards where one of the trailers was shooting back
18 towards the northwest. And my car, again, is seen in the 19 upper center of that picture, and the berm is on the left
20 again. You can see it if you would get -- farther to the 21 left of this picture it would shield you from seeing past
22 it. And that's, to my knowledge, what shielded me again from 23 seeing that trailer, the second trailer and the two 24 firetrucks.

25 THE COURT: Excuse me, counsel. Would you put that

1 back up there, please?

2 Chief, maybe you identified this. There's a
3 vehicle in the upper center part of that picture. Can you
4 tell what that is?

THE WITNESS: Would you point to that? I'm sorry.

6 That's the car that I was in.

7 THE COURT: That was your car?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And that's the one that sits there with 10 the trunk lid askew, sprung by the explosion?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Chief, I want to now show you
14 Government's Exhibit 128. And what does this show?

15 A. That appears to be just a closer, a little more close-up
16 picture of the same one we just looked at. Again, taken
17 from, by the trailers shooting back towards the car that I
18 was in.

19 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit No. 129.

20 A. This appears to me to have been taken just somewhat
21 north of where that haul road went back in off of northbound
22 71. There was a set of railroad tracks that we crossed over
23 there. Again, a shot taken almost somewhat directly east.
24 And, again, my car is sitting up on top of that plateau.

25 Q. I want to show you Government's Exhibit No. 130. Can

1 you tell us what this shows?

2 A. That probably would have been, of the pictures I've 3 seen, the one that would have shown the best vantage of what
4 I would have seen from where I was sitting, I think. Again,
5 taken from behind the car down towards the trailer that was
6 burning.

7 The car was very nearly a new car and, I forget, a
8 year or two old, and was totally destroyed. Even at the 9 distance we were at, it wasn't repairable.

10 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit 131. And could you tell
11 the jury what that is?

12 A. That, again, is a close-up. And you can see better what 13 the damage was to the car. This was taken closer from the 14 southeast. The headlights appear to still be on on the car.
15 When we left the car, we left everything like it was and just 16 got away from the area because we didn't know if there was 17 going to be another explosion, which certainly we did find
18 out did happen later.

19 Q. Can you tell us again where in the car were you sitting?

20 A. I would have been sitting in the front seat on the 21 passenger's side. When the explosion happened, it brought 22 the windshield in. To my recollection, it didn't bring it
23 completely in. I believe the second explosion may have taken
24 it completely down like it is there, but it brought it in on 25 us, on myself.

1 Q. And Government's Exhibit No. 132?

2 A. Again, this is a close-up of that car taken in a
3 westerly direction, and you can see the damage to the car.
4 And also in the background there's heavy equipment up in the 5 upper left, especially, but all the way across the upper
6 area. I remember, this kind of refreshes my mind on speaking
7 to my driver that morning as we pulled up, thinking that they
8 were actually working on that site because everything was so
9 lit up. They had all the construction equipment lit up over
10 there with some type of lighting. But it was totally dark
11 over on our side, except for the headlights on the car.

12 MR. MILLER: I have no more questions for this 13 witness, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. O'Connor?

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 By Mr. O'Connor:

18 Q. Chief Germann, I'm John O'Connor, and I have a few
19 questions for you, sir.

20 So I understand your direct testimony, you were at 21 the scene before the explosion occurred; is that true?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And were you in radio communication with your men while
24 you were en route to this fire?

25 A. I had some conversation on the radio with Captain

1 Kilventon.

2 Q. All right. And so there was some exchanges between you
3 and him as to what they were facing at this scene; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Well, I don't know that I knew what they were facing at 6 the scene. He radioed for, asking for water to be brought
7 back, another piece of apparatus with water. And he radioed
8 the dispatcher, and the dispatcher apparently was overridden
9 by other radio traffic and appeared to me not to hear him.

10 So I asked him what he wanted, and he stated that 11 he needed something for water. And I asked him if we could 12 use a four-wheel-drive. And, again, I'm paraphrasing. And 13 then I radioed the dispatcher and asked them if they got that 14 message, that they needed a four-wheel-drive for water.

15 Q. Of the six firefighters, would Kilventon have been in 16 charge, basically, or would it have been him and Halloran
17 would have shared those responsibilities?

18 A. Well, as first on scene, as first officer on scene, he 19 really would have been the officer in charge until relieved.

20 Q. So Jim Kilventon, your understanding, his crew was the 21 first on the scene?

22 A. Yes, they were. They were the first on scene, but I
23 don't think they were first up to the trailer.

24 Q. Did you hear any radio communication that morning on the 25 airways about, from Captain Kilventon or any of the men that

1 were talking with you or the dispatcher saying anything about
2 ammonium nitrate, diesel fuel, fertilizer?

3 A. No, I did not.

4 Q. Have you had a chance to look at the transcript that was
5 done that morning of the dispatch?

6 A. Yes, I have.

7 Q. And it appears that there is an exchange between you and
8 Pumper 41 and Captain Kilventon approximately two or three
9 minutes before the actual blast. Is that true?

10 A. I believe that's right. I don't know about the time,
11 but I know there was, he radioed, there was a conversation.
12 And I've discussed this in deposition before about, I believe
13 he said something about, this appeared to have already blown
14 up. It looks like we have magnesium.

15 And I have, I've had some, I don't know whether 16 everybody has been aware, but I've had some major problems
17 with emotional things over this. But I can remember clearly
18 him saying that he thought he had magnesium involved, but my 19 memory of him saying this looks like this has already blown
20 up was never in my mind until I either saw it or heard it on 21 the tape.

22 Q. But the dispatch tape clearly shows that the explosion
23 didn't come until after the conversation; do you agree with
24 that?

25 A. That's true.

1 Q. When Captain Kilventon was talking to you at the scene,
2 he was telling you, he was up there and telling you basically
3 what he thought was going on was magnesium and something
4 burning?

5 MR. MILLER: Excuse me, Your Honor, I'm going to 6 have to object. It's cumulative. The tape is in evidence,
7 and so is the transcript.

8 THE COURT: Yes, and it seems to me he's explained
9 his knowledge of that exchange pretty thoroughly. I'm going
10 to sustain that objection.

11 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Now, I understand that you were 12 close to Jim Kilventon; is that true, Jim Kilventon?

13 A. Close as far as friends, you mean?

14 Q. As fire friends, you'd fought a lot of fires together?

15 A. He had worked with me for a few years, yes.

16 Q. I want to ask you a few questions about him, if I
17 could. How long had you known Captain Kilventon?

18 A. I didn't really have a personal relationship with him.
19 But I'd known him, him and I had been, not in the same
20 district but where we ran fires together probably in 1963 for 21 a year or so. And then as far as seeing him anymore, I
22 didn't work in a district with him again until just before
23 the fire, I think, and I came out there a year or two before
24 that.

25 Q. How long had he been on the fire department,

1 approximately?

2 A. He'd been on somewhat longer than I had. I had been on
3 25 years, and Jim was somewhat senior to me.

4 Q. So he obviously was an experienced firefighter?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Did he have hazmat training?

7 A. I don't have those records, but it would be just hearsay
8 if I said whether he did or not.

9 Q. Were you aware of his abilities and his knowledge on a
10 fire scene?

11 A. Yes, I would say so.

12 Q. Do you believe that Captain Kilventon would have 13 subjected himself and his men to that scene had he been told
14 that there was diesel fuel, fertilizer, ammonium nitrate?

15 THE COURT: Sustained. Counsel is on his feet, I
16 assume for purposes of making an objection?

17 MR. MILLER: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 MR. o'connor: Can we approach a minute?

20 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
21 proceedings were had:)

22 MR. o'connor: Judge, what I would like to do is 23 ask him this hypothetical. I want you to assume, assume 24 facts that are in evidence that there's been testimony that
25 James Kilventon was told that there was ammonium nitrate

1 fertilizer and diesel fuel. I want you to assume that to be true. I want you to take your knowledge and experience of 3 Captain Kilventon on fire scenes, his ability on fire scenes,
4 and I want you to assume that to be true, as well.

5 Do you have an opinion of whether or not Captain
6 Kilventon, knowing that there was ammonium nitrate, would
7 have gone up to that scene. And the reason -

8 MR. MILLER: He's not qualified to give an opinion
9 about what Kilventon -

10 THE COURT: What are you -- what is your theory,
11 that he committed suicide or something?

12 MR. o'connor: Our theory is that they were never 13 told by the Riggses. The Riggses have testified that they 14 told him there was diesel fuel, ammonium nitrate -- please
15 hear me out.

16 THE COURT: If you're taking that view by way of 17 impeachment of the Riggses, then you're going to have 18 something more definite than somebody's opinion. This guy
19 has not been endorsed as an expert, he was not used as an
20 expert by the government, and I'm not going to allow opinion
21 testimony.

22 MR. o'connor: Let me make another record.

23 MR. PETERS: Judge, for purposes of what we have 24 left, the six people on the scene are dead, this is the 25 person who was in communication, was familiar with the

1 practice and procedure, not only of the Kansas City,
2 Missouri, Fire Department, but of these particular men.
3 Because of the explosion we can't, we don't have the 4 opportunity to ask any of the six people.

5 THE COURT: Look, I'm beginning to get the feeling
6 that we're tilting the windmills, that it doesn't really make 7 a hell of a lot of difference when they knew what, whether 8 the firefighters knew it, whether the Riggses told them or 9 not. The Riggses, testimony doesn't go to whether these men
10 did this or didn't do it. It happened, and they described 11 what happened. Then the question becomes whether these men
12 did it, and his testimony wouldn't relate to whether these 13 men did it or not, it would relate only to the event. And 14 I'm just not going to get into this opinion testimony about 15 what, to me, is collateral.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: So I understand it, you don't want
17 me to ask it and be objected to. I've made my record based 18 on what I've told you here, right?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you, sir.

21 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

22 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Chief Germann, I want to show you
23 what's -- well, I guess I'm going to have to put it back here
24 unless you want to step down here and do it. I guess we can 25 step down here a little bit. And you can just speak up, if

771

1 you would.

2 Have I got this where you can get, you've got a
3 frame of reference on this, the way it's -

4 THE COURT: You've got some jurors that can't see
5 that, Mr. O'Connor.

- MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to go back and put it on 7 this, Judge, if that's okay.

8 THE COURT: ALL right.

9 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Chief, probably the best is for you
10 to maybe come down here. Do you mind?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Do you mind, Judge?

12 THE COURT: No, that would be fine.

13 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) If you would just kind of project
14 your voice maybe this way so the court reporter can get it.
15 You were down at what station again, sir?

16 A. No. 36 at 95th and Holmes.

17 Q. Okay. So you came in from?

18 A. Would have came from the west on 95th Street, or 19 Bannister Road north on 71 Highway.

20 Q. okay. And do you know what direction, if you know,
21 don't guess, that the Pumper 30 and Pumper 41 came from?

22 A. If they came from their stations as they normally would,
23 41 would have surely came from the south and then north on 71
24 Highway, and 30 would have came from the north south on 71
25 Highway.

1 Q. So would 30 have come across 85th Street and down?

2 A. 30 would have been on Prospect, so they would have come
3 down Prospect to 71 Highway, I assume, but they could have
4 come down 87th, but I don't believe so.

5 Q. So the emergency vehicles were coming from different
6 directions into this scene?

7 A. That would be my thinking that they should have.

8 Q. Okay. Did the police officers come into this scene that 9 you were aware of before the explosion, police cars with 10 lights and sirens?

11 A. Not that I'm aware of. They were there after I was, but 12 I don't know about before.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you. Have a seat.

14 Q. Now, your driver was Dean Gentry; is that true?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. And since this explosion and before today's date,
17 Firefighter Gentry has died of natural causes; is that
18 correct?

19 A. That's correct. He was a fire apparatus operator.

20 Q. And the trailer, as I understand it, when you saw it
21 before the explosion, you said it was glowing?

22 A. That's correct.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Just briefly. I may be done. I may 24 have a couple other questions here.

25 Q. Your last communication, I believe, with Captain

1 Kilventon appears to have happened around 4:04, somewhere
2 around there; do you agree with that?

3 A. I would have to look at the transcript. I'm not -

4 Q. I would be happy to show that to you.

5 MR. BECKER: I have an extra copy.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you. Turn back to Page 3 here
7 to pick up the time, and there is where I think you had the 8 conversation with him.

9 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) After looking at that, does that 10 refresh your recollection?

11 A. Yes, I believe that this transcript time is right,
12 that's correct.

13 Q. And that would have been the last communication with Jim
14 Kilventon before the explosion occurred at 4:08 or 15 approximately that time?

16 A. Whenever the explosion occurred, yes.

17 Q. And does it show on the transcript on Page 4 there 4:08,
18 the explosion has occurred?

19 A. Yes. That's when I radioed. I don't know what kind of 20 delay there would have been before that, between the time of 21 the explosion and when I radioed. I discussed about the 22 noise that was created by the falling debris, and I don't 23 have any way of knowing what kind of time that took.

24 Q. At that point, did you then take command of the 25 situation and start moving people back and out of there for

1 fear that there may be another explosion?

2 A. Yes. One of the first things I tried to do was keep
3 everyone away from the scene for fear that there was -- it
4 just wasn't known what else was up on that hill, or at least
5 it wasn't known by me.

6 Q. That's when this command post was set up?

7 A. Yes, a few minutes after that.

8 Q. And some time later a second explosion occurred, and no
9 one was injured as a result of that explosion; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you very much, sir. I have no
13 further questions.

14 MR. OSGOOD: I have some questions, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: How about Mr. Peters?

16 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Miss Hunt?

18 MS. HUNT: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch?

20 MR. BUNCH: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: ALL right, Mr. Osgood.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I want to use the government's time
23 line, Your Honor.

24 -- -- --

1

2 By Mr. Osgood:

3 Q. Chief, this is a time line that's extracted from the -

4 MR. OSGOOD: Does it have a government's exhibit
5 number on it?

6 MR. BECKER: It does not have a number.

7 MR. OSGOOD: Can we make this Defendant's 2 or -

8 MR. BECKER: I would prefer that it be Government's
9 Exhibit 387.

10 MR. OSGOOD: I presume you don't object to it
11 coming into evidence?

12 MR. BECKER: No. I think 387 is in, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: 387?

14 MR. OSGOOD: Yes' sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. 387 is admitted.

16 (Government's Exhibit 387 was admitted into
17 evidence.)

18 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Chief' this is a time line that's 19 extracted from the transcript. And if you would' just take a 20 look at it for a few minutes to refresh yourself as to the 21 times' and then I'm going to ask you a couple of questions.
22 You'd been a fireman how long?

23 A. I didn't -- let me look at it longer.

24 Q. I'm sorry. I thought you'd seen it. And I'll put it up
25 where you can see it here in a minute.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. You'd been a fireman how long' sir, at the time of this?

3 A. At that time approximately 25 years.

4 Q. So you'd seen a lot of car fires in that time?

5 A. Several, yes.

6 Q. All right. Do you remember whether or not, reflecting
7 back, whether or not you actually saw the truck on fire when
8 you arrived at the scene?

9 A. No, I did not.

10 Q. Had it been extinguished, or you were just concerned
11 about what was up on the hill?

12 A. I would assume it would have been extinguished if 41 had 13 been called and was over there. I don't know.

14 Q. All right. The question I want to ask you is looking at 15 the time line here, the call comes in at 3:40; is that 16 correct, Chief?

17 A. Again, I would have to look at the transcript.

18 THE COURT: Well, that's what the time line says.
19 Let's assume that, Mr. Osgood.

20 MR. OSGOOD: All right.

21 THE COURT: He didn't take the call.

22 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Would you agree with me, Chief, that 23 between 3:40 when the first call comes in that you've got a
24 truck on fire and a fire on the hill, according to the 25 Riggses, that the explosion occurs at 4:08, that is 28

1 minutes. Would that be correct? Would you agree with me?

2 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to that. That's
3 misstating exhibits in evidence.

4 THE COURT: It's also beyond the scope of direct.
5 Sustained.

6 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, this is -- I'll tie it in,
7 and I think you'll see how it's relevant in a moment. I want
8 to establish a time.

9 THE COURT: Well, the fact that there's 28 minutes
10 between 3:40 and 4:08, without any embellishment on that,
11 let's go on.

12 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) All right. Now, the second explosion
13 occurs at 4:48, is that correct, according to the transcript?

14 A. I believe that's correct.

15 Q. And that's 40 minutes even?

16 A. You know, according to the time.

17 Q. 4:08 to, 40 minutes even?

18 A. Again, there's time I'm not sure of from my -

19 Q. What is a secondary fire? Let me rephrase that. When 20 you go to a fire and something is on fire, do you have 21 concern about secondary fires starting as a result of the 22 primary fire, the fire you're fighting?

23 A. It's according to what type of fire you're fighting, I
24 presume, but I don't know what your point is.

25 Q. Well, if the wind is blowing and a house is on fire, are

1 you concerned about other houses next-door?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. Did you see both trailers on fire when you
4 arrived, or only one?

5 A. Only one.

6 Q. Based on your experience as a fireman, then, is it
7 possible that the explosion created a secondary fire in the 8 other trailer which -

9 MR. MILLER: Excuse me. I'm going to object. It
10 calls for him to speculate and reach a conclusion.

11 THE COURT: Sustained.

12 MR. OSGOOD: He's an expert, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: We've been through that this morning.
14 That objection is sustained.

15 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) You did not observe the second trailer
16 on fire?

17 A. No, I did not.

18 Q. And after you pulled back down off of the hill after the 19 first explosion was over, was there any point in time, then,
20 when you saw the second trailer flame up?

21 A. No. I saw, we saw a flame, but I didn't know what it
22 was. We were at a distance. You couldn't tell what it was.

23 Q. And were you back down at 95th when the second trailer
24 blew?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So you were quite a ways off, you weren't at the scene?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Based on your experience, how long does it take a truck
4 or a vehicle with an interior fire to consume that vehicle?

5 MR. MILLER: Excuse me, Mr. Germann. I'm going to 6 object again. It calls for conclusion and speculation.

7 THE COURT: I don't believe that that sort of thing
8 happens by formula, Mr. Osgood. I'm going to sustain the
9 objection.

10 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Let me ask you this. Have you been at 11 the scene of vehicle fires?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Are they like a house fire that they can go on and 14 smolder and continue to burn for a long period of time, or 15 are they flash fires, more of a flash fire?

16 THE COURT: Or both.

17 Q. Or both.

18 A. I don't know that you can put them in either category.
19 They're going to vary.

20 Q. What typically -- when a vehicle burns, what do you have 21 to worry about, what burns in it?

22 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to this as to 23 relevance, and also it depends on what's in the truck. He's 24 asking him to speculate.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, this goes to the defense's

1 case. They've put on the Riggses and talked about the -

2 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object.

3 THE COURT: Are you -- you're not going to stand
4 out there and make a speech. If you want to make a record,
5 come up. Otherwise, the objection is sustained.

6 MR. OSGOOD: Could we read back the question
7 because I want to ask another similar question, and I don't
8 want to -

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 (The requested portion of the record was read.)

11 MR. MILLER: Again, I'll make the same objection.
12 What's in the vehicle, it's asking him to speculate. There's 13 not enough facts.

14 MR. OSGOOD: It's been sustained. I wanted to hear
15 the question so I could formulate another question.

16 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) What do you treat a vehicle fire with 17 typically, water or with chemical?

18 A. The vehicle fire normally would be water. Now, you're 19 going to have to give me a definition of vehicle.

20 Q. The interior.

21 A. We're talking about a car fire?

22 Q. Yes, sir, a car or pickup truck.

23 A. This certainly wasn't a car. I'm thinking about these
24 trailers.

25 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to confuse you, Chief. There

1 was a pickup truck that the security guards had that was down
2 over by the heavy equipment. Were you aware of that?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. That's what I'm talking about, not the trailers. Was
5 it, or would you typically treat a, or react to a fire in a
6 vehicle like that in the cab, interior, with water or with 7 chemical?

8 A. Normally with a water hose.

9 Q. And that will typically handle the situation?

10 A. Normally, yes.

11 Q. Okay. Are seats typically flammable and burn?

12 A. Generally.

13 Q. And what about these dashes in later model cars, the 14 kinds of vinyl stuff, is that flammable or fire resistant?

15 A. According to whether it was a car that had that in it,
16 normally, that type of material in it.

17 Q. Is flammable?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And how many, through the years, vehicle fires have you
20 responded to in your lifetime?

21 A. I wouldn't have a guess.

22 Q. Quite a few?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Typically when you arrived, had they burned themselves
25 out, or were they still on fire?

1 A. Various stages. Some just smoldering, some just
2 completely burned up, and all areas in between.

3 Q. But from the time you got a call until you arrived at 4 the scene, did you ever arrive at the scene where one was 5 actually engulfed in flames from the time that you took the 6 call until you got there?

7 MR. MILLER: Excuse me. I'm going to object as to
8 relevance.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Can we come up, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
13 proceedings were had:)

14 MR. OSGOOD: I want to show, and I want to argue so
15 I need to put some evidence in, that the truck fire started
16 after the fire on the hill. That's why the flames, the 17 sequence, the times that they burned and everything are 18 important. And that's why the times between the first
19 trailer fire and the second trailer fire are important. You
20 know, I can recall the chief as my witness, if that's 21 necessary. I don't want to do that to this man.

22 THE COURT: So are you saying that it's your theory
23 that the Riggses, truck fire started after the explosive
24 trailer fire?

25 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Do you have evidence of that?

2 MR. OSGOOD: That's what I'm trying to elicit now.

3 THE COURT: Now, come on, don't play games with 4 me. Do you have evidence of that?

5 MR. OSGOOD: I think there's an inference in this
6 case.

7 THE COURT: That's your argument, it's not
8 evidence. Do you have evidence of that?

9 MR. OSGOOD: That's why I'm asking these questions
10 of the chief. I can recall him in my case, and that's what 11 I'm going to have to do.

12 THE COURT: That's what you're going to have to 13 do. I'm sustaining the objection.

14 MR. OSGOOD: I didn't want to do it to this
15 witness.

16 THE COURT: I'm sustaining the objection.

17 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

18 MR. OSGOOD: I guess that's all I have of you.

19 Thank you, Chief.

20 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?

21 MR. MILLER: No redirect, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Thanks, Chief. You may step down.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 MR. BECKER: United States calls Firefighter Mike
25 Torrey.

MICHAEL TORREY,

2
3 being first duly sworn by Kathy Geller, Law Clerk, testified
4 as follows:

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Becker:

8 Q. Good morning.

9 A. Good morning.

10 Q. Please state your name and spell your last name.

11 A. Michael Torrey, T-O-R-R-E-Y.

12 Q. How old are you?

13 A. Thirty-seven.

14 Q. Are you married?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you have any children?

17 A. A girl, eleven; and a boy, eight.

18 Q. How are you employed?

19 A. Kansas City Fire Department.

20 Q. How long have you been employed by the Kansas City,
21 Missouri, Fire Department?

22 A. Eleven years.

23 Q. What is your present assignment?

24 A. I'm a driver in District 106. I drive the chief.

25 Q. In November of 1988, where were you assigned?

1 A. Station 42 at 6006 Red Bridge.

2 Q. On the south side of Kansas City, Missouri?

3 A. Yes.

4 THE COURT: What's the station number, please?

5 THE WITNESS: Station 42.

6 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) What were your duties in November of 7 1988?

8 A. I was a firefighter on the squad.

9 Q. What did that -- did you have any particular fire
10 apparatus, truck, that you normally went out on?

11 A. Yes, we did. I was on the squad that had two people on 12 it, the driver and myself. And we carried the tack line and 13 had a small water tank on it, the pump, had first aid
14 equipment, and we were also responsible for a brush buggy
15 which we responded to brush fires and other incidents that 16 were off the road.

17 Q. Can you briefly describe for us what a brush buggy is,
18 what kind of truck or bike or whatever that is?

19 A. Well, this particular one was a late seventies Dodge
20 model. And the front end was like a regular pickup, and it
21 had a heavy frame under it, and the back had box
22 compartments, had a hose on it and a small water tank and a
23 pump, four-wheel-drive, had dual wheels on the rear, and we
24 were able to go off road and up inclines and muddy places.

25 Q. That was what it was designed to do?

1 A. That's what it was designed for, yes.

2 Q. That's a two-man, two-person -

3 A. Right, two people usually man that, yes.

4 Q. On November 28th, into November 29, 1988, were you
5 working that day?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What was your shift?

8 A. I work a 24-hour shift. It starts at 7:00 in the 9 morning and ends at 7:00 the next morning.

10 Q. Were you awake at around 3:40, 3:30 on the morning of
11 November 29, 1988?

12 A. Yes, I was in the bunk room, but I was awake.

13 Q. Tell us what was happening, please.

14 A. Well, the bunk room is adjacent to the apparatus bay
15 floor where the speakers are on all night, and you can hear
16 the alarms. Since I was awake, I was listening to the alarms
17 coming in, and I heard 41 Pumper go out on a car fire, and a
18 few minutes later I heard a call for another pumper, and then
19 I heard some more transmissions, and Captain Kilventon said
20 something about they thought they had some fires up in the 21 woods.

22 So as soon as they said that, I knew that we were
23 going to be sent because we had the brush buggy, so I started
24 to get up, to wake up Al Donnelly, my driver.

25 Q. Now, were you, your location down on Red Bridge, was

1 that the, in the same sector or area of responsibility as
2 this, these fires on 71 Highway?

3 A. Yes. It was in District 107, and we responded to car
4 fires and brush fires down there, we had before. And so we'd
5 been there several times and -

6 Q. You'd been where several times?

7 A. Down near the construction site, in that area
8 surrounding it into the woods for different things. We had,
9 several times stolen cars had been dumped there and set on 10 fire, and we would go to assist Pumper 41 with the squad.

11 Q. I'm sorry. So you were saying you got up that night and 12 got your driver up. What was his name?

13 A. Al Donnelly.

14 Q. What did you do after you got up?

15 A. I told him what was going on, and then shortly after 16 that, they bunked us out, which means the bells went out, and 17 they stated the address and who was supposed to respond. And 18 we went and got all of our bunker gear off of our squad that 19 is on the upstairs portion of the station and took it
20 downstairs to put it on the brush buggy, which was in the 21 basement.

22 Q. What's bunker gear?

23 A. Bunker gear is our protective clothing we wear made out
24 of nomax (phonetic). It consists of a bunker coat and bunker
25 pants with suspenders attached to them and rubber boots, our

1 helmet, our gloves, and our nomax hood.

2 Q. So that's the yellow suits that we normally see you
3 fellows wearing at a fire scene?

4 A. At a fire scene, yes.

5 Q. You took them downstairs, then. The brush buggy was 6 downstairs; is that right?

7 A. Yes, it was.

8 Q. What did you do then?

9 A. Well, the brush buggy was parked in the basement garage
10 area, and also where the firemen's cars were parked in there
11 because at that time there was a city hall annex in the 12 basement of the fire station at that location. So we 13 couldn't park on the outside because the customers wouldn't 14 have anywhere to go. So we had to move a couple of cars out
15 of the way of the brush buggy to get it out and move some 16 different equipment out from in front of it to get it ready
17 to go.

18 Q. What did you do then?

19 A. Then we loaded up our bunker gear, started it up. We 20 had to let it warm up a little while because if you took off
21 too soon, it would just keep dying. So we let it warm up for 22 maybe a minute or two, and then we responded onto the call.

23 Q. Can you describe how you got from your firehouse out on 24 Red Bridge to the fire scene on 71 Highway?

25 A. We pulled out on Red Bridge and turned right and

1 proceeded on Red Bridge to Hickman Mills, and at that time
 2 Hickman Mills cut all the way through, and we proceeded on to
 3 95th Street where we stopped at a stop light. We had our
 4 lights and sirens on, but there were still cars coming
 5 through, and they don't always yield to us, so Al stopped at 6 that intersection.

7 It was at that time that I first knew that
 8 something was happening where 41 Pumper was at. There was a,
 9 I saw a large column of black smoke, just huge. I can't even
 10 describe it. It was so big, and it looked so much different
 11 than anything I'd ever seen, and there were bright-colored
 12 embers in it. And it was just very wide, straight up and 13 down on the sides going up into the air. And I asked Al what 14 could that be, and he didn't know.

15 Q. Could you show -- did you hear an explosion?

16 A. We didn't hear anything.

17 Q. This is Government's Exhibit 1, this map. By the way,
 18 you and I have had an opportunity, we discussed your
 19 testimony?

20 A. Yes, we did.

21 Q. And we went through all of these pictures before you
 22 testified?

23 A. Yes, we did.

24 Q. Could you, with the Court's permission, show the jury,
 25 then, where you were just describing here coming up 71 or

1 Hickman Mills back then at 95th?

2 THE COURT: Swing that around, if you would,
3 please.

4 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Your Honor, is that exhibit
5 into evidence?

6 MR. BECKER: Yes, I believe it is.

7 THE COURT: Push it over to the -

8 MR. OSGOOD: Is that in evidence, Your Honor? I
9 don't believe it is.

10 MR. BECKER: It's No. 1.

11 MR. OSGOOD: I'm going to object to it as not being 12 to scale.

13 MR. BECKER: Fine. I'll use a photograph. That's 14 fine. It is to scale, but -

15 THE COURT: Well, if you can demonstrate it is, do
16 so.

17 MR. BECKER: I'll have another witness for that,
18 Judge, that's fine.

19 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Fireman Torrey, I want to show you
20 Government's Exhibit 53. Can you see that from where you're 21 sitting?

22 A. Yes, I can.

23 Q. And out here at the bottom right corner of this
24 photograph, is that where you were -- tell us, where were 25 you, if this is Bannister Road along the bottom of

1 Government's Exhibit 53?

2 A. We were stopped on Hickman Mills right at Bannister Road
3 waiting for the traffic to clear so we could proceed on,
4 right in there.

5 Q. And where I have my pen, which is in the lower
6 right-hand corner of the photograph, is that roughly where 7 you were?

8 A. I believe Al took the road on the right there, but that 9 goes on up onto 71.

10 Q. The outside road?

11 A. I believe so.

12 Q. When you saw that column of smoke, where did you go
13 after that, what did you do?

14 A. We just proceeded on towards the area that we were 15 dispatched to.

16 Q. Which was the construction site?

17 A. Which was the construction site, yes.

18 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit 5 here. Can you show the 19 jury, please, with the Court's permission, where you went in 20 the early morning hours, then, of November 29, 1988?

21 A. Well, as we were proceeding on down after I saw the 22 column of smoke, Marion Germann came on the radio, and his
23 voice was very shaken, and it just wasn't like him. I knew
24 something terrible had happened. And we pulled up onto this 25 road here, they called it the haul road, because we didn't

1 know exactly where they were at, but we knew that was one of
2 the main entrances into this construction area.

3 As we pulled onto the scene, I told Al not to use
4 his radio since we were on the scene because we heard
5 somewhere that if you're going near a blast site not to use
6 any radios because it may cause an explosion. So we didn't
7 realize exactly what we had, but Chief Germann said there had
8 been an explosion.

9 So we pulled up here, and as we pulled up this haul
10 road and our lights started to shine up the hill, the first
11 thing I saw was Marion Germann coming down the hill
12 staggering back and forth, and he had his bunker pants on,
13 but he didn't have his coat or his helmet on. And as he was 14 coming down the hill, he was waving us back.

15 Q. Were you able to see -- if you would have a seat,
16 please. I want to show you Government's Exhibit 29. Can you
17 see that from where you're sitting?

18 A. Yes, I can.

19 Q. And does that depict, then, do you see the battalion
20 chief's car?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Were you able to see that as you pulled up the haul
23 road, the chief's car?

24 A. Well, initially I saw Chief Germann, and I focused my 25 attention on him. And as I went, I got out of the squad and

1 started up the hill to get him. Then I saw the chief's buggy up on top of the hill.

3 Q. Were the lights on?

4 A. The emergency lights on the top of the car were 5 rotating, and all the lights were on.

6 Q. When you saw Chief Germann walk, I guess, coming down
7 the hill, did you stop?

8 A. Yeah. We stopped momentarily just because it looked so
9 out of character. Anytime we went on any kind of emergency
10 scene with Chief Germann, he always had his full bunker gear
11 on. And he was very, very much a stickler about that. So
12 when we saw him with just his bunker pants on and staggering,
13 we knew something was very wrong.

14 Q. What did you do?

15 A. We stopped for a few seconds, just taking in the scene,
16 maybe five or ten seconds. I told Al, "I'm going to go get 17 him." And so I got out and ran up the hill to where he was 18 at and put my arm around him to support him because he was 19 staggering pretty bad, and the first thing he said was that 20 they were all dead. And I just couldn't believe it. I was 21 trying to assimilate all of this in my mind what could
22 happen, and I thought, well, something terrible has happened,
23 and somebody is hurt and maybe somebody is dead, but they're
24 not all dead. so I took him back down.

25 Q. Where? Where did you take him?

1 A. I took him back down the haul road to where the squad
2 was parked.

3 Q. Okay. What squad?

4 A. Squad, the brush buggy.

5 Q. Now, can you see on Government's 29 here where 71
6 Highway is, I have my pen on in the upper left-hand corner of 7 that photo?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Had your driver gone on back down to that point, or 10 where did you -

11 A. No, sir. He stopped. When we pulled up and started
12 pulling up the haul road and our headlights picked up Chief
13 Germann, then he stopped at that point somewhere off of 71
14 Highway.

15 Q. Where did you go with the chief then?

16 A. I took the chief back down to the brush buggy and set
17 him on the tail board. And when I did that, I was still 18 thinking about what he had just said, that everybody was 19 dead. And it came to my mind to ask him where Deano was.
20 Deano Gentry was his driver at the time.

21 Q. Were you friends with Dean Gentry?

22 A. Yeah, I was friends with Dean Gentry, and we had a lawn
23 service and worked together on our days off.

24 Q. So you asked the chief about Dean Gentry, about Deano?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What did he say?

2 A. He said, "I don't know." He was still very shaken up.

3 And so when he said that' I turned around and started running

4 back up the hill towards the chief's buggy to see if I could

5 find him.

6 Q. Did you find him?

7 A. Yes' I did.

8 Q. I want to show you a photograph which is Government's

9 Exhibit 351. Where -- does that look like the scene then

10 when you ran back up the hill? Actually it's lighted, right'

11 but when you went up the hill it was dark?

12 A. Yes' it was dark out with -- the lights on the car were

13 on and the light from the fire of the trailer that was

14 burning gave some illumination to it.

15 Q. What did you see' what did you do?

16 A. Well' as I was running towards the chief's buggy

17 initially, I thought it was just parked there and there was

18 no damage. I didn't see it first. And then as I got close

19 to the chief's buggy, I saw the damage, that the windshield

20 was gone out of it and that the hood was popped up, the light

21 bar was pushed back some, the chrome was stripped off of it.

22 And as I started seeing these things, I started slowing down

23 because I just couldn't believe I was seeing that.

24 And as I approached the car, I was walking, and I

25 was kind of looking at the car and I was going around to the

1 other side of the car because the chief -

2 Q. I'm sorry, the front or back?

3 A. The front. I went around the front of the car. And as
4 I was going around the front of the car, I knew the reason I
5 did that was the chief's driver usually keeps his bunker gear
6 in the back seat behind him on the driver's side so when we 7 get to a scene usually we open the back door, and if they're
8 going to need us to go in and help, we put on our bunker gear
9 at that time. So that's where I was going to.

10 As I went around the car and as I was walking
11 around the car, the headlights were shining out, they were 12 still on, and I looked down and I saw a hand laying on the 13 ground, and I just, I just couldn't believe that that's what 14 it was. And I stopped and I looked at it and it had, it was 15 a right hand, and it was laying flat on the ground, and it
16 had the little finger and the next finger bent under, and 17 there was smoke coming off of it. And then I went ahead and 18 traveled on around to the other side of the car, and I saw
19 Deano at that time.

20 Q. Where was he?

21 A. He was by the passenger door behind the driver, and he 22 had his bunker pants, which have the boots in them. And we 23 just step in, take our shoes off, step in our boots, and pull
24 our bunker pants up and put our suspenders on. And that's 25 what he was in the process of doing. He was bent over

1 stepping into his bunkers and getting ready to stand up and
2 pull them on.

3 Q. And that would be on the other side of the photograph
4 here. He was near the rear driver's side?

5 A. Towards the back, yes.

6 Q. Can you describe Dean Gentry, was he a big guy, small 7 guy?

8 A. He was a big guy, I would say he was well over 200
9 pounds.

10 Q. How tall?

11 A. He was probably around six feet tall.

12 Q. Please describe his condition when you first saw him, I
13 guess, putting on his pants?

14 A. He was -- first thing I noticed was that he was bleeding
15 on his head, and the first thing I asked him was if he was 16 all right. And he said he thought he was okay. And he kept 17 putting on his bunker gear. And I said, "Come on, Deano, 18 we've got to go."

19 And he said, "We've got to help those guys."

20 And I said, "Deano, we've got to get out of here."

21 And he said, "No, we've got to help them."

22 Q. Did you look back towards the trailers?

23 A. When he was saying that, that's what I did. I turned 24 around and looked. And it was illuminated somewhat from the 25 fire from the trailer that was burning, and I could see 30

1 Pumper, and I saw that all the hose was off of the bed and
2 gone. The doors were all blown back, the compartments were
3 open, the light bar was gone, there were pieces of metal all
4 over, yellow pieces of metal.

5 Q. Did you see Pumper 41?

6 A. No, I didn't. And I told Dean, I said, "We've got to 7 go, we've got to get out of here." And I just held on to him
8 until he finally quit fighting, and we walked down the hill.

9 Q. Where did you go when you went down the hill?

10 A. I took him down to the brush buggy where Marion Germann
11 and Al Donnelly were.

12 Q. Was that now still on the haul road as depicted on 13 Government's 29 here, or was that back down to Hickman Mills?

14 A. No, he hadn't moved the brush buggy. It was still where 15 we stopped when we initially pulled up, so it was on the haul
16 road.

17 Q. Could you tell us -- I have my pen here on Government's 18 29 on what's been described as the haul road. Between 19 Hickman Mills, or 71 Highway, which is in the upper left-hand
20 corner, and the battalion chief's car, which is in the upper,
21 towards the right corner, on the haul road, where was the 22 brush buggy, halfway?

23 A. I would say less, just a little less than halfway, 24 probably.

25 Q. Now, see where this picture of this man is there?

1 A. uh-huh.

2 Q. Is that how far you were, or further up the road?

3 A. Probably a little bit farther than where that man was,

4 but not up to that pile of rocks there.

5 Q. Not as far as the rocks here?

6 A. No. No.

7 Q. Okay. So what happened with Gentry then when you took

8 him back down that far, and the chief, for that matter? What

9 did you do when you got back to the brush buggy?

10 A. Well, about that time I remember 36 Pumper arriving on 11 the scene. They pulled up somewhere behind the brush buggy,

12 and they were getting, they got off the rig and came around

13 and started talking to us. And Ed Taylor was the first one

14 that I remember talking to me. And I was telling him what 15 had happened and what I saw. And we started discussing what

16 had just transpired.

17 Q. So you and Ed -- did you know Ed Taylor from -

18 A. Yes, I knew Ed Taylor.

19 Q. He was the driver of Pumper 36?

20 A. Yes, he was.

21 Q. What did you and Ed Taylor do then?

22 A. We were talking about how we'd seen a show and it talked

23 about how people who were real close to a blast sometimes

24 survived it, and he asked me if I thought there was a chance

25 that anybody could be alive. And I said I didn't see how,

800

1 but if that's true, if there is that chance that they could
2 have been close enough to where they survived that we had to
3 go up and make sure. So him and I decided that that's what
4 we were going to do.

5 Q. Did you tell Chief Germann that's what you were going to
6 do?

7 A. No, I didn't, because from the onset, he was wanting us
8 to stay away, and he didn't want anybody back up there. And 9 so it was something that Ed Taylor and I decided on our own
10 to do.

11 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit 350. Could you describe
12 what you and Ed Taylor then did?

13 A. We started, we walked off the haul road, kind of angled
14 across going towards where the trailer was that was burning.

15 Q. Now, at the bottom of Government's Exhibit 350 here is 16 what appears to be a different colored line, a ridge. Is 17 that what was present on the site?

18 A. Yes, it was.

19 MR. BECKER: With the Court's permission, could the 20 witness come down and show us on Government's Exhibit 350
21 where he and Firefighter Taylor went that morning?

22 THE COURT: Yes, please do.

23 A. We started out from here, and we angled across. And the 24 squad and the 36 Pumper were parked down in this area here
25 still.

1 Q. Indicating in the lower left-hand corner of the
2 photograph?

3 THE COURT: Mr. . Becker, we've got some housekeeping
4 here. I don't think 350 was in your group that was admitted
5 by agreement and stipulation.

6 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, then I would offer it.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we have no objection to it.

8 THE COURT: ALL right. 350 is -

9 MR. BECKER: We'll be using this series.

10 Government would offer 350, 351, 352, 354, and 357.

11 THE COURT: All right. Any objection?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I have no objection, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Assuming, hearing no other objection, 14 then, those exhibits, 350, 351, 352, 354, and 357, are
15 admitted.

16 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge

17 (Government's Exhibits 350, 351, 352, 354, and 357
18 were admitted into evidence.)

19 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Please continue.

20 A. So we continued up to this dirt berm here that was piled 21 up several feet above our head, and we thought if we walked 22 along that, if that other one did happen to blow up, it would
23 at least offer a little bit of protection.

24 Q. How high was that ridge above you, or was it above you?

25 A. Just a few feet, I'm estimating. I just remember it was

1 above our heads.

2 Q. All right. What did you do?

3 A. We proceeded on along just the very bottom of this
4 ridge. And as we did, everywhere we looked, there was, there
5 were pieces of metal that we could recognize that were from 6 the firetrucks, some of it was yellow, some of it was the 7 tread plate aluminum that was used on the running boards and 8 the bumpers and different places on the firetrucks.

9 And we proceeded on across the bottom until we got
10 to this bulldozer. And when we got to this bulldozer, I
11 climbed up on the tracks and then on up onto the hood of the 12 bulldozer. And Ed Taylor was there beside me, and he climbed 13 up, I believe, on the tracks, but didn't climb up on the 14 hood.

15 Q. All right. I'll show you a different photograph now,
16 Government's 354. Does that have the Caterpillar bulldozer
17 that you climbed up on?

18 A. Yes, it does. It's this one right here.

19 Q. In the lower right-hand corner of the photograph. What 20 side of the bulldozer did you and Firefighter Taylor climb up
21 on?

22 A. It was this side that my pen is pointing to.

23 Q. So that would be the side away from -

24 A. Away from the construction site.

25 Q. What could you see?

1 A. We could see the trailer that was fully involved in
2 fire, front and back sides, flames well above the top of it.
3 Smoke coming off of it. I saw 31 Pumper much closer, or 30
4 Pumper much closer, and could see the damage more clearly.

5 Q. Please describe the damage on Pumper 30.

6 A. Windshield was gone out of it, there were no light bars
7 on it. All the equipment that was in the hose bed, the hose,
8 the couplings, everything was gone. The doors were ajar. I
9 believe one was broken. The driver was, or the passenger's
10 side door was kind of broken down and off, and the driver's
11 side door was opened. A lot of the control and different
12 things were gone off the front of it. There were things
13 hanging off the back, twisted metal, different parts that I
14 couldn't even identify. And, you know, once again, the 15 trailer that was on fire illuminated the whole area pretty
16 well, especially that distance that we were from it.

17 Q. Did you see any of the men from the two pumper
18 companies?

19 A. No, I didn't. We didn't see anybody.

20 Q. Did you see Pumper 41?

21 A. That was what made it clear in our minds that nobody
22 could have survived that first blast because Pumper 41 wasn't
23 there.

24 Q. If you would just resume your seat, please.

25 Did you talk to Taylor at that point, then? Did

804

1 you discuss this' what you were seeing?

2 A. Yeah. We both looked over the scene for maybe 30

3 seconds and said there's no way anybody could have survived

4 that.

5 Q. What did you do then?

6 A. Got down off the Caterpillar and went back the same way

7 we came, back down to where the 36 Pumper and the brush buggy

8 were. And at that time there were other firetrucks arriving

9 on the scene, and from that point I knew there wasn't

10 anything I could do there to help anybody.

11 So they had Deano loaded up in the ambulance

12 getting ready to take him to St. Joseph's Hospital, so I told

13 Al Donnelly and someone else that I was going to go to the 14 hospital with Deano and that's where I would be at. So I got 15 in the ambulance with Dean, and they left shortly after that.

16 MR. BECKER: Thank you very much. You have to wait

17 for questions.

18 THE COURT: There may be questions from the

19 defense.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 By Mr. O'Connor:

23 Q. Mr. Torrey, I just have a couple of questions for you,

24 sir. How was it that you were being called to this scene

25 when you were called? Who was summoning you to come to the

1 scene?

2 A. The dispatchers.

3 Q. And you came from 42's -

4 A. Yes, at 6006 Red Bridge.

5 Q. okay. And were you in radio communication while en
6 route with everyone else who was on the radio?

7 A. Yes, we were.

8 Q. Did you hear any communication by Captain Kilventon
9 before the explosion?

10 A. What I recall is him calling for an extra pumper, and 11 then I recall him saying that there were brush fires or fires
12 up in the woods, something to that effect. And I remember
13 getting ready. But on the way there, I don't recall anything
14 being said. I know there was a lot of radio transmission
15 going on, but I don't remember what it was.

16 Q. Were you yourself at that time hazmat trained?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Did you hear any words on the radio that morning before
19 the explosion across the radio like ammonium nitrate, fuel
20 oil, diesel fuel, fertilizer, any of those kind of words
21 being said?

22 A. I don't recall that. I recall them saying that there
23 were explosives on the site, but there always were, and we 24 were familiar with where they were on the site.

25 Q. Now -__

806

1 THE COURT: I'm sorry. You recall who saying there
2 were explosives on the site?

3 THE WITNESS: The dispatchers.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Now, can you see 354?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This is where you climbed up on to look; is that
8 correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Did you see any persons up on the hills, anybody moving
11 up on the hills, any cars moving out of that area at that
12 time?

13 A. No, I didn't.

14 Q. And do you see this, what I'm pointing to here?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. When you were walking up to this area, did that appear,
17 did that red item there appear to be sitting like on a
18 platform?

19 A. I don't recall if it was.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all I have, thank you, sir.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Peters?

23 MR. PETERS: No questions.

24 THE COURT: Miss Hunt?

25 MS. HUNT: No questions, Your Honor.

807

1 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch?

2 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood?

4 MR. OSGOOD: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Redirect?

6 MR. BECKER: Nothing, Judge, thank you.

7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. You're
8 excused.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, we'll take our morning break
10 now. Don't discuss the case while we're in recess. Please
11 be back in the jury room at ten minutes till 11:00. You are 12 excused and may withdraw.

13 (The following proceedings were had in the
14 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

15 THE COURT: We'll be in recess.

16 (A recess was taken from 10:39 a.m. to 11:07 a.m.)

17 THE COURT: Now, did you have something?

18 MR. BECKER: Yes, Your Honor. We have a legal 19 matter we'd like to discuss.

20 THE COURT: Do you have to approach?

21 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
24 proceedings were had:)

25 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, the government is going to

808

1 use in the next three witnesses, primarily with the next
2 witness, offering into evidence Government's Exhibit 260,
3 248, 250, 241, 266, and 257. I say them in that order
4 because that's the way they'll be offered. They are 5 photographs of the victims in this case.

6 Counsel has, as long as this case has been around,
7 informed me they will object to the admission of those
8 photographs on 403 grounds, perhaps other grounds. But I
9 will be offering them, and I think in the interest of 10 speeding things along, if we could have a ruling in advance,
11 that's ripe at this time.

12 There is a stipulation as to authenticity and other
13 foundational matters. We would not -- we would not be using 14 the video system for these photographs. We would be doing it
15 the old-fashioned way, showing it to the witness, ask them if 16 they recognize it, offer it into evidence, ultimately pass it
17 to the jury.

18 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor, have you received -- who 19 is talking to this?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Mr. Peters is going to address this
21 issue, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Have you seen the government's trial
23 memorandum on this?

24 MR. PETERS: Yes, we have, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: I've examined that, and also you can

1 assume that as you address the issue.

2 MR. PETERS: Judge, as you look at the photographs,
3 our position is that they're unusually gruesome. The 4 defendants can stipulate that the explosion is what caused
5 the death of the firefighters. We believe that the 6 prejudicial effect of the photographs in a case where there
7 isn't a dispute as to the death outweighs their probative
8 value.

9 We don't have any additional cases for the Court.
10 It's in the discretion of the Court whether you find that the 11 prejudicial effect outweighs their probative value. And 12 that's our argument.

13 THE COURT: Okay. What is your -- you don't have 14 to repeat what you briefed to me. I guess maybe my, the 15 question I have in my mind is in a case in which the charge
16 is what it is here and the proof is otherwise going to be 17 what you know it's going to be, what difference do these 18 pictures make?

19 MR. BECKER: The elements as read to the jury, I
20 have to show that the blast caused the death of these 21 individuals.

22 THE COURT: Well, that's virtually stipulated,
23 isn't it? I mean, is it?

24 MR. BECKER: It's not stipulated to by the
25 government.

1 THE COURT: It isn't?

2 MR. BECKER: I would point out there is some
3 difference in these photographs. There are two photographs
4 of torsos: The one the Court is now looking at, Government's
5 266, and the first photograph in the series.

6 I understand the Court's reservations. The other
7 photographs of the other four firefighters are not terribly
8 unusual. They're fully clothed, they're fully intact.

9 THE COURT: They're fully dead.

10 MR. BECKER: Absolutely. But that's the -

11 THE COURT: There's no dispute about it that that 12 was caused by this explosion.

13 MR. BECKER: That's the consequences of these 14 defendants, actions. I believe the memorandum I submitted -

15 THE COURT: I think I know the case you're going to 16 cite, two or three cases, that it's kind of a
17 it-goes-with-the-territory sort of argument.

18 MR. BECKER: That's part of it, and if the 19 defendants can make this kind of action, this is what happens
20 this is the horrible, these are the horrible consequences of 21 their actions. And we just need not sanitize the evidence so
22 that we spare the jury of the consequences of these
23 defendants, actions.

24 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, case law clearly -- I
25 think, obviously, it's discretionary. The case law clearly

1 supports that there is no such thing as a gruesome photo,
 2 practically speaking, if it shows some element of the crime,
 3 such as bullet trajectory, a cut throat which would tie in 4 that a knife had been used, any manner of reasons to put that
 5 photo in to establish a disputed element of proof. That
 6 photo comes in, and you're not going to find cases reversed
 7 on that ground.

8 But Your Honor is perfectly correct that the charge
 9 here is arson. Mr. Becker has -

10 THE COURT: And homicide resulting from arson.

11 MR. OSGOOD: But he cited the Ryan case suggesting
 12 that Your Honor was wrong in that instruction and will stand
 13 up here and later make an argument that that element should 14 come out, that that's punishment enhancement. And he's going 15 to argue to the jury that he only has to prove that there was 16 an arson and that these defendants started it.

17 So that's even more reason why these photos are 18 totally irrelevant and obviously prejudicial to the defense.
 19 And certainly they have little or no probative value. Even 20 if the element is in, they have no probative value because 21 they do not tend to prove or disprove anything in the case,
 22 with the exception of, perhaps, the one whose face you could 23 see and say, yes, I recognize the deceased, that is 24 so-and-so, and he's not going to have a witness testify to 25 that, I don't think.

1 MR. BECKER: We're going to have witnesses testify
2 that each of these photographs, they were on the scene in
3 those early morning hours, saw these bodies as they're
4 situated, and recognized them. They're going to say that's 5 Luther Hurd, that's Thomas Fry, that's Mikey Oldham, because
6 I recognize his hair, even though he's blown to a pulp.

7 MR. OSGOOD: One of them was a black firefighter,
8 so obviously he was the only black firefighter. I assume 9 that would be a distinguishing way to recognize him. One of 10 them, his face is visible, so that would be a distinguishing
11 way. But fingerprints were taken, as I recall. You had DNA,
12 you had other ways of proving who they were. You've got, and 13 the medical examiner has established conclusively that 14 they're dead and who they were, and that's not an element in 15 the case that we are disputing.

16 It's just in my mind, there's no probative value to 17 them at this point, and the only reason Mr. Becker wants to 18 show them to the jury, quite frankly, is to arouse their 19 passions. And I don't blame him, as a prosecutor, for trying
20 to do that. But the overwhelming impact on them -

21 The acid test was I showed them to my wife as a lay
22 witness, and her reaction, I'm afraid, is going to be the 23 reaction of most of the women on this jury, and it was one of 24 utter revulsion. And my wife has seen this case file and 25 understands my theory and has helped me on it, and when she

1 saw the photos, it literally affected her dramatically, and
2 hat's going to happen to the jury.

3 THE COURT: I don't understand -- really I don't
4 understand 241. For one thing, I suppose in assessing
5 gruesomeness, 266 is too gruesome and will not be displayed
6 to the jury.

7 MR . OSGOOD: Is that the torso, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. BECKER: That's Captain Kilventon.

10 THE COURT: You can have a witness look at the 11 picture and describe who it is and what the effect on his 12 body, the observable effect on his body was. I just don't 13 want that picture passed.

14 MR. BECKER: We won't offer it, then.

15 THE COURT: I don't understand what 241 is designed 16 to show.

17 MR. BECKER: That's Captain Halloran. That's the 18 location of the body between two particular pieces of 19 equipment that are located near the trailer. We have, that 20 body is identified by -

21 THE COURT: It's not particularly gruesome, it just 22 doesn't seem to me to demonstrate too much.

23 MR. BECKER: There will be a witness who identifies 24 who that is because he knows that captains wear light blue
25 shirts.

1 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to sustain the 2 objection to 260 and 266 to the extent that -- well, they'll
3 be admitted for the record, and they may be described by the 4 witness if you want to proceed that way, but they're not to 5 be distributed to the jury.

6 The others I think can be fairly accurately
7 characterized as pictures of bodies without too much graphic
8 detail to be offensive or inflammatory. And to the extent
9 that they are inflammatory, I guess I would join the, I think
10 it's the Seventh Circuit. Yeah, the Seventh Circuit in 11 United States v. York in which cert. was denied in 1991 in 12 which the language is used, "The prejudice which inures from 13 the fact," that is, the pictures, "is the natural by-product
14 of the act, and there's nothing unfairly prejudicial about 15 putting that fact before the jury."

16 So I will admit 241, 248, 250, and 257, and they
17 can be distributed to the jury.

18 MR. BECKER: Judge, I would alert the Court that 19 should any members of the news media request these 20 photographs, I'm going to direct them to the Court. I'm not 21 going to release these photographs unless I'm told to do so
22 by the Court. I did research on the issue in other matters,
23 but certainly I'm prepared to have someone in my office
24 interpose an objection to that.

25 THE COURT: There's scary features of that. We

1 tell them not to look at the pictures and then -

2 MR. BECKER: That's why I would -- frankly, if we
3 could use these photographs, 260 and 266, for descriptive
4 purposes but not offer them.

5 THE COURT: That's right. If you don't offer them,
6 they won't be in the record but they can be used by the 7 witnesses to describe -- that's what they accomplish for you
8 is to describe what condition the bodies were in, anyway.

9 MR. BECKER: Right. And for appellate purposes,
10 they have been identified and will be available.

11 THE COURT: All right. Be sure they're marked.

12 MR. BECKER: They're all marked on the back side
13 with stickers. And again, for the record, I have literally
14 hundreds of these photographs, and I have attempted to 15 minimize the number. We have a series of morgue photos of 16 each body that are way beyond anything that is depicted in 17 these photographs.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, just for a final record, we 20 were and are willing to stipulate to the cause of death and 21 to what happened to these men, if that would have any effect
22 on the Court's ruling, which I believe it would not, but we 23 are willing and would be willing to do this.

24 And as I said in the voir dire, I think that these 25 pictures, these kind of pictures can cause people, could

816

1 cause someone to be convicted just because of the pictures
2 alone, and I think that this case should be decided by this
3 jury on these facts.

4 The Court has gone that way with the rulings to 5 this point, just cut to the chase and get to the evidence of 6 what's there. All these pictures do at this point is they're 7 just going to raise the passion of this jury, and maybe
8 they'll overlook the facts and circumstances because of these
9 photographs.

10 I accept the Court's ruling, but I want that 11 objection, the Court to consider that in my objection. And 12 then assuming I'm still overruled, we'd like to have a
13 continuing objection so we do not object -

14 THE COURT: That's agreeable.

15 MR. OSGOOD: The ruling applies to all the 16 defendants, Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes, of course. And I assure you that 18 these pictures will not be considered by the Court in making
19 any judgment it has to make on any motion that has come
20 before it at various stages in the proceedings. Because 21 although I see their relevance in the goes-with-the-territory
22 kind of theory, I really don't see that they're necessary to 23 prove any of the essential elements of the case. Okay.

24 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

25 THE COURT: All right. Give us the four numbers

1 that we're going to use now, Mr. Becker, that Miss Geller
2 didn't get that written down.

3 MR. MILLER: Here they are: 241, 248, 250, and 257
4 Tare in; 260 and 266 are only to describe, the witness to 5 describe and not to be admitted.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the jury.

7 (The following proceedings were had in the
8 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

9 THE COURT: It turns out that we had some fairly
10 complicated work to do, and it took longer than I wanted it
11 to, but we appreciate your patience, and now we're ready to 12 get underway.

13 All right. Call your next witness, Mr. Becker.

14 MR. MILLER: Thank you, Your Honor. The government
15 calls Mr. Bill Booth.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Booth, if you would come forward
17 and stand by the witness chair and be sworn.

1 BILL BOOTH,
2 being first duly sworn by Kathy Geller, Law Clerk, testified
3 as follows:
4 MR. MILLER: May it please the Court.
5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
6 DIRECT EXAMINATION
7
8 By Mr. Miller:
9 Q. Would you tell us your name, please?
10 A. I'm Billy D. Booth.
11 THE COURT: Bill D.?
12 THE WITNESS: Yes.
13 Q. Are you currently employed?
14 A. No, I'm retired.
15 Q. What are you retired from?
16 A. Kansas City, Missouri, Fire Department.
17 Q. And how long were you a fireman?
18 A. Thirty-three and a half years.
19 Q. And what rank did you retire at?
20 A. Deputy chief.
21 Q. When did you retire?
22 A. August of ,93.
23 Q. What was your rank back in November of 1988?
24 A. Deputy chief.
25 Q. Now, were you working November the 28th, 1988, and into

1 November the 29th of 1988?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Out of what station?

4 A. Ninth and Paseo, the field headquarters.

5 Q. Now, before the explosion down at 87th and 71 Highway,
6 where had you been?

7 A. Well, we -- let's see, we'd been to two alarms previous
8 to that. One was out on Prospect. I've kind of forgotten,
9 it seems like to me it was sixty something and Prospect, a
10 second alarm out there, and we were just completing a second
11 alarm at Twelfth and Woodland at the time of the explosion.

12 Q. Okay. You say at the time of the explosion. How did
13 you know there had been an explosion?

14 A. We could hear it at that location, or what we thought
15 was an explosion. It was a loud, pretty loud -

16 THE COURT: At which location, Chief?

17 THE WITNESS: Twelfth and Woodland, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: At the Twelfth and Woodland location?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

21 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) After you heard or felt the blast,
22 what did you do?

23 A. Well, we, you know, we were all speculating as to what
24 that was. You know, we were there sort of winding up. This 25 fire was pretty well put out, and we were starting to pick

1 up, and we were speculating as to -- those of us in the fire
2 service, when you hear a loud noise, you start speculating
3 about what it was, you know. So that's primarily what we
4 were doing before we started hearing alarms given.

5 Q. okay. After you started hearing alarms given, what were 6 you told to do?

7 A. Well, we decided on our own, I think, to respond out
8 there. And we had been in contact, I had been in contact
9 with the fire dispatcher, as I recall, seeing, trying to get
10 information, you know, as to what, you know, had exploded.

11 And I'm not, I'm not quite sure whether they -
12 they usually dispatch the deputy chief to alarms of an 13 unusual nature or second alarms or greater. And I'm not
14 quite sure whether I had just responded on my own. I think I
15 may have, and then -- but I was in contact with them before
16 we took off to go out there.

17 Q. What was your number back then?

18 A. 101.

19 Q. And when you decided to respond on your own, where did
20 you go?

21 A. Well, we went out 435. That was about the quickest way
22 to get out there, we felt like, to -- we got off on 87th
23 Street, and then to cut on over to 71 Highway.

24 Q. Now, when you arrived there, you described 87th and 71
25 Highway. At that location, where did you go?

1 A. Well, we wound around, and we were trying to find,
2 trying to find the companies, any companies that were there
3 and, in particular, the battalion chief. We had heard
4 conversations on the radio on the way out there. You know,
5 we could hear conversations going on and attempts to reach
6 the companies that had been sent in there.

7 So my first concern when I, when I got there or at 8 any other scene was to contact the officer in charge and get 9 a briefing on, you know, what was going on. So that's what
10 we were trying to do is find Chief Germann.

11 Q. Did you find Chief Germann?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Tell the jury where you found him.

14 A. As I recall, we'd parked down at 71, and we were walking
15 up to the hill, a short hill up to where, you know, we could 16 see the buggy. And if I remember right, I met Chief Germann
17 about halfway between the roadway and up to where his buggy
18 was.

19 THE COURT: The buggy was the chief's car?

20 THE WITNESS: The buggy -- yes, sir, the chief's
21 car.

22 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Show you Government's Exhibit No. 5.

23 MR. MILLER: May he step down, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Surely.

25 Q. Watch out for the water. Now, I want to spin this

1 microphone around for you. And keep your voice up. And if
2 you could show the jury where it was after you -- first of
3 all, where you went and then where you met Chief Germann.

4 A. Okay. We -- let's see, we had come in on 87th Street
5 here, and we made a right-hand turn at this point here. And
6 we stopped about here, as I recall, and we could see Chief
7 Germann's buggy up, we could see some activity up here. And
8 so we started walking up in that direction to meet Chief
9 Germann.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir. If you could have a seat again.
11 And could you spin the microphone back around.

12 Now, you used the term buggy. What do you mean by 13 buggy?

14 A. That's a term we just use for chief's car. It comes 15 from the old days when we used to have horses dragging them
16 around.

17 Q. And how long had you known Chief Germann?

18 A. Oh, several years. He and I had probably been on the 19 job, I believe I had come on just a little earlier than him,
20 but we were contemporaries, we'd known each other for several
21 years.

22 Q. When you met him on that road, what condition did you
23 observe him to be in?

24 A. Well, he was definitely not himself. You know, he 25 was -- I could tell that he was pretty well shook up, and he

1 seemed to be in a state of shock. He just didn't seem
2 right. He seemed a little incoherent, and I was trying to
3 determine if he was hurt. I asked him, you know, Marion, are 4 you okay? Are you hurt? Or what's wrong, you know. And we
5 hadn't gotten clear up to the buggy at that time, so -- but I
6 could tell that he was really pretty shook up.

7 Q. Now, did you yourself immediately go to the scene of the
8 explosion?

9 A. No. No, we didn't. We determined that -- after talking
10 with him and, you know, he told me, he said -- I said, "What 11 happened" or, you know, words to that effect.

12 And he said, oh, my God, he said there had been a
13 terrible explosion. He said, he said, "I don't know whether 14 they're all dead or not." And he said, "There's a hand
15 laying in front of the buggy."

16 And I thought to myself, I don't know how in the 17 world -- I thought he had kind of lost it a little bit, you
18 know. I didn't know for sure what he -- I didn't know for 19 sure what he was talking about, you know.

20 Q. In between the first and the second explosion, where did
21 you go?

22 A. Well, we took, we turned, then -- you know, we didn't 23 know for sure what was left up there. And we had been, or he 24 said there's supposed to be some more explosives in there.
25 So we decided we'd better, you know, move everybody and get

1 them out of there for safety's sake.

2 So I asked him, I said, "Well, where would be a
3 good place to put our companies, Marion?" You know, he knew
4 the area quite a bit better.

5 And he said, "Well, we can go down toward
6 Bannister. We can line them up down there."

7 So at that time we decided to pull everybody out
8 and move all the companies clear back to Bannister Road and 9 get them out of the area until we determine, you know, get a
10 better idea of what was going on and what was left in there.

11 Q. Now, did you know which pumpers were at the scene?

12 A. Yes, yes. No. 41's and No. 30's. We keep pretty close
13 track of our people when they dispatch them. So we didn't 14 have any doubt about who was in there.

15 Q. Did you know who was on Pumper 30?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Who?

18 A. Captain Halloran and Fry and Gene Hurd, who had been 19 detailed out there that morning. He was, he was sort of a,
20 well, an extra man -

21 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, can we approach the bench
22 for a moment?

23 THE COURT: Yeah.

24 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
25 proceedings were had:)

1 MR. OSGOOD: There's a lot of narrative going on.

2 THE COURT: A lot of what?

3 MR. OSGOOD: A lot of narrative testimony. He asks

4 a question, and then he answers that question and gives

5 several other answers. I would ask that the prosecutor ask

6 him questions and elicit a response. Now he's getting into

7 areas that I'm afraid he's going to start making long

8 narrative statements about, and I want specific questions

9 because we're going to be into these photos, and I would ask

10 the prosecutor ask him questions and get a response.

11 THE COURT: And get to -- if there is testimony

12 from this witness that isn't repetitive or cumulative, let's

13 get to it, because honestly I've said this before and I'm

14 going to start acting on it, I guess. But I don't know

15 really what all of this has to do with -- either these guys

16 did it or didn't. We know it was done, we know the 17 firefighters are gone. Now let's get to whether these folks

18 did it.

19 MR. BECKER: I just wanted to alert the Court, we

20 have basically the remainder of today with crime scene

21 witnesses, and then an expert that talks about ammonium

22 nitrate/fuel oil, and then thereafter we'll have two weeks of 23 who dunit. Now we're just trying to get this part of the 24 trial done.

25 THE COURT: All right. Now, you say an expert on 826

1 ammoniumnitrate/fuel oil?

2 MR. BECKER: He's an expert in explosives.

3 THE COURT: Why?

4 MR. BECKER: Because one of the first questions I
5 had when I took this case over five years ago is why did that 6 trailer blow up. You know, why? Why, you know, when it's 7 set on fire did it explode?

8 THE COURT: Well, but is there any question?

9 MR. OSGOOD: We want that witness. That's an issue
10 in the case.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

13 Q. (ByMr. Miller:) And then if you could just tell us the 14 names of who you knew on Pumper 41.

15 A. Okay. Captain Kilventon, and McKarnin was the driver,
16 and Oldhamwas the firefighter.

17 Q. Now,did you go -- I'm sorry.

18 A. Mike Oldham.

19 Q. Okay. Did you go down to the blast?

20 THE COURT: Excuse me. I'm sorry, but I was 21 distracted. Kilventon?

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir, Your Honor, he was captain.

23 THE COURT: And then?

24 THE WITNESS: Bob McKarnin was the driver.

25 THE COURT: McKarnin?

1 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And Oldham?

3 THE WITNESS: Oldham.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Excuse me, counsel.

5 Go ahead.

6 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Now, when did you go to the blast
7 site?

8 A. When did we go the first time, you mean?

9 Q. Okay. How many times did you go down to the blast site?

10 A. Well, we went down the first time, this was about
11 roughly, this was after we'd gone back, and Chief Grote -
12 and there had been an aerial reconnaissance in a helicopter
13 and they couldn't really determine too much from that, and
14 then -

15 MR. OSGOOD: Objection, Your Honor, it's not 16 responsive to the question. He asked him when he went back,
17 how many times.

18 THE COURT: When did you go down to the site?

19 A. It was about 40 minutes after we'd got there.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And you went, you went down there
21 after the second explosion?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you went down there twice after the second
24 explosion?

25 A. Yes.

1 IQ And then who did you go down there with the first time?

2 A. Me and Logan Grote. He was battalion chief at 106.

3 Q. And then who did you go down there with the second time?

4 A. Well, Chief Grote and myself, we went in with several

5 police officers to show them what we had found earlier.

6 Q. Okay. Now, the first time you went with Chief Grote,

7 was it dark still?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I want to show you some pictures.

10 THE COURT: These are pictures other than the ones

11 that we were looking at?

12 MR. MILLER: Yes, these have already been

13 stipulated to, Your Honor.

14 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Chief, I'm showing you Government's

15 Exhibit No. 216. Can you see it well enough from there?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Could you tell us what that shows?

18 A. Well, this is part of the debris from the machinery, and

19 we learned later that this was what was left of Pumper 41

20 here. There was still some fire burning where the wheels had 21 been, tires.

22 Q. Now, is that what it showed like when you went down

23 there?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And is that about how the lighting was when you went

1 down?

2 A. It was a lot darker than that when we went down the
3 first time.

4 Q. Okay. So this is indicative of the second time?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Now, I want to show you Government's Exhibit No.
7 225. What does this show?

8 A. Okay. I believe this is looking back toward the east
9 from the berm over the top of Pumper 30, if you can see right
10 there to the left of that machinery. And this must be 11 standing up, pretty much up on the berm.

12 Q. And that's how it looked that morning to you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Again, No. 226. What do you see in here?

15 A. Okay. This looks like it's, it's looking generally
16 toward the, would be the northwest back toward, over some 17 machinery that was there, construction machinery, looking
18 back toward Pumper 30.

19 Q. Looking back towards Pumper 30?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Is this where my pen cap is, is that -

22 A. No, that's some construction machinery. I think there 23 was a truck there or part of a drill apparatus, as near as we 24 can figure out.

25 Q. Where would Pumper 30 be?

830

1 A. It was on over, on over that drill, yes, back behind
2 there. I think I can see part of it.

3 Q. What does 227 show you?

4 A. See, this looks like it's generally looking from the,
5 back toward the east too, I can't -- I see the drill and it
6 looks like maybe the sun is coming up. So that's looking
7 back toward the east.

8 Q. That's how it looked that morning to you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And 228?

11 A. Okay. This is out from the road about where the chief's
12 buggy was, as near as I can tell, looking back toward the 13 explosion site.

14 Q. And as you went through here, did you start to see some 15 of the firemen?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did you see any of the firemen that you knew on sight?

18 A. Well, not at first. We were finding, we were finding 19 body parts going down, going down the road.

20 Q. Did you eventually see some of the firemen that you knew
21 on sight?

22 A. Yes. We found, we found five of the six. It was kind
23 of a process of elimination as to how we more or less
24 determined who they were. And some of them were, you know,
25 recognizable.

1 Q. okay. To clarify for you, I'm going to stick to the 2 firemen that you knew when you saw them.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. Well, I'll show you a photograph. Could you tell us
5 what Government's Exhibit 222 shows?

6 THE COURT: Excuse me just a minute' Chief. I
7 think it's just a clerical matter, but I'm afraid we're 8 dealing with some exhibits that have not formally been
9 admitted.

10 MR. BECKER: Judge, they should be in through 229.
11 I thought we were through 229.

12 THE COURT: It was through 229. Okay.

13 (Court and Law Clerk conferred off the record.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

15 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Chief, on this exhibit down in the 16 front where my pen cap is, who is underneath that tarp that 17 you found?

18 MR. OSGOOD: Objection.

19 A. This is, as near as I can tell -

20 THE COURT: Just a minute, Chief, there seems to be 21 a growing objection over there in the corner.

22 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
23 proceedings were had:)

24 MR. OSGOOD: This is a pattern of questions that he 25 is asking. He says who is underneath that tarp. There's

1 been no testimony that somebody was underneath it.

2 THE COURT: Why are we arguing about things like
3 this?

4 MR. OSGOOD: Because I want him to ask proper
5 questions because he's going to get into these very 6 prejudicial pictures, and we'll have the same pattern of
7 questions.

8 THE COURT: Overruled.

9 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

10 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) You can answer the question, Chief.
11 Who was under the tarp that you knew?

12 A. As near as I can tell there, that was Captain Halloran,
13 where Captain Halloran's body was.

14 Q. And you knew him when you saw him?

15 A. Yes. We had seen him earlier before the tarp was put on 16 him. We identified him -

17 Q. Excuse me, Chief, I have to ask you a question before
18 you go on. And I'm referring now to Government's Exhibit
19 224. Who was under this tarp?

20 A. This was Captain Halloran's body.

21 Q. And that's how you found it?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Chief, I want to show you Government's Exhibit No. 208.
24 Can you see that well enough from where you're at?

25 A. Could you bring it up a little closer here?

1 Q. I'll start in there and then back out.

2 A. That was McKarnin's body.

3 Q. And over here where my pen cap is?

4 A. That was Gene Hurd.

5 Q. And that's where you found them that morning?

6 A. Yes, I -

7 Q. I'll have to ask you a question, Chief, I'm sorry.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. I'm going to show you Government's Exhibit No. 248.

10 This is in evidence. This is Government's Exhibit No. 248

11 I'm showing to you. And who is in that picture?

12 A. This is Gene Hurd's body.

13 THE COURT: That's H-U-R-D?

14 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

15 Q. And, again, Government's Exhibit No. 250?

16 A. Yes, this is Gene Hurd's body looking from the front.

17 Q. Government's Exhibit 248 and 250, is that how you found
18 Mr. Hurd's body?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. This is Government's Exhibit 260. And who do you
21 recognize in that picture?

22 . That was Mike Oldham's body.

23 Q. And how do you recognize his body?

24 . Well, we -

25 . Just how do you recognize?

1 A. He had blond hair.

2 Q. All right.

3 THE COURT: What was that last number, please?

4 MR. MILLER: 260, Your Honor, but it's not in
5 evidence.

6 THE COURT: You identified that as whose body?

7 THE WITNESS: Oldham's.

8 THE COURT: Oldham?

9 THE WITNESS: Mike Oldham, yes, sir.

10 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And then I want to show you
11 Government's Exhibit No. 241. And who is that?

12 A. That was Captain Halloran.

13 Q. And how did you know that was Captain Halloran?

14 A. We could tell he had a light blue shirt on, which was a
15 captain's uniform' and also we had seen his hands earlier'
16 and it was obviously the hands of an older man.

17 MR. MILLER: Your Honor' at this time I offer
18 Government's Exhibit 241' 250, and 248 into evidence.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Other than the previous objections
20 that we've raised, Judge, we have no objection at this time.

21 THE COURT: All right, then, we've made rulings as 22 to those objections, and 241, 250, and 248 are admitted.

23 (Government's Exhibits 241, 248, and 250 were 24 admitted into evidence.)

25 MR. MILLER: okay. Your Honor, I ask for

1 permission to pass these to the jury.

2 THE COURT: You may do that.

3 (So done.)

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we don't have any questions
5 of the witness.

6 THE COURT: I'm not sure he's through with him.
7 But maybe just to do this most efficiently, you all on the 8 jury, pass all the way down to the first alternate there and 9 then go back and back down the second row, please.

10 All right. Are you finished?

11 MR. MILLER: I just have one last question.

12 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) While you were there, did you move
13 anything around?

14 A. The only thing I remember doing is I brushed a little 15 dirt off of Gene's face. That's all I touched.

16 MR. MILLER: That's all I have, Judge.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions, Judge.

19 THE COURT: ALL right. Chief, thank you. ALL
20 right. There being no, nothing further on this matter, I
21 think we'll break now, Mr. Becker, and take our lunch break.

22 Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to break for 23 lunch now. We're going to break for lunch now, and I'll ask
24 you to be back in the jury room at 1:30.

25 Don't talk about the case among yourselves or to

836

1 anyone else or let anyone talk about it in your presence.

2 You are excused, and have a good lunch.

3 (The following proceedings were had in the
4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

5 THE COURT: We'll be in recess.

6 (A recess was taken from 11:59 a.m. to 1:37 p.m.)

7 THE COURT: Counsel, can you all come up for a
8 minute?

9 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
10 proceedings were had:)

11 THE COURT: I have your admission by silence trial
12 memorandum. What I don't understand is to what avail -- I
13 mean, isn't this pretty much argument?

14 MR. BECKER: At the end of the case, I intend it to 15 be, there's going to be a proposed instruction on it.

16 THE COURT: I understand that. Okay. It's not 17 anything that will have any effect on what comes in or how it
18 comes in, it's going to come in only as the admission of one
19 of the defendants?

20 MR. BECKER: The who, what, when, where, who else
21 was there will be part and parcel of the evidence.

22 THE COURT: You all have this, don't you?

23 MR. OSGOOD: That's the silence?

24 MR. BECKER: Yes.

25 MR. OSGOOD: I think you have to lay a pretty good

1 foundation on it.

2 THE COURT: I wanted to make sure it was clear in
3 my mind what he proposed to do with it, that's all. We're
4 not going to argue it now. Okay.

5 (The following proceedings were had in open court
6 in the presence of the jury:)

7 THE COURT: You may proceed, counsel.

8 MR . BECKER: Thank you, Judge. The United States
9 calls Logan Grote.

10 THE COURT: Come up and stand by the witness chair
11 and be sworn, please, sir.

12 LOGAN GROTE,
13 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,
14 testified as follows:

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, can we approach a minute,
16 please?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
19 proceedings were had:)

20 MR. O'CONNOR: The witness has his police badge on 21 which has a black band over it. I just think that's highly 22 prejudicial. I don't think anyone should be wearing any kind
23 of insignia or pins.

24 I understand that this is loss of firefighters, but

838

1 this is eight years ago. But I think the pin is very
2 prejudicial to our clients. I don't think anybody should be
3 wearing anything on their clothing.

4 THE COURT: What subtle way do you suggest I deal
5 with that problem?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand the practicality of
7 it.

8 THE COURT: I think future witnesses should be told
9 that -- I mean, I have myself had one picture pin taken off
10 of a spectator who was wandering around the halls with a
11 picture of one of the decedents and, you know, it was an 12 appropriate thing for her to do except when the jurors are 13 wandering around the halls. And this is kind of the same
14 thing. Let's just don't talk about it, and then your other
15 people shouldn't have it.

16 MR. BECKER: I hadn't noticed it, but I'll address
17 that in the future.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION

22 By Mr. Becker:

23 . Good afternoon.

24 . Good afternoon.

25 . All right. Could you pull that toward you there?

- 1 A. Is that better?
- 2 Q. Much better. Please state your name and spell your last
3 name.
- 4 A. My name is Logan Grote, G-R-O-T-E.
- 5 Q. How old are you?
- 6 A. Fifty-four.
- 7 Q. What do you do for a living?
- 8 A. Battalion Chief of Kansas City Fire Department.
- 9 Q. How long have you been employed by Kansas City,
10 Missouri, Fire Department?
- 11 A. Thirty-one years.
- 12 Q. You said you're a battalion chief?
- 13 A. Yes, sir.
- 14 Q. Briefly, what are your duties as a battalion chief?
- 15 A. We have a district. We have like eight companies that 16 are under our command. We run certain districts of the 17 city. It's cut up into seven districts.
- 18 Q. What's your district?
- 19 A. 106.
- 20 Q. Where is that?
- 21 A. That's located on the Plaza.
- 22 THE COURT: On Main Street?
- 23 THE WITNESS: 50th and Main.
- 24 THE COURT: 50th and Main?
- 25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Since 1988, have you had training in
2 the dealings, or dealing with fires and other emergencies
3 with hazardous materials?

4 A. After 1988, the explosion, they started a hazmat team
5 and -

6 Q. What was your role with that?

7 A. I become the first battalion chief of hazmat. They got
8 a full complement of men. They got equipment. They passed a
9 cigarette tax to pay for all of this in the city, and all of 10 the training went with it for the people.

11 Q. And you were the, were you the first chief of that unit,
12 then?

13 A. Yes, I was.

14 Q. How long did you have that position?

15 A. I held it one year.

16 Q. Going back to November 88, 1988, were you working that 17 day into the next day?

18 THE COURT: I'm sorry, maybe we'd better be clear.

19 You said November 88, 1988, I don't think you meant that.

20 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) That's a tough day. November 28th,
21 1988. Were you working that day?

22 A. Yes, I was. I was 106, B shift that day.

23 Q. Same battalion?

24 A. Same battalion where I work now.

25 Q. What does B shift mean?

1 A. There's three shifts, A B. and C. You work 24-hour
2 shifts. The next crew that comes on C shift would relieve us
3 for 24 hours and on and on.

4 Q. Is the normal rotation 24 on, 48 off?

5 I A. Yes, sir.

6 IQ What hours did you work, then, November 28 into November
7 1 29, 1988?

8 A. We come on at 7 o'clock in the morning on the 28th and 9 was supposed to leave at 7 o'clock in the morning on the 10 1 29th.

11 Q. After midnight, that is, into the early morning hours of 12 November 29, were you out responding to any fires?

13 A. Somewhere around midnight -- again, it's been a long
14 time -- we had a second alarm out south. 79th and Troost, I
15 ~ believe. So we were out for probably an hour and a half, two 16 hours on that fire.

17 Q. After that, where did you go?

18 A. Back to the engine house on the Plaza. And probably 19 about 3:30, another second alarm was at Twelfth and Woodland
20 downtown.

21 Q. Did you go out to that?

22 A. Everybody was up. No, we didn't respond to it. I
23 didn't respond to it, but a good part of the inner city
24 companies did respond.

25 ~ Q. Was that in your district, or would that be -

842

1 A. No, that would be, that would be downtown district.

2 Q. At approximately 4:08 a.m. on November 29, 1988, where
3 were you?

4 A. I was at Station 32 on the Plaza at 50th and Main.

5 Q. Did you hear the explosion that occurred?

6 A. The rumble from the shock wave. You could feel it. It
7 was making noise. It was enough that you thought probably
8 something happened right there on the Plaza.

9 Q. What did you do?

10 A. Come out of the, come out of my office. My aid met me
11 on the floor. I asked him, I said, you know, "What do you
12 think, what do you think has happened?"

13 He said, "It's probably something to do out
14 south." So we got in the car and started responding out
15 south.

16 Q. What roads did you take to get from your firehouse on 17 the Plaza down to the 71 Highway construction site?

18 A. We took Brookside to Meyer Boulevard down to Troost, out
19 to 85th, and across over to 71.

20 Q. I want to show you what's been identified as
21 Government's Exhibit 1.

22 THE COURT: Chief, when you started from the 23 station house, at that time did you know that the trouble was 24 out on 71 Highway?

25 THE WITNESS: We wasn't for sure when we left the

1 house, but we knew something had happened bad and somewhere,
2 you know, within the city. It just made such a shock wave
3 and everything that there was no mistaking, something had
4 happened.

5 THE COURT: As you drove, then, did you pick up the 6 site, the location of the site on the way in?

7 THE WITNESS: We got that information from the 8 dispatcher on the way. And we told them that we were 9 responding to that location out south on 71 Highway.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

11 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Chief, I'd like you to look at 12 Government's Exhibit 1. Have you previously looked at this

13 map which is depicted on what's identified as Government's
14 Exhibit 1?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Does it fairly and accurately represent the streets in 17 the area that you took down to the site on November 29, 1988?

18 A. Yes, it does.

19 MR. BECKER: I would offer it into evidence as
20 Government's Exhibit 1.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Which one is that, Paul?

22 MR. BECKER: The map.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Does that have the names on it?

24 MR. BECKER: Yeah, it does.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we're not going to have any

1 objection to this eventually, but you're not going to talk to
2 him about any of the clients' names that are on there; is
3 that right?

4 MR. BECKER: I'm just going to ask him how he got
5 down to the site.

6 MR . O'CONNOR: Judge' we would object at this
7 time. I think the other one clearly shows, the other big 8 picture clearly shows how they got to the site, and this has
9 names on it that haven't been addressed before the jury. I
10 think it's confusing at this point. Can you get it with the 11 other map?

12 THE COURT: It's true' there has not been a formal
13 foundation for that. On the other hand' it seems to me that 14 you and your clients can all look at that' and if it is' in 15 fact' inaccurate' then it won't come in. If it's accurate'
16 why go jump through all the hoops just to prove something
17 formalistically.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: We have no objection at this time'
19 then' Judge' overall.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 MR. BECKER: In evidence?

22 THE COURT: He didn't have any objection' so No. 1
23 is admitted.

24 (Government's Exhibit 1 was admitted into
25 evidence.)

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) You briefly described -- could you
2 show the jury, then, how, if you could step down, please.

3 THE COURT: And I believe we have a mike, don't we,
4 now, that can be, just lift out, Chief.

5 A. This being Troost, we come down Troost. And these 6 streets are not numbered, so I can't really tell you which
7 one. We come over to 85th Street and come across 85th Street
8 up to, and I presume this is the road that went up the hill
9 to the site, where the construction site is.

10 Q. So you came across to where, 85th to where the QuikTrip
11 is listed there, and then down 71 Highway; is that right?

12 A. Yeah. And this is actually two-lane traffic north and 13 south, so we turned right into the median there. We didn't 14 go ahead and cross 71 or go up the hill. We stayed right
15 here in front.

16 Q. Have a seat up here, please.

17 When you got to the construction site, did you see
18 any fire at that time?

19 A. When we pulled in between the highways, there in that 20 short distance to our right as we took a left turn, there was 21 a pickup sitting there that the first responding company had 22 responded to that pickup fire.

23 Q. Was that still on fire when you -

24 A. It was smoldering somewhat, but the fire was out.

25 Q. Where did you go then?

1 A. We were parked there. I got out of the car and couldn't
2 have been out of the car more than a couple of minutes, and
3 someone brought a man up, that they introduced him as a
4 person that worked on the construction site with explosives.

5 Q. I'm going to show you Government's 26 on the TV screen
6 there. Can you see that from where you're sitting?

7 A. Well, I can see that one better.

8 Q. Which one?

9 A. Do you want me to get up here?

10 Q. No, if you could look out here.

11 A. Yeah, I can see that.

12 Q. I'm pointing now on the left of Government's 26. You
13 have the southbound 71 Highway and the northbound 71 Highway
14 with the dirt road across the median.

15 A. We were parked in that dirt road in the median there.

16 Q. What -- so you met with somebody from the -- you're 17 standing there in that dirt road in the median. What do you
18 see -- what, if anything, do you see in this area up on the
19 construction site?

20 A. There's a fire burning up on the hill.

21 Q. I'll show you what's been identified, marked for 22 identification purposes as Government's 378. Do you
23 recognize that?

24 A. Yeah. That's pretty much the way it looked. It was 25 real, real bright. I mean, you know, almost white hot. And

1 that's very close.

2 MR. BECKER: I'd offer that into evidence as, that
3 photograph as Government's Exhibit 378.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Admitted.

6 Government's Exhibit 378 was admitted into
7 evidence.)

8 THE COURT: Chief, you went out there in an
9 automobile, right?

10 THE WITNESS: That's correct, sir.

11 THE COURT: You didn't take the fire wagon out
12 I there?

13 THE WITNESS: No, we went out in what we call a
14 buggy.

15 THE COURT: The chief's car?

16 THE WITNESS: The chief's car, yeah.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 IQ (By Mr. Becker:) From where you were down in that 19 I median strip, then, were you able to see what was on fire up
20 on the hill?

21 A. The fire was so intense, pretty much like what's on the 22 screen there, you couldn't really tell what was burning from 23 down there on the highway.

24 Q What was your plan of action? Who did you talk to 25 ~ besides the construction fellow?

1 A. Actually, I didn't get a chance to talk to anyone else
2 right at the time. We was trying to, I was trying to get him
3 to tell us or tell me what was on the hill, what had been
4 there, what was left, if anything, you know, to try to get a
5 layout of it.

6 Q. Did he tell you if there were any other explosives -
7 and now I'm putting back up Government's 26 -- any other
8 explosives located on that hillside of the construction site?

9 A. He said originally there was two trailers. And I don't
10 recall at this time whether he knew one or both had 11 exploded. I don't know that he knew.

12 Q. What about, did he talk to you about other explosives
13 stored on the site?

14 A. Yes, he did. He said there was a bunker where the 15 dynamite and the caps were stored.

16 Q. What did you do next?

17 A. Well, the deputy, the shift deputy had run the fire
18 about the same time I did. He cleared the fire down at 19 Twelfth and Woodland and started responding, and he come down
20 87th Street. He met with Chief Germann up on the berm, there
21 behind the berm, and they decided to change the command post
22 and move it back up 71 Highway.

23 Q. The deputy, what was his name?

24 A. Bill Booth.

25 Q. So he's the gentleman that just testified before lunch?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. What did you do then?

3 A. Well, we were still talking -- when he was clearing the 4 rest of the companies and personnel and changing the command
5 post, I was still talking to this gentleman that worked the 6 construction site, trying to get a drawing, a layout on the 7 back of the car. We ended up being the last ones to leave
8 the scene down there to go up to the -- and my aid finally 9 told me, he said, "Chief, we'd better get out of here." So
10 we went to 95th Street.

11 Q. When you pulled back to 95th Street, what was going on
12 back there?

13 A. The rest of the firemen were there, and they were
14 talking and trying to figure out exactly what happened' you 15 know' and it was kind of' you know, everybody going every 16 which way.

17 Q. Did you request a helicopter?

18 A. Yeah. The command people started getting a helicopter,
19 I believe it come from Life Flight. It was sent out there
20 from Life Flight.

21 Q. Did you feel the second explosion or hear it?

22 A. Oh, yeah, we felt it.

23 Q. Where were you when that happened?

24 A. We were at 95th Street. We couldn't have been there
25 very long, maybe ten minutes or so, before the second one

1 exploded.

2 Q. Were you outside your car?

3 A. We was outside, yeah.

4 Q. Did you get knocked down?

5 A. No. No. It was really loud, but, you know, we was far
6 enough away it didn't knock anyone down.

7 Q. After that, did you, did the helicopter arrive at the 8 scene?

9 A. Yes, it did.

10 Q. Did you go up in the helicopter?

11 A. The man from the construction site and I went up in the 12 helicopter, went down and made a recon over the area.

13 THE COURT: He went with you?

14 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

15 Q. What lights -- was it daylight yet?

16 A. No, it was still dark.

17 Q. What lights did you use, if any, to do a reconnaissance
18 of the scene?

19 A. The helicopter has a light on the bottom of it. It's 20 real powerful. I don't know what candle power, but it's real
21 strong. It lit up the area pretty good.

22 Q. What were you able to see as you flew over the
23 construction site?

24 A. We could see one pumper company, one pumper intact
25 there, some other scattered equipment, one real heavy piece

1 of equipment, and I remember seeing one bunker.

2 Q. And when you talk about the bunkers, let me show you
3 Government's 26 again. And is that these on the right-hand
4 side of this photograph, is that what we're looking at near 5 my pen?

6 A. Yeah, that's a bunker sitting there. I'm not sure
7 whether that's the one I saw or one behind it.

8 Q. Back there?

9 A. Yeah, there's one.

10 Q. And there's the other?

11 A. And I asked the guy flying the helicopter if he would 12 swing down 87th Street. We were hoping maybe one of the 13 pumpers got away back up 87th Street, got off, beings there
14 was only one sitting there.

15 Q. So you were still -

16 A. So we kind of flew up 87th Street a little bit and then
17 come back over the site.

18 THE COURT: Chief, is the word bunker another way
19 to describe a fortified box?

20 THE WITNESS: That's exactly what it is. It's real
21 heavy steel, probably at least a quarter to a half inch
22 steel.

23 THE COURT: It's not underground?

24 THE WITNESS: No, it's set above ground.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) So you were still looking for, were
2 you still looking for Pumper 41?

3 A. That was the one that was missing, so, yeah, we were
4 looking for it.

5 Q. I'd like to show you what's been marked for 6 identification purposes as Government's 381 and 380. Would 7 you take a look at these and tell us if you recognize them?

8 A. Yeah, the newest pumper here is 30's.

9 Q. Could you look at the back, what number is that one?

10 A. This is 381, 30 Pumper. It was relatively new.

11 Q. That looks like -

12 A. That's not it, but it looked like that.

13 THE COURT: Which pumper looked like that?

14 THE WITNESS: 30's.

15 Q. And that's 281?

16 THE COURT: 381.

17 A. Yeah, picture, 381.

18 Q. And picture 380?

19 A. And 380 would have been 41's.

20 MR. BECKER: I offer those into evidence as 380 and 21 381.

22 MR. PETERS: No objection.

23 THE COURT: All right. They're admitted without
24 objection.

25 (Government's Exhibits 380 and 381 were admitted

1 into evidence.)

2 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) So showing you Government's 381 here,
3 this you describe, is this similar to Pumper 30, then?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. That was the newer of the two?

6 A. Newer of the two.

7 Q. How many gallons of water does one of these things hold?

8 A. Well, actually hold in their tank, they can be from 300
9 to 500 gallon tanks on these, and I'm not sure what the 10 capacity on it was.

11 Q. And I'll show you Government's Exhibit 380. Is this 12 similar, then, to Pumper 41, then, that was sent to the site?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. After you finished your helicopter flight -

15 A. Right.

16 Q. -- what did you do?

17 A. Flew back to the command post and landed up there, got 18 together with Chief Booth. By that time, 201, which would be 19 the operations deputy, was there. And I'm almost certain 20 that the director was there by then.

21 Q. Were you -

22 A. Got together with them, told them what we actually 23 found, what we could see from the air there, that one of the 24 pumpers was missing. And we weren't really close enough to 25 the ground to pick up much other than that.

1 Q. I guess the question would have been, did you see any
2 victims at all?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. What did you do next, then?

5 A. Well, I'm almost certain it was Chief Booth, probably 6 the director got all the men together that had responded to 7 this incident and told them pretty much what we had found
8 from the air and trying to settle any, you know, anybody's -
9 you know, just calm them down, more or less.

10 Q. Did you and Booth, then, were ordered or volunteered to 11 go back to the hill?

12 A. Chief Booth volunteered for both of us to go back to the 13 hill. The police had set up their command post by this time,
14 and they really didn't want to let anyone go back up there
15 until it was daylight and you could see what was happening.
16 But they didn't really have anybody up there on the hill
17 either, and we did. And our men were about ready to go on 18 their own if something else wasn't done. So Chief Booth and 19 I went down there.

20 THE COURT: Is it fair to say that at that time no
21 actual fire fighting was going on at the site of the fire?

22 THE WITNESS: No, there was no fire fighting.
23 There was no one down there.

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) When you flew over the site, what 25 amount of fire -- was there any fire you observed?

1 A. Smoldering type. There wasn't anything really burning,
2 you know, I mean free burning, but there was a lot of
3 smoldering in different areas.

4 Q. What did you and Deputy Chief Booth do then?

5 A. We got in his car and we drove north on 71 to that first
6 road.

7 Q. And I'm showing you now Government's Exhibit 33?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. And you came northbound on 71 Highway?

10 A. Uh-huh. Yes, sir.

11 Q. What happened as you drove north?

12 A. We almost got to that intersection that you were 13 pointing at, at about where I'd pulled into originally, and 14 the shrapnel on the pavement and everything from the 15 explosion blew at least one of the tires, maybe two of them,
16 but we did get just about to that road, or maybe even in the 17 intersection.

18 Q. What did you do then?

19 A. We got out of the car, took hand lights, and started
20 coming up that hill.

21 Q. How light was it? Was the sun coming up?

22 A. No, it was still dark. We were using our hand lights.

23 What you could pick up was what you could see with a hand
24 light.

25 Q. This has been on Government's 33, then. Is that the

1 road that you walked up?

2 A. Yes, it is.

3 Q. Did you walk as far as the chief's, the battalion
4 chief's, Germann's car?

5 A. We did go to the car. We were probably two thirds of 6 the way up the hill. In the road was a body part.

7 Q. As you walked, then, from the car back towards the 8 trailers, were you able to find any of the victims?

9 A. The first victim we found was Mike Oldham on the berm
10 here.

11 Q. Indicating on Government's 33 sort of the center of the 12 photograph there?

13 A. Yeah. Yeah. That's about right.

14 Q. Then did you walk over in the area of the remains of 15 Pumper 30?

16 A. As I recall, we walked up to the crater first, and we 17 looked around what would be probably the north side of the 18 crater. And right at that time we hadn't seen anybody but 19 Mike Oldham, and we looked at the crater. We started -- and 20 you're looking at the ground too. We didn't know what had,
21 you know, what the blast had thrown out on the ground, so we
22 were being careful. We were using our hand lights to watch
23 where we were walking. Walked around to the other side
24 towards the pumper which was left, which was Pumper 30.

25 Q. Did you find any of the firefighters there?

1 A. Yes. Luther Hurd was laying very close to 30 Pumper.

2 Q. As you moved beyond that point, did you locate Captain
3 Halloran?

4 A. Somewhat right behind him a little bit south behind 30's
5 pumper, there was some equipment there, I don't know whether 6 it was drilling equipment or whatever, and there was a pickup
7 sitting there, and Captain Halloran was draped across the 8 piece of drilling equipment.

9 Q. How could you recognize him at that point?

10 A. He had on a captain's shirt.

11 Q. How is that different from anybody else's?

12 A. Well, it's light blue, and the firefighters and 13 apparatus operators, they have dark blue shirts. We were 14 pretty sure that was Captain Halloran.

15 Q. Did you then move beyond the equipment out towards, as 16 I'm pointing on Government's 33, towards 87th Street?

17 A. Yeah. We walked a little bit south, southeast. And we 18 found Tom Fry. He was the furthest from the site of the 19 explosion, from the craters.

20 Q. I want to show you what's been marked for identification
21 as Government's Exhibit 231 and ask you if you recognize
22 that.

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. What is that a photograph of?

25 A. That's Tom Fry.

1 MR. BECKER: I'd offer -

2 A. The firefighter on Pumper 30.

3 Q. Does that fairly and accurately depict the way you
4 observed him in the early morning hours of November 29, 1988?

5 A. Yes, it is.

6 MR. BECKER: I'd offer it into evidence as
7 Government's Exhibit 231.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Subject to our earlier objection,
9 Judge, we have no objection.

10 THE COURT: This is in the group that -- well, I
11 don't actually have that number in that group, but this was 12 discussed earlier; is that correct?

13 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

14 THE COURT: All right, then, with that objection
15 noted, the picture is admitted.

16 (Government's Exhibit 231 was admitted into
17 evidence.)

18 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Did you then go beyond the body of 19 Firefighter Fry out here on Government's 33 to where you
20 could see the bunkers, the explosive bunkers?

21 A. From where we found Firefighter Fry, we walked on up
22 towards the heavy equipment you see sitting there, the 23 earth-mover or whatever.

24 Q. And that would be in the lower left-hand corner of the 25 exhibit?

1 A. Yeah. And the one bunker was back kind of behind it.

2 Q. I believe is it -- do you see my pen?

3 A. That's it.

4 Q. And that is in the lower left-hand corner of

5 Government's 33?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. What was your purpose in seeing those bunkers, locating

8 those bunkers?

9 A. Basically we were just looking -- I mean, you know, we 10 were looking and trying to see anything on the hill that we 11 wasn't aware of. When we flew over, I could see that bunker,
12 and we just walked back to make sure it was intact, and it
13 was.

14 THE COURT: Was it clear to you then that the 15 explosive devices that were in those bunkers had not
16 exploded?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes. You could tell. I mean,
18 nothing happened to them.

19 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Did you observe any fire back in that 20 area?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. What did you do next up there?

23 A. It's getting, it's getting about the time that I'm sure
24 that we came off the hill' Chief Booth and I. We came back
25 down off of the corner there by the tanks' walked to that

1 corner' and had someone from the command post pick us up.

2 Q. So you would have left the area not by the way you came
3 in' but sort of down towards 87th Street?

4 A. Right. There's fueling tanks there to fuel the heavy
5 equipment' and we walked out that way.

6 Q. And then someone came and picked you up; is that right?

7 A. Right. And took us back to the command post.

8 Q. Did you report in' then' to the -

9 A. Again, we reported to the director who was there and the 10 operations chief and the police that had their command people
11 and told them what we'd found, et cetera. And then they 12 talked to the rest of the men and told them.

13 MR. BECKER: That's all the questions I have at 14 this time, Judge. I would ask that Government's Exhibit 231
15 be passed to the jury.

16 THE COURT: Yes, it may be. Maybe I'd better look
17 at that first. Thank you, Chief.

18 Okay.

19 (Government's Exhibit 231 was passed to the jury.)

20 MR. OSGOOD: Do you want to wait, Your Honor, until 21 they're done?

22 THE COURT: I don't have you going first. Are you
23 going first on this one?

24 MR. OSGOOD: I'm the only one going.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: He's going to be the only one asking

1 questions, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION

5 By Mr. Osgood:

6 Q. Is it Chief?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay. Chief Grote, your call sign was 106; is that

9 correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. We're going to add you here, so it's G-R-O-T-E?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, I think by agreement we're

14 going to admit this as Government's Exhibit No. -

15 MR. BECKER: I have no objection.

16 MR. OSGOOD: We'll give it a defense number, if

17 you -

18 THE COURT: What's next?

19 MR. BECKER: It would be 389.

20 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) I just have a couple of brief

21 questions for you, Chief. When you were up in the 22 helicopter, who was it that went up with you besides the 23 pilot?

24 A. The pilot and the man from the construction site, and I

25 don't recall his name.

1 Q. You don't?

2 A. He said he worked there and worked with the explosives.

3 Q. Did he happen to say whether he was with the Mountain
4 View (sic) outfit or the Brown Brothers, or do you remember?

5 A. If he did, I don't remember.

6 Q. okay. When you were in the helicopter, did it have a
7 spotlight that you used to shine on the area?

8 A. Yes, sir, it did.

9 Q. Did you observe any other vehicles on the site other
10 than the 107's vehicle?

11 A. 107's car was sitting there just above the -- I mean,
12 they got up on the level with the equipment, the construction
13 equipment. And then there was a pumper sitting there, and 14 there was a pickup, and you couldn't tell from the air.
15 There was another piece of equipment, but you couldn't tell
16 what it was.

17 Q. All right. Now, you -- I take it from your testimony
18 you made a conscious effort to check damage on these bunkers
19 and see if they were intact?

20 A. On one of them. I never did see the one until it was 21 daylight that was set on back beyond.

22 Q. But then the next morning you also looked at the second
23 one?

24 A. No. I never did look at the second one.

25 Q. oh, I see. The one that you did see, was the door

1 intact and the lock still on it?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So it had not been tampered with?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did it receive any damage as far as denting or anything
6 like that?

7 A. Not knowing what it looked like before I got there, but 8 not anything really that you could tell.

9 Q. These were painted bright yellow, I believe?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And marked as dynamite?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And then how long were you at the scene from 14 start to finish?

15 A. Well, the first time that Chief Booth and I went up
16 there, we were probably up there 25 minutes. And I can't, I
17 can't tell you exactly. We went back with some police
18 personnel and bomb and arson unit and the director and was 19 probably up there another 20 to 25 minutes then, so all told,
20 probably 45 minutes to an hour.

21 Q. Do you remember what time, I guess it was November, what 22 time it would have got light?

23 A. It was probably getting close to 6 o'clock, maybe even 24 after 6:00 before it really started getting light.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Okay. Thank you.

864

1 THE WITNESS: uh-huh.

2 THE COURT: All right. I understand there's no
3 further questions. Anything from the government?

4 MR. BECKER: Nothing, Judge.

5 THE COURT: All right. Chief, thank you for 6 coming.

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Come forward, if you would, please,
9 sir, and stand by the witness chair and be sworn.

10 — — —

11 GARY BUCHANON,
12 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,
13 testified as follows:

14 — — —

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 By Mr. Miller:

17 Q. Would you tell the Court and the jury your name, please?

18 A. Gary Buchanon.

19 THE COURT: Pull that mike a little closer to you,
20 Detective, if you can. Thank you.

21 Q. And how are you employed?

22 A. I'm not employed, I'm retired.

23 Q. Okay. And where do you live now?

24 A. Riverview, Florida, just south of Tampa.

25 Q. I want to go back to November of ,88. And how were you

1 employed then?

2 A. I was a detective in the Crime Scene Investigations Unit
3 of the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department.

4 Q. When did you retire?

5 A. 1995.

6 Q. Okay. How many years did you have in?

7 A. Twenty-six and a couple of months.

8 Q. What were your duties as a crime scene detective?

9 A. To respond to scenes of crimes to collect evidence and 10 preserve them for court testimony.

11 Q. Did you ever analyze evidence?

2 A. No, I did not.

3 Q. Well, what would you do with the evidence that you
14 collected?

15 A. It's packaged and sealed and sent to the property room
16 or the Regional Crime Lab for examination.

17 Q. I want to go to the early morning hours of November the 18 29th, 1988. And where were you dispatched to?

19 A. We were called at home approximately 4:30 and requested
20 to respond to 87th and South 71 Highway where there had been
21 an explosion and multiple dead bodies.

22 Q. Do you remember what time you arrived at that scene?

23 A. They had a command post at Bannister and south 71, which 24 is 95th Street. And it was around 5:30 in the morning.

25 Q. Now, you mentioned the command site. Did you ever go

1 right to the blast site?

2 A. No. It was dark. There was still fires burning, and
3 for safety they waited until sunrise.

4 Q. When you arrived at the command site, who did you meet
5 with, do you remember?

6 A. I met with other members of our crime scene unit, the 7 homicide detectives, and the arson detectives.

8 Q. How do you conduct a crime scene investigation?

9 A. In this case, it is a very large area. We have in this
10 case several detectives working a crime scene. We try and 11 coordinate it with the homicide and the arson and in this 12 case the fire department also.

13 We start at usually one location and work through 14 the crime scene toward another location. In this case, it
15 was basically we started on the south side and worked our way
16 north.

17 Q. Okay. Now, with your crime scene investigation unit
18 that you're with, you don't fan out, you stay together, don't
19 you?

20 A. Yeah, we basically stay together as a group going from,
21 you know, through the crime scene together.

22 Q. And as you were together going through this scene, what 23 were you looking for?

24 A. Any kind of evidence relating to the explosion or to the 25 cause of the deaths of the victims.

1 Q. As part of your duties, is a crime scene diagram
2 prepared?

3 A. Yes, there is.

4 Q. And for this one back on November 29, 1988, who prepared
5 the diagram?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. Because of their size, I'm going to keep them down
8 here. I'm showing you Government's Exhibit No. 8, 9 Government's Exhibit No. 7, Government's Exhibit No. 6, and 10 Government's Exhibit No. 9. And do you recognize these?

11 A. Yes, I do. They're enlargements of the diagrams I
12 prepared.

13 Q. And whose name is on them?

14 A. Mine should be on all four of them.

15 Q. And what's the date on them?

16 A. November 29th, 1988.

17 MR. MILLER: I'm going to offer Government's
18 Exhibit 7, 6, 8, and 9.

19 MR. BECKER: There was an objection, and we've, I
20 think, taken care of it.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: We have no objection, Judge, to 6,
22 7, 8, and 9.

23 THE COURT: All right, 6, 7, 8, and 9 are
24 admitted.

25 (Government's Exhibits 6, 7, 8, and 9 were admitted

1 into evidence.)

2 MR. MILLER: May I have a moment, Your Honor,
3 please, while I try to rig this? The easel is too low and
4 then the diagram -

5 THE COURT: Can you push the monitor back a little
6 bit if we're not going to be using it?

7 MR. BECKER: Let's see how this looks. Can you
8 read that or not? Can you see that?

9 THE WITNESS: I have a copy.

10 MR. MILLER: He has his own copy.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Good.

12 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Okay. We're going to refer to -- this 13 is Exhibit No. 6, and is this part of your crime scene
14 diagram?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. And what page of your diagram is this?

17 A. This is page 7 of 13 pages.

18 Q. And up at the top in the left it says Toyota truck.
19 Would you show on the diagram where you denote the Toyota
20 truck?

21 A. Okay. It is in the middle right at the bottom. I can't 22 reach it from here.

23 THE COURT: You can pull the mike off the stand and 24 carry it with you and go on the drawing.

25 A. The Toyota truck was right here on the west side of 869

1 south 71 Highway and just south of this access road that ran
2 into the construction site.

3 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, can he use the pointer and
4 picture? This is a little difficult to -

5 MR. O'CONNOR: We don't object to Mr. Miller
6 leading him and pointing it out for him.

7 MR. OSGOOD: It seems to be cumulative.

8 THE COURT: It's been satisfactory up to now, but 9 go ahead and do that. But the trouble is, Detective, they 10 don't know what you're doing over there from this side.

11 THE WITNESS: I guess it's hard to see through me.

12 THE COURT: Well, I'll not comment on that. Why
13 don't you, you go ahead and tell him what it is, what the 14 fact is, and he'll try to demonstrate on the picture.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay.

16 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) So we're down here in the center and A
17 is the Toyota truck, correct?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. While you're there, I want to show you Exhibit No. 139.
20 Now, is that the truck?

21 A. Yes, it is. And also -

22 Q. Go ahead, I'm sorry.

23 A. Also it shows the access road going back up into the
24 construction site.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Your Honor. We don't

1 object to him going -- if he collected evidence and there's
2 testimony about it, that's fine. We've identified all of 3 this and identified all of this. It's cumulative. If he
4 collected evidence, it's perfectly all right with us if we
5 get right to it.

6 THE COURT: There's really no need to duplicate
7 what we've done. Let's get to that. Go ahead, move to your 8 next point.

9 MR. MILLER: Okay. I'll try to -

10 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And one more time, though, back on 11 this, H. that's what you pointed to as the battalion chief's
12 truck, correct?

13 A. Yes, on the diagram it's the letter H.

14 Q. Now, is Exhibit No. 6 an overview of your diagram?

15 A. Yes. It shows the entire area between 87th Street and
16 Blue River Road from the south to the north and from 71
17 Highway back into the construction site. Also in my diagram,
18 you will see four areas, or three other areas outlined in 19 dotted lines, and those are the other three diagrams I've 20 prepared to show the enlargement of those areas.

21 Q. I want to stay back on this for a minute. What are -

22 THE COURT: Counsel, see if you can bring your 23 machine into just a little better focus. I don't think the 24 writing on it can quite be read. That's better.

25 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Okay. Up on evidence where it says 1

1 and 2?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. ALL right. Where I'm pointing to over here on the left,
4 now it's off the chart. Over here on the -- here we go, over
5 here on the left. That's where you recovered items 1 and 2?

6 A. Yes, it was.

7 Q. And would you tell us what 1 and 2 were?

8 A. They were shoe impressions that we made plaster casts
9 of, and the casts were collected. It was down by a trailer
10 and a truck that was parked down there.

11 Q. And what were the casts then sent to?

12 A. They were packaged and sent to the Regional Crime Lab.

13 Q. Then No. 11 that's back down here by the pickup truck?

14 A. Yes. That was a black billfold.

15 Q. Okay. And do you recall what was in that billfold?

16 A. Yeah. There was identification to Deborah Riggs and six
17 dollars and something in coin and currency.

18 Q. Now I want to go to Exhibit No. 8. That's the other
19 diagram?

20 A. Yes. That's an enlargement. There was a tanker trailer
21 here in the middle and then one and -

22 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me. We're back at the same
23 problem. I don't know what he's pointing to, Your Honor. If 24 you would point to it on the picture, that would be helpful.

25 Q. This is the tanker trailer?

1 A. Yes. The oblong is the tanker trailer that was parked
2 just off of 87th Street.

3 Q. Can you tell us what items 3 and 4 are, the 3 and 4 at
4 the top?

5 A. 3 and 4 are also plaster casts of shoe impressions.

6 Q. And what are 5 and 6?

7 A. No. 5 was a broken Coors beer bottle, and No. 6 was the 8 bottom of a broken beer bottle.

9 Q. Okay. I want to take this off and show you Exhibit No.
10 87. And what does this show?

11 A. That is a picture with Detective Beverlin pointing to 12 the broken beer bottle, which was item No. 5 in the diagram.

13 Q. And show you Exhibit No. 88.

14 A. That's the same picture, only a close-up of the broken
15 beer bottle, and it had some kind of paper stuck in the neck
16 of it.

17 Q. And did you collect those bottles?

18 A. My job was to delineate the items on the diagrams, and I
19 was there when they were collected, but I did not collect
20 them.

21 Q. But you were there when they were collected?

22 A. Most of the items, yes. There were two or three items
23 that I did collect, but I was there when the others were 24 collected also.

25 Q. Okay. Well, regarding the bottle that we've shown with

1 the picture, you were there when it was collected?

2 ~A. Yes, I was.

3 IQ Okay. And what was that bagged up in?

4 A. We placed those items in brown paper bags and sealed
5 them with evidence tape, marked them with the date and our 6 filing number, and whoever collected them either writes their
7 name or their initials across the tape.

8 Q. I'm showing you two bags that are Exhibits 282 and 283.

9 And what are those?

10 A. The one marked 282 is what I have, is item No. 5 on the 11 diagram and it's a, the broken Coors bottle.

12 Q. And what's the other?

13 A. It looks like that -- there's also, the paper that was 14 in it is in the bottom of the bag.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. This is the bag marked No. 6 on my diagram, your No.
17 283, and it is the bottom half of the broken beer bottle
18 bottom.

19 Q. And that was No. 6 found underneath the trailer?

20 A. Yes, what we recorded as No. 6. We seal it with the 21 black ink tape and with our initials and names across it.
22 When it goes to the lab and they open it, they use the green
23 tape, and it looks like the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and 24 Firearms uses red tape.

25 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, I'm going to offer

1 Exhibits 282 and 283 into evidence.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection.

3 THE COURT: All right. Admitted without
4 objection.

5 (Government's Exhibits 282 and 283 were admitted
6 into evidence.)

7 THE COURT: Did you offer 87 and 88?

8 LAW CLERK: I have that they're admitted by 9 stipulation.

10 THE COURT: Yeah, they are. That's correct. Never
11 mind.

12 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, I offer 282 and 283.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection.

14 THE COURT: Admitted.

15 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) You referred to the tanker there. I'm 16 showing you Government's Exhibit No. 76. Is that the tanker
17 that's depicted in your diagram?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. Which is Exhibit No. 7?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. I also want to show you, we're still there at the tanker
22 and we're still on Exhibit No. 7. Government's Exhibit No.
23 85. And could you tell the Court what that's a picture of?

24 A. That is a broken padlock.

25 Q. Okay. And when did you find this padlock?

1 A. December 1, 1988.

2 Q. So two days later?

3 A. Yes, it was.

4 Q. Do you recall why you went back out there two days

5 later?

6 A. I believe we were called back out there by the arson

7 detective to recover that particular lock, and also a gas can

8 that was found.

9 Q. Show you Government's Exhibit No. 86. Is this a picture
10 of the lock depicted close up that was in Exhibit No. 85?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. What was done with that lock?

13 A. It was placed in a bag and, again, sealed with evidence

14 tape. The date, our filing number and either the signatures

15 or initials across that tape and sent to the Regional Crime

16 Lab.

17 Q. Showing you what's been marked as Government's Exhibit

18 No. 280. And is that the lock?

19 A. Yes. That's, in this case it's No. 1 because it was two 20 days later and it's -- I collected it. It's got my name on 21 it, and also my signature across the tape on the back. And

22 that is the same lock, yes.

23 THE COURT: Gentlemen, would you come up for a

24 minute, please? And ladies.

25 (Counsel approached the bench and the following

1 proceedings were had:)

2 THE COURT: I have a written request from one of 3 the jurors, Miss Boyd. She's No. 4. Says would like to have 4 copy of the diagram crime scene for reference. Difficult to 5 follow where items were found. And then she adds, or perhaps 6 these items could be identified on another map.

7 But is there any reason why you couldn't make
8 copies of those?

9 MR. BECKER: We could take five minutes, and I
10 could get 16 copies of those.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection.

12 MR. OSGOOD: Make some for us, too.

13 MR. BECKER: I could make 25 copies.

14 MR. MILLER: What I had planned to do since we 15 physically can't do it, I was going to have him write on the 16 large diagram where he found the exhibit, a picture of 17 so-and-so, and write it off to the side.

18 MR. BECKER: They can't see it, that's the
19 problem.

20 MR. OSGOOD: Another way might be just to flip-flop
21 that, have him point to where the stuff is on the photo of it
22 on the screen, and you write or put an X on it up there.

23 MR. BECKER: If we take ten minutes or whatever you
24 want to take, we'll get copies of those.

25 THE COURT: We'll go ahead and take our recess

1 now. It's a little earlier than I like to.

2 MR. OSGOOD: We can have two, then, Your Honor.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: I have concern about this lock. The 4 lock was found two days later. There's no one that says that
5 lock comes from anything. It's just a lock he found.
6 They're going to put a lock in evidence that doesn't belong
7 to this case, or they have no one that's going to say that
8 lock was on a trailer, what use it has to this jury.

9 MR. OSGOOD: I don't have any objection to it.

10 THE COURT: That goes to credibility and weight,
11 not admissibility.

12 MR. OSGOOD: It's not been cut, it's been blown
13 apart.

14 MR. MILLER: I'm offering 288.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm objecting, but the judge has 16 overruled it.

17 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

18 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to do a little 19 clerical work here, ladies and gentlemen, and then that will
20 accelerate our afternoon recess. But I think what we're 21 going to do is get some copies made of some of these diagrams
22 so you all can have them in hand and see them as the 23 witnesses are describing what they did with respect to them.

24 So we'll take our recess. Don't talk about the 25 case, as you're usually instructed, and be back in the jury

878

1 room, if you would, in 15 minutes, at five of 3:00, and you
2 may withdraw from the courtroom at this time.

3 (The following proceedings were had in the
4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

5 THE COURT: All right. We're in recess.

6 (A recess was taken from 2:44 p.m. to 3:08 a.m.)

7 MR. PETERS: Judge, we're going to have one item.

8 THE COURT: Do you have something, Mr. O'Connor, do
9 you have something you want to bring up?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: I think we got it worked out among 11 ourselves. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: That's good. That's the best way.
13 Okay. Let's get the jury.

14 Now, is that diagram that's on the screen here
15 they're going to be looking at when they come in here, is 16 that in evidence?

17 MR. MILLER: Yes, they're all in evidence. And if
18 I may, Judge, we propped one up, and I tested this. One
19 juror said he couldn't see, and I went back there, and he can
20 see now. We made an adjustment. It's on there pretty good.

21 THE COURT: This is a part of your admitted
22 exhibits?

23 MR. MILLER: They're all admitted, all four.

24 (The following proceedings were had in the
25 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

1 THE COURT: I'll remind you you're still under
2 oath.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

5 GARY BUCHANON,
6 having been previously sworn, testified further as follows:

8 RESUMED DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 By Mr. Miller:

10 Q. Okay. Detective, we've propped up one of the blown-up
11 parts of your diagram. We also have it on the television.

12 THE COURT: Now, did you get copies made for 13 everybody?

14 MR. MILLER: Yes, we did.

15 THE COURT: Do they have them?

16 MR. MILLER: Not yet.

17 THE COURT: All right. Let's get them
18 distributed.

19 Okay. Counsel.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) We're referring to Exhibit No. 8,
21 Detective Buchanon. And where my pen is is No. 1 and a
22 circle around it. What does that indicate?

23 A. That is, indicates the Victim No. 1.

24 Q. And No. 2?

25 A. It would be Victim No. 2.

880

1 Q. And No. 3?

2 A. Would be 3; and 4, Victim No. 4.

3 Q. And can you tell by those measurements, let's go to -

4 what's H?

5 A. I'm sorry? H?

6 Q. Yes.

7 . H is a large crater measuring 53 feet across and

8 approximately 8 feet deep.

9 Q. What is I?

10 A. I is a, a smaller crater measuring approximately 40 foot

11 across and also about 8 foot deep.

12 Q. What about J?

13 A. J was the smallest of the three craters, approximately 14 20 feet across and 6 feet deep.

15 Q. Now, let's go to No. 1, Victim No. 1. On your diagram

16 by your measurements, are you able to tell how far away from 17 the largest crater, crater H. body No. 1 is, Victim No. 1 is?

18 A. Yes. The No. 1 was approximately 140 foot.

19 THE COURT: Just a minute. Excuse me. What is the

20 problem?

21 JUROR: H says the battalion chief car.

22 THE WITNESS: That's another diagram.

23 JUROR: Am I looking at the wrong diagram?

24 THE WITNESS: Yes.

25 THE COURT: You want to be looking at Page 7 of

1 13. Isn't that right, counsel?

2 MR. MILLER: No. It's page -

3 THE WITNESS: Should be Page 9.

4 JUROR: Yes, thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. Page 9. Okay. Page 9 of

6 13. Oh, yeah, that's what I have. The top of the 9 was cut

7 off. All right. Go ahead.

8 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Okay. Again, could you tell us how

9 far away from crater H Victim No. 1's body was?

10 A. Yes. Let me explain about the measurements. We started
11 at 87th Street. It's not on the television monitor, but over 12 on the right-hand side of the page is 87th Street. There was 13 a power pole approximately even with the center of the 14 crater. We drew a line from the center of the crater to that 15 power pole and used it as a base line to do the measurements
16 from.

17 From the center of the crater to victim No. 1 was 18 approximately 140 feet, and he was approximately 30 feet east
19 of that line.

20 Q. How far away was Victim No. 2 from the large crater H?

21 A. No. 2 was approximately 40 feet north of No. 1, which 22 would put him about 100 feet from the center of the crater
23 and just about 9 feet east of the base line.

24 Q. How far away is Victim No. 3 from crater H?

25 A. No. 3 is approximately 60 feet from the center of the

1 crater, and in this case west of the base line approximately 2 17 feet.

3 Q. And Victim No. 4, how far away is he from crater H?

4 A. No. 4 is about, between 45 and 50 feet from the center
5 of the crater and 21 feet west of the base line.

6 Q. Okay. Now, you had these victims numbered. This
7 doesn't reflect your opinion as to who was killed first, does
8 it?

9 A. No, it does not. It's just a numbering process in this
10 case moving from the south to the north through the crime
11 scene.

12 Q. And Items A through H which we have under items of 13 interest, are those just -- I'm sorry, A through G. were 14 those just destroyed pieces of machinery?

15 A. Some was destroyed pieces of machinery. H. I, and J
16 were the craters. D and F indicate the two firetrucks.
17 There was a red truck and a bulldozer and generator, and then
18 there were two items that we, as police officers, I have no
19 idea what they were.

20 Q. Now, if you could refer to the blowup diagram held up
21 behind you, and there's a black marker in front of you. And 22 I'm going to put on here State's Exhibit No. 205. First of 23 all' who is that in between those two trucks?

24 A. That's a picture of me between the two firetrucks.

25 Q. All right. Now, using your marker and on the blown-up

1 diagram behind you, would you mark where 205 is depicted?

2 A. Okay. That would be over on this side. The defense
3 can't see it. It would be to the bottom on the diagram of 4 the two firetrucks looking back toward the east. And it
5 would be that way.

6 Q. And would you do the same with 208, mark on the blown-up
7 diagram where 208 is depicted from?

8 A. Okay. That would be standing toward the east looking
9 back toward the west toward the firetrucks. The two yellow
10 tarps in the picture on the television would be victims No. 3
11 and 4.

12 Q. And Exhibit No. 220?

13 A. Okay. 220 would be over this way looking toward the 14 north. Again, the two yellow tarps on my farthest right is 15 Victim No. 1. The one back by the firetruck would be Victim
16 No. 3.

17 Q. Now I want to go to No. 9. It's Page 10 of 13. And up
18 to the left, what is marked as A, again? Give us a
19 reference.

20 A. Okay. As you can see in this diagram, you have the same
21 three craters as in the previous exhibit. This diagram
22 depicts everything to the north of those craters as opposed
23 to everything to the south of the other diagram. In this
24 one, A is the battalion chief's car, which is up the access
25 road at the junction of the little driveway that went into

1 the construction site.

2 Q. I want to go to No. 7 on, it says evidence.

3 A. No. 7 is a gas can nozzle. And if you move the diagram
4 down, it's right at the top about where the hole punch is.

5 Q. Right there at the top by the hole punch?

6 A. Right there.

7 Q. All right. I'm going to show you what's been marked as 8 Government's Exhibit No. 285. And if you could open that 9 up. And what's in there?

10 A. Okay. What is in there is a gas nozzle off of some sort
11 of gas can.

12 Q. And is this what you recovered as No. 7 on your diagram?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 MR. MILLER: Offer Exhibit No. 285.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. 285 will be admitted
17 without objection.

18 (Government's Exhibit 285 was admitted into
19 evidence.)

20 THE COURT: That's the whole can; is that right?

21 MR. MILLER: The nozzle is rather oily. I'd like 22 to keep it in the can. Yes, it would be the whole can with 23 the nozzle in it, yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Now, going down back on evidence on

1 No. 8. What did you recover there?

2 A. That was a crystalline powder that the arson detectives
3 told us was ammonium nitrate.

4 . I'm going to show you what's been marked as Government's 5 Exhibit No. 388. And what is that?

6 . That is a can, again, with our evidence tape with the 7 black markings, and our names and date and the file number
8 are on that can.

9 Q. This is what you recovered on the 29th there?

10 A. Yes, it is.

11 Q. And it's depicted as No. 8 on the diagram?

12 A. Yes, it is.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. 8 is admitted. I'm sorry,
15 388 is admitted.

16 (Government's Exhibit 388 was admitted into
17 evidence.)

18 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) I want to show you what's been marked
19 as Government's Exhibit No. 82. And what is that?

20 A. That is a gas can.

21 Q. okay. And when did you recover that?

22 A. That was recovered on December 1st, 1988.

23 Q. And is that depicted on any of the diagrams that we 24 have?

25 A. No. That was two days later after the diagrams had

886

1 already been prepared.

2 Q. Still, though, would you be able to show on which one of
3 the diagrams -- let's put No. 9 back on. Could you give the 4 jury an idea of where you found that gas can?

5 A. It would be considerably north of the crater -- I'm
6 sorry, east of the craters. This entire construction site
7 had been bulldozed to get all the trees and bushes and stuff
8 off. And then they were all back on the east side of the 9 construction site, and that's where the gas can was. This 10 top road here made a circle around the back side of the 11 construction site, and the brush was along that road, and the 12 gas can was by the brush piles.

13 Q. Let me show you Government's Exhibit No. 281. And what 14 is this?

15 A. That is a brown paper bag with, again, our filing
16 number, our, the date of December 1st, and my name, and it's 17 also across the black inked tape is my signature.

18 THE COURT: I don't believe you've offered 82, have
19 you?

20 LAW CLERK: It's in the stipulation.

21 THE COURT: I forget the stipulation. All right.
22 I'll mark it.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, may I voir dire the 24 witness in aid of the objection to the gas can?

25 THE COURT: The gas can, is that what's in 281?

887

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT:I thought the gas can was 82.

3 MR. OSGOOD: The can is 281, looking at the sticker
4 on it, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT:What is 82, counsel?

6 MR. MILLER: 82 is the photograph of the can, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT:All right.

9

10 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

11 By Mr. O'Connor:

12 Q. Mr. Buchanon, you said you recovered this particular gas
13 can on December 1st. That would have been how many days
14 after you had been at that scene?

15 A. Two days.

16 Q. And where you found, where the gas can had been found,
17 had you been over that area before on the 29th?

18 A. No, I had not. As far as I know, none of the crime
19 scene people had either. It was considerably back on the 20 back side of the, back side of the construction site.

21 Q. And had the scene still been preserved, or had the 22 scene -- when was the scene turned back over or opened back
23 over to the public or the construction company, or do you
24 know?

25 A. I have no idea.

888

1 Q. The scene was no longer preserved as of December 1st;
2 would you agree with that?

3 A. I wouldn't know, but I would say, no, it wasn't
4 protected.

5 Q. It wasn't roped off with evidence tape or anything like
6 that?

7 A. No.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I would object to the admission of 9 this exhibit, Your Honor, at this time.

10 THE COURT: I've already indicated my view on 11 that. That goes to weight and credibility, not 12 admissibility. Overruled.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you, sir.

14 (Government's Exhibit 281-was admitted into
15 evidence.)

17 RESUMED DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 By Mr. Miller:

19 Q. Would you take out this exhibit and show this to the 20 jury, hold it up for the jury.

21 (So done.)

22 Q. And if you would place it back in the bag.

23 MR. MILLER: Did I offer 281? If not, I'm offering
24 it now.

25 THE COURT: I think you did, because I think that

889

1 was Mr. O'Connor's objection and I overruled it. So it's in.

2 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Finally, what was done with the items
3 that you recovered?

4 A. On December 1st?

5 Q. All the items.

6 A. Any items. All right. The items were placed in various 7 containers, either paper bags, or if they were possibly 8 hazardous like the gas can nozzle, they were placed in metal
9 containers, and they were also evidence taped again,
10 initially by whoever claimed them with the date and the 11 number across the tape, and all of it was sent to the 12 Regional Crime Lab.

13 Q. Where were the bodies taken?

14 A. They were sent to Truman Medical Center to the county
15 morgue.

16 Q. There were yellow tarps over the bodies. Do you know
17 who covered the bodies?

18 A. The firefighters covered the bodies with the yellow
19 tarp. And that was because when they went to take aerial 20 photographs of the scene, the placement of the victims was 21 indistinguishable among just the barren ground. So they 22 covered them with tarps, and the bright yellow was readily
23 visible from the helicopter.

24 MR. MILLER: That's all I have of this witness,
25 Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. PETERS: No questions, Judge, for my client.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Hunt?

4 MS. HUNT: I have just a few questions.

5 _____

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 By Ms. Hunt:

8 Q. How long were you out at the crime scene that day?

9 . We were called approximately 4:30 in the morning. We
10 got to the command post at 5:30. I would say we were there
11 about an hour before the sun came up, and we were there, I
12 would say, almost until dusk when the sun started going down,
13 and then we returned to the crime scene unit to work on the 14 paperwork and stuff.

15 Q. So roughly 12 hours that day?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Sunup to sundown?

18 A. I would say 12 to 13.

19 Q. You can have your seat again, I think.

20 How long were you a detective in the crime scene
21 investigation unit?

22 A. I was in crime scenes approximately 13 years.

23 Q. And during that 13 years, did you have training in crime
24 scene investigation?

25 A. Yes, we did.

1 Q. And in that training, they taught you to observe the
2 entire scene; is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And you make these diagrams to scale and you try to note
5 everything you see on the scene; isn't that correct?

6 A. As close as possible to scale. We're not architects or 7 draftsmen, but it's as close as we can get it.

8 Q. And you would put the numbers and letters like you've 9 done on these for the items that you see on the scene?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And you're up there, and you looked at the whole
12 scene that day for 12 to 13 hours, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And how many people were with you?

15 A. There were at least three other crime scene detectives.
16 I would say two to three homicide detectives that were -- I
17 don't know how long they were there. Arson detectives I
18 think were there most of the day; and firefighter personnel,
19 I don't know how many of them were there.

20 Q. And during that 12 to 13-hour period, you observed this 21 entire scene, did you not?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And during your observation during that time of this
24 scene, did you see any big copper tubing or any large amounts
25 of copper on the scene?

892

1 A. Not that I know of, no.

2 Q. Did you during that time observe acetylene torches on
3 the scene?

4 A. Not that I remember, no.

5 Q. Did you observe in any of the trailers or bunkers or 6 anywhere on the scene extension cords?

7 A. Not that I remember, no.

8 Q. Did you see a transit or transits on the scene?

9 A. I don't know what that is. What's a transit?

10 Q. From my understanding, it's what the surveyors use on 11 the tripod. Anything that looked like that?

12 A. Not that I know of, no.

13 Q. Did you observe any diamond saws or saw blades, concrete
14 saws, anything of that nature on the scene?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you see any drills?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did you see any big drill bits on the scene?

19 A. Not that I know of.

20 Q. And you looked over this entire scene, and you went back
21 to the scene on December 1st; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you do another thorough investigation on that date
24 or just recover certain items?

25 A. Just basically recovered the padlock and the gas can.

893

1 Q. On the 29th for the 12 or 13 hours you basically with a
2 fine tooth comb went over the scene, didn't you?

3 A. I wouldn't go quite that far, but we were as thorough as 4 we could have been, yes.

5 MS. HUNT: All right. That's all I have.

6 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION

9 By Mr. O'Connor:

10 Q. I wanted to ask you a few questions, Mr. Buchanon.
11 About how many crime scene people were up there working that 12 day? Was the whole unit there?

13 A. The day shift that was working that day were there. I
14 believe there were three of us.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. Plus one left over from the midnight shift.

17 Q. And were people from the ATF there that you knew about?

18 A. I don't remember if the federal agencies were there that 19 day or not. We were working mainly with the homicide
20 detectives.

21 Q. Was anyone directing you as to what you were to be
22 looking for or what you were to be picking up, or were you
23 just kind of looking and picking up whatever you thought may 24 be relevant?

25 A. Basically whatever was relevant. Some items found by

1 other detectives were pointed out. As the one exhibit we had
2 admitted, the ammonium nitrate, the arson detective told us
3 what that was and how to handle it and package it.

4 Q. Okay. The footprints that were recovered there, or the
5 casts that were recovered there, those are generally
6 recovered, all you do is recover things and then you send 7 them to the lab and they make a determination of whether or 8 not they can match those up with somebody else later; is that
9 correct?

10 A. Yes. We don't make any determination.

11 Q. And this beer bottle that you collected, you don't know
12 if it had anything to do with this scene; is that correct?

13 A. I have no idea.

14 Q. You just collect it, mark it, send it to be 15 fingerprinted and other things that are done at the lab that 16 you don't have anything to do with?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Now, did you see some what were described to you or told
19 to you were dynamite bunkers that were back behind the site?

20 A. Yes, I believe there were two bunkers. Again, back
21 toward the back of the construction site.

22 Q. Were those bunkers ever opened for you to look into?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Take photographs of?

25 A. No. Well, we took photographs of the outside, I don't

1 believe we took any of the inside.

2 Q. Were those locked and secured that morning?

3 A. As far as I know, yes.

4 . Did you check them to see if they'd been opened or pried

5 r jimmied?

6 . I did not, no.

7 . Would someone with your unit have done that?

8 . Either that or the arson detectives.

9 Q. Did you find any, other than that one padlock that was

10 in evidence, did you find anything that was like a lock or

11 hasp that would have come from the, either of the trailers

12 that had exploded?

13 A. No, I did not.

14 Q. And did you look thoroughly around that area of the 15 actual crime site?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did they call out any of the young recruits from the 18 crime lab to walk abreast like they sometimes do to try to 19 gather evidence?

20 A. Not that I know of, no.

21 Q. But you all divided up the responsibilities, is that

22 true, in certain areas of the crime scene?

23 A. Yes. We had one officer that wrote the reports, I did

24 the diagram, we had one officer taking the photographs, and

25 the fourth one was basically the one that picked everything

1 up and put it in the bags and the cans.

2 Q. And you believe -- do you believe, do you believe that
3 you conducted a thorough exam of this scene?

4 A. Yes, we did.

5 Q. Were there items that had been blown across the highway
6 onto 87th Street and onto 71 Highway?

7 A. Yes, there was.

8 Q. Were you aware of items that were collected either by 9 truckload or something like that that were taken somewhere to 10 be sifted through by people? Were you aware of anything like
11 that?

12 A. No, I'm not.

13 Q. Did you see or observe any bicycle tracks up there?

14 A. No, not that I know of.

15 Q. Were there any underground bunkers up there, something
16 like a door in the ground where things were kept underground
17 that you observed or were told about?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that up where the trailers were 20 that a 40,000 pound Japanese hydraulic drill had at one time
21 been there?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you find anything that looked like a drill or drill
24 bits or anything from that size of a drill?

25 A. The only thing, around the two firetrucks there was

1 something that looked like some type of construction

2 equipment, but it was so mangled we had no idea what it was.

3 Q. Those were the items that you talked about a minute ago,

4 that you said there were two items that you said you just

5 didn't know what they were?

6 A. Yes. They were some type of construction equipment that

7 were right around the firetrucks, but they were so damaged I

8 didn't know what they were.

9 . Do you know what a union loader is?

10 . I have no idea.

11 Q. As I understand it, there was a big Caterpillar up

12 there; is that true?

13 A. There was a tractor -- I believe I had tractor written

14 down. Bulldozer, I'm sorry. There was a bulldozer and a

15 generator over by Victim No. 1 and 2.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: 1 and 2 is all we have as defense

17 exhibits? 3, 4, 5, and 6, please.

18 THE COURT: It really would be better if you had

19 this done before we came in here, Mr. O'Connor.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: I apologize, Judge, I thought that

21 Mr. Becker -

22 THE COURT: We don't need to stand around and wait

23 for exhibits to be marked.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: My fault.

25 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Mr. Buchanan, I want to hand you

1 what's been marked as Defendants, 3 and ask you if you
2 recognize that photograph, sir.

3 A. No, not right off, but it appears to be back on the 4 south side -- or on the east side of the construction back by 5 the brush piles.

6 Q. Can you tell us whether that's a fair and accurate
7 representation of the Caterpillar there that was at the scene
8 that morning that you were out there?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Let me hand you what's been marked Defendants, 4. Is 11 that a picture of the same Caterpillar but taken at a
12 different angle?

13 A. It appears to be, yes.

14 Q. Fair and accurate representation of what you saw out
15 there the morning of the 29th?

16 A. This one shows it a little better on the back side of 17 the, back by the large hill on the east side of the
18 construction site.

19 Q. Let me hand you Defendants, 5. Tell me if you can get a
20 frame of reference of that photograph.

21 A. Yes. That's on Page 10 of 13 on the diagrams. That's 22 the service road. This would be back toward the battalion
23 chief's car looking to the south along the road where all the 24 little letters are on the road.

25 Q. Is that a fair and accurate depiction of what it looked

1 like there the morning of November 29th?

2 A. Yes, it is.

3 Q. I want to hand you lastly Defendants, 6. Is that

4 another photograph of the Caterpillar but from a different

5 angle?

6 A. Yes. It also shows what looks like one of the explosive

7 bunkers way back on the back side of the construction site.

8 . Fair and accurate representation?

9 . Yes, it is.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: At this time, Your Honor, I'd offer

11 Defendants, 3 through 6, inclusive.

12 THE COURT: Gentlemen?

13 MR. MILLER: No objection, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Admitted without objection.

15 (Defendants, Exhibits 3, 4, 5, and 6 were admitted
16 into evidence.)

17 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Mr. Buchanan, I'm going to show you

18 Defendants, 5. And if you could refer for the jury on your

19 exhibit there where that exhibit is generated from, if you

20 would.

21 A. I'm sorry, could you repeat that?

22 Q. Could you tell us where that would show on your, one of 23 your diagrams?

24 A. Yes. On -

25 Q. Which page? I'll get that for you.

900

1 A. Thank you. Page 10 of 13, enlargement of Inset C.

2 Q. And that's near the service road?

3 A. Yes, it would be what is marked as A, the battalion
4 chief's car in the upper left-hand corner, and it would be
5 looking back to the south along the service road. It also 6 shows the area of standing water on the left part of the 7 picture and on the top of the diagram.

8 Q. Does that kind of look like a little creek running
9 through there?

10 A. Yes. Just standing water. It wasn't running water.

11 Q. Just had a good suggestion from Mr. Osgood to use this.
12 Maybe it would be helpful to the jury, as well.

13 That shows the creek that we were just talking
14 about?

15 A. Yes.

16 THE COURT: That being -

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Exhibit No. 5, Your Honor, thank
18 you.

19 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) This is Defendants, 4, I believe.
20 That shows the Caterpillar; is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And it clearly says Caterpillar on the front of it?

23 A. Yes, it does.

24 Q. Does it have straw laying around it?

25 A. Straw bales.

1 Q. And straw laying on the ground?

2 A. Probably.

3 Q. Can you see it from the photograph?

4 A. I can't see the monitor. Yes, there's straw on the
5 ground.

6 Q. And do you see here, you can see my pen. It appears to 7 be a blackened area in there. Did you ever make any 8 determination of whether or not the origin of that, what that 9 was?

10 A. I have no idea.

11 Q. Defendants, 6, one more photograph to show you.

12 Defendants, 3, do you see this cardboard that's laying here
13 on the ground?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. That was there the morning of the 29th?

16 A. Yes, it was.

17 Q. Were you told what was in the bunkers?

18 A. No, I have no idea, other than they were explosive
19 bunkers, but I have no idea what, if anything, was in them.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all the questions I have.

21 Thank you, sir.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any other defendants with 23 questions? Any redirect?

24 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, I had a couple very brief
25 questions.

2

3 By Mr. Osgood:

4 Q. You also examined the pickup truck that had been burned
5 down on the west side of the highway?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. I believe you collected a purse?

8 A. That was a black billfold.

9 Q. Where was that at when you found it?

10 A. I'm not sure if it was in the front seat or laying just 11 beside the truck.

12 Q. Did you collect any other items from the truck which 13 appeared to have residue of any kind of an accelerant on it?
14 You might tell the folks what you and I mean by accelerant.

15 A. Accelerant is anything that speeds the fire.

16 THE COURT: I haven't heard any testimony about
17 accelerant yet.

18 MR. OSGOOD: I thought there was some testimony,
19 Your Honor, of a rag or something.

20 THE COURT: Did you say anything about
21 accelerants?

22 THE WITNESS: No, I did not.

23 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) You didn't find anything of that
24 nature in the truck?

25 A. Let me check to see what we took from the truck.

1 Q. If you don't recall, that's fine.

2 A. I don't recall.

3 Q. Okay. Were the keys in the ignition?

4 A. I don't know.

5 Q. All right. What did you ultimately do with the purse?

6 Was it returned at some time?

7 A. What we did with it was we recovered it. And being a
8 non-evidence item, per se, I believe it was, the billfold was 9 sent to the lab. The money in it and I believe something
10 else was sent just to the property owner and probably 11 returned.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood, I don't remember any 13 testimony about a purse. You said purse just now.

14 MR. OSGOOD: Well, I think the witness referred to 15 it as a purse. It was a, I believe described in the record
16 by Miss Riggs as kind of a four-by-six or eight-inch folding
17 vinyl item of some kind.

18 A. I refer to it in mine as a billfold.

19 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) As a billfold?

20 A. Yes.

21 THE COURT: I didn't think he called it a purse.

22 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) And it was vinyl as you recall?

23 A. I don't remember. It was black.

24 Q. Was that returned, that item, or just its contents?

25 A. I don't know. We sent it to the Regional Crime Lab. I

1 don't know.

2 Q. Do you handle the return of items, or would that be
3 somebody else's job?

4 A. That would be somebody else.

5 Q. Now, you said some items are returned. What -- for 6 example, what category would a gun be in? Would it be 7 returned later?

8 A. I don't think so, no. It's probably given back to the 9 property owner, yes.

10 Q. If it's not involved in any way in the incident?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Usually when you find a gun, it's involved in some -

13 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to the relevance
14 of the gun with this witness. That's not covered by this
15 witness.

16 THE COURT: Yes. And that question calls for 17 speculation and conjecture, too. That's also sustained.

18 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Somebody else handle return of items,
19 then?

20 A. Yes, the property room.

21 Q. And I believe, just last question. You used subjective
22 evaluation in terms of what you seized at the scene, based on 23 your training and experience?

24 A. Yes, we did.

25 Q. By the way, was there a Dempsey dumpster or anything of

1 a similar nature anywhere in this construction anywhere that 2 you saw?

3 A. Not on top of the hill where the victims were. There
4 was construction equipment on the west side of 71 Highway and
5 also off Blue River Road. There may or may not have been a
6 Dempsey dumpster with the construction equipment. I don't
7 know.

8 Q. In this kind of an investigation, would it be usual or 9 unusual to look through a Dempsey dumpster if one were 10 there? What would you do?

11 A. I'm sure we would look through it if it was there, but I
12 don't remember seeing one.

13 Q. Did you see anything that resembled what may have at one
14 time been a trash container or dumpster or something up on 15 the hill?

16 A. Not that I know of, no.

17 Q. Okay.

18 MR. OSGOOD: I believe that's all.

19 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?

20 MR. MILLER: No redirect.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I appreciate
22 you coming. You're excused. Call your next witness.

23 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge. The United States
24 calls Cliff Lund.

25 THE COURT: Come up and stand by the witness stand

1 and be sworn, please, sir.

JOSEPH C. LUND. Sr.,

4 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,

5 testified as follows:

7

DIRECT EXAMINATION

8 y Mr. Becker:

9 Q. Good afternoon.

10 . Good afternoon.

11 Q. Get some of this stuff out of your way. Please state

12 our name and spell your last name.

13 . Joseph C. Lund, L-U-N-D, Sr.

14 Q. How old are you?

15 A. Fifty-six.

16 Q. How are you employed?

17 A. I work for the Department of Treasury, Bureau of

18 Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

19 Q. What is your position there?

20 A. I'm an explosives enforcement officer.

21 Q. Where are you located, where are you based?

22 A. I work out of the forensic scientific laboratory in 23 Rockville, Maryland.

24 THE COURT: You say you are an explosion

25 enforcement officer?

907

1 THE WITNESS: Explosives enforcement officer, yes.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) If you could pull that a little
4 closer.

5 A. How is that?

6 Q. Great. Thank you. What does an explosives enforcement
7 officer do?

8 . I give technical assistance to city, state, and other
9 federal agencies in enforcement of explosive rules and 10 regulations, primarily in the area of explosive devices,
11 bombs.

12 Q. Do you have training and experience in the area of 13 explosive devices?

14 A. Yes, sir, I do.

15 Q. How many years have you been working in the area of 16 explosive devices?

17 A. Here for ten years, with the Department of Treasury. I
18 was a police officer for 23 years, and half of that career
19 was in the explosive division.

20 Q. Could you tell us what professional training you've had 21 in the area of explosives?

22 A. I attended the hazardous device school in the United 23 States Army, which was in Huntsville, Alabama, and I've been 24 back to that school approximately seven different times for 25 refreshers.

908

1 I attended the Department of Treasury Schools for
2 Explosive Certification and have been back there four
3 different times to be recertified.

4 I've attended numerous other federal schools
5 throughout my years in explosives, explosive evidence
6 collection, and in many aspects of explosive investigation.

7 Q. Have you attended college courses in the area of 8 explosives or pyrotechnics?

9 A. I took courses in the chemistry of pyrotechnics and the 10 theories of pyrotechnic displays at Washington College and 11 arson courses while at the University of Maryland.

12 Q. Have you participated in any professional organizations
13 relating to explosive devices?

14 A. Yes. I've attended the last fifteen international 15 conferences on explosives. I gave presentations at most of 16 those conferences.

17 Q. Briefly, on what topics?

18 A. Current trends in explosives and improvised explosive
19 devices. Again, that's my specialty.

20 Q. Have you held any position in any professional 21 organization?

22 A. I'm the past International Director of the International
23 Association of Bomb Technicians and Investigators, which 24 encompasses the United States and 58 countries outside the 25 United States.

1 I'm the past president of the Del-Mar-Va Potomac
2 Bomb Techs Association, which was Delaware, Maryland, and
3 Virginia, in that little area.

4 Q. Have you taught or been an instructor at any schools or
5 seminars on explosives and explosive devices?

6 A. I average about 30 days a year teaching in different
7 seminars for local associations and the International
8 Association of Arson Investigators. I'm also a member of 9 bomb squads throughout the United States. I've given
10 presentations at Interpol, Lyon, France for current trends in 11 explosive devices, and in Canberra, Australia, on the same
12 topic, representing the United States government.

13 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, we would be happy to 14 stipulate that Mr. Lund is eminently qualified as an 15 explosive expert.

16 Q. Have you previously testified as an explosives expert in 17 any state, local, or federal court?

18 A. Yes, I have.

19 Q. Approximately how many times?

20 A. Approximately 50 times.

21 MR. BECKER: I offer this witness as an expert in 22 explosives devices.

23 MR. PETERS: No objection.

24 THE COURT: This is no reflection on your witness,
25 but I don't certify experts. I don't make any kind of a

1 ruling on expertise. I will rule on objections if they are
2 made as to his qualification and ability under the law to
3 answer opinion questions. If he is qualified, he'll be able
4 to answer the question. If he isn't, he won't. So let's
5 proceed on that basis.

6 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Mr. Lund, what is ANFO?

7 A. ANFO is an ammonium nitrate and fuel oil mixture, which
8 is a blasting agent, also qualified as an explosive.

9 Q. What is it used for primarily in the United States?

10 A. Commercial blasting.

11 Q. How is it used?

12 A. ANFO is used either in pure form loose or in bags, or 13 another term is socks, which is tubular, and it's used to 14 break rocks or push dirt.

15 Q. Let me show you what's in evidence as Government's 16 Exhibit 288. Does this look familiar to you?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is this?

19 A. The term is sock, or some people will call it a sausage.

20 THE COURT: The number again?

21 MR. BECKER: 288.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) And if it really contained ANFO, how 24 much would one of these weigh?

25 A. Around 30 pounds.

1 Q. Would it have any smell?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What would it smell like?

4 A. It would smell like diesel fuel.

5 Q. I'd like to call your attention to Government's Exhibit
6 388, which is previously admitted into evidence, and ask you
7 to open this up and see if you can recognize the contents.

8 Do you recognize the contents of Government's 288?

9 A. This is consistent with the prill size ammonium nitrate
10 and ANFO with the smell of diesel fuel, but it's usually not 11 that dirty.

12 Q. What's prill, what is that?

13 A. That's a rice-shaped formation. The ANFO comes in small 14 pellets that the industry calls prills, and that's the 15 ammonium nitrate, and it's designed to absorb the diesel fuel
16 to make the blasting agent.

17 Q. Does this particular sample, Government's 388, have an 18 odor, aroma?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What does it smell like?

21 A. It smells like diesel fuel.

22 MR. BECKER: I would ask that that be passed to the 23 jury, Judge, while we continue with the testimony.

24 THE COURT: All right. I think we ought to maybe
25 make sure that it's clear on the record. Mr. Lund, as it is,

1 that is, in its inert form, that's not dangerous; is that
2 correct?

3 THE WITNESS: That's correct. In the form it's in 4 now, it's not that dangerous.

5 THE COURT: This object is not dangerous?

6 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

7 THE COURT: I still suggest you handle it carefully
8 as you pass it.

9 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Along those lines, Mr. Lund, you say
10 that these socks, which is Government's 288, are used in the 11 construction industry. Could you describe for us, can you
12 throw these around? How sensitive, how dangerous is a sock
13 full of ANFO?

14 A. In the normal course of blasting, a hole called a bore
15 hole is drilled within a foot or two foot of the side of 16 either rock formation or dirt. Let's say 50 feet deep, ten
17 inches around.

18 Q. And this would be, as you're describing, perhaps a
19 highway project, or is that -

20 A. Yes. If you ever drive down the interstate and you look
21 at the rocks on both sides, you'll notice lines coming
22 straight down. And when you see those lines coming straight
23 down, that's the half of the large hole that was drilled.
24 And when that hole was drilled from the top to the bottom in 25 order to make that move forward to break it -

1 Q. The rock face?

2 A. The rock face, ANFO was used. And it's used in several
3 forms. One is free flowing, that is, a truck with all those 4 prills in that can, with a chute, you just back up and just
5 pour it free-flowing. Second is by using that sock. And I
6 go back to the original question about sensitivity. If that 7 hole is 50 foot down, you just take that tube, put it in the 8 hole, and let it go.

9 Q. That's not going to go off then?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. All right. So you'd fill the tube with ANFO in this 12 form or in loose form?

13 A. Or in loose form.

14 Q. How does it do its job?

15 A. The next step would be to initiate the explosives, which 16 would be a cast booster, that's a larger explosive device, a
17 very powerful device. Inserted into this cast booster would 18 be a detonator.

19 Q. So cast, C-A-S-T?

20 A. C-A-S-T.

21 Q. Booster?

22 A. Booster.

23 Q. Where is that placed in the hole along the rock face?

24 A. Several different ways. I guess I'll give them all to 25 you. The first one is to lower the cast booster down first

1 with the detonator facing up.

2 Q. And how sensitive is that? Is that -

3 A. Detonator is the most sensitive of all explosives, but
4 it's cushioned because it's plugged into the cast booster,
5 and now the cast booster is on top. And then by placing 6 several of these bags or free-flowing prills, the second
7 booster would be placed in the middle, and then filling the 8 hole up again to several feet just prior to the top, you can
9 place your third booster.

10 And the next thing would be a stemming. That's to 11 pack that hole full of crushed rock, sand to make sure the 12 explosive work product is pushed forward. In other words,
13 when you fire the explosives, you don't want it all shooting
14 out the hole, that's wasted money. So you just fill that 15 hole up and tamp it down so the explosive force takes that 16 side of the rock formation forward.

17 Q. Typically, then, along a rock face in that highway
18 construction project, how many -- do they do it one hole at a
19 time, or is it -

20 A. It's several. If it's -- if you have a 50-yard run, you
21 would space them out by the amount of explosives that you
22 wanted to use. And then again, because this is cost
23 effective, you would try to get the most bang for your 24 dollar, which would mean as far apart as you can place those
25 devices, the ANFO, and make the rock break, the better off

1 because that's less equipment that you have to buy.

2 Q. How do you mean, set them off? How do you get those
3 holes to go off?

4 A. By using a detonating cord. The detonators are, as 5 previously stated, is hooked up. You would bring the 6 detonating cord out to a location and hook it up to another
7 detonating cord, so you would have one long cord running
8 down. And each cord coming out of the hole would be attached
9 to the long running cord. I mean, in some place safely away
10 you would cause that one long strip of detonating cord to 11 explode.

12 Q. How do you do that?

13 A. With an electric detonator, so now you have a detonating
14 cord exploding. And as soon as it hits the end, which is 15 27,000 feet a second, every cord attached to that transmits
16 the exact same explosive energy to that detonator. And, in 17 fact, they all go up at the same time.

18 Q. Because of the rapid speed of the movement of the signal
19 or charge?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Could you, could we back up a minute? You mentioned
22 ammonium nitrate and then fuel oil as two components in this
23 case; is that right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. What's ammonium nitrate?

1 A. Ammonium nitrate is an oxidizer, an oxidizing agent.

2 Q. In explosive terms, what does that mean?

3 A. The original ammonium nitrate was actually designed 4 primarily as a fertilizer. However, 25 percent of it has 5 been allotted for blasting agent.

6 Q. 25 percent of the production nationwide?

7 A. Or eight billion pounds, yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. In the product to be manufactured, there's an addition
10 of diesel fuel added to the ammonium nitrate.

11 Q. Why?

12 A. To give a fuel to the oxidizer because you need a fuel
13 and an oxidizer for explosives.

14 Q. How long has this stuff been around?

15 A. Early 1900's.

16 Q. How is it -

17 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, objection. Just for 18 clarification, how long is this stuff, are we talking about
19 ANFO or ammonium nitrate?

20 THE COURT: I think that's probably a good point.

21 They've been using ANFO for how long now?

22 THE WITNESS: Nineteen hundreds.

23 THE COURT: You mean between 1900 and 1910, is that
24 what you mean?

25 THE WITNESS: I mean from nineteen hundreds to now

1 we've been using ANFO.

2 THE COURT: The 20th century?

3 THE WITNESS: Right.

4 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) We talked a little bit about how
5 sensitive this is. Is there danger in its transportation
6 between the manufacturer and the wholesaler or to the job
7 site?

8 A. Well, it's an explosive product. The biggest danger
9 would be, the No. 1 danger, it's a fire hazard. But as far
10 as shock and friction and bouncing around the truck, that's 11 not a danger.

12 Q. Now, calling your attention to November 29, 1988, did
13 you happen to be in Missouri on that date?

14 A. Yes, sir, I was.

15 Q. Where were you?

16 A. I was in Springfield.

17 Q. What were you doing down there, very briefly?

18 A. Testifying in a court case.

19 Q. In a different matter?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Were you along with Agent True called up to the scene of 22 this explosion in Kansas City, Missouri?

23 A. Yes, sir, I was.

24 Q. Did you do an inspection of the scene?

25 A. I arrived at the scene and did a brief walk-around

1 looking at the damage.

2 Q. What were you looking for?

3 A. I was looking for any indicators or things of that
4 nature that would have led me to believe what had occurred.

5 Q. Did you receive information, then, that two trailers had
6 been on that site, one containing approximately 25,000 pounds
7 of ANFO and the other containing approximately 30,000 pounds
8 of ANFO?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Since that time, have you reviewed reports of the arson
11 investigators relating to this case?

12 A. Yes, I have.

13 Q. Could you tell, tell us based upon your inspection on 14 the 29th of November, 1988, and your review of the reports
15 how, what happens to a trailer load of ANFO if it's set on
16 fire?

17 A. What occurs is the ANFO starts to burn. And while it's 18 in the trailer, it's piled up, bag upon bag upon bag. It's a
19 pile, or a large amount.

20 Once it starts to burn, the ammonium nitrate
21 particles are an oxidizing agent, produces its own oxygen,
22 doesn't need outside oxygen, and it begins to burn. As the 23 heat rises, temperature rises, and the oxidizing agent, ANFO,
24 continues to burn because it burns very vigorously.

25 So we have a product that wants to burn burning at

1 a high temperature. And because of the pile, the gas is
2 usually trapped inside, so now we have a self-sustaining
3 fire. It's burning, the temperature is going up. It's 4 getting hotter. The flame gets hotter, the temperature goes
5 up, the pressure goes up, it's consuming itself up.

6 One of two things happens. Either it burns itself
7 out, or it gets to the point there's so much pressure, when 8 the pressure lets go, it's like a shock and we have an
9 explosion.

10 Q. Based on your last statement, then, if you put a match
11 to this, if this really had ANFO in it, would it explode?
12 . Like that, not necessarily. It's when you have the 13 large pile.

14 Q. What is it about the pile that -- well, let's stay with 15 this, Government's 288. If you put this out in a field and 16 set it on fire, what would happen?

17 A. While it's burning, it would burn left to right. And 18 because there's nothing on top trapping the gases, it most 19 likely, most likely would just burn.

20 Q. What's different, then, about the pile in a semi truck
21 trailer?

22 A. The pile makes its own confinement. And burning -- and 23 according to the report, it was started underneath the 24 trailer. It's the worst place it could have started because 25 now it's burning up and it's consuming the product, but

1 there's product above that's pressing down, and that's the
2 problem because the gas is trapped inside. Fire burns up and
3 out.

4 Q. So why does it explode?

5 A. Trapped gas, pressure, self-sustaining fire, and the 6 product itself, being an oxidizing agent, burns vigorously.

7 Q. Is there any set amount of time that this would take, or 8 would it depend upon the many variables in each load?

9 A. Each load and each fire. The time, temperature,
10 pressure, and the dynamics of a fire, it's not guaranteed.

11 Q. So in this particular case, based upon your experience
12 and what you've read, if the fire is started at the bottom of 13 that tractor trailer, what caused that pile of ANFO to 14 explode?

15 A. Internal pressure, trapped gas.

16 Q. Now, do you ever burn ANFO?

17 A. Oh, yes, I do.

18 Q. Why?

19 A. I use it in training when I'm training other people as a
20 confidence builder. We burn various types of explosives to 21 show the people in the field that you can burn explosives.

22 Q. Why would, why would a person in the field want to burn
23 up explosives?

24 A. In a training mode? To show that it can be done.

25 Q. Why would somebody want to do it, though?

1 A. It's all part of a training scenario. We teach how to
2 use detonators, how to use explosives, how to do small
3 blasting, and then to show you that explosives can be burned
4 safely.

5 Q. Are they burned safely for disposal purposes, then?

6 A. Burned safely for training. The normal method of 7 destroying explosives would be by explosion, if you have the 8 proper area and that area could take that type of explosion.

9 Q. In your training, then, when you, if you're burning
10 ANFO, what procedures do you use?

11 A. We would -- we'll go back to the sock. We would split
12 the sock open and remotely would use a time fuse to give us
13 time enough to go back to a safe area. We will put 14 accelerant underneath of it, straw or whatever, and then we 15 would burn with the wind coming towards us so it would burn
16 slow and even to the other end. Again, it's just a
17 confidence builder to show people that you can burn
18 explosives.

19 Q. Now, if you burn 12 piles of ANFO in your training,
20 would any of them explode?

21 A. You're talking about 12 piles stacked up?

22 Q. Yes.

23 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I would object. Just for 24 purposes of this hypothetical, I think we need to give a
25 little bit more parameter, how big of a pile, how much

1 weight, a pile of three versus a pile of 20,000 pounds.

2 THE COURT: Outside, in a container. Let's do
3 that, Mr. Becker.

4 MR . BECKER: Certainly, Judge.

5 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) If you were outside -- you burn this 6 stuff outside, right?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. If you're outside in your training area and -
9 typically, how big of a pile would you, of ANFO, would you be
10 burning?

11 . One or two of those sausages, and that's all.

12 Q. If you had 12 piles of three sausages each, would any of 13 them explode?

14 A. I would not expect any of them to explode like that. I
15 would not guarantee you that that would occur because we 16 always stand back, you know, waiting for that to explode
17 because it can.

18 Q. In your experience, has that happened?

19 A. I've had explosives explode while I was burning it, yes.

20 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I would object to the 21 answer as being nonresponsive, in your experience of lighting
22 ANFO, has that ever occurred.

23 THE COURT: Well, you can get into that if you need
24 to.

25 MR. PETERS: Okay.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) When you arrived at -- as an
2 experienced bomb expert, when you arrived at the scene in 3 Kansas City, Missouri, on November 29, 1988, what was the 4 most significant factor that you noticed on the scene?

5 A. The craters were pretty large, but I think the thing
6 that I really remember was there was a missing truck. There
7 was a firetruck that wasn't there.

8 Q. What did that mean to you as a bomb expert?

9 A. I blow things up. I make things go away. And while 10 looking at one truck and looking down and realizing there was 11 a second truck there and it's gone, I mean, I saw no trace of 12 it. That's the thing I looked at. The truck is gone.

13 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at this
14 time, Judge.

15 THE COURT: All right. Cross?

16 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 By Mr. Peters:

20 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Lund.

21 A. Good afternoon, sir.

22 Q. You and I had an opportunity to talk on Sunday. You
23 took time out of your day and let me ask you some questions
24 then; isn't that true
25

924

1 A. That's correct, sir.

2 Q. Okay. First, on the training of burning ANFO, if you're
3 taking the one sock or the two socks or the three socks, 35
4 pounds, 70 pounds, 105 pounds, in your experience of burning
5 that, you've never had one of those explode.

6 A. That's correct, I've never had one.

7 Q. Okay.

8 THE COURT: Have you? You've never had one of 9 those explode, have you?

10 A. No, sir, I have not.

11 Q. I'm going to write that in big print.

12 Now, you were on the scene of this explosion on 13 November 29th approximately 3:30 in the afternoon, give or 14 take a couple of hours; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, sir, that is correct.

16 Q. And the investigation by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco
17 and Firearms effectively began on November 29th, 1988; isn't
18 that correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And at the scene, is it fair to characterize it in your 21 opinion is this is a massive explosion?

22 A. Yes, sir, that's also correct.

23 Q. And in your experience, had you ever had occasion to 24 visually see an explosion involving what we may have evidence
25 is as much as 25,000 pounds of ANFO?

1 A. I've never seen that much explosive in that much of
2 area, that's correct.

3 Q. But based on your training and expertise, that much ANFO
4 can produce this type of massive destruction; is that
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

7 Q. Now, at the scene, were you called there to provide
8 assistance to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms in 9 whatever way you could?

10 A. Yes. I was asked by Special Agent True to go to the 11 scene because we were together at that point.

12 Q. Okay. And you've given us some background on ammonium
13 nitrate/fuel oil. Would you agree that millions of pounds of 14 ammonium nitrate and fuel oil are transported over the road
15 every year to be used at different construction sites and for 16 blasting?

17 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

18 Q. And you've explained to the jury that in these sausage
19 rolls, in this format, while we wouldn't say it's safe,
20 vibration isn't going to set it off, is it?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. And stacking it, 100 pounds, 200 pounds, 300 pounds, and 23 lighting it with a match isn't going to set it off, is it?

24 A. I'm not sure of that. If you were talking about
25 stacking it from bottom to top, there would always be a

1 possibility that if you burned a large amount of ANFO in a
2 pile that you could have an explosion.

3 Q. And I understand could, but you're aware, for example,
4 of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police taking several hundred
5 pounds, lighting it on fire, and there being no explosion.
6 You're aware of tests such as that being conducted?

7 . Yes.

8 Q. And are you aware of any evidence from any source that 9 says at what weight, what mass, what volume you have to get 10 before when you set it on fire you have this risk of 11 explosion? Is there any data on that at all, to the best of 12 your knowledge?

13 A. No, I have no information to the best of my knowledge of 14 any specifics of that area.

15 Q. As you arrived at the scene on November 29th, 1988,
16 you're looking for any, any sort of evidence that you can
17 find that leads you to a cause and origin of the explosion;
18 is that fair to say?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what you're looking for is to determine whether or 21 not -- and I'm going to give you some categories here,
22 whether or not it is an accidental explosion, an arson, a
23 bombing, an attempted bombing, an accidental explosion with 24 criminal intent. Is that correct?

25 A. That would justify most of our categories.

1 Q. Okay. And what I'm referring to are categories that are
2 used by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms in their
3 explosive incident system report codes. Did I word that
4 right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. okay. And does the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and 7 Firearms -- since I guess probably -- excuse me, Your Honor.

8 Since at least 1976, has the Bureau of Alcohol,
9 Tobacco, and Firearms kept a database of explosive-related
10 incidents?

11 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

12 Q. okay. During your direct testimony, you told us that 13 you had reviewed reports that indicated that the fire on this 14 trailer started at the bottom and went up?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Can you tell us what report you reviewed that indicated
17 the fire initiated at the bottom of the trailer?

18 A. That was a report from the fire investigator, Chuck
19 Conyers. He said that it was his opinion that there was more
20 fire under the bottom than the top and that it was a set fire
21 from the bottom.

22 Q. Okay. And is Chuck Conyers affiliated with any 23 government agency, ATF, FBI, Kansas City, Missouri, Police
24 Department, Regional Crime Lab?

25 A. I don't know.

1 . Okay. And for each type of incident investigated by the
2 Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, is there what is
3 referred to as an incident report filled out? I think the 4 technical language is an explosives incident worksheet. Do
5 you know that, sir?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And do you know whether one was filled out in relation
8 to the explosion having to do with the death of the six
9 firefighters on November 29, 1988?

10 A. I saw some data that was filled out on a sheet, yes.

11 Q. okay. I would like to show you two documents which you
12 were kind enough to give to me. I have marked them as 13 Defendants, Exhibit 7 and Defendants, Exhibit 8. And with 14 the Court's permission, I'm going to be showing a portion of 15 them. I don't think we're going to be admitting the entire 16 document. Defendants, Exhibit 7 purports to be and I think
17 you'll say is the explosive incident system codes; is that
18 correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And I'm handing you Defendants, Exhibit 7 and asking you
21 if that, that's the, in fact, the facsimile copy that you
22 provided to me, I believe, on -- I think it shows that it was 23 faxed on January 21st. So my question is is that a fair and 24 accurate copy of the EXIS codes used by the Bureau of 25 Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms?

1 A. Yes, it is.

2 Q. okay. And now I'm handing you what's been marked as
3 Defendants, Exhibit No. 8' and the cover sheet for the
4 document that you faxed is from the Office of Criminal
5 Enforcement' Arson and Explosives Division, Explosives
6 Technology Branch. And below the cover sheet on Defendants,
7 Exhibit 8 is a listing of different events. And I'm going to 8 first hand you Defendants, Exhibit No. 8 and ask you if 9 that's a fair and accurate copy of what you received by 10 facsimile.

11 THE COURT: What are you calling that? 8-A?

12 MR. PETERS: We'll call it incident reports. Would 13 that be -- and it's Defendants, Exhibit 8, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. okay. You can answer that
15 question.

16 MR. BECKER: I have it now. Thank you.

17 MR. PETERS: Judge.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead.

19 MR. PETERS: Judge' for purposes of this witness'
20 I'm going to move for admission of Defendants, Exhibit 7 and 21 8. There's a variety of things that aren't relevant in it,
22 and if we pass it or do anything with it, I think we would
23 want to leave that information out.

24 MR. BECKER: May we approach on this, Judge?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MR. BECKER: This material contains, I don't know
4 how many pages. Do you know a total number of pages?

5 MR. PETERS: Probably 25 pages relating to this
6 incident. There would be one page that we'll be moving for 7 admission on, but they need to know what it is.

8 THE COURT: Okay. We'll have the whole thing
9 marked as an exhibit but identify the right page you're going
10 to want to use or let him react to it, and then we'll go
11 forward.

12 MR. BECKER: And my objection is that while 13 obviously we provided this information to counsel at his 14 request, over my better judgment but at his request we 15 provided him this, he's given us no notice until this moment
16 that he's going to seek to introduce this into evidence. I
17 mean, there's no -

18 THE COURT: When did you get this? Talked to him
19 on Monday?

20 MR. PETERS: I talked to him on Sunday. I asked
21 him if he could get it, and he told me he could. On Monday I
22 wasn't able to get it from them. I was told we could get it
23 Tuesday. We were busy in trial. I got it ultimately 24 Wednesday morning.

25 THE COURT: I'm not sure he's really had any

1 opportunity to file any amended exhibit list, but, again,
2 let's just go to the merits, the substance of whatever page
3 he wants to use.

4 MR. BECKER: Well, I guess this -- I'm not entirely
5 clear what's being offered here. Who filled out this
6 information?

7 THE COURT: I'm telling him to designate for you
8 what page or pages he proposes to use, and let's deal with
9 that.

10 MR. PETERS: We've done that, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: And it will be admitted only for record
12 purposes.

13 MR. BECKER: That I understand it's the page here,
14 and he has pointed out to me that has the coding of a number
15 of items at the bottom, and the top of the next page. I'm 16 just at this time unable to see who provided this information
17 to put in the computer to show up on this report. I don't
18 know the reliability or the source of this information.

19 THE COURT: Well, then, are you saying that it is 20 not, that a foundation has not been laid for its admission as 21 a business record? Is that what you're -- is that the -

22 MR. BECKER: I think it is a business record. If 23 he asks the right questions, it's a business record.

24 THE COURT: If he knows.

25 MR. BECKER: He got it, he knows.

1 THE COURT: All right. Let me see it.

2 MR. BECKER: It would be the bottom here and the 3 top.

4 MR. PETERS: Actually, Your Honor, it's going to be
5 -- what we're going to be referring to is this information
6 on this from here to here. I'll have him explain the codes
7 to the jury. The only purpose of this whole page is this one
8 incident report. Right here. 11/29/88.

9 THE COURT: Just that entry, Mountain Plains,
10 Kansas City, Missouri, explosion?

11 MR. PETERS: Yes. And the codes are taken out of 12 the EXIS codes. He's testified about the report. It's 13 filled out by the local ATF agent. The codes go to 14 Washington. It's entered into the database.

15 THE COURT: What's it say?

16 MR. PETERS: It says right here, Judge, that this
17 is a bombing, that it's not an arson, it's not an accidental
18 fire. It's categorized as a bombing. That's what I'll be 19 going into with him.

20 THE COURT: Well, I think that's probably 21 admissible. You obviously know who made that categorization
22 and how it's displayed.

23 MR. BECKER: I'll certainly find out, won't I?

24 THE COURT: I suspect he knows.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, while we're up here, do

933

1 theystill have the crime scene chart that you passed out to
2 help them?

3 MR. BECKER: It was collected again, I believe.

4 MR. OSGOOD: Was it? I didn't know if it was or
5 not. Those pages, has that been collected? If it hasn't, it
6 should be.

7 THE COURT: We'll see to it we get it at the end of 8 the day. Okay.

9 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

10 MR. PETERS: Was 7 and 8 admitted subject to the 11 discussion?

12 THE COURT: 7 and 8 will be admitted for the 13 limited purpose of being used as designated by counsel. And 14 they're not, the exhibits are not to be published to the jury
15 without further discussion.

16 (Defendants, Exhibits 7 and 8 were admitted into 17 evidence.)

18 MR. BECKER: Could the Court request that the crime
19 scene diagrams be passed down for collection?

20 THE COURT: Yeah. If any of you still have those 21 crime scene diagrams, pass them in, if you would. Maybe just 22 pass them all in to the No. 1 position here, and then we'll 23 gather all of those up.

24 (So done.)

25 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go.

934

1 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Mr. Lund, I'm going to come back to
2 this while we're setting up something to write on.

3 After November 29th, 1988, your examination of the 4 explosion site, did you have any other involvement where you
5 were requested in any way to help out in the case after 6 that? Were you?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. When was your next involvement in the explosion that
9 occurred on November 29th, 1988?

10 A. November of 1994.

11 Q. November of 1994?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And who contacted you in November of 1994?

14 A. Special Agent Dave True.

15 Q. And what was the purpose of that contact in 1994?

16 A. That was the TV program Unsolved Mysteries.

17 Q. And what was your role, or what did you do in regards to 18 the TV program, unsolved Mysteries?

19 A. I acted as a safety coordinator during the filming of 20 the episode for unsolved Mysteries.

21 Q. And in terms of being a safety coordinator, you oversaw,
22 they staged a couple of fires and you were the safety
23 coordinator for that; is that correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And then they burnt two trailers; is that correct?

1 A. I'm not sure that there were two, but there were
2 trailers burned, yes.

3 Q. It was more than one trailer that was burned, as best
4 you recall?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And were the trailers that were burned, was part 7 of your role to provide expertise in terms of safety or 8 accuracy of the re-creation?

9 A. Just safety.

10 Q. Safety. From your experience with ammonium nitrate/fuel
11 oil and its transportation thousands of times a year, were 12 the trailers that they used accurate, the types of trailers
13 that would be used to transport ANFO?

14 . They were just trailer bodies, basically the same type
15 of trailer.

16 Q. Would they have had wood floors, do you know?

17 A. No.

18 Q. They would not have had wood floors?

19 A. I don't know.

20 Q. You don't know? And is this something that you
21 routinely do where you provide safety coordination for 22 Hollywood television shows, Unsolved Mysteries?

23 A. This was the first.

24 Q. That was the first? Did everything work safely with you
25 there?

1 . Yes, it worked just fine.

2 . I'm going to jump back now that I have my board, and I'm
3 going to be referring you -- and if you need to refer to the 4 documents that are marked as Defendants, Exhibit 8 and 9, let 5 me know.

6 Are some of the categories -- in fact, I think it
7 may be easier if I hand to you Defendants, Exhibit No. 7.
8 For the record, I'm turning to the second page. Type of 9 Incident is the heading.

10 Mr. Lund, what I'd like to do is on this board down
11 here, I think if I write with this marker on that board I'm 12 going to be in trouble.

13 THE COURT: Well, that's not a paper, is it? Well,
14 you can't write on that board at all, I don't think. Do you
15 have a copy of that document for the Court?

16 MR. PETERS: Of which, Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: What you're using to examine from.

18 MR. PETERS: No, we haven't made any copies since
19 it was received by the defense, by me.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) For maintaining a -

22 THE COURT: Excuse me, but that, you don't need
23 that now, do you?

24 MR. PETERS: No, I don't, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Let's get it down. It's directly

1 blocking the view of some of the spectators. You might as
2 well get it out of their way.

3 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Okay. Mr. Lund, to provide 4 information for the ATF's database, do they list a variety of 5 different types of incidents that would occur involving an
6 explosion?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And if you would, what is the first type of explosion,
9 first type of category, first type of incident contained on 10 Page 2 of Defendants, Exhibit 8?

11 A. Accidental explosions, noncriminal.

12 Q. And did you tell us what the code is for that type of 13 incident?

14 A. That's A.

15 Q. What's the next type listed?

16 A. Arson, ATF investigation only.

17 Q. For the record, I'm abbreviating it, investigation
18 only. What's the code for that?

19 A. That's O.

20 Q. This would be an investigation that the ATF was involved
21 in, distinguished from one that Milwaukee Police Department
22 was involved in; is that correct?

23 A. I would have to say I believe so. I am not sure because 24 I've never seen this before.

25 Q. Okay. What is the next category listed?

1 A. Bombings.

2 MR. BECKER: Judge, I would object, then, if the
3 witness hasn't seen or reviewed this before, that he's 4 testifying upon a matter not within his knowledge.

5 THE COURT: Well, are you familiar with these
6 categories or not? Or what goes into the -- I guess what
7 we're really concerned with, concerned with is are you
8 familiar with how entries, how those entries were made on the 9 exhibit before you?

10 THE WITNESS: No, sir. I requested this document
11 at the request for this trial. I'm not in the computer, and 12 I'm not in the area of entering documents, nor do I know
13 anything about these codes, other than I have a copy now I'm 14 reading from. This is not my field.

15 THE COURT: We can all read, Mr. Peters.

16 MR. PETERS: I think we have two more to go, Your 17 Honor, and two more of the -- may we approach?

18 THE COURT: Yeah.

19 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
20 proceedings were had:)

21 MR. PETERS: First, Your Honor, to make my record
22 complete, I didn't say it when we were last up here. At the 23 noon break, to expedite the trial I told Mr. Becker that I
24 would be, I wanted to be able to ask questions about what are 25 now marked as Defendants, 7 and 8, and there was one other

1 unrelated matter I asked if I could talk to his witness
2 about. He agreed.

3 I talked to the witness. These are business
4 records kept in the normal course of business of the ATF.
5 They were provided to me by the ATF agent. As I was standing
6 there, the ATF agent explained that it's always controlled by 7 the ATF agent. It's done by the local person, it goes to 8 Washington. It's now been faxed to us. We have the only
9 expert endorsed by the plaintiff on the stand who can bring 10 this in.

11 MR. BECKER: I'm told that it's likely that the 12 defendants do have listed on their exhibit, on their witness
13 list the person that filled that form out. That would be 14 Special Agent Paul Marquardt, who I believe appears on Mr.
15 O'Connor's witness list. I would object to this witness
16 testifying about something that he's just stated he knows
17 nothing about.

18 THE COURT: He's just reading. I mean, he just 19 said he's really just reading. He can interpret terms
20 because of his expertise and experience, but talking about 21 the significance of these codes and what goes into code
22 determinations and that sort of thing, I don't think he's 23 laid a foundation for it.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Well, is the exhibit into evidence,
25 this particular page?

1 MR. PETERS: Yes.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: If it is in evidence, Judge, anybody
3 can refer to it, including the witness. He can read the 4 information. It's an exhibit that's now in evidence.

5 THE COURT: Well, that's right.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: So he could tell Mr. Peters bombing
7 is O. something is D, something is F. but he cannot interpret
8 what that means.

9 THE COURT: The difficulty of that is as he started
10 telling him what those things meant, he began qualifying them
11 and saying, well, he didn't really know, he'd never seen this 12 before, he'd never done this, or whatever.

13 MR. PETERS: So if I limit it, Your Honor, to him
14 telling -- after bombings, there's attempted bombings and 15 accidental explosions. That's the extent of his reading from 16 this document. And I won't ask him about how, what those 17 mean or how it was prepared.

18 THE COURT: Who made the entries?

19 MR. PETERS: Judge, what we have is the business
20 records from the ATF.

21 THE COURT: I'm asking, who made the entries?

22 MR. PETERS: We've just now been advised that it
23 was Marquardt at the noon recess.

24 MR. BECKER: That's my information now. As I said
25 at the last bench conference, I'm going to find out who

1 filled out that report.

2 THE COURT: Are you calling Marquardt?

3 MR. BECKER: No, but he's on the defendant's list,
4 and I could easily call him if necessary, if needed.

5 MR. PETERS: My concern, Judge, is this may be my 6 last opportunity without putting the entire document in or 7 those sections that the Court approves, to put it before the 8 jury. And it has significance as to other questions I'm 9 going to be asking him.

10 MR. BECKER: I wouldn't say it was his last
11 opportunity since Mr., Agent Marquardt is a listed witness
12 for one of the defendants. Further, I would certainly make 13 available any ATF agent who, in fact, filled out that
14 incident report.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I have Marquardt for other reasons,
16 not this. I didn't even know he did this until just now,
17 obviously.

18 Secondly, I think that the burden is on the 19 government. We may not call any witnesses to say that. We 20 may call someone to prove that point, but we don't have to 21 prove anything.

22 THE COURT: That's up to you.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand that. But it's the 24 Government's proof here. They put this witness up as an 25 expert. The exhibit is in evidence. Anyone can read from

2 THE COURT: This is exactly the reason why I don't
3 certify experts because we're into an area where he really
4 isn't an expert. I mean, except for the vocabulary.

5 MR. OSGOOD: Certainly he can testify as to his
6 understanding of what explosion means and what bombing means.

7 THE COURT: No, not necessarily.

8 MR. PETERS: I'm not going to get into that, but 9 r. O'Connor's point is well-taken. This is a business
10 record that is going to come in as a business record. Who 11 prepared it, we have evidence from this witness that these 12 are prepared in the ordinary course of business. If they
13 want to say who prepared it, that's fine. But I have a
14 witness available to us who is from out of town, the exhibits
15 have been admitted. I won't ask him who prepared it or what
16 it means. But we have somebody -- in the length of time
17 we've been discussing it, this particular point would be 18 resolved. It's a business record. These points are 19 contained in a business record provided by the government to 20 me.

21 THE COURT: Well, I guess I don't know where you're 22 going now. Why don't you just ask him what the codes on this 23 document are.

24 MR. PETERS: I'll do that.

25 THE COURT: Do that.

1 MR. BECKER: Are you going to follow up?

2 MR. PETERS: Judge, I would do that. The only
3 thing that I would want to add is in this scenario of 4 November 29th, by it being listed as bombing, it's not being
5 listed as these other codes. I don't intend to go -

6 THE COURT: That's on the document too, isn't it?

7 MR. PETERS: Yes. And if this document is 8 submitted, that's fine.

9 THE COURT: Don't argue your case through him with 10 those other entries.

11 MR. BECKER: I guess it's the same objection. This 12 witness has indicated no familiarity with what this -

13 THE COURT: We'll limit that.

14 MR. BECKER: Okay. That's fine.

15 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

16 THE COURT: Okay. We're back, ladies and 17 gentlemen.

18 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Agent Lund, directing your attention
19 to what has been marked -

20 A. That's fine.

21 Q. Oh, that's yours. What has been marked as Defendants,
22 Exhibit No. 8, were you able to find an entry prepared by ATF
23 regarding the November 29th, 1988, incident at Mountain
24 Plains Construction in Kansas City, Missouri?

25 A. Yes, I saw it.

1 Q. And if you would, I am showing you and it's my
2 understanding that my pages may be out of order. So for the
3 record, the facsimile is shown as Page 4 at the top. But 4 it's in alphabetical order.

5 And did you on -- and I'm just going to hand it to 6 you and step away. Did you go through and highlight the 7 incident codes on a variety of things on that exhibit?

8 A. Yes, at your request.

9 Q. And is there an incident listed for the ATF
10 investigation of the explosion of November 29th, 1988,
11 relating to Mountain Plains?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And would you tell the members of the jury what the 14 incident code is that is listed?

15 A. B as in boy.

16 Q. B as in boy? From your examination of other documents,
17 have you been able to determine whether or not that code
18 corresponds to a bombing?

19 A. Yes, B stands for bombing.

20 Q. There were no other codes listed on that document as to 21 an accidental explosion or arson, there's only that one code;
22 is that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Now, are you aware of any instance in the history of the 25 United States where a trailer loaded with ammonium nitrate

1 and fuel oil has caught fire where that isn't the subject of
2 question or dispute, where it's documented that it's caught
3 fire and it has exploded?

4 A. The trailer itself?

5 Q. The trailer catching fire and the contents of the 6 trailer high ordering.

7 A. I've never investigated another trailer with ANFO in it
8 exploding.

9 Q. And my question' from your personal investigations'
10 discussions with anyone, any source, have you ever heard of 11 evidence of a trailer catching fire loaded with ANFO and that 12 trailer exploding?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Let me ask you, sir, your area of expertise is 15 explosives enforcement; is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And we talked about technical abilities to create a
18 detonation; is that correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And are you familiar with different ways that a
21 professional explosives engineer could create a detonation
22 that would set off a, whether it's a legal or illegal load of 23 ANFO? Are there a variety of ways that that could be 24 accomplished?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And if I were to come to you or someone with your level
2 of expertise and ask you to design for me a detonator to be
3 placed in a trailer where the trailer was going to be set on 4 fire and a timed detonation, is that something that someone
5 with your degree of expertise would be able to create?

6 A. With some modifications, but let me emphasize, the 7 problem that you have in that incident is the tremendous
8 heat. We're talking 2,000 degrees. At that point, nothing
9 survives that that's sensitive, such as a detonator.

10 Q. And my question was, sir, if I came to someone like you
11 with your level of expertise, you could design a detonator
12 that would withstand heat and trigger an explosion at the 13 exact moment that you wanted it to explode, couldn't you do
14 that?

15 A. Not at the exact moment, no, I couldn't do that.

16 Q. Would you be able to create a device that would
17 explode -

18 A. Let me go back to what I said before. You're in a
19 tremendously hot fire. Nothing survives a fire that hot. It
20 would be external triggering.

21 Q. Are you telling me that you would be unable to devise a
22 detonating device that could withstand the heat of an 23 external fire on the trailer, that you could not design such 24 a detonator, that it is not capable of surviving the heat on 25 the outside of a trailer without detonating?

1 A. On the outside?

2 Q. (Mr. Peters nods head.)

3 A. Then the problem would be getting that explosive energy
4 transmitted to the inside. Again, we have that tremendously
5 hot fire. That would be my most concerning part. To blow up
6 the trailers is no problem. To blow up several trailers is 7 no problem. But when we have a tremendous fireball that's 8 pulsating, then we have a problem. We have to keep these 9 explosives cool enough to function when you want them to 10 function.

11 Q. I understand that, Mr. Lund. My question is are you
12 telling us that the technology to create such a detonator
13 does not exist?

14 A. I don't know. That's a pretty advanced area.

15 Q. You've told us that to the best of your knowledge you're 16 never aware in the history of the United States of a fully 17 loaded ANFO trailer catching fire and exploding; is that
18 correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Let's go at the other end. Are you aware of instances
21 where a fully loaded ANFO trailer has caught fire, has been 22 heated from the bottom up, the wheels have caught fire, and 23 it has not exploded?

24 A. I have talked to blasters that have advised me that 25 that's occurred, where the trailer burned and they dumped the

1 trailer and moved their tractor out of the way and it did, in
2 fact, burn to the ground.

3 Q. Do you know if anybody checked to determine whether the 4 vents on this trailer were opened or closed?

5 A. No, sir, I don't know that.

6 Q. Do you know if anybody at any time did a burn test to 7 determine whether or not the floor of the trailer could be
8 set on fire in such a way that it would burn through and 9 ignite the ANFO from the bottom up? Have any tests such as 10 that been done?

11 A. I'm not familiar with any tests of that nature.

12 Q. On the scene as an outside company is preparing to burn
13 two trailers, one, more than one trailer at their expense,
14 did anybody request that you conduct tests to see how hot the 15 temperature would become inside the trailer?

16 A. I know of no such test.

17 Q. Did anybody ask you to conduct a test on trailers that
18 were being burned by Unsolved Mysteries to determine how long 19 it would take for fire to burn through the floor of the 20 trailer?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. If we were to take thirteen fully loaded trailers of 23 ammonium nitrate and fuel oil in a Maynes Mix pack like this 24 stacked from floor to ceiling, and we were to take those 25 trailers one at a time into an open field and set fire to the

1 tires and create an inferno from the bottom up, can you tell
2 us with any certainty whether any of those trailers would
3 explode?

4 A. I would have to give you a double negative. I couldn't
5 guarantee you that they wouldn't all explode. But then,
6 again, I couldn't guarantee that none of it would explode.
7 It's not a guarantee.

8 Q. But from the history that you're aware of, from the 9 1900's when ANFO first began being used, there is no incident
10 where a trailer load of ANFO has been ignited by fire and has 11 high ordered; isn't that correct?

12 A. I haven't read that, that's correct.

13 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

14 THE COURT: All right. Miss Hunt?

15 MS. HUNT: No questions, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch?

17 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: No further questions, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood?

20 MR. OSGOOD: I don't have any questions at this
21 time, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. BECKER: I have some redirect, Judge.

24 THE COURT: All right.

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

2 By Mr. Becker:

3 Q. Mr. Lund, the documents that Mr. Peters introduced into
4 evidence, I believe 7, Defendants, 7 and 8?

5 MR. PETERS: Correct.

6 Q. Did you get those for him at his request from the Bureau
7 of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms?

8 A. Yes, sir, I did.

9 Q. And also, did you meet with Mr. Peters on Sunday or 10 Monday of this week and spend several hours discussing
11 various theories of explosions as they relate to this case?

12 A. Yes, sir, I did.

13 Q. A couple of things that you did discuss was how to 14 create a device that someone could put inside these trailers
15 and then have the trailer burn for at least, at a minimum 28
16 minutes before exploding? Did you discuss that -

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- at some length with Mr. Peters?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Well, I'd like you to explain in more detail for us,
21 please, about what would happen to a blasting cap -- well,
22 how would you start an explosion inside a trailer filled from 23 floor to ceiling with these tubes?

24 A. Going back to what I previously stated about the 25 function of ANFO, you need a cast booster. And the cast

1 booster would necessarily have to be in proximity to the 2 explosives. That is, into the explosives, touching. It has
3 to be right there.

4 Q. So I don't want to -- I need to interrupt a little bit.
5 So are we talking about if you opened the side door of the 6 semi trailer, for example?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And these things are stacked up, would you need to put 9 the cast booster under, just slap it on the side, what would
10 you do?

11 A. I would put it between two or three of the socks of 12 ANFO.

13 Q. So you would sort of insert it?

14 A. Yes, intimate contact.

15 Q. Then what would you do in order to blow up that trailer?

16 A. Then a detonator is required to go inside of the cast
17 booster.

18 Q. What is a detonator? What does it look like and what is 19 it made of?

20 A. It's a quarter inch round aluminum shell with a primary
21 explosive, very sensitive explosive charge. And once you
22 cause that small detonator to function, it then, in fact,
23 causes the cast booster to explode, which transmits a shock
24 wave from the booster into the ammonium nitrate to cause the 25 massive explosion.

1 Q. How would you set off the blasting cap or -

2 A. The blasting cap, well, there's several ways. One, you
3 have a burning time fuse that you would see in the movies
4 where somebody lights the fuse and throws it.

5 The second method is you hook up an electric
6 detonator to an electrical wire and you go back at a
7 prescribed distance, and then you send the electrical energy
8 through that wire into that electric detonator. The 9 detonator function explodes, causes the cast booster to 10 explode, which causes the ANFO to explode.

11 Q. How fast does that happen?

12 A. One ten-thousandths of a second. As soon as the cap
13 goes, everything goes. It goes right now.

14 Q. Well, so how do you blow up the trailer in either of 15 those methods if that trailer is seen on fire at 3:40 a.m.
16 and then explodes at 4:08 a.m.? What device was being
17 constructed hypothetically, I guess, to do that? Is there a
18 timer we're talking about that's inside the trailer?

19 A. No. Because there's such heat in that trailer, I know
20 of no timer that would withstand that heat.

21 Q. And what about the cast, does that survive, if it's 22 inserted, as you described for blasting effect, if there's a
23 fire there, would that survive 28 minutes in a fire
24 environment?

25 A. The cast -

1 MR. PETERS: I object to the form of the question
2 unless we qualify it the fire is outside the trailer. Unless
3 we give him sufficient -

4 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Wait a minute. Why do
5 you assume that?

6 MR. PETERS: I object to the question as not having 7 sufficient foundation.

8 THE COURT: Well, I'm not sure that there is.
9 Rather than pass it in that form, you'd better modify it.
10 I'll sustain the objection.

11 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) If a witness had described seeing that 12 trailer, witnesses described seeing that trailer glowing and 13 not being able to see really the exterior of it anymore but 14 glowing, would that signify to you that these tubes were 15 involved in the fire inside the trailer?

16 A. Yes. They would be involved in the fire.

17 Q. Is that how they would -- well, so what would happen to 18 that cast booster placed on, inserted for the purpose of 19 setting off these tubes?

20 A. It would melt.

21 Q. Melt?

22 A. Melt.

23 Q. How quickly?

24 A. Somewhere around 400 to 500 degrees, it would melt.

25 Q. Just for understanding purposes, what is 400 or 500

1 degrees, how do you produce that much heat?

2 A. That could be heat from a match, cigarette lighter, but
3 we have time and duration now. You just don't put it
4 under -- it has to get hot because that's how you make a cast
5 booster. It's heated and poured into a mold.

6 Q. How long would the cast booster last in an environment
7 of these tubes involved in fire?

8 A. Oh, not long. Because of the oxidation element, they 9 burn very vigorously. It was a very hot fire.

10 Q. What about a blasting cap, the thing that sets off the 11 cast booster? How long would that last involved in the fire
12 I just described?

13 A. The blasting caps are very, very sensitive. Where you
14 can drop the ANFO down a 50-foot tube, if you take the 15 blasting cap and take a lighter and put the lighter under the 16 blasting cap, it can survive about one and a half seconds at 17 500 degrees, and then it's going to explode. They're the 18 dangerous pieces, they're subject to heat, shock, friction
19 and everything else. You don't throw blasting caps around.
20 They're secured in boxes. They do not take rough handling.

21 Q. So to follow through, then, with Mr. Peters, idea -

22 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I object to it being
23 characterized as Mr. Peters, idea.

24 THE COURT: Do you object to having an idea
25 attributed to you, Mr. Peters?

955

1 MR. PETERS: Only if I get recognition from the
2 Court, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Well it's going to be the Peters idea
4 followed up on. Overruled.

5 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) The line of questioning regarding a
6 bomb being placed in what we'll call trailer No. 1, would it
7 have to include this cast booster and a blasting cap to set
8 off the cast booster?

9 A. In order to set it off under normal fashion, it requires
10 a cast booster and a detonator.

11 Q. Would that detonator in your expert opinion survive 28
12 minutes of fire?

13 A. Not that type of fire, no.

14 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions, then,
15 Judge. Thank you.

16 MR. PETERS: Judge, I just have a couple of 17 follow-ups on that.

19 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

20 By Mr. Peters:

21 Q. Mr. Lund, what all of us have been talking about when we
22 talk about a burning time fuse, electrical wire, remote
23 control, we're talking about techniques that lawful blasters
24 would employ to detonate charges; isn't that correct?

25 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

1 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions, Judge.

2 MR. OSGOOD: I have a couple, Your Honor, if I
3 may.

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 By Mr. Osgood:

7 Q. It's quite plausible -- strike that. A cast booster can
8 be nothing more than a quarter stick of dynamite with a
9 mercury fulminate cap in it, can't it?

10 A. Actually, it's a little larger than that, but you're 11 basically correct.

12 Q. And the, these caps are all mercury fulminate, which is 13 a highly sensitive explosive, isn't it? Dropping a cap can 14 cause it to go off?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. And your precursor explosion could actually be in the 17 truck that was backed up next to it, couldn't it, which in 18 turn might or might not blow the entire trailer. But if it
19 didn't, it could set it on fire, couldn't it?

20 A. There could have been an explosion first if someone
21 actually heard an explosion.

22 Q. A small one?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. So you could have had a small explosion in the truck
25 itself, which would set the truck on fire, and the fire would

1 spread to the trailer, wouldn't it?

2 A. You could put a device in the truck to cause it to burn.

3 Q. And you could take an alarm clock, for example, with two

4 hands on it and set them 59 minutes apart, for example, or

5 several hours apart so when the hands came together and made

6 an electrical contact it would blow, wouldn't it, sir?

7 That's a common cheap time bomb, isn't it?

8 A. The part of the clock is correct, but not in this fire

9 because that cheap alarm clock would not stay intact in that

10 massive fire.

11 Q. If there's no fire, if there's nothing, everything is

12 quiet and the full moon is out and you've got your clock and

13 your battery and two hands and a precursor charge of some

14 kind, that clock can run and there are a variety of ways of 15 timing it to go beyond 59 minutes, aren't there?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. All you need is some mechanical device that would come

18 together at a specified period of time and a battery and

19 mercury fulminate cap, and you've got a time bomb, don't you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And it could have been set at 5 o'clock in the afternoon

22 and it goes off and sets the truck on fire and the fire

23 spreads to the trailer and the gas builds up in the trailer,

24 and you've got this a tremendous explosion in 28 minutes?

25 A. Where is the explosion?

1 Q. It's in the truck.

2 A. And then a fireball hits the trailer and sets the
3 trailer on fire?

4 Q. There's a small precursor explosion, and the truck is on 5 fire, and it spreads to the trailer and the gas builds up in
6 the trailer. Twenty-eight minutes later, just like you said,
7 it explodes from internal combustion?

8 A. The fire could be set in the truck in various ways.

9 Q. Yes, sir. But it could have been by a time bomb?

10 A. It could have been anything to set that truck on fire.

11 Q. An explosion is nothing more than a controlled burn,
12 isn't it, sir?

13 A. Yes, sir, it is.

14 Q. In other words, when your car engine creates cylinder
15 fires, we think of it as an explosion, but it's actually a
16 rapid burn ignited by a spark plug, which is fueled by a gas
17 fuel mixture, which is a rapid oxidation, isn't it?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And that's what you have is a rapid oxidation in a
20 confined area, which is an explosion, isn't it?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. So you cannot sit here and tell us today what the source
23 of the explosion was or the fire that created the explosion
24 by hypotheating, can you?

25 THE COURT: You're arguing with the witness. Don't

1 argue with him. Ask him questions.

2 Q. You do not, you are not able at this point to say
3 whether or not there was a precursor explosion, are you?

4 A. I relied, as I previously stated, on the fire
5 investigators saying that it was set from underneath. There
6 was a fire underneath where there was a fire in the truck,
7 and my testimony is that the fire inside the truck caused the 8 explosion. How that original fire got started underneath of 9 there, that was a call from a fire investigator and not 10 myself.

11 Q. And you don't know that?

12 A. I don't know that.

13 MR. OSGOOD: Okay. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 — — —

16 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

17 By Mr. Becker:

18 Q. In your expert opinion, was this explosion caused by the 19 piling effect of these ANFO socks in that trailer?

20 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I would object as being 21 beyond the scope of cross-examination.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 A. The intense fire and the way that it was piled inside
24 and the trapping of gas, it was a sudden release of energy.

25 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

960

1 THE COURT: All right, sir. Thank you. You're 2 excused.

3 Ladies and gentlemen, we'll take our break. I'll
4 remind you that we're going to work tomorrow just from 9:00
5 to 12:00 and we'll not work tomorrow afternoon. Don't talk
6 about the case. Don't read or watch anything about it that
7 might appear in the public media.

8 Drive carefully going home, and we'll see you
9 tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. You're excused.

1 an exhibit and has the other names of the other
2 parties, just print his name out the way the other
3 names are printed out so the jury could have it.

4 MR. BECKER: His initials are on there.

5 THE COURT: We have the initials right now.

6 Q Do you remember hearing the explosion that happened in 7 the early morning hours of November 29, 1988?

8 A Yes, I do.

9 Q What were you doing when this happened?

10 A I was asleep in my bedroom and when the explosion
11 happened it knocked everything off the wall and woke me
12 up.

13 Q Was there any damage to the house you were living in?

14 A Yes, it cracked the foundation from the garage all the 15 way back to our bedroom, all the way across the house
16 length-wise and broke out a couple windows, knocked
17 things off the wall.

18 Q In fact, did you have to evacuate or leave your house
19 for a couple of days?

20 A Yes, we had a gas leak and we were evacuated from our 21 house for a few days while they repaired the leak.

22 Q Now, sometime after the blast do you recall a visit
23 from Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and their sister
24 Didi Sheppard?

25 A: Yes, I do.

1 Q In your best estimate, when did that occur after the
2 blast?

3 A: It wasn't long after. I don't remember exactly how
4 long but it wasn't long after the blast. I would say
5 two weeks to a month.

6 Q Was that nighttime or daytime, when was it?

7 A: It was late night, early morning.

8 Q Where was that visit? Where did they come?

9 A: They came to my house at 8500 Hillcrest.

10 THE COURT: Be specific. Who are the "they 11 you are referring to.

12 Q Who came during that visit?

13 A: Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and DiDi Sheppard.

14 THE COURT: It sounds like a nickname.

15 THE WITNESS: DiDi is known to her friends
16 and everybody as DiDi but her real name is Naomi.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Q Please tell us about that visit, what happened when 19 they got there? Were you awake or what was going on?

20 A: They knocked on our window, bedroom window, and woke us
21 up. They were intoxicated and they wanted us to get up
22 and party with them, me and my wife.

23 Q Did you get up and let them in?

24 A: Yes, I did.

25 Q Where did you go? Where did the group go then?

1 A: We were sitting at my kitchen table.

2 Q What happened when you were sitting at your kitchen

3 table, what were you doing?

4 A: We just started talking at first. And then they wanted

5 us to smoke marijuana with them.

6 Q Did you?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q What happened then?

9 A: Then we just sat up and partied for a little bit and

10 they noticed our house was getting repaired.

11 Q Did you talk about the repairs?

12 A: Yes, we talked that it was from the blast and we asked

13 them if they lived over by it and I asked them if

14 anything happened to their house.

15 Q You know where they lived, right?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q You have been to the Sheppard residence many times.

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And is it right up on Hickman Mills Drive as depicted

20 on that map, as it looks like on that map?

21 A: Yes, sir.

22 Q Did they say they had any damage to their house at all?

23 A: No, they didn't say.

24 Q What happened next?

25 A: To my recollection, Skip told me he was at the blast

964

1 site and he said he was there and I asked him how he
2 was there. And they said they went to Quik Trip over
3 by the blast site. I asked them why they were there
4 and they sort of tapped DiDi on the back of her head.

5 Q Who did?

6 A: Skip. And he said if she would have done her job that
7 wouldn't have happened.

8 Q Did Frank Sheppard say anything about the explosion?

9 A: Frank said that the fire was set as a diversion and 10 that they didn't know explosives were in the dump
11 truck.

12 Q Did he say anything about the firemen?

13 A: He said they were stupid for rushing in; they should 14 have found out what was up there before they went up
15 there to put out the fire.

16 Q After you had this conversation with the Sheppards,
17 Skip and Frank Sheppard, did you tell anybody about it,
18 friends or the police or anybody like that?

19 A: No, sir.

20 Q Did there come a time you decided to come forward with 21 this information?

22 A: Yes, when the FBI came to my house.

23 Q When they came to see you?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Do you remember when that was?

1 A: It was a couple years ago; February 19, 1995.

2 Q 1995.

3 A: I believe that's it.

4 Q Do you remember who you talked to when they came to 5 your house, the agents?

6 A: Mr. Schram. And I believe the other one was David
7 True. There were three of them.

8 MR. BECKER: Thank you very much.

9 CROSS EXAMINATION

10 BY MS. HUNT:

11 Q Mr. Barchers, do you have any children?

12 A: Yes, madam.

13 Q What children do you have?

14 A: I have a seven year old son and an eighteen year old
15 son from my wife. He was with my wife when I first met
16 her. He was three.

17 Q Can you see this family free from where you are 18 sitting?

19 A: Yes, ma'am.

20 Q I think you said there was one person of the Sheppard
21 family, the children of Naomi and Earl Sheppard, that 22 is deceased.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q What was his name?

25 A Binky.

980

1 Q Was that a nickname?

2 A: That is all I have known him by.

3 Q How did he die?

4 A: By a gunshot wound.

5 Q Do you know any of the circumstances of that?

6 A: From what I was told by my Aunt Elma, he went over to a
7 friend's house that morning. He was supposed to be
8 going to school and he went over to a friend's house
9 and they were looking at a gun and the gun went off,
10 shot Binky in the head.

11 Q Do you know who the friend was?

12 A: No, ma'am.

13 Q Do you know if Skip Sheppard was in any car wreck, ever
14 had any injuries to him?

15 A: Yes, ma'am.

16 Q What do you know about that?

17 A: He was in a car wreck with his ex girl friend.

18 Q Do you know when, roughly?

19 A: No, ma'am. I was in the Navy at that time.

20 Q You were in the Navy.

21 A: I just heard through Aunt Elma.

22 Q And you were in the Navy from what years?

23 A: August of 1974 until November, 1982.

24 Q So this car wreck occurred before the explosion in '88.

25 A: As far as my recollection, yes.

981

1 Q It occurred while you were in the Navy. You got out of
2 the Navy in 1982, is that right?

3 A: The wreck that he was in might have been after I got
4 out of the Navy. I wasn't sure because I didn't know
5 his girl friend all that well. I know they lived on 6 Wabash at the time.

7 Q After this car wreck Skip Sheppard was in a coma for 8 some time, wasn't he?

9 A: I know Skip Sheppard was injured severely. I don't
10 know what his circumstances was in the hospital.

11 Q He had head injuries.

12 THE COURT: Counsel, when you are referring 13 to Skip Sheppard, you mean Earl.

14 MS. HUNT: Right. That is the nickname he 15 goes by.

16 THE COURT: Is that on that chart?

17 THE WITNESS: Earl.

18 THE COURT: I think we better use Earl, if 19 you don't mind.

20 MR. BECKER: I don't want to wade in here but 21 the indictment does charge and include the name Skip.

22 THE COURT: A/k/a Skip.

23 MR. BECKER: The vast majority will be
24 referring to him as Skip.

25 Q Earl Sheppard has used the name Skip his entire life,

1 hasn't he, the nickname?

2 A: Right.

3 Q I think you said on your Direct Examination you worked

4 at the Bannister Amoco station.

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Isn't it true you were fired two days ago?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q I think you said in 1995 you pled guilty to possession

9 of marijuana?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Who arrested you on that?

12 A: It was a plea bargain.

13 Q Who was the arresting office?

14 A: The Jackson County Drug Enforcement.

15 Q And you cooperated with those people.

16 A: The Jackson County Drug Enforcement?

17 Q Yes.

18 A: Really there wasn't no cooperation to it.

19 Q But you ended up with three years probation.

20 A: Right.

21 Q Was anybody else charged in that case besides you?

22 A: My wife.

23 Q What is her name?

24 A: Peggy.

25 Q She was charged with the same offense.

1 A Yes.

2 1 Q Did she also plead guilty?

3 A Yes.

4 ~ Q Do you have any sisters?

5 ~ A Yes.

6 Q What is her name?

7 A Lisa.

8 Q Last name?

9 A Landon.

10 Q Where does she live?

11 MR. BECKER: Objection.

12 Q In the Kansas City area or out of town?

13 A In the Kansas City area.

14 Q And I think you testified on Direct Examination that

15 ~ you have a brother named Al who is roughly the same age

16 as Skip Sheppard?

17 A Yes.

18 Q What does Al do for a living?

19 A He was working at the Jackson County Jail.

20 Q As a jailer.

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q Do you remember testifying in front of the grand jury

23 in this case?

24 A Yes.

25 ~ Q And was Mr. Becker asking you questions concerning what

984

1 your testimony is today?

2 A: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Miss Hunt, would you come up for
4 a minute.

5 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

6 THE COURT: Do you intend to use this as 7 impeachment?

8 MS. HUNT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: What impeaches what?

10 MS. HUNT: He said on Direct Examination they 11 came over a month to two months later. Here he said
12 one to two days later.

13 THE COURT: He didn't say a month to two
14 months, for one thing, in his Direct Examination.

15 MS. HUNT: That is what I have in my notes.

16 THE COURT: You noted wrong.

17 MS. HUNT: A couple weeks to a month.

18 THE COURT: He said a couple weeks.

19 MS. HUNT: And he says one to two days. In 20 his Direct he said Skip made the statements. In this
21 he says Frank did.

22 MR. BECKER: Okay, but I think his testimony
23 is pretty consistent with his prior statement. That's 24 fine. There are two different statements. Frank said
25 certain things and Skip said certain things but if you

1 want to go back into it, he can explain it again.

2 ~ (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury)

3 Q In your Direct Examination you testified the explosion
4 caused a gas leak at your house, is that correct?

5 A: I didn't say at my house.

Q In the area of your neighborhood.

7 A: In the area.

8 Q And you were evacuated from your house.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q You said this purported conversation with my client
11 Frank Sheppard occurred two or three weeks to a month
12 after the explosion.

13 A: Right. I can't remember exactly how long after the 14 explosion but it was very shortly.

15 Q Do you remember testifying in the grand jury on 16 September 26th of 1995?

17 A: I remember that, yes.

18 Q You were under oath at that time, is that correct?

19 A: Yes, ma'am.

20 Q I am going to hand you what has been marked Defendant's
21 Exhibit 9 and ask if you can identify that.

22 THE COURT: I am not sure he is really able 23 to identify grand jury testimony. Just ask him if that 24 is what it appears to be and we can move on without 25 taking all that time.

986

1 Q You can look through that exhibit and see if that
2 appears to be a transcript of your testimony on that
3 day.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Would you turn to page 6 of that transcript and look at 6 line 6 on page 6. Just read that paragraph, that 7 answer to yourself.

8 A: Line six, you said?

9 Q This whole paragraph from line 6 down to line 11.

10 A: (Witness complies.)

11 Q When you were asked in the grand jury when this 12 conversation took place, you said a day or two after 13 the explosion, isn't that correct?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q I want you to look on down from line 11 to lines 12
16 through 20. Have you read that to yourself?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q When you were asked in the grand jury who made the 19 statements about "We went up there and we were there 20 and saw the explosion", it was not Skip Sheppard, was
21 it?

22 THE COURT: You mean at that point in the
23 transcript.

24 MS. HUNT: His answer, when he was asked that
25 question.

1 THE COURT: At that point in the transcript.

2 MS. HUNT: Yes.

3 Q You did not say it was Skip Sheppard, did you?

4 A: I said Skip Sheppard.

5 Q That's correct, but "They said they were there"; it

6 wasn't Skip that said he was there, was it?

7 A: No, it was Frank.

8 Q And you also said that day "DiDi Sheppard was there".

9 A: Yes.

10 Q And DiDi is?

11 A: The sister.

12 Q What is her given name?

13 A: Naomi.

14 Q The same name as the mother, is that correct?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Her middle name is Earlene.

17 A: Right.

18 Q Do you see DiDi anywhere in this courtroom?

19 A: No, ma'am.

20 Q It is your testimony she was present in this

21 conversation and acted like she was involved.

22 A: She came over to my house with Frank and Skip, yes.

23 Q In the grand jury testimony again, this is on page 7

24 now, I want you to read the answer you gave beginning

25 on line 9.

1 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Ask him if he was
2 asked this question and did he give this answer.

3 MS. HUNT: Okay.

4 Q During this conversation you had at your house with the
5 Sheppards did they tell you, allegedly tell you why
6 they were up there that day?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q What was that?

9 A: Go up to the house and get metals out of the houses
10 that they evacuated and get construction equipment.

11 Q That is the reason they gave you.

12 THE COURT: Did you say to get construction
13 equipment.

14 THE WITNESS: To steal construction
15 equipment, turn it in for money.

16 Q All right. And according to your testimony here today
17 and your grand jury testimony you previously gave 18 there, they gave this conversation to you shortly after 19 this incident, is that correct?

20 A: Right.

21 Q You learned this information shortly after November
22 29th of 1988, is that correct?

23 A: Right.

24 Q But you didn't come forward.

25 A: Right.

1 Q Until February 19th of 1995, is that right?

2 A: Right.

3 Q You had heard the news account of this terrible

4 incident, hadn't you?

5 A: Yes, ma'am.

6 Q You knew these people had been injured and people were

7 killed out there, didn't you?

8 A: Yes, ma'am.

9 Q But you never came forward to the police with this

10 information.

11 A: No, ma'am.

12 Q And you lived in this town the entire time.

13 A: Yes, ma'am.

14 Q Have you discussed these conversations or this

15 information with anybody except agents of the 16 government and the prosecutor?

17 A: Yes, I have talked to my Aunt Elma about it.

18 Q Did you talk to your wife about this conversation?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Was your wife present?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q Was anybody else present?

23 A: No.

24 Q Was your sister Lisa Landon, was she present?

25 A: No.

990

1 Q Have you discussed this incident with her or this
2 conversation with her at all?

3 A: No.

4 THE COURT: You referred to your Aunt Naomi
5 as Naomi Sheppard.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Is she a blood aunt?

8 THE WITNESS: No, she was just real close to 9 my parents and we were always brought up to call her
10 Aunt Elma because she was so close to the family.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 THE WITNESS: I love her like an aunt.

13 Q Have you ever seen the Unsolved Mysteries program
14 concerning this event?

15 A: Yes, ma'am.

16 Q Do you know when you saw that?

17 A: I think I saw it one time. I can't remember exactly.
18 They have had it on, from what I have heard, many
19 times.

20 Q Was it before or after you came and talked to the 21 police?

22 A: Before.

23 Q You have a son seven years old, is that correct?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q And he needs surgery, doesn't he?

1 A: No.

2 Q Does he need treatment?

3 MR. BECKER: Relevance.

4 THE COURT: Just a minute. Why is this
5 relevant?

6 MS. HUNT: I can stop.

7 THE COURT: All right. Apparently it isn't.

8 Q Are you aware there is a reward for information leading 9 to the arrest and conviction of individuals in this
10 case?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q When you came home in the summer, when you were a
13 younger person and lived in New York and you came home
14 and spent the summer with the Sheppard family, do you
15 remember that?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Where did they live then?

18 A: On Wabash. I am really not sure. When you are a kid
19 you really don't pay attention which street they lived
20 on. I believe it was on Wabash.

21 Q What kind of house did they have?

22 A: It was like a ranch-style farm type house. They had a
23 cellar separated from the house. I remember it because 24 it flooded out and we used to go swimming down there.

25 Q How many bedrooms, do you remember?

1 A: I am not sure. I didn't count the bedrooms.

2 Q At that time there were five Sheppard children. Was
3 the other still alive?

4 A: When we first started coming down, my sister wasn't
5 born yet nor my brother Al.

6 Q The Sheppard family had five children.

7 A: No, DiDi wasn't born yet and I am pretty sure Skip
8 wasn't born yet either. It was Binky, Frank and 9 Jackie.

10 Q And your whole family came including your parents.

11 A: Yes, ma'am.

12 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

13 THE COURT: I am sorry I haven't done this
14 yet, but I think it would be efficient if when you all 15 stand up to cross you would identify yourselves and who 16 your client is. Miss Hunt, your client is?

17 MS. HUNT: Skip Sheppard, Earl Sheppard.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Peters.

19 CROSS EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. PETERS:

21 Q Sir, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
22 Sheppard and I would like to go over a few things with 23 you. Mr. Barchers, you have given testimony about 24 statements that you have heard and my first question is 25 as to the time that the statements were given, was this

1 a day or two after the explosion as you testified
2 before the grand jury?

3 A: No, it wasn't. I better get a time. It was shortly
4 after the explosion but it could be a day or two after 5 because they evacuated the area for two days after.

Q And your testimony before the grand jury was inaccurate
7 as to the date then.

8 A: Right.

9 Q And your testimony today is this conversation took 10 place how long after the explosion?

11 A: Two weeks to a month.

12 Q Two weeks to a month.

13 A: It wasn't long after the explosion because our house
14 was getting repaired at the time.

15 Q And again in your grand jury testimony you said that 16 the statements that you have testified to were made by 17 Frank; in front of the jury you have said they were 18 made by Skip.

19 MR. BECKER: Objection. That is inaccurate.

20 THE COURT: That's right. You are using the 21 assertion made by counsel in her examination as a fact.

22 MR. PETERS: I will rephrase the question.

23 Q Who made the statements to you two weeks to a month
24 after the explosion?

25 THE COURT: Which statement?

994

1 MR. PETERS: The statement as to being at the
2 Quik Trip. And that is my client, the gentleman
3 standing up right now that you are talking about,
4 Frank Sheppard.

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

6 Q Now, this statement that you heard, can we agree if it
7 was two weeks to a month after an explosion and on 8 November 29, 1988, that we are talking about, this
9 conversation would have been in 1988.

10 A: Yeah.

11 Q Did you go to the police or did the police come to you
12 in 1989?

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q '90? A No, sir.

15 Q '91? A No, sir.

16 MR. BECKER: Judge, may we approach?

17 THE COURT: Come up.

18 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Could we counsel real
20 quick?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 (Defense counsel confer.)

23 MR. BECKER: I object to Mr. Peters making
24 contemporaneous notations here as we move along
25 because he selectively puts down what is being said

1 about the testimony. If he wants to capture it somehow
2 and sum up on it, fine, but as it is now, he is not
3 writing down what is being said. He takes a word or 4 whatever is said and then writes it down. I don't
5 think it is an appropriate display for the jury.

6 THE COURT: It is tremendously argumentative.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: I can address this.

8 THE COURT: I think we have too much going
9 on.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: After my discussion with 11 Mr. Peters, the thing we wanted to say, several people
12 would say different individuals are involved so we want
13 to get their names on the board, what they were doing,
14 they were there to steal, because there are so many
15 different stories that are coming out. Just to get it
16 on the board, that's all. We are not going to get
17 everything.

18 THE COURT: You can write on the board. You
19 note on the board during argument by way of summary but 20 you can't create an exhibit out of Peters' or yours or 21 anybody else's interpretation of what somebody has 22 testified to and it is a condensation. It isn't all
23 there and it takes on the imprimatur of being more,
24 being weightier than it is because I saw it written
25 right there on that piece of paper.

996

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Our argument, just from this
2 one witness, this family, you can't keep track of 3 everybody. I am still whirling in my head and I have
4 read this file from '89 as to who is who. So many
5 names will come before this jury and so many theories.
6 I agree with the Court, too much is going on that
7 board right now.

8 THE COURT: I think you can write the names
9 of the people that he has testified came to his house
10 and either made or listened to the statements, and no
11 more words.

12 MR. BECKER: If counsel wants to have
13 something to sum up with, he can make any kind of 14 chart he wants. But to contemporaneously do it in 15 front of the jury, it is just argument. If he wants to 16 make charts, great, they can use it for everybody's
17 summation, but he doesn't need to create them in front
18 of the jury.

19 THE COURT: I think that is better.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Our argument, Mr. Miller
21 started drawing on the chart right at the beginning.
22 He wanted things on the chart.

23 MR. BECKER: Those were codes relating to 24 a transcript.

25 MR. OSGOOD: The transcript speaks for

1 itself. My point is, Judge, I think the whole purpose
2 of us doing some of the things we are doing is to aid
3 this jury to remember things and remember names and 4 whatever is going on. There are five defendants and
5 we are worried about them getting confused. The Court
6 has already been confused as to who Earl and Skip is 7 and it is easy and the Court has been doing this a long
8 time.

9 MR. BECKER: They have their own note pads.

10 THE COURT: Eliminate that page. If you want
11 to put the names, that ~ s fine.

12 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

13 Q Mr. Barchers, your testimony is that Frank Sheppard
14 made statements, is that correct?

15 A: Yes, sir.

16 Q And is your testimony that the statements that he made
17 were implicating Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and DiDi
18 Sheppard?

19 A: Yes, sir.

20 Q Do you also know DiDi to be?

21 A: Naomi.

22 Q And DiDi Baker.

23 A: DiDi Baker, right.

24 Q For clarity, can I put DiDi Baker?

25 A: If you would like.

1 Q And behind it I will in brackets put sister, is that
2 correct?

3 A: Yes, sir.

4 Q Now, your testimony is that you, in fact, never went to 5 the police or government agencies but they came to you,
6 isn't that correct?

7 A: Yes, sir.

8 Q And the statement you are relating to them in February
9 of '95 is the statement that you are describing that 10 occurred in the very end of 1988, correct?

11 A: Yes, sir.

12 Q And you are going by your memory as best you can, is
13 that correct?

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 MR. BECKER: Objection. Argumentative.

16 THE COURT: I don't know where we are going.
17 I think it is argumentative.

18 MR. BECKER: I will withdraw it.

19 Q Sir, isn't what you told Mr. True and Mr. Schram that 20 Frank Sheppard told you after the explosion they went
21 to the Quik Trip, isn't that correct?

22 A: They told me they were there.

23 Q They were there and he didn't tell you when.

24 A: They didn't tell me if they were at the place.

25 Q He told you at the Quik Trip he talked to a guard,

1 isn't that correct?

2 A: He said the guard was over there eating donuts and
3 drinking coffee.

4 Q He told you the guard said that the guard was at the 5 scene until the firemen showed up, isn't that correct?

6 A: He didn't tell me whether the guard told him that. He
7 just said the guard said. He could have overheard it.
8 I don't know if he overheard it or if he had a
9 conversation with the guard.

10 Q But the conversation you are having in 1988 with Frank
11 Sheppard is Frank Sheppard telling you what he had 12 heard from the guard at Quik Trip, isn't that correct?

13 A: I don't know if he heard it from the guard or where he 14 heard it but he told me he was at that Quik Trip. He 15 didn't tell me whether he talked to the guard or he 16 overheard it.

17 Q Did you testify before the grand jury that -

18 THE COURT: Don't characterize it. Give him
19 questions and answers.

20 Q Have you said that Frank Sheppard told you "We were at 21 the Quik Trip"?

22 A: Right. He told me they were there.

23 Q At the Quik Trip.

24 A: Well, I asked him "What do you mean by being there?"

25 And he said they were at the Quik Trip.

1000

1 Q The Quik Trip over by where the explosion happened,
2 isn't that correct?

3 A: Yes.

Q He said something as to the fact they were talking to 5 the guard, isn't that what he told you?

6 A: I don't remember if he specified that or not.

7 Q Have you previously testified that he said something as
8 to the fact that they were talking to the guard, do you
9 remember giving that testimony before?

10 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry, could we have the 11 page number.

12 MR. PETERS: Page 6.

13 MR. BECKER: Could we have the question and 14 the entire answer.

15 THE COURT: Yes, the question and the answer.

16 Q "Which one said that?" "Answer: Frank. And I said,
17 'You were there.' And I said, 'What do you mean by 18 that?' He said, 'We were at that Quik Trip.' And I
19 said, 'The Quik Trip over by where the explosion
20 happened?' And he said, 'Yeah.' He said something to 21 the fact that they were talking to the guard, there was 22 a guard on site and he was over at Quik Trip drinking
23 coffee and eating donuts." Do you remember giving that
24 testimony?

25 A: Yes.

1001

1 Q And the question to you was right and you continued,
2 "And he said that he was, he was at the scene until the
3 firemen, until the firemen showed up and then he went
4 over to the Quik Trip with Skip and DiDi", do you
5 remember that answer?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q My question to you, sir, is in 1988 isn't it true that
8 what Frank is saying to you is I talked to a guard at 9 the Quik Trip, is that correct?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q And that the guard told him what had gone on the night
12 of the explosion and he was relating that information
13 to you, isn't that what he was telling you?

14 A: He didn't specify thatch what the guard told him. He 15 told me they were there.

16 Q Frank Sheppard never told you that he went up to the 17 site prior to the explosion and had anything to do with 18 the explosion, did he?

19 A: No, he didn't.

20 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

21 THE COURT: Who is next? Mr. Bunch.

22 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

23 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

1002

1 Q Mr. Barchers, I am John O'Connor. I represent Mr.
2 Bryan Sheppard. You and I have never met, have we?

3 A: No, sir.

4 Q Now when the agents came out to see you, I believe the 5 date on it is February 19, 1995, is that about right?

6 A: Yes, sir.

7 Q And they just kind of showed up at your house.

8 A: Yes, sir.

9 Q Were you on probation at that time?

10 A: No, sir.

11 Q And when they came out there to talk with you did they 12 bring a tape recorder with them?

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q Did they ask to tape record everything they were saying
15 to you and you were saying to them?

16 A: No, I don't believe it was tape recorded.

17 Q And they had you swear after you gave this affidavit,
18 they wanted you to swear to it, is that right?

19 A: They asked me if it was to the best of my knowledge,
20 yes.

21 Q Did that seem important to them, they wanted you to 22 swear to what you were telling them?

23 A: I would say it was important they came to my house.

24 Q Some of the conversations that you had with them you
25 told them that some of the comments Frank Sheppard and

1003

1 DiDi Sheppard and Skip Sheppard had made to you were at
2 the time when Bryan Sheppard was in jail by himself
3 charged with this crime, is that true?

4 A: I believe so. Bryan's name was never brought up in the
5 conversation.

6 Q I understand that but do you remember telling the 7 agents that some of the conversations occurred between 8 these three people when Bryan was in jail charged by 9 himself being held without bond?

10 A: Yes, sir.

11 Q Did Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and DiDi Sheppard, or 12 DiDi, Naomi Baker, whatever her real name is, did they 13 say something about Bryan Sheppard to you?

14 A: They just said that he had nothing to do with it.

15 MR. BECKER: Objection.

16 THE COURT: It is hearsay.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach, Judge?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

20 THE COURT: He wasn't there and it is rank
21 hearsay. How does it have any circumstantial guarantee
22 of trustworthiness?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, in this statement that
24 the government was relying on -- let me get it.

25 Let me talk real quick. In this affidavit

1004

1 that he did that day, he told the agents in this
2 conversation they were having, they told him that Bryan
3 didn't do this and they know who did, the police were 4 going to railroad him into a guilty verdict.

5 MR. BECKER: Who said that?

6 THE COURT: Railroad who?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Bryan. In other words, Frank
8 Sheppard was telling this guy in this conversation,
9 Frank Sheppard is saying to Barchers Bryan didn't do
10 this but the police are going to railroad him into a
11 guilty verdict. "When I heard them say they knew 12 Bryan didn't do that, I asked how they knew. They told 13 me they knew who did it and that Bryan wasn't one of 14 the people." So I think that shows they are using the 15 statement, they are trying to use this statement for 16 one purpose and keep it out for another.

17 MR. OSGOOD: Here's the situation. What 18 would otherwise be hearsay statements by the 19 defendant comes in as a statement against penal 20 interest as an exception to the hearsay rule. He is 21 testifying what Frank said.

22 MR. BECKER: It is an admission.

23 MR. OSGOOD: You filed a brief that says
24 where a statement by a party defendant is made in 25 front of another defendant that silence makes that

1005

1 an adopted admission.

2 THE COURT: Bryan wasn't there.

3 MR. OSGOOD: I understand that but under the 4 rule of completeness and under a reliability test, the 5 fact that the charged defendant in this case
6 purportedly admitted his own involvement and at the 7 same time said someone else, who is a charged defendant
8 in this case, was not involved should make it
9 admissible under a reliability test.

10 THE COURT: I don't care what he said about
11 whether Bryan was there because it is the rankest kind
12 of hearsay and there isn't any guarantee to me and,
13 therefore to this jury, that it is worth any more than 14 just somebody's, off the top of their head, opinion. It
15 is an opinion, by the way. It is about the police
16 department trying to railroad Bryan.

17 MR. OSGOOD: I understand that but my point
18 is it is a statement by a charged defendant in this
19 case that exculpates another defendant.

20 THE COURT: It is not a conspiracy case.

21 MR. OSGOOD: You don't have to have a
22 charged conspiracy to make that kind of a statement
23 admissible during the course of and in furtherance of 24 a conspiracy under the rules.

25 MR. BECKER: Perhaps counsel should think

1006

1 about that argument because if these admissions of
2 fact are in furtherance of the conspiracy, then all
3 the admissions where Frank says I did it with Skip and
4 Bryan and Richard come in, where he says I did it and
5 named the other people -- and I have sanitized all
6 those because of counsels' objections. All of those 7 admissions were where the other people are named, we
8 have deleted all those names pursuant to the pretrial
9 litigation -- so if counsel is now saying those 10 statements are in furtherance of a conspiracy, then all 11 those statements are going to come in.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we talk? This is a real
13 important issue for me.

14 THE COURT: Why don't we take our morning
15 break.

16 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: As it turns out, the lawyers and 18 I have some work we have to do, ladies and gentlemen.
19 We will do it as quickly as we can. It is about time
20 for our morning break anyway. So you all don't talk
21 about the case while we are at break. You may withdraw 22 to the jury room and wherever else you go during the 23 next 15 minutes. You are excused.

24 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

25 THE COURT: Go ahead and talk and we will

1007

1 talk about it on the record when we return from recess.

2 RECESS

3 (Proceedings out of the presence of the
4 jury)

5 THE COURT: Are you ready to go?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I am going to leave that area
7 of inquiry and I had two other questions of the witness
8 and Mr. Becker told me he wanted to make a statement.

9 MR. BECKER: I would ask the Court to rule on 10 my objection. And since the answer came out, I would 11 ask the Court instruct the jury that the question and 12 answer are stricken and that the question was improper
13 and they should not consider the question or the 14 answer.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: What I think would be my
16 response to that is the question was asked and answered
17 without objection. Mr. Becker then said he was too
18 late, it was already in, he was too late with his 19 objection. So I believe that his objection now is too
20 late. That is my position.

21 THE COURT: Remind me of the question and
22 answer.

23 MR. BECKER: As I recall, the question was
24 did Frank Sheppard ever tell you that Bryan Sheppard
25 had nothing to do with this. And the answer was yes.

1008

1 THE COURT: I think it happened quickly
2 enough counsel can't be criticized for not objecting.
3 And I must say I would have been surprised if there
4 hadn't been an objection. And I am going to sustain
5 the objection and I will instruct the jury to disregard
6 the question and the answer.

7 (The jury returns to the courtroom.)

8 THE COURT: Have a seat. Now then, ladies
9 and gentlemen, I am instructing you that you are to 10 disregard the last question and answer the witness gave 11 regarding what might have been said to him about 12 someone else's involvement in this matter.

13 All right, let's go.

14 Q (By Mr. Osgood) Just a couple more questions, Mr.
15 Barchers. DiDi Baker, she is someone that you have 16 known since she was little, is that what you told us?

17 A: Yes, sir.

18 Q DiDi, would you stand up. Is this the person you
19 know as DiDi?

20 A: No, sir.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: That is all I have.

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. OSGOOD:

24 Q Mr. Barchers, my name is John Osgood and I represent 25 Richard Brown. You and I have never met, is that

1009

1 correct?

2 A: No, sir.

3 Q Do you know Richard Brown?

4 A: No, sir.

5 Q Ever been to any home identified to you as belonging to 6 the Browns?

7 MR. BECKER: Objection. Not within the scope
8 of Direct Examination.

9 THE COURT: It is outside the scope.
10 Sustained.

11 Q Do you know Richard Brown?

12 A: No, sir.

13 Q Ever heard his name mentioned by any of these people
14 you were talking about?

15 MR. BECKER: Objection.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 Q What were the names that you heard again? I don't want
18 to go over who said what, That is repetitive. What 19 were the names you are here to testify about?

20 MR. BECKER: Objection.

21 THE COURT: That is sustained. That isn't
22 necessary. The jury heard all the testimony.

23 Q You don't know Mr. Brown.

24 A: No, sir.

25 MR. OSGOOD: That's all.

1010

1 MR. BECKER: I have some Redirect.

2 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. BECKER:

4 Q Mr. Barchers, I think you were asked about your 5 statements by Miss Hunt and Mr. Peters on behalf of 6 Skip Sheppard and Frank Sheppard, do you remember that?

7 A: Yes, sir.

8 Q They talked about certain parts of your statement and 9 they showed you your grand jury testimony, do you
10 remember that?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Do you remember in the grand jury hearing this question
13 and giving this answer: "Question," page 7, line 5, 14 "Did they say anything about going up to put out the 15 fire?" "Answer: Yes, they made the statement the 16 firemen were stupid for rushing in."

17 MR. PETERS: Objection. May we approach.

18 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

19 MR. PETERS: This has already been testified
20 to. That is the first objection. The second objection
21 is reading back a question without first laying a
22 foundation. It leads to an improper third party "they"
23 meaningless before the jury. Did they tell you. Did
24 they go up there?

25 THE COURT: I think in the context of this

1011

1 man's testimony, that is not true.

2 MR. BECKER: The purpose of my doing it,
3 because counsel left the impression he did not give
4 the complete story to the grand jury.

5 THE COURT: That is all right. If that is an
6 objection, it is overruled.

7 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

8 Q Do you remember hearing these questions and giving
9 these answers to the grand jury, page 7, line 5:
10 "Question: Did they say anything about the firemen
11 going up to put out the fire?" "Answer: Yes, they 12 made the statement that the firemen were stupid for 13 rushing in to put out the fire without knowing what was 14 up there. And he also said all they wanted to do was 15 collect a little bit of metal that was up there to 16 turn in from houses that they had evacuated."
17 "'Question: Did they say anything about no-one was 18 supposed to be killed?" "Answer: He said Skip reached
19 over and slapped DiDi and he said if she would have 20 done her job, none of the firemen would have been 21 killed." Do you remember hearing those questions and 22 giving those answers?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Was that accurate?

25 A: Yes, sir.

1012

1 Q In the years between 1988 and 1995 why didn't you come
2 forward with this information?

3 A: I didn't figure that anything I had to say would have
4 helped the police with anything they didn't already
5 have and I was pretty close to the family and I didn't
6 want to make hard feelings between us. I figured if I
7 knew it so did the police.

8 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Hearing no further Cross, you may 10 step down, sir. Thank you.

11 ~ Call your next witness.

12 MR. OSGOOD: Could I ask you one question.

13 THE COURT: You are almost too late.

14 MR. BECKER: Resume the witness stand.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Have you made any inquiry or 16 application for the reward in this case?

17 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

18 MR. OSGOOD: You didn't discuss that with 19 the police.

20 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

21 THE COURT: Now quickly.

22 MR. BECKER: The United States calls Peggy
23 Barchers.

24 PEGGY BARCHERS,

25 having been sworn, testified:

1013

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. BECKER:

3 Q Good morning.

4 A: Hi.

5 Q Please state your name and spell your last name.

6 A: Peggy Barchers, B-a-r-c-h-e-r-s.

7 Q How old are you?

8 A: Thirty four.

9 Q Where do you live?

10 A: I live in Adrian, Missouri.

11 Q Are you married to John Barchers?

12 A: Yes, I am.

13 Q Is that the witness who was just in here?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q How long have you been married?

16 A: Around eight years, I believe.

17 Q Do you have any children?

18 A: Yes, two.

19 Q In 1995 did you plead guilty to a crime?

20 A: Yes, I did.

21 Q What was that?

22 A: Possession of marijuana.

23 Q What was your sentence for that?

24 A: Two years probation.

25 Q And in 1996 did you plead guilty to a different crime?

1014

1 A: Yes.

2 Q What was that?

3 A: Larceny.

4 Q What was involved there?

5 A: Stealing cigarettes at a store, Price Chopper.

6 Q What was your sentence on that?

7 A: Two years probation.

8 Q Did you get any deals or help from me or anybody else
9 from the government on those cases?

10 A: No.

11 Q Do you know the Sheppard family from the Marlborough
12 area of Kansas City, Missouri?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q How do you know them?

15 A: I met Skip through a mutual friend about 17 years ago.
16 And then I got to know them more through John and his
17 family.

18 Q Do you see Frank Sheppard here in court today?

19 A: Yes, I do.

20 Q Could you tell us where he is sitting? Is he the one
21 that stood up?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Do you see Skip Sheppard here in court?

24 A: Yes, I do.

25 Q Is that the gentleman who just stood up?

1015

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Do you know their nephew Bryan Sheppard?

3 A: I don't know him personally, no.

4 Q Do you know Darlene Edwards?

5 A: I met her twice through Frank.

6 Q Do you see her here in court today?

7 A: No, I don't.

8 Q How did you get to know the Sheppard family then?

9 A: Through John. He was very good friends with them and I
10 met them over there with the family and coming over to 11 John's mother's house and we partied together, went out
12 and partied together and stuff.

13 Q In November of 1988 where were you living?

14 A: I believe at 8500 Hillcrest Road is the address.

15 Q In Kansas City, Missouri?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Prior to your testimony today did you and I go over
18 your testimony and did I show you that map there?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Could you show us on that map roughly where you were 21 living at the time of the explosion.

22 A: I was living around in this area. We was living around
23 here, I believe.

24 Q Could you just put a mark and put your initials there,
25 please.

1016

1 A: (Witness complies.)

2 Q Do you remember the explosion that occurred in the 3 early morning hours of November 29, 1988?

4 A: Yes, I do.

5 Q What do you remember?

6 A: I remember it waking us up by knocking wall-hangings
7 off our wall onto our head.

8 Q You got hit in the head from some wall-hangings.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Was there damage to the house you were living in?

11 A: Yes, there was.

12 Q What was the damage?

13 A: The windows were busted out. It cracked our foundation
14 and they thought there was a gas leak in the area.

15 Q Did you have to move out of the house?

16 A: We was evacuated for a few days.

17 Q Who was living there with you at the time?

18 A: It was me, my husband, my oldest son and John's father
19 in-law. It was John's stepdad, my father-in-law.

20 Q Was there some difficulty getting your father-in-law
21 out of the house?

22 A: Yes, he's an older man and he had a stroke and he
23 didn't want to leave.

24 Q But you all evacuated for a period of time.

25 A: Yes.

1017

- 1 Q Was there insurance on the house?
- 2 A: Through my landlord, he had insurance.
- 3 Q Eventually were repairs made to the house?
- 4 A: Yes.
- 5 Q Do you recall a visit at all after the explosion by
- 6 Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and DiDi Sheppard?
- 7 A: Yes.
- 8 Q Who is DiDi Sheppard?
- 9 A: DiDi is their sister.
- 10 Q Is she younger or older?
- 11 A: I believe she is younger.
- 12 Q Tell us about the visit to your house.
- 13 A: Well, the first visit was a few days after we had
- 14 gotten home. Really they just came over to party and
- 15 they weren't there that long and they left.
- 16 Q What do you mean by "party"?
- 17 A: To get high, smoke a joint.
- 18 Q Any conversation at that time about the explosion?
- 19 A: I don't believe there was any at that time because they
- 20 weren't there that long at that time.
- 21 Q Do you remember any other visits from Frank Sheppard,
- 22 Skip Sheppard and DiDi Sheppard?
- 23 A: Yes, a few weeks later they returned in the middle of
- 24 the night and knocked on our windows and woke us up and
- 25 came in to party.

1018

1 Q What happened when you got up then?

2 A: Well, we let them in and we just kind of sit around the
3 table and partied a little bit and started talking
4 about, you know, we was getting repairs done on our
5 house at the time and we started talking about the 6 repairs to our house from the explosion.

7 Q Did you ask them if they had any damage or were Frank
8 and Skip and DiDi asked if they had any damage to their 9 houses?

10 A: I don't think we asked if they had any damage. We were 11 mostly talking about damages to our home.

12 Q What were the repairs being done at that time?

13 A: The windows were being fixed at that time and I believe
14 they were starting on the foundation.

15 Q Was anything said about the explosion by Frank
16 Sheppard, Skip Sheppard or DiDi Sheppard?

17 MS. OSGOOD: Objection unless you lay a
18 foundation where all the parties were and each one
19 would hear the other comments and was, in fact,
20 listening. Otherwise, it is hearsay.

21 THE COURT: She has established they were all
22 there and you may examine in more detail, if you wish,
23 on cross examination. Overruled.

24 Q Where were you in the house?

25 A: We was all sitting at our kitchen table.

1019

1 Q What was said by Frank Sheppard? Was anything said by
2 Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard, DiDi Sheppard about the
3 explosion?

4 A: Yes, Skip said that DiDi didn't do her job and he kind
5 of smacked her in the back of the head slightly,
6 jokingly, you know. And then they said that the 7 firemen, they were stupid for pushing in the way they
8 did.

9 Q Who said that?

10 A: Frank said that, the firemen were stupid for rushing
11 in. And then we proceeded to party a little bit. And 12 we was just kind of talking about what had happened and 13 everything. And Frank said he heard the *f*ire was set
14 for a diversion to get them away from where the metal
15 and copper was being taken.

16 Q Did he say he heard that or did he say the fire was set
17 for diversion and no-one was supposed to get hurt?

18 A: He said the fire was set for a diversion and no-one was
19 supposed to get hurt.

20 Q Now, after they left that night did you discuss this
21 with your husband, with John?

22 A: A little bit. We talked about it a little bit. And 23 John asked me if I thought they had something to do
24 with it.

25 MR. PETERS: Objection. Hearsay.

1020

1 THE COURT: Yes. Sustained.

2 Q Did you discuss it with anyone other than your husband?

3 A: No.

4 Q Did you ever come forward with this information to the
5 police or any other law enforcement type after hearing
6 this conversation?

7 A: No.

8 Q In fact, did they come to you to ask you about it?

9 A: Yes, they came to us.

10 Q Do you recall who it was that came out to talk to you?

11 A: I believe it was David True and I think Gene Schram.

12 MR. BECKER: Thank you very much.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. HUNT:

15 Q Mrs. Barchers, my name is Susan Hunt. I am
16 representing Skip Sheppard. You said you have known
17 Skip since you were approximately 17.

18 A: Yes, approximately.

19 Q Do you remember the time when Skip was involved in a
20 terrible car accident?

21 A: Yes, I do.

22 Q Were you aware of the fact he was in a coma for 23 approximately 30 days after that accident?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Are you aware of the fact he suffered head injuries in

1021

1 that accident?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q In fact, he had two car wrecks at some point.

4 A: I met him right after he had the one with his girl
5 friend.

6 Q That occurred before November of 1988, didn't it?

7 A: Yes, I believe it did.

8 Q I think you stated you watched Unsolved Mysteries.

9 A: No.

10 Q Did you give an affidavit to any law enforcement
11 individuals in connection with this case?

12 A: I gave my deposition. I don't know if that is the same
13 thing.

14 Q Was that under oath?

15 A: No, I don't believe it was.

16 Q Did they record the conversation?

17 A: At my home, no.

18 Q What do you term a deposition?

19 A: Where I just wrote down what I knew.

20 Q You wrote it in your own handwriting.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q So you made a statement and signed the statement.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Did they show you the statement after you had signed
25 it?

1022

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Have you had a chance to review your statement?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q I think you stated in 1995 you pled guilty to 5 I possession of marijuana.

6 A Yes.

7 1 Q Did that case concern your husband John?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you were put on probation.

10 A Yes.

11 Q What were the terms of the probation?

12 A: I go monthly to report and went to drug classes.

13 Q And was one of the terms of your probation not to 14 commit any other crimes?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q I think you said in 1996 you pled guilty to larceny.

17 A: Yes.

18 Q You are now on probation for that.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q You stated earlier on direct examination that the first 21 time Skip and Frank and DiDi came to your house was 22 shortly after the explosion.

23 A Yes, a few days after.

24 Q Was your husband John home?

25 A: Yes, he was.

1

1 Q And nothing was said that day about this explosion.

2 A Not really because we was in a hurry. We was getting
3 ready to leave as they was coming in.

4 Q Then you said the next time was in the evening hours
5 ~ and they woke you out of bed.

6 ~ A Yes.

7 ~ Q You said you got up and partied with them.

8 A Yes.

9 ~ Q Does that mean you were smoking marijuana, also?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Were you drinking?

12 A: No, I don't drink.

13 Q Was John smoking marijuana?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Had you been smoking marijuana earlier that night or 16 was this the first time?

17 A: We probably was earlier that evening but we had been in 18 bed for a few hours.

19 Q You got out of bed and continued to smoke marijuana.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And how long have you known Didi Baker?

22 A: I have known DiDi for approximately 17 years.

23 Q Do you see DiDi anywhere in this courtroom?

24 A: No.

25 Q But DiDi was present during this conversation, is that

1024

1 correct?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q Besides the marijuana that you were smoking that night
4 were you consuming any other drugs?

5 A: No, I don't believe so.

6 Q Have you consumed any other drugs?

7 A: Have I?

8 MR. BECKER: Objection. When? Where? Good
9 faith basis.

10 MS. HUNT: During that time.

11 THE COURT: You mean during that visit.

12 MS. HUNT: During that time frame. Shortly
13 after the explosion.

14 THE WITNESS: No.

15 THE COURT: With respect to the ability of 16 the witness and the prior witness to identify certain
17 people in the courtroom, I want the record to reflect
18 that there are some 40 people in the spectator section
19 of the courtroom standing around the courtroom and 20 there are another close to 40 in front of the rails, in 21 front of the spectator section, plus the jury. I think 22 the scenario ought to be clearly described in the 23 record as to what the witness is confronted with when 24 asked do you see so-and-so in the courtroom.

25 Q Let me reask that question. Do you see DiDi Baker

1 anywhere in front of the railing in this courtroom?

2 A: No.

3 Q Did you testify in front of the grand jury?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And that testimony occurred the 26th of September,
6 1996, is that your recollection?

7 A: Yes.

8 MR. BECKER: Ninety-five.

9 Q Did you testify in front of the grand jury saying that 10 none of these people admitted they were involved?

11 A: Pardon me.

12 Q Did you say words to the effect in front of the grand
13 jury when asked, that none of these people were
14 involved in this explosion.

15 THE COURT: Counsel, I am sorry but I worry
16 about "words to the effect" question. When you are 17 impeaching, use the words; don't characterize them.
18 Use them.

19 Q Let me ask you this question that was asked of you in 20 the grand jury, I believe. "Then it sounds like they 21 were sort of putting it on someone else" -

22 MR. BECKER: Where are you reading?

23 MS. HUNT: Page 7, the first question.

24 Q "Then it sounds like they were sort of putting it on 25 someone else but did they ever come out and say they

.1026

1 were involved?" "Answer: No."

2 A: That's correct.

3 Q Do you know Lisa Landon?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Who is she?

6 A: My sister-in-law.

7 Q Did you discuss any of this testimony with Lisa Landon?

8 A: No.

9 Q When was the last time you saw Lisa Landon?

10 A: This morning.

11 Q In the courthouse.

12 A: Yes.

13 Q And you didn't discuss this with her.

14 A: No.

15 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

16 CROSS EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. PETERS:

18 Q Good morning, ma'am. My name is Pat Peters and I
19 represent Frank Sheppard. How long have you lived in 20 the Marlborough neighborhood?

21 A: When I met her I lived in the Marlborough neighborhood.

22 Q When Mr. Schram and Mr. True came out to talk to you
23 did they ask you if they could tape record their 24 conversation with you?

25 A No.

1027

1 Q You wouldn't have objected if they would have asked,
2 would you?

3 A: No.

4 Q After they had talked to you, do you remember them
5 summarizing your statement in a typewritten form asking
6 you to swear to it and sign it, do you remember that?

7 A: After they talked to me they asked me to write a
8 written statement and sign it.

9 Q And that was important to them, wasn't it?

10 A: I believe so.

11 Q Has anybody at any time ever told you that there is a
12 reward involved in this case?

13 A: They haven't told me but I knew that there was. I have 14 heard that there was.

15 Q Is that something that pretty much everybody that you
16 are aware of knows about the reward?

17 A: I don't think that is at the top of everybody's list.

18 Q The conversation that went on that night you testified
19 present were you and your husband, Frank Sheppard, Skip
20 Sheppard and DiDi Baker.

21 A Yes.

22 MR. PETERS: Mr. Bunch, can you have Darlene
23 Edwards stand for a moment.

24 (Ms. Edwards stands.)

25 Q Can you tell the jury whether or not this is DiDi

1028

1 Baker?

2 A: No, that's not.

3 Q Thank you. You can sit down. And so, ma'am, Frank
4 Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and DiDi Baker are the names
5 you remember being the people that you remember being
6 present that night, is that correct?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q Is it fair to say this explosion was big news in your
9 neighborhood at that time?

10 A: Yes, it was.

11 Q Does news travel fast?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Is it fair to say that rumors also travel fast?

14 MR. BECKER: Objection. That is certainly
15 immaterial. It is opinion. Sustained.

16 Q Had you heard rumors about different theories as to 17 what had gone on in relation to the explosion?

18 A: No, not at that time, right afterward.

19 Q Do you remember Frank Sheppard talking about hearing
20 information from a guard at the Quik Trip?

21 A: He didn't talk to me about that. My husband told me he 22 said that.

23 Q And after this conversation, the entire time as you are 24 sitting around the table, neither Frank nor Skip nor 25 DiDi never came out and said they had involvement with

1

1 this explosion, did they?

2 A No, they never said they did it.

3 1 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

4 1 MR. OSGOOD: Just a couple questions.

5 CROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. OSGOOD:

7 Q Your affidavit you gave, you did by hand and then I
8 guess there has been a typed copy of it, have you seen
9 the typed copy?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q And it is several paragraphs but it all fits on one
12 page, is that right?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q How long did you spend with Agent True at your house
15 when you went over what happened?

16 A: Approximately a couple hours.

17 Q So the two-hour conversation was reduced down to this 18 one page.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And then this was in 1995.

21 A: I believe so.

22 Q And have you met with Agent True since then?

23 A: No, except for when I came to the grand jury.

24 Q And then that grand jury transcript I think is nine
25 pages, is that right?

1 A: I am not sure.

2 Q Eight pages. How long, if you remember, were you in
3 there from start to finish, in the grand jury?

4 A: I don't remember. I was in there maybe a half hour,
5 forty-five minutes. I am not sure.

6 Q Was it substantially less time than what you spent with 7 Agent True?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q You have been here this morning in I guess a witness
10 room with your husband.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Before you had an opportunity to testify did you have 13 your grand jury transcript and your statement to go
14 over?

15 A: Not today.

16 Q Did you do that on a prior occasion?

17 A: Yes, sir.

18 Q Who did you do that with?

19 A: I did it with Paul. I looked at it myself.

20 Q You mean with Mr. Becker, the prosecutor.

21 A: Yes, I read it myself in my room.

22 Q Then did you go over your testimony?

23 A: Then I went and talked to Paul, yes, Mr. Becker.

24 Q Kind of take you through the testimony a little bit.

25 A: A little bit.

1

1 1 Q Now, you know Mr. Richard Brown.

2 A No.

3 Q Let me ask you about this chart here. There is a house
4 here, by Darlene Edwards' house and Nancy Romi and
5 Bryan Sheppard's house, have you ever been to that
6 house there?

7 A: No.

8 Q Do you know him or his family?

9 A: No.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you, ma ' am?

11 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

12 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. BECKER:

15 Q Mrs. Barchers, I believe Miss Hunt read one sentence of 16 your testimony before the grand jury. I would like to 17 read the two sentences before that. Do you remember
18 being asked these questions and giving these answers:
19 "Question: The other statements like it was a 20 diversion and that kind of thing, who was saying that?"

21 "Answer: Frank had said it was a diversion and none of 22 it was supposed to happen. And then Skip is the one
23 that was, you know, joking with
DiDi and smacked her
24 and said if she had done her job, but Frank was doing
25 most of the talking.'"

1032

1 "Question: Did they talk about stealing or anything or
2 taking anything?"

3 "Answer: Well, they said they was, the people that did
4 it was there for the metal or the copper and that's all
5 they wanted. That was for them to go to sell for 6 money and that the fire was set so the fire fighters
7 would go to the fire while they was doing the 8 stealing."

9 Do you remember giving those answers, hearing those 10 questions and giving those answers?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Was that an accurate and truthful statement?

13 A: Yes.

14 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: You are limited to that Redirect.

16 MS. HUNT: That's fine.

17 RE CROSS EXAMINATION

18 BY MS. HUNT:

19 Q But when you were asked if they ever said they were 20 involved in this you said no.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q And you also said when Skip was making these comments
23 he was joking.

24 A: I don't know if he was joking or not.

25 Q Did you state in your grand jury testimony he was 1033

1 joking?

2 A: I said he smacked DiDi on the back of the head
3 jokingly.

4 Q In a joking manner.

5 A Yeah.

6 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

7 THE COURT: Anything else?

8 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

9 MR. BECKER: Nothing further.

10 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. You may step
11 down. Call your next witness.

12 LISA LANDON.

13 having been sworn, testified:

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. BECKER:

16 Q Good morning.

17 A: Good morning.

18 Q Please state your name and spell your last name.

19 A: Lisa Landon, L-a-n-d-o-n.

20 Q Take a deep breath and try and speak slowly so the 21 stenographer can get your words down, okay?

22 A Okay.

23 Q How old are you?

24 A Thirty-four.

25 Q Are you married?

1034

- 1 A: Yes.
- 2 Q Where do you live? Just what city.
- 3 A: Grandview.
- 4 Q What kind of work do you do?
- 5 A: Health insurance.
- 6 Q How long have you been doing that?
- 7 A: About nine years.
- 8 Q Do you have any children?
- 9 A: Yes.
- 10 Q How many?
- 11 A: Three.
- 12 Q Do you know the Sheppard family from the Marlborough
- 13 area of Kansas City, Missouri?
- 14 A: Yes.
- 15 Q How do you know them?
- 16 A: Through my mother, I grew up with them.
- 17 THE COURT: You grew up with them.
- 18 THE WITNESS: Around them.
- 19 Q What was your mother's name?
- 20 A: Sylvia Romi.
- 21 Q Is she still alive?
- 22 A: No.
- 23 Q When did she die?
- 24 A: In 1990.
- 25 Q Your mother, who was she friends with in the Sheppard

1035

1 family?

2 A: Naomi.

3 Q Did Naomi Sheppard have some sons and a daughter?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Which one of those children was roughly your age?

6 A: DiDi.

7 Q And you have older brothers.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Was that your brother John who testified here earlier
10 this morning?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q And his wife, Peggy Barchers, right?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Now, where were you born?

15 A: Kansas City.

16 Q So how long have you known the Sheppard family?

17 A: Ever since I remember which is when I was born.

18 Q So your family had moved back to Kansas City by the 19 time you were born, before you were born.

20 A: Before.

21 Q While you lived here then all your life, did your
22 family get together with the Sheppard family?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q And your mothers would visit and the children would 25 come along, is that right?

- '1036

1 A: Yes.

2 Q In November of 1988 can you recall how old you were
3 then?

4 A: Give me a minute. Twenty-five.

5 Q Where were you living then?

6 A: Belton.

7 Q Do you recall hearing the explosion on November 29,
8 1988 that killed the firemen?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Sometime after that explosion do you remember visiting 11 the Sheppard family with your mother?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Do you remember how long that was after the explosion?

14 A: About two weeks.

15 Q Where did you visit them?

16 A: At their house.

17 Q I want to show you what has been marked for 18 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit 318, do
19 you recognize that?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q What is it?

22 A: Naomi's house.

23 Q Is that a photograph of Naomi Sheppard's house?

24 A: Yes.

25 MR. BECKER: I would offer it in evidence as 1037

1 Government's Exhibit 318.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: No objection.

3 MR. PETERS: No objection.

4 THE COURT: All right, 318 is admitted and
5 you may publish it.

6 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT NO. 318 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

7 Q Can you see the TV screens now?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q That is the house you lived in with your mother.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Who was there when you got there?

12 A: Naomi, Frank, Skip.

13 Q Frank and Skip Sheppard.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Do you see Frank Sheppard here in court today?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Is he standing now?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Do you see Skip Sheppard here in court today?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Is he standing now?

22 A: Yes.

23 MR. BECKER: The record should reflect that
24 the witness has identified the defendant Frank Sheppard

1

1 and the defendant Skip Sheppard.

2

THE COURT: Correct.

3 Q Where in the house did you go when you walked in with
4 your mother?

5 A: We went to the dining area.

6 Q Who was in the dining area with you?

7 A: My mom and Naomi.

8 Q Where was Frank Sheppard and Skip Sheppard?

9 A: In the front room.

10 Q How far away is that from where you were sitting?

11 A: A few steps.

12 Q So tell us about what happened when you were at the 13 Sheppard house that day.

14 A: We went there to visit Naomi because my mom wanted to 15 see her and Frank and Skip were carrying on.

16 Q What do you mean by "carrying on"?

17 A: Laughing, talking. My mom went in there and asked them
18 what was going on.

19 Q What did you do?

20 A: I followed my mom.

21 Q What happened then?

22 A: I don't know which one said, they just knew what was in 23 those trailers. They wanted to see what would happen
24 to them.

25 Q Did they say where the trailers were?

1 A: No.

2 Q Do you recall being interviewed by an ATF agent in
3 February of 1985?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q I would like for you to take a look -

6 MR. PETERS: Objection. May we approach.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

9 MR. BECKER: I asked her if she recalls what 10 they said about where the construction trucks were.

11 MR. PETERS: He is getting ready to hand her
12 a document that is not her statement, never seen by 13 her. Never been adopted by her.

14 THE COURT: She doesn't have to adopt a
15 statement if it is a refreshment of recollection.

16 MR. BECKER: It has been produced pursuant
17 to Jencks. If I was only producing sworn statements,
18 we would have far less Jencks material. It is her
19 statement and I can use anything to refresh her
20 recollection.

21 MR. PETERS: A statement of an ATF agent can
22 be used to refresh her recollection?

23 THE COURT: Sure, if it relates.

24 MR. BECKER: It is a recorded interview.

25 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

1040

1 Q Ma'am, just read this to yourself. Don't read it out
2 loud, this part that is highlighted down there.

3 A: (Witness complies.)

4 Q Have you had a chance to read that?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Do you recall now a Frank Sheppard or Skip Sheppard
7 said anything about where the trailers were located?

8 A: No, I assumed it.

9 Q You assumed it.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Just what was said when you walked into the living room
12 of the Sheppard house.

13 A: I don't know which one said it, exactly.

14 Q Was there anyone -

15 A: I don't remember.

16 Q Was there anyone else in the room besides Frank
17 Sheppard and Skip Sheppard?

18 A: No.

19 Q So those are the ones that did the talking, is that
20 right?

21 A: Right.

22 Q What was said?

23 A: That they knew what was in the trailer. They just 24 wanted to see what would happen to them.

25 Q Did anyone talk about, see what happened to them if you

~ 1

1 set it on fire?

2 A: I don't recall that but that is what I took it as.

3 Q What was it about the statement that you related to 4 fire or where these trailers were?

5 MR. PETERS: Objection, Your Honor. This
6 is asking her to speculate as to why she did something.

7 THE COURT: No, I don't think so. She is 8 testifying what she concluded and he is just asking for 9 an explanation of that conclusion. I will overrule
10 that.

11 Q Did you think this talk about trailers and see what 12 happened to it, what it would do, did you think that 13 related to the explosion?

14 MS. HUNT: Objection. A leading question,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 A: What does that mean?

18 Q That means you can answer.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Why did you think it related to the explosion?

22 A: Because I heard about it.

23 MR. PETERS: Objection. Calling for 24 speculation.

25 THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead with your 1042

1 answer.

2 A: I heard about it on TV so I knew what they meant by it.

3 Q What did you do? What did your mother do?

4 A: Then my mom just turned around and started talking to 5 Naomi and I went with her.

6 Q So you walked out of the room.

7 A: Yes, just to that next room.

8 Q Did you talk to your mother about this afterwards?

9 A: No.

10 Q Did you ever talk to anyone else about this
11 conversation?

12 A: My husband.

13 Q Anyone else besides that?

14 A: No.

15 Q Did you ever report it to the police department or any 16 law enforcement types?

17 A: No.

18 Q Did you ever come forward with this information then in 19 1995?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Why was that?

22 A: Because I think the families need closure.

23 Q What families?

24 A: The fire fighters.

25 Q What caused you to think about that in 1995?

1043

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Objection. Relevance.

2 THE COURT: I don't know if it is relevant.

3 If you want to come up and make a record, you can.

4 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

5 MR. BECKER: I think she is going to
6 testify she saw a TV program and that's why she felt
7 the way she did and came forward. I assumed there was
8 going to be cross examination about why she waited
9 seven years, just as her husband, why did you wait
10 seven years to come forward.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: I think we learned that
12 lesson with the first witness, one. Two, she already 13 said she saw it on TV. It is cumulative. And to allow 14 her to give a statement closure for the families I
15 think is highly prejudicial.

16 THE COURT: She has already said that and 17 without objection. I will let her answer the question.

18 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

19 THE COURT: Now, Mrs. Shinn, would you read
20 the question back.

21 (The court reporter read the pending question,
22 "What caused you to think about that in 1995?"

23 A: It's been on my mind the whole time. There was a TV
24 show I seen for the second time.

25 Q Why didn't you come forward for seven years with that

1044

1 information?

2 A: Because I was scared.

3 Q Do you remember who interviewed you in 1995 at your
4 house?

5 A: It wasn't at my house.

6 Q Where were you interviewed?

7 A: At a restaurant.

8 Q Did you arrange to meet the agents at a restaurant?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Do you remember who that was?

11 A: I don't remember his name.

12 MR. BECKER: Thank you very much.

13 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15 CROSS EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. PETERS:

17 Q Miss Landon, my name is Pat Peters and I represent
18 Frank Sheppard. I would like to just ask you a few 19 questions. The house that you are describing, the 20 yellow house here on Government's Exhibit 318, as you
21 walk in this front door where I am pointing and you see 22 the air conditioner, that is where the front room is,
23 right?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q And you walk on through the house into the back and

1045

1 that is where the dining room is, correct?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q To get there you walk past the TV that is pretty much
4 always on at the Sheppard house, isn't that true?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q And the date you were there the TV was on.

7 A: Probably.

8 Q And you are in the dining room and you hear Frank and 9 Skip laughing, sitting out in the living room with the 10 TV, isn't that correct?

11 A: I didn't. My mom did.

12 Q And what you heard was something to the effect of they 13 didn't know what was in the trailer.

14 A: No.

15 Q What was it you heard?

16 A: They said they knew what was in those trailers.

17 Q I'm sorry. What you heard them say they knew what was 18 in the trailers, correct?

19 A: Right.

20 Q And you didn't hear anyone say anything that they went 21 for copper, did you?

22 A: No.

23 Q They went for torches or acetylene torches.

24 A: No.

25 Q They went to steal CB radios.

1
1 A No.
2 Q That they went to steal walkie-talkies.
3 A No.
4 Q That they went to steal to get drugs.
5 A: No.
6 Q And then after watching Unsolved Mysteries you called
7 1-800-ATF-Guns, isn't that correct?
8 A: If that's the number they showed.
9 Q Again, I will show you this just to refresh your 10 recollection. Does that refresh your recollection as 11 to how you got in contact with the ATF?
12 A: Yes.
13 Q And it was that you called 1-800-ATF-Guns.
14 A Yes.
15 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions,
16 Judge.
17 THE COURT: All right. Miss Hunt.
18 CROSS EXAMINATION
19 BY MS. HUNT:
20 Q Miss Larson, my name is Susan Hunt. I represent Skip
21 Sheppard. I just have a few questions for you. I
22 think during your direct examination Mr. Becker handed
23 you an interview, do you remember that?
24 A: Yes.
25 Q And that is an interview that occurred of you, am I

--1047

- 1 correct?
- 2 A: Yes.
- 3 Q Which took place on February 12, 1995, is that correct?
- 4 A: Yes.
- 5 Q During the course of that interview did the agents have
- 6 a tape recorder?
- 7 A: I don't believe so.
- 8 Q They did not tape record your interview, as far as you
- 9 remember.
- 10 A: I can't recall.
- 11 Q Did they ever hand write out a statement and sign it?
- 12 A: I don't believe so.
- 13 Q Did they ever have you in front of a court reporter
- 14 where you would take an oath and give a statement in
- 15 question and answer form?
- 16 A: No, not at that time.
- 17 Q When is the first time after February 12th of ,95 that
- 18 you reviewed the statement?
- 19 A: I don't remember.
- 20 Q Did you review the statement?
- 21 A: I did at one time but I don't know when.
- 22 Q Do you think it was six months after February of '95 or
- 23 the next day or a year?
- 24 A: I don't know. I don't remember.
- 25 Q Besides watching Unsolved Mysteries did you watch other

1048

1 news accounts of this explosion on TV?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q And did you read some articles in the newspaper?

4 A: No.

5 Q Never read any articles in the newspaper?

6 A: Not there.

7 Q When this conversation was alleged to have occurred in 8 the living room of the Sheppard residence, where was 9 Naomi Sheppard?

10 A: In the dining room.

11 Q Can you hear from the dining room what is being said in 12 the living room?

13 A: Yeah.

14 Q Was anybody else present?

15 A: Just the five of us.

16 Q Was DiDi Baker present?

17 A: I think -- I don't remember.

18 Q Do you know DiDi Baker?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Do you know who she is?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q They didn't mention anything in this conversation about
23 DiDi Baker, did they?

24 A: No.

25 Q Do you have a brother John Barchers?

1049

1 A: Yes.

2 Q He testified earlier today, correct?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Have you discussed any of this information with Mr.
5 Barchers?

6 A: No.

7 Q Did Mr. Barchers at one time live in Grandview,
8 Missouri?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q And you live in Grandview, Missouri, is that right?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q When did he move from Grandview?

13 A: Two to four months ago.

14 Q Did you see Mr. Barchers last evening?

15 A: No.

16 Q Did you see Peggy Barchers?

17 A: No.

18 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch.

20 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions, Your Honor.

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. OSGOOD:

24 Q Miss Landon, my name is John Osgood and I represent
25 Richard Brown. Do you know Richard Brown?

1 ~ 1050

1 A: No.

2 Q Ever met him?

3 A: No.

4 Q Were you aware that there was a $50,000 reward that had 5 been offered for information leading to the arrest and 6 prosecution and conviction of people involved in this
7 case?

8 A: I heard about it.

9 Q Did you know that when you made this 1-800 call that 10 was on the television program?

11 A: I knew it but it didn't matter to me.

12 Q It didn't matter. This is 1995. You will have to say
13 yes or no, ma'am, because Mrs. Shinn has to take down
14 what you say.

15 A Okay.

16 THE COURT: Was it in 1995?

17 THE WITNESS: I knew about it, yes.

18 Q And you were interviewed by Agent True on February 12th
19 of 1995, is that correct?

20 A: I didn't know it was him then. It could have been. I
21 don't remember the name.

22 Q Let me show you a report of interview here and just
23 look at that briefly. And then I will take it back
24 from you and ask you a question.

25 A: (Witness complies.)

L051

1 Q Does that copy refresh your memory?

2 A: It says here -

3 THE COURT: Ask a question and let her answer

4 without the document.

5 MR. OSGOOD: Yes.

6 Q Do you remember now when you were interviewed by Agent

7 True?

8 A: It was Mr. Altis.

9 Q Pardon?

10 A: It was Mr. Altis. That was in February, '95.

11 Q Now we are on the same sheet of music. This is the 12 first part of 1997. So that's about two years ago.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Coming up.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And I note in response to questions, you said several

17 times in response to questions about this interview you

18 did not remember, is that right?

19 MR. BECKER: Objection. Argumentative. We

20 have offered the testimony.

21 THE COURT: I am not sure I know what you

22 mean.

23 MR. OSGOOD: I am laying a foundation.

24 THE COURT: I don't care whether you are

25 laying a foundation. You have to assume accurate facts

1052

1 in doing anything and I don't remember that several
2 times this witness said that.

3 Q All right. Do you recall in direct testimony whether
4 or not you answered in response to a question by Mr.
5 Becker, you do not remember.

6 THE COURT: A question.

7 MR. OSGOOD: A question.

8 Q Did you use that phrase?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Are there things about this interview you do not
11 remember?

12 A: About the interview, yes.

13 Q How long was the agent with you during the course of 14 the interview?

15 A: Back on February 12th?

16 Q Yes, ma'am.

17 A: I would say maybe 20 to 30 minutes; maybe a bit longer.

18 Q Where did the interview take place?

19 A: In my car.

20 Q In your car.

21 A: In my car.

22 Q Did you meet at a restaurant?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Where was the restaurant?

25 A: In Grandview.

1053

1 Q So were you in the parking lot of the restaurant?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q This may have been answered and I didn't hear the 4 answer. It was not tape recorded.

5 A: I don't believe so.

6 THE COURT: It has been asked and answered.

7 Q Then were you shown this statement some time after you
8 had talked to the agent?

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I object. It is not a
10 statement. It is an interview.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

12 Q Were you shown the report of interview some time after
13 that?

14 A: It was a while after that, yes.

15 Q Now, you were talking about events that occurred in
16 1988, is that correct?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Some eight years from today; some eight years ago.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Was the interview in the car similar to what you and I
21 are doing here where specific questions were asked of 22 you and you responded with specific answers? Was the 23 interview conducted that way?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q In other words, it was an interrogation; it wasn't a

1 conversation.

2 A: No interrogation. Just asking me questions and I
3 answered.

4 Q A normal conversation.

5 A: Not normal. We were at a point, we got to the point
6 what I knew.

7 Q Did you see Unsolved Mysteries twice?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Do you remember when you saw it the first time?

10 A: No, I don't.

11 MR. OSGOOD: I think that is all I have.

12 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

13 MR. BECKER: Nothing, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we are 15 going to take our break now and break this time for the 16 weekend. Longer periods of time in cases like this we 17 are away from each other are always precarious because 18 we have a tendency to forget our instructions, be a bit
19 relaxed about the rules and also have more exposure to 20 more things that might bear on the case and the 21 testimony. So I will have to urge you not to talk to 22 anybody about the case or let anybody talk to you about
23 it. Avoid any conversation. Avoid the TV and radio.
24 That is not a bad idea anyway. Since the Star reporter
25 is sitting here I will say also avoid The Kansas City

1 JANUARY 28, 1997

2 (Proceedings outside the presence of the jury)

3 THE COURT: Is it all right to call the jury?

4 MR. BECKER: In about 30 seconds, Judge.

5 This morning I conferred with counsel regarding
6 Government's Exhibit 393 which is the laboratory
7 report on samples taken from the pickup truck, the 8 Deborah Riggs' pickup truck, and I believe all
9 counsel has agreed this exhibit, 393, which is the 10 report of analysis of samples of that pickup truck
11 could be admitted without the testimony of Dr. Richard 12 Henderson, the professional chemist who analyzed those 13 samples.

14 In about two weeks when we get to that 15 part of the case, then I will be offering this 16 into evidence and reading it to the jury, if that 17 is acceptable to the defendants.

18 THE COURT: Is that agreeable to the defense?

19 MR. PETERS: Yes, Your Honor. We already 20 discussed this and everybody has already seen the 21 document and agreed.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. BECKER: And I would note for the court
24 that will save the government considerable expense in 25 bringing Mr. Henderson up from South Carolina to

1 testify regarding this analysis.

2 Other than that, we are ready.

3 MR. PETERS: One other detail. I have
4 already provided Mr. Becker with a motion in 5 limine we have regarding a witness that will be
6 coming up later today.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 (The jury enters the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Good morning, everybody. Glad
10 you are all here. Have a seat. You may proceed, Mr.
11 Becker.

12 MR. MILLER: The government calls Mr. Dave
13 Whitt.

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry, folks, this other mike
15 that was put on there to make it easier for the 16 witnesses and now it isn't on. It is one thing after 17 another. We will get the technician as soon as we can.
18 I apologize. Don't talk about the case in there and we 19 hope we can call you back in about five minutes. If 20 you will withdraw from the courtroom, we will call you
21 as soon as we are ready.

22 (The jury leaves the courtroom, as does the witness.)

23 THE COURT: Is this motion something you want
24 to take up, Mr. Peters, or is it just for the record?
25 Did you want to say anything about this? I have looked

1 at it. I have seen what you have filed.

2 MR. PETERS: It is really just alerting the
3 Court, after reading and re-reading statements, I
4 haven't been able to find anything that would be
5 relevant or admissible regarding the witness. Rather 6 than have the witness take the stand and go through the 7 introduction and the have defense counsel object to the 8 portions presumably of his testimony that would be 9 elicited, we thought we would just alert the court
10 beforehand.

11 The motion gives the court the
12 background on the witness and we just thought it
13 would be a way of saving time as opposed to 14 waiting to see if, in fact, those types of 15 inadmissible or irrelevant evidence was going to 16 be elicited.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Becker.

18 MR. MILLER: It's me, Your Honor. In the 19 motion regarding the statement no dynamite was stolen,
20 that is not relevant. It is the intent. Was there
21 intent to go and steal the dynamite.

22 There will be witnesses with their
23 statements. There have been admissions against 24 interest by the testimony of witnesses it was 25 their intention to steal dynamite, it was one of

1 their intentions to do that.

2 The fact, the statement no dynamite was
3 stolen is not relevant.

4 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I think that
5 misses the point. There is some reference to Caligna
6 having dynamite in his car.

7 MR. MILLER: Yes, I was going to address
8 that, Judge.

9 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

10 MR. MILLER: For the weight this could go to 11 the jury with is that if Caligna comes to Frank
12 Sheppard's house and shares with Frank Sheppard his 13 concern over blasting caps and explosives in the car
14 and Sheppard shows very overtly his concern about this 15 too, this goes to his knowledge and intent that he is 16 involved with stealing explosives. This links back to 17 his intention, stated intention, admissions against 18 interest, to go to the construction site, one of the 19 purposes is to steal explosives. There is knowledge.
20 And his actions about that show the relevance of it,
21 his actions about Caligna being concerned and coming to 22 Frank Sheppard's house with this information and Frank
23 Sheppard's very overt reaction to this.

24 MR. PETERS: Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. PETERS: The Court is well aware of the
2 line of cases, usually in a drug environment, where
3 somebody will show up at a defendant's house and make 4 some comment about drugs. The cases are divided in 5 that instance as to whether or not it would come in.
6 This is four months after the explosion. Caligna is
7 coming to the house. Frank doesn't say anything
8 about any an explosion, dynamite from the construction
9 site or anything. There is absolutely no admission,
10 no implicit admission. Caligna comes to the house and 11 says, Frank, I just got stopped by the police. I had 12 dynamite in my car and Frank acts concerned. It is 13 irrelevant when, in fact, no dynamite was taken and 14 they are imputing some sort of knowledge to Frank
15 Sheppard because of his reaction to somebody telling 16 him that that person, Caligna, can be caught with 17 dynamite.

18 THE COURT: When did the incident with
19 Caligna described here as an individual named Frame
20 came to the house and talked to Frank Sheppard about
21 the police stopping Caligna having dynamite in his car.
22 Frank Sheppard must be paranoid. When did that happen
23 and when did the police stop take place?

24 MR. PETERS: It happened on or about March 25 31, 1989, four months after the explosion. We have

1063

1 been provided no reports that Caligna had, in fact,
2 been stopped or that the police had, in fact, found
3 dynamite but as the court correctly noted at the 4 beginning, no dynamite was stolen. So it doesn't
5 matter if Frank Sheppard or anybody else acts paranoid
6- about a person having dynamite in a case where, in 7 fact, no dynamite was stolen.

8 If this was a robbery of a jewelry store
9 and no jewelry was taken and four months later
10 somebody came to a person's house and said, oh,
11 the police stopped me because I had jewelry in my 12 car, the person could be acting paranoid because 13 they don't want the police coming and looking in 14 their house for the other person who actually
15 stole some jewelry.

16 There is no linkage in this case between 17 dynamite and any of the defendants. And I would 18 suggest to bring a statement that another person,
19 not one of these defendants, had dynamite in their 20 car is irrelevant and immaterial as to who caused 21 this explosion.

22 MR. MILLER: That's true. There is no
23 direct link but it was within four months as Mr.
24 Peters pointed out. And what we are showing with 25 this is again it ties into their admissions against

1064

1 interest, stating their intent. It goes to his
2 knowledge. Why come to Frank Sheppard with stolen
3 blasting caps and explosives and why does Frank
4 Sheppard get all concerned. It shows he does have 5 knowledge of these things and it does tie into
6 their intentions to go to this place.

7 THE COURT: It isn't this witness.

8 MR. MILLER: No.

9 THE COURT: We will do the best we can when 10 the time comes on that.

11 (The jury and the witness enter the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: All right, if you will resume
13 your seat. We will have you sworn and get started.

14 VIRGIL DAVE WHITT

15 having been sworn, testified:

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. MILLER:

18 Q Sir, would you tell the court and jury your name,
19 please.

20 A: Virgil Dave Whitt.

21 Q How old are you?

22 A: Forty.

23 Q Are you known by any nicknames in the Marlborough area?

24 A: A couple, yeah.

25 Q Are you known as Virgil or what are you known as?

1 A Dave.

2 Q You are known as Dave. Mr. Whitt, do you have any

3 felony convictions?

4 A I have a few.

5 Q Would you tell us what they are.

6 A Burglary, interstate transportation of forged

7 securities and burglary, receiving stolen property and

8 sales in cocaine.

9 Q Do you know how many felony convictions you have?

10 A Three.

11 Q Do you know Mr. Frank Sheppard?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Do you see him in the courtroom?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Could you point him out for the court.

16 A: Over there.

17 Q Is he the one standing?

18 A: Yes, sir.

19 Q How long have you known Mr. Sheppard?

20 A: Several years.

21 Q I want to go back to November the 28th and 29th, 1988.

22 Where did you live?

23 A: At 85th and Wayne.

24 Q Show you what has been marked for identification as

25 Government's Exhibit 335. Is this a picture of your

1 house you lived in?

2 A It wasn't mine. That's where I lived.

3 1 Q That is where you lived in November of '88.

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q This is where you stayed.

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q You didn't own this house.

8 A: No.

9 Q Who owned the house, do you know?

10 A: Karen Bear.

11 Q Where in the house did you live?

12 A: In the basement.

13 Q Who did you live there with?

14 A: Gene West and Katie lived down there, David Bear and 15 her son.

16 Q Do you remember the explosion on November 29th that 17 caused the death of six firefighters?

18 A: Yeah.

19 Q Would you tell the jury how you remember the explosion.

20 A: It woke me up.

21 Q You remember the explosion and you know Mr. Sheppard.

22 Did you ever have any conversations with Mr. Sheppard
23 about the explosion?

24 A: Yeah, on one occasion.

25 Q Would you tell the jury when that occasion was.

1067

1 A: It was after the grand jury had talked to some of the
2 people at Marlborough in front of the Sports Tavern.

3 Q Where is that tavern?

4 A: It is on about 81st and Troost.

5 Q Do you remember what time of the day or evening it was?

6 A: It was at night.

7 Q How did the conversation come up?

8 A: I think I asked him.

9 Q You said "him". Who is him?

10 A: Frank.

11 Q What did you ask Mr. Sheppard?

12 A: What's the deal with the firemen, with the explosion.

13 Q What was his response?

14 A: He said wasn't nobody supposed to be hurt.

15 Q Did he say anything about the firemen, whether they 16 were supposed to be there or not?

17 A: Something vaguely, but, you know, something about the 18 security guard wasn't supposed to be there. Nobody was 19 supposed to get hurt.

20 Q How was Mr. Sheppard acting when he was telling you
21 this?

22 A: Pretty sad. I think he was even crying a little bit.
23 He was drunk.

24 Q When did you give this information to the police?

25 A: The last part of 1990.

1068

1 Q Why did you wait until then?

2 A: They came to me. I was in the Clay County Jail.

3 1 Q Now they came to you in the Clay County Jail and you
4 gave them this information, did you get any reduction

5 ~in your sentence for what you did?

6 A: No.

7 Q What were you in jail for at that time?

8 A: Receiving stolen property.

9 Q And what was your sentence at that time?

10 A: One year.

11 Q Have you gotten anything from the government for your 12 testimony today?

13 A: No.

14 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
15 witness, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Miss Hunt.

17 CROSS EXAMINATION

18 BY MS. HUNT:

19 Q Mr. Whitt, my name is Susan Hunt and I am representing 20 Skip Sheppard in this case. Isn't it true that there
21 was a lot of rumors concerning this explosion going on 22 in the Marlborough neighborhood?

23 A: Yeah, there has been a lot of rumors.

24 Q Those rumors continued right after the explosion until 25 today.

1

1 A I haven't been in Marlborough for a while.

2 Q When did you leave?

3 A About three years ago, two or three years ago.

4 Q Up until the time you left that neighborhood the rumors
5 were continuing, weren't they?

6 A yeah.

7 Q And did you and your friends discuss these explosions
8 on numerous occasions?

9 A Yes, a few occasions, yes.

10 Q And you and your friends were trying to figure out what 11 happened, weren't you?

12 A Yes.

13 Q So you have heard a lot of speculation and a lot or 14 rumors, haven't you?

15 A: Not a lot but yes.

16 Q What friends did you discuss this with?

17 A: I don't recall. Several different people.

18 Q No names? You can't remember any names.

19 A: No, it has been a while.

20 Q And during those discussions with your various friends
21 and the rumors you have heard, various scenarios have 22 been discussed, haven't they?

23 A: What do you mean by various scenarios?

24 Q You have heard or you have discussed one of the two 25 various ways in which this explosion might have

1070

1 occurred.

2 A: I have heard a few stories, yeah.

3 ~ Q And those stories involve different people, don't they?

4 A: Yes.

5 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 CROSS EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. PETERS:

11 Q My name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank Sheppard.

12 When you talk about what you heard outside the tavern,
13 we are talking about a conversation that happened back
14 in 1990, would that be fair to say?

15 A: Around there, yes.

16 Q and the grand jury that you are talking about was a
17 state grand jury that went on in Jackson County, do you
18 know?

19 A: I don't know whether it was state or what it was but 20 yeah.

21 Q But it was a grand jury that happened back in 1990 or 22 closer to the time of the explosion.

23 A: Yeah.

24 Q What you actually heard from Frank Sheppard was that 25 the firemen weren't supposed to be up there, is that

1 correct?

2 A: Wasn't nobody supposed to be hurt. He didn't say the 3 firemen wasn't supposed to be hurt.

4 Q He never said anything to you about he was up there,
5 did he?

6 A: He didn't say that, no.

7 Q And he told you in this brief conversation you had
8 outside the tavern, he mentioned something about guards
9 and Quik Trip, didn't he?

10 A: Yeah.

11 MS. HUNT: No further questions.

12 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

15 Q Mr. Whitt, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
16 Sheppard. The police, as I understand it, came up and 17 talked to you in the Clay County Jail back in, when was
18 that?

19 A: Yeah.

20 Q And was Bryan Sheppard also in the jail up there when 21 you were then when he was charged with this by himself?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Did you talk to Bryan up there?

24 A: Not very much, no.

25 Q But you were able to talk to him.

1072

1 A: yeah.

2 Q Now, when these agents came out to talk to you about
3 what you knew, you told them everything you knew,
4 right?

5 A: Yeah, what they asked me anyway.

6 Q And they even asked you whether you had any speculation or speculated on anything that happened.

8 A: Yeah.

9 Q And you told them speculation as well.

10 A: No, only what they asked me.

11 Q And that was the Kansas City police back in '90, is 12 that correct, they were the ones that came up there.

13 A: Yes.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: That is all I have. Thanks.

15 CROSS EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. OSGOOD:

17 Q Mr. Whitt, I am John Osgood. I represent Richard 18 Brown. Do you know a Lonnie Joe Pugh?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Did you ever hear rumors he was responsible for this?

21 A: There has been a rumor, yeah.

22 Q You don't see Mr. Lonnie Joe Pugh anywhere in front of 23 this rail, do you?

24 A: No.

25 MR. MILLER: Object to the relevance. I ask

1

1 1 the jury be instructed to disregard that question.

2

THE COURT: Yes, you should disregard that question and any answer that was given to it.

3 1

4 1

Any Redirect?

5

MR. MILLER: I think I failed to offer Government's Exhibit 335, Your Honor.

6 1

7 ~

MR. PETERS: No objection.

8 ~

THE COURT: All right, it is admitted without objection.

9 1

10 ~

(PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT NO. 335 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

11

MR. MILLER: No Redirect for this witness.

12

THE COURT: Call your next witness.

13

MR. MILLER: Your Honor, at this time the government calls Charles Elliott.

14 ~

15 ~

CHARLES EUGENE ELLIOTT.

16 ~ having been sworn, testified:

17

DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. MILLER:

19 Q Would you tell the Court your name, please.

20 A: Charles Eugene Elliott, Jr.

21 Q How old are you, Mr. Elliott?

22 A: I am 40 years old.

23 Q Judging from your dress would you tell the jury where you reside now.

24

25 A: Western Missouri Correctional Center.

1074

1 Q For how much longer?

2 A: I am supposed to get out tomorrow.

3 Q Would you tell us how many felony convictions you have.

4 A: I have eight.

5 Q Could you tell us what they are.

6 A: Possession of Methamphetamine, possession of a firearm,
7 burglary, stealing over 150, burglary, stealing a motor
8 vehicle and then burglary.

9 Q How long have you been in prison?

10 A: The last ten years off and on.

11 Q And you are getting out tomorrow. Has the government
12 been of any aid in getting you out on that date?

13 A: No, sir.

14 Q Have you been given anything for your testimony?

15 A: No, sir.

16 Q Now, you have written some letters to the prosecution
17 in this case, haven't you?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And in the substances of the letters do you ask for any
20 reward money?

21 A: Yes, I have mentioned $50,000 reward money.

22 Q Have you been promised any?

23 A: No, sir.

24 Q Are you going to apply for some?

25 A: Yes, sir.

1075

1 Q And also in the letters did you ask for any kind of
2 leniency or consideration for what they call a time
3 cut?

4 A: Yes, I did.

5 Q Did you get any?

6 A: No, sir.

7 Q How old were you when you got your first conviction,
8 Mr. Elliott?

9 A: I believe I was 29.

10 Q I want to ask you, do you remember the explosion back
11 in November of 1988 that caused the death of six
12 firefighters?

13 A: Yes, vaguely.

14 Q How did you remember the explosion?

15 A: I saw it once on the news and once on the Unsolved
16 Mysteries.

17 Q You say "vaguely", where were you when the explosion
18 happened?

19 A: I was incarcerated at Algoa.

20 Q And Algoa is where?

21 A: Jefferson City,

22 Q Here in Missouri.

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q ow in 1988 did you know George and Frank Sheppard?

25 A: No, sir, I didn't.

1

1 1 Q Did you know any of this family?

2 A: No, sir.

3 ~ Q Did you ever meet George Frank Sheppard?

4 1 A Yes, I did.

5 Q Where did you meet him?

6 A: I met him at the Kansas City Honor Center.

7 Q Where is that?

8 A: Kansas City, Missouri, 919 Oak.

9 Q 919 Oak.

10 A: Yes, sir.

11 Q When did this meeting take place?

12 A: I met him the evening of May 21st, 1995.

13 Q Let me stop you there. Do you see George Frank

14 Sheppard in the courtroom?

15 A: Yes, I do.

16 Q Is he the gentleman standing now?

17 A: Yes, sir.

18 Q Why were you at the honor center on May the 21st, 1995?

19 A: At that time I was in the Task Unit waiting to be

20 transported back to the Missouri Department of 21 Corrections.

22 Q Tell the jury what the Task Unit is.

23 A: That is a lock-down unit for when you violate the honor

24 center, you are locked down there until they transfer

25 you back to the Missouri Department of Corrections.

1 Q How did you violate?

2 A: I absconded from the honor center.

3 Q And specifically where at 919 Oak did you meet Mr.

4 Sheppard on the evening of May the 21st, 1995?

A: In the lock-down unit.

6 Q Was he in the same cell?

7 A: Yes, sir.

8 Q What name did he give you that night?

9 A: George Sheppard.

10 Q How long were the two of you in that cell together that

11 night?

12 A: We was in there all that night and until the 25th of

13 May.

14 Q While you were in there with Mr. Sheppard did the 15 subject of the explosion that killed the six

16 firefighters come up?

17 A: yes, it did.

18 Q Who brought up the subject of the fire?

19 A: Mr. Sheppard.

20 Q What did Mr. Sheppard say to you?

21 A: He asked me if I had remember the fire that the firemen

22 had got killed in. And at first I didn't. And then I

23 said, oh, the one that happened out in the Boldine

24 area. And he said, no, the one out on 71 highway., I

25 said, yes, I remember seeing it on the news a little

1 that I knew of.

2 Q Did George Frank Sheppard tell you where the fire was
3 set?

4 ~ A He just told me it was the fire that happened out on 71
5 highway.

6 Q What did Frank Sheppard, George Frank Sheppard, say to 7 you about getting any gasoline?

8 A: He stated that someone had drove him and someone else
9 to get some gas that they had used to start the fire
10 with.

11 Q Did he say where they were driven to?

12 A: No, sir.

13 Q Did Frank Sheppard say how they started the fire?

14 A: He told me that they had been suspects for a log time
15 and that they had an alibi. The reason why they had an 16 alibi because there was some type of detonating device
17 that was used, that when the fire actually started they
18 was someplace else.

19 Q Did George Frank Sheppard tell you when the fire was
20 started?

21 A: He stated around two o'clock in the morning.

22 Q Did he tell you what his alibi was?

23 A: No, he didn't.

24 Q From the honor center where did you go?

25 A: I went to Fulton Diagnostic Center.

1 Q Why did you go to the Fulton Diagnostic Center?

2 A That's where the Missouri Department of Corrections
3 houses prisoners until they are re-classified.

4 Q From Fulton Diagnostic Center where were you sent?

5 A: To Tipton Correctional Center.

6 Q Did you again see Frank Sheppard?

7 A: Yes, I did.

8 Q And where did you see him?

9 A: At the Tipton Correctional Center.

10 Q While there at the Tipton Correctional Center what else
11 did Frank Sheppard tell you about the explosion that 12 killed the six firefighters?

13 A: We had a conversation one day out in the yard and he
14 stated to me that he felt like he shouldn't be blamed
15 for the deaths of the firemen because it was their job
16 to be there and put the fire out.

17 Q What did you do with this information you had from Mr.
18 Sheppard?

19 A: I related it to Detective Sweeney in Independence.

20 Q Why Detective Sweeney?

21 A: I felt like I owed Detective Sweeney a favor and at the 22 time he was the only one that I knew that I could get 23 in contact with about this.

24 Q On account of your giving any information were you
25 released from Tipton?

1081

1 A: No, sir.

2 Q Was anything promised to you by Officer Sweeney?

3 A: No, sir.

4 Q Did you have any hopes of getting anything when you
5 contacted Detective Sweeney?

6 A: Not at the time.

7 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
8 witness, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor.

10 CROSS EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

12 Q Mr. Elliott, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
13 Sheppard.

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q You and I have met previously, have we not?

16 A: Yes, sir.

17 Q I want to go through your prior felony convictions you
18 have told us about. And I want you to begin with your 19 first felony conviction at age 29 and tell me what you
20 were convicted of, in what jurisdiction and what your 21 sentence was, if you would.

22 A: I was convicted for burglary, two years in Ray County.
23 I was convicted of another burglary and sentenced to 24 two years in Clinton County. I was then convicted of 25 receipt of stolen property and sentenced to three years

1

1 ~ in Jackson County. I believe I was sentenced to
2 stealing over $150 in Jackson County. I was sentenced
3 to sealing a motor vehicle which I was sentenced in 4 ~ Jackson County. I was sentenced to possession of 5 ~ methamphetamine which I was sentenced to three years.
6 ~ I was sentenced to possession of a firearm. I was
7 sentenced to three years and I was sentenced to 8 unlawful use of a weapon and I was sentenced to two 9 years.

10 Q Do you have any misdemeanor convictions?

11 A: Yes, I do.

12 Q How many?

13 A: I couldn't tell you.

14 Q How many do you think?

15 A: Three or four.

16 Q What would those have been for?

17 A: Traffic tickets, possession of a controlled substance.

18 Q Anything else?

19 A: No, sir.

20 Q Have you ever escaped from confinement?

21 A: No, sir.

22 Q Have you ever been on escape status?

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q When were you on escape status?

25 A: From the Kansas City honor center.

1083

1 Q This was the same place where you said you met George
2 Sheppard, is that right?

3 A: Yes, sir.

4 Q And would you agree with me you were on escape status
5 there on 5-10 of '95 and returned to custody 5-21 of 6 '95.

7 A: Yes, sir.

8 Q So you were on your honor to come back and you did not.

9 A: yes, sir.

10 Q Now, as I understand it -- and you correct me if I say
11 anything that is incorrect -- as I understand it, you
12 wrote a letter to this Detective Sweeney and then the 13 next thing that happened some agents or officers came 14 and interviewed you in prison.

15 A: Yes, sir.

16 Q And what prison facility were you in when they came to 17 interview you?

18 A: Tipton Correctional Center.

19 Q And did they take an interview of you at that 20 correctional facility?

21 A: Yes, sir.

22 Q Now, at any time did they bring like a tape recorder to 23 tape record what they were saying to you, what you were 24 saying to them?

25 A: I don't recall.

1 Q After you gave this two-page interview did they have
2 you raise your hand and swear to it like an affidavit?

3 A I don't recall.

4 Q Would you have remembered that?

5 A: I believe so.

6 Q Now after you gave this interview, the next thing that
7 happened, as I understand it, you testified before a
8 grand jury. You gave the interview I think on June 9 29th of 1995, does that sound about right?

10 A: Yes, sir.

11 Q And then you testified before a federal grand jury on 12 the 17th of January, 1996, is that correct?

13 A: Yes, sir.

14 Q Now, after you testified before the grand jury on the 15 17th of January, 1996 did you then start writing
16 personal letters to Mr. Becker, the government attorney
17 in this case?

18 A: Yes, I did.

19 Q And the purpose of those letters was to tell him you
20 were interested in the reward money, is that right?

21 A: Yes, sir.

22 Q Now, had you told anyone after you testified before the 23 grand jury you were interested in the reward money.

24 A: Would you repeat the question, sir.

25 Q Sure, I will. Did you ever tell anyone before you

1085

1 wrote this first letter of January 26, 1996, after your
2 grand jury testimony, did you ever tell anyone before
3 that time, this letter, that you were interested in 4 this reward money?

5 A: I had vaguely mentioned it to the detectives that came
6 and seen me.

7 Q How did you vaguely mention it?

8 A: They had asked me if there was anything that I wanted
9 out of this. And at the time I said no, there was 10 nothing that I wanted but there was a question of a
11 $50,000 reward.

12 Q You told that to the detectives who talked to you on 13 June 29, 1995.

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q They asked you at the end of the interview what you
16 wanted or why you were doing this and you said I want
17 the reward money.

18 A: Not in those words.

19 Q I am interested in the reward money.

20 A: yes, sir.

21 Q I want to show you this interview, show you what has 22 been marked as Defendants' Exhibit 10 which appears to 23 be the two-page interview they did of you on June the
24 29th, 1995.

25 THE COURT: Is this a paper signed by this

~

1 witness?

2 MR. O'CONNOR: No, Your Honor, it is an
3 interview.

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q Who was the first person who ever showed you this
6 particular interview?

7 A: I don't understand the question.

8 Q When is the first time you ever read this document that
9 I just handed you?

10 A: I can't remember.

11 Q Wasn't it when I came up to talk to you on the 14th of 12 January?

13 A: Yes, sir.

14 Q And you had never seen that document before that day.

15 THE COURT: The 14th of what date?

16 MR. O'CONNOR: 1997.

17 A: Not that I recall.

18 Q Is there anywhere in that report where agents put down
19 you were asking for the reward money?

20 A: No, sir.

21 Q When you went to the grand jury did you tell the grand
22 jury you were interested in the reward money?

23 A: No, sir.

24 Q So in the January 20 letter after the grand jury
25 testimony, you are telling them I want some of the

~

1 reward money.

2 A: Yes, sir.

3 Q Please write me back.

4 ~ A: Yes, sir.

5 Q Did you get any letter back?

6 A: I got a response but it was just a response about the 7 trial. Nothing about anything else.

8 Q Did this letter of January the 20th get answered to 9 your satisfaction?

10 A: No, sir.

11 Q Now, the next letter I have that you sent to the 12 government attorney, Mr. Becker, was February the 22nd,
13 is that correct?

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q And you are telling about your money problems and you
16 are telling him again you want the reward money.

17 A: Yes, sir.

18 Q Did you get any answer to that?

19 A: No, sir.

20 Q Then I understand on February the 25th you wrote him
21 another letter, is that right?

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q And in this letter you tell him about the sentences you
24 are facing and what your charges are and what the CR
25 numbers are and all that.

1

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q And you are wanting to see if Mr. Becker can help you

3 ~ get out of jail a little earlier than you were going

4 1 to.

5 1 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And he didn't answer you on that one, did he?

7 A: No, sir.

8 Q Then you sent him another letter on June 11th, 1996,

9 still asking for the reward money.

10 MR. MILLER: At this point I object. If he 11 is testifying from letters that are not in evidence and 12 ask if he is going to use the letters they be put in
13 evidence.

14 THE COURT: Well, I am not sure they are 15 admissible in evidence and you are using the substance
16 of papers that are not in evidence. And I think that 17 is not right.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: I was not going to offer them.
19 I assumed they would not be admissible.

20 THE COURT: You're right.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: He is familiar with the 22 letters. I was trying to save time. I have been over
23 them with him and he knows about this letter.

24 THE COURT: Rather than referring as whatever
25 you are asking about as substance of a paper, just ask

1089

1 him if he, in fact, did make that request of Becker on
2 such and such a date.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

4 Q On June 11th, 1996 did you write another letter to Mr.
5 Becker making similar requests for reward money?

6 A: Yes, sir.

7 Q Now, did you send Mr. Becker another letter on June the
8 21th, 1996?

9 A: Yes, sir.

10 Q And did you remind Mr. Becker that today is the day the 11 indictments came out against these individuals?

12 A: I saw it on the TV.

13 Q And you were wanting to know about your money, the 14 reward money.

15 A: Not necessarily about the money.

16 Q And did you send him another letter on June the 23rd,
17 1996, Mr. Becker?

18 A: I believe so.

19 Q Explaining to him your parole situation.

20 MR. MILLER: I object again as commenting
21 on letters.

22 THE COURT: Yes, I will sustain the
23 objection. And the jury is instructed to disregard it.

24 Q Did you write Mr. Becker again on July the 6th, 1996?

25 A: Yes, I did.

1090

1 Q 8-11 of '96.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q August 5th of '96.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Ever get any answers to any of your letters about what
6 you were asking for?

7 A: No, sir.

8 Q now, when they took this two-page interview of you, did
9 they have a lady like this there doing this?

10 A: No, sir.

11 Q The January 20th letter you sent to Mr. Becker, you
12 were clearly wanting something for your testimony, were 13 you not?

14 A: I believe so.

15 Q You were clearly asking about the $50,000 reward.

16 A: Yes.

17 MR. MILLER: Again, I object if he is going
18 to use letters.

19 THE COURT: Sustained. What year is January
20 20th?

21 MR. O'CONNOR: '96.

22 Q Now, you said on direct exam I think you had heard
23 about this case before you met George Sheppard, is that
24 true?

25 A: Yes, sir.

1091

1 Q And you said you had heard about it on news accounts,
2 is that right?

3 A: Yes, sir.

4 Q Did you hear about it any other way?

5 A: No, sir.

6 Q Did you see a reward poster somewhere?

7 A: Yes, I did.

8 Q Where did you see that reward poster?

9 A: They had them posted on the bulletin boards at the 10 Western Missouri Correctional Center.

11 Q In Cameron.

12 A: Yes, sir.

13 Q And that was in 1994, was it not?

14 A: Yes, it was.

15 Q So in 1994 there was a poster that said 550,000 for the 16 arrest of the people responsible for this.

17 A: Or persons.

18 Q Or persons. And you were in that facility at that
19 time.

20 A: Yes, I was.

21 Q How many times do you think you passed that reward sign
22 inn 1995?

23 A: Every day.

24 Q And 550, 000 is a lot of money.

25 A: Yes, sir.

1092

1 Q And this is before you ever met George Sheppard.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q When you called the ATF, when you wrote these letters
4 to Mr. Sweeney, how much money did you have on the 5 books up there?

6 A: A couple hundred dollars.

7 Q And "books" mean so you could spend money in the prison
8 for commissary and those kinds of things.

9 A: yes, sir.

10 Q How much money do you have up there now?

11 A: None.

12 Q And as I understand it, you are going to make a request
13 for this reward money after you leave this witness
14 stand, is that right?

15 A: yes, sir.

16 Q Now, in that interview with the ATF back in June of '95
17 you specifically told them, did you not, you were 18 interested in the $50,000 reward.

19 A: Yes, I did. I had mentioned it.

20 Q If you told them that in that interview they didn't put 21 it in there, did they?

22 A: Evidently not.

23 Q And you told them that's why you were giving them the 24 statement, the interview you were giving them was for 25 the reward money.

1 A: No, sir.

2 Q Page 38, lines 21 through 25 and 39, lines 1 through 5.

3 "Question:And you clearly told them" -- let's go

4 back. On the 14th of January, 1997 I visited you in 5 Cameron, is that correct?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q You were under oath when you gave these responses?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q You told me the truth, did you not?

10 A: Yes, I did.

11 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor, and counsel, come
12 up.

13 (Proceedings outside the hearing of the jury.)

14 THE COURT: What are you impeaching?

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I want to put it in context,
16 the page before. I am impeaching him.

17 THE COURT: That is just what he said.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: I was trying to put it in 19 perspective of this question.

20 THE COURT: I understand that but at the top
21 of 39 you said "That's why you were giving them the 22 statement, the interview you were giving them'".

23 MR. O'CONNOR: He said before that's not -

24 MR. BECKER: Later on in his deposition he 25 says that, too.

1094

1 THE COURT: Yes. I don't like unfair use of
2 these things.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: That is not unfair.

4 THE COURT: If there is something later on
5 that says that, then do a completeness, the whole thing
6 at one time.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Absolutely. Show it to me.
8 I wasn't aware of it.

9 MR. MILLER: I will get my notes.

10 THE COURT: Are you talking about in the 11 deposition?

12 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge. Pages 41, line 15.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: That is after having said what 14 he said. That is basically a self-serving statement he 15 is now making after he said a hundred times he is 16 asking for the reward money. I think it is relevant.
17 They can bring it up but I don't think that clearly
18 disputes that.

19 THE COURT: I don't think that is fair. You
20 may use that if you use the rest of it.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I will go on. It is not that 22 big a point.

23 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

24 Q At the time you came forward about this case was it
25 your understanding that if the persons were just

1095

1 arrested that you would be entitled to the reward money
2 that was based on information you had given?

3 A: No, sir.

4 Q What was your understanding?

5 A: At the time I sent the Detective Sweeney letter?

6 Q About the reward money.

7 A: At the time there was no motivation at all for the 8 reward money. My motivation was personally for myself.

9 Q What I am saying is when you saw the reward and you
10 said, I think earlier, you were interested in the 11 reward money, what did you think was going to entitle
12 you to that money, what did you have to do?

13 A: I don't understand your question.

14 Q Okay. Did you believe that because you had given a
15 statement against Frank Sheppard and he got arrested
16 for that, were you entitled to the reward money?

17 A: Yes, I believe that.

18 THE COURT: Arrested only?

19 Q Yes, do you understand that?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And that is what you thought, that he only had to be
22 arrested and that you would be entitled to the reward
23 money.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Now at the time also you were wanting to get out, get

1096

1 your paperwork speeded up to get out a little earlier,
2 were you not?

3 A: Yes, I was.

4 Q You were also making those requests of the prosecutor
5 as well.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q You had two motivations, reward money and getting out
8 early, is that a fair statement?

9 A: Yes, I did at the time.

10 Q Now, would you agree with me at the time you sent this
11 letter to Mr. Becker about helping you with your time,
12 since he didn't answer you back you got a new detainer
13 placed on you that was no longer something he could 14 help you with.

15 MR. MILLER: I object to the form of the 16 question, "Would you agree with me". Further, the 17 rest of the question is argumentative.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 Q At the time you sent the letter to Mr. Becker
20 requesting him to speed up your paperwork did you have 21 any detainers on you?

22 A: No, sir.

23 Q Did you get detainers put on you between the time you
24 sent the letter and you got no response?

25 A: No, sir.

1097

1 Q Did you get a new charge?

2 A: No, sir.

3 Q Had you gone to the parole board and they pulled your
4 house arrest program?

5 A: They took my house arrest because of a new charge that 6 I had.

7 Q That was after you had sent the letter.

8 A: No, sir.

9 Q On June the 20th, 1996.

10 A: No, all charges had been pending prior to that letter.

11 Q Did you see this case premiered on Unsolved Mysteries?

12 A: Yes, I did, briefly.

13 Q Now before you came down here to testify today you have
14 talked with the prosecuting attorneys, before you
15 talked with me, about your testimony, is that correct?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Did you inform them that you wanted the reward money
18 when you talked with them?

19 A: Yes, I did.

20 Q Do you know what you need to do about getting this
21 reward? Have you been given instructions on how to do
22 that?

23 A: No, I haven't.

24 Q Do you have a prior drug history as well, Mr. Elliott?

25 A: Yes, I do.

1098

1 Q What drugs have you used in the past?

2 MR. MILLER: I object. Remoteness and
3 relevance.

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 Q Has your use of drugs in the past had any effect on
6 your memory?

7 A: At times but I have a pretty good memory.

8 Q In this two-page interview you did with the agents you
9 said that Mr. Sheppard identified himself to you.

10 MR. MILLER: Excuse me, Mr. O'Connor.

11 THE COURT: I don't think that is right.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I keep saying statement.

13 THE COURT: You said interview but either
14 one, it's not signed by him. It is just somebody's
15 report of what he thinks he was told and there is no
16 verification of that. There is no foundation laid for 17 that. It is just a piece of paper.

18 Q You were interviewed by the ATE, is that correct?

19 A: Yes, sir.

20 Q Have you read the interview?

21 A: Yes, I have.

22 Q And do you agree with the contents of the interview?

23 A: Yes, I do.

24 Q And do you need more time to look at it?

25 A: No, sir.

1099

1 Q And is everything that you said in there the truth?

2 A: Yes.

3 ~ THE COURT: Wait a minute. What he said is
4 not transcribed in there. I don't want to mislead him
5 or the jury. I am sure you are not doing that intentionally but it is a report of what somebody
7 thinks he said, isn't that right, Mr. O'Connor?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes. It is a report of what
9 somebody thinks he said and as such is not usable
10 against him unless he agrees it is accurate and 11 inconsistent with something he has said today.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I agree.

13 MR. MILLER: There is no foundation for him
14 to use the statement in any questions. And now he is 15 showing it to the witness. There is no need to 16 refresh, no need for impeachment.

17 THE COURT: That is true.

18 Q Did you tell the agents who interviewed you that the 19 person introduced himself to you as George Sheppard?

20 A: Yes, I did.

21 Q And he did not introduce himself as Frank Sheppard, is
22 that correct?

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q And how long had you talked with him? You never met
25 him before, is that right?

1100

1 A: No, sir.

2 Q You talked to him for how long before he started making
3 these admissions to you?

4 A: Well, he brought him in on the evening of the 21st. We
5 really didn't talk much that night. That next morning
6 when we got up is basically when we started having the
7 conversation.

8 Q And did he tell you that a person by the name of Bryan,
9 who he described as his brother, was with him?

10 MR. MILLER: I object to the relevance of 11 that. That also calls for hearsay.

12 May we approach?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

15 THE COURT: I am not sure about what he 16 described as his brother. As I read this thing, this 17 guy says he assumed it was his brother but he didn't 18 say in the statement to you or in his deposition he 19 described him as his brother, that Bryan is his 20 brother. He said to the agent he assumed he was his 21 brother.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: George told him his brother
23 Bryan had been a suspect for a long time.

24 THE COURT: But it doesn't say George told
25 him that Bryan was his brother and he had been a

1101

1 suspect for a long time.

2 The his brother Bryan is consistent with
3 what he said in here, is part of this man's 4 assumption whether Bryan was his brother. In 5 other words, I think before you do that you have 6 to ask him if, during this whole conversation with 7 Sheppard, he assumed that Bryan was his brother.

8 MR. MILLER: If I may, it goes further. He 9 is trying to get in an exculpatory statement about
10 prior, it is not an admission against Frank. Anything
11 about Bryan is hearsay because it is exculpatory.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: It was his grand jury
13 testimony, Judge.

14 THE COURT: That's right. That's the same
15 thing, in addition to which, I don't know why this is 16 admissible. Why is it admissible?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: George Sheppard, one, has 18 never gone by George. He has always gone by Frank.
19 We would argue this conversation didn't take place.

20 THE COURT: He has already covered that.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I am not getting into that.
22 Secondly, when he is saying Bryan is his brother, that 23 is factually incorrect. It goes to the heart of 24 whether the jury wants to believe him from the 25 standpoint of correct when he has the name wrong and

1102

1 he has the facts wrong.

2 THE COURT: You may do this in terms of
3 identifying people or things but you can't use the 4 substance of those statements because as to Bryan that
5 would be exculpatory and is not an admission, is not
6 admissible. In other words, all you can do is deal
7 with what he has testified to here, something he may 8 have said before that is inconsistent with that.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: It is my understanding -
10 maybe Mr. Becker could correct me -- when the FBI or 11 ATF interview people in this format they're considered
12 statements.

13 THE COURT: Not for purposes of this
14 courtroom.

15 MR. OSGOOD: I have a question. This is 16 going to occur again. With respect to the issue of 17 Bryan, for example, presumably if the defendant goes
18 on the stand, we can ask the defendant did you know
19 Mr. X, did you have a conversation with him. Yes.
20 Did you tell him thus and so. No, I never told him
21 that. No, I never said that.

22 THE COURT: If he testified he said that,
23 then you can ask him did you say that because then you
24 are head-on challenging what he said on the stand. But 25 he is just trying to make points here for I guess

1103

1 Bryan.

2 MR. OSGOOD: My point, if Frank, for example,
3 hypothetically testifies and Frank says I had a
4 conversation with this guy but I never told him
5 anything about Bryan or somebody else.

6 THE COURT: I am not going to let him say
7 what he said about Bryan because it is not an 8 admission. In other words, you can't bootstrap your 9 way into George denying it because he isn't going to be 10 on the record he said it.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Maybe I am missing something.
12 If we assert to you -- I don't know whether he is 13 asserting Frank is going to testify or not but if Frank
14 is going to testify and deny this conversation, then 15 isn't this a proper question with this witness to say
16 did Frank say this?

17 THE COURT: No, only if it is inculpatory or 18 against his interest or an admission or I suppose
19 otherwise relevant, but not something exculpatory to 20 another defendant that doesn't contradict anything he 21 has previously said.

22 MR. OSGOOD: The problem with that is in the 23 total context of this case they are going to present
24 statements purportedly said by each of these defendants
25 and particularly when they start Brutonizing them they

1 are going to be speculating who they were talking
2 about.

3 THE COURT: I will deal with that at the time
4 it comes up. I can't deal with that now.

5 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

6 Q Mr. Elliott, in this conversation you had with Mr.
7 Sheppard, that was in 1995, is that true?

8 A: Yes, sir.

9 Q Did he identify to you Bryan Sheppard as being his
10 brother?

11 A: We had a conversation. I may have assumed Bryan was 12 his brother.

13 Q And again, this interview was not tape-recorded, is
14 that right?

15 A: No, sir.

16 Q Would you agree with me -

17 MR. MILLER: Excuse me. I object to the 18 form.

19 THE COURT: Yes. Let's don't explore your
20 and
21 his agreement or disagreement.

22 Q You don't like prison, do you?

23 A: No, sir.

24 Q You would like to have been out of prison, in fact, at 25 the time you were writing these letters to Mr. Becker,w 1105

1 wouldn't you?

2 A: Yes, sir.

3 Q Would you have done anything to get out of prison back
4 in 1995?

5 A: Would I have done anything? Almost anything.

6 Q And were you desperate to get out of prison in '95
7 because you had a bad drug habit?

8 A: Not because I had a bad drug habit.

9 Q Were you desperate to get out of prison just because 10 you wanted out?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q And would you agree with me back in '95 you would have 13 done anything to get out of jail?

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 MR. MILLER: Objection. Repetitious.

16 THE COURT: He answered that yes.

17 Q You have lied to people before, haven't you?

18 A: Yes, I have.

19 Q You don't have any problem lying to people to get
20 things you want, do you?

21 A: No, sir.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: That is all.

23 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we will
24 take about a 10 minute recess just to give everybody a
25 comfort stop here but not too long. Don't talk about

1106

1 the case while we are in recess. You may withdraw.

2 RECESS

3 THE COURT: Mr. Elliott, I will remind you
4 you are still under oath. And you may proceed.

5 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

6 CROSS EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. PETERS:

8 Q Mr. Elliott, my name is Pat Peters and I represent
9 Frank Sheppard.

10 A: Yes, sir.

11 Q Briefly, sir, your testimony is that within a day of 12 being housed at the honor center together, that my 13 client introduced himself as George, is that correct?

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q Now at the time of this explosion on November 29th,
16 1988 you were in Algoa, is that correct?

17 A: Yes, sir.

18 Q So before this explosion your alibi would be that you
19 are in Algoa, is that correct?

20 MR. MILLER: I object. Argumentative and 21 not relevant what his alibi would be.

22 THE COURT: Why are we talking about an
23 alibi? I will sustain the objection.

24 Q When you talk about an alibi, that's when someone -

25 THE COURT: No, we are not going to get into

1 alibis, Mr. Peters. I sustained the objection. Let's
2 go on to something else. An alibi is for someone who
3 is accused of something pertinent to the inquiry. This
4 ~ man is not a party to this inquiry.

5 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, -

6 THE COURT: If you want to come up and talk
7 about it, you may do so but you are not going to talk
8 about alibis with this witness.

9 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

10 THE COURT: Unless you have some clear
11 indication he was involved in this crime we are not
12 going to talk about alibies.

13 MR. PETERS: The only thing I am trying to 14 get, he says Frank told him he had an alibi. The word
15 "alibi" is used by him.

16 THE COURT: But not for him. Never mind. It
17 doesn't make any sense.

18 MR. PETERS: My question is when he hears the 19 word "alibi" it just means I want to get out, what he 20 means by alibi. It means you weren't there.

21 THE COURT: No.

22 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

23 Q Your testimony is that after introducing himself as 24 George in a 15 minute conversation he essentially
25 confessed to you, is that correct?

1 A: He never confessed to me. We just had a conversation
2 of the fire.

3 Q At the time that you first met the man you have
4 identified as George Sheppard, what had you heard about
5 the explosion on November 29th, 1988?

6 A: Just what I had heard on the news, a fire had happened
7 and I thought it was four firemen at the time. You
8 know, that's all I really recall hearing about it.

9 Q And prior to the meeting that you are testifying about,
10 you had been housed at Tipton and had seen the reward
11 poster, correct?

12 A: I saw the reward poster. It wasn't the Missouri
13 Correctional Center.

14 Q But that was prior to this meeting with the person you
15 have identified as George Sheppard.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q And at the time of this meeting isn't it true that you
18 had already seen the Unsolved Mysteries segment?

19 A: Yes, I had.

20 Q Did you tell the agents that interviewed you you had 21 seen the entire Unsolved Mysteries segment?

22 A: I never saw the entire segment.

23 Q Did you tell them you had seen the segment?

24 A: I can't recall if I did or not.

25 Q Did you tell the grand jury that you had seen the

1 Unsolved Mysteries segment?

2 A: I am not sure. I don't remember if I did.

3 Q What you had told the agents and what you had told the 4 grand jury is -

5 MR. MILLER: I object. This is not
6 impeachment and it is hearsay.

7 THE COURT: Yes, and it doesn't sound like a
8 question to me, Mr. Peters. Let's do it again.

9 MR. PETERS: Okay.

10 Q Did you tell the agents that you didn't know anything
11 about the case other than a little bit you had heard on 12 the news?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Is that what you told the grand jury?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q But, in fact, you had seen the segment on Unsolved
17 Mysteries, isn't that true?

18 A: Yes, I had.

19 Q And you had watched that segment with some interest,
20 isn't that true?

21 A: I just caught a brief glimpse of it. I didn't watch
22 the whole thing.

23 Q Did you see enough of the segment to remember names or 24 details about the segment?

25 A: No, sir.

1

1 Q Do you know the gentleman seated at the table right
2 here at the end, do you know this gentleman?

3 A: I believe he introduced himself to me Saturday.

4 Q Had you ever met him before that time? Let me ask you
5 this. You remembered enough details about the Unsolved
6 Mysteries segment to remember the name Dave True from 7 that segment, didn't you?

8 A: No, sir.

9 Q Do you remember recognizing the name Dave True from 10 seeing him on TV?

11 A: Yes, I saw him on TV once.

12 Q That was in the Unsolved Mysteries segment.

13 A: No, I never saw him on the Unsolved Mysteries.

14 Q You saw Dave True in relationship to this case, is that
15 correct?

16 A: No, sir.

17 MR. PETERS: I think I am done, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Who is next?

19 MS. HUNT: No questions.

20 CROSS EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. OSGOOD:

22 Q Mr. Elliott, my name is John Osgood. I represent
23 Richard Brown. I just have a couple questions. Do you
24 know Mr. Brown?

25 A: No, sir.

1 Q Have you ever heard his name?

2 A: Other than what was on TV.

3 Q When he was charged or indicted.

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 Q When you had you interview with Agent Lobdell, did Mr.
6 Lobdell bring up his name?

7 A: He asked me if I knew him.

8 Q Did he tell you any of the allegations against Mr.
9 Brown?

10 A: No, sir.

11 MR. MILLER: I object. This is hearsay as to 12 what Mr. Lobdell asked him about Mr. Brown. It is not 13 relevant.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 Q How long did you talk to Agent Lobdell?

16 A: I'm not sure, sir. An hour, I would say.

17 Q And would you explain to me what you meant by your 18 answer to the question by previous counsel that you
19 would lie when it's necessary or when it does you some 20 good, am I saying that right?

21 A: I mean there was a time I used to lie.

22 Q When it was convenient.

23 A: For my drug addiction.

24 Q I see, which also affected your memory I believe you
25 said.

1 A: I have a very good memory.

2 Q Have you ever attempted to gain favors in the 3 institution by telling things about other inmates?

4 A: No, sir.

5 Q There is no reward available for telling on other
6 inmates in the institution you knew of.

7 A: No, sir.

8 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Redirect.

10 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

11 MR. BECKER: At this time I would like to 12 offer into evidence -- I think I should show it to 13 you first -- under Rule 901(7), Exhibit 390.

14 MR. OSGOOD: I object. This is not a
15 public record.

16 THE COURT: Why?

17 MR. OSGOOD: It is a letter. It is a letter
18 from the institution directed to Mr. Becker. It is 19 not a business record or public record. It is just a
20 letter. If he wants to call a witness.

21 MR. PETERS: To expedite matters, there are
22 other counsel involved and I think we can work out a
23 stipulation as to the fact they want to adduce.

24 What I would object to is the surplusage
25 of the escape status and they were housed in the

1 administrative segregation confinement area but I am
2 ~ willing to stipulate that they were together at the 3 1 honor center on the dates that are indicated in this
4 1 letter.

5 1 THE COURT: That is all you are going to get
6 1 out of that report anyway.

7 1 MR. BECKER: They were housed together in the 8 1 same unit on the dates.

9 1 MR. PETERS: I have no objection to that.

10 1 My only objection was to the claim of 11 1 escape status and temporary administrative 12 1 segregation confinement.

13 1 THE COURT: You can't get that in. You don't
14 1 want that. Recite the name as used and the date
15 1 recited and they were together in the same unit on 16 1 whatever date it indicates in that statement.

17 1 MR. PETERS: And I have no objection to that.

18 ~ THE COURT: Then you can introduce the 19 1 stipulation in the form of if he would testify from the 20 1 institution, he would testify as follows.

21 1 MR. BECKER: I would point out to the Court
22 1 901(7) indicates that any -

23 1 THE COURT: (b)(7).

24 1 MR. BECKER: (b)(7). "A public record,
25 ! report statement or data compilation, in any form,

1 is from the public office where items of this nature
2 are kept." That is exactly what this is. This is a
3 data compilation from the Department of Corrections
4 under seal from an appropriate official of the 5 Department of Corrections.

6 THE COURT: It may very well be but I think
7 there is, however, extraneous matter in that the 8 escape status, did they flee together?

9 MR. BECKER: No.

10 MR. MILLER: No.

11 THE COURT: Let's just do it this way.

12 MR. PETERS: With the stipulation.

13 THE COURT: Yes. Do you want me to recite
14 it?

15 MR. BECKER: Certainly, Judge.

16 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, counsel
18 have agreed and stipulated that were he to testify,
19 Calvin Palmer, the Associate Superintendent of the 20 Kansas City Community Release Center of the Missouri
21 Department of Corrections, he would testify that the 22 records of that institution reflect that George
23 Sheppard arrived at the Kansas City Community Release
24 Center on April 12th, 1995 and went from there to the 25 Fulton Reception and Diagnostic Center on May 25, 1995.

1 He would also testify the records of
2 that institution indicate that Charles Elliott
3 arrived at that center on April 10th, 1995 and was
4 transferred to Fulton on May 25, 1995.

5 He would also testify that both Sheppard
6 and Elliott were housed in the same cell from May 7 22nd, 1995 to May 25, 1995 and then transferred to 8 Fulton.

9 Okay, counsel, you may proceed.

10 MR. MILLER: Nothing further.

11 THE COURT: All right, any other Cross.

12 You may step down, sir.

13 MR. MILLER: The government calls Mr. Jerry 14 Rooks.

15 JERRY ROOKS,
16 having been sworn, testified:

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. MILLER:

19 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

20 A: Jerry Rooks.

21 Q How old are you, sir?

22 A: Twenty-one.

23 Q Back on November the 29th of 1988 how old were you?

24 A: Thirteen.

25 Q And where did you live in November of '88?

1116

2 A: 8303 Wabash

3 Q What area of Kansas City is that?

A: Marlborough.

5 Q Do you remember the explosion in '88 that caused the 6 death of the six fire fighters?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q How do you remember the explosion?

9 A: It woke me up.

10 Q And you were 13 at the time.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Now do you know Mr. Frank Sheppard?

13 A: I met him one time.

14 Q You met him one time. Do you see him in the courtroom
15 today?

16 A: Yes, I do.

17 Q Could you identify him for the court.

18 A: He's standing up.

19 Q The gentleman standing up.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Do you remember when you met him that one time?

22 A: About six months after the explosion.

23 Q Do you remember where you met him that one time?

24 A: At house on Hickman Mills Drive.

25 Q Now do you know a Richard Brown?

1 A: I met him a few times.

2 Q Do you see him in the courtroom?

3 A: Yeah, leaning back with the sweater. It has been a
4 while.

5 Q If you need to stand up and look. I was asking for
6 Richard Brown.

7 A: Actually no, I don't think he's here.

8 Q Do you know Bryan Sheppard?

9 A: I seen him the same day.

10 Q Can you identify Bryan Sheppard?

11 A: No, I can't.

12 Q Do you have any convictions?

13 A: Yes, I do.

14 Q Would you tell the jury what for.

15 A: Burglary.

16 Q When did you get the conviction?

17 A: December of '95.

18 Q And what was your sentence?

19 A: Three years probation.

20 Q Were you given anything in return for your testimony
21 here?

22 A: No.

23 Q Now you said where you met Mr. Sheppard at. Was that 24 his home, do you know?

25 A: I don't know.

1118

1 Q Why did you go to this house?

A: I was with a friend that wanted to go get cigarettes.

3 Q What is the name of the friend?

4 A: Jeff Kerr.

5 Q And are you and Jeff Kerr still friends?

6 A: No, we are not.

7 Q Before you went there with Mr. Kerr for cigarettes, had
8 you ever met Frank Sheppard before?

9 A: No.

10 Q In the room where you met Mr. Sheppard, how many people
11 were in the room?

12 A: Five counting, including me and Jeff.

13 Q Was Frank Sheppard one of the five?

14 A: Yes, he was.

15 Q At that house when you went in, who told you that that 16 was Frank Sheppard?

17 A: Jeff Kerr.

18 Q By the way, when you came in here were you told where 19 Frank Sheppard would be seated?

20 A: No.

21 MR. OSGOOD: Objection to the leading
22 questions, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Overruled.

24 Q Your answer.

25 A: No.

1 Q Were you ever shown photographs or a photospread by the
2 police?

3 A: Yes, I was.

4 Q Do you remember when that was?

5 A: February of '95.

6 Q Where were you shown those photographs?

7 A: The Platte County Jail.

8 Q Were you able to pick Frank Sheppard out of those
9 photographs?

10 A: No.

11 Q How many years had gone by from when you saw Frank
12 Sheppard the first time and when you were shown that 13 photospread?

14 A: Over five.

15 Q In those five years from the meeting until the spread,
16 had you ever seen Frank Sheppard again?

17 A: No.

18 MR. PETERS: I object to questions about a
19 photospread. We haven't seen this photospread that 20 is being talked about.

21 THE COURT: Yes, if that hasn't been
22 revealed, I think it is a proper objection.

23 MR. BECKER: May we approach for a moment,
24 please.

25 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

1120

1 MR. BECKER: I object to the speaking
2 objections by Mr. Peters.

3 THE COURT: Yes. Don't do that.

4 MR. PETERS: We have had extensive
5 conferences, Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Peters and myself,
6 about this photospread. It doesn't exist. We can't
7 find it but we have discussed this fully. This isn't
8 something that hasn't been revealed.

9 THE COURT: I thought you said you knew
10 nothing about it. Any photographs?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: That's the very point. We 12 don't know what he was shown. Was he shown a recent 13 photograph. Was he shown an '89 photograph.

14 Now they are trying to ask him about
15 photographs we don't even have to cross-examine 16 about to see if they even look like our client.
17 That's our point.

18 MR. PETERS: There is a report that says
19 he was shown photographs and Frank Sheppard was in 20 one of the photographs and he didn't point him out.
21 He said it looked like him.

22 THE COURT: What else?

23 MR. BECKER: I object to Mr. Peters
24 standing up and saying he doesn't know anything
25 about the photographs when we have had extensive

1 discussions and I thought the practice of the court
2 was no speaking-objections.

3 THE COURT: That's true. Let's go on.

4 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

5 Q I want to go back to the meeting when you met Mr.
6 Sheppard. Who met you at the door of this residence?

7 A: It was Frank Sheppard.

8 Q Were introductions made?

9 A: Jeff Kerr just said this is Frank.

10 Q Did Mr. Sheppard ever correct anyone or deny being 11 Frank Sheppard?

12 A: No.

13 Q Could you describe his voice when you heard it that
14 day?

15 A: It was deep and slurred.

16 Q What condition did you observe him to be in?

17 A: He appeared to be drunk.

18 Q Inside the house where was he sitting?

19 A: At an angle across from me.

20 Q And where were you sitting?

21 A: I was sitting close to the front door.

22 Q Was the explosion that caused the death of the six fire
23 fighters talked about?

24 A: Yes, it was.

25 Q Who talked about it?

1 A: Frank.

2 Q Who was he talking to?

3 A: To Jeff and a woman that was in there.

4 Q Could you hear what Frank Sheppard was saying?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q What did Frank Sheppard say about his involvement in 7 the explosion that caused the death of the six fire
8 fighters?

9 A: He said they were down there trying to get into the 10 trucks and they weren't able to get anything and 11 decided to pour gasoline on them and set them on fire.

12 Q Did Frank Sheppard say specifically what was set on 13 fire?

14 A: No.

15 Q Did Frank Sheppard say what he did after he set the 16 truck, or trucks, on fire?

17 A: He said they left.

18 Q Did Frank Sheppard say anything about a door or shed at
19 the construction site?

20 MR. PETERS: I object to the leading form of 21 the question.

22 THE COURT: Yes, I think that is leading.

23 Q What else did Frank Sheppard tell you about what they 24 tried to do at the construction site?

25 A: He said there was a door they couldn't get into.

1 Q Did he say, where was the truck Frank Sheppard set on
2 fire?

3 A: He didn't say.

4 Q What did Frank Sheppard say he heard on the way home
5 from the construction site after the fire was set?

6 MR. PETERS: Objection. Leading.

7 THE COURT: It may be but I will allow it.

8 A: He said he could hear sirens on the way home.

9 Q How often was Frank Sheppard talking directly to you?

10 A: Not at all.

11 Q Where was Frank Sheppard when he heard the first
12 explosion?

13 A: He said he was at home when he heard it.

14 Q What did Frank Sheppard say he got from the
15 construction site?

16 A: He didn't say anything.

17 Q How long were you over there listening and hearing Mr.
18 Sheppard talk?

19 A: Thirty to 40 minutes.

20 Q What was going on that Frank Sheppard was just talking
21 outloud about his involvement in setting the fire?

22 MR. PETERS: I object to the form of the
23 question.

24 THE COURT: It seems to be a pretty good
25 question. Not leading.

1 MR. PETERS: Then I withdraw my objection.

2 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer. What
3 was going on.

4 A: They were in there talking when we got there and they
5 were drinking. I am not sure how it started up.

6 Q When you and Jeff Kerr left the residence, what did
7 Frank Sheppard say to you?

A: If we told anybody about it he would kill us, too.

9 Q Now back in 1988 and '89 did you know Richard Brown?

10 A: I had seen him a few times, met him a couple times,
11 yeah.

12 Q Did you ever talk with Richard Brown about the
13 explosion?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Where did the conversation take place?

16 A: Marlborough Park.

17 Q When did the conversation take place?

18 A: I would say two or three days after I talked to Frank.

19 Q What did Richard Brown tell you about his involvement
20 in the explosion that caused the death of the fire
21 fighters.

22 A: Be said he was up there but he left before anything
23 went on.

24 Q When did you ever give this information to the police?

25 A: The day before I talked to Richard.

1 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
2 witness, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor.

4 CROSS EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

6 Q Mr. Rooks, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
7 Sheppard. I came out the other day to talk with you,
8 did I not?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q And I had a lady like this with me, a court reporter.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q And I asked you if you would answer some questions.

13 MR. MILLER: I object to the relevance of
14 this.

15 THE COURT: Come up.

16 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

17 MR. MILLER: I believe what he is getting
18 at, he went to talk to this witness and this witness
19 didn't want to talk to him and he doesn't have to. I
20 don't see the relevance.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Why would he not be willing 22 to talk to us when he is freely talking to the 23 government.

24 THE COURT: Do you have some indication that 25 is because of bias? You think the fact he wouldn't

1126

1 talk to you or anybody else shows he was bias?

2 MR. O'CONNOR: I believe it does.

3 THE COURT: I don't think it does. He just
4 didn't want to talk to you.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Could I ask him?

6 TuE COURT: You may say I came out, I asked
7 you to talk to me and you said you didn't want to talk,
8 period.

9 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

10 Q When I came out I asked you if you would talk to me
11 about this case, did I not?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q And you told me you did not want to talk to me about 14 this case, is that right?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Now back in, I believe it was March the 23rd of '90, do
17 you remember talking with some police detectives about 18 your knowledge of this case?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q As I understand your direct examination testimony,
21 this conversation that you had with Richard Brown
22 happened after you had this conversation with George
23 Frank Sheppard, is that true?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Now, did Frank Sheppard introduce himself to you? Did

1 he say my name is George Sheppard?

2 A: No.

3 Q So when you talked to the detectives back in March of 4 1990 you had already talked with Frank Sheppard and had
5 already talked with Richard Brown and knew about both
6 of their involvements in the case, is that true?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q Do you remember whether or not you told Detective
9 Wantland (phonetics) about this conversation that you
10 had with Frank Sheppard?

11 A: No.

12 Q You did not tell him.

13 A: I don't know anything about him.

14 Q Do you remember being interviewed by Detective Gary
15 Wantland?

16 A: No.

17 Q And do you remember being interviewed by a detective
18 back in March of 1990?

19 A: Yes, Detective Fraise.

20 Q Do you remember telling Detective Fraise in March of 21 1990 Frank Sheppard had told you that he was somehow
22 involved in this explosion?

23 A: I didn't tell him very much. He just wanted to know
24 the names of the people I heard about.

25 Q Back then you had that information and you did not tell

1 him, is that what you are telling us?

2 A: Not everything, no.

3 Q Had you talked with Frank Sheppard before you talked to 4 Fraise?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q So did you tell Fraise that Frank Sheppard had
7 basically admitted this crime to you?

8 A: I told him, he said he helped in on it and he said he
9 would get back to me later and ask more questions and 10 he never did.

11 Q Let me explore that a little bit. Tell me exactly what 12 you remember telling Detective Frank Wantland.

13 A: He asked me the name of the guy I talked to and I told 14 him Frank Sheppard. And he asked what he told me. And 15 I said he told me he was involved with the explosion.
16 And he said okay, I will get back with you.

17 Q You are sure of that.

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And that would have been back in 1990.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And would have been after you had talked with Frank
22 Sheppard and Richard Brown.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Have the police ever taken you back or ATF agents, or 25 anyone, to the house where you claim Frank Sheppard

1 made these statements to you?

2 A: No.

3 Q Did you see the case on Unsolved Mysteries?

4 A: No.

5 Q Were you aware of the $50,000 reward money?

6 A: Not until I was in jail.

7 Q That is when the detectives came to see you, when you
8 were in the Platte County Jail.

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Bow was it the reward money came up?

11 A: He showed me the flyer with the reward money.

12 Q So when they came into the Platte County Jail to see 13 you, the first thing they handed you or showed you was 14 this reward poster.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And that is before you then gave them this interview of 17 two pages and then they took a videotape of you that 18 same day.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q So they had a tape recording going and they took a tape
21 recorded statement of you.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q They seemed to be able to work the tape recorder all 24 right and get it working.

25 A: Yes.

1130

1 Q Didn't have any problem with it.

2 A: No.

3 Q Did it seem important to them they wanted to tape
4 record what you had to say?

5 MR. MILLER: Objection.

6 TuE COURT: Opinion. Sustained.

7 Q Did they have you swear or verify an affidavit to your
8 taped statement?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Now they asked you if you knew these men who you were 11 telling them had made these admissions, is that
12 correct?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q You told them you didn't know if you could identify 15 them again, is that correct?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q So they brought you some photographs.

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And basically did they bring you photographs of four 20 men?

21 A: No.

22 Q How many photographs did they bring?

23 A: They brought a few sheets of several photographs on
24 them.

25 Q And were you able to make a positive identification of

1 Frank Sheppard?

2 A: No.

3 Q Were you able to make a positive identification of 4 Bryan Sheppard?

5 A: No.

6 Q Did they ever have these men appear in a live lineup so
7 you could go down and look at them and try to make an 8 identification?

9 A: No.

10 Q Now, when the detectives talked to you did you tell
11 them Mr. Sheppard told you they had tried to get into 12 an underground storage.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Did you tell them they were there to steal CBs or 15 talked about stealing CB radios?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Jeff Kerr was with you, wasn't he?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Jeff Kerr heard this entire conversation I am assuming,
20 didn't he?

21 A: Yes.

22 MR. MILLER: I object. That calls for 23 argument and speculation.

24 THE COURT: That is sustained and the jury is 25 instructed to disregard that.

1 Q Was Jeff Kerr standing right there with you when Frank
2 Sheppard was saying these things?

3 A: He was sitting next to me.

4 Q Did you call the authorities from the Platte County
5 Jail or did they just show up up there?

6 A: They just showed up.

7 Q And you were in jail for what at the time?

8 A: Probation violation.

9 Q How much time are you serving as a result of that 10 probation violation?

11 A: Three years.

12 Q How much time did you do, after they talked with you
13 and got your interview, how much time did you end up
14 doing on the three years?

15 A: Four months in the penitentiary and one month in the 16 county jail.

17 Q Now before they took you to tape recording they asked
18 you a bunch of questions without the tape recorder
19 running, is that true?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And then when the tape recording was running they were 22 asking the questions and you were giving the answer.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q So was there anything on the tape recording about them
25 showing you this $50,000 poster before they ever talked

1 to you?

2 A: No.

3 Q Did you also tell them that Mr. Sheppard, Frank
4 Sheppard, had told you they tried to break into a car
5 up at the site?

6 A: No.

7 Q Tell them they tried to break into a truck.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Did you tell them that they basically said they
10 couldn't get the truck started?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q In other words, they were trying to steal the truck, he 13 was giving the indication they were trying to break in 14 or break the steering column or hot wire it or 15 something like that.

16 MR. MILLER: I object to the form of the 17 question as he was giving an indication of what he 18 said, admission.

19 THE COURT: I think the answer is 20 certainly suggestive. I will sustain the objection.
21 Let's move on.

22 Q Mr. Sheppard told you they were up there trying to 23 break into a truck.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q And did he say they were unsuccessful in doing that?

1134

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Did he give you an indication that the keys were in the
3 truck?

4 A: No.

5 Q Clearly the indication was he was trying to break into
6 the truck to steal it.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q In other words, the truck wasn't open.

9 A: No.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: I think that is all I have.

11 Thank you, sir.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. OSGOOD:

15 Q Mr. Rooks, my name is John Osgood and I represent 16 Richard Brown. You and I have never met, have we?

17 A: No.

18 Q Now, you grew up in the Marlborough area.

19 A: No, I didn't.

20 Q Where did you live when you were 13 years old?

21 A: I lived in the Marlborough area at that time.

22 Q Who did you run around with?

23 A: Jeff Kerr, Dale Young.

24 Q What about Billy Burns?

25 A: I knew him from school.

1 Q And Jeff Thomas.

2 A: No.

3 Q Did you know Willy Ares (phonetics)?

4 A: I met him a few times.

5 Q You went to Center School, is that right?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q And where is this park you were talking about at?

8 A: It's right off of Prospect.

9 Q Were you living with your parents at this time?

10 A: Yes, I was.

11 Q And you were 13 and these other boys that you ran
12 around with were similar ages, is that right?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q And I believe you testified you went over to Mr.
15 Sheppard's house to get cigarettes, is that right?

16 A: I don't remember whose house it was but, yes.

17 Q The incident you talked about, you said Mr. Brown made
18 some statements down in the park, is that right?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And he was up at the site earlier but had left, is that
21 right?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Now, isn't it a fact, sir, that the day we are talking
24 about is October the 15th, this occurred on October the 25 15th of 1989, didn't it?

1136

- 1 A: I am not sure.
- 2 Q Well, do you know John Young?
- 3 A: Yes, I do.
- 4 Q Who is John Young?
- 5 A: My godfather.
- 6 Q Was Mr. Young there drinking with Mr. Brown and several
- 7 other people?
- 8 A: Yes, he was.
- 9 Q Mike Damaggio (phonetics).
- 10 A: Yes.
- 11 Q How old was John Young at this time?
- 12 A: I don't know.
- 13 Q Was he a young man or an older man?
- 14 A: He was older.
- 15 Q Does he have some relationship to you?
- 16 A: He's my godfather.
- 17 Q All right. And did you observe Mr. Damaggio have some
- 18 conversation with some youth that got a little heated
- 19 at one point?
- 20 A: No.
- 21 Q You don't remember that. Well, at any rate, was Mr.
- 22 Young invited to sit down at a picnic table there and
- 23 socialize with Mr. Brown and Mr. Damaggio?
- 24 A: Yes.
- 25 Q Wasn't it a fact that you, as a 13 year old, and a

1 couple of these other 13 years olds were up in the 2 bushes hiding, watching what was going on?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q From that vantage point you could see them down there
5 kind of partying and having a good time and there were 6 some girls.

7 A: Yes.

8 Q You were kind of spying.

9 A: No, we came down as soon as we got -

10 Q You came down and were sitting in the area.

11 TuE COURT: When was that?

12 MR. OSGOOD: October 15, 1989.

13 Q We know that, don't we, sir?

14 A: I am not sure on the date.

15 Q Well, in fact, ultimately Mr. Brown and Mr. Young got 16 in a fight, didn't they?

17 A: It started out with Michael Damaggio.

18 Q And Michael Damaggio, in fact, beat up Mr. Young pretty 19 bad, didn't he?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And there was a police report and the police were 22 called and everything, weren't they?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Now, it was after this that, oh, -- and they weren't 25 arrested on the scene, were they?

1 A: No.

2 Q The police came, looked at it, saw it was kind of a
3 party with beer and drinking and left.

4 A: Everybody left and the cops didn't come by at home
5 until we got home. We called them.

6 Q Do you know whether or not Mr. Young's wife got upset
7 about it and pressed the issue?

8 A: No, I don't.

9 Q And kept calling the police. At any rate, you were 10 called out of school at some point and asked about 11 that, weren't you?

12 A: Yes, I was.

13 Q And that is when you gave the statement about Mr.
14 Sheppard and Mr. Brown, isn't it?

15 A: It may have been.

16 Q And you were mad because they had beaten up John Young
17 in your mind?

18 A: No, I really didn't like him.

19 Q You didn't like Mr. Brown?

20 A: No, I didn't like John Young.

21 Q He was your godfather.

22 A: I still don't have to like him.

23 Q Did you tell the detectives the first time you were 24 interviewed you were down there two different times and 25 that the statements were made by Mr. Brown on a prior

1 occasion?

2 A: I was down there earlier that day.

3 Q Oh, it wasn't a prior week.

4 A: John Young has no knowledge, if that is what you are 5 asking.

6 Q Have you been told I obtained a statement from Mr.
7 Young and were you able to listen to the tape recording
8 I took from Mr. Young, did the prosecutor let you hear
9 that?

10 A: No.

11 Q Did they discuss it with you?

12 A: No.

13 Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that you did not tell the 14 detectives anything about the Sheppards until February
15 the 7th of 1995?

16 A: No, it's not.

17 Q When did you first tell the detectives about Sheppard?

18 A: They came to my school a day or two after I talked to
19 them.

20 Q The detectives did.

21 A: Yes, one detective.

22 Q They came to your school after this fight.

23 A: No, before the fight. After I talked to Frank.

24 Q So what you are telling me is then you had been over
25 and talked to Frank. Frank had threatened you.

1140

1 A: Yes.

2 Q The police came and talked to you at school, is that
3 right?

4 A: Yeah, they talked to me at school.

5 Q You told them at school Frank is involved and you
6 mentioned Mr. Brown is involved.

7 A: I didn't mention him at that time.

8 Q Have you had a chance to review the police reports that
9 were prepared in this case?

10 A: Yes, I have.

11 Q And let me ask you this. You were interviewed on March
12 the 19th of 1990.

13 A: Yes, I was.

14 Q Was there a police report then that exists somewhere
15 for this?

16 A: They got the names backwards on one report because they 17 have my name on somebody else's statement so mine must 18 be under another name.

19 Q Have you seen a police report from this October 15th
20 incident?

21 A: No.

22 Q The only police report is the one on March the 19th of 23 1990 that I have seen, is that right.

24 TuE COURT: Wait a minute.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Be said he saw the police

1 report.

2 TuE COURT: Wait a minute. Take that away.
3 You can't use that that way. He can't sit there and 4 testify from a police report.

5 MR. OSGOOD: I don't want him to testify.
6 I want him to look at it and see if that is the one
7 they showed him.

8 TuE COURT: Be has no failure of
9 recollection.

10 MR. OSGOOD: It has to do with the date, the 11 date of this interview.

12 THE COURT: Which interview?

13 MR. OSGOOD: Of this police contact with
14 him.

15 THE COURT: Which is shown on the report to 16 be?

17 MR. OSGOOD: March 19, 1990.

18 MR. MILLER: May we approach.

19 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury._

20 MR. MILLER: The report, the dates are 21 fouled up. The date of this is 8303 Wabash, his 22 home, not at the school. He is talking about at the 23 school.

24 MR. OSGOOD: I don't have a report from 25 the school. Is there a report?

1142

1 MR. MILLER: No.

2 THE COURT: Apparently, there isn't.

3 MR. OSGOOD: He tells him at that point
4 about the contact with the Sheppards and about
5 Ron and Damaggio.

6 THE COURT: Which is what he already
7 testified to.

8 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

9 Q Were you drinking when you were down in the park there
10 with them?

11 A: Yes, I was.

12 Q How long had the drinking been going on?

13 A: I don't know.

14 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Who is drinking -
15 - his drinking, his?

16 Q Was there drinking generally by the people gathered at 17 the park?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q And this was Mr. Damaggio, Mr. Brown, Mr. Young and 20 then you kids.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q How did the subject of the fire come up, sir?

23 A: I am not sure.

24 Q What did Mr. Brown say specifically about that?

25 A: That he and some people were down there and they had

1 left.

2 Q Is that all he said?

3 A: Yeah.

4 Q And they left before anything went on.

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Where was he seated at the table when he said that?

7 A: He was standing at the end of it.

8 Q Where were you?

9 A: I was sitting in the middle on one of the benches.

10 Q How long after this was it before the fight started
11 between Mr. Damaggio and your godfather?

12 A: I'm not sure of the exact time. Forty-five minutes to 13 an hour.

14 Q Is that all you recall that he ever said at the picnic
15 table?

16 A: Yes.

17 TuE COURT: "He" being?

18 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Brown.

19 Q Do you remember testifying before the grand jury?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Did you tell the grand jury -

22 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Let's look at
23 that.

24 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

25 THE COURT: Let me see it.

1 MR. OSGOOD: They were down there to get
2 radios.

3 TuE COURT: I think you can just do the
4 whole thing. I don't think it is inconsistent. This
5 business of fl

6 ailing around pieces of paper and did he say such and such
7 which is a bunch of Mickey Mouse. That isn't inconsistent
8 with what he testified to. It is exactly what he said. The 9 thrust, they left before anything went on.

10 MR. BECKER: If I may, Judge, if he is 11 looking at line 19, it says they were helping Frank
12 and Bryan. We have made every attempt to instruct
13 the witnesses not to get into that. Perhaps co
14 counsel has some thoughts but if that is what Mr.
15 Osgood is going to read -

16 THE COURT: Read the whole thing.

17 MR. OSGOOD: All right.

18 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

19 Q Mr. Rooks, in searching your memory, is it possible
20 that you heard there was a fight going on down at the 21 park between Mr. Damaggio and your godfather and that 22 is when you came down?

23 A: No, it isn't.

24 MR. MILLER: I object to the form of the 25 question. "Is it possible'.

1145

1 THE COURT: He said no. It's impossible.

2 MR. MILLER: Thank you.

3 Q Could you describe for us the door they were trying to 4 get?

5 A: No, I can't.

6 Q Did you ever describe it on a prior occasion?

7 A: No, I have never seen it.

8 Q Can you describe what they said the door looked like?

9 A: They said a structure in the ground.

10 Q Did they mention anything about a dirt hill and a door
11 in the dirt hill?

12 A: That's a construction in the ground.

13 Q They are trying to get this door open in the side of 14 the hill. Who said this about the dirt and the door
15 and the hill?

16 A: Frank Sheppard.

17 Q Frank Sheppard told you there was a door in the side of 18 the hill and they were trying to open it.

19 A: The door was shut in the hill, yes.

20 Q The shed was built into the side of the hill.

21 A: I haven't seen it. I don't know.

22 Q Did you mention the shed in your prior statement or did
23 you just mention the dirt hill?

24 A: I mentioned something about the shed or door in the 25 ground.

1 Q Do you remember giving a taped statement on February
2 the 7th, 1995 to authorities?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Specifically David True.

5 A: yes.

6 Q And were you asked the question, "Okay, you mentioned"

8 MR. BECKER: Page, please.

9 MR. OSGOOD: Twelve. "You mentioned about
10 some sort of a structure that was into the ground.
11 "Answer: Yeah." Mr. True. "They are trying to get
12 something out of it. Describe that to me again,
13 please.' You say, "They said it was like a dirt door
14 going into the side of the dirt hill, that they were 15 trying to open it. They couldn't get it open.' Do you
16 remember those questions and those answers?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Is that what you said?

19 A: I am sure it is. It is on there.

20 Q Did they tell you what they thought was inside the 21 structure and the dirt?

22 A: No.

23 Q Did they tell you afterwards it was explosives in it?

24 A: Thought it might have been.

25 Q Now, nowhere in that exchange do you mention anything

1 about a building or a structure.

2 THE COURT: It speaks for itself, Mr. Osgood.
3 You read it. And I am sitting here puzzling why it was
4 you read it but you did read it. It isn't inconsistent
5 with anything he has testified to.

6 MR. OSGOOD: It is. Today he said they
7 were trying to get into a structure of some kind or a
8 bunker or a building.

9 THE COURT: That's a bunker. A bunker is the 10 side of the hill.

11 THE WITNESS: There wouldn't be a door or 12 nothing. It has to be some kind of structure. Whether 13 it's built into it or out of it it doesn't matter.

14 Q So a building wasn't mentioned.

15 A: No.

16 Q Just this door going into the ground.

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Okay. Had you ever been up there yourself?

19 A: No.

20 Q Never went up there with the kids and played around.

21 A: No.

22 Q What about another hill at the north end of the Quik
23 Trip, that is kind of a park, is that -

24 A: That's a dump up there. Nobody is allowed up there.

25 Q Kids gather up there.

1148

1 A: Not that I know of.

2 Q Have you ever been up there?

3 A: No.

4 Q How did you know it was a dump?

5 MR. MILLER: I object. This is irrelevant.

6 THE COURT: It is argumentative. Let's go

7 on.

8 Q Do you have a brother?

9 A: I have three brothers.

10 Q What are their names?

11 A: Jonathan -

12 MR. MILLER: Object to the relevance, his 13 brothers' names in this proceeding.

14 MR. OSGOOD: They have given statements.

15 THE COURT: If you want to come up and tell
16 us why it is relevant we will hear you. Otherwise I am
17 going to sustain the objection.

18 (Proceedings were out of the hearing of the jury.)

19 MR. OSGOOD: His brother, one has given a
20 statement. I believe his name is -

21 THE COURT: It doesn't make any difference
22 what his name is. So his brother has given a
23 statement.

24 MR. OSGOOD: That is inconsistent with some 25 of the things. We may call him as a witness.

1 TuE COURT: His brother can't impeach him.

2 MR. OSGOOD: Ask if he discussed any of this
3 with his brother.

4 THE COURT: Does his brother say?

5 MR. OSGOOD: His brother is the one who told
6 the police to contact this man. He said he had 7 discussed it.

8 THE COURT: That is not inconsistent.

9 MR. OSGOOD: I didn't say it was 10 inconsistent. I want to show a relationship.

11 I object. I will move on. Show my
12 objection.

13 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

14 Q When is the last time you saw Mr. Brown?

15 A: I seen him around, a few times driving by.

16 Q When?

17 A: I would say the last time is probably four years ago.

18 Q And, of course, these events occurred eight years ago,
19 right?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q And you remember them with some detail, is that
22 correct?

23 A: You don't forget when somebody says they are going to 24 kill you.

25 Q And you, I presume, put similar importance on 1150

1 statements by Mr. Brown since you told it to the
2 police.

3 A: I don't understand the question.

4 Q You thought what he said was apparently significant,
5 that he had been up there earlier and left because you
6 told that to the police, didn't you?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q And so you wouldn't forget something like that either,
9 I guess, is that right?

10 A: I guess.

11 Q How is it you can't remember what he looked like?

12 MR. MILLER: I object as argument.

13 THE COURT: It is argument. Sustained.

14 Q The last time you saw him was when, sir?

15 A: About four years ago.

16 Q What did he look like then?

17 A: He had long hair and a mustache.

18 Q Mr. Brown, would you stand up. please. I am going to 19 help you, Mr. Rooks. Is that the Mr. Brown you know?

20 A: Looks similar. I can't say for sure.

21 Q But yet you remember all these details that occurred.

22 THE COURT: Argumentative. Sustain the
23 objection.

24 A: These years ago. Are you under any kind of charges
25 now?

1151

1 A: I am on parole.

2 Q You are on parole.

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Have you been or have you had any violation reports in
5 the last year or two?

6 A: I haven't had any since the time I went into prison.

7 MR. BECKER: May we approach.

8 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

9 THE COURT: Is there a good faith basis for 10 any of these questions? What are you talking about?
11 Why did you just him that?

12 MR. OSGOOD: I want to find out whether 13 he has a motive.

14 THE COURT: Why did you ask him about 15 violation? Do you have some indication they're 16 violation reports?

17 MR. OSGOOD: I don't have any in my
18 possession.

19 THE COURT: Stop. Let's stop. That's over.

20 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

21 THE COURT: The objection to that is 22 sustained and the jury is instructed to disregard any 23 reference to violation reports of anything this young
24 man might have done. All right. Let's go.

25 Q Have you had any discussion with the prosecution about

1152

1 anything they can do for you in terms of getting off
2 parole earlier?

3 A: No.

4 Q Have you asked about that?

5 A: No.

6 Q Where are you living now, sir?

7 MR. MILLER: I object as not relevant where
8 he lives now.

9 THE COURT: Scope, too. Sustained.

10 Mr. Peters.

11 CROSS EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. PETERS?

13 Q Mr. Rooks, you have testified at the time of the 14 statements that you were talking about you were 13
15 years old, is that correct?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q And would you agree that the man I had stand up that
18 you identified as Frank Sheppard would have been close
19 to 40, did he appear to be that old at that time?

20 MR. MILLER: I object to the form of the
21 question.

22 THE COURT: Materiality. Sustained.

23 Q How old would you tell this jury, based on your memory
24 today, the person you have identified as Frank Sheppard
25 was in 1990?

1 A: About 24 or 25.

2 Q You have never been able to identify a photograph of
3 Frank Sheppard, have you?

4 A: No.

5 Q Do you remember talking to a Detective Gary Wantland of 6 the Kansas City, Missouri Police Department?

7 A: No, I don't.

8 Q You did remember talking to a Detective John Fraise, is
9 that correct?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Is it your testimony, did you tell Detective Fraise
12 that Frank Sheppard told you they were going to break
13 into an underground storage area, did you tell that to 14 Detective Fraise?

15 A: No.

16 MR. MILLER: He already answered.

17 Q I didn't hear the answer.

18 A: He said no.

19 Q Did you tell Detective Fraise that they wanted to steal
20 a truck?

21 A: No.

22 Q Did you tell Detective Fraise they wanted to steal CB
23 radios?

24 A: No.

25 Q Did you tell Detective Fraise that Frank Sheppard had

1 threatened you, did you tell Detective Fraise that?

2 A: No.

3 Q Did Detective Fraise tell you that he would be back in 4 touch with you?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q The conversation that you had with Detective Fraise was 7 after all of the events you are testifying regarding 8 Frank Sheppard and Richard Brown took place, wasn't it?

9 A: No.

10 Q When was the conversation with Detective Fraise?

11 A: The day before I talked to Richard Brown.

12 Q Had you already talked to Frank Sheppard?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q So it is after you had talked to Frank Sheppard that 15 you talked to Detective Fraise, is that correct?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q And the date they came to the Platte County Jail to 18 interview you was on or about February 7th of 1995.

19 A: Yes.

20 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

21 MS. HUNT: No questions.

22 MR. MILLER: No Redirect.

23 THE COURT: Would counsel come up a minute,
24 please.

25 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

1 THE COURT: I want to be sure that counsel
2 for none of the defendants is concerned with the vague
3 precedent of his reference to Sheppard saying that they
4 did such and such. Is that of concern to anyone?

5 MR. BUNCH: Not to me, Your Honor.

6 MR. OSGOOD: It is to me.

7 THE COURT: You didn't ask him about it on
8 Cross but you are concerned?

9 MR. OSGOOD: On balance, yes.

10 THE COURT: Do you have any problems?

11 MR. MILLER: No. No.

12 MR. PETERS: No.

13 THE COURT: Susan.

14 MS. HUNT: No.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. I am going to 16 ask him a question or two.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, could we send the jury
18 out to talk. We wanted to talk about going Friday.

19 MR. BECKER: To get back to this point -

20 THE COURT: We have Bruton problems.

21 MR. BECKER: What I would contend is the 22 neutral pronoun they. I am not intimately familiar
23 with his statement but I believe it is possible if you
24 ask him what he means by "they", he is going to say
25 me and Bryan or me and so and so.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Let me just ask the
2 question and then we will cover it. I am going to ask
3 him who he meant by they'.

4 MR. BECKER: I think that is going to get us
5 into the Bruton problem because the speaker is Frank.

6 THE COURT: He has testified to Frank saying
7 "they". I think you have a Bruton problem.

8 MR. BECKER: No. And I have some cases I can
9 direct the Court's attention to as long as it is not
10 specifically pointed to a codefendant a neutral
11 pronoun, even a plural neutral pronoun is appropriate.

12 THE COURT: If you are satisfied with that, I
13 will not pursue it of my own volition.

14 MR. BECKER: I am satisfied with that.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: We will break now for lunch with 18 the usual instruction not to discuss the case. If you
19 would be back in the jury room at 1:30, or as close as 20 you can get there, we will call you as soon as we are 21 ready to go. you are excused.

22 RECESS

23 THE COURT: I haven't asked the reporter yet
24 to dig out the exact testimony that I am concerned with 25 here but I believe I remember it well enough and have

1 it noted well enough to be able to say that this last
2 witness -- and that was Jerry Rooks -- testified that
3 he heard Frank Sheppard say that they were down there
4 trying to get into the trucks and didn't get anything
5 and then set the truck on fire. Is that an accurate
6 reflection of what he said?

7 MR. MILLER: I believe so, yes.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I am unsure but it sounds
9 like that's right.

10 THE COURT: And there was also some reference
11 to a door which they didn't get into.

12 Now, my concern is -- and I at least
13 implied this to you before the bench conference
14 before lunch -- my concern is the reference to the 15 rather indefinite "they" and no inquiry as to who 16 he meant by "they". Nothing specific on the 17 record as to who he intended to mean by using the 18 word "they", he, the witness. And I am concerned
19 about that because the Bruton considerations,
20 although counsel didn't raise it, move to strike
21 or otherwise cross examine on it. So I am going
22 to give Instruction No. 2.15 out of the Eighth
23 Circuit, Suggested Eighth Circuit Instructions,
24 referencing that testimony.

25 And then I want to know, Mr. Becker, are 1158

1 we going to be able to take steps to prevent that
2 from coming back to haunt us time after time. You
3 have got a lot of people coming in here to testify
4 repeatedly about a lot of statements some of these 5 folks made.

6 MR. BECKER: I have a copy of a case, a very
7 recent December, Eighth Circuit case, that recaps the 8 Bruton issue in this regard. And it would be the 9 government's position the use of a neutral pronoun such 10 as "they", which is not completely referring to any
11 specific codefendant, would be what is permissible as a
12 substitute for what, in fact, was actually said. For 13 example, this last witness, if the "Frank Sheppard had 14 said me and Skip and Bryan went and did this", then 15 certainly he would not be able to testify Bryan and 16 Skip -- and this was discussed at some length prior to 17 trial and I had indicated to the court that whenever 18 there is a reference it would either be to a neutral
19 pronoun or to use the me and other people as a
20 substitute to eliminate any possible Bruton problem.

21 THE COURT: Are you saying to me this was
22 taken up before Judge Bartlett and that was worked out
23 in that way?

24 MR. BECKER: I believe it was taken up before
25 Judge Hays when there was some discussion of the Bruton

1 issue.

2 THE COURT: I have talked to Judge Hays about
3 that just now.

4 MR. BECKER: And the possible severance
5 issue, apart from the statement of the law enforcement
6 and that redaction is done, we were all aware, based
7 upon discovery made by the government that, what I
8 call civilian witnesses, heard statements from the 9 defendants individually that would implicate other
10 defendants and references to names other than the 11 speaker are being deleted.

12 THE COURT: What then do you expect will be
13 elicited as an answer if counsel should -- maybe it
14 would be unwise to do so -- but if counsel should say
15 who did you understand he meant by 'they' or did he 16 ever say who 'they' were or something like that?

17 MR. BECKER: Then I would anticipate the 18 witness would answer the question. I have told them.

19 THE COURT: See, this is my concern with this 20 sort of thing. It is like 1984. I think it was called 21 Newsspeak in 1984. You twist things around to say what 22 you want them to say, not what they really are. And 23 that is what we are doing here in a sense, isn't that
24 right?

25 MR. BECKER: Because the law as I have read

1160

1 it and the pretrial discussions we have had indicate
2 that in a joint trial that a witness cannot recite an
3 admission from one defendant that inculcates other
4 defendants.

5 THE COURT: Which is not a conspiracy trial.

6 MR. BECKER: Right. And I am not arguing
7 these statements are in furtherance of a conspiracy.
8 That the substitution of a neutral pronoun is an 9 acceptable solution to the dilemma of do we have 10 joint trials or do we have five separate trials. And 11 that is the basis the government has gone for in 12 preparing its witnesses.

13 MR. OSGOOD: That pre-supposes there could 14 be other persons that it would apply to.

15 The Court, unfortunately, seems to be
16 taking the approach we cannot ask a witness
17 whether or not one of the people who make the 18 statements also included third parties not
19 involved in this trial.

20 Many of these witnesses, for example,
21 are going to testify, let's take a hypothetical
22 witness A. He says, all right, I had a
23 conversation with a defendant. That defendant
24 said he was up at the site and Joe Smith and Bob 25 Jones and Gary Wilson were with him. We want to

1 be able to show when he made that statement he
2 said Bob Smith, Gary Jones.

3 THE COURT: They are not defendants.

4 MR. OSGOOD: They are not defendants.

5 THE COURT: Then I don't see why there would
6 be anything objectionable to that.

7 MR. OSGOOD: We want to do that. That would
8 at least give some legitimacy to Mr. Becker's position
9 he can substitute pronouns. I can get up and say when
10 you said "they", you didn't mean Richard Brown and you
11 told the agent it was Bob Jones and Gary Wilson.

12 THE COURT: you didn't have that with this 13 last witness.

14 MR. OSGOOD: No, we didn't but this is going
15 to occur. If you allow him to use pronouns and don't 16 allow us to take that approach with the defendants, the 17 inescapable conclusion it will be the defendants and we 18 will be severely prejudiced.

19 MR. BECKER: I don't think this situation is 20 different in any other joint trial when these neutral
21 pronouns are substituted and should counsel cross
22 examine to either eliminate their particular defendant
23 or add a name of another person, I think it would be 24 proper redirect to ask which defendants were named and 25 I think we get into troublesome ground there.

1 THE COURT: All right. I am going to give
2 this 2.15 now relating to, as it pertains to the
3 testimony of Jerry Rooks and it may be necessary to do
4 it again later in the trial.

5 The trouble with the redacting business,
6 do you have situations when there will be written
7 statements relied on that name more than one
8 defendant?

9 MR. BECKER: Written?

10 THE COURT: Like this. Well, a statement.
11 Strike written. A statement of one of the defendants
12 saying.

13 MR. BECKER: Many. We have many of them.
14 Most of the witnesses heard statements that the 15 speaker says the speaker and another codefendant did
16 it. We have deleted the reference to a codefendant.

17 THE COURT: That is what I was going to ask
18 next. So we are in essence redacting the codefendants
19 in all those statements.

20 MR. BECKER: Yes.

21 THE COURT: But you are using, apparently you
22 are proposing to use the pronoun they.

23 MR. BECKER: Or where appropriate, other
24 people, myself and other people went up to the hill.

25 THE COURT: If he is quoting the defendant,

1 he would say he and other defendants went up to the
2 hill.

3 MR. BECKER: That is what we would for the
4 most part propose to use.

5 THE COURT: Let's get the jury.

6 MR. PETERS: I think the next witness is
7 Tracy Cauthon and we had filed a motion in limine
8 regarding the proposed testimony.

9 THE COURT: We talked about this. What is 10 your position?

11 MR. MILLER: My position regarding Mr.
12 Cauthon's testimony as to Corry Colinka coming into 13 the house and in the presence of Frank Sheppard and 14 expressing concern about some blasting caps, dynamite,
15 words to that effect, in the truck of his car. And 16 Frank Sheppard's response, his very overt reaction to 17 that, that is relevant. It goes to the knowledge and 18 their intent they went to the site, even though this
19 happened after the explosion, one of their intentions
20 going to that site was to steal dynamite and 21 explosives. It goes to Frank Sheppard's knowledge
22 concerning explosives. It goes to their intent. We 23 have had witnesses testify about their intentions to 24 go and others will testify. Some of the admissions
25 against interest are that they went there to steal

1164

1 explosives.

2 THE COURT: Now is your testimony going to
3 characterize or describe Frank Sheppard's reaction to
4 that?

5 MR. MILLER: In the presence of Mr. Cauthon,
6 after Corry Colinka makes the statements they are 7 after me; they are out in the truck, or words to that
8 effect, Frank Sheppard gets very nervous, jumps up on 9 the couch. He is drawing the curtains, going around
10 the room and then Darlene Edwards tries to calm him
11 down, calm down, we have to talk about your grand 12 jury testimony. That is the next sequence then, to 13 calm him down. And then the third thing about Mr.
14 Cauthon's testimony, Frank Sheppard tells him about 15 six months later, if you say something about what you
16 saw or heard, we will get you; you could be hurt.
17 Another threat, in other words. I don't want to quote
18 what Mr. Cauthon will say. He hasn't testified yet.

19 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Peters.

20 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I think that is a
21 fair statement of the extent of Mr. Cauthon's testimony
22 which is Mr. Miller wants to introduce this for the 23 purpose of showing motive or knowledge of my client on 24 the explosion that happened four months before. But the 25 way he wants to do that is Corry Colinka comes to the

1 house and says the police are after me because I, Corry
2 Colinka, have dynamite in my truck and my client's
3 reaction is to get up and close the blinds. It doesn't
4 move, -- as the Court is aware, what we are after is
5 ascertainment of the truth -- it doesn't move the jury
6 anywhere toward the dynamite was taken from the site
7 that my client was concerned about being linked to 8 dynamite from the site.

9 THE COURT: Except he is nervous about
10 dynamite after the occasion.

11 MR. PETERS: Exactly and no dynamite was 12 taken from the site. For example, if Corry Colinka had 13 come in and said the cops are after me because I stole
14 the car and my client got up and stole the car, the 15 same argument would apply. No car was stolen from the 16 site. There was no dynamite stolen from the site. And 17 the dynamite Corry Colinka is talking about isn't
18 attributed to my client. Corry Colinka is concerned
19 about the police stopping him with dynamite.

20 THE COURT: One of the things that worries me
21 is your characterizing of your testimony that he was 22 very nervous after this was said. That is pretty much
23 the quintessence of a conclusion, it seems to me, or 24 opinion. Maybe nervous to me is not nervous to Mr.
25 Peters.

1 MR. MILLER: He is going to describe what Mr.
2 Sheppard did. And Mr. Sheppard at first was sitting
3 down and Colinka pulls him aside and tells him this.
4 Then he jumps up on the couch. He is drawing the
5 curtains in an instant. He actually fell off the couch
6 and landed on the floor trying to do this and became 7 very upset about this. He uses the words "lost it" and
8 then it is Darlene Edwards who is calming -- apparently 9 he is so upset over this she is calming him down to say
10 we have to sit down and get our grand jury testimony
11 straight; it's within four months. and the example
12 about the car is not that good an example because we 13 are still talking about explosives.

14 THE COURT: I am concerned enough about that 15 that if there is an objection to that line of testimony
16 I believe I would sustain that. Does this man testify
17 to anything else?

18 MR. MILLER: Yes, he testifies he hears
19 Darlene Edwards after this, after the Colinka
20 statement, calming him down and saying the words, we 21 have to get our grand jury testimony straight. This is 22 before the state grand jury. And five to six months
23 later he is threatened by Frank Sheppard to remain
24 quiet about what he heard over there.

25 THE COURT: I am not going to admit just the 1167

1 first part, just the testimony about the dynamite and
2 his being nervous. The rest of what you say you have 3 you may use.

4 MR. PETERS: Just for the record, there is no
5 statement or suggestion by Tracy Cauthon that Darlene
6 Edwards or Frank Sheppard made any statement about we 7 need to lie to the grand jury or we need to deceive the 8 grand jury. That is the first point. So it is 9 uncharged conduct that isn't even misconduct. There is 10 nothing wrong in saying to a lay witness we need to get 11 our stories straight before we go into court. That is 12 what attorneys are doing with clients all the time.

13 THE COURT: There is nothing wrong with the 14 trier of fact hearing that is said for whatever it is 15 worth.

16 MR. PETERS: The second point is -

17 THE COURT: I don't accept your attribution
18 of total angelic innocence with the use of a phrase
19 like that.

20 MR. PETERS: Does it matter the grand jury
21 they are talking about is the state grand jury and not
22 in any way connected with this case.

23 THE COURT: But it is connected with this
24 case.

25 MR. PETERS: My client wasn't indicted.

1168

1 THE COURT: Well, I mean was he connected to
2 this event?

3 MR. PETERS: Just to give me guidance, how I
4 will bring out my client was never indicted, charged,
5 no arrest, no suspicion of testifying falsely before
6 the grand jury. We have no transcripts of his
7 testimony. In other words, it is laying something out
8 there, as the Court is correct, it is laying out it is 9 open to interpretation whether they did something
10 wrong, but there is no evidence from any source what 11 soever they, in fact, did anything wrong. So it is 12 making the jury speculate there is something improper
13 for two people who are going before the grand jury
14 saying what are you going to say before the grand jury
15 and, as far as I am aware, there is no prohibition
16 against the lay witnesses saying I thought the light
17 was red; no. Well, let's get our stories straight.

18 THE COURT: What do you mean by this, "let's 19 get our stories straight." You change your testimony,
20 is that it?

21 MR. PETERS: If they said you change your
22 testimony.

23 THE COURT: What do they mean, "get our
24 stories straight". If somebody says it was red; no
25 and somebody says let's get our stories straight,

1169

1 somebody has to change.

2 MR. PETERS: I believe what you are saying,
3 if you had some other initiative getting stories
4 straight; you change yours or I will change mine or
5 let's fabricate in some way. But all that was heard
6 was "Let's get our stories straight" and the 7 interpretation you are assuming is what I think
8 anybody would naturally assume but until you have some 9 sort of nexus of a lie to the grand jury or the 10 example you gave, if they said I am going to say we 11 were home at ten; you tell them we were home at ten 12 also, then I agree it would come in. But what we have
13 now is just a statement by itself which I would view
14 as irrelevant and immaterial.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I think I have indicated
16 how I am going to deal with that.

17 We are going to need to talk at the 18 conclusion of the testimony today about
19 everybody's interpretation of this somewhat
20 modified ruling Judge Bartlett made as to 21 disclosure of the witnesses in the future. There
22 seems to be some confusion what was intended by 23 Judge Bartlett's revision of that rule and all we 24 need to do is just get it straight what it means.

25 (The jury enters the courtroom.)

1 THE COURT: You all have a seat. Sorry to
2 keep you waiting but we have been working on some legal
3 problems out here.

4 I am going to going to instruct you now
5 -- and these are one of the interim trial time
6 instructions that I mentioned would be coming up
7 from time to time at the beginning of the case.

8 You have heard testimony from Jerry
9 Rooks and will probably or may let's say hear
10 testimony from other witnesses at later times in 11 this trial about things said which one of the 12 defendants in this instance, Frank Sheppard. You
13 may consider the statement of Frank Sheppard only
14 in the case against him and not in the case
15 against the other defendants.

16 What that means is that you may consider
17 the defendant Frank Sheppard's statement in the 18 case against him and for that purpose rely on it
19 as much or as little as you think proper. But you
20 may not consider or discuss that statement in any
21 way when you are deciding if the government has
22 proved beyond a reasonable doubt its case against
23 the other defendants.

24 In the summation instructions, I may
25 give that again. I may give it in somewhat

1 modified form but that is the instruction which
2 you should be governed at this time in considering
3 testimony such as that.

4 All right. Let's proceed.

5 MR. MILLER: The government calls Tracy
6 Cauthon.

7 TRACY CAUTHON,

8 having been sworn, testified:

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. MILLER:

11 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

12 A: Tracy Cauthon.

13 Q How old are you, Mr. Cauthon?

14 A: Twenty-six.

15 Q Are you married?

16 A: Yes, I am.

17 Q Do you have any criminal convictions? By that I mean
18 felonies or misdemeanors in state or federal court.

19 A: yes, I do.

20 Q Would you tell us what those are.

21 A: Forgery and burglary.

22 Q What year were you convicted of forgery?

23 A: I believe it was back in '87 and '88. or '87 and '88.
24 I really can't recall.

25 Q What sentence did you receive for the forgery?

1 A: One to two.

2 Q And what sentence did you receive for the burglary?

3 A: A one to five.

4 Q Are you currently on parole or probation?

5 A: No, I am not.

6 Q I want to go to November 29, 1988. Did you hear the 7 explosion that caused the death of the six
8 firefighters?

9 A: No.

10 Q Where were you living at that time?

11 A: I believe I was in Paola or Osowatomie.

12 Q Do you remember the explosion that killed the six
13 firefighters?

14 A: I heard something about it on TV.

15 Q What you heard on TV, did it mention any names?

16 A: No.

17 Q Did you see an episode of Unsolved Mysteries about it?

18 A: yes, I did.

19 Q In that episode did it mention any names?

20 A: I do not recall.

21 Q Do you know a Mr. Frank Sheppard?

22 A: Yes, I do.

23 Q Do you see him in the courtroom today?

24 A: Yes, I do.

25 Q And is he the gentleman standing now?

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Did you know the defendant Frank Sheppard in November
3 of '88?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q I want to go ow to March of 1989 and where did you
6 live, do you remember?

7 A: No, I do not. I was between the city and Paola.

8 Q In March of 1989 were you ever in Kansas City?

9 A: yes.

10 Q and in March of '89 did you meet Mr. Frank Sheppard?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Do you remember where?

13 A: At his house.

14 Q Show you Government's Exhibits 323 and 324, what are 15 those?

16 A: This is where they used to live, in this house right
17 here. And this is a full picture of it.

18 Q Do both of these pictures, Government's Exhibits 323
19 and 324, give a fair and accurate representation of 20 their house?

21 A: Yes.

22 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, I offer at this time
23 Government's Exhibits 323 and 324.

24 MR. PETERS: Subject to being further
25 clarified, I have an objection. Those photographs were

1 not taken in 1989 to the best of my knowledge.

2 THE COURT: Do you have any indication they
3 do not appropriately or properly represent the 4 condition of the property at the time we are thinking
5 about here?

6 MR. PETERS: Yes.

7 THE COURT: In other words, that is the
8 foundation you are alluding to.

9 MR. PETERS: Yes. Could we approach.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 (Hearing outside the hearing of the jury.)

12 MR. MILLER: I am going to clear up the house
13 didn't look that run-down. It's grown up now.

14 MR. PETERS: I am not trying to delay. I
15 don't care that's generally what it looks like. It's 16 run-down. This isn't the testimony of the explosion.
17 It is in the middle of the winter. This is obviously
18 in the middle of the winter. I don't object in terms
19 of having him identify that is the address and that 20 sort of thing but it was the way the question was 21 asked, is this a fair and accurate photograph of the 22 way it looked like. And he said yes. i don't believe
23 it is fair and accurate.

24 Mr. Miller told me he would further
25 clarify. With further clarification I wouldn't

1 object.

2 MR. MILLER: That is what I told him I would
3 do.

4 MR. OSGOOD: This is the house she looked
5 down the street and saw the defendant's truck.

6 MR. MILLER: This is Frank and Darlene's
7 house that Tracy Cauthon was in, the white house.

8 MR. OSGOOD: Is the house that TS with the 9 Street Richard Brown lives in?

10 MR. MILLER: You have got me.

11 MR. BECKER: It is not on a corner but, yes,
12 it's on there, that street ends on Brooklyn.

13 MR. OSGOOD: Do you have testimony someone
14 stood in front of this house that Darlene looked down
15 the street.

16 MR. BECKER: That is Darlene's testimony but
17 she is not on the government's witness list.

18 MR. OSGOOD: I don't object to it.

19 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

20 THE COURT: Are you going to do some more
21 foundation for that?

22 MR. MILLER: Yes.

23 Q These pictures here, the house was in much better shape
24 back when you were there.

25 A: Yes, it was.

1176

1 Q This picture obviously with the green growth, when you
2 were there was it still kind of spring-looking, fall
3 looking?

4 A: It was summertime, yes.

5 Q But the house was in much better condition and the yard
6 was in much better shape.

7 A: Yes, it was.

8 THE COURT: With that additional foundation,
9 Exhibits 323 and 324 are admitted.
10 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT NOS. 323 AND 324 WERE RECEIVED IN
11 EVIDENCE.)

12 Q Can you see that on the screen there?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q As we said, the house back then was in much better
15 condition. Is this the house you met Frank Sheppard
16 in?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q and the same picture here, not so much of the house,
19 again is this the house you met Frank Sheppard in?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Do you know Darlene Edwards?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Back then did you know her as Darlene Clark or Darlene
24 Edwards?

25 A: I just know her as Darlene.

1 Q Do you see her in the courtroom today?

2 A: Yes, I do.

3 Q Can you point her out for the jury.

4 A: Right there (indicating).

5 Q The lady who is standing now.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q When you were in the room with Darlene Edwards and
8 defendant Frank Sheppard what did you over hear Darlene
9 Edwards say to Frank Sheppard regarding the grand jury?

10 A: She was calming him down and she told him they needed
11 to get their stories straight for the following
12 morning. they had grand jury the following morning.

13 Q Did you ever see Frank Sheppard again after that 14 meeting at their house?

15 A: Yes, I did.

16 Q Do you remember when?

17 A: No, I don't. It was sometime afterwards.

18 Q Can you give us an idea how much time afterwards.

19 A: Anywhere from six months to a year.

20 Q And where did you see him again?

21 A: I seen him at my brother' house.

22 Q What did Frank Sheppard say to you at your brother's
23 house?

24 A: He just told me not to repeat nothing I had heard or 25 seen.

1178

1 Q What threats did he make to you?

2 A: Just he told me that I could be hurt; that they had a
3 lot of family.

4 Q Were you arrested in April of 1989?

5 A: I believe so, yes.

6 Q Could you tell the jury what you were arrested for.

7 A: I was arrested for forgery.

8 Q And were you interviewed by the Kansas City, Missouri
9 Police Department?

10 A: Yes, I was.

11 Q And is it at that time you came forward with this
12 information?

13 A: Yes, it was.

14 Q And did you mention anything in that statement to the 15 police about a reward, reward money?

16 A: Yes, I did.

17 Q And did you mention that as one of the reasons to give
18 testimony.

19 A: yes, one of the reasons.

20 Q What was the other reason?

21 A: To get out of some trouble I was in.

22 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
23 witness.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Peters.

25 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

1

2 BY MR. PETERS:

3 Q Mr. Cauthon, my name is Pat Peters and I represent
4 Frank Sheppard. I just want to ask you a few
5 questions. First, don't you have two convictions in 6 Kansas and one in Missouri?

7 A: Yes, I do.

8 Q So you actually have three felony convictions.

9 A: Two ran concurrent.

10 Q But you have three felony convictions.

11 A: Yes, I do.

12 Q And what are the two in Kansas for?

13 A: One was for forgery. The other was for burglary,
14 theft.

15 Q What is the one in Missouri for?

16 A: Forgery.

17 Q When you were at the Sheppard house you testified you
18 heard Darlene Edwards say that -- what did you hear
19 Darlene Edwards say?

20 A: I heard her, she was calming down Frank and had Frank
21 sit down. And she told him to calm down so they could 22 get their stories straight for the grand jury the next
23 day.

24 Q You didn't hear her say anything about you need to lie
25 to the grand jury.

A: No.

Q We need to be untruthful to the grand jury, you didn't hear that.

A: No, I did not.

Q Did you review your testimony with anyone before coming here today?

A: Yes, I did.

Q Now, this is all taking place in March of 1989, is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q And did you know then or have you since learned the grand jury that you are talking about was a state grand jury as opposed to a federal grand jury?

A: No, I didn't know that.

Q And you testified on direct examination that the reason you came forward was for two things. One was the 550,000 reward and the other was to see if they could help you get out of trouble, is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q How did you want them to see if they could help you get out of trouble?

A: On the forgery, perhaps if I gave my testimony perhaps they could get me out of trouble I was in at the time.

Q And it's your testimony you are now not on parole or probation.

1 A: No, I am not.

2 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions,
3 Judge.

4 MS. HUNT: No questions.

5 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Your Honor.

6 MR. OSGOOD: I don't have any.

7 THE COURT: Redirect.

8 MR. MILLER: Yes.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. MILLER:

11 Q Did you get any help on your cases?

12 A: No, I did not.

13 Q Did you get any reward money?

14 A: No, I did not.

15 Q Did you get any promises from Mr. Becker or me?

16 A: No, I did not.

17 MR. MILLER: Nothing further.

18 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I have a very brief
19 one following the Redirect Examination.

20 THE COURT: Make sure you have some factual
21 basis for which you are asking.

22 MR. PETERS: Oh, I will.

23 REXCROSS EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. PETERS:

25 Q You just testified that you haven't gotten any reward

1 money, is that correct?

2 A: That's correct.

3 Q But you also understand that none of the reward money
4 is give out until someone is convicted of the crime.

5 A: Yes, I understand that.

6 MR. PETERS: No further questions.

7 THE COURT: You may step down. Call your
8 next witness.

9 MR. BECKER: The United States calls Gary
10 Fugate.

11 GARY FUGATE.

12 having been sworn, testified:

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. BECKER:

15 Q Good afternoon. Please state your name and spell your
16 last name.

17 A: Gary L. Fugate, F-u-g-a-t-e.

18 Q How old are you?

19 A: Forty-eight.

20 Q What do you do for a living?

21 A: Carpenter.

22 Q How long have you been doing that?

23 A: Twenty-three years.

24 Q How log have you lived in Kansas City, Missouri?

25 A: All my life.

1183

1 Q Do you know an individual by the name of Frank
2 Sheppard?

3 A: I do.

4 Q How do you know him?

5 A: Frank and I knew each other from a bar, the Blue Seven
6 Lounge. We sometimes drove motorcycles together.

7 THE COURT: Did you name it?

8 THE WITNESS: The Blue Seven Lounge. It was 9 on Blue Ridge.

10 Q And you also said you did motorcycle together.

11 A: From time to time.

12 Q How long ago was that?

13 A: The early seventies.

14 Q Do you see Frank Sheppard in court today?

15 A: I do.

16 Q Could you tell us what he is wearing? Is he the 17 gentleman standing up now?

18 A: That's right.

19 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, indicating the 20 defendant Frank Sheppard.

21 THE COURT: Yes, the record may show that.

22 Q Do you know a woman by the name of Darlene Edwards?

23 A: I do.

24 Q How do you know her?

25 A: She was involved with a relationship with Frank at the

1 time I met her.

2 Q Do you see her here in court today?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q And could you just tell us what she is wearing and
5 where she is sitting.

6 A: She is sitting next to the gentleman with the gray
7 hair.

8 MR. BECKER: Indicating Darlene Edwards,
9 your Honor, now standing.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 Q How long have you known Darlene Edwards?

12 A: Probably twelve years.

13 Q Going back to the summer of 1989, do you recall an
14 occasion of visiting Frank Sheppard and Darlene Edwards
15 at the place where they lived?

16 A: Yes, I do.

17 Q And I want to show you up on the TV screen what is now
18 in evidence as Government's Exhibit 323. Can you see 19 that from where you are sitting.

20 A: Yes, sir.

21 Q Is that the way the house looked in the summer of 1989?

22 A: No, it's not.

23 Q Fair to say we have a few weeds.

24 A: It's in disrepair since that time.

25 Q Do you recall when it was that you visited in the

1185

1 summer of 1989?

2 A: The year or the month?

3 Q Month.

4 A: About mid-summer.

5 Q What were you doing there? Why were you visiting?

6 A: I was there to pick up a quarter gram of meth.

7 THE COURT: What?

8 THE WITNESS: Speed, methamphetamine.

9 Q Tell us what happened when you got there.

10 A: Darlene and Frank were living in a tent in the rear of 11 the house because the utilities had been shut off. We 12 went to the back of the house and entered the tent.
13 And at that time I purchased the meth.

14 Q When you went in the back yard, who was in the back
15 yard?

16 A: Frank and Darlene. Actually, Darlene met me at the 17 front and Frank was in the back.

18 Q This is around back.

19 A: Yes, a driveway leading to the back yard.

20 Q Was this -

21 MR. PETERS: Objection. May we approach?

22 THE COURT: There isn't any question pending
23 now. Ask your next question.

24 MR. PETERS: Judge, this has to do with a
25 previous question and answer elicited.

1 THE COURT: To which there was no objection.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: We believe it is so
3 prejudicial we would like to talk to you about it.

4 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

5 MR. PETERS: This is our get-even point.
6 Mr. Becker was late out of the gate with his
7 objection. The question about the buying or selling
8 meth is irrelevant and immaterial to any of the 9 facts going on in this case. We had extensive
10 discussions about these sorts of things in hearings
11 with Judge Bartlett.

12 We were under the impression before
13 irrelevant, immaterial uncharged misconduct would 14 be admitted or asked of a witness we would 15 approach the bench; that both sides agreed that is 16 the procedure that would be followed instead of 17 filing a motion in limine on each and every
18 witness.

19 The buying of meth has absolutely
20 nothing to do with any of the facts at issue in 21 this case and it is extremely prejudicial.

22 MR. BECKER: I think counsel will recall
23 when we had this discussion with Judge Bartlett it was 24 indicated, when we were talking about the circumstances
25 of certain admissions, the who, what, when, where and

1187

1 why were relevant questions and admissible questions.

2 It was brought up in the context of jail
3 house statements, and the court instructed me we
4 are not going to get into why; for example, why
5 Frank Sheppard was in jail on that particular
6 occasion but that we could go into the where did
7 this conversation take place. The what, where and 8 why and that is all I am doing. This is why he 9 went to visit Frank and Darlene that day.

10 MR. PETERS: Using Mr. Becker's example,
11 this is a portion of a hearing in front of Judge
12 Bartlett that we asked be transcribed so we would 13 know what the parameters were.

14 I don't object to him saying he went to 15 a tent. I think that is appropriate, but saying
16 he went to a tent because the utilities had been 17 shut off, I had been led to believe that wouldn't 18 be something that is being talked about.

19 MR. BECKER: I didn't realize that was 20 the objection, about the utilities.

21 MR. PETERS: I wasn't finished. And then
22 to say he went there to buy meth goes directly against 23 what we had been led to believe the parameters were in 24 terms of the scope of direct examination.

25 If we had filed a motion in limine with

1 the court, I would suggest you wouldn't allow
2 examination of it because them buying meth is
3 unconnected with this case in any way whatsoever.
4 It is only evidence of uncharged misconduct, other
5 crimes not charged. It doesn't add to the weight
6 of the testimony. It doesn't do anything other
7 than prejudice the defendants and I would move for 8 a mistrial.

9 MR. BUNCH: There was a brief hearing on a
10 motion in limine I filed and it had to do with this 11 on behalf of Darlene Edwards, but the conclusion of 12 that hearing was simply, one, it was advisory in 13 nature. There really wasn't any way, Judge Stevens,
14 to go through a hundred -- well, I am not saying all
15 of them do that but a number of witnesses -- and deal
16 individually with motions in limine. I plead guilty
17 to being too late to object but I join in Mr. Peters'
18 request.

19 MR. PETERS: I apologize for being late but 20 it goes directly to why we haven't literally buried
21 the Court with motions in limine, is what we were told
22 and I apologize for not having the excerpt from Judge
23 Bartlett but this is clearly irrelevant and immaterial.
24 And those are the words from Judge Bartlett, and before
25 we were to get into anything having to do with that we

1189

1 were supposed to approach the bench.

2 So now, in a direct question asked by
3 the government, yes, I was buying dope from your 4 client, from Darlene and Frank Sheppard. It has 5 no bearing on the explosion.

6 Again, if we had buried the Court with
7 motions in limine on these sorts of things on each
8 witness, I think we would have had protection. We 9 thought we had protection based on the 10 conversation with Judge Bartlett.

11 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry to say that very
12 much mischaracterizes the earlier rulings of the Court.
13 And then to say, oh, we should have buried the Court
14 with in limine motions, this material is in the grand
15 jury transcripts Mr. Peters has brought to the bench.
16 This material is no surprise to anyone. If he had a
17 problem with it, he was fully capable of filing a
18 motion in limine on Tracy Cauthon. And this is fully 19 relevant. It gives context to the conversation of why
20 he is there and why these people admit participation in 21 a heinous crime.

22 THE COURT: Well, there have been several
23 references to use of or exposure to addictive
24 substances, legal or illegal, by this group and during 25 this time. I don't think this one reference to meth is

1190

1 that prejudicial. It probably shouldn't be testified
2 to.

3 Now, the question becomes whether it is
4 the kind of thing which is exacerbated by making
5 reference to it or not, and I will be guided by 6 your recommendations on that.

7 MR. BECKER: In order to explain why it is 8 these witnesses are meeting with particularly Frank
9 and Darlene, Frank Sheppard and Darlene Edwards, the 10 witnesses are going to say why they were over there
11 visiting. And for the most part they are there to 12 either consume drugs or purchase drugs, or both, with 13 these defendants.

14 THE COURT: You are saying that is generally
15 true and this is not just a discreet single instance of 16 that being the case.

17 MR. BECKER: yes. So that it gives context
18 to all of these conversations. If it was the Fuller
19 Brush man who was visiting, it would be one thing, but 20 it's not. It is people who are engaged in illegal
21 conduct and thus the admission becomes much more
22 believable in that context.

23 MR. PETERS: My concern is exactly what Mr.
24 Becker said. The reason he wants it in, it makes the 25 testimony more believable. It bolsters the credibility

1191

1 of the witness because the defendants are bad people.

2 MR. BECKER: I didn't say that.

3 THE COURT: Witnesses, I think, need to be 4 able to explain why they are where they are or why they
5 are doing what they are doing, not just pull it out of 6 the air and pop them in front of the jury and here it
7 is.

8 MR. PETERS: Isn't it to be balanced, the 9 prejudicial effect versus the probative value?

10 THE COURT: I don't think the effect is all
11 that prejudicial. I mean let's face it, you are not 12 dealing with members of the Church of Jesus Christ of 13 Latter Day Saints in this trial.

14 Now what is the answer to my question,
15 whether you want it mentioned. Do you want me to 16 strike it?

17 MR. PETERS: Yes. And for the record, the 18 reason I would, we are now in the third week of trial.

19 THE COURT: Second week.

20 MR. PETERS: Second week of testimony. And 21 this is the first witness to say our clients are 22 involved with drugs.

23 MR. BECKER: No, no. Mr. O'Connor got up
24 on voir dire and told them.

25 THE COURT: I think this is harmless because

1 it has come in so many ways already. No surprise to 2 any of them.

3 MR. PETERS: This is no surprise to the court
4 or the parties but this is the first witness to be
5 elicited testimony of drug involvement of these
6 defendants.

7 THE COURT: I don't think so. I can't quote
8 book, chapter and verse specific to you but I don't
9 think so. I think there was reference to meth before.
10 I am sure there was reference to marijuana before and 11 excessive drinking. I don't think you need to worry
12 about this reputation being sullied.

13 MR. PETERS: To complete my record, I would 14 ask that you instruct the jury to disregard that 15 testimony. And after you do that I am technically 16 supposed to ask for a mistrial. I would ask for it to 17 be continuing. And I understand you are overruling the 18 mistrial, to protect my record. But I would ask the 19 Court to instruct the jury to disregard that testimony.

20 MR. BECKER: I would state, Judge, the matter
21 came in without objection and also I further believe
22 also a proper context of what will in a few moments
23 hopefully be an admission by one or more of the 24 defendants.

25 THE COURT: I think the instructing as to it

1 would far outweigh the prejudice that might have been
2 done by the single instance testimony so I am going to
3 let the record stand as it is.

4 MR. OSGOOD: I think one of the things that
5 needs to be noted on the record, Mr. Becker's theory
6 of the prosecution and in his opening statement he 7 said they were stealing items up there to sell to 8 purchase drugs, implying they were drug users, not drug
9 dealers. I never expected and don't expect he is going
10 to elicit testimony my defendant is a drug dealer.

11 MR. BECKER: John, you don't have a dog in 12 this fight.

13 MR. OSGOOD: I do to the extent of the bleed
14 over. I object to testimony on behalf of Mr. Brown
15 as to drug seller. We haven't said anything about 16 users because there is testimony of using.

17 I think the Court has to distinguish
18 between acts of selling, which is a felony, which 19 I believe the Court did with one witness, versus
20 the act of smoking marijuana which is a
21 misdemeanor use. We just had that.

22 THE COURT: That is overruled.

23 MR. PETERS: So I understand, the Court has 24 held it was improper but you aren't going to instruct 25 the jury so that is something that can't be argued by

1194

1 the government in closing. In other words, the
2 testimony is not part of the evidence, but you aren't
3 going to instruct the jury for fear it would draw undue
4 notice to it.

5 THE COURT: I think it could exacerbate or 6 exaggerate the significance of that one statement "We 7 went there to buy meth" and I am not am not making any
8 bright light rule on the use of it in the future and I
9 am certainly not going to say it is improper but I am
10 just going to ignore it. I don't believe it is 11 erroneously prejudicial, I will put it that way.

12 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

13 Q Mr. Fugate, so you are in the back yard at Frank
14 Sheppard and Darlene's house. Do you go inside the 15 tent?

16 A: yes, we do.

17 Q Did you have a conversation with the defendants Frank
18 Sheppard and Darlene Edwards in the tent?

19 A: yes.

20 Q Please tell us about the conversation.

21 A: Darlene began to talk about some things they had been 22 doing with regard to getting access to a warehouse the 23 night before.

24 Q The subject of the explosion that killed the 25 firefighters, did that come up?

1 A: yes, it did.

2 Q now did it come up?

3 A: Darlene just began to discuss some activities they were 4 involved in. And Frank, in fact, did tell me that they
5 had been on the site and that he was attempting to gain
6 access to one of the buildings and the bottom line was 7 he could not gain access, he set it on fire and he got 8 spoofed because he saw headlights coming off the road.

9 Q Now could you describe the scene to us, please. Where 10 were you sitting and the two defendants, where were 11 they sitting?

12 A: Basically I am in the middle of the tent and they are 13 on either side of me.

14 Q This is a big tent or a small tent, what does it look
15 like?

16 A: Perhaps -

17 Q Is it fair to say you are within arm's reach of each
18 other?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And did Frank Sheppard or Darlene Edwards say what they 21 were doing up at that site?

22 A: They were attempting to get construction equipment to 23 resell it.

24 Q What was the purpose of reselling it?

25 MR. PETERS: Objection, Your Honor.

1196

1 Q Did they tell you what the purpose was of stealing
2 construction equipment?

3 THE COURT: Who is "they"?

4 Q Frank Sheppard and Darlene Edwards, did either or both
5 of them tell you why they wanted to steal construction
6 equipment?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q Why was that?

9 A: For the purchase of drugs.

10 Q Which one told you that?

11 A: Frank.

12 Q Did Frank Sheppard or Darlene Edwards discuss, you
13 mentioned a warehouse, what was said about that and by 14 whom?

15 A: Darlene did most of the talking in the conversation.

16 MR. PETERS: Objection. Relevance.

17 THE COURT: I am sorry, what was the 18 question, Mr. Becker.

19 MR. BECKER: Did Frank Sheppard or Darlene
20 Edwards mention -

21 Q You mentioned earlier a warehouse.

22 A: Correct.

23 MR. PETERS: Objection. Relevance.

24 THE COURT: I don't know what the question
25 is. Finish your question please, and then don't

1 answer.

2 Q What was said about the warehouse?

3 TuE COURT: How is that relevant?

4 MR. BECKER: I can tell you exactly. I guess
5 I better do it at the bench.

6 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

7 MR. BECKER: He will testify that Darlene
8 Edwards said the day before the explosion they
9 attempted to get into a warehouse and steal
10 televisions; they were unsuccessful. So the next day
11 they went out to the construction site to get
12 construction equipment to steal and get money.

13 MR. PETERS: My objection is relevance. It
14 is uncharged misconduct, unrelated to the instant
15 case.

16 THE COURT: He says it is not unrelated. He
17 says it is related, the unsuccessful effort the day
18 before the robbery, they had to make this effort.

19 MR. BUNCH: If that is in the report, I
20 haven't seen it.

21 MR. BECKER: It's in the statements in the 22 grand jury room.

23 MR. PETERS: The nexus being the reason they 24 went to the construction site because they didn't 25 succeed the night before is an inference drawn by this

1198

1 witness.

2 MR. BECKER: No, it is what he was told.

3 THE COURT: I am going to let him testify.

4 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

5 Q Mr. Fugate, did Darlene Edwards say anything about a
6 warehouse?

7 A: yes, she did.

8 Q What did she say?

9 A: She said specifically that the night before they had 10 gone out and attempted to steal what I understood were 11 some televisions and weren't successful.

12 MR. OSGOOD: I object to the use of the word
13 "they", a date and time.

14 THE COURT: Be specific as to what she said
15 and as to who she was talking about, please.

16 A: She and Frank and another party. Should I mention her
17 name?

18 Q No. You can talk about who was present in the tent.

19 A: Okay, Darlene and Frank were present in the tent when 20 it was being discussed.

21 Q What did Darlene Edwards say about the warehouse?

22 A: They attempted to gain -- "they", meaning Frank
23 specifically -- had attempted to gain access to a
24 warehouse for the purpose of stealing televisions.

25 Q Did Darlene Edwards say whether that was successful?

1 A: She said it was not very successful. I think, as I
2 recall, I believe it was two TVs from what I recall.

3 Q Did that then lead into a discussion of going to the
4 construction site.

5 A: Immediately after.

6 Q Did Frank Sheppard or Darlene Edwards talk about what
7 happened at the construction site?

8 A: Frank said that they had gained access to, I believe it
9 was one or more buildings, I don't recall exactly.
10 They were successful at getting some devices which I do
11 not recall specifically what the devices were. One
12 trailer in particular he wanted to get into and used a
13 crowbar. He said he tried a crowbar and was unable to 14 get into it. He became angry and set it on fire.
15 There were headlights coming up, he assumed it was the 16 police, and he left the scene.

17 Q Did Frank Sheppard tell you where he went?

18 A: Specifically, I cannot tell you from there. I 19 understood he was standing on the crest of a hill when 20 it ignited.

21 Q Is that what Frank Sheppard told you?

22 A: Yes. I assumed he was standing on the crest of a hill.

23 Q When did you come forward with this information?

24 A: I am a CI for ATE and the Jackson County Drug Task
25 Force and specifically one of the operatives that I

1200

1 have been working with over the course of the last two
2 and a half years I brought it to his attention.

3 Q What is his name?

4 A: Ron Getty.

5 Q That's an ATF agent.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Have you sought any reward for this information?

8 A: No.

9 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at
10 this time, Judge.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bunch.

12 CROSS EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. BUNCH:

14 Q Mr. Fugate, my name is Will Bunch and I represent 15 Darlene Edwards. This conversation about what you have 16 testified occurred in the summer of 1989.

17 A: yes, sir.

18 Q And you say Miss Edwards and Mr. Sheppard were living
19 in a tent.

20 A: Yes, sir.

21 Q Did they tell you why they were living in a tent?

22 A: They had indicated to me that the utilities had been
23 shut off and it was cooler living outside because of 24 the mid-summer heat.

25 Q Their circumstances were such they could not afford to

1201

1 pay the electric bill, is that it?

2 A: I am not completely aware what their financial
3 circumstances were but I assumed that's what it was.

4 Q Was this tent stocked with anything? Could you live in 5 it without utilizing the house; it appeared it had been
6 utilized for some time or how would you describe that
7 for us.

8 A: It appeared they had been living in it for sometime.
9 As I recall, there was a small rack similar to 10 something you would typically go camping with,
11 approximately 16 inches off the ground. As I recall,
12 there were some food items and I believe a bed roll.

13 Q And you had gone there you said because you wanted to 14 buy some methamphetamine.

15 A: That's correct.

16 Q And you purchased this methamphetamine, did you, from 17 them as they were living in this tent.

18 A: yes, sir.

19 Q What did you pay for it?

20 A: Twenty-five dollars.

21 Q How much did you get?

22 A: A quarter pound.

23 Q And is it your testimony then or may I ask you, was 24 that for your own use?

25 A: We split it three ways.

1202

1 Q You bought it and then you divided it among the three
2 of you.

3 A: That's correct.

4 Q Because of why?

5 A: Social, I suppose. The only thing, I liked it at that
6 time.

7 Q Was that your usual manner in dealing with your drug
8 purchases to participate as a purchaser with the people
9 from whom you purchased?

10 A: Not typical.

11 Q What did you typically do?

12 A: I typically went home.

13 Q Used it yourself.

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q What was the quality of this speed you purchased,
16 that's the street name for it, isn't it, speed?

17 A: I am not a pharmacologist. I couldn't tell you what 18 the purity of it was.

19 Q You were out purchasing methamphetamine and you never 20 heard the word speed when you were buying from people?

21 A: I have heard it called several different things.

22 Q Such as?

23 A: Oh, some of the things I probably couldn't repeat here.

24 Q I am asking you to.

25 A: Speed, yeah, typically called speed.

1203

1 Q What was the quality of this speed?

2 A: As compared to?

3 Q The usual quality purchased from other folks.

4 A: I would say about average.

5 Q How did you administer the use of this speed?

6 A: It was ingested through a straw.

7 Q Then was it then after you had used the speed you were
8 using the speed you got into discussion -

9 A: The discussion -

10 Q Would you be kind enough to let me finish the question.
11 Thank you, sir. -- That you got into a discussion with 12 Frank and with Darlene about the explosion.

13 A: No, actually the conversation began prior to that.

14 Q And how did it come up?

15 A: Darlene began to talk about it.

16 Q What did she say?

17 A: As I stated before, she stated they had not been 18 successful in gaining access to a warehouse and only 19 got a couple of TVs the night before and went on from 20 there about the activities that were going on.

21 Q What were the activities? Tell us in detail what she
22 said.

23 A: Well, actually Frank broke in at that point and took 24 the conversation over, stating that he had been on the 25 site and that he had gained access to either one or

1204

1 more other buildings on that site and that he had
2 become angry because he was unable to gain access to a
3 particular trailer and that he set it on fire and that
4 he noted the headlights coming up from the road, which
5 road he did not say, but he assumed it was the police
6 and he left and went and hid to see what was going on.

7 Q So it was Miss Edwards who said we didn't have much
8 luck breaking into this warehouse, we only got a couple
9 of TVs.

10 A: Right.

11 Q Where was that supposed to have been?

12 A: I don't know. If they told me, I didn't particularly -
13 - I wasn't interested in where it was taking place.

14 Q But the gist of this conversation, as I understand it,
15 was look here, we didn't have much luck getting a
16 couple of TVs out of the warehouse so we went up on the 17 hill and blew up six firemen, is that how the whole
18 thing developed?

19 A: No, I wasn't saying they blew up the firemen. What I
20 am saying they were on the site and Frank set the fire
21 to the trailer which did blow up the firemen.

22 Q I know but the progress of the conversation was one in 23 which for reasons perhaps you could tell us, that Mrs.
24 Edwards said, look, we tried to get into this warehouse
25 and we only got two TVs. So then we went out and blew

1205

1 up the firemen, the net result was that, wasn't it, Mr.
2 Eugate.

3 A: Basically.

4 Q Can you tell us why it is she and Mr. Sheppard would
5 tell you this in that fashion?

6 A: I think that they had a life style they were into at 7 that particular time it didn't occur to them very
8 seriously, I guess.

9 Q You had a long-time knowledge of those two individuals.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q They were friends of yours.

12 A: They were acquaintances.

13 Q And was your association with them as a result of the 14 drug culture?

15 A: Yes, it was.

16 Q Now, when Mr. Sheppard was talking to you about this,
17 you say he said he had been up to the construction site
18 previously.

19 A: That particular evening the explosion occurred was the 20 night he was referring to.

21 Q Not that he had been up there prior to that time.

22 A: He did not say anything about that that I recall.

23 Q And when he was up there that night there were some 24 buildings, one or two buildings, is it, he had located.

25 A: It's my understanding he had gained access to one or

1206

1 more.

2 Q What kind of buildings were they?

3 A: I am assuming they were tool sheds. I think there was
4 a saw they got, like a concrete saw or something.

5 Q You saw that, did you?

6 A: No, sir, I didn't see it. That's what he told me.

7 Q He told you we found one or two tool sheds, we broke
8 into them.

9 A: He didn't say specifically tool shed. He said, as I
10 recall, "sheds .

11 Q And you assumed they were tool sheds because he later 12 told you he had obtained at least a tool from one of
13 them.

14 A: Yes, I believe so.

15 Q And anything else he got?

16 A: No, not that I recall.

17 Q How is it he gained entry into these sheds?

18 A: My understanding, a crow bar is what he told me.

19 Q Was there a padlock or any detail about how he got into 20 these sheds?

21 A: He went into detail. I wasn't storing information.

22 Q Was it difficult to store information when you were 23 sipping this speed through a straw?

24 A: I don't know that it would have made it any easier or 25 any harder.

1207

1 Q In any event, you didn't store it.

2 A: Excuse me.

3 Q In any event, you did not store any particulars other
4 than what you are giving us, is that it?

5 A: Sometimes the activity that goes on, you don't want to 6 know about it.

7 Q Well, I am not asking what it is you didn't want to 8 know. I am asking what they told you.

9 A: Sir, I told you already what it is they told me.

10 Q How large were these sheds?

11 A: He did not explain it, the dimensions of either one of 12 the buildings.

13 Q So far as you know, was the only thing obtained a
14 concrete saw?

15 A: If he went into more detail other than a saw, I do not 16 recall specifically what else they got.

17 Q You have absolutely no recollection of anything other
18 than a concrete saw.

19 A: No, I do not recall him saying anything other than
20 that.

21 Q And you do not recall Miss Edwards telling you what 22 they obtained up on the hill from the construction
23 site.

24 A: No.

25 Q How did they get up there?

1208

1 A: I don't recall how they got up there.

2 Q How did they get back with the loot?

3 A: I don't know.

4 Q Now, you said then for some reason or other that Frank
5 became angry.

6 A: Yes, he told me he got angry because there was one
7 building that he wanted to get into he couldn't gain
8 access to it.

9 Q When you mean "gain access" you mean break in.

10 A: To enter the inside, yes.

11 Q And he didn't have a key that you know of.

12 A: Not that I am aware of.

13 Q He didn't have any accomplices up on the hill that you
14 know of.

15 A: There was mention of at least one other party.

16 THE COURT: Don't mention any other party.

17 MR. BUNCH: I won't.

18 Q Did he talk about any employee that he had some 19 association with who assisted him in this endeavor?

20 A: No.

21 Q And since he couldn't get into this shed, as you called
22 it, to gain access to the shed, he set it on fire.

23 A: That's what he told me.

24 Q And I assume -- and you did, too, I suppose -- that it
25 was a shed that could be set on fire; that is that it

1209

1 was combustible material.

2 A: Actually, I didn't give it any thought whether it was
3 combustible. If he said he set it on fire, I assumed
4 it was combustible.

5 Q How did he go about setting this shed of combustible
6 material on fire?

7 A: I don't recall he went into detail how this was
8 accomplished.

9 Q How is it that led to the explosion?

10 A: I am not aware of how that led to the explosion.

11 Q The only thing then that you were told by Mr. Sheppard
12 that he became angry other than what you have talked
13 about in terms of the saw and what-have-you.

14 A: I told you the best of my recollection exactly what he
15 said, there were details given but I don't recall
16 specifically.

17 Q Let me ask you the question again, Mr. Fugate. The 18 only thing he said with respect to the fire is he 19 couldn't get into this shed and couldn't get access so
20 he set the shed on fire.

21 A: That's correct.

22 Q And that's it.

23 A: Yes, sir.

24 Q And you made no inquiry yourself about anything, you
25 were a pleasant listener.

1210

1 A: As I stated previously, sometimes you don't want to
2 know about some of the activities going on.

3 Q The question I asked you, sir, is whether you made any 4 inquiry.

5 A: No, I did not.

6 Q How long is it you spent there in the tent?

7 A: Maybe 20 minutes. It was pretty hot.

8 Q Cooler than the house according to them but pretty hot
9 anyway.

10 A: Yes, it was.

11 Q What time of day was it?

12 A: Mid-afternoon.

13 Q Now did this explosion knock Mr. Sheppard off the hill?

14 A: That's what I understand.

15 Q Tell us about that.

16 A: Well, I understand that he received some back injuries
17 from being rolled down the hill.

18 Q I am asking you what he told you about what happened.

19 A: Frank didn't say anything about the injuries.

20 Q Did he tell you when it exploded it knocked him off the 21 hill?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Did Miss Edwards say she was up there and when it
24 exploded it knocked her off the hill?

25 A: To the best of my recollection, I think Miss Edwards

1 left prior to the explosion.

2 Q Was there any explanation given in that regard?

3 A: I do not fully recall the reason for her leaving prior 4 to that.

5 Q Do you recall why Mr. Sheppard remained?

6 A: It's my understanding from what Frank did say, in fact,
7 that he wanted to see who was coming onto the site. He 8 thought it was the police.

9 Q And how were they approaching his whereabouts?

10 A: By vehicle. He said he saw the headlights coming off
11 the road. What road he was talking about, I don't

13 Q Who was it he waited to see, who were they?

14 A: It was my understanding it was the security company.

15 Q A security cop.

16 A: I believe it was, yes.

17 Q And did he tell you how he knew that?

18 A: I am assuming because of the configuration of the car.

19 Q Your assumption this was a car that resembled a police
20 type automobile.

21 A: Correct.

22 Q And how did you arrive at that assumption?

23 A: How did he arrive at that assumption?

24 Q How did you.

25 A: Because he has told me.

1 Q He told you it was a police-type vehicle coming up.

2 A: Right. He thought it was the police car and I guess
3 him being around to see it was a security guard was my
4 understanding.

5 Q He thought it was a police car because of lights and
6 that kind of thing.

7 A: I am assuming that, yes.

8 Q I am trying, Mr. Fugate, to get you not to assume and 9 ask you what he said. Did he see lights on the vehicle
10 such as one would see on a police car?

11 A: I don't recall him indicating to me the difference
12 between the security car and the police car, but I do
13 recall him saying it was a security vehicle.

14 Q Did he describe in any way any occupants of this 15 security type vehicle?

16 A: He did not.

17 Q Now, was there any other mention at any time by anybody
18 about any other fires that were set or observed by 19 either Miss Edwards or Mr. Sheppard that evening?

20 A: No, sir.

21 Q you also testified from one or more of the buildings
22 devices were obtained, your words, "got devices".

23 A: Specifically, I remember him speaking about a saw of 24 some kind.

25 Q Any other devices?

1 A: I do not recall.

2 Q Is that pretty much all you know about it, Mr. Fugate?

3 A: Yes, it is, pretty much.

4 MR. BUNCH: Thank you.

5 CROSS EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. PETERS:

7 Q Mr. Fugate, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
8 Sheppard. During your direct examination you said
9 something about you were a CI for DEA, ATF.

10 A: ATF and DEA and another agency, General Services
11 Administration special agent.

12 Q What is a CI?

13 A: I obtain information with regard to drug trafficking
14 around Kansas City.

15 Q And what services do you perform for the Drug
16 Enforcement Agency or Drug Enforcement Unit?

17 A: Basically I pass information, do introductions and on 18 occasion I do operations.

19 Q What is an operation, sir?

20 A: A full operation is where you wear recording devices,
21 cameras, et cetera.

22 Q Are you paid for this?

23 A: No, sir, I am not.

24 Q You said you were a CI for ATF, what is ATF?

25 A: Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

1214

1 Q What do you do as a CI agent, a confidential informant
2 for the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms?

3 A: Some weapons but mostly drugs.

4 Q What do you mean by weapons, mostly drugs?

5 A: If there are illegal drug activities going on in an
6 area, I gain the confidence of these people and pass
7 this information on.

8 Q And are you paid for being a CI for the ATF?

9 A: No, sir, I am not paid anything.

10 Q You said something about you do work for the General
11 Services and I didn't catch the rest of that.

12 A: That was when I first became involved in any agency,
13 the General Services Administration, and it has to do
14 with government contracts predominantly.

15 Q What did you do as a confidential informant for the 16 General Services Administration?

17 A: There was some documents that were being falsified. I
18 was construction superintendent for a company by the 19 name of Beam Construction. It was their wish for me to 20 falsify some documents on materials being used on some 21 government installations and I wrote a letter to the 22 General Services Administration and turned in my 23 resignation.

24 Q Back in the summer of 1989 when you testified to these
25 statements being made in the tent, how long had you

1 been using methamphetamine at that time?

2 A: Probably off and on for a couple of years.

3 Q Have you sold methamphetamine before?

4 A: No, I have not.

5 Q Was it methamphetamine that brought you to begin
6 working for DEA, Jackson County and the ATF?

7 A: No, it was through some personal loss. My brother was 8 murdered due to drugs. My niece was beaten to death,
9 shot in the head and shot in the torso and thrown in 10 the river. My son is HIV positive because of drugs.
11 That's a pretty good reason.

12 Q On the summer discussion you are talking about in 13 1989, when was the first time you told anybody
14 associated with ATE, DEA, the Kansas City Missouri
15 Police Department or any other law enforcement agency
16 about this conversation?

17 A: It was probably a couple years ago I spoke with Ron
18 Getty at the unit downtown on Grand.

19 Q Would it be safe to say then that ball park would be 20 1995 that you first brought it up.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q So what you are relating to this jury is the 23 conversation eight years ago now but six years ago from 24 when you first brought it to the attention of the 25 authorities.

1 A: That's correct.

2 Q When you first brought it to the attention of the 3 authorities did you say anything at all about a
4 trailer?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Did you say anything at all about copper being stolen?

7 A: No, sir.

8 Q Did you say anything at all about saws?

9 A: I don't recall if I said anything at that particular
10 time about a saw.

11 Q Do you remember saying anything about saws to the grand
12 jury when you testified before the grand jury?

13 A: No, sir, I didn't mention it.

14 Q You did not testify about saws before the grand jury.

15 A: No, sir.

16 Q So the first time you think mention of saws -

17 THE COURT: This is one of these tricky
18 questions again that wasn't a question. You said you
19 did not say anything about saws to the grand jury and 20 he said no.

21 MR. PETERS: I forgot my note.

22 THE COURT: I don't know what that means.

23 MR. PETERS: I will reask it.

24 Q You didn't say anything to the grand jury about saws,
25 did you?

1 A: No.

2 Q Have you told anyone anything about transits being
3 stolen?

4 A: No, I did not.

5 MR. BECKER: Objection. Where is the
6 foundation on that? There has been no mention of
7 that.

8 MR. PETERS: Maybe we need to approach.
9 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

10 THE COURT: Have you got some prior 11 inconsistent statement?

12 MR. PETERS: The witness just testified
13 saws was mentioned for the first time today and I
14 am seeing if there is anything else.

15 MR. BECKER: He did mention saws.

16 THE COURT: That's right. I will sustain the
17 objection.

18 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

19 Q Who told you that Frank Sheppard had sustained a back
20 injury as a result of an explosion, who made that 21 comment to you?

22 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

23 THE COURT: What did you ask him?

24 MR. BECKER: Who told him that Frank
25 Sheppard sustained a back injury as a result of this

1

1 explosion.

2 MR. PETERS: He is not going to name any one
3 of the five charged defendants.

4 MR. BECKER: I think the testimony was Frank
5 told him he was knocked off the hill at the time of
6 the explosion.

7 MR. BECKER: I will withdraw the objection.

8 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

9 Q So, sir, who was it that told you that Frank Sheppard
10 had received a fairly serious back injury from the 11 blast?

12 A: A lady by the name of Billy, one of their friends.

13 Q What is Billy's last name, if you know?

14 A: I'm sorry. I don't recall at this time.

15 Q At any time when you spoke to an ATE agent, DEA agent,
16 Task Force agents, police officers or anyone involved
17 in law enforcement, did you ever tell them that Frank
18 Sheppard had told you that he set the trailer on fire?

19 A: Yes.

20 Q Did you tell the grand jury that Frank Sheppard had 21 told you he set the trailer on fire.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Sir, what I would like to do is show you a copy of your 24 grand jury testimony, direct your attention, it is 25 going to be a log answer so I will direct your

1 attention to the question that begins on page 6, number
2 12 and ask you to read your answer which continues to
3 line 11 on page 7. And I am going to ask you about the 4 very last part.

5 THE COURT: Just read it to yourself, not out
6 loud.

7 A: This is not correct.

8 MR. BECKER: Excuse me. I don't think there
9 is a question posed right now.

10 THE COURT: You read it and then let him ask
11 his questions, please.

12 Q Have you had a chance to read that testimony?

13 A: Yes, I have.

14 Q And has it refreshed your recollection as to the 15 testimony you gave under oath before the grand jury?

16 A: Not precisely.

17 MR. BECKER: He forgets about his testimony
18 before a grand jury.

19 THE COURT: There has been no failure of 20 recollection, Mr. Peters.

21 Q Sir, let me ask you, do you recall telling the grand
22 jury that "Frank did not" -

23 MR. BECKER: Can we have the whole question
24 ad the whole answer?

25 Q Do you recall this question being asked, "Did you have

1 a conversation with them about methamphetamine or
2 anything else', do you remember that question?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Your answer, "Actually, we were just talking about
5 things in general and Darlene brought up the incident
6 of the fire fighters and explained Frank had been there
7 and Frank was going along with the story he had, in 8 fact, been there.

9 I am skipping a paragraph, Judge, if
10 you are tracking.

11 THE COURT: I think in conformance with the 12 government's request, you better not skip anything.

13 MR. PETERS: May we approach.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

16 MR. PETERS: Judge, at the bottom of page 7
17 is where the witness before the grand jury said that
18 Frank Sheppard said he didn't, in fact, set the trailer
19 on fire. It is a narrative answer.

20 THE COURT: Frank said he didn't?

21 MR. PETERS: Did not.

22 MR. BECKER: The last sentence. He sort of 23 gets caught in mid stream.

24 THE COURT: That is a typo.

25 MR. BECKER: Counsel has chosen to use this

1 as a prior inconsistent statement. Then he gets the 2 whole statement.

3 MR. PETERS: That is not correct, Your Honor.
4 That is not correct. If portions of an answer are 5 relevant and other portions are irrelevant, just like
6 any other document, you use the relevant portions.
7 The court said we aren't supposed to get into his 8 character.

9 THE COURT: That is not the way I understand
10 the rule of completeness or the rule of fairness. I
11 think if you are going to offer this, you have to use
12 the whole shooting match.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Could we take the afternoon
14 recess now?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: We are going to take our 18 afternoon recess now. Be back in the jury room about 19 20 to four. Don't talk about the case while you are in 20 recess. You are excused.

21 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

22 THE COURT: Do you want to use some time to 23 talk about this?

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

25 MR. BECKER: I have that case, United

1 States versus Jones, 101 f. 3RD 1263, Eighth Circuit.
2 1996.

3 RECESS

4 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, we have two quick
5 issues before we bring the jury in.

6 It is my understanding the Court is
7 saying I have to read the paragraph, "The whole
8 deal was they were basically thieves and that's 9 how they made their living to buy the dope. If 10 they weren't selling dope, they were selling stuff
11 to sell dope." It is my understanding that is 12 your ruling.

13 THE COURT: Well, that was his answer to the 14 question, wasn't it?

15 MR. PETERS: But the whole series, I asked
16 him isn't it true that and maybe we should
17 have the witness leave.

18 (The witness leaves the courtroom.)

19 MR. PETERS: The question that
20 started all this was the question of isn't it true that Frank never 21 told you he set the trailer on fire. And he said, no,
22 he told me he set the trailer on fire. The specific
23 part I wanted to impeach him with is where in his grand
24 jury testimony he stated he didn't, in fact, say he set
25 the trailer on fire."

1 To lay the foundation I had to ask him
2 if he remembered testifying before the grand jury.
3 I showed him the grand jury testimony and asked
4 him if it refreshed his recollection. Then I
5 started to ask him so did Frank tell you he set
6 the trailer on fire. I was instructed by the 7 court to read the question and the answer from the 8 grand jury transcript.

9 It is my position if a portion of a
10 statement is relevant and admissible, that doesn't
11 mean that under a Doctrine of Completeness you
12 introduce irrelevant, immaterial and prejudicial
13 statements. The aside of the whole deal was they 14 were basically thieves has nothing to do with the 15 question I asked, did Frank tell you he set it on 16 fire. It has nothing to do with that portion of 17 the transcript. It isn't required to give 18 completeness to his statement he didn't, in fact,
19 say he set the trailer on fire.

20 I am going to do whatever the Court says
21 but I need to make my record.

22 THE COURT: What is the government's position
23 on this?

24 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, I believe if he is 25 going to be impeached with a prior transcript, the

1 method of impeachment is by being asked if he was
2 asked this question and gave this answer. And you
3 can't pick and choose sentences within the answer in 4 order to get the desired result.

5 THE COURT: That was my theory in indicating 6 what my ruling would be in the first instance. You and 7 I can't pick what part of the answer he should be
8 confronted with. Were you asked this question and did
9 you give this answer, that's the answer. Nobody at the 10 grand jury proceedings -- of course, I realize it is 11 not an adversarial proceeding, you do have a problem
12 with him saying it's not right, you understand that.

13 MR. PETERS: I am eagerly awaiting that
14 answer, Your Honor, but I would again disagree with a
15 statement that where a narrative answer talks -

16 THE COURT: Let me ask you this. If you edit
17 that answer, then would I not be forced to allow Mr.
18 Becker to read the rest of the whole answer?

19 MR. PETERS: Only under the Doctrine of 20 Completeness if the edited part gives meaning to the 21 answer. If he was saying that Frank didn't say it
22 because he was a thief, that would give meaning to it
23 and you would have to have the precedent part. But 24 this is consistent with what the Court has been kind
25 enough to put up with. A narrative answer given to

1 the grand jury where did you have a conversation
2 with them. That was the question that Mr. Becker
3 asked. And his answer to that you would have stricken
4 as non-responsive where he says, "The whole deal, they 5 were basically thieves and that's how they made their 6 living to buy the dope." That was non-responsive to 7 the question that was asked. It should not have been
8 part of the transcript. And now I am about to get
9 stuck with something that would be inadmissible error
10 and prejudicial if done in an adversarial proceeding as 11 a way of getting at that thing that is in the 12 transcript. It is unquestionable. It doesn't need
13 explanation which is that Frank didn't say he set the 14 trailer on fire.

15 So my objection would be -- again I did
16 not begin my questions by saying were you asked
17 this question in the grand jury. I asked him the 18 specific part of did Frank tell you he set the 19 trailer on fire and then the Court directed me to 20 read the whole thing.

21 THE COURT: Which, as far as I am concerned
22 is the only appropriate way to impeach with written
23 testimony is to read the testimony.

24 MR. PETERS: I am just making my record,
25 Judge.

1 THE COURT: I understand.

2 MR. PETERS: The Court is directing I read
3 the thing in its entirety.

4 The second issue is I propose to ask him
5 have you ever given false information to the 6 police.

7 THE COURT: Ever?

8 MR. PETERS: Yes. And what I am getting at 9 is, if he says yes, ask him when. If he says no, he
10 has a 1973 municipal court conviction for false
11 information.

12 THE COURT: When is it?

13 MR. PETERS: In 1973, 24 years ago. And it
14 goes to his character as opposed to a specific act of 15 misconduct.

16 THE COURT: How does a misdemeanor or 17 conviction, 23 year old misdemeanor or conviction go to 18 his character?

19 MR. PETERS: Judge, they put me up to this.
20 I am just making my record.

21 THE COURT: I think you have, Mr. Peters.

22 MR. PETERS: My suggestion was I ask you
23 before I ask it in front of the jury. So I have done
24 my part now.

25 THE COURT: What is your position on the

1 grand jury answer?

2 MR. BECKER: I would request the proper
3 cross examination of reading the question and answer,
4 thereby giving the witness an opportunity to fully
5 respond to any possible inconsistencies.

6 THE COURT: Yes, although it may not appear
7 to be relevant and may not even be independently
8 admissible in this proceeding, this is what you have 9 chosen to do. And I think that the witness is entitled
10 to be confronted with his whole answer. And then if he 11 wants to say he didn't say that, he can say he didn't 12 say that.

13 MR. BECKER: Rule 609, felony and then assert
14 time frame.

15 THE COURT: We will not get into 23 year old
16 misdemeanors.

17 MR. BUNCH: It was probably just an ordinance
18 violation. I am not standing up to dispute the 19 Court's ruling. I should, though, for purposes of the 20 record, join with my co-counsel, Mr. Peters, with 21 respect to the statement that he made to the court.

22 THE COURT: Okay, let's get the jury.

23 MR. PETERS: For purposes of continuity, do
24 you want me to go back to my preliminary question or 25 just begin my reading from the grand jury transcript?

1228

1 THE COURT: You better go back so they
2 understand where we are.

3 (The jury enters the courtroom and is seated.)

4 THE COURT: I will remind you, sir, you are
5 still under oath, and you may proceed.

6 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 Q Mr. Fugate, I am going to go back to just a little bit
8 before the break and ask you again, in fact, Frank
9 Sheppard never told you that he set the trailer on 10 fire, isn't that correct?

11 A: No, that's not correct. He told me, in fact, he had.

12 Q And I have shown to you your grand jury testimony and 13 you had a chance to read that.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Do you remember this question being asked, "Did you
16 have a conversation with him about methamphetamine or 17 anything else?" Do you remember that question?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Your answer, "Actually they, we were just talking about
20 things in general and Darlene brought up the incident
21 of the firefighters and explained that Frank had been 22 there and Frank was going along with the story that he
23 had, in fact, been there. The whole deal was they were 24 basically thieves and that's how they made their living
25 to buy the dope. If they weren't selling dope, they

1 were stealing stuff to sell dope. They had broken into
2 a warehouse the night before and it was my
3 understanding they stole some TVs and weren't real
4 successful. And the following day they decided to go
5 to this construction site and break in and steal the 6 tools and sell them. I mean it was a way of live for 7 these people and to buy some dope. And Frank could not
8 get into the trailer. And he said it made him angry he 9 couldn't break in. They tried for a while to break in 10 and that he got a little bit spooked because a car came 11 in. He said he didn't, in fact, set the trailer on 12 fire.. Do you remember that?

13 A: I said he did, in fact, tell me he did.

14 Q So your testimony is -

15 A: I am assuming it was a typo.

16 Q So your testimony is that this grand jury transcript is 17 in error where you said he didn't, in fact, say that he
18 set the trailer on fire?

19 A: I said he did, in fact, say that.

20 Q So you believe this transcript to be in error.

21 A: Yes.

22 THE COURT: That isn't important, whether he 23 thinks it is an error or not. He has told you his 24 recollection. You have the transcript.

25 Q Sir, prior to testifying you have had an opportunity to

1230

1 read your statements and grand jury testimony, haven't
2 you?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Did you advise anyone that there was this mistake in
5 the grand jury testimony?

6 A: I noticed it only today.

7 Q What time today did you notice it?

8 A: When you originally handed me the transcript in this
9 courtroom.

10 Q When did you start working as a CI for one of the 11 different government agencies. Just a year is fine.
12 You don't have to be specific.

13 A: Actively, very actively, two and a half years ago.

14 Q What year, '94, '95?

15 A: Probably '94.

16 Q And the first statement that you gave regarding this
17 conversation that took place in the summer of 1989,
18 your first statement was on or about February 8, 1995,
19 is that correct?

20 A: That sounds correct, yes.

21 Q You mentioned that you have done body recordings while
22 working as a confidential informant, is that correct?

23 A: Yes, I have.

24 Q Would you tell the members of the jury what a body
25 recording is.

1 A: it is a recording device that is taped to the mid
2 portion of your lower back. You have a wire up the 3 inside of your shirt normally.

4 Q The what does the confidential informant do while
5 wearing this body recording device?

6 A: I let people do what they do best, talk about
7 themselves.

8 Q Did you ever wear a body recording device in a
9 conversation with my client Frank Sheppard?

10 A: No, I did not.

11 MR. BECKER: May we approach.

12 THE COURT: There is no question pending.

13 MR. BECKER: I don't believe there is a
14 good faith basis for that question.

15 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

16 MR. BECKER: If there were recordings of 17 Frank Sheppard, then I would have turned them over.
18 I think this implies somehow we are running around
19 making tapes of these people that counsel doesn't
20 have any idea about. he can't just throw it out
21 there to jabber.

22 THE COURT: That's true.

23 MR. PETERS: He testified he has been
24 wearing wires since 1994. This is Cross Examination.
25 And I haven't created a misimpression with the jury.

1 I asked him did he ever wear one with my client. The
2 answer is no.

3 THE COURT: Leave it.

4 MR. PETERS: The follow-up question I would
5 like to ask, were you ever asked to wear a body
6 recording device with my client. He has been involved
7 in this case since 1994. We still have the ATF agents
8 involved in this case.

9 MR. BECKER: Then I get to come back and say
10 I will check the records. Has Frank Sheppard been in 11 jail this whole time? There are reasons he doesn't go
12 out and make a tape with Frank Sheppard. Frank 13 Sheppard has been in jail. This whole line is purely 14 fishing.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't mean to interrupt.
16 The way you just said, it sounds like that was some 17 consideration to have him do it.

18 MR. BECKER: Just thinking about it as we are 19 up here, if Frank Sheppard was out walking around, we 20 would have thought about it but he wasn't out walking
21 around.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Mr. Peters' question, he can
23 ask were you ever asked to wear a wire? Yes or no.

24 THE COURT: It doesn't make any difference
25 whether he was asked. He wasn't. Let's leave it. PFor

1 the future, counsel should have a good faith basis
2 before asking questions.

3 THE COURT: That is true.

4 MR. PETERS: so my record is clear, when you
5 have a witness who says they have been doing body
6 recordings for ATF since 1994 and you have a client on 7 trial in 1997, it seems to me since we don't get to 8 interview the witnesses, since we can't take 9 depositions, the time to ask were you asked whether or 10 not you would wear a body recording and did you do that 11 is when he is on the stand. And I have a good faith
12 basis on his testimony he has routinely done that.

13 MR. BECKER: If we had recordings of Frank
14 Sheppard, counsel would have them. That's what it
15 comes down to.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

18 MR. PETERS: Judge, I have no further
19 questions.

20 THE COURT: All right, who is next?

21 MR. O'CONNOR: None of the three of us have 22 any more questions.

23 THE COURT: Do you have any Redirect?

24 MR. BECKER: No Redirect.

25 THE COURT: All right, sir, you may step

1234

1 down. Call your next witness.

2 MR. BECKER: The United States calls Ronald
3 Williams.

4 RONALD L. WILLIAMS,

5 having been sworn, testified:

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. BECKER:

8 Q Please state your name and spell your last name.

9 A: Ronald L. Williams, w - i - l - l - i - a - m - ~ .

10 Q Mr. Williams, how old are you?

11 A: Thirty six.

12 Q Where do you live?

13 A: Olathe, Kansas.

14 Q What do you do for a living?

15 A: Construction.

16 Q What do you do in construction?

17 A: Drywall finisher.

18 Q How long have you been doing that?

19 A: Fifteen, sixteen years.

20 Q Have you ever been convicted of any crimes?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q What was that?

23 A: None support of a child.

24 Q Going back, did you serve any time for that?

25 A: Yes, I did.

1235

1 Q When did you get out of jail for that?

2 A June the 26th, 1990.

3 Q Where did you move after that?

4 A: To Olathe, Kansas.

5 Q In 1991 did you move back to the south side of Kansas
6 City, Missouri?

7 A: Yes, I did.,

8 Q Prior to moving into a home were you living anywhere?

9 A: Yes, I was.

10 Q Where was that?

11 A: Four Acres Motel.

12 Q Where is that located?

13 A: South 71 highway where Prospect and Hickman Mills Drive
14 runs into it.

15 Q Who were you living there with?

16 A: My girl friend and two kids.

17 THE COURT: The name is what?

18 THE WITNESS: Tammie Gibson.

19 Q How long a time did you live there?

20 A: Two to three weeks, right around two weeks.

21 Q I want to show you what has been marked for
22 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit
23 337 and ask you to look at that photograph and 24 tell me if you recognize it, please.

25 A: Yes, I do.

1236

1 Q What is it?

2 A: It's the Four Acres Motel.

3 Q Is that a fair ad accurate depiction of the Four Acres
4 Motel where you stayed?

5 A: Yes, it is.

6 MR. BECKER: I would offer that in evidence
7 as Government's 337.

8 MR. PETERS: No objection, Judge.

9 THE COURT: All right. Admitted.

10 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT NO. 337 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

11 Q Now, Mr. Williams, can you see the picture there of the 12 Four Acres Motel?

13 A: Yes.

14 Q How big a place is that? Is that a hundred units or 15 ten?

16 A: It's more than ten. Probably closer to a hundred. I
17 am
18 not for sure.

19 Q Where were you staying in those weeks in 1991 you
20 stayed at the Four Acres Motel?

21 A: Around the back. They have got some kitchenettes down
22 on the bottom. Right behind the office there there is 23 an entryway that goes down the stairs.

24 Q When you were living there did you meet an individual
25 by the name of Frank Sheppard?

1 A: Yes, I did.

2 Q Do you see him here in court today?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Could you tell us where he is sitting and what he is
5 wearing over there.

6 A: He is sitting over there wearing the green shirt.

7 MR. BECKER: Indicating the defendant

8 Frank Sheppard, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: He just stood up, right?

10 THE WITNESS: Right.

11 Q Where did you meet Frank Sheppard?

12 A: At the motel. We was outside.

13 Q Do you know if Frank Sheppard was staying with anyone
14 else?

15 A: yes, there were two other people there.

16 Q You say it was outside that you met Frank Sheppard.

17 A: Right.

18 Q What do you mean "outside"?

19 A: There were like little walkways there. Had a little 20 canopy over the whole thing where you can go out and 21 sit outside or whatever you want to do. The car was 22 parked up in the front at the place where we were 23 staying.

24 Q What were you doing out there?

25 A: Just went outside to get some fresh air.

1 Q What was Frank Sheppard doing out there?

2 A: Well, he was outside. They was drinking beer.

3 Q Did a conversation come up about you possibly owning a
4 pickup truck?

5 A: Yes, it did.

6 Q Could you tell us about that, please.

7 A: Frank had asked me if I knew or if I had a pickup
8 truck. And I said no, I was driving a delivery car.
9 And he asked me if I knew where he could get one.

10 Q What happened after that?

11 A: I said no, I didn't know where to get one.

12 Q What did Frank Sheppard say?

13 A: There was off of -

14 MR. PETERS: Objection. Relevancy.

15 THE COURT: I am not sure about relevancy.
16 It may be competence.

17 MR. BECKER: We need to approach again,
18 Judge.

19 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

20 MR. BECKER: This would be offered for two 21 reasons. The witness would answer that Frank
22 Sheppard asked him to assist in stealing a bob cat
23 bucket or bob cat, I can't remember exactly. There was 24 a lot up the road and they needed a pickup truck for 25 that purpose. After that conversation is when Frank

1239

1 begins to describe the fire that was started that
2 killed the firefighters.

3 MR. PETERS: This is a conversation after
4 the explosion where Frank is asking him about a
5 pickup to go to the site and do stealing. It is 6 completely immaterial as to whether or not he was 7 involved in the explosion.

8 MR. BECKER: It is not immaterial. It is 9 whether or not its prejudicial value outweighs the 10 probative value.

11 TuE COURT: It seems to me you have two 12 things here. You have the request to help steal those 13 bobcats and you have also got the admission that he was 14 at the scene. That seems to me a different basis of 15 admissibility, you can use that. But after-the-fact he 16 was proposing to steal something -

17 MR. BECKER: In terms of 404(b) evidence,
18 events occurring afterwards would be admissible to show
19 common scheme or plan.

20 MR. PETERS: The Court has read 404(b) a lot.
21 The question is does this move us closer to 22 ascertainment of the truth. Does talking about going 23 onto a construction site to steal move you closer to 24 finding out if on November 29th this defendant was 25 up there.

1240

1 THE COURT: And stealing.

2 MR. PETERS: And committed the crime.

3 MR. BECKER: I would say yes. 404(b) is a
4 rule of inclusion unless the prejudice to the defendant
5 outweighs the probative value.

6 THE COURT: This isn't even evidence of 7 another crime.

8 MR. BECKER: It is evidence. It is testimony
9 criminal solicitation was made.

10 THE COURT: That would be another crime.

11 MR. BECKER: That would be another crime or 12 wrong or act.

13 THE COURT: Have you provided the appropriate 14 notice of this testimony?

15 MR. BECKER: Yes.

16 THE COURT: All right, I will allow it and 17 overrule the objection.

18 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

19 Q Mr. Williams, why did Frank Sheppard ask you if you had 20 a pickup truck?

21 A: Because there was a flatbed trailer sitting up the 22 street that had a bobcat sitting on top of it.

23 Q What did that have to do with the pickup truck?

24 A: So we could go up and pull it off of the site.

25 Q What did you say?

1 A: I said, no, I ain't got no pickup and I can't get one.

2 Q Was anyone else present during that conversation?

3 A: A guy that was, it was a brother-in-law, I guess, or
4 something like that.

5 Q Would it be Frank Sheppard's brother-in-law?

6 A: Right. Right.

7 Q Could you describe him, what physically he looks like?

8 A: He had a beard and kind of real shaggy-looking hair and
9 everything.

10 Q Do you remember his name at all?

11 A: No, I don't.

12 Q Then did you have any conversation with Frank Sheppard
13 about the fire or explosion that killed the six
14 firemen?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Please tell us about that.

17 A: he said they went down to steal some explosives because 18 they had it sold, they was going to sell it or 19 something, some explosives.

20 Q How did this conversation come up, after the bobcat,
21 why did Frank Sheppard say to you anything about -
22 what caused this to be discussed?

23 A: Well, I guess it would be because he had known my 24 brother-in-law.

25 MR. PETERS: Objection.

1 THE COURT: Yes. Don't guess, speculate. If
2 you know, say so. If you don't know, say that.

3 A: He knew my brother-in-law.

4 Q Had they met somewhere else?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q What did Frank Sheppard tell you about the explosion?

7 A: They went down just to steal some explosives. They had
8 it sold and that's what he said about that. But then I
9 guess -- oh, security.

10 Q Did he say anything about a security guard?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q What did Frank Sheppard say?

13 A: That they had been spotted.

14 Q Did he say anything then about setting a fire?

15 A: He said they set a fire for a diversion.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: I object to the reference to 17 they". This is the second time.

18 THE COURT: I will tell the jury the
19 instruction I gave you about the use of that word
20 they" still applies and in this context can be used
21 only as to the person making the statement. All right.

22 Q Did Frank Sheppard say where he went after the fire was
23 set?

24 A: Went to the woods and hid out in some weeds or wood,
25 whatever was around there.

1 Q Did Frank Sheppard say anything about seeing
2 firefighters?

3 A: yes.

4 Q What did he say?

5 A: He said he didn't mean for anybody to get hurt.

6 Q Did Frank Sheppard, do you know if his mother lived
7 anywhere nearby?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Do you know where?

10 A: I think it is on Hickman Mills Drive.

11 Q How do you know that?

12 A: Because I took him up to his mother's house.

13 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at
14 this time, Judge.

15 CROSS EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. PETERS:

17 Q Sir, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
18 Sheppard. And I have been taking notes so I apologize
19 if this has already been asked. Do you have felony
20 convictions?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q And how many felony convictions do you have?

23 A: Three.

24 Q and what are they for?

25 A: Non-support of child, conspiracy to possess cocaine and

1 delivery of a controlled substance.

2 Q Your testimony today as to a conversation that took
3 place at the Four Acres Motel was in what year?

4 A: 1991.

5 Q When did you first come forward to the police?

6 A: Oh, I don't remember; '92, ,93, I think.

7 Q Your testimony Frank Sheppard told you he and his
8 brother-in-law walked to the site, is that correct?

9 A: He didn't say if it was his brother-in-law or not.

10 Q Where does brother-in-law come from?

11 A: I just met him at the motel.

12 Q So you don't know who Frank Sheppard is saying he 13 walked to the site with.

14 A: No, I don't.

15 Q And what you have heard was that he walked to the site
16 to steal dynamite, is that correct?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Did he tell you how he expected to make off with 19 dynamite on foot?

20 A: No.

21 Q and he told you at the time of the explosion he was in 22 the wooded area surrounding the site.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Did he tell you the explosion caused him any injuries?

25 A: No, he didn't.

1 Q Did he tell you whether the explosion caused him to be
2 knocked off of his feet?

3 A: No, he didn't.

4 Q Frank Sheppard never told you that he set a fire, did he?

6 A: No, sir.

7 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

8 MS. HUNT: No questions.

9 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

10 CROSS EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

12 Q Mr. Williams, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
13 Sheppard. I believe you just testified on cross for 14 Mr. Peters you believe you came forward or talked to 15 the authorities about this case in '92 or '93, could it
16 have been February of '95?

17 A: It would have been. I don't know for sure when it was.

18 Q To try to refresh your memory of this would this have 19 been when ATE people came to talk to you, a Larry 20 Cooper?

21 A: Yes.

22 Q and did he talk to you and seem to be writing notes?

23 A: Yes, he did.

24 Q Were you ever shown a copy of the interview that he
25 wrote from his notes of his conversations with you?

1 A I have seen them, yes.

2 Q Did you have a chance to review them before you
3 testified?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And that would have been the first person that you
6 talked to about this case, is that correct?

7 A Exactly.

8 Q Now, you know where it was they met you or talked with 9 you about your knowledge of this case?

10 THE COURT: "They" being?

11 Q Where Agent Cooper met you or how he came in contact
12 with you.

13 A He came to my apartment where I was living.

14 Q You did not call him.

15 A Not specifically, no.

16 Q Who did you call?

17 A I don't remember. Just the ATF office, I guess it was.

18 Q Was there a reason for your call?

19 A Well, I just -- it had been on my mind for so many 20 years, a certain length of time and I just decided to 21 say something.

22 Q When you talked to the ATF agent did you advise him
23 back in 1989 you had also been in jail with Bryan
24 Sheppard in Clay County?

25 A Yes, I did.

1 Q Would you recognize Bryan Sheppard?

2 A: Yes, I do.

3 Q And how long were you in jail up in Clay County with
4 Bryan Sheppard?

5 A: Oh, not more than a 180 days. I was there on a
6 Retainer.

7 Q How often would you see Bryan Sheppard where you and
8 him could have a conversation?

9 A: For the first couple weeks, not at all but after that 10 he was put in my population with me, in the tank I was.

11 Q Did you guys talk?

12 A: Yes, yes, we did.

13 Q And listen to my question, please. Did Bryan Sheppard
14 ever admit to you, or anyone in your presence, there at 15 the jail he was involved in this explosion?

16 A: He didn't admit that he was there. He didn't say that
17 he was there.

18 THE COURT: Say that again.

19 THE WITNESS: He said he wasn't there.

20 Q He wasn't bragging to you or other people there that he 21 was involved, was he?

22 A: No.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: That's all I have.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. OSGOOD:

1
1 ~ Q I want to go back. Excuse me. My name is John Osgood,
2 Mr. Williams, and I represent Richard Brown who is
3 1 charged in this case. I want to go back to the Four
4 1 Acres Motel for a moment and your conversation you say
5 ~ you had with Mr. Frank Sheppard. You met -- you need
6 to answer yes or no, sir, for the record; you shouldn't 7 nod.

8 1 MR. BECKER: There is no question.
9 1 THE COURT: You didn't ask a question.
10 ~ MR. OSGOOD: He was nodding.
11 1 THE COURT: He may have nodded but you didn't
12 1 ask a question. Don't nod if he doesn't ask you
13 anything.

14 1 Q You were outside the motel that evening, is that
15 correct?
16 1 A: Yes.
17 Q And you met a person, were they introduced to you as 18 Mr. Sheppard's brother-in-law?
19 A: Yes, he was.
20 Q And do you know Mr. Larry Barker or Baker.
21 A: I don't know him personally. I don't know that name at 22 all.
23 Q Have you ever heard that name?
24 A: No.
25 Q So you don't know whether Mr. Baker is his brother-in

1

1 law or not.

2 A No, I don't.

3 Q Did Mr. Sheppard tell you that it was he and his

4 brother-in-law that went up to the site?

5 A It was "we". He didn't say it was his brother-in-law

6 or who it was.

7 Q Do you remember when you testified before the grand
8 jury on the 12th day of March of 1996 here in Kansas
9 City?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Were you asked this question and did you give this
12 answer, sir. Page 6.

13 "Question: Well, did you ever talk to him about these 14 connections you had and your brother-in-law had?" And 15 he is referring to your brother-in-law, I guess, at 16 that point.

17 A: Okay, yes.

18 MR. BECKER: Can we approach.

19 TuE COURT: Yes.

20 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

21 MR. BECKER: This particular quote goes on at 22 some length.

23 MR. OSGOOD: It starts here and goes to the 24 next page.

25 MR. BECKER: And I would object to the part

1

1 where Frank Sheppard makes an exculpatory statement
2 1 about Bryan Sheppard which is on page 7, lines 8, 9 and
4 1 MR. OSGOOD: I don't care about that either
5 way, but under your previous ruling on completeness, I
6 1 don't know how else to do it. It would be consistent
7 with the previous requirement we have to read the
8 1 testimony.
9 1 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, look at page 8, is 10 what you are looking for, "What did Frank say about who 11 1 actually did the fire?" And then you can get the 12 1 brother-in-law.
13 1 MR. OSGOOD: He said it earlier, Mr. Becker.
14 MR. BECKER: This is impeachment, John.
15 1 MR. OSGOOD: Two different times in two 16 1 different places.
17 TuE COURT: Don[t read that testimony he
18 1 mentioned Bryan.
19 ~ MR. OSGOOD: I will skip and try to edit. If 20 you will give me a little bit of latitude.
21 1 TuE COURT: You may use the testimony on page
22 ~ 8, "He didn't actually say who set the fire."
23 1 MR. PETERS: For purposes of my record and I
24 ~ think for Bryan Sheppard as well, the ruling of the 25 ~ court on the last question and answer had us include

1
1 ~ bad acts by the defendants even though it wasn't
2 relevant at the time to the answer.

3 Now, the answer includes exculpatory
4 material and the court's ruling is that that can't
5 be given to the jury and I guess I am just asking
6 for guidance from the Court why would material
7 that is prejudicial to the defendant but part of a
8 complete answer be included with evidence that is 9 exculpatory to the defendants and part of a
10 complete answer be excluded? I am just asking for 11 guidance.

12 THE COURT: For one thing it isn't
13 generically exculpatory.

14 MR. OSGOOD: He has already testified he had 15 a direct conversation with Bryan and Bryan said he
16 wasn't involved so I don't know it prejudices Mr.
17 Becker's case and it is consistent.

18 THE COURT: You are probably right.

19 MR. BECKER: My only objection to page 6 and 20 page 7, it never gets around to saying anything.

21 THE COURT: That's true.

22 MR. BECKER: If you look there are more
23 questions and a whole other page before I finally get 24 to "What did Frank say about who did do the fire" which 25 is page 8, line 11. There is never any resolution.

1 MR. PETERS: I would disagree. The answer on
2 page 7 ended up with Frank saying they had went, him
3 and his brother-in-law, I don't remember his name. The 4 question that was propounded by Mr. Osgood did he ever
5 say that it was Frank and his brother-in-law and he
6 said no. And here he is saying it was Frank and his 7 brother-in-law that had went.

8 MR. OSGOOD: There will be other witnesses
9 that will say Mr. Baker was, in fact, up at the scene,
10 other of Mr. Becker's witnesses will point to Mr.
11 Baker. z

12 THE COURT: I think I will change my mind.
13 You may use that.

14 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

15 Q I was about to ask you about a question and answer
16 series from the grand jury concerning whether or not
17 you had at some previous time mentioned Mr. Sheppard's
18 brother-in-law. And the question was asked of you,
19 "Question: Did you ever talk to him about these 20 connections that you had and your brother-in-law had",
21 referring to your brother in law. Your answer, "Well,
22 we started out talking and I told him that after I
23 found out who he was, I told him I met his nephew
24 Bryan. And then we got to talking about things and 25 everything. And he said that we had been drinking a

1 few beers that night and he said we got to talking and
2 he asked me if I knew or he asked me if I knew how to 3 get a pickup because they wanted to steal some
4 construction equipment. That's how it all started.
5 And then I got to talking about Bryan and he said,
6 well, Bryan did not see the fire that killed the 7 firefighters because he was at home on the couch
8 asleep.:

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I object to that reading, "did
10 not set".

11 MR. OSGOOD: I'm sorry.
12 "Well, Bryan did not set the fire that killed the
13 firefighters because he was at home on the couch
14 asleep. And so it ended up with Frank saying, you
15 know, they had went, him and his brother-in-law, I
16 don't remember his name."

17 Do you remember that question and that
18 answer?

19 A: Vaguely, yes.

20 Q So you did mention Mr. Sheppard's brother-in-law at the
21 grand jury.

22 A: I could have but I didn't know his name.

23 Q In your previous testimony here today you did not 24 remember using or mentioning a brother-in-law, is that
25 right?

1

1 ~ MR. BECKER: Objection. I am not sure that
2 1 is a fair characterization.

3 MR. OSGOOD: I will rephrase it, Your Honor.

4 1 Q Did Mr. Sheppard, in fact, tell you that his brother
5 ~ in-law was up there with him, now that you have had a
6 chance to reflect on your grand jury testimony?

7 1 A He said "we".

8 ~ Q But at the grand jury you specifically named his
9 brother-in-law.

10 A I didn't know his brother-in-law's name. I couldn't
11 say it was his brother-in-law.

12 Q All right. I want to ask you if this question and 13 answer was asked of you on page 8 of the transcript:
14 "Question: What did Frank say about who actually did
15 do the fire?"

16 "Answer: Well, he didn't actually say who did it but
17 he said that him and his brother-in-law had went there
18 to steal some explosives because they had sold it and 19 that security had seen them or had spotted them up
20 there. So they had set a small fire and they thought
21 that they would distract them up there. And they were 22 sitting back in, somewhere in the weeds or rocks or 23 something and they watched as the security went up
24 there and everything. And then they set and watched
25 as the firefighters came up and everything." So thee

1 they you were referring to, sir, is, in fact, Frank
2 Sheppard and his brother-in-law, isn't it?
3 A: It could be.
4 Q Well, you said it, didn't you, sir? Didn't you say
5 brother-in-law in the grand jury?
6 A: Well, when we were sitting at the motel talking, that's
7 what he said.
8 Q Thank you, sir. Then he did say it was his brother-in 9 law.
10 A: Yes, I guess so.
11 Q Did you know of the reward in this case, sir?
12 A: I had heard about it.
13 Q Did you ever call 1-800-ATF-GUNS and ask about it?
14 A: I don't think so, no.
15 Q Did you see the Unsolved Mysteries episode that was on 16 a couple days before you talked?
17 A: I had heard it was on TV, yes, I did watch it.
18 Q You did see it.
19 A: Yes.
20 Q Do you know Mr. Richard Brown?
21 A: no, I don't.
22 Q Never met him.
23 A: No, I haven't.
24 Q He wasn't at the motel that night.
25 A: No.

MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

1256

2 TuE COURT: Any Redirect?

3 MR. BECKER: None, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right, sir, you may step

5 down.

6 MR. BECKER: I prefer not to start the next
7 witness at this time. I believe it is going to be far
8 longer than 15 minutes to present his testimony. And,
9 secondly, Mr. Osgood provided me a transcript relating 10 to that witness earlier today I would like an 11 opportunity to review.

12 THE COURT: All right. We will stop now. We 13 will start in the morning at nine o'clock, ladies and 14 gentlemen. Don't discuss the case while you are away
15 from us. Drive carefully and get back to us please in 16 the morning at nine o'clock. Good night. You may 17 withdraw.

18 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

19 TuE COURT: We will be in recess until 20 tomorrow morning.

6 THE COURT: Good morning, everybody. Ready to go?

11 THE COURT: Okay.Mr. Becker, you can get going.

13 THE COURT: Are we getting him?

16 THE COURT: Well, all right. Fine. I don't want
17 to discombobulate your order of things.

19 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 MR. PETERS: The next witness is Van Waite. I have 23 a motion in limine that I haven't had time to get filed.

Page 1259

1 MR. PETERS: We received the witness list last
2 night at 6 o'clock.

3 THE COURT: Come on, now. I've had this list in 4 front of me for the last week. You've had this list, you
5 knew that Van Waite followed Williams and Kilgore and Lank.
6 I'm not going to buy that. What's the motion all about?

7 MR. PETERS: That the extent of his testimony was I
8 was working on a lawn mower, it backfired. Frank says he 9 blows things up too. That's his testimony. Oh, and that he
10 likes to steal things.

11 The law cited is the same as in the one yesterday.
12 There's no linkage to this case, and he says he likes to blow
13 things up after standing there and listening to this lawn
14 mower backfire. And this happened sometime in 1989. This 15 entire statement is 73 words long. And, again, I apologize
16 to the Court for not being able to file it.

17 THE COURT: What's your position on this?

18 MR. MILLER: Our position is that it's an admission
19 against interest. It goes to the weight for the jury to 20 consider. And he says, "I like to blow things up, too."
21 This coincides with his statements of lack of remorse and 22 pity for what happened to the firemen. Not that he
23 intentionally blew them up, but if they started a fire and it
24 went off, and then they heard him make a statement, "I like 25 to blow things up, too," making such a statement that close

1 after the explosion.

2 THE COURT: When did he make it?

3 MR. MILLER: He made it in '89. He made it
4 subsequent. I'll have to get the statement real fast.

5 MR. PETERS: Judge, there's no mention of the 6 explosion that killed the firefighters. Van Waite is working
7 on a lawn mower. The lawn mower backfires, and Frank says,
8 "I like to blow things up, too," talking about the -

9 THE COURT: In 1989?

10 MR. MILLER: Yeah. It was in 1989. He can't 11 remember the exact month, but he said it was in the 12 summertime, it was warm. So if we put it in the summertime,
13 we're talking anywhere from six to eight months.

14 THE COURT: I really think that's pretty sketchy.
15 I'm going to sustain the objection to that.

16 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Your Honor. And again, I
17 apologize, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Let's get them in here more promptly.

19 MR. BECKER: All right. We need a few minutes to 20 find another witness. The one is in the restroom getting
21 sick, and I need to go find out -

22 THE COURT: Do what you can. We'll wait.

23 MR. BECKER: We've just lost our first two. We 24 have a prisoner. We can bring him up.

25 THE COURT: Do it.

1 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

2 MR. BECKER: He's ready now. We're back to Stephen
3 Kilgore.

4 THE COURT: All right. Stephen Kilgore. Come up,
5 please, Mr. Kilgore, stand at the witness chair, and be 6 sworn.

8 STEPHEN KILGORE,
9 being first duly sworn by Kathy Geller, Law Clerk, testified
10 as follows:

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION

13 By Mr. Becker:

14 Q. All right. Good morning. Please state your name and 15 spell your last name.

16 A. Stephen A. Kilgore, K-I-L-G-O-R-E.

17 Q. Mr. Kilgore, how old are you?

18 A. Forty-one.

19 Q. Where do you live?

20 A. In Raymore.

21 Q. What do you do for a living?

22 A. I'm an electronic engineer.

23 Q. What kind of work do you do as an electronic engineer?

24 A. Satellite communications.

25 Q. Are you married?

- 1 A. Yes, sir.
- 2 Q. Do you have a family?
- 3 A. Yes, sir.
- 4 Q. Do you know the Sheppard family from the Marlborough
5 area of Kansas City?
- 6 A. Yes, sir.
- 7 Q. How do you know them?
- 8 A. I've known them pretty much all of my life.
- 9 Q. How did you first get to know the Sheppard family?
- 10 A. From one of their brothers.
- 11 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Kilgore. I'm not 12 hearing you.
- 13 A. From one of their brothers.
- 14 Q. Which brother?
- 15 A. Phillip.
- 16 Q. Now, do you know Skip Sheppard?
- 17 A. Yes, sir.
- 18 Q. Do you know Frank Sheppard?
- 19 A. Yes, sir.
- 20 Q. How old were you when you first started, I guess when 21 you first knew Phillip Sheppard?
- 22 A. I was five years old.
- 23 Q. And Phillip Sheppard, where does he fit in the list of 24 the Sheppard brothers? Is he the oldest or the youngest?
- 25 A. No, next to the youngest brother.

- 1 Q. So between Frank Sheppard and Skip Sheppard?
- 2 A. Yes.
- 3 Q. Now, many years ago, did you, was there an accident with
- 4 Phillip Sheppard?
- 5 A. Yes, sir.
- 6 Q. Could you tell us about that, please? What year was it?
- 7 A. 1971, sir.
- 8 Q. What happened?
- 9 A. I was showing him a gun, the gun went off and struck him
- 10 in the head and killed him.
- 11 Q. How old were you then?
- 12 A. I was 15 years old.
- 13 Q. What grade were you in then?
- 14 A. I was just in the eighth grade.
- 15 Q. Now, for many years, approximately 20 years, did you
- 16 have any contact with the Sheppard family?
- 17 A. No.
- 18 Q. In 1991, did you, were you in contact with the Sheppard
- 19 family?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. Could you tell us about that, please?
- 22 A. I'd been going to the grave over the years.
- 23 Q. Whose grave?
- 24 A. Phillip's. And over the years I noticed there never was
- 25 a headstone. This was a young kid that lost his life young.

1 He deserved a headstone. So I wanted to find out about how
2 to go about doing this. When I contacted the funeral home,
3 they told me I had to get the mother's permission.

4 Q. Who is the mother?

5 A. Naomi.

6 Q. What happened next?

7 A. They contacted her, and she had no problem. They gave
8 her my phone number, and she contacted me and we met.

9 Q. Where did you go, or where did you meet?

10 A. We went to her house.

11 Q. I'll show you what's in evidence as Government's Exhibit
12 318. Do you recognize that?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: The number is what, please?

15 MR. BECKER: 318, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Is that the Sheppard residence that 18 you visited in 1991?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. During your first visit there, how long did you stay?

21 A. Several hours.

22 Q. Who was there when you visited?

23 A. When I first got there, it was just Naomi, I think her
24 mother, some of the grandchildren, and Didi.

25 Q. Now, did you visit on later occasions during 1991?

1 A. Oh, yes. Yes. I even had them -- they went to my
2 house.

3 Q. Was there an occasion, then, in the summer of 1991 that
4 you gave skip Sheppard and Frank Sheppard a ride somewhere?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Could you tell us about that, please?

7 A. I took them down to a yard down the road to, they was 8 going to mow the yard.

9 Q. I'm sorry. Now -

10 A. It was just right down the street.

11 Q. Mr. Kilgore, let me ask a question. This photograph,
12 Government's 318, does that fairly and accurately represent
13 the way the house looked when you visited?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. BECKER: I'd offer that as Government's Exhibit
16 318. It's in?

17 MR. PETERS: I believe it's already in evidence.
18 If not, we have no objection.

19 THE COURT: It is already in evidence.

20 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Okay. So you took them, Skip Sheppard
21 and Frank Sheppard, where, again? I'm sorry.

22 A. Down the street, down on Hickman Mills Drive.

23 Q. And were they cutting grass then?

24 A. Yes.

25 THE COURT: When was this, please?

1 THE WITNESS: The exact date I -

2 THE COURT: Not the exact date, but at least a
3 year.

4 THE WITNESS: In '91.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Would that be obviously in the summer,
7 then, of 1991?

8 A. It was pretty much getting towards fall, summer, fall.
9 It was still warm outside.

10 Q. What happened, then, later that day?

11 . I took them over to one house. I would say it was 12 robably a mile, mile and a half away from their house. And 13 Frank went in for a while, come out. First a lady opened the 14 door, which at the time it was a heavier set woman with kind
15 of blandish curly hair.

16 Q. Were you told who that was?

17 A. At the time I didn't know who it was.

18 Q. Did you later learn who it was?

19 A. Sure, it was that lady sitting right there.

20 MR. BECKER: Indicating defendant Darlene Edwards,
21 Your Honor.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Who is now standing; is that correct?

24 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes, sir.

25 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) After Frank Sheppard visited that

1 house, did you drive around some more?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Was there any discussion of the explosion that killed
4 the six firemen?

5 A. The first discussion of it was in the house.

6 Q. All right. Tell me about that, please.

7 A. Frank asked me if I heard about what they was trying to
8 put on him. And I said, yeah, I heard a little bit about it.

9 THE COURT: Who asked you, please?

10 THE WITNESS: Frank.

11 Q. Frank?

12 A. Yeah, at that time I said, yeah, I heard a little bit
13 about it, but I hadn't really heard that much. Really
14 didn't -

15 Q. Had you read about the explosion in the newspaper?

16 A. Sure. It rocked our house.

17 Q. So after you're driving around in the car, was there
18 more discussion?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. Who was in the car?

21 A. Frank and Skip.

22 Q. Where was Frank Sheppard in the car?

23 A. Frank was in the front seat.

24 Q. You were driving?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Where was skip Sheppard?

2 A. Back seat.

3 Q. What kind of car was it?

4 A. It was an '82 Riviera.

5 Q. Your car; is that right?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Was there any more discussion about the explosion while
8 you three, Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and yourself, were 9 driving around in the car?

10 A. Sure.

11 Q. Tell us about it, please.

12 A. They was telling me how they'd been down there stealing, 13 you know, anything that wasn't nailed down. You know, they 14 took, because at the time -- actually, right now you're 15 seeing some very clean men, very -

16 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I'm going to object.

17 Q. Mr. Kilgore -

18 A. I'm trying to explain this the best way I can.

19 MR. PETERS: Objection.

20 THE COURT: What is the objection?

21 MR. PETERS: May we approach?

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
24 proceedings were had:)

25 MR. PETERS: The witness says, actually, now you're

1 seeing some very clean men.

2 THE COURT: Yeah? Why is that objectionable?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, the implication he's trying
4 to make is they're all cleaned up for court, these are people
5 that steal and do things. It's self-serving. It's making
6 statements not to a question.

MR. BECKER: I think I could properly ask did they 8 look like this back in 1991.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Yeah, without question, you can ask
10 that.

11 THE COURT: Ask that.

12 MR. BECKER: Sure.

13 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

14 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Mr. Kilgore, back in 1991, did Frank
15 Sheppard and Skip Sheppard look like this?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. How did they, what was the difference between then and
18 now?

19 A. Then -- Frank has gained a lot of weight. Skipper is a
20 lot cleaner.

21 THE COURT: He's what?

22 A. Frank's hair is cut, a lot cleaner looking. Actually,
23 he looks very healthy.

24 Q. When you were driving around, then, in your car in 1991
25 in the summer, into the fall of 1991, you told us that Skip

1 Sheppard and Frank Sheppard said they went to the 2 construction site to steal anything that -

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. What was said after that?

5 A. Also, they was going down there -- they had a security
6 guard that was allowing them to take things. They'd known
7 him for a while. They was actually down there to burn the 8 truck and loot the place.

9 Q. Did they tell you, did Skip Sheppard or Frank Sheppard
10 tell you what happened when they were at the construction
11 site?

12 A. Sure. They set the truck on fire. They was just 13 rummaging through things, accidentally set the shed on fire
14 was when they left.

15 Q. They set a shed, they said, on fire?

16 A. It was in a shack.

17 Q. Did Frank Sheppard or Skip Sheppard say how they got to 18 the site?

19 A. Walked.

20 Q. Did Frank Sheppard or Skip Sheppard say if they heard an
21 explosion?

22 A. Yes. When they got up to the Four Acres Motel. Because 23 Frank kind of laughed how it blew him down to the ground.

24 Q. Did Frank Sheppard say anything about the firemen?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What did he say?

2 A. His exact words?

3 Q. Yes, please.

4 A. This is their own Fucking fault, they shouldn't have
5 been there.

6 Q. Did you that day, then, go back to the Sheppard
7 residence on Hickman Mills Drive?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What happened when you got back to the Sheppard house?

10 A. He was out in the garage, started showing me some
11 equipment.

12 Q. Now, on this photograph, Government's Exhibit 318,
13 there's a garage door here on the left. Is there something
14 other than just a car area there in the -

15 A. Just like a little laundry room in the back, it had a
16 little add-on addition to the back of the house.

17 Q. What happened when you got back to the house, then?

18 A. They started showing me some stuff. He handed me a
19 Motorola radio.

20 Q. Slow down.

21 A. Started showing me all kinds of tools, equipment, he had 22 extension cords.

23 Q. Where was this?

24 A. In the garage, some of it was back in the laundry room.

25 The radio he got from back behind the dryer.

1 Q. Who got it from behind the dryer?

2 A. Frank did.

3 Q. Did you, what was the purpose in showing you this stuff?

4 A. I was going to buy it. He wanted to sell it to me. And
5 with the type of radio, being in electronics, I wouldn't
6 touch that radio for anything.

7 Q. Why?

8 A. It was a police radio.

9 Q. Was there a price that you -

10 A. Twenty-five bucks.

11 Q. Now, you told us you've heard about this case, you know,
12 you remember the explosion itself. When did you ever come
13 forward with the information that you testified to here
14 today?

15 A. In '95.

16 Q. Why did you wait?

17 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what did you say, sir?

18 THE WITNESS: '95.

19 Q. That would be 1995?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Why did you wait four years before coming forward with
22 this information?

23 A. This is my family. They're all family.

24 THE COURT: What did you say, your family?

25 A. My family, they're my family, you know. It was a little

1 bit of a betrayal factor I had. You know, I love these men,
2 you know. I know they didn't do it intentionally, but if it
3 wasn't for my wife and actually the media showing the little
4 kids, you know, I probably would have kept my mouth shut
5 forever.

6 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at this
7 time.

8 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

9 MR. PETERS: May it please the court?

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 -- -- --

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 By Mr. Peters:

14 Q. Mr. Kilgore, my name is Pat Peters, and I represent
15 Frank Sheppard.

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Your purpose in going over in 1991, you testified, was 18 because you wanted to get a headstone for their brother
19 Phillip who you had accidentally shot; is that right?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Did you ever get that headstone?

22 A. Not yet. I've had kids that's had problems. I have 23 kids that come from a loss of a parent. My niece and nephew,
24 me and my wife adopted them, and they have cost us so much
25 money, especially -- they're at a little bit older age, now

1 that they're teenagers. But, yes, sir, there will be one on
2 there very likely this year.

3 Q. 1991, you didn't look like you do now, did you?

4 A. Basically, yes, sir.

5 Q. Were you using crackcocaine at that time, sir?

6 A. No, sir. Never have.

7 Q. Now, your testimony is that, referring to Naomi
8 Sheppard's house on Plaintiff's Exhibit 318, that you went to 9 a, an add-on addition to the back of the garage; is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes, sir. There's a laundry room added on to the back
12 of the garage.

13 Q. So you walk around?

14 A. No.

15 Q. How do you get to it?

16 A. It's part of it.

17 Q. Describe where it is, sir.

18 A. If you walk straight back through the back of the 19 garage, you'll walk right into it.

20 Q. Where is it in the garage?

21 A. The way the house sits, it would be the east side.

22 Q. And how big of a room is this add-on?

23 A. About big enough for a washer and dryer.

24 Q. And at that time, is it Frank Sheppard that is showing
25 you items?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. That, your testimony is, he told you were stolen from
3 the construction site?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And I'd like to go over those items with you. He told
6 you that from this construction site at the explosion they
7 had -

8 A. He didn't say the explosion.

9 Q. He said the construction site?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is your testimony that you had no idea where the 12 equipment came from?

13 A. Technically, I know it come from down there. I don't
14 know if it was before the explosion or after. This wasn't a
15 one-time deal they was down there at the construction site.

16 Q. He showed you Motorola radios from the construction
17 site?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Sir, you'll need to wait until I finish my question.

20 A. Oh.

21 Q. He showed you Motorola radios that were stolen from the 22 construction site; is that correct?

23 A. He didn't say stolen from the construction site. They 24 come from the construction site.

25 Q. Was your impression that he had purchased these items

1 from the construction site and that's why he was offering to
2 sell them to you?

3 A. I don't know if he stole them or it was given to him.

4 Q. Did he tell you that he had extension cords from the
5 construction site?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How many, how long of extension cords?

8 A. They're hundred foot cords, three or four of them.

9 Q. Did he tell you that he had saws from the construction
10 site?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Did he tell you that he had drills from the construction
13 site?

14 A. He had all kinds of equipment from the construction
15 site. Jackhammers.

16 Q. Did he tell you that he had drills from the construction
17 site?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did he specifically show you two Motorola radios from
20 the construction site?

21 A. He showed me one.

22 Q. Did he show you several saws from the construction site?

23 A. No, not several.

24 Q. Did he show you concrete saws from the construction
25 site?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did he show you acetylene torches from the construction
3 site?

4 A. He had a set of torches there.

5 Q. Did he show you hammers from the construction site?

6 A. I don't know if they was from the construction site. A
7 lot of this -- once he said some of it come from the 8 construction site, I figured most of it did.

9 Q. Did he show you sledgehammers from the construction
10 site?

11 A. Yes, he showed me sledgehammers. He had one.

12 Q. How long have you known Frank Sheppard?

13 A. Since I've been five years old.

14 Q. Anytime he's introduced himself to you or other people,
15 he introduces himself by Frank Sheppard, doesn't he?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. He doesn't go by George Sheppard, does he?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Your testimony is that Frank Sheppard told you they 20 walked to the site; is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. PETERS: Excuse me, Your Honor.

23 Q. Your further testimony is that Frank Sheppard told you
24 that they had walked down to the Four Acres Motel, and that's 25 where they were -

1 A. They got to the Four Acres Motel. They hadn't walked
2 down there. They ran.

3 Q. They had got to the Four Acres Motel?

4 A. When the blast occurred.

5 Q. And that it knocked Frank off his feet; is that correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. I'm going to show you what has been marked as

8 Defendant's Exhibit No. 1, and I doubt that you've seen this 9 before. This is going to be an aerial photograph that -

10 MR. BECKER: Excuse me.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: We suggest that you use the easel so
12 the jury can see it.

13 MR. BECKER: He can ask him if he recognizes it.

14 THE COURT: Let him look at it. If he doesn't 15 recognize it, then it's no good to him. I think this is the 16 situation where the jury, one of the jurors, anyway, had some 17 concern about not being able to see. So I don't know what 18 adjustment you're going to make.

19 A. It shows the blast site.

20 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) And you recognize 71 Highway as shown
21 on this diagram?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And the QuikTrip that's on one end of the diagram?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And if we use this diagram, will it aid you in

1 describing to the jury where Four Acres Motel is, although
2 it's not pictured on this diagram?

3 A. No, it would be up here more, I would say probably maybe
4 half a mile from there.

5 THE COURT: Let the record reflect that the witness
6 is indicating above and to the left of the edge of the 7 diagram; is that right, counsel?

8 MR. PETERS: That would be correct, Your Honor.
9 And with the Court's permission, I'd like to have him stand
10 down. I'll move this over a little bit.

11 MR. BECKER: Is this in evidence?

12 MR. PETERS: Yes, this is Defendant's Exhibit No.
13 1. Sir, could you stand down?

14 THE COURT: How much cord have you got on that 15 mike? I think there's enough.

16 THE WITNESS: I've got plenty.

17 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, it's -- and if you would 18 stand over on this side, and I'll stand over here out of the 19 way.

20 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) We're going to need to have you keep 21 your voice up. And if you would for the jury indicate where 22 you understand the blast site to have been.

23 A. I would imagine right here, sir.

24 Q. And for the jury's benefit, would you show them, would
25 you show them 71 Highway?

1 A. 71 Highway.

2 Q. And on that picture, can you see a QuikTrip?

3 A. Yes, sir, right here.

4 MR. PETERS: And for the record, witness is
5 indicating the upper left portion of Defendant's Exhibit No.

6 1. Judge, I only have one more question.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Never mind.

8 Q. Further beyond that QuikTrip, can you describe for the 9 jury how much farther north beyond the QuikTrip Four Acres
10 Motel is?

11 A. About 2,000 feet, not even half a mile.

12 Q. About a half a mile?

13 A. Yeah, if that.

14 Q. You can take your seat.

15 A. From this picture, QuikTrip ain't but a half mile from 16 the blast site.

17 Q. And your testimony is that Frank Sheppard told you that
18 when they had walked to Four Acres Motel near that location,
19 the blast blew him off his feet; is that correct?

20 A. Yes, they didn't walk, they ran.

21 Q. Frank, your testimony is that Frank Sheppard told you
22 that he ran from the blast site to the Four Acres Motel?

23 A. When you actually get down there and run it, it's not 24 that far, sir.

25 Q. My question, sir, was Frank Sheppard told you that he

1 ran from the area of the blast site to the Four Acres Motel.

2 A. Yes.

3 THE COURT: That's not a question, counsel.

4 Q. Did Frank Sheppard tell you that he ran -

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Sir, isn't it true that following this discussion
7 sometime in 1991 that you've told the jury about, the first
8 time you had contact with the authorities was in February of 9 1995?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Have you seen the Unsolved Mvsteries segment regarding 12 the blast and explosion?

13 A. Yeah.

14 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Hunt?

16 -- -- --

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 By Ms. Hunt:

19 Q. Mr. Kilgore, my name is Susan Hunt, I represent Skip
20 Sheppard.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What's your educational background?

23 A. Ma ~ Argo, I have a G. E. D.

24 Q. And what kind of training -- you said you're an 25 electronic engineer?

1 A. Yes, for 15 years.

2 Q. What kind of training did you have to get that career?

3 A. I've been to courses at DeVry and on-the-job training
4 through OEC Communications.

5 Q. Do you remember talking to the authorities on three
6 different occasions about this case?

7 A. I haven't said that. I talked to the ATF, and then to 8 the grand jury.

9 Q. Do you remember talking to an Officer Emerson?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is he with the ATF, as far as your knowledge is?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did you talk to him twice?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Once, the first time he called you on the telephone?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then I assume you agreed to meet him later?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you talked to him, I think that first conversation
20 was February 13th, and then the second conversation was 21 February 14th; does that sound right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then you testified in front of the grand jury? Do
24 you remember talking to a Mark Reeder?

25 A. An investigator?

- 1 Q. Yes.
- 2 A. Yes.
- 3 Q. And you talked to him this year?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. In July?
- 6 A. Yes.
- 7 THE COURT: Whose investigator is he?
- 8 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Do you know?
- 9 A. I guess for Richard Brown.
- 10 Q. And when Mark Reeder talked to -
- 11 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, he works for me as a
- 12 court-appointed investigator.
- 13 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) When you talked to Mr. Reeder, did he
- 14 have a tape recording device?
- 15 A. Yes.
- 16 Q. And he recorded your conversation?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. Okay. And the first time you talked to, or the second
- 19 time you talked to Detective Emerson or Officer Emerson, it
- 20 was a sworn statement, wasn't it?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. It was in question and answer format; is that right?
- 23 A. Yes.
- 24 Q. And you signed -- after they had typed it up, you signed
- 25 it?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you reviewed it prior to signing it?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And in that statement, didn't you say, didn't you
5 tell Detective Emerson or Officer Emerson that Frank wanted
6 you to take him to buy crack?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You didn't tell him he wanted you to take him to mow a
9 yard, did you?

10 A. Yes. Before that, yes, I took him right down to mow
11 this yard right down the street.

12 Q. But you didn't tell Detective Emerson that, did you?

13 A. I really don't remember, but I'm sure I did.

14 Q. I'm going to hand you -- I should mark this.

15 THE COURT: Now, counsel, he's not responsible for 16 what Detective Emerson wrote down.

17 MS. HUNT: It's a signed sworn statement of his.

18 THE COURT: That it includes everything that he 19 told him?

20 MS. HUNT: That's what we're going to find out.
21 That's what I'm going to ask him.

22 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
23 proceedings were had:)

24 THE COURT: What in this statement is inconsistent
25 with what he has said here?

1 MS. HUNT: He doesn't say that Skip was with him,
2 in the statement he doesn't say he went to mow a yard, he
3 said it was Frank. Now he's testifying it's Frank and Skip.
4 He didn't mention Skip.

5 THE COURT: He's indicated he's not even talking
6 about the same time.

7 MR. BECKER: Out of an abundance of caution, I
8 didn't -- when he said in his direct testimony cutting the 9 lawn and then he takes Frank and Skip somewhere else and 10 Frank goes into a house and sees Darlene, comes back out,
11 they bought crackand, you know, I'm trying to tone it down a
12 little bit.

13 But apparently the defendants are going to get into 14 it anyway, so I don't have any objection to him getting into 15 it. I don't think this is inconsistent.

16 MR. PETERS: I do.

17 THE COURT: What's your objection?

18 MR. BECKER: That's what they did, so -

19 MR. PETERS: My objection is that, eliciting
20 testimony that my client was buying or smoking crack.

21 THE COURT: I thought he said Frank went into the 22 crackhouse.

23 MR. BECKER: That's his client.

24 THE COURT: That is your client.

25 MS. HUNT: That's Skip, right.

1 THE COURT: Sometimes you just have to bear up and
2 face reality, Mr. Peters. Maybe that's what's going to come
3 out in the testimony.

4 MR. PETERS: Well, I still have a right to object
5 because it's irrelevant and inadmissible and its prejudicial
6 effect outweighs its probative value, particularly in a case
7 like this where the government didn't elicit it and it's 8 being elicited by a defense counsel with interests adverse to 9 mine.

10 THE COURT: All right. It's overruled.

11 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

12 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) I'm going to hand you what's been marked
13 Defendant's Exhibit 3 for identification, ask you to look at 14 that and see if you can identify this.

15 MR. BECKER: I'm sorry, but I think we're well
16 beyond 3.

17 MS. HUNT: I think we are too, but -

18 LAW CLERK: I marked it as 3, Your Honor, because 19 that's the list I'm keeping.

20 MS. HUNT: It's probably more like 13.

21 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Have you read this recently?

22 A. Probably about when I come in for an interview once.

23 Q. Do you know when roughly that was?

24 A. Four days ago.

25 Q. So you're probably familiar with this?

1 A. Yes.

2 THE COURT: Is this Exhibit 3? Who said we're
3 beyond 3? What will it be?

4 LAW CLERK: 11.

5 THE COURT: The exhibit will be marked Defendant's
6 Exhibit 11.

7 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Mr. Kilgore, in this statement do you
8 say anything about taking Frank to go mow a yard? If you'd 9 like to read it, I'll give it to you again.

10 A. No.

11 Q. You don't say that, do you?

12 A. No, because they didn't ask me that. All they asked me
13 was how I got the story. At the first they didn't ask me to 14 sit there and tell them every communication with them, every 15 time I seen them, every time you're with someone.

16 Q. But I believe your testimony on direct was you got the 17 story the day you took Frank and Skip to mow a yard; isn't
18 that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you don't say anything about mowing the yard in the 21 statement, do you?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Phillip Sheppard is the brother that died; is that
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And this occurred, you were involved; is that right?

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. You were playing with the gun, weren't you?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You were holding the gun that shot Phillip in the face,
6 weren't you?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And it was at your house, wasn't it?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you didn't see these people for 20 years after that,
11 did you?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You weren't close family, were you?

14 A. At one point we were, ma'am.

15 Q. When you were 15 years old; is that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then after the untimely death of Phillip Sheppard,
18 you didn't see them, did you?

19 A. I was afraid, ma'am.

20 Q. You were afraid of them?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You weren't afraid that they were angry that you were 23 responsible for their brother's death?

24 A. At the time I knew they wasn't angry. It was something
25 that I had to deal with. You know, you take a person's life,

1 it's very traumatic to a little kid. It's something no
2 little kid should have to go through.

3 Q. You were 15, weren't you?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You weren't a little kid, were you?

6 A. Yes, ma'am, I was.

7 THE COURT: Don't argue with him about what's a
8 little kid, Miss Hunt.

9 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You were 15 years old?

10 A. Ma ~ am, I was a young child.

11 Q. Do you remember talking to Mark Reeder?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You do? That was in July of this year; is that correct?

14 A. Could you repeat the question, please?

15 Q. Do you remember talking to Mark Reeder in July of this 16 year?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And he's an investigator, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And he had a tape recorder, and he recorded your 21 statement, didn't he?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And did you tell Mark Reeder that you took Frank and 24 Skip to visit Phillip's grave?

25 A. I've taken them and drove by the grave. I've taken

1 Naomi to the grave. I've taken the kids to the grave.

2 Q. My question is did you tell Mark Reeder you took Frank
3 and skip to the grave?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And did you tell him you took them to the grave the same
6 time that this conversation occurred?

7 A. It was in the same day.

8 Q. The same day in this ride you had with them?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is that correct? And did you say you were afraid to go
11 to the grave with them?

12 A. I didn't tell him I was really afraid. I just said it
13 was an uncomfortable situation.

14 Q. You told Detective -

15 A. Ma ' am, I want to state one thing.

16 THE COURT: Excuse me, sir, just answer questions.

17 THE WITNESS: Okay.

18 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You told Detective Emerson or Officer
19 Emerson about the items that you allegedly saw in the 20 Sheppard garage; is that right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. We went through that whole list of items earlier?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Were those items recovered by a search warrant, to your 25 knowledge?

1 A. Not that I know of.

2 Q. Did anybody ever tell you that?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you testify in front of a grand jury that you knew
5 they were recovered by a search warrant?

6 A. I don't remember if I did.

7 Q. Do you remember testifying in the grand jury?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you were under oath; is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. I may be wrong. It may be Mark Reeder. Do you remember
12 telling Mark Reeder they were recovered by a search warrant?

13 THE COURT: Now, I'm sorry, what is it you're 14 asking him?

15 MS. HUNT: If he remembers telling Mark Reeder, or 16 the investigator, if those items that he observed allegedly 17 in the Sheppard garage were recovered by a search warrant.

18 THE COURT: How would he know that?

19 MS. HUNT: I'm asking him if he told Mark Reeder
20 that.

21 THE COURT: Just a minute, please. I don't 22 understand the materiality of that, that he thought they were
23 recovered by a search warrant. What difference does it 24 make?

25 MS. HUNT: May we come up?

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MS. HUNT: Because he said they were, and there was
4 no search warrant. It's false information.

5 MR. BECKER: I think the witness is thoroughly
6 confused now because he's been cross-examined and asked did
7 you tell this to the grand jury.

8 MS. HUNT: I know. And I'm trying to change that,
9 and I will.

10 MR. BECKER: There's nothing in his grand jury
11 testimony about that at all. Now, in this there are some 12 references about the search warrant, but I think it comes 13 more from the investigator than the -

14 THE COURT: What is this?

15 MR. BECKER: This is a transcript of a
16 tape-recorded conversation with this witness done by Mr. -

17 THE COURT: Reeder?

18 MR. BECKER: Yes, on behalf of Mr. Osgood.

19 MS. HUNT: That we just received.

20 MR. OSGOOD: Now -

21 MR. BECKER: And it's my impression, and what I
22 remember about that statement is that somehow between the two
23 of them, they got this search warrant executed, meaning
24 Reeder and this witness, but I'm not sure that this witness
25 comes right out and says, "I know that there was a search

1 warrant and this stuff was recovered." But I mean, it didn't
2 happen, so -

3 THE COURT: Was there a search warrant?

4 MS. HUNT: No.

5 THE COURT: Why are we messing around with that?

6 MS. HUNT: Because he's got information that didn't 7 happen, he supposedly knows things that didn't occur, because
8 I think it impeaches his credibility.

9 THE COURT: Where does the search warrant come
10 from, where does the subject of the search warrant come
11 from?

12 MS. HUNT: It's discussed in that statement.

13 THE COURT: Who brought it up, Reeder?

14 MS. HUNT: I don't have it in front of me.

15 THE COURT: I don't have any confidence in these 16 people like Reeder, so I've got to tell you, I'm going to be
17 very suspicious of anything that generates out of Reeder's
18 contact with this case. I'm really concerned about this 19 reference to a search warrant that he didn't testify to on 20 direct. I think I'll sustain the objection on the grounds
21 that it's beyond the scope.

22 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, in defense of Mr. Reeder,
23 he works for me, he's a former Kansas City, Missouri, Police
24 Department -

25 THE COURT: I thought you said he worked for the

1 Court by appointment.

2 MR. OSGOOD: I'm supervising him, the Court is
3 paying him, obviously. He's worked for the Court before. If 4 you look at the statements he's taken in this case, quite
5 frankly, some of them hurt us, and I turned them over, even 6 though they hurt us. He's been objective and fair and, quite
7 frankly, I think the Court's comment about him is unfair.

8 THE COURT: Then why this business about a search
9 warrant that didn't exist?

10 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Kilgore contacted me on his own by 11 the telephone and asked me to have his investigator come out
12 and talk to him because he was concerned that my client was 13 indicted because he told them at the time that my client
14 didn't have anything to do with it, that it was the 15 Sheppards. That's what generated my interview with him
16 through my detective, and my detective has been doing a good
17 job in this case and has been honorable.

18 THE COURT: I'm concerned about this search warrant
19 reference.

20 MR. OSGOOD: The other point is my investigator was 21 making tapes, and I gave the tapes early on to the 22 prosecution and to the co-counsel. I turned the tapes over
23 to Mr. Bowen's court reporter service. I only got them back
24 day before yesterday. As soon as I got them back, I've given
25 copies of the transcripts.

1 MR. BECKER: That's absolutely accurate.

2 THE COURT: Let's lay off of the search warrant
3 business until it's demonstrated what we're talking about.
4 Did somebody get a search warrant?

5 MS. HUNT: Nobody did, that I'm aware of.

6 THE COURT: Why are they talking about it?

7 MS. HUNT: Because my recollection is, I have to 8 look at this, that he says it was received by a search
9 warrant, and it's not. Well, here.

10 Do you know -- "do you know if they ever recovered
11 the stuff that you're talking about?"

12 "Yes."

13 "And when did they do that?"

14 "I really don't know, just when I testified they 15 asked me about the stuff."

16 "Testified in front of the grand jury?"

17 "Yes."

18 And then it says it later again.

19 THE COURT: Where is the search warrant?

20 MS. HUNT: There are other references in here. I
21 don't have them off the top of my head, the page numbers.

22 MR. BECKER: Again, I don't have it annotated,
23 either. It's my impression that this is consistent with his
24 testimony. They asked me about the property when I came 25 before the grand jury. I mean, was it recovered. I don't

1 know. That's what he says.

2 MS. HUNT: Yes is what he says.

3 THE COURT: Now, do you know if they ever went and
4 recovered this stuff that you're talking about here? If
5 they, who is they, ever went and recovered this stuff. I
6 guess he identifies that that you're talking about here. He 7 answers yes.

8 And when did they do that? Answer, I really don't 9 know. Just when I testified they, I guess, again, they means
10 the grand jury, asked about the stuff.

11 MS. HUNT: I think later on he specifically says
12 Emerson told him. I think later on he specifically says
13 Emerson told him he recovered all of this stuff. Emerson is 14 the officer he talked to.

15 THE COURT: But I don't think -- see, I don't 16 understand what all this has to do with why we're here. So
17 what?

18 MS. HUNT: Because he didn't have a search warrant.

19 THE COURT: But what does that mean?

20 MS. HUNT: In here it says, he says that they
21 recovered the stuff, and that's not true.

22 THE COURT: Well, they could have just gone out and 23 gotten it. Somebody could have just gone out and gotten it.
24 That doesn't mean there was a search warrant.

25 MS. HUNT: There wasn't any stuff, that's our

1 position, so they didn't get it.

2 THE COURT: Well, I think it's immaterial, and I'm
3 going to sustain objection to it. I just don't -- we're
4 getting way far afield here if there's no search warrant.

5 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, very briefly, I'd like
6 some direction from the Court. The Court was pointing at a
7 transcription of a tape recording prepared by an 8 investigator, and the Court said that it had a great deal of 9 trouble with this stuff from these types of people, and I'm 10 curious if you can give any guidance. The statements that 11 the defense has used have been either court reporter
12 statements or tape-recorded statements, and that's balanced
13 against the narrative summary interviews of the government.
14 Can the Court offer any suggestion of what we could do that
15 would not cause the Court -

16 THE COURT: I'll just deal with them one by one.
17 My concern is that these people are not officers of the 18 Court. They're not subject to supervision of the Court as 19 lawyers are. They're not subject to any discipline except 20 what they impose on themselves and is imposed on them by the 21 law generally, and they'll -- I just am suspicious basically
22 of what they produce. They're, there were some errors.

23 MR. PETERS: Does the suspicion -- so that I know,
24 so the same sort of suspicion goes to an investigator that's 25 working for the government that's not under the supervision

1 of the Court?

2 THE COURT: I am concerned about professional
3 investigators generally, that's right, that are not under the 4 constraints that I just mentioned.

5 MR. PETERS: Okay. Okay. Thank you.

6 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

7 THE COURT: I suppose I should insert the word
8 independent professional.

9 MR. PETERS: May we approach?

10 MR. BECKER: Perhaps we could take this up at a
11 break.

12 MR. PETERS: That would be fine.

13 THE COURT: The word is pretty clear, it seems to 14 me, it doesn't apply to those who are not independent. All
15 right.

16 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Mr. Kilgore, when you gave this 17 statement under oath to Detective Emerson in February of '95,
18 do you remember that -

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- statement I showed you earlier?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. When you testified here on direct, you stated that Frank 23 told you he was working with the security guard, didn't he?

24 A. He had a deal with the security guard to overlook it.

25 Q. Right. And that security guard -

1 A. Somebody he knew.

2 Q. I have to ask the question first before you answer.

3 He knew a security guard down there who allowed him
4 to go to the property to steal; isn't that what you said?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And didn't you also say that he was doing an insurance
7 job on that security guard's truck?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And did you identify which security guard it was to the 10 officers when they talked to you?

11 A. Not really. They kept on calling -- Frank referred to 12 him as a stupid Polack. Mr. Emerson gave me the name
13 LeManske, if that's what you're referring to. That's where I
14 got the name because I figured, well, yeah, right, that is a
15 Polish name.

16 Q. I'm going to show you your statement again.

17 A. Right. The ski.

18 Q. Which is Defendant's Exhibit 11. And does Detective
19 Emerson ask you a series of names and see if you know those 20 names?

21 MR. BECKER: Again, I don't think counsel -

22 THE COURT: Why are we doing this? There's no
23 failure of recollection, there's no past recollection
24 recorded. Take it back from him.

25 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Do you remember telling Officer Emerson

1 that the security guard that Frank supposedly had this deal
2 I with was Officer LeManske?

3 A. After he gave me the name, because like I told him, it
4 sounds Polish, so that could be it.

5 Q. And do you remember telling Mark Reeder when he talked
6 to you and took this tape-recorded conversation that the 7 security guard was LeManske?

8 A. Yes, but there was an hour before the recording went on 9 that was not even put in the record what was even talked
10 about.

11 Q. But you're telling about the same person?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you said that this Officer LeManske was in cahoots
14 with Frank and would let him come down there and steal, is 15 that right, turn his back?

16 A. Yes. Because actually they kept on giving me the names,
17 Mr. Reeder did, Mr. Emerson did, so that's where I came up
18 with the name LeManske because they kept on referring to him
19 as a Polack, ma'am, so would you think the man's name would 20 be Polish?

21 Q. Listen to my question before you start answering. Did
22 Frank allegedly tell you that he was down there that night to 23 do an insurance job on this man's truck?

24 A. Yes, he was to set it on fire.

25 Q. Did he tell you he set it on fire?

- 1 A. Yes, he did.
- 2 IQ And this was security guard LeManske's truck?
- 3 A. Whoever was on duty that night, it was their truck.
- 4 Q. And then he said he went to a shack; is that right?
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. And in this shack they were going to steal things; is
- 7 that correct?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q And Skip was with him; is that correct?
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q And they sat in the shack and they watched this Officer
- 12 LeManske's truck burn; is that correct?
- 13 A. They wasn't watching it really burn, they was trying to
- 14 get anything they could get.
- 15 Q. Did they see the truck from the shack?
- 16 A. I really don't know.
- 17 Q. And they had a lantern with them; is that right?
- 18 A. They had a lantern, they had some type of light.
- 19 Q. What kind of a lantern was it? Did he tell you?
- 20 A. No.
- 21 Q. Was it a lantern that had a flame in it?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. And he supposedly told you that skip accidentally
- 24 knocked the lamp over; is that right?
- 25 A. Yes, they accidentally knocked it over.

- 1 Q. Tripped over it?
- 2 A. Yes.
- 3 Q. And that lantern was in the shack; is that right?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. And so it set the shack on fire; is that correct?
- 6 A. Yes.
- 7 Q. And then they ran; is that correct?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. And when they ran, they were carrying these extension
10 cords, these drills, those acetylene torches?
- 11 A. No, they had been down there before. As I told you,
12 this wasn't a one-time deal. They were trying to get what 13 they could carry. At the time when the fire started, they 14 just dropped what they got and took off.
- 15 Q. So Frank said they dropped whatever they were going to 16 steal and left it there?
- 17 A. Ma'am, what would you do if a fire was going on?
- 18 THE COURT: Just answer your question, sir.
- 19 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) He told you when the fire started and 20 they had to leave, they just dropped what they were going to 21 steal and ran?
- 22 A. Just ran. They didn't say what they did, if they 23 dropped anything. They just said they ran.
- 24 Q. I believe you testified that they dropped it and ran.
- 25 A. Just a second ago I said dropped it and ran, but what

1 they had in her hands, I'm sure they dropped it and run.

2 Q. Now, let's talk just for a second about this compartment

3 in the Sheppards' house. Is it an add-on room, does it have

4 like a door and walls?

5 A. It has walls.

6 Q. Okay. Let me draw a little diagram for us on this board

7 down here.

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. Would you step down here, sir?

10 (so done.)

11 Q. Why don't you draw on this a picture of the garage and 12 this room.

13 (So done.)

14 A. Garage doors.

15 THE COURT: Just a minute, please.

16 A. This is the garage.

17 THE COURT: Just a minute, Mr. Kilgore. When you

18 talk back there, use the microphone, please.

19 A. This is the garage right here.

20 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Okay. What is this part, label this

21 part.

22 A. This is the inside of the house.

23 Q. Okay. Put on here where the front door is. Okay. Now,

24 where is this added-on room?

25 A. Right back here to the back of the house. Here is the

1 patio and the back yard, and here is the back yard. It's not
2 very big. It's just a small, no wider than this right here.
3 It's just enough for a washer and dryer and all the plumbing
4 and the -

5 Q. So it's not actually in the garage; is that right?

6 A. No, it's an add-on to the house.

7 Q. Behind the garage; is that right?

8 . Yes, the opening goes underneath the house to the crawl
9 space and everything.

10 MS. HUNT: Your Honor, I'm going to mark this
11 diagram as Defendant's Exhibit 12.

12 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Do you feel like you helped the police
13 in this investigation by your talking to them?

14 MR. BECKER: Objection, argumentative.

15 THE COURT: Also calls for an opinion and it's 16 immaterial. Sustained.

17 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You didn't come forward with this 18 information, the police contacted you; is that correct?

19 A. No. I come forward with it.

20 Q. Who did you talk to?

21 A. Detective Emerson.

22 Q. You called Detective Emerson?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How did you find his phone number?

25 A. I called the ATF.

1 Q. Did you watch Unsolved Mysteries?

2 A. Yes, I've watched it.

3 Q. Is that where you got the phone number for ATF?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Are you aware there's an award out for this?

6 A. Yes, I understand there's a reward for it.

7 Q. Did you watch Unsolved MYsteries just within a few days
8 before coming forward?

9 A. No, I don't think I did, not just a few days.

10 Q. A week?

11 A. Probably a month or so.

12 Q. A month or so. You watched that, and then you called
13 ATF and got ahold of Detective Emerson somehow through ATF?

14 A. Ma'am, I had a wife, I had children. If you -

15 Q. Sir.

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry, sir, just answer the 17 question, please.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) But you knew this information the summer
20 of '91; is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And it was February of '95 when you talked to the ATF;
23 is that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 MS. HUNT: I'd like to offer Defendant's Exhibit 12

1 into evidence, Your Honor.

2 MR. BECKER: No objection.

3 MS. HUNT: That's all we have.

4 THE COURT: All right. It's admitted. I'm sorry.

5 I should see from the other defense counsel, any objection to 6 12?

7 MR. O'CONNOR: No, sir.

8 MR. PETERS: None, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 (Defendants' Exhibit 12 was admitted
into
11 evidence.)

12 THE COURT: Who is next?

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I have no questions.

14 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Your Honor.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Just a couple, Your Honor.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 By Mr. Osgood:

19 Q. Mr. Kilgore, I'm John Osgood. I represent Mr. Brown.

20 You and I have spoken on the phone -

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. -- once, maybe twice, but we've never met; is that
23 correct?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. How is it that Mr. Reeder came out to interview you?

1 A. I called because, well, Frank told me his story. He
2 never mentioned your client's name.

3 Q. Mr. Brown?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And do you know Mr. Brown?

6 A. No, I really don't know him from anybody.

7 Q. And his name never came up?

8 . No.

9 . One other question. In your grand jury transcript, I
10 think they asked you about other people, and you say an 11 Italian fellow was involved. Do you know the name Dimaggio?
12 Have you ever heard that name?

13 . No, I never said an Italian fellow. I said a Polish
14 because they referred to him as a Polack.

15 Q. Well, let me -- Page 11 of your grand jury transcript,
16 maybe if you'll take a look at this, it will refresh your
17 memory a little bit.

18 THE COURT: Just ask him did he give this question
19 and did he give this answer.

20 Q. All right. On page, starting on Page 10, were you asked
21 this question?

22 Did Frank say anything about other persons being
23 along besides -- well, I'll withdraw the question.

24 Do you know the name Dimaggio?

25 A. Joe Dimaggio.

1 Q. okay. You do know a Joe Dimaggio?

2 A. The baseball player.

3 Q. Okay. You've never heard the name before, though?

4 A. No.

5 MR. OSGOOD: That's all.

6 THE COURT: All right. Anybody else? Redirect?

7 MR. BECKER: Very briefly, Judge.

8 — — —

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 By Mr. Becker:

11 Q. Mr. Kilgore, you testified just a few minutes ago that 12 you watched this Unsolved Mysteries thing on TV; is that
13 right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you remember in that program, did it mention the 16 names of any of these Sheppard people at all?

17 A. No.

18 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. You may step down. Thank
20 you, sir.

21 Call your next witness.

22 MR. BECKER: Judge, I think if we could take a, our 23 morning break now, the next witness is being brought up by 24 the marshals. It may take a few minutes.

25 THE COURT: All right. Folks, we will, then, take

1 our morning break. Don't talk about the case while we're in
2 recess, and you may withdraw at this time.

3 (The following proceedings were had in the
4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

5 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in recess for 6 about 15 minutes.

7 (A recess was taken from 10:11 a.m. to 10:35 a.m.)

8 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, if I may, I wanted to 9 revisit that one motion in limine from this morning, although 10 Mr. Peters isn't here.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: He's coming through the door.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. MILLER: Earlier, the defense filed a motion in 14 limine to exclude the testimony of Van D. Waite. I did not
15 have a chance to read that motion. You sustained the motion,
16 and I'd like to revisit it again with you, if I could,
17 regarding Mr. Van D. Waite's testimony.

18 To capsulize it, what he'll say is he was in his
19 yard. He was approached by Frank Sheppard. The lawn mower
20 had backfired, and Frank Sheppard made a statement to him, "I
21 like to blow things up, too," or, "I like to blow things
22 up."

23 It's no more prejudicial than what we've heard from 24 these other witnesses. It should go to the weight. Why say
25 such a thing six to eight months after the explosion? He

1 says, "I like to blow things up, too," and for that matter,
2 we feel it's somewhat relevant for the jury to give weight

4 THE COURT: Well, what does it pertain to that's
5 probative of an issue in this case, I mean, except a
6 character trait of, or a predilection, a personality
7 predilection of Frank Sheppard, and you know that's not
8 admissible.

9 MR. MILLER: One thing it goes to, it does
10 corroborate somewhat the statements about lack of remorse.
11 You know, it's their own fault, it's their own fault, and 12 they're saying that they started a fire, and then there was 13 an explosion about it. It goes to that instead of, you know,
14 why say that if it doesn't go in with the other statements
15 about lack of remorse.

16 THE COURT: Well, I just feel that it's too remote
17 to -- I'm sorry, but we're going to be here too long to risk
18 creating an error in the record that will make us be here
19 again. I don't want to, I'm not going to take that chance.
20 I think it's remote. Also, I think that's something that a
21 jury would maybe, in a 403 kind of situation, where it's 22 given more significance than it warrants. I'm just not going
23 to let it in. I'm sorry.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, can we approach on another
25 issue real quick?

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MR. BECKER: Mr. O'Connor is acting as
4 administrative counsel.

5 THE COURT: That's good. I didn't know we had
6 one.

7 MR. BECKER: My wife tells me and other people tell
8 me that there have been quite a few sketches on TV of the 9 jury. I'm uncomfortable with that. I don't like them
10 sketching the witnesses, but there's nothing I can do about 11 that. They're witnesses in a public trial. I am
12 uncomfortable, and I don't know if the jury has, the jury
13 probably hasn't seen them. They've probably followed the 14 Court's direction about not watching TV and not discussing 15 the -

16 THE COURT: See, I wasn't in on the beginning of 17 this. What was Judge Bartlett's original direction about 18 promulgation of the names of the jury and information about
19 the jury?

20 MR. BECKER: He declined a media request to provide 21 the names of the jurors. He did give them a breakdown of -

22 MR. OSGOOD: Sex and race, I think.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: There was a record made by one of 24 the jurors, Judge, that she had gone to work the next day,
25 and before she came back down to actually be selected that

1 two employees came up to her and said that they saw her
2 sketch on television, and then she knew that she had to keep
3 quiet about it.

4 But those are concerns, that they may show people,
5 that that may cause someone to make inquiry. I would join
6 anything the Court or Mr. Becker wanted to do regarding them
7 sketching the jury.

8 THE COURT: I think this is something I would have 9 to do pretty carefully. If you by agreement want to submit
10 something, however you might want to do it. I'm not going to 11 just sit up here and order the young lady back there that 12 draws pictures not to draw pictures of the jury, particularly 13 since there hasn't been any constraint or virtually no
14 constraint up to this point. They're not sequestered. You
15 know, Judge Bartlett didn't enter any other orders.

16 MR. OSGOOD: Maybe if we collectively as defense
17 and prosecution went to her and just bluntly and politely
18 told her.

19 THE COURT: That's an oxymoron, Mr. Osgood. To be 20 blunt and polite, come on.

21 MR. OSGOOD: If we tactfully -

22 THE COURT: There you go.

23 MR. OSGOOD: If we tactfully suggested to her that
24 it would probably be uncomfortable for some of these jurors
25 and maybe she could draw the witnesses and the lawyers and

1 the judge and whatnot, that they would get the same effect
2 out of it.If we tell the lady that some of the jurors
3 themselves are uncomfortable with it, I would think that -

4 MR. BECKER: We'll talk about it.

5 MR. OSGOOD: We'll try it.

6 THE COURT: I'm not going to -- you know, there's 7 more than one.

8 MR. BECKER: Right.

9 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

10 THE COURT: All right. Let's get the jury.

11 (The following proceedings were had in the 12 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

13 THE COURT: And we will proceed with your next
14 witness, please.

15 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, the government calls Mr.
16 Glen Shepard.

17 THE COURT: Stand and be sworn, please.

18 -- -- --

1 GLEN SHEPARD,

2 being first duly sworn by Kathy Geller, Law Clerk, testified
3 as follows:

4 - - -

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 By Mr. Miller:

7 Q. Would you tell us your name, please?

8 A. Glen Shepard.

9 Q. How old are you, sir?

10 A. Forty-nine.

11 Q. Okay. Would you spell your last name for us?

12 A. 5-H-E-P-A-R-D.

13 Q. Are you any relation to Frank Sheppard or Earl Sheppard,
14 also known as Skip Sheppard?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you know Frank Sheppard?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you see him in the courtroom now?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Can you point him out?

21 THE COURT: Is he the man standing up?

22 THE WITNESS: Yes.

23 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Is that Frank standing up?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: All right. Let the record reflect that

1 Mr. Sheppard stood up and the witness identified him.

2 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Do you know Bryan Sheppard?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Do you see him in the courtroom?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Where?

7 A. Right there. The next one over, right there.

8 Q. In the sweater?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Do you know -

11 THE COURT: Just a minute. Mr. Osgood, would you
12 come up, please?

13 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
14 proceedings were had:)

15 THE COURT: Now, you can tell your client that he 16 came about that far from being held in contempt with what he 17 did over there.

18 MR. OSGOOD: What did he do?

19 THE COURT: He was acting like he was going to 20 stand up when he was asked to identify Bryan Sheppard. He 21 was trying to confuse the witness as to who he was going to 22 identify. It didn't work, and I'm going to come down hard on 23 him if -

24 MR. OSGOOD: I would expect you to, Your Honor. I
25 was typing on the computer. I didn't see what happened.

1 THE COURT: Tell him to knock that stuff off.

2 MR. OSGOOD: All right.

3 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

4 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

5 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) How long have you known Frank
6 Sheppard?

7 A. Twenty, twenty-five years.

8 Q. How long have you known Bryan Sheppard?
9 . Since '87.

10 Q. I want to talk about your record. How many felony and 11 misdemeanor convictions do you have, both state and federal?
12 Do you know how many?

13 A. A multitude of them. I don't have exact count. Maybe
14 ten convictions on felonies, maybe more.

15 Q. Well, let me help you out. In 1967, were you convicted
16 of attempted burglary?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: What year?

18 MR. MILLER: I said 1967.

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Was that in Jackson County, do you
21 recall?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Do you recall your sentence?

24 A. That sentence was eventually vacated and set aside by 25 the Supreme Court on a -- it was a four-year sentence.

1 Q. Okay. It was four years?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. All right. Were you also convicted in 1967 of burglary
4 in Jackson County and received eight years?

5 A. I served -- yes, sir.

6 Q. In 1967, did you also get a misdemeanor conviction for 7 tampering in the second degree and were given 90 days?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. In 1967 were you also convicted of burglary and given
10 five years?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And in 1967 did you also get a stealing conviction and 13 were given three years?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Now, in March of 1973, were you convicted of carrying a
16 concealed weapon and given four years?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. In May of 1974, were you given a federal conviction for 19 aiding and abetting?

20 A. I believe it was conspiracy for interstate
21 transportation of stolen property, but I was convicted.

22 Q. Were you given five years on that?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. In June of 1978, were you convicted of stealing in 25 Jackson County and received three years?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. In October of 1981, were you convicted in Johnson
3 County, Kansas, of manslaughter?

4 A. Involuntary manslaughter, yes, sir.

5 Q. And you received a, in Kansas they call it 10 to 20
6 years; is that right?

7 A. I got a one to five.

8 Q. You got a one to five, all right. In June of 1987, were 9 you given a misdemeanor conviction of trespass in the first
10 degree in Jackson County and received 45 days?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: The date again, June of?

13 MR. MILLER: '87.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) In October of '87 did you also receive 16 a felony conviction of tampering in the first degree in 17 Jackson County and received eight years?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. In October of 1987, did you, were you convicted of 20 felony stealing in Jackson County and received eight years?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. Now, you were paroled in, on October the 16th of 1992?

23 A. I was let, I left for house arrest, I think it was in 24 June or July of '92.

25 Q. So you were out in 1992?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Now, in March of '93, were you convicted of stealing in
3 Jackson County and received one year?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And then you were paroled again in September of '93?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Now, just recently on December the 20th of 1995, were 8 you convicted in Cass County of Count I, possession with 9 intent to distribute; Count II, possession with intent to 10 sell; Count III, possession of controlled substance; Count
11 IV, possession of burglar tools; Count V, possession of 12 controlled substance; and Count VI, possession of drug
13 paraphernalia?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Now, for your sentences on Count I and Count II, did the 16 judge in Cass County give you 13 years on Count I and 12
17 years on Count II?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. And then he ran them consecutively, he stacked them,
20 meaning one runs under the other for 25, right?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. But he did what they call a suspended execution of 23 sentence?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And that would have placed you on probation, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. But he sentenced you to seven years for possession of
3 controlled substance, that's Count III?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Five years for possession of burglar tools, that's Count
6 IV?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Right? And he ran those concurrent?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And he also ran those concurrent with the 25, right?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And for the possession of a controlled substance and the 13 possession of drug paraphernalia, that's Count V and VI, he 14 gave you one year in the county jail, right?

15 A. He gave me two one-year sentences to run consecutively.

16 Q. So he gave you one and one, and he ran it consec. for 17 two?

18 A. Yes.

19 THE COURT: Were they executed?

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Are you currently in the Cass County
21 Jail?

22 A. Yes, I am.

23 Q. I want to go back to 1998, and where were you living in 24 1998?

25 A. '88?

1 Q. I'm sorry, '88.

2 A. I was in prison.

3 Q. Okay. Where?

4 A. Farmington, Missouri.

5 Q. And even though you were in prison, do you recall the 6 explosion in Kansas City in 1988 that killed the six
7 firefighters?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. How do you remember that explosion?

10 A. From television.

11 Q. Now, you were paroled in 1992?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And while you were on parole, did you ever see Frank
14 Sheppard?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. Where were you when you saw Frank Sheppard?

17 A. I was going to an ex-girlfriend's house and I was going,
18 I was coming down 71 going west. And I come to the 19 intersection where 71 divides off to go into Prospect and 71
20 goes straight. And there's an intersection there and it was 21 a light, and I was waiting for the light. And it was a red
22 light when I came up to it, and I looked over across the 23 street, and I seen Frank Sheppard on the corner over there.

24 Q. Now, after you saw him, what did you do?

25 A. I honked my horn. I rolled down my window and hollered

1 at him, and he waved for me, motioned for me to come over to
2 where he was at.

3 Q. And then what happened?

4 A. I went up the street a ways. I turned around, and I
5 came back over where he was at and parked on, kind of was a
6 side street.

7 Q. Now, did this happen in December of '92, do you recall?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And after he motioned you over and you went over there,
10 what happened?

11 A. He asked me if I could give him a ride over to some 12 apartment buildings where his nephew Bryan was at.

13 Q. Okay. Did you give him a ride?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. All right. Where did you take him?

16 A. I took him to some apartments that was on 87th and 17 Holmes.

18 Q. Do you remember the name of those apartment complexes?

19 A. No, I don't.

20 Q. I'm sorry?

21 A. No, I don't.

22 Q. Did you go into the apartment that Frank Sheppard wanted
23 you to?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. When you went in, who did you see inside the apartment?

1 A. There was a girl, and there was a guy sitting on the
2 divan, and Frank asked the girl where Bryan was.

3 Q. Did you see Bryan in there?

4 A. In the kitchen, yes.

5 Q. When you came in, what did, what was Bryan Sheppard's
6 condition when you saw him?

7 A. He had been up for several days, been drinking.

8 Q. What did Bryan Sheppard ask you or Frank for?

9 A. Well, he wanted something to drink or some drugs.

10 Q. Now, at that point, how close are you to Bryan Sheppard,
11 I mean, physically, I mean, how close are you to Bryan
12 Sheppard?

13 A. Oh, from, maybe from here to the desk right there.

14 Q. What did Bryan Sheppard say at that point?

15 THE COURT: Get some sort of a footage estimate, if 16 you would, counsel. Are you talking, which -- for one thing,
17 which desk are you talking about?

18 THE WITNESS: Okay. six foot.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) At that point, what did Bryan Sheppard
21 say to you or to Frank that you heard about the firefighters'
22 deaths?

23 A. Okay. Frank wanted Bryan to come with him. And Bryan
24 was, like I said, had been drinking and things, and they was 25 arguing and he wanted to stay. And then Bryan told Frank, he

1 said, "I'm not like you and the other guys." He says, "I
2 can't live with myself because of the death of them firemen,
3 and it's eating me up."

4 Q. After Bryan said it's eating him up, what did Frank say?

5 A. He told him to shut up.

6 Q. Where did you and Frank Sheppard go from there?

7 A. We went to a liquor store to get some liquor for Bryan.

8 Q. After getting some liquor for Bryan, where did you and 9 Frank Sheppard go then?

10 A. Back to the apartments.

11 Q. At the apartment, did you see Bryan Sheppard?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How did he appear to you then?

14 A. He was passed out on the table.

15 Q. What did you do at that point?

16 A. I asked Frank to do, did he want to take him or do you
17 want to leave him there. The girl that was there, she said,
18 she told Frank -

19 Q. Hold on, you can't tell what the girl said. The bottom
20 line is, what did you do then after seeing Bryan Sheppard
21 passed out?

22 A. I let Frank there and left.

23 Q. When did you see Frank Sheppard again?

24 A. This was several days later. I gave Frank my pager
25 number to my pager, and several days later Frank paged me.

1 Q. When he paged you, where was he?

2 A. Okay. I don't know where he was when he called me. It
3 wasn't -- I met him at Four Acres Motel, but I don't know
4 where he was when he called me.

5 Q. Who instructed you to meet Frank Sheppard at the Four 6 Acres?

7 A. Frank.

8 Q. When you got to the Four Acres, what did Frank want from
9 you?

10 A. He wanted to find some drugs.

11 Q. And what did the two of you do?

12 A. We went, and we went to some places that he knew that 13 may have some, and we didn't get any.

14 Q. When you couldn't find any drugs, then what did you and 15 Frank Sheppard do?

16 A. We went to a liquor store, Frank went in and got some 17 liquor. We went back to the motel.

18 THE COURT: Went back where?

19 THE WITNESS: To the motel.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Is that the Four Acres?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. There at the Four Acres, did you and Frank Sheppard talk 23 about the explosion that caused the death of the 24 firefighters?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What did you ask Frank Sheppard about his involvement in
2 the deaths of the six firefighters?

3 A. I asked Frank what happened up there, and -

4 Q. What did Frank say to you after you asked him what
5 happened up there?

6 A. He told me that they had got drunk, they were drinking,
7 they went up there, they burglarized the place, and -

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I'm going to object to the 9 they.

10 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Narrow it down to what Frank said.

11 A. Frank said he went up there, they had been drinking, and 12 that he had sobered up, and he burned the place.

13 Q. Did he tell you why he set the fire?

14 A. No.

15 Q. What did he tell you he went up there to steal?

16 A. Tools.

17 Q. Anything else?

18 A. That's all that I -

19 Q. Did Frank Sheppard tell you where he was when the fire
20 started?

21 A. He told me he was there.

22 Q. What did Frank Sheppard say to you about the deaths of 23 the six firefighters?

24 A. He said that it wasn't supposed to have went like that.
25 He said that, you know, that it wasn't anything intentional,

1 that it was just something that just happened.

2 Q. Now, were you ever returned to the penitentiary?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. No, not to the penitentiary, no.

6 Q. Where were you returned to?

7 A. To Farmington to the drug rehab.

8 Q. Okay. And how -- if you could give a time frame, after 9 Frank Sheppard had told you about his involvement, when did
10 you go to Farmington again?

11 A. Okay. The first time I went was in, I think, March of 12 '93.

13 Q. Now, did you ever call the police or the authorities 14 with the information that you had?

15 A. No, I didn't.

16 Q. Who contacted you in Farmington, or who contacted you
17 next?

18 A. Okay. Mr. True, Mr. True and several others.

19 Q. How long had you been back in the system when they 20 contacted you?

21 A. Okay. They contacted me in, I think it was December
22 29th or January the 1st of '96. When I was in Cass County,
23 that's when they come, that's when I come in contact with
24 them.

25 Q. Now, I want to go back to the sentence that you received

1 in Cass County in December of '95. I want to talk about
2 Count I and Count II, all right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And that's where you received a total of 25 years and
5 the judge did what they call an SES, a suspended execution of 6 sentence, that's what I want to talk about. Who was there at 7 your sentencing?

8 A. My attorney, Mr. True, Agent True, prosecutor and the
9 judge.

10 Q. On whose behalf did Mr. True testify?

11 A. My behalf.

12 Q. Now, do you feel that you've been given anything for 13 your testimony today?

14 MR. O'CONNOR: Object to that, calls for 15 self-serving hearsay. What he felt isn't relevant. Whether 16 he was given something is what's relevant.

17 MR. MILLER: It goes to his state of mind.

18 THE COURT: That's permissible. He may answer.
19 Overruled.

20 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) I'll rephrase it. Do you believe that 21 you've been given anything for your testimony?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. What?

24 A. Leniency on the charges that I had received.

25 Q. Now, how many times were you brought down before the

1 federal grand jury?

2 A. Two times.

3 Q. okay. What happened the first time?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach, please? I have an
5 objection.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
8 proceedings were had:)

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, as part of the Court's
10 order, I had to give up certain statements and interviews
11 that I did with certain individuals, one of those being Glen 12 Shepard. And the purpose that I was to give those up was 13 because those were witnesses that I intended to call. And 14 the government was given those because of my intention of 15 calling them as witnesses. That was the ruling of the 16 Court.

17 Now I believe they're trying to use those 18 statements in their case to now take away, try to take away
19 any force of cross-examination of this witness regarding his 20 appearance before the grand jury and his refusal. We were 21 never told this ever. Until I talked to Mr. Shepard in jail,
22 we were never told that he was, we were never told that he
23 was brought down to be placed before the grand jury.

24 Now, I understand he never did go before the grand
25 jury, but we were never made aware of the fact that he was

1 ever even brought down and then he did not want to talk and
2 he was told, according to him, by Mr. Becker that he could be
3 held in contempt, and then they took him back and brought him
4 back later.

5 Now I think they're attempting to use the 6 statements that I took in their case and using them for the 7 wrong purpose.

8 MR. MILLER: I'm not being flip, but I don't
9 understand the legal objection.

10 THE COURT: I don't either. I mean, it's kind of 11 one of those life is hard situations, you know.

12 MR. PETERS: You can bring it out on your
13 cross-examination.

14 THE COURT: It goes to weight and credibility, it
15 seems to me, not admissibility.

16 MR. BECKER: Perhaps a little bit anticipatory, but
17 Mr. O'Connor was given this guy's grand jury testimony.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: That's right. Exactly. Now, one
19 other thing, Judge, while we're up here. I'm hoping, in 20 light of this man's answers to what he thought he was given
21 and so on, I'm given some leeway with him. Based on what 22 he's told me in his statements, this was contrary to what he 23 said. They tried to put him up here like, you know, he's 24 really not getting anything.

25 THE COURT: Well, I don't understand that. He said

1 he was given something. He said they were more lenient with
2 him because of his cooperation.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay.

4 THE COURT: You do what you will.

5 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) What happened the first time that you
8 came down for the federal grand jury?

9 A. I refused to testify.

10 Q. Okay. And did you speak with Mr. Becker after you
11 refused to testify?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And why did you refuse?

14 A. Well, I didn't want to get involved, No. 1. No. 2, they 15 didn't tell me that I was coming down. That was the main
16 reason.

17 Q. Did you come back a second time for the federal grand
18 jury?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. Why did you come back the second time?

21 A. After I spoke to my attorney and we reviewed all the 22 options and he, in his best advice he told me that I should 23 cooperate and come in front of the grand jury.

24 MR. MILLER: That's all I have of this witness,
25 Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Are you first, Mr.
2 O'Connor?

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, Your Honor.

4 -- --

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 By Mr. O'Connor:

7 Q. Mr. Shepard, I'm John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
8 Sheppard. You and I have talked before, have we not?

9 A. Yes, we have.

10 Q. Now, you've talked about your prior criminal record, and 11 you said you thought you had around ten. I think Mr. Miller
12 ran through with you your felony convictions, and I added up
13 16. Does that sound about right?

14 A. That could be very well right, yes.

15 Q. Did you forget about a conviction you had in 1978 in 16 which you got a six-year sentence for aggravated assault?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. So that's 17 prior felony convictions that you have?

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. Is that correct?

21 A. I'm assuming, yes, that is correct.

22 Q. How much of your adult life have you spent in prison?

23 A. I've spent most of my adult life in prison.

24 Q. Have you gone by other names before?

25 A. Yes.

- 1 Q. How many other names have you gone by?
- 2 A. Several. Dave Draper, Glen Anthony Shepard. I can't
- 3 recall maybe some of the others that -
- 4 Q. Jeffrey Broski?
- 5 A. That's one.
- 6 Q. Anthony Fairchild?
- 7 A. Yes.
- 8 Q. Russell Shepard?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Donald Ballard?
- 11 A. Yes.
- 12 Q. Now, as I understand it, or you tell me, this new charge
- 13 you got in Cass County, the charges that Mr. Miller read off,
- 14 the possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine,
- 15 possession with intent to sell methamphetamine, possession of
- 16 burglar tools, possession of a controlled substance; there
- 17 were two others, what were they?
- 18 A. I believe there was a marijuana, possession of
- 19 misdemeanor marijuana and a drug paraphernalia.
- 20 Q. This was in December of 1996; is that correct?
- 21 A. That's correct.
- 22 Q. And then in January -- no -- I'm sorry, it was December
- 23 of '95; is that right?
- 24 A. Right, yeah.
- 25 Q. The authorities then came to see you in the Cass County

- 1 Jail in January of 1996?
- 2 A. Correct.
- 3 Q. And you were sitting in the county jail in Cass County
- 4 with the possession with intent to distribute, which was 10
- 5 to 30 or life; would you agree with that?
- 6 A. It was 15 years maximum.
- 7 Q. And you were a prior and persistent offender, were you
- 8 not?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Does that double your sentence?
- 11 A. I think it goes to 20. I'm not certain on it.
- 12 Q. All right. The other possession charge carried a lot of
- 13 time?
- 14 A. Yes, it did.
- 15 Q. The fact that you were a prior and persistent offender
- 16 under Missouri law would make it that you would have to serve
- 17 80 percent of any sentence that you would be given?
- 18 A. Yes, sir.
- 19 Q. And at that point when they walked into that jail to see
- 20 you, you had at least 13 prior felony convictions?
- 21 A. Yes, sir.
- 22 Q. And six more facing you as they walked in to see you?
- 23 A. Yes, sir.
- 24 Q. And you didn't call them, did you?
- 25 A. No, I didn't.

- 1 Q. They just showed up there?
- 2 A. Yes, sir.
- 3 Q. And they brought a rights waiver form; is that correct?
- 4 A. That's correct.
- 5 Q. And do you know why they had to read you your rights?
- 6 A. Do I know why?
- 7 Q. Yeah.
- 8 A. It's the law.
- 9 Q. Okay. And you hadn't done anything as it related to
- 10 this explosion, had you?
- 11 A. No.
- 12 Q. And they were up there to talk to you unrelated to what
- 13 you were charged in Cass County with, right?
- 14 A. Correct.
- 15 Q. Now, they interviewed you there?
- 16 A. Yes, they did.
- 17 Q. And did you later see the interview that they wrote up
- 18 of the interview they did of you?
- 19 A. The first one, yes.
- 20 Q. okay. You had a chance to read that?
- 21 A. Yes, I did.
- 22 Q. You have a drug history?
- 23 A. Yes, I have.
- 24 Q. What is your drug history?
- 25 A. I've been off and on drugs a great part of my life.

1 Q. What kind of drugs?

2 A. Methamphetamine -

3 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to the relevancy
4 of this. We need a time frame.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: He testified on direct that he had 6 been in drug treatment rehab. I think the door has been 7 opened to go into his prior drug history.

8 MR. MILLER: Well, certain dates I opened up.

9 THE COURT: It seems to me you brought up -- unless 10 you're going to talk about now or -- well, let's say specific 11 time, just be specific, and then you can go into it.

12 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Okay. When you were out, as I
13 understand it, what years were you out in the nineties where 14 you weren't in prison?

15 A. Okay. '92, '93, '94.

16 Q. What kind of drugs were you doing then?

17 A. Methamphetamine.

18 Q. What does methamphetamine do to you?

19 A. Gives me a euphoria feeling, a sense of confidence.

20 Q. All right. And how often would you use it, every day,
21 every other day?

22 A. Well, what part of what time? There's times that I used
23 it every day, and there's times that I used it occasionally.

24 Q. Has it had any effect on your memory or ability to 25 remember things?

1 A. Yes, some, somewhat, yes.

2 Q. Now, let's talk a little bit about the sentences that
3 you received out in Cass County. As I understand it, you
4 went before a judge just a couple of months ago; is that
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And when you were before that judge, you had 17 prior
8 felony convictions as you stood in the courtroom?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And the judge was there and Mr. True was there?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And Mr. True was there with the defense lawyer, your 13 lawyer?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And he was there to testify for you?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And he told the judge how much you'd been cooperating?

18 A. True.

19 Q. And that he wanted the judge to take that into 20 consideration in what he was going to do for you, what the 21 judge was going to do?

22 A. No, he didn't ask that. He didn't, he didn't ask that.

23 Q. Did you hear Agent True testify?

24 A. Yes, I did. The judge asked him what he had to say, and 25 he stated about my cooperation in this, and that was -- I

1 mean, he was, he tried to stay neutral.

2 Q. Well, didn't the judge ask him how much help you'd been,
3 whether you'd been substantial?

4 A. Oh, yes.

5 Q. And he told him that you had?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And do you believe that Agent True was there to help you
8 get leniency?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. That was the whole purpose of him being there, wasn't
11 it?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And you believe now, don't you, that the reason that you
14 got leniency was because of your cooperation in this case?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And you believe you'd be in prison right now, had you
17 not helped out in this case, don't you?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Now, let's go through this sentence that you got as a
20 result of your help in this case. You got one year on Count
21 V, which was possession of a controlled substance, which was 22 a Class A misdemeanor?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. You got one year on Count VI, which was possession of 25 drug paraphernalia, which was a Class A misdemeanor?

- 1 A. Yes, sir.
- 2 Q. Those sentences were to run consecutively?
- 3 A. Yes, sir.
- 4 Q. All right. Consecutively, you understand what that
- 5 means?
- 6 A. Yes, sir.
- 7 Q. Tell the jury what consecutively means.
- 8 A. Consecutive means one after another. I would have to
- 9 serve one year, and then after I completed that one, then I
- 10 would have to serve another.
- 11 Q. So basically it's like a two-year sentence?
- 12 A. Well, he also, he didn't give me my jail time, so
- 13 actually it ran into almost a three-year sentence.
- 14 Q. okay. So that's what you're doing in the county jail,
- 15 two misdemeanors right now?
- 16 A. Yes, sir.
- 17 Q. Then on Count I, which was possession with intent to
- 18 distribute, you received a 13-year sentence?
- 19 A. Yes, sir.
- 20 Q. On Count II, possession with intent to sell, you
- 21 received a 12-year sentence?
- 22 A. Yes, sir.
- 23 Q. Those sentences to run consecutively, meaning you have
- 24 25?
- 25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. You pled guilty to Count V -- no, I'm sorry, Count IV,
2 which was possession of burglar tools?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And received a five-year sentence?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And you pled guilty to another possession of controlled
7 substance and received a seven-year sentence. And those
8 sentences are run concurrently, meaning that they're run
9 together, you don't have to do those five and that seven?

10 A. Correct.

11 THE COURT: After the county jail time?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Then -- we're getting to the next
13 part, Judge.

14 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Then your sentence is suspended and 15 you are being placed on five years' probation; is that
16 correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. So you've got 25-year sentence, seven-year sentence, and 19 a five-year sentence, and you're going to walk out of the 20 jail after you serve your time on these misdemeanors, aren't
21 you?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. On probation?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Now, remember when I came up to see you, I asked you if

1 I could talk to you about these interviews that the agents
2 had done with you?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. I had the interviews with me?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. I had them marked as exhibits?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. I handed them to you to let you read them before I asked
9 you any questions about them?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And then you told me you didn't want to answer any 12 questions about them?

13 A. After I had answered your questions on my charges and my 14 sentencing and everything on that, that was after that, yes.

15 Q. But what I'm saying is I wanted to ask you questions
16 from these exhibits?

17 A. On the exhibits, okay. Yes.

18 Q. And you didn't want to talk to me about those?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. But did you tell me as it relates to those, did you say
21 the words to me, "There are some inconsistencies in those"?
22 Did you?

23 A. I'm saying inconsistencies, but I meant -- for instance,
24 I noticed, like it was said that like on the 23rd of December
25 and, you know, I couldn't, I can't actually recall what date

1 that was. That's what I was meaning by inconsistencies. You
2 know, it wasn't -- I can't sit here and say it was exactly
3 the 23rd. It might have been the 22nd or the 20th. It was 4 in that time period.

5 Q. Okay. And so to make this clear, other than just dates
6 and things like that, everything else you told them that was 7 in these interviews that I let you read was basically true?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You didn't lie to those agents, did you?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You wouldn't intentionally mislead the agents, would
12 you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Now, when the agents came in there to see you -

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- and they did this rights thing, we're back there now,
17 they're there to see you there before you got this deal, did
18 they mention to you in that first interview that you had a
19 gun charge that was sitting out in Blue Springs, Missouri?

20 A. Yes, they did.

21 Q. And did they indicate to you that a gun charge for a
22 person like you, a felon who would be in possession of a
23 firearm could have pretty serious implications in federal
24 court?

25 A. Yes, they did.

1 Q. And they told you, did they not, that you could be
2 facing fifteen to life for just that gun charge that was
3 sitting out in Independence that they knew about?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And there was a gun charge out in Independence, wasn't
6 there, in Blue Springs?

7 A. In Blue Springs, yes.

8 Q. So when they're in there to get this first interview,
9 they're letting you know, Mr. Shepard, not only do you have 10 these problems here in Cass County, but we have this gun
11 charge in Blue Springs that we may take federal, and with a
12 person with your record under the federal sentencing
13 guidelines, you may never get out?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. So after they told you that, then they talked to you?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. They got all of that up front in your mind what you were 18 facing, what was going to happen to you and what was going to 19 go on in your life before they started talking to you about 20 this stuff here; isn't that true?

21 A. They made me aware that I did have the gun charge. They 22 made me aware that possibly they could charge me with that.
23 At that time, that gun charge was the furthest thing from my 24 mind. I've had the charges there in Cass County, I've got 25 all of these possession charges. And the Blue Springs

1 charge, I mean, it was, I thought it was a weak charge in the
2 first place. The State never picked it up. And to be honest
3 with you, I wasn't that worried about it.

4 But, yes -- get back to your question. Yes, they
5 made me aware of it and told me the consequences that, what
6 possibly they could do.

7 Q. And all of your convictions except for one are State
8 convictions, aren't they?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Because convicts know that if you commit federal crimes,
11 you serve a lot of time when you do that?

12 MR. MILLER: I'll object to that as argumentative.

13 THE COURT: Yes. I believe that's a bit broad, Mr.
14 O'Connor.

15 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) You as a convict knew what 16 possession of a firearm meant when they were there talking to 17 you about it; is that a fair statement?

18 . Yes.

19 Q. Now, in this first interview, you talked to the agents
20 freely after they told you about this stuff?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. And did they have a tape recorder with them so we could
25 hear everything they were saying to you and you were saying

1 to them?

2 A. Not that I was aware of.

3 Q. Did they have one of these ladies with them like I had
4 when I came up to talk to you so we could hear everything
5 they were telling you and everything you were telling them?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did they have note pads where they were taking notes?

8 A. No.

9 Q. You've had a chance to review your interviews before
10 testifying, haven't you?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you review them the night -

13 A. With you, I glanced through them, yes.

14 Q. All right. I mean, did I stop and tell you, "Please 15 take time to read them," and we did that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Was I nice to you?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to this as not 20 relevant at all and just self-serving.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: He just said he glanced at them. I
22 think he can explain whether I was pushing him.

23 THE COURT: Was he nice to you?

24 THE WITNESS: He was courteous.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead. I'll take judicial notice

1 that Mr. O'Connor was nice.

2 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) So you at least have had a chance to 3 review what they said that you told them?

4 A. You know, I glanced through them. When you showed them
5 to me, I briefly glanced over them. I didn't sit there and
6 go, you know, and study them or really read them. I did
7 glance through them. I told you I seen some what I call
8 inconsistencies.

9 Q. Now, I think you said on direct exam that you were at 10 some apartment or wherever it was where Bryan Sheppard -
11 stand up, Mr. Sheppard; sit down -- Mr. Sheppard made some 12 admissions to you that he was somehow feeling guilty or had 13 been involved in this fire?

14 A. Not to me, to Frank.

15 Q. In your presence?

16 A. In my presence.

17 Q. He was making admissions in front of you to Frank?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Now, when you talked to the agents, did they ask you
20 that question?

21 A. No.

22 Q. They didn't. Did you tell the agents that you knew
23 Bryan Sheppard?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you tell the agents the day they talked to you on

1 January the 10th, 1996, "Bryan Sheppard has never made any 2 admissions to me"?

3 A. I don't recall that.

4 Q. Could you have said that?

5 A. I could have. I may have. I didn't want to talk to 6 them in the first place on our first meeting. I didn't
7 really want, I didn't really want to talk to them, no.

8 Q. Question is did you tell those agents on January the 9 10th, 1996, that Bryan Sheppard never made any admissions to 10 you, only Frank did?

11 A. Not that I recall.

12 Q. Did you tell them that Frank Sheppard had made
13 admissions to you in that interview?

14 A. I may have. I may have. On that -

15 Q. Well, Mr. Shepard -- go ahead.

16 THE COURT: Excuse me. You answer the questions.
17 Ask another question.

18 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) After you gave this interview on 19 January the 10th, the next thing that I understood happened
20 was that they brought you down to a grand jury?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And do you believe they were bringing you to the grand
23 jury because you had not told them anything?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And they brought you to the grand jury, and they wanted

1 you to testify about what you'd told them on January the 2 10th, didn't they?

3 A. True.

4 Q. And you refused?

5 A. True.

6 Q. And you refused because you didn't have a deal, isn't
7 that why you refused?

8 A. No. Not -- there was a, the deal, it was a, they didn't 9 tell -- I didn't know I was coming. No. 2, I didn't want to 10 get involved in it. And certainly, you know, I'm not -- I
11 wasn't going to testify. And I have to go to prison. You
12 know, my life span isn't going to be very long there.

13 Q. What you're saying is you were refusing because no one
14 had made a deal with you yet for what you were going to say;
15 is that a fair statement?

16 A. I hadn't talked to an attorney. I hadn't talked to 17 anybody else about it.

18 Q. Do you need an attorney to tell the truth?

19 A. No, I don't -- no, I don't need an attorney to tell the 20 truth.

21 Q. That's what they wanted you down there for, just to tell
22 them the truth about what you knew, right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Mr. Becker and Mr. True, they just wanted you to tell
25 the truth?

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. Okay. Now, did you meet Mr. Becker when you were down
3 there?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And did he tell you some things that could happen to you
6 if you didn't testify?

7 A. No. He didn't tell -- no. No. No, he didn't. He told
8 me that he would call me back, and if I still refused to 9 testify that he would take me and give me, get me immunity.

10 Q. He told you that if you refused to testify, they could 11 get you immunity?

12 A. No. He told me if I went in -- I told Mr. Becker at 13 that time that if I went into the grand jury that I was going
14 to take the Fifth Amendment. And he indicated to me that -
15 okay.

16 He told me that he wasn't going to, I didn't have 17 to testify then, he wasn't going to have me go in there and 18 take the Fifth. But he told me they may call me back, and if
19 they do and that I refuse to testify, he would take me down
20 and grant me immunity where I couldn't take the Fifth
21 Amendment and I would be held in contempt if I didn't answer
22 the questions.

23 Q. So did they do all of that?

24 A. No, they didn't.

25 Q. They took you back to Cass County?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Did Mr. True make any reminders to you while you were on
3 your way back to Cass County about this Blue Springs gun
4 charge that they talked to you about before?

5 A. Not on the way back, Mr. True didn't take me back, but
6 while I was there, you know.

7 Q. While you were there? While you were where, I'm sorry?

8 A. I was still here at the courthouse. Mr. True come and 9 talked to me. I asked him, let me talk to Mr. True. Mr.
10 True came down, and he talked to me. And I simply told Mr.
11 True that I'm not going to, I wasn't going in front of the 12 grand jury for the various reasons that I've said, you know.
13 I'm not going -- if I testify and I went to prison, my life
14 could be, you know, would be worthless. I told him that I
15 wanted to talk to my attorney about it and -

16 Q. Well, Mr. True wasn't happy with you, was he?

17 A. No, he wasn't, no.

18 Q. He was upset with you?

19 A. A little bit, yeah.

20 Q. And he basically told you that they had this gun charge
21 still in Blue Springs and that you ought to think about
22 coming back down here, or words to that effect?

23 A. Some to that effect, yes.

24 Q. What I'm saying is you got the message?

25 A. I got the message, yeah.

1 Q. So then you get a lawyer, and then the lawyer now calls
2 and you want to talk to them again?

3 A. True, correct.

4 Q. And then they come out and interview you again, right?

5 A. Right.

6 THE COURT: They being?

7 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Who is they?

8 A. Mr. True, Randy, I don't know what, from the ATF. There
9 was, I think, additional -- oh, okay. The second one, on the 10 second of the two was Randy from the ATF, and I don't know
11 the other one, from racketeering. And I don't know the other
12 agent's name.

13 Q. And so now, as I understand it, you're telling them that 14 I have more information for you than I had before, right?

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. And now the lawyers got the deal worked out on what's 17 going to happen for you if now you can give them this new 18 information?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did it all get worked out in the end?

21 A. Yeah, it worked out in the end, yes, it did.

22 Q. And in the interview that you did then in April, this 23 would have been after you refused the grand jury?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. After you were reminded of the gun charge and after you

1 got your lawyer involved, then they came out and interviewed
2 you, and that's for the first time that you said, oh, yeah,
3 Bryan Sheppard made admissions to me, as well. Isn't that
4 how it happened?

5 A. That's what I told them, yes.

6 Q. You never told them on January 10th, did you, that Bryan
7 Sheppard was involved?

8 . There's a lot of things I didn't tell them January the
9 10th.

10 Q. You were talking to them freely -

11 THE COURT: Just answer his questions. Ask your 12 question again.

13 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) You talked to them freely on January
14 the 10th about Frank Sheppard's involvement, didn't you?

15 A. I talked some about it, yes.

16 Q. And Frank Sheppard you've done time with?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You weren't having a problem telling them about Frank
19 Sheppard on the lath?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Have you ever heard of anybody with a record that you
22 had getting probation?

23 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to that.

24 THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained.

25 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) As I understand it, back in 1995,

1 you were at the honor center; is that correct?

2 A. No, I haven't. No, I wasn't.

3 Q. Kansas City Community Release center?

4 A. No, I wasn't.

5 Q. You didn't escape from there?

6 A. Oh, Kansas City -

7 Q. Yeah. Let me let you read this and maybe refresh your 8 recollection. Just look at it, don't read it out loud, and 9 see if that refreshes your recollection.

10 A. No, that's not me.

11 Q. Oh, I apologize. It's George Sheppard, Judge, I thought
12 it said Glen, I apologize. I thought it always said Glen.
13 I'm sorry, sir.

14 Now, the Blue Springs gun charge, the one that they
15 kept talking to you about that was pending in Blue Springs?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. What happened to that?

18 A. I haven't found out what, any final disposition that's 19 gone on in that case yet.

20 Q. I was given a printout of you.

21 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to that.

22 THE COURT: I don't know what that is, but it
23 doesn't sound very good.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach, Judge?

25 (Counsel approached the bench and the following

1 proceedings were had:)

2 MR. O'CONNOR: I apologize. I thought that was
3 Glen all along. I had that in my notes.

4 MR. MILLER: You should apologize to them.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm sorry. Judge, they gave me a
6 printout on him two days ago.

7 THE COURT: Who is they, the government?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: The government. And he still has,
9 the failure to appear is still pending against him. I want
10 to bring that out.

11 MR. MILLER: First of all, it's a city. And if he 12 doesn't have any knowledge of it -

13 MR. O'CONNOR: He does have knowledge of it.

14 THE COURT: It's a city misdemeanor.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: It doesn't matter. They told him
16 they were going to pull it out and take it federal. That's 17 the whole thing, Judge.

18 MR. BECKER: No.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Absolutely.

20 MR. BECKER: What did you say?

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I said that's the charge that Dave
22 True told him that he was going to take federal, that gun
23 charge.

24 THE COURT: This isn't even a gun charge.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: I can tell you, Judge, that I called

1 that court, the Blue Springs Municipal Court, and there's a
2 weapons charge still pending against Glen Shepard. I called
3 there 10 days ago.

4 I'll ask it another way. I'm just about done.

5 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to anything about
6 the gun charge.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm not going to use this at all.

8 MR. BECKER: I think Mr. O'Connor explored this at 9 some length in his deposition of Mr. Shepard, and this 10 defendant thinks his own attorney got it taken care of. And 11 whether he, what he understands beyond that is -

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to explore a couple of 13 questions about what he understands and does he know whether 14 or not -- I won't say it's still pending, I'll say do you
15 know whether it is still pending.

16 MR. BECKER: He's already answered that.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't think he has.

18 THE COURT: He said he thought it was still 19 pending.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: No, he didn't, Judge, he thinks it's 21 been disposed of, I think. I've got two questions.

22 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

23 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Mr. Shepard, just for reference, the 24 Blue Springs gun charge that we talked about, the one that 25 they kept talking to you about?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. What is your understanding of the disposition of that
3 case?

4 A. I haven't found, heard of any final disposition in it.
5 My attorney -

6 Q. Just what you know, not what someone has told you. Do
7 you have any knowledge of the final disposition?

8 A. No, I don't.

9 Q. Do you want him to answer? Go ahead and give your
10 answer.

11 MR. MILLER: No, I'm objecting. There's not a
12 question here.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: I didn't want them to think that I
14 was cutting the witness off. I thought maybe they wanted him
15 to answer. That's fine with me.

16 THE COURT: Ask your next question.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I have no other questions.

18 THE COURT: All right. Any other cross?

19 MR. PETERS: Very briefly, Judge.

20 — — —

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 By Mr. Peters:

23 Q. Mr. Shepard, my name is Pat Peters, and I represent
24 Frank Sheppard.

25 When we're talking about the city charge in Blue

1 Springs, that's a municipal charge like a parking ticket, the
2 maximum punishment is what, do you have any idea?

3 A. I think maybe one year in the county jail or maybe six
4 months in the county jail.

5 Q. So a city charge for possession of a firearm is much
6 less severe than if it was taken State, and that's much less
7 severe than if it was taken federal; is that correct?

8 THE COURT: I think -- counsel is on his feet, and 9 I think I anticipate that he's going to make some sort of an
10 objection to that question.

11 Before you answer, I want to intervene here and say
12 that we're not going to call on this witness to analyze the 13 law in that respect. I'll sustain the objection.

14 MR. PETERS: Judge, may we approach?

15 THE COURT: Well, you may if you want to.

16 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
17 proceedings were had:)

18 MR. PETERS: What's been laid out for the jury is 19 he has a Blue Springs charge, and they've talked about having 20 a federal charge.

21 THE COURT: Taking it federal?

22 MR. PETERS: Taking it federal.

23 THE COURT: Sounds pretty ominous.

24 MR. PETERS: It is, but that hasn't been made clear
25 for the jury.

1 THE COURT: I think it's not in question that it's
2 pretty serious and he knew it.

3 MR. PETERS: Until I asked the question, the jury
4 had not been advised that the maximum punishment would be a
5 year.

6 THE COURT: All right. You got that.

7 MR. PETERS: I should be allowed to ask him what
8 his understanding of the maximum punishment would be if it
9 was taken federal.

10 THE COURT: What would the federal charge be? Who
11 would be the prosecutor? Who would write the indictment?
12 You've got all of these things that you can't possibly 13 anticipate in this scenario.

14 MR. PETERS: So my objection, my question was 15 objected to, and the Court is not going to allow me to ask
16 the questions relating to that?

17 THE COURT: I'm not going to hypothesize with you.
18 I'm sustaining the objection.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: Make an offer of proof.

20 MR. BECKER: Do we need another witness? Do we 21 need another witness to be brought up before lunch?

22 THE COURT: Yes. I mean, if you're about through.

23 MR. BECKER: That's my question.

24 MR. PETERS: I have no other questions until I make 25 an offer of proof.

1 THE COURT: Haven't had Osgood.
2 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)
3 THE COURT: All right. Are you through, Mr.
4 Peters? I think he's through, he's sitting down.
5 Mr. Osgood, do you have anything?
6 MR. OSGOOD: No, Your Honor.
7 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Judge.
8 THE COURT: Miss Hunt?
9 MS. HUNT: No, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?
11 MR. MILLER: No, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Shepard, you are 13 excused. Call your next witness.
14 MR. BECKER: United States calls Lorena Deardorff.
15 THE COURT: While we're getting her, would just one
16 defender and Mr. Becker, would you come up?
17 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
18 proceedings were had:)
19 THE COURT: I'm about to run out of witnesses on 20 your list.
21 MR. BECKER: Well, I have a typewritten copy. I'm
22 sorry, I'll bring it up for the Court. I apologize.
23 MR. O'CONNOR: We'll give you the score card this
24 afternoon.
25 THE COURT: How are we doing?

1 MR. BECKER: We're two and a half witnesses
2 behind. We have two more weeks to go with the government's 3 case beyond this.

4 THE COURT: Well, that's not bad. I'm not asking
5 you to commit, I know you can't and won't commit, but what do
6 you understand about the inclination of the defendants to 7 take the stand?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I think they're all going to testify
9 but maybe one, but I think it's going to go pretty quickly,
10 Judge. Don't you?

11 MR. BECKER: Yeah, the cross will be a little more
12 focused, I think.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

15 THE COURT: Come up and stand by the witness chair,
16 Miss Deardorff, and be sworn, please.

17 — — —

18 LORENA DEARDORFF,
19 being first duly sworn by Kathy Geller, Law Clerk, testified
20 as follows:

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 By Mr. Becker:

24 Q. Good morning.

25 A. Good morning.

1 Q. Please state your name and spell your last name.

2 A. My name is Lorena Deardorff. The last name is spelled
3 D-E -A-R-D-O-R-F-F .

4 Q. Where do you live, what area of town?

5 A. In the Marlborough area.

6 Q. How long have you lived there?

7 A. I don't know exactly how many years, but it's been a
8 few. It was five or six years or more.

9 Q. How old are you?

10 A. I'll be 30 in February.

11 Q. Do you know the Sheppard -

12 THE COURT: You're still 29, Miss Deardorff?

13 THE WITNESS: Twenty-nine.

14 THE COURT: Treasure it.

15 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you know the Sheppard family from 16 the Marlborough area?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. How do you know them?

19 A. Well, they used to come into the convenience store where 20 I used to work at.

21 Q. What was the name of the convenience store where you
22 worked?

23 A. Carol's Quick Food and Fuel.

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry, I didn't hear what you said.

25 THE WITNESS: Carol's Quick Food and Fuel.

1 THE COURT: Quick Food and Fuel?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Where was that located?

5 A. 8505 Woodland.

6 Q. Is that basically at the corner of Woodland and 85th
7 Street?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. When did you work there?

10 A. From '88 until '95.

11 Q. I want to show you what's in evidence as Government's
12 Exhibit 1. By the way, before you testified here today, did
13 you and I go over your testimony and I showed you this map?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. With the Court's permission, could the witness -
16 everybody see it?

17 Could you point out, if it's on there,
18 approximately where Carol's Quick Food and Fuel would be 19 located on this map? And you could make a little CF on 20 there. Could you do that?

21 A. Can I move?

22 THE COURT: I think you've got enough cord there to
23 move. Check that cord, Kathy. Is this the situation -- you
24 alternate jurors there, is this the situation where it's 25 difficult for you to see? We had a request that that

1 mounting be a little higher. I don't know -- let's work on
2 it over the noon hour, counsel.

3 MR. BECKER: Okay.

4 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you see where 85th Street is on 5 that map here beginning at Hickman Mills and running to the 6 west?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Could you put a little mark where Woodland comes across
9 and Carol's Quick Food and Fuel would be?

10 A. I'm trying to think of where, where it would be.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Before she marks on it, I think we 12 would prefer, if Mr. Becker knows where it is to scale, he 13 put it on there, and she works there, rather than having 14 something that's wrong on there become -- I'm testifying.

15 THE COURT: I'm not going to tell Mr. Becker how to 16 conduct his examination.

17 MR. OSGOOD: I understand. But if it's a scaled
18 map, it would be my preference that it remain to scale. And 19 if Mr. Becker knows where it is, that the government should 20 put it on the map. Otherwise, I object to her drawing on the 21 map if she doesn't know how it's scaled and how to read it.

22 THE COURT: I think I'm hearing that there would be 23 no objection, at least from Mr. Osgood, if you indicated to 24 her where it is.

25 MR. BECKER: I think she's got it right, Judge.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) If you would just put OF there,
2 please.

3 (so done.)

4 Q. okay. If you would just have a seat. What corner is it
5 on, the north, south, east, west? I guess it would be,
6 Woodland runs as you have it on that map, right, north and
7 south; is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And then 85th is east and west, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Which corner is Carol's Quick Food and Fuel on?

12 A. On the southeast corner.

13 Q. And I want to show you what's been marked for
14 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit 385.

15 THE COURT: Let me ask a question just for, a
16 geography question. Does Paseo convert to Woodland at about 17 80 -

18 THE WITNESS: At 85th Street.

19 THE COURT: At 85th Street?

20 THE WITNESS: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Paseo becomes Woodland; is that
22 correct?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes.

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) I'll show you what's been marked for 25 identification as Government's Exhibit 385. Do you recognize

1 what's depicted in that photograph?

2 A. Yes, that's the convenience store.

3 Q. Is that where you worked then, from 1988 through 1995?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Is there anything different about this photograph,

6 what's depicted in this photograph than when you worked

7 there?

8 A. Well, the colors are different. They've put a new paint

9 job. They've taken the pumps out on the, I guess you would

10 say west side of the building, and redid the pumps on the 11 north side of the building.

12 Q. So is it fair to say this is a more recent photograph?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Does the building itself, is that basically the same as 15 depicted?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. BECKER: I would offer that into evidence as

18 Government's 385.

19 MR. PETERS: No objection.

20 THE COURT: All right. It's admitted without

21 objection.

22 (Government's Exhibit 3B5 was admitted into
23 evidence.)

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Now, where were you living, if you

25 remember, on November 29, 1988, when the explosion occurred?

1 A. I was living off of 83rd and Park.

2 Q. At that time, then, were you working at Carol's Quick
3 Food & Fuel?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What was your shift, when were you working at that
6 particular time in November of 1988?

7 A. I was working the 3:00 to 11:00 shift and the graveyard
8 shift, which is 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.

9 Q. Some days after the explosion, do you recall working the 10 graveyard shift, the 11:00 to 7:00 shift when Frank Sheppard
11 came in?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you see Frank Sheppard here in court today?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. All right. Is he the gentleman that's now standing?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. BECKER: Indicating the Defendant Frank
18 Sheppard, Your Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you recall having -- how did you
21 know Frank Sheppard at that time?

22 A. Well, like I said, he would come into the store as a
23 customer, and his girlfriend at the time was a cousin down
24 the line of mine, now ex-husband.

25 Q. So that would be Darlene Clark?

1 ~ A. Yes.

2 Q. Or Darlene Edwards?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. What do you remember, then, about Frank Sheppard coming
5 in the store some few days after the explosion during the 6 graveyard shift, what happened?

7 A. Well, he came in, he purchased a bottle of beer and a
8 pack of cigarettes and started talking to me. Which, he 9 normally did.

10 Q. Was there anyone else in the store?

11 A. Not at the time, no.

12 Q. Where were you in the store, where was Frank Sheppard in 13 the store?

14 A. He was on the outside of the counter, and I was behind
15 the counter behind the register.

16 Q. What were you talking about?

17 A. Well, he started talking about the firemen explosion.
18 And he started telling me how they were there, him and some 19 friends, and they were partying and having a good time and 20 getting drunk and just playing around. And then one of the 21 gentlemen or one of the guys decided to go down and see what
22 was in this trailer and came back with a stick of dynamite.
23 And they were just playing with it and just drinking and 24 having fun.

25 Q. Well, did he say anything about setting a fire?

1 A. One of them decided to go set a vehicle on fire and just
2 to see what would happen. So they set it on fire, they were
3 sitting up there on the hill, and the firemen came. They
4 were sitting there watching the firemen. One of them
5 decided, well, let's see what would happen if I threw this
6 stick of dynamite down there.

7 Q. This is what Frank Sheppard was telling you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. What did Frank Sheppard tell you next?

10 A. He said that the person threw the dynamite down, and 11 then there was an explosion, and then a few minutes later
12 there was another explosion, so they got scared and they ran 13 and they took off and went home and started partying some 14 more and just getting drunk more.

15 Q. Now, this conversation happened -- well, did you, did
16 you ask Frank Sheppard why he didn't turn himself in?

17 A. I said, well, why didn't you call the police or, you
18 know, turn them in or whatever. And he said, "I can't turn
19 in my family, my friends."

20 Q. Did you ask Frank Sheppard why he was telling you this?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What was his response?

23 A. "Well, I trust you. I know you, you're part of the 24 family."

25 I asked him, I said, "How do you know I won't, you

1 know, turn you in myself?"

2 And he says, "I just trust you."

3 And I was like, "Are you just feeding me a line of 4 bull or what?"

5 And he just kind of smiled and left, and I was 6 like, whatever.

7 Q. Do people often, when you worked at the store then, come
8 in and spend time talking to you?

9 A. Yes, a lot.

10 Q. Why is that?

11 A. They say that I'm a friend -- I have a friendly smile,
12 I'm a friendly face and I listen very well.

13 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

14 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

16 -- -- --

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 By Mr. Peters:

19 Q. Good morning, ma'am. My name is Pat Peters, and I
20 represent Frank Sheppard. So shortly after the fire -
21 shortly after this explosion, Frank Sheppard came in your 22 store like he had done on many other occasions, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And he had been drinking that day, you could tell; is
25 that correct?

- 1 A. I could smell it on his breath.
- 2 Q. And like he often did, he came and was buying beer,
- 3 correct?
- 4 A. Yes.
- 5 Q. And you two were friendly, he probably would have said,
- 6 "Hi, Lorena," and you would have said, "Hi, Frank"?
- 7 A. Oh, as soon as he came in the door, I said, "Hi, Frank,
- 8 how are you doing?"
- 9 Q. Did he ever introduce himself to you as George?
- 10 A. No.
- 11 Q. so Frank tells you this story, and even as he's telling
- 12 you the story, you think that he's just pulling your leg,
- 13 don't you?
- 14 A. Not at first, I didn't. And then as he kept telling me,
- 15 I thought towards the end, yes, he was just pulling my leg.
- 16 Q. And, in fact, you said to him, you're making this up,
- 17 you're pulling my leg, something to that effect; isn't that
- 18 true?
- 19 A. I asked him if he was feeding me a line of bull.
- 20 Q. And he laughed; is that right?
- 21 A. He laughed at me, yes.
- 22 Q. This happened sometime in 1988 still? If the explosion
- 23 happened November 29th, 1988, are we talking that this
- 24 happened in 1988?
- 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you believed that he was joking with you and didn't
2 call the police in 1988, did you?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And, in fact -

5 THE COURT: Now, wait a minute. You did not
6 believe that?

7 THE WITNESS: No, I didn't believe that he was
8 telling me the truth.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

11 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) So in 1988 after hearing the 12 conversation, you thought he was pulling your leg, and that's 13 why you didn't call the police; is that correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. And you didn't make contact with anyone until 16 February 12th of 1995; is that correct?

17 A. Actually, somebody called me.

18 Q. okay. And it was somebody from the Bureau of Alcohol,
19 Tobacco, and Firearms; is that correct?

20 A. I believe so, yes.

21 Q. I'm showing it would be Special Agent Larry Cooper.
22 Does that ring a bell?

23 A. The name does, yes.

24 Q. Okay. And that was the first time that you recounted to 25 anybody this conversation, right, anybody from law

1 enforcement?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And when you recounted the conversation, you even told
4 the special agent that you asked Frank, are you feeding me a
5 line of bull, and Frank just laughed; isn't that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

8 MS. HUNT: No questions, Your Honor.

9 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood?

13 CR055-EXAMINATION

14 By Mr. Osgood:

15 Q. Do you know a Mike Dimaggio?

16 A. Do I know a what?

17 Q. Mike Dimaggio?

18 A. No.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. The name doesn't sound familiar.

21 Q. All right. What about a Johnny Driver?

22 A. No.

23 Q. And what about a King?

24 A. King?

25 Q. Tommy King.

1 A. No.

2 Q. All right. Did you -- when people would come in and
3 talk to you, did you always know their name, or did people
4 just come in that was a regular customer and you would see
5 them and you would recognize them?

6 A. Most of them would be regular customers. Very few of 7 them I knew their name.

8 Q. Were there a lot of kids that hung out up there at that
9 place?

10 A. Yes, teenagers, and they played the video games that we 11 had.

12 Q. That's catty-corner, as I recall, from a school, isn't 13 it, ma ' am?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And I think it's now a special ed school or something,
16 but back then was it the same kind of school it is now or -

17 A. I don't know if it's changed or not. I see the same
18 kind of kids coming in and out of there.

19 Q. okay. But it's a, what, would it be fair to call it a
20 junior high, or is it kids younger than that?

21 A. There's some younger children that play in the 22 playground in the back, and then there's some teenagers.

23 Q. Okay. so it's got a -

24 THE COURT: Is it called Center Junior High?

25 THE WITNESS: No, it's not. It's called Center

1 Alternative.

2 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Yes, I believe -- it's an alternative
3 school now, but back then, do you know whether or not it was 4 just a junior high, maybe?

5 A. It was called Center Alternative.

6 Q. Back when all of these events occurred?

7 A. Uh-huh.

8 Q. Okay. And so how many customers a day would you get in 9 the store there?

10 A. Sometimes quite a few, sometimes not that many. It
11 varied from day to day.

12 Q. Do you know Richard Brown?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. By the way, my name is John Osgood, and I represent
15 Richard Brown.

16 A. Yeah, I know Richard Brown.

17 Q. Richard Brown has never made any admissions to you about 18 any of this, has he?

19 A. No.

20 MR. OSGOOD: That's all. Thank you.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I do have two questions real
22 briefly.

23

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 By Mr. O'Connor:

3 Q. In February of '95, so I understand it, the agents came
4 and contacted you?

5 A. A gentleman called me on the phone.

6 Q. Okay. You didn't call them to tell them that you had 7 this information, they contacted you?

8 A. Correct.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you. That's all I have.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am. You may 11 step down. If you'll leave the microphone with us.

12 THE WITNESS: Oh, can't I take it with me?

13 THE COURT: No. No. We'll take our break now,
14 ladies and gentlemen. Don't talk about the case during the 15 lunch hour, and please be back in the jury room at 1:30.
16 You're excused.

17 (The following proceedings were had in the
18 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

19 THE COURT: Okay. We're in recess.

20 (The lunch recess was taken at 12:02 p.m.)

1 WEDNESDAY' JANUARY 29, 1997

2 AFTERNOON SESSION

3 THE COURT: All right, have a seat. You may 4 proceed.

5 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, the government
6 calls Mr. Doug Bayliff.

7 DOUGLAS BAYLIFF,

8 having been sworn, testified:

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. MILLER:

11 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

12 A: Douglas Bayliff.

13 Q How old are you, Mr. Bayliff?

14 A: Twenty-six.

15 Q And are you employed?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Where do you work now?

18 A: HIC, Industrial Cuttings.

19 Q I want to go back to November 28, 1988, where did you
20 live?

21 A: 8110 Wayne.

22 Q Is that in the Marlborough area?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Do you recall the explosion that occurred in the early
25 morning hours of November 29, 1988?

1 A: Yes.

2 Q Tell the jury how you recall that.

3 A: I was at work.

4 Q And where was work at?

5 A: A hundred and Third and State Line.

6 Q Do you know a Tracy Ownby?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q How do you know her?

9 A: She was my girl friend.

10 Q Do you know Megan Williams?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q How do you know her?

13 A: She was a friend of Tracy's back around the time of the
14 explosion.

15 Q Do you know Earl Skip Sheppard?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Do you see him in the courtroom today?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Could you point him out.

20 A: Right there.

21 Q Is he the gentleman standing now?

22 A: Yes.

23 Q How long had you know the defendant Skip Sheppard
24 around the time of the explosion?

25 A: Not very long at all. Three weeks, a month.

1382

1 Q After the explosion that caused the death of the six
2 fire fighters did you ever have a conversation with
3 Skip Sheppard about the explosion?

4 A: No, I heard a conversation.

5 Q Where was it when you heard this conversation, where
6 were you?

7 A: At Lee's house.

8 Q Do you know Lee's last name?

9 A: I can't remember.

10 Q That's all right. When did the conversation take 11 place? Now when I say "when", I mean in relation to 12 the explosion, when did the conversation take place you
13 overheard?

14 A: About a month after it happened or so.

15 Q Are you having trouble remembering?

16 A: Yes, I am not good with dates.

17 Q Did you ever make a statement to the police?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q If I showed you the statement you made to the police
20 would that refresh your memory on the dates?

21 A: It was September of '89. I am confused.

22 Q That's all right. On here is a date and then if you
23 want to look at the top, two of fifteen, the question I
24 am asking you is when did the conversation take place.

25 A: About a month after.

1 Q A month after you gave -- a month before you made the
2 statement.

3 A: Yeah. I am confused still.

4 Q We will do it this way. What date did you give the
5 statement to the police?

6 A: 9-28-89.

7 Q When did the conversation with Skip Sheppard take
8 place?

9 A: It was before, a month before that date.

10 Q Before this?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q The conversation is the latter part of August of 1989.

13 A: Yes.

14 Q Now where was the defendant Skip Sheppard when you
15 overheard him talking about the explosion?

16 A: Sitting next to me.

17 Q Where were the two of you sitting?

18 A: On a couch in Lee's house.

19 Q Do you rememb er what Skip was wearing that day?

20 A: He had on some vanilla slacks and a flannel shirt.

21 Q Do you remember who he was talking to?

22 A: No, I didn't know who he was.

23 Q Who were you over at the house with?

24 A: Me, Tracy, Megan, Skip and some other guy. I believe
25 Lee was there, too.

1 Q What condition did the defendant Skip Sheppard appear
2 to be in?

3 A: He looked high but he was coherent.

4 Q What was his tone of voice while he was talking?

5 A: A normal tone of voice, like we are talking.

6 Q Who brought up the subject of the explosion that killed
7 the six fire fighters?

8 A: I believe it was Skip.

9 Q What did you hear him say?

10 A: That "I almost got some dynamite."

11 Q After he said "I almost got some dynamite", what was
12 said?

13 A: They had started a fire to distract a security guard 14 and the fire got too big.

15 Q Now did Skip Sheppard say how he got to the site of the
16 fire?

17 A: He drove.

18 Q Did Skip Sheppard say what was set on fire?

19 A: A trailer.

20 Q How many times have you heard Skip Sheppard talking
21 about that?

22 A: That one time.

23 Q When you went down to the police department to give
24 your statement, we have already covered the date that 25 you did, who did you go down there with?

1385

1 A: Myself and a homicide detective.

2 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
3 witness.

4 CROSS EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. HUNT:

6 Q Mr. Bayliff, my name is Susan Hunt and I represent Skip
7 Sheppard. As I understand your direct testimony, you
8 gave a statement to the police in September of '89.

9 A: Correct.

10 Q And was that a tape-recorded statement?

11 A: I believe so.

12 Q Was it videotaped, do you remember?

13 A: I believe so.

14 Q Did you at some point after that statement, a couple
15 years later, sit down with the agents again and review
16 the statement?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q And do you know which agent you sat down with at that
19 point?

20 A: No, I don't. I don't remember their names. There was 21 two of them.

22 Q Did you correct anything in the statement?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q What did you correct?

25 A: About the shiny badge.

1 Q In the statement you gave the police you said that Mr.
2 Sheppard, or Skip Sheppard, in this conversation said
3 he ran -

4 MR. MILLER: I object to her reading from
5 the statement.

6 MS. HUNT: I am not reading from the
7 statement.

8 MR. MILLER: Whatever she is reading from, it
9 is not impeachment.

10 MS. HUNT: I am not reading from anything. I
11 am asking a question.

12 THE COURT: You aren't. You are making a
13 statement. You just said "in the statement you said".

14 MS. HUNT: I am asking if that is the 15 statment.

16 THE COURT: Ask it that way, did you say.

17 MS. HUNT: Right.

18 Q In the statement, the videotape statement, the first 19 one you gave, did you say that Skip said he saw the 20 security guard, he saw the badge, the shiny badge, he 21 saw a hat and he ran?

22 A: I said , 'they, '.

23 Q But this was Skip talking.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q And then you changed that statement, is that right?

1387

1 A: Yes.

2 Q When did you change it?

3 A: When?

4 Q Do you remember roughly the date?

5 A: When the ATF agents came over to my house.

6 Q Did those agents take notes when you talked to them the 7 second time?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Did you have a chance to review the statement?

10 A: The ATF?

11 Q Right.

12 A: No.

13 Q Do you remember telling them you were not at Lee
14 Ballinger's but you were at your own house.

15 A: That's right.

16 Q You testified a few minutes ago you were at Lee's house
17 and that is not true.

18 A: We were at Lee's house.

19 Q When the ATF agents came to your residence did you then
20 say, "I'm sorry. I was wrong. I was at my house. I
21 wanted to keep the suspicion away from me."

22 A: I would have to look at the statement.

23 Q Would this refresh your recollection. Does that
24 refresh your recollection what you told the ATF?

25 A: No, I can't remember.

1 THE COURT: That is a rather general
2 question, Miss Hunt. Ask him a specific question which
3 might involve a refreshed recollection.
4 Q After reading that statement prepared by the ATF, after 5 talking with you, do you now remember you were not at 6 Lee Ballinger's house but your own house?
7 A: We was at Lee's house when the conversation took place.
8 Q And who all was at Lee's house?
9 A: Me, Megan, Tracy, Skip and some other guy. I believe
10 Lee was there, too.
11 Q What did the other guy look like?
12 A: He was a Mexican guy.
13 Q How tall?
14 A: This was nine years ago.
15 Q Any recollection, tall, short, fat, skinny?
16 A: He was medium build.
17 Q Mexican looking?
18 A: He had dark skin.
19 Q Dark complexion.
20 A: Yes.
21 Q Where was he in the conversation?
22 A: Actually Skip had his back toward me a little bit and 23 he was on the other side of Skip.
24 Q Did you tell the police in your videotape statement
25 that Skip said he went up the hill over the security

1 guard shack?

2 A: Over the security guard shack?

3 Q Yes.

4 A: I don't remember that.

5 THE COURT: Over to the security -

6 MS. HUNT: Above a security guard shack.

7 A: No, I don't remember that.

8 Q Do you remember telling them in this videotape
9 statement that a fire was set in the building?

10 A: Set in a trailer.

11 Q Did you use the word "'building" when you gave the 12 videotape statement?

13 A: I believe I used "trailer''.

14 Q The day in September of '89 when you went to the police
15 station did they talk to you before they did the 16 videotape?

17 A: Yeah, in my house.

18 Q Did you then go to the police station and have a
19 videotape taken?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q They came to your house first.

22 A: They came to the house for a burglary call because we 23 had been robbed and I guess a detective showed up and 24 he asked me and I told him what I knew.

25 Q He asked you about this case.

1

1 A: He asked me first if I knew Skip and I said, yeah. And
2 he asked me if I knew any other ones and I said no -
3 of the Sheppards?

4 Q Right.

5 A: After that he wanted me to come downtown and do the 6 videotape or do the interview.

7 Q Then you sat in a room and there was a video camera.

8 A: I saw a video through a screen. It had like a vent.

9 Q You knew it was a video camera, they told you.

10 A: Yes.

11 Q When you were down there that day you were telling them
12 the truth as you remember this conversation, is that
13 right?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Do you remember, first of all, who was the detective
16 you talked to?

17 A: I don't remember his name.

18 Q Does the name John Fraise sound familiar?

19 A: No.

20 Q Do you remember this question being asked "So when they
21 got down there did Skip tell you where they parked the 22 car?" And your answer is, "He said something about he 23 went over from 87th, you know how 71 and then 87th,
24 said he went over this big old hill before they tore it
25 out to go in there off, right off 87th Street from

1 where the curve started, it's right down before the
2 first curve. It's like a big hill, it's tore out. He
3 said they went over the top of the hill and a security
4 guard -- I don't know where it was but a security guard
5 shack, may have been a little ways, and traveled
6 through the dark and started a fire down in this little
7 building, I guess. When they started the fire, you
8 know, this is what, you know, the way I got it from 9 going over the hill right beside 87th Street, like a
10 dirt hill from where they first pushed the dirt up to 11 the side to clear it up, you know, when they started
12 blowing it, moving the rocks and stuff." Do you
13 remember that answer?

14 A: No, I don't.

15 Q I am going to hand you -

16 THE COURT: You read it so all you can do now
17 is offer it in evidence.

18 MS. HUNT: I would like to have him
19 acknowledge this is his videotape statement.

20 THE COURT: How would he know that unless he 21 read the whole thing, how would he know that? That is 22 a transcript of his videotape.

23 MS. HUNT: I offer Defendants' Exhibit 13
24 into evidence.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: May we approach.

1 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

2 THE COURT: Has he ever seen that transcript
3 before?

4 MS. HUNT: Before he testified. I believe he
5 said he reviewed these before he testified.

6 MR. MILLER: He has read the transcript. Let
7 me qualify that. I have given it to him and he told me
8 he read it.

9 THE COURT: That's close enough. That is as 10 close as we can get.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't have any objection but 12 there is an incriminating statement Skip made about
13 Bryan Sheppard the government hasn't gotten into, I
14 don't intend to get into it, so I don't want the whole
15 statement. If certain portions can be offered, that,s 16 fine but I don't want to go through it now. It will 17 take too long.

18 THE COURT: So far it can only be that answer
19 she has read and may or may not contradict what he has 20 already said.

21 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

22 THE COURT: The document offered is admitted
23 but for the limited purpose now of the admission of the 24 statement read from the transcript.

25 Q I believe you testified on Direct Examination about a

1 Tracy Ownby and who is that?

2 A: She was my girl friend at that time.

3 Q And were you living with her?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And she was present during this conversation.

6 A: With Skip?

7 Q Correct.

8 A: Yeah.

9 Q Did you discuss with Tracy after this conversation
10 occurred, and before you went to the police, there was 11 about a month-long period, is that right?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q During that month did you and Tracy discuss the reward?

14 A: We just kind of maybe talked about it first, not really
15 sit and discussed it. We mentioned something and that 16 was it.

17 Q Did Tracy say "We could use the money"?

18 A: I don't remember her saying that.

19 Q Did Tracy say "There is a thousand dollar reward out 20 and we could use the money", do you remember that?

21 A: No, but I remember the thousand dollar reward. I
22 didn't hear it from her.

23 Q Let's go back to the same videotape statement that was
24 taken in September of '89, do you remember being asked
25 this question, page 11, ,~Why are you just now coming

1394

1 forward with it?" "Answer: Well, see, me and my girl
2 friend were sitting down talking and we was watching
3 the news and they started talking about" -

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

7 MR. BECKER: They ought to pick their quotes
8 more carefully.

9 THE COURT: Why are we here?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: He is mentioning the nephew;
11 the nephew being Bryan.

12 THE COURT: I really hate this business of 13 rewriting history.

14 MR. MILLER: Also, Judge, this is calling for 15 hearsay what he is saying Tracy said. Tracy Ownby is 16 going to testify and he said he can't recall. Let's
17 see what Tracy says.

18 THE COURT: Tracy is on the list to testify.

19 MS. HUNT: Yes. I can't impeach her with 20 his statement. If she denies it, I can't use his 21 statement to impeach her.

22 MR. BECKER: Go ahead and read it.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Can't we have a general
24 neutral pronoun instead of the nephew, use something
25 that is neutral.

1 THE COURT: That is what I would rather not
2 have to do. Let me see it again. Who is his little
3 nephew?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Bryan Sheppard.

5 THE COURT: This is when Bryan dismissed
6 charges.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: When he was in jail.

8 THE COURT: He is referring to Bryan when he
9 said we are going to do such and such to him, the 'him,,
10 is Bryan, is that right?

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, I think so. That is my 12 reading of it.

13 THE COURT: What is your position on that?

14 MR . MILLER: My position, it is hearsay what 15 she is asking him that Tracy Ownby told him. Even 16 though it's in that statement, that's hearsay. We have 17 heard his answer.

18 MS. HUNT: I asked if he discussed it and he 19 basically said no.

20 THE COURT: Well, Tracy is going to come and 21 you will ask her about it. He may be recalled for 22 impeachment but at this point I am going to sustain the
23 objection.

24 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

25 Q Did this conversation that you overheard that night,

1396

1 did Skip Sheppard say why he was at that site?

2 A: Looking for, wanting to steal some dynamite.

3 Q Did he steal any dynamite?

4 A: No.

5 Q How did he say he knew dynamite was there?

6 A: Repeat that.

7 Q Did Skip give any indication to you how or why he would
8 have known dynamite was there?

9 A: No.

10 Q Do you remember this videotape you took back in '89?

11 A: No.

12 Q You took a videotape back in '89.

13 A: I remember taking the statement. I don't remember
14 everything.

15 Q Back in September of '89.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q And do you remember being asked the question -

18 MR. MILLER: What page?

19 MS. HUNT: Page 7.

20 "When the defendant asked you about dynamite, did he 21 know what dynamite was there?" "Yeah, he knew" -- this 22 is your answer -- "Yeah, he knew. Yeah, he knew 23 because, you know, they seen those signs along the 24 wall explosive area and he knew there was dynamite up
25 there", do you remember giving that answer?

1 A: Yes, I do.

2 MR. MILLER: May we approach?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

5 MR. MILLER: I want her to read what comes
6 afterwards. "Did he tell you that?" And he says,
7 "No." -- I will withdraw the objection.

8 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

9 Q During this conversation was he talking directly to you
10 or somebody else in the room?

11 A: Somebody else.

12 Q You were just listening to this conversation, is that
13 right?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q You didn't ask any questions of Mr. Sheppard, did you?

16 A: No.

17 Q Did he say how long he was at the site that night?

18 A: No.

19 Q Did he tell you he broke into anything up there?

20 A: No.

21 Q Did he tell you if he started the fire?

22 A: He said we started a fire.

23 Q Did he say he started the fire was the question.

24 A: No.

25 Q Did he say who did?

1 A: No.

2 Q Did he say how the fire was started?

3 A: No.

4 Q When he said he saw the security guards which alarmed
5 him, were the security guards on foot or were they in a
6 vehicle?

7 A: I don't know.

8 Q Do you remember telling the police in '89 what he told
9 you about the security guards' mode of transportation?

10 A: I don't remember.

11 Q Back to your videotape statement.

12 MR. MILLER: What page?

13 MS. HUNT: Page 9.

14 Q "When he mentioned seeing the security guard, did he
15 say he saw the security guard either on foot, in a
16 truck or any other way?" "On foot." "Question: On 17 foot, he did say that?" "Answer: Yeah." Do you
18 remember giving that answer?

19 A: Yes. There is a lot of things I can't remember.

20 Q During this conversation did he at any time say what 21 portion or area of the construction site he set on
22 fire?

23 A: No.

24 Q Did he say if he actually stole anything from the
25 construction site?

1

1 A: No.

2 Q Did he give you any reason why this fire would have
3 started?

4 A: For distraction.

5 Q Do you remember testifying in front of the grand jury?

6 A: Vaguely.

7 Q And that testimony occurred in September, I believe,
8 '95, does that sound right? The 15th of December, '95,
9 does that sound correct to you?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q And did you in front of the grand jury talk about this 12 theory for this statement about distraction or 13 diversion?

14 A: Yeah.

15 Q And didn't you testify in the grand jury that that made
16 no sense to you, that he would set it for a diversion?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Because a diversion, as you testified, for setting a
19 fire would attract people, not divert them away.

20 A: Exactly.

21 Q And I think you testified earlier on direct that the 22 date you gave this videotape statement to the police
23 was the same day your residence had been broken into,
24 isn't that correct?

25 A: That's correct.

1
1 Q You called the police to report this burglary, is that
2 right?
3 A: Correct.
4 Q You told the police when they came that you believed
5 Skip Sheppard broke into your house, didn't you?
6 A: Yes, I did.
7 Q That is why you started telling them about this
8 conversation you overheard.
9 A: No, I didn't.
10 Q They asked you about Skip Sheppard.
11 A: Yes.
12 Q And you volunteered this information.
13 A: Sure.
14 Q Was anything taken in that burglary?
15 A: Yeah.
16 Q Did you ever discuss any of your testimony, any of the 17 videotape statement, or any statements, you have given
18 with Tracy?
19 A: No.
20 Q Have you ever discussed them with Megan?
21 A: No.
22 Q Did you see Tracy and Megan today?
23 A: No. Well, I seen them. I didn't talk to them.
24 Q Did you ride down here with them today?
25 A No.

1401

1 Q Do you know if Tracy or Meagan listened to this
2 conversation you overheard, did she ever tell you she
3 listened to it?

4 THE COURT: Which one?

5 MS. HUNT: The conversation he overheard with
6 Skip Sheppard.

7 THE COURT: You said did she ever tell you
8 she listened. You mean Tracy or Megan?

9 MS. HUNT: Tracy.

10 MR. MILLER: Whichever, I object as hearsay.

11 THE COURT: No, I think the fact she listened 12 to a conversation is not hearsay. But then if he is 13 asked to testify what she said, what she heard, what he 14 heard, that is hearsay.

15 Q Did she ever tell you she overheard the conversation of 16 Skip Sheppard that night?

17 A: I can't remember if she told me or not. Apparently she 18 did.

19 Q Okay. You did have a brief conversation with her, with 20 Tracy, about the reward money though, didn't you?

21 A: Yes, but it didn't go no further than that.

22 Q The unidentified person in the house looked Mexican to 23 you, you said that.

24 A: Yeah.

25 Q Did Skip during this conversation ever say what he

1 would do with dynamite?

2 A: He would sell it.

3 Q How much did he say he would sell it for?

4 A: Twenty dollars a stick.

5 MS. HUNT: I think that is all I have.

6 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. PETERS:

10 Q Mr. Bayliff, my name is Pat Peters and I represent 11 Frank Sheppard and I have a few questions for you. The 12 conversation that you are talking about where you
13 overheard Skip Sheppard saying something, did that
14 conversation take place at the house at 8110 Wayne
15 where you were living with your girl friend or at Lee
16 Ballinger's house?

17 A: At Lee's house.

18 Q Do you remember talking to Gene Schram from the U. S.
19 Department of Labor, Office of Labor Racketeering, do
20 you remember talking with him?

21 A: No.

22 Q You don't have any recollection of a conversation on 23 December 4th, 1995 with anybody from the Department of 24 Labor?

25 A: No.

1403

1 Q Do you recall telling anyone from law enforcement that
2 the location where you heard the statements was 8110
3 Wayne and that you had probably told the police Lee
4 Ballinger's residence to avoid drawing attention to 5 your own residence, do you recall telling anybody that?

6 A: No.

7 Q This conversation that you are talking about hearing,
8 what were you wearing that day?

9 A: Blue jeans and a T shirt. It was a Budweiser T shirt.

10 Q And how many people were there in the house when this 11 conversation was going on?

12 A: Five.

13 Q And was there any noise, or anything like that, to 14 cause you problems with hearing what Skip was talking
15 about?

16 A: No.

17 Q Isn't it true that there were two separate
18 conversations going on between a group of three people
19 and a group of two people and you really weren't 20 involved in either conversation?

21 A: Actually, I wasn't, no.

22 Q And you weren't a part of the start of the conversation
23 when Skip started talking; you just had your ears
24 perked up when something was said about the explosion,
25 is that correct?

1404

1 A: That's correct.

2 Q So you can't tell us today what went on in the 3 conversation before your ears perked up, can you?

4 A: No, I can't.

5 Q You don't know if Skip Sheppard was talking about what
6 he had heard about the explosion from other people.

7 A: No. All I heard is what he said.

8 Q Now, you never heard any mentioned by Skip Sheppard
9 about a trailer, did you?

10 A: Yes, I did.

11 Q The only mention you heard was a security guard shack,
12 isn't that correct?

13 MR. MILLER: I object to these questions as 14 argumentative.

15 THE COURT: Yes, the "isn't" or "didn't" or 16 "wouldn't" form is frequently argumentative and I think
17 it is there. I will sustain the objection.

18 Q In your 15 page video, you have had an opportunity to 19 review the transcript of the videotape statement you
20 gave on 9-29-89 to the Kansas City Missouri Police
21 Department conducted by Detective John Fraise, haven't
22 you?

23 A: Yeah.

24 Q In that videotape statement do you recall telling the 25 officers, telling Detective John Fraise, that it was a

1405

1 security guard shack and little building?

2 MR. BECKER: What page?

3 MR. PETERS: I haven't impeached him with the 4 statement yet.

5 THE COURT: Well, you are reading from it.
6 What page are you reading from?

7 MR. PETERS: It would be a combination of all
8 15 pages. The part I am talking about is on page 7.

9 THE COURT: That is what they wanted to know.

10 Q In your 15 page statement did you ever say that it was
11 a trailer?

12 A: Did I say it was a trailer?

13 Q Yes.

14 A: I don't remember.

15 Q Do you recall describing it as being a security guard
16 shack or a little building?

17 A: No.

18 Q When you gave this video statement did you tell
19 Detective Fraise that your memory of the conversation
20 that you overheard from Skip Sheppard was a little bit
21 blank, that you had difficulty remembering what was
22 said?

23 A: Yeah.

24 Q Did you ever hear any mention of what portion of the 25 site was set on fire?

1406

1 A: No.

2 Q And who was it you had a discussion about the reward
3 money with?

4 A: It wasn't really a discussion but it was Tracy.

5 Q And what was it that you said to Tracy about the
6 reward?

7 A: That there was a thousand dollar reward, that we ought
8 to call and that was it.

9 Q Have you since learned the reward is $50,000?

10 A: Yeah.

11 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bunch.

13 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Your Honor.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood.

16 CROSS EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. OSGOOD:

18 Q Mr. Bayliff, my n a m e is John Osgood. You know Mr.
19 Brown, don't you?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q You see him in court here.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q You have used the pronoun they.

24 A: Yeah.

25 Q Referring to what Frank said and then at one point -

1407

1 MR. PETERS: I have to object when the
2 question says that Frank said.

3 MR. OSGOOD: I am sorry. Skip. I apologize.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach a minute.

5 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I love my co-counsel but I am
7 concerned when he says "they". The only other "they,"
8 mentioned in this report of Bayliff is when he says
9 Skip and Bryan. I know John has said he won't get into 10 it. I am concerned about this witness. Can you tell
11 me what your question is.

12 MR. OSGOOD: When you used the term they -
13 actually he was saying "we". I want to clarify the 14 words. He didn't say "they". He said "we". And then
15 I am going to ask him, he did not mention Richard Brown
16 and Richard Brown has never made any admission.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I really am concerned about 18 the "we". What he said was, "Me and Bryan", he may 19 clarify that.

20 MR. OSGOOD: I will read "him."

21 THE COURT: This is the trouble with 22 Newsspeak. We are trying to rewrite history and trying 23 to get people to testify to things different than the 24 way they were and it is very difficult to do.

25 MR. OSGOOD: I agree. We didn't choose to be 1408

1 filed jointly and we filed motions for severance. I
2 realize the problem of trying them individually. I
3 will be careful.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: I object to any question that
5 may call for an answer about "we". I think John can
6 ask him did he say Richard Brown was one of the persons
7 and it gets you where you want to go and doesn't open
8 up anything.

9 MR. OSGOOD: First, I am going to ask him
10 about other people that the agents asked him about and 11 bring out those names of people he knows. You don't 12 need to worry.

13 THE COURT: That were not there.

14 MR. OSGOOD: No, they asked him that were 15 there and not there. There will be plenty of names by 16 the time I am done, trust me.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I believe you. My problem, it
18 is like the government has talked to this witness, I am
19 sure, and told him not to answer certain questions and 20 he has lived up to that. I am worried about Osgood
21 asking without us taking a recess to pose the questions
22 outside the hearing of the jury. This is an area that 23 is too dangerous for me.

24 MR. MILLER: This line of questions is 25 constructively exculpatory because if he had anything

1409

1 to say about Richard Brown we would have questioned him
2 what did Richard say. He is here against Skip.
3 Further, you have instructed the jury anything he says
4 just goes to Skip. When he gets up there, was so and 5 so there, did he say anything about so and so, we are
6 getting into exculpatory hearsay. It is constructive
7 exculpatory hearsay and that is what they are trying to 8 get. It is obvious what he is here for; it's just 9 against Skip.

10 MR. OSGOOD: I am entitled to put on a
11 defense and you chose to indict these people all 12 together and you are using the pronoun they to 13 deliberately paint a broad brush but you know under 14 Bruton you can't name them individually. And the way
15 you are trying this case, I am entitled to a defense
16 and I want to show my client wasn't the "they,,.

17 THE COURT: Ask one question. Ask if your 18 client is one of the "they" they referred to and then
19 let's get off of it.

20 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

21 Q Was Mr. Brown one of the they" they were talking
22 about?

23 A: I don't know.

24 Q Was his name mentioned specifically?

25 A: No.

1 Q Ever? A No.

2 Q All right. Now do you remember the interview you had

3 on December the 4th of 1995 with one of these law

4 enforcement people he was just asking you about?

5 A: One of the ATF agents?

6 Q Actually, I think he was with the Labor Racketeering

7 Strike Force of the Department of Labor, do you

8 remember that?

9 A: Was it that guy right there at the table (indicating)?

10 Q He may have been there. I don't know, sir.

11 A: As far as I knew, it was the ATF.

12 Q Did any of those agents ever ask you if you knew Alan

13 Betterd(phonetics)?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Do you know Alan Betterd?

16 A: I know him but not close.

17 Q How long have you known him?

18 A: Not very long. I don't really know him. I just know

19 of him.

20 Q Is he about your age?

21 A: I don't know how old he is.

22 Q Is he from the Marlborough area?

23 A: I don't know that either.

24 Q But you do know him.

25 A: Yeah, I have seen him.

1 Q How about a To mm ie Lee King, did they ask you about
 2 that person?
 3 A: Yes, I believe so.
 4 Q You knew him, didn't you?
 5 A: Tommie Lee King?
 6 Q Yes, sir.
 7 A: I don't remember that name.
 8 Q I thought you just told me you knew him.
 9 A: Tommie Lee King?
 10 Q Tommie Lee King.
 11 THE COURT: You told him he knew him. He 12 didn't say he knew him.
 13 MR. OSGOOD: If I did, I apologize, Your
 14 Honor.
 15 Q Do you know him?
 16 A: No, I don't know him.
 17 Q Okay. Chuck Jennings, do you know him?
 18 A: No, I don't.
 19 Q Correy Colinka (phonetics), do you know him?
 20 A: Of him.
 21 Q And To mm ie Edwards, do you know Tommie Edwards?
 22 A: Yeah, I know To mm ie.
 23 Q What about Johnny Driver?
 24 A: No.
 25 Q Do you remember these names being thrown out to you

1412

1 during the interview?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q Some you said you knew; some you didn't.

4 A: There were pictures to go along with it, too.

5 Q Are these Marlborough people?

6 A: People where I have seen them, that's where I have seen
7 them from.

8 Q How many people were at the party, or the event, where 9 this took place, this conversation you have testified
10 to here day?

11 MR. MILLER: This is repetitious. It has 12 been covered by both attorneys.

13 MR. OSGOOD: I represent Mr. Brown. I don't
14 represent the other two defendants.

15 THE COURT: That has been overruled. Ask
16 your next question.

17 Q Was there a lot of conversation going on by everyone?

18 A: There was two conversations, Skip's and the other one.

19 Q All right. And you were listening to all of them at 20 the same time.

21 A: No, I was listening to Tracy and I heard dynamite,
22 explosion and that caught my attention. That's when I
23 started listening to them.

24 Q But you didn't hear the beginning of the conversation.

25 That's all I have.

1 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

2 MR. MILLER: No Redirect.

3 MR. PETERS: Just between the witnesses we
4 need to approach.

5 THE COURT: You may.

6 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

7 MR. PETERS: It is a minor deal. Just for 8 the record, the last witness was asked about various 9 photos he was shown and asked to make identification.
10 And it is my understanding those photos don't exist.
11 There isn't a photospread available for the defense.

12 THE COURT: He wasn't asked about the photos.
13 He volunteered about the photos. He was asked about 14 the names of the people. He said they asked you about 15 them, didn't they and he said "Yes and showed me
16 photos." The witness brought up the photos.

17 MR. PETERS: He was shown photos and for my
18 record, those photos are not currently in existence
19 for the defense to be able to look at the photographs.

20 MR. BECKER: But he hasn't been asked to 21 make a photo identification. No suggestion of an
22 improper in-court I.D. What's the point?

23 MR. MILLER: It has no relevance.

24 THE COURT: Why are you mentioning this?

25 MR. PETERS: Because on the record now we

1414

1 have somebody saying photos and that's in the record.
2 I can't change that. And for purposes of my record,
3 these photos are not photos that have been provided
4 to the defense and I didn't hint anybody is accusing
5 anybody of doing something improper. I just want the 6 record to reflect these are not photos that we have had 7 an opportunity to look at.

8 THE COURT: Okay, it reflects that.

9 (Proceedings in the jury's hearing.)

10 THE COURT: Call your next witness.

11 MR. MILLER: The government calls Tracy
12 Ownby.

13 TRACY OWNBY'

14 having been sworn, testified:

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. MILLER:

17 Q Would you tell the court and the jury your name,
18 please.

19 A: Tracy Ownby.

20 Q How old are you, Mrs. Ownby?

21 A: Twenty-six.

22 Q I want to go back to November the 28th of 1998 and did
23 you live in the Marlborough area?

24 A: No.

25 Q Where did you live back then?

1 A: State Line.

2 Q And do you recall the explosion that occurred in the
3 early morning hours of November 29, 1988 that killed
4 six fire fighters?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q How do you recall the explosion?

7 A: Just by the news and hearing from other people.

8 Q Now back in November of 1988 did you know Doug Bayliff?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q How did you know him?

11 A: He was my boy friend.

12 Q Is he still your boy friend?

13 A: No.

14 Q Back around the time of the explosion did you know Skip
15 Sheppard?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you ever come to know Skip Sheppard?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Do you know about when you met Mr. Sheppard?

20 A: About the summer of '89.

21 Q And do you see him in the courtroom today?

22 A: Yeah.

23 Q Can you point him out?

24 A: Right there (indicating).

25 Q Is that the defendant standing?

1416

1 A: Yeah.

2 Q Do you know a fellow by the name of Lee Ballinger?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Now some time after the explosion were you over at Lee
5 Ballinger's house?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q And what were you over there for?

8 A: Lee had some lamps because he was moving out and he was
9 going to sell them and I needed some lamps.

10 Q Who did you go over there with?

11 A: Doug and Megan.

12 Q What is Megan's last name?

13 A: Williams.

14 Q When you got there was the defendant Skip Sheppard
15 there?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q So he was already there when you got there.

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Do you recall who else was over there?

20 A: Lee and some other guy I don't know, I never saw.

21 Q Now, over there at Lee Ballinger's house, when was this
22 in relation to the explosion? The explosion happened
23 in November of '88. Do you recall when you were over
24 at Lee Ballinger's house?

25 A: Probably September, '89, the beginning of September,

1 '89.

2 Q Now, Skip Sheppard was there. Where was the defendant
3 Skip Sheppard in the house?

4 A: In the living room sitting on the couch.

5 Q Who was he talking with?

6 A: Doug and another guy.

7 Q Could you overhear any of the conversation?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q How close were you to Skip Sheppard while he was 10 talking?

11 A: Probably ten feet.

12 Q What did you overhear the defendant Skip Sheppard
13 talking?

14 A: He asked Doug if he remembered the explosion. Doug
15 said yes and he said, well, he was there.

16 Q "He", who is saying he was there?

17 A: Skip was there.

18 Q What was Skip Sheppard's tone of voice?

19 A: He was talking kind of low.

20 Q Did you overhear Skip Sheppard say why he was there at
21 the construction site?

22 A: He said they went there to steal something. I didn't
23 hear the whole conversation.

24 Q What did Skip Sheppard say happened while he was there
25 at the construction site?

1 A: He just said they were -

2 MR. OSGOOD: Objection, Your Honor. I want
3 to know whether or not he said "we" or he said "they,,
4 he is quoting.

5 THE COURT: You have a right of cross
6 examination.

7 Q What did Skip Sheppard say happened while he was there
8 at the construction site?

9 A: He said we were running and it exploded.

10 Q What did he say about a fire, do you recall?

11 A: Nothing.

12 Q How many times have you heard the defendant Skip
13 Sheppard talk about this?

14 A: Once.

15 Q When did you give a statement to the Kansas City,
16 Missouri Police Department?

17 A: Two weeks after I heard it.

18 Q Who did you go down there with?

19 A: Megan Williams.

20 Q Did you and Megan Williams discuss together what you
21 heard that night?

22 A: That night we were talking about it and decided to 23 call.

24 Q Call what?

25 A: 474-TIPS.

1 Q Now, were you present when Megan Williams gave a
2 statement to the police?

3 A: No.

4 Q Was she present when you gave your statement?

5 A: No.

6 Q Was Doug Bayliff there?

7 A: No.

8 Q Did you ever tell Doug you were going down to the 9 police department?

10 A: No.

11 Q When did he learn you had been there?

12 A: Later that day.

13 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
14 witness, Judge.

15 THE COURT: Miss Hunt.

16 CROSS EXAMINATION

17 BY MS. HUNT:

18 Q My name is Susan Hunt. I represent Skip Sheppard and 19 you are Miss Ownby.

20 A: Uh-huh.

21 Q I think you stated on your direct examination that 22 the night you overheard this conversation you were at 23 Lee Ballinger's house, is that correct?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Is Ballinger his last name? Is it Lee Ballinger?

1 A: I guess, yes.

2 Q Do you know his last name?

3 A: He told me it was Ballinger.

4 Q It was at Lee Ballinger's house you were at with your
5 boy friend Doug at that time, is that correct?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q And your girl friend Megan Williams, is that correct?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q And I think you stated on direct examination you were 10 there because Lee had some lamps he wanted to sell you,
11 is that correct?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Did he call you that day and ask you to come over and 14 look at the lamps?

15 A: Yeah.

16 Q During this conversation when Skip Sheppard was 17 talking, his voice was somewhat low, wasn't it?

18 A: Yeah, his voice was low.

19 Q He wasn't talking in a normal conversational tone?

20 A: No, not outloud but just talking to somebody you would 21 be talking to on the couch.

22 Q Somebody sitting right next to you, would that be
23 right?

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Across the room, you couldn't really hear what he was

1 saying if you were across the room.

2 A: I didn't hear the whole conversation but I could hear
3 what he was saying.

4 Q Part of the time this conversation occurred you were in
5 the hallway, weren't you?

6 A: No, I was in the living room.

7 Q You hadn't gone to the bathroom at one point.

8 A: No.

9 Q During the time this conversation was occurring were
10 you also having your own conversation with Lee
11 Ballinger about these lamps?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q So you were talking to Lee Ballinger at the time, is
14 that correct?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And trying to hear what this conversation was, is that
17 right?

18 A: Yeah.

19 Q So you really, like you said, you couldn't hear the 20 whole conversation, right?

21 A: Not the whole thing, no.

22 Q Of the part of the conversation you did hear, Skip
23 never said anything about starting a fire up there, did
24 he?

25 A: No.

1422

1 Q And he never mentioned anything about a fire at all,
2 did he?

3 A: No.

4 Q He never mentioned a security guard being present up
5 there, did he?

6 A: I didn't hear him.

7 Q You never heard anything about a security guard at all,
8 is that correct?

9 A: No.

10 Q Did he mention anything at all about dynamite?

11 A: Not that I heard.

12 Q Did you talk to Doug Bayliff about the reward in this
13 case?

14 A: No.

15 Q You didn't have a conversation with him in which you
16 said there is a thousand dollar reward out and we could 17 use the money?

18 A: I know I never talked to Doug about it at all because 19 Doug told me not to say anything to anyone.

20 Q When Doug told you not to say anything, you were 21 obviously talking to him about this incident.

22 A: No, this is when we left the house and I told him what
23 I heard Skip talking and what T heard them talking
24 about, and he told me not to say anything to anyone
25 because these people are dangerous and to just keep

1423

1 quiet and don't ever say nothing. And that's the last
2 I ever talked to Doug about it.

3 Q Were you aware there was, and still is, a reward in
4 this case?

5 A: No, I wasn't.

6 Q There was somebody else present in this house you
7 ~ didn't recognize, is that right?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q And describe him.

10 A: He was, I don't know how tall he was because he was 11 sitting down. He had blondish brown hair, kind of 12 dirty looking.

13 Q Not dark hair.

14 A: No, not dark hair.

15 Q Blondish brown, in that range, is that right?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Was he Mexican?

18 A: I don't think so, no.

19 Q Was this conversation that you overheard a direct
20 conversation between Skip and Doug?

21 A: Yeah.

22 Q And so Doug was asking questions, is that right? Did
23 Doug ask Skip any questions during that conversation?

24 A: He was answering when Skip said, you know, do you
25 remember the explosion. They were turned facing each

1424

1 other.

2 Q They were sitting on the couch together.

3 ~ A Just like this (indicating).

4 Q Were you sitting on the couch or were you somewhere
5 else talking to Lee?

6 ~ A I was standing up in the living room.

7 Q By the couch.

8 A: No, probably ten feet.

9 Q Was it a big living room?

10 A: No.

11 Q So you didn't hear the whole conversation but it looked 12 like they were talking directly to each other, is that
13 right?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Was this a long conversation?

16 A: Not real long.

17 Q Ten minutes.

18 A: Yeah, probably.

19 Q Less than ten or more than ten.

20 A: Around that. Not real long. Short.

21 MISS HUNT: I think that is all I have.

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. PETERS:

24 Q My name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank Sheppard.

25 The conversation that you are describing overhearing

1425

1 with Skip Sheppard, did that conversation take place at
2 8110 Wayne?

3 A: No.

4 Q At the time this conversation was taking place were you
5 under the influence of any sort of illegal drug?

6 A: No.

7 Q And your testimony is that you overheard bits and
8 pieces of this conversation, is that a fair
9 characterization?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q So you don't have any idea as to what was said at the 12 beginning of the conversation, for example.

13 A: That was the beginning of the conversation.

14 Q So you heard the entire conversation.

15 A: No.

16 Q You heard bits and pieces of the conversation.

17 A: Yeah.

18 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

19 MR. BUNCH: Nothing.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions, Your Honor.

21 CROSS EXAMINATION

22 BY MS. OSGOOD:

23 Q Ms. Ownby, my name is John Osgood and I represent 24 Richard Brown. You know Richard?

25 A Yes.

1426

1 Q You were 19 at the time of these events, I think.

2 A: Yes.

3 ~ Q And Richard was the same age as you.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And you have described a dark-complected individual -

6 ~ A Not dark complected.

7 Q This third party.

8 A: No, it wasn't dark complected.

9 Q It wasn't Richard Brown.

10 A: No.

11 Q Richard Brown has never made any admissions to you and 12 told you anything, that he had anything to do with 13 this, has he?

14 A: No.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Okay. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Anything else?

17 MR. MILLER: No Redirect.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, . ma'am. You may step
19 down.

20 MR. BECKER: Can we approach the bench.

21 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

22 MR. BECKER: I would like to inquire of 23 counsel for Mr. Frank Sheppard if there is any good
24 faith basis for the question about the witness being 25 under the influence of drugs when this conversation

1427

1 occurred, to impugn this witness without a good
2 faith basis.

3 MR. PETERS: Yes, we had a good faith basis.
4 We will probably put on rebuttal testimony she was
5 consuming drugs that day.

6 MR. BECKER: Okay.

7 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

8 MR. MILLER: The government calls Megan
9 Williams to the stand.

10 MEGAN WILLIAMS'

11 having been duly sworn, testified:

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. MILLER:

14 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

15 A: Megan Williams.

16 Q How old are you now?

17 A: Twenty-three.

18 Q I want to go back to November the 28th of 1988. Did
19 you live in the Marlborough area?

20 A: Yes, I did.

21 Q And do you recall the explosion in the early morning of 22 November 29, 1988 that killed six fire fighters?

23 A: Yes, I do.

24 Q How do you know about the explosion?

25 A: My house started to shake and some of the windows were

1428

1 blown out of the house.

2 Q Do you know a Doug sayliff?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q And do you know Tracy Ownby?

5 A Yes, I do.

6 Q Did you know Skip Sheppard around the time of the
7 explosion?

8 A: No, I did not.

9 Q Did you ever come to know Skip Sheppard?

10 A: Yes, I did.

11 Q Do you remember when you met him?

12 A: I met him in January of '89.

13 Q Do you see him in the courtroom today?

14 A: Yes.

15 Q Can you point him out?

16 A: The gentleman that just stood up.

17 Q Do you know a fellow by the name of Lee Ballinger?

18 A: No, I do not.

19 Q Some time after the explosion were you over at a house
20 with Doug Bayliff, Tracy Owenby, whom you said you
21 know, and the defendant, Skip Sheppard?

22 A: Yes, I was.

23 Q Now, in relation to the explosion, about when was this,
24 when did this occur?

25 A: I would say probably a year after.

1 Q After the explosion.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q Now, when you got there was the defendant Skip Sheppard
4 already there or did he come in after you got there?

5 A: He was already there.

6 Q Could you see who the defendant Skip Sheppard was 7 talking with, do you remember?

8 A: He was talking to Doug Bayliff.

9 Q Could you overhear any of the conversation?

10 A: Yes, I did.

11 Q How close were you to the defendant Skip Sheppard while
12 he was talking with Doug Bayliff?

13 A: I would say no more than 20 or 30 feet.

14 Q What did you overhear Skip Sheppard say about the 15 explosion on 71 highway?

16 A: That he was there.

17 Q What was his tone of voice?

18 A: To me it was a low, almost a whisper but I wasn't close
19 to him.

20 Q Could you overhear him say anything else other than he 21 was there?

22 A: No, I did not.

23 Q Did you ever take this information to the police?

24 A: yes, I did.

25 Q Do you remember how soon after you heard the

1430

1 conversation you went to the police?

2 A: I would say about a month.

3 Q And who did you go down there with?

A: Tracy Ownby.

5 ~ Q Was Tracy with you when you gave your statement?

6 A: No, she was not.

7 Q Were you with Tracy when she gave hers?

8 A: No, I was not.

9 Q Was Doug Bayliff with you?

10 A: No, he wasn't.

11 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
12 witness, Judge.

13 CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. HUNT:

15 Q My name is Susan Hunt and I represent Skip Sheppard.

16 Did you go to this house with Tracy and Doug?

17 A: Yes, I did.

18 Q And when you walked in the house, who all was present?

19 A: I couldn't say. I am not for sure.

20 Q How many people were present then?

21 A: Probably, about seven or six people, other people there
22 besides us.

23 Q How many men were there?

24 A: I couldn't say.

25 Q You don't know if it was three men, five men.

1 A No, ma'am.

2 Q Were there any women besides the two of you?

3 A Not that I remember, no.

4 Q Was there another person sitting on a couch across from 5 ~Skip when this conversation allegedly took place?

6 A I couldn't say.

7 Q During the conversation were all these seven people i
8 the house?

9 A: I believe so, yes.

10 Q And were they all in the living room listening to this
11 conversation or roaming around the house?

12 A: Roaming around the house.

13 Q When this conversation took place you were in the 14 hallway, is that correct?

15 A: Yes, ma'am.

16 Q You didn't hear the whole conversation, did you?

17 A: No.

18 Q And Tracy was in the hallway with you, wasn't she?

19 A: Yes, she was.

20 Q You two had just gone to the bathroom and were coming
21 out.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Was Tracy talking to Lee Ballinger?

24 A: She was talking to other people there but I don't know
25 Lee Ballinger so I couldn't say.

1 Q Did this conversation take place at 8110 Wayne?

2 A Not to my knowledge, no.

3 Q Do you know where the conversation did take place?

4 A No, it was in a house in Marlborough, I know that.

5 Q When this conversation was occurring, I believe you

6 testified Skip was almost whispering it was such a low

7 tone.

8 A: From where I was standing, that's what it sounded like

9 to me.

10 Q Did you see any individuals who looked Mexican or had a

11 dark complexion?

12 A: I couldn't say, no, not at this time.

13 Q When this conversation was taking place was it just a

14 conversation between Skip and Doug?

15 A: I believe so, yes.

16 Q Were they sitting side-by-side on the couch?

17 A: yes, they were.

18 Q And how far away was the hallway, your coming out of 19 the bathroom, a hallway into the living room from the 20 bathroom.

21 A: I believe so, yes.

22 Q When you gave your statement to Detective Fraise, do

23 you remember that?

24 A: Yes, I do.

25 Q And when you were down there talking to Detective

1433

1 Fraise, did you talk to him prior to him taking a
2 videotape?

3 A I wasn't videotaped.

4 Q It was a recorded statement.

5 ~ A Yes, ma'am.

6 Q You have read it over and signed it, is that correct?

7 A: Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Did you talk to him prior to doing the recorded
9 statement, however?

10 A: No, I did not.

11 Q Did he tell you during that statement that there was a
12 reward for this?

13 A: No, he did not.

14 Q Did you again talk to officials in this case on October
15 11th of 1996?

16 A: Yes, I did.

17 Q and did you have a chance to review this taped
18 statement you gave at that time?

19 A: That statement was not taped at that time.

20 Q No, the statement in September, '89 was taped.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q and then you reviewed that statement.

23 A: I reviewed my signed statement. I didn't review a
24 tape-recorded statement.

25 Q You reviewed a written statement in a question and

1434

1 answer format.

2 A: Yes.

3 ~ Q You just reviewed that and you said basically that was
4 ~accurate, is that right?

5 A: Yes, ma'am.

6 Q Were you surprised or would you be surprised if someone
7 told you that Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard and Richard
8 Brown ran around together a lot?

9 MR. MILLER: I object as argumentative. It
10 asks for hearsay and speculation.

11 THE COURT: It is irrelevant. We are not
12 here to determine what would or wouldn't surprise her.

13 MS. HUNT: I will rephrase the question.

14 THE COURT: Please do.

15 Q Did Frank Sheppard and Richard Brown, to your 16 knowledge, hang around together, run around together?

17 A: Richard with them, not to my knowledge, no.

18 Q And it is your statement Detective Fraise never told
19 you there was a reward out.

20 A: Not until after my statement.

21 Q But he did tell you at some point that day then.

22 A: Yes, ma'am.

23 Q Are you aware there is still a reward out?

24 A: I wouldn't know.

25 Q How much was the reward, did he tell you the amount of

1 the reward at that time?

2 A: I couldn't recall the amount, no.

3 Q Did you ever discuss this conversation you overheard
4 with other people in the neighborhood?

5 ~ A No, I did not.

6 Q Did you ever tell Ownby?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q You talked to her about it.

9 A: yes, ma'am.

10 Q Do you still see Doug and Tracy?

11 A: No, I have not seen them, except for today, within the 12 last five years.

13 Q You have kind of gone your separate ways.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q But you did see them today.

16 A: Yes, I did.

17 Q Did you talk to them about this situation at all.

18 A: No, it was in passing.

19 Q Did you ride down here with them at all today?

20 A: No.

21 Q Were you in the elevator with them today?

22 A: No, I was not.

23 MS. HUNT: That is all I have.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. PETERS:

1 Q Ma'am, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
2 Sheppard. Do you remember what Skip Sheppard was 3 wearing that day?

4 A: No, I do not.

5 Q Do you remember what Doug Bayliff was wearing that day?

6 A: No, I do not.

7 Q We are talking about something that happened -

8 A: Almost eight years ago.

9 Q And recognizing that a lot of things have changed, but 10 back when we are talking about, would you agree this is 11 during a period of time in your life when you and your 12 friends would go from house to house partying?

13 A: Yes, it is.

14 MR. MILLER: I object to the form of the 15 question, "would you agree", plus it is not relevant.

16 THE COURT: I will sustain the objection as 17 to form.

18 Q Ma'am, were you going during this time in your life
19 from house to house partying?

20 A: Yes, I was.

21 Q Did that partying include illegal drugs?

22 A: Yes, it did.

23 Q And the going from house to house that we are talking
24 about, the reason that you had gone to this particular 25 house that particular day was to do that sort of

1437

1 partying, is that correct?

2 A: I could not say at this time, no.

3 Q It wouldn't be unlikely that illegal drugs would have
4 been consumed at that house on that day.

5 MR. MILLER: I object to the form the
6 question. Also, the relevance.

7 THE COURT: I think you have invented
8 compound speculation, Mr. Peters, and I am going to 9 sustain the objection.

10 MR. PETERS: I can't write a note for that 11 one, Judge.

12 Q At the house that we are talking about in the 13 conversation you are talking about overhearing there
14 were, in fact, people consuming illegal drugs at that 15 time, weren't there?

16 A: I could not say for sure, no, not to my knowledge.

17 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

18 THE COURT: Mr . Bunch.

19 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

20 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood.

23 MR. OSGOOD: Just a few, Your Honor.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. OSGOOD:

1438

1 Q Miss Williams, I am John Osgood and I represent Richard
2 Brown. In 1989 when you gave your statement, you would
3 have been I guess 15 years old, is that right?

4 A: I would say either 15 or 14, yes.

5 Q And you know Richard Brown.

6 A: Yes, I do.

7 Q Do you see him in the courtroom here?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q He was about 18 years old at that time, wasn't he?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Did he date some of your friends?

12 A: Yes, he did.

13 Q And have you been on double dates with him and other
14 guys and other girls?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And kind of ran around a group of kids about the same
17 age.

18 A: Yes, I did.

19 Q And, for example, did you know To mm ie Clark?

20 MR. MILLER: I object to the relevance now.

21 THE COURT: Is that relevant?

22 MR. OSGOOD: It is relevant to show my
23 client -

24 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I didn't ask
25 about your client. I asked why is whether she knew

1 Tommie Clark relevant to your inquiry?

2 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Clark's name will come up in
3 the case, Your Honor. Let me rephrase the question.

4 THE COURT: Let's not go through a whole
5 litany.

6 Q Were you asked about Tommie Clark when you were
7 interviewed by the agents?

8 MR. MILLER: Again I object. It is not
9 relevant.

10 MR. OSGOOD: I assure the court it is 11 relevant and it will be relevant.

12 THE COURT: Come up and tell me why it is
13 relevant.

14 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

15 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Clark is one of the people
16 that their witnesses will say was one of the ones
17 responsible at some point in time as one of the ones
18 that was a suspect and one of the ones they thought
19 had done some of this.

20 MR. MILLER: Not this witness.

21 MR. OSGOOD: I want to asks if he is someone
22 she was familiar with in the neighborhood. The agents
23 asked her that.

24 THE COURT: I will sustain the object.
25 That's way too far.

1 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

2 Q Back when you were 14 and 15, Mr. Brown was around 18,
3 how old was Skip Sheppard?

4 A: I couldn't say. I don't know his age now.

5 Q Let me ask you this. Did he run around with this group
6 of kids?

7 A: No, he did not.

8 Q Was he an older guy?

9 A: Yes, he was.

10 Q The way young teenage girls talk about older guys.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Before I became 54 I thought 27 was old. You
13 understand what I am saying.

14 A: Yes.

15 Q And Mr. Brown never ever made any statements or 16 admissions to you to indicate he knew anything about 17 this explosion, did he, ma ' am?

18 A: No.

19 Q And the agents asked you about him, didn't they?

20 A: No, they did not.

21 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

23 MR. MILLER: No Redirect, Your Honor.

24 The government calls Carl Nettles.

25 MR. OSGOOD: Can we approach while we are

1441

1 waiting for him?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

4 MR. OSGOOD: Mr. Nettles, in his statement,
5 indicates that he sold methamphetamine to my client at 6 some point in time. It is totally unrelated to any
7 event in this case and I am concerned he might blurt
8 that out and I would move for a mistrial if he does.
9 My client has no felony convictions. He has never been
10 convicted of any drug violations. This man is a jail
11 house witness and I would ask the government, if they
12 haven't instructed him already, they instruct him not 13 to mention any allegation he ever sold methamphetamine
14 to my client.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: We had this discussion with 16 Mr. Becker. I am not worried about it because he said
17 they wouldn't get into it.

18 MS. HUNT: The subject of Nettles'
19 testimony is this report that I don't remember seeing.
20 I am sure I got it but I don't remember seeing it. If 21 we could take a short break.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: You gave it to us.

23 MS. HUNT: I am sure he did. I would like to 24 take a short break so I can read it.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: She is the only one that is

1 going to cross examine.

2 MS. HUNT: It is important to me. I don't
3 remember ever reading it. This is what I thought the 4 subject was going to be.

5 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

6 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
7 we are going to take a five minute break. Don't talk
8 about the case. We will conclude the testimony for the 9 afternoon probably within the next 30 to 40 minutes
10 after this break. So don't talk about the case and you
11 may withdraw.

12 RECESS

13 (Proceedings out of the presence of the jury.)

14 MR. BECKER: Miss Hunt called to my 15 attention, she had but one short report relating to 16 this next witness, Charles Nettles, and I believed
17 there was two reports. Then she found her two 18 reports but it turns out there are three reports. And,
19 most importantly, the report the government did not 20 provide, although I am still checking my records, but 21 the report of interview deals with the subject matter
22 of his testimony; that is Miss Hunt's client Skip
23 Sheppard. I fully believe at this point it was my 24 fault; that this was not turned over. It should have 25 been turned over. I believe the confusion arises out

1 of the fact we have two reports of interview from
2 July 16, 1996 from Carl Gene Nettles. One of them
3 deals with Bryan Sheppard's drug activity and the other
4 deals with Skip Sheppard and this case.

5 The Bryan Sheppard drug activity, one
6 was turned over. Right now it is clear to me I
7 did not turn over this report. So I would not
8 oppose any extension of time Miss Hunt needs to 9 proceed to this cross examination.

10 MS. HUNT: I would like to first thing in the 11 morning because there are several statements in the 12 report, I have not seen until now.

13 THE COURT: Do you have somebody else you
14 could put on?

15 MR. BECXER: We do not.

16 THE COURT: Don't you have any papers you can
17 deal with. We are all here ready. Do you have to kill
18 this hour and a half?

19 MR. BECKER: I am sorry, Judge. Papers,
20 there is not a whole lot of documents in this case.
21 We have various and sundry records relating to the fact
22 people are in jail together at the same time but I
23 would rather offer them at the time the witness is 24 testifying so it makes sense who we are talking about.
25 Other than that, we don't have a whole lot of records.

1 The bulk of the exhibits are photographs. All those
2 numbers are photographs and I apologize to the court.
3 I understand that I am the one that asked for more
4 time and now I am not prepared to fill it up.

5 THE COURT: Okay, we will bring them in and
6 we are going to stop now.

7 (The jury returns to the courtroom.)

8 THE COURT: Have a seat, folks. It develops
9 there is some document examination that needs to be
10 done before the next witness is called and examined so
11 we are going to stop this afternoon and pick up in the 12 morning at nine o'clock.

13 Now, I have a question from one of you
14 and we will deal with it first thing in the 15 morning. Don't talk about the case. Don't let 16 anybody talk about the case in your presence.
17 Don't read or listen to anything about it that 18 might come to your attention. And we will see you
19 in the morning at nine o'clock. You are excused.

20 (The jury leaves the courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: This is a question from one of 22 the jurors named Mark Deaton. It is spelled D-e-a-t-o
23 n. It reads, "This question is not about any one 24 witness' testimony. Can this be answered we are 25 viewing all the evidence for/against all the defendants

1445

1 at the same time. What are the charges against each."

2 It reads, "Are the same for a11?"

3 Now, it seems to me we answer that by
4 simply telling them it is a one count indictment.

5 All the defendants are named in the indictment.

6 And I can even read it to them again as far as
7 that is concerned. I have read the indictment.

8 It is short.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: We don't object to you reading
10 it.

11 MR. OSGOOD: Read it.

12 MR. BUNCH: We have no objection.

13 THE COURT: They are all named in the one
14 count. Okay, we will be in recess until tomorrow.

3 (The following proceedings were had in the
4 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)
5 THE COURT: All right. All right. I've gotten the 6 order of witnesses and identified the cross-examiners. Any 7 other formal matters before we go forward today?
8 MR. OSGOOD: Nothing formal, Your Honor.
9 Administrative matter. One of the witnesses that the 10 government has subpoenaed was related to my client, Shannon
11 Kerr, is about to go into labor. I'd like to give, with the 12 Court's permission, your phone number in here so she could 13 call and could get a message to us. That way if she goes
14 into labor, just call in your office so I could bring a
15 note.
16 MR. BECKER: What's the point? I think we can make 17 arrangements. We're not going to ask her to testify in the 18 next two days.
19 MR. OSGOOD: My client's mother would like to leave
20 immediately and be with her when she goes into labor, and 21 she's here.
22 THE COURT: Well, you may, you may give her, get
23 the number from one of the law clerks out here in Judge
24 Bartlett's -- 426-7395, I know for a fact -- and then they 25 can just convey the message in here.

1 All right. Now, let's try again with Mr. Nettles.

2 Are we ready to call the jury, gentlemen?

3 MR. BECKER: Yes, Judge.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Your Honor, while she's getting the 5 jury, I think you were going to reread the indictment this 6 morning. Are you going to do that first thing based on the 7 question that was asked yesterday?

8 THE COURT: Yeah, that's a good idea. I'll do
9 that.

10 (The following proceedings were had in the 11 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

12 THE COURT: Yesterday we got a note from Mr. Deaton
13 which read, "Because we are viewing all the evidence for or 14 against all the defendants at the same time, what are the 15 charges against each? Are they the same for all?"

16 The answer to, the general answer to the question
17 is yes. There is one charge, and all five defendants are 18 named in the indictment which embodies the one charge. I'm 19 going to read that indictment to you again. I think it's a 20 good idea as we go along in the trial for you to be reminded 21 what the indictment is.

22 And it reads, with the style of United States of 23 America v. George Frank Sheppard, also known as Frank
24 Sheppard, Earl D. Sheppard, also known as Skip Sheppard, 25 Darlene M. Edwards, Bryan E. Sheppard, Richard W. Brown.

1450

1 The grand jury charges that on or about November
2 29, 1988, in the Western District of Missouri, the defendants
3 George Frank Sheppard, also known as Frank Sheppard, Earl D.
4 Sheppard, also known as Skip Sheppard, Darlene M. Edwards,
5 Bryan E. Sheppard, Richard W. Brown, and others known and
6 unknown to the Grand Jury, maliciously damaged and destroyed,
7 by means of fire and explosive materials, vehicles and other
8 personal property, to wit: Tractor trailers containing 9 ammonium nitrate, used in an activity affecting interstate 10 commerce, and, as a direct and proximate result of the 11 defendants' conduct, death resulted to James H. Kilventon,
12 Robert D. McKarnin, Michael R. Oldham, Gerald Halloran,
13 Thomas Fry, and Luther E. Hurd, who were Kansas City, 14 Missouri, Fire Department firefighters performing their 15 duties.

16 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
17 Sections 844(i) and 2.

18 And that is signed by the foreperson for the grand 19 jury and endorsed by Mr. Becker on behalf of the United 20 States Attorney.

21 That is the charge against all the defendants.

22 All right. You may proceed, Mr. Miller.

23 MR. MILLER: Once again for the record, Your Honor,
24 the government calls Mr. Carl Nettles.

25 THE COURT: All right. You may swear the witness.

1451

2 CARL NETTLES,
3 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,
4 testified as follows:

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Miller:

8 Q. Would you tell the Court and the jury your name, please?

9 A. Carl Nettles.

10 Q. How old are you, sir?

11 A. Thirty-four.

12 Q. And where are you currently incarcerated?

13 A. St. Clair County, Osceola.

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Nettles. Talk a little
15 slower, if you would. I didn't understand what you said.

16 THE WITNESS: Osceola, Missouri, St. Clair County
17 Jail.

18 THE COURT: St. Clair County Jail in Osceola; is
19 that right?

20 THE WITNESS: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) How many convictions do you have?

23 A. Three.

24 Q. Three? Would you tell the jury what they are?

25 A. Receiving stolen property, bad checks, and attempt to

1452

1 possess methamphetamines.

2 Q. Let's go back to the first one. And when were you
3 convicted of that?

4 A. 1982.

5 Q. Okay. And do you remember what your sentence was?

6 A. Two years.

7 Q. okay. And then about your second conviction, when was
8 that?

9 A. I think it was '86 or '87.

10 Q. What was that for?

11 A. Bad checks.

12 Q. And what was your sentence for that?

13 A. Five years.

14 Q. okay. And when did you receive your last conviction,
15 the third one?

16 A. I was sentenced November 13th of '96.

17 Q. okay. And what was your sentence?

18 A. six and a half years.

19 Q. Now, do you recall the explosion that caused the death
20 of the six firefighters?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how do you recall that explosion?

23 A. I remember hearing about it in 1988 when I was at the 24 honor center.

25 Q. Okay. Yeah, where were you in November of 1988?

1 A. Kansas City Honor Center at Ninth and oak.

2 Q. Now, did you know Earl Skip Sheppard at the time of the
3 explosion?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you now know Earl Skip Sheppard?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. okay. Do you see him in the courtroom?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Could you point him out for the jury?

10 A. There.

11 Q. Standing up in the sweater?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. When did you meet Defendant Skip Sheppard?

14 A. It was either in April or May of last year.

15 Q. Okay. Where did you meet him?

16 A. St. Clair County.

17 Q. In jail?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. How did you meet him?

20 A. He came in there, and we just started talking.

21 Q. Were you two in the same cell, cellblock?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Would you describe to the jury the setup down there as 24 to how you met him?

25 A. Well, when you come in, they appoint you to a modular or

1454

1 pod, and eight to ten people live in that pod. And he came
2 into the one that I was in.

3 Q. How many of you were in the pod?

4 A. It would have had to have been approximately, I'm not
5 sure exactly how many people was in there at the time.

6 Q. How did the two of you strike up a relationship?

7 A. We just started talking.

8 Q. Did you know anybody mutually?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Who?

11 A. Richard Brown and Bryan Sheppard.

12 Q. Okay. Do you see either Richard Brown or Bryan Sheppard
13 in the courtroom?

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to object to this, Judge,
15 as relevance. Whether he knew them or not, what relevance
16 does that have to this case?

17 THE COURT: Well, I don't know yet. I haven't 18 heard his testimony. I assume that you'll tie it up, and if 19 not, we'll dispose of it.

20 MR. MILLER: It was just used to show as to how 21 these two got to know one another, that's all, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Why don't you proceed, then, with his 23 acquaintance with Mr. Sheppard, Skip Sheppard.

24 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Did conversations about the explosion, 25 the cause of death of the six firefighters come up between

1 the two of you?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Who brought up the conversation?

4 A. I don't remember how those came up, but it came up. I
5 mean, I don't know whether I said something that I knew
6 somebody.

7 Q. What did Defendant Skip Sheppard tell you about his 8 involvement in the explosion?

9 A. That they had been around the construction site
10 taking -

11 THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Nettles. Start that 12 sentence again, if you would, and speak more slowly. It just 13 isn't coming through.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I'm going to have an 15 objection to they. He started out with they.

16 THE COURT: I've already instructed on that, and I
17 think the jury understands.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach a minute, Judge,
19 please?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
22 proceedings were had:)

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Here is my concern. This witness is 24 going to testify to nothing about Bryan Sheppard and Richard 25 Brown. So he asked him, do you know these people. Then the

1 next question is Skip, what did Skip tell you? They -- and
2 who does this jury now think is they?

3 THE COURT: When you get a chance, ask him.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: No, because in the conversation he 5 does talk about it, but they can't get into it because of the 6 problem of fitting into it. He did talk about Bryan
7 Sheppard, but there was no good faith basis for him to ask if
8 he knew these people.

9 THE COURT: How is he supposed to express himself
10 when he wasn't alone and there were other people, and then 11 Sheppard said that he and other people. That's a they.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: But that's the government's
13 problem. They chose to charge it this way, and that problem
14 has been created throughout.

15 MR. OSGOOD: This is another one of those 16 situations where he's pointing to two people other than who 17 he's testifying about. I move for a mistrial on that basis.

18 THE COURT: Come on. That's silly.

19 MR. OSGOOD: It's not, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yes, it is. Have him specify who he 21 means by they.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: No, because that creates the problem
23 that we're talking about, because if he says they, he's going
24 to say Bryan Sheppard, which they're not entitled to get out
25 of him. That's the whole problem here. What has happened

1 is, in my estimation, I don't think it was done on purpose,
2 but my estimation was that he asked him if he knew Bryan and
3 Richard, which he said he did. There's not going to be any 4 testimony from this witness regarding Richard and Bryan at
5 all.

6 THE COURT: Because you won't let him.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Because he can't under the rules,
8 under the law. And so what I'm saying is that now when he
9 says they, the only logical conclusion for this jury is that 10 they is Richard and Bryan. That's why we asked before that 11 that question be stricken from the record.

12 MR. BECKER: If I may, in the case I earlier
13 provided to the Court, and I believe it was James, summarized
14 the use of neutral pronouns such as they. And even in a 15 two-defendant case when a plural we is used, that's 16 acceptable.

17 So here we have a situation that's much beyond
18 that. There's multiple defendants. It doesn't inextricably
19 lead to these two defendants.

20 THE COURT: That's right.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me make my point here. My point
22 is there was no reason -- I objected to relevance. There was 23 no reason to have this man identify Richard Brown and Bryan
24 Sheppard. There's going to be no testimony from this witness
25 regarding those people. And then when the next question

1458

1 comes, you know, what did he say, and he says they, that it's
2 inescapable, in my opinion, for the jury to believe that.

3 So the relief I'm asking for is that the judge
4 would go back and tell the jury to disregard -

5 THE COURT: The questions and reference to these
6 people?

7 MR. MILLER: The only reason the question was asked
8 is to show that they didn't just sit there and out of the 9 blue start talking about this, they had something that tied
10 them together. That was the reason the question was asked.

11 MR. BECKER: If we don't hear any cross-examination
12 that this witness is making it up, that's fine.

13 MR. PETERS: Judge, the problem I see that's not 14 being addressed, I agree with Mr. Becker's analysis of the 15 case law, except where the prosecutor draws attention to 16 particular defendants.

17 THE COURT: I've got that. I understand that.
18 Let's don't do that again.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: That's the problem. They have 20 created this and now -

21 THE COURT: We'll instruct them. Let's go.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Can I finish, Judge, please? What 23 I'm saying is we cannot be then punished when, Susan Hunt is 24 going to cross-examine him about whether he made this up.
25 They have created this problem. Had they not created it, we

1 wouldn't be in it.

2 THE COURT: We'll see how the cross-examination
3 goes. I'll instruct them appropriately.

4 MR. OSGOOD: If you're going to do a cleanup
5 instruction, why don't you throw in when you told them the 6 indictment, what the indictment said, remind them it was not
7 evidence, it's merely the charge.

8 THE COURT: Oh, I've already told them that. I'm 9 not going to do that again. Let's go with this.

10 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

11 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I'll instruct you
12 that you are to -- the objection to the question was 13 sustained, and you are to disregard any reference in any 14 prior question to any defendant, other than the one who is 15 being quoted by the witness at the time the witness
16 testifies. You are not to infer or assume what may, who or 17 what may be meant by the use of the term "they."

18 All right. You may proceed.

19 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) What did Defendant Skip Sheppard tell
20 you as to why he went to the construction site?

21 A. They was stealing tools or equipment from the
22 construction site.

23 Q. What did Defendant Skip Sheppard say was set on fire?

24 A. The trailer.

25 Q. Did the Defendant Skip Sheppard tell you why the trailer

1460

1 was set on fire?

2 A. To cover up the stuff that they had taken.

3 Q. Did the Defendant skip Sheppard tell you what was used

4 to start the trailer on fire?

5 A. Gas.

6 Q. Did Defendant Skip Sheppard tell you where the gasoline

7 came from?

8 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I'm going to object.

9 They're leading questions.

10 THE COURT: Yes, but because of the rules we're

11 constrained with, overruled.

12 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Did the Defendant Skip Sheppard tell

13 you where the gasoline came from?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Where?

16 A. The QuikTrip station that was on 71 Highway there.

17 Q. And would you tell the jury how that conversation about

18 the gasoline came up between you and Defendant Skip Sheppard,

19 and just confine it as to what Defendant Skip Sheppard told

20 you.

21 A. He had said something about having to go to the, to get

22 some gas, and I asked what did they do, run out of gas? And 23 he said, no, that they used the gas to start the fire.

24 Q. Did Skip Sheppard tell you what his defense to this was 25 going to be?

1461

1 A. I'm not sure what you mean.

2 Q. Okay. Did he tell you what he -

3 MR. OSGOOD: Objection. The question was 4 straightforward.

5 THE COURT: You don't know what his question is.

6 MR. OSGOOD: The question was did he tell you what 7 his defense was, and now he's going to tell him the answer he 8 can't tell the jury.

9 THE COURT: He asked him what he meant by the 10 question. The witness is entitled for the question to be 11 explained. Overruled. Go ahead.

12 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Did Defendant Skip Sheppard tell you
13 where he was going to say he was?

14 A. At his mother's house asleep in the back room or at a
15 brother-in-law's place.

16 Q. Did he mention the name of his brother-in-law?

17 A. Larry Baker or something like that.

18 Q. After Defendant Skip Sheppard gave you this information, 19 who did you contact?

20 A. My attorney.

21 Q. What do you hope to get for your testimony today?

22 A. Some leniency in my sentencing.

23 Q. What have you received for your testimony?

24 A. Nothing.

25 Q. What have you been promised for your testimony?

1462

1 A. Nothing.

2 Q. Now, did you see the episode regarding the explosion on 3 Unsolved Mvsteries?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. Was, did you see this episode before or after you had
6 spoken with Defendant Skip Sheppard?

7 A. A long time afterwards.

8 Q. Who is Ms. Vicki Strong?

9 A. She is my fiance.

10 Q. And what is her relationship to one of the slain
11 firefighters?

12 A. She's a second cousin to Thomas Fry.

13 THE COURT: To who, please?

14 THE WITNESS: Thomas Fry.

15 THE COURT: Fry?

16 THE WITNESS: Yes.

17 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) When did you learn this?

18 A. In August of last year.

19 Q. Was this before or after you'd spoken with Defendant
20 Skip Sheppard?

21 A. Afterwards.

22 MR. MILLER: That's all I have of this witness,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Cross?

1

2 By Ms. Hunt:

3 Q. Mr. Nettles, my name is Susan Hunt. I represent Skip
4 Sheppard. Let's go back to the beginning of your direct
5 testimony. You were going through your prior convictions.

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. And your last conviction was attempt to possess
8 methamph et am i ne ?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Attempt to possess with the intent to distribute or -

11 A. Attempt to possess with the intent to distribute.

12 Q. Okay. Was that conviction in federal court?

13 A. Yes, it was.

14 Q. In this district?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you have been sentenced on that?

17 A. Yes, I have.

18 Q. The sentencing I think you said was November 13th of 19 '96?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Have you filed an appeal on that case?

22 A. I don't think we have, no.

23 Q. Okay. So it's a final conviction, as far as you know?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. When you claim that Skip Sheppard first began

1 giving you information about this case -

2 A. Uh-huh.

3 Q. -- you contacted your attorney first, didn't you?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. You didn't call the police first?

6 A. No.

7 Q. And at some point did Detective True come to talk to
8 you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Special Agent True?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And he came to talk to you in Osceola; is that right?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Brought you up here and talked to you?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Your attorney was present?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you request your attorney to be present?

19 A. I don't know if I requested him specifically, but he was
20 there.

21 Q. okay. And did you have a conversation with Special
22 Agent True at that time?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did he have a tape recorder?

25 A. Ma'am, I don't remember.

1

1 Q. okay. Did you have a question and answer where you
2 signed question and answers written out?

3 A. I was talking to him, and he was writing stuff down. I
4 remember that.

5 Q. Okay. He was taking notes?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did he have a court reporter and put you under oath or 8 anything that you remember?

9 A. No, ma'am.

10 Q. Okay. You can't remember if there was a tape recorder?

11 A. No, ma'am.

12 Q. Did you ever sign a statement?

13 A. I think I did, or I don't know.

14 Q. You don't remember?

15 A. I don't remember.

16 Q. Did he show you before you testified today, he or 17 somebody in the prosecution, a report of your interview with 18 him?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you've had a chance to read through that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. okay. Did John O'Connor come to see you in Osceola?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And John O'Connor is a lawyer in this case; is that
25 right?

1 A. I think so.

2 Q. Okay. He told you he was, anyway, didn't he?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. okay. And did he come down with a court reporter?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And did they put you under oath and take a statement?

7 MR. MILLER: I'm going to object to this as there's 8 no relevance.

9 THE COURT: Where are we going with this?

10 MS. HUNT: I'm trying to establish the fact that he
11 gave Mr. O'Connor this statement.

12 THE COURT: And then?

13 MS. HUNT: I'm just trying to establish the fact,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Well, can't you agree that he gave 16 O'Connor a statement?

17 MR. MILLER: He didn't.

18 THE COURT: He didn't?

19 MR. MILLER: No.

20 MS. HUNT: That's where I'm going.

21 THE COURT: But so what? I mean, do you then have,
22 do you then intend to use the statement to impeach?

23 MS. HUNT: I'm just going to ask him one question
24 about the statement, and then I'm going to go on.

25 MR. MILLER: There's no relevance to it. It's the

1 fact that he didn't do it, and I guess they want to show
2 something with that. It's not relevant. He doesn't have to.

3 THE COURT: The fact that he didn't do what?

4 MR. MILLER: I guess that he didn't give a
5 statement, I guess. It's not relevant. He didn't have to.
6 That's what they're trying to get out.

7 THE COURT: Well, I think, yes, I think I
8 understand that, and I'm going to sustain that objection.

9 MS. HUNT: But I have the statement.

10 THE COURT: You're trying to incriminate by silence
11 is what it sounds like here.

12 MS. HUNT: No, Your Honor, I'm not. This is the 13 statement he gave Mr. O'Connor, and you've seen this.

14 THE COURT: Well, isn't it a fact that this 15 statement doesn't go into the merits or the substance of this
16 matter? It's a no-statement statement, isn't it?

17 MS. HUNT: That's what I'm going to ask him, that 18 he refused to answer questions about this testimony. That's 19 all I'm going to ask him.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ask him that.

21 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) When Mr. O'Connor was down there with a
22 court reporter, did you refuse to answer specific questions
23 about this case?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. Okay. You talked to your attorney and then Special

1 Agent True from the jail; is that right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And this conversation took place after the indictment
4 was returned in this case; isn't that right?

5 A. It was in July of last year. I don't know.

6 Q. Okay. If the indictment was returned in June, it would
7 have been after; is that right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And this case had made the news at that point, hadn't
10 it?

11 A. I don't know.

12 Q. Do you ever watch the news down there?

13 A. We watch the news, but I don't remember exactly when it
14 started coming on, I guess.

15 Q. At the time you talked to Mr. Sheppard in jail, you had 16 not been sentenced on your federal case yet; is that right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. But you didn't tell the police that until after you were 19 sentenced; is that right?

20 A. I don't understand what you mean by that.

21 Q. okay. Give me an idea of when Mr. Sheppard supposedly
22 made these statements to you.

23 A. May of last year, April or May, the end of May,
24 something like that.

25 Q. Okay. And you didn't call the police initially, you

1469

1 first called your attorney; is that right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. I think you testified on direct that Skip

4 Sheppard told you they had stole jackhammers from this site;

5 is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And he told you they had stolen generators; is that

8 correct?

9 A. Yes. And, two generators, I don't know, one or two.

10 Q. One or two generators?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And he told you he had been there on more than one

13 occasion stealing; is that right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And did he tell you that these items were stolen before

16 or during this?

17 A. He never said.

18 Q. Okay. And you are not sure because he never told you

19 who set the fire, did he?

20 A. No, he never told me.

21 Q. He never said he set the fire, did he?

22 A. No.

23 Q. And he told you that he was going to use his mother as 24 an alibi?

25 A. Yes.

1470

1 Q. What else did he tell you he stole from the construction
2 site?

3 A. Various tools. I mean -

4 Q. Nothing specific, just -

5 A. Nothing specific, yes.

6 Q. Did you get the impression it was a lot of tools and
7 equipment?

8 A. Quite a bit.

9 Q. Quite a bit. More than just the jackhammer and the 10 generator?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Those are the only specific things he told you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. okay. When you had this interview with Special Agent
15 True, and I think you said you read it before you testified
16 today?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 Q. Did you read it today or -

19 A. Yesterday.

20 Q. Yesterday?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. And is this pretty accurate as to what you said to them?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And didn't you say to Detective True that you never 25 heard of Larry Baker?

1 A. No, at that time I hadn't, that's true.

2 Q. When did you hear about Larry Baker?

3 A. I guess probably in August or September of last year.

4 Q. Okay. But you testified here today that Mr. Sheppard is
5 going to tell this jury at some point that he was at home
6 sleeping in his mother's back room; is that right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you've never heard of Liza Harrigan, have you?

9 A. Who?

10 Q. Liza Harrigan, or Elizabeth?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And you've never heard of Didi Baker, either, have you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Mr. Sheppard never admitted to you he set this fire and 15 committed this crime, did he?

16 A. No.

17 MS. HUNT: That's all I have.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Peters?

19 MR. PETERS: No questions.

20 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

21 THE COURT: Mr. O'Connor?

22 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood?

24 MR. OSGOOD: I just have two.

1

2 By Mr. Osgood:

3 Q. Do you know Shannon Riemers, R-I-E-M-E-R-S?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you date her at one time?

6 A. We seen each other, yes.

7 Q. And had an actual physical relationship with her?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And she is the Defendant Richard Brown's sister, isn't
10 she?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And that's how you met or know Richard Brown, isn't it?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Any redirect?

16 MR. MILLER: No redirect, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right, sir, you may step down.

18 Call your next witness.

19 MR. BECKER: United States calls Patty Smith.

20 THE COURT: Come up and stand by the witness chair
21 and be sworn, please.

1 PATTY SMITH,
2 being first duly sworn by Tenilla Sheehan, Courtroom Deputy,
3 testified as follows:

4 — — —
5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 By Mr. Becker:

7 Q. Good morning.

8 A. Good morning.

9 Q. Please state your name and spell your last name.

10 A. Patty Smith, S-M-I-T-H.

11 Q. How old are you?

12 A. Twenty-eight.

13 Q. Where do you live?

14 A. Grandview, Missouri.

15 Q. How long have you lived out in Grandview, Missouri?

16 A. oh, about five years.

17 Q. Do you know an individual by the name of skip Sheppard?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. How did you meet skip Sheppard?

20 A. Through Joe Everhart.

21 Q. Who is Joe Everhart?

22 A. I met Joe, he lived up the street from my sister, or his 23 mom lived up the street from my sister.

24 Q. When was this that you met skip Sheppard?

25 A. August 1990.

1 Q. Do you see skip Sheppard here in court today?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And could you tell us where he's sitting and what he's 4 wearing?

5 A. He's standing with a burgundy colored sweater.

6 MR. BECKER: Indicating Defendant skip Sheppard,
7 Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: That's correct.

9 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) In August approximately of 1990, where 10 did you meet skip Sheppard?

11 A. At Naomi Sheppard's house on Hickman Mills Drive.

12 Q. How did you get there?

13 A. I drove.

14 Q. Did you go there with anybody else?

15 A. Joe Everhart.

16 Q. I want to show you what's in evidence as Government's 17 Exhibit 318 and ask you if you recognize -- can you see the 18 TV screen there?

19 A. Yeah, yes.

20 Q. And do you recognize that photograph?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What is that?

23 A. Naomi Sheppard's house.

24 Q. Is that where you went, then, in August of 1990?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What happened when you first went to the Sheppard
2 residence on Hickman Mills Drive with Joe Everhart?

3 A. We talked to Skip, I was introduced to him, and he
4 eventually got in the car, and we went driving around and got
5 some beer and was drinking.

6 Q. Who was in the car then?

7 A. Joe Everhart and Skip, Earl Sheppard.

8 Q. Did you basically call him Skip or Earl?

9 A. Skip.

10 Q. Now, did there come a time, then, after that that you
11 began to see and socialize with Skip Sheppard?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How long a period of time was this?

14 A. Well, within a week.

15 Q. Please tell us, then, how this relationship with Skip
16 Sheppard developed.

17 A. I started going over to his house without Joe Everhart,
18 with me visiting, going over, getting him, and we would go
19 out drinking or get some beer and sit at his mom's house and 20 drink.

21 Q. Now, during that time -- and how long a period of time
22 did this go on, until approximately October?

23 A. Yeah, yes.

24 Q. Of 1990?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. During that time, did the subject of the explosion that
2 killed the firefighters ever come up?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you remember the first time that it came up with Skip
5 Sheppard?

6 A. The very first time that it, any of it came up, they
7 said that they didn't know who did it, they denied it, that 8 they knew who was responsible.

9 Q. Who said that?

10 A. Skip said that.

11 Q. Okay. What did Skip Sheppard say?

12 A. He laughed, and he said, we're stand-up guys, that we 13 don't know who did it. That was the very first conversation
14 that was -

15 THE COURT: He said we're stand-up guys; is that 16 what you said?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. We're stand-up kind of guys.
18 We don't know -- we didn't do it, but we know who did it, but
19 we wouldn't narc on them, we wouldn't tell.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Was there any other conversations
22 after that about the firefighters explosion?

23 A. Yes. The next one I remember was with him and -- we had 24 just came back from getting beer, and we walked in his house,
25 and his mom was sitting on a truck bench seat.

1 Q. All right. Let's stop for a minute here. Him is Skip
2 Sheppard; is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And we're talking about this house here, Government's
5 Exhibit 318, this photograph on Hickman Mills Drive?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And what's Skip Sheppard's mother's name?

8 A. Naomi.

9 Q. So where is this seat that she's sitting on in the 10 house?

11 A. Right inside the front door.

12 Q. Please tell us what happened.

13 A. I walked in, and she asked me to sit down, to come sit
14 by her. She -

15 Q. How did she appear to you?

16 A. She was, her words were sluggish like she was drunk, and 17 I could tell she was crying. Her eyes were bloodshot, her
18 face was all wet. She had been crying. She continued to 19 cry, even after talking to us.

20 Q. What was said?

21 A. She started in saying -

22 MS. HUNT: Your Honor, I object. It's hearsay.
23 He's asking her what Mr. Sheppard's mother said.

24 MR. BECKER: May we approach?

25 THE COURT: Yeah.

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MR. BECKER: I have a feeling that I've been
4 sandbagged here. I talked to Miss Hunt before this witness
5 testified. I alerted her to this particular part of the 6 testimony, and she said she didn't have any objection to me
7 eliciting this. It's being offered not for the truth of the 8 matter asserted, but for the response it elicited from Skip
9 Sheppard. The Skip Sheppard response is to tell his mother
10 to shut up, that it didn't happen that way, that it was an 11 accident.

12 Now, I was prepared to try and work with the 13 witness ahead of time to make more general her testimony
14 about the mother's comments, but Ms. Hunt told me she didn't 15 object to it and that she had a rebuttal witness to say this 16 conversation didn't happen.

17 MS. HUNT: I apparently misunderstood what he said
18 because I was under the impression you were going to talk
19 with her about this alleged dynamite underneath the house,
20 and this was how it was going to come out. I misunderstood
21 what you said, apparently.

22 THE COURT: We'll have to go ahead. You've got 23 your rebuttal witness. You can use your rebuttal witness.
24 Do you have a rebuttal witness that will deny this
25 conversation?

1 MS. HUNT: Yes.

2 MR. BECKER: I do want to alert the Court, I have
3 instructed the witness -- as a further part of the 4 conversation, the mother talks about Skip Sheppard committing
5 another homicide, and she has been instructed not to talk
6 about that.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

9 THE COURT: I guess maybe I need to ask -- I'm 10 sorry. Miss Hunt, one thing I want to make clear in my mind
11 before I rule.

12 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
13 proceedings were had:)

14 THE COURT: Is it going to be her evidence that 15 Sheppard was present during this conversation?

16 MR. BECKER: Yes.

17 MS. HUNT: He came back in. He didn't hear the 18 initial, the way I read her statement.

19 MR. BECKER: I'll ask her that.

20 MS. HUNT: That's fine.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

23 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) All right. Miss Smith, you and Skip
24 Sheppard go out to get some beer and you return to the house;
25 is that right?

1480

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. When you walk in the door, you've testified that Naomi
3 Sheppard is sitting there near the entrance; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Where was Skip Sheppard?

6 A. He had walked in to put the beer into the refrigerator
7 and had started to walk back as she was talking.

8 Q. And walked back into?

9 A. Back into the living room with us.

10 Q. Okay. What happened then when the three of you were in
11 the living room?

12 A. She had already started talking. I mean, he was 13 standing up and he had come back in, and she had started to 14 say that, started off by saying, "You don't know who you're 15 dating. You don't know what he's done. You don't know what 16 he's capable of doing, or what he has done. He killed those 17 six firemen. Do you know who the, do you remember the blast
18 that happened down the street from here a couple of years
19 ago?"

20 And I didn't say yes or no. I just stared, looked 21 at her and looked at him. And he looked at me and laughed.
22 And he goes, yeah, and -

23 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say anything to his mother then?

24 A. He told her to shut up. He said that repeatedly. I
25 mean, throughout -- I mean, there was several times he said

1 that on, you know, as she kept saying things.

2 Q. Did he say anything about an accident?

3 A. Yeah. He said it was an accident, it wasn't supposed to 4 happen that way. And then he went on to tell me that he had
5 stole a crate of dynamite and hid it under his mom's house
6 and that every time the police came to search the house that
7 they couldn't find it because he had done it and buried it
8 under some dirt and dispersed the dirt out to where you
9 couldn't see, you couldn't tell that anything had been 10 disturbed under the house, and laughed about it.

11 Q. Now, was there a later conversation in which the 12 firefighters explosion was discussed with other people
13 besides Skip Sheppard present?

14 A. Yes. Frank Sheppard.

15 Q. When was that after the conversation you've just told us
16 about?

17 A. Maybe a week or two. Maybe not even -- maybe a week
18 after this conversation.

19 Q. Where did this next conversation take place?

20 A. In the house on Hickman Mills Drive.

21 Q. Where in the house?

22 A. In the living room.

23 Q. Who was present?

24 A. Naomi, Frank, Joe Everhart, Skip Sheppard, and myself
25 and Nanny.

1

1 Q. Who is Nanny?

2 A. The grandmother, skips grandmother.

3 Q. You said Frank. Who is Frank?

4 A. Frank Sheppard.

5 Q. Do you see Frank Sheppard here in court today?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. Could you tell us where he's sitting and what he's
8 wearing?

9 A. At the end of the long table. He's got on a
10 multicolored sweater and a white shirt.

11 MR. BECKER: Indicating Defendant Frank Sheppard,
12 Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) What was going on in the living room
15 when this conversation took place?

16 A. Revolving conversation. I don't remember how it
17 started, but I remember Frank was looking in the -- Joe 18 Everhart was sitting at the kitchen table or on a chair in 19 the kitchen. I couldn't see him from where I was sitting. I
20 was sitting on the couch, and Skip was sitting a couple feet,
21 you know, spaces down on the same couch with me.

22 Q. Where was Skip Sheppard?

23 A. skip Sheppard was sitting next, a couple of -- did I say
24 that?

25 Q. Maybe I got confused. Okay. Where were you sitting?

1483

1 A. On the couch.

2 Q. Where was Joe Everhart?

3 A. He was in the kitchen.

4 Q. Where was -

5 A. Or in the dining room. Dining room.

6 Q. Where was Skip Sheppard?

7 A. Sitting next to me on the couch.

8 Q. Finally, where was Frank Sheppard?

9 A. He was sitting on the bench seat right inside the front
10 door.

11 Q. Is that far away or is that within -

12 A. No, it's -

13 Q. You could see him and hear him and everything else that 14 takes place in a conversation?

15 A. From about me to you far away.

16 THE COURT: That was Frank?

17 THE WITNESS: Frank, uh-huh.

18 MR. BECKER: And that would be approximately 10 to 19 15 feet; is that about right, Your Honor?

20 THE COURT: I'm not going to testify.

21 MR. BECKER: You don't have a memory of your
22 courtroom?

23 THE COURT: All I'm sworn to do is judge, not
24 testify.

25 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Okay. What do you remember about that

1484

1 particular conversation?

2 A. Frank was telling Joe Everhart that they had been there
3 a couple of nights before the explosion.

4 Q. Had been where?

5 A. To the explosion site, or up there on the hill where the
6 construction was. And they were up there. He had stolen
7 some tools, took some tools, and that he went on to say,
8 then, that Skip had taken the crate of dynamite. And he
9 looked at Skip, and then Skip looked at me and said, "Yeah,
10 I've got a crate of dynamite." But he'd already told me
11 that, so he turned around and said that to Joe and laughed
12 about it.

13 Q. Was there anything else said about the explosion during 14 that conversation?

15 A. We had set -- he said, we set -- "That's why we set the 16 fire," he said to Joe. I didn't hear what Joe had asked, but 17 he said -

18 Q. Who said?

19 A. Frank said to Joe Everhart, that's why we set the fire,
20 and that's why we sent so-and-so down the hill to light the
21 fire.

22 Q. Finally, do you recall another conversation that 23 happened in an automobile relating to the explosion that
24 killed the firefighters?

25 A. Yes.

1485

1 Q. When did that occur?

2 A. Sometime after that. There was -- not very long even
3 after this, within days after that happening.

4 Q. Tell us what you were doing at that time when this
5 conversation occurred.

6 A. We were driving.

7 Q. Who is we?

8 A. I was driving the car. Skip was next to me. Frank was 9 directly behind me, and Joe Everhart was sitting behind Skip
10 in the back seat.

11 THE COURT: When was this, please?

12 THE WITNESS: Just within days after this.

13 THE COURT: You were driving, Skip was with you,
14 Frank was with you, who else was there?

15 THE WITNESS: Joe Everhart.

16 THE COURT: Joe Everhart. And this was within 17 days?

18 THE WITNESS: Right.

19 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Do you know, is Joe Everhart a
20 relative of all of the Sheppard family?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you know how he's related?

23 A. His sister is married to their brother, Jack Sheppard.

24 Q. So that would be a brother-in-law?

25 A. Yeah, yes.

1 Q. What were you doing in the car that day?

2 A. We were going to take aluminum cans in for recycling to 3 get money out of cans to go buy beer.

4 Q. What happened when you -- do you remember the weather
5 conditions?

6 A. Yeah, it was raining, and we had already been drinking.
7 We had already had some beer, and we drove by a shopping
8 center, some kind of a, like a grocery store of some sort.
9 And Skip turned around to the two in the back seat and said,
10 "Oh, man, you should have seen the truck that we blew up in 11 that parking lot." And I missed out on -

12 MR. PETERS: Objection, Your Honor, relevance.

13 THE COURT: I'm not sure I understand that
14 objection. Come up, I guess.

15 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
16 proceedings were had:)

17 THE COURT: Is it your position that she's talking
18 about sometime other than the explosion at issue?

19 MR. BECKER: Yes, the next sentence will link it
20 up.

21 MR. PETERS: The next sentence will be?

22 MR. BECKER: That they began talking about the 23 explosion that occurred at the site and there is, she looked 24 at this recent report I gave you the other day where it says
25 your client talked about it raining dirt and rock. She said

1 that's an error, that that was Skip Sheppard that said that.

2 MR. PETERS: so the comment is that they blew a

3 truck up in the parking lot, not related to the explosion on

4 November 29th. And he says that's relevant because?

5 MR. BECKER: It brought up, then -- that's what

6 caused the conversation to again turn to the explosion that

7 killed the firefighters.

8 THE COURT: You're going to ask her -- I'm going to

9 instruct the jury to disregard that and you may say

10 regardless of that, what was said next or some such tie into

11 that, but they're going to be instructed to disregard the 12 blowing up the truck in the parking lot. And have you made

13 it clear that that was, that that's not the incident at

14 issue?

15 MR. BECKER: I think so. I can ask her, was that

16 parking lot the construction, the highway construction site.

17 She'll say no, someplace else.

18 THE COURT: All right. Then I'll instruct them to 19 disregard it.

20 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

21 Q.(By Mr. Becker:) Now, was that parking lot the same

22 place as the 71 Highway construction site?

23 A. No, it wasn't.

24 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I instruct you

25 now to disregard the testimony regarding a truck in the

1488

1 parking lot at some time and some place after the incident at
2 issue in this case.

3 All right. You may go ahead.

4 Q. What was said next?

5 THE COURT: And it's stricken from the record.

6 Q. What was said next, by Skip Sheppard?

7 A. He said that we had used the dynamite from what they had
8 stole from the construction site.

9 Q. Was there any conversation, then, about the actual
10 explosion that killed the firemen?

11 A. Frank Sheppard a little bit later -- I mean, there was 12 other words that were said in between. I don't remember what
13 all was said, but he said that you should have seen the night
14 after the, or the night it exploded. He said the dirt and 15 the rocks, he said it rained down, it poured down on them, on 16 top of them, and it hurt as the rocks hit them.

17 Q. After October of 1990, did you have any other contact
18 with the Sheppard family?

19 A. After October of 1990?

20 Q. Did you contact the police in October of 1990 and 21 provide them this information?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. When you were first interviewed by detectives in 1990,
24 did you tell them everything that you've testified to here
25 today?

1

1 A. No, I didn't.

2 Q. Why not?

3 A. The officer had asked for specific information, if I
4 knew details. And I got -

5 Q. Was this an interview that happened -

6 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I don't think that she
7 finished. And you got what?

8 THE WITNESS: I got startled. I didn't understand
9 what he meant, and I didn't continue. He said that I, if I
10 didn't know details. I didn't know what to say after that.
11 I didn't know -

12 Q. Was this interview, where did this interview take place?

13 A. On the phone at my sister's house.

14 Q. Did anyone come out, then, to talk to you in person
15 right then in October of 1990?

16 A. No. He felt that I didn't have enough information -

17 Q. You can't talk about what he felt.

18 THE COURT: Don't talk about what he felt. Strike
19 that. Disregard it.

20 Q. Did you call again with this information in 1995?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. At that time did someone come out to interview you?

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at this
25 time. Thank you.

1490

1 THE COURT: All right. Miss Hunt?

2 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, I'm going to start.

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Peters. Yeah, Mr.

4 Peters.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Peters:

8 Q. Miss Smith, my name is Pat Peters, and I represent Frank
9 Sheppard. Who was this officer that you talked to on the 10 phone in October of 1990?

11 A. Officer Zinn.

12 Q. That would be Detective Zinn from the Kansas City, 13 Missouri, Police Department?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And your testimony is that you told this officer that 16 Skip Sheppard and Frank Sheppard had admitted being at the 17 site, had felt rocks raining down on them after the 18 explosion, and Detective Zinn told you that you didn't have 19 enough information?

20 A. I didn't tell him that then.

21 Q. You didn't tell him that they were at the site; is that
22 correct?

23 A. I didn't tell him that statement about the rocks and the 24 dirt falling from the sky or like rain down on them.

25 Q. Did you tell Detective Zinn that Frank Sheppard and Skip

1
2 Sheppard had told you they were at the site at the time of
3 the explosion?

4 A. I had -- no, I did not.

5 Q. Did you tell Detective Zinn in October of 1990 that
6 Frank Sheppard or Skip Sheppard had told you they stole a
7 crate of dynamite from the site of the explosion?

8 A. No, I don't believe I did.

9 Q. Did you tell Detective Zinn that this crate of dynamite
10 that Frank Sheppard and Skip Sheppard told you they stole
11 from the site of the explosion was hidden underneath the 12 Sheppards' house? Did you tell Detective Zinn that?

13 A. I don't remember.

14 Q. You don't remember whether or not you told him that?

15 MR. BECKER: That was the answer. I don't know if 16 we need to repeat it. Object to the question.

17 MR. PETERS: I withdraw it, Judge.

18 THE COURT: All right. Withdrawn.

19 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) So in talking with Detective Zinn in 20 October of 1990, you did not relate to him any information
21 that Skip Sheppard or Frank Sheppard were involved in the 22 explosion; is that correct?

23 A. I got scared. No, I didn't tell him.

24 Q. And, of course, by October of 1990, you were no longer
25 dating or drinking beer with Skip Sheppard; isn't that true?

26 A. Around October 11th or, 10th or 11th of October.

1 Q. And even in 1995 -- in 1995, do you remember talking to
2 Special Agent Dave True?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. And you've talked to Dave True many times; is that fair
5 to say?

6 A. Several times, yeah.

7 Q. How many times would you estimate, ma ' am?

8 A. Probably four.

9 Q. And in 1995 when you talked to Special Agent True, at 10 that time you couldn't recall whether anybody had told you
11 about a fire being set; isn't that correct?

12 A. In 1995?

13 Q. Yes, ma ' am.

14 A. I don't remember if I told that to them then or not.

15 Q. Can you tell us when it was that you first remembered or 16 spoke to a police officer or a special agent and recollected
17 either Frank or Skip saying that they set a fire?

18 THE COURT: Recollected or recounted?

19 MR. PETERS: I'm asking the witness if she can tell
20 us when she first said that to any law enforcement agent.

21 THE COURT: That's not recollected, that's 22 recounted.

23 A. I can't remember when I told them.

24 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Have you ever told any law enforcement
25 agent that, ma ' am?

1 A. Told them what? Can you say that, state that again,
2 what I told them?

3 Q. Have you ever told anyone from law enforcement that
4 Frank or Skip told you that they set a fire at the site of 5 the construction on November 29, 1988?

6 A. They said, "That's why we set the fire." I don't 7 understand.

8 Q. Ma'am, who said that? Who said that?

9 A. Frank said that.

10 MR. BECKER: I'm going to object. I'd like to 11 approach on this for one second.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
14 proceedings were had:)

15 MR. BECKER: I'm not sure. I don't recall this
16 witness testifying that either one of them expressly said
17 they set the fire, and I think that's the confusion on the 18 part of the witness.

19 THE COURT: He said they stole dynamite.

20 MR. BECKER: Right.

21 THE COURT: He said they were there and dirt and 22 rocks rained down on them. Then there was a conversation
23 with the mother.

24 MR. BECKER: And it was just the mother saying that 25 they were responsible.

1 THE COURT: And he told the mother shut up. He
2 didn't say anything there.

3 MR. PETERS: My question is, what's the objection?

4 MR. BECKER: Because it's mischaracterizing the
5 testimony. He's saying did you ever tell.

6 THE COURT: Yeah, you implied that she said that.

7 MR. PETERS: I'm asking her when she told law
8 enforcement that. I didn't say did you testify to it.

9 MR. BECKER: That's why I was looking through the 10 reports. I don't see that she ever says it in those reports.

11 THE COURT: I think most accurately it would be not
12 when you did, but did you ever. That would be a fair
13 recollection of her own testimony. Okay. Sustained.

14 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

15 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Ma'am, did you ever tell anybody from 16 law enforcement, the Kansas City, Missouri, Police
17 Department, Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, that Frank or 18 Skip said that a fire was set?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. When was it that you first told somebody from law
21 enforcement that?

22 A. I don't remember exactly, but I'm sure that it was in 23 1995 when I talked to them when they came out to my house.

24 Q. And are you also sure that that was not something that 25 you said in 1990?

1 A. No, I'm not sure if I said that or not. In 1990, I
2 don't think I did.

3 Q. Can you tell us who -- was it Frank or was it Skip who
4 said that he set a fire?

5 A. Frank Sheppard said we set a -- that's why we set the 6 fire. That's why we sent so-and-so down the hill.

7 Q. And are you telling us -- who was it, which agent did
8 you tell in 1995 that Frank Sheppard told you he set a fire?

9 A. I don't remember which agent.

10 Q. Have you talked to an agent besides Dave True since 11 1995?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Have you had a chance to review the statements that 14 you've given?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you recall in 1995 at that time saying that you
17 weren't sure whether it was Skip or Frank who had said that a
18 fire had been set?

19 A. No, I don't recall saying that.

20 Q. And you have had a chance to review your -- they aren't
21 statements, they're reports of interviews, you've had a
22 chance to review those?

23 A. I've had a chance to review three of them.

24 Q. How many have you given, ma ' am?

25 THE COURT: How many whats has she given?

1 lo How many statements have you given?

2 THE COURT: We're using the word statements kind of
3 loosely. What you have, isn't it, is an officer's report of 4 contact with a witness? Isn't the accurate question how many 5 contacts have there been?

6 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Okay. How many contacts have you had 7 from which you've been able to review a report or a statement
8 from that contact?

9 A. Maybe six.

10 Q. And how many of those have you had an opportunity to 11 review before coming and testifying today?

12 A. Three this morning.

13 Q. Do you remember which three it is that you've had an
14 opportunity to review?

15 A. The very first one in 1990, one in 1995 -- well, there 16 was two from 1995, one was early in the year and one was 17 later, like in November.

18 Q. Okay. Let me ask you if this is one of the statements,
19 or reports, excuse me, Your Honor, if that's one of the 20 reports of an interview that you had a chance to review.

21 A. Not today, I haven't.

22 Q. Okay. In these conversations with either Skip Sheppard
23 or Frank Sheppard, were you told that Joe Everhart was 24 involved in the explosion that resulted in the death of six
25 firefighters?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Were you told that Didi Baker was involved?

3 A. No.

4 Q. When you had an opportunity to talk with Agent True, did
5 he bring a tape recorder with him?

6 A. No. No.

7 Q. No? Did he have a court reporter like this lady here
8 who is taking down what you said?

9 A. No.

10 Q. If he had asked you to let him tape record, would you
11 have objected?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Would you have objected if he wanted to use a court
14 reporter?

15 A. No.

16 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 — — —

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 By Ms. Hunt:

21 Q. Miss Smith, my name is Susan Hunt. I represent Skip
22 Sheppard. We've talked before, haven't we?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I think you said on your direct examination you dated
25 Skip for a two or three-week period?

1498

1 A. It was more about, around six weeks.

2 Q. About six weeks in 1990; is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then you had a fight with Skip and Skip assaulted
5 you, didn't he?

6 A. Uh-huh, yes. Yes.

7 Q. And right after that assault is when you came forward to 8 the police; isn't that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that's one of the reasons why you called the police,
11 isn't it?

12 A. I don't understand. I called the police the night he 13 beat me up. I didn't tell them about the, nothing about the 14 firemen's explosion that night.

15 Q. When did you call the police? Do you remember the date?

16 A. I do not remember the date. I know it was right around
17 the first of October.

18 Q. Did you just call and report this incident and then
19 somebody called you back?

20 A. Yes, and Detective Zinn is then -

21 THE COURT: I'm confused. Which incident? She 22 said she called the police the night he beat her up. Which 23 incident are you referring to?

24 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) I'll clear it up. The night he beat you
25 up is when you called the police to report that?

1 A. The night he beat me up.

2 Q. You called the police that night and reported that?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then Detective Zinn called you back; is that right?

5 A. No, not from that phone call.

6 Q. Didn't you tell Detective Zinn the reason you were
7 coming forward is because Skip beat you up?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And that was a telephone conversation with Detective
10 Zinn?

11 A. I talked with Detective Zinn on the telephone.

12 Q. Okay. And that was in 1990; is that right?

13 A. Yes, because I didn't tell Detective Zinn that that's 14 why I had called to report what he had done, what he had 15 admitted to me about the explosion.

16 Q. You said before you took the stand today you had a
17 chance to review the report that was made in 1990; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that report was a report of the telephone call with 21 Detective Zinn; isn't that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 . And that report states you told him you were coming
24 forward because Skip beat you up; isn't that correct?

25 . No.

1500

1 MR. BECKER: Objection. That misstates this
2 report.

3 THE COURT: Wait a minute. We can't do it that
4 way, Miss Hunt.

5 MS. HUNT: I'll hand her the report and see if it
6 refreshes her recollection.

7 THE COURT: Is it her report?

8 MS. HUNT: It's a report she reviewed today about
9 Detective Zinn's conversation with her.

10 THE COURT: In your recollection when you reviewed
11 it, did it appear to be accurate to you?

12 THE WITNESS: Can I look it over again?

13 THE COURT: Okay. Hand it to her.

14 A. No, because it starts right off that we dated about 15 three weeks, so there's the first right there. I said it was 16 around six weeks. And there were some -

17 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) When is the first time you've seen this
18 report?

19 A. This morning.

20 Q. Just this morning?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did you tell anybody that this report is inaccurate?

23 A. No. I hadn't had a chance to.

24 Q. But this report is not accurate of that conversation
25 with Detective Zinn; is that right?

1 A. Like that statement there about the three weeks.

2 Q. There are some inaccuracies in this report; is that
3 right?

4 A. Yes.

5 THE COURT: Wait a minute, counsel. Why do you say
6 some? She's mentioned one inaccuracy.

7 MS. HUNT: She's not read the whole report, but
8 I'll give it to her again.

9 THE COURT: That's right. But some is not
10 correct. All right. Have you looked it over now?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. There's some -

12 THE COURT: Just a minute. Let her ask the 13 questions.

14 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You've read the report now?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. I'm going to give you this pink highlighter. Would you
17 highlight any inaccuracy you see?

18 MR. BECKER: Objection. This is not in evidence,
19 this report.

20 THE COURT: That's true.

21 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) As you read this report, do you see any 22 inaccuracies in that report?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. Can you tell us what those inaccuracies are?

25 A. Where it says that the reason I came forward was because

1502

1 Skip's assaulted her on 10/1, 1990.

2 Q. Anything else?

3 A. That was not why I came forward.

4 Q. Anything else that's inaccurate?

5 A. About the three weeks, where I said I dated him for 6 approximately three weeks.

7 Q. You say it was more like five to six?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Anything else that's inaccurate?

10 A. No.

11 Q. But, in fact, you did call the police when Skip
12 assaulted you; is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Detective Zinn called you back after that initial 15 contact; is that right?

16 A. No, I made two different phone calls to the police, one
17 about the assault and one about the confession.

18 Q. Okay. And this is a report of your conversation over
19 the phone with Detective Zinn; is that right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. I'd like to ask you to step down here for a
22 minute and down to this easel down here.

23 A. Do I take this off?

24 THE COURT: For what purpose?

25 MS. HUNT: I want her to draw a diagram of the 1503

1 Sheppard house. We've had a lot of conversation about it.

2 THE COURT: We've already got a diagram. Can you
3 refer to the one that's already been made?

4 MS. HUNT: I'd like to have her draw her
5 interpretation of what the house looks like.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Relieve her of the microphone,
7 would you, Tenilla? And step down. Careful there.

8 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You have to talk into this microphone.
9 Okay. You've been to the Sheppard house on numerous 10 occasions; is that right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you're familiar with the way the house looks; is
13 that right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Just draw a diagram of the Sheppard house and label the 16 rooms as you remember them.

17 (So done.)

18 A. I don't know if it was a two or three-bedroom.

19 Q. But as you remember, that's a diagram of the Sheppard
20 house?

21 A. Yes. Yes.

22 MS. HUNT: We're going to mark that Defendants'
23 Exhibit 14.

24 Q. And, ma'am, could you write on the top of this "Sheppard
25 house" and put your name at the bottom so we know who drew it

1504

1 and what it is?

2 JUROR: We can't see it.

3 THE COURT: All right. All right. Now, to give
4 the whole jury the opportunity to see that diagram, Miss
5 Hunt, move the easel down in the middle of the jury box. Why
6 don't you move it, if you would, please, down in the middle
7 of the jury box so that the folks at this end can see
8 better. Now, I think everybody can probably see that.

9 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Okay. I think you testified on your 10 direct that the second conversation you overheard at the 11 Sheppard house was when Naomi Sheppard was sitting in the 12 living room; is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Skip was in the kitchen and on his way back?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you've got in here, the kitchen is behind the living
17 room; is that right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. so if someone was here in this part of the kitchen, they 20 can't hear what's going on in the living room, can they?

21 A. He didn't go that far. The refrigerator where I put the 22 two -- should I come back up there?

23 Q. Yeah. And mark it.

24 A. Okay. The refrigerator, and this is the bench seat.

25 Naomi was there, and I was right there. And there's a couch

1505

1 that was right here, and Skip came back and sat right there.
2 He walked, we walked in the front door past Naomi. He walked
3 to the refrigerator and put the beer in and walked back and 4 sat down.

5 Q. And that was the second conversation you supposedly
6 heard; is that right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. The first conversation he said, "I didn't do it, I know
9 who did it"?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Never admitted anything?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Okay. How many times were you there with Joe Everhart?

14 A. I couldn't even count. I don't know. Ten times, maybe.

15 Q. So were you at the Sheppard house just ten times, or 16 more than ten times?

17 A. More than ten times.

18 Q. In that five to six-week period?

19 A. About every day.

20 Q. You did not go back over after the incident in 1990 in 21 October when you called the police?

22 A. I did go back one more time after he beat me up.

23 Q. And that's it, you never went back?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. Okay. And I think you said Joe Everhart is married, his

1 sister is married to a Sheppard?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Let's go through that. His sister's name is

4 what?

5 A. Virgie or Virginia.

6 Q. And Virginia is married to who?

7 A. Jack Sheppard.

8 Q. And Jack Sheppard is what to Skip Sheppard?

9 A. His brother.

10 Q. So it's a long relation through a marriage; is that

11 right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. He's not blood relation to the Sheppards?

14 A. Joe Everhart?

15 Q. Right.

16 A. Right.

17 Q. Only because his sister married one of Skip's brothers;

18 is that right?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Did the Sheppards have a kitchen table in the kitchen?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Why don't you come down here and mark where the kitchen

23 table was.

24 MR. BECKER: Objection to relevance.

25 MS. HUNT: Conversation took place at the kitchen

1 table.

2 Q. You testified that a conversation took place at the
3 kitchen table; is that right?

4 A. Yeah, he -

5 Q. Which series of conversations was this?

6 A. Do I need to put this back on?

7 THE COURT: Well, just give her the mike so she can
8 speak into it.

9 A. I don't know where Joe was sitting. I could not see him
10 from where I was sitting. I was sitting here and Skip,
11 again, was sitting there. And there's a -- well, I didn't
12 put this walkway right. I put it too big. There was like a 13 dining room table that sat here, and Joe was somewhere in 14 there at the table.

15 Q. so the kitchen table was not in the kitchen, it was in 16 the dining room; is that right?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. This second conversation when you went in -

19 THE COURT: I think she might need some help with 20 that microphone, Tenilla.

21 A. I've got it.

22 Q. Okay. The second conversation, when you walk in with 23 Skip, Mrs. Sheppard is sitting in the living room and you sit 24 down and start talking to her. Do you remember that?

25 A. She started talking to me. I didn't say anything.

~ 1508

1 Q. But she started a conversation?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And that's what we're calling the second conversation;

4 is that right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What was she wearing?

7 A. I do not remember what she was wearing.

8 Q. What were you wearing?

9 A. Jeans, I think, and a T-shirt.

10 Q. What was Skip wearing?

11 A. Shorts and a T-shirt.

12 Q. What time of year was this?

13 A. It was like September 1990.

14 Q. Mid-September?

15 A. Yeah, early September, the middle of September. I don't

16 remember.

17 Q. You had the conversation with the police in October; is

18 that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you remember the first day it was you called the 21 police?

22 A. No, I don't remember what day it was.

23 Q. You just know it was in October?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. How long had you been dating skip before this

1509

1 second conversation took place?

2 A. About four or five weeks, five weeks, I guess.

3 Q. Okay. So this was toward the end of your dating

4 relationship with Skip, then?

5 A. That I called the police?

6 Q. No. The second conversation we're talking about, that

7 we've labeled the second conversation, that occurred four or

8 five weeks into your dating of Skip; is that right?

9 A. No. That occurred about three weeks into the 10 relationship.

11 Q. So it was roughly three weeks before you called the 12 police in October?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. okay. Do you remember testifying in front of the grand

15 jury in this case?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. When you testified in front of the grand jury, did you

18 talk about these conversations we're talking about today?

19 A. Not every one of them.

20 Q. Okay. How many did you talk about?

21 A. I don't remember right offhand. I know that I had left

22 out some about the fire.

23 Q. You were confused in your grand jury testimony and left

24 out things; is that what you're saying?

25 A. I got nervous in front of the -- I didn't know -- I just

1 got nervous.

2 Q. Did you testify in front of the grand jury that during
3 one of these conversations they said they were up there to 4 get dynamite a night or two before?

5 A. That they were up there to steal tools and that they had 6 gotten -- I think I had left that out. That was when I got 7 nervous.

8 Q. But you're testifying here today that they, that Skip
9 supposedly stole this crate of dynamite; is that right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Before the explosion?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Not the night of it?

14 A. No, he said it was a couple of days before the
15 explosion.

16 Q. And he had buried this where?

17 A. Underneath his mom's house.

18 Q. Do you know where?

19 A. No, I don't.

20 Q. Was there a room with a dirt floor in the house?

21 A. In the crawl space in the house.

22 Q. But you've never seen this crate of dynamite, though?

23 A. Right, I never seen it.

24 Q. And he buried it underneath the floor of the house?

25 A. Yes.

- 1 Q. What else did they say they took?
- 2 A. Tools.
- 3 Q. Did they mention specific tools?
- 4 A. No, they never said what kind of tools, just tools.
- 5 Q. What else?
- 6 A. Tools and dynamite.
- 7 Q. That's it, that's all they mentioned?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. Was Didi Baker present during this conversation?
- 10 A. During the second conversation?
- 11 Q. During any of the conversations?
- 12 A. She had made mention about knowing -
- 13 Q. I'm just asking if she was present in the room.
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 THE COURT: Was Didi Baker present during any of
- 16 the conversations?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 THE COURT: Talk more slowly, please, we're not
- 19 hearing you. I can't hear you, so I'm sure she can't either.
- 20 Q. Didi Baker was present during at least one of these
- 21 conversations; is that right?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. And who is she?
- 24 A. Their sister, Frank and Skip's sister.
- 25 Q. Okay. Neither Frank or Skip said they set this fire,

1 though, did they?

2 A. Frank said we -- "that's why we set the fire" was his
3 statement.

4 Q. But he didn't say how he set a fire?

5 A. No, he didn't.

6 Q. Skip didn't say he set a fire?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Skip didn't say how the fire got set?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Skip didn't admit that he committed this crime, did he?

11 A. Yes, he did.

12 Q. He didn't say he set the fire, though, did he?

13 A. No, he didn't.

14 Q. Now, you said you reviewed three of your statements
15 earlier?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you know how many statements you've given?

18 A. At least six.

19 Q. But you haven't read all six of them?

20 A. No, I haven't.

21 Q. Ever?

22 A. Yes, I have read them before.

23 Q. And the first time you talked to Detective Zinn over the 24 phone, the 1990 conversation, you didn't tell him everything
25 that you had heard at the Sheppard house?

1 A. No, I didn't.

2 Q. It wasn't until 1995 that you began telling all the
3 details?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And did they contact you in 1995, or did you contact
6 them?

7 A. I contacted them.

8 Q. Did you know about a reward in this case?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Have you applied for the reward?

11 A. No, I didn't. How do you apply for a reward?

12 THE COURT: Rather than ask, just answer, Miss
13 Smith.

14 MS. HUNT: That's all.

15 THE COURT: Are you through?

16 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Just one point of clarification.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 By Mr. O'Connor:

21 Q. When they had talked to you about the two, where they 22 had been up to the construction site, I think you said two
23 days before, is that what you'd said?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And the construction site that you meant was where the

1 explosion occurred that killed the firefighters?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. That's what they were saying?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And that that's where they had gotten these crates of 6 dynamite was from that site?

7 A. The one crate of dynamite, that's all.

8 Q. I'm sorry. They had gotten the one crate of dynamite
9 from the site where the firefighters lost their lives?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Can you make this fairly brief, Mr.
13 Osgood?

14 MR. OSGOOD: I hope so, but if you want to break at 15 any time in the middle, that's fine, Your Honor. I can 16 remember where I am. I don't think it will be too long. Is 17 it all right to move this?

18 THE COURT: Yes. I think everyone has seen it.

19 MR. OSGOOD: Miss Smith -

20 THE COURT: Now, excuse me just a minute. Would 21 you all come up a minute?

22 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
23 proceedings were had:)

24 THE COURT: Now, John, she didn't mention your
25 client.

1 MR. OSGOOD: I know, but -

2 THE COURT: And you're here defending your client,
3 and I don't think you have the right to take the time of all
4 of these people and this Court to ask a bunch of questions
5 when your client wasn't implicated.

6 MR. OSGOOD: I have a critical point I want to 7 raise with her that will tie in to Agent True's conduct with 8 witnesses that are testifying.

9 THE COURT: Make it real quick.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Okay.

11 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

12 — — —

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 By Mr. Osgood:

15 Q. Miss Smith, I represent Richard Brown. He did not come
16 up in this conversation, did he?

17 A. No, he didn't.

18 Q. All right. Now, Mr. Peters asked you a question, and he
19 said did Skip or Frank say that Didi was involved, and you
20 said, no. They didn't say that, did they, anything about 21 Didi?

22 A. No, I don't remember them saying that name.

23 Q. All right. Now, you were interviewed by Agent True of 24 the ATF on several occasions, weren't you?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you had information that you were giving him, didn't
2 you?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Did he have information that he gave you about what he
5 thought occurred and who he thought the suspects were?

6 A. No, he didn't.

7 Q. Do you remember testifying before the grand jury, ma'am,
8 on the 5th day of December of 1995?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Were you asked this question and did you give this
11 answer? Page 6. Question, line 8.

12 "Well, do you remember being interviewed by the 13 ATF agent, maybe half, two or three weeks ago, November 14th,
14 and telling him that either Frank or Skip said that a fire
15 was set?"

16 Answer: "No. They said something that Didi had
17 went to set it to defer the attention off of them. I
18 don't -- I don't think that was anything that I had ever
19 heard from Skip or Frank."

20 So the they there is the ATF, isn't it, ma' am?

21 THE COURT: Now, just a minute, Mr. Osgood. That 22 doesn't say that.

23 MR. OSGOOD: It certainly does, Your Honor. Would 24 you like to see it?

25 THE COURT: Yeah. Let me see it. Come here.

1 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir.

2 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
3 proceedings were had:)

4 THE COURT: Do you remember being interviewed by 5 the ATF agent, so forth, telling you that either Frank or 6 Skip said that a fire was set? Frank or Skip. No. They,
7 Frank or Skip, said something that Didi had set it to defer
8 and so forth. The "they" has to refer to Frank or Skip.

9 MR. OSGOOD: The "they" refers to ATF. Read it in 10 context. Read on, Your Honor.

11 MR. PETERS: Let me interject.

12 THE COURT: You've got to be fair here.

13 MR. PETERS: If the "they" refers to Frank or Skip,
14 it impeaches her statement that she never said it. It
15 impeaches her statement whether it's -

16 MR. OSGOOD: You must read it in context. It says,
17 "I don't think that was anything that I had ever heard from 18 Frank or Skip." It has to come from the ATF suggesting Didi
19 was involved. It's the only place it can come from.

20 THE COURT: But the question was the ATF agent, and 21 then she said Frank or Skip, and then she said they.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I'm going to ask her if the "they,"
23 the "they" is the ATF she's referring to.

24 THE COURT: Don't get argumentative with her, and 25 let's get on with it. I think there is the core element of

1

1 unfairness in some of this cross-examination with the lay
2 Ipeople that don't know what in the world it is anyway.

3 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, there's a core element of
4 unfairness when the ATF goes out and throws out names in 1995
5 About events that occurred six, seven years ago, and then
6 Ithese people blend it all together, and she has blended
7 Itogether in her mind what she knew and what the ATF knew.

8 THE COURT: Is this the grand jury?

9 MR. OSGOOD: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: And what she's saying is that Didi had
11 went to set it to defer the attention off of them. I don't 12 think there was anything that -- I don't think that was 13 anything that I'd ever heard said from Skip or Frank.

14 MR. OSGOOD: So where does it come from? It comes 15 from the "they."

16 MR. BECKER: There are a multitude of reports on 17 this individual, and if you read them, that information came 18 from Didi Baker. If you look at the report, she said, this 19 is what Didi Baker said.

20 THE COURT: You see, you throw up the -

21 MR. OSGOOD: I want to ask her where she got that 22 Information She didn't get it from Skip or Frank. It's in 23 I the transcript, Your Honor.

24 I This is a pattern that's going to continue to 25 repeat in this case. That's the problem with an

1 eight-year-old case.

2 THE COURT: Well, it's not going to repeat in this
3 way because I'm not going to allow witnesses to be taken
4 advantage of by being confused by you flashing the 5 transcripts in front of them.

6 MR. OSGOOD: I'm not. I'm asking her what she
7 said.

8 MR. PETERS: I'm writing.

9 THE COURT: What did you say?

10 MR. PETERS: I didn't say anything, Judge.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. OSGOOD: I just want to ask her what she meant
13 by that. I just want to get at the facts, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Let's take a break.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Can I ask the question? I mean, I'll 16 be done.

17 THE COURT: All right. Ask the question, and then
18 we'll take a break.

19 MR. BECKER: I may have some redirect.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

22 Q. (By Mr. Osgood:) Do you remember the question and the 23 answer that I just read to you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Where did this conversation or suggestion about Didi

1520

1 Baker going down the hill to set the fire come from in your
2 mind?

3 A. Frank Sheppard. I was told that I wasn't supposed to 4 say Didi's name in court because she wasn't here.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. So that's why I said they sent so-and-so down the hill,
7 down the hill to set the fire.

8 Q. Why did you tell the grand jury on that very answer, "I
9 don't think that was anything that I ever heard from Skip or 10 Frank"?

11 A. I don't remember.

12 Q. Would you like to see it to refresh your memory? Would 13 you like me to read it again, ma' am?

14 A. No. I just don't remember. If it says it there, I
15 don't remember it.

16 Q. Well, did it come from Skip or Frank, or did it come
17 from somebody else?

18 A. It came from Frank that I remember.

19 Q. Why did you tell the grand jury it didn't come from Skip
20 and Frank, then? You said it came from "they," and the line
21 before you were referring to the ATF.

22 THE COURT: And to Skip and Frank.

23 A. I don't remember. I don't know.

24 Q. Would you like me to read the question? I don't want to 25 be unfair to you.

1 THE COURT: Read the whole exchange. Wait a
2 minute. Wait a minute, Mr. Osgood. Read the question and
3 read the whole answer.

4 MR. OSGOOD:I will do that, Your Honor.

5 Q. Question: "Well, do you remember being interviewed by 6 the ATF agent, maybe half, two or three weeks ago, November
7 14, and tellinghim that either Frank or Skip said that a
8 fire was set?"

9 Answer: "No. They said something that Didi had
10 went to setit to defer the attention off of them. I don't,
11 I don't think that was anything that I ever heard said from 12 Skip or Frank."

13 Who is they?

14 A. Maybe I got confused when I made my statement.

15 MR. OSGOOD:Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Becker?

17 — — —

18 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

19 By Mr. Becker:

20 Q. Miss Smith, you testified earlier that you were nervous
21 when you testified before the grand jury; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you tell the grand jury about the conversation you
24 heard with Naomi Sheppard and Skip Sheppard?

25 A. I don't remember right now.

1 Q. okay. Do you remember telling them about the 2 conversation that you had heard in the living room with Frank
3 Sheppard and Skip Sheppard and the others present?

4 A. I think I may have, yes.

5 Q. In October of 1990, were you afraid of Skip Sheppard?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Why?

8 A. He beat me up several times, two different times. He 9 threatened me. There was a threat made on my life that we
10 would go fishing and I wouldn't come back.

11 Q. In October of -- on October 2nd, 1990, did you report to 12 the police that he had assaulted you and that you had bruises
13 and red marks and contusions?

14 A. Yes. I walked into the police department on Hickman
15 Mills Drive, and the police officers seen me.

16 MR. BECKER: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything else? All right.
18 Hearing nothing, we'll take our morning recess. Fifteen
19 minutes, ladies and gentlemen. Don't talk about the case
20 while we're in recess, and you may withdraw.

21 (The following proceedings were had in the
22 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

23 THE COURT: All right. We're in recess.

24 (A recess was taken from 10:47 a.m. to 11:09 a.m.)

25 THE COURT: All right. I have a jointly filed

1 motion for a mistrial. And it is not well-taken. A couple
2 of things should be pointed out.

3 One is that the Court is not the finder of fact in 4 this case and, therefore, the kind of concern raised by the
5 Court in the comments quoted in the motion have nothing to do
6 with the ultimate disposition of the case. I said then that 7 the investigators are not subject to the supervision of the 8 Supreme Court of Missouri or of this Court. They're not 9 subject to the same constraints of control and professional
10 constraints as lawyers are, and that's the reason for my 11 expressed skepticism. I felt that under the circumstances
12 then being examined there was some possibility the witness
13 had been taken advantage of, and that was the reason for my 14 comment. The motion will be overruled. All right.

15 MR. OSGOOD: Your Honor, to the extent that it
16 affects me, I would like to include in the motion the recent
17 exchange at the bench which I feel is restricting my ability
18 to cross-examine the witnesses, just for the record.

19 THE COURT: You're going to be allowed to 20 cross-examine the witnesses under the rules of 21 cross-examination, and we're not going to have fishing
22 expeditions. We're not going to go flying off in all
23 directions, and we're not going to repeat time after time
24 after time five different times what has already been covered
25 in cross-examination.

1 MR. OSGOOD: I'm last, obviously, and I've
2 consciously attempted to avoid any repetitive questions.

3 THE COURT: I know you're in a difficult position
4 being last. I've taken it into consideration in dealing with 5 your cross-examination.

6 MR. OSGOOD: For example, the point with the last
7 witness that I thought was important to my case and 8 ultimately to my client. I realize the Court doesn't have 9 the reports and doesn't know which direction the government's 10 case is going to go. I do have those, and when I ask a
11 question, I do so because it ties into my case.

12 He's facing life without parole. I respect this
13 Court, and I've practiced in front of it for many years now,
14 and I'm trying to do my job and represent my client the best
15 I can. And if in some way what I'm doing is hurting his 16 opportunity or chances in this case, that's my concern.

17 THE COURT: No. That's not what caused any comment
18 that's been made. It's been the inclination to repetitive
19 cross-examination, and that's what I'm indicating to you will 20 not be allowed.

21 MR. OSGOOD: I understand that. And that's a fair
22 ruling, and I don't intend to be repetitive about it. But I
23 assure the Court when I do get up to ask a question, it's 24 because it has something to do in my mind with my case and 25 it's something different and -

1 THE COURT: We'll measure that each time it comes
2 up.

3 MR. OSGOOD: I'm concerned about -- for example,
4 the last exchange was with the grand jury testimony that's 5 sworn testimony that Mr. Becker took. I've got to be able to
6 cross-examine on that. And to suggest that I'm being unfair
7 to a lay witness, there's no other way to do it, Your Honor.
8 It's a prior sworn statement. I've got to use what I've 9 got. That's all I've got.

10 THE COURT: All right. Let's proceed.

11 (The following proceedings were had in the 12 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

13 THE COURT: Proceed, Mr. Becker.

14 MR. BECKER: Your Honor, the United States calls
15 John White.

16 THE COURT: Go ahead. Stand by the witness chair,
17 if you would, please, and be sworn. Would counsel come up
18 for a minute, please?

19 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
20 proceedings were had:)

21 THE COURT: I want it immediately to appear on the 22 record how erroneous this filing is that counsel has made in 23 this Motion for Mistrial or, in the Alternative, Recusal of 24 the Trial Judge. Because the clear implication of the 25 material on Page 2 is that what happened happened in the 1526

1 presence of and with the knowledge of the jury, and the
2 transcript also makes it clear that it was not in the 3 presence or in the knowledge of the jury or within the 4 hearing of the jury.

5 I think that's the kind of, that's unfair. And I
6 just want the record to be clear that it was not in the 7 presence of the jury, and it was in conference at the bench
8 between counsel with the amplification turned off with the 9 jury not hearing. All right.

10 MR. PETERS: The transcript is attached, and the 11 transcript speaks for itself as to which parts were in front
12 of the jury and which parts were not.

13 THE COURT: But the discussion says in open court.

14 MR. PETERS: I believe it says at the bench and in 15 open court.

16 THE COURT: In open court is what offends me.

17 MR. PETERS: Does the motion -

18 THE COURT: I'm not going to answer your questions,
19 Mr. Peters. I'm just telling you that the statement in open
20 court gives, leads to the inference that it was in front of 21 and in the hearing of the jury, and that's wrong.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I don't think that was the intent.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go. Okay. Let's go.

24 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

25 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

JOHN WHITE,

2

3 having affirmed to tell the truth under the penalties of 4 perjury, testified as follows:

6

DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Becker:

8 Q. Good morning.

9 A. Good morning.

10 Q. Please state your name and spell your last name.

11 A. John Franklin White, Jr., W-H-I-T-E.

12 Q. How old are you?

13 A. Forty-seven.

14 Q. Where were you born?

15 A. Memphis, Tennessee.

16 Q. Where did you grow up and live most of your life?

17 A. Springfield, Missouri.

18 Q. What was your employment in Springfield, Missouri?

19 A. I was a realtor for most of my adult life, and then I
20 was a rancher.

21 Q. Have you ever been convicted of a crime?

22 A. Yes, I have.

23 Q. In 1991, were you convicted of mail fraud?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. Was that related to an insurance fraud?

1528

- 1 A. Yes, it was.
- 2 Q. How much, what was your sentence in that case?
- 3 A. Twenty-seven months.
- 4 Q. Then last year in Springfield, were you convicted of
- 5 threatening a witness?
- 6 A. Not threatening, but talking to a witness.
- 7 Q. Well, talking to them in a way that you got convicted of
- 8 a crime?
- 9 A. Correct.
- 10 Q. okay. What was your sentence on that?
- 11 A. Forty-six months.
- 12 Q. What's your educational background?
- 13 A. I have seven years of college.
- 14 Q. In those seven years, did you get a degree in anything?
- 15 A. I got a BS degree in biology.
- 16 Q. In 1988, November of 1988, where were you living?
- 17 A. I was living in Springfield, Missouri.
- 18 Q. Did you hear or read about the explosion that happened
- 19 in Kansas City, Missouri, that killed six firefighters? I'm
- 20 talking about, now, in 1988.
- 21 A. No, I did not.
- 22 Q. Now, moving ahead to this past year, 1996, were you in
- 23 jail during the second part of 1996?
- 24 A. Yes, I was.
- 25 Q. And where was that?

1 A. St. Clair County, which is Osceola, Missouri.

2 THE COURT: What was your date, what date?

3 MR. BECKER: Well, Judge, I would offer as a public
4 record under seal Government's Exhibit 367.

5 THE COURT: All right. The exhibit has been
6 offered. Is there any objection? Then, hearing none, then,
7 it's admitted without objection.

8 (Government's Exhibit 367 was admitted into
9 evidence.)

10 MR. BECKER: With the Court's permission, may I
11 read this to the jury?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. BECKER: This is a letter from the St. Clair
14 County Sheriff, Osceola, Missouri. To whom it may concern.
15 The St. Clair County Jail records show the following
16 information: Earl Skip Sheppard, date of birth, 4/5/60, was 17 held from June 24, 1996, until December 2, 1996. John F.
18 White, date of birth 7/15/49, was held from June 25, 1996,
19 until August 28, 1996.

20 On or near July 11, 1996, John White was moved into 21 the same cellblock as Earl Skip Sheppard and remained there
22 until transferred on August 28, 1996.

23 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Does that accurately reflect what you
24 remember of when you and Skip Sheppard were incarcerated
25 together?

1530

1 A. Yes, it does.

2 Q. Do you see skip Sheppard here in court today?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. Could you just tell us where he's sitting and what he's
5 wearing?

6 A. He's standing up at the present time. He has a maroon
7 sweater on.

8 MR. BECKER: Indicating Defendant Skip Sheppard,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Could you describe briefly for us the 12 layout or the arrangement at the St. Clair County Jail?

13 A. It's a one-story building. It has a central area where 14 all the officers sit. It has a lot of plexiglass so that 15 they can always see the prisoners in their day rooms. And 16 there are about five different pods of where they house
17 between six and twelve inmates in a pod. They can directly
18 see us, and we can see them.

19 Q. Now, prior to July 11 when Skip Sheppard was moved into 20 your pod, as you call it -

21 A. I moved into his pod.

22 Q. All right. Prior to that time, had you ever spoken to
23 Skip Sheppard?

24 A. Yes, I had.

25 Q. Could you tell us how that occurred?

1 A. We have a common recreational area. It's approximately
2 a 20-by-30 area that is adjoining the pods. This is where we
3 get out and are able to exercise, walk. And I had
4 conversations with him in this area.

5 Q. Why were you having conversations with Skip Sheppard?

6 Q. Well, generally, the inmates did talk among themselves
7 quite often. That's basically about all we had to do. He 8 needed some specific information or he felt comfortable about 9 asking me certain things about legal issues because I had 10 had, or helped other inmates in the past about their legal 11 work.

12 Q. Did you go make contact with him, or did he come and 13 make contact with you?

14 A. He made contact with me.

15 Q. Did there come a time that Skip Sheppard told you about 16 the explosion that killed six firefighters in Kansas City?

17 A. Yes, he did.

18 Q. How did that occur, why did that occur?

19 A. Well, I assume that the reason of why, again, is that he 20 wanted to know about like, for instance, the statute of 21 limitations, whether or not that statements made by other
22 defense parties would, how that would react with him, those 23 type of ideas.

24 Q. Do you know why it is he sought you out as opposed to 25 anybody else there?

1 A. My codefendant was there in this witness tampering trial
2 that we had just had and indicated to him, I believe, that I
3 had quite a bit of knowledge, and I think that's the reason
4 why.

5 Q. Did Skip Sheppard tell you about what he did?

6 A: Yes he did.

7 Q. If anything?

8 A: Yes he did.

9 Q. Where did that -- was that one conversation or more than 10 one conversation?

11 A: It was more than one conversation.

12 Q. Where did those conversations take place?

13 A: Primarily out in the recreational area.

14 Q. Did -- let's talk about that, then, please.

15 A: Okay.

16 Q. What did Skip Sheppard say about this explosion, how did
17 it, did he say he was at the site?

18 A: Yes he did.

19 Q. What did he say about that?

20 A: He said that he and a brother went there, and it was 21 late. He gave me the date that it occurred.

22 Q. Did Skip Sheppard -

23 MR. PETERS: Your Honor, objection. Can we 24 approach?

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MR. BECKER: The first educated witness I have, and 4 he doesn't follow directions.

5 MR. PETERS: I ask that the jury be instructed to 6 disregard that comment.

7 THE COURT: About the brother?

8 MR. PETERS: About the brother.

9 MR. BECKER: And if we make -- I don't want to talk
10 to him in front of the jury, but if the Court can instruct
11 him to only tell us what Skip Sheppard said about Skip
12 Sheppard.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

15 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I'm instructing
16 you, you are to disregard anything that this witness has just 17 said about Skip Sheppard saying anything about a brother and 18 to regard, or pay regard only to what there may be testimony
19 that skip Sheppard said about himself or about what he, skip
20 Sheppard, did. And that comment or statement about the 21 brother is stricken from the record and will be disregarded.
22 I'll ask you, Mr. White, if you would, please, to 23 address your answers only to things that Skip Sheppard said
24 and said he did and not others.

25 THE WITNESS: Okay.

1 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Now, what did, did Skip Sheppard say
2 anything about being at that construction site on times
3 before the explosion?

4 A. Yes, he did.

5 Q. What did he say?

6 A. He said that he was there approximately about a month
7 before, that he was around a bulldozer, that he was casing
8 the place, waiting for the guard to leave a specific area
9 that he was going to try to break into. That that went on 10 for some period of time, that he was in and around a
11 bulldozer. And that subsequently time passed, that he got 12 frustrated because he wasn't able to approach the place that 13 he wanted to break into, and that he vandalized a bulldozer.

14 Q. Did he say what he did to the bulldozer?

15 A. He said that he took some rocks and some dirt and put it
16 inside, I believe it was a transmission.

17 Q. Now, in talking about the night of the explosion, did
18 Skip Sheppard say why they were going, why he was going to
19 the construction site?

20 A. Yes, he did. It was to steal some tools.

21 Q. Did he say what, did he describe the weather that night?

22 A. I believe that he said something, you know, it was kind
23 of cold. Other than that, not any great detail.

24 Q. Did he tell you, then, how he got to the construction
25 site?

1 A. He said that he and another person drove to the
2 construction site.

3 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say what they did with the car or 4 vehicle, whatever it was?

5 A. Left it off the site, that they hid down around the 6 railroad tracks at first.

7 Q. Now, have you ever been to this construction site here
8 in Kansas City, Missouri, on the south side of 71 Highway?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Have you ever been shown a map by anyone of this
11 construction site at 71 Highway?

12 A. No, sir.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what was your answer?

14 THE WITNESS: No, sir.

15 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Have you ever seen an aerial
16 photograph of this construction site?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say what happened, then, when he was 19 near those railroad tracks?

20 A. He said that they waited there for a period of time with 21 one other person, and then other people came, and they were 22 waiting for the guard to leave the specific area so that they
23 could break into a trailer.

24 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say if he could see the guard?

25 A. Yes. He said that he could see this guard. Now, it

1 wasn't all the time that he saw the guard this particular
2 night.

3 Q. Did Skip Sheppard talk about a diversion at all?

4 A. Yes. The guard stayed around the area so much that
5 later on, they decided that they needed to create a diversion
6 to pull the guard away from the site that they wanted to rob,
7 break into.

8 Q. What did Skip Sheppard say happened next?

9 A. That a diversion with two other people was created.

10 Q. Did he say what that diversion was?

11 A. It was burning a pickup truck.

12 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say what he did then?

13 A. He said once a diversion was created, they went to the 14 trailer that they were trying to break into and attempted to 15 break in.

16 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say how they were trying to do this?

17 A. With a small crowbar was one of the things that they
18 had.

19 Q. Did -- what did Skip Sheppard say happened next?

20 A. They didn't get into the trailer that they were trying 21 to break into.

22 Q. Did he say what happened after that?

23 A. Well, he said he became very, very upset, very mad that 24 they'd spent a lot of time, a lot of effort in doing all of 25 this, and subsequently started a fire.

1 Q. Did he say where the fire was?

2 A. On the trailer.

3 Q. What did skip Sheppard say happened after that?

4 A. He said the fire got going very quickly, and he said
5 that they had fled the scene.

6 Q. Did he say anything -- did Skip Sheppard say anything
7 about seeing firemen?

8 A. They pulled back to, far enough away from the actual 9 fire, the trailer fire, and that firemen did come to that 10 site to try to put out the fire.

11 Q. Did he say, did Skip Sheppard say if he heard the 12 explosion or saw the explosion?

13 A. Yes, he was there present. They were a little bit away
14 from where the explosion went off by that time and definitely
15 heard it, definitely saw it.

16 Q. Is that how he expressed it to you?

17 A. Well, he was, he was fairly graphic about the explosion,
18 a lot of smoke, a lot of fire, a lot of pieces of material
19 going up in the air and coming back down.

20 Q. Did Skip Sheppard say where they went after that?

21 A. Went to one of the brothers' homes, I think. That's
22 what he said.

23 Q. Did Skip Sheppard talk about who was to blame for these 24 deaths?

25 A. Yes, he did.

1538

1 Q. What did he say?

2 A. Well, that's what disturbed me is, one of the things,
3 that he didn't feel responsible for their deaths, that he
4 felt the firemen had been stupid and killed themselves,
5 basically.

6 Q. Now, you didn't come forward with this information right
7 away, did you?

8 A. Not, I don't know what you mean by right away, but I
9 came forward about as soon as I could.

10 Q. Did you talk to your own attorney about this?

11 A. I talked to my attorney about this.

12 Q. Did your attorney contact the United States Attorney's
13 Office then?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. And then after that someone came down to Springfield, I
16 believe, and interviewed you?

17 A. Correct, Dave True.

18 Q. Is that where you're currently incarcerated, serving 19 your sentence?

20 A. Yes, I am.

21 Q. Were you, did you ever ask for anything in exchange for 22 your testimony here today?

23 A. No, I didn't.

24 Q. Were you ever promised anything in exchange for your 25 testimony here today?

1 A. No, I wasn't.

2 Q. Now, did you -- you were in jail in St. Clair, Osceola.

3 Did you read about this case in the newspapers at all?

4 A. No, I didn't.

5 Q. Did you hear it on radio or television down in Osceola?

6 A. There was -- late in my stay, there was a small

7 television instance that talked about the statute of 8 limitations, just ten-second deal.

9 Q. And that would have been really in the last few months;
10 is that right? I guess, August or September?

11 A. That was in August, the latter part of August.

12 Q. So the information you've given us, is that all from 13 what you heard from Skip Sheppard?

14 A. Everything that I've given you is from what I heard out
15 of his mouth.

16 MR. BECKER: I have nothing further at this time.

17 THE COURT: All right. Miss Hunt?

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 By Ms. Hunt:

21 Q. Mr. White, my name is Susan Hunt. I represent Skip
22 Sheppard.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you just talk to the ATF agents on one occasion?

25 A. I talked to Dave True on one occasion. He had another

1 man that was with him the first time was Eugene. I can't
2 remember the last name. And then I talked to, subsequent to
3 that, latter part of December I talked to another agent that,
4 briefly, her name was Joy, and I can't remember the last
5 name.

6 Q. But all the conversations with the ATF agents occurred
7 in December of last year; is that right?

8 MR. PETERS: Excuse me, Your Honor, may we
9 approach?

10 THE COURT: Yeah.

11 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
12 proceedings were had:)

13 MR. BECKER: What's the objection?

14 MR. PETERS: I just didn't want to ask out there.
15 What is the second report?

16 MS. HUNT: It's one report of both?

17 MR. BECKER: Just one. I can't remember her last 18 name either, frankly. She's an agent in Springfield.

19 THE COURT: Is this Joy?

20 MR. BECKER: What's her name?

21 MR. OSGOOD: Branch, isn't it?

22 MR. BECKER: Could be.

23 MS. HUNT: Joy Branch it says right there.

24 MR. BECKER: There it is.

25 MR. PETERS: So they combined the two?

1 MR. BECKER: No. After it was typed up, Joy took
2 it back and asked him to review it so that it was accurate,
3 and then that's the purpose of her going back. She didn't
4 re-interview.

5 THE COURT: So the second contact he's testified
6 to -

7 MR. BECKER: That's an accurate word, contact. It
8 wasn't a re-interview.

9 MR. OSGOOD: Was Gene Harrison with him.

10 MR. BECKER: No. We don't have Gene Harrison on 11 this case.

12 THE COURT: No comment.

13 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

14 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Let's try to clear this up a little 15 bit. You first talked to Dave True and another agent, you
16 can't remember the name; is that right?

17 A. I said his first name was Eugene.

18 Q. Dave True and Eugene, and Dave True is with the ATF; is
19 that right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And that was early December; is that right?

22 A. I think it was on the 6th of December.

23 Q. 1996, last year?

24 A. '96.

25 Q. Okay. And then a week or two later, did another agent

1 from the ATF contact you in the jail?

2 A. I think it was the 23rd, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And did that agent just show you the report that
4 was prepared of your interview?

5 A. Yes, she did.

6 Q. And did you have a chance to read your report?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. Did you have a chance to make any changes to the report?

9 A. Some very minor changes.

10 Q. Okay. And you communicated those changes to the agent?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. Okay. And so if you -- have you read your report again
13 today?

14 A. I read it Saturday.

15 Q. Okay. When the two agents came down the 6th of 16 December -

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- did they have a tape recorder with them?

19 A. To my knowledge, they might have. I didn't see one.

20 Q. Did they ever ask you if they could tape record this
21 statement?

22 A. I didn't care that they didn't.

23 Q. But they never asked you to; is that right?

24 A. I know they never asked me.

25 Q. And you didn't care if they would have, right?

1

1 A. I didn't care if they would have, no.

2 Q. Because you were cooperating with the government at that
3 point; isn't that right?

4 A. I would assume that you would phrase it that way.

5 Q. But you were providing information to the government?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And if they had a court reporter with them, like
8 this woman, taking down what you said, that wouldn't have 9 bothered you, would it?

10 A. No, it wouldn't.

11 Q. Did they ever ask you to sign an affidavit?

12 A. No, they didn't.

13 Q. And do you know what an affidavit is, something that you
14 sign under oath that is a true and accurate statement?

15 A. They did ask me if that was, once I saw the documents,
16 if that's the very, exactly what I said, and that is.

17 Q. Okay. And the document you're referring to is the 18 report, three-page report of your initial statement to Agent
19 True?

20 A. If you want to hand me that, then I can verify for sure
21 that that's exactly what I've seen.

22 (So done.)

23 A. That is the statement.

24 Q. Just so the record is clear, you reviewed this statement
25 on December 23rd; is that right?

1544

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. And you had a chance to make, you said, some minor
3 corrections to it; is that right?

4 A. Yes. Just like one word or maybe a plural where it was
5 not a plural at the time.

6 Q. Just minor grammatical corrections, basically?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Not the content. And then you were shown this report
9 again yesterday, you said?

10 A. On Saturday.

11 Q. And this is an accurate report of that interview?

12 A. Yes, it is.

13 Q. But they never had you sign an affidavit of this report
14 swearing that it's true?

15 A. Not until today.

16 Q. Okay. And they didn't bring a tape recorder?

17 MR. BECKER: Objection. Repetitious.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I think we have talked about
19 that.

20 MS. HUNT: Okay.

21 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Let me ask just one final question on 22 all of that. We don't have today a reflection of what they 23 asked and what you said to listen to or read, do we?

24 MR. BECKER: Objection.

25 THE COURT: Well, I think that's kind of

1 argumentative. I think you can ask him if he's ever seen a
2 transcript of that conversation.

3 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Okay. Have you ever seen a verbatim
4 transcript or listened to a verbatim recording of what the 5 agents asked you and what your responses were?

6 A. That is very close to a verbatim transcript or -
7 everything that they asked me was pretty much down on that
8 piece of paper.

9 Q. Okay. Are you still in jail right now?

10 A. Yes, I am.

11 Q. And in Springfield?

12 A. Springfield, Missouri.

13 Q. Is that the uniform you wear in Springfield?

14 A. No, it's not.

15 Q. Where did you get the clothes to wear to court today?

16 A. My mother provided them for me. They're my clothes.

17 Q. Brought them up here?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Have you ever met John O'Connor?

20 A. Fifteen seconds, he came down Sunday of this week.

21 Q. Where were you on Sunday?

22 A. St. Clair County.

23 Q. Osceola, Missouri?

24 A. Jail, yes.

25 Q. Did Mr. O'Connor ask if you would talk -

1546

1 MR. BECKER: I would object. Can we approach on
2 this?

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
5 proceedings were had:)

6 MR. BECKER: I think counsel are the first ones to 7 assert the rights of individuals to have attorneys and that
8 no inference should be drawn from a refusal to, you know, for 9 a defendant to say anything. And yet the witnesses who
10 decline under their rights to be interviewed by Mr. O'Connor,
11 they're cross-examined on that fact, and presumably for some 12 inference of bias. And it's not, there's no bias just 13 because they refused to speak to Mr. O'Connor when he shows
14 up on their doorstep.

15 MS. HUNT: Well, first of all, unless he's charged
16 in this case, he has no Fifth Amendment right.

17 THE COURT: He didn't say it was Fifth Amendment
18 rights.

19 MS. HUNT: Well, the defendants have rights.

20 THE COURT: He has right to counsel.

21 MR. BECKER: Witnesses have rights to refuse to 22 speak to people.

23 MS. HUNT: That's fine, but I think it does show
24 bias that he refuses to talk to us. I just want to ask him
25 if he talked to us, and he'll say, no, I didn't want to, and

1 then I'm done.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: The only thing I was going to say
3 is, just for the proper foundation, is when I got up there, I
4 told him who I was and that I wanted to talk to him about the 5 facts of this case, and he said he wouldn't answer any
6 questions. So I asked if in court he would say I told you my 7 purpose of being here, that you knew who I was and what I was 8 about, as opposed to you didn't know who the hell I was. He 9 said he would, and that's the end of the conversation.

10 THE COURT: You may ask him that, and let's go on.

11 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

12 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Mr. O'Connor came to see you Sunday in 13 St. Clair County Jail?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. Which is in Osceola; is that right?

16 A. 7 o'clock in the morning.

17 Q. Did Mr. O'Connor introduce himself to you?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. Did he tell you he was there to talk to you about this
20 case?

21 A. Yes, he did.

22 Q. And did you refuse to talk to him?

23 A. I didn't talk to him.

24 Q. Did you say, "I don't want to talk to you"?

25 A. I said that.

1548

1 Q. Okay. Let's go back to the beginning of your direct
2 testimony. You were talking about prior criminal history.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. I believe you said in 1991 you had a mail fraud
5 conviction; is that correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And what court was that in?

8 A. It was in the Western District of Missouri at 9 Springfield, Missouri.

10 Q. Okay. Federal court?

11 A. Federal court.

12 Q. Did you plead guilty or did you go to trial?

13 A. I pled guilty.

14 Q. And what sentence did you receive?

15 A. Twenty-seven months.

16 Q. Okay. Then I believe you said in 1996 you had another
17 conviction in federal court?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Is that also in Springfield?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And that conviction was for tampering with witnesses; is
22 that correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. How many counts of conviction?

25 A. Five.

1549

1 Q. Did you also -- well, did you plead guilty or went to
2 trial on that case?

3 A. We went to trial.

4 Q. And you were convicted by a court and the jury?

5 A. Convicted.

6 Q. And the judge sentenced you to how many months
7 incarceration?

8 A. Forty-six, as I've testified already.

9 THE COURT: Forty-six?

10 THE WITNESS: Forty-six.

11 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Isn't it true that he sentenced you to 12 36 months and 10 months for a supervised release violation?

13 A. That's a more technical way of looking at it. I'm 14 serving 46 months.

15 Q. The violation you received a ten-month sentence on was 16 for what?

17 A. The same thing.

18 Q. okay. So it would be another witness tampering charge?

19 A. No. It was because that I had had a previous conviction
20 and that I was still under supervised release.

21 Q. What was the previous conviction?

22 A. The mail fraud.

23 Q. Did you ever have another supervised release revocation?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. What was that for?

1 A. For helping prostitutes.

2 Q. Promoting prostitution?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Did you receive time on that violation?

5 A. Ten months.

6 Q. And that was also in federal court; is that right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Did you have any State convictions?

9 A. Did I have any what?

10 Q. State convictions.

11 A. No, sir. No, ma'am.

12 Q. Did you ever plead guilty to a state charge or went to 13 trial on a state charge?

14 A. That I received a conviction on -

15 MR. BECKER: Objection.

16 MS. HUNT: I want to rephrase the question.

17 THE COURT: The question has been withdrawn, as I
18 understand it; is that right?

19 MS. HUNT: That's correct.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I think we need to approach.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
23 proceedings were had:)

24 MR. BECKER: Now, the witness has informed me that 25 he has a prior conviction that was vacated on appeal in the

1 state system. Is that what we're talking about?

2 MS. HUNT: We found a couple of priors.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: The one I had was out of Wright
4 County, was a conviction for -

5 MS. HUNT: It was a bad check.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: We've got the certified copies.
7 We've got some stuff here. There's more than one, I think
8 stealing a motor vehicle out of Wright County, 8/4 of '83,
9 three years. I think this is probably the one that got 10 vacated in Greene County on burglary and assault.

11 MR. BECKER: It was absolutely Greene County that 12 was vacated on appeal.

13 THE COURT: Don't go into the Greene County.

14 MR. BECKER: The other one is 1983, which is more
15 than ten years old; thus, under Rule 609 it's not generally
16 to be inquired about. The rule clearly has a time limit.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: This is the one that was vacated,
18 Paul?

19 MR. BECKER: Correct.

20 THE COURT: 609 you're talking about?

21 MR. BECKER: I believe so, Judge, yes. And (b),
22 Your Honor, I would call your attention to. Ten years.

23 THE COURT: 609(b)? Yeah, I don't think this is 24 one of the exceptional cases. It doesn't seem to be related
25 to this kind of conduct.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Any others?

2 MS. HUNT: I don't have any others.

3 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

4 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) At the time Mr. Sheppard talked to you
5 in the St. Clair County Jail -

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- you had been convicted in federal court but had not
8 been sentenced; is that right?

9 A. I was in the process of being sentenced.

10 Q. But the judge had not actually imposed a sentence at 11 that time, had he?

12 A. Yes, he had.

13 Q. When did the judge impose a sentence in your conviction?

14 A. August the 12th.

15 Q. And when did these conversations with Mr. Sheppard
16 occur?

17 A. Well, they comprised themselves basically when I entered
18 the cellblock until the time that I left.

19 Q. And when did you leave?

20 A. It was during that whole time frame.

21 Q. When did you leave the St. Clair County Jail?

22 A. I believe you have the more accurate record of it there
23 that he just read.

24 THE COURT: There's the exhibit, counsel.

25 Q. Do you know when Mr. Sheppard left the St. Clair County

1 Jail?

2 A. I left first, so I wouldn't have any real idea as to
3 when he left.

4 Q. Who is the codefendant that Mr. Sheppard -- strike
5 that. You testified on direct that Mr. Sheppard came to you
6 because your codefendant told him you had some legal
7 knowledge; is that right?

8 . Yes.

9 . And who was that codefendant?

10 . Randy Carter.

11 . Have you had formal training in the law?

12 . I've had a few law courses in college.

13 Q. You've not been to law school?

14 . I have not been to law school.

15 Q. You've not been to a paralegal school, have you?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you tell Mr. Sheppard that, when you first talked to 18 him that you don't really have any formal training in the 19 law?

20 A. Yes, I told him that I helped other inmates in their 21 2255's and things like that.

22 Q. So you drafted pro se petitions for other inmates?

23 A. Helped in that.

24 Q. So you're like a jail house lawyer; is that right?

25 A. I wouldn't consider myself that, but I've helped.

1554

1 Q. These 2255's you helped other inmates on, did that occur
2 while you're in jail?

3 A. You have to understand that a lot of inmates help other
4 inmates.

5 Q. Sir, my question was -

6 MR. BECKER: Allow him to answer.

7 THE COURT: I don't think he was really answering
8 the question. She asked when it occurred, and you might 9 rephrase it.

10 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Those occasions when you helped other
11 inmates with 2255 petitions or motions occurred while you
12 were also incarcerated; is that correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. okay. Mr. Sheppard told you that he was up at the 15 construction site stealing tools; is that correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you told the ATF that he identified some tools that 18 had been stolen previously?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And one of those tools you identified specifically was 21 the acetylene torch setup; is that correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. What other tools did he tell you he was stealing?

24 A. There were, they appeared to be mainly hand tools, that 25 type of stuff, whatever they could get their hands on.

1 Q. okay. Did he give you any specific names like hammers,
2 screwdrivers?

3 A. He just said tools at that point.

4 Q. But he specifically said an acetylene torch, though?

5 A. That was one of the things that they had taken from one
6 of the construction sites that they had burglarized.

7 Q. Did he describe this construction site to you during
8 this conversation?

9 A. Not in any great detail.

10 Q. Did he describe to you where the bulldozers were 11 located?

12 A. You mean the bulldozer on the specific day?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Of course, the bulldozer would probably be moved from 15 day to day, so -

16 Q. okay. Did he describe to you where the bulldozer that 17 he put the rocks and the dirt in the transmission, did he 18 describe where that was located on the construction site?

19 A. He didn't -- I didn't have any physical idea whether it
20 was in the center of the construction site, at the edge of 21 the construction site, or what. He just said that that's a
22 place that he was using for a vantage point to look at these 23 trailers, case these trailers.

24 Q. Okay. He said he was standing by or in the close
25 vicinity of the bulldozers to watch these trailers?

1 A. Yes, and he was also on the bulldozer.

2 Q. Okay. And while he was standing by this bulldozer or on
3 it, did he see the security guards? Or security guard, I'm 4 sorry.

5 A. He was looking for them, yes.

6 Q. I think you testified that he observed a security guard;
7 is that correct?

8 A. He felt that he couldn't go to the site that he wanted
9 to break into, and that's what frustrated him. He saw either
10 security guards or other personnel around where he was trying 11 to break into.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. He didn't say what time of day it was or what time of 14 night it was or anything like that.

15 Q. Did he say that he wanted to break into the trailers to 16 get tools; is that right?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. okay. And so I think you testified on direct that he 19 cased the construction site several days before this incident
20 occurred; is that correct?

21 A. Well, one incident that he mentioned in particular was 22 this time frame that he vandalized the bulldozer, yes.

23 Q. Okay. And he was there on other occasions standing by 24 the bulldozer area and looking at these trailers; is that
25 right?

1 A. I believe that to be correct.

2 Q. Okay. Did he tell you on the night of the explosion
3 that he went there specifically to steal a transit?

4 A. That was one of the things that he mentioned that they
5 had hoped to be able to steal, yes.

6 Q. Did he tell you that he had seen the transit on that 7 site before that night?

8 A. Yes, he did.

9 Q. Can you describe what a transit is?

10 A. A transit is an optical device to, that's usually on a
11 tripod. It's got like a little telescope.

12 Q. Is it a device that surveyors use quite a bit in their
13 work?

14 A. That's what it's used for.

15 Q. Did he tell you he got the transit that night?

16 A. No, he didn't.

17 Q. And he told you that he thought the tools that he wanted
18 to steal were in the trailer; is that right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. But the transit was not located in the trailer, was it?

21 A. I don't know whether it was or not. He said he didn't 22 get in.

23 Q. Did he tell you he saw, physically observed the transit
24 on the site?

25 . Yes.

1558

1 Q. Okay. Did he say he saw a woman arrive and then left
2 the area at one point?

3 A. She arrived with the guard.

4 Q. And did he tell you he never saw that particular woman
5 before at that site?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And then he tells you that he went up to this trailer;
8 is that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And he had his small crowbar, I think you said, about 11 eighteen inches long with him?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And he began to pry the trailer doors open; is that
14 right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did he describe the trailer to you in any detail?

17 A. No.

18 Q. He did not tell you what he used to set the fire, did
19 he?

20 A. No.

21 Q. And he told you that he remained in the vicinity and 22 watched the firemen arrive, didn't he?

23 A. He was close enough, yes, to see the firemen arrive.

24 Q. And I think you told the ATF that Mr. Sheppard told you
25 he was only able to escape because of the confusion the

1 explosion caused; isn't that right?

2 A. To avoid detection, he was away from the blast itself.

3 Q. Did he discuss with you his defense in this case?

4 A. To some degree.

5 Q. Did he tell you he was going to present an alibi

6 defense?

7 A. That was one of the things that he asked me about.

8 Q. And he told you that his mother was going to provide his

9 alibi defense, didn't he?

10 A. That was one possibility.

11 Q. He was depending on his mother, wasn't he?

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Miss -

13 Q. He was depending on his mother to provide an alibi

14 defense; isn't that correct?

15 A. I don't know whether that was his full defense or not.

16 Q. But he did mention that part to you?

17 A. On one particular day he did.

18 Q. Did he ever describe this trailer, or do you have an

19 understanding of what this trailer looked like from these

20 conversations?

21 A. He never described the trailer in any great detail.

22 Q. Did he describe the location of the trailer in any

23 detail at all?

24 A. On the construction site.

25 Q. Okay. And he told you he drove close to the site that

1 night and parked a vehicle; is that right?

2 A. He didn't use the word close.

3 Q. Did he say he drove to the site?

4 A. He just said they drove in an area that was far enough
5 away that I guess the car wouldn't be detected by anyone.

6 Q. So somewhere in the vicinity of the construction site he
7 parked the vehicle?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And he told you after this explosion occurred he went to 10 his brother's house; is that correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. I think you testified on direct you had employment as a
13 real estate agent and a rancher?

14 A. Yes, I have.

15 Q. Did you also earn money promoting prostitution?

16 A. No, I didn't.

17 Q. Were you sentenced to ten months for promoting 18 prostitution in Springfield?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. They have television sets in St. Clair County Jail, 21 don't they?

22 A. Yes, they do.

23 Q. And inmates are allowed to watch the TV, aren't they?

24 A. Yes, they are.

25 Q. Are you aware there's a reward out in this case?

1 A. No, I'm not.

2 MS. HUNT: That's all I have.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Peters?

4 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Peters:

8 Q. Mr. White, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
9 Sheppard. I'd like to ask you some questions about what goes
10 on in a prison or a jail in terms of discussions among 11 inmates. And if at any time my question's wordy or 12 something, stop me and let me know.

13 What I want to ask, we won't use a term like jail
14 house lawyer, but is it fair to say that some people in 15 different institutions attract other defendants towards them
16 because they have a certain degree of expertise in filing
17 motions or giving some sort of advice? Is that fair to say?
18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. And in Springfield and St. Clair, you were one of those 20 individuals that because of your education and experience
21 with the system, people would come to you with questions or 22 ask your advice on different legal matters; is that fair to
23 say?

24 A. I would say more it's into a situation of discussions.

25 Q. And it's not at all uncommon in those discussions that

1 you're describing for you to ask or for the other person to
2 say what the evidence is against them in a particular case,
3 what's the government got on you, those sorts of questions,
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And so what you would routinely hear in these sorts of 7 discussions is, well, the government has these witnesses who 8 are going to say this stuff about what went on regarding the 9 crime; isn't that correct?

10 A. Well, that's speculation, yes. I think it's -- you
11 know, you're not talking in any specifics yet.

12 Q. So isn't the routine practice in a prison system where 13 people are -- strike that.

14 It is not unknown within the prison system that 15 certain individuals will snitch on other individuals in 16 exchange for benefits from the government?

17 MR. BECKER: Objection.

18 THE COURT: I don't think that's material. I'll 19 sustain that objection.

20 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Sir, from your experience, is it
21 common in prison for people to come up and confess prior to 22 trial to other inmates in the facility?

23 MR. BECKER: Objection as to what's common and not 24 common. He can ask about what happened here or has it
25 happened to him before or -

1563

1 THE COURT: It sounds like you're asking for his
2 opinion, wasn't that unusual, and I don't think that opinion
3 is germane. I'm going to sustain that objection.

4 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) While you were in prison, sir, how
5 many individuals did you have come up to you awaiting trial
6 and confess to you their involvement in a case? How many 7 times has that happened for you?

8 A. It has happened, yes.

9 Q. My question was how many times has that happened?

10 A. Pretrial?

11 Q. Yes.

12 A. Well, that would be more in the county jail situation.
13 I'm going to say about four times.

14 Q. And how many times have you had someone come to you in a
15 jail setting and tell you what the government's evidence is 16 against them without confessing to the crime?

17 A. Again, I think you're relying on too much of whether or 18 not the person is, quote, confessing. I think this is more
19 of the case of discussions as to what happened.

20 Q. How many times have you had someone come to you and 21 carry on a discussion about what the government's evidence is 22 against them?

23 A. Several.

24 Q. Dozens. Would that be fair to say?

25 MR. BECKER: Objection. That mischaracterizes the

1 answer.

2 THE COURT: He didn't say dozens, he said several.

3 I don't think several means dozens.

4 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Sir, what do you mean, several?

5 A. Five, seven, that range.

6 Q. And what I want to ask you about is the distinction
7 between someone saying "I did it" versus someone saying "here
8 is what the government said I did." Do you understand the 9 distinction I'm going to be drawing here?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Okay. Can you tell the jury -- strike that. Is there
12 any way, absent a tape recording or a video statement, for 13 someone to know if what you are recounting today is what 14 Frank Sheppard told you he did or what Frank Sheppard told 15 you the government's case was?

16 MR. BECKER: Objection.

17 THE COURT: Just a minute, Mr. White.

18 MR. BECKER: I would object. It's argumentative,
19 it calls for speculation.

20 THE COURT: Anyway, it's speculative. I'll sustain
21 that.

22 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Sir, in the statement that you gave to 23 Dave True -- excuse me. It's not a statement. In this 24 report of interview conducted on December 6, 1996, with 25 Special Agent Dave True, you've told us you've had an

1 opportunity to review this; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, I have.

3 Q. Okay. Now, your discussions with Skip Sheppard began on 4 August 12th, 1996; isn't that correct?

5 A. They didn't actually begin at that point in time. I had
6 other discussions with him. This is one that I took notes
7 on.

8 Q. And you've had a chance to review your interview. Is it
9 correct that for a period of time beginning on August 12th,
10 1996, in the St. Clair County Jail that you had discussions
11 with Skip Sheppard?

12 A. The word beginning is -- I had talked to him at previous
13 times.

14 Q. When you reviewed this statement and made grammatical
15 corrections and corrections between singular and plural, did
16 you make a correction to the statement for a period of time
17 beginning on August 12th, 1996? Did you make that 18 correction?

19 A. I think that the statement reflected the types of 20 conversations that we had. It was a, at this point in time,
21 they were actually talking about his particular case.

22 Q. Did you tell the agents that your conversations began
23 with Skip Sheppard prior to August 12th, 1996?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. But the discussions of admissions began on August 12th,

1 1996. Is that what -- is that correct?

2 A. I think that what you want is that, the fact that I had
3 talked to Skip Sheppard prior to August the 12th, 1996, I had
4 talked to him. And the discussions started to revolve around
5 his specific case at that time frame until the time that I
6 left the county jail.

7 Q. Sir, did you tell the agents that this was a general
8 time frame, or did you tell the agents that at a time
9 beginning on August 12th, 1996, is when these discussions
10 began?

11 MR. BECKER: objection. May we approach?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
14 proceedings were had:)

15 MR. BECKER: And it was not accurately read. What 16 the sentence stated is for a period of time, which reflects
17 this witness's -

18 THE COURT: Beginning August 12th.

19 MR. PETERS: Right.

20 MR. BECKER: If counsel would say for a period of 21 time, which I think connotes an ongoing discussion, which is 22 what this witness has testified to, but counsel has stated as 23 on, at a time of August 12, 1996, I mean, saying that it was 24 just specifically that day.

25 THE COURT: Why don't you just read that sentence

1 in the report and say is that accurate.

2 MR. PETERS: Okay. I'll do that.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: Paul, while we're here. I may ask
4 some questions, and I wanted to run them by the Court before
5 I did. I have a motion that was filed in his case by the 6 United States Government to move for upward departure on 7 him. As a result of the sentence that he received in this 8 case, there was an upward departure motion filed by the 9 United States Attorney's Office in Springfield, and they made
10 certain statements in the upward departure motion that I
11 would like to inquire about.

12 For example, the Court has already ruled about the 13 insurance fraud. That was the conviction that Mr. Becker was 14 talking about, that it was reversed for improper venue. But 15 in his sentencing up there, they asked the judge to consider 16 it because it didn't follow the facts or circumstances of the 17 case. So I want to get into that, but you've already ruled
18 that as to the date, so I'm not going to do that.

19 I want to explore with him this prostitution
20 business because I believe that he has not been quite upfront
21 about that. Go ahead.

22 MR. BECKER: I haven't seen this document, but 23 counsel has highlighted portions where he's, the defendant
24 agreed that he was guilty of promoting prostitution. We've 25 covered that.

1568

1 THE COURT: I thought he said that.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: Did he say that to you?

3 THE COURT: He said that.

4 MR. BECKER: Miss Hunt asked him that. He said he
5 did it.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: The next one was that the government
7 said since '83 this defendant has persistently engaged in 8 criminal activity involving fraud and witness tampering.

9 I would like to ask him that, and the reason for 10 that is to show that he has the bias toward the government.
11 He wants to help the government because the government is not
12 happy with him and they filed this downward departure motion.

13 MR. BECKER: It's upward departure motion, not 14 downward departure motion.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Right. They're mad at him, they 16 moved to upward depart, and he wants to get in the good
17 graces of the government.

18 MR. BECKER: It's already been ruled on.

19 THE COURT: Is that motion pending?

20 MR. O'CONNOR: No. It's been ruled on.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I don't think that's fair.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. And this part that the 23 defendant poses a significant threat to re-offend and the 24 likelihood that he would commit crimes in the future, I want
25 to get into that area.

1 THE COURT: I don't want you to get into that.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: I've made my record.

3 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Peters.

5 MR. PETERS: Thank you, Judge.

6 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Sir, didn't you tell Special Agent

7 True that you were incarcerated with Skip Sheppard for a
8 period of time beginning on August 12th, 1996, in the St.
9 Clair County Jail at Osceola, Missouri?

10 A. No.

11 Q. So that if that is in the report, that is in error?

12 A. That was part of the time. I was there with him before
13 that time. It's in the records with, the county jail
14 records.

15 Q. Again, sir, I'm going to show you -

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Can we see that just a
17 minute? I'm a little confused now myself.

18 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
19 proceedings were had:)

20 THE COURT: Well, you can show him that and see if 21 it's an accurate reflection. That's all we can do with it.

22 MR. BECKER: But he hasn't said -- he doesn't have 23 a bad memory. And he's been read the sentence, and he says
24 it's not accurate.

25 THE COURT: I guess that's right. I guess you'll

1570

1 have to use the officer.

2 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

3 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) So the part in here that, referring to 4 August 12th, 1996, is inaccurate; is that correct?

5 A. Which part are you referring to?

6 Q. For a period of time beginning on August 12th, 1996, in 7 the St. Clair County Jail, Osceola, Missouri, your testimony
8 is that that is inaccurate, that it's a time period beginning
9 on August 12th?

10 MR. BECKER: Read the whole sentence.

11 THE COURT: No.

12 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Let me read the whole sentence again.

13 THE COURT: Read the whole sentence and see if it
14 can be -

15 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Is this sentence accurate? Quote, 16 "White said he was incarcerated with Earl Skip Sheppard for 17 a period of time beginning on August 12th, 1996, in the St.
18 Clair County Jail at Osceola, Missouri." Is that correct?

19 A. Sir, the records of the county jail reflect the time
20 frame that I was in the county jail. I was in there, Skip
21 was in there. We were in there at that time frame. I had
22 been in there previous to that time. What that sentence
23 refers to is that is the beginning of the time frames that we 24 talked of the actual events that happened in 1988.

25 Q. So August 12, 1996, is the beginning of the time frame

1 where Skip Sheppard is telling you about events that happened
2 in 1988; is that correct? August 12th is the beginning of
3 that?

4 A. The beginning of the conversations, yes.

5 Q. And August 12th, 1986, is also the date that you were
6 sentenced on your federal charges; is that correct?

7 A. Now, you're talking about '86? You said '86.

8 Q. I'm sorry, August 12th, 1996. That was the date that 9 you were sentenced on your federal charges; is that correct?

10 A. Yes, that is true.

11 Q. I want to ask you some questions about language. Is it
12 your testimony that this defendant used the word transit in 13 discussions with you?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. Did he describe a transit as an optical device?

16 A. He used the word transit. It is an optical device.

17 Q. Is it your testimony that this defendant used the word
18 diversion with you?

19 A. Yes, he did.

20 Q. Your testimony -- am I correct that this, what was 21 described to you by Skip Sheppard was a location that had 22 been cased for about a month in advance; is that correct?

23 A. He said that he had been there several different
24 occasions before that, even before the month and right up
25 until the time of this explosion.

1 Q. So for more than a month, Mr. Sheppard is telling you
2 that he was aware of this location and just aware of it?

3 A. He had been on it.

4 THE COURT: Just a minute, Mr. White.

5 MR. PETERS: Let me withdraw that.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) In layman's terms, was Mr. Sheppard
8 telling you that he knew the location or that this was a
9 place that he planned to do some stealing from?

10 A. This was a location that he planned to do some stealing 11 on, from.

12 Q. okay. And your testimony is that Mr. Sheppard then on 13 the night of November 28th, morning of November 29th, 1988,
14 that he went to this location to break into trailers; is that
15 correct?

16 A. Trailer.

17 Q. In the execution of this plan, did he tell you whether 18 or not they took bolt cutters with them?

19 A. Evidently they didn't. He didn't mention them.

20 Q. Did they take any devices to break locks open that 21 you're aware of?

22 A. They took a crowbar. He might have been able to use
23 that to break this lock. I didn't see that -- I didn't know
24 what type of lock it was, whether it was an easy lock to 25 break or whether it was hard.

1 Q. Did they take gasoline with them, did he tell you that?

2 A. He did not tell me that they took gasoline with -- when
3 you mean them, who are you referring to?

4 Q. I'm asking you if Skip Sheppard told you that he or
5 anybody else took gasoline with them that night.

6 A. I've been instructed by the Court to not to talk about
7 other people other than Skip, or Earl Sheppard.

8 Q. I'm asking you whether Skip told you whether he or any 9 other person took gasoline up there that night.

10 THE COURT: All right. Come up, counsel.

11 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
12 proceedings were had:)

13 MR. PETERS: Judge, all he has to say is that he 14 told me that another person did, if that's his answer.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm going to object to that because 17 I don't think he knows that, based on what he just said he 18 said. I thought I wasn't supposed to say, so I think he's 19 getting ready to say a name.

20 THE COURT: I'll tell him not to say a name. If 21 the man said a person, then just use the generic, a person.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

23 MR. BECKER: And I would -

24 THE COURT: This guy may even understand what 25 generic means.

1574

1 MR. O'CONNOR: He would be the only one that does.

2 MR. BECKER: And again, I would object to the 3 cross-examination as repetitious. I know the Court is 4 allowing each counsel to cross-examine, but this witness
5 never said one word about Frank Sheppard.

6 THE COURT: That's true.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: We're at the lunch hour too.

8 MR. PETERS: I have about two more questions,
9 Judge.

10 THE COURT: Let's go.

11 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

12 Q. (By Mr. Peters:) Sir, did Skip Sheppard tell you that a 13 diversion was set by setting fire to a pickup truck across
14 the street?

15 A. Yes, he did.

16 MR. PETERS: I have no further questions.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bunch?

18 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Your Honor.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: No questions.

20 MR. OSGOOD: No questions.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect, Mr. Becker?

22 MR. BECKER: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right, Mr. White. Thank you.
24 You're excused.

25 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Folks, we'll take our lunch hour
2 now. I'll ask you to be back in the jury room, please be
3 back in the jury room at 1:45.

4 Don't talk about the case or allow anyone to talk
5 about it in your presence. You're excused.

6 (The following proceedings were had in the
7 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

8 THE COURT: We skipped Mr. Whitelaw on your list
9 this morning. Is he not coming?

10 MR. BECKER: He wanted to consult with his
11 attorney.

12 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: Your Honor, may I approach
13 the bench?

14 MR. BECKER: That's his attorney. That's Mr.
15 Haley, Lance Haley.

16 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: I'm sorry I don't have a tie
17 on, but they summoned me down here from the office this 18 morning, and this is the way I was dressed today.

19 THE COURT: Do you have to make a private record on
20 this?

21 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: I probably need to talk to 22 Mr. Becker in respect to something that we're going to
23 request.

24 THE COURT: Why don't you talk with Mr. Becker, and 25 then if you need to take anything up with the Court, we'll do

1576

1 it just before we reconvene after lunch.

2 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in recess.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, what time are we going to 5 start back?

6 THE COURT: 1:45.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

8 (A recess was taken from 12:25 p.m. to 1:53 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. Have you discussed, you all
10 discussed with the lawyers who your next witness is, and do
11 you have anything to take up with me before that?

12 MR. BECKER: I think we're ready to go, Judge.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't write down the 14 lawyer's name.

15 MR. BECKER: It was Lance Haley, Mr. Haley, and he
16 informed me that his client is ready to testify.

17 THE COURT: His client is?

18 MR. BECKER: Michael Whitelaw.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Fine. Let's go, then. Get the 20 jury, please.

21 (The following proceedings were had in the
22 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

23 THE COURT: All right, folks. You may swear the 24 witness.

MICHAEL WHITELAW,

1
2 having been affirmed under the penalties of perjury,
3 testified as follows:
4 THE COURT: Okay.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. Becker:
8 Q. Good afternoon. Please state your name and spell your
9 last name.
10 A. Michael Whitelaw, W-H-I-T-E-L-A-W.
11 Q. How old are you, sir?
12 A. Thirty-four years old.
13 Q. Are you currently incarcerated?
14 A. Yes, I am.
15 Q. Where are you serving your sentence?
16 A. Greenville, Illinois.
17 Q. What are you in jail for?
18 A. Possession with intent to distribute cocaine, and 19 firearms charge.
20 Q. How long is your sentence?
21 A. Twenty-five years.
22 Q. In February -- in 1995, from February through July,
23 where were you?
24 A. I was on bond at Dismas House, which is a federal 25 holding facility in Kansas City.

1 THE COURT: What's your date, again, counsel?

2 MR. BECKER: Sure. It would be February '95
3 through July '95.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. And at that time you were
5 in Dismas House?

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Where is that?

8 THE WITNESS: 3126 Forest.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. BECKER: And pursuant to that, Judge, pursuant 11 to the stipulation entered into between the parties regarding 12 business records, I would offer Government's 399 into
13 evidence.

14 MS. HUNT: No objection.

15 THE COURT: Any problem with that? All right.
16 Hearing no objection, 399 is admitted.

17 (Government's Exhibit 399 was admitted into
18 evidence.)

19 MR. PETERS: No objection.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Hand that up to the clerk, would 21 you, please?

22 All right. Thank you, Anne. You may hand that 23 back to him.

24 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge. With the Court's
25 permission, I'd like to read this to the jury.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. BECKER: It's a letter from Dismas House.

3 To whom it may concern. This letter is to confirm
4 the placement dates at Dismas House of Kansas City for the 5 following: Michael D. Whitelaw, Earl Skip Sheppard.

6 Mr. Whitelaw was a pretrial placement under the
7 supervision of the pretrial division of the U.S. District
8 Court of the Western District of Missouri from February 28,
9 1995, through July 13, 1995.

10 Mr. Sheppard was a pretrial placement under the 11 supervision of the pretrial division of the U.S. District
12 Court of Western Missouri from April 28, 1995, through July 13 4, 1995.

14 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) So Mr. Whitelaw, you would have been
15 at the Dismas House from the end of February through July 13
16 of 1995; is that right?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. While you were there, did you meet an individual by the 19 name of Skip Sheppard?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. Do you see him here in court today?

22 A. He's the guy in the burgundy with the sunglasses.

23 Q. Now standing up?

24 A. Yes, he is.

25 MR. BECKER: Okay. Indicating Defendant Skip

1580

1 Sheppard, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Could you briefly, how big is Dismas
4 House, how many individuals are there?

5 A. It varies. You know, when I was there, it was between 6 probably 85, 90 people. There are three floors: The women
7 on the bottom floor with the office staff; second floor is 8 the guys, the TV room; and the third floor is guys also.

9 Q. How is it that you came to talk to or know Skip Sheppard
10 while you were at Dismas House?

11 A. We were both seeing the same pretrial officer, which was 12 Leigh Anne Howard. And there would be occasions when I would 13 come down to see her and he might be leaving from there.

14 Q. Did you have any conversation with Skip Sheppard about 15 the cases that you were both there for?

16 A. Yes, I have.

17 Q. Now, did there come a time when Skip Sheppard was on 18 restriction at Dismas House?

19 A. Yes, he was.

20 Q. What does that mean?

21 A. Restrictions is like if you have, you know, you have to 22 pay 25 percent of what you make on your job or if you do
23 something against regulations, then you'll be put on 24 restrictions, which means you can't go out to work and you're 25 confined to the halfway house.

1581

1 Q. Did you have a discussion with Skip Sheppard, then, when
2 he was on restriction?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. Did Skip Sheppard tell you anything about the 5 firefighters explosion?

6 A. Yes, he did.

7 Q. What did he tell you?

8 A. Well, basically when I had came down here for a hearing
9 before, I had seen Skip down here, and we talked about why he
10 was here. And then when we got back to the halfway house,
11 discussion came up about how they were trying to pin this
12 case on him.

13 Q. What did Skip Sheppard say about that?

14 A. He told me that, you know, him and his brother -

15 Q. Don't tell us about anybody else other than Skip
16 Sheppard.

17 MR. PETERS: Objection, Your Honor, may we
18 approach?

19 THE COURT: Well, no mention of any other people.
20 Isn't that what you're concerned about?

21 MR. PETERS: Yes.

22 THE COURT: You're only to testify to what Skip
23 Sheppard might have said to you and not identify anybody else
24 that he talked about.

25 MR. PETERS: I would ask that his last, the jury

1 not consider his last remark of Skip and his brother.

2 THE COURT: That is the instruction to the jury.

3 You're to disregard that reference to his brother.

4 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) What did Skip say about Skip Sheppard?

5 A. He said that more or less he was out that night riding
6 around drinking and that they had stopped up on the site
7 where the trailers were. He told me that they were trying to 8 pin it onto him, but they would never have enough evidence to 9 prove it.

10 Q. Why wouldn't they have any evidence?

11 A. Because he said that they could not prove that he was
12 there.

13 Q. Did he say anything about any witnesses to it?

14 A. No, he didn't say anything about witnesses. He just

15 said more or less that him and, of course -

16 Q. Just tell us what he did.

17 THE COURT: Yeah. Just what he did.

18 A. Just the fact that he was there and with no witnesses.
19 They would never be able to prove it.

20 Q. Did he say anything about any trailers?

21 A. He mentioned the fact that when they were up there,
22 there were trailers, but he didn't say, you know, what were 23 in the trailers.

24 Q. Did he say anything about a fire at the construction
25 site?

1 A. He more or less mentioned that while they were up there
2 that a fire got started, but he didn't say how.

3 Q. Did he say what happened after the fire was started?

4 A. No. Basically, the fact that a fire got started, and
5 that was it.

6 Q. Did Skip Sheppard talk about being able to get
7 explosives?

8 A. Yes, he did.

9 Q. What did he say?

10 A. Well, when he talked about his case, that he's 11 incarcerated on it now, he talked about how he could get
12 explosives, but I wasn't interested in hearing about no
13 explosives or nothing like that, you know, so I didn't pay no
14 attention to it.

15 Q. Now, then, in October of 1995, you were sentenced to 25
16 years in jail?

17 A. Yes, I was.

18 Q. Did you ever, you know, bring these statements to the 19 attention of the authorities?

20 A. At first I didn't because I didn't believe them, you
21 know, because he was gone from the halfway house and he 22 supposedly said he had fell asleep, that's why he didn't get 23 back on time, and that's why he was on restriction. And just 24 like when you in jail, people will tell you things to more or 25 less build their selves up.

1584

1 You know, I've learned from being in jail some
2 guys, they'll say, well, I've had all of this money and I've 3 done this and done that, but you don't believe them because 4 they're just saying things to make their selves look
5 important. So at the time I didn't mention nothing.

6 Q. And he wasn't in jail on this explosion case, was he?

7 A. No, he wasn't.

8 Q. Did something happen in May of 1996 that you then
9 decided to come forward with this information?

10 A. Yes, it did.

11 Q. What was that?

12 A. Well, basically, you know, I've been reading the paper
13 and, you know, I kept seeing the articles in the paper. And 14 when I seen that they were still pursuing this case, I
15 decided to write to the prosecutor, which was Meiners,
16 William Meiners. And I wrote to the clerk of the court
17 through the district court.

18 Q. okay. I want to show you what's been marked for 19 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit 400 and 20 Exhibit 401. I want to show you what's been marked for
21 identification purposes as Government's Exhibit 400 and 401.
22 Can you take a look at those, please, and ask, do you
23 recognize those?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. What are they?

1585

1 A. Both of these are letters that, one I wrote to Miss
2 Turner, which is the clerk of the district court, and the
3 other is to William Meiners, which is the prosecutor. Well,
4 the Assistant U.S. Attorney.

5 Q. One of my colleagues, one of the guys I work with?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What are the dates, the letter to Mr. Neiners, which is
8 Government's Exhibit 400?

9 A. The date to Mr. Meiners is May 14, 1996.

10 Q. The letter, then, to Mrs. Turner, which is Government's 11 401?

12 A. Is May 28th, 1996.

13 Q. In those letters, you talk about the, a newspaper
14 article that you'd seen the week before; is that right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. I want to show you what's been marked for identification
17 purposes as Government's 402. And the date is on the side
18 there. Is that the article that you had seen about the case
19 that caused you to write those letters?

20 A. Yes, it is.

21 Q. What's the date on that particular letter or -

22 A. Thursday, May 9th, 1996.

23 MR. BECKER: I would offer that into evidence as
24 Government's Exhibit 402.

25 MR. OSGOOD: I haven't seen it.

1586

1 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
2 proceedings were had:)

3 MR. OSGOOD: I would object to it on behalf of Mr.
4 Brown as being rank hearsay by a newspaper reporter.

5 MR. BECKER: Well -

6 MR. O'CONNOR: What's your purpose for your offer?

7 MR. BECKER: My purpose is that this witness, I
8 anticipate, will be cross-examined, and he'll be 9 cross-examined about the fact that he just made all of this
10 stuff up because of what he read in the newspapers. And here
11 is what's in the newspaper. It doesn't mention Skip
12 Sheppard, Frank Sheppard, any Sheppard. He's the one that 13 said, here is the story about the firefighters explosion.
14 Gee, I have this information about Skip Sheppard, I'm going
15 to come forward with it.

16 See, what we have is a series of cross-examinations
17 that are intended to show that the witnesses are making this 18 up out of the whole cloth, out of Unsolved Mysteries, out of 19 newspaper stories. And I think that at this point I should 20 have the opportunity to show that none of these newspaper
21 stories, none of this Unsolved Mvateries ever said the 22 Sheppards. It's -- and, therefore, counsel can't imply that 23 the information this witness is testifying to came from 24 anything in this story.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: I haven't seen it. Can I see this?

1

1 mean, are you just going to offer portions of this? You're
2 not going to talk about Ross Barber and all of your other
3 prosecutions?

4 MR. BECKER: I lost that one, John, if you'll
5 recall. Once every ten years I lose.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't like those odds right now.
7 I mean, can we enter -- I mean, not -- are you going to ask
8 him about this article?

9 MS. HUNT: The only thing I was going to ask him,
10 he said the article was on Skip Sheppard.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: It wasn't.

12 THE COURT: So?

13 MS. HUNT: I don't have to ask him that if -

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I think that's important to have 15 in. I don't know what the relevance of this is. If he said
16 that he read about Skip Sheppard, how do we know this was the 17 article?

18 MR. BECKER: He just testified it was.

19 THE COURT: See, he didn't say he read Skip
20 Sheppard. Skip Sheppard told him Skip Sheppard.

21 MS. HUNT: In his letter he says he read an article
22 on Skip Sheppard, and that's when he came forward.

23 THE COURT: I haven't seen that.

24 MS. HUNT: Okay. That's the letter he just talked
25 about.

1 THE COURT: See, I don't know that that's the
2 article he's talking about.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: That's what I don't know either.

4 MR. BECKER: He just testified that it was.

5 MS. HUNT: Is that the only article?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Here is my objection to this
7 exhibit. After it says the investigation, then it says the 8 grand jury has heard testimony on the investigation of former 9 house speaker Robert Griffin, the property trial of Michael 10 Hernandez, and other cases. Officials declined, however, on 11 whether the latest grand jury meeting heard any testimony on 12 the firefighters, and then all of that about Ross Barber.

13 THE COURT: He has testified, as I noted here, he 14 did testify about that article. Why don't you let him answer
15 the question of -- have him look at the article and then ask
16 him if Skip Sheppard was, in fact, mentioned in that 17 article. Because there is a lot of collateral stuff in that 18 article.

19 MR. BECKER: Okay. I'm not sure he can read.

20 THE COURT: Oh, really?

21 MR. BECKER: We'll try it.

22 THE COURT: He just said -

23 MR. BECKER: I shouldn't jump to that conclusion.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: Are you going to move to offer it?

25 THE COURT: It's offered right now. It will be

~ 1589

1 admitted for the limited purpose that I've just explained to
2 counsel in hopes that the area can be gone into without
3 getting into all of this other stuff.

4 (Government's Exhibit 402 was admitted into
5 evidence.)

6 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

7 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Mr. Whitelaw, I want to ask you to 8 just take a minute, please, to read this, what's been marked
9 as Government's Exhibit 402, the story.

10 A. Do you want me to read it out loud?

11 Q. No, no, just read it to yourself, please.

12 Mr. Whitelaw, did you have a chance to read that?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. Is Skip Sheppard, is any Sheppard name mentioned
15 anywhere in that article?

16 A. No, it isn't.

17 Q. So the information that you had that Skip Sheppard was 18 responsible for this fire, it didn't come from this newspaper 19 story?

20 A. No, it didn't.

21 Q. And then after you read that newspaper story, you wrote
22 the letter to Mr. Meiners and then to Mrs. Turner?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. Now, after that, then, were you finally interviewed in 25 August by Police Officer Jerry Ludwig at the institution

1 where you were being held?

2 A. Yes, I was.

3 Q. Also, then, several weeks ago, were you interviewed by 4 an attorney in this case, John O'Connor?

5 A. Yes, I was.

6 Q. Where did that take place?

7 A. Belton City Jail.

8 Q. Did he tell you who he represented?

9 A. He said he represented, I believe, Frank Sheppard.

10 Q. Do you know Frank Sheppard?

11 A. No, I don't.

12 Q. Do you know Bryan Sheppard?

13 A. No, I don't.

14 Q. Do you know anybody in this case except for Skip
15 Sheppard?

16 A. Just Skip.

17 MR. BECKER: I have nothing further, Judge, thank
18 you.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Cross? Who is doing cross?

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 By Ms. Hunt:

23 Q. Mr. Whitelaw, my name is Susan Hunt, I represent Skip
24 Sheppard. Are you represented by an attorney at this time?

25 A. Yes, I am.

1591

1 Q. And is he present in the courtroom today?

2 A. Yes, he is.

3 Q. Is there just, have you seen a statement that is dated
4 August 29, 1996, which purports to be a summary of the 5 information provided to the Kansas City, Missouri, Police
6 Department?

7 . Yes, I believe that's the one that I gave to Jerry
8 Ludwig.

9 Q. And this statement was given on August 29th of 1996; is
10 that right?

11 A. Yes, yes, it was.

12 Q. And that's the only statement that you gave to law
13 enforcement regarding this case?

14 A. To Ludwig, yes, it was.

15 Q. Okay. When officer Ludwig came to talk to you that day,
16 did he tape-record your conversation?

17 A. I don't believe so.

18 Q. Did he ever have you sign an affidavit as to what you're 19 saying is the truth, to swear to it?

20 A. I don't recall if I signed anything that day.

21 Q. Did he bring a court reporter, which is like this woman,
22 who takes down verbatim what he says and what you said?

23 A. No, he didn't.

24 Q. So we don't have anything here that will say what he 25 said to you and your responses to him, do we?

1 A. No, we don't.

2 Q. Now, you said you were in Dismas House with Skip
3 Sheppard?

4 A. Yes, I was.

5 Q. When was your conviction?

6 A. I caught this case in December of '94, and I was out on 7 bond from February to July, and I was convicted July 13th, I
8 believe, 1995.

9 Q. Okay. And you were convicted of distribution of 10 cocaine?

11 . Distribution of cocaine and carrying a concealed weapon.

12 Q. Carrying a gun during a drug transaction?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And received a 25-year sentence; is that right?

15 . Yes.

16 Q. Did you appeal that sentence?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. Was the appeal decided by now?

19 A. It was decided in June of, what year is this? '96.

20 Q. Okay. And the Court of Appeals denied your appeal,
21 didn't they?

22 A. Yes, they did.

23 Q. So you got no relief from the Court of Appeals; is that
24 right?

25 A. No, I didn't.

1 Q. And after your appeal was denied and turned down in June
2 of '96, three months later you talked to the police; is that
3 right?

4 A. I believe I did.

5 Q. And I believe you said you started out by sending a
6 letter to a Mr. William Meiners, who was a U.S. Attorney?

7 . Yes, I did.

8 Q. And that letter was dated May 14th, 1996?

9 . Yes.

10 Q. But they didn't talk to you until August; is that right?

11 A. August.

12 Q. End of August; is that right? August 29th?

13 A. I would say the end of August.

14 Q. Have you had a chance to review the letter you sent in 15 May of '96?

16 A. Yes, I have.

17 Q. And doesn't this letter say, "In the last week's paper,
18 I saw an article on Earl Sheppard, AKA Skip"?

19 A. Yes, it does.

20 Q. Does that article that the government had you read say
21 anything about Skip Sheppard?

22 A. No, it doesn't.

23 Q. Doesn't mention his name, does it?

24 A. No.

25 Q. I think you talked on direct exam about how when this

1 alleged conversation with Skip Sheppard occurred you thought
2 he was just bragging; is that right?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. Is it common for inmates to brag to other inmates with
5 them in jail -- strike that. Is it common in a situation
6 with other people charged with a crime or in jail for people
7 to brag?

8 A. Somewhat they do, but I don't.

9 Q. But I think you said on direct exam it makes them look
10 big; is that right?

11 A. Makes them look big.

12 Q. Makes them look big to other people in the jail or the 13 halfway house; is that right?

14 A. Somewhat.

15 Q. And Skip Sheppard is the only person you've heard
16 bragging in a locked up situation, isn't it?

17 A. Yeah, because I don't know any of the other guys.

18 Q. You're in jail in Greenville, Illinois; is that right?

19 A. Illinois.

20 Q. Is it also common when you're in a halfway house
21 situation with other people whose trials are pending to talk
22 about their cases?

23 A. No. I don't believe so, because I've never been in that
24 situation before, and I don't socialize with very many people
25 because I'm -- you know, even though I've gotten my

1 punishment for my crime, I don't conversate because of my
2 belief I'm, you know, trying to more or less stay away from
3 that type of atmosphere.

4 You know, if I see somebody -- I'm a friendly
5 person, I'll hold a conversation with very few people. But
6 as far as just wanting to hear people brag, you know, I don't 7 get off on stuff like that.

8 Q. And this is the first time you were ever charged with an
9 offense; is that correct?

10 A. Yes, it is.

11 Q. And that's the first time you were ever in a halfway
12 house in your life; is that correct?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. Did you discuss any of the circumstances about your case
15 with Mr. Sheppard?

16 A. I told him, you know, that I was seeing the same
17 pretrial officer, which was Leigh Anne, and what my situation
18 was. And, you know, basically, you know, we pass -- like I
19 say, when I go see Leigh Anne, he would be there, and maybe
20 some days I would be there and somebody would call from the 21 halfway house inquiring to her about him.

22 Q. So you discussed at least on some basis your -

23 A. Some basis.

24 Q. Your charges with him?

25 A. Yes.

1596

1 Q. And so the ATF or anybody from law enforcement,
2 specifically Jerry Ludwig from the Kansas City, Missouri,
3 Police, came to you because you wrote them; is that right?

4 A. Well, I assume that Meiners had gave the information to 5 Ludwig and, like I say, Ludwig came up and talked to me that
6 day for maybe, say, maybe an hour.

7 Q. okay. During these conversations you supposedly had
8 with Mr. Sheppard, did he ever mention a bulldozer?

9 A. No, he didn't.

10 Q. Did he ever say he burglarized or somehow vandalized a
11 bulldozer at the site?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did he ever mention that he had gone there to steal a
14 transit?

15 A. I'm not familiar with a transit. What is that?

16 Q. Did you ever hear the word transit from him?

17 A. Yeah, I know. Like you're moving, in movement, like I
18 am. I'm in transit right now.

19 Q. As I understand it, a transit is what a surveyor uses.
20 It's on a tripod. But all I'm asking is did you ever hear
21 him say, "I went to steal a transit"?

22 A. No, because I'm not familiar with it.

23 Q. Okay. Did he mention any security guards when you
24 talked to him?

25 A. No, he didn't.

- 1 Q. Did he mention any acetylene torches?
- 2 A. No.
- 3 Q. Did he mention any dynamite?
- 4 A. No.
- 5 Q. Did he mention any jackhammers?
- 6 A. No, he didn't.
- 7 Q. Did he mention any sledgehammers?
- 8 A. No, he didn't.
- 9 Q. Did he mention any kind of hand tools at all?
- 10 A. No.
- 11 Q. Did he mention he stole anything?
- 12 A. No.
- 13 Q. And he did not tell you in this conversation that you
- 14 had with him supposedly that he knew what was in those
- 15 trailers, right?
- 16 A. No, he didn't know what was in the trailers.
- 17 Q. And he told you he didn't know how the fire got started?
- 18 A. Yes, he did.
- 19 Q. And he told you he didn't start the fire, didn't he?
- 20 A. He said that the fire got started, but he didn't say
- 21 that he started it.
- 22 Q. He never said that he started the fire?
- 23 A. Right.
- 24 Q. And I think on your direct testimony, you said in this
- 25 conversation he told you he was out riding around drinking?

1

1 A. Drinking.

2 Q. And stumbled on the construction site?

3 A. He said while they were drinking, they rode up to a
4 construction site. They went up there, and there were
5 trailers. He said that a fire got started, but he didn't say
6 how the fire got started.

7 Q. But he never told you he'd been to that construction
8 site before, had he?

9 A. Well, when we talked about it previously, he just more
10 or less said that they were up there, they were trying to 11 charge him and others with the crime, but he said they would 12 never be able to pin it on him.

13 Q. That's not my question, Mr. Whitelaw. He never told you
14 he'd been to that construction site before, did he?

15 A. Not until that day we had discussions.

16 Q. And I think you told Officer Ludwig that -

17 THE COURT: I think he misunderstood your question.

18 Q. Do you want to do it again?

19 THE COURT: Did you mean that you didn't tell him
20 before that he had been to the site, or did you tell him he'd 21 been to the site before?

22 Q. I'll rephrase it. He'd never told you that he had been 23 on that site on prior occasions, did he?

24 A. Prior to him discussing this?

25 Q. Prior to the time you claim he admitted being there that

1 night. He didn't say, "I was there a week ago," for
2 instance?

3 A. No, he didn't.

4 Q. Or two weeks ago?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Does your father work at KU?

7 A. Yes, he does.

8 Q. And does he work with Jack Sheppard?

9 A. Yes, he does.

10 Q. And Jack Sheppard is Skip Sheppard's brother, isn't he?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. So from the conversation that you claim occurred at the 13 Dismas House in '95, the summer of '95, you didn't talk to 14 the authorities until August of '96; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, ma'am.

16 Q. Mr. Sheppard didn't tell you he was there when the 17 explosion occurred, did he?

18 A. He said that he went up there, they were drinking, a
19 fire got started. So he had to be there.

20 Q. My question is did he ever tell you he was there when -

21 A. Yes, he did.

22 Q. He never told you he was there when the explosion
23 occurred, did he?

24 A. He said that they were there when the fire started.

25 Now, as far as the explosion -- the fire started, I don't

1600

1 know how long before the explosion happened. So he admitted
2 to me that he was out there when the fire started, but as far
3 as when the explosion started, he didn't admit to being
4 there.

5 Q. He didn't talk to you about the explosion?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did he ever tell you he was up there to steal?

8 . No, he didn't.

9 Q. And he never told you that he was there when the 10 explosion occurred; is that right?

11 A. No.

12 Q. He never admitted to you that he set this fire and did
13 this crime, did he? He personally?

14 A. He said that the fire got started, but he never said if 15 he started it or not.

16 Q. He never told you, "I started the fire," did he?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And he never told you anybody started the fire, never 19 mentioned anybody's name as starting a fire, did he?

20 MR. BECKER: Objection. Argumentative. We've
21 covered this ground.

22 THE COURT: It is argumentative. Sustained.

23 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) You said your conviction was affirmed by 24 the Court of Appeals in June of '96; is that right?

25 A. Yes, it was.

1 Q. And you have an attorney presently?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And has your -- and your attorney has discussed with the 4 government the possibility of a 5K1 or a Rule 35 motion; is
5 that correct?

6 A. No, they haven't. I haven't been offered no type of 7 deal whatsoever.

8 Q. Mr. Whitelaw, that wasn't my question. I didn't say you
9 were offered, but it's been discussed, hasn't it?

10 A. Not to my observation.

11 MR. BECKER: Objection. Can we approach, Judge?

12 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm not sure about that, Miss
13 Hunt.

14 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
15 proceedings were had:)

16 THE COURT: Was he present during the discussions?

17 MS. HUNT: His lawyer told him.

18 MR. BECKER: Let's cut to the chase here. They 19 asked, and I said there's no 5K. He's a sentenced prisoner.
20 There's no Rule 35. It's beyond a year since the time of the 21 sentence. Sure, they asked, and I said no. So I mean -

22 MS. HUNT. But then his lawyer says they would look
23 at his 2255 he's going to file.

24 MR. BECKER: We'll look at the 2255. I'm required
25 to respond to that. You've implied that I'm giving him a 5K

1

1 and a Rule 35. He's not eligible.

2 THE COURT: You can't get into anything about a -

3 MR. BECKER: It's gone.

4 MS. HUNT: They're going to look at the 2255
5 because they can't do the Rule 35.

6 THE COURT: If you think you can get them to
7 believe he's doing this because of a possible 2255, go
8 ahead. I think that would be -

9 MR. BECKER: But the question's about SK and the 10 Rule 35, you know. They imply that something, that they were 11 discussed. I told them they're not eligible.

12 MS. HUNT: My whole point is they discussed it.
13 He's right. He said, "You can't get it, it's out of time,"
14 but then he says, "We'll look at your 2255."

15 MR. BECKER: They said they'll file a 2255.

16 MS. HUNT: The U.S. Attorney in charge of this
17 case, Bill Meiners, I've been told, said he's not really
18 going to oppose it because he thinks he got too much time
19 anyway.

20 THE COURT: Who's the judge on that case?

21 MR. BECKER: Gaitan. Relevant conduct. And that's
22 an issue, his attorney tells me he's got an issue. I said,
23 "We'll look at it."

24 THE COURT: I really think, again, we're getting 25 into these areas that the jury won't understand and they will

1 draw some really improper inferences from the things that we
2 say up here. I think that -- I think if you will lead him
3 into admitting that he knew that nothing could be done about
4 this sentence except -

5 MS. HUNT: That's what I'm getting at.

6 THE COURT: -- except the 2255, and his lawyer and 7 he talked about it. That's all he knows. He can't say here
8 what his lawyer told him.

9 MS. HUNT: What they were talking about today is my
10 understanding.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: How about this question? Have you
12 had discussions with your lawyer about a time reduction
13 motion in this case?

14 MR. BECKER: There's no time reduction motion.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: That's a 2255.

16 MS. HUNT: It was attacking his sentence, though.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: Haley told us, so we know where 18 we're coming from.

19 MR. BECKER: Haley asked me if I could make a 5K
20 for the guy. I said he's been sentenced so long ago it's 21 ridiculous.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Haley has told us, his lawyer, that 23 if Bill Meiners would agree, because Bill Meiners felt that
24 he got too big of a sentence at the beginning, an upward
25 departure, he got a larger sentence than he should have

1604

1 received, and then they're going to consider looking at that
2 sentence for purpose of reduction, but there's no promises.
3 And I think that's fertile ground for us to at least show
4 that they're considering it.

5 MR. BECKER: The guy told me he was filing a 2255.
6 I said we'd look at the 2255 if he's got an issue.

7 THE COURT: They can prove that, that he's 8 considering filing a 2255, but I really don't see it tied 9 into this.

10 MR. BECKER: If he has an issue.

11 MS. HUNT: It seems like he has, but -

12 THE COURT: Well, whether it's an excessive
13 sentence is not the issue we're talking about. It isn't an 14 issue that ought to be in front of this jury. It sounds
15 excessive to me, too, but -

16 MS. HUNT: It does.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I think it's unfair, Judge, when the 18 prosecutor puts this witness up and says we're not doing
19 anything for this person at this time, and then later they're 20 going to look at something and then consider it, I think the 21 jury is entitled to know that this guy thinks he may get some 22 consideration.

23 MR. BECKER: It's unlike a Rule 35 or a 5K, John,
24 where I would have to initiate the action. This is something
25 that a defense attorney is going to file.

1605

1 THE COURT: Anybody can file a 2255.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: He's told you he's going to.

3 MR. BECKER: Yeah.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: You know that that motion is going
5 to get filed in this case. We all know that as we stand
6 here, right?

7 MR. BECKER: Right.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: You know right now, based on this
9 guy's testimony, whether you're going to give him
10 consideration. You know that. And I think -- I don't know
11 what the answer to that is. If it's no, then it's no.

12 MR. BECKER: Two things. One, the attorney, Mr.
13 Haley, informed me that a 2255 was in motion long before he
14 ever, you know, showed up on my doorstep.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: That's correct.

16 MR. BECKER: You know, he thinks he's got a valid
17 claim of ineffective assistance, and it was going forward. I
18 told him today, if the guy doesn't want to testify, go ahead, 19 I mean. So I mean, I don't control this 2255, and the 20 Court's going to rule on it. And I can't roll over and play
21 dead on a 2255 if there's no issue.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand that, but what I'm
23 saying is that, I'm just telling you what Haley told us.
24 Haley then said that you basically said he's got nothing to 25 lose by testifying. In other words -

1 MR. BECKER: That's right.

2 THE COURT: That's right.

3 MR. BECKER: That was my point to him. I said, how
4 does the guy hurt himself by testifying?

5 MR. O'CONNOR: This guy, the discussions with his 6 lawyer that have been had today, that he's had with them as 7 it relates to he, he believes right now as he sits there that
8 there's going to be some consideration. He doesn't know
9 what. Maybe none, but there's going to be some consideration
10 of whatever motion he files. And I think that's fertile 11 ground for purposes to show his bias and interest in 12 testifying for the government.

13 THE COURT: What is the source of that belief,
14 though? Is it something that the government has told him?
15 Who told him that?

16 MR. O'CONNOR: We can only get his lawyer up here.
17 We're getting it third-hand here.

18 MR. BECKER: You've accurately related everything.
19 I told him we would consider his 2255.

20 THE COURT: But a 2255, it's a can of worms. It
21 can and probably would be totally unrelated to this case and 22 this testimony. And there's a completely independent basis
23 for a 2255. It's an excessive sentence.

24 MS. HUNT: Haley says that the government told him
25 today if they file a 2255, the government will look closely

1 at it, which he takes -

2 THE COURT: It's kind of like me saying if you file
3 a 2255 in this court I'll read it. I mean, I will.

4 MS. HUNT: I understand, but they believe there's a
5 possibility they'll get some relief on it before it's been
6 filed. I mean, they believe that.

7 MR. BECKER: He told me he's got this meritorious
8 claim. I said, "We'll look at it." It's just something the 9 Court would, you know, the judge is going to rule on it.
10 It's not something that I initiate like a 5K or a Rule 35
11 where if I tell somebody that I'm going to consider a Rule
12 35, then I think you can assume that it's going to be filed
13 because that's something I can do.

14 THE COURT: Well, what do you want your question to 15 be now?

16 MS. HUNT: What I was going to ask was he knows
17 it's out of time for a Rule 35, he can't get any assistance
18 that way. But that his lawyer told him, the Government's 19 going to look closely at your Rule 2255 motion.

20 MR. BECKER: That means nothing to the jury, a Rule
21 2255 motion.

22 MS. HUNT: I would go into what it is.

23 MR. BECKER: It's a motion to set aside his
24 judgment because of some illegal sentence or conviction.
25 It's a claim on the merits. It's not a claim related to his,

1608

1 in exchange for his cooperation, unlike a Rule 35 or a 5K.

2 THE COURT: Will you object to that question?

3 MR. BECKER: Yes. I just objected.

4 THE COURT: I think we're too collateral. I'm
5 going to sustain the objection. Let's go on. We've aired it
6 fairly. I think that's what we have to do.

7 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

8 Q. (By Ms. Hunt:) Mr. Whitelaw, you're presently in 9 custody; is that right?

10 A. Yes, I am.

11 Q. And were you held before you testified today upstairs in 12 the marshal's facility?

13 A. Yes, I was.

14 Q. In this courthouse?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you at least at some point during this morning or 17 prior to right now shared a cell with Carl Nettles, didn't
18 you?

19 A. It was a couple of guys in there, but I don't know their
20 names.

21 MS. HUNT: That's all I have.

22 THE COURT: I think we ought to give Mr. Bunch a
23 chance.

24 MR. BUNCH: No questions, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Bunch.

1 MR. PETERS: Neither do I, Your Honor. I have no
2 uestions.

3 THE COURT: I guess I thought you'd passed
4 already.

5 — — —

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 By Mr. O'Connor:

8 Q. Mr. Whitelaw, I just have a couple of things. On direct
9 examination, I believe that you stated that you believe that 10 when I came up to talk with you in the Belton City Jail that 11 I had told you that I represented either Frank or Skip
12 Sheppard. Was that your recollection?

13 A. My recollection was that it was, you were representing
14 Frank or one of the Sheppards.

15 Q. All right. And do you remember that I had a lady kind
16 of like this lady with me that took down everything we were 17 talking about?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. And have you had a chance to review that? Did I give 20 that to your lawyer for you to review over the lunch hour?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. Did you read the front page of that to see who I
23 identified myself as and who I represented?

24 A. No, I didn't.

25 Q. Would you like to look at that to refresh your

1610

1 recollection?

2 A. Yes, I would.

3 Q. Just read it to yourself, please. Have you had a chance

4 to look at that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Does that refresh your recollection on who I identified

7 myself as representing?

8 A. Yes, it does.

9 Q. And who did I say to you that I was representing?

10 A. Bryan Sheppard.

11 Q. Did I tell you that I was appointed by the court to 12 represent Mr. Sheppard?

13 MR. BECKER: Objection, relevance.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Mr. Whitelaw, a minute ago, I think

16 you testified that Mr. Skip Sheppard had made those

17 admissions to you at the Dismas House; is that correct?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And as I understand from the record that's in evidence,

20 and if you need to refer to this, please ask me, that this

21 would have occurred between -- hold on a second.

22 so between April the 28th and July the 4th, 1995,

23 would have been when Skip Sheppard would have said these 24 things to you?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. And how many discussions do you believe you had with
2 him? Was it just one or more than one?

3 A. Maybe two or three discussions.

4 Q. All right. And how many -- when you used the word
5 several, how many does several mean to you?

6 A. Several to me would be like two or three.

7 Q. Okay. And when you talked with Mr. Sheppard, he told
8 you these things, and at the time you never came forward
9 about them; is that a fair statement?

10 A. Yes, it is a fair statement.

11 Q. All right. And one of the reasons you've said you
12 didn't come forward is because you thought that he was 13 kidding or joking or something like that?

14 A. More or less bragging.

15 Q. And then later you said you read something in a
16 newspaper about it?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. All right. Now, where did you get that newspaper, where 19 were you at the time?

20 A. I was in the law library at the institution.

21 Q. All right. Where was that?

22 A. Greenville, Illinois.

23 Q. Okay. Doing the time that you're doing now?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And was that the first time that you had heard about

1 this explosion that had occurred, the firefighters?

2 A. No, it isn't.

3 Q. Didn't you, in fact, know at the time that he allegedly 4 he made these statements to you, you already knew about the 5 explosion, didn't you?

6 A. State that question again.

7 Q. Sure. Did you know about the explosion that killed the 8 six firefighters before he ever started talking to you?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. And isn't it true that you had a friend or some friend
11 that knew one of the firefighters' family?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And so when he was telling you this at this time, you
14 never came forward, even though you knew that the explosion
15 occurred, you even knew people that were close to the case?

16 A. Because I didn't believe him.

17 Q. And at the time, the article that we just referred to 18 there, you said in your letters, did you not, that they 19 talked about earlier, you wrote letters to Mr. Meiners and to 20 this court reporter -- you've had a chance to look at those?

21 A. Yes, I have.

22 Q. If I mistake this, please tell me and I'll bring it up
23 to you for you to look at. That you said in the last week's 24 paper I saw -

25 MR. BECKER: Objection. I'll offer these in

1613

1 evidence if he wants to read from them.

2 THE COURT: What are you talking about, the
3 newspaper clipping?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: He's got the clipping, Judge, he
5 wrote a letter to Mr. Meiners.

6 MR. BECKER: There's two letters.

7 THE COURT: Which was offered, wasn't it?

8 MR. BECKER: I didn't offer them, Judge.

9 , THE COURT: Oh, okay.

10 MR. BECKER: But if counsel wants to read from 11 them, I'll be happy to read from them.

12 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, one, I can read from them
13 without them being offered. I think it's unfair for Mr.
14 Becker to make an objection and act like I'm trying to keep 15 this out. I have a right to ask about what he said without 16 the exhibit being offered.

17 THE COURT: To the extent that you're going to use
18 them to impeach, they're going to be offered to that extent.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: I agree with that.

20 THE COURT: So he ought to have the opportunity to 21 look at it, and Mr. Becker ought to have the opportunity to 22 use it on redirect.

23 MR. BECKER: 400 and 401.

24 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Thank you. Let me hand you 400 and 25 401. Just take your time. Read those to yourself, and when

1 you're done, I've got a couple of questions.

2 (So done.)

3 Q. Have you had a chance, sir?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Do you mind if I'm up here with the
6 witness, Judge?

7 THE COURT: That's all right.

8 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) Exhibit 400, which is the letter
9 that you wrote to Mr. Meiners on May the 14th; is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. And the letter says -

13 MR. BECKER: Same objection, Judge. Is it a prior 14 inconsistent statement we're talking about?

15 THE COURT: Is it inconsistent? I looked at the 16 letter, and I didn't -- never mind what I thought, but -

17 MR. O'CONNOR: I think I can -- I'll do it two ways
18 here. Let me see if I can get it done this way, and then if 19 I'm wrong, we'll try it the other way.

20 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) You looked at 402; is that correct?

21 THE COURT: That's the newspaper article?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. You read the first paragraph of that article?

24 A. Yes, I have.

25 Q. Any mention of Earl Sheppard in that article?

1 A. No, there isn't.

2 Q. Okay. Now, in your letter to Mr. -- is that the only
3 article you read on this case while in prison?

4 A. No, it isn't.

5 Q. Okay. But that, is that the article that you were
6 referring to in terms of writing this letter to Mr. Meiners?

7 A. This is one of the first articles that I read, yes, it

9 Q. And is that the one that you were referring to when you
10 wrote this letter to Mr. Meiners?

11 A. No, it isn't.

12 Q. okay. So there was other articles?

13 A. There was a second article where it talked about the 14 individuals involved and the fire, and this was just one of 15 the stepping stones to me writing the letter because it had 16 that, in the article the indictments before the grand jury.

17 And seeing that he had mentioned it to me, I wrote
18 the letter. And after I seen the second article, I wrote a
19 second letter because I felt they didn't respond to me.
20 Which the letters are 14 days apart.

21 Q. As I understood your direct testimony, and I may have 22 been wrong, so you correct me. I thought when the prosecutor
23 asked you about this article, which shows it's written on May 24 the 9th, 1996, it was the article that you were referring to 25 when you wrote Mr. Meiners' letter on May the 14th.

1 A. The first letter, yes, it was.

2 Q. Okay. You had read no other articles before you sent
3 this letter to Mr. Meiners on the 14th?

4 A. No, just this one.

5 Q. Okay. Now, I don't want there to be any confusion
6 here. Is there any?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. So when you wrote this article to Mr. Meiners on 9 the 14th, you said, "He has spoke to me on several occasions
10 about the fire. In the last week's paper, I saw the article
11 on Earl Sheppard, also known as Skip"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Is there anything in this article that mentions
14 Earl Sheppard, or Skip?

15 A. No, there isn't.

16 Q. So in -- when did you get sentenced and get the 25-year
17 sentence that you received?

18 A. I was sentenced, I believe, October -- it was October of 19 '95.

20 Q. And so that would have been about three months,
21 approximately three months after you had had no further
22 contact with Skip Sheppard? If you last would have been with 23 him on July the 4th of 1995? That's a bad question. Let me
24 start over.

25 As I understand it, you were with Skip Sheppard

1 from April the 28th of '95 to July the 4th of '95 at this
2 Dismas House?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then I'm assuming you never saw him again?

5 A. Once I was found guilty, I was shipped off to CCA, so
6 that was it.

7 Q. Okay. And so you never came forward up until the time
8 you got your 25 years?

9 A. No, I didn't.

10 Q. Then after you got to prison and your appeals had been 11 denied, is that when you wrote these letters to Bill Meiners?

12 A. No, it isn't.

13 Q. When was your appeal denied?

14 A. My appeal was denied in June of '96.

15 Q. Okay. So this was a month before that denial had come,
16 approximately, if you wrote the letters in May of '96?

17 A. About a month.

18 THE COURT: The witness referred to CCA, and I
19 don't know whether the jury knows what CCA is. What is CCA?

20 THE WITNESS: That's the corrections institute in 21 Leavenworth, Kansas.

22 THE COURT: That is not the U.S. Prison in 23 Leavenworth, it's a private corrections center?

24 THE WITNESS: A privately-owned corrections center.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach? I have one
2 question that I want to ask the Court if I can ask.

3 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
4 proceedings were had:)

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't care if we take a recess to 6 formulate this, but I think I want to ask him this question
7 now in light of his testimony about what consideration that
8 he thinks he may receive as a result of his testimony or this 9 discussion. I want to do it properly but not improperly, but 10 I'd like to have some time to formulate the question to 11 propose to you as an offer of proof.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. BECKER: I have no objection to the delay. I
14 would propose, though, that I'm going to offer these two 15 letters and the article again into evidence. We've been 16 talking about them so much, I would propose -- where is Mr.
17 Peters?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Right there.

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. The letters mention the 20 brother. I would propose to delete that. We've talked about 21 these.

22 MR. OSGOOD: Well, why don't you -

23 MR. PETERS: The relevant parts of the letter have 24 been inquired into both by the government and the other
25 defense counsel. And I would be opposed -- I don't know what

1619

1 would be gained further by introducing the letters. And for
2 my client, I don't want a letter introduced that has a
3 blackout mark that jumps out to the jury and says, oh,
4 there's something they don't want us to see. All of the 5 relevant material in the letters has been gone over on direct
6 exam and cross-examination. And my concern is that by 7 submitting the documents to the jury with the blacked out
8 part, the jury is, their attention is drawn to something that
9 we're specifically trying to keep them from not thinking.

10 THE COURT: All the time we're standing up here at 11 the bench, do you think that's a concern by them?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: I think this is something we can 13 work out between ourselves and then figure out what's 14 admissible.

15 THE COURT: Let's take a recess.

16 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

17 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, the lawyers and I
18 have a little legal work to do, so we're going to take our 19 afternoon recess a little earlier than usual, fifteen
20 minutes. Don't talk about the case, and you may withdraw
21 from the courtroom.

22 (The following proceedings were had in the
23 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

24 THE COURT: We'll be in recess.

25 (A recess was taken from 2:51 p.m. to 3:20 p.m.)

1620

1 THE COURT: Do you have any -

2 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, we probably want to run this
3 question by you.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I guess we don't have to come up
6 here.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: There's three questions that I would 9 propose.

10 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
11 proceedings were had:)

12 MR. O'CONNOR: In exchange for your testimony, has 13 your lawyer today asked for a reduction in sentence for you.
14 I believe the answer to that is going to be yes. And the 15 next question would be, did -

16 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: John, he may be confused by 17 that, though. I'm just informing you.

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Is this something we could get him
19 in here and ask him, you and I talking to him? I don't want
20 him to be confused in front of the jury. Is this something
21 that you and I can talk to him about up here right now?

22 MR. BECKER: If you're allowed.

23 ATTORNEY LANCE HALEY: Excuse me, Your Honor. My 24 only concern is because he was confused about Susan's
25 questions about the 5K whatever. That's what I'm saying, is

1 he may be confused about this.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me tell you the three questions,
3 Judge, and then you tell me what you want me to do. That was
4 the one. The second one was did your lawyer tell you he 5 would, he will file a motion for reconsideration of your
6 sentence. And then, isn't it your understanding that the 7 government has agreed to take a look at a sentence reduction
8 motion to be filed on your behalf, which I'm told by his 9 lawyer that he would answer yes to that.

10 so I think the best way to do this, get him in here
11 and let me and Mr. Becker talk to him together, assuming 12 you're going to let me ask this, so we know what he's going 13 to say so there's no confusion, if you say the questions are 14 fair.

15 I told Mr. Becker, if he wanted to help me write
16 this -- I don't have any agenda here. If there's some other
17 language to use, I'll use it.

18 MR. BECKER: I think the only fair question is are 19 you testifying because you hope you're going to get something
20 in return. You know, the fact that his attorney asked for 21 remedies that aren't available -

22 THE COURT: That's right. We can't talk about 23 things that are outlawed now. The 5K1 and the Rule 35 are 24 out of the question.

25 MR. BECKER: Secondly, the 2255 is not a sentence

1 reduction motion.

2 THE COURT: No, it's a habeas corpus.

3 MR. BECKER: He was going to file it long before
4 the guy ever showed up to see me. I mean, that's what I -

5 THE COURT: I think your best bet is just to ask
6 the way he suggested, just do you hope to get something out
7 of this by testifying favorably to the government today, some
8 benefit.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me write that down real quick,
10 and then I have one other thought. What was that?

11 MR. BECKER: Do you hope to get something, a
12 benefit for your testimony today.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: And if he says no?

14 MR. BECKER: Then he's being truthful.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm just trying to keep from having 16 to explore this further. Here is my concern is that I think
17 that's a fair question, no question about it. My concern is 18 that the government has told him at least they will look at 19 it. Okay?

20 THE COURT: But, John, the government has to look
21 at everything that's filed.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand that, but I think it
23 begs the question to say that they're just going to look at 24 it. I mean, Mr. Becker wouldn't be looking at this motion.
25 Whoever handled this case would be looking at it. Mr. Becker

1623

1 would not look at a motion filed by this man under the -
2 would you?

3 MR. BECKER: You know, Meiners is in, Bill Meiners
4 is the attorney handling the case and most familiar with it,
5 but I'm sure, you know, we would discuss it since he was a
6 witness for me.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: That's my point.

8 MR. BECKER: I'm not opting out of this.

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand, but that's my point,
10 and I think it's important. Sure, anybody who testifies,
11 yeah, he would like to get a benefit, but the fact that the 12 government has agreed to look at it, I think, goes to what he 13 believes in terms of his interest, bias, or prejudice to 14 testify in this case, and I think that that should be 15 explored because those things were said.

16 Let me give you the scenario because I know where 17 you're going, just like Mr. Becker said. We all understand
18 that this 2255 isn't a time reduction motion, but if they 19 went to bat for him on the 2255, what they really could do is 20 overturn his sentence because that's what it would be. I
21 mean, in other words, if he wins the 2255, he's back at 22 square one. Is that a fair statement?

23 MR. BECKER: As I understand it, the limited part
24 I'm told by Mr. Haley, his attorney, the witness's attorney, 25 that it's a habeas petition and would be directed towards the

1
1 sentencing proceeding, that the issue was relevant conduct.
2 That's basically what I know, so it wouldn't overturn.

3 THE COURT: Why did Gaitan come down so hard on
4 him?

5 MR. BECKER: I don't know, Judge.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: I didn't pick it up in the file.
7 But my point is I think he's directed us to -- the point now
8 is that the basis of the motion is going to be to take the 9 upward departure -

10 MR. BECKER: It wasn't an upward departure.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: Whatever the sentence was, it was 12 too harsh, and they're going to bring it down.

13 THE COURT: Was it within guideline range?

14 MR. BECKER: It was the relevant conduct, the crack
15 cocaine dealing by a codefendant was taken.

16 THE COURT: It was within the range?

17 MR. O'CONNOR: The other thing I'm talking is if I
18 start talking habeas corpus, I'm trying to put it in plain
19 language. The bottom line, he's going to come back if he 20 files the motion, and the government is going to look at this 21 and the time reduction. That's what it is.

22 THE COURT: Why don't you say do you understand
23 that after you testify here today your lawyer is going to 24 file a motion on your behalf in an effort to get your
25 sentence adjusted downward?

1 MR. O'CONNOR: What was that last part?

2 THE COURT: To get your sentence adjusted downward,
3 and I think that's all you can say because we can't 4 second-guess what the government is going to do with any 5 filing like that.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: But the government has told his
7 lawyer that they're going to look at it. And I understand
8 what look at it -

9 MR. BECKER: Of course, I have to look at it.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: But I think that's superficial in 11 this regard. And then I'll quit, Judge. I think it's 12 superficial in this regard, not that Mr. Becker is being 13 superficial. I think the argument is superficial in that if 14 right now through the normal course of business, had Mr.
15 Whitelaw not testified in this case and he had filed a habeas
16 corpus for time reduction, Paul Becker would have had no
17 involvement with it. He wouldn't have talked to Bill Meiners
18 about any kind of reduction for him or anything. There would 19 have been no discussion. He would have been dealing with 20 Meiners on the issues of the case.

21 But now when he comes back with his habeas corpus,
22 Paul Becker is going to tell Bill Meiners what he's done.
23 Whether that sways him or not, I don't know. There's going 24 to be a communication that would not have happened in the 25 normal course. And I think the jury is entitled to know that

1 they're going to look at it.

2 THE COURT: I guess what I'm trying to do is, it
3 sounds like the government is committed to do something that
4 they aren't committed to do.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: He can get up on recross and say,
6 "Have we made any promises and told you we're going to do
7 anything for your time reduction?" No. And that's the end
8 of it. He can come back and nail it shut for himself, but I
9 think the jury should be able to consider it.

10 THE COURT: But I don't like take a look at it
11 because that says that they don't look at everything. I
12 think you can say will consider your testimony here in making
13 its recommendation to the Court. They don't even decide it.
14 The Court decides it.

15 MR. BECKER: Frankly, I thought if we got back to 16 the original question of do you think you're going to get 17 anything of benefit through your testimony today is the 18 fairest way.

19 THE COURT: He may be entitled to a bit more than
20 that.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Here's the two questions I have.
22 Your lawyer, is it your understanding your lawyer is going to
23 file a motion on your behalf in an effort to get your 24 sentence adjusted downward? I'm assuming he's going to say
25 yes.

1 Next question, then you can -- let me tell the
2 whole story here. Have you been told the government will
3 consider your testimony in making their recommendation to the
4 Court?

5 MR. BECKER: That's never been said.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: That's what the judge just said. I
7 just wrote it down.

8 THE COURT: I thought that he was quoting somebody,
9 either you or Meiners, as saying they would take a look at
10 it.

11 MR. BECKER: We would take a look at his motion, if 12 it's a meritorious motion.

13 THE COURT: You aren't going to tell me that they 14 aren't going to consider what he did here today in taking a
15 look at his motion.

16 MR. BECKER: That's fine, Judge. The first
17 question is somewhat misleading in that this guy apparently 18 had the 2255 planned long before this testimony came up. I 19 mean, Haley tells me that this is an issue and that he's -20 so it's not -- so there's not some motion being filed as a
21 result of his testimony here.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: Here is what I think happened,
23 Judge. Mr. Becker can speak, as well, to this. But Mr.
24 Haley is a new practitioner, and when he came in to talk to 25 us this morning, his belief was that he could get a Rule 35;

1 in other words, he could go tell, ask Mr. Becker for a Rule
2 35. He didn't realize he was out of time.

3 Then he thought he could then file a 2255, but we
4 all know that's not a time reduction motion, and the chances
5 of the government, even if he was a star witness like Mr.
6 Shepard where they did what they did for him, that they would
7 overturn his entire testimony, his entire conviction.

8 What I am saying is he's now figured out that his 9 relief is habeas corpus after talking to six lawyers this 10 afternoon, and that's what he's talking about.

11 THE COURT: That's what 2255 is.

12 MR. BECKER: There were legal papers that he was,
13 he already had this, the train was at the station.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I just think I'm entitled to it.

15 THE COURT: Let's get on with it.

16 MR. BECKER: I figure we'll keep talking because I
17 just had another witness tell me that she wasn't going to 18 testify, so we're losing -

19 MR. BUNCH: Judge, because I don't want to have to 20 get up right after this, and I think the Court will -- and I
21 can deal with this quickly. The next witness that Mr. Becker
22 will call will be a Lisa Fredrick. Or you will call, Dan.

23 MR. MILLER: Right.

24 MR. BUNCH: Who will testify that she was in Clay
25 County Jail, and she said she was in for killing six people.

1629

1 Now, that's the statement. I am saying that I'm making an
2 oral motion for, an in limine motion saying that that,
3 however it sounds, is not an incriminating statement, that
4 she, she wasn't even charged with this offense at the time.

5 THE COURT: Who is she?

6 MR. BUNCH: This Lisa Fredrick who will be this
7 next witness. You rule it, and then I'm going to sit down.
8 I'm making a record, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Was she part of this crowd?

10 MR. BUNCH: She was a girl who was in the Clay
11 County Jail when Edwards was in there. They were all in the 12 tank. She came in, and people were saying, what are you in 13 here for? She said, the statement she says is, she said that 14 she was in for killing six people, Miss Edwards said that, my 15 client.

16 So instead of getting up and interrupting this 17 thing again, I'm raising it now because that's the sum and 18 substance of her testimony.

19 MR. MILLER: Correct.

20 MR. BUNCH: Go ahead.

21 MR. MILLER: What are you -

22 MR. BUNCH: You're going to say it's an admission
23 and -

24 MR. MILLER: Yes, it's an admission for the jury to 25 consider the weight of. I mean, it's what she said. "I'm

1630

1 here for killing six people."

2 MR. PETERS: "I'm in for killing six people."

3 MR. BUNCH: So I'm calling it to your attention
4 rather than getting up and asking that that -- that's not -

5 MR. MILLER: That's a pretty good admission.

6 MR. BUNCH: I can argue that it's not.

7 MR. MILLER: Right, I understand that.

8 THE COURT: I think I'll let it in for what it's 9 worth.

10 MR. BUNCH: I'm not surprised, but I didn't want to 11 get up.

12 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

13 THE COURT: All right. Let's go. Who are we 14 striking, Mr. Becker? Who are we striking?

15 MR. BECKER: Well, Miss Quiroz has indicated she no
16 longer has an attorney by the name of Mr. Ross, and she wants
17 to speak to me about whether or not she's going to testify.
18 We may not get that far anyway. Ross was the attorney's
19 name.

20 MR. O'CONNOR: He was here earlier.

21 MR. BECKER: I know. The message I got is Miss 22 Quiroz isn't sure whether or not she wants to testify. We 23 may not get that far this afternoon.

24 THE COURT: You're lagging behind, here.

25 MR. BECKER: It was ten witnesses today, Judge, and

1 maybe I overestimated.

2 (The following proceedings were had in the
3 courtroom in the presence of the jury:)

4 THE COURT: Mr. Whitelaw, I'll remind you you're
5 still under oath. And counsel, you may proceed.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MICHAEL WHITE LAW,
9 having been previously affirmed, testified further as 10 follows:

12 RESUMED CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 By Mr. O'Connor:

14 Q. Listen, I have two questions left, if you would listen
15 to each one of them, please, before you answer. The first 16 one is, is it your understanding that your lawyer is going to
17 file a motion on your behalf in an effort to get your
18 sentence adjusted downward as a result of your testimony
19 today?

20 A. No, I'm not aware of that. I'm aware that he is doing 21 my 2255, but as far as filing a motion, it hasn't been 22 mentioned.

23 Q. Would it be the purpose of this 2255 to get your 24 sentence adjusted?

25 A. The purpose of the 2255 if I have issues that are to be

1 heard to see if my trial was reasonable or not. But as far
2 as a reduction, no.

3 Q. All right. Is it your understanding that the government
4 will take a look, will consider -- strike that. Is it your 5 understanding that the government will consider your
6 testimony in making a recommendation to the Court at the time
7 that 2255 motion is filed?

8 A. They said that they may look at it, but there was no
9 promise of looking or any reduction whatsoever.

10 Q. And you're hoping that they will look at it?

11 . In my mind, you know, as far as my trial, yes, I'm 12 hoping that they do look at it.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. Thank you very much. I have
14 no further questions, Your Honor.

15 MR. OSGOOD: I just have one, Your Honor.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 By Mr. Osgood:

19 Q. Sir, my name is John Osgood, and I represent Richard
20 Brown. In your account of the conversation with Skip
21 Sheppard, and I don't want you to name names, but did he talk
22 about just two people?

23 A. Just two people.

24 Q. Himself and one other person?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you do not know Mr. Richard Brown?

A. No, I don't.

3 Q. And there was no discussion or conversation about other
4 people being up there at that scene that night?

5 A. No.

6 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you, sir.

7 THE COURT: All right. Redirect?

8 MR. BECKER: None, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. You may step down. Thank
10 you, Mr. Whitelaw.

11 All right. Call your next witness.

12 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, the government calls Ms.
13 Lisa Fredrick.

14 THE COURT: Stand by the witness chair and be 15 sworn, please.

16 - - -

17 LISA FREDRICK,

18 being first duly sworn by Anne Guswelle, Law Clerk, testified
19 as follows:

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 - - -

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 By Mr. Miller:

24 Q. Would you tell us your name, please?

25 A. My name is Lisa Fredrick.

1 Q. How old are you, ma ' am?

2 A. I'm 30.

3 Q. Do you recall the explosion that killed the six
4 firefighters back in November of 1988?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. How do you recall that?

7 A. It awoke me in the middle of the night, the first
8 explosion did. And I was living in Independence at the time.

9 Q. Did the second explosion wake you too?

10 A. I was still awake from the first one.

11 Q. Now, do you know a Miss Darlene Edwards?

12 A. Not really.

13 Q. Do you know any of her family or friends?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you remember meeting a Miss Darlene Edwards ever?

16 A. I met her in jail, but I didn't know who she was at the 17 time. I didn't know her name.

18 Q. Okay. When was that, do you remember?

19 A. February 17th, 1995.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry, what year, ma ' am?

21 THE WITNESS: '95.

22 Q. February 17th, 1995?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Thank you. And you said jail. Where?

25 A. The Clay County Jail.

1 Q. Okay. And why were you up there?

2 A. I had a part-time job, and I went to apply for a credit
3 card, and I had closed the checking account, and I didn't
4 leave enough money in for one check. It was a $25 bad check,
5 and they had a warrant for my arrest for $25 bad check.

6 Q. Did you ever receive a conviction for that?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You just took care of it?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You said you met her in the Clay County Jail February
11 17, 1995. Specifically where at in the jail did you meet
12 her?

13 A. The holding cell.

14 Q. Describe the holding cell for the jurors.

15 A. It had a glass wall that would face the police officers
16 that processed you. And it was odd-shaped. It wasn't
17 square. It had a wall like this, and then it would come back
18 at a diagonal, and then another wall that went like this.

19 Q. How many of you were in there?

20 A. There was five or six. I think it was five, though.

21 Q. Okay. In the holding cell, was it all women?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what were you all discussing in there?

24 A. The other women, and I included, we were all discussing
25 why we were there.

1 Q. Let me stop you there. Do you see Darlene Edwards in
2 the courtroom, the one that you met in the Clay County Jail?

3 And if you need to stand up and look, you may.

4 A. I can't find her. I don't see her.

5 Q. Okay. Can you describe what she looked like to you
6 then?

7 A. Her hair was shoulder length, and it was kind of 8 stringy, dirty. She had bags under her eyes. She was not -
9 kind of, not fat, but heavyset. Not skinny, not fat, but 10 heavyset.

11 Q. Tall or short?

12 A. Short.

13 Q. Did you ever learn what her name was?

14 A. When I was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury.

15 Q. What did you hear that lady say in that holding cell?

16 MR. BUNCH: Objection, Your Honor. There's no
17 identification of the defendant. The testimony as to what 18 her name was is hearsay, so I object to the testimony.

19 MR. MILLER: May we approach?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
22 proceedings were had:)

23 MR. MILLER: We have evidence to tie up later with 24 dates and documents as to this, this Darlene Edwards, that 25 date, in that holding cell with her.

1 THE COURT: I assumed that. All right. Well, that
2 objection will be overruled. Otherwise, it would be
3 well-taken.

4 MR. BUNCH: Thank you, Judge.

5 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

6 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) Would you tell us what that lady said,
7 whom you later learned to be Darlene Edwards, in the holding
8 cell as to why she was there?

9 A. She said she was in for killing six people.

10 Q. Now, were you ever put in the same cell as Darlene
11 Edwards?

12 A. No.

13 Q. How much longer were you in the Clay County Jail?

14 A. Approximately 15 to 20 minutes.

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

16 THE WITNESS: Approximately 15 to 20 minutes.

17 Q. (By Mr. Miller:) And then how did you get out so fast?

18 A. I was bonded out.

19 Q. How soon did you tell someone what Miss Edwards had said
20 to you?

21 A. As soon as I came to the, the officer came to 22 fingerprint me, I asked them not to put me back in the 23 holding cell there. Could you repeat the question?

24 Q. You answered it. Okay. You said you went to a
25 gentleman. Was this an officer in the Clay County Jail?

1638

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Were you ever contacted by any other officers or agents?

3 A. Yes. An officer with the ATF.

4 Q. Okay. Did he talk to you in person, or how did he talk
5 with you?

6 A. The first time on the telephone.

7 Q. Was a photo of Miss Edwards or a photo, what they call a
8 photo spread or a photo array ever showed to you?

9 A. No.

10 MR. MILLER: That's all I have of this witness,
11 Judge.

12 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

13 THE COURT: Any other questions?

14 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. You may step down.

16 MR. BECKER: United States calls Joseph Denyer.

17 THE COURT: All right. Sir, come up to the witness
18 stand and be sworn, please.

1639

1 JOSEPH DENYER,
2 being first duly sworn by Anne Guswelle, Law Clerk, testified
3 as follows:

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION

6 By Mr. Becker:

7 Q. Good afternoon. Please state your name and spell your
8 last name.

9 A. Joseph Denyer, D-E-N-Y-E-R.

10 Q. How old are you?

11 A. Twenty-four.

12 Q. Are you employed?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What do you do for a living?

15 A. I sort through garbage.

16 Q. Where were you born?

17 A. Kansas City.

18 Q. Where do you live now?

19 A. Spickard.

20 Q. Where is that?

21 A. It's like north of here.

22 Q. Did you go to school, were you raised in Kansas City,
23 Missouri?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. What area of Kansas City?

1 A. Marlborough.

2 Q. Up to what age did you live in Marlborough?

3 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Mr. Becker, could we
4 approach for a minute?

5 THE COURT: What's up, why are we doing this? He
6 just asked him where did he live.

7 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
8 proceedings were had:)

9 MR. OSGOOD: I intended to bring it up before he
10 testified. There will be -- are you going to elicit any 11 testimony that he was in this robbery with my client of a
12 homosexual, where they robbed a homosexual? I move to 13 prohibit that testimony. It's totally irrelevant to the
14 case.

15 MR. BECKER: I'm not going to ask him about that.
16 He denies that ever happened, but I'm not going to ask about
17 that.

18 MR. OSGOOD: Okay.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

21 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Mr. Denyer, do you know the defendants
22 in this case, Frank Sheppard, Skip Sheppard, Darlene Edwards, 23 Bryan Sheppard, Richard Brown?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Have you ever been convicted of a crime?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What crimes?

3 A. Three burglaries, one stealing over $150, and aggravated
4 escape.

5 Q. How do you know the defendants in this case?

6 A. Grew up with them, lived in the same neighborhood.

7 Q. Are you friends with any of them?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Who?

10 A. Bryan and Richard.

11 Q. Where were you living at the time of the explosion that 12 killed the six firefighters on November 29, 1988?

13 A. Adolescent treatment program, 2918 Tracy, Kansas City, 14 Missouri.

15 Q. Is that -

16 A. It was a juvenile like halfway house treatment center.

17 Q. Were you confined there at the time?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you remember getting a pass, or a weekend pass
20 shortly after the explosion that occurred on November 29,
21 1988?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. Do you remember going to Frank and Darlene, Frank
24 Sheppard and Darlene's house while you had that pass?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1642

1 Q. I want to show you what's in evidence as Government's
2 Exhibit 323. Do you recognize the house in that photograph?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Is that the house you visited where Frank Sheppard and
5 Darlene Edwards were living?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did it look a little better at the time?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Why were you going there?

10 A. Well, to see if they had a joint they would smoke with 11 me.

12 Q. When you were there, was there, did Darlene Edwards say
13 anything about where she was at the time of the explosion?

14 A. Yes. She said she was inside of QuikTrip and that it
15 freaked her out because the ceiling tiles and everything came 16 blowing in.

17 Q. Do you know what QuikTrip that was?

18 A. 85th and 71 Highway.

19 Q. Right near the construction site?

20 A. Or close to it.

21 MR. BECKER: I have no further questions at this
22 time, Judge.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 By Mr. Bunch:

3 Q. Mr. Denyer, I'm Will Bunch, and I represent Darlene

4 Edwards. Now, you have been interviewed a number of times

5 with respect to the testimony you've given here today, have

6 you not?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Let me ask you, sir, if on the 8th day of December,

9 1988, when you were at the adolescent center at 2918 Tracy if

10 you were interviewed by Detective William Wilson. Do you

11 recall that?

12 A. A black guy?

13 Q. I'm not sure about his race, but were you interviewed

14 there?

15 A. Yes. Yes, I was.

16 Q. All right. And I'll ask you if on the 8th day of 17 December, 1988, whether or not you told Detective William

18 Wilson you did not know who was involved in causing the

19 explosion?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. And you don't?

22 A. And I don't.

23 Q. And do you recall being interviewed on the 13th day of 24 October, 1989, by Detective Zinn while you were being held on

25 burglary and robbery charges in the Jackson County Jail?

1644

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did you tell Detective Zinn that you went to Darlene and
3 Frank's house two days after the explosion?

4 A. I don't remember.

5 Q. You don't know what date it was or what day of the week
6 it was?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know the address of the house to where you went?

9 A. It's like on 83rd Street, close to Brooklyn.

10 Q. And you've testified on direct examination that you went 11 to that house to see if you could find somebody to smoke a 12 joint with?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. You were then -- were you in this adolescent center, how 15 old were you, sir, on the 8th day of December, 19 -

16 A. Sixteen.

17 Q. And they let you out on a pass for Thanksgiving?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. And, again, was there any discussion on October the 20 13th, 1989, between you and Detective Zinn; that is, did you
21 tell him whether or not you knew anybody who had been 22 involved in the explosion that resulted in the deaths of the 23 firefighters?

24 A. I don't remember.

25 Q. Okay. Were you again called before the federal grand

1 jury on the 5th day of November, 1993? Do you recall
2 testifying before the grand jury?

3 A. 1993?

4 Q. Well, it would have been 1996, perhaps, I'm sorry. Let
5 me look. 17th day of January, 1996?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. About a year ago. Did you during the course of that 8 examination before the grand jury advise the grand jury of 9 any knowledge that you had about people who participated in 10 this explosion? Did you tell them that you knew anybody that 11 had anything to do with the firefighters' deaths?

12 A. No. All I told them was that Darlene said she was at 13 QuikTrip when it happened.

14 Q. So you have no knowledge of anybody's participation in 15 the explosion that occurred that resulted in the deaths?

16 A. No, no. No knowledge of it.

17 Q. And your testimony here today comes from the meeting
18 that you had back in December of 1988, or November of 1988,
19 during which you were smoking marijuana; is that correct?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. And it is your recollection that during the course of 22 this marijuana smoking, your recollection is that Miss
23 Edwards said she was at QuikTrip when the explosion occurred?

24 A. Yeah.

25 MR. BUNCH: Thank you, sir.

1 THE COURT: Any other questions from the defense?

2 MR. O'CONNOR: No, Your Honor.

3 MR. PETERS: No, Your Honor.

4 MS. HUNT: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. BECKER: No redirect, Judge.

7 THE COURT: You may step down, then.

8 MR. BECKER: Excuse me one second, Judge. Hold on,
9 Mr. Denyer. Wait in the hallway for a second, please.

10 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
11 proceedings were had:)

12 MR. PETERS: Judge, he's somebody that I will be 13 calling in my case, so I just ask that he not be released
14 from the subpoena.

15 THE COURT: I haven't affirmatively done anything
16 to release anybody from subpoenas. I assume that you can 17 stay in touch with Mr. Becker and he'll -

18 MR. BECKER: He's not easy.

19 MR. PETERS: I know. That's why -- I wasn't
20 concerned about anybody other than him.

21 MR. BECKER: He's in Spickard or whatever it is.
22 You've got to pay him mileage and all of that.

23 MR. PETERS: I know that.

24 MR. BECKER: You've got to make sure you've got him
25 covered at the Four Acres Motel.

1 MR. PETERS: If I could have a minute.

2 MR. BECKER: Why don't you have your investigator
3 do that.

4 MR. PETERS: I'll have to do it.

5 MR. BECKER: Okay. That's good.

6 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

7 THE COURT: Are you getting your next witness?

8 MR. BECKER: United States calls Shawn Furrell.

10 STEPHEN SHAWN FURRELL,

11 being first duly sworn by Anne Guswelle, Law Clerk, testified
12 as follows:

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 By Mr. Becker:

16 Q. Good afternoon. Please state your name and spell your
17 last name.

18 A. Stephen Shawn Furrell, F-U-R-R-E-L-L.

19 Q. Do you commonly go by Shawn Furrell?

20 A. Yes.

21 THE COURT: How do you spell the Shawn, please?

22 THE WITNESS: S-H-A-W-N.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Mr. Furrell, how old are you?

25 A. Twenty-four.

1648

1 Q. Where do you live?

2 A. In Kansas City.

3 Q. How are you employed?

4 A. Sales representative.

5 Q. I'm sorry?

6 A. A sales representative.

7 Q. Were you going to be out of town next week and that's
8 why we moved you back to today?

9 A. I'm transferring.

10 Q. Okay. Do you know an individual by the name of Bryan
11 Sheppard?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. How do you know him?

14 A. I went to school with him.

15 Q. Where was that?

16 A. Center High School.

17 Q. Do you see Bryan Sheppard here in court today?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Could you just tell us where he's sitting and what he's 20 wearing?

21 A. Over here in the blue and red -

22 THE COURT: Is he the young man standing up against 23 the wall over there?

24 THE WITNESS: To be honest with you, it's been a 25 long time. I don't remember. It looks like the guy with the 1649

1 blue and gray shirt.

2 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I don't understand what
3 you're saying.

4 THE WITNESS: It looks like the guy in the blue and 5 gray shirt, striped. It looks like him. And it's been 6 several years.

7 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Well, do you remember going to Center
8 High with a person you knew as Bryan Sheppard?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Was that person also known to you as Richard Brown?

11 A. No.

12 Q. He sort of went by the name of Bryan Sheppard, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that's who you knew him to be from -- were you ever
15 in a class with him?

16 A. No.

17 Q. In November of 1988 when the explosion occurred that 18 killed the six firemen, were you in Kansas City, Missouri?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. Where were you living then?

21 A. At my parents' house on 85th Street.

22 Q. I'm sorry?

23 A. At my parents' house on 85th Street

24 Q. 85th and what?

25 A. Paseo.

1 Q. So you grew up in the same neighborhood as Bryan
2 Sheppard; is that right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Your whole life; is that right?

5 A. Since 1980.

6 Q. In the fall of 1989, did you have occasion to make a
7 trip to St. Charles, Missouri?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What was your purpose of going there?

10 A. I was trafficking marijuana from st. Charles to Kansas
11 City.

12 Q. When you came back to Kansas City, did you have an 13 appointment to see Bryan Sheppard?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did you go see Bryan Sheppard?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Where did you go see Bryan Sheppard?

18 A. At his home. I didn't know exact location. I was taken
19 there by a gentleman by the name of Matthew Wright.

20 Q. When you got to Bryan Sheppard's house, how did you go
21 in that house?

22 A. We went into the back.

23 Q. Please describe that for us.

24 A. It's been a while. I think it was a back window at the 25 back of the house.

1 Q. What did you do to get inside the house?

2 A. We just climbed in. Matthew and I just climbed into the
3 back.

4 THE COURT: Who?

5 THE WITNESS: Matthew Wright.

6 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Who was there when you climbed in 7 through the window?

8 A. Bryan Sheppard, Aaron Lockman (phonetic), Matt Wright,
9 and Charles Craft (phonetic).

10 Q. What was your purpose, then, of going to see Bryan
11 Sheppard?

12 A. I was selling marijuana.

13 Q. Did you sell him some marijuana that day?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: Objection, relevance.

16 THE COURT: Well, he's answered it. Overruled.

17 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Did a conversation occur at that time
18 regarding the explosion that killed the six firemen?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did -- what, if anything, did Bryan Sheppard have to say
21 about that explosion?

22 A. He just kind of chuckled and went into talking about it.

23 Q. I'm sorry, you're going to have to speak up.

24 THE COURT: I can't hear you at all, sir. Would 25 you please speak up?

1 A. Yes. He just kind of chuckled and went into talking
2 about it.

3 THE COURT: Went into talking about it, did you
4 say?

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Please speak up and speak slowly.

7 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) What did he say?

8 . To my recollection, he was talking about -

9 MR. OSGOOD: Excuse me, Your Honor. I don't know
10 if we've identified who was talking, Mr. Craft or Mr.
11 Sheppard.

12 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) What did Bryan Sheppard say?

13 A. He just went into talking about what happened and 14 everything, how he was going up there to steal the blasting
15 caps and he was going to, he was supposed to burn the trailer
16 to get rid of the evidence.

17 Q. This is what Bryan Sheppard told you?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did he say what he set fire to?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did Bryan Sheppard say anything about knowing whether 22 there was explosives there?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Do you recall testifying before the grand jury?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Do you recall Page 8, being asked this question and
2 giving this answer?

3 Question: "Did Bryan Sheppard say anything about
4 whether he knew there were explosives in the trailers?"

5 Answer: "He didn't know there was any explosives
6 in there at all."

7 Question: "That's what he said?"

8 Answer: "Yeah."

9 MR. O'CONNOR: Judge, I object. That's not 10 inconsistent with what he said.

11 THE COURT: I thought he said he didn't know there
12 as explosives.

13 MR. BECKER: It was my understanding that he didn't 14 say anything at all about it, but perhaps I didn't get the
15 answer.

16 THE COURT: Well, what is your understanding? Did
17 he know there were explosives in that trailer?

18 THE WITNESS: No, he didn't know.

19 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) He said that to you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. I'm looking for what Bryan Sheppard said to you, okay?

22 A. He said he didn't know.

23 Q. Did Bryan Sheppard say whether or not they got any 24 blasting caps when they were at the construction site?

25 A. Not that I remember.

1654

1 Q. Then did you leave that house?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. How did you leave that house?

4 A. The same way I came in.

5 Q. Through the window?

6 A. I believe so.

7 Q. Several days later, did you hear Bryan Sheppard talking
8 to your friend Matthew Wright?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. What did you hear Bryan Sheppard say to Matthew Wright?

11 A. He said that if anything was said about it, the same
12 thing would happen again.

13 Q. You'll have to speak a little slower, please.

14 THE COURT: I didn't understand that at all. Ask
15 the question again, please.

16 Q. (By Mr. Becker:) Sure. What did you hear Bryan
17 Sheppard say to your friend Matthew Wright?

18 A. He said that if anything was said about what we talked
19 about, the same thing would happen again.

20 Q. Now, you didn't come forward with this information to 21 law enforcement for many years; is that right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Why didn't you come forward?

24 A. I had not lived in Kansas City off and on for the past
25 five years, so I wasn't really into Kansas City very long at

1 any one time.

2 Q. Well, did it have anything to do with the threat that
3 you heard?

4 A. I felt that at the time -- that's one of the reasons I
5 wasn't in Kansas City, because I didn't want to be around.

6 MR. BECKER: Thank you very much.

7 THE COURT: Cross?

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 By Mr. O'Connor:

11 Q. Mr. Furrell, I'm John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
12 Sheppard. I'm going to ask you a few questions.

13 As I understand it, the -- somehow you came in 14 contact with the federal agents and the ATF in this case in 15 February of 1995; does that sound about right?

16 A. About right, yes.

17 Q. And how was it that they came in contact with you? Did
18 you call them, or did they just show up looking for you?

19 A. They had been talking to my parents, my minister, and 20 different people looking for me.

21 Q. Now, you said that these statements, admissions by Bryan
22 Sheppard regarding his involvement in this explosion were 23 made to you in the fall of 1989?

24 A. I believe so.

25 Q. And as I understand it from looking at one of the

1 interviews that Agent True did of you, that he noted that you
2 were someone who has like a photographic memory, or you have
3 a real good memory?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And one of the reasons you remembered it was the fall of 6 '89 was that you had left town for a while and you were only
7 back in Kansas City during that time?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And so when you say fall of '89, what do you mean by 10 fall of '89 so we know what we're talking about here?

11 A. It would be after September.

12 Q. And before December?

13 A. Usually.

14 Q. And when you made this trip down to get the marijuana,
15 was that around that time, as well?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. Now, using this memory that you have, the 18 good memory that you have, were you able to remember when it
19 was that you went down to do this trafficking of marijuana?

20 A. No, I don't, exact time.

21 Q. But you know it was in the fall of '89?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And were you ever arrested or charged for this drug
24 trafficking?

25 A. No, I wasn't.

1 Q. And you've admitted in open court today that you have
2 trafficked in marijuana. Do you expect that the U.S.
3 Attorney is going to charge you with anything?

4 A. Due to the fact that it's over five years ago, the 5 statute of limitations have expired.

6 Q. Who has told you that?

7 A. Mr. Becker explained that to me.

8 Q. Now, you climbed through the back window at the Sheppard
9 house. Where do the Sheppards live?

10 A. I don't know exact location.

11 Q. Give us an idea.

12 A. About four or five blocks off of 85th Street.

13 Q. Do you know 85th Street pretty good?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. How many houses off of 85th Street do they live, if you
16 don't know the street?

17 A. I don't know.

18 Q. Had you ever been to that house before?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You just went by there, just happened to show up that
21 day?

22 A. No. Another person had set it up for me to go there.

23 Q. And the person told you that the way you get entry to 24 Bryan Sheppard's house is to climb through some window, not 25 come to the front door?

1658

1 A. He took me to the back of the house through one. It's
2 been a number of years ago. I cannot say for definite that
3 it was a window or not.

4 Q. And who was this person that was with you?

5 A. Matthew Wright.

6 Q. And he's someone who could also verify this, what you're 7 telling us?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And then in the fall of '89, which you say is between 10 September and December?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You climbed through the back window at Bryan Sheppard's
13 home, and Bryan Sheppard was there in the flesh?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Are you able to show us in the courtroom, the person
16 that you saw in that house on that day in this courtroom?

17 And I'll help you. He's in front of this here, so it's none

18 of those folks back there. From this -- it would be 19 somewhere in here, from here to there.

20 MR. BECKER: Judge, I think we've -

21 THE COURT: I think it's clear that you don't mean
22 the people in the audience.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: I didn't want him to be looking
24 around and thinking it's some kind of trick.

25 A. As I said before, I believe it's the gentleman over

1 there in the blue and gray striped shirt. But you have to
2 understand that it's been eight years ago.

3 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) And when you were interviewed by the 4 agents, you told them that you remembered the date also as 5 being around October of 1989?

6 A. Approximately.

7 Q. Mr. Furrell, can you tell me how you could have seen
8 Bryan Sheppard out at his residence when he was -

9 MR. BECKER: Objection. Can we approach?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
13 proceedings were had:)

14 MR. BECKER: Mr. O'Connor is attempting to testify
15 about where Bryan Sheppard was, but that's not for you to 16 testify to.

17 THE COURT: That's not for you to say.

18 MR. BECKER: You can sum up on it if you have other
19 evidence, but -

20 THE COURT: I think the only question you can ask
21 -- I guess you've got some indication that he was in jail at
22 that time.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Exactly.

24 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. You can't tell
25 them that. You may not tell them that.

1660

1 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. I know what to do with it.

2 MR. BECKER: Well -

3 MR. O'CONNOR: I know what to do.

4 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

5 Q. (By Mr. O'Connor:) As I understand it, this

6 photographic memory of yours allowed you to tell the agents

7 exactly what he was wearing back at the time; is that right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And was he wearing any kind of an orange jumpsuit?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Or a yellow jumpsuit?

12 A. No.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach a minute?

14 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
15 proceedings were had:)

16 MR. O'CONNOR: I want to ask him if he had any 17 uniform on that had a jail thing written on the back. I
18 don't want to be cute. I'm just trying to -- that's why I
19 came up here.

20 THE COURT: I don't understand. I mean, just ask
21 him if he is, if he is saying that whatever date he's talking 22 about -- and you haven't gotten very specific about the 23 date. What dates have you got this guy in the pokey?

24 MR. O'CONNOR: From July 27th of '89 to December
25 29th of '89.

1 THE COURT: Did you know this?

2 MR. BECKER: Yes. I thought it was earlier that he
3 saw Bryan, earlier that year.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: His whole interview, Judge -- let me
5 get it.

6 MR. PETERS: He's going to be referring to this
7 bottom paragraph.

8 MR. BECKER: Which date, which report?

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm referring to the February 21st
10 report. He talks exclusively about seeing him between August
11 and October. And then on examination he has moved the fall
12 from September to December. But even if you move it back to 13 August, he still loses.

14 And the point is if they knew he was in jail, then
15 why would they offer this witness who obviously says, can't 16 even identify him. It's argumentative, but what I'm saying
17 is that if they knew he was in jail from July to September
18 and this guy is saying that he saw him in the fall -

19 MR. BECKER: Two things. One, I thought the kid
20 was going to make an ID of him. But secondly, I missed the 21 date. so he has not -- he's obviously not been prepared on 22 this date, and you've got him. I mean, you can offer it as 23 evidence later on that the guy could never have been seen at 24 home during that time.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: Okay. I'll move on. As my offer of

1 proof, I would like to add since he says he has a
2 photographic memory, since he says all of that stuff, I want
3 to ask him more about the orange jumpsuit.

4 THE COURT: No.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

6 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

7 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't have any other questions.

8 Thanks.

9 THE COURT: Any other cross?

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION

12 By Mr. Osgood:

13 Q. Mr. Furrell, my name is John Osgood, and I represent
14 Richard Brown.

15 Mr. Brown, would you stand up, please?

16 This is Mr. Richard Brown. Was he at this party
17 this night you were talking about?

18 A. No. Richard Brown was not. You have to understand
19 that, as I said before, this has been over eight years ago
20 now, and faces change over this amount of time.

21 Q. But whoever you knew as Bryan Sheppard -

22 A. Bryan Sheppard at the time was there.

23 Q. It wasn't this Richard Brown -

24 A. No, it wasn't.

25 Q. -- that was there?

1663

1 A. No. No, it wasn't.

2 Q. All right. Now, did you go to school with Richard

3 Brown?

4 A. Not that I remember of.

5 Q. Did you hang around with Richard Brown?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you ever hear Richard Brown's name in any of this

8 conversation?

9 A. No.

10 MR. OSGOOD: All right. Thank you, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

12 MR. O'CONNOR: No, sir.

13 MR. BECKER: No redirect, Judge.

14 THE COURT: All right. You may step down.

15 MR. BECKER: Judge, I have run out of witnesses for
16 today.

17 THE COURT: You have three more on your list. I
18 understand about one, but how about the other two?

19 MR. BECKER: Mr. Davis has taken ill earlier today
20 and had to go to the hospital. And then the other one is 21 basically a records custodian relating to Quiroz.

22 THE COURT: All right. Let's come up a minute and 23 let's -

24 (Counsel approached the bench and the following
25 proceedings were had:)

1664

1 THE COURT: Tell me about this Quiroz.

2 MR. BECKER: She's in jail.

3 THE COURT: She is in jail now?

4 MR. BECKER: Yeah. She's doing time for cocaine
5 trafficking.

6 THE COURT: Is she here?

7 MR. BECKER: She's on the fifth floor.

8 THE COURT: so what is it that she -

9 MR. BECKER: Last Saturday when I prepared her for 10 testimony, she was ready to testify. Thereafter, an attorney
11 contacted me, a Mr. Ross, who said he represents Quiroz, and 12 Quiroz wanted to know if there was, you know, if the 13 government was going to make a motion for her based on her
14 testimony. And I said no, that, you know, the time for a
15 Rule 35 is gone, there's nothing I can do for her. And then
16 Mr. Ross said he'd get back with me. And he did yesterday
17 and said that Quiroz was going to testify.

18 And then today when Miss Quiroz was brought in to 19 the marshal's, Miss Quiroz told the marshals that she either
20 was no longer retaining Mr. Ross or had never retained Mr.
21 Ross and that she wasn't going to testify.

22 THE COURT: Well, bring her down and let's get her
23 to testify. Does she -

24 MR. BECKER: She was not going to testify. That 25 was the last word I had.

1 THE COURT: I understand. What's she in jail for?

2 MR. BECKER: Cocaine trafficking.

3 THE COURT: How long?

4 MR. BECKER: Maybe four years, three and a half
5 years.

6 MS. FRANCO: She has five years.

7 MR. BECKER: She's done some portion of that.

8 THE COURT: Do you represent her?

9 MS. FRANCO: I represented a codefendant.

10 THE COURT: I think it ought to be explained to 11 this lady that we can fix it so that the time she does is not 12 good time, is not countable time until she decides she's 13 going to testify.

14 MR. BECKER: I mean, if need be, you know, she can
15 come up and take the fifth, and I can make a motion.

16 THE COURT: She can't take the fifth.

17 MR. BECKER: Somebody can always take the fifth,
18 Judge. Every time I try and litigate whether somebody has a
19 Fifth Amendment privilege, the Court tells me it's up to the 20 witness, not the prosecutor.

21 THE COURT: Judge Hunter was responsible for some 22 pretty monumental law in the State of Missouri, and you can't 23 just willy-nilly take the fifth just because you don't want
24 to testify.

25 MR. BECKER: We'll take longer talking about this

1666

1 and then bringing her up here than it would be if we just
2 break, I'll go downstairs, and I'm going to find out. I
3 mean, if she's going to testify, she's going to testify. If
4 she's not, she's not. I mean -- and then we can put her on
5 tomorrow morning. I mean, and if she's not going to testify,
6 we're done with her, I'll ship her back.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge.

9 (The following proceedings were had in open court:)

10 THE COURT: We're going to stop now for the night.
11 Tomorrow is our really half day, so we will commence at 9
12 o'clock and stop at noon.

13 While you're apart from us this evening, don't talk
14 about the case or look at anything or pay attention to 15 anything that might appear in the media about this case.

16 Drive carefully. There's still some slick streets
17 out there. We'll see you in the morning. You're excused.

18 (The following proceedings were had in the
19 courtroom out of the presence of the jury:)

20 THE COURT: I realize the witness we're talking
21 about is in custody, but is she also under subpoena?

22 MR. BECKER: She's here on a writ, habeas corpus ad
23 testificandum.

24 THE COURT: Addressed to the superintendent of the 25 institution where she lives?

1 MR. BECKER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Well, I hope you'll explain to her the
3 advantage of testifying and the disadvantage of not doing so.

4 MR. BECKER: I will, Judge.

5 MR. PETERS: Judge, I believe that she's
6 represented by counsel. There's one thing I think we need

8 THE COURT: I'm told that she fired her lawyer.

9 MR. PETERS: I understand that. I think if we're 10 going to have the attorney for the government advising her of 11 rights and consequences of actions, that creates kind of an 12 awkward situation. And if we're going to do that, I think
13 she should also be advised that if she gives false testimony,
14 she runs the risk of perjury both in the federal court -
15 this is a murder trial. Under state court, if she testifies
16 falsely in this proceeding, she would be facing 10 to 30 or 17 life, that she can't be given immunity from prosecution for 18 perjury.

19 If we're going to advise her of her rights, I think
20 we need to advise her of all of her rights and all of the 21 risks. And I don't -- my point is I'm not sure if the person
22 to be advising a witness of their rights is either party.
23 We've steadfastly avoided conveying that to witnesses who 24 have asked us, what do we do. We give them the name of three 25 attorneys. And I think it creates an awkward situation when

1668

1 a witness has indicated that she's going to refuse to
2 testify, for the Government's attorney to be in a position of 3 essentially becoming a witness in the case.

4 MR. BECKER: Oh, I don't think I'll be a witness in 5 the case. I've done this a number of times, and always 6 somebody else is present so I don't end up being a witness in 7 a case.

8 THE COURT: Well, obviously, the government's
9 counsel is not advising her of her rights. I have no problem
10 with him advising her of her responsibilities under the law.
11 If she is, in fact, put before this court and put under oath
12 and asked questions, she has an obligation to testify. I
13 think he can tell her the consequences of refusing to do so.

14 MR. PETERS: And I don't have a problem with that.
15 The only thing I would add is she has an obligation to 16 testify truthfully.

17 THE COURT: Absolutely. Okay. We'll be in
18 recess.

19 (The trial adjourned for the evening at 4:24 p.m.)

20

1 FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1997

2 (Proceedings out of the presence of the jury.)

3 THE COURT: Good morning.

4 MR. BECKER: I can't see Darlene Edwards
5 during the proceeding. She is obviously behind me.
6 But I have been told when witnesses are asked to 7 identify her, she goes into the duck mode.

8 THE COURT: I have seen that.

9 MR. BUNCH: Let me say I have had nothing
10 to do with it. I didn't know it.

11 THE COURT: I want you to tell her to sit
12 there and not move.

13 MR. BUNCH: You have got it. It's done.
14 I again had nothing to do with that and I will be
15 sure that doesn't happen again.

16 THE COURT: We have this business of the 17 motion you filed.

18 MR. BECKER: It's not smart to do with the
19 jury.

20 MR. BUNCH: Yes, it's not smart to do.

21 Now Paul and I discussed -- and I am
22 having somebody try to get a hold of Mr. Harris as 23 we speak and haven't reached him and have no
24 complaints about anything. And I acknowledge that 25 the thing was pretty late on my behalf. We are

1 working on it.

2 THE COURT: Judge Lundstrom is the Judge.
3 Harris was the defender, U. S. Attorney.

4 THE COURT: It is okay with Judge Lundstrom.
5 He doesn't care. But I care. I am not going to open
6 it up without the lawyers at least expressing
7 themselves and saying why not, if not.

8 MR. OSGOOD: What is your order?

9 MR. BECKER: It is whatever is on the sheet.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Quiroz is the first witness.

11 MR. BECKER: I will bring up today's list.

12 MR. PETERS: The first two witnesses are 13 going to be Quiroz and Chenier. These are witnesses
14 testifying what Darlene had told them and I am again
15 expressing concern about inadvertent blurting out of 16 "brother , "Frank Sheppard" or something like that. So
17 I am just putting the Court on notice.

18 THE COURT: Your concern is the testimony be 19 limited to being against Darlene and not against 20 anybody else.

21 MR. PETERS: As the court has noted, once the 22 cat is out of the bag kind of presents a problem.

23 THE COURT: No unringing the bell syndrome.

24 MR. BECKER: That's what Miller said.

25 THE COURT: That's an Arthur Popham, "You

1 can't unring the bell."

2 THE COURT: What about Dornhoffer. Is it
3 going to be okay to go ahead?

4 MR. BUNCH: We are doing what we can. My
5 job is to do the best I can and it may turn out we are
6 not able to get her in time. We are working on it
7 now, Judge.

8 THE COURT: Judge Lundstrom went ahead and
9 took her plea and sentenced her. So there has to be a
10 presumption she was competent and not a pathological
11 liar.

12 MR. BECKER: I think Mr. O'Connor raised this 13 a while ago, this issue on the -

14 THE COURT: Examination.

15 MR. BECKER: Right. And I said from what I
16 know she was found fit to proceed, to plea and she was 17 sentenced.

18 THE COURT: Now this is kind of another side
19 of it but I don't think that the fact of that 20 examination would be usable. I mean, wasn't there some 21 question of being loony tune?

22 MR. O'CONNOR: That particular examination, I
23 agree.

24 MR. BECKER: There were other ones.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: I don't agree. There were

1 certain findings. In '87 she was found incompetent to
2 proceed at one point, then found competent later and
3 certain findings made by people who evaluated at 4 Western Missouri Health as to things about her.

5 MR. PETERS: Her mental status.

6 MR. BECKER: How are you able to get those
7 privileged records?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I am going to ask her whether
9 or not she has been treated by a psychiatrist,
10 psychologist. And I have a good faith basis for asking
11 it. And assuming she says yes, I am going to give this 12 person's name, did this person give an evaluation of 13 you and make certain findings. Then I am going to go
14 through them.

15 MR. PETERS: If she jumps it it will be
16 rebuttal but we don't think she will jump it.

17 THE COURT: Getting the record itself in with 18 a proper foundation is going to be difficult.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: I am going to give her the
20 report.

21 THE COURT: I don't think an individual can
22 testify to a doctors scientific opinion.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: Have you been told by a
24 psychiatrist you suffer from.

25 THE COURT: That is unsubstantiated.

1 MR. O'CONNOR: I will approach before I get
2 into that part of it.

3 THE COURT: I am leery of this. Again I
4 think it is a possibility. I don't mean you will do it
5 but there is a possibility people like this will be
6 taken advantage of and I don't want that to happen.
7 That was my same concern about that lady that was
8 confronted with what the private eye had found out.
9 And I think there is a possibility she will be taken
10 advantage of and I just want to play on a level playing 11 field.

12 MR. PETERS: I think before we do that, if 13 there is a problem we can come up. I think we are 14 going to have an exception under 803 on the hearsay
15 rule.

16 THE COURT: 803 what?

17 MR. PETERS: I am just going through it, (3)
18 or (4)

19 MR. BUNCH: Before we leave what is going
20 on, I want it left Mr. Becker has been as cooperative
21 as could be. I have done what I could. The Court
22 has given all the assistance it can. We are just doing
23 the best we can.

24 THE COURT: You should all know that Judge
25 Lungstrum went out of his way to be helpful to us last

1 1 evening after the clerk's office closed and I couldn't
2 get anything but a recording on the telephone. He ran
3 it down. And although he indicated he didn't remember
4 it but he did point out the timing of the exam and the 5 plea, that it looked like it had come out all right.
6 Didn't seem to be too worried. Let's go on.

7 MR. PETERS: 803 (3)(4) and then that (24)
8 catch all.

9 TuE COURT: Wait a minute. (4) is the
10 statement by the patient to the doctor for purposes
11 of medical diagnosis. And then what did you say?

12 MR. PETERS: "Then existing mental,
13 emotional or physical condition. "

14 MR. BECKER: That is present tense.

15 THE COURT: The declarant, not of the report.

16 MR. BECKER: It is just her statement is what 17 we are talking about.

18 THE COURT: I mean again you are talking
19 about having the shrink on the stand and having him or 20 her testify about what this woman told her. Maybe that 21 will work. But I am leery of the other.

22 MR. O'CONNOR: I promise not to get into her
23 mental, as far as findings on her mentally without 24 approaching the bench. In other words, when I get to 25 that point of the examination where I think I can do

1 it, then I will make an offer at that time.

2 THE COURT: Does anybody have a copy of the
3 report?

4 MR. O'CONNOR: I do.

5 THE COURT: You do?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Can you show it?

8 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: I would like to know what I am
10 dealing with. Have you seen it?

11 MR. BECKER: No, it is privileged
12 documents.

 THE COURT: Privileged?

14 MR. BECKER: They're medical records.

15 THE COURT: But it was on a court-ordered
16 examination.

17 MR. BECKER: I think he is talking about a
18 different one. I would be very surprised if he had the 19 federal.

20 THE COURT: I thought he was talking about
21 the report that Lungstrum ordered. Is this the one
22 Lungstrum made?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: No, this is a different one.
24 This is one we got in our own investigation. I think
25 I have a good faith basis and I can show the court a

1 good faith basis. And I will make an offer of proof
2 at that time.

3 THE COURT: We will deal with it when we have
4 to. Let's get the jury.

5 (The jury enters the courtroom and is 6 seated.)

7 THE COURT: Good morning, folks. Have a
8 seat. All right, counsel, you may proceed.

9 MR. BECKER: The United States calls Rosemary
10 Quiroz.

11 ROSEMARY QUIROZ.

12 having been sworn, testified:

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. BECKER:

15 Q Good morning. Please state your name and spell your
16 last name.

17 A: My name is Rosemary Quiroz, Q-u-i-r-o-z.

18 Q How old are you?

19 A: I am 39 years old.

20 Q Did you live in the Kansas City area during the last 21 ten years?

22 A: Yes, I did.

23 Q Are you currently serving a prison sentence?

24 A: Yes, I am.

25 Q What are you in jail for?

1 A: I am in jail for distributing cocaine and unlawfully
2 purchasing -

3 THE COURT: I can't hear you.

4 THE WITNESS: Unlawfully purchasing food
5 stamps in the trade of cocaine.

6 Q The charge was a food stamp charge but what really
7 happened was you traded cocaine for food stamps, is
8 that right?

9 A: Right. Yes.

10 Q And you were prosecuted by the United States Attorneys
11 office, is that right?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Who was the prosecutor in that case?

14 A: Bill Meiners, William Meiners.

15 Q What was your sentence that you are presently serving?

16 A: I have a five year sentence.

17 Q Where are you currently serving that sentence?

18 A: At the federal prison camp, Bryan, Texas.

19 Q In 1995 were you incarcerated at a place known as CCA?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Where is the Corrections Corporation of America, where 22 is that?

23 A: Leavenworth, Kansas.

24 Q What type of jail facility is that?

25 A: It is for federal inmates.

1 ~ Q And that is pre-trial for the most part.

2 A: Yes.

3 Q Do you recall when you were there?

4 A: I was there in February of '95 to August of '95, August
5 or September, because I was sentenced August the 25th
6 and I was there a few weeks until being transferred to 7 Bryan.

8 Q While you were there did you meet a woman by the name
9 of Darlene Edwards?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Do you see her here in court today?

12 A: Yes, I do.

13 Q Is she standing now, dressed in black?

14 A: Yes, she is.

15 MR. BECKER: Indicating the defendant Darlene
16 Edwards, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: It will so indicate.

18 Q How did you meet Darlene Edwards?

19 A: Well, we were just all inmates over there at CCA,
20 Leavenworth, Kansas and we were all brought into the 21 housing unit which is called a pod and we all lived
22 there together. We were all housed together. And that 23 is how I got to know her.

24 Q How many women are in that pod generally?

25 A: Up to 24, 2 to 24, 1 to 24.

- 1 Q Sure, there can be zero to 24, right?
- 2 A: Right.
- 3 Q While you were there did you ever discuss the case that
- 4 you were charged with with Darlene Edwards?
- 5 A: Yes.
- 6 Q Did Darlene Edwards ever discuss the case she was
- 7 charged with in 1995, with you?
- 8 A: Yes.
- 9 Q Was that case, in 1995 the case against Darlene
- 10 Edwards, was that this fire fighters case?
- 11 A: No.
- 12 Q That was another case, right?
- 13 A: Yes.
- 14 Q Did Darlene Edwards ever discuss what we have come to
- 15 call a fire fighters case?
- 16 A: Yes.
- 17 Q How did that topic come up?
- 18 A: Well, as you know, we were all in one room and there
- 19 were so many women and we all discussed our
- 20 indictments, our criminal charges. We just have
- 21 confidence in everybody. And, of course, we have
- 22 plenty of time to talk. And the way she started
- 23 talking about the fire fighters, I guess she seen
- 24 something on television, something with the fire, you
- 25 know, or something came up in the newspapers, I believe

1

1 it was Skip Sheppard, that she said it was just an
2 accident.

3 Q Let's go slowly. Where were you when you had this
4 conversation with Darlene Edwards, where in the pod?

5 A: In the housing unit, not in the pod but in the housing
6 unit out in the open.

7 Q That is a common area.

8 A: Yes, it is a common area.

9 Q Is there a TV table?

10 A: They're four tables and a television and our rooms are 11 on that side, two sides.

12 Q The rooms are on the front and back of the pod and the 13 common area is in the middle, is that right?

14 A: Right.

15 Q Was there anybody else there when Darlene Edwards
16 started talking about the fire fighters case?

17 A: She discussed it with practically everybody. She told 18 everybody she was involved in it. But, yes, there was 19 a Carolyn Woods that was there. There was also 20 Bridgete Dornhoffer and many others.

21 Q I want you to tell us what Darlene Edwards said about 22 the fire fighters case. Did Darlene Edwards talk about 23 any plans to do that event or activity, crime?

24 A: She said that at one time Frank had made plans.

25 MR. PETERS: Objection.

1 THE COURT: We will just instruct the jury to
2 disregard any reference to Frank.

3 MR. PETERS: I need to make a brief record.

4 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

5 MR. PETERS: I need to move for a mistrial.

6 THE COURT: You are not going to get that.

7 MR. PETERS: I have made my record.

8 THE COURT: That will be overruled.

9 MS. HUNT: We made a record with Skip
10 Sheppard.

11 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

12 THE COURT: Any reference to anybody else

13 should be disregarded. She is only permitted to 14 testify about herself and things about herself.

15 Q I would like you to answer the question what Darlene
16 said about that event.

17 A: Okay.

18 Q What did Darlene Edwards say happened about that event;
19 first, with the planning.

20 A: She told me that she was at home and that somehow
21 someone got a flat or something and they needed a ride
22 to go get some gas. So she took them to go get some 23 gas and she dropped them off.

24 Q Did she say where she got the gas?

25 A: She told me she got the gas at Quik Trip right down the

1 street from the construction site.

2 Q Were you living in Kansas City in November of '88?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q Were you familiar with that explosion that occurred
5 then?

6 A: I heard about it.

7 Q Did you ever go down to that construction site or that
8 section of highway in the Quik Trip?

9 A: Never.

10 Q What did Darlene Edwards say then? She dropped these 11 people off. Where did she drop them off?

12 A: At the construction site.

13 Q Did she say anything about a fire at the construction
14 site?

15 A: She told us about the explosion and how it got out of 16 control and it wasn't supposed to be like that.

17 Q Did she say anything about a diversion?

18 A: She said that they created a diversion to cover up what 19 they were doing.

20 MR. PETERS: I object.

21 THE COURT: The "they" can be referred only
22 to the speaker; that is Darlene Edwards, the defendant.

23 Q Did she tell you that all in one sitting or over the 24 course of time?

25 A: Over the course of time.

1 Q How often did you discuss this?

2 A: Well, we were just talking to our attorneys and we
3 would get back news. So we would cry or whatever and 4 tell each other our problems. So it was quite often.

5 Q Now at one time, particular time, did you make any
6 notes relating to these conversations with Darlene
7 Edwards?

8 A: Yes, I did.

9 Q I want to show you what is marked for identification
10 purposes as Government's Exhibit 386 and ask you to 11 take a look at that. Do you recognize that?

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Is that your handwriting on that piece of paper?

14 A: Definitely.

15 Q And are those the notes that you made about your 16 conversation with Darlene Edwards?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Do you know what happened to those notes? Did you keep 19 them with you until today or where did they come from?

20 A: I wrote these notes at CCA. As Darlene was telling me
21 things I was writing it down. When I was first 22 indicted I was afraid I was going to have to do time in 23 the federal prison so I thought this would help me get
24 out but it didn't. And I wrote this down in case I
25 needed more information to get a plea agreement. And

1 I dropped it.

2 Q Let's talk about that. Has anyone, myself or anyone
3 from the United States Department of Justice or ATF,
4 made any promises to you about getting you out of jail
5 in exchange for your testimony?

6 A: Not that I know of.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: Can we approach, please.

8 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

9 MR. O'CONNOR: I was on the phone last night
10 with Dan Ross who represents this lady and Bridgete
11 Dornhoffer. He has advised me two things. One,
12 that Dave True told her back when he interviewed her he
13 would try to get something for her, a Rule 35.
14 Secondly, he said that Mr. Becker used these words -- I
15 am quoting. This is what I wrote down.

16 THE COURT: I think you better ask this
17 witness to leave the stand. Marshal, could she leave,
18 please.

19 (The witness leaves the courtroom.)

20 MR. O'CONNOR: Back at the time she gave her
21 statement Dave True intimated to her he would look into 22 helping her on a time cut.

23 Secondly, yesterday in discussions when
24 she was refusing to testify because they hadn't
25 done what they promised her to do, to start with,

1 Dan Ross reported this to me, I am going to write
2 what he said. I asked him did they say they would
3 look into it. He said -- this was the words he
4 used -- "that the government will recommend a drug
5 program within six months.

6 MR. BECKER: I will ask her about that.

7 THE COURT: That's all right.

8 MR. BECKER: Which she missed by being here
9 for this trial. She was supposed to start a drug
10 program on January 22nd. I told her I would try to 11 get her back into the drug program.

12 THE COURT: Is she at ICC or straight
13 confinement?

14 MR. BECKER: Straight confinement.

15 THE COURT: She didn't get that deal.

16 MR. BECKER: She missed the drug program
17 because she came here.

18 THE COURT: Bring that out.

19 MR. BECKER: I would try to get her in the 20 drug program.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I need to give you a little
22 more history, Judge. If you get into a drug program
23 you get out one year earlier. That is what she has 24 been told as well.

25 THE COURT: Yes, but that's for everybody.

1 MR. BECKER: She missed that because she came
2 here.

3 MR. O'CONNOR: When she would talk to me to
4 some extent she says True promised her they would do a
5 time cut but they never would do anything for her. And
6 then they bring her up. And she said I ain't
7 testifying unless they give me something.

8 So now she believes in her mind and
9 heart she is getting something for her testimony
10 as a result.

11 THE COURT: She said no. That is your 12 interpretation.

13 MR. BECKER: I will ask her about the drug
14 program.

15 MR. PETERS: One other thing. I have to move
16 for a mistrial on behalf of my client. They have now
17 brought out against the motion in limine, the names of 18 Frank and Skip. And she has testified that Darlene
19 took them to Quik Trip.

20 The only inference that can be raised
21 from that in the minds of this jury -- and I have 22 been watching the jury and they are continuing to 23 take notes, when you instruct them to disregard
24 it, they might be writing disregard this but I am
25 advising the Court the only inference has been -

1 THE COURT: One of the clerks reports they
2 are erasing.

3 MR. PETERS: The only inference of things
4 violated by the motion in limine is Frank and Skip
5 and the testimony of the witness is it wasn't Frank and 6 Skip she took to Quik Trip. And it leads to the 7 conclusion the witness is talking about two jointly
8 charged defendants. And in this case it is made more
9 offensive because the impression who she took, when she 10 took them to the Quik Trip is the only two defendants
11 she has mentioned which is Frank and Skip.

12 THE COURT: You have a right of cross
13 examination.

14 MR. PETERS: But I don't have a right.

15 THE COURT: Sure, you do.

16 MR. PETERS: I am making my record.

17 THE COURT: I understand that but we are 18 taking an awful lot of time.

19 MR. PETERS: We are taking an awful lot of 20 time and based upon the representations of the 21 government these witnesses would be Brutonized and the 22 jury would never hear the names of the other
23 defendants. This is now the fifth time that has been 24 violated and it has created the impression of facts
25 that not only are inadmissible but the facts the

1 government knows to be incorrect. She could not take
2 Frank and Skip to Quik Trip.

3 MS. HUNT: Based on his argument, we renew
4 our motion for severance that was denied.

5 MR. BECKER: That was the reference to Skip.

6 MS. HUNT: She said before Skip Sheppard.
7 It didn't make any sense.

8 MR. BECKER: That one got by me.

9 THE COURT: I don't know if it had reference
10 to before Skip was charged or before Skip went to jail.

11 MS. HUNT: We don't know.

12 THE COURT: Because she didn't finish the 13 sentence. I don't think she said she took Skip and 14 Frank to the Quik Trip to get gas.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: She said "they but Skip and 16 Frank had already been mentioned.

17 THE COURT: You guys are a little paranoid
18 about all this.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: We might ask for some kind of 20 limiting instruction relating to that reference.

21 THE COURT: That's fine, we will give that.
22 (The witness resumes the witness stand and the 23 following proceedings were had in the hearing of the 24 jury.)

25 MR. BECKER: At this time, Judge, I would

1 offer Government's 386 in evidence.

2 MR. BUNCH: No objection.

3 THE COURT: All right, it is admitted.

4 (PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 386 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

5 Q Miss Quiroz, when you were in jail, in the penitentiary
6 in Texas, you are serving your sentence, right, your 7 five year sentence, is that right?

8 A: Yes, I am.

9 Q Were you scheduled to begin a drug treatment program?

10 A: I was scheduled to begin a drug treatment program
11 January the 22nd until the government moved me over
12 here.

13 Q The United States Attorneys office put forth a request,
14 but really it is not a request, you get moved up here
15 so you could testify, is that right?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q As a result of that did you miss going into this drug
18 treatment program?

19 A: Yes, I did. I missed getting a year off and six months
20 in a halfway house to come here. I didn't get nothing
21 for this and I have been drug through hell to get here.

22 Q Did we discuss this before your testimony?

23 A: Yes. I am not getting nothing for this.

24 Q Did I agree I would contact the prison to try to get
25 you back in that drug treatment program?

1 A: Yes, you did.

2 Q Have there been any other promises we would do anything
3 in exchange for your testimony?

4 A: There hasn't been any other promises but Dan Ross said
5 he would file a Rule 35(b) for me but you said you
6 would look at it; you didn't make any promises
7 whatsoever.

8 Q And it was explained to you that has to be within one
9 year of your sentence, is that right?

10 A: Yes, you did.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: May we approach, please.

12 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

13 MR. O'CONNOR: It is disturbing when a
14 witness gets on there and says no promises are made
15 and now she has been told -

16 MR. BECKER: By her attorney.

17 MR. O'CONNOR: (Continuing) a Rule 35 will
18 be filed. And Mr. Becker, would he look at it
19 otherwise.

20 THE COURT: It is out of time. You can't do
21 a Rule 35. He has to look at it if it is out of time?
22 What does this have to do with her credibility?

23 MR. O'CONNOR: It has a lot to do with her
24 credibility. If Mr. Becker has told her, just like Mr
25 White yesterday, he will look at it. She was a drug

1 defendant, prosecuted by a drug prosecutor, not Mr.
2 Becker. It is not his case. I think the fact they
3 are going to look at it would allow us to ask the same
4 two questions we asked of White and they have just put
5 before this jury no promises have been made and there
6 have been some promises. They're not grand promises
7 but there are promises we haven't been told about.
8 I think to put her before this jury and now on cross,
9 he basically says have any other things been told and 10 the fourth time we heard from her mouth -

11 MR. BECKER: I don't know what her attorney
12 told her. I can't control what her attorney told her.
13 Miss Hunt argues differently but it is my understanding
14 she is out of time.

15 MS. HUNT: There is a section that allows
16 after a year.

17 MR. BECKER: I am aware of that.

18 MS. HUNT: You keep saying it is out of
19 time.

20 THE COURT: Prima facie is out of time.

21 MR. BECKER: April of '95 is when she got 22 this information. You tell me how that within 23 one year.

24 MS. HUNT: If it is one year after
25 sentencing. I don't know when she was sentenced.

1 That hasn't come up.

2 MR. BECKER: That is information she
3 received after her sentencing. She is talking
4 about information she got in April of '95 when she
5 was in pre-trial detention.

6 THE COURT: Where the defendant's substantial
7 assistance involves information it is not known by the 8 defendant until one year or more after imposing
9 sentence.

10 MR. BECKER: That is my reading. You guys
11 can argue otherwise but that is my reading.

12 MR. OSGOOD: Intent is what is relevant.
13 We may misread it.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I think the easy answer, Paul,
15 did you tell Dan Ross you would look at a Rule 35(b).
16 It's that simple. You would consider or do something
17 like that.

18 MR. BECKER: If she has any information after 19 a year but I don't know of any.

20 THE COURT: This gets into the complications
21 of who does what in the prosecutor's office and the 22 critical question is whether something has happened
23 that has influenced this woman. Do you have something
24 inconsistent, prior inconsistency by this woman that 25 would indicate something Paul said to her made her

1 change her story?

2 MR. O'CONNOR: That is not the point.

3 THE COURT: Yes, it is.

4 MR. O'CONNOR: It is but it isn't. I went to 5 talk to this lady twice. Once she refused. The second
6 time her lawyer told her I could talk to her because he 7 thought she would talk to me and she refused. Then she
8 came down yesterday. He told Mr. Becker to tell her
9 what the consequences are to people who don't testify.
10 What I am saying is this. That until these discussions
11 happened between her and her lawyer, she was not 12 testifying. And now it has driven her to testify and 13 we are entitled to know what that is.

14 THE COURT: Just ask her.

15 MR. O'CONNOR: All I am saying, Judge, the 16 government has a duty to tell us any promises, anything
17 that they have done for any witness. They have put 18 this witness on and said have we made any promises to
19 you.

20 MR. BECKER: Can I answer the question?

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Sure.

22 MR. BECKER: She wasn't given her clothes
23 yesterday so she didn't want to appear in prison garb.

24 MR. O'CONNOR: I understand that.

25 MR. BECKER: She wanted makeup yesterday and

1 the marshals wouldn't give her the makeup that had
2 been brought to her because they are not allowed to 3 convey makeup back and forth. And she was upset, she
4 had been held, in order to keep the witnesses separated
5 you guys always want, right, she was taken down to a
6 room in the U. S. Attorney's office area. And because
7 she was there she had to remain shackled the whole
8 time. We don't have any facilities down there. So she 9 sat down there by herself with an agent in shackles
10 all day and she was not happy about that.

11 THE COURT: This gets into so many collateral
12 things. Let's go on.

13 MR. O'CONNOR: All right. Thank you, Judge.

14 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Let's go.

16 Q Miss Quiroz, did you yesterday afternoon state at that 17 time you did not want to testify here?

18 A: Yes, I did.

19 Q Was that related to the fact that -- by the way, you
20 are in jail now, is that right?

21 A: Yes, I am in Clay County.

22 Q Where did you get the clothes you are wearing today?

23 A: My husband brought me these clothes to wear.

24 Q Were you not allowed to change into them yesterday?

25 A: I was not allowed to put these clothes on yesterday.

1 ~ Q Is that one of the reasons why you wouldn't testify?

2 A: Yes.

3 MR. BECKER: I would offer Government's 386
4 in evidence.

5 I have nothing further at this time,
6 Judge. Perhaps at the next bench conference we
7 could pass the note. And that way the jury could 8 do something while we are conferring.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Bunch.

10 MR. BUNCH: If it please the court.

11 CROSS EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. BUNCH:

13 Q Miss Quiroz, I am Will Bunch and I am counsel for 14 Darlene Edwards. First, let me ask you about some of 15 the subject matter of the conversations that you have 16 testified about. Did Miss Edwards tell you that she 17 went to Quik Trip to obtain gasoline?

18 A: Yes, she did.

19 Q And did she tell you how she got there?

20 A: She said she got there in a car.

21 Q Did she say she was driving the car, her car?

22 A: She said she was driving a car.

23 Q And did she tell you how much gas was obtained?

24 A: No, she didn't.

25 Q Did she tell you whether or not she took containers or

1 how the gas was put in the tank of the car, do you
2 know?

3 A: No, she just said she took them to get gas.

4 Q So it may have been just to gas up the car.

5 A: She took them to get gas.

6 Q Then you testified she told you she drove to the
7 construction site.

8 A: She said she took them to get gas. I am sure she 9 drove.

10 Q Then did she tell you that she also drove to the
11 construction site?

12 A: She said she took them to get the gas at Quik Trip and 13 took them to the construction site and dropped them
14 off.

15 Q Then did she say she returned to her house?

16 A: She didn't say.

17 Q And did she tell you she later heard a large explosion?

18 A: Yes, she did.

19 Q You were interviewed, weren't you, on September the 20 25th, 1996 by an officer of the ATF at the federal
21 prison camp in Bryan, Texas.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q Do you recall whether or not you advised at that time
24 that she returned to her house after driving to the
25 construction site?

1 A: At one time she did say -- she told me to many
2 different stories. She did mention she was at the 3 house, yes.

4 Q So rather than telling you a single story, she told you
5 a variety of stories, so many different stories you
6 say.

7 A: Yes, she did.

8 Q And would that be at the same setting or on a different
9 setting she would tell you different versions?

10 A: Different times she would tell me different things.

11 Q And were these stories inconsistent, one with the 12 other?

13 A: Well, she told me bits and pieces which made sense.

14 Q The question is were they inconsistent, one with the 15 other? For example, would she tell you one thing on 16 one day and something different another?

17 A: No.

18 Q So if she told you many different stories, then can you
19 explain to us what you mean by that?

20 A: Well, she would tell us about the gas, how she went to 21 get the gas and different things that she did with the 22 other defendants.

23 MR. PETERS: Objection, Your Honor.

24 MR. BUNCH: I don't believe I elicited that,
25 Judge.

1698

1 1 THE COURT: That will be stricken. I don't
2 think that was responsive to the question. I think
3 your problem is what this lady means by the word
4 "different in the context.

5 MR. BUNCH: I will be more specific if I
6 can.

7 Q I am simply trying to discern from your statement that
8 she told many different stories, whether or not she 9 told you one thing one time and something different
10 another time?

11 A: They were all consistent.

12 Q So she didn't tell you many different stories

13 THE COURT: Counsel, as an old semanticist we 14 better talk about this.

15 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

16 THE COURT: If she told her a story about 17 getting gas, then she told her a story about taking 18 them down there, then maybe she told her a story about 19 getting them after the explosion or whatever, these are 20 three different stories.

21 MR. BUNCH: Right.

22 THE COURT: They're not endemically
23 different. They're different from each other. They're 24 just different stories.

25 MR. BUNCH: I agree with that. The only

1 reason I was inquiring, on one occasion she said she
2 returned to the house from this construction site. On 3 another occasion she said she remained at the 4 construction site after the explosion.

5 THE COURT: Prior to today she said these 6 things.

7 MR. BUNCH: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Oh, well, I have not seen that.
9 She so far has been consistent with her use of the word
10 "different." She told different things at different
11 times.

12 MR. BUNCH: I accept that but you understand
13 what I am asking.

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MR. PETERS: While we are up here, when she 16 continues to mention the defendants, Skip, Frank or 17 they, I will continue to object. But instead of having 18 to ask in each instance, can I have a continuing
19 request for a mistrial?

20 THE COURT: You can have a continuing
21 objection. You don't have a continuing motion for a
22 mistrial. I am not going to grant a mistrial, at least
23 on the basis of what has happened so far.

24 MR. PETERS: I again ask for a mistrial now.
25 She has said the defendants. What she has repeatedly

1 used in her testimony goes to the defendants
2 inescapably. It was not elicited by any question asked
3 by defense counsel. That is the basis.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

6 Q Miss Quiroz, what I was attempting to ascertain was 7 whether or not she told you that she returned to her
8 home after going to the construction site or whether 9 she told you that she remained at the construction
10 site.

11 A: She told me that she took them and dropped them off to 12 get the gas. She did tell me at one time that she went 13 home.

14 Q Did she tell you something different at another time?

15 A: No.

16 Q So that is the size of that, she went home.

17 A: Right.

18 Q All right. Thank you. Now, did she tell you whether 19 or not she heard the explosion?

20 A: She said she heard the blast, yes.

21 Q Where was she at the time she heard the blast?

22 A: She said she was at home.

23 MR. BUNCH: May I approach the witness, Your
24 Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. BUNCH: I don't see a mark on this,
2 Paul. What is the number?

3 MR. BECKER: 386. It is in evidence. The 4 1 sticker was placed on the back rather than on the
5 note.

6 Q I am handing you what has been admitted into evidence
7 as Government's Exhibit 386. And you are the purported
8 author of that document, as I understand it.

9 A: Yes, I am.

10 Q Is this your signature on this document?

11 A: Yes, it is.

12 MR. BUNCH: May I have this marked as well?

13 Q I show you what has now been marked for purposes of 14 identification as Defendants' Exhibit 15, Miss Quiroz,
15 and ask you if that is not identical to Government's
16 Exhibit No. 386 with the exception your signature
17 appears on the bottom and it is a copy, is that right?

18 A: That's correct.

19 MR. BUNCH: I move the admission of 20 Defendants' Exhibit 15.

21 MR. BECKER: No objection.

22 THE COURT: Admitted.

23 (DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT NO. 15 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

24 Q Now referring to the exhibit that you have, if you
25 wish, that is why I left it with you. These are notes

1 that you purportedly made when?

2 A: When I was at CCA holding facility.

3 Q Were they made on one piece of paper or on more than 4 one piece of paper?

5 A: One piece of paper.

6 Q Do you have any other notes, in other words?

7 A: I believe I did.

8 Q Where are they?

9 A: I have them at home with all my property, I believe.

10 Q Where?

11 A: At 806 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Missouri.

12 Q Have you advised the United States Government you have

13 other notes that are pertinent to this?

14 A: Well, I asked my husband if he ever received them.

15 This is the one I was talking about I had and I didn't

16 know I had dropped it at CCA.

17 Q But you have a number of other notes that would be

18 pertinent to this case.

19 A: I have other notes, yes, but I asked my husband if he

20 found them and he said no.

21 Q Have you told the United States you had other notes and 22 you can't find them?

23 A: Yes, I did.

24 Q To whom did you make that revelation?

25 A: I told Mr. Dave True, the ATF agent.

1 Q When?

2 A: On the telephone I had a conversation with him.

3 Q When?

4 A: I don't know exactly what date.

5 Q Recently?

6 A: No.

7 Q About the time you were interviewed on the 25th of 8 September?

9 THE COURT: What year?

10 MR. BUNCH: 1996, 1995.

11 Q Do you know when?

12 A: What was the question again? I'm sorry.

13 Q I am trying to determine when it was you told Mr. True

14 about the notes that now are missing.

15 A: I told Dave True the first time I spoke to him on the 16 phone, I told him I was looking for this note here.

17 And I told him I thought I had other notes. My husband

18 went to look and there was no other notes. Then Dave

19 True sent this with the ATF agent. This is the note I

20 was talking about.

21 Q And where did you get that from, the one you are

22 holding in your hand?

23 A: I just got this from Paul Becker.

24 Q Well, I understand that but did you give it to somebody

25 yourself prior to that?

1

1 A I don't know if I dropped it. I don't know how it got
2 1 here.

3 Q Now, on this note that allegedly has something to do
4 with the case that we are here about, at the top of it,
5 the first line says "blew up the highway", correct?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q And D. then, Miss Edwards, advised you that she some 8 way or other participated in an event which a highway
9 was blown up.

10 A: She told me different things and I have wrote different
11 things every time she talked to me because, like I
12 said, I thought it would help me.

13 Q The question, Miss Quiroz, wasn't that. It is did she 14 tell you she participated in an event in which a
15 highway was blown up?

16 A: She told me that she took them to get the gas for the
17 explosion.

18 Q Well, I assume these notes were taken on or about,
19 contemporaneous with the conversations you had with 20 Miss Edwards.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q And then why is it you wrote down blew up the highway"?

23 A: She told me the highway was blew up.

24 Q That is what I was trying to ask you.

25 A: Yes.

1

1 Q Did she tell you she participated in an event in which
2 a highway was blown up?

3 1 A As I said, she told me different things every time.

4 Q The question is did she tell you she participated in an
5 event where a highway was blown up?

6 A: Yes, she did.

7 Q Did she also say they robbed a highway for machinery?

8 A: She told me they robbed a construction site for
9 machinery.

10 Q The second line of your note says they robbed a highway
11 for machinery, did Miss Edwards tell you that?

12 A: Yes, she did.

13 Q In this third line, "That is when they did the 14 robberies."

15 A: I'm sorry.

16 Q The third line says "That is when they did the 17 robberies", is that correct?

18 A: They set fire to construction.

19 Q I am trying to go down this line by line. Will you
20 read it?

21 A: "Set fire to draw distraction.

22 Q That's when they did the robberies, correct?

23 A: Yes.

24 Q Is this on the highway?

25 A: She told me that they had created a diversion to start

1 ~ this fire and it had gotten out of hand.

2 Q Well, prior to saying they set the fire it says they

3 1 "blew up the highway, they robbed the highway for

4 machinery." And then you go down, "they set a fire.

5 ~ That's when they did the robberies, when they set the

6 fire. The question then is did they set the fire on

7 the highway where they robbed the machinery?

8 A: They set the fire at the construction site.

9 Q Does that say that on there anywhere?

10 A: No, but she told me different, like I said, different

11 stories and it's in my head. These are just notes that

12 I wrote.

13 Q The question then with respect to what is in your head,

14 what does the highway have to do with a construction

15 site, blowing up the highway?

16 A: She told me the construction site was near the highway.

17 A construction site, they were building a highway or

18 something. I have never been there.

19 Q I understand that. And going on down through the notes

20 that you have, "that the firemen got killed. They made

21 the fire for a distraction.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q "The fire was accidental."

24 A: Yes, she told me the fire was an accident. It wasn't

25 supposed to get out of hand the way it did.

1 Q "And then she took them to" and there is a blank after
2 that, do you recall what that may have had reference
3 to?

4 A: She just kept saying she took them to the construction
5 site. These are just notes I took.

6 Q My question, Miss Quiroz, I am not trying to confuse
7 you. I am presently looking at these notes and asking
8 you questions. When it says she took them to and 9 blank, I simply am asking what does that refer to?

10 A: I guess she took them to get the gas. I guess that's 11 what it means.

12 Q Then the next line says, "Darlene said the walkie
13 talkies set off the transmitters."

14 A: Darlene told me that when the fire trucks pulled in 15 they must have talked on the walkie-talkies and set off
16 the explosion. That's what she told me.

17 Q She told you that the transmitters that were used
18 triggered something that set off the explosion.

19 A: That's right.

20 Q Then we have some names and so forth down here.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry but did you finish your
22 answer?

23 THE WITNESS: No, I will finish it now.

24 Q Go ahead.

25 MR. BUNCH: I didn't mean to cut her off,

1 ~ Judge.

2 A: The rest at the bottom does not pertain to her case.

3 Q That is what I was about to ask. There are names and
4 so on and you are not saying people's names who appear
5 there were involved in any way.

6 A: That has nothing to do with this, no.

7 Q What we have here, if you will count with me is one,
8 two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine lines,
9 adding the word transmitters of notes, is that correct,
10 Miss Quiroz?

11 A: I see ten.

12 Q All right, ten, but you had how many other pages of 13 notes that cannot now be located?

14 A: I don't know. I can't remember.

15 Q Do you know when these notes were made, this particular
16 sheet?

17 A: No, I don't.

18 THE COURT: By that you mean 386 or 15?

19 A: This note was made during the time of February of 1995
20 until maybe August of 1995. Between there is when I
21 was at CCA. I don't know the exact date, no.

22 Q Now, then you have on the government's exhibit that you
23 have in your hand, you have not signed that exhibit.

24 A: No, I didn't.

25 Q But you have signed Defendants' Exhibit 15.

- 1 ~ A Right.
- 2 Q Now, did Miss Edwards advise you that she had 3 participated in stealing equipment from the
4 construction site?
- 5 A: Yes.
- 6 Q And did she tell you what equipment had been stolen?
- 7 A: She said they stole machinery and different tools from 8 the construction site before and she sold it in trade
9 for crackcocaine.
- 10 Q And what kind of equipment was it that was stolen?
- 11 A: She didn't tell me what it was. She said tools and 12 machinery. I don't know.
- 13 Q You don't know what kind of tools or what kind of 14 machinery.
- 15 A: I am not going to sit there and ask her that, no.
- 16 Q Did she tell you how many times she had participated in 17 thefts from this site?
- 18 A: She said they had been up to the construction site.
19 How many times, I don't know.
- 20 Q Did you take it on the various conversations you had 21 with her that it was more than once?
- 22 A: Yes.
- 23 Q Did you take it based on the number of conversations
24 you had with her it was a substantial amount of 25 equipment and tools that were stolen?

1

1 A I don't know how much. She said she took it and traded
2 1 it for crackcocaine. I don't know.

3 1 Q And do you know to whom it was sold or traded?

4 A No, I don't.

5 Q And do you know for how much?

6 A No.

7 Q Value. A: No.

8 Q Now, has there been previous occasions, or a previous
9 occasion, Miss Quiroz, where you have been a
10 cooperating witness with the government seeking 11 leniency other than this case?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Can you tell us about that.

14 A My own case.

15 Q And what did you do?

16 A I told the government how I was involved in the drug
17 trade and how I started from the very beginning and the 18 people I was involved with and also the ones that got 19 caught, I gave the government their names.

20 Q By giving their names, then you agreed to appear and 21 testify against them, if necessary.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q How many people?

24 A: I believe it was two.

25 Q And what relief did you obtain as a result of that

1 effort?

2 A: I did get a sentence reduction, not very much.

3 MR. BUNCH: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. Are we skipping to
5 Mr. O'Connor?

6 MR. O'CONNOR: Yes, I think so, Judge.

7 CROSS EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

9 Q Is it Miss Quiroz?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Miss Quiroz, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
12 Sheppard. You and I have met before, is that right?

13 A: That's right.

14 Q I believe you have testified under direct examination
15 that no promises have been made to you, is that what 16 you said?

17 A: Yes, no promises have been made. My attorney said he
18 would file a Rule 35. Mr. Becker said he would look at 19 it but he could not give me any promises whatsoever.

20 Q Did you tell any authorities back at the time that you
21 gave your initial interview on September the 25th, 1996
22 that you wanted something for your cooperation?

23 A: Yes, I did.

24 Q What did you tell them you wanted?

25 A: I told them I wanted a sentence reduction.

1 Q Didn't they tell you at that time they would look into
2 that for you?

3 A: No, an ATF agent came and he interviewed me and he told
4 me he didn't have anything to do with it. The ATF
5 agent had sent them down there to question me. At that
6 time he told me he had nothing to offer. And to this
7 time they still haven't offered me anything.

8 Q Now I came to see you, did I not, on January the 11th
9 around 7:00 P.M., Saturday, at the Cass County Jail, is
10 that right?

11 A: Yes.

12 Q And did I identify myself to you, who I represented?

13 A: Yes, you did.

14 Q Did I tell you I wanted to ask you certain questions
15 what you had already discussed with the federal agents
16 in this case?

17 A: Yes.

18 Q Did you then refuse to answer any questions?

19 A: Yes, I did.

20 Q Did you tell me that you would answer questions for me
21 if you had a chance to talk to your lawyer?

22 A: Yes, I did.

23 Q And did we make arrangements while I stood there, we
24 got your lawyer on the line and I called him long
25 distance, Richard McFadden, and you talked to him

1 there, is that correct?

2 A: Yes.

3 ~ Q And Mr. McFadden told you it was okay to talk to me,
4 didn't he?

5 A: Yes, that's correct.

6 Q And I asked can I talk to you and you refused.

7 A: That's right. I didn't like the decision.

8 Q You have freely talked to the government in this case.

9 A: Yes, I did.

10 Q Freely talked to the agents.

11 A: Yes.

12 Q Now, when you were on the phone with Mr. McFadden we 13 were right there together, weren't we?

14 A: Right.

15 MR. BECKER: Can we approach.

16 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

17 MR. BECKER: The problem with Mr. O'Connor's
18 method of personal contact is that he is now a witness.
19 He is saying this whole line of questions, I was there
20 and I did this, I was there and I did that. An 21 attorney in a case should not put himself in a position
22 where he is the witness. This line of questioning, I
23 thought a couple of questions and he would be done with 24 it but now it continues to revolve around what counsel
25 did.

1 THE COURT: Where are you going?

2 MR. O'CONNOR: I have an independent witness.
3 I have the jailers who were there heard the 4 conversation, the court reporter who heard this
5 conversation so I am not a witness.

6 THE COURT: Where are you going? The way the 7 questions are phrased, you were there and you talked
8 to Mr. McFadden, she talked to Mr. McFadden. She 9 decided she still didn't want to talk to you. Where 10 are we going with this. You have gotten all that.

11 MR. O'CONNOR: She said to McFadden "They
12 haven't kept their 'f'ing promises. I am not 'f'ing
13 helping them. They have put me in this 'f'ing hole.
14 No-one has talked to me.

15 Then two days later I think you will be
16 able to see from cross examination they moved her
17 to another jail and made it a little nicer. And I
18 think they're grounds for cross examination. She 19 thinks there are promises. She is saying they 20 didn't keep their 'f'ing promises. The real
21 reason -

22 THE COURT: She didn't like you.

23 MR. O'CONNOR: No, she liked me. Do you want
24 to read the transcript? She didn't want to screw up
25 her deal. She wanted to get her deal. If she talked

1 ~ to me she figured she wouldn't get her deal. That's 2 reasonable.

3 MR. BECKER: That's argument. Mr. O'Connor
4 can argue that to the jury at the end if that is what
5 he wants to argue. There is no evidence here of that.

6 THE COURT: You can ask her, if you want to
7 get into that foul language.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I am going to say "f"ing.

9 THE COURT: Now wait a minute.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: An expletive statement.

11 THE COURT: I don't care about that. The 12 main thing is here you not get into argument with her
13 about didn't you say such and such or wasn't it.

14 MR. O'CONNOR: I will say, did you say.

15 THE COURT: Wait a minute. After she says
16 yes or not, that's it. You are bound by this answer.

17 MR. BECKER: The line of questioning is
18 impugning a witness for asserting a right. The witness
19 has a right not to speak to Mr. O'Connor.

20 THE COURT: That's true.

21 MR. O'CONNOR: Her reason she didn't want to 22 speak to me, she wanted her lawyer. Then she got the 23 lawyer. I think the jury is entitled to hear that.

24 THE COURT: We have been through that.

25 MR. O'CONNOR: I am onto something else. I

1 ~ am past that.

2 1 MR. BECKER: No, he is not. I let him go

3 1 because we have had this conversation before.

"Did

4 1 you refuse to speak to me?" "Yes, I did." "After

5 speaking with your attorney did you refuse?" She said,

6 "I didn't like his decision.

7 THE COURT: Why don't we just go on.

8 MR. O'CONNOR: I am.

9 THE COURT: What is next?

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Did you say in my presence

11 that they hadn't kept their promises, the government.

12 THE COURT: I think he is entitled to ask

13 that.

14 MR. BECKER: That's fine.

15 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

16 Q Miss Quiroz, when I was there I had a court reporter

17 with me, didn't I?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q A lady like this.

20 A: Yes, you did.

21 Q When you were on the phone did you say these words,

22 that the government had not kept their "f"ing promises

23 to you or words to that effect?

24 A: I said they had not kept their promises, yes, I did.

25 Q What were their promises?

1 A: Well, I am talking when I was indicted, when the
2 government told me I would get a drastic sentence
3 reduction, I did not get it. I didn't appreciate it.
4 The government drug me down here again -- still didn't
5 get no promises -- and put me in the Clay County Jail
6 with no clothes.

7 Q Cass County.

8 A: Cass County with no clothes, no food. I have been
9 drug, I have been treated like a criminal on this case
10 that I didn't even commit. I didn't have any clothing,
11 no food. Been in the snow with no coat. I am not even 12 getting a reduction. I am doing this because I think 13 it's the right thing to do. Since I am here I may as 14 well do it.

15 Q They moved you to a nicer jail, didn't they?

16 A: Yes, they did.

17 Q I think you said on direct examination that you had a
18 conviction for -- tell me again. I'm sorry.

19 A: Cocaine.

20 Q Any other felony convictions?

21 A: Purchased food stamps unlawfully, also.

22 Q So you have two felony convictions.

23 A: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Were those in the same indictment
25 or charge or at different times?

1 THE WITNESS: The same indictment.

2 Q Let me show you Defendants' Exhibit 15. It is in
3 evidence. That's the notes you say you wrote.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And did I also show you those particulate notes and ask
6 you if those were your notes and you refused to even 7 answer that question.

8 A: That's right.

9 Q Now, a cell mate of yours back at the time was 10 Bridgette Dornhoffer.

11 A: No.

12 Q Bridgette Dornhoffer wasn't in jail.

13 A: She wasn't my cell mate, no.

14 Q Was she in jail with you?

15 A: Yes.

16 Q And you and Bridgette and Darlene were all together.

17 MR. BECKER: Objection. Beyond the scope of
18 direct examination.

19 MR. O'CONNOR: We may have to bring her back
20 after Bridgette.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I am confronted
22 whether it is beyond the scope of direct, and it is.

23 Q You know Bridgette Dornhoffer.

24 A: Yes, I do.

25 Q And have you been up in the Clay County jail now with

1 Bridgette Dornhoffer before you came here to testify?

2 A: Yes.

3 Q And, in fact, you both have the same lawyer right now.

4 A: Yes.

5 Q And you have been on the phone this week to lawyers
6 trying to get a deal for your testimony, you and
7 Bridgette, is that true?

8 A: That's true.

9 Q Did Darlene Edwards ever say they went to an Amoco to 10 get gas?

11 A: No.

12 Q Did she ever say she went to several Amoco gas stations
13 or several gas stations to get gas?

14 A: No.

15 Q Did she ever say that Black Sabbath was with them that 16 night?

17 A: No.

18 Q Did you say earlier that Darlene Edwards said she 19 dropped some people off at the site and then she went 20 home, did I misunderstand?

21 A: She said she dropped them off at the site. She told me
22 she went home. She heard the explosion. I don't know.

23 Q So according to that Darlene wasn't even there when the 24 explosion happened.

25 A: She said she dropped them off at the construction site

1 after they got gas. I don't know.

2 Q Whatever you learned about what happened at the
3 explosion site was then hearsay.

4 MR. BECKER: Objection. That is an
5 admission, not hearsay.

6 MR. O'CONNOR: It is hearsay.

7 THE COURT: The objection is sustained. A.
8 She isn't the person to assess whether it is hearsay
9 and, B. I think you are misconstruing or misstating
10 her testimony.

11 Q You said when you were making these notes on 12 Defendants' Exhibit 15 you were making them in order to 13 get a plea agreement.

14 A: Yes, when I first went to CCA, you think prison is 15 going to be really bad and everything, like you see on 16 television. And I thought I would use this in case it
17 did me any good. Now I am in prison I don't mind doing
18 the time. I am getting out in time, whether or not I
19 get the reduction; as he said he couldn't promise me.
20 I am going to get zilch out of this. I am doing this 21 for nothing.

22 Q He is going to call somebody for you, is that what he
23 said?

24 A: Who?

25 Q Mr. Becker, didn't he say he would call someone about

1 this program?

2 A: But I already have that coming. I was supposed to be
3 in the drug program January the 22nd. Because I am
4 here I missed out on my drug program, missed out on my
5 year off and I missed my six months at the halfway
6 house. I could be completing the program instead of 7 being here.

8 Q Now, this information was told you, as I understand it,
9 in April or March of 1995. In other words, Darlene was 10 incarcerated with you and that's when she told you
11 these things.

12 A: She told us during the time I was incarcerated, yes.

13 Q Do you agree that's between April and March of '95?

14 THE COURT: Between April or March.

15 Q Was it around April or March of '95? I apologize.

16 A: March or April.

17 THE COURT: Until when?

18 MR. O'CONNOR: Let me start over.

19 Q You talked to the agents.

20 A: Yes.

21 Q You talked to the agents on September 25th, 1996.

22 A: Yes, I did.

23 Q They asked you to relate conversations you had with 24 Darlene at the prison.

25 A: Right.

1 Q Did you tell them that the conversations happened some
2 time in March or April of '95?

3 A: I said these conversations were during the time that I
4 was incarcerated. Darlene Edwards came I believe 30
5 days after me. I don't know the exact date. And from 6 the time I was incarcerated, from the time she was 7 incarcerated, I guess from March to -- she got there in
8 March. I don't know how many days. She came soon
9 after me, until the time I left, yes, which was August
10 of '95.

11 Q And had she made statements to you up until you left,
12 like August the 1st, in that period?

13 A: I have seen Darlene interviewed.

14 Q The question is did she make statements to you
15 regarding her involvement in this in August of '95?

16 A: All the way up to the time I left.

17 Q And you left when, do you know?

18 A: No, I don't.

19 Q Did you have a motion for downward departure to get
20 your sentence down on August 24th, 1995?

21 A: Yes, I did.

22 Q And so what happened on that?

23 A: I guess Mr. Meiners didn't file it in time.

24 Q You didn't get a downward departure.

25 A: No, I didn't.

- 1 Q And March, April, May, June, July, August of '95 you
2 never came forward with this information to anyone, did
3 you, about Darlene Edwards?
- 4 A: Yes, I did. I called the Unsolved Mysteries.
- 5 Q When was that?
- 6 A: Whenever they had it aired on television. I don't know
7 the exact date.
- 8 Q Give them your name?
- 9 A: Yes, I did.
- 10 Q What else did you give them?
- 11 A: I gave them my name and told them I knew a little bit
12 about it. And I don't know how the FBI but this FBI
13 number, we got a message from the FBI telling us to 14 call them back. At that time I didn't feel I should 15 tattle on her so I just didn't do it.
- 16 Q So when you called in the summer of '95 did you just 17 tell them that Darlene Edwards took some men to a gas
18 station and dropped them off and went home.
- 19 A: No.
- 20 Q Now, this note that you say is your note.
- 21 A: Yes, it is.
- 22 Q Defendants' Exhibit 15 that you say is your writing and 23 your notes.
- 24 A: It's the same thing, yes, it is.
- 25 Q Did anyone ever ask you to give handwriting exemplars

1 so they could be checked to see if that was your
2 handwriting.

3 A: No, but I am willing to do it.

4 Q Did Miss Edwards tell you that a radio transmitter was
5 stolen from the site?

6 A: Radio transmitter?

7 Q Of some kind.

8 A: No.

9 Q Remember talking to this special agent Jeffrey Ribaski?

10 A: She said something about some walkie-talkies but I
11 don't know the story. Can't remember.

12 Q So you didn't tell him that a radio transmitter was one
13 of the items that was stolen from the construction
14 site.

15 A: I told him something about the walkie-talkies . If he
16 put radio transmitter, I don't know.

17 Q You told him or he told you about the walkie talkies.

18 A: I told him.

19 Q That walkie-talkies were stolen from the site.

20 A: I told him she had mentioned something about the walkie
21 talkies. I don ~ t know.

22 Q Was it your understanding the walkie talkies had been
23 stolen from the site?

24 A: I can't remember.

25 Q So my question again is did you tell him a radio

1 transmitter was one of the items that was stolen from
2 the construction site?

3 MR. BECKER: Objection. Repetitious.

4 THE COURT: I think it has been asked and
5 answered. I don't believe you need to go on the radio
6 transmitter any more.

7 MR. O'CONNOR: I was just trying to set it up
8 for rebuttal, Judge.

9 THE COURT: I think you have got it set.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you.

11 Q Now when they came up to see you to get this interview
12 of you on September 25, 1996, did they bring a tape
13 recording machine so we could hear everything they were 14 saying to you and you were saying to them.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q Did they have a lady like this or a gentleman that was 17 taking down what you said?

18 A: No.

19 Q Did they ever have you raise your right hand and swear
20 to this affidavit, what you told them?

21 A: No.

22 Q Did she say anything about at the site they stole power
23 tools, materials, cement?

24 A: No.

25 Q Did she tell you they stole an acetylene torch?

1 A: No.

2 Q Or welding equipment.

3 A: No.

4 Q Did she refer to the items that they got things from as 5 a shed?

6 A: No.

7 Q Were you ever told you may lose your good time if you
8 didn't testify here today?

9 A: No.

10 MR. O'CONNOR: Thank you very much. I have 11 no further questions.

12 THE COURT: Any other?

13 MR. OSGOOD: I have a question or two.

14 CROSS EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. OSGOOD:

16 Q Ma'am, did I understand you to testify in response to 17 Mr. O'Connor's questions, that Mr. Meiners did not 18 follow through for you on your motion for downward
19 departure?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q So he basically made a deal with you and then backed
22 out on it and double-crossed you.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Osgood.

24 Q That is your testimony.

25 THE COURT: I am not going to allow that in

1 this courtroom. I think that is really bad.

2 MR. OSGOOD: I will show you where I am going
3 in a minute. It is not to impugn the integrity of Mr.
4 Meiners, an honorable man.

5 I will ask another question.

6 Q Is that your view of it?

7 A: Yes.

8 Q Did he, in fact, file a motion for downward departure?

9 A: No, he didn't.

10 MR. OSGOOD: Could we have this marked,
11 please. It is a public document. I would like to read
12 the highlighted portion to the jury. I have drawn a
13 yellow marker.

14 THE COURT: Would you come up a minute.

15 (Proceedings out of the hearing of the jury.)

16 MR. BECKER: You can offer the whole
17 thing.

18 MR. OSGOOD: I would like to offer the 19 document and read it to the jury.

20 MR. BECKER: They can pass it. We have so
21 many bench conferences.

22 MR. OSGOOD: I would like to read it or 23 throw it up on the machine and let the jury see it in 24 connection with the statement she just made.

25 THE COURT: August of '95.

1 MR. OSGOOD: Prior to her coming back to the
2 well one more time in September with all of this
3 testimony after she did this and she has impugned the 4 integrity of Mr. Meiners. Mr. Meiners filed it and put
5 it in front of the court. And the court obviously read
6 that and exercised his discretion and wouldn't give 7 her one.

8 MR. BECKER: I am not sure if it was granted
9 or not. I would have to look.

10 THE COURT: I think it probably was because
11 she got five years.

12 MR. OSGOOD: He gave her some credit.

13 MR. BECKER: On a prior drug conviction, I
14 think she got some credit for it, not as much as she 15 wanted.

16 THE COURT: This is so collateral. If you
17 want to read this, you may.

18 MR. OSGOOD: I will read it briefly.

19 THE COURT: Just read it.

20 MR. OSGOOD: The whole document?

21 THE COURT: The whole ball of wax.

22 (Proceedings in the hearing of the jury.)

23 MR. OSGOOD: I will offer Defendants' 16.

24 THE COURT: Pursuant to our discussion, it
25 will be admitted for the limited purpose.

1 (DEFENDANTS' EXHIBIT NO. 16 WAS RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

2 MR. OSGOOD: "Comes now the United States of
3 America versus Rosemary Quiroz". And it is file
4 stamped August 24, 1995. And it is the government's
5 motion for downward departure.

6 "Comes now the United States of America,
7 through its United States Attorney, Stephen L.
8 Hill, Jr. and through its Assistant United States
9 Attorney, William L. Meiners, both for the Western
10 District of Missouri, and hereby files this motion
11 pursuant to the United States Sentencing
12 Guidelines, Section 5K1.1 and Title 18 U. S. Code, 13 Section 3553(e) permitting the court, in the 14 exercise of its discretion, to depart downward
15 from the sentencing guidelines and the statutory 16 mandatory minimum sentence.

17 In support of this motion the United
18 States represents the following:

19 On October 31, 1994 the federal grand
20 jury sitting in Kansas City, Missouri returned an 21 indictment charging the defendant with conspiracy
22 to possess with intent to distribute cocaine, in 23 violation of Title 21 United States Code, Section
24 846.

25 Thereafter, on February 10, 1995 the

1 defendant entered a plea of guilty to this charge.
2 As part of the plea agreement the government
3 indicated a motion for downward departure would be
4 filed at the appropriate time.

5 The government is filing this motion at 6 this time because the defendant has rendered
7 'substantial assistance' as that term is defined
8 in the sentencing guidelines.

9 The defendant has assisted the
10 government by meeting with Special Agent James 11 Cheatham of the United States Customs Service on 12 several occasions to give proffers concerning her
13 drug trafficking activity.

14 Additionally, she has testified for the 15 United States in separate proceedings against 16 Christina Hernandez, Joe Brown and Juan Villages.

17 Moreover, her cooperation was instrumental in 18 obtaining an indictment and conviction of Pedro Vlloa.

19 Subsequent to the completion of her
20 cooperation, however, the defendant became re
21 involved in drug trafficking. This resulted in 22 the initiation of a lengthy and costly federal 23 investigation which culminated in the indictment
24 of the defendant for food stamp violations and 25 drug trafficking offenses.

1 Mrs. Quiroz's usefulness as an informant
2 was severely compromised by this activity as well
3 as by her subsequent cocaine use which caused her
4 current incarceration.

5 Wherefore, the United States
6 respectfully moves this court pursuant to Title 18
7 United StatesCode, Section 3553(e) and Sentencing
8 Guidelines Section 5K1.1 to exercise its
9 discretionand depart downward from the sentencing
10 guidelines and the mandatory minimum sentence."
11 And it bears the signature of William Meiners.

12 One last question, Your Honor.

13 Q Mr. Meiners did, in fact, file a sentencing motion for 14 reduction, didn't he, ma'am?

15 A: If he did, I didn't see it.

16 MR. OSGOOD: I see. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

18 MR. BECKER: Two questions.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. BECKER:

21 Q Mrs. Quiroz, you have taken a look at both of these, is 22 that right, the photocopy and then the original.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q And your signature is at the bottom of the photocopy,
25 is that right?

1 A: That's correct.

2 Q What is the date next to the signature?

3 A: September the 25th, '96.

4 Q Is that the date that ATF agent in Texas brought the 5 photocopy to you for you to look at?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Then also when Mr. O'Connor came up to speak to you at 8 the various jails, did he tell you he was representing
9 Bryan Sheppard?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q Do you know anything about Bryan Sheppard?

12 A: No.

13 Q Mr. Osgood, who was just asking you questions, he 14 represents Richard Brown, do you know anything about
15 Richard Brown?

16 A: No.

17 MR. BECKER: I don't have any further
18 questions, Judge.

19 MR. BUNCH: Nothing further.

20 THE COURT: Okay, we will take a 15 minute
21 break. Ladies and gentlemen, please be back in the 22 jury room at five minutes of eleven. Don't talk about 23 the case. You are excused.

25 (Proceedings in the courtroom out of the presence of

1 the jury.)

2 MR. BECKER: We are going to take Lucia
3 Chenier next. She found the note at CCA. She will be 4 five minutes hopefully. But after that if we took
5 Dornhoffer, we wouldn't get to the other three
6 witnesses. They're construction people.

7 MR. BUNCH: I want to just tell the Judge
8 inquiry has been made by Mr. Dave Phillips who is a
9 federal public defender in the District of Kansas who 10 represents Miss Dornhoffer who said they would have to 11 respect her desires and that's Miss Dornhoffer's. So 12 if she is against unsealing the records, they would 13 also
14 be, which is a proper thing for a defense lawyer to do.
15 I just wanted the court to know that.

16 THE COURT: Have you talked to her?

17 MR. BECKER: No, she won't talk.

18 MR. BUNCH: No, and she wouldn't agree to 19 that without any question but I wanted you to know,
20 Judge, I think the issue is overwith.

21 MR. PETERS: The other thing, we had said
22 something about coming up with an instruction after 23 Quiroz has testified and we will work on that after 24 the break.

25 RECESS

1 (Proceedings out of the presence of the jury.)

2 THE COURT: Mr. Peters.

3 MR. PETERS: First, I again move for a
4 mistrial based on Mr. Becker's final questions before
5 this witness where he pointedly brought out that you
6 don't know anything about Richard Brown and you don't
7 know anything about Bryan Sheppard, drawing attention
8 to Frank Sheppard and Skip Sheppard. And I will have
9 something prepared in writing for the court by Monday.
10 But again that is the government directly bringing to 11 the jury's attention Skip Sheppard and Frank Sheppard
12 which is a violation of the rules of Bruton and its 13 progeny. But again I am making my record and I will 14 prepare something in writing.

15 THE COURT: All right, anything else?

16 MR. PETERS: The other thing, we have 17 mentioned we would like an instruction given to the 18 jury since she mentioned Frank and Skip.

19 First of all, I think Susan needs to 20 join in my objection and motion.

21 MS. HUNT: On behalf of Skip Sheppard, we as]
22 for a mistrial and renew our severance motion.

23 MR. PETERS: Then I apologize to the Court.
24 I don't have the Pattern instructions with me. But 25 I have handed to the court a handwritten proposed

1 else.

2 TuE COURT: It is admissible hearsay. It is
3 an admission of this defendant.

4 MR. PETERS: It is not an admission of this
5 defendant.

6 THE COURT: If she told she took part in any
7 enterprise in which it was stolen, it is an admission
8 against that defendant.

9 MR. PETERS: Judge, these defendants, as the 10 government has repeatedly pointed out, are not charged
11 with conspiracy. A statement made to Darlene Edwards
12 by someone else and related through another witness by 13 Darlene Edwards is hearsay.

14 If the statement was made by anybody
15 else, whether it is a defendant or another person
16 in a case in which the government has not alleged 17 conspiracy, it is a hearsay statement.

18 TRE COURT: I understand your position on 19 that. Do you have something, Miss Hunt?

20 MS. HUNT: Just to join in the motion.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Becker.

22 MR. BECKER: Judge, I think the court is well
23 aware of the federal laws, we don't have to charge
24 conspiracy for that law of evidence to apply, and I
25 don't have any problem with the court repeating its

1 instruction that it did earlier in the case.

2 THE COURT: I am going to repeat Instruction
3 2.15 simply because it is ripe at this time,
4 considering the Quiroz testimony.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: I would like to make just a
6 short record relating to this.

7 I know everybody is trying to do the
8 right thing and the witness probably said
9 something Mr. Becker didn't anticipate but it has 10 happened at least three times that I am aware of.
11 I am just asking we take extreme caution with 12 these witnesses when Mr. Becker talks about 13 staying away from things that are not asked.
14  Because every time it happens it adds to the 15 problem. I am not blaming him. I don't think
16 it's his fault. But it is happening more than I
17 think it should and there are a lot more witnesses
18 coming.

19 THE COURT: Well, it is a function of the 20 artificiality of the rule and I have already expressed
21 myself and how much I dislike having to try to change
22 history to make it fit with what this rule dictates.
23 And we will do what we can but I am not going to tamper
24 with this evidence just because there is a rule out
25 there called Bruton.

1 MR. PETERS: Along those lines, I agree
2 completely with what the Court is saying and that
3 is why again I would ask for a severance because there
4 are some instances where, as the Court is saying, what
5 you are trying to do is change history. And in those
6 instances where history can't be changed -- and I
7 believe this is one of these cases -- the remedy is a
8 severance.

9 THE COURT: You have been through that with 10 Judge Bartlett and I am not going to change that.

11 Okay, let's go. Get the jury.

12 If there were motions and objections and
13 all of that, they are overruled.

14 (The jury enters the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: Have a seat, ladies and
16 gentlemen.

17 In an abundance of caution, I am going
18 to repeat to you an instruction that I read to you
19 earlier and I suppose it is possible I may be 20 caused to read it to you again. But this pertains
21 to testimony of Miss Quiroz. And I say to you
22 that you may consider the statement, or 23 statements, of defendant Darlene Edwards only in 24 the case against her and not in the case against
25 any of the other defendants.

1 What that means is that you may consider
2 the defendant Darlene Edwards' statement in the 3 case against her and for that purpose rely on it
4 as much or as little as you think proper. But you
5 may not consider or discuss that statement in any
6 way when you are deciding if the government has
7 proved beyond a reasonable doubt its case against
8 any of the other defendants.

9 All right, you may proceed.

10 MR. BECKER: Thank you, Judge. The United 11 States calls Lucy Chenier.

12 LUCIA CHENIER,

13 having been sworn, testified:

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. BECKER:

16 Q Good morning. Please state your name and spell your
17 last name.

18 A: Lucia Chenier, C-h-e-n-i-e-r.

19 Q How do you spell your first name?

20 A: L-u-c-i-a.

21 Q How are you employed?

22 A: Through CCA.

23 Q What is CCA?

24 A: Corrections Corporation of America.

25 Q How long have you been working there?

- 1 ~ A Two and a half years.
- 2 1 Q Briefly what are your duties at the Corrections
- 3 1 Corporation of America?
- 4 1 A Briefly custodian control.
- 5 Q Of prisoners.
- 6 A Of inmates.
- 7 1 Q Where is that located?
- 8 A Leavenworth.
- 9 Q Kansas. A Yes.
- 10 Q Were you working there on April 29, 1995?
- 11 A: Yes, sir.
- 12 Q Do you recall being in the -- is there like a dining
- 13 area, a common dining area?
- 14 A: It's an open pod; it's open.
- 15 Q Do you recall being there in the morning hours when an
- 16 inmate gave you a yellow note?
- 17 A: Yes.
- 18 Q I will show you what is in evidence as Government's
- 19 Exhibit 386 and ask if you recognize it. Do you
- 20 recognize that?
- 21 A: Yes, sir.
- 22 Q Is that the note that you were given on April 29th,
- 23 1995?
- 24 A: Yes, sir.
- 25 Q Prior to that note being given to you, did you see how

1 the inmate -- what was the inmate's name that gave it
2 to you?

3 A: Quiroz.

4 Q It was Quiroz' note but did inmate Holveck give it to
5 you?

6 A: Yes.

7 Q Did you see how inmate Holveck got that note?

8 A: Yes, I came in the unit to collect the trays from 9 breakfast and she had been bent underneath the back
10 table in the very back and picked up the yellow paper.

11 Q "She" being inmate Holveck.

12 A: Yes.

13 Q Who had been sitting at that table.

14 A: There were four inmates. I remember two of them which 15 was inmate Marino and inmate Quiroz.

16 Q What did Holveck do with the note after you observed
17 her pick it up?

18 A: They kind of stood to the side, her and inmate Holveck
19 and they were reading it. I didn't pay any attention.
20 I was picking up the trays. Before they left the pod
21 they both came up to me.

22 Q And gave you the note.

23 A: Yes.

24 Q What did you do with the note?

25 A: I kind of glanced through it and I turned it into the

1 captain on the shift.

2 Q As far as you know, it has been kept by the captain
3 until it was turned over to the Department of Justice

4 A: Yes, sir.

5 MR. BECKER: Thank you. I have no further
6 questions.

7 MR. BUNCH: No questions.

8 MR. OSGOOD: No questions.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am. You are
10 excused.

11 THE COURT: All right, call your next
12 witness.

13 MR. MILLER: The government calls Kenneth
14 Richard Brown.

15 KENNETH RICHARD BROWN.

16 having been duly sworn, testified:

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. MILLER:

19 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

20 A: Kenneth Richard Brown.

21 Q You go by Rick Brown.

22 A: Yes.

23 Q And how are you employed?

24 A: I am currently the president of L. B. Enterprises.

25 Q And back in November of 1988 how were you employed?

1 A: I was the vice president of Brown Brothers Excavating.

2 Q And what project was Brown Brothers working on back in
3 November of '88?

4 A: The 71 highway project.

5 Q Where was that?

6 A: Kansas City, Missouri.

7 Q And is that 71 highway and 87th right in there?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q And what was Brown Brothers to do at that site?

10 A: We were constructing one of the phases of the new big 11 town freeway and the 87th street highway relocation.

12 Q What kind of equipment did Brown Brothers Excavation
13 use?

14 A: A bulldozer, scrapers, motor grinders, high-
loaders,
15 mainly Caterpillar equipment.

16 Q Basically heavier moving equipment.

17 A: Yes.

18 Q And then were there any kind of batteries you used at 19 that work site?

20 A: All the equipment had batteries in there.

21 Q Would you describe the different kinds of batteries,
22 did you have a large battery?

23 A: Some of the batteries are called ED batteries. They're
24 very large batteries. They're probably two and a half
25 feet long, a foot and a half wide; eight, nine inches

- 1 in depth. They're a big heavy battery.
- 2 Q There is a battery called a 4D.
- 3 A: A 4D battery that is like twice the size of a car
- 4 battery, give or take.
- 5 Q When a battery was drained, would you discard it at the
- 6 work site?
- 7 A: Yes.
- 8 Q Did you keep any accurate account on any discarded
- 9 batteries?
- 10 A: No.
- 11 Q Did you have any walkie-talkies on the job site?
- 12 A: No, we didn't.
- 13 Q Was a bobcat utilized?
- 14 A: Yes, it was.
- 15 Q Would you briefly tell the jury what a bobcat is.
- 16 A: A bobcat is like a little miniature high-loader. You
- 17 have probably all seen them out and about. They're
- 18 four wheels and they have a little bucket in front of
- 19 them.
- 20 Q Briefly tell what you mean by a bucket in front of
- 21 them? Let me help you. Is that what scoops up the
- 22 earth?
- 23 A: That is what scoops up the earth.
- 24 Q And a bobcat can change the buckets depending on what
- 25 it is needed for, right?

1 A: Yes.

2 THE COURT: It is kind of like a caterpillar,
3 isn't it?

4 THE WITNESS: It is a baby caterpillar.

5 Q And where was the bobcat kept?

6 A: As I remember, most of the time it was probably stored
7 on the west side of the road after working hours.

8 Q Now, when you say "west side", are you talking about 71
9 highway?

10 A: Yes.

11 Q So now on the west side of 71 highway is where Brown
12 Brothers Construction would keep their heavy earth
13 moving equipment.

14 A: Correct.

15 Q Were there any concrete saws utilized at the work site
16 by your company?

17 A: I don't think so. There could have been for a minor
18 reason but I can't remember one being used.

19 Q Would that have been left at the work site or would the 20 concrete crew have them?

21 MR. O'CONNOR: I object. He said there were 22 no concrete saws. And the next question, where were 23 the concrete saws?

24 MR. MILLER: I said "if".

25 THE COURT: Why don't you phrase your

1 question in terms of equipment relating to concrete and
2 then I think we can answer it without speculating.

3 Q Did you have a concrete crew?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Do you remember what they would do with their
6 equipment?

7 A: They should have kept it with them at the end of the
8 day.

9 Q So if they went home, the equipment went with them.

10 A: That's what should have taken place.

11 Q What kind of fluid; by that I mean petroleum product,
12 and so forth, were kept at the work site?

13 A: We had diesel fuel, anti-freeze, various types of oils,
14 cleaning solvents.

15 Q You said diesel, this is already in evidence. I am
16 referring to Government's Exhibit 76. Is this your 17 tanker trailer?

18 A: That's one of our diesel storage tank trailers.

19 Q Do you remember how many you had at the site back in
20 November of '88?

21 A: Just the one, I believe.

22 Q Now, do you recall what side of the highway it was kept
23 on?

24 A: It was on the east side of the highway.

25 Q Was any gasoline kept at the work site?

1 A: There could be some gasoline stored in small containers
2 that the mechanics and possibly the fuel they would
3 have on their trucks.

4 Q Was any left at the work site at the end of the day?

5 A: From time to time there could be but not typically.
6 Typically they're kept with the mechanics or on the 7 fuel truck.

8 Q Were any transits at the work site?

9 A: Yes.

10 Q Would you briefly tell the jury what a transit looks
11 like.

12 A: A transit is a small device that sits up on a tripod
13 and you have control where you can sit it to shoot a 14 level eye distance for measuring the height and 15 elevations.

16 Q Now was Brown Brothers licensed to do business in 17 Missouri?

18 A: Yes.

19 Q Did you ever bring equipment from other states?

20 A: We had work in Kansas and we would go back and forth
21 between the two states with the equipment.

22 Q I want to ask you now about bulldozers. You kept
23 bulldozers there at the work site.

24 A: Yes.

25 Q Where were they kept? Do you remember what side of the

1 work site or were they all over?

2 1 A Typically they would be kept on the west side. That
3 1not to say from time to time one wasn't left on the 4 lother side of the road, on the east side of 71.
5 1Typically they were all lined up at the west side at 6 1the end of the day.

7 1 Q Have the bulldozers ever been vandalized?

8 A: Yes.

9 Q Do you remember when that happened?

10 A: Fairly early in the project. It could have been
11 September, October of '88.

12 Q Now, who was your mechanic? You mentioned a mechanic,
13 what was his name?

14 A: One of our mechanic's names was Kenneth Alson.

15 Q Did he have a nickname?

16 A: We called him Arky.

17 Q When a bulldozer breaks down, what is the procedure you
18 all use to fix it?

19 A: That is kind of a broad question.

20 Q Well, do you just leave it sit? Do you tow it
21 someplace?

22 A: Okay, depending on what occurs. Sometimes we just 23 leave it sit because running it can cause quite a bit
24 more damage. You could have something minor that 25 breaks and moving it can really cause a lot more

1 damage. So in this instance we left it where it was 2 at.

3 Q Now did you go to that bulldozer yourself with Arky and
4 look at it?

5 A: At the time it first broke, no, I did not.

6 Q Did you eventually go and look at it?

7 MR. OSGOOD: I would like to clarify what
8 dozer we are talking about. I am assuming this is the 9 dozer that was on the site of the blast, on the east
10 side.

11 THE COURT: You will have an opportunity for 12 cross examination. Do you have an objection?

13 MR. OSGOOD: I am objecting to not
14 establishing a time basis on relevance grounds. If it
15 was at the time of the blast, it is relevant; if not,
16 I don't know what it has to do with this case.

17 THE COURT: Make sure the jury understands
18 what time you are talking about.

19 Q We are talking about the dozer you described in 20 September or October that broke down.

21 A: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Of '88.

23 THE WITNESS: Of '88.

24 Q Was that on the east or west side of 71 highway?

25 A: The west side of 71.

1 Q And we are back to where. Do you remember going to
2 that dozer yourself and looking at it?

3 A: At some point in time, yes, I did.

4 Q And do you remember what was found in the dozer that
5 made it break down.

6 A: Arky, our mechanic, thought somebody put some sand down
7 in the transmission of it, which caused it to break
8 down.

9 Q Now, were the police notified about this?

10 A: Yes, they were.

11 Q Why would you call the police on this?

12 A: Any time we thought something occurred in the way of 13 vandalizing our equipment we had to call the police for 14 insurance company purposes.

15 Q And then did you go ahead and contact the insurance
16 company?

17 A: Yes, we did.

18 Q Do you recall any problems with any woodcutters?

19 A: We had a certain amount of clearing we had to do and we 20 took the remains of the clearing and it was piled up on 21 the east side of 71. And people would come in and cut
22 wood out of this pile of trees. And we had one night
23 where one of the woodcutters wanted to build a fire. I
24 think he actually did build a fire. The guards called
25 my father and my father said we don't want any fires up

1 there, to tell him to put it out. From what I
2 understand there was some, you might say an argument
3 between the woodcutters and the guard. He put the fire
4 out and left the job from what I understand.

5 Q Can you recall about what time this was going on? By
6 that I mean in reference to the explosion.

7 A: As I remember, it was like a week, maybe two weeks,
8 before the explosion.

9 A: Shortly before the explosion.

10 Q Now, did you have many problems with theft there at the 11 work site before November the 29th of 1988?

12 A: We didn't really have a lot of things stolen. We 13 didn't have anything stolen I really know of. We had a
14 lot of activity. It seemed like the guards were 15 calling, someone is up at the site. They chased these 16 people off. It seems like there was a lot of activity
17 there but as far as stealing, most of my stuff were 18 bulldozers, it is hard to steal them.

19 Q Do you recall, were there any problems with the labor
20 unions over your work?

21 A: Not that I know of.

22 Q Was this what they call a union shop job?

23 A: Yes, it was.

24 Q Now, if there would be a problem with the labor union,
25 what normally was the first thing that would happen?

~

1 1 A I would get a phone call.

2 1 Q Did you ever get any phone calls from the labor unions
3 about what was going on there?

4 A: No.

5 Q Do you remember any problems with concrete deliveries
6 from non-union concrete companies?

7 A: Do I remember of them?

8 Q Any problems with concrete deliveries from non-union
9 concrete companies?

10 A: No, there were no problems.

11 Q Do you recall at this point of the construction how 12 much concrete was being used?

13 A: At the time of the explosion I am not sure if any had 14 ever been delivered yet. If it had it may be a load or 15 two to go around the ends of some pipe, but no major
16 amounts of concrete had been delivered at that point.

17 Q Like for footings and so forth.

18 A: Not so much for footings but when you lay pipe, at the 19- end of the-p-ipe-you-h-ave-to-put a certain amount of 20 concrete at the end of the pipe to hold the pipe in 21 place.

22 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
23 witness, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Were you on that section of the 25 job?

1 1l THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 1 THE COURT: Were you the contractor of the
3 1 job?

4 THE WITNESS: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Were you in charge of the job at 6 that site?

7 I THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

10 1 Q Mr. Brown, good morning. I am John O'Connor. I
11 1 represent Bryan Sheppard. I want to ask you a few
12 1 questions.

13 A Okay.

14 1 Q You have described both the east side and the west side
15 of this construction site, is that true?

16 A True.

17 Q And as I understand it and let's see if I can get this 18 right, you had the west side, Brown Brothers did, that 19 is where their equipment was kept.

20 A: That's correct.

21 Q That would have been on the other side of 71 highway.

22 A: Correct.

23 Q Do you mind coming down here to this exhibit. This
24 would have been a photograph taken on October 28, 1988,
25 approximately a month before the explosion, which shows

1 I believe your equipment here and this site here, would
2 you write west side and Brown Brothers in big letters,
3 as you want, in here where your equipment was.
4 A (Witness complies.)
5 1 Q Maybe draw an arrow here.
6 ~ A (Witness complies.)
7 Q Do you mind marking this as the east side.
8 A: (Witness complies.)
9 Q Would that have been Mountain Plains where they were 10 doing their work?
11 A: That's where they were doing their work.
12 Q Would you put Mountain Plains up here for me.
13 A: (Witness complies.)
14 Q I just want to have a reference while we are talking.
15 Now primarily it is my understanding that you dealt 16 with the west side, this was kind of where your 17 equipment was kept and where your stuff was.
18 A: For the most part, all of our equipment at the end of 19 the day was put on the west side of the road.
20 Q A minute ago when you were talking about bulldozers and 21 machinery and things like that, this is where it was 22 kept.
23 A: Yes.
24 Q The east side is where Mountain Plains had the trailers
25 and stuff, dynamite to blow up, to make the highway.

1 A: Correct.

2 Q Now, you mentioned something about a caterpillar. I
3 have a caterpillar and a bobcat, do you know what a
4 bobcat is?

5 A: Yes.

6 QDoes a thing called a uni-loader, could that be
7 mistaken for a bobcat?

8 A: Yes.

9 QDid you say no walkie-talkies were on the site or no
10 walkie-talkies were taken from the site as related to 11 Brown Brothers?

12 A: We don't own any walkie-talkies.

13 QAnd there were no concrete saws, to your knowledge, on 14 the site, on the west side.

15 A: If there were any concrete saws out there they should 16 have been taken with the men at the end of the day. It
17 is not to say they weren't left there. That wasn't
18 what was supposed to have occurred.

19 Q What we are interested in here, you were aware the 20 night of the explosion, I am assuming.

21 A: Yes.

22 Q Could you tell the jury for sure, with any certainty,
23 whether or not there were any concrete saws there that
24 night before the explosion.

25 A: I do not know.

1 THE COURT: Whose responsibility was the
2 concrete work?

3 THE WITNESS: Some of the concrete work was
4 being performed by J. M. Pagan Construction and some 5 was being performed by L. B. Enterprises. That's our 6 company.

7 Q A minute ago you mentioned your father. Is your father
8 like the president of the company and you work for your 9 father or what is that relationship as it relates to 10 Brown Brothers?

11 A: He was the president and I was the vice president.

12 Q Who would have been the person that would have been 13 dealing with the workers at the site on a daily basis?

14 A: Probably more so him than I.

15 Q And you said there were transits on the site.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Were there transits on the site the night before the
18 explosion?

19 A: That I do not know.

20 Q Who would have been using transits for Brown Brothers?

21 A: My foreman.

22 Q And do you know whether or not the transit work had 23 already been done related to the work you had done to 24 that point?

25 A: It's done throughout the job.

1 Q Was it ever reported to you or your company that a
2 transit was missing?

3 A: No.

4 Q How much are transits?

5 A: Five hundred dollars. You can spend $500.00 to maybe
6 $2,000.00.

7 Q If I understood you a minute ago, you said if things
8 were missing you would file some kind of report so you
9 could make an insurance claim.

10 A: That's correct.

11 Q As I understand it, nothing was ever missing.

12 A: As far as the transits, that's correct.

13 Q Was anything else ever missing from that site the day
14 after the explosion? Did you go to the site and 15 inventory and find out things were missing with the 16 west side?

17 A: Nothing was missing that I knew of.

18 Q And had anything been reported missing from the west
19 side up to a month, two months, three months before the 20 explosion, to your knowledge?

21 A: We had a problem on the west side where we thought
22 somebody was taking fuel and oil out of the equipment.

23 Q And at the time did you believe you knew who that 24 person was? Without saying who it was, do you believe 25 you think you knew who it was?

1 A: At the time I had no idea.

2 Q Did you hire guards or some security company to do some
3 surveillance to try to find out who, in fact, was doing
4 that?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Did you believe it was an inside job?

7 A: No, I didn't even really believe it was taking place
8 because it makes no sense.

9 Q Tell us about it.

10 A: Well, the equipment was running out of fuel and in the 11 morning we would have the habit, you always check your 12 fuel, oil and water before you start the piece of 13 equipment. Things that were supposedly completely full 14 that night, they weren't full that morning. And my 15 opinion, I had a fuel man that wasn't doing his job and 16 didn't want to be fired by saying I didn't fill it up.
17 And he was saying I filled it up so someone is coming
18 there at night taking fuel and oil out. Some of this
19 equipment holds 200 gallons. You have got to take 45
20 gallons out to show it has been down. You just don't 21 go out and do that.

22 Q Didn't you also have guards working out there for you?

23 A: At the time that we had the fuel problem, it seems like
24 that's what got us to hire the guards in the first
25 place. I can't be sure on that. It's a long time ago.

1 Q Back to these transits, at the end of the day what
2 would a person do that was responsibly doing their job
3 with the transit, would they leave it or would they put
4 it and lock it?

5 A: The foreman should have kept it in his pickup truck.
6 He could put it in the office trailer. He is not
7 supposed to.

8 Q But there were no break-ins at the office trailer where 9 a transit was stolen.

10 A: No, not that I know of.

11 Q No report from one of your foremen someone stole a
12 transit out of his truck.

13 A: Correct.

14 Q Now, the security guard, that company that you hired
15 was Ameriguard, is that correct?

16 A: That's correct.

17 Q Who was the individual for Ameriguard you hired? Was 18 there someone from the company that introduced 19 themselves to you that you hired?

20 A: Yes.

21 Q Who was that?

22 A: Robert Riggs.

23 Q And how many employees were you told worked for Mr.
24 Riggs at the time he hired your company?

25 A: I don't know if anyone ever asked him that question.

1 Q And how did you pay them for their services, did they
2 just send you a statement or bill and you paid them or 3 did they have to give you a detailed report with the 4 officer's name and times on them? How did you make
5 them show what they had done?

6 A: They gave us daily reports and they submitted a bill, I
7 don't know, every week or two weeks. I am not sure.

8 Q Did they ever tell you they were using false names on 9 those reports?

10 A: No, they did not.

11 Q Did you know Robert Riggs before that?

12 A: No, I did not.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Before what date?

14 Q Before the day you hired him. Did you know Debbie
15 Riggs?

16 A: No, I did not.

17 Q Now, Brown Brothers, as I understand it, was dealing 18 with a concrete company for concrete, is that correct?

19 A: No, not really.

20 Q Was the concrete that was going to be used or was used
21 on that site, you tell me which was it going to be,
22 non-union concrete?

23 A: Not on purpose if it was.

24 Q T understand. But was non-union concrete being used on
25 that site?

1 ~ A I don't know if there was or not.

2 1 Q Did you have a relationship with the company that

3 Clarkson owned called Southern Industries or something

4 I like that?

5 1 A I have no relationship with them, no.

6 ~ Q I believe you said on direct examination, you tell me

7 what you said so I understand. You were asked a

8 question about labor unrest, is that correct?

9 A: Correct.

10 Q Was there any picketing at the site?

11 A: No.

12 Q Was there any labor unrest about the use of non-union

13 concrete to your knowledge?

14 A: Not to my knowledge.

15 Q Now, was brown sugar ever put into any of the concrete,

16 to your knowledge?

17 A: Not that I know of.

18 Q Did you ever give brown sugar to any ATF agent to have 19 checked?

20 A: No, I did not.

21 Q Now, they asked you something about batteries I think

22 on direct examination. Were any batteries stolen from

23 any of your equipment?

24 A: Not that I remember.

25 Q That is anyone ever showed you a battery? The

1 government showed you a battery they claim may have
2 come from that site?

3 A: Yes.

4 Q When was that?

5 A: A couple, two or three weeks ago.

6 Q When was the first time they talked to you in this
7 case?

8 A: Right after the explosion.

9 Q You never told them about any batteries even being 10 missing.

11 A: Correct.

12 Q They showed you some batteries three weeks ago.

13 A: Correct.

14 Q What did they say about that battery?

15 A: They wanted me to look at it to see if it looked 16 familiar.

17 Q What did you say?

18 A: It didn't look familiar.

19 Q Did they tell you where it came from?

20 MR. MILLER: Objection. Hearsay.

21 THE COURT: That is sustained. I don't see
22 there is any exception there.

23 Q Have they showed you anything else?

24 A: We looked at some pictures.

25 Q I am talking about anything like a battery or piece of

1 equipment or something.

2 A: No.

3 Q Was any bulldozer ever missing from your site?

4 A: No.

5 MR. O'CONNOR: That is all I have. Thanks.

6 MR. PETERS: May it please the Court.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. PETERS:

10 Q Mr. Brown, my name is Pat Peters and I represent Frank
11 Sheppard. I want to ask you some more questions about 12 Ameriguard. At the time that you first were contacted
13 by Robert Riggs, what was the agreement as to what 14 services he was supposed to be providing?

15 MR. MILLER: I object as repetitious and not 16 within the scope of direct examination.

17 THE COURT: I don't remember him going into
18 Ameriguard on direct examination.

19 MR. PETERS: We will recall the witness. I
20 have no questions.

21 THE COURT: Any other Cross?

22 MR. OSGOOD: I have a question, Your Honor.

23 CROSS EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. OSGOOD:

25 Q Mr. Brown, I represent Mr. Brown. You are not related.

1 A: Not that I know of.

2 Q I am John Osgood, by the way. The bulldozers that were
3 sabotaged, you mentioned sand I think in one of them.

4 A: Correct.

5 Q Did you also find metal shavings in them?

6 A: I don't remember.

7 Q You don't remember telling Detective Zinn that back in 8 '88.

9 A: No.

10 Q One of the dozers had metal shavings in it.

11 A: I don't remember. It could. I don't remember seeing 12 that now.

13 Q Did you tell Detective Zinn the kind of problems you
14 were experiencing with these dozers appeared to be the 15 kind of problem that would be within the knowledge or 16 expertise of a particular kind of employee or type of 17 employee that was assigned to the job, they would have 18 that expertise?

19 A: I believe I did.

20 Q And did you have the capability, for example, a lot of 21 cutting and grinding going on and the mechanics would 22 have metal shavings available to them on the site
23 during the day.

24 A: No, not on the job site I wouldn't expect to see metal
25 shavings.

- 1 Q Any lathes there?
- 2 A: No.
- 3 Q You have saws there though.
- 4 A: The mechanics could have some type of saw for metal.
- 5 Q What about the rebar that goes into concrete, would
- 6 that be cut on occasion?
- 7 A: Yes, that would have been by some other subcontractor.
- 8 Q But there would be metal shavings.
- 9 A: Not from that, there are no metal shavings.
- 10 Q To make a long story short, you pretty much in your own
- 11 mind believed that it was somebody on the job site that
- 12 was messing around with your bulldozer one way or
- 13 another, and that gave you some concern as the
- 14 contractor.
- 15 A: Yes.
- 16 Q And one last question. When you would come to work in
- 17 the daytime, we have talked about the woodcutter fire
- 18 and I assume there would be some evidence they built a
- 19 fire there such as old firewood, whatnot.
- 20 A: I believe they had a fire. This is going back a long
- 21 way. I think they had a fire in the 55 gallon drum.
- 22 Q You had some of those drums around there.
- 23 A: Yes.
- 24 Q Was there other evidence you would see on a daily basis
- 25 where people were coming and going on the site at night

1 or was it pretty much pristine as far as you were
2 concerned?

3 A: I never bothered to look.

4 Q You didn't have a problem.

5 A: People coming and going didn't present a problem to me.

6 Q How long were you in the construction business, sir?

7 A: I have been in it full time since '85.

8 Q Have you had projects where you, for whatever reason,
9 felt it was necessary to put a chain-link fence or 10 other barriers around the site?

11 MR. MILLER: I object to that as not
12 relevant.

13 MR. OSGOOD: I think it goes to his state of 14 mind, the problems they were having at the site -

15 THE COURT: I don't think the problems at the 16 site have entered in his mind at all. I will sustain
17 the objection.

18 Q Was there a fence around this site?

19 A No.

20 Q Did you have the capability to fence it if you wanted
21 to?

22 A Yes.

23 MR. OSGOOD: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Any other Cross?

25 MR. PETERS: No.

1 THE COURT: Any Redirect?

2

3 MR. MILLER: No Redirect, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right, you may step down.

5 Call your next witness.

6 NORMAN COLLINS,

7 having been sworn, testified:

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. MILLER:

10 Q Would you tell the court and jury your name, please.

11 A: Norman Collins.

12 Q How old are you, sir?

13 A: I am 62.

14 Q What is your occupation?

15 A: I am a civil engineer for a construction company.

16 Q I want to go back to November of 1988, how were you
17 employed?

18 A: At that time I was president of Mountain Plains
19 Construction Company.

20 Q Would you tell the jury what Mountain Plains
21 Construction Company did back in November of 1988.

22 A: We were doing a lot of utility work but one of our
23 projects was to drill and shoot the rock on the 71
2 4 highway project.

25 Q When you say drill and shoot the rock, what do you

1 mean?

2 A: We were to drill it and use explosives to blow it up to
3 where the dirt contractor could load it and haul it
4 away.

5 Q Who was the dirt contractor?

6 A: Brown Brothers Construction Company.

7 Q What was your business relationship with Brown
8 Brothers?

9 A: We were a subcontractor to him.

10 Q Did you have any problems with theft there at the site?

11 A: Yes, we had a couple attempted break-ins.

12 Q Did you employ any security agents?

13 THE COURT: Counsel, I think we need to 14 establish a time frame. He said he had a couple of 15 attempted break-ins. I don't know what that means in 16 terms of time.

17 Q In relationship to the explosion of November the 29th,
18 1988 when these break-ins occurred.

19 A: They occurred in the previous month to six weeks. It
20 could have been a couple months prior to the explosion
21 and then one two or three weeks later.

22 Q How often were you on the job site?

23 A: Oh, I was there most every day for a short period of
24 time.

25 Q Who from your company was on the job site basically

1 eight hours a day?

2 A: Mike McReynolds was the blasting superintendent. He
3 was there on the job all the time.

4 Q Where was your company, Mountain Plains, incorporated
5 back in November of 1988?

6 A: In Texas.

7 Q Were you licensed to do business in both Kansas and
8 Missouri?

9 A: Yes, sir.

10 Q In November of 1988 was the equipment you used brought 11 in from any other states?

12 A: Yes, most of the equipment was stored in Kansas and we
13 brought it to the job in Missouri.

14 Q How was the project for the highway there funded?

15 A: It was with state and federal funds, I believe.

16 Q Do you recall any problems with any woodcutters there
17 at the construction site?

18 A: Yes, at one time I was called and went up there and the 19 woodcutters were cutting wood and they had built a fire
20 and it was in the general vicinity of where we had 21 explosives stored. So I told them they could not have 22 the fire and asked Brown Brothers if they could make 23 arrangements not to allow them to cut up there any 24 more, cut the wood.

25 Q Now, was this work on Mountain Plains, was this a union

1 shop?

2 1 A Yes, sir.

3 1 Q Was there any kind of labor problems at the time?

4 1 A No, sir.

5 1 Q Any kind of picketing you were aware of?

6 1 A No, sir.

7 Q And the time frame I am talking about is prior to the 8 explosion on November 29, 1988.

9 A: Yes, sir.

10 Q Do you have any knowledge of any non-union concrete
11 being delivered?

12 A: It was my understanding that there was some concrete
13 delivered to Brown Brothers from a non-union source.
14 We had not purchased any but I understood some was 15 delivered.

16 Q Do you have any idea as to how much?

17 A: No, sir, I do not.

18 Q I want to show you one more thing. This is 19 Government's Exhibit 119. I believe it is in by the 20 stipulation. Could you tell us what this is.

21 A: I believe that is an explosive permit that was in one
22 of the magazines that had been purchased from a
23 contractor in Colorado and I think it had been left
24 over when they had been using it in Colorado. It was a
25 magazine that had been inspected and met ATF

~
1 regulations.

2 Q Then I do want to cover this with you. As a result of
3 what happened and your involvement with Mountain
4 Plains, was any criminal action brought against you?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q Would you tell us what happened. Let me stop you.
7 What were you convicted of?

8 A: Of, number one, having purchased this magazine and not
9 notifying ATF, the trailers were located too close to 10 71 highway and one of the magazines that had powder
11 stored was too close to 87th Street.

12 Q When you say magazines are you talking about those 13 yellow boxes.

14 A: Yes, sir.

15 Q What was your sentence?

16 A: A year's probation.

17 MR. MILLER: That is all I have of this
18 witness, Judge.

19 CROSS EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. O'CONNOR:

21 Q Mr. Collins, I am John O'Connor. I represent Bryan
22 Sheppard. You were just talking about this prosecution
23 that was done. What did you have in that magazine that 24 caused you to get prosecuted?

25 A: There was dynamite in it and it was too close to 87th

1 Street.

2 Q You talked earlier about two break-ins that had
3 previously occurred at the site, is that true?

4 A: Yes.

5 Q Is that something you dealt with or that James
6 McReynolds dealt with?

7 A: I dealt with one of them because I was called at night.
8 And the next one, we noticed it the next morning and he
9 handled it.

10 Q Let's talk about the one you handled, do you remember
11 that particular one?

12 A: I was called.

13 Q Let's get a time frame, please.

14 A: It was approximately two weeks prior to the explosion.
15 I received a call that someone had been around the 16 trailers and unlocked the lock but we could not 17 determine -- it was unlocked but it was laying on the 18 ground and we could not determine anything had been 19 taken.

20 Q The only thing in the trailers, as I understand it,
21 would have been this ANFO.

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q Had the doors even been opened, to your knowledge?

24 A: It appeared the doors had been opened but nothing had 25 been taken out of it.

~ 1

1 Q If you looked into the trailer with the doors open it
2 would be these big -- they had one the other day, it
3 looks like sausage or a tubular thing. ;

4 A: Yes, there were two different materials in it. One was
5 a forty pound sack and the other would have been in a
6 fifty pound sack, very similar like a concrete sack.

7 Q And the lock had not been tampered with or pried or 8 jimmied or anything like that.

9 A: It appeared it had been opened with a key.

10 Q Did you have a belief about how it got open with a key?

11 A: No, we just assumed someone had a key so we changed all
12 the locks on the trailer.

13 Q And then the second one you are telling me Mr.
14 McReynolds would probably have better firsthand
15 information about.

16 A: Yes.

17 Q Nothing was missing from the trailers when that one
18 lock you were involved with was found.

19 A: To my knowledge, there was nothing missing in either
20 one of the instances.

21 Q Thank you. Now James McReynolds worked for you.

22 A: Yes, sir.

23 Q And there was a pickup truck on the site, who did it
24 belong to?

25 A: It belonged to Mountain Plains Construction Company.

~ 1

1 Q When I say "on the site" we are talking about the east
2 side of the highway.

3 A: Yes, sir, it was parked near where the trailers were.

4 Q Were keys left in it just because it was used on the
5 site or would that truck have been locked and secured,
6 to your knowledge, if you know?

7 A: I could only assume it was locked. We routinely don't
8 leave things unlocked.

9 Q Did you make any reports of any batteries missing from 10 any equipment that you had on the east side?

11 A: No, sir, I don't believe so.

12 Q Has anyone ever showed you any batteries?

13 A: When I received my subpoena, the person that served the 14 subpoena had a battery and asked if I recognized it and 15 I said no.

16 Q When did you get served with your subpoena?

17 A: In early December.

18 Q Of '96.

19 A: Yes.

20 Q And you had never reported any batteries having been
21 taken.

22 A: No, sir, not to my knowledge.

23 Q And they were showing you a battery.

24 A: Yes, sir.

25 Q And did you recognize the battery?

1 A: No, sir, I did not recognize it.

2 MR. O'CONNOR: That is all I have. Thanks.

3 THE COURT: Any other Cross? Any Redirect?

4 MR. MILLER: No Redirect.

5 THE COURT: All right, thank you. You are
6 excused.

7 MR. MILLER: Your Honor, the government calls
8 James McReynolds.

9 JAMES MICHAEL MCREYNOLDS.

10 having been sworn, testified:

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. MILLER:

13 Q Would you tell the court and the jury your name,
14 please.

15 A: James Michael McReynolds.

16 Q How old are you, sir?

17 A: Forty-two.

18 Q I want to go back to November 28th and 29th of '88, how 19 were you employed?

20 A: I was employed by Mountain Plains Construction.

21 Q What were your duties?

22 A: I was job foreman at the 71 highway project.

23 Q And how many people did you have working under you?

24 A: Probably seven or eight people.

25 Q And what were your duties there with Mountain Plains,

1 ~ what were you there to do?

2 A: We were doing blasting, subcontracting blasting work
3 there at the site. My duty was to keep up with the 4 day-to-day things, supervising, loading the holes,
5 figuring the loads, keeping track of the inventory,
6 this type of thing.

7 Q Would you tell the jury your background for knowing how
8 to do blasting.

9 A: I got into blasting directly out of high school. My 10 dad had his own company and started into blasting. And 11 I have just kind of been in it ever since.

12 Q Do you have any college education on blasting?

13 A: No, it has all been field experience.

14 Q You do a lot of work with ANFO.

15 A: Yes.

16 Q What does that stand for?

17 A: Ammonium nitrate fuel oil mix.

18 Q How was it stored?

19 A: The ANFO was stored in trailers.

20 Q Do you know how many?

21 A: How many?

22 Q Trailers.

23 A: Trailers, two trailers.

24 Q Mr. McReynolds, I am showing you Government's Exhibit
25 No. 11, what are these?

1 A: Those appear to be two of the trailers we had on site.

2 Q And do you recall ANFO was in each trailer?

3 A: At the time of the blast?

4 Q Yes. On November 28th when you left the job site how
5 much ANFO was stored in each trailer?

6 A: I believe there was 30,000 in one and about 25 in the 7 other.

8 THE COURT: Pounds?

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 Q And do you remember which trailer had the 30,000 and 11 which trailer had the 20,000 pounds?

12 THE COURT: Twenty or twenty-five?

13 THE WITNESS: Twenty-five.

14 A: Not off the top of my head, I don't remember.

15 Q Was the ANFO stored a little differently in one trailer
16 as opposed to the other?

17 A: Yes, one trailer had different sizes of socks in them
18 so there was two different piles, or stock piles you
19 might say, in one of the trailers. The other one had 20 all one size. In fact, I think it was brought in the 21 day before so it was in one big pile.

22 Q Can you give us an idea in feet the difference between 23 the piles in that one trailer?

24 A: Oh, somewhere between eight and ten feet probably.

25 Q And then they were stacked. Tell the jury how they

1 were stacked.

2 A: They were laying on the floor. The socks are
3 approximately three feet long. It resembles a sock
4 like they use for traction. That is what it resembles.
5 And they were just stacked on top of each other.

6 Q Do you know about how high?

7 A: Probably three, three and a half feet high, tops.

8 Q So it hit you about waist-high.

9 A: Yeah.

10 Q Had you ever worked with that much ANFO before at a job
11 site?

12 A: Not at one time, no.

13 Q How were the trailers secured at night?

14 A: They had padlocks on all three of the doors.

15 Q Who had the keys?

16 A: I did.

17 Q How many sets?

18 A: Two.

19 Q And who checked them of an evening?

20 A: I did.

21 Q Did you do so the evening of November 28th, 1988?

22 A: Yes, I did.

23 Q Was any gasoline kept in the trailers?

24 A: No.

25 Q Was anything flammable kept in the trailers other than

1 the explosive?

2 A: No.

3 Q Was there anything with an electrical current going

4 into the trailer?

5 A: No.

6 Q Coming out of the trailer.

7 A: No.

8 Q Any tools or equipment kept in the trailers?

9 A: I had a drill bit that was in there and I believe some 10 equipment filters were in there, also.

11 Q You say drill bits, tell the jury what kind of drill

12 bit?

13 A: We were using a rotary drill out there which is like

14 the oil people use. It was a big seven, seven-

15 eighths

16 drill bit and probably twelve inches long.

17 Q Not like our little Black and Deckers.

18 A: No, not hardly.

19 Q Had the trailers ever been broken into?

20 A: Yes, they had.

21 Q Can you give us a time frame? What I am talking about

22 is before the explosion, when had one of the trailers

23 been broken into?

24 A: There was twice I can remember. Once the doors were

25 open when we came in. That was approximately about a month, I believe, before the explosion.

- 1 Q Did you find the lock to that trailer?
- 2 A: At that time?
- 3 Q Yes. A: Yes.
- 4 Q What did the lock look like?
- 5 A: It was still intact. Somebody had a key to it.
- 6 Q Had anything been taken out of the trailer?
- 7 A: No.
- 8 Q What preventive measure did you take after that?
- 9 A: I changed the locks at that point and we brought in 10 security guards.
- 11 Q Was there another time that you found anything that 12 showed an attempted break-in?
- 13 A: Just before that, probably a couple weeks before that,
14 we found a hack saw and a crow bar laying beside one of 15 the trailers.
- 16 Q I want to show you Government's Exhibit No. 110. Can 17 you tell the jury what this is?
- 18 A: That is one of our dynamite bunkers. We call it a 19 magazine.
- 20 Q Now, were the trailers also called magazines?
- 21 A: Yes, they were.
- 22 Q Do you recall who was inside this bunker?
- 23 For the record, I am referring to
24 Government's Exhibit 110.
- 25 A: It is hard to tell exactly where it's at on site. It

1 could have been either the caps or the dynamite.

2 Q I am showing you what has been marked as Government's

3 Exhibit 111. Does this show what is inside one of the 4 bunkers?

5 A: Yes.

6 Q What is that?

7 A: Those are caps.

8 Q When you say "caps", all these boxes are caps.

9 A: Yes, they're filled with caps, yes.

10 Q When you say "caps", you mean blasting caps.

11 A: Correct.

12 Q How many of these boxes did you have out there?

13 A: We had two of the big magazines like that.

14 Q I am showing you Government's Exhibit No. 117 and is 15 this inside the other box, the other magazine?

16 A: It looks like it. It is kind of dark on the inside.

17 It is hard to tell. That's the inside on the other

18 magazine.

19 Q What was stored inside the magazine?

20 A: Our dynamite and our boosters.

21 Q Could you tell us what you mean by a "booster"?

22 A: We were using boosters out there to detonate the ANFO

23 with. They're one pound -- I can't remember the exact

24 name for them but the initials are P-e-t-n is what it

25 is made out of and you put the caps inside of them to

1 make a primer to detonate the ANFO with.

2 Q I am referring now to Government's Exhibit 118. And
3 what is that on the floor that I have zoomed in on?

4 A: Those are two walkie-talkies.

5 Q Did you all utilize walkie-talkies in your work?

6 A: Yes, we did.

7 Q Do you know how many you had?

8 A: I had three walkie-talkies.

9 Q How many can you see inside this?

10 A: I see two in this particular picture but one of our 11 laborers usually took his home in the truck with him.

12 Q And what did you utilize these for?

13 A: To be able to talk back and forth shutting down the 14 traffic on 71 highway when we got ready to set off the 15 shot.

16 Q Did you ever worry about the walkie-talkies setting off
17 the shot?

18 A: No, that's why the particular caps we are using are 19 non-electric and you didn't have to worry about the 20 radio waves and that kind of thing setting off these 21 caps.

22 Q It is not like in the James Bond movies they hit a
23 transmitter and there is an explosion.

24 A: That's correct.

25 Q Government's Exhibit No. 120, what is this?

1 A: It is a cardboard box.

2 Q And was anything that was in this cardboard box used at

3 the work site?

4 A: Yeah, that's what the dynamite came in.

5 Q That is how it looked inside the yellow magazine.

6 A: Yes.

7 Q By dynamite you mean sticks of dynamite.

8 A: Yes.

9 Q What were the size of those sticks?

10 A: I believe we had an inch and a quarter by eight, two

11 by-eight and some seven-eighths by twenty-four sticks.

12 Q I am going to show you Government's Exhibit 123, can

13 you tell us what that is.

14 A: Yes, that is what the bulk ANFO came in.

15 Q Were these bags in either one of the trailers?

16 A: Yes.

17 Q In both.

18 A: Probably one of the trailers. I didn't use a lot of 19 bulk ends. There was too much water.

20 Q I neglected to bring it with me but when you say

21 "sock", we are talking about like you said --

22 A: Like for traction, right.

23 Q And that was in one of the trailers or in both of the

24 trailers?

25 A: The socks?

1 Q The socks.

2 A: The socks were in both of the trailers.

3 Q Did the first explosion wake you?

4 A: Yes, it did.

5 Q How far away were you from the work site?

6 A: Oh, probably a mile as the crow flies.

7 Q And what did you do after hearing the first explosion?

8 A: It woke me straight out of bed, just like it did most

9 everybody else. And that was about the time gas

10 explosions were going on. So I got up to see which one

11 of my neighbors lost his house. I didn't see anything.

12 I only knew three places that had that many explosives
13 around.

14 Q Then what did you do?

15 A: I got dressed and headed for the job site.

16 Q Who did you meet there?

17 A: I can't remember the battalion chief's name but I met
18 with a fire chief down there.

19 Q When you got there, how many of the trailers containing 20 the ANFO were left?

21 A: Well, actually you couldn't see any of the trailers
22 left. One was apparently totally gone and the other
23 one was on fire.

24 Q What did you and the battalion chief do at that point?

25 A: I met him halfway up the hill headed up toward where

1 the second trailer was burning and told him what all
